MOREOVER Hannah prayed, and said: Through the Lord my Heart triumphs, my Horn is lifted up by the Lord: my Mouth is enlarged against my Enemies, because I am glad in thy Salvation.

2. None is holy like the Lord, for there is none besides thee; and no Rock like our God.

3. Do not talk very loftily so much, or let hard Things come out of your Mouth: for the Lord is a God of Knowledge, and such Doings are not right.

4. The Bows of the powerful are broke, and those who were fallen are girded with Strength.

5. The full are hired for Bread, and the hungry cease; even the barren bears seven, and she who has many Sons languishes.

6. The Lord causes to die, and makes alive: he brings down to the Grave, and brings up.

7. The Lord makes poor, and makes rich: he puts down, he also sets up.

8. He raises up the Poor from the Dust, from the Dunghill he lifts up the Needy, to make them sit with Princes, and cause them to possess the Throne of Glory: for the Stations of the Earth are the Lord's, and he put the World upon them.

9. He will keep the Feet of his pious ones, but the Wicked shall be silent in Darkness: for unavailing is the Strength of Man.

10. Those who contend with the Lord shall be broke in pieces, in Heaven will he thunder upon them, the Lord will judge the Limits of the Earth; as also give Strength to his King, and lift up the Horn of his anointed one.

11. Afterwards Elkanah went to his House at Ramah, and the Boy ministred to the Lord before Eli the Priest.

12. But the Sons of Eli were ungodly Persons, they knew not the Lord.

13. And it was the Manner of the Priests with the People; when any Man offered a Sacrifice, the Priest's Servant came, as the Flesh was boiling, with a Fork of three Teeth in his Hand:

14. Which he striking either into the Pan, Kettle, Cauldron or Pot; all that the Fork brought up, the Priest took of it: according to this they did at Shiloh, to all Israel who came thither.

15. As also before they burnt the Fat, the Priest's Servant came, and said to the Man who sacrificed, Give the Priest Flesh to roast: for he will not take boiled Flesh of thee, but raw.

Ver. 3. such Doings are not right] Those which she had just dissuaded from. Mont. non directa sunt opera, the Works are not right; Jun. and Trem. non disponuntur actiones, the Deeds are not put in order. This Verb in Niphal, signifying to be right or equal, is in Ezek. xviii. 25, 29. & xxxiii. 17. To him, not by him, instead of not, by the Change of a Letter, but of the same Sound, is a marginal Reading. The Sept. having God for not, the Author of the present State of the Hebrew Text says it was read הן by them, p. 141. for which there is no Necessity, since הן to him might be translated God from הן before. He adds, and so in Job xiii. 15. whereas they have not God there.

Ver. 5. cease] to be hungry.

Ver. 7. he puts down] It is said that Æsop asking Chilo what God was doing? received for Answer, Τὰ μὲν ἐλάττω τὰ ὑψαίνει, τα δὲ τὰ ὑψαίνει ἐλάττω, Humbling the lofty, and exalting the humble, Diog. Laertius in Vit. Chilo. according to that also in the Pœm of the Virgin-mother, Luke i. 52.

Ib. Stations] The Bounds of its Orbit.

Ver. 10. thunder] which was literally fulfilled with her Son, Chap. vii. 10.

Ib. King] whom her Son should anoint, though there was now no Likelihood of a King over Israel.

Ib. anointed one] first Saul, whose Royalty was transferred to David by Samuel.

Ver. 13. Flesh] which belonged to him who brought the Beast, after the Priests had taken their Part, being the Breast and right Shoulder, Lev. vii. 31, 32, 34. see Deut. xii. 7. & xxvii. 7. Chap. ix. 13.

Ver. 14. of it] Trem. and Jun. ex eo, of it; Mont. illud, that; Coverdale says, that take the Priest thereof.

Ver. 15. raw] having the Fat on it, which should have been burnt, Lev. vii. 23, 25, 31. & iii. 16, 17. so that the Crime of Eli's Sons was double, besides what follows, Ver. 22.

16. To whom the Man saying, They will burn the Fat quite up presently, then take thee according as thy Mind desires; he would reply to him, But thou shalt give now, and if not, I will take by Force.

17. Thus the Sin of the young Men was very great before the Lord; for Men contemned the Lord's Offering.

18. However Samuel ministred before the Lord, a Boy girded with a linen Ephod.

19. Whose Mother made him a little Cloak, and brought up to him from Year to Year, when she came up with her Husband to offer the yearly Sacrifice.

20. Eli too thus blessed Elkanah and his Wife, The Lord make thee have Offspring from this Woman, instead of the Petition which the Lord was asked for. So they went to his own Place.

21. When the Lord visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bore three Sons and two Daughters; while the Boy Samuel grew up with the Lord.

22. Now Eli was very old; and heard all that his Sons did to all Israel, and how they lay with the Women who assembled at the Door of the publick Tent.

23. With that he said to them; Why do you such Things as these, whereby I hear the evil Things of you from all these People?

24. Let it not be, my Sons: for it is not a good Report which I hear; you make the People of the Lord transgress.

25. If one Man sins against another, the Judge will judge him; but if a Man sins against the Lord, who shall pray for him? Nevertheless they would not hearken to what their Father said, though the Lord should slay them.

26. But the Boy Samuel went on in being great and good, both with the Lord, and likewise with Men.

27. There came also a Man of God to Eli, and declared to him: Thus says the Lord; Was I at all revealed to thy Father's Family, when they were in Egypt at the House of Pharaoh?

28. And did I choose him out of all the Tribes of Israel for a Priest to me, to offer up on my Altar, to burn Incense, to have on an Ephod before me, giving them all the Sacrifices of the Israelites by Fire?

29. Why then do you kick at my Sacrifice and Offering, which I commanded for my Habitation; and dost thou honour thy Sons above me, by making your selves fat with the chief of all the Offerings of Israel my People?

30. Therefore says the Lord God of Israel, I fully said thy Family and that of thy Father might walk before me for ever; but now the Lord says, Far be it from me, for them who honour me I will honour, and those that despise me shall be contemned.

31. Lo the Days are coming when I will cut off thy Arm, and the Arms of thy Father's Family, so that there shall not be an old Man in thy House.

32. Nay thou shalt behold Distress for my Habitation, in all that it does well to Israel; and there shall not be an old Man in thy House continually.

33. Besides each of thine, whom I shall not cut off from my Altar, shall be to con-

Ver. 20. instead of] as for may signify because of, which is not the Meaning.

Ib. the Petition which the Lord was asked for] So Montanus, petitione quam petivit; the Tigurin Bible, ista petitione quam postulavit; and Munst. has it, petitione quam postulavit uterque, the Petition which each asked; as likewise in the Gen. Vers. it is, the Petition that she asked; and the like in the present Margin: the Targum also keeps to the Hebrew. But the vulgar erroneous Latin is, scire quod commodasti Domino, the Loan which thou hast lent to the Lord.

Ver. 25. though the Lord] Buxtorf in his Lexicon puts it therefore, as Patrick also says it may be rendered, and of which Naldius in his Hebrew Concordance gives divers Instances; however the Heb. Particle certainly signifies though, as the same Naldius largely shews, with the various Lexicons, Translations, Commentaries, &c. by which therefore I was willing to abide.

Ib. should slay them] which Threatening they did not regard, so as to amend their Lives.

Ver. 27. at all] See on 1 Kings ix. 6. And besides Questions for Information, and the common ones for Affirmation of the contrary, there is a third Sort in Scripture where [not] may be understood according to our Use of Interrogations, and on the other hand be omitted where it is. This may be seen particularly in Naldius's Hebrew Particles, and all the following Verse, though not the 29th, is of this Kind; so here Did I not at all appear, may shew they had not Ignorance for Excuse, or could pretend they knew Nothing of the Divine Appointment.

Ver. 28. have on] The Hebrew being bear, instead of wear.

Ver. 30. thy Family] that Branch, or Part, of Aaron's Family which Eli belonged to.

Ib. might] which the Hebrew is as expressive of as should, and more suits the Context, in my Opinion.

Ver. 31. Arm] The late Author of Critical Notes on some Passages of Scripture, p. 20. is so bold as to put the present Reading of the Hebrew to be Seed; when it only might be so, were it not for the Pointed Vowels.

Ver. 32. Distress] which seems rather meant than enemy, the Hebrew Word signifying each; so Jun. and Trem. angustiam: for Eli did not see the Enemy, who either took the Ark, or the Priesthood from his Family, much less saw him in the former. The Chald. Paraphrast expatiates on it thus, And thou shalt be deprived, and look at the many Distress (from the Chald. pay to straighten) which I will bring upon the Persons of thy House, for the Iniquities that you have committed heretofore in the House of my Sanctuary, and after that I will bring Good upon Israel.

Ib. that it does] this being the Extent of its Benefit, for God did so further to other People.

Ib. does well] not give.

sume thy Eyes, and grieve thy Soul; and all the Increase of thy Family shall die in their Prime.

34. And this shall be a Sign to thee, which shall come on thy two Sons, Hophni and Phinehas; they shall both of them die in one Day.

35. I will further raise me up a faithful Priest, that shall do as it is in my Heart and Soul; for whom I will build a sure House, and he shall walk before my anointed one at all Times.

36. So every one who is left in thy House, shall come to bow down to him for a Piece of Money, and a Morsel of Bread, saying, I beg thou wouldest admit me into one of the Priest's Offices, that I may eat a Bit of Bread.

C H A P. III.

NOW the Boy Samuel ministred to the Lord before Eli; and the Word of the Lord was precious at that Time, no Vision coming forth.

2. In which Time Eli lying down in his Place, whose Eyes began to be dim, he being unable to see;

3. Before the Lamp of God went out, in the Temple of the Lord, where the Ark of God was, Samuel also lay down.

4. And the Lord called to him; who answered, Here am I.

5. Whereupon he ran to Eli, and said, Here am I, since thou calledst me. But he said, I did not call, go back, lie down. Accordingly he went, and lay down.

6. Then the Lord called yet again, Samuel. And he getting up, went to Eli, and said, Here am I, since thou didst call me. But he answered, I did not call, my Son, return, lie down.

7. This was before Samuel knew the Lord, and before his Word was revealed to him.

8. Moreover the Lord called Samuel again the third time; at which he rose up, and going to Eli, said, Here am I, for thou didst call me. Then Eli understood that the Lord had called the Boy.

9. Therefore he said to Samuel; Go, lie down; and if he calls thee, thou shalt say, Speak, O Lord, for thy Servant hears. So Samuel went, and lay down in his Place.

10. And the Lord came, and standing, called as at the other Times, Samuel, Samuel. Upon this he said, Speak, for thy Servant hears.

11. The Lord then said to him; Behold I will do a Thing in Israel, at which both the Ears of every one who hears it shall tingle.

12. On that Day will I confirm to Eli all which I have spoken concerning his Family, beginning and finishing.

13. For I have told him, that I will judge his Family for ever, for the Iniquity which he knows; because his Sons made themselves vile, and he did not restrain them.

14. And therefore I swear concerning the Family of Eli, that the Iniquity of it shall neither be purged by Sacrifice nor Offering for ever.

15. After which Samuel lay till the Morning, and opened the Doors of the Lord's House: for he was afraid of telling Eli the Vision.

16. But he called him, and said, Samuel my Son. Who answered, Here am I.

17. And he replied, What is the Matter which he spoke to thee? Do not conceal it from me, I pray; by God's doing to thee so, and so besides, if thou concealest any Thing at all of it.

18. Accordingly Samuel told him all the Things, concealing nothing from him; who said, It is the Lord, let him do what he pleases.

19. And as Samuel grew up, the Lord was with him, and did let none of all his Words fall to the Ground.

20. Nay all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew, that Samuel was confirmed to be a Prophet of the Lord.

21. The Lord likewise appeared again at Shiloh: for it was there that he had been revealed to Samuel by his Word.

Ver. 35. Priest] Zadok, 1 Kings ii. 27, 35. who was of the Line of Eleazar, Aaron's Son, 1 Chron. vi. 3, 4, 8. as Abiathar and Eli came from Ithamar, Chap. xiv. 3. & xxii. 20. 1 Chron. xxiv. 3.

Ver. 13. have told] Chap. ii. 30, 31, 32, 33.

Ver. 14. I swear] which is more likely (the Hebrew being the same for either) than that he should tell Samuel what he had done; nay we may find he did not do it before by Ver. 1. so Jun. and Trem. have jura.

1b. concerning] as Ver. 12. and as it was not spoken to the Family.

Ver. 15. opened the Doors] went about his usual Business, and delayed telling Eli what he heard.

C H A P. IV.

THE Word of Samuel also was to all Israel; and they went out to meet the Philistines in Battle, and encamped by the Stone of Help, as the Philistines did at Aphek.

2. Who set themselves in Order to meet Israel, and extending the Battle, Israel was defeated before them; and they killed of the Army in the Field about four thousand Men.

3. Whereupon the People went into the Camp, and the Elders of Israel said, Why has the Lord defeated us to Day before the Philistines? Let us fetch to us the Ark of the Lord's Covenant from Shiloh, that coming amongst us, it may save us from the Power of our Enemies.

4. Accordingly the People sent to Shiloh, that they should bring up from thence the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord of Armies who inhabits the Cherubs; and the two Sons of Eli were there with the Ark of God's Covenant, Hophni and Phinehas.

5. And upon its coming into the Camp, all Israel shouted with such a great Shout, that the Earth echoed.

6. When the Philistines hearing the Noise of the Shout, asked, Why is the Noise of this great Shouting in the Camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the Ark of the Lord was come thither.

7. At this they were afraid: for they said, God is come into the Camp. Adding; Wo is unto us, for there has not been like this heretofore.

8. Wo is to us; Who shall deliver us from the Power of this mighty God? This is the very God who smote the Egyptians with all the Plagues in the Wilderness.

9. Strengthen your selves, and be Men, O Philistines, that you may not serve the Hebrews, as they have served you: therefore be Men, and fight.

10. So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, insomuch that they fled to their respective Tents, and there was a very great Slaughter: for there fell of them thirty thousand Footmen.

11. Nay the Ark of God was taken, and the two Sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were killed.

12. Then a Man of Benjamin ran from the Army, and came to Shiloh that Day, with his Cloaths torn, and Earth upon his Head.

13. And when he came, behold Eli was sitting upon a Seat at the Side of the Way watching, because he was afraid at his Heart for the Ark of God; and as the Man went in, telling it in the City, they all cried out.

14. Thus Eli hearing the Noise of the Crying, said, Why is the Noise of this Tumult? The Man also made haste, and came, that he might tell him:

15. He being in his ninety eighth Year, and his Eyes were set, so that he could not see.

16. To whom the Man said, I am come from the Army, whence I fled to Day. And he asked, How is the Matter, my Son?

17. Then the Messenger made answer, Israel fled before the Philistines, and there was also a great Slaughter among the People; and thy two Sons likewise, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, nay the Ark of God is taken.

18. And as soon as he mentioned the Ark of God, Eli fell from the Seat backward by the Side of the Gate, and his Neck broke, so that he died; for he was an old Man, and heavy: who had judged Israel forty Years.

19. Besides his Daughter-in-law, the Wife of Phinehas, was with child, ready to lie in, and hearing the News of the Ark of God being taken, and that her Father-in-law and Husband were dead; she bowed, and was delivered, for her Pains were turned upon her.

20. And about the Time of her Death, though the Women who stood by her said, Do not fear, for thou art delivered of a Son. Yet she did not answer, nor regard;

21. But called the Child I-chabod, saying the Glory was gone away from Israel; for the Ark of God being taken, and for her Father-in-law and Husband.

Ver. 1. the Stone of Help] Which was not the proper Name of a Place, but a Stone so called afterwards, Chap. vii. 12. yet before this Book was written, and so is mentioned here.

Ver. 8. God] The same as in the Verse before, in 2 Kings xvii. 26, 27. and as throughout the Bible, plur. in Heb. for sing. which the Verb sing. is come shews in particular here, though the Pronouns and Participle in this Verse agree with the Substantive, as Adjectives to it, which Grammar requires; and I perceive what misled Translators, their taking the Participle for a Verb, instead of an Adjective: but there is a gross Inconsistency that God should be these Gods; and it appears they esteemed him to be one by Chap. v. 7, 8, 10, 11. & vi. 2, 3, 5, 6, 8, 9. see also Exod. xxxii. 4.

Ver. 15. ninety eighth] By the Syriack and Arabick Versions he was 78 Years old, the latter being made from the former.

1b. were set] or stood. But the old Lat. is caligaverant, were dim.

Ver. 20. said] unto her is not in the Hebrew, but in the old Lat.

Ver. 21. omitted in the vulg. Lat. for the Ark of God being taken, and.

22. However she said, The Glory is gone away from Israel, because the Ark of God is taken.

C H A P. V.

THUS the Philistines took the Ark of God, and brought it from the Stone of Help to Ashdod :

2. Which having taken, they carried it into the House of Dagon, and placed it by him.

3. But when the Ashdodites rose early the next Day, behold Dagon was fallen on his Face to the Ground, before the Ark of the Lord; whereupon they took him, and put him in his Place again.

4. Yet getting up betimes in the Morning the next Day, behold he was fallen as before; and his Head, with both the Palms of his Hands were cut off on the Threshold, only the fishy Part was left to him.

5. Therefore the Priests of Dagon, and all who go into his House, do not tread upon his Threshold in Ashdod to this Day.

6. Moreover the Hand of the Lord was heavy on the Ashdodites, and he made them desolate: for he smote those of Ashdod, and the Coasts of it, with the Piles.

7. And the Men of Ashdod seeing that it was so, said, The Ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us; for his Hand is hard, both upon us, and Dagon our god.

8. They therefore sent, and gathered all the Lords of the Philistines to them, and asked, What shall we do with the Ark of the God of Israel? Who answered, Let it be carried about to Gath. So they carried it about.

9. But after they had done that, the Hand of the Lord was on the City with a very great Vexation, the Men of which he smote from the least to the greatest; and the Piles they had were out of Sight.

10. With that they sent the Ark of God to Ekron; but at the coming of it thither, the Ekronites thus cried out, They have brought about the Ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our People.

11. So they sent, and gathered together all the Lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the Ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its Place, that it may not kill us and our People. For there was a deadly Vexation in all the City, the Hand of God was very heavy there.

12. The Men who did not die, being smitten with the Piles; and the Cry of the City went up to Heaven.

C H A P. VI.

AND the Ark of the Lord was in the Country of the Philistines seven Months.

2. At length calling the Priests and Diviners, they enquired, What shall we do with the Ark of the Lord? Let us know in what Manner we shall send it to its Place.

3. Who answered, If you send away the Ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty, for you must by all means render him a Trespass-offering; then you may be healed, and it will be known to you, why his Hand is not put away from you.

4. And they replied, What must the Trespass-offering be, which we shall render to him? To which the others said: Five golden Piles, and five golden Mice, the Number of the Lords of the Philistines; because all the People, and your Lords, have the same Plague.

5. For when you have made Images both of your Piles and Mice, that corrupt the Country, and have given Glory to the God of Israel; perhaps he will lighten his Hand from you, your gods and Country.

6. Why then should you make your Hearts heavy, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh did theirs? When he wrought among them, did not they let the People go, so that they went away?

7. Now therefore take a new Cart, which

Ver. 22. However she said] that is she mentioned only the Ark, as was fit for a dying Woman.

Ver. 4. fishy Part] as Kimbi observes, and the Word may signify, this Idol being generally thought like a Fish below, and of a human Shape above; see Jarbi Annot. & Selden De Diis Syriis, Syntagm. ii. Cap. 3. accordingly Trem. and Jun. translate it, quod referebat piscem, that which resembled a Fish; and Munster, forma piscis, the Shape of a Fish. To say Dagon was left to him or himself does not seem proper; and as the Hebrew has no more after only, this Meaning appears necessary, instead of taking Dagon here for the Idol's Name.

Ver. 9. Vexation] by the troublesome tormenting Disease; see Deut. vii. 23.

Ib. the Piles they had were out of Sight] Heb. the Piles were hid to them; that is did not appear outwardly, which are the worst Sort. Jun. and Trem. in their different Editions have it in like manner.

Ver. 2. do with] As Chap. v. 8.

Ver. 4. the People] Heb. not ysa, but them, as in Ver. 6. where it is rendered the people.

Ver. 6. should] as Poole observes, and Castal. renders by obfirmatis: for it does not appear they did do it, since they asked Advice about sending the Ark back, Ver. 2. and had concluded to do that before, Chap. v. 11.

Ib. wrought] without wonderfully, as in Exod. x. 2. & Psa. cxli. 4. the rest of the Places where it is in this Conjugation and Sense: so in the other Conjugation, particularly twice in Lam. i. 22.

Ver. 7. take] which is the first Verb in the Hebrew.

you shall make, and two Milch-cows upon whom there has come no Yoke; and you shall harness the Cows to the Cart, and have back their young ones home from after them.

8. You shall then take the Ark of the Lord, and put it on the Cart, and the golden Things which you render to him for a Trespass-offering you shall lay in a Box at the Side of it: thus shall you send it away that it may go.

9. See moreover, if it goes up the Way of its own Frontier to Beth-shemesh, he has done us this great Hurt; but if not, we shall know that it was not his Hand which smote us, it was a Chance that we had.

10. And the Men did so; for they took two Milch-cows, and harnessed them to the Cart, and shut up their young ones in the House.

11. They also laid the Ark of the Lord on the Cart, and the Box, with the golden Mice, and the Images of their Emerods.

12. And the Cows went straight along in the Way, namely that to Beth-shemesh, going in one Road, and went on bellowing, without turning aside to the right Hand or left: for the Lords of the Philistines went after them, as far as the Bounds of Beth-shemesh.

13. Now those of Beth-shemesh were reaping the Wheat-harvest in the Vale; and looking up, they saw the Ark, which they were glad to see.

14. And the Cart went into a Field of Joshua the Beth-shemeshite, and stood still there, where was a great Stone; then they cleaved the Wood of the Cart, and offered up the Cows a Burnt-offering to the Lord.

15. Besides the Levites took down the Ark of the Lord, and the Box which was with it, wherein were the golden Things, and put on the great Stone; the Men of Beth-shemesh also offered up Burnt-offerings, and sacrificed Sacrifices that Day, to the Lord.

16. Which the five Lords of the Philistines seeing, returned to Ekron that Day.

17. And for these were the golden Emrods, which the Philistines rendered for a Trespass-offering to the Lord; for Ashdod one, for Gaza another, for Ashkelon another, for Gath another, for Ekron another.

18. The golden Mice likewise were the Number of all the Cities of the Philistines, belonging to the five Lords, both those fortified and Towns; even to the great Stone of Mourning, on which they placed the Ark of the Lord, that is to this Day in the Field of Joshua the Beth-shemeshite.

19. However the Lord smote of the Men of Beth-shemesh, because they looked into his Ark, seventy Persons, as he did of the People fifty thousand Persons; so that the People mourned, because the Lord smote them with a great Plague.

20. And the Men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? And to whom shall he go up from us?

21. Whereupon they sent Messengers to the Inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim to say, The Philistines have brought back the Ark of the Lord, come down, fetch it up to you.

C H A P. VII.

SO the Men of Kirjath-jearim came, and carried it up, which they had into the House of Abinadab on the Hill, and consecrated his Son Eleazar to look after it.

2. And while the Ark abode at Kirjath-jearim was a long Time, being twenty Years;

Ver. 8. a Box] with Aquila, ἡνὶ κρυβή, which we may call in English, a woollen Cloth. Drusius not knowing what to make of it, supposed there was some Fault in the Greek, Vet. Int. Frag. p. 235. but Buxtorf the Son exposing and answering Cappellus upon it, shews that this old Translator took ארון to be composed of אר and נ and Vindiciæ, p. 699.

Ver. 11. Emerods] Here and Ver. 17. the Hebrew Word differs from that rendered Piles.

Ver. 13. the Wheat-harvest] the Hebrew has not their; and the English Translators may seem to have mistaken the last Letter of the Word for it, or implicitly followed Tyndal who had. Yet Jun. and Trem. putting it to Vale is worse.

Ver. 18. Mourning] אבן Stone in the Original being turned into אבל Mourning, because the Men of Beth-shemesh mourned, which is expressed by the Verb אבל in the next Verse.

Ver. 19. seventy] Persons being repeated, and no and between, seems to mean that they were seventy of Beth-shemesh, and fifty thousand of the rest of Israel; which latter Sum was probably much too large for Beth-shemesh alone, especially as the Place is counted small; besides smote the Men of Beth-shemesh, and smote the People, indicates as much: however I have rendered it literally, only transposing seventy Persons; connective Parts of Sentences being sometimes divided. The old Lat. says, 70 Men and 50000 of the common People; the like Tarbi, Kimhi and the Targum; and Josephus writes they were seventy of the Bethshemites, Antiq. Lib. vi. 2. If it be asked, what the other People were smitten for? I answer; Perhaps for Idolatry, Chap. vii. 3. when the Ark of God was come to them, as Dagon fell down, and was broke to pieces on the like Occasion; or because, hearing the Ark was come, they did not make preparation to receive it, as they ought to have done; or why might not so many People look into it, after those of Beth-shemesh had made the first Attempt? as probably there was great coming together to see it, and shortly after they might be stricken with some bad Disease.

Ver. 2. twenty Years] while Samuel governed; see Ch. xi. 15. and the succeeding Chronological Table.

and

and all the Family of Israel lamented after the Lord.

3. Now Samuel spoke thus to all the Family of Israel, If you return to the Lord with your whole Hearts, put away the gods of the Strangers from among you, with Ash-taroath; and preparing your Hearts for the Lord, serve him alone, then he will deliver you from the Power of the Philistines.

4. Accordingly the Israelites put away Baalim and Ashtaroath, serving the Lord alone.

5. Samuel further said, Gather together all Israel to Mizpeh, that I may pray for you to the Lord.

6. Whither they gathered together, and drawing Water, poured out before the Lord, nay fasted that Day, and confessed there, that they had sinned against the Lord; and Samuel judged the Israelites at Mizpeh.

7. But the Philistines hearing that they were gathered thither, their Lords went up against Israel; which they hearing of, were afraid by reason of the Philistines.

8. Therefore they said to Samuel, Be not silent from crying to the Lord our God for us, that he may save us from the Power of the Philistines.

9. Upon which he took a sucking Lamb, and offered up for a Burnt-offering wholly to the Lord; as also cried to him for Israel, not unanswered by the Lord.

10. For as Samuel was offering up the Burnt-offering, and the Philistines came nigh to the Battle against Israel; the Lord thundered with great Claps upon them that Day, and routed them, so that they were defeated before the Men of Israel:

11. Who going out of Mizpeh, pursued the Philistines, and smote them till they were below Beth-car.

12. Then Samuel took a Stone, and put between Mizpeh and the Rock, and called the Name of it The Stone of Help: for he said, Hitherto the Lord has helped us.

13. Thus were the Philistines brought down, and came again no more into the Confines of Israel; nay the Hand of the Lord was against them all the Time of Samuel;

14. Insomuch that the Cities which they had taken from Israel were restored to it, from Ekron to Gath, it likewise rescued the Borders of them out of their Hands; and there was Peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15. And Samuel judged Israel all the Days of his Life.

16. Moreover he went from Year to Year, round about to Beth-el, Gilgal and Mizpeh, judging Israel at all these Places.

17. And his Return was to Ramah, for his Home was there; where he judged Israel, and built there an Altar to the Lord.

CH A P. VIII.

HOWEVER when Samuel was old, he made his Sons Judges to Israel;

2. The Name of his first-born Son being Joel, and that of his second Abijah, Judges at Beer-sheba.

3. Whereas they did not go in his own Ways, but turned aside after Gain: for they took Bribes, that they might turn aside Judgment.

4. All the Elders of Israel therefore gathered themselves together, and came to him at Ramah;

5. To whom they said, Behold thou art old, and thy Sons do not go in thy own

Ib. lamented] The com. Lat. and Eng. of it have rested, nay with after too, though so discordant, as also by Mistake of n for r.

Ver. 6. poured] which Maimonides says they did at the Feast of Tabernacles, by the Tradition of Moses from Sinai, Hilchos temedin Cap. 10. and the Talmud says further they drew it out of the Fountain of Siloah, Traet. Succa fol. 48. as in Buxt. Synag. Jud. And yet (what may be wondered at!) no less Men than Junius and Tremellius, Grotius, Usher, &c. expound it of the People's pouring forth Tears, drawn out of the inner Fountain of the Heart; but unhappily for their Interpretation, Glandula sita intra orbitam, humorem salum, &c. conficit. Hic humor abundans Lachryma dicitur: a Gland placed within the Compass of the Eye makes that Humour, which flowing is called Tears, as that great Physician Boerhaave writes, Instit. Medic. de Visu, Sect. 512. or according to Quincy, A Gland upon the upper Part of the Globe of the Eye separates the Matter of the Tears, Lexic. Physico-Medic. under Eye. And how forced is such a figurative Meaning in this plain History! so that Jun. and Trem. may well call it hyperbatical in Amiot. but to say there is such in the Psalms, to which figurative Expressions belong, is to little Purpose. Usher, as if aware of the Weakness of that Exposition, adds there might also be some external pouring forth of Water, Annal. A. M. 2908. which, say I, might be then to cleanse them from Idolatry, Ver. 3, 4. as Gen. xxxv. 2. see also Exod. xix. 14.

Ver. 9. wholly] I understand it, without the Priests and People having their Part, as usual.

Ib. —answered] as the Verb properly and usually signifies.

Ver. 10. For] so Castal. with Jun. and Trem. have enim.

Ib. before] in the Bills of Pope Sixtus, from the Sons of, in that of Pope Clement better, from the Face of, though the Hebrew is not from.

Ver. 12. the Rock] thus Jun. and Trem. render it scopulum illum, Munst. scopulum petrae, the craggy Rock: and since no such Name of a Place occurs elsewhere, it may be best not to leave it untranslated as such.

Ver. 13. Confines] Coast being the Side of a Country by the Sea.

Ver. 17. Home was there] where he was also born and buried, Chap. i. 1, 9. & xxv. 1. & xxviii. 3. of which see on Chap. i. 9.

Ways;

Ways; now make us a King to judge us, like all the Nations.

6. But Samuel disliked the Matter, when they said, Give us, a King to judge us. Whereupon he prayed to the Lord.

7. Who said to him; Hearken to what the People speak, in all that they say to thee: for they have not rejected thee, but have rejected me from reigning over them.

8. According to all the Deeds which they have done, from the Day that I brought them up out of Egypt, to this Day, forsaking me, and serving other gods; so they do also to thee.

9. Yet now hearken to what they say; but let it be when thou hast fully testified against them, and told them the Manner of the King who shall reign over them.

10. So Samuel spoke all the Words of the Lord, to the People who asked him for a King.

11. And he subjoined: This will be the Manner of the King who shall reign over you; he will take your Sons, that he may put them for himself to his Chariots, and for his Cavalry, and that they may run before his Chariots;

12. And be put for him Captains both of Thousands and Fifties; as also to do his Ploughing, reap his Harvest, and make the Instruments of his War, with those of his Chariots.

13. He will likewise take your Daughters, for Confectioners, Cooks and Bakers:

14. As he will the best of your Fields, Vineyards and Olive-yards; and give to his Servants.

15. Moreover he will take the Tithe of your Seed and Vineyards; and give to his Officers and Servants.

16. Besides he will take the best of your Servant-men, Maids and young Men, with your Asses; and put to his Work.

17. He will take the Tithe of your Flocks; and you shall be Servants to him.

18. So that you shall cry out at that Time, by reason of your King whom you have chosen for your selves; but at that Time the Lord will not answer you.

19. Nevertheless the People refused to hearken to what Samuel spoke, and said; No, but there shall be a King over us:

20. That we also may be like all the Nations, and our King may judge us, go out before us, and fight our Battles.

21. And when Samuel had heard all the Words of the People, he spoke them in the Hearing of the Lord.

22. Upon which the Lord said to him, Hearken to what they say, and make them a King. Then Samuel ordered the Men of Israel, to go to their respective Cities.

CHAP. IX.

AND there was a Man of Benjamin, whose Name was Kish, the Son of Abiel, the Son of Zeror, the Son of Bechorath, the Son of Aphiah, a valiant Benjamite:

2. Who had a Son, and his Name was Saul, a young Man and comely, so that there was no Man of the Israelites more comely than he; being from his Shoulders upward the tallest of all the People.

3. And the Asses of Kish his Father, being lost, he said to his Son Saul, Take now one of the Servants with thee, and get ready, go seek for the Asses.

4. So he passed over Mount Ephraim, and through the Country of Shalishah, but they did not find them: they also passed through the Country of Shaalim, where they were not; as he did that of the Benjaminites, yet they did not find them.

5. When they came to the Country of Zuph, Saul said to his Servant who was with him, Come, and let us go back; lest my Father should no longer mind the Asses, but be in care for us.

6. And he answered him, Behold now there is a Man of God in this City, who is an honourable Man; all that he says fully comes to pass: now let us go thither; perhaps he will tell us our Way wherein we should go.

7. Whereupon he replied to his Servant, And behold when we go, what shall we bring to the Man, since the Provision is gone out of our Vehicles, and there is no Present to carry to the Man of God? What is there with us?

8. However he made answer to Saul again,

Ver. 1. Kish] Though he is every where called so in the Hebrew, as in Ver. 3. Chap. x. 11, 21. & xiv. 51. 2 Sam. xxi. 14. 1 Chron. viii. 33. & ix. 39. Psalm mentions an Objection that his Name is Ner in the two latter Places (but how could any such be made?) and in answering the Objection, allows it might be so by his having two Names; when no such Thing appears, excepting Cis, Acts xiii. 21. as called in Greek; see on 1 Chron. ix. 39.

Ver. 2. a young Man] The Hebrew may be either this or Choice, but not both together.

Ver. 7. Vehicles] in which Things are carried, but Vessels are properly to hold Liquids.

1b. Present] according to the eastern Custom of Visiting, still kept up, and not as any Pay to the Prophet, as Maundrell remarks, Journey from Aleppo to Jerusalem, 1st Edit. p. 26.

Behold I have got in my Custody the fourth Part of a Shekel of Silver, which I will give him, that he may tell us our Way.

9. Heretofore in Israel a Man spoke thus when he went to enquire of God, Come, and let us go to the Seer. For he who is now a Prophet, was heretofore called a Seer.

10. And Saul said to him, Thy Saying is good; come, let us go. Accordingly they went to the City where the Man of God was.

11. As they were going up in the Ascent of it, they met with young Women coming out to draw Water; to whom they said, Is the Seer here?

12. Who made answer to them; He is behold before thee: make haste now; for he came to Day to the City, because there is a Sacrifice to Day for the People on the high Place.

13. Just as you enter into the City, you may find him, before he goes up to the high Place to eat; for the People will not eat till he comes, because he blesses the Sacrifice, after which they eat who are invited: now therefore go up, for you may find him presently.

14. Then going up into the City, when they were come within it, lo Samuel met them, coming forth to go up to the high Place.

15. Now the Lord had revealed to Samuel's Ear, a Day before Saul came, as follows,

16. About this Time to Morrow I will send to thee a Man from the Country of Benjamin, whom thou shalt anoint for a Ruler over my People Israel, that he may save them from the Power of the Philistines: for I have looked on my People, because their Cry is come to me.

17. Besides when Samuel saw Saul, the Lord said to him, There is the Man of whom I spoke to thee, he shall rule over my People.

18. And Saul drawing nigh to him at the midst of the Gate, said, Be pleased to tell me where the Seer's House is.

19. Upon this he made answer to Saul; I am the Seer; go up before me to the high Place, that you may eat with me to Day; and in the Morning I will let thee go, and tell thee all which is in thy Heart.

20. And as for thy Asses that have been lost now three Days, do not mind them, for they are found; and to whom is the whole Desire of Israel? Is it not to thee, and to all thy Father's Household?

21. To which Saul made reply, Am not I a Benjaminite, of the least of the Tribes of Israel, and my Family the smallest of all those of the Tribes of Benjamin? Why then dost thou speak such a Matter as this to me?

22. But Samuel took him and his Servant, and introduced them into the Parlour, giving them a Place among the chief of those that were invited, who were about thirty Men.

23. Next he said to the Cook; Give me the Part that I gave thee; of which I said to thee, Set it by thee.

24. And when the Cook had taken up the Shoulder with what was upon it, for him to set it before Saul; he said, Behold that which was left, set it before thee, and eat; for it was kept for thee to the appointed Time, saying, I have invited People. Thus Saul eat with Samuel that Day.

25. Afterwards they went down from the high Place to the City, and he talked with Saul upon the Roof.

26. Nay they rising early, when it was about the Dawn of the Morning, Samuel

Ver. 9. a Prophet] So that nabi, a Prophet, which had been formerly applied to such a one as spoke by divine Direction, Gen. xx. 7. Exod. vii. 1. was now used for him that divinely foretold future Things, who was called a Seer heretofore: and if nabi comes from nab, to speak or utter forth, according to Sol. Jar. it might consistently be used in both Senses: or Prophet might be out of use, and in again with the same Meaning, like several other eastern Names. Hence the Pretence, that the Writings of Moses were penned after this Alteration, vanishes; see also the Answ. to Object. 14. in the Introd. to Biblioth. Bibl.

Ver. 12. thee] as the Heb. has, n. him who spoke to them, who might not both be near together.

Ver. 13. presently] הנה signifying apparently the same as כֵּן which is so rendered in Chap. ii. 16.

Ver. 19. Morning] not morrow.

Ver. 21. Tribes of Benjamin] from his Sons, this being plural as before.

Ver. 23. Give] as after.

Ver. 24. for him] namely Samuel, to whom the Cook was to give it; and Jun. and Trem. add in Samuel here:

so that the Cook was not to set it, much less did, as our Transf. asserts, and inconsistently too with Saul's being told to do it afterwards.

Ib. he said] Samuel to Saul, for there may be as much Need to add the latter as the former.

Ib. left] To wit of the Peace-offering, Affem. Annot.

Ib. set it before thee] Samuel giving it I suppose into Saul's Hands, to distinguish him from the rest, before whom it would also be set.

Ib. set it—and eat] In their Way of speaking without the Object and Conjunction, as take, eat, Mat. xxvi. 26.

Ib. saying] so the Heb. and suitably with was.

Ver. 25. he] I see no Reason for adding in Samuel here, unless its being done in the Verse before be any.

Ib. talked with Saul upon the Roof] There is subjoined in the vulg. Lat. some Copies excepted, and he made a Bed for Saul in the upper Room, and he slept; which Buxtorf jun. supposes was only made from the Septuagint's wrong Translation of the foregoing and following Words so, by mistaking דבר for רבד and שכב for שכב for their Version has not, he talked with Saul upon the Roof. Nay they rising early.

called him to the Roof, and said, Get ready, that I may let thee go. Which Saul did, and they both went out, he and Samuel abroad.

27. As they were going down at the End of the City, Samuel said to him, Tell the Servant, that he should pass on before us (who passed on;) but stand thou still presently, that I may let thee hear the Word of God.

CHAP. X.

HE then took a Vial of Oil, and poured upon his Head, and kissing him, said: Is it not because the Lord anoints thee to be Ruler over his Possession?

2. When thou goest from me to Day, thou wilt find two Men by Rachel's Sepulchre, in the Border of Benjamin at Zelzah, who will tell thee; The Asses are found that thou wentest to seek for, and behold thy Father lets alone the Affair of them, and is in care for you, saying, What shall I do for my Son?

3. And thou shalt pass away from thence further, and come to the Oak of Tabor, where three Men going up to God at Beth-el will meet with thee; one bringing along three young Goats, another carrying three Loaves of Bread, and the other a Bottle of Wine.

4. Who will ask thee of thy Welfare; and give thee two Loaves of Bread, which thou shalt receive of them.

5. After that thou shalt come to the Hill of God, where the Garrison of the Philistines is; and as thou comest thither to the City, thou wilt meet a Company of Prophets coming down from the high Place, with a Lute, Timbrel, Pipe, and Harp before them, and they will prophesy.

6. At this the Spirit of the Lord will come upon thee, so that thou wilt prophesy with them; and wilt be turned into another Man.

7. And when these Signs come to thee, do what thou findest to be done, since God is with thee.

8. Thou shalt afterwards go down before me to Gilgal, and behold I will come down to thee, to offer up Burnt-offerings, to sacrifice Sacrifices of Peace-offerings: seven Days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and let thee know what thou must do.

9. Thus when he had turned his Back to go from Samuel, God turned him into another Mind, and all these Signs came to pass that Day.

10. In particular they came thither to the Hill, and to a Company of Prophets meeting him, the Spirit of God came upon him, so that he prophesied amongst them.

11. All the People therefore who knew him in Time past, seeing plainly that he prophesied with the Prophets, said one to another, What is the Matter with the Son of Kish? Is Saul also among the Prophets?

12. To which a Man from thence made answer, But who is their Father? Thereupon it became a Proverb, Is Saul also among the Prophets?

13. At length when he had made an end of prophesying, he went to the high Place.

14. And Saul's Uncle asked him, and his Servant, Whither did you go? And he said, To seek for the Asses, and when we saw that they were gone, we went to Samuel.

15. Whereupon he replied, Tell me, I pray, what Samuel said to you.

16. And Saul answered him, He told us plainly that the Asses were found. But the Matter of the Kingdom he did not tell him, of which Samuel spoke.

17. Moreover Samuel called the People to the Lord at Mizpeh,

18. And said to the Israelites; Thus says the Lord God of Israel, I brought up Israel from Egypt, and delivered you from the Power not only of the Egyptians, but of all the Kingdoms that oppressed you.

19. Yet ye have now rejected your God, who himself saved you from all your Harms and Distresses, having said to him, But thou shalt set a King over us. Now therefore present your selves before the Lord, by your Tribes and Thousands.

20. So Samuel made all the Tribes of Israel come near, and that of Benjamin was taken.

21. Next he made this Tribe come near by its Families, and that of Matri was

Ver. 3. bringing along] Being more likely than his carrying them, in the proper common Meaning of it.

Ver. 7. findest to be done] so Judg. ix. 33.

Ver. 8. afterwards] being a pretty while after, Chap. xiii. 1, 4, 8. to which Interpreters agree to refer it.

Ver. 12. who is their Father?] that is God himself was, Ver. 10. who could inspire any one.

Ver. 19. now] Neither the Time mentioned in Chap. viii. nor the Hebrew being this day.

Ib. to him] The Greek has for it ὅτι, No; the con.

Lat. Nequaquam, Not at all; making this what the People said, by taking ל for לא being both is, and perhaps because it is so Chap. viii. 19. The Chald. has got both in the Manner of our English thus, אמרתי קדמוני לית אנתא מתפרקין אליהן מלכא חסדי עליהן You have said before him, We shall not be saved, unless thou settest a King over us. But this being not sufficient for Cappellus, Crit. Sacr. Lib. v. Cap. 9. he would add to the Confusion, and make it ל to me, Lib. vi. Cap. 9.

taken; as was lastly Saul the Son of Kish, whom they fought after, but he could not be found.

22. Therefore they asked again of the Lord, Will the Man yet come hither? And the Lord said, There he is hid at the Things.

23. Then they ran, and fetched him from thence; who placing himself in the midst of the People, was the tallest of them all, from his Shoulders upward.

24. Upon which Samuel said to them, Do you see whom the Lord has chosen, that there is none like him among all the People? And they all shouted, and said, Let the King live.

25. Besides Samuel told them the Manner of the Kingdom, and wrote it in a Book, which he laid up before the Lord: so he let them all go to their respective Homes.

26. And Saul also went to his Home at Gibeah; and there went with him a Retinue, whose Hearts God touched.

27. But some ungodly Persons said, How shall he save us? And they despised him, bringing him no Present; yet he was like one silent.

C H A P. XI.

NOW Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead; so that all the Men of it proposed to him, Make a Treaty with us, and we will serve thee.

2. To whom he said, Thus will I do it, by pulling out all your right Eyes, and putting it a Reproach upon all Israel.

3. And the Elders of Jabesh replied to him, Let us alone seven Days, that we may send Messengers into all the Bounds of Israel; and if none will save us, we will come out to thee.

4. So the Messengers went to Gibeah of Saul, and spoke the Words in the Hearing of the People; who all burst out a crying.

5. But behold Saul coming after the Herd out of the Field, said, What is the Matter with the People, that they cry? And they told him the Words of the Men of Jabesh.

6. And the Spirit of God came upon him, when he heard these Words, and he was very angry.

7. So that he took a Yoke of Oxen, which he divided in Pieces, and sent into all the Bounds of Israel by the Hands of Messengers, who said, Thus shall it be done to his Oxen that does not come forth after Saul and Samuel. And the Dread of the Lord fell upon the People, inasmuch that they came out as one Man.

8. Whom he numbered in Bezek, and the Israelites were three hundred thousand; and the Men of Judah thirty thousand.

9. Moreover they said to the Messengers who came, say thus to the Men of Jabesh-gilead, To Morrow you shall have Help as soon as the Sun gives heat. And when the Messengers came, and told them, they were glad.

10. With that the Men of Jabesh said, To Morrow we will come out to you, that you may do to us entirely as you please.

11. Whereas the next Day Saul put the People into three Companies, who got in within the Camp in the Morning Watch, and smote the Ammonites till the Heat of the Day; and such as remained were so dispersed, that there were not two of them left together.

12. Then the People exclaimed to Samuel, Who said, Shall Saul reign over us? Give up the Men, that we may put them to death.

13. But Saul answered, There shall no Man be put to death this Day: for to Day has the Lord made Preservation in Israel.

14. Afterwards Samuel says to the People, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the Kingdom there:

15. Accordingly all the People went thither, and there they made Saul King before the Lord in Gilgal, where they sacrificed Sacrifices of Peace-offerings before the Lord; and there Saul, with all the Men of Israel, were very joyful.

C H A P. XII.

BESIDES Samuel said to all Israel, Behold I have hearkened to what you said, in all that you importuned me, and have made a King over you.

Ver. 23. tallest] for which Saul seems chosen, to gratify the People's Humour; see Hos. xiii. 11. Num. xi. 18.

Ver. 24. Let the King live] as in Neb. ii. 3. and as the Hebrew is.

Ver. 5. after the Herd] being yet at home in his private Business.

Ver. 10. will come] making the Ammonites believe so, that they might not be prepared to fight.

Ver. 15. before the Lord] præsentis arce ejus; his Ark being present, say Jun. and Trem. And the twenty Years being now expired, Chap. vii. 2. as we may also find by Chap. xiv. 18. when the Ark was brought from Kirjath-jearim:

2. Now therefore behold the King will walk continually before you, as I have done from my Childhood to this Day, and being now old and grey-haired, my Sons lo they are with you.

3. Here am I, testify against me before the Lord and his anointed one, whose Ox I have taken, or whose Ass it is, or whom I have wronged, whom troubled, or of whose Hand taken a Ransom, that I might blind my Eyes with it; and I will restore it to you.

4. And they answered, Thou hast neither wronged us, troubled us, nor taken aught from the Hand of any one.

5. Then replied he to them, Let the Lord be a Witness to you, and his anointed one the same this Day, that you do not find any thing with me. Who rejoined, Let them be Witnesses.

6. Samuel also said to the People: It was the Lord, who prepared Moses and Aaron, and who brought up your Forefathers from the Country of Egypt.

7. And now present your selves, that I may judge you before the Lord, by all his righteous Things, which he has done with you and your Fathers.

8. When Jacob was come to Egypt, and your Forefathers cried to the Lord, he sent Moses and Aaron, who brought them out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this Place.

9. But they forgot the Lord their God; and he delivered them up into the Power of Sisera, Captain of the Army of Hazor, and into the Power of the Philistines, with that of the King of Moab, who fought against them.

10. Yet when they cried to the Lord, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the Lord, and served Baalim and Ashtaroth; but now deliver us from the Power of our Enemies, and we will serve thee;

11. The Lord sent Jerubbaal, Bedan, Jephthah and Samuel; and delivered you from the Power of your Enemies round about, so that you dwelt securely.

12. But you seeing that Nahash King of the Ammonites was coming against you, said to me, No, but a King shall reign over us; when the Lord your God was your King.

13. And now here is the King whom you chose, whom you asked; for behold the Lord has put a King over you.

14. If you will fear the Lord, serve him, hearken to what he says, and not rebel against his Command; both you and likewise the King who reigns over you, will be following the Lord your God.

15. On the other hand if you will not hearken to what the Lord says, but do rebel against his Command, his Hand will be against you, as against your Fathers.

16. Now also present your selves, and see this great Matter, which the Lord will do in your Sight.

17. Is it not Wheat-harvest now? I will call to the Lord, that he may give Thunder and Rain: so know, and see that your Wickedness is great, which you have done in the Sight of the Lord, to ask for you a King.

18. Accordingly Samuel called to the Lord, who gave Thunder and Rain that Day; exceedingly afraid therefore of the Lord and Samuel,

19. All the People said to him, Pray for thy Servants to the Lord thy God, that we may not die; though we have added to all our Sins, the Wickedness of asking for us a King?

20. Samuel then said to them: Do not fear, having done all this Wickedness; yet turn not aside from after the Lord, but serve him with your whole Heart.

21. I say do not turn aside: since it will be after empty Things, which will neither profit, nor deliver, because they are empty.

22. For the Lord will not forsake his People, by reason of his great Name; since he has been pleased to make you a People to himself.

23. As for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the Lord, by ceasing to pray for you; on the contrary I instruct you in the good and right Way.

Ver. 3. Here] This and Behold is double translating.

Ver. 6. prepared] Heb. made; from whence sometimes made ready or prepared.

Ver. 11. Bedan] Jair, as he was a Judge between Jerubbaal and Jephthah; Judg. x. 3. and a Gileadite, whom we find named as such, 1 Chron. vii. 17. Patrick would have it Samson; but he was after Jephthah, and the Lord did not deliver Israel by him as here related. The vulg. Lat. adds in after him, Samson and Barach. Cappellus counts this ברך a Corruption from בן and the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text from ברך but since they don't agree about it, and the former is not the right Name of Barak, nor the latter similar enough for such a Mistake (though the Author of the present State &c. himself has Beran, p. 89.) and since Barak was before Jerubbaal, let us keep our old Hebrew still.

Ver. 12. was coming] since he did not come till afterwards, Chap. xi. 1, 4.

Ver. 14. following] which though they would do by fearing the Lord, &c. they might not continue to do it; it is no wonder therefore the Hebrew Text does not say so.

24. Only fear the Lord, and serve him in Truth with your whole Heart: for see what great Things he has done to you.

25. But if you do very wickedly, both you and your King will be consumed.

C H A P. XIII.

SAUL having reigned his first Year, and beginning to reign the second Year over Israel;

2. He chose him three thousand of them, two thousand being with himself in Michmash and on Mount Beth-el, and a thousand with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin; the rest of the People he let go to their several Tents.

3. And Jonathan beat a Garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, which they heard of; whereupon Saul had the Trumpet blown through all the Country, with this Speech, Let the Hebrews hear.

4. So all Israel heard it said, Saul has beat a Garrison of the Philistines, so that Israel is even odious among them. And the People were called after him to Gilgal.

5. The Philistines also were gathered together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand belonging to Chariots, and six thousand Horsemen, with People as the Sand which is upon the Sea-shoar for Multitude; and going up, they encamped at Michmash, on the East of Beth-aven.

6. Then the Men of Israel saw that they had Distress, for the People were straitened; therefore they hid themselves in Caves, among Thorns, in Rocks, Castles and Pits.

7. Nay some Hebrews passed over Jordan, to the Country of Gad and Gilead; but Saul himself was yet in Gilgal, and all the People followed him trembling.

8. And he staid seven Days, according to the appointed Time which was for Samuel, when he was not come thither; and the People were dispersed from him.

9. Upon this Saul said, Bring hither to me a Burnt-offering, and Peace-offerings; and he offered up the former.

10. Which when he had made an end of doing, behold Samuel came; whom he went out to meet, that he might salute him.

11. And Samuel saying, What hast thou done? Saul answered, Because I saw that the People were dispersed from me, and thou didst not come at the appointed Time of the Days, and the Philistines were gathered up to Michmash:

12. Therefore I said, Now will the Philistines come down to me at Gilgal, and I have not made supplication before the Lord; so I strengthened my self, and offered up a Burnt-offering.

13. Samuel however replied to him; Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the Commandments, that the Lord thy God ordered thee; when the Lord would now have confirmed thy Kingdom in Israel for ever.

14. Whereas now thy Kingdom shall not stand: the Lord has sought him out a Man according to his Mind, and he will enjoin him to be Ruler over his People; because thou hast not kept what the Lord commanded thee.

15. Moreover Samuel getting ready, went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin; and Saul numbered the People who were present with him, about six hundred Men.

16. He too, and Jonathan his Son, with those People, staid at Gibeah of Benjamin; while the Philistines encamped at Michmash.

17. Out of whose Camp there came three Companies of Spoilers: one turned into the Way to Ophrah, to the Country of Shual;

18. Another likewise turned the Way to Beth-horon; as the other did that to the Border, which looks against the Valley of Zebobim, towards the Wilderness.

19. Now there was not a Smith to be found in all the Country of Israel; lest, as the Philistines said, the Hebrews should make Swords or Spears.

20. But all Israel went down to them, to have their respective Plough-shares, Spades, Axes, and Mattocks sharpened.

Ver. 25. very] not still, which would be if the Words were transposed, as those who understand Hebrew know. So that it has the Cast of Ignorance, especially as there is the same again in Chap. xxvi. ult.

Ver. 1. beginning to reign] which the Verb frequently denotes, as may be found in the History of the Kings: thus the Verse connects well, but I am sure not in the common Translation.

Ver. 5. belonging to Chariots] as 1 Chron. xix. 7, 18. where see the Comments. Thus there is no Need to suppose with some noted modern Writers, that thirty thousand for the Largeness of it is an Error of the Text.

Ver. 6. Castles] So Jun. and Trem. have arcibus, and the Tigurin Bible arces; others Towers. The Word is besides in Judg. ix. 46, 49. where the common Translation has bold.

Ver. 7. some Hebrews] which may be translated instead of Hebrew men, according as is common in the present Version.

Ver. 18. Zebobim] This differing one Letter from that in Hof. xi. 8.

Ver. 20. Spades] Jun. and Trem. Cast. Munst. the old Lat. Transf. with Pagn. and Montan. have it rendered so by ligis; agreeing with the Lexicon.

21. Yet there were Files for the Mattocks, Spades, Forks and Axes; and to set the Goats.

22. Thus on the Day of Battle, neither Sword nor Spear was to be found in the Hands of any of the People, who were with Saul and his Son Jonathan; however there was with them.

23. Besides the Garrison of the Philistines went out to the Passage of Michmash.

C H A P. XIV.

AND one Day the Son said to the young Man who carried his Arms, Come, and let us pass over to the Garrison of the Philistines, which is on that Side; but he did not tell his Father.

2. Who in the mean time staid at the End of Gibeah, under a Pomegranate-tree which was in Migron, with about six hundred Men as before;

3. Together with Ahijah the Son of Ahitub, the Brother of I-chabod, the Son of Phinehas, the Son of Eli the Lord's Priest at Shiloh, who had on an Ephod; but the People did not know that Jonathan was gone.

4. Now between the Passages by which he endeavoured to pass to the Garrison of the Philistines, there was a sharp Rock on each Side, the Name of one being Bozez, and that of the other Seneh.

5. The Point of one was situate on the North over against Michmash, and the other on the South over against Gibeah.

6. And when Jonathan said to the young Man who carried his Arms, Come, and let us pass over to the Garrison of these uncircumcised, perhaps the Lord will work for us; since there is no Restraint to him, to save whether by many or few;

7. He answered him, Do all that is in thy Heart; turn thee aside, here I am with thee according to thy Mind.

8. Then replied Jonathan; Behold we will pass over to the Men, and discover ourselves to them.

9. If they shall say thus to us, Be quiet till we come to you; we will stand still in our Place, and not go up to them.

10. But if they say thus, Come up to us; we will go up, for the Lord has given them up into our Power: and this shall be a Sign to us.

11. Accordingly they both discovered themselves to the Garrison of the Philistines; who said, Behold the Hebrews come out of the Holes where they hid themselves.

12. The Men of the Garrison also spoke to them as follows, Come up to us, and we will let you know Something. Then Jonathan said to him who carried his Arms, Come up after me, for the Lord has given them up into the Power of Israel.

13. So he climbed up on his Hands and Feet, and the other after him; and they fell before Jonathan, he who carried his Arms killing after him.

14. And the first Slaughter that they made, was of about twenty Men in about half an Acre of ploughed Land.

15. With that there was a Trembling in the Camp, in the Field, and among all the People, even the Garrison and Spoilers themselves trembled; nay the Earth shook, for it was a Trembling from God.

16. And when the Watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, behold the Multitude dissolved, and went away, beating down one another.

17. Therefore Saul said to the People that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. Which they doing, behold Jonathan and he who carried his Arms were absent.

18. He then said to Ahijah, Bring nigh the Ark of God: for it was at that Time with the Israelites.

19. And whilst he was speaking to the Priest, the Multitude that was in the Camp of the Philistines went away very fast; at this Saul said to him, Withdraw thy Hand.

Ver. 3. Abijah] the same as Abimelech, Chap. xxi. 1, &c. with xxii. 20.

Ver. 6. And when] as in Ver. 1.

Ver. 14. in about half an Acre of ploughed] The Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text, p. 452, 453. extols Mr. Hallet in his Notes on peculiar Texts of Scripture, 3 Vol. 8vo, for supposing the LXX, instead of בזעץ ובוזעץ read בזעץ ובוזעץ as he himself does that for בזעץ they did read בזעץ with Darts, and with Stones (the Word signifies Gravel as in Isa. xlviii. 19. and how did they kill Men with that? But the LXX have it throwing of Stones) and with Flints, as if they were not Stones; and if the Hebrew had such an Impropriety, what a Noise should we have had of its being wrong.

Ib. ploughed Land] from the Coupling of the Beasts in ploughing it.

Ver. 15. the Earth] Vulg. the Camp was troubled; yet in a few Editions it is the Earth or Country, the Participle conturbata serving for both, either as fem. sing. or neut. plur.

Ver. 18. Ark] it being fetched from Kirjath-jearim on certain Occasions, Chap. xi. 15.

Ib. with] * namely in the Camp, whither sometimes it was brought, as 1 Sam. iv. 5. * Peole. And the Verb signifying bring nigh may shew it was there.

Ver. 19. Multitude] The same Word as in Ver. 16. and as the Watchmen only saw them, it is not likely the Noise was heard. Thus translate likewise Jun. and Trem. with Pagn. and Mont.

20. Next he and all the People who were with him being called together, went to the Battle; when lo their Swords were one against another, by the very great Tumult.

21. And even the Hebrews also that were with the Philistines, as in Days before, who went up with them round about into the Camp, were for the Israelites, that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22. Nay all the Men of Israel likewise who had hid themselves on Mount Ephraim, hearing that the Philistines were fled, followed close after them in the Battle.

23. Thus the Lord saved Israel that Day; and the Battle passed on to Beth-aven.

24. But on the same they were straitened: for Saul charged the People by the following Curse, Let the Man be cursed who shall eat Food till the Evening, when I have taken vengeance on my Enemies. Therefore none of the People so much as tasted any.

25. Yet all those of the Country came into a Wood, where there was Honey atop of the Ground.

26. Nevertheless when they came thither, and behold the Honey ran, there was none reached his Hand to his Mouth; because they feared the Oath.

27. Whereas Jonathan did not hear when his Father charged the People by Oath; so he put forth the End of the Staff that was in his Hand, and dipt it in a Honey-comb: and bringing back his Hand to his Mouth, his Eyes were enlightened.

28. But a Man of the People spoke as follows; Thy Father strictly charged the People by this Oath, Let the Man be cursed who shall eat Food to Day: so that the People are faint.

29. To which Jonathan said; My Father has troubled the Country: see, I pray, that my Eyes are enlightened, because I tasted a little of that Honey;

30. Much more if the People had eat plentifully to Day, of the Spoil of their Enemies that they found: for now the Slaughter does not increase among the Philistines.

31. However they smote them that Day from Michmash to Aijalon; but the People were very faint:

32. Inasmuch that they made to the Spoil, and took the Flocks and Herds, with the young ones of the latter, and killed on the Ground; whom they eat in the Blood.

33. Upon this they told Saul, that the People sinned against the Lord, by eating in the Blood; so he said, You transgress; roll to me now a great Stone.

34. He added further; Disperse among the People, and say to them, Bring nigh to me your several Oxen and Sheep, which kill here, and eat; that you may not sin against the Lord by eating in the Blood. At this all the People brought nigh their Oxen respectively with them that Night, and killed there.

35. Besides Saul built an Altar to the Lord, which was the first he did.

36. Afterwards he said, Let us go down after the Philistines by Night, and prey upon them till the Morning-light, not leaving a Man of them; and they answered, Do all that thou pleasest. Whereupon the Priest said, Let us draw near hither to God.

37. So Saul asked of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? Wilt thou give them up into the Power of Israel? But he did not answer him that Day.

38. Therefore Saul said, Come nigh hither, all the uttermost of the People; and know and see wherein this Sin has been to Day.

39. For by the Lord's living, who saves Israel, if it should be even in Jonathan my Son, he shall quite die. And none answered him of all the People.

40. In the next place he ordered all Israel, Be you on one Side, and I and my Son Jonathan will be on the other; the People answered him again, Do what thou pleasest.

41. And Saul said to the Lord God of Israel, Grant it may be quite right; so Jonathan and he were taken, and the People went out.

42. Again he said, Cast between me and Jonathan my Son; and Jonathan was taken.

43. Upon which Saul asked him, Tell me what thou hast done; and Jonathan told him thus, I having just tasted a little Honey, with the Top of the Staff that was in my Hand, behold I must die.

Ver. 20. Tumult] It is not discomfiture.

Ver. 24. when] Most of the Latin Translators have till, which however seems less proper, and the Verb is of the preterperfect Tense.

Ver. 28. are faint] being Part of what the Man said.

Ver. 30. increase] the Heb. being a Verb, and of this Signification, without any Sign of a Question.

Ver. 32. made] Flew is a marginal Reading, and as it may seem not a very good one, especially as our Translators have turned it flew upon.

1b. Herds] For Oxen have not young.

Ver. 38. the uttermost] Heb. Corners, even those who were farthest off, that none might be absent; the same as at Judg. xx. 2. Accordingly Jun. and Trem. have, usque ab omnibus extremitatibus, even from all the Borders; Castal. universi ordines, all the Ranks.

Ver. 43. This is the 5th Verse successively, besides some others near, wherein our Translators have put a full Point; which I mention for the Irregularity of it, the Matter being compared with distant Places in general.

44. And Saul replied, By God's doing so and so besides, thou shalt quite die, Jonathan.

45. But the People said to him, Shall Jonathan die, who has made this great Preservation in Israel? Far be it off; by the Lord's living, a Hair of his Head shall not fall to the Ground, for he has acted with God this Day: thus the People ransomed Jonathan, so that he did not die.

46. At length Saul went up from after the Philistines, who went to their own Place.

47. And having taken the Kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his Enemies round about, against Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the Kings of Zobah, and the Philistines; and all whom he turned against, he hurt.

48. He likewise made an Army, and beat Amalek, and delivered Israel from the Power of those who plundered them.

49. And Saul's Sons were Jonathan, Ishui and Melchi-shua; as also the Names of his two Daughters, that of the First-born Merab, and the Younger's Name Michal.

50. The Name too of his Wife was Ahinoam, the Daughter of Ahimaaz, as that of the Captain of his Army was Abner, the Son of Ner his Uncle.

51. And Kish the Father of Saul, with Ner Abner's Father, was the Son of Abiel.

52. There was also strong War against the Philistines all the Time of Saul; therefore when he saw any stout Man, or any Person of Valour, he took him to himself.

CHAP. XV.

AND Samuel said to Saul: The Lord sent me to anoint thee for a King over his People Israel; now therefore hearken to the Words that the Lord says.

2. Thus says the Lord of Armies; I have counted up what Amalek did to Israel; what they put for them in the Way, when they came up from Egypt.

3. Now go thou, and smite Amalek, and you shall destroy all that they have, and thou shalt not spare them; but kill both Man and Woman, both Child and sucking Infant, both Ox and Sheep, both Camel and Ass.

4. Which Saul published to the People, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand Footmen, and ten thousand Men of Judah.

5. He then went to a City of Amalek, and lay in wait in the Valley.

6. And he said to the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down, from among the Amalekites, that I may not consume you with them; since you shewed Kindness to all the Israelites, when they came up from Egypt. Accordingly they departed from within Amalek.

7. So Saul smote Amalek, from Havilah till one comes to Shur, which is before Egypt.

8. Nay he took Agag the King of it alive, and destroyed all the People with the Edge of the Sword.

9. However he and the People spared Agag, with the best of the Flocks and Herds, and the second Sort, as likewise the Lambs, and all that was good, and would not destroy them; but every Thing which was contemptible and waste, that they destroyed.

10. Samuel had therefore the Word of the Lord, as follows;

11. I am sorry because I made Saul King: for he is turned back from following me, and has not confirmed my Words. At which Samuel was displeased, and cried to the Lord all Night.

12. Then he rose early to meet Saul in the Morning; but it was told him thus, Saul

Ver. 44. By God's doing so and so besides, thou] as at Gen. xlii. 15, 16. but what Sense can be made of the common Version?

Ver. 51. was] that is both Kish and Ner were Abiel's Sons, Chap. ix. 1. Ver. 50.

Ver. 2. counted up] as numbered Ver. 4. being the same Verb, not signifying remember.

Ver. 3. Child] Otherwise those between a Man and an Infant were to be spared.

Ver. 4. published &c.] Heb. made the People hear; the Word in this Conjug. Pihel is also in Chap. xxiii. 8.

Ib. in Telaim] Yet the Vulg. has, as it were Lambs, the Difference being only of 2 and 3 which might be easier mistaken in writing; but the Sept. have in Galgal for Gilgal, Drusius here remarking, They changed the Name for one more known, which, adds he, is frequent in that Edition, as elsewhere Jebu is changed to Juda, and six hundred or innumerable many more.

Ver. 6. down] the Hebrew noting the principal Distinction here by a King Accent, as from among it belongs also to the two foregoing Verbs, as well as to this; though Buxtorf ignorantly changes the Power and Property of the King and Ministers here, Thef. Gram. Lib. ii. Cap. 23. p. 274. Edit. 2. as he does likewise on 2 Kings i. 6. where look.

Ver. 9. the second Sort] agreeable to contemptible and waste following. The same Word in the plural Number as here is in Ezra i. 10. 1 Chron. xv. 18. and does not signify Fatlings, nor any Thing of fat. Trem. and Jun. likewise have secundaries, whom Buxtorf follows; and the Eng. Marg. of the second sort. Fatlings appears to have come first by a mistaken Transposition of the Letters ws in the Heb. Word to ws.

Ver. 11. sorry] as Judg. x. 16. see Gen. vi. 7. Ib. confirmed my Words] So the Original, not performed, though Words may be taken for Commandments. It may have Reference to that in Exod. xvii. ult. Deut. xxv. ult.

came

came to Carmel, and behold he set him up a Monument, and going round about, passed on, and is gone down to Gilgal.

13. To whom when Samuel came, Saul accosted him, The Lord blest thee, I have confirmed the Lord's Word.

14. Nevertheless Samuel said, Why then is there this Noise of the Flocks in my Ears, and that of the Herds which I hear?

15. And Saul answered, They brought them from the Amalekites, because the People spared the best of the Flocks and Herds, that they might sacrifice to the Lord thy God; and the rest we have destroyed.

16. Stop, replied Samuel to him, that I may tell thee what the Lord spoke to me to Night; who bade him speak out.

17. And Samuel replied; Though thou wast little in thy own Regard, didst not thou become Head of the Tribes of Israel, and wast anointed by the Lord King over it?

18. Afterwards the Lord sent thee on an Expedition, and said, Go, and destroy those Sinners the Amalekites, fighting against them till they are consumed.

19. Why then didst not thou hearken to what the Lord said, but rush on the Spoil, and do what he disliked?

20. And Saul said to him; Therein I did hearken to what the Lord said, and went on the Expedition that he sent me; nay have brought Agag King of Amalek, and destroyed Amalek.

21. But the People took from the Spoil of the Flocks and Herds, the chief of what was to be destroyed, to sacrifice to the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22. Is the Lord, said Samuel, as well pleased with Burnt-offerings and Sacrifices, as in obeying what he says? Behold to obey is better than Sacrifice, to be attentive than the Fat of Rams.

23. For Rebellion is as the Sin of Divination, and to be headstrong like an Idol and the Teraphs: because thou hast rejected the Word of the Lord, he likewise rejects thee from being King.

24. Upon this Saul answered him; I have sinned, because I transgressed the Command of the Lord, and thy Words: for I feared the People, and hearkened to what they said.

25. Now therefore forgive my Sin, I pray, and come back with me, that I may worship the Lord.

26. Yet Samuel replied to him, I will not go back with thee: because thou hast rejected the Word of the Lord, he likewise rejects thee from being King over Israel.

27. For Samuel was turned about to go away; but he took hold of the Skirt of his Mantle, and it tore.

28. At which Samuel said to him; The Lord tears the Kingdom of Israel from thee to Day, that he may give it to thy Neighbour who is better than thou.

29. And also the Strength of Israel will not lye, nor repent: for he is not a Man, to repent.

30. Again he said, I have sinned; honour me now, I pray, before the Elders of my People and Israel, and come back with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

31. So Samuel went back after Saul, who worshipped the Lord.

Ver. 12. Monument] Heb. Hand, which might be for a Trophy of his Victory; place however is a poor Word; see the like 2 Sam. xviii. 18.

Ver. 19. rush on the Spoil] to take it for Spoil, and not destroy it.

Ver. 20. Therein] or It is in what, being the Hebrew Relative.

Ver. 23. Divination] as elsewhere, and witchcraft belonging to Women.

lb. to be headstrong] It is a Verb infinitive, to force or press on; which Verb is found in the following Places, Gen. xix. 3, 9. & xxxiii. 11. Judg. xix. 7. 2 Kings ii. 17. & v. 16.

lb. an Idol] which was called by this Name, because of the Iniquity and Vanity belonging to it, as Isa. lxvi. 3. and so Sant. Pagn. renders it here. Besides as iniquity is improper.

lb. Teraphs] See Gen. xxxi. 19.

Ver. 26. I will not] Psalm writes on it, 'This was no Lye, though he afterwards returned, because he spoke what he meant; though afterwards he saw reason to change his Intentions. Which, adds he, may relieve many perplexed Consciences, who think themselves obliged to do what they have said they would do.' What Pity it was Jephthah, Herod, &c. did not know this! But are all Promises mere Nothings? And is it no Lye to break them? Does not a Man's Word bind him? Is not that a Security against the Alteration of his Mind?

VOL. I.

People of tender Consciences will take care what they say, and should repent of Lying, when they are guilty of it, instead of fancying that the Change of their Mind makes their Words void. Nor should the Example of Samuel himself, any more than Noah's being drunk, &c. justify a Person not to perform what he has positively said he would; but I cannot allow him to be the Patron of Liars, who only said he would not go back with Saul, and went back after him, Ver. 31. for though Saul wanted Samuel to honour him with his Company, grace his Triumph, and join with him in worshipping the Lord, Ver. 30. there is no Mention but of Saul's worshipping, as the Effect of Samuel's Absence, who might go back after him only to kill Agag. And why else should with, being three times the same, Ver. 25, 26, 30. be changed into after, Ver. 31? It is said of Lekman the famous eastern Philosopher, who is supposed to be first an Ethiopian Slave, and brought into the Country of Israel about the Time of David, that upon being asked by a noble Israelite, how he had attained such a high Degree of Virtue? he answered, By these three easy Steps, I have always spoke the Truth, kept my Word, and never meddled with what did not concern me, Universal Hist. B. I. Ch. 11. 5.

Ver. 27. For] Else why did Saul intreat him to come back with him, and he refuse? So that the Time or Order of this and the two next Verses may be understood to be between the 23d and 24th.

Z z z z

32. Next

32. Next Samuel said, Bring hither to me Agag King of Amalek; and Agag went to him delicately: for he said, Surely the Bitterness of Death is departed.

33. But Samuel said, According as thy Sword has deprived Women of Children, so shall thy Mother among them be deprived of one. And he cut Agag to pieces before the Lord in Gilgal.

34. At last Samuel went away to Ramah; and Saul up to his House, at Gibeah of Saul.

35. Whom Samuel came to see no more to the Day of his Death, though he mourned for him; since the Lord was sorry because he had made Saul King over Israel.

C H A P. XVI.

AFTER that the Lord said to Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill thy Horn with Oil, and come, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite; for I have looked me out a King among his Sons.

2. But he said, How shall I go, since Saul will hear, and kill me? And the Lord answered; Take a Heifer of the Herd with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the Lord.

3. Invite Jesse also to the Sacrifice; and I will let thee know what thou shalt do, and thou shalt anoint for me whom I tell thee.

4. And Samuel did what the Lord said, going to Beth-lehem; whom the Elders of the City trembled to meet, and asked, Dost thou come in Peace?

5. Who answered, Yes, I am come to sacrifice to the Lord; sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the Sacrifice. He likewise sanctified Jesse and his Sons, whom he invited to it.

6. Now when they were come, and he saw Eliab, he said, Verily before the Lord is his anointed one.

7. Whereas the Lord said to him, Look not at his Countenance, nor at the Height of his Stature; because I have rejected him: for it is not what Man perceives; since Man perceives according to the Appearance, but the Lord does according to the Heart.

8. Jesse in the next place calling Abinadab, made him pass before Samuel; and he said, The Lord also has not chosen this.

9. Then making Shammah pass, he said the same.

10. Thus Jesse made seven of his Sons pass before Samuel; who said to him, The Lord has not chosen these;

11. Adding, Are the Children finished? And he answering, The youngest is yet left, and behold he keeps the Flock; Samuel said to Jesse, Send, and fetch him; for we will not turn aside, till he is come hither.

12. Therefore he sent, and brought him; who was ruddy, with a fair Countenance, and a good Look: and the Lord said, Get ready, anoint him; for this is he.

13. Samuel accordingly took the Horn of Oil, and anointed him amongst his Brothers; and the Spirit of the Lord came upon David, from that Day upward: then Samuel got ready, and went to Ramah.

14. But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil one from the Lord troubled him.

Ver. 32. Surely &c.] It is in the Chald. Targum, כסעו רבני מלך מותא as if in the modern Idiom, Pray, Sir (consider) Death is bitter: but though the Hebrew Word is far, it does not signify Sir; notwithstanding another far may, viz. ר from ר whence the Mistake.

Ib. departed] Neither does the Word mean past, nor could Agag say it was past, for he had not suffered it.

Ver. 33. deprived of Children] The Hebrew signifying no more: not made childless, as is manifest by Gen. xlii. 36. & xliii. 14.

Ib. them] those Women; which makes better Sense than Women in general, and may shew the particular Advantage of using a Pronoun sometimes for a Hebrew Noun.

Ver. 35. came to see no more] only saw him occasionally, Chap. xix. 24.

Ib. to the Day] until may denote he did then.

Ver. 1. come] as usually translated when imperative, and what Propriety requires.

Ver. 6. before the Lord] so the Heb. stands; but before him I find changed to before me in the Camb. Concord. The Reason of Samuel's speaking this, appears to be God's choosing a tall King before.

Ver. 7. said] "by secret Inspiration," Psalm's Annot. "by a secret inward Suggestion," Patrick in Comment.

Ib. what] the Relative.

Ver. 10. Thus] So Jun. and Trem. have sic; for it could not be again.

Ver. 11. turn aside] to the Sacrifice, signifying Nothing of sit down. And not sit down, with Arise, Ver. 12. in the present Version may seem not quite coherent.

Ver. 13. amongst] Patrick says, "It had better have been translated, from the midst of;" quite opposite to the Meaning of the Hebrew Word: but he supposes Eliab did not know of it by Chap. xvii. 28. which may rather shew the contrary, that he reproached David for his Pride on this Account, and despised his being anointed, as he was refused himself, Ver. 6, 7. and Patrick on Chap. xx. 31. seems to allow Saul himself might know of it; see Chap. xxiii. 16. & xxiv. 20.

Ver. 14. an evil one] Perhaps on due Consideration this will appear to be here to him, if it might not be rendered a fullen Temper: for the Emotion of the Soul may be called, especially in the eastern Manner, a Spirit, as that of the Air Wind. But this will not affect the Spirit of the Lord mentioned before, whose Spirit is not a Temper, though Man's may, yet otherwise it is the Soul, as in Eccles. xii. 7. Job xxxiv. 14.

Ib. from the Lord] as a Punishment for his Wickedness; or as the Effect in him of the Lord's rejecting him, and the Good Spirit being withdrawn, which in another

15. His

15. His Servants therefore said to him; Behold now an evil Spirit from God troubling thee;

16. Let our Lord, we pray, bid thy Servants before thee, seek for a Man who knows how to play on a Harp; and when the evil Spirit from God is upon thee, he playing with his Hand, thou wilt be well.

17. So Saul said to them, Look me out a Man now who can play well, and bring to me.

18. And one of the Servants made answer, Behold I have seen a Son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, who knows how to play, and is a valiant Man, a Warrior, understanding Business, and a comely Person; with whom the Lord is.

19. Whereupon he sent Messengers to Jesse, to say, Send me thy Son David, who is with the Flock.

20. Jesse then took an Afs-load of Bread, a Bottle of Wine, and one Kid of the Goats, and sent by the Hand of his Son David to Saul.

21. To whom David coming, and standing before him; he loved him exceedingly, and he became to him an Armour-bearer.

22. Nay Saul sent thus to Jesse, Vouchsafe to let David attend on me; for he is got in Favour with me.

23. And when the Spirit from God was on him, David took a Harp, and played with his Hand; so Saul was refreshed, and became well, the evil Spirit departing from him.

C H A P. XVII.

AND the Philistines gathered their Camps to Battle, being gathered to Sochoh, which belonged to Judah; and encamped between that and Azekah, in the Limit of Dammim.

Person might be succeeded by the Spirit of Whoredom, Drunkenness, &c.

A learned Friend of mine adds, This was agreeable to the common Style of the Eastern People; who without imputing Evil to the Author of every Good, acknowledged it to be consistent with his Justice to permit wicked Men to repeat the Fruits of their Doings, and therefore expressed it in this Manner, as the most emphatical.

Ver. 1. Camps] as in Ver. 53.

1b. Sochoh] As our Translators also have it 1 Kings iv. 10.

Ver. 4. between] as just before, not signifying Champion at all; and one may wonder why it has been translated at such a Rate, when it reads so well literally, and being in the dual Number so elegantly denotes between the two Armies, especially as it is repeated when singular in the Hebrew, and applied to each of the two Things that Something is between; which could not be here, because what he was between is but understood, not expressed; and Valley in the foregoing Verse has between plural, as there were more Camps than one of a Side, Ver. 1, 4, 10, 45. In the Chald. this is בין שתי הצבאות between them; and Kimhi expounds it בין שתי הצבאות between

2. Saul and the Men of Israel were likewise gathered, and encamping at the Vale of Oaks, set the Battle in order to meet them.

3. When they stood upon a Mountain on that Side, and the Israelites upon another on this; there being a Valley between them.

4. And a Man came out between, from the Camps of the Philistines, whose Name was Goliath of Gath; his Height was six Cubits and a Span.

5. Upon whose Head was a Helmet of Steel, and he had on a scaley Corset; the Weight of the latter being five thousand Shekels of Steel.

6. There were also Boots of Steel up from his Feet, and a Lance of Steel between his Shoulders.

7. The Pole too of his Spear was like the Weavers Beam, and his Spear's Head was six hundred Shekels of Iron; moreover one carrying a Shield went before him.

8. And he stood, and calling to the Armies of Israel, said to them; Why do you come out to set the Battle in order? Am not I a Philistine, and you Servants to Saul? Choose you out a Man, and let him come down to me.

9. If he is able to fight with me, and beat me; we will become Servants to you: and if I prevail against him, and beat him, you shall become Servants to us, and serve us.

10. Besides the Philistine said, I reproach the Armies of Israel this Day; give me a Man, that we may fight together.

11. And Saul with all Israel hearing these Words of his, were daunted, and exceedingly afraid.

12. Now David was the Son of that Man the Ephrathite, of Beth-lehem-judah, whose Name was Jesse, who had eight Sons; and he went among Men for an old Person in the Time of Saul.

between the two Armies; Munst. translates inter utroque, between both; Lee Jud. and Pagnin. inter duas acies, between the two Armies.

Ver. 5. Steel] See Gen. iv. 22.

1b. a scaley Corset] Heb. a Corset of Scales, according to the Manner of that Tongue; Plates of Steel being laid on one another like Fishes Scales, Bochart. Phaleg. Lib. iii. 13.

Ver. 6. Lance] See Ver. 45.

Ver. 8. Choose you out] בחר from בחר in the Conjug. Pihel, omitted in Buxtorf's great Concordance; which every Dabbler in Hebrew might not know how to make out, and so be forced to trust in Translation.

Ver. 10. reproach] with Cowardice; so the Noun, Ver. 26. which directs this, though it signifies no other, as despise is.

Ver. 12. went among Men for an old Person] This Interpretation, though modern, I like best; some formerly supposing it meant, he was one among notable Men; others among the feeble: see Buxt. Vind. P. ii. Cap. 13. But see the Force of Imagination! the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text thinks our באנשי has been writ by transposition from באנשי

13. And

13. And his three eldest Sons were gone, who went after Saul to the Battle; the Names of those being Eliab the First-born, his second Abinadab, and the third Sham-mah.

14. As for David, he was the youngest, the three eldest being gone after Saul.

15. But he was gone back from him, to feed his Father's Flock at Beth-lehem.

16. Thus the Philistine came nigh Morning and Evening, and presented himself forty Days.

17. And Jesse said to his Son David; Take now for thy Brothers this Ephah of parched Corn, with these ten Loaves, and run to them at the Camp.

18. As likewise carry these ten Milk-cheeses to the Captain of the Thousand; and go see concerning thy Brothers Welfare, and take up what they have pawned.

19. In the mean time Saul, and they, with all the Men of Israel, were at the Vale of Oaks, fighting with the Philistines.

20. So David rose early in the Morning, and leaving the Flock to a Keeper, took, and went as Jesse commanded him; and when he came to the Carriage, the Army was going out to be set in order, and they shouted to the Battle.

21. Israel and the Philistines setting themselves in order, one Army to meet the other.

22. Therefore David put down the Things from him into the Custody of the Keeper of the Things, and ran to the Army; and being come, he asked his Brethren of their Welfare.

23. And while he was talking with them, behold there came up the Man between, whose Name was Goliath, the Philistine of Gath, from the Armies of the Philistines, and spoke according to the former Words; which David heard.

24. But all the Men of Israel when they saw him, fled from his Presence, and were exceedingly afraid.

25. A Man also of Israel said, Have you seen this Man who is come up? For it is to reproach Israel; and that Man who beats him, the King will enrich with great Riches, and give him his Daughter, making his Father's Family free in Israel.

26. David further spoke to the Men that stood by him as follows, What shall be done to the Man who beats this Philistine, and takes away the Reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should reproach the Armies of the living God?

27. And the People answered him according to the foregoing Speech, that thus it should be done to the Man who beat him.

28. However Eliab his eldest Brother hearing when he spoke to the Men, was angry with him, and said, Why didst thou come down? And with whom hast thou left those few Sheep in the Wilderness? I know thy Pride, and the Evil of thy Heart; for thou art come down, that thou mayest see the Battle.

29. And David said, What have I now done? Was it not Business?

30. Then he turned about from him towards another, and said as already mentioned; and the People returned him Word as they did before.

31. And the Words being heard which David spake, they told them before Saul, who had him fetched.

32. And David said to him, Let no Man's Courage fail for him; thy Servant will go, and fight with this Philistine.

33. Whom he answered, Thou art not able to go this Philistine, to fight with him: for thou art a Youth, and he a Warrior from his Youth.

34. Upon which David thus expressed himself to Saul, When thy Servant was his Father's Shepherd over the Sheep, and there came a Lion, or a Bear, and took a Lamb out of the Flock;

Transposition indeed when three Letters have new Places! nor that all, but בשנים being writ for בשנים in Years, whence he reckons an old man and stricken in years the truer reading, agreeably (for agreeable) to the Syriack and Arabick Versions, State &c. p. 524. Yet then his [and] would be wanting in the Heb. and [stricken] be old uncouth Translation, nay the Hebrew would read thus, and the Man (for) an old Man went in Years; in the happy Discovery of which he may hug himself.

Ver. 17. this Ephah] The Construction being as of these Words in Ver. 11. and this Man, Ver. 25.

Ver. 18. take up their Pawn] In the com. Lat. however, learn with whom they are placed; and Jonathan in the Chald. bring their Condition; concerning which and more may be consulted Buxt. Vind. p. 781, 782, 783.

Ver. 26. takes away] So at the End of the 151st Psalm, extant in the Greek Verse of Apollinarius, upon this Subject, David is personated saying, Λάβεν δ' ἔξαλάωσα περιφρονῶ- Ισραήλ.

And I took away the Reproach of Israel, looking at it round about: which Psalm I have seen in English, only by R. B. Esq. 1638, but there much enlarged, and thus turned,

So this reproach Ben-Jesse took from honour'd Israel.

1b. should reproach] The Verb and Noun being from the same Root.

Ver. 28. Why] מָה being only interrogative with מָה as in Chap. xx. 8. Gen. xviii. 13. Num. xi. 20. 2 Sam. xii. 23. & xviii. 22. & xix. 42. 1 Kings xiv. 6. Prov. xvii. 16. and which also does not signify hither.

Ver. 29. Business] which to do my Father sent me hither, Jun. and Trem. the Heb. also having it.

Ver. 34. or a Bear] Thus Trem. and Jun. turn it, and the several following Words in the singular Number shew; which to signify two different Things, without

35. I went

35. I went forth after him, and beat him, and delivered it out of his Mouth: then on his rising up against me, I took hold of his Beard, and beat him, so that I killed him.

36. Thy Servant beat both Lion and Bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be as one of them, because he has reproached the Armies of the living God.

37. The Lord, continued David, who delivered me from the Paw of a Lion, and that of a Bear, will deliver me from the Hand of this Philistine. Then Saul said to him, Go, and the Lord be with thee.

38. And he armed David with his Arms, putting a Helmet of Steel upon his Head, and arming him with a Corslet.

39. But David ungirded his Sword from his Apparel, and would go, because he had not tried them; saying to Saul, I cannot go in these, because I have not tried them. So he put them off from him.

40. And taking his Staff in his Hand, he chose five smooth Stones out of the Valley, which he put in a Shepherd's Bag that he had, namely a Satchel, and his Sling was in his Hand: thus he went nigh to the Philistine.

41. Who likewise came on, getting near to David as he came, with the Man that carried the Shield before him.

42. But when he looked, and saw David, he despised him; because he was a Youth, and ruddy, with a fair Countenance.

43. The Philistine also said to him, Am I a Dog, that thou comest against me with Staves? And he cursed David by his gods.

44. Nay he said to him, Come to me, and I will give thy Flesh to the Fowls of the Air, and to the Beasts of the Field.

45. On the other hand David said to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a Sword, Spear and Lance; whereas I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of Armies, the God of the Hosts of Israel, whom thou hast reproached.

46. This Day will the Lord deliver thee into my Power, that I may smite thee, and take off thy Head from thee, nay give the Corpses of the Camp of the Philistines this Day to the Fowls of the Air, and to the Beasts of the Earth; so all the Earth shall know, that there is a God in Israel.

47. All this Congregation too shall know, that the Lord does not save by Sword nor Spear: for the Battle is the Lord's, who will give you up into our Power.

48. And when the Philistine got ready, and came on, drawing near to meet David; he ran apace towards the Army to meet the Philistine.

49. Next he thrust his Hand into the Bag, and taking thence a Stone, flung, and struck the Philistine on his Forehead; so that the Stone sunk into it, and he fell upon his Face to the Ground.

50. Thus David was too strong for the Philistine with a Sling and a Stone, whom he beat, and killed; having no Sword in his Hand.

51. Therefore he ran, and standing by the Philistine, took his Sword, which he pulled out of its Sheath, and not only killed him, but cut off his Head with it. When the Philistines seeing that their strong one was dead, they fled.

52. At which the Men of Israel and Judah got ready, and shouting, followed the Philistines till one comes to the Valley, and to the Gates of Ekron; so that they fell down wounded in the Way to Shaaraim, as also to Gath, and Ekron.

53. Moreover when the Israelites returned from pursuing after them, they spoiled their Camps.

any Dependency on each other, is quite beside both Language and Sense. So Patrick comments, that they came, not both together, but at several times; and it is likely more than once.

Ver. 39. ungirded his Sword from] by is upon, and is from, joined to it gives it a contrary Meaning from upon or off from; for which the whole Scripture may witness by a Multitude of Instances, and one more even in this Verse. So girded from off or upon may signify ungirded from; or else as some Verbs in Hebrew have also a Signification just contrary to their proper one, girded may signify ungirded. The common Way of translating seems unintelligible.

Ver. 40. Valley] So the Word signifies principally, as also Jun. and Trem. turn it; besides (and I could add more) we know a Valley was there, but not that there was a Brook.

Ver. 45. Lance] This was carried by the Giant between his Shoulders, Ver. 6. it may seem in the Manner of Arrows; as likewise to throw, which the ancient Warriors did their Lances; and so not intended of the Shield, that another carried before, Ver. 7. The Word is found in these other Places, viz. Jesh. viii. 18, 26. Job xli. 29. Jer. vi. 23. rendered by the King's Translators spear; Jer. l. 42. lance; and Job xxxix. 23. shield, where it plainly appears to be an offensive Weapon. Castal. turns it here and Ver. 6. by lancea. If it be thought this makes too many Weapons of one Kind, and incommodious to be held in Hand; let it be considered, that the Lance placed behind was first to be taken, and flung at the Adversary; that the Spear only was carried in Hand, to push with; and the Sword hung by the Side, to be used last if wanted.

Ver. 49. flung] So the Heroes in Homer generally perform their Exploits by distant Fighting.

Ver. 51. standing by] Heb. to or at; as likewise Cast. and Montan. render it ad. To stand upon him was an unfit Place to cut off his Head.

54. Afterwards David took the Head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but his Armour he put into his Tent.

55. And as Saul saw him go forth to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner the Captain of the Army, Whose Son is this Youth, Abner? And he answered, By thy Soul's living, O King, I know not.

56. Do thou ask, replied the King, whose Son this Lad is.

57. At last as David returned from the Slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and had him before Saul, with the Philistine's Head in his Hand.

58. To whom Saul said, Whose Son art thou, young Man? And David answered, The Son of thy Servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND as soon as he had made an end of speaking to Saul, Jonathan's Soul was bound up with that of David; and he loved him as his own Soul.

2. Saul also took him that Day, and would not let him go back to his Father's House.

3. And Jonathan made a Covenant with him, for his loving him as aforesaid.

4. Nay he stript himself of the Robe which was upon him, and gave it to David; with his Garments, even to his Sword, Bow and Girdle.

5. And David going out, whithersoever Saul sent him, so prospered, that he set him over the Warriors; besides all the People liked him, as did Saul's Servants.

6. But at their coming, when David returned from beating a Philistine, the Women came out of all the Cities of Israel, to sing, and meet King Saul in Dances; with Timbrels, Mirth, and a Concert of Musick.

7. Who playing, spoke thus, Saul has beat his Thousands, and David his ten Thousands.

8. Very angry at which, and disliking that Expression, Saul said, They ascribe to David ten Thousands, and to me they do Thousands; and there is but the Kingdom more for him.

9. And he was eying David from that Day forward.

10. The next Day too the evil Spirit from God came on him, and he prophesied within the House, whereupon David was playing with his Hand as at other Times; when there being a Spear in Saul's Hand,

11. He threw it, saying, I will strike it through David, even into the Wall; but David turned aside from his Presence twice.

12. And Saul feared by reason of him, because the Lord was with him. and was departed from himself.

13. Therefore he put him away from him, and made him his Captain of a Thousand; so he went out, and came in, before the People.

14. Moreover David was prosperous in all his Ways, the Lord being with him.

15. And Saul seeing whereby he prospered much, was afraid because of him.

16. Nevertheless all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out, and came in, before them.

17. At length Saul said to him, Behold I will give thee my eldest Daughter Merab for a Wife; only be thou a valiant Person for me, and fight the Lord's Battles: for he thought, Let not my Hand be on him, but let those of the Philistines.

Ver. 55. All that can be made of this is, that Saul and Abner did not know whose Son David was, as also Ver. 56, 58. shew, which might well be: so that the common silly Enquiry, how they did not know David, like that of Gen. iv. 16, 17. who was Cain's Wife that he took in the Land of Nod, might be spared. It is strange that Commentators should be so unattentive, and in particular that Poole after consulting so many to compose his Synopsis Criticorum, should labour so hard at it in his English Annotations.

Ver. 1. he loved him] Which Cowley dresses out thus in his Davidis, Book ii.

*For when the noble Youth at Dammin stood Adorn'd with Sweat, and painted gay with Blood,
Jonathan pierc'd him through with greedy Eye,
And understood the future Majesty
Then destin'd in the Glories of his Look;
He saw, and strait was with Amusement struck,
To see the Strength, the Feature, and the Grace
Of his young Limbs; he saw his comely Face,
Where Love and Reverence so well mingled were;
And Head, already crown'd with golden Hairs.
He saw what Mildness his bold Sp'rit did tame, Gentler than Light, yet powerful as a Flame.*

*He saw his Valour by their Safety prov'd;
He saw all this, and as he saw, he lov'd.*

Ver. 5. prospered] Look forward to Ver. 30.

Ver. 6. coming] as Trem. and Jun. well observe, ab aliqua alia pugna contra Pelischaos, from some other Fight against the Philistines. Yet our Annotators, Poole and Patrick, suppose it was from the Slaughter of Goliath, which Ver. 5, 9. and ten Thousands, Ver. 7. may refute without any farther Remark.

1b. a Philistine] as the Edomite, Num. xx. 18. see Ver. 14. Vulg. adds, and carried his Head into Jerusalem.

1b. a Concert of Musick] Tabrets or Timbrels being Instruments of it, and so making an Impropriety.

Ver. 11. through David &c.] Which seems plainly enough to be the Meaning of the Hebrew, into David and into the Wall, since the Preposition also signifies through.

Ver. 17. thought] So this Verb not only signifies sometimes, but is rendered in our common Bible, as Chap. xx. 26. and where more necessary than here, especially as 'posited? How it comes to signify so, I understand is thus, because to think is the same as to say mentally or to one's self, as in Chap. xxvii. 1. 1 Kings xii. 26. Gen. xxvii. 41. Psa. xiv. 1.

18. But

18. But David said to him, Who am I? Or what is my Life, and my Father's Family in Israel, that I should be Son-in-law to the King?

19. Yet at the Time Merab his Daughter should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite for a Wife.

20. However his Daughter Michal loving David, when they told Saul, he approved of the Matter.

21. For he thought, I will give him her, that she may become a Snare to him, and the Hands of the Philistines may be on him: so he said to him, In one of the two thou shalt be joined to me by Marriage that Day.

22. Besides Saul commanded his Servants, Speak thus to David privately, Lo the King delights in thee, and all his Servants love thee, now therefore be joined to the King by Marriage.

23. And when they spoke these Words in David's Hearing, he said, Is it light in your Sight to be joined to the King by Marriage, when I am a Man poor and base?

24. So the Servants of Saul told him, that David spoke according to these Words.

25. To which he replied; Thus shall you say to him, The King has no Delight in a Dowry, but in a hundred Foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on his Enemies. For Saul intended to make him fall by the Hands of the Philistines.

26. And upon his Servants telling David these Words, he approved of the Matter, to be joined to the King by Marriage; the Days being not fulfilled.

27. Accordingly he got ready, and went, with his Men, and killed of the Philistines two hundred Men: whose Foreskins he brought, and gave them compleat to the King, that he might be joined to him by Marriage: upon this Saul gave him his Daughter Michal for a Wife.

28. But he saw and knew, that the Lord was with David; Michal his Daughter also loved him.

29. Saul was therefore yet more afraid by reason of him, and he was David's Enemy continually.

30. Afterwards the Princes of the Philistines came forth; and from their coming David had the most success of all the Servants of Saul, so that his Name was much esteemed.

C H A P. XIX.

AT length Saul spoke to Jonathan his Son, as well as to all his Servants, to kill David; whereas he delighted in him exceedingly.

2. So Jonathan told him as follows; Saul my Father is endeavouring to kill thee; now therefore take heed, I pray, in the Morning, that thou mayest abide in secret, and be hid.

3. And I will go out, and stand at my Father's Side in the Field where thou art, to whom I will speak of thee; and when I see how it is, will tell thee.

4. He accordingly spoke well of him to Saul his Father, expostulating with him; Let not the King do amiss against his Servant David; because he has not done amiss to thee, and because his Deeds to thee have been very good.

5. For he ventured his Life, and beat the Philistine, by which the Lord made the great Preservation to all Israel, that thou sawest, and wast glad at: why then wouldest thou do amiss against innocent Blood, to kill David for nothing?

6. And Saul hearkened to what he said; nay he swore, By the Lord's living, he shall not be put to death.

7. Then Jonathan called David, and told him all these Words; he also introduced him to Saul, and he was before him as in Time past.

8. After that there was War again; and David going out, fought with the Philistines, Ver. 20. his Daughter Michal loving David] But the Vulgate, David loved Michal the other Daughter of Saul, which the Hebrew determines otherwise.

Ver. 21. of the two] Thus making a sham Pretence of keeping his Promise; so much still practised by such as Saul.

1b. that Day] which he appointed, according to Ver. 26.

Ver. 25. Foreskins of the Philistines] which the Israelites had not, being circumcised; for which reason Saul might demand them, that he might not be deceived.

Ver. 30. had—success] or prospered. Thus the Targum has it, viz. Kimbi and Lev. Ben Gers. expound it by רִבְּרִי more of which may be seen in Pagnine's Lexicon. As likewise Jun. and Trem. render it by secundor, to be prosperous; and in Buxtorf's Lexicon the Word is explained, secundari, prosperari; so also the Margin of the Geneva Bible interprets it both here and at the 5th Verse.

Ver. 1. There is the Hebrew Athnah for the Middle of the Verse, where the King's Translators have ended it; which seems to have been a Mistake from the Septuagint, and agrees with no other Translation that I have seen.

Ver. 2. in the Morning] Perhaps when he was to go to Court, as now said. So it is in the Hebrew, not until. The Latin Translators have mostly but mane, for in the Morning, yet Pagn. and Montan. in mane; Coverdale has in the Mornynge.

Ver. 3. thou art] The vulg. Lat. Translator thinking he is better, did not scruple to make it so.

1b. how it is] Pagn. and Mont. more literal, and I will see what, and tell to thee; but 1b is how as well as what: in the Geneva Bible is, "And I will see what hee saith, and will tell thee;" by Casal. better, Et videbo quid sit (how it is) tibi que indicabo.

and

and slew them with a great Slaughter, and they fled from his Presence.

9. But Saul had the evil Spirit from the Lord, as he was sitting at home, holding his Spear, while David played with the Hand.

10. And Saul attempted to strike through him with the Spear, even into the Wall; but he got away from his Presence, so that he struck the Spear into the Wall; and David fleeing, escaped that Night.

11. Nevertheless he sent Messengers to David's House to watch him, and kill him in the Morning; but it was told him thus by Michal his Wife, If thou dost not escape with thy Life to Night, to Morrow thou wilt be killed.

12. So she let him down through a Window; and he went away, and fleeing, escaped.

13. Besides she took a Teraph, and put into the Bed; and made a Bolster of Goats Hair for his Pillow; which she covered with a Garment.

14. And when Saul sent Messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15. With that he sent them to see him, and said, Bring him up in the Bed to me, that I may kill him.

16. But at their going in, behold there was a Teraph in the Bed, with a Bolster of Goats Hair for his Pillow.

17. Saul therefore asked Michal, Why hast thou deceived me thus, and sent away my Enemy, so that he is escaped? And she answered him; He said to me, Let me go; Why should I kill thee?

18. Thus David fleeing, escaped, and got to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him; so he and Samuel went, and dwelt in the Habitations.

19. And it was told Saul, that behold David was in the Habitations at Ramah.

20. Upon this he sent Messengers to fetch him, who seeing the Assembly of Prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing placed over them; the Spirit of God was upon the Messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

21. Which being told Saul, he sent other

Messengers, and they likewise prophesied; yet he sent Messengers again the third time, and they prophesied too.

22. At last he also went to Ramah, and coming to a great Well which was in Sechu, he asked thus, Where are Samuel and David? And it was said, Behold in the Habitations at Ramah.

23. Therefore he went thither to those Habitations; and the Spirit of God was likewise upon himself, so that he went on, prophesying as he went, till he came into the Habitations at Ramah.

24. And he stript off his Cloaths also, and prophesied too before Samuel, moreover lay down naked all that Day, and all Night: therefore they say, Is Saul also among the Prophets?

CHAP. XX.

HOWEVER David fled from the Habitations at Ramah; and came, and said before Jonathan, What have I done? What is my Iniquity? Or what is my Offence before thy Father, that he seeks after my Life?

2. Who answered him, Far be it off, thou shalt not die; behold my Father does neither great nor small Matter, without discovering it in my Hearing: Why then should he hide this Matter from me? That will not be.

3. But David yet swore as follows; Thy Father fully knows that I am got in Favour with thee, therefore he thinks, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he should be grieved; but surely, by the Lord's living, and thy Soul's living, there is but as it were a Step between me and Death.

4. Then replied Jonathan to him, Whatever thou shalt say thy Mind is, that will I do for thee.

5. To whom David said; Behold the New-moon will be to Morrow, and I should sit with the King entirely to eat; but let me go, that I may be hid in the Field, till the third Evening.

Ver. 10. through] See the foregoing Chap. Ver. 11.

Ver. 13. a Garment] which might deceive the Messengers better than a Cloth; nor does the Hebrew Word mean that.

Ver. 19. Habitations] which is the Meaning of Navoth, or, as it seems without the Points, Navith; for Najoth is only in the Margin. Moreover Ramah was a City or Town, Josh. xviii. 25. Judg. xix. 13. 1 Sam. xxviii. 3. not a Country or Region; therefore the Heb. Navoth which was in it, was not a Place, but Habitations or Houses, which probably belonged to Samuel or his Family, Chap. i. 19. & ii. 11. & vii. 17. & xxv. 1. or else to the Prophets mentioned Ver. 20.

Ver. 24. all Night] Here is not that, as to Day.

Ver. 2. does] will do being too inconsistent with should that follows.

Ver. 3. thinks] as at Chap. xviii. 17. for it is quite improbable that David knew Saul said so, and indeed improbable he said so to any one.

1b. as it were] here being the Hebrew Adverb of Comparison.

Ver. 4. say] so the Verb signifies, not desire.

6. If thy Father should at all want me; thou mayest say, David asked earnestly of me, that he might run to Beth-lehem his City, because the yearly Sacrifice is there for all the Family.

7. If he should say thus, It is well: there will be Peace to thy Servant: but if he should be highly incensed, know that Harm is concluded by him.

8. And thou shouldest shew Kindness to thy Servant, since thou hast brought him into a Covenant of the Lord with thee: nevertheless if there is Iniquity in me, kill me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy Father?

9. Far be it from thee, said Jonathan, for if I at all know, that Harm is concluded by my Father to come upon thee, shall I not tell it to thee?

10. But David questioned with him, Who shall tell me, whether what thy Father answers thee be hard?

11. And he replied to David, Come, and let us go out into the Field; which they both did.

12. Again Jonathan said to him; By the Lord God of Israel, when I have searched my Father about the Time to Morrow or the third Day, and behold there is Good to David; what shall not I then send to thee, and discover it in thy Hearing?

13. By the Lord's doing to Jonathan so and so besides, should Harm to thee please my Father, I will discover it in thy Hearing, and send thee away, so that thou shalt go in Peace; and the Lord be with thee, as he has been with my Father.

14. Thou shalt likewise if I am then alive, not only shew the Kindness of the Lord to me, that I may not die;

15. But shalt not cut off thy Kindness from my Family for ever, even not, when the Lord cuts off the Enemies of David respectively from the Surface of the Ground.

16. And Jonathan covenanted with the Family of David, that the Lord should require it of those who should be David's Enemies.

17. Nay he made David swear again, since he loved him; as he did with the Love of his own Soul.

18. Jonathan said further to him: The New-moon is to Morrow; and thou wilt be missed, because thy Seat will be vacant.

19. So thou shalt go down the third Day early, and come to the Place where thou wast hid on the Day of the Affair; and stay by the Stone thou wentest to.

20. I will then shoot three Arrows at the Side of it, for my shooting at a Mark.

21. And behold when I send a Youth, Go, find out the Arrows: if I should any how say to him, Behold the Arrows are on this side of thee; take it, that thou mayest come: that there is Peace to thee, and the Matter is Nothing by the Lord's living.

22. But if I should say thus to the Lad, Behold the Arrows are beyond thee: go, for the Lord sends thee away.

23. Moreover in the Matter of which I and thou have spoken, behold the Lord be between me and thee for ever.

24. David accordingly hid in the Field, and when it was the New-moon, the King sate down to eat of the Meat.

25. And he sate upon his Seat, as at other Times, on a Seat by the Wall, and Jonathan rising up, Abner sate down at Saul's Side; but David's Place was vacant.

26. Nevertheless Saul said Nothing that Day: for he thought, There is some Accident; he is not clean, it is because he is not clean.

27. Whereas the next Day, the second of the New-moon, when his Place was vacant, Saul said to Jonathan his Son, Why does not the Son of Jesse come to the Meat, both Yesterday and to Day?

Ver. 12. By the Lord] We are just told this was said to David, not to the Lord; and certainly Jonathan was not to send unto the Lord, and shew it him, as the Words lie in the common Translation. Now a Question being used in Hebrew for a strong Affirmation, for which see 1 Kings xii. 16. Jer. viii. 22. and the Beginning of the next Verse shewing that Jonathan here swore, I translate with [By] as elsewhere. So the first Part with Good is interrogative as before, and the latter with Harm positive.

Ver. 14. if I am then alive] when David should be King. The Particle if signifies if, not while.

Ver. 16. Enemies] if any of Jonathan's own Family should break the Agreement, and be Enemies of David.

Ver. 18. to him] The present Bible having to David, is an open Instance of the Carelessness of its Translators.

Ver. 19. the third Day] Morrows in the preceding Verse, as likewise the Time of Jonathan's going, Ver. 34, 35. shew it to be Day, and the like Ver. 12. otherwise the Hebrew might seem to be the third time. The Targum Bible has it like this, tertio autem die descendes; which is more suitable than adding stayed and a Conjunction.

Ib. early] Heb. very, i. e. very early, that he might not be seen, which agrees with Ver. 35. It has been best done (that I have seen) by Miles Coverdale thus, on the thyrds daye come downe sone.

Ib. the Stone thou wentest to] Heb. the Stone of going.

Ver. 21. on this side of thee] or behither thee, as vulgarly said: Heb. from thee and hither; the like Ver. 22.

Ib. take it] That is for a Sign; it is not take them. Moreover by the Hebrew Pointing Jonathan bade David, and not the Youth, take: for Rebia, agreeing with our Semicolon, comes before take it, and not after as in the common Translation.

28. And he answered him; David had really Leave from me, to run to Bethlehem.

29. For he said, Let me go, I pray, because we have a Family-sacrifice in the City, and my Brother himself has commanded me; and now if I am in Favour with thee, let me get away, I beseech thee, and see my Brethren: therefore he is not come to the King's Table.

30. Incensed with Jonathan at this, Saul said to him; O Son of Perverseness and Rebellion! Do not I know that thou hast chosen the Son of Jesse to thy own Shame, and to that of thy Mother's Nakedness?

31. For as long as ever the Son of Jesse lives upon the Ground, thou and thy Kingdom will not be established: therefore now send, and fetch him to me, for he shall be put to death.

32. And Jonathan made answer to Saul his Father, Why should he die? What has he done?

33. But Saul threw a Spear at him, to kill him; whereby Jonathan knew that it was concluded by his Father to put David to death.

34. Whereupon he arose from the Table in the Heat of Anger, and would not eat Meat the second Day of the New-moon, because he was grieved for David, since his Father had exposed him to Shame.

35. In the Morning also he went out into the Field at David's appointed Time, accompanied with a little Youth.

36. To whom he said, Run, find out now the Arrows that I shoot: the Youth ran, and he shot an Arrow beyond him.

37. And as he was going to the Place of the Arrow that Jonathan shot, he called thus after him, Is not the Arrow beyond thee?

38. Be speedy, make haste, added he, do not stay. And his Youth having gathered up the Arrow, came to his Master.

39. He however did not know any Thing, only Jonathan and David knew the Matter.

40. And Jonathan gave his Arms to the Youth that he had, and said to him, Go, carry them into the City.

41. As soon as he was gone, David rose up from the south Side, and fell on his Face to the Ground, bowing down three times; and they kissed one another, and wept together, till David did excessively.

42. At length Jonathan said to him, Go in Peace; forasmuch as we have both of us sworn thus in the Name of the Lord, The Lord be between me and thee, and betwixt my Offspring and thine, for ever.

43. He accordingly got ready, and went away; and Jonathan came into the City.

CHAP. XXI.

THEN David came to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest; who trembled to meet him, and asked him, Why art thou quite alone, and no Man with thee?

2. To whom David said; The King has given me a Matter in charge, and ordered me, Let no Man know any Thing of the Matter in which I send thee, and which I give thee in charge; and I have let the young Men know it is at such a Place.

3. Now therefore what is there under thy Custody? Give me five Loaves with me, or what there is present.

4. And the Priest made him answer, No common Bread is under my Custody, but consecrated Bread there is, if the young Men have but been kept from Women.

5. Hereupon David made reply to him, But Women have been with-held from us since about the third Day when I came out, and the Things of the young Men are holy; nay that Bread is in a manner common, forasmuch as there will be some consecrated to Day in the Vessel.

Ver. 28. to run] Which is supplied from Ver. 6.

Ver. 36. he shot] Our celebrated Cowley in his Davidis, B. ii. Not. 37. writes, 'It was a subtilty that I cannot for my life comprehend; for since he went to David, and talked to him himself, what needed all that politique trouble of the shooting.' When this Signal for David's Departure was agreed upon, it was supposed there might be some casual Observers; but as it unexpectedly happened there was Nobody to see them, Jonathan sent his Servant away upon a reasonable Pretext, and had an affecting Interview with David.

Ver. 37. was going] his Question that follows to the Youth, denoting the Arrow was beyond him, Ver. 22.

Ver. 43. This is a distinct Verse from the foregoing, both in the Hebrew and other Translations which are parted into Verses, besides our last, and the Bishops.

Ver. 1. Ahimelech] After having followed our eminent Expositors Peck and Patrick on Chap. xiv. 3. who there say Abijah is the same that is called Ahimelech; I must leave them now, when the former here asserts, and the latter speaks of it as generally supposed, that they were Brothers.

Ver. 5. Things] Jam. and Trem. render it Instrumenta; which they expound, id est, quibuscunque ad iter hoc conficiendum instrutti sunt, to be, whatever they were provided with to perform that Journey: Munster says it was indumenta, their Cloaths. And Patrick, who says it is their Bodies, adds that holy is separated from Women; which makes it superfluous, as that was told just before.

1b. forasmuch-as] or even because. The English Marginal Reading, which Patrick prefers, is, especially when this Day there is other sanctified; Jam. also and Trem. translate, tum etiam eo die cum sanctificandus est alius, then also when there is other Bread to be consecrated the same Day. This the next Verse confirms.

1b. will be] the Hebrew Verb being in the future Tense.

6. So the Priest gave him consecrated Bread; because there was none there, but the Presence-loaves taken away from before the Lord, to put hot Bread on the Day it was taken.

7. But a Man was there of the Servants of Saul that Day, retained before the Lord, whose Name was Doeg the Edomite; a powerful one of the Shepherds who belonged to Saul.

8. Moreover David said to Ahimelech, Is there not here also under thy Custody Spear or Sword? For I took neither my Sword nor Arms with me, because the King's Matter was in haste.

9. The Sword of Goliath the Philistine, answered the Priest, whom thou didst smite in the Vale of Oaks, is there wrapt up in a Cloth behind the Ephod; if thou wilt take it to thee, do, for there is no other besides it here. And David replied, There is none like that, give it me.

10. He then got ready, and fled that Day from the Presence of Saul, and came to Achish King of Gath.

11. But the Servants of Achish said to him, Is not this David the King of the Country? Did not they speak thus of him in Dances, Saul has defeated his Thousands, and David his ten Thousands?

12. And David minded these Words, and was much afraid by reason of Achish King of Gath.

13. Therefore he altered his Behaviour in their Sight, and made himself mad in their Custody: for he made Marks upon the Doors of the Gate, and let down his Spittle on his Beard.

14. At which Achish said to his Servants; Behold you see the Man is distracted; Why did you bring him to me?

15. Do I want such as are distracted, that you have brought him to be so with me? Should he come into my House?

C H A P. XXII.

SO David got away from thence, and escaped to the Cave of Adullam; which his Brothers, and the whole Family of his Father hearing of, they went down to him thither.

2. There also gathered themselves together to him every Man who was either streightened, or was in Debt, or of a troubled Mind, and he became a Captain over them; thus there were with him about four hundred Men.

3. Afterwards he went from thence to Mizpeh of Moab; and said to the King of Moab, Let my Father and Mother come forth to you, I pray, until I know what God will do for me.

4. And he brought them before him; with whom they dwelt all the Time David was in the Fortification.

5. At length the Prophet Gad said to David, Do not abide in the Fortification; go, and get thee into the Country of Judah. Accordingly he departed, and came to the Wood of Hereth.

6. And when Saul heard that David was discovered, and the Men who were with him; as he sat at Gibeah under a Tree in Ramah, with his Spear in his Hand, and all his Servants standing by him,

7. He said to them; Hear now, you Benjaminites, will the Son of Jesse give even all of you, Fields and Vineyards; make you all Captains of Thousands, and of Hundreds?

8. That all of you conspired against me, and there was none discovered to my Hearing, when my Son made a Covenant with him; nor was there any of you sorry for me, and made such Discovery, that my Son has raised up my Servant against me, by lying in wait, as at this Time;

9. Then Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the Servants of Saul, made answer; I saw the Son of Jesse come to Nob, to Ahimelech the Son of Ahitub.

10. Who enquired of the Lord for him, and gave him Provision; as he did likewise the Sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11. Upon which the King sent for Ahimelech, the Son of Ahitub, the Priest, and all the Family of his Father, the Priests who were in Nob; and they all came to him.

Ver. 6. Presence-loaves] Because they were in the peculiar Presence of the Lord, as the following Words shew; according to which Jun. and Trem. explain it on Exod. xxv. 30. where see.

Ver. 10. from the Presence of] See the same in Heb. 1 Kings ii. 7. with the parallel Places there brought.

Ver. 5. Hereth] The first Vowel being changed to a by the Accent, like what is observed on Gen. x. 24. and so Jun. and Trem. have both Syllables with e.

Ver. 6. Tree] Gibeah and Ramah being contiguous, Judg. xix. 13. a Tree in the Limits of one might grow over Part of the other.

Ver. 9. stood by] Seb. Munst. qui et ipse stabat juxta servos, who also himself stood by the Servants; the Tigurin Vers. qui et ipse stabat inter (among) servos; Seb. Castell. qui etiam inter Sauli stipatores aderat, who also was present among Saul's Life-guard; Trem. and Jun. qui adstabat cum servis, who stood by with the Servants. It is not likely that Doeg took care both of the Cattle, Chap. xxi. 7. and the King's Person. The like Words also are in Ver. 17.

Ib. come to Nob] for he saw him there.

12. When Saul said, Hear now, Son of Ahitub; who answered, Here am I, my Lord.

13. To whom he replied, Why did thou and the Son of Jesse conspire against me; when thou gavest him Bread and a Sword, and enquiredst of God for him, that he might rise up against me, by lying in wait, as at this Time?

14. And Ahimelech made answer to the King; And who is there among all thy Servants so faithful as David, being the King's Son-in-law, and one that sets out at hearing thee, and is honourable in thy House?

15. Did I begin that Day to enquire of God for him? Far be it from me: let not the King lay the Matter on his Servant, and all the Family of my Father; since thy Servant knew Nothing of all this, small or great.

16. Nevertheless the King said, Thou shalt quite die, Ahimelech, with all thy Father's Family.

17. And he said to the Footmen who stood by him, Turn about, and kill the Lord's Priests, because their Help also is with David, and because they knew that he fled, and did not discover it to my Hearing. But his Servants would not put out their Hands, to fall on the Priests of the Lord.

18. Next he said to Doeg the Edomite, Do thou turn about, and fall on the Priests. Accordingly he did, and killed that Day fourscore and five Men, who had on a linen Ephod.

19. He also put those of Nob, the City of the Priests, to the Sword, namely both Man and Woman, both Child and sucking Babe; as likewise Ox, Ass, and small Cattle.

20. Yet there escaped one Son of Ahimelech, the Son of Ahitub, whose Name was Abiathar, and fled after David;

21. Whom he telling, that Saul had killed the Priests of the Lord;

22. David said to him; I knew that Day, since Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would fully tell Saul: I have brought this about on all the Persons of thy Father's Family.

23. Abide with me, do not fear, since he who seeks my Life, seeks thine; but thou shalt be in Safeguard with me.

AND they had told David as follows; Behold the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they spoil the Floors.

2. Then he enquired thus of the Lord, Shall I go, and defeat these Philistines? And the Lord answered him, Go, and thou shalt defeat them, and save Keilah.

3. But David's Men said to him, Behold we are afraid here in Judah; and much more, should we go to Keilah, against the Armies of the Philistines.

4. Therefore he enquired of the Lord yet again, who made him answer, Get ready, go down to Keilah; for I will give up the Philistines into thy Power.

5. Accordingly David and his Men went thither, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their Cattle, smiting them with a great Slaughter; thus he saved the Inhabitants of Keilah.

6. And when Abiathar, the Son of Ahimelech, fled to David at Keilah, he went down with the Ephod in his Custody.

7. Afterwards it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah; at which he said, God has delivered him into my Power: for he is shut up, by going into a City that has Gates and Bars.

8. With that he made a Declaration of War to all the People; that they should go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his Men.

9. But David being not unacquainted that Saul was contriving Mischief against him, said to Abiathar the Priest, Bring hither the Ephod.

10. And David said; O Lord God of Israel, thy Servant has been fully informed, that Saul is attempting to come to Keilah, that he may destroy the City for my sake.

11. Will the Owners of Keilah deliver me up into his Power? Will Saul come down, as thy Servant has heard? O Lord God of Israel, tell thy Servant, I beseech thee. And the Lord answered, He will come down.

12. Moreover to David's asking, Will the Owners of Keilah deliver me, and my Men, into the Power of Saul? the Lord said, They will.

Ver. 15. begin] Have not I done it before? As probably he might by Saul's Order.

Ver. 1. And they had told] Not Then they told, it being before, not after Abiathar fled to David, Ver. 6. so Light-foot, &c.

Ib. Floors] plundered the Israelites of their Corn and Provision.

Ver. 4. give] The Hebrew Verb here and Ver. 14. is not the same with that in Ver. 11, 12.

Ver. 6. the Ephod] that which belonged to the high Priest, Exod. xxviii. 6. & xxxix. 1, 2. not an Ephod, which denotes a common one such as is mentioned Chap. xxii. 18. for Enquiry being made of God by this which Abiathar had, Ver. 9. it must have the Urim in it, Exod. xxviii. 28, 30. Lev. xxvii. 21.

13. At this he got ready, with his Men, about six hundred Persons, and went out of Keilah, going about where they could; and when it was told Saul that David was escaped from thence, he forbore to go forth.

14. And David abode in the Wilderness in Fortifications, especially on a Mountain in the Wilderness of Ziph; and though Saul fought for him at all Times, God did not give him up into his Power.

15. Nay he found that Saul was come out to seek his Life, when he was in the Wilderness of Ziph in a Wood.

16. However Jonathan his Son got ready, and went to David at the Wood, and strengthened him through God;

17. Saying to him, Do not fear: for Saul my Father will not find thee out, nay thou wilt be King over Israel, and I shall be second to thee; and even he is not ignorant that it will be so.

18. They also both made a Covenant before the Lord; and David staid in the Wood, Jonathan going home.

19. But the Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah, and said; Does not David hide himself with us, in Fortifications in the Wood, on the Hill of Hachilah, which is on the South of the Desert?

20. Now therefore come down, O King, according to all the Desire of thy Soul to do it; and it shall be ours to deliver him into the King's Power.

21. The Lord bless you, answered Saul, because you have had compassion upon me.

22. Go, I pray, confirm it more, and know, as well by seeing his Place to which his Track is, as who sees him there: for it is told me he is exceeding crafty.

23. Therefore see and know of all the hiding Places, where he conceals himself, and come again to me with the Certainty, so will I go with you; and if he is in the Country, I will search for him through all the Thousands of Judah.

24. So they got ready, and went to Ziph before Saul; David and his Men being in the Wilderness of Maon, in a Plain on the South of the Desert.

25. For Saul and his Men going to seek after him, they told David, and he went down the Rock, and abode in the Wilderness of Maon; which Saul hearing, pursued after him there.

26. When Saul went on one Side of a Mountain, and David with his Men on the other Side of it; so that David hastened to get away because of Saul, since he and his Men were compassing him and his about, to take them.

27. But a Messenger came to Saul, and said, Make haste, and go; for the Philistines are invading the Country.

28. Upon which he returned from pursuing after David, and went to meet the Philistines: therefore they called that Part The Rock of Partings.

29. And David going up from thence, dwelt in Fortifications at En-gedi.

C H A P. XXIV.

HOWEVER as Saul returned from after the Philistines, they told him, that behold David was in the Wilderness of En-gedi.

2. At this he took three thousand chosen Men out of all Israel, and went to seek for David and his Men, before the Rocks of the wild Goats.

3. And coming to the Folds of the Flocks in the Way, there was a Cave, whither he went in to cover his Feet; while David and his Men were abiding in the Sides of the Cave.

4. Whereupon David's Men said to him; Lo this is the Day of which the Lord said to thee, Behold I will give up thy Enemy into thy Power, that thou mayest do to him

Ver. 16. through] Look Psa. v. 11.

Ver. 21. had compassion upon me] LXX ἐκτίσας λαβoured (rather than doluisse grieved, in the Complutensian Translation of the Greek) concerning me; which might be only by taking the first Letter of the two Heb. Words an for y of like guttural Sound, or the Meaning of the latter.

Ver. 22. confirm it more] For they had told it interrogatively, Ver. 19. and doubtfully by Ver. 23. Jun. and Trem. say, informare vos certius adhuc, inform yourselves yet more certainly; Castal. Ita sane rem amplius exploratum, Go that you may truly search out the Matter more; Coverd. Go your way now therefore, and be sure.

Ver. 25. went down the Rock] Which is the express Hebrew. Trem. and Jun. have it, descendit a petra illa, went down from that Rock, that is, say they, the Hill of Hachilah, Ver. 19.

Ver. 28. Hammalekoth is one entire Word in the Original, and not parted as by our Translators.

VOL. I.

Ver. 29. En-gedi] about three Miles eastward from Bethlehem, Maunderell's Journey from Aleppo to Jerusalem.

Ver. 2. before] Heb. against the Face of: which in other Places is rendered before, Josh. xiii. 3. 2 Kings xxiii. 13. Ch. xxvi. 1, 3. 2 Sam. ii. 24. & xv. 18. Gen. xxiii. 19. Exod. xx. 3. and over against, Chap. xv. 7. Jun. and Trem. say versus, towards; Cast. contra, against. It is not likely that the Cave was upon the Rocks, but rather under them.

Ver. 3. Flocks] That is those Goats.

Ib. cover his Feet] as was done when they lay down to sleep, Judg. iii. 24. Ruth iii. 7. which might be both for Warmth and Modesty, by their going without Shoes and Breeches, with a Sort of Coats like Women, Exod. xx. ult. And it is much more probable what is here related should be done while Saul was asleep, than while he was easing himself, as some think.

as thou likest. Then David got ready, and cut off the Skirt of the Robe which Saul had privately.

5. But after that his Conscience troubled him, because he had done it.

6. Inasmuch that he said to his Men, Far be it from me by the Lord, that I should do this Thing to my Master, the Lord's anointed one, to put forth my Hand against him; since he is the anointed one of the Lord.

7. Thus David kept them off with the Words, and would not suffer them to rise up against Saul; who at length got ready to go from the Cave, and went on his Way.

8. David also got ready after that, and going out thence, called thus after Saul, My Lord O King. And when he looked behind him, David bowed his Face to the Ground, and revered.

9. And he expostulated with Saul: Why dost thou hearken to these Words of Men, Behold David seeks thy Hurt?

10. Lo this Day thou hast seen with thy own Eyes, how the Lord gave thee up to Day into my Power in the Cave, and it was spoken to kill thee, but there was Compassion upon thee: for I said, I will not put forth my Hand against my Lord, since he is the Lord's anointed one.

11. Besides my Father, see, even see the Skirt of thy Robe in my Hand: for by my cutting that off, and not slaying thee: know, and see, that there is no Hurt nor Rebellion with me, neither have I done amiss to thee; yet thou huntest my Life, to take it.

12. The Lord will judge between me and thee, and the Lord will revenge me on thee; but my Hand shall not be upon thee.

13. According as the Proverb of old Time says, From the Wicked comes forth Wickedness; but my Hand shall not be upon thee.

14. After whom is the King of Israel come out? After whom dost thou pursue? After a dead Dog? After some Flea?

15. But the Lord will be Judge, and judge between me and thee; he will even see, and pleading my Cause, judge me out of thy Power.

16. And as David made an end of speaking these Words to Saul, he thus uttered himself, Is this thy Voice, my Son David? and burst out a crying.

17. Nay he said to David: Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast requited me with Good, notwithstanding I requited thee with Harm.

18. And thou hast declared to Day, how thou hast done me good, how the Lord delivered me into thy Power, and thou didst not slay me.

19. For when a Man meets with his Enemy, will he let him go well on the Way? Therefore the Lord reward thee with Good, for what thou hast done to me this Day.

20. And now behold I know that thou wilt entirely reign, and the Kingdom of Israel will be established in thy Power.

21. Now therefore swear to me by the Lord, that thou wilt not cut off my Offspring after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my Name out of my Father's Family.

22. Accordingly David swore to him; and then Saul went home, as David with his Men did up to a Fortification.

C H A P. XXV.

AT length Samuel died, and all Israel were gathered together, and made lamentation for him, whom they buried in his House at Ramah. And David getting ready, went down to the Wilderness of Paran.

2. Now there was a Man in Maon, whose Business was in Carmel, and he was very great, having three thousand Sheep, with a thousand Goats; and this was when he sheared his Flock in Carmel.

3. The Man's Name too was Nabal, and that of his Wife Abigail: who was a Woman of good Understanding, and handsome Features; but the Man was one of hard and ill Dealings, and was a Calebite.

Ver. 5. his Conscience troubled him] for making even such an Approach to Treason: so sacred to a Subject is the Person of a King.

Ver. 6. The Vulgate adds at the End, The Lord lives against the Lord's Anointed, from Chap. xxvi. 10, 11.

Ver. 12. will revenge] So Jun. and Trem. have ulciscatur; not ulciscatur, let him revenge, which would have been neither proper to say to the King, nor agreeable to the Rest of the Speech, nor yet suitable to David's Clemency.

Ver. 13. but my Hand] Part of the Proverb; which else would be a mere Tautology, and the Proverb too affronting.

Ver. 20. know] will seems to have been added in the last English Translation, by Oversight of looking on the foregoing Verse, where there is כִּיבוֹחַ twice.

Ver. 1. Samuel died] If we compute his Birth ten Years in Eli's Government, supposing the Lord spoke to him as related so many also before Eli died, when he himself was of the Age of twenty (and it cannot well be put sooner) he might live within a few Years of seventy, according to the succeeding Chronological Table, with which it well agrees.

Ver. 2. Business] Heb. Work.

1b. this was when] So the Hebrew. David going then to the Wilderness of Paran, Ver. 1.

Ver. 3: a Calebite] Tyndal.

4. And David heard in the Wilderness, that he was shearing his Sheep.

5. With this he sent ten young Men, to whom he said; Go up to Carmel, and when you come to Nabal, ask him of his Welfare in my Name.

6. Then you shall say thus of living; And mayest thou be well, and thy Family well, and all that thou hast well.

7. And now, if I am not misinformed, thou hast Shearers; now the Shepherds whom thou hast being with us, we did not put them to shame, nor was any Thing of theirs lacking all the Time they were in Carmel.

8. Ask thy young Men, and they will tell thee; that these may be in thy Favour, since they come on a good Day: be pleased to give what thou meetest with to thy Servants, and to thy Son David.

9. So his young Men went, and spoke to Nabal according to all these Words in the Name of David; and were quiet.

10. Whereas Nabal made his Servants answer; Who is David? Or who is the Son of Jesse? There are many Servants at this Time who break out from the Presence of their several Masters.

11. Should I then take my Victuals and Drink, especially my Meat which I have killed for my Shearers, and give to Men of whom I know not from whence they are?

12. At which David's young Men turned to their Way; and going back, told him according to all these Words.

13. Therefore David said to his Men, Gird on your several Swords; which they did, as he also girded on his: so about four hundred Men went up after him, and two hundred staid by the Things.

14. But one of the young Men told Abigail, the Wife of Nabal, as follows; Behold David sent Messengers from the Wilderness to bless our Master, and he fell foul on them.

15. Yet the Men were very good to us; and we were not put to shame, nor did we miss any Thing all the Time we went about with them, when we were in the Field.

16. They were a Wall to us both by Night and Day, all the Time we were with them feeding the Flock.

17. Now therefore know and see what thou shouldest do, since there is Harm concluded against our Master, and upon his Family: for he is such an ungodly Person, that one cannot speak to him.

18. Upon this Abigail made haste, and got two hundred Loaves, two Bottles of Wine, five Sheep ready dressed, five Seahs of parched Corn, a hundred Clusters of Raisins, and two hundred Bunches of Figs; which she put upon Asses:

19. Saying withal to her young Men, Pass on before me, behold I will come after you; but did not tell her Husband Nabal.

20. And as she rode upon an Ass, and went down into the Covert of the Mountain, behold David and his Men were coming down to meet her; so she met them.

21. For David had said; Verily in vain have I kept all which he had in the Wilderness, so that there was not any Thing lacking of whatever belonged to him; since he has returned me Ill for Good.

[Ver. 6. of living] This Place is variously rendered. In the vulg. Lat. Bible, 'And you shall say, Let there be to my Brothers and to thee Peace, and Peace to thy House, and to all whatsoever thou hast, let there be Peace (to which is added) making thine and all thy Things safe for many Years.' Which last is neither in Hebrew, Greek nor Chaldee; and to my Brothers came by taking רַבִּי for רַבִּי for which the Edition of Gryphius, printed 1542, substitutes vive vel per viventem, that it may be read thus, 'Live thou, let there be Peace to thee, &c.' Or, 'By living let there be Peace to thee, &c.'

In Munster's Transf. 'And you shall say, Be thou so well, that thou mayest be in Peace, &c.'

In Castalis's, 'And to him and his Family, and to all wish ye a happy Life.'

In the Tigurin Bib. 'And you shall say, Life, Peace and Safety [we wish] both to thee, &c.'

In that of Pagnin. 'And say you thus, For Life both thou shalt be peaceable, and thy House peaceable, and all which thou hast peaceable.'

Of the Septuagint, 'And you shall say this, For the Time both thou and thy Family are well, &c.'

The Targ. 'And you shall say thus, For thy living both thou art in Peace, &c.'

All these, with our Bishops Transf. 'So mayest thou live, &c.' are disproved by the Hebrew Accent, which shows that the Speech David's Men were to make, began after living, besides other Faults. And from hence may be observed the Benefit of minding the Original Accents, to render according to them, which no Translator I think has much done, besides Jun. and Trem. in the Version they made together.

Who translated it, 'And say to him, so doing: (in the Marg. living) do both thou enjoy Peace, and thy House Peace, &c.'

But this was altered in succeeding Editions, for thus or so manifestly belongs to the Men, and not to Nabal, being between the Verb and its Preposition;

And made to be in this Manner, 'And thus shall you say to him, if he is well; do both thou, &c.' Wherein, like the last English Translators, they make too bold with the Original, by adding what that will not justify.

The Geneva Bible has it, 'And thus shall ye say for salutation, (Marg. for life) Both thou, and thine house, and all that thou hast, bee in peace, wealth and prosperitie.'

And Tyndal, 'And thus wise saye unto my frende: peace be to the, peace be &c.'

Ver. 11. Drink] Water being a poor Matter for him to refuse giving.

Ver. 14. blest] as the Hebrew is, and as Ver. 6. 2 Sam. vi. 18, 20. & viii. 10. in which last is salute besides in the present Translation.

Ver. 20. Covert] Chald. Targ. Side, expounding the Heb. סַרְרָה by the Chald. סַרְרָה the middle Letters being homogeneous.

22. By

22. By God's doing for the Enemies of David so and so besides, I will not leave of all whom he has a grown Male, till the Light of the Morning.

23. And when Abigail saw David, she made haste, and got down from the As; then fell before him upon her Face, bowing down to the Ground.

24. Besides she fell at his Feet, and said: On me my self, my Lord, be the Iniquity; but let thy Handmaid, I beg, speak in thy Hearing, and hear her Words.

25. Let not my Lord, I pray, take notice of this ungodly Man Nabal; for as his Name is, so is he; his Name is Nabal, and Vileness is with him: whereas I thy Handmaid did not see the young Men of my Lord, whom thou sentest.

26. And now, my Lord, by the Lord's living, and thy Soul's living, since the Lord has with-held thee from coming for Blood, and thy own Hand helping thee; now will thy Enemies, and those who seek for Harm against my Lord, be as Nabal.

27. Now also let this Blessing which thy Handmaid has brought to my Lord, be even given to the young Men who continually accompany him.

28. Forgive, I beseech thee, the Failing of thy Handmaid: for the Lord will thoroughly make for my Lord a firm House; since he fights the Lord's Battles, and no Evil has been found in thee in thy Time.

29. Nevertheless Man rises up to pursue thee, and to seek thy Life: whereas the Life of my Lord is bound up in the Bundle of the Living, with the Lord thy God; but as for the Lives of thy Enemies, he will sling them away in the Hollow of the Sling.

30. And when the Lord does to my Lord, according to all the Good that he has spoken concerning thee, and appoints thee to be Ruler over Israel;

31. This will be no Staggering to thee, nor Stumbling of Heart to my Lord, either to have shed Blood undeservedly, or for him to have helped himself; and when the Lord does well to my Lord, thou wilt remember thy Handmaid.

32. And David said to Abigail; Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who has sent thee this Day to meet me.

33. Blessed too be thy Sense, and blessed thou; who has stopped me this Day from coming for Blood, and my own Hand helping me.

34. For indeed by the Lord God of Israel's living, who has with-held me from doing thee Hurt; unless thou hadst made haste, and come to meet me, there would not have been left to Nabal a grown Male, till the Light of the Morning.

35. He further received of her what she brought him; and said to her, Go up in Peace home; see I have hearkened to what thou sayest, and accepted thee.

36. And at Abigail's coming to Nabal, behold he had an Entertainment in his House like that of a King, and his Mind was merry within him, he being exceeding drunk: therefore she did not tell him any Thing, small or great, till the Light of the Morning.

37. But in the Morning, when the Wine was gone out of him, his Wife told him these Things; upon which his Heart was dying within him, and he became as a Stone.

38. Nay in about ten Days, the Lord smote him, so that he died,

39. And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord, who has pleaded the Cause of my Reproach from Nabal, and yet kept back his Servant from Harm: for the Lord has rendered the Wickedness of Nabal on his own Head. Afterwards David sent, that he

Ver. 22. for the Enemies] which the Sense shews, and not against them, as unto implies; and this the Hebrew well signifies.

1b. not leave] in the Manner of the Hebrew Swearing. Charity for such a one as David may lead one to suppose, that he only meant it of those who should make resistance, or endeavour to kill him, or his Men, in the Quarrel.

1b. grown Male] I must take Liberty to disbelieve the popular Interpretation, that he would not so much as spare a Dog; when besides that incredible Rashness for so good and wise a Man, a more proper Meaning may obviously appear, in those who were of the Sex and Age to fight, and more fully in other parallel Passages, of such as were distinguished in that Age and Country as fit for Soldiers, by pissing against a Wall, n. 1 Kings xiv. 10. & xvi. 11. where I presume a Dog was not meant by one of Baalsha's kinsfolks or friends, & xxi. 21. 2 Kings ix. 8. nor were Abab's Dogs killed, 1 Kings xxii. 38. 2 Kings ix. 8. Languages do not admit of translating always Word for Word, however I have but two for two besides [a,] with an intelligible Meaning; which it seems the other has not now, besides the Unsuitableness of the Expression to us.

Ver. 25. Vileness] See Gen. xxxiv. 7.

Ver. 26. now will] Our Translators have turned the Oath into a Wish, making as the LORD liveth, &c. as it were insignificant; with which Oaths were begun, but Wishes with יְהוָה.

Ver. 29. in] where a Stone was put to be slung.

Ver. 31. to have shed] Heb. infinitive.

Ver. 35. accepted thee] So the same, with the necessary Variation, in Gen. xxxii. 20.

Ver. 39. Wickedness] as Ingratitude is; and was severely punished by Law among the Persians, Xenophon Cyrupæd. Lib. i. Am. Marcell. Lib. iii. 5. Themistocles Orat. 3.

might might speak to Abigail, to take her for his Wife.

40. Accordingly his Servants went to her at Carmel; and spoke thus to her, David has sent us to thee, to take thee for his Wife.

41. At this she arose, and bowed down with the Face to the Ground, and said, Behold let thy Handmaid be a Servant-maid to wash the Feet of my Lord's Servants.

42. She also made haste, and getting ready, rode upon an Ass, with five Maids of hers walking along with her; thus she went after the Messengers of David, and became his Wife.

43. David likewise took Ahinoam of Jezreel, so that even they both became his Wives.

44. On the other hand Saul had given Michal his Daughter, David's Wife, to Phalti the Son of Laish, who was of Galim.

C H A P. XXVI.

A GAIN the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah with advice, Does not David hide himself on the Hill of Hachilah before the Defart?

2. Therefore Saul got ready, and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen Men of Israel with him, to seek for David there.

3. And he encamped on the Hill of Hachilah, which is before the Defart by the Way; while David abiding in the Wilderness, found that he was coming after him thither.

4. For he sent Spies, and knew that Saul was coming for certain.

5. At this he got ready, and went to the Place where Saul encamped, and saw the very Place where he lay, with Abner the Son of Ner the Captain of his Army; Saul lying among the Carriage, and the People encamping round about him.

6. When David thus expressed himself to Ahimelech the Hittite, and Abishai the Son of Zerujah Joab's Brother, Who will go down with me to Saul at the Camp? And Abishai said, I will.

7. Accordingly they went to the People by Night, and behold Saul lay sleeping among the Carriage, with his Spear thrust into the Ground at his Pillow; Abner and the People lying round about him.

8. Whereupon Abishai said to David, God has delivered thy Enemy into thy Power to Day; now therefore let me smite him, I pray, with the Spear, even to the Ground at once, which I will not repeat to him.

9. But he answered Abishai, Do not destroy him: for who can put forth his Hand against the Lord's anointed one, and be blameless?

10. David said further; By the Lord's living, the Lord shall smite him; or his Time shall come for him to die; or he shall go down into a Battle, and be destroyed.

11. Far be it from me of the Lord, that I should put forth my Hand against his anointed one; but now do take the Spear and Pot of Water which are at his Pillow, and let us be gone.

12. Thus David taking both these Things, they went away: and none either saw, knew, or awaked; for they were all asleep, because a sound Sleep of the Lord was fallen upon them.

13. Next David passed beyond, and stood upon the Top of a Mountain far off: there being a great Space between them.

14. Then he called thus to the People, and Abner the Son of Ner, Wilt not thou answer, Abner? At length he made answer, Who art thou that callest to the King?

15. And David replied to him; Art not thou a Man? And who is like thee in Israel? Why then didst not thou keep thy Master the King? For one of the People came to destroy him.

16. This Thing is not good that thou hast done; by the Lord's living, you should be put to death, who have not kept your Master, the anointed one of the Lord: for now see where the King's Spear and the Pot of Water are, which were at his Pillow.

17. And Saul knowing his Voice, said, Is this thy Voice, my Son David? Who answered, It is, my Lord O King.

18. This he seconded with, Why does my Lord pursue after his Servant? For what have I done? And what Harm is there with me?

19. And now let my Lord the King vouchsafe to hear the Words of his Servant, if the Lord has stirred thee up against me, let him favour an Offering; but if the Sons of Men, they are cursed before the Lord, because they

Ver. 5. among the Carriage] English Margin, in the midst of his Carriages; but there is no his in the Hebrew.

Ver. 6. Zerujah] jah being as in other such Names. The Concordance of Robert F. Hervey, formerly bound up with the Bible, says here it was Abishai's father, but

2 Sam. xvii. 25. Joab's mother; whereas this is the same with the other.

Ver. 11. which are] by this and Ver. 12, 16.

Ver. 19. favour] See the common Margin.

have driven me out, from being admitted at present to his Possession, as if they said, Go, serve other gods.

20. Now therefore let not my Blood fall to the Ground, from before the Lord's Presence: for the King of Israel is come out to seek for some Flea, as he who pursues a Partridge on the Mountains.

21. Upon which Saul confessed, I have sinned; return, my Son David, for I will do thee no Harm any more, because my Life was precious in thy Sight this Day: Behold I have done foolishly, and erred very much.

22. And David made answer; Here is the King's Spear; and let one of the young Men come over, and fetch it.

23. The Lord also will render to each his Righteousness and Faithfulness; since the Lord gave thee up to Day into my Power, and I would not put forth my Hand against his anointed one.

24. And behold as thy Life was great in my Sight this Day, so my Life will be great in the Sight of the Lord, and he will deliver me from all Distress.

25. To whom Saul replied, Blessed art thou, my Son David; thou wilt both act thoroughly, and also thoroughly prevail. Then David went on his Way, and Saul returned to his Place.

C H A P. XXVII.

AFTERWARDS David said in his Heart, Now shall I be destroyed some Day by the Power of Saul; there is Nothing better for me, than that I should quite escape into the Country of the Philistines; whereby he will despair of me, to seek for me any more in any of the Bounds of Israel, since I shall be escaped from his Power.

2. Accordingly he got ready, and passed over, accompanied with the six hundred Men, to Achish the Son of Maach, King of Gath.

3. With whom he and they resided in Gath, as also their respective Families, including his two Wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail who had been Nabal's Wife, of Carmel.

4. So when Saul had intelligence of his being gone off thither, he did not seek after him again any more.

5. And David said to Achish, If now I am got in Favour with thee, let some give me a Place in one of the Cities of the Country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy Servant dwell in the Metropolis of the Kingdom with thee?

6. Whereupon he gave him Ziklag at that Time; therefore the Kings of Judah have it to this Day.

7. Now the Number of the Days which David dwelt in the Country of the Philistines was some Days over four Months.

8. In the mean time David and his Men went up, and fell on the Geshurites, Gerzites and Amalekites; for these were they who inhabited the Country of old, going by Shur, even to that of Egypt.

9. And David smote the Country, not keeping alive either Man or Woman; he also took the Flocks, Herds, Asses, Camels and Cloaths; then came back to Achish.

10. Who said, On whom have you fallen now? And David answered, Upon the South

Ib. at present] which, and much more if turned to day, the Sense shews not to belong to driven out.

Ver. 20. from before] as an excommunicated Person, not being admitted where the Divine Presence peculiarly was, where the Lord was publicly worshipped; or without a lawful Trial, as before God. Montan. renders it thus literally; Coverd. from the face of the Lord; Trem. and Jun. procul a conspectu Jehovæ, far off from the Sight of Jehovah, which they expound in the latter Manner: there being the Heb. from with before.

Ver. 25. thoroughly prevail] still is the same Error as at Chap. xii. 25.

Ver. 2. Achish] Who seems to be a young Man now, by his reigning above forty three Years after: as he appears to be the same mentioned 1 Kings ii. 39. by the Father, the principal Hebrew Letters of which are the same; and as according to the Words of these Passages the latter Achish could not be the Son of the former, though Pasle seems inconsiderately to have thought he might, Annot. on 1 Kings ii. 39.

Ver. 7. some Days over &c.] In Heb. Days and four Months. As Montan. turns it in Latin; Munst. quatuor mensium & aliquot dierum; Leo Jud. quatuor menses & dies aliquot, four Months and some Days; the Gen. Transf. has, quatre mois et certains jours; the Greek of the Septuagint, the vulg. Lat. and old Eng. have only four Months, omitting Days. However some from Chap. xxix. 3. have taken Days for a Year; which Kimbi explains, that Achish meant he found David to be good in the Time he was there, as if it had been Years. But there is no Need for such Interpretation, if we understand those four Months and Days to be the Time that David dwelt in Ziklag, for then he might be Years with Achish in his City, which Achish might intend by the Distinction of Days and Years. Moreover the Country here being the same with the Country in Ver. 5. as distinguished from the metropolitan City, may shew it pretty plainly. Or else by Years there might be meant from the Time David went first to Achish, Chap. xxi. 10. which if other Translators had thought of, they might not have run so wide from the Original.

Ver. 8. Gerzites] In the Heb. Margin Gezerites.

Ver. 10. On whom] למי may either be taken for למי in David's Answer, of which see Buxt. Lexic. and Thef. Gram. Lib. ii. Cap. 19. or for למי which is joined with the same Verb in Ver. 8. The like to which cannot be said of למי whither. So Jun. and Trem. have, In quem irruisti; the vulg. Lat. In quem irruisti; and the Septuagint, Εν τίνι; whom arising from the Sense of David's Words.

Ib. now] very improbably that Day.

of Judah, with that of the Jerahmeelites, and that of the Kenites.

11. For he had not kept alive either Man or Woman, to bring the News to Gath; Lest, said he, they should tell upon us as follows, Thus David did, and thus will be his Manner, all the Time that he dwells in the Country of the Philistines.

12. And Achish believing David, said, He makes himself quite odious among his People Israel, so he shall be my Servant for ever.

C H A P. XXVIII.

AND at that Time the Philistines gathered together their Camps for War, to fight with Israel; and Achish said to David, Know fully, that thou shalt go out with me in the Army, and thy Men.

2. Whom David answered, Therefore thou shalt know what thy Servant can do. And Achish replied to him, I will therefore make thee the Keeper of my Head at all Times.

3. Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had made lamentation for him, and buried him at Ramah, his own City; Saul also had put away those who had familiar Spirits, with the Sorcerers, out of the Country.

4. And the Philistines being gathered together, came and encamped in Shunem; Saul likewise gathered together all Israel, and they encamped in Gilboa.

5. But afraid at seeing the Camp of the Philistines, so that his Heart trembled exceedingly;

6. Saul enquired of the Lord; who did not answer him, either by Dreams, Urim or Prophets.

7. Then he said to his Servants, Seek out for me a Woman who has a familiar Spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her. To whom they said, Behold there is such a one at En-dor.

8. With that Saul disguised himself, putting on other Cloaths; so he went, attended with two Men, and they came to the Woman by Night: when he said, Divine for me, I pray, by the familiar Spirit, and bring up to me him that I tell thee.

9. But she answered him, Behold thou knowest what Saul has done, how he has cut off those who had familiar Spirits, and the Sorcerers, out of the Country; why then dost thou put a Snare for my Life, to cause me to die?

10. At this Saul swore to her by the Lord as follows, By the Lord's living, no Blame shall befall thee for this Matter.

11. So she said, Whom shall I bring up to thee? And he answered, Bring me up Samuel.

12. And when the Woman had seen Samuel, she cried out aloud, speaking thus to Saul, Why hast thou deceived me? For thou art Saul.

13. But the King said to her, Be not afraid; for what hast thou seen? And she answered Saul, I saw a god coming up out of the Earth.

14. He further asked her, What is the Form of him? Who answered, An old Man coming up, and he is covered with a Cloak. And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and bowed the Face to the Ground, doing reverence.

15. When Samuel said to him, Why hast thou disturbed me, by bringing me up? And Saul answered, I am exceedingly in Distress; for the Philistines make war with me, and God is departed from me, and will answer me no more, either by the Ministry of Prophets, or by Dreams: therefore I have called thee, to let me know what I shall do.

16. To which Samuel replied; And why dost thou ask me; since the Lord is departed from thee, and is become thy Adversary?

17. For the Lord is doing for himself as he spoke by my Ministry; is even rending

Ver. 1. Camps] so Chap. xvii. 1.
1b. Army] Battle, not signified by the Hebrew Word, may seem a Shift to alter it from Armies before.

Ver. 6. Urim] being with David, Chap. xxiii. 6, 9. as Jun. and Trem. observe in Annot. and so is omitted, Ver. 15.

Ver. 10. Blame] not punishment.

Ver. 12. art Saul] which she might know by Something Samuel said; rather than by his reverencing Saul, as some fancy, especially before he was come to him.

Ver. 13. a god] 'The whole Coherence, as Poole observes, shows that it was but one;' the like Patrick on Eccles. xii. 1. And Elohim plur. is far more frequent than Elah sing. for God. The Woman might call him a god for his divine awful Appearance.

Ver. 15. Samuel] The Scripture Manner of relating it is certainly in Favour of this being Samuel himself, whom it speaks of as such; of which Opinion, says the Universal History, B. i. 7. are the far greater Number of Authors, ancient and modern; and says Vorstius, almost all the Hebrew Commentators, Anim. in Pirke Eliez. Cap. 33. and in particular the Author of Ecclesiasticus, Chap. xlv. ult. with Josephus, Antiq. L. vi. 15. Hervey's Med. and Delaune's Life of David: not that the Witch had any Power over his Soul, but God was pleased to do such an extraordinary Matter on that Occasion, which her Surprise and Fright on seeing him may shew, Ver. 12, 13. as the Devil could not have foretold Things so right, and would not reprove Saul for doing amiss; much less could or would a juggling Woman, who was so much afraid of the King, have foretold such Things. And to the Plea of this being inconsistent with God's not answering Saul before; it may be answered, his asking of the Lord was so slightly done, that it is termed not enquiring of him, 1 Chron. x. 14.

Ver. 17. for himself] as the common English Margin the Kingdom from thy Hand, that he may give it to thy Neighbour David.

18. Forasmuch as thou didst not hearken to what the Lord said, by executing his fervent Anger against Amalek; therefore he does this Thing to thee at this Time.

19. And the Lord will also give up the Army of Israel with thee into the Power of the Philistines, so that to Morrow thou and thy Sons shall be with me.

20. Saul then soon fell all along on the Ground, for he was exceedingly afraid by the Words of Samuel; there being even no Strength in him, as he had eat no Victuals all the Day and Night.

21. However the Woman came to him, and seeing that he was troubled exceedingly, she said to him; Behold thy Handmaid has hearkened to what thou saidest, and I ventured my Life, when I did hearken to thy Words which thou spokest to me.

22. Now therefore, I pray, hearken thou also to what thy Handmaid says, and let me put before thee a Bit of Victuals, and eat; that there may be Strength in thee, when thou goest on the Way.

23. Nevertheless he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his Servants and also she pressing on him, he hearkened to what they said; so he rose up from the Ground, and sat on a Bed.

24. And the Woman having a Calf of the Stall in the House, she made haste, and killed it; as also took Flour, and kneading, baked it in unleavened Cakes.

25. Which she brought nigh before Saul and his Servants, and they did eat; afterwards they rose up, and went away that Night.

C H A P. XXIX.

NOW the Philistines had gathered together all their Camps to Aphek, and the Israelites encamped at a Fountain which was in Jezreel.

2. And the Lords of the Philistines passed on with Hundreds, and Thousands; but David and his Men marched among the hindermost with Achish.

3. Upon which the Princes of the Philistines said, What are these Hebrews? And Achish answered them, Is not this David, the Servant of Saul King of Israel, who has been with me these Days, or these Years, and I have not found aught amiss in him from the Day he deserted to this Day?

4. They however were so enraged at him, that they said to him; Make the Man return, and let him go back to his Place where thou hast appointed him, and not go down with us to the Battle, that he may not become an Adversary to us there: for with what will he make himself acceptable to his Master? Will it not be with the Heads of these Men?

5. Is not this David, of whom they spoke thus in Dances, Saul has beat his Thousands, and David his ten Thousands?

6. Then Achish called David, and said to him; By the Lord's living, thou art upright, and I like thy going out and coming in with me in the Camp; for I have found no Ill in thee from the Day thou camest to me till this Day: nevertheless the Lords of the Philistines do not like thee.

7. Now therefore return, and go in Peace; that thou mayest not do what they dislike.

8. Yet David said to him, But what have I done? Or what hast thou found in thy Servant, from the Day on which I was first before thee to this Day, that I must not come, and fight with the Enemies of my Lord the King.

9. And he made answer to David; I acknowledge that I like thee as an Angel of God; only the Princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the Battle.

has it; as likewise Jun. and Trem. render it by sibi; Minister, pro se; the Tigurin Version has it included in the Verb, but in the Margin is, Ebr. Facit sibi. Besides the Absurdity of to him may be enough to disprove it.

Ver. 19. with me] among the Dead.

Ver. 21. my] Vulg. thy; see at Chap. xix. 3.

Ver. 22. Victuals] being Veal, Ver. 24.

Ver. 1. had] Before they went to Sbunem, and the Israelites to Gilboa, where Saul saw them, and they fought, Chap. xxviii. 4, 5. & xxxi. 1. 1 Chron. 2. 1. It appears that the Israelites encamped first at Jezreel, whither the Philistines going to meet them, Ver. 11. they withdrew to Gilboa, and the Philistines being come after them to Sbunem, Part of the Way to Gilboa, were there near enough to be seen, Chap. xxviii. 5. but the coming on of Night stopping their Pursuit, Saul took that Opportunity to consult the Witch, Chap. xxviii. 8, 25. And this is properly enough related here, to have the Account of David, to which it belongs, lie all together; who thus also left the Philistine Army some Days before Saul went to the Witch, and was slain on the Morrow, Ver. 11. Chap. xxx. 1. 2 Sam. i. 1, 2. So that there is no Need to suppose with Usher in his Annals, that Saul and his Sons were not slain the next Day after his being with the Witch, in Contradiction to Chap. xxviii. 19.

Ver. 5. of whom] Heb. ubi of him, which is the Hebrew Idiom frequent enough; but this the English Translators it seems not understanding, have not only made of him to be one to another, but also added the like, Chap. xviii. 7. & xxi. 1. to have the Reading agreeable, where it is not.

Ver. 6. By] Surely, if at best pretendedly taken from a Hebrew Word after the Lord liveth, discovers great Unskilfulness in that Tongue, called the holy.

Ver. 8. was first] or began to be, according as some Hebrew Verbs sometimes signify, and the Sense here requires.

10. Therefore

10. Therefore now rise early in the Morning, with the Servants of thy Lord who came along with thee; and as soon as you are so risen, and have Light, go away.

11. Accordingly David rose up early, with his Men, to go back in the Morning to the Country of the Philistines; and they went up to Jezreel.

C H A P. XXX.

BUT when David and his Men came to Ziklag, on the third Day, the Amalekites had fallen on the South, and on that, nay had smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with Fire.

2. They had also taken the Women prisoners who were therein, with the small as well as great, not killing a Person; whom they had led off, and were gone on their Way.

3. So that upon their coming to the City, behold it was burnt with Fire, and their Wives, Sons and Daughters, were taken prisoners;

4. At which David and the People who were with him burst out a crying, till there was no Strength in them to cry.

5. David's two Wives were likewise taken prisoners, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail who had been the Wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6. And he was distressed exceedingly, for the People talked of stoning him, because the Souls of them all were grieved for their small Sons and Daughters; but David strengthened himself through the Lord his God.

7. He moreover said to Abiathar the Priest, the Son of Ahimelech, Bring nigh to me, I pray, the Ephod; which he did accordingly.

8. When David asked thus of the Lord, Shall I pursue after this Troop? Can I overtake it? Who answered him, Pursue, for thou shalt thoroughly overtake, and wholly rescue.

9. So he went, accompanied with the six hundred Men, and came to the Brook Besor; where those who were left staid.

10. But David himself pursued with four hundred Men; two hundred staying, who were too faint to pass over the Brook Besor.

11. And some met with an Egyptian Man in the Field, whom they fetched to David; and gave him Bread, that he might eat, and made him drink Water.

12. Besides they gave him Part of a Bunch of Figs, and two Clusters of Raisins; so that when he had eat, his Spirit returned to him; for he had neither eat Bread, nor drunk Water, three Days and three Nights.

13. Next David said to him, To whom dost thou belong? And from whence art thou? Who answered; I am an Egyptian Youth, a Servant to an Amalekite Man; and my Master left me, because I was sick three Days ago.

14. We fell on the South of the Cherethites, and upon that which belongs to Judah, as likewise upon the South of Caleb; and Ziklag we burnt with Fire.

15. Whereupon David said to him, Wilt thou bring me down to this Troop? And he replied, Swear to me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me up into the Power of my Master, and I will bring thee down to them.

16. Accordingly he did, and behold they were spread abroad all over the Country; eating, drinking and feasting, for all the great Spoil which they had taken out of the Country of the Philistines, and that of Judah.

17. And David smote them from the Twilight, even to the Evening of their next Day: and there was not a Man of them escaped, excepting four hundred young Men who rode upon Camels, and fled away.

18. Thus David rescued all that the Amalekites had taken, as he did also his two Wives:

19. Inasmuch that there was not lacking to them either small or great, whether Sons, Daughters, Spoil, or any Thing that they

Ver. 2. with the small as well as great] By removing this from the Order it stands in the Original, and putting a Semicolon contrary to the Hebrew Pointing, King James's Translators have made this belong to the slaying, which belongs to the taking captive, which shews how little they regarded the Hebrew Accents; and instead of making the Translation better, made it worse than the Geneva one, that they were to mend, which has, 'And had taken the Women that were therein Prisoners, both small and great, and slew not a Man.' Besides they changed small and great manifestly without any Reason, but after their careless Manner.

Ver. 6. through] See Psa. iii. 2.

Ver. 7. hither and thither may be looked on as Flourishes of the King's Translators, but brought thither is not very elegant.

Ver. 12. of Raisins] This is put by our Translators in another Character, to shew that they added it, and yet the Hebrew is the same as in Chap. xxv. 18. where they make no distinction.

Ver. 16. all over the Country] at their Places of Rendezvous. However Country may be wide enough, without being earth.

Ib. feasting] that is entertaining one another; rather than dancing, if the Hebrew Word signifies that at all.

Ver. 19. whether] small and great belonging to all that follow, and should be so expressed.

had taken to themselves: David brought back all.

20. He likewise took all their Flocks and Herds which some drove before the other Cattle, and said, This is David's Spoil.

21. Then he went to the two hundred Men, who were too faint to go after him, whom they made abide at the Brook Besor; and they came out to meet both David, and the People who were with him: and those he coming nigh to, asked them of their Welfare.

22. However all the bad and ungodly Persons, of them who went with him, made answer, Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the Spoil that we have retaken; excepting their respective Wives and Children, whom they may take away, and go.

23. But David said; You must not do so, my Brethren; it is what the Lord has given us, who preserved us, and gave up the Troop that came against us into our Power.

24. Nay who will hearken to you in this Matter? For as the Part of him who goes down to the Battle, so also is his who abides at the Things, they share alike.

25. Which was from that Day upward; for he made it an Ordinance, and a Custom for Israel, to this Day.

26. And after David was come to Ziklag, he sent some of the Spoil to the Elders of Judah his Friends, saying, Behold a Blessing for you, of the Spoil of the Lord's Enemies;

27. To those who were at Beth-el, and to those who were at South-Ramoth, and to those who were at Jattir,

28. And to those who were at Aroer, and to those who were at Siphmoth, and to those who were at Eshtemoa,

29. And to those who were at Rachal, and to those who were at the Cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those who were at them of the Kenites,

30. And to those who were at Hormah, and to those who were at Chor-ashan, and to those who were at Athach,

31. And to those who were at Hebron, and to all the Places whither David himself and his Men went about.

C H A P. XXXI.

AND the Philistines fighting against Israel, the Men of Israel fled from their Presence, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa.

2. Nay the Philistines followed Saul and his Sons so close, that they killed of the latter Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchi-shua.

3. Whereby the Battle was heavy against Saul; besides the Men who shot with Bows finding him, he was exceedingly afraid of the Archers.

4. Therefore he said to him who carried his Arms, Draw forth thy Sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised ones should come, and thrust me through, and make sport with me. But he would not, because he feared exceedingly; so Saul took a Sword, and fell upon it.

5. And when the other saw that Saul was dead, he fell also upon his Sword, and died with him.

6. Thus died Saul, and three of his Sons, with him who carried his Arms, as likewise all his Men that Day together.

7. And the Men of Israel who were at the Side of the Vale, with them at the Side of Jordan, seeing that those before mentioned were fled, and that Saul and his Sons were dead, forsook the Cities, and ran away; upon which the Philistines came, and dwelt in them.

8. Now the next Day the Philistines coming to strip the Slain, found Saul

Ver. 20. other] David's and his Men's own before. Which may be obscure to many in the common Reading.

Ver. 3. finding] מצא does not signify hit, that being taken from the Geneva Version, which in the Margin has, Ebr. found him.

1b. afraid] So Jonathan in the Targ. Jun. and Trem. Pagn. Munst. and Buxtorf in his Lexic. have it; which is the Signification of the Hebrew Verb being constructed with ו as other Verbs of fearing are, according to Buxtorf's Observation: neither does it signify to wound, nor does it appear that Saul was wounded of the Archers. Thus the Universal History observes, "that in this Place and Chronicles the Root of the Verb is פחד (as I may add, Montan. puts it in both Places, and Bux. in Concord.) which signifies to be in dread, in pangs, &c. and not פצע to wound. So that it doth not appear he was at all wounded," B. i. Ch. 7. 7.

Ver. 4. make sport] Look Judg. xix. 25.

Ver. 7. at the Side of] Poole and Patrick would have it on this side Jordan, while they allow it to be on the other side of the valley: which is incredible that the same Hebrew Word should thus have an opposite Meaning in the same Place; as it is very improbable the Israelites, who were on the other side Jordan, fled and forsook their Cities, or the Philistines, that were situate on the opposite Side of Israel, went and dwelt in them; nor is it likely, as Noldius observes in Concord. Partic. Annot. 936. that such only as dwelt either on this side or beyond the Valley left their Cities, but all that were thereabouts. I may add, that the Hebrew is literally at the Side, without this or the other. Jun. and Trem. have circa, about; and Pagn. in transitu, at the Passage of, both before Valley and Jordan.

and

and his three Sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9. With that they cut off his Head, and stript off his Armour; and sent into their Country round about; to declare it at the House of their Images, and to the People.

10. They also put his Armour at the House of Ashtaroth, and fixed his Body to the Wall of Beth-shan.

11. But when the Inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard of him, what the Philistines had done to Saul;

12. All the valiant Men got ready, and going all Night, took his Body, and those of his Sons, from the Wall of Beth-shan; and coming to Jabesh, burnt them there.

13. Then they took their Bones, and buried under a Tree at Jabesh; and fasted seven Days.

Ver. 11. of him] Common Marg. concerning him. The other being either a Tautology, or Omission, as that which is no more than what, or merely the Relative.

NOTES upon the SECOND BOOK of SAMUEL.

CHAP. I.

NOW after the Death of Saul, when David was returned from smiting the Amalekites, he abode in Ziklag two Days.

2. And on the third Day there was a Man came from Saul at the Camp, with his Cloaths torn, and Earth upon his Head; who when he was come to David, fell to the Ground, and revered.

3. To whom David said, Where dost thou come from? And he answered him, From the Camp of Israel am I escaped.

4. And David replied to him; How was the Matter? Tell me, I pray. And he related, that the People fled from the Battle, and also many of them fell, and died; and likewise Saul and Jonathan his Son were dead.

5. Then David asked the young Man his Intelligencer, How dost thou know, that Saul and Jonathan his Son are dead?

6. Who said; I happened accidentally to be on Mount Gilboa, and behold Saul was leaning upon his Spear; and lo the Chariots, and chief of the Horsemen followed him close.

7. When looking behind him, and seeing me, he called to me; and I said, Here am I.

8. And he replied to me, Who art thou? I answered him again, I am an Amalekite.

9. Whereupon he said to me, Stand upon me, I pray, and put me to death, because the chequered Cloak holds me; for my Life is yet whole in me.

10. So I stood upon him, and put him to death; for I knew that he could not live after he was fallen; then I took the Crown which was on his Head, and the Bracelet that was on his Arm, and have brought them hither to my Lord.

11. At which David took hold on his own Cloaths, and tore them; and likewise all the Men who were with him.

12. Moreover they made lamentation, wept, and fasted till the Evening; for Saul, and Jonathan his Son, with the People of the Lord, even the Family of Israel, because they were fallen by the Sword.

13. David said further to the young Man his Informant, From whence art thou? who answered, I am the Son of a strange Man, an Amalekite.

14. And David replied to him, How didst not thou fear to put forth thy Hand, to destroy the anointed one of the Lord?

15. He also called to one of the young Men, and said, Go nigh, fall on him; and he smote him, so that he died.

16. For David said to him, Thy Blood is chargeable on thy own Head; because thy Mouth has testified against thee, by saying, I put to death the anointed one of the Lord.

17. Afterwards David lamented with this Lamentation, for Saul and Jonathan his Son:

18. (This he spoke to teach the Sons of Judah concerning the Bow; which behold is written in the Book of the Upright;)

19. O Beauty of Israel thrust through on thy high Places! how are the Powerful fallen!

20. Do not divulge it in Gath, nor declare it in the Streets of Ashkelon; lest the Daughters of the Philistines should rejoice, lest the Daughters of the uncircumcised ones should triumph.

21. O Mountains of Gilboa, let there be no Dew, nor Rain upon you, or Fields of Offerings: for there the Shield of the Powerful was despised, the Shield of Saul as of one not anointed with Oil.

Ver. 8. an Amalekite] As Saul highly offended God for not executing his Vengeance on the Amalekites, 1 Sam. xv. we find him now slain by one, and David upon performing it to the utmost of his Power, 1 Sam. xxx. 17. advanced to the Throne. So just and equal are the Ways of Providence!

Ver. 9. chequered Cloak] In the English Marg. coat of mail; and so Lightfoot, my Coat of Mail both withheld me: anguish may be from the old Lat. angustia, but is quite foreign to the Hebrew.

1b. holds me] His Hand or Spear being entangled in it as he fell, and his Weakness, through Weariness and Loss of Blood, not admitting him to get it loose, and stab himself again. Thus Jun. and Trem. render, quia detinuit me hac ocellata chlamys.

Ver. 12. even] The following being the same People as the foregoing.

Ver. 18. to teach] viz. to animate them to fight for their Religion and Country, and to die like those in the Bed of Honour.

Ver. 19. An Account of the various Readings of the Greek and vulg. Lat. Translations see in Buxtorf's Vindiciæ, p. 777, 778.

Ver. 21. Fields of Offerings] those producing Offerings of Corn; as if he had said, Do you never bear any.

1b. as of one not anointed] as being often left out, else-

22. From

22. From the Blood of the Pierced, from the Fat of the Powerful, the Bow of Jonathan turned not back, nor the Sword of Saul returned successful.

23. Saul and Jonathan were lovely and delightful in their Lives, and in their Death were not divided: they were swifter than Eagles, they were stronger than Lions.

24. O Daughters of Israel, weep sorely for Saul, who clothed you in Scarlet, with fine Dresses, who put Ornaments of Gold upon your Garments.

25. How are the Powerful fallen within the Battle! Thou Jonathan thrust through on thy high Places!

26. I am troubled for thee, my Brother Jonathan; thou wast very pleasant to me: thy Love was more transporting to me than is the very Love of Women.

27. How are the Powerful fallen, and the Weapons of War perished!

CHAP. II.

AND after this, David enquired thus of the Lord, Shall I go up into one of the Cities of Judah? Who said to him, Do. Whither, said David, shall I go up? And he answered, To Hebron.

2. Accordingly David went up thither, and likewise his two Wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail who had been the Wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

3. His Men also who were with him he had up, with their respective Families; and they dwelt in the Cities of Hebron.

4. Then the Men of Judah came, and there they anointed David to be King over the Family of Judah; and they told him, that the Men of Jabesh-gilead were those who buried Saul.

5. Upon this he sent Messengers to them, and said to them; The Lord bless you, who have done this Kindness to your Master Saul, and have buried him.

6. And now the Lord shew Kindness and Truth to you; and I also will do you such Good as you have done in this Matter.

7. Now therefore strengthen your Hands, and be valiant Persons, for your Master Saul is dead; and also the Family of Judah have anointed me to be King over them.

8. But Abner the Son of Ner, the Captain of the Army that belonged to Saul, took Ish-bosheth Saul's Son, and carrying him over to Mahanaim;

9. Made him King of Gilead, the Ashurites and Jezreel, over Ephraim, Benjamin and all Israel.

10. This Ish-bosheth was in his fortieth Year, when he began reigning over Israel, and he reigned two Years; only the Family of Judah was after David.

11. And the Number of Days which David was King at Hebron, over them, was seven Years and six Months.

12. Next Abner the Son of Ner went forth, and the Servants of Ish-bosheth the Son of Saul, from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13. Joab too the Son of Zeruiah, and the Servants of David went forth, and they met together by the Fish-pond of Gibeon; when they sat, these by the Fish-pond on one Side, and those by it on the other.

14. And Abner said to Joab, Let some young Men now get up, and play before us; to which Joab said, Let them.

15. So they got up, and passed over, in Number twelve belonging to Benjamin, and Ish-bosheth the Son of Saul, and so many of David's Servants.

16. And they caught hold one of another by the Head, with their Swords in one another's Sides, and fell down together; therefore that Place was called The Part of Edges, which is at Gibeon.

17. Afterwards there was an exceeding hard Battle that Day; but Abner was beat, with the Men of Israel, before the Servants of David.

18. The three Sons of Zeruiah being there, Joab, Abishai and Asahel; and the latter was light of his Feet like one of the wild Roes.

19. And he pursued after Abner, without turning aside, to go to the right Hand or left from following him.

20. Therefore Abner looking behind him, asked, Art thou Asahel? Who answered, I am.

21. Then he said to him, Turn thy self cially in the Hebrew Poems, and the other is regular; so that there is no Need to fancy with Delany and the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text, that לחב not should be לחב Weapons, which the great and providential Blessing of the Vowel-Points does not admit of.

Ver. 24. for Saul] not over, 1 Sam. xxxi. 10, 12.

Ver. 6. as] or that Good in which, being the Hebrew Relative, rendered by Munsh. and Casht. qualem.

Ver. 14. play] Anatharhis the Scythian not unjustly wondered at the Grecians, κατὰ τὸν ὑπεριστάτον, τὸς ἀδυνάτους ἐμὴν ἐπὶ τῷ τῶν αὐτῶν ἀλλήλους making laws against those who did injuries, and yet honouring the Wrestlers for beating or kicking one another, Diog. Laertius in his Life.

Ver. 16. The Part of Edges] not the Field of strong men, as in the Geneva Margin, and by others.

Ver. 18. like] not as light of foot as &c.

aside to thy right Hand or left, and lay hold for thee on one of the young Men, and take to thee the Plunder of him. But Asahel would not depart from following him.

22. With that Abner said yet again to him, Get thee away from following me; Why should I smite thee to the Ground? For how should I lift up my Face to Joab thy Brother?

23. However he refused to depart; therefore Abner with the hinder Part of the Spear stabbed him at the short Ribs, so that it came out behind him, and he fell down there, and died in that Place: where every one, who came thither, stood still.

24. Now as Joab and Abishai were pursuing after Abner, the Sun set, when they came to the Hill of Ammah, which is before Giah, at the Way to the Wilderness of Gibeon.

25. But the Benjaminites gathered themselves together after Abner, and becoming one Troop, stood upon the Top of a Hill.

26. When Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the Sword consume for ever? Dost not thou know that there will be Bitterness at last? How long then wilt thou not bid the People return from following their Brethren?

27. And Joab answered, By God's living, unless thou hadst spoken, the People would then have gone up at the Morning from following their respective Brethren.

28. So Joab blew a Trumpet, and all the People stood still, and pursued no more after Israel; nor did they fight again any more.

29. And Abner with his Men walked through the Plain all that Night; and passing over Jordan, went through all Bithron, and came to Mahanaim.

30. Joab likewise returned from after him, and gathered all the People together; and there were wanting of David's Servants nineteen Men, besides Asahel.

31. Whereas they smote of Benjamin, and Abner's Men, three hundred and sixty who died.

32. Moreover they took up Asahel, and buried him in his Father's Grave, which was at Beth-lehem; and Joab with his Men going all Night, it became light to them at Hebron.

C H A P. III.

BESIDES there was a long War between the Family of Saul and that of David; but David went on in being strong, and the Family of Saul went on decaying.

2. And there were Sons born to David in Hebron: his First-born being Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

3. His second Chileab, of Abigail who had been the Wife of Nabal the Carmelite; the third Absalom, the Son of Maachah, the Daughter of Talmai King of Geshur;

4. The fourth Adonijah, the Son of Haggith; the fifth Shephatiah, the Son of Abital;

5. And the sixth Ithream, of Eglah his Wife: these were born to him there.

6. Now while there was War between those two Families, Abner strengthened himself for that of Saul.

7. But he had a Concubine, whose Name was Rizpah, the Daughter of Aijah; and it was said to Abner, Why didst thou go in to my Father's Concubine?

8. Exceedingly incensed at these Words of Ish-bosheth, he said; Am I a Dog's Head, who against Judah to Day do Kind-

Ver. 23. hinder Part] What, and how, was that? The Assembly in their Annotations say, With the Pike of his Spear in the lower End, for their Spears were double pointed. Which was a notable Way to be stabbed with their own Spears, by the Enemies catching hold of the other Part, and dangerous otherwise: but supposing them wiser, I shall impose my own Conceit, that Abner not attempting to turn against Asahel, by which Stay he might have had more upon him; Asahel shewed him in looking back, that he intended not to kill, but seize him, perhaps as a Trophy of Victory according to Ver. 21. which Abner might also know by his Threats; that thereupon when he came near, Abner thrust his Spear backward unexpectedly into him; and that might be the hinder Part, as carried so in Flight, if not hanging like a Sword.

lb. short Ribs] So the five lowermost are called; the Hebrew Ordinals and Numerals being also often indistinct, and thus it may be either fifth or five. Now is it not too strange, that Abner here, Joab Chap. iii. 27. and again Chap. xx. 10. with Rechab and Baanah, Ch. iv. 6. should push just at the fifth Rib, as the Hebrew Preposition likewise is not under?

Ver. 27. spoken] in this submissive Manner.

lb. would then] See on Gen. xxxi. 42.

lb. at the Morning] that followed, and therefore not before, and they might perhaps have pursued in the Night by Moon-light; for which but may be understood before this, and might be inserted, as in Ruth i. 17. See though I am not ignorant that Commentators take it for the Morning before, and that by Abner's speaking was meant that in Ver. 14. but cannot force my self to believe it: for it appears that Joab and his Men, if not the other, came from Home that Morning, and probably did not arrive at the Place of Battle before Noon, Ver. 13. 32. however they were not following Abner's Men, before he spoke that in Ver. 14. and so could not have gone up from doing it.

Ver. 1. the Family of Saul and that of David] The Vulg. transposes Saul and David, to put them in the Order that follows I suppose.

Ver. 7. it was said] No Places throughout the Scripture, I suppose, may want such Additions in translating more than this and Chap. v. 8. as here is Saul of the same Number and Gender before; and yet both may well enough be done without.

nests to the Family of Saul thy Father, to his Brethren and Friends, and have not let thee be found in the Power of David, that thou layest upon me a Crime concerning this Woman to Day?

9. By God's doing so for Abner, and so besides for him, as the Lord has sworn to David, so for him will I do;

10. By making the Kingdom pass from the Family of Saul, and by confirming the Throne of David over Israel and Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba.

11. And he could not return Abner a Word again, because he feared him.

12. Accordingly Abner sent Messengers to David, representing himself, to say, Whose is the Country? Adding, Make thy Treaty with me, and behold my Power shall be with thee, to turn about all Israel to thee.

13. Who answered, Well, I will make a Treaty with thee; only I require one Thing of thee, that is, thou shalt not see my Face, except before thou comest to do it, thou hast made Michal the Daughter of Saul be brought.

14. David likewise sent Messengers to Ish-bosheth the Son of Saul, to say, Deliver up my Wife Michal, whom I espoused to me with a hundred Foreskins of the Philistines.

15. So Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from the Husband, Phaltiel the Son of Laish.

16. And her Husband went with her, going on weeping after her to Bahurim; when Abner said to him, Go back; and he did.

17. The Speech of Abner too had been with the Elders of Israel as follows; You have heretofore been seeking for David to be King over you.

18. Now therefore accomplish it: since the Lord has spoken thus of him, By the Power of my Servant David will I save my People Israel from that of the Philistines, and of all their Enemies.

19. And Abner having likewise spoken in the Hearing of the Benjaminites, went also to speak in that of David at Hebron, all which Israel liked, as did the whole Family of Benjamin.

20. To whom he coming thither, accompanied with twenty Men; David made for Abner, and the Men who were with him, an Entertainment.

21. When Abner said to him, I will get ready, and go, and gather together all Israel to my Lord the King, that they may make a Treaty with thee, and thou mayest reign over all that thy Soul desires. Upon this David sent Abner away, and he went in Peace.

22. After which 10 David's Servants and Joab came from a Troop, and brought much Spoil with them; Abner being then not with David at Hebron.

23. And when Joab and all the Army that was with him were come, they told him, that Abner the Son of Ner came to the King, who sent him away, and he went in Peace.

24. Therefore Joab went to the King, and said; What hast thou done? Behold Abner coming to thee, why didst thou send him away, that he might go freely?

25. Thou mightest have known that Abner the Son of Ner came to seduce thee; as also to know thy going out and coming in, and even all that thou doest.

26. Joab then going out from David, sent Messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the Well of Sirah; but David did not know it.

27. Upon Abner's returning to Hebron, Joab took him aside to the midst of the Gate, to speak with him quietly; and stabbed him there in the short Ribs, so that he died, for the Blood of Asahel his Brother.

28. But David hearing of it afterwards, said; I and my Kingdom shall be quit by the Lord for ever, from the Blood of Abner the Son of Ner.

29. Let it remain upon the Head of Joab, and on all his Father's Family; and let there not fail from his Family one who has a Flux, or is leprous, or holds by a Staff, or falls by the Sword, or wants Bread.

30. Thus Joab and his Brother Abishai slew Abner, because he killed their Brother Asahel at Gibeon in the Battle.

31. King David further said to Joab and all the People who were with him, Tear your Cloaths, gird on Sackcloth, and make lamentation before Abner; he also walked after the Coffin.

32. And they buried him at Hebron; and the King burst out a crying at Abner's Grave, all the People likewise cried.

Ver. 12. Whose] Is it not thine?

Ver. 22. from a Troop] so Chap. x. 14.

Ver. 24. freely] according to Ver. 21. and so Jen. and Trem. say libere; see the like in the common Translation, Gen. ii. 16. 1 Sam. xiv. 30. for Abner was not quite gone, nor did Joab think he was, since he sent after him.

Ver. 28. quit by] or cleared by or from the Lord; the Particle, though compound, signifying barely from, as Ver. 15, 26. with other Texts shew, and Buxtorf.

Ver. 29. Flux] namely the running of the Reins.

33. Nay the King lamenting for him, said, Did Abner die as a vile one does?

34. Thy Hands were not bound, nor thy Feet put into Chains; as one falls before the Sons of Iniquity, thou fellest. At which all the People wept again for him.

35. Afterwards they came to make David eat Bread while it was Day, but he swore thus, By God's doing to me so and so besides, I will not taste Bread or any Thing, before the Sun sets.

36. Which all the People knowing, liked it; as all that the King did, they liked.

37. For all the People, and all Israel, knew the same Time, that it was not of him to kill Abner the Son of Ner.

38. He moreover said to his Servants; Do not you know, that there is a Prince and a great one fallen this Day in Israel?

39. And I am tender to Day, though anointed King; for these Men the Sons of Zeruiah are too hard for me: the Lord will recompense him who has done the Evil, according to his Evil.

C H A P. IV.

AND when Saul's Son heard that Abner was dead at Hebron, his Hands were slack; and all Israel were troubled.

2. Now he had two Men, Captains of Troops, the Name of one was Baanah, and that of the other Rechab, the Sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the Benjaminites, for Beeroth also was counted to Benjamin.

3. But the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, where they are Sojourners to this Day.

4. The Son too that Jonathan the Son of Saul had was crippled in the Feet; being in his fifth Year when the News came of Saul and Jonathan from Jezreel, whom his Nurse took up, and fled; and in her making haste to flee away, he fell down, and was lame, whose Name was Mephibosheth.

5. And the Sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and got about the Heat of the Day to the House of Ish-bosheth, who was lying on a Bed at Noon.

6. Whither they coming into the midst of the House, as if to fetch Wheat, stabbed him at the short Ribs; and both the Brothers escaped.

7. Thus they entered the House, when he lay upon his Bed in his Bed-chamber, and smote him, so that they killed him, and took off his Head; which taking away, they went the Way of the Plain all Night.

8. And they brought the Head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the King, Here is the Head of Ish-bosheth the Son of Saul, thy Enemy, who sought thy Life; and the Lord has given my Lord the King Vengeance this Day, on Saul and his Offspring.

9. Whereas David made answer to those Sons of Rimmon the Beerothite; By the Lord's living, who has redeemed my Soul out of all Distress;

10. One told me thus, Behold Saul is dead; who was a Bringer of good News in his own Regard, yet I took hold of him, and killed him at Ziklag; which I gave him for the News:

11. Much more when wicked Men have murdered an innocent Person, in his own House upon his Bed; shall I not now require his Blood of you, and take you away from the Earth?

12. Accordingly David commanded the young Men, who killed them, cut off their Hands and Feet, and hanged them up over the Fish-pond at Hebron; the Head of Ish-bosheth they also took, and buried in Abner's Grave at Hebron.

C H A P. V.

THEN all the Tribes of Israel came to David there, and spoke as follows; Behold we our selves are thy Bone and Flesh.

Ver. 38. a Prince] whose Son David accordingly promoted, 1 Chron. xxvii. 21.

Ver. 4. fell down] with so bad a Fall, as to make him lame, when a Man, of both Feet, Chap. ix. 13.

Ver. 10. which I gave him for the News] Castal. has it, pro nunciis pramio, for the Reward of the News; Leo Jud. ut darem ei pramium pro nuncio, that I might give him a Reward for the News; the Author of the vulg. Lat. cui oportebat mercedem dare pro nuntio, to whom it was fit to give a Reward for the News; the Septuagint in like manner, ᾧ ἔδει μὲν δῶναι ἀνὰ ψήφου, to whom I ought to give (the Reward of) the News; Jun. and Trem. quod oportebat me ei prestare pramium nunciis, which Reward of the News it behoved me to give him; and more exact in a former Edition, as there is no Word for Reward in Hebrew, thus, quod oportebat me ei prestare pro nuntio, which it was fit I should give him for the News: quasi dicat, say they in the Annotation, quæ merces illi jure a me debebatur, as if he had said, which Reward was due to him in Equity from me; in the Margin also they say the Hebrew is, quod mihi erat ei præstandum, which was to me to give him. Besides all this, the English Margin is, which was the reward I gave him for his tidings.

Ver. 1. our selves] which is here more than in 1 Chron. xi. 1. But the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text imagines this was originally as in Chron. the n being corrupted into u p. 19. printed 1753; yet provides us with an Answer himself, that the two sacred Historians did not always express the same Sense in the very same Words, p. 24.

2. Even

2. Even in time past, when Saul was King over us, thou wast he who didst bring Israel out and in; nay the Lord said to thee, Thou shalt feed my People Israel, and thou shalt become Ruler over Israel.

3. And when all the Elders of Israel were come thither to King David, he made a Treaty with them there before the Lord; and they anointed him to be King over Israel.

4. David was in his thirtieth Year when he began to reign, reigning forty Years.

5. At Hebron he reigned over Judah seven Years and six Months; as he did at Jerusalem thirty and three Years, over all Israel and Judah.

6. And the King went with his Men to Jerusalem, to the Jebusites the Inhabitants of the Country; who said thus to David, Thou canst not come in hither, unless thou takest away the Blind and Lame; meaning he could not go in thither.

7. Nevertheless David took the Fortification of Zion, which is the City of David.

8. For he said that Day, Let any one beat the Jebusites, and get to the Conduit, and the Lame and Blind that are hated by David's Soul. Therefore they say, He that is blind and lame cannot get into the House.

9. Afterwards David dwelt in the Fortification, and called it The City of David; and he built round about from the Fortrefs inward.

10. And he went on still in being great, the Lord God of Armies being with him.

11. Moreover Hiram King of Tyre sent Messengers to David, with Cedar-trees, Carpenters and Masons; who built him a House.

12. Now he knew that the Lord had established him to be King over Israel, and that he had raised up his Kingdom for the sake of this his People.

13. Besides he took more Concubines

Ver. 2. didst have Israel out and in] Here, says the Author of the present State of the printed Heb. Text, are two evident Corruptions, one the radical u is dropt; but so it is in the same Participle, 1 Kings xxi. 21. Jer. xix. 15. & xxxix. 16. and in the Verb besides, and was therefore likely done by the first Penmen: the other indeed may be more objected, but is insignificant.

Ver. 6. Blind] I understand what is said of the Blind and Lame thus; that the Lord's People calling the Idols so, as Isa. xliii. 8. because they could not see nor walk, those Jebusites told David in a vaunting retorting Way, he could not come in thither, unless he took them away; the Heathens counting their Idols the Safeguard of their Cities, and these were probably placed at the Gate for that Purpose, where the Conduit was. When the Israelites had beat the Inhabitants, and were got into the City, the latter, I suppose, fled into their Houses, which the Idols could not do, so were taken; from whence arose the following Proverb in Derision to such gods, signifying that Nobody can do what he is not capable of. Divers noted Commentators would have it that the Jebusites meant their blind and lame People could defend the City; but as they must have been too few for such a Pretence, this does not agree with unless thou takest away, which would have been rather bestest, not with that are hated of David's Soul; see Stackhouse's Hist. Bibl. L. v. 4. However since Bedford in his late Scripture Chronology, printed in folio, B. v. Ch. 4. 39. renders some Part of it in Favour of this latter Opinion, I am willing to set it in a clear Light. כי אם הסיך הערים ונסחח which I have, unless thou takest away the Blind and Lame; he turns, for the blind and the lame will drive thee away: in which translating he has entirely left out אם which with כי is a disjunctive or exceptive Conjunction, but, unless, &c. making the Sense, but thou must take away, or unless thou takest away, as Lev. xxi. 2. Mic. vi. 8. Gen. xlvii. 18. He adds, "which well agrees with the Rule in Erpenius's Arabick Grammar, Lib. v. Cap. 1. Plurali humano eleganter quoque præponi verbum fin-gulare." To what purpose would that be if it does, since it should agree with the Hebrew? But certainly it does not agree with that Rule, the Hebrew Verb here being infinitive, as following אם כי and as it is put both in Montanus's Version and Pagninus's Thesaurus; whereas it is the finite Verb Erpenius speaks of, whose next Words are, eodem fere genere in Præterito, sed non raro discrepante in Futuro; as it would have been absurd to say the former Part of an infinite Verb. Consequently those Things do not agree at all. And it may be taken for a general Rule concerning a Pronoun put to an infinite Verb behind it; that if there is another Verb before governing that Verb, the affixed Pronoun is the Object or Accusative; but if there is no such other Verb (which is the Case here) the Affix is the Subject or Nominative Case. So with this very Verb, and in the same Conjugation, Josh. vii. 13. until you take away the accursed thing; not, until the accursed thing takes away you. Besides the Verb is to remove or take away, not drive away. Bedford translates again, "Whoever goes first, and smites the Jebusites, and throws down into the ditch, that was under the wall, the blind and the lame." Here too the Verb does not signify to throw down; however in this Conjugation Kal; nor the Prefix into after this Verb, to the Construction of which it belongs, and is not to be understood as alone. Once more our Author translates, that the Blind and Lame say of David, He shall not come into our House. But how oddly does this accord with כי אם הסיך הערים ונסחח therefore or wherefore? and cannot mean because, as it is in the Margin of the English Bible. If the Blind and Lame had also said this, the Historian who afterwards told that they said so, must needs have used the preterite Tense; whereas he has put it in the future Tense, which is here used for the present, as the Sense shews (the Hebrew being without the present Tense) they say, not they said. A parallel Instance in Num. xxi. 27. begins with the same Words. The Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text here may so easily be answered, that I leave it as needless.

Ver. 8. Let any one] without farther Orders or Direction, but it might be spoken to the Captains; and what Necessity for the large Addition inserted by Translators? Is it not Sense in the Original without?

Ver. 9. Fortrefs] Look Judg. ix. 6.

Ver. 11. Masons] Heb. Artificers of the Stone of a Wall, as Carpenters are Artificers of Wood.

Ver. 13. Concubines] In none of those Places of Scripture where this Word occurs, which are about thirty six, is any such sinister Sense implied as Harlots or Prostitutes, Universal History, B. i. 7. 4. under Marriage; see the Meaning of it on Gen. xiii. ult.

and Wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron; and there were more Sons and Daughters born to him.

14. And these are the Names of those that were born to him there: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

15. Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,

16. Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet.

17. But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David to be King over Israel, they all came up to seek for him; which he hearing of, went down to the Fortification.

18. And the Philistines came, and spread abroad in the Giants Vale.

19. David then enquired thus of the Lord, Shall I go up against the Philistines? Wilt thou deliver them into my Power? And the Lord said to David, Go up, for I will wholly deliver them into thy Power.

20. So David went to Baal-perazim, where he beat them, and said, The Lord has broke my Enemies before me, like the breaking out of Waters; therefore he called the Name of that Place Baal-perazim.

21. They also left their Images there, which David and his Men took away.

22. However the Philistines came up yet again, and spread abroad in the Giants Vale.

23. Whereupon David enquired of the Lord, who said; Thou shalt not go up: turn about behind them, and come to them over against the Mulberry-trees.

24. And when thou hearest the Sound of going on the Tops of the Mulberry-trees, then shalt thou stir: for then the Lord goes out before thee, to smite the Camp of the Philistines.

25. Therefore he did just as the Lord commanded him; and smote them from Geba till one comes to Gezer.

CH A P. VI.

AND David again gathered up all the chosen Men in Israel, thirty thousand.

2. Then he got ready, and all the People who were with him, and came from Baalim of Judah, to bring up from thence the Ark of God, the Name of which is called by that of the Lord of Armies, who inhabits the Cherubs.

3. And they carried it on a new Cart, that they might take it from the House of Abinadab, which was at Gibeah; Uzza and Ahio his Sons guiding the Cart.

4. Thus they who were with the Ark of God, took it from thence; and Ahio went before it.

5. Moreover David and all the Family of Israel played before the Lord on all Instruments of Fir-wood, namely on Harps, Lutes, Timbrels, Cornets and Cymbals.

6. But when they came to the Floor of Nachon, Uzzah reached out to the Ark of God, and took hold of it, because the Oxen shook it.

7. At this the Lord was angry with him, and God smote him there for the Error; so that he died there by the Ark of God.

8. And David was displeased, because the

Ver. 16. Eliphelet] Eliphalet comes from not understanding the Hebrew Accent; see 1 Chron. iii. 8. and the Name elsewhere.

Ver. 18. Giants Vale] as in Josh. xv. 8. lying at the south Side of Jerusalem, Maundrell from Josephus.

Ver. 21. took away] and by David's Order burnt them, 1 Chron. xiv. 12. the former of which is mentioned here, and the latter there.

Ver. 25. Gezer] called Gazer through Ignorance of the Hebrew Accent, which alters the Vowel; see Gen. x. 24.

Ver. 1. Those who have taken notice of the Mistakes in the common Translation, and its Printing, need not wonder at seeing here [the] in 2 different Character; which Errors are very unfit for the holy Scripture, and disagreeable to the Exactness and Nicety that is in the Hebrew Original.

Ib. chosen Men] who might be those mentioned 1 Chron. xiii. 1. for I suppose David would be intent on fetching the Ark before he did other Things; though Expositors in general count this to be a fresh Gathering of the People.

Ver. 2. came from] understand after having gone thither, as related 1 Chron. xiii. 6.

Ib. Baalim of] which Baale the Genitive of Baalim is; but Baale of is a double Genitive, which is absurd. This Place was Kirjath-baal, the Town of Baal, from whence this Name in the plural, Josh. xv. 60. 1 Sam. vii. 2. as it is in the Feminine, 1 Chron. xiii. 6.

Ib. the Name of which] that is Part of its Name thus, The Ark of the Lord of Armies. But Cappellus strives hard to have שם Name altered to שם there, that he might make where the Name of the Lord of Armies is called upon, or upon which the Name, &c. This though he attempted more than once, yet it has been solidly refuted by the younger Buxtorf.

Ver. 3. that they might] for they brought it not out of the house twice.

Ib. Uzza] differently spell'd here and in Ver. 6, 7, 8.

Ver. 6. reached out to the Ark] What Necessity is here of his hand? Or Occasion of any Surmise that it was in the Original, since the Hebrew Verb signifies thus?

Ver. 7. for the Error] The Heb. without the Vowels is לחש but the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text counts the true reading to be לחש לחש לחש though no Copy has it; So that, says he, we have here 2 letters transpos'd, and 1 chang'd, לחש for לחש p. 456. but that one changed would be also transposed from the End of the Word to the Beginning, too much to be done by Mistake; besides which the Reader may see his true reading has three whole Words more than ours; and if it had been primitively the same, as in 1 Chron. xiii. 10. it is unaccountable to be so altered, either inadvertently or designedly.

Ib. died] according to the Denunciation in Num. iv. 15.

Lord

Lord made a Breach on Uzza: thus that Place is called The Breach of Uzza to this Day.

9. Nay David was afraid of the Lord that Day, and said, How shall the Ark of the Lord come to me?

10. So that he would not take it away to himself into the City of David, but had it aside to the House of Obed-edom the Gittite:

11. Where it abode three Months; and the Lord blessed Obed-edom, with all his Family.

12. But it being told King David; that the Lord had blessed the Family of Obed-edom, and all which he had, by reason of the Ark of God; he went, and brought it up from his House, to the City of David with Gladness.

13. And when they who carried it were gone on six Paces, he sacrificed Oxen and fat Cattle.

14. Besides David danced with all his Might before the Lord, being girded with a linen Ephod.

15. Thus he, and the whole Family of Israel, brought up the Ark of the Lord with shouting, and the Sound of the Cornet.

16. However as it came into the City of David, Michal Saul's Daughter looked out at a Window, and seeing King David leaping and dancing before the Lord, she despised him in her Heart.

17. So they brought the Ark of the Lord, and set it in its Place, within the Tabernacle which David had pitched for it; and he offered up Burnt-offerings before the Lord, and Peace-offerings.

18. And when David had made an end of offering them up, he blessed the People in the Name of the Lord of Armies;

19. Distributing to them all, namely to every one of the Multitude of Israel, both Men and Women, one Cake of Bread, one Piece of Flesh, and one Bottle of Wine: then all the People went to their respective Homes.

20. David too returned to bless his Family; when Michal above mentioned came out to meet him, and said, How honourable to Day was the King of Israel, who was uncovered to Day in the Sight of the Handmaids of his Servants, as one of the vain ones is wholly uncovered!

21. But he answered her; It was before the Lord, who has chosen me above thy Father, and above all his Household, to appoint me Ruler over his People Israel: therefore I will play before the Lord.

22. And I will yet be more base than this, and will be lowly in my own Sight; and with the very Handmaids, whom thou mentionest, I shall be honourable.

23. Therefore she had no Child, to the Day of her Death.

CHAP. VII.

AND when the King was settled in his House, and the Lord had given him rest round about from all his Enemies;

2. He said to Nathan the Prophet, See now I dwell in a House of Cedar, while the Ark of God abides within a Curtain.

3. And Nathan answered him, Go, do all that is in thy Heart; for the Lord is with thee.

4. However that Night he had the Lord's Commission as follows:

5. Go, and tell my Servant David; Thus says the Lord, Wouldest thou build me a House to dwell in?

6. Since I have not dwelt in a House, from the Day that I brought up the Israelites from Egypt, even to this Day, but have gone about in a Tent and a Tabernacle.

7. Whithersoever I went about with all the Israelites, did I speak such a Word to one of the Magistrates of Israel, whom I commanded to feed that People of mine, as, Why do ye not build me a House of Cedar?

8. Now therefore thou shalt declare so to my Servant David; Thus says the Lord of Armies, I took thee from the Fold, from after the Flock, to be Ruler over my People Israel.

9. And I have been with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thy Enemies from thy Presence; that I might make thee a great Name, like that of the great Men who are on the Earth.

Ver. 12. by reason of the Ark of God] The Vulgate subjoins, and David said, I will go, and bring back the Ark with Blessing into my House.

Ver. 13. Oxen and fat Cattle] Vulgate, an Ox, and a Sheep, and a Ram; but some Editions leave out the Sheep.

Ver. 14. danced] In the vulg. Lat. Bib. played on Organs carried in the Arms (for what else could be intended by armigeratis?) and danced.

Ver. 21. I will play] In Lat. ludam, which Pope Clement, in his Edition of the Bible, changing into Juda by Mistake, made the Reading Israel and Juda.

Ver. 1. was settled] of more Importance to be told than that he sat, and agrees better with when.

Ver. 6. Tent] See Exod. xxxv. 11.

Ver. 7. Magistrates] Heb. Rods or Scepters. The Word is here מַשְׁכָּל and in 1 Chron. xvii. 16. מַשְׁכָּל Judges; with the Sense the same, says Abarbanel, in both Places: besides tribes not being very proper.

10. Moreover I will appoint a Place for my People Israel, and plant them, so that they shall dwell in a Place of their own, and not be moved again; nor shall the Sons of Iniquity afflict them any more as formerly;

11. And even from the Time that I ordered there should be Judges over my People Israel, till I gave thee rest from all thy Enemies: the Lord also tells thee, that he will make thee a Family.

12. When thy Days are fulfilled, and thou liest down with thy Fathers, I will set up thy Offspring after thee, who will proceed forth from thy self; and will confirm his Kingdom.

13. He shall build a House to my Name, and I will confirm the Throne of his Kingdom for ever.

14. I will be to him a Father, as he shall to me a Son; whom, when he commits Iniquity, I will rebuke with the Rod of Men, and with the Stripes of Mankind.

15. But my Kindness shall not be taken away from him; as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before thee.

16. For thy Family and Kingdom shall be sure for ever before thee, thy Throne shall be confirmed for evermore.

17. According to all these Words, and this whole Vision, so spoke Nathan to him.

18. Then King David went in, and sitting before the Lord, said: Who am I, O Sovereign Lord? And what is my Family, that thou hast brought me on hither?

19. And this was yet so little in thy Sight, O Sovereign Lord, that thou hast also spoken of thy Servant's Family for a long while; and is this the Manner of Men, O Sovereign Lord?

20. And what shall David speak yet more to thee, since thou knowest thy Servant, O Sovereign Lord?

21. For thy Word's sake, and according to thy Mind, hast thou done all this great Matter, to make it known to thy Servant.

22. Therefore thou art great, O Lord God: for there is none like thee, nor any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our Ears.

23. And what one Nation on the Earth is like thy People Israel: whom God went to redeem for a People to himself, and to make him a Name, and to do for you great and terrible Things along to thy Country; by reason of thy People whom thou redeemedst to thy self from Egypt, the Nations and their gods?

24. Thou hast also confirmed thy People Israel to thy self, for a People to thee for ever; and thou Lord art a God to them.

25. Now therefore, O Lord God, establish the Word which thou hast spoken concerning thy Servant, and his Family, for ever; and do according as thou spokest.

26. So shall thy Name be magnified for ever as follows, The Lord of Armies is God over Israel; and the Family of thy Servant David will be confirmed before thee.

27. Since thou, O Lord of Armies the God of Israel, hast revealed thus to the Ear of thy Servant, I will build thee a House; therefore he has found in his Heart to make this Prayer to thee.

28. And now, O Sovereign Lord, thou art he that is God, and thy Words are Truth, who hast spoken this Good of thy Servant.

29. Therefore now let it please thee to bless the Family of thy Servant, that it may be for ever before thee: for thou hast spoken, O Sovereign Lord, and with thy Blessing let it be blessed for ever.

C H A P. VIII.

AND after this David beat the Philistines, so that he humbled them; and he took the Bridle of Ammah out of their Possession.

2. Moreover he beat the Moabites, and

Ver. 11. till] as from before, and the Sense of the Passage indicate; Noldius also gives Vau this Meaning in his Concordance of the Hebrew Particles; see Exod. xxxiv. 33.

Ib. Family] for such it was, Ver. 12, 19.

Ver. 18. Sovereign Lord] The Hebrew Words (each rendered Lord when alone) being otherwise in 1 Chron. xvii. 16. distinguished in the present English only by small and capital Letters, and other such Differences of the Divine Names being in this Prayer, as written by different Penmen, according to the general Manner of the Scripture; the first Remark of the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text is, that the Jews have superstitiously omitted Jehovah, and supplied it by Adonai; when Jehovah is in the 1st Verse of the Prayer, and frequently throughout it, both in Sam. and Chron. His second Remark, opposite to the first, which you may perceive was indeed wanting, is, that they have put in Adonai before Jehovah, to strike the Reader's Eye first, and so to prevent his pronouncing the Word Jehovah after it; from which a Person might be led to think that Jehovah is not to be found alone, while it is so several Times in this very Prayer, and is in the Introduction to it of each Book. Who but himself would have discovered such Remarks, and ventured to publish them?

Ver. 23. along to thy Country] in the Way thither: for thy land being defective both in Sense and Construction; in Sense, as this was done at Egypt; in Construction, as there is not [and] before it.

Ver. 1. the Bridle of Ammah] Gath and its Towns called thus, 1 Chron. xviii. 1. as being probably the Bridle which had held Israel in Subjection. Jun. and Trem. expound Ammah to be the Name of a Mountain there, mentioned by Pliny, Nat. Hist. Lib. v. 13.

measured

measured them with a Line, to cast them down to the Ground; that is he measured with two Lines to put to death, and with a full Line to keep alive: so they became his Servants, carrying Presents.

3. David too beat Hadadezer the Son of Rehob King of Zobah, when he went to recover his Border at the River Euphrates.

4. From whom he took a thousand Chariots, seven hundred Companies of Horsemen, and twenty thousand Footmen; and he hamstringed all the Chariot-horses, only left of them for a hundred Chariots.

5. And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help this Hadadezer, David slew of them twenty two thousand Men.

6. Nay he put Garrisons in Syria of Damascus, and the Syrians became his Servants, carrying Presents: thus the Lord saved David whithersoever he went.

7. Besides he took the Shields of Gold that the Servants of Hadadezer were armed with, which he brought to Jerusalem.

8. From Betah likewise, and Berothai, Hadadezer's Cities, did King David take very much Brass.

9. And Toi King of Hamath hearing, that David had beat all the Army of Hadadezer;

10. He sent Joram his Son to King David, to ask of his Welfare, and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and beat him, for he was one who had Wars with Toi; and with him were Instruments of Silver, as there were likewise of Gold and Brass.

11. Them also King David consecrated to the Lord, with the Silver and Gold which he consecrated, of all the Nations that he subdued;

12. Of Syria, Moab, the Ammonites, Philistines, Amalek, and the Spoil of Hadadezer the Son of Rehob, King of Zobah.

13. And David got a Name, when he returned from his slaying the Syrians, by that of eighteen thousand, in the Valley of Salt.

14. Afterwards he put Garrisons in Edom, which he did in all of it, so that all the Edomites became David's Servants; and the Lord saved him whithersoever he went.

15. So David reigned over all Israel, and he was one who did Judgment and Justice to all his People.

16. Now Joab the Son of Zeruiah, was over the Army; and Jehoshaphat the Son of Ahilud, the Recorder.

17. Zadok likewise the Son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the Son of Abiathar, were the Priests; and Seraiah was the Secretary;

18. And Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, was over both the Cherethites and Pelthites; as David's Sons were Princes.

C H A P. IX.

MOREOVER David said, Is there yet any who is left of the Family of Saul, that I may not be ungenerous to him for Jonathan's Sake?

2. And there was of it a Servant, whose Name was Ziba, whom they called to David; and the King said to him, Art thou Ziba? Who answered, Thy Servant is.

3. Then he asked, Is there yet no Man of the Family of Saul, that I may shew the Kindness of God to him? And Ziba said to him, There is yet a Son of Jonathan, lame of his Feet.

4. To whom the King replied, Where is he? And Ziba said to him, Behold he is at the House of Machir the Son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.

5. With that King David sent, and fetched him from thence.

6. And when Mephibosheth the Son of Jonathan, the Son of Saul, was come to him, he fell on his Face, and revered; and David said, Mephibosheth; who answered, Here is thy Servant.

7. And he replied to him, Do not fear, for I will thoroughly shew Kindness to thee for the sake of Jonathan thy Father, and will restore to thee all the Land of thy Grandfather Saul; thou mayest also eat Victuals on my Table continually.

8. At this he bowed down, and said, What is thy Servant, that thou shouldest look on such a dead Dog as I?

Ver. 3. Hadadezer] Josephus in Antiq. Lib. vii. 6. quotes from the 4th Book of Nicolaus Damascenus's History, that Adad who reigned over Part of Syria, made war with David King of the Jews, and was overcome at Euphrates; that his Posterity reigned to the tenth Generation, having the same Name; and that the third from this, to take away the Dishonour, fought against the Jews, and wasted Samaria: which Josephus applies to 1 Kings xx. The last of those Kings might be Rezin, or however the last of that Kingdom, 2 Kings xvi. 9.

Ver. 4. Chariots] which being here to be understood in Hebrew, is supplied from 1 Chron. xviii. 4.

1b. Companies] of ten each, such as are mentioned, Deut. i. 15. &c. the whole Number of single Horsemen being seven thousand, 1 Chron. xviii. 4.

VOL. I.

Ver. 8. Brass] of which, says the vulg. Lat. upon its own Authority, and from 1 Chron. xviii. 8. Salamon made all the brass Vessels in the Temple, and the brass Sea, and the Pillars, and the Altar.

Ver. 13. by that] by slaying 18000 Edomites, not Syrians, 1 Chron. xviii. 12. and as the next Verse here discovers; see the reconciling of these Places with Psa. lx. 1. there.

1b. eighteen thousand] The Vulgate wildly adds, and at Gebel twenty three thousand.

Ver. 6. Here is] As Here am I commonly, if not always in the present English.

Ver. 7. mayest] Which seems best to express the Favour to Advantage, in Liberty; and see Ver. 10.

9. Besides the King called Ziba Saul's Servant, and said to him; All that belonged to Saul, and to all his Family, I have given to thy Master's Son.

10. Thou shalt therefore, with thy Sons and Servants, till the Land for him, and bring in, that there may be Food for him, which he may eat; this however he may continually on my Table. Now Ziba had fifteen Sons, and twenty Servants.

11. And he said to the King, Entirely as my Lord the King has commanded his Servant, so will thy Servant do: though Mephibosheth should eat on my Table as one of the King's Sons.

12. Mephibosheth too had a little Son, whose Name was Micha; and all who dwelt in the House of Ziba were Servants to Mephibosheth.

13. Who dwelt at Jerusalem, for he did eat continually on the King's Table, and was lame of both his Feet.

CHAP. X.

AND after this, the King of the Ammonites dying, Hanun his Son reigned in his room.

2. Upon which David said, I will shew Kindness to Hanun the Son of Nahash, as his Father did to me. So he sent to comfort him by the Ministry of his Servants concerning his Father: and David's Servants went into the Country of the Ammonites.

3. But their Princes said to Hanun their Lord, Dost thou think David honours thy Father, that he has sent Comforters to thee? Has not he sent his Servants to thee, in order to search out the City, to spy it, and overthrow it?

4. Therefore Hanun took David's Servants, and shaved off half their Beards, and cut off their Garments in the middle to their Buttocks; sending them away.

5. And some told David, at which he sent to meet them, because the Men were exceedingly ashamed; and the King said, Stay at Jericho till your Beards are grown, and then come back.

6. However when the Ammonites found that they were odious to David, they sent, and hired of the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and those of Zoba, twenty thousand Footmen, and of the King of Maachah a thousand Men, as also of the Men of Tob twelve thousand.

7. This David hearing, sent Joab, with all the Army of the stout Men.

8. So the Ammonites came out, and set the Battle in order at the Entrance of the Gate; and the Syrians of Zoba, and Rehob, as likewise the Men of Tob and Maachah, were by themselves in the Field.

9. Whereupon Joab seeing that the Front of the Battle was towards him, both before and behind, he chose some of all the choice Men of Israel, and set in order to meet the Syrians.

10. And the rest of the People he delivered into the Custody of Abishai his Brother, that he might set in order to meet the Ammonites.

11. He also said; If the Syrians are too strong for me, thou shalt be to save me; and if the Ammonites are too strong for thee, I will come to save thee.

12. Be thou strong, and let us make ourselves so, for our People, and for the Cities of our God; and the Lord do what he likes.

13. Joab then, and the People that were with him, drew nigh to the Battle against the Syrians, who fled from his Presence.

14. And the Ammonites seeing that the Syrians were fled, did flee from the Presence of Abishai, and got into the City: so Joab returned from the Ammonites, and came to Jerusalem.

15. Nevertheless when the Syrians saw that they were beat before Israel, they gathered together.

16. Hadarezer likewise sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River, and they came to Helam; Shobach the Captain of Hadarezer's Army being before them.

17. Which being told David, he gathered all Israel, and passing over Jordan

Ver. 10. may eat] when in the Country, and his Servants.

Ver. 11. should eat—as one] live like one of them for eating. Thus Jun. and Trem. have it as what Ziba said, with the Sixtine Bibles; and it is strange to be taken for David's Words, to make it a Tautology too, without any Intimation of it in the Original. The Seventy translate it to be the Historian's, And Mephibosheth did eat on the King's Table.

Ver. 6. Maachah] the Name of the Country, not of the King, 1 Chron. xix. 6, 7.

Ver. 8. Men of Tob] of Tob see Judg. xi. 3. Ish-tob and Maachab, as it stands in the common Translation, is very indifferent Sense.

Ver. 12. so] The Hebrew Verb being repeated in this Manner, as likewise at 1 Chron. xix. 13. in which may be seen how our Translators have displayed their Oratory.

Ver. 14. And—ing] This answers to the two Hebrew 15; so that then and also are Redundancies of the common Translation.

Ver. 15. the Syrians] But Vulg. the Sons of Ammon seeing, that Syria was afraid, and that they were overthrown before Israel.

came

came to Helam; where the Syrians set in order to meet him, and fought with him.

18. But the Syrians fled from the Presence of Israel, and David slew those of seven hundred Chariots, and forty thousand Horsemen; nay he smote Shobach the Captain of their Army, so that he died there.

19. Thus all the Kings, the Servants to Hadarezer, seeing that they were beat before Israel, made peace with them, and served them; and the Syrians were afraid to help the Ammonites any more.

C H A P. XI.

MOREOVER at the Return of the Year, at the Time Kings go out, David sent Joab, accompanied with his Servants, and all Israel; and they spoiled the Ammonites, nay laid siege against Rabbah; but David abode at Jerusalem.

2. And at the Time of Evening, he rising up from his Bed, and walking about upon the Roof of the King's House, saw from thence a Woman washing her self; who was of a very beautiful Look.

3. With that he sent, and enquired for her; and one said, Is not this Bath-sheba the Daughter of Eliam, the Wife of Uriah the Hittite?

4. Then David sent Messengers, and fetched her; and when she was come to him, he lay with her, she having consecrated her self from her Uncleanness: afterwards she returned home.

5. And the Woman conceived; whereupon she sent, and told David, that she was with Child.

6. At this he sent to Joab, Send me Uriah the Hittite; whom Joab sent to him.

7. And when he was come to him, David asked about the Welfare of Joab, as also about that both of the People and the War.

8. After which David said to him, Go down home, and wash thy Feet. But Uriah going out of the King's House, though there went forth after him a Dish of Meat from the King,

9. Lay down at the Door there, with all the Servants of his Lord, and went not down home.

10. This they told David of; who said to him, Didst not thou come from a Journey? Why didst not thou go down home?

11. And Uriah answered him, The Ark, with Israel and Judah, abide in Tents; nay my Master Joab, with the Servants of my Lord, are encamped out in the Field; and shall I go home, to eat, drink, and lie with my Wife? By thy living, and thy Soul's living, I will not do this Thing.

12. David then said to him, Abide here also to Day, and to Morrow I will let thee go. Accordingly Uriah abode in Jerusalem that Day; and the next.

13. And David called him, that he might eat and drink before him, and he made him drunk; yet he went out in the Evening to lie on his Bed with the Servants of his Lord, and went not down home.

14. Therefore in the Morning, David wrote a Letter to Joab, and sent by Uriah.

15. In which he wrote thus, Do you put Uriah towards the Front of the strongest Part of the Battle, and turn back from following him; that he may be smitten, and die.

16. So when Joab had observed the City, he put him at a Place where he knew that valiant Men were.

17. And the Men of the City came out, and fought with Joab, so that there fell some of the People, the Servants of David; and likewise Uriah the Hittite died.

18. Upon which Joab sent, that he might tell David all the Affairs of the War.

19. And he commanded the Messenger as follows; When thou hast made an end of telling all the Affairs of the War to the King;

20. If his Wrath get up, and he says to thee, Why did you go nigh the City to fight? Did not you know how they throw off the Wall?

21. Who slew Abimelech, the Son of Jerubbeseth? Did not a Woman cast upon him a Piece of a Millstone off the Wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go nigh the Wall? Then thou shalt say, Thy Servant Uriah the Hittite also is dead.

22. Accordingly the Messenger went; and when he came, told David all for which Joab sent him.

23. And he said to David, When the Men had prevailed over some, and came out to others of us into the Field, we got to be over them to the Entrance of the Gate.

Ver. 18. forty thousand Horsemen] These seem to be the Horse and Foot together, being called Footmen, 1 Chron. xix. 18. where they might be denominated from the greater Number, and here from the principal Sort; nay might be termed by either Name, because the Footmen might occasionally, or at this Time, fight on horseback, or else the Horsemen on foot.

Ver. 20. throw] Agreeable to the next Verse, and the principal Meaning of the Word.

Ver. 23. some—others of us] which requires no Explanation, nor Vindication, but N. B.

24. Whereby

24. Whereby the Throwers threw on thy Servants off the Wall, and there are some of the King's Servants dead; and likewise thy Servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.

25. But David said to the Messenger; Thus shalt thou say to Joab, Let not this Thing displease thee, since the Sword consumes one as well as another: make the Battle strong against the City, and destroy it; to which do thou strengthen him.

26. Now the Wife of Uriah hearing that he her Husband was dead, lamented for him.

27. However when the Mourning was past, David sent, and took her to his House, and she became his Wife, and bore him a Son; but the Thing which he had done displeased the Lord.

C H A P. XII.

AND the Lord sent Nathan to David; who coming to him, said to him; There were two Men in one City, one rich and the other poor.

2. The rich had very great Flocks and Herds.

3. But the poor had nothing at all, excepting one little Ewe-lamb, which he bought, and kept alive, so that it grew up together with him, and his Sons: it did eat of his Morsel, and drink of his Cup, nay lay in his Bosom, and was as a Daughter to him.

4. And there coming a Traveller to the rich Man, he spared to take of his own Flocks and Herds, to make ready for the Passenger who came to him; and took the poor Man's Ewe-lamb, and made ready for that Man.

5. Upon this David was very angry with the Man; insomuch that he said to Nathan; By the Lord's living, the Man who has done this shall be put to death.

6. And he shall restore the Lamb fourfold; because he has done this Thing, and because he did not spare.

7. Then Nathan said to him: Thou art the Man. Thus says the Lord God of Israel; I anointed thee to be King over Israel, and I delivered thee from the Power of Saul.

8. Besides I gave thee thy Master's House, and his Wives into thy Bosom, nay gave thee the Family of Israel and Judah; and if that had been a Little, I would have added to thee such and such Things as these.

9. Why hast thou despised the Word of the Lord, by doing what displeased him? Thou hast slain Uriah the Hittite with the Sword, and taken his Wife to be thine; having killed him with the Sword of the Ammonites.

10. Now therefore the Sword shall not depart from thy House for a great while; because thou hast despised me, and taken that Uriah's Wife to be thy own.

11. Thus says the Lord; Behold I will raise up Mischief against thee out of thy own House, and take thy Wives before thy Eyes, and give to thy Neighbour; who shall lie with them in the Sight of this Sun.

12. For thou didst it in secret; but I will do this Thing openly to all Israel, and the Sun.

13. And David said to Nathan, I have sinned against the Lord. Whereupon Nathan replied to him; The Lord also puts away thy Sin, thou shalt not die.

14. Only because thou hast let the Enemies of the Lord highly contemn by this Thing, even the Son who is born to thee shall quite die.

15. And when Nathan was gone home, the Lord smote the Child, whom the Wife of Uriah bore to David, so that it was mortally sick.

16. Therefore David besought God for the Boy; and kept a Fast, nay went in, and staid all Night, lying on the Ground.

17. But the Elders of his House rose up to him, to raise him up from the Ground; yet he would not let it be, nor did he eat any Victuals with them.

18. However on the seventh Day the Child died; and David's Servants were afraid to tell him that it was dead, for they said, Behold when the Child was alive we persuaded him, and he did not hearken to what we said; and how will he do ill, should we tell him it is dead!

19. Nevertheless David seeing that his Servants whispered, understood that it was; upon this he asked them, Is the Child dead? And they said, It is.

20. He then rose up from the Ground, and having washed, anointed himself, and changed his Cloaths, he went into the House of the Lord, and worshipped; next he came home, and asking, they put some Victuals for him, and he eat.

Ver. 17. let it be] for without this (as often the Verb-substantive is to be understood in the Hebrew) it may be asked, He would not what? Raise him up?

Ver. 19. seeing] Vulg. heard, to make it better, but I think worse: for he might rather see them, than hear them whispering.

21. Whereupon his Servants said to him, What is this Thing which thou hast done? Thou didst fast, and weep, for the Child being alive, and when it was dead, thou didst rise up, and eat Victuals.

22. And he answered; While the Child was yet alive, I fasted, and wept; for, thought I, Who knows but the Lord may be gracious to me, that the Child may live.

23. But now it is dead, Why should I fast? Can I make it return again? I shall go to it, but it will not return to me.

24. Afterwards David comforted Bathsheba his Wife, and going in to her, lay with her; and she bore a Son, whose Name he called Solomon, and the Lord loved him.

25. Who sending by the Ministry of Nathan the Prophet, he called his Name Beloved of the Lord; because of the Lord.

26. And Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites, that he might take the royal City.

27. At which he sent Messengers to David with this Advice; Having fought against Rabbah, I have even taken the City of Water.

28. Now therefore gather the rest of the People, and encamp against the City, and take it; lest being taken by me, it should be called by my Name.

29. Accordingly David gathered all the People, and going to Rabbah, fought against it, and took it.

30. And he took off their King's Crown from his Head, the Value of which was a Talent of Gold with the precious Stones, and it crowned David's Head; besides he brought out the Spoil of the City very much.

31. He brought out the People too who were therein, and put under a Saw; as also Threshing-instruments of Iron, and iron Axes, nay made them pass through the Brick-kiln; and so did he to all the Cities of the Ammonites: then he, and all the People, returned to Jerusalem.

C H A P. XIII.

AND after that his Son Absalom having a fair Sister, whose Name was Tamar, Amnon the Son of David loved her.

2. And he was so distressed, that he became sick for this his Sister, because she was a Virgin; and he thought it would be strange to do any Thing to her.

3. Now Amnon had a Friend, whose Name was Jonadab, the Son of Shimeah David's Brother; and he was a very expert Man;

4. Who said to him, Why art thou so thin, being the King's Son, Morning by Morning? Wilt not thou tell me? And Amnon answered him, I am in love with Tamar the Sister of my Brother Absalom.

5. Then Jonadab replied to him, Lie upon thy Bed, and feign thy self sick; and when thy Father comes to see thee, say to him, Let Tamar my Sister come, I pray, and get me to eat some Victuals, by dressing the Food in my Sight, that I may see, and eat from her Hand.

6. So Amnon lay down, and feigned himself sick; and the King coming to see him, he said to him, Let Tamar my Sister come, I pray, and make a Couple of Cakes in my Sight, that I may eat from her Hand.

7. Accordingly David sent word home to her, Go now to thy Brother Amnon's House, and dress some Food for him.

8. With that Tamar went thither, and he was lying down; then she took Dough, having kneaded it, and made Cakes in his Sight, and baked them.

9. Moreover she took the Pan, and turned them out before him; but he refused to eat, and said, Cause every one to go out from me: so every one did.

10. Next he said to her, Bring the Food into the Chamber, that I may eat from thy Hand. Accordingly Tamar took the Cakes which she had made, and carried thither to Amnon her Brother.

11. Which she having nigh to him, that he might eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, Come, lie with me, my Sister.

12. But she answered him; Do not, my Brother, do not humble me, for it should not be so done in Israel: do not this Vileness.

Ver. 23. Why] How much better and wiser is this Answer, than that celebrated one of Solon himself, the great Law-maker of Athens, on a like Occasion, when he was persuaded not to weep, since Weeping would avail Nothing, "For this Cause I do weep?"

Ver. 25. Beloved of the Lord] as the Hebrew signifies; the Loss of which in the English Translation see on Psa. cxxvii. 2.

Ver. 26. that he might] Ver. 28.

Ver. 30. Value] As the Hebrew Word may signify Weight or Value, it is not congruous to be the former here, because the Crown was not all Gold, as also because the Weight would be far too great.

VOL. I.

Ver. 31. Threshing-instruments] As in Amos i. 3. and the Verb there joined with it shews.

Ver. 8. lying] otherwise lain, notwithstanding how it may be vulgarly expressed; laid being not the Participle of lie, but of lay, and so denotes being done by some other Person or Thing.

Ver. 12. Do not] ne being a Particle of persuading from a Thing, as twice besides in this Verse; rarely of denying; see Buxt. Gram. Lib. ii. Cap. 19.

ib. humble] Vid. Gen. xxxiv. 2. and concerning Vileness, Ver. 7. of the same Chapter.

13. For I, whither shall I cause my Reproach to go? And thou wilt be as one of the vile ones in Israel: now therefore speak, I pray, to the King, for he will not withhold me from thee.

14. Nevertheless he would not hearken to what she said; but being stronger than she, humbled her, and lay with her.

15. Amnon then had a very great Hatred to her; for it was greater than the Love which he before had for her; insomuch that he bade her, Get up, be gone.

16. And she said to him, There is no Cause for this great Heinousness, to send me away being more than the other that thou hast done to me. Yet he would not hearken to her;

17. But called his young Man who waited on him, and said, Send this Woman now out from me, and lock the Door after her.

18. And though she had on a Garment of several Sorts, because the King's Daughters who were Virgins were clothed with such Robes; his Waiting-man had her out abroad, and locked the Door after her.

19. Therefore Tamar took Ashes upon her Head, and tore that Garment, as also put her Hand upon her Head, and going away, went on crying.

20. To whom Absalom her Brother said, Has thy Brother Amnon been with thee? Yet now, my Sister, hold thy Peace, as he is thy Brother; do not mind this Matter. Then Tamar remained, and was desolate, at his House.

21. And upon King David's hearing of all these Things, he was very angry.

22. In the mean time Absalom would not speak to his Brother Amnon either Bad or Good: for he hated him, by reason that he had humbled Tamar his Sister.

23. And in two Years Time, Absalom having Shearers at Baal-hazor, which is by Ephraim, he invited all the King's Sons.

24. He likewise came to the King, and said, Behold now thy Servant has Shearers, let the King, I pray, and his Servants, go with thy Servant.

25. Whereas the King answered him, Let us not, my Son, let us not now all of us go, lest we should be burdensome to thee. And notwithstanding he urged him, he would not go, but blessed him.

26. At which Absalom said, If not, be pleased to let my Brother Amnon go with us? And the King replied to him, Why should he go with thee?

27. However Absalom pressing on him, he let Amnon and all the King's Sons go with him?

28. And Absalom commanded his young Men thus; See now when Amnon's Mind is merry with Wine, and I give you notice to strike him; then kill him, do not fear: Will it not be because I command you? Take courage, and be Sons of Valour.

29. They also did to Amnon, as he commanded; with that all the King's Sons rose up, and riding upon their respective Mules, fled.

30. And while they were in the Way, the following News came to David, Absalom has slain all the King's Sons, so that there is not one of them left.

31. Upon this the King got ready, and tearing his Cloaths, lay on the Ground; and all his Servants stood by with their Cloaths torn.

32. But Jonadab the Son of Shimeah David's Brother made answer; Let not my Lord think, they have killed all the young Men, the King's Sons, since Amnon alone is dead: for by the Talk of Absalom it has been appointed, from the Day he humbled Tamar his Sister.

33. Now therefore let not my Lord the King so regard the Matter, as to think all his Sons are dead; because it is only Amnon.

34. And Absalom fled. The young Man too who kept watch looking up, saw plainly that there were many People came along in the Way behind him, on the Side of the Mountain.

35. When Jonadab said to the King, Behold the King's Sons are coming: according to the Word of thy Servant, so it is.

36. And as he made an end of speaking, behold they came, who burst out a crying; and the King also, with all his Servants, cried very much.

37. In the mean while Absalom fled, who went to Talmai the Son of Ammihud King of Geshur; and he mourned for his Son continually.

38. Thus he being fled, and gone to Geshur, was there three Years.

39. So that King David longed to go

Ver. 16. Cause] not with the Stop here, as in the vulg. Transf. so unsapely.

Ver. 20. Aminon] So Absalom calls him, different from his Name elsewhere; Lightfoot says, scornfully: but rather in Derogation to his Name Amnon, which signifies faithful; as this may unfaithful, min being from or un—therefore should not be lost in the Translation.

Ver. 22. Bad or Good] which is the Hebrew Order.

Ver. 31. their] It may be suspected, that our Translators mistook the ם of בָּנָיו for this Pronoun.

Ver. 32. that being twice added in this Verse by our Translators, one is put in the Italic Print, the other not.

forth to him; for he was comforted concerning Amnon, since he was dead.

C H A P. XIV.

AND Joab the Son of Zeruiah knowing, that the Heart of the King was upon Absalom;

2. He sent to Tekoah, and fetched from thence a wise Woman, to whom he said; Feign thy self now to mourn, and put on now Garments of Mourning, and be not anointed with Oil, but be as a Woman who has these many Days been mourning for the Dead;

3. And go to the King, and speak to him according to this Speech: he putting Words so in her Mouth.

4. Accordingly the Woman of Tekoah spoke to the King, falling upon her Face to the Ground, and reverencing, with this Expression, Save, O King.

5. To whom he said, What is the matter with thee? And she answered; I am verily a widow Woman, my Husband being dead.

6. And thy Handmaid had two Sons, who contending in the Field, and there being none between them to deliver; one struck the other, so that he killed him.

7. At which behold the whole Family is risen up against thy Handmaid, and they say, Deliver up him who smote his Brother, that we may kill him for the Life of his Brother whom he has slain; and may destroy even the Heir; thus will they quench my Coal that is left, making my Husband not to have Name or Remainder upon the Surface of the Ground.

8. Whereupon the King said to her, Go home, and I will give command concerning thee.

9. But she answered him, Upon me, my Lord O King, be the Iniquity, and upon my Father's Family; and let the King, and his Throne, be innocent.

10. To which the King replied, When any speaks to thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee again any more.

11. Yet she added, Let the King, I pray, remember the Lord thy God, not to let the Revengers of Blood increase the slaying, that they may not destroy my Son. By the Lord's living, says he, there shall not a Hair of thy Son fall to the Earth.

12. The Woman nevertheless rejoined, Let thy Handmaid, I beseech thee, speak a Word to my Lord the King; who said, Do.

13. And she proceeded; Why then dost thou intend such as this against the People of God? For the King speaks these Words like one who is in fault, for him not to bring again his expelled one.

14. For we must quite die, and be like Water poured out on the Ground, which cannot be gathered up; and since God takes not away the Life, he should have some Thoughts that the expelled one may not remain so from him.

15. And now as I came to speak this Matter to the King my Lord, it was because the People made me afraid; and thy Handmaid thought, I will now speak to the King, who perhaps will do the Business of his Handmaid.

16. Because he can hear to deliver her from the Power of the Man, who would destroy me and my Son together, from the Possession of God.

17. Thy Handmaid too thought, The Word now of my Lord the King will be for Quietness: for as an Angel of God, so is he to hear Good or Evil, and the Lord thy God is with thee.

18. The King then made reply to her, Conceal not from me, I pray, the Matter that I shall ask thee. And she said, Let my Lord the King now speak.

19. And he asked, Is not the Hand of Joab with thee in all this? To which the Woman made answer; By thy Soul's living, my Lord O King, there is no going to the right Hand or the left, from all that my Lord the King speaks; for thy Servant Joab himself commanded me, and told thy Handmaid all that she should say:

20. In order to turn about the Look of the Thing, has thy Servant Joab done this Matter; and my Lord is wise, as with the Wisdom of an Angel of God, to know all that is on the Earth.

21. Upon which the King said to Joab, Behold now since I have done this Thing, go, bring again the young Man Absalom.

22. At this Joab fell on his Face to the

Ver. 2. now] the same repeated in Hebrew.

Ver. 9. be innocent] prostando quod peto, in doing what I request, as Jun. and Trem. well comment; but Poole doubly ill, If I do not inform thee right, or if thou neglectest my Cause.

Ver. 14. die] Amnon would have died if not murdered, and Absalom will die as it were for it.

1b. takes not away the Life] of Absalom, for the Murder.

1b. be should] Namely the King, agreeing with the Words of the foregoing Verse.

Ver. 19. told thy Handmaid all that she should say] according as the same Hebrew Idiom is rendered in Ex. viii. 17.

Earth, and revered, and blessed the King; he also said, Thy Servant knows to Day that I am in Favour with thee, my Lord O King, because the King has performed the Request of his Servant.

23. So he got ready and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24. But the King said, Let him turn aside to his House, and not see my Face: which Absalom did accordingly.

25. Now there was not a Man among all Israel, so much to be praised for being handsome, as Absalom: from the Sole of his Foot even to his Crown there was not a Blemish in him.

26. And when he cut off his Hair (which he used to do at every Year's End, because it was heavy upon him) the Hair of his Head weighed two hundred Shekels, by the King's Weight.

27. There were also born to Absalom three Sons, and one Daughter, whose Name was Tamar: she was a Woman of a fair Countenance.

28. Thus Absalom abode in Jerusalem two Year's Time, and saw not the King's Face.

29. At length he sent for Joab, to send him to the King, but he would not come to him; nor yet when he sent again the second time.

30. Therefore he said to his Servants, See, there is a Piece of Joab's Land at my Part, where he has Barley; go, and set it on fire: so they did.

31. Hereupon Joab got ready, and went to Absalom at Home, and asked him, Why have thy Servants set the Piece of Land which I have on fire?

32. And Absalom answered him; Behold I sent thus to thee, Come hither, that I may send thee to the King, to say, Why am I come from Geshur? It would be better for me that I should be there still; now therefore let me see the King's Face, and if there be Iniquity in me, let him put me to death.

33. Joab accordingly went to the King, and told him; who called Absalom, and he went to him, and bowed down to him, upon his Face to the Ground before the King; and he kissed Absalom.

BUT after this, Absalom prepared him Chariots and Horses, with fifty Men to run before him.

2. Nay he would rise early, and stand at the Side of the Way to the Gate; and every Man who had a Cause to come with to the King for Judgment, Absalom called to him, and said, Where is the City thou art of? Who answering, Thy Servant is of such a one of the Tribes of Israel;

3. Absalom replied to him, See that thy Matters are good and right; though there is none to hear thee from the King.

4. Moreover he wished, Oh that I was Judge in the Country, that every Man who has a Cause or Judgment might come to me, and I would do him justice.

5. Besides when a Man came near to bow down to him, he put forth his Hand, and taking hold of him, kissed him.

6. And after this manner did he behave to all Israel who came to the King for Judgment; thus Absalom stole away the Hearts of the Men of Israel.

7. And at the Term of forty Years, he said to the King; Let me go, I pray, and perform what I vowed to the Lord to do at Hebron.

8. For thy Servant made the following Vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, If the Lord will at all bring me again to Jerusalem, I will serve him.

9. And the King answering him, Go in Peace; he got ready, and went to Hebron.

10. But he sent Spies through all the Tribes of Israel, to tell; When you hear the Sound of the Trumpet, say, Absalom reigns at Hebron.

11. There went also with him two hundred Men invited from Jerusalem, who went in their Integrity; for they knew not any thing of the Matter.

12. He further sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's Counsellor, from his City Giloh, when he was offering Sacrifices; and the Conspiracy was strong, for the People went on increasing with Absalom.

Ver. 26. by the King's Weight] The Babylonian or foreign Shekel, being computed but the third Part of a Hebrew one, might be used by the Kings of Israel by reason of their Traffick abroad, and so obtain that Name, by which Absalom would probably have his Hair weighed in Ostentation. According to which the true Weight will be about 2lb. 6oz. 8p.w. Troy.

Ver. 7. See the Notes of Chronology after the succeeding Table.

1b. to do at] For surely Absalom was not in Hebron, while he was at Geshur in Syria, another Kingdom; but Hebron was his Birth-place, Chap. iii. 3.

Ver. 10. reigns] In the Bible of Pope Sixtus, will reign; in that of Pope Clement, published two Years after, has reigned: but their English Translators, as if ashamed of the Incongruity of both, take up with the Hereticks, reigneth.

Ver. 12. strong] What will not Mankind do, and what may not the best of Men expect from them? when they would do thus to David, and that in the worst of 13. Then there came one who told David, that the Hearts of the Men of Israel were after Absalom.

14. Whereupon he said to all his Servants, who were with him at Jerusalem, Get ready, and let us flee, else there will be no escaping for us from the Presence of Absalom: make haste to go away, lest he making haste, should overtake us, and forcibly bring Mischief upon us, by smiting the City with the Edge of the Sword.

15. And the King's Servants said to him, According to all that my Lord the King shall choose, here are thy Servants.

16. So the King went forth, and all his Household accompanied him; only he left ten Women who were Concubines, to keep the House.

17. Thus he going forth, and all the People accompanying him, remained at a House far off.

18. And all his Servants passed on at his Side, with all the Cherethites and Pelethites; as likewise all the Gittites, six hundred Men who came along with him from Gath, passed on before the King.

19. But he said to Ittai the Gittite; Why dost thou go with us too? Return, and abide with the King; since thou art a Stranger, and art also removing to thy Place.

20. Whereas thou camest Yesterday, shall I make thee go wandering with us to Day, when I am going whither I can? Return, and cause thy Brethren to return; Kindness and Truth be with thee.

21. And Ittai made answer to the King, By the Lord's living, and my Lord the King's living, in the very Place where my Lord the King shall be, whether in Death or in Life, even there will thy Servant be.

22. David then replied to him, Go, and pass over. Accordingly he did, as likewise all his Men, and the Children who were with him.

23. And the whole Country cried aloud, when all the People passed over; the King also went over the Brook Kidron, and all the People towards the Way of the Wilderness.

24. Nay there was Zadok too, and all the Levites with him, carrying the Ark of God's Covenant; which they set down, and Abiathar went up, till all the People had made an end of passing out of the City.

25. Nevertheless the King said to Zadok; Have back the Ark of God into the City: if I am in Favour with the Lord, he will bring me back, and shew me that, and the Habitation of it.

26. But if he should say thus, I do not delight in thee; here am I, let him do to me as he pleases.

27. He likewise said to that Priest; Art thou a Seer? Go back then into the City in Peace, and your two Sons with you, Ahimaaz thine, and Jonathan the Son of Abiathar.

28. See, I will stay in the Plain of the Wilderness, till Word comes from you to tell me.

29. Therefore Zadok and Abiathar carried back the Ark of God to Jerusalem, and they abode there.

30. But David went up on the Ascent of Olivet, weeping as he went, and his Head was covered, and he walked barefooted; all the People too who were with him covered their Heads respectively, and went up in the same Manner.

31. It was moreover told David, that Ahithophel was among them who conspired with Absalom; at which he said, Make the Counsel of Ahithophel foolish, I beseech thee, O Lord.

32. And when David came to the Top, where he worshipped God, behold Hushai the Archite met him, with his Coat torn, and Earth upon his Head.

Rebellion, for a Son against his Father, nay a Son that had murdered his Brother, and the Father who had saved them by killing Goliath, &c.

Ver. 14. else] which if may signify, as well as but so commonly, though not noticed by Noldius, &c.

Ver. 19. to thy Place] which is the last of the Verse in Hebrew, and he could not both go to Gath, and tarry in Jerusalem with Absalom, says Poole. And how unapt exile is, may be seen by this literal rendering.

Ver. 21. very—there] both if seem here in each Place redundant as to Translation, according as in 2 Kings v. 20. and as either of them is usually in Oaths; and so not to be turned first surely, then even also: yet the Expletives I have chosen may image them pretty well.

Ver. 23. Kidron] running along the Bottom of the Valley of Jehoshaphat southward, on the east Side of Jerusalem, but sometimes dry, according to Maundrell, Journ. p. 100.

1b. Way] Vulg. inserts of Olivet from Ver. 30.

Ver. 24. which they set down] The Vulg. quite unnecessarily, as wrongly, repeats Covenant here.

Ver. 25. the Habitation of it] That is the Tabernacle, Chap. vi. 17.

Ver. 26. do to me as] Thus Juvenal in Sat. x.

—Si Consilium vis,

Permites ipsi expendere Numinibus, quid
Conveniat nobis, rebusque sit utile nostris.

Receive my Counsel and securely move;

Intrust thy Fortune to the Powers above:

Leave God to manage for thee, and to grant

What his unerring Wisdom sees thee want,

Dryden's Translation.

And Abulfeth, an eastern Poet, as recited by Barth. D'Herbelot, in Bibliothèque Orientale under the Word Bost, Submission to the Will of God ought to be the Rule and End of our Conduct.

33. To whom David said; If thou goest on with me, thou wilt be a Burden to me.

34. But if thou wilt return into the City, and say to Absalom, Let me be thy Servant, O King, since I have been thy Father's hitherto, and now would I also be thine; then thou mayest make void the Counsel of Ahithophel for me.

35. And will not Zadok and Abiathar the Priests be there with thee? To whom thou shalt tell every Thing that thou hearest from the King's House.

36. Behold their two Sons are there with them, Ahimaaz Zadok's, and Jonathan Abiathar's; by whose Means you may send to me every Thing that you hear.

37. Accordingly Hushai David's Friend went into the City, when Absalom came to Jerusalem.

CHAP. XVI.

NOW when David was passed a little from the Top, behold Ziba Mephibosheth's Servant met him, with a couple of Asses saddled, upon which were two hundred Loaves, a hundred Clusters of Raisins, a hundred of Summer-fruits, and a Bottle of Wine.

2. And the King asked Ziba, What hast thou these for? To which he answered, The Asses are for the King's Household to ride on, the Loaves and Summer-fruits for the young Men to eat, and the Wine is for those to drink who are faint in the Wilderness.

3. The King enquired further, And where is thy Master's Son? And Ziba answered him; Behold he abides at Jerusalem: for he said, This Time will the Family of Israel restore to me my Father's Kingdom.

4. Upon this the King said to Ziba, Behold thou shalt have all that belongs to Mephibosheth. And he replied, I bow down, being got in Favour with thee, my Lord O King.

5. And as King David was going to Ba-hurim, behold there came out a Man from thence of the Family of the House of Saul, whose Name was Shimei, the Son of Gera, who coming out, cursed as he came.

6. Nay he flung Stones at David, and all his Servants; though all the People, and all the stout Men were at his right Hand and left.

7. And Shimei said thus in his cursing; Get thee out, get thee out, O bloody and ungodly Man.

8. The Lord has returned upon thee all the Blood of the Household of Saul, in whose Place thou hast reigned, and the Lord has given the Kingdom into the Power of Absalom thy Son; and behold thou art in thy own Mischief, because thou art a bloody Man.

9. At which Abishai the Son of Zeruiah said to the King, Why should this dead Dog curse my Lord the King? Let me pass over, I pray, and take off his Head.

10. But he answered; What have you to do with me, O Sons of Zeruiah? For he may curse, because the Lord has ordered him, to curse David, and who shall say, Why dost thou so?

11. Besides David said to Abishai and all his Servants; Behold my own Son who proceeded forth from my self seeks my Life; and much more now may a Benjaminite: let him alone, since he may curse, because the Lord has bid him.

12. Perhaps the Lord will look on my Affliction, and he may render Good to me instead of his Cursing this Day.

13. So he and his Men went on the Way; Shimei going on the Side of the Mountain over against him, where he went along cursing, throwing Stones, and flinging Earth.

14. At length the King, and all the People who were with him, came faint, and were refreshed there.

15. Absalom too, and all the People, the Men of Israel, came to Jerusalem; and Ahithophel was with him.

16. And when Hushai the Archite, David's Friend, came to Absalom, Hushai cried

Ver. 34. O King] suffer me to live, adds the Vulgate. From such Scraps as this, not in the Original, may the ignorant Talk have been raised by the Popish Party, that they have more Scripture at Rome than we; if not still worse, from their counting the Apocrypha canonical Scripture, which we have as well as they.

Ver. 1. a Bottle] Vulg. Lat. two Bottles.

Ver. 2. The Asses] The Vulgate has first, My Lord the King.

Ver. 4. bow down] thus the Hebrew, without any Thing for that to make it a Petition; being an Acknowledgment, as the Favour was already granted.

Ver. 5. was going to] For if come thither, Shimei could not come out thence to him; see too Ver. 14.

Ver. 7. Get thee out] of the Kingdom.

Ver. 8. Blood] killing the seven Sons, Chap. xxi. 8, 9. as being done before this.

Ver. 9. this dead Dog] which the common Latin Translator was so wise as to alter into this Dog about to die.

Ver. 10. you to do] as Judg. xi. 12. and more to the Purpose.

Ib. For] so is marginal, not textual.

Ib. may curse] For unquestionably the Lord did not bid him, though David might then doubt of it.

Ib. dost thou] namely the Lord.

Ver. 11. now] Instead of which the vulg. Lat. has this, and our Translators both.

out to him, Let the King live, let the King live.

17. To whom Absalom said, Is this thy Favour to thy Friend? Why didst not thou go with him?

18. But Hushai answered him; No: for whom the Lord, and his People, and all the Men of Israel choose, shall not I be for, and abide with him?

19. And again with whom should I serve? Should it not be before his Son? As I have served before thy Father, so will I be before thee.

20. And Absalom saying to Ahithophel, Give Counsel for you, what we shall do.

21. He answered him, Go in to thy Father's Concubines, whom he has left to keep the House; and when all Israel hear that thou art odious to thy Father, the Hands of all who are with thee will be strong.

22. Accordingly they pitched a Tent for Absalom upon the Roof, and he went in to his Father's Concubines in the Sight of all Israel.

23. And the Counsel of Ahithophel, which he gave in those Days, was as if a Man enquired of the Word of God: so was all of it, both to David and Absalom.

C H A P. XVII.

MOREOVER Ahithophel advised Absalom; Let me now choose out twelve thousand Men, and getting ready, pursue after David to Night.

2. So shall I come upon him, while he is weary and of weak Hands, and make him afraid, whereby all the People who are with him will flee; and I will smite the King alone.

3. And I will bring back all the People to thee, according as they may return: by the Man whom thou seekest for shall all the People be in Peace.

4. Which Saying Absalom approved of, as did all the Elders of Israel.

5. However Absalom said, Call now also Hushai the Archite; that we may hear what he has likewise to advise.

6. Who coming to Absalom, he said thus to him, Ahithophel having counselled after this Manner, shall we do what he advises? If not, do thou speak.

7. Upon which Hushai said to him, The Counsel that Ahithophel has given is not good this Time.

8. For added he: Thou knowest, that thy Father and his Men are stout, and they are of bitter Minds, like a Bear deprived of its Young in the Field; and he being a Warrior, will not lodge with the People.

9. Behold he is now hid in one of the Pits, or another Place; and as soon as there is falling among them at first, some Person who hears will say, There is a Slaughter among the People that follow Absalom.

10. Then even he who is a valiant Person, whose Heart is like that of a Lion, will utterly melt: for all Israel know that thy Father is stout, and those who are with him be valiant Men.

11. But I counsel, there should be thoroughly gathered to thee all Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the Sand which is at the Sea for Multitude; and that thou thy own self go into the Battle.

12. Thus shall we come to him in one of the Places, where he will be found, and shall encamp against him, as the Dew falls upon the Ground; so that there shall not be left of him, and all the Men who are with him, even one.

13. And if he be got into a City, all Israel shall bring Ropes to that City; and we will draw it to the Brook, until even a small Stone is not found there.

14. With this Absalom and all the Men of Israel said, The Counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than that of Ahithophel: for the Lord had appointed to make void the Counsel of Ahithophel, which was good, that he might bring Evil upon Absalom.

15. Next Hushai told Zadok and Abiathar the Priests; After this and this Manner did Ahithophel counsel Absalom, and the Elders of Israel, and after this and this Manner have I counselled.

16. Now therefore send speedily, and tell David thus, Do not lodge to Night in the Plains of the Wilderness, and besides pass wholly over; lest the King should be devoured, and all the People who are with him.

Ver. 18. not] so the Hebrew Text, the common English being according to the Margin; and thus the Hebrew is in 2 Kings viii. 10. Job xiii. 15. Isa. ix. 3. & xlix. 5. & lxi. 9. taken differently by our Translators.

Ver. 22. Roof] where he lusted after Bath-sheba, Chap. xi. 2.

Ver. 3. by the Man] This is rendered after the Order and Pointing of the Hebrew, and so makes better Sense than the perverting of both in the common Translation.

Ver. 14. better] Being more warlike, ostentatious, and suiting the sanguine Temper of Rebels; who being also superior in Multitude, scorned to be wary, and being audaciously wicked, would be cruel: to whose Tempers Hushai adapted his Speech, for their Fall.

Ver. 16. lest] if Ahithophel's Counsel should yet be taken, Ver. 21.

17. In the mean time Jonathan and Ahimaaz staid at the Fountain of Rogel, and a Maid went and told them, that they might go and tell King David: for they must not be seen to go into the City.

18. Nevertheless a Youth saw them, and told Absalom; but they both went away speedily, and came to a Man's House at Bahurim, who had a Well in his Court, and they went down there.

19. The Woman further took, and spread a Covering upon the Mouth of the Well, and laid about ground Corn upon it; so that the Matter was not known.

20. Yet Absalom's Servants came to her at the House, and asked, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? But she told them, They are passed over the River of Water: whom when they had sought for, and could not find, they returned to Jerusalem.

21. And after they were gone, those came up out of the Well, and went and told King David; to whom they said, Get ready, and pass speedily over the Water, for thus Ahithophel has counselled against you.

22. Accordingly David got ready, and all the People who were with him, and went over Jordan; there being by the Light of the Morning not even one lacking, who was not passed over it.

23. But Ahithophel seeing that his Counsel was not executed, saddled his Ass, and got ready, and went to his House at his own City, then giving charge about his Family, he hanged himself; thus he died, and was buried in his Father's Grave.

24. David also went to Mahanaim; and Absalom passed over Jordan, accompanied with all the Men of Israel.

25. And he put Amasa over the Army, instead of Joab; Amasa being the Son of a Man whose Name was Ithra, an Israelite, who went in to Abigail, the Daughter of Nahash, the Sister of Zeruiah Joab's Mother.

26. So Israel and Absalom encamped in the Province of Gilead.

27. And when David was come to Mahanaim, Shobi the Son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, Machir the Son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim;

28. Brought Beds, Basons, Potters Vessels, Wheat, Barley, Flour, even of parched Corn, Beans, Lentiles, and parched Corn,

29. With Honey, Butter, Sheep, and Cheeses of the Herd, for David, and the People who were with him, to eat: for they said, The People are hungry, faint, and thirsty in the Wilderness.

C H A P. XVIII.

AND David numbered the People who were with him, and put over them Captains both of Thousands and Hundreds.

2. He moreover sent the People, one third Part in the Custody of Joab, another in that of his Brother Abishai the Son of Zeruiah, and the other in the Custody of Ittai the Gittite; and the King said to the People, I will also go quite out with you.

3. But they answered, Thou shalt not; for if we at all flee away, they will not regard us, nor yet if half of us die; for thou art now as ten Thousand of us: now therefore it will be well, that thou shouldest but help us out of the City.

4. And the King replied to them, I will do what you like. So he stood at the Side of the Gate, while all the People went forth by Hundreds and Thousands.

5. When he thus commanded Joab, Abishai and Ittai, Be gentle for my sake to the young Man Absalom. And all the People heard, when the King commanded all the Captains upon Absalom's Account.

6. Thus the People went forth into the Field to meet Israel; and the Battle was in the Wood of Ephraim:

7. Where the People of Israel were defeated before the Servants of David; and a great Slaughter was there that Day of twenty Thousand.

8. For the Battle there was dispersed all over the Country; and the Wood consumed more of the People, than the Sword did that Day.

Ver. 20. River] namely Jordan, Ver. 22. and as the Chald. has it, which was too big for a Brook. The LXX have, They passed away tasting a little Water, and the Vulg. They passed away hastily, having tasted a little Water: for Michal as an Appellative being no where else, nor having any Companion, as Kimbi speaks, they deduced it from achal, to eat, when it is rather from jabol, to be able or to prevail, and so Kimbi expounds it to be a strong Flood, and Sol. Jar. a River.

Ver. 25. an Israelite] to wit Amasa; Ithra or Jether being an Ismaelite, 1 Chron. ii. 17. as Abigail, not Nahash, was the Sister of Zeruiah, 1 Chron. ii. 16.

Ib. Nabash] the Wife of Jesse, as Jun. and Trem. remark, and I rather think; though some Copies of the Septuagint have it Jesse, by way of Explanation.

Ver. 28. of parched Corn] So Trem. and Jun. the Hebrew Words here rendered parched Corn being the same in the Original, though our Translation has pulse to the latter, but every where else parched corn.

Ver. 8. the Wood consumed] I suppose by David's being there first, and posting his Men to Advantage in concealed Places, by the Sides of the Passages, &c.

9. And because Absalom was meeting the Servants of David directly before; and rode upon a Mule, it went under a thick Place of a great Oak, and his Head caught hold of the Oak; so that he was placed between the Heaven and the Earth, and the Mule that was under him passed away.

10. Which a certain Man seeing, told Joab thus, Behold I saw Absalom hanged on an Oak.

11. And he said to the Man who told him, And behold when thou sawest it, why didst not thou smite him there to the Ground? And there is with me to have given thee, ten Shekels of Silver and a Girdle.

12. But the Man answered him; Although I should have a thousand Shekels of Silver weighed into my Hand, I would not stretch it forth against the King's Son: for in our Hearing the King charged thee, Abishai and Ittai, to take care of any one being against the young Man Absalom.

13. Otherwise I should have acted wrongfully against my own Life, since there is no Matter concealed from the King; and thou wouldest have stood at a distance.

14. However Joab replied, I shall not tarry so before thee; and taking three Darts in his Hand, he stuck them into Absalom's Heart, who was yet alive in the middle of the Oak.

15. Ten young Men also, who carried Joab's Arms, went round about, and smiting Absalom, they killed him.

16. Whereupon Joab blew a Trumpet, and the People returned from pursuing after Israel: for he kept them back.

17. Then they took Absalom, and threw him into a great Pit in the Wood, placing a very great Heap of Stones upon him; and all Israel fled to their several Tents.

18. Now Absalom in his Life-time had taken, and set him up a Pillar, which was in the King's Vale; for he said, I have no Son who may make my Name be remembered. So he called it by his own Name, which is called Absalom's Monument to this Day.

19. And Ahimaaz the Son of Zadok said, Let me run now, and declare to the King, that the Lord has delivered him from the Power of his Enemies.

20. Whom Joab answered, Thou shalt not be the News-man this Day, but shalt carry News another Day; and not this, because the King's Son is dead.

21. So he ordered Cushie, [Go, tell the King what thou hast seen; and bowing down to Joab, he ran.

22. Nevertheless Ahimaaz the Son of Zadok said to him yet again, But howsoever it be, let me now also run after Cushie. And though Joab objected, Why wilt thou run, my Son, since there is no News found for thee?

23. Yet however it be, said he, let me run; at which he bade him run: then Ahimaaz ran the Way of the Plain, and passed by Cushie.

24. And David sitting between the two Gates, the Watchman went on the Roof of the Gate, upon the Wall, and looking up, saw plainly that there was a Man running alone.

25. Upon this he called, and told the King; who said, If he be alone, he has News to tell. And he came on apace, drawing near.

Ver. 9. because] which Noldius shews to be the Meaning of in divers Places. And if the Context be duly considered, it may appear incredible that Absalom met the Servants of David, or even that the Oak was in the Way to meet them; because then passing by it, they would doubtless have seen him. This being in the Discomfiture or Flight, and Absalom alone, quite forbid the former, as that in Ver. 10, 11. does also the latter. It might be necessary to say Something of this, as I know of no Translator who observed it.

1b. foreright] left out of the common English.

1b. it went] for him to avoid meeting David's Men.

1b. Head] that is the Hair of it; which being first his Pride, Chap. xiv. 26. was now his Destruction.

Ver. 12. against] for which the Heb. has a Preposition.

Ver. 13. at a distance] as the Hebrew Word properly signifies, rendered by several in the Latin Translations ex adverso; and the Original has not me.

Ver. 14. he stuck] In our late ingenious Country-woman's Tale of Cushie is,

That cruel Arm impell'd the flying Dart,
And the keen Weapon sunk within his Heart:
Then those fair Cheeks resign'd their rosy Dye;
Yet Life a Moment struggl'd in his Eye,
As from so fair a Mansion loth to fly,

Till the red Torrent stain'd his throbbing Side;

Then with a Groan the beauteous Rebel dy'd,

Leaper's Poems, Vol. i.

I have put Side for Tide, as supposing it wrong printed; and chose to give a Quotation rather from this Poem, than either of the two foregoing, viz. The Death of Abel, and Job's Curse, by reason of the too great Inconsistencies with Holy Writ therein.

Ver. 18. Pillar] Ubi etiamnum turris & magnus lapidum acervus extat, qui quotidie magis ac magis augetur. Nam &c. Where there still remains a Tower and great Heap of Stones, which is increased daily: for it is the Custom for the Natives and Strangers who pass that Way, each to fling a Stone at him, as it were revenging his Rebellion against his Father, and withal wishing he and such may be cursed for ever; Adrichomius in his Hierosol. Descrip. N^o. 227. from Breidenbach's Peregrin. Hierosolym. & Mon. Sinai, printed 1486.

Ver. 22. since there is no News found for thee] Literally so in Hebrew, but the old Lat. has first, come hither, and then has this rendered, non eris &c. thou wilt not be a Carrier of good News, viz. by carrying such; but the College of Dewey have turned it into English, thou shalt not &c. quite in another and wrong Sense.

26. The Watchman likewise saw another Man running, so he called to the Porter, and said, Behold there is another runs alone. And the King answered, This also brings News.

27. The Watchman then said, I see the running of the first is like that of Ahimaaz the Son of Zadok. At which the King declared, That is a good Man, and comes for good News.

28. At length Ahimaaz calling, said to the King, It is well, and bowed down to him with his Face to the Ground; as also added, Blessed be the Lord thy God, who has delivered up the Men, that lifted up their Hands against my Lord the King.

29. But says the King, Is the young Man Absalom well? And he answered, I saw a great Tumult, at Joab's sending the King's Servant, and me thy Servant, but I did not know for what.

30. And the King said, Turn aside, stand here. Accordingly he turned aside, and stood still.

31. Behold also Cushai came; and he said, The News brought, my Lord O King, is that the Lord has delivered thee to Day from the Power of all who rose up against thee.

32. The King however asked him, Is the young Man Absalom well? And Cushai answered, Let the Enemies of my Lord the King, and all who rise up against thee for Harm, be like him.

33. Affected at this, he went up to the Chamber of the Gate, and wept; lamenting thus as he went, My Son Absalom, my Son, my Son Absalom; oh that I had died instead of thee, O Absalom, my Son, my Son!

C H A P. XIX.

AND it was told Joab, Behold the King weeps, and mourns for Absalom.

2. So that the Preservation that Day became Mourning to all the People: because they then heard, that the King was grieved for his Son.

3. Therefore the People stole away that Day, to go into the City; as those do who are ashamed when they flee in a Battle.

4. And the King not only covered his Face, but cried aloud, My Son Absalom, O Absalom, my Son, my Son.

5. Joab then went to him at the House, and said; Thou hast made the Faces of all thy Servants ashamed to Day, who have delivered thy Life on it, and the Lives of thy Sons and Daughters, with those both of thy Wives and Concubines,

6. By loving those who hated thee, and by hating such as love thee: since thou hast declared now, that Princes and Servants are Nothing to thee; for I know to Day that if Absalom was alive, and all of us were dead on it, then thou wouldest approve of it.

7. Now therefore get ready, go forth, and speak kindly to thy Servants: for I swear by the Lord, that shouldest thou not go forth, there will not a Man stay with thee to Night; and this will be worse to thee, than all the Harm which has come upon thee from thy Youth till now.

8. With that the King got ready, and sate at the Gate; and when all the People were told thus, Behold the King sits at the Gate; they came before him, for Israel were fleeing to their respective Tents.

9. However all the People were pleading in all the Tribes of Israel as follows; The King rescued us from the Power of our Enemies, and delivered us from that of the Philistines, but now he is fled out of the Country from Absalom.

10. And he, whom we anointed over us, is dead in the Battle, now therefore why are you silent about bringing the King back?

11. Then King David sent word to Zadok and Abiathar the Priests; Speak thus to the Elders of Judah, Why are you the last to bring the King home again, when the Speech of all Israel is come to him at his House?

12. You are my Brethren, you are my Bone and Flesh: why then are you the last to bring back the King?

13. Say also to Amasa, Art not thou my Bone and Flesh? By God's doing so for me and so besides, thou shalt be Captain of the Army before me at all times, in the room of Joab.

14. And he inclined the Hearts of all

Ver. 8. were fleeing] as appears by to Night in the preceding Verse.

Ver. 9. from] as this frequently signifies, and may be seen in Num. 1. of Noldius's Concordance, and no where else for. So Jun. and Trem. with Cass. have ab.

Ver. 10. The vulg. Lat. has added at the End, And the Counsel of all Israel is come to the King; which I suppose fetched from the Greek, that has the same, excepting Speech instead of Counsel; and into the Greek it might come from the next Verse, by the Oversight of some Transcriber, and thence be continued by others.

Ver. 11. at his House] in Baburim, where he was, as Ver. 5. The Vulgate adds here, because the King had said, You shall say these Things to the People of Judah.

the Men of Judah as of one Man, so that they sent to the King, Return thou; and all thy Servants.

15. So the King returned, and came to Jordan; those of Judah coming to Gilgal, to go and meet the King, to have him over Jordan.

16. And Shimei the Son of Gera the Benjaminite, who was of Bahurim, made haste, and came down with the Men of Judah to meet King David.

17. With whom were a thousand Men of Benjamin, and Ziba the Servant of the Family of Saul, attended with his fifteen Sons and twenty Servants, and they went over Jordan before the King.

18. For there passed over a Passage-boat to fetch over the King's Household, and to do what he liked; and Shimei the Son of Gera fell down before the King, when he was got over Jordan,

19. And said to him; Let not my Lord reckon Iniquity to me, nor remember what thy Servant did perversely, the Day on which my Lord the King came out of Jerusalem, for the King to regard it.

20. Because thy Servant knew that I had sinned, therefore behold I came to Day the first of all the Family of Joseph, to come down to meet my Lord the King.

21. But Abishai the Son of Zeruiah made answer, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, since he has cursed the Lord's anointed one?

22. To which David replied, What have you to do with me, O Sons of Zeruiah, that you are become Adversaries to me to Day? Shall there be a Man put to death on it in Israel? For do not I know, that I am to Day King over Israel?

23. And he said to Shimei, Thou shalt not die; nay, he swore to him.

24. Besides Mephibosheth the Grandson of Saul came down to meet the King; who had not dressed his Feet, dressed his Beard, nor washed his Cloaths, from the Day the King went away, till that on which he came in Peace.

25. And when he met the King coming to Jerusalem, he was asked by him, Why didst not thou go with me, Mephibosheth?

26. Who answered; My Lord O King, my Servant deceived me: for thy Servant thought, I would saddle me an Ass, that I might ride on it, and go with the King, because thy Servant is lame.

27. Whereas he has slandered thy Servant to my Lord the King; who being as an Angel of God, do what thou likest.

28. For there was not any of my Father's Family but dead Men to my Lord the King, nevertheless thou didst put thy Servant among those who eat at thy Table; and what Justice have I more, that I should cry yet to the King?

29. And the King replied to him; Why dost thou speak any more of thy Affairs? I have said, Thou and Ziba part the Land.

30. But Mephibosheth to him again, Let him even take all; as it is after my Lord the King is come home in Peace.

31. Barzillai the Gileadite likewise came down from Rogelim; and passed over Jordan with the King, to bring him over it.

32. Now he was very old, being in his eightieth Year; and he had maintained the King while he abode at Mahanaim, for he was a very great Man.

33. The King therefore said to him, Do thou pass on with me, that I may maintain thee with me at Jerusalem.

34. And Barzillai answered him; How much Time is my whole Life, that I should go up with the King to Jerusalem.

35. I am at this Time in my eightieth Year, do I distinguish between Good and Ill? Can thy Servant taste what I eat, and what I drink? Shall I hearken any more to the Voices of Men-fingers and Women-fingers? Why then should thy Servant be yet a Burden to my Lord the King?

36. Thy Servant will pass a little over

Ver. 20. came] am come improper, being not just then.

Ib. Joseph] put for Israel, as Psa. lxxx. 1. Amos v. 4, 6. & vi. 6. Zech. x. 6. Shimei being of Benjamin, Ver. 16.

Ver. 22. Sons] Bible of Pope Clement, Daughters; but it might be only an Error in the Scribe or Printer of filiae for fili.

Ver. 23. not die] viz. then or that Day, as in the foregoing Verse, nor in a military Manner as 1 Kings ii. 8. but was liable to be put to death, according to the Law, for Rebellion or Treason, at any Time: thus Rebels now have their Lives spared for the present only, when they surrender at Discretion; nay there is Room to think, that Shimei's future Behaviour conduced to the Orders David gave afterwards, being deferred for that Trial; as might also the Danger of fresh Rebellion at the Beginning of Solomon's Reign, if such a notorious Rebel was let alone, and perhaps by that Villain himself, as 1 Kings ii. 36, 37. may intimate, which would have occasioned the Loss of others Lives, who did not deserve it. So that the pious David may stand fully justified as a virtuous Person, much more as a King with necessary Power; notwithstanding the Reflections which Prior has stained his Poem of Solomon with, &c.

Ver. 25. coming to Jerusalem] for Mephibosheth had been there, Chap. xvi. 3. Ver. 24. and this on the other Side of Jordan, Ver. 33, 39. Jun. and Trem. translate, suiteque obvius regi quum rediret rex Jerusolaima, and he met the King when the King returned to Jerusalem.

Ver. 30. after] which the Sense as well as Word determines; for the King was not yet come to his House (that is here meant) at Jerusalem.

Jordan

Jordan with the King: for why should he requite me with this Recompence?

37. Let thy Servant return, I pray, that I may die in my own City, by the Grave of my Father and Mother; but behold let thy Servant Chimham go along with my Lord the King, and do for him what thou likest.

38. Accordingly the King answered, Chimham shall go along with me, that I may do for him what I like; nay whatever thou shalt choose of me, I will do for thee.

39. Thus all the People passed over Jordan, as did the King; who having kissed Barzillai, and blessed him, he returned to his Place.

40. Moreover the King went on to Gilgal, as Chimham did with him; all the People of Judah conveying the King, and also half those of Israel.

41. And behold all the Men of Israel came to the King, and said to him, Why did our Brethren the Men of Judah steal thee away, and have the King and his Household over Jordan, and all David's Men with him?

42. To whom all the Men of Judah gave answer, It was because the King is kin to us; and why are you angry for this Matter? Have we eat at all of the King's? Has he given us any Gift?

43. But the Men of Israel made reply to them, We have ten Parts in the King, and have even more in David than you; why then did you make us contemptible, and not have our Advice first to bring the King back? However the Words of the Men of Judah were too hard for those of the Men of Israel.

C H A P. XX.

NOW it fell out that an ungodly Man was there, whose Name was Sheba, the Son of Bichri, a Benjaminite; who blew a Trumpet, and said, We have no Part in David, nor have we Possession in the Son of Jesse; Away to your respective Tents, O Israel.

2. With that all the Men of Israel went up from after David, following him; but the Men of Judah adhered to their King, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3. And when David came to his House at Jerusalem, he took the ten Concubines, whom he left to keep it, and put them in a House of Custody, and maintained them, but went not in to them; thus were they confined to the Day of their Death, in a Life of Widowhood.

4. Then said the King to Amasa, Call to me the Men of Judah in three Days, and do thou attend here.

5. Accordingly Amasa went to call them, but he staid above the set Time that he appointed him.

6. Therefore David said to Abishai, Now will Sheba the Son of Bichri do us more Hurt than Absalom; take thy Lord's Servants, and pursue after him, lest he should find for himself some fortified City, and escape from our Sight.

7. So there went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after him, Joab's Men, with the Cherethites, Pelethites, and all the stout ones.

8. These were by the great Stone that is at Gibeon, Amasa going before them; when Joab was girded with his Garment that he wore, which was a Girdle, with a Sword hanging at his Side in its Sheath, and as he went along, it fell out.

9. And he said to Amasa, Art thou well, my Brother? And took hold of him by the Beard with the right Hand, to kiss him.

10. But Amasa not taking heed to the Sword which was in Joab's Hand, he stabbed him with it at the short Ribs, and shed out his Bowels to the Ground, so that without repeating it to him, he died; then Joab, and Abishai his Brother, pursued after Sheba the Son of Bichri.

11. Moreover one of the young Men of Joab stood by him, and said, Whosoever is pleased with Joab; and whosoever is for David, let him follow Joab.

12. And Amasa rolled in Blood within the Road; but the Man seeing that all the People who came by him stood still, he carried him aside thence into the Field, and threw a Garment over him.

13. When he was taken away out of the Road, all the Men passed on after Joab, to pursue after that Sheba.

Ver. 43. ten] besides Judah and Levi.

Ver. 6. said] So in the eastern Treatise entitled Gulistan, it is related that K. Zal-zer thus advised his Son Rustan, Never despise an Enemy, how weak soever he may seem at present; since a Stream that will scarce bear up a Straw where it rises, becomes strong enough in its Course to carry away a Camel and his Burden, D'Herbelot. Biblioth. in Art. Zal.

Ver. 8. fell out] understood designedly, and he picked it up.

Ver. 10. at] properly: with the common Translation, in; though the same under, Chap. ii. 23. & iv. 6.

Ib. he died] left out of the vulg. Lat.

Ver. 12. People who] For who sees not but that the two whens, which are different in Hebrew, confound one another?

Ver. 13. Men] people seems an Oversight, as mine might else be counted.

14. Who passed through all the Tribes of Israel to Abel, Beth-maachah, and all the Berites; and they gathered together, going also after him.

15. They went then, and laid siege against him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and made a Rampart at the City, which stood in a Fort; and all the People who were with Joab were overthrowing the Wall, to make it fall.

16. Upon this a wise Woman called out of the City; Hear you, hear, tell Joab, I pray, Come near hither, that I may speak to thee.

17. And when he was come near her, the Woman asked, Art thou Joab? Who answered, I am: then replied she to him, Hear the Words of thy Handmaid; and he said, I do.

18. They used to speak thus, says she, formerly, Let them thoroughly enquire at Abel, and finish so.

19. I am of the peaceable faithful ones of Israel: thou art endeavouring to destroy a City and a Mother in Israel; why wouldest thou devour the Possession of the Lord?

20. To this Joab made answer; Far be it, far be it from me, that I should devour, or destroy.

21. The Matter is not so; for a Man of Mount Ephraim, named Sheba the Son of Bichri, has lifted up his Hand against King David: do thou deliver him up only, and I will go from the City. And the Woman said to him, Behold his Head shall be thrown to thee by the Wall.

22. At which she went to all the People in her Wisdom, and they cut off his Head, and threw to Joab; who blew a Trumpet, and they dispersed from the City to their respective Tents: Joab also returned to Jerusalem to the King.

23. And he was over all the Army of Israel, and Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada over both the Cherethites and Pelethites,

24. Adoram too was over the Tribute, and Jehoshaphat the Son of Ahilud Recorder,

25. As likewise Sheva the Secretary, with Zadok and Abiathar the Priests,

26. And also Ira the Jairite a Prince of David.

THE RE was besides a Famine in the Time of David three Years, Year after Year, so that he sought the Presence of the Lord; who said, It is for Saul; and for the bloody Family, because he put the Gibeonites to death,

2. Upon which the King called the Gibeonites, that he might speak to them; now they being not of the Israelites, but of the Remnant of the Amorites, to whom the Israelites had sworn, Saul endeavoured to slay them in his Zeal for the Posterity of Israel and Judah.

3. And David asked them, What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless the Possession of the Lord?

4. Whom the Gibeonites answered, We will have no Silver or Gold of Saul, or of his Family, and thou shalt put no Man to death for us in Israel. And he replied, What you require, I will do for you.

5. Then they said to the King; The Man who consumed us, and who contrived against us, that we might be destroyed from placing our selves in any of the Bounds of Israel;

6. Let seven Men of his Sons be given to us, that we may hang them to the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen one of the Lord; to which the King said, I will give them.

7. Nevertheless he spared Mephibosheth, the Son of Jonathan, Saul's Son; for the Oath of the Lord which was between them, namely himself and Jonathan the Son of Saul.

8. So the King took the two Sons of Rizpah the Daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five Sons of Michal's Sister the Daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the Son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

9. And he delivered them up into the Power of the Gibeonites, who hanged them on the Mountain before the Lord, so that they fell seven of them together; and were put to death in the first Days of Harvest, at the Beginning of Barley-harvest.

10. Whereupon Rizpah the Daughter of

Ver. 14. Who] Sheba; but and he leaves it uncertain whether it was Sheba or Joab.

Ver. 15. Fort] the City being surrounded with a Wall, according to the next Words. But and it in the common Translation refers stood to bank, in the trench too.

Ver. 18. and finish so] This being according to the Hebrew Pointing, with the Versions of Jun. and the Tigur. The ulg. Transf. has prosperant, prospered, corruptly perhaps from perficiant, to which Pope Clement would have reduced it.

Ver. 1. besides] not then next after the War with Ab-salom and Sheba, but long before; of which see the Chronology to the succeeding Table.

1b. sought] as in the next Verse, and with Presence or Face (left out of our Translation here to the Detriment of the Sense) as Psa. xxiv. 6. & xxvii. 7. whereby understand, he sought for the Appearance of the Divine Presence, by which Answers were given.

Ver. 8. Sister] named Merab, who was this Adriel's Wife, 1 Sam. xviii. 19. but Michal is mentioned being most noted, and David's Wife; see the like, Ver. 19. Jen. xxxii. 12. Mat. i. 6. nor does the following Verb signify brought up; which Broughton says, some Jewish Writers would have it, to pervert Psa. ii. 7. so, Works, p. 673.

Aiah took Sackcloth, and spread out for her on the Rock, from the Beginning of Harvest till Water was poured out upon them from Heaven; and did not suffer the Fowls of the Air to rest upon them by Day, nor the Beasts of the Field by Night.

11. And it was told David what Rizpah the Daughter of Aiah, Saul's Concubine, did.

12. He then went, and took the Bones of Saul, and those of Jonathan his Son, from the Owners of Jabesh-gilead; who had stolen them from the Street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines hanged them up, at the Time they slew Saul on Gilboa.

13. And he brought up their Bones from thence; they also gathered up the Bones of these who were hanged.

14. The Bones of Saul, and Jonathan his Son, they buried too in the Country of Benjamin at Zela, in the Grave of Kish his Father, and did all that the King commanded: after which God was intreated for the Country.

15. And the Philistines had War again with Israel; when David going down, accompanied with his Servants, fought with them, and he became faint.

16. Moreover Ishbi-benob, who was of the Sons of a Giant, the Weight of whose Spear was three hundred Shekels Weight of Brass, and he girded with new; even said he would slay David.

17. But Abishai the Son of Zeruiah helped him, and beat the Philistine, and killed him; then David's Men swore thus to him, Thou shalt not go out with us again to Battle, that thou mayest not quench the Lamp of Israel.

18. And after this there was a Battle again at Gob with the Philistines; then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, who was of the Children of the Giant.

19. There was also a Battle again at Gob with the Philistines; and Elhanan the Son of Jaarim of the Weavers a Beth-lehemite, slew the Brother of Goliath the Gittite, the Handle of whose Spear was like a Weaver's Beam.

20. Nay there was a Battle again at Gath; where was a Man of great Dimension, the Fingers of whose Hands and the Toes of whose Feet were by sixes, being twenty four in Number, and he was likewise born to the Giant.

21. And he reproached Israel; but Jonathan the Son of Shimea David's Brother slew him.

22. These four were born to a Giant at Gath, and fell by the Hand of David, and those of his Servants.

C H A P. XXII.

AND David spoke to the Lord the Words of this Poem, when he had rescued him from the Power of all his Enemies, with that of Saul, as follow:

2. The Lord is my firm Place, and my Fortification, as also my Deliverer;

3. The God of my Rock, in whom I will trust; my Shield, and the Horn of my Salvation, my high Place, and my Refuge, my Saviour, that savest me from Violence.

4. I will call upon the Lord, who is to be praised; so shall I be saved from my Enemies.

5. When the Waves of Death surrounded me, the Floods of Ungodliness terrified me;

6. The Pangs of the Grave compassed me, the Snares of Death prevented me:

7. I called upon the Lord in my Distress, and called out to my God; and he heard my Voice from his Temple, and my crying out was in his Ears.

8. Then the Earth shook, and moved; the Foundations of the Heavens trembled, Ver. 13. hanged] that is the seven beforementioned, the Verb being the same used concerning them, Ver. 6, 9. and different from that used concerning Saul and Jonathan, Ver. 12.

Ver. 16. new] Poole says, rather with a new Girdle than Sword; but I think rather with new Armour in general, in which Case the Substantive may be omitted, as it is in Hebrew.

Ver. 19. of the Weavers] for why should it not be translated? And there is [of] according to the Hebrew, which being made, after the Manner of that Language, in the Word before, accounts for its Difference from that in 1 Chron. xx. 5. and also serves to confute the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text, who sticks not to say the Words there have evidently been corrupted into the Words now found in Samuel, and that origin was taken into the middle of the Verse from the End of it, by Oversight (or Underfight): after the foregoing Word was writ, p. 79. 80. since it is much more probable to suppose, that Word is written otherwise than in Chron. for the Construction or joining it with this, than for Nothing. So that this Author may be a little too bold in affirming, when he has placed the Words in Chron. and Sam. together, The Corruption is now evident to every Eye, when it is strange the following אם should be into בית and אין into אם. What did the Transcriber think one Letter was two, and presently that two were one, and this in such short Words? when the Sense of the Words, and the Shape of the Letters too, are so unlike, &c?

1b. Brother of] as appears by 1 Chron. xx. 5. and divers such may be seen in the Note to Jer. xxvii. 1.

Ver. 20. Dimension] not the same Word as at 1 Chron. xx. 6.

Ver. 6. Grave] which seems more agreeable than Hell here, besides being the more usual Signification of the Hebrew Word: so Fun. and Trem. have sepulchri.

Ver. 8. the Earth shook, &c.] David, in a sublime allegorical Manner, describes the Majesty and Power of God coming for his Deliverance, to Ver. 17.

and

and were shaken; because he was incensed.

9. Smoke went up through his Nose, and Fire out of his Mouth consumed; by which Coals were kindled.

10. He also bended the Heavens, and came down; there being a Mist under his Feet.

11. Besides he rode on a Cherub, and did fly; nay was seen upon the Wings of the Wind.

12. And he made Darkness Tabernacles round about him, close Waters, thick Clouds of the Skies.

13. By the Brightness that was before him, were kindled Coals of Fire.

14. The Lord thundered from the Heavens, and the Highest gave forth his Voice.

15. He also sent Arrows, and dispersed them; Lightning, and routed them.

16. Even the Channels of the Sea were seen, the Foundations of the World discovered; with the Rebuke of the Lord, by the Blast of the Breath of his Nose.

17. Sending from on high, he took me, drew me out of much Water.

18. He rescued me from my stout Enemy, from those who hated me; because they were too strong for me.

19. Who prevented me at the Time of my Calamity; but the Lord was a Staff to me.

20. And brought me out to a large Place, delivering me; for he delighted in me.

21. The Lord recompensed me according to my Virtue: he rendered to me after the Purity of my Hands.

22. For I observed the Ways of the Lord, and was not wicked contrary to my God.

23. All his Judgments were likewise before me; as for his Ordinances, I did not depart from them.

24. Nay I was perfect towards him, and kept my self from having Iniquity.

25. So the Lord rendered to me according to my Virtue, after my Purity before his Eyes.

26. To the kind one thou shewest thy self kind, to the perfect Man perfect,

27. To the pure one pure, and to him who is perverse froward.

28. Since thou dost save the afflicted People, and thy Eyes are upon the haughty, that thou mayest humble them.

29. Thou art also my Candle, O Lord; and the Lord makes my Darkness bright.

30. By thee too I run through a Troop; by my God I leap over a Wall.

31. As for God, his Way is perfect, the Word of the Lord is tried: he is a Shield to all that trust in him.

32. For who is God besides the Lord? And who the Rock besides our God?

33. It is God is my Strength, Ability, and disengages my Way to be perfect;

34. Making my Feet as the Hinds, and setting me upon my eminent Places.

35. He teaches my Hands War; and a steel Bow has been broken by my Arms.

36. And thou hast given me the Shield of thy Salvation, and thy Mildness has made me great.

37. Thou enlargest my Steps under me; inasmuch that my Ankles do not slip.

38. I pursue my Enemies, and destroy them; nay do not return till they are consumed.

39. Thus I consume them, and strike them, so that they cannot get up: and they fall down under my Feet.

40. For thou girdest me with Ability for War; overthrowest them under me that rise up against me.

41. And thou hast given me the Necks of my Enemies, that I may cut off those who hate me.

42. They look about, but none saves; to the Lord, but he does not answer them:

43. While I beat them small, as the Dust of the Ground; stamp them, kick them about, as the Dirt of the Streets.

44. And thou deliverest me from the Contentions of my People; keepest me to be the Head of the Gentiles: a People that I knew not serve me.

45. Strangers submit themselves to me: they hearken to me by the Report of the Ear;

46. Who decay, and for fear shake out of their close Places.

47. The Lord lives, and blessed is my Rock: so let the God of the Rock of my Salvation be exalted.

48. It is God renders Vengeance for me, and brings down the People under me;

49. As also brings me forth from my Enemies: and thou dost exalt me above them that rise up against me; rescuest me from the very violent Man.

Ver. 15. them] his Enemies, Ver. 4.
Ver. 33. disengages] translated by the Verb loose or let loose, Job vi. 9. Psa. cv. 20. & cxxvi. 7. Isa. lviii. 6. being different from that in Psa. xviii. 32. so Pagn. and Montan. have it here solvit; and Munst. renders, aperit mihi viam perfectam, he opens a perfect Way for me.

Ver. 36. thy Mildness] Vulg. my; but apparently wrong, and not so Psa. xviii. 35.

1b. Mildness] not quite the same as in Psa. xviii.
Ver. 43. kick them about] The Verb signifying to strike or kick, as well as spread abroad.

50. Therefore will I praise thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles, and sing melodiously to thy Name.

51. He makes the Salvation of his King great; and will shew Kindness to David his anointed one, and his Offspring for ever.

C H A P. XXIII.

AND these are David's last Words. David the Son of Jesse says, and the Man raised up high, the anointed one of the God of Jacob, and the pleasant Psalmist of Israel says:

2. The Spirit of the Lord speaks by me, and his Word is on my Tongue.

3. The God of Israel says, the Rock of Israel tells me; He who rules over Men should be righteous, ruling with the Fear of God.

4. Who is as the Light of the Morning, when the Sun rises; a Morning without Clouds, by the Brightness after Rain on the tender Grass out of the Earth.

5. For though my Family be not so with God, he has made an everlasting Covenant with me, set in order in all Things, and preserved: for it is all my Safety, and is all Delight; though he should not make it increase.

6. Whereas the Ungodly are all of them as Thorns removed with a Tool, because they cannot be taken away by the Hand;

7. But the Man's who meddles with them must be filled with the Iron and Wood of a Fork, and they are wholly burnt with Fire in the Place.

8. These are the Names of the stout Men whom David had: He that sate in the Seat the Tahchemonite, the chief of the Captains, who at his Pleasure had the Handle of his Spear against eight hundred, that were slain at one Time.

9. And after him was Eleazar the Son of Dodo, the Son of an Ahohite; who was one

Ver. 51. makes—great] a Verb the same as in Psa. xviii. ult. by Buxtorf's Concordance, and is so rendered by Pagn. Munst. Castal. as also in the Vulg. and Tigurin Bibles. Nay if the Marginal Reading migdal be allowed, there is no such Word elsewhere for Tower, but always migdal, from which this differs in Hebrew, both in a Consonant and Vowel.

Ver. 1. last Words] nempe verba prophetiae, that is of Prophecy, as Grotius writes.

Ver. 4. when the Sun rises] or the Sun rising. The Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text labours hard to shew that Yehovah is here left out, by the differing Copies of the Septuagint, which he owns to be unintelligible, and would have it be, And as the Morning Light shall Yehovah, the Sun, arise; so turning off from the Subject treated on, nay making it inconsistent with the Beginning of the next Verse. The senseless Things he mentions belong, and still with Yehovah added, to his own Translation, Is not the Sun the Light of the Morning, &c. p. 468—471. for is The Sun shall arise as the Sun proper? Or is the Cause, being spiritual, compared to the natural Effect?

Ib. on the tender Grass] As the Morning Sun-shine on the young Grass after Rain, so is the Government of a good Prince among the People.

Ver. 5. is all Delight] being without my, and how preferable!

Ver. 6. removed] The proper Meaning, in proper Sense.

Ver. 7. filled] so the Hebrew, and consequently is to be referred to Hand.

Ib. a Fork] a spear, to do what? to fight with the Bushes? If the Hebrew Word commonly signifies Spear, that is a very good Reason for its signifying Fork on Occasion, and here appears a Necessity for it; as a Fork is the Utensil to carry away or lift up Thorns. Since our Fork also is an Instrument with either two or three Spikes, why may not the Hebrew Hanith be with one or more?

Ver. 8. He that sate in the Seat] His Name Yashbeam may signify he sate with, and might be made from this Yashb-bashebeth, which some also have counted a proper Name; but being two Words, and so directly grammatical, rather seem not so. The Vulgate has David sitting or who sate, silly! making David one of his own stout Men.

Ib. Captains] The Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text does not only alter one Passage of Scripture by another, and that other by the first; but the Hebrew Words for this and that in 1 Chron. xi. 11. being something different in the Letters, he positively asserts they are both corrupted, as this signifies the third, and that thirty, p. 83. without taking any Notice of their meaning Captains.

Ib. at his Pleasure] Neither Jun. and Trem. Castal. Munst. the Vulg. nor Tigurin Versions are so absurd as to make this Yashbeam's Name: the former translate, buic gratum fuit invadere ostingentes, it was pleasant to him to fall upon eight hundred; but that is not literal like this. A Mistake.

Ib. Handle] or Wood, according to the Meaning of the Hebrew; he being a Tahchemonite, not an Exnite.

Ib. eight hundred, that were slain] 300 by him as the stoutest, 1 Chron. xi. 11. and the other 500 by Eleazar and Shamunab: for the Hebrew does not say whom he slew, but only slain, or who were slain. The Attempt of the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text to shew that eight is a Corruption from three, is unworthy of a fair Critick: for could שלוש had that been the right Reading here, have been mistaken for שמונה was ש taken to be מנה by the Likeness of the Letters? And did not the Transcriber know two Letters from three? What if a single Letter was put for the whole Number, which is first to be proved the Manner of the Hebrew Bible formerly, as it is not now, did he then think ש was ח and were all Copies that are in Being made from that single false one? Or shall it be supposed done designedly? Who then would alter 300 into 800 against Chron. or without altering it there also? Indeed who would have so increased the Number? All utterly improbable to be done! And no Copy, out of the many this Writer had searched, nay no Version found with 300 here. But he would prove it by two other extraneous Numbers owing to Mistakes in the similar Letters, p. 97. while ש and ח are not so, nor can he prove those Numbers are mistaken; or if they were, that would not shew this to be.

Ver. 9. the Son of an Ahohite] as it is here, though not in 1 Chron. xi. 12. and Eleazar being this, was consequently the other.

of the three stout Men with David, when they reproached the Philistines that were gathered there to Battle, and the Men of Israel went away up.

10. He got ready, and beat the Philistines until his Hand was weary, and it cleaved to the Sword, so that the Lord wrought great Preservation that Day; and the People turned back after him only to spoil.

11. After him too was Shammah the Son of Age the Hararite; and the Philistines being gathered into a Company, where Part of the Field was full of Lentiles, and the People being fled from the Presence of the Philistines,

12. He stood within the Part, and delivering it, beat the Philistines; so that the Lord wrought great Preservation.

13. Moreover the three chief above the thirty went down, and came at Harvest to David, at the Cave of Adullam; the Company of the Philistines encamping in the Giants Vale.

14. David also was then in the Fortrefs and the Garrison of the Philistines was then at Beth-lehem.

15. And David longing, said, Oh that I could drink Water out of the Cistern of Beth-lehem, which is at the Gate!

16. With that the three stout Men broke through the Camp of the Philistines, and drew Water out of the same; which taking up, they brought to David: nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out to the Lord.

17. For he said, Far be it from me, O Lord, that I should do this; is it not the Blood of the Men who went in Danger of

Ib. when they reproached] This Hebrew בחרס is imagined by the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text to be corrupted from בחרס at Paddammim, 1 Chron. xi. 13. but could any Transcriber so mistake? The ו and ח he says, are frequently mistaken; What in a different Place, and in the next Word as it were? that I deny. He goes on, The ו is only distinguished from a ח by its union at the bottom; but I deny that too, for the Sides of the former are both curved, of the latter both straight, and the right Corner of that at the Top round, of this square; and the black Lines to write on, pretended elsewhere to mislead the Transcribers, would not, I presume, make the Bottom of the ו appear white or open. The ו says he also, is frequently omitted in Nouns of the Plural Number; seldom would have been much truer, however this is not omitted. To make this important Piece of Work compleat, he had the left Side of the ח it seems, in his Printer's Type, almost filed or cut away, which brings it, quoth he, very nearly to a ו p. 137. but surely he might have left the very out, and if the Transcribers formerly wrote Mem so, it may be thought they knew it from a פ; nay פ being taken to be ח Ver. 27. shews that the latter had the same Form as now. But besides these Mistakes, to fall out thus marvellously together, he has missed (for a good Reason no doubt) the greatest, a whole Letter (which with the יod are really two) not in this pretended Corruption; a Corruption also for which he brings no Copy nor Version to shew it so. However he pleads the [there,] directly relative to some Place; yes to with David. As for there being here no Nominative Case to the following Verb, it is at most but the Relative to Philistines understood, as divers Times in the Hebrew Bible.

Ib. and the Men] This as far as to where Part in Ver. 11. is reckoned by the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text to be all left out of 1 Chron. xi. 13. by some Transcriber; but as he says little to prove, the less need be said to disprove it. Yet with great Confidence he has published, If any one should be disposed to deny this Defect in Chronicles, he need only be desired to make out from that alone the History of the 37 Mighty Men, which seems absolutely impossible. For Shammah is there omitted, p. 132. But hold a little! for they in Chron. Ver. 14. must be at least another besides Eleazar, and so will not make fewer than Shammah, as the whole Number will keep it from making more; and they is confirmed by three plural Verbs, which our Critick indeed, to make thorough Work, says should be singular, but poorly supports it by saying, the LXX being singular (he must mean their Version is so, for otherwise 70 are plural) is a plain Proof of it, p. 142. for is their Translation a plain Proof, against all the Copies of the Original, even his seventy applauded ones, and against all other Translations? Are they, whom he himself complains so much of for being wrong, a Proof that they are right? I may add, it is well known that the first Book of Chronicles abounds with Fragments only of History. An Argument also against the Omission is, that ח there is not put in 1 Chron. xi. 13. with Part (though our common Translation has where as here in Ver. 11.) apparently because ח is but the third Word before in the Hebrew, which would not have been the Case, had this in Sam. been also in Chron. and accordingly ח is in Sam. Ver. 11.

VOL. I.

Ver. 11. Part of the Field] which the Hebrew properly signifying, makes Lentiles here accord well with Barley, 1 Chron. xi. 13. so inconsistent in the common Translation.

Ver. 13. the three] these three according to the Translations of Cast. Coverd. and Jun. and Trem. and otherwise Abisai slaying 300, Ver. 18. might have been as great as the first of those. Besides the Order of the Matter, and no other Names being mentioned, may shew it, and especially these things in the plural Number, Ver. 17. and so it is to be understood as in the 16th Verse; as likewise our Translators have added these to them in the 17th Verse.

Ib. the three Chief above the thirty] So I had expressly rendered it before I read The present State of the printed Hebrew Text, and I suppose divers Years before the Author wrote it; it may therefore be some Confirmation to the Reader that we so exactly agree; see that, p. 146, 147, 148.

Ib. Company] From troop in the common English, which it does not appear that חיה ought for certain to be rendered any where in the Bible, says the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text; he takes Occasion to plead for its being corrupted from חיה in Chron. but could any Transcriber think ח was?

Ver. 15. The 70, says the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text, have here a Clause which is not in the Original, but is very improperly repeated from the preceding Verse.

Ib. longing] The Vulgate says for Water from the Lake. These Books of the Scripture being less minded than several others, and having fewer Commentators to watch them, as I may term it, has given Liberty for more Corruptions to creep in.

Ver. 17. who went] This seems foisted in, says the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text, to make the Passage Sense, but even with it that is apparently incompleat; which latter destroys the Probability of the former, and is Sense defective in Sense?

5 N

their

their Lives? Therefore he would not drink it. These Things the three stout ones did.

18. Abishai likewise the Brother of Joab, the Son of Zeruiah, was the chief of three, who brandished his Spear against three hundred that were slain; so that he had a Name among the three.

19. Was it not because he was the most honourable of the three, that he became the Captain of them? However he did not get to those three.

20. And Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, a Man's Son of Kabzeel, who lived with great Exploits; he slew two stout Moabites, he also went down and slew a Lion within a Pit on a snowy Day.

21. Besides he slew an Egyptian Man, one of much Appearance, and though there was a Spear in the Egyptian's Hand, he went down to him with a Stick; and taking the Spear by force out of the Egyptian's Hand, he killed him with his own Spear.

22. These Things Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada did, and had a Name among the three stout men.

23. He was more honourable than the thirty; but did not get to those three; and David put him at his Hearing.

24. Afabel the Brother of Joab was over thirty: Elhanan the Son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

25. Shammah the Harodite, Elikah the Harodite,

26. Helez the Paltite, Ira the Son of Ikkeiah the Tekoite,

27. Abiezer the Anethothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

28. Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,

29. Heleb the Son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai the Son of Ribai from Gibeon of the Benjaminites,

30. Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai from the Brooks of Gaash,

31. Abi-albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,

32. Eliahba the Shaalbonite, of the Sons of Jashen Jonathan,

33. Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the Son of Sharar the Ararite,

Ver. 23. Hearing] The present Translation has this Word after the same manner bidding, 1 Sam. xxii. 14. but this is the Meaning of it; and so Pagn. translates literally, ad auditum suum; at his Hearing; Leo Juda, ut esset audiens ei, that he might be hearing him; which is explained in the Margin, that he might stand by ready, and hear the King's Orders.

Ver. 24. Afabel] the lowest of the second three; as it would be unaccountable that one of them should be omitted, when thirty meaner ones are particularized.

Ib. over] For it is impossible, says the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text well, that Afabel should be one of or among the Thirty, p. 178.

Ib. thirty] as a round Number, he being over the thirty one who follow.

Ver. 27. Mebunnai] It may be allowed to the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text, from Ch. xxi. 18. 1 Chron. xi. 29. & xx. 4. & xxvii. 11. that the right Name at first was Sibbecchai; nay that this מַבְנַי was a Corruption from that מַבְנַי by the Likeness of the Letters, I shall not dispute with him. Yet the Mistake might fall out before the Time of Ezra and the Pointing, as it is manifest such did, if he put the Keris or Marginal Readings, to whom they may be best assigned; nay the Error might arise in some other Writing, before this Part of the Scripture was indited, whereby this Man, as also others, might have two Names, which might therefore be retained in the Bible. It is not credible this Alteration was made after the Use of the Hebrew Points, by reason of the different Vowels; and if the Vowel-Points had been a late Invention, how could the Jews of that Time have this Reading of e, and u, and single b, and double n, otherwise than i, and e, and double b, and single e, in Chron? And who will pretend that the very diligent Massorites did not compare these Places together, and so would have made Points alike, had they been the Authors of them? But Ezra putting the Vowels according to the Pronunciation in Use, when Hebrew was the Mother-Tongue of the Jews, makes the Matter clear and satisfactory. I suppose this came to be מַבְנַי as signifying one of the Sons of, and is accordingly rendered in the Greek, which makes some Sense, though the Author of State &c. says none; and that Sense seems to have promoted the Change, not merely the Similitude of the Letters.

Ver. 28. Zalmon] This זַלְמוֹן does the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text in his Manner, suppose corrupted from זַלְיָ which is in 1 Chron. xi. 29. p. 188, 189. though in pag. 207. he writes, It is a confessed Maxim with all good Critics, that Something may much more easily be omitted than added; nay thus he reckons men added in, and the 3d Verse after him left out in Chron. While it is no Wonder in the Scripture for a Man to have two Names.

Ver. 30. a Pirathonite] Here being not the Article ן as in 1 Chron. xi. 31. but here being י at the End of Benaiah, as it is an Augment in several Scripture Names, the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text says, it is certainly part of the ן at the beginning of this Word: for such strange Conceits are familiar with him.

Ver. 32. Shaalbonite] The Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text remarks well here, That the Learned seem to have drawn an unanswerable Argument against the Greek Version's being the Work of One Man, or the Work of Many concurring in the same Method of translating, from that great Difference, which is found thro' the several Books of the Old Testament, in the Greek Expression of the very same Proper Names. For in this, and the adjoining Verses, we see that the Translator of Chronicles renders the Local Names by a Literal Expression of the Hebrew Words; but the Translator of Samuel gives them a Greek Termination, p. 197, 198.

Ver. 33. Shammah] the Son of Shaga, 1 Chron. xi. 34. which makes them agree; but the Author of State &c. translates, Jonathan (from the foregoing Verse) the son of Shamba, supposing him the same as in Chap. xxi. 21. 1 Chron. xx. 7. which is not to be so readily granted, forasmuch as the Father of that Jonathan was שַׁמְוִי this נָדָו and were שָׁו and נָ not known apart in Transcribing? besides that this Jonathan would thus be distinguished from that, by being called the Hararite. As here is the foregoing Author's triumphant Instance, that the Hebrew Verses are not rightly parted, p. 244. he may seek for another.

34. Eliphelet the Son of Ahasbai, the Son of a Maachathite, Eliam the Son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

35. Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

36. Igal the Son of Nathan from Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

37. Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite who carried the Arms of Joab the Son of Zeruiah,

38. Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

39. Uriah the Hittite: all were thirty and seven.

C H A P. XXIV.

AND the Lord was again angry with Israel: for David was stirred up thus against them, Go, number Israel and Judah.

2. Whereupon the King said to Joab the Captain of the Army, who was with him, Go about now through all the Tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beer-sheba, and muster the People; that I may know the Number of them.

3. However Joab said to him, Now the Lord thy God add to the People, as both these and those are, a hundred-fold, which let the Eyes of my Lord the King see; but why does he delight in this Thing?

4. Nevertheless the King's Word became earnest with Joab, and against the Captains of the Army; insomuch that he and they went out before him, to muster the People of Israel,

5. And they passed over Jordan, and encamped at Aroer, on the right Hand of the City, which is within the Valley of Gad, and towards Jazer.

6. Next they went to Gilead, and the lower new Country; as they did also to Dan-jaan, and round about to Zidon.

7. Moreover they went to the Fortrefs of Tyre, and all the Cities of the Hivites and Canaanities; they went forth likewise into the South of Judah to Beer-sheba.

8. Thus having gone about through all the Country, they came at the End of nine Months and twenty Days to Jerusalem.

9. And Joab gave the Number of the Mustering of the People to the King, that there were of Israel eight hundred thousand Men of Ability drawing forth a Sword, and

Ver. 34. the Son of a Maachathite] another besides Eliphelet, named Hephher, as may appear by 1 Chron. xi. 36. there being three between Ahiam and Hezro or Hezrai the Carmelite, and accordingly so many in this Verse; besides the Likeness of the Names Maachathite and Mecherathite. Nay there are but thirty six named besides this, Ver. 39.

Ver. 36. Son] The Nathan of whom he is recorded to be the Brother, 1 Chron. xi. 38. may seem some noted Man, and that his Father should be also Nathan, as here, is Nothing strange; so that we need not be obliged to the Author of State &c. for reconciling these Words, by a careless Transcriber's writing Son instead of Brother, pag. 213.

The Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text having pointed out the Mistakes and Corruptions, as he says, in this and the correspondent Chapter in Chron. denies he should receive any Satisfaction from the Discovery or Publication of them. Such a Satisfaction, in general, adds he, would be ungenerous; but, in the present case, it would be impious, p. 242. Yet after I find him saying, I must confess, that I was agreeably surpris'd at this Discovery, viz. of other Readings than the common Hebrew, which he had recommended, as true, upon Conjecture, p. 262. Was that no such Satisfaction then to him? Further he says, Would he (meaning himself) not wish to find this the real state of the Case? that the ancient written Heb. Copies (imaginary ones) from whence the ancient Versions were made, contain'd the True Readings in those places, where our later written or printed Copies have been corrupted, p. 266. Again, It must be a proper Foundation for Satisfaction and Joy (which he repeats) to find that the Difficulties and Obstructions in the printed (Heb.) Copies of the Old Testament, are not so necessarily owing to Moses and the Prophets, p. 270, 271. And such as have a sufficient Veneration for the Scripture, may not think I have said too much in Vindication of it, when they hear he declares, That there have been made in the printed Hebrew Bibles, very many and very material Mistakes, which have greatly injur'd the true Sense, p. 247.

Ver. 39. thirty and seven] The common English has but 30 besides the 6 chief ones, but this Translation having one more in Ver. 34. and another in 1 Chron. xi. 27. makes 37 in each Book, ending with Uriah there as here. The Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text indeed reckons Joab for the first, to make up 37, who is not mentioned in all this Chapter, nor in two before, but is found at the third back in another Catalogue; so that such an Interpretation is doing Violence to common Understanding. And because this Author would have Eliphal and Hephher in 1 Chron. xi. 35, 36. to be but one, by a monstrous Alteration of the Hebrew, he reckons in Zabad after Uriah, 1 Chron. Ver. 41. to make up the 37, p. 183. when at that Rate he might have brought in fifteen more.

Ver. 1. was stirred up] by Satan, 1 Chron. xxi. 1. not by the Lord, as the common Translation has it (or is very absurd) in Opposition to that Text: so Cast. renders it passively impulsus est; Jun. and Trem. cum incitasset Adversarius, Davidem, when the Adversary had stirred up David; and Græ. says, activum pro passivo, ut scire, id est, commotus est, nempe a diabolo; it is active for passive, as often, that is, was moved, to wit by the Devil.

1b. thus] not to say, at least the Original is not so; but he was prompted thus by the Tempter.

1b. number] That David had the People numbered through Pride, or a vain Confidence in them, appears by the Words of Joab, 1 Chron. xxi. 3. as well as the just Punishment of it; see the Note on Ver. 17. Nay a Plague was in a manner threatened, when the People should be numbered without giving a Ransom each, Exod. xxx. 12.

Ver. 6. the lower new Country] See 1 Chron. xxi. 10.

Ver. 9. that there were] Divers Instances lead me to think that the Books of the Chronicles were composed from some private Memoirs, and that these of Samuel and the Kings were a publick and general History, though in Epitome from some larger Books of Chronicles since lost. According to which I suppose, those are the true Sums of the People that were numbered in 1 Chron. xxi. 5. and by the Expression were delivered in so to David himself. But Joab, perhaps with David's Consent, willing of the Men of Judah five hundred thousand.

10. But David's Heart smote him after he had counted up the People; upon which he said to the Lord, I have sinned exceedingly in what I have done; yet now, O Lord, take away, I beseech thee, the Iniquity of thy Servant, for I have done very foolishly.

11. And when he rose up in the Morning, Gad the Prophet, his Seer, had the Lord's Commission as follows:

12. Go, and speak to David; Thus says the Lord, I put on thee three Things, choose thee one of them, that I may do to thee.

13. Accordingly Gad came to David, and told him in this manner, Shall there come to thee seven Years of Famine in thy Country? Or wilt thou see three Months before thy Enemies, while they pursue thee? Or shall there be three Days Pestilence in thy Country? Now know, and see what Word I shall carry back to him who sent me.

14. And David answered him, I am exceedingly distressed; let us fall now into the Treatment of the Lord, for his Compassions are great, and let me not fall into that of Man.

15. So the Lord made a Pestilence be in Israel, from the Morning to the Time appointed; insomuch that there died of the People, from Dan to Beer-sheba, seventy thousand Men.

16. But the Angel stretching forth his Hand to Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord was sorry for the Harm, and said to the Angel who destroyed the People, It is a great deal, cease now thy Hand; and the Angel of the Lord was by the Floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

17. And David spoke to the Lord, when he saw the Angel who smote the People, as follows, Behold I have sinned, and committed Iniquity; but as for these Sheep, what have they done? Let thy Hand, I pray, be on me, and my Father's Family.

18. Then Gad came to David that Day, and said to him, Go up, erect an Altar to the Lord, in the Floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

19. And David went up according to the Word of Gad, as the Lord commanded.

20. Now when Araunah looking, saw the King and his Servants coming on to him, he went out, and bowed down to the King with his Face to the Ground.

21. And Araunah said, Why does my Lord the King come to his Servant? And David answered, To buy of thee the Floor, to build an Altar to the Lord, that the Slaughter may be stopped from the People.

22. Upon this he replied to David, Let my Lord the King take, and offer up what he likes; see the Oxen are for the Burnt-offering, and the Flails and Instruments of the Oxen for the Wood.

23. Araunah gave all as a King to the King; he also said to the King, The Lord thy God accept thee.

24. But he declared to Araunah, No, for I will wholly buy of thee for a Price; and will not offer to the Lord my God Burnt-offerings for nothing. So David bought the Floor, and the Oxen for fifty Shekels of Silver.

25. Where he built an Altar to the Lord, and offered up Burnt-offerings and Peace-offerings: thus the Lord was intreated for the Country, and the Slaughter was stopped from Israel.

to make his own Tribe seem great in Proportion to the rest, might enlarge the odd Number of it to 500000, and abate 300000 of the others, which he gave in publicly to the King, as it is said here. He might indeed do this latter first, and tell David the true Sums privately afterwards. However the Numbers here seem too disproportionate to the Tribes, to be the real Account: I further observe that drawing forth a Sword is omitted here to the Men of Judah, without which Circumstance some might be added to avoid a positive Lye; and valiant is added to those of Israel, perhaps to lessen their Sum under that Epithet, in like manner. Other Accounts are too inconsistent.

Ver. 12. put on] and not as at 1 Chron. xxi. 10.

Ver. 13. seven] It being three in 1 Chron. xxi. 12. See those Numbers reconciled in the Notes on the Chronological Table, Part 4th. But the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text scoffs at such an Attempt, not sparing even Archbishop Usher, and falling foully on Buxtorf, though for Nothing that he said to it, so piqued was he against the Defenders of our Bible. He puts in Capital Letters, to expose the latter, that he would have us PIQUEDLY BELIEVE EACH IS RIGHT, where he is not speaking of it; and where he subjoins, Historia illæ, those Histories, not this, are short Epitomes, at which the Author of State of the printed Heb. thus insults him, Can we, with any appearance of sense, assert that 3 is an historical Epitome of 7? Then upbraids him with saying in pag. 414. of Anticrit. where there is no such Thing, The Truth of a Matter does not consist in Words, by which he may seem to mean some, to be distinct from the following, but in the Sentence, which would be undoubtedly true in There is no God, Psa. lv. 1. See his State of the Heb. p. 473, 474. How unaccountable is it, if the Years, Months and Days, were all here originally 3, for one of them to be altered to 7! even for one numeral 3 only to be altered to 7 when it does not appear the Scripture was so written, the Chald. and old Lat. having likewise 7!

Ver. 17. what have they done] Notwithstanding David takes the Blame on himself, the People were guilty, and so deserved the Punishment, Ver. 1. for the Lord would not have been angry with them for Nothing.

Ver. 24. fifty] This seems to be the first Purchase of the Oxen only; and when David saw that the Lord answered him there, 1 Chron. xxi. 28. he also bought the Floor and Land, as Ver. 25. to continue sacrificing in that Place, Ver. xxix. 30.

NOTES upon the FIRST BOOK of the KINGS.

CHAP. I.

NOW King David being advanced in old Age, they covered him with Cloaths, yet he was not warm.

2. Therefore his Servants said to him, Let some seek out a young Virgin for our Lord the King, that she may stand before the King, and be a Helper to him; nay let her lie in thy Bosom, that our Lord the King may be warm.

3. They accordingly sought for a fair young Woman through all the Bounds of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammitefs, whom they brought to the King.

4. And the young Woman was exceeding fair; and became a Helper to the King, waiting on him, but he had not the knowledge of her.

5. In the mean time Adonijah the Son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be King; and got him ready Chariots, and Horsemen, with fifty Men to run before him.

6. For his Father had not grieved him at any Time by saying, Why didst thou do this? And he was also of very good Features, and was born after Absalom.

7. Besides he had Conference with Joab the Son of Zeruah, and with Abiathar the Priest, who following helped Adonijah.

8. However Zadok the Priest, Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, Nathan the Prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the stout Men whom David had, were not with him.

9. Moreover he killed Sheep, Oxen, and fat Cattle, at the Stone of Zohcleth, which was by the Fountain of Rogel; and invited all his Brothers the King's Sons, with all the Men of Judah the King's Servants;

10. Excepting Nathan the Prophet, Benaiah, the stout Men, and Solomon his Brother.

11. Upon this Nathan spoke to Bathsheba, the Mother of Solomon, as follows: Hast not thou heard that Adonijah the Son of Haggith reigns, of which our Lord David is ignorant?

12. Now therefore come, I pray let me advise thee; that thou mayest deliver thy own Life, and that of thy Son Solomon.

13. Come, and go in to King David, and say to him; Didst not thou, my Lord O King, swear thus to thy Handmaid, Solomon thy Son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my Throne? And why does Adonijah reign?

14. Behold while thou art speaking there to the King, I will also come in after thee, and compleat thy Words.

15. So she went in to the King into the Chamber, he being very old; and Abishag the Shunammitefs waited on him.

16. And Bathsheba bowed, and revered him; who asked, What wouldest thou have?

17. To whom she said; My Lord, thou sworeest by the Lord thy God to thy Handmaid, Solomon thy Son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my Throne.

18. Yet now behold Adonijah reigns, and now, my Lord O King, unknown to thee.

19. He has also killed Oxen, fat Cattle, and Sheep abundantly, and invited all the King's Sons, with Abiathar the Priest, and Joab the Captain of the Army; only not thy Servant Solomon.

20. Whereas the Eyes of all Israel are upon thee thy self, my Lord O King, to tell

The Books of Kings are thought to be compiled by Ezra, chiefly from the Chaldee Names of the Months used Chap. vi. 1, 37, 38. & viii. 2. the Israelites, before the Chaldean or Babylonian Captivity, calling their Months the first, second, &c. but that these were made from some former Writings may appear by Chap. viii. 8. & ix. 21.

Ver. 1. Age] See Josh. xiii. 1.

Ver. 2. be a Helper] A Verb and Noun in Hebrew, and not signifying cherish, which was made from the Greek or old Latin: so Trem. and Jun. turn it sit adjutrix.

Ib. lie in thy Bosom] which, according to Ficinus, was wholesome for him, but done too late; as in Viscount Ver-rulam's valuable and scarce little Treatise of Life and Death, p. 336. Eng. Edit. and Frier Bacon's Cure of Old Age, Chap. 12.

Ver. 8. Rei] Instead of this there is in the common Lat. the Cherethites and Phelethites.

Ver. 13. Solomon] Affuredly is only made from the Expletive commonly omitted in other Places, after As the Lord liveth, &c. so certainly, Ver. 30.

Ver. 18. and now] The Masoretical Notes not only preserve the true Reading, but also guard against Error, as for an Instance here thus, עתה now seems thrice in Scripture, as if it should be read אתה thou; which is to prevent such a Mistake.

them who shall sit upon the Throne of my Lord the King after him.

21. Otherwise it will come to pass, when my Lord the King lies down with his Fathers; that I and my Son Solomon shall become Offenders.

22. And behold while she was speaking to the King, Nathan the Prophet also came in.

23. With this they told the King, that there was Nathan the Prophet, who coming in before the King, bowed down to him, upon his Face to the Ground,

24. And said; My Lord O King, hast thou declared, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my Throne?

25. For he is gone down to Day, and has killed Oxen, fat Cattle, and Sheep abundantly, and invited all the King's Sons, the Captains of the Army, and Abiathar the Priest; who behold eat and drink before him, and cry out, Let King Adonijah live:

26. Excepting that me my self thy Servant, with Zadok the Priest, Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, and thy Servant Solomon, he has not invited.

27. Is this Matter from my Lord the King, and thou hast not let thy Servant know, who should sit upon the Throne of my Lord the King after him?

28. To which King David made answer, Call Bath-sheba to me; who went in before the King, and stood before him.

29. When he swore thus, By the Lord's living, who has redeemed my Soul out of all Distress,

30. According as I swore to thee by the Lord God of Israel, that Solomon thy Son should reign after me, and he should sit upon my Throne in my room; I will do so this Day.

31. Whereupon she bowed with her Face to the Ground, and reverencing him, said, Let my Lord King David live for ever.

32. He likewise said, Call to me Zadok the Priest, Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada; who came before the King.

33. And he said to them; Take with you the Servants of your Lord, and cause my Son Solomon to ride upon the Mule which belongs to me; and bring him down to Gihon.

34. Where let Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, anoint him to be King over Israel; as also blow a Trumpet, and say, Let King Solomon live.

35. Then shall you ascend after him, and he shall come, and sit upon my Throne, that he may reign in my room: for I have appointed him to be Ruler both over Israel and Judah.

36. And Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada made answer to the King; So let it be, may the Lord God of my Lord the King say thus.

37. As the Lord has been with my Lord the King, so let him be with Solomon, and magnify his Throne above the Throne of my Lord King David.

38. Accordingly Zadok the Priest, Nathan the Prophet, Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, with the Cherethites, and Pelethites went down, and causing Solomon to ride upon King David's Mule, brought him to Gihon.

39. And Zadok the Priest took a Horn of Oil out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Solomon; then they blew a Trumpet, and all the People said, Let King Solomon live.

40. All the People too came up after him, and played on Pipes, and made great Rejoicing; so that the Ground was pierced with their Noise.

41. Which Adonijah and all the Guests who were with him heard, when they had done eating; and Joab hearing the Sound of the Trumpet, said, Why is the Noise in the City, being in a Tumult?

42. While he was speaking, behold also Jonathan the Son of Abiathar the Priest came; and Adonijah said, Come in, for thou art a valiant Man, and bringest good News.

43. But Jonathan made answer to him; Verily our Lord King David has made Solomon King.

44. For the King has sent Zadok the Priest, Nathan the Prophet, Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and Pelethites with him, whom they caused to ride upon the King's Mule.

45. Next Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet anointed him to be King in Gihon, and they are come up from thence rejoicing; so that the City is in a Tumult: that is the Noise which you have heard.

46. And also Solomon sits upon the Throne of the Kingdom.

47. And moreover the King's Servants

Ver. 22. while] while and yet double translating.

Ver. 34. blew a Trumpet] not with, as Ver. 39. see Judg. vii. 18.

Ver. 35. he shall come] Vulg. you shall come.

Ver. 42. said] unto him not in the Hebrew, though undistinguished in English.

came to bless our Lord King David, saying, God make the Name of Solomon better than thy own, and magnify his Throne above thine; with that the King bowed upon the Bed.

48. Nay besides thus said the King, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who has given to Day one sitting upon my Throne, which my Eyes see.

49. Terrified at this, all the Guests whom Adonijah had rose up, and went their several Ways.

50. He himself was likewise afraid because of Solomon, and rising up, went, and took hold of the Horns of the Altar.

51. So it was told Solomon as follows; Behold Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; so therefore he holds the Horns of the Altar, and says, Let King Solomon swear to me presently, that he will not put his Servant to Death with the Sword.

52. If he will, answered Solomon, be a worthy Person, there shall none of his Hair fall to the Ground; but if there be Mischief found in him, he shall be put to death.

53. At this he sent, and they brought him down from the Altar; when he came, and bowed down to King Solomon; who said to him, Go to thy House.

C H A P. II.

AND when the Time of David approached for him to die, he commanded Solomon his Son, as follows:

2. I am going the Way of all the Earth, be thou therefore strong and manly.

3. Especially keep the Charge of the Lord thy God, to walk in his Ways, to keep his Ordinances, Commandments, Rules and Testimonies, as there is written in the Law of Moses; that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest:

4. That the Lord may confirm his Word which he spoke thus concerning me, If thy Sons will take heed to their Way, to walk before me in Truth, with their whole Heart and Soul; thou shalt not have a Man cut off, said he, from the Throne of Israel.

5. And thou knowest also what Joab the Son of Zeruiah did against me, that which he did to the two Captains of the Armies of Israel, to Abner the Son of Ner, and Amasa the Son of Jether, whom he slew, and made the Blood of War in Peace; putting the Blood of War upon his Girdle that was on his Loins, and in his Shoes that were on his Feet.

6. Do then according to thy Wisdom, and let not his grey Hair go down to the Grave in Peace.

7. But shew Kindness to the Sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at thy Table; because they came so to me when I fled from the Presence of Absalom thy Brother.

8. Behold also there is with thee Shimei the Son of Gera, a Benjaminite of Bahurim, who cursed me with a vehement Curse on the Day I went to Mahanaim; but he coming down to meet me at Sordan, I swore to him by the Lord, that I would not put him to death with the Sword.

9. Yet now hold him not quit: for thou art a wise Man, and knowest what thou shouldest do to him, that thou mayest bring down his grey Hair with Blood to the Grave.

10. Afterwards David lay down with his Fathers, and was buried in the City of David.

11. And the Time that he reigned over Israel was forty Years: reigning seven Years at Hebron, as he did thirty three at Jerusalem.

12. Next Solomon sat upon the Throne of his Father David, and his Kingdom was thoroughly established.

13. At length Adonijah the Son of Haggith went to Bath-sheba the Mother of Solomon; who enquired, Dost thou come peaceably? And he answered, Yes;

14. Adding, I have some Business to thee. And she replied, Tell it.

15. Thou art not ignorant, says he, that

Ver. 50. went] Vulgate says, into the Tabernacle of the Lord.

Ver. 3. keep th. Charge] The vulg. Lat. observa custodias, mind the Charges, is changed in the authorised Sixtine and Lovain Bibles, into observa ut custodias mandata, mind that thou keep the Commandments; making the Noun a Verb, the arch Pedantry perhaps of some Monk.

Ver. 4. confirm] This seems to have been made continus in the last Translation, through the meer Carelessness of the Translator writing one for the other; and perhaps from the Geneva confusio, so spelled.

Ib. their Way] Vulg. my.

Ver. 5. that which] here being no Conjunction.

Ver. 6. let not] For, as Gratius writes on it, David had not forgiven him the Crime, nor could he do it by the Law.

Ver. 7. because they came so to me] which is literal, as well as good Sense.

Ib. from the Presence of] So 2 Chron. x. 2. Psa. cxxxix. 7. Exod. ii. 15. Gen. xvi. 6, 8. & xxxv. 1, 7. and the same with the other Verb of fleeing at Jer. xlviii. 45.

Ver. 9. wise] And how well did he act as such, and how mildly too, for a young King, Ver. 36, 37!

Ib. bring down] See 2 Sam. xix. 23.

the Kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their Faces upon me to reign; whereas the Kingdom is turned about, and become my Brother's, because it was his from the Lord.

16. Now therefore I ask one Petition of thee, do not turn me away. And she bade him declare it.

17. Whereupon he said, Speak, I pray, to King Solomon, for he will not turn thee away, that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite's for a Wife.

18. And Bath-sheba replied, Well, I will speak for thee to the King.

19. So she went in to King Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah; at which he rose up to meet her, and bowed down to her, then sitting down upon his Throne, he caused a Seat to be put for his Mother, that she might sit at his right Hand.

20. And she said, I ask one small Petition of thee, do not turn me away. Whom he answered, Ask, my Mother, for I shall not treat thee so.

21. With that she subjoined, Let Abishag the Shunammite's be given to Adonijah thy Brother for a Wife.

22. Then King Solomon made answer to her, But why dost thou ask her for Adonijah? Ask also the Kingdom for him, since he is my Brother older than I; even for him, for Abiathar the Priest, and Joab the Son of Zeruah.

23. He swore too by the Lord as follows; By God's doing to me so and so besides, Adonijah has spoken this Matter against his own Life.

24. And now by the Lord's living, who has established me, and caused me to sit upon the Throne of David my Father, and who has made me a Family as he spoke, Adonijah shall be put to death this Day.

25. Accordingly he sent Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada for it, who fell on him, so that he died.

26. The King also said to Abiathar the Priest, Get thee to thy own Fields at Anathoth, for thou deservest to die; but I will not put thee to death at this Time, because thou didst carry the Ark of the Sovereign Lord before my Father David, and because thou wast afflicted in all wherein he was.

27. Thus Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being Priest to the Lord, to fulfil the Word of the Lord which he spoke concerning the Family of Eli at Shiloh.

28. And when the News came to Joab (for he turned aside after Adonijah, though he did not after Absalom) he fled to the Tabernacle of the Lord, and took hold of the Horns of the Altar.

29. And it being told King Solomon that Joab was fled thither, and behold was at the Altar; he sent Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, with Orders to go, fall on him.

30. For Benaiah went to the Tabernacle of the Lord, and said to him; Thus says the King, Come forth; but he answered, No, for I will die here. And Benaiah brought the King back this Word, Thus spoke Joab, and thus he answered me.

31. Therefore the King said to him; Do as he has spoken, even fall on him, and bury him; that thou mayest put away the Blood, which he shed without cause, from me and my Father's Family.

32. So the Lord shall make his Blood return upon his Head, who fell on two Men more righteous and good than himself, and slew them with the Sword, unknown to my Father David; Abner the Son of Ner, Captain of the Army of Israel, and Amasa the Son of Jether, Captain of the Army of Judah.

33. Whose Blood returning on the Head of Joab, and on that of his Offspring for ever, David and his Offspring, Family and Throne, shall have Peace for ever from the Lord.

34. Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada accordingly went up, and falling on him, put him to death; and he was buried at his own House in the Wilderness.

35. In whose room the King put this Benaiah over the Army, as he did Zadok the Priest in the room of Abiathar.

36. Besides the King sent for Shimei, and said to him; Build thee a House in Jerusalem, and dwell there, without going forth from thence any whither.

37. For at the Time thou goest out, and passest over the Brook Kidron, know fully that thou shalt quite die; thy Blood shall be chargeable on thy own Head.

Ver. 27. Abiathar] He was the Offspring of Ithamar, as Zadok was of Eleazar, the Sons of Aaron, 1 Chron. xxiv. 1, 2, 3, 6. so that the high Priesthood was now restored to the latter, Num. xxv. 11, 12, 13. 1 Kings ii. 35.

Ib. spoke] 1 Sam. ii. 35, 36.

Ver. 28. to Joab] Vulg. to Salomon, the Imagination either of Translator or Transcriber.

Ib. after Absalom] Vulg. again, after Salomon; intolerable!

Ver. 30. For] It appearing that the Transactions of this Verse were before Solomon's Order in the preceding one, which appears further by the repeating of that Order in the next. So Jun. and Tram. begin this Verse with Nam, and Cass. translates in the like Sense.

Ver. 37. know fully] The Hebrew future-imperative; which requires to be rendered thus, as in Ver. 42. as may easily be seen, since he was to know it now.

38. And Shimei said to the King, The Matter is good; as my Lord the King orders, so will thy Servant do. And he dwelt in Jerusalem a considerable time.

39. However at the End of three Years, two of the Servants belonging to Shimei ran away to Achish the Son of Maachah King of Gath; and they told him, that behold his Servants were in Gath.

40. At this Shimei got ready, and saddling his Ass, went thither to Achish, to seek after his Servants; so he going, brought them from Gath.

41. And it was told Solomon, that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was returned.

42. Upon which the King sent for him, and said to him; Did not I make thee swear by the Lord, and protested thus to thee, Know fully, that at the Time thou goest out, and goest any whither, thou shalt quite die? And thou saidest to me, The Matter I hear is good.

43. Why then didst not thou keep the Oath of the Lord, and the Commandment that I enjoined thee?

44. Thou knowest, added he to Shimei, all the Mischief that thy Heart is conscious of, which thou didst to David my Father; therefore the Lord will make thy Mischief return on thy own Head.

45. And King Solomon shall be blessed, and the Throne of David established before the Lord for ever.

46. So the King commanded Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, and he went out, and fell on him, so that he died: thus was the Kingdom established to Solomon.

C H A P. III.

AND Solomon allied himself by Marriage with Pharaoh King of Egypt; for he took his Daughter, whom he brought to the City of David, till he had done building his own House, and the House of the Lord, with the Wall of Jerusalem round about.

2. Only the People sacrificed in the Chapels, because there was no House built to the Name of the Lord, till those Days.

3. And Solomon loved the Lord, so as to go in the Ordinances of David his Father; only in the Chapels he sacrificed, and burnt Incense.

4. The King also went to Gibeon, to sacrifice there; for that was the great Chapel: Solomon offered up a thousand Burnt-offerings upon that Altar.

5. At Gibeon did the Lord appear to Solomon in a Dream by Night; and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

6. And Solomon answered; Thou didst shew to thy Servant David my Father great Kindness, according as he walked before thee in Truth and Righteousness, and in Uprightness of Heart with thee; nay thou hast kept this great Kindness for him, that thou hast given him a Son sitting upon his Throne, as it is this Day.

7. For now, O Lord my God, thou hast made thy Servant King in the room of my Father David; and I am a little Youth, unknowing how to go out and come in.

8. Besides thy Servant is among thy People whom thou hast chosen, a great People who cannot be numbered nor counted up for Multitude.

9. Give thy Servant therefore an attentive Heart, to judge thy People, to understand between Good and Evil: for who is able to judge this thy numerous People?

10. And the Lord liked the Matter, that Solomon asked this Thing.

11. Therefore God said to him; Because thou hast asked for this Thing, and not long Life, nor yet Riches, for thy self, neither asked for the Life of thy Enemies, but hast asked Understanding for thy self to hear Judgment:

12. Behold I do according to thy Request: lo I give thee a wise and understanding Heart, in which there has not been the like of thee before, nor shall rise up after thee.

13. And I also give thee what thou hast not asked, both Riches and Honour; in which there shall not be a Man among the Kings like thee all thy Days.

14. Moreover if thou wilt walk in my Ways, by keeping my Ordinances and Commandments, as David thy Father walked, I will prolong thy Time.

15. And Solomon awaking, behold it was a Dream; and he went to Jerusalem, where standing before the Ark of the Lord's Covenant, he offered up Burnt-offerings, and made

Ver. 38. a considerable time] namely after the House was built.

Ver. 42. at the Time] not on the day thou goest out—thou shalt die.

Ver. 2. Chapels] See on Num. xxxiii. 52.

Ver. 6. Righteousness] Where the Hebrew Point called a King parts this from belonging to with thee, and thus makes it proper and clear.

VOL. I.

Ver. 7. a little Youth] which is diminutive enough, without making it, but a little child.

Ver. 12, 13. in which] being the Hebrew Relative.

Peace-offerings, as he did also a Feast for all his Servants.

16. Then came there two Women, who were Harlots, to the King, and stood before him.

17. And one Woman said; O my Lord, I and this Woman dwelling in one House, I was brought to bed with her there.

18. On the third Day also of my Delivery, she was likewise delivered; and we were together, no Stranger being with us, there in the House, besides we two.

19. And this Woman's Son died in the Night, because she overlaid him.

20. With that she got up in the Night, and took my Son from beside me, while thy Handmaid was asleep, and laid him in her Bosom; and her dead Son she laid in mine.

21. And when I arose in the Morning to give my Son suck, behold he was dead; but on my considering of him then, behold he was not my Son whom I bore.

22. Whereas the other Woman said, No, for the living is my Son, and the dead one thine; but this said, No, for the dead is thy Son, and the living one mine: thus they pleaded before the King.

23. To which he gave sentence; Since that says, This who is living is my Son, and the dead one thine; and this says, No, for the dead is thy Son, and the living one mine;

24. Fetch me, continued he, a Sword: which being brought before him,

25. He said, Cut the living Child in two, and give half to one, and half to the other.

26. Whereupon the Woman, whose the living Son was, spoke thus to the King, because her Compassion was kindled for her Son, and said, O my Lord, give her the live Child, and by no means kill it. But that said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, cut it.

27. At this the King made answer, Give the first the live Child, and by no means kill it; she is the Mother of it.

28. So when all Israel heard of the Judgment which the King made, they feared because of him: for they saw that the Wisdom of God was within him, to do Judgment.

CHAP. IV.

THUS King Solomon was King over all Israel.

2. And these were the Princes which he had: Azariah the Son of Zadok, the Priest;

3. Elihoreph and Ahiah the Sons of Shisha, the Secretaries; Jehoshaphat the Son of Ahilud, the Recorder;

4. And Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, over the Army; and Zadok and Abiathar, the Priests;

5. And Azariah the Son of Nathan, over the Officers; and Zabud the Son of Nathan a Prince, the King's Friend;

6. And Ahishar, over the Household; and Adoniram the Son of Abda, over the Tribute.

7. Moreover Solomon had twelve Officers over all Israel, who provided for the King and his Family; each having it to do a Month in the Year.

8. These also are their Names: the Son of Hur, on Mount Ephraim;

9. The Son of Deker, in Makaz, in Shalbim, Beth-she mesh, and Elon-beth-hanan;

10. The Son of Hefed, in Aruboth, to whom belonged Sochoh, and all the District of Hephher;

11. The Son of Abinadab, in all the Region of Dor, who married Taphath the Daughter of Solomon;

12. Baana the Son of Ahilud, at Taanach, Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zaretanah below Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, to beyond Jokmeam;

13. The Son of Geber, in Ramoth-gilead, to whom belonged the Towns of Jair the Descendant of Manasseh, which were in Gilead; to whom also belonged the Region of

Ver. 16. to the King] Our famous Lightfoot says, He was now but twelve Years old, Harmony of the Old Testament; after having told he begat Rehoboam three Years before: which needs no Confutation.

Ver. 20. within] So the Hebrew Word usually signifies, as also in Ver. ult. nor is it likely she knew the particular Time of the Night, especially being asleep.

Ver. 21. considering of him] strictly to the Hebrew.

Ver. 26. Compassion [et c.] See Gen. xliii. 30.

Ver. 28. Judgment] in which Wisdom is very necessary, to find out and determine Things rightly: according as I have heard of a Judge, who when a Murder was committed, and it appearing by some Circumstance that the Murderer was present in Court, but unknown, ordered all the People to be quite silent while he discovered him, which consequently struck a Dread into the guilty Person; then (it being in the Summer) the Judge of a sudden, That is the Man who has the Fly on his Nose, upon which he who was conscious of the Crime nimbly put up his Hand to brush it away, that he might not be discovered, and so discovered himself: and thus Morsten garnishes his late Book on Apparitions with a like Relation, and a Cut of it; as the foregoing of Solomon was thought worthy to be recorded in Scripture.

Ver. 12. Zaretanah] See the Word in Hebrew, and the Rules for reading (which it seems our Translators did either not understand or regard) in Buxt. Gram. Lib. i. Cap. 5. Reg. 1, 2. concerning Metheg.

1b. Jokmeam] The same as in 1 Chron. vi. 68.

Ver. 13. Descendant] See Num. xxxii. 41.

Argob,

Argob, which was in Bashan, sixty great Cities with Walls, and Bars of Steel;

14. Ahinadab the Son of Iddo, at Mahanaim;

15. Ahimaaz in Naphtali, who likewise married Basemath the Daughter of Solomon;

16. Baana the Son of Hushai, in Asher, and in Aloth;

17. Jehoshaphat the Son of Paruah, in Issachar;

18. Shimei the Son of Elah, in Benjamin;

19. Geber the Son of Uri, in the Province of Gilead, the Country of Sihon King of the Amorites and Og King of Bashan, who had been the only Officer that was in that Country.

20. Judah and Israel were many, like the Sand which is at the Sea for Multitude, eating, drinking, and being glad.

21. And Solomon was Governor over all the Kingdoms from the River to the Country of the Philistines, and to the Border of Egypt; who brought Presents, and served him all the Days of his Life.

22. Solomon's Food too for one Day was, thirty Cors of fine Flour, and sixty Cors of Meal,

23. Ten fat Oxen, twenty Oxen of the Pasture, and a hundred Sheep, besides Harts, Roe-bucks, Fallow-deer, and fatted Fowls.

24. For he ruled over all on this side the River, from Tiphshah to Gaza, over all the Kings on this side the River; and had Peace on all Sides of him round about.

25. Thus Judah and Israel dwelt securely, under their own Vines and Fig-trees, from Dan to Beer-sheba, all the Time of Solomon.

26. And he had forty thousand Stable-horses for his Chariots, and for twelve thousand Horsemen,

27. As likewise for those Officers who in their several Months provided for King Solomon, and all that came to his Table; who lacked Nothing.

28. Barley also and Straw, for the Horses and Mules, they brought to the Place where it was to be, according to their respective Manner.

29. God further gave Solomon Wisdom and Understanding very much, with Largeness of Heart like the Sand that is upon the Sea-shoar.

30. So that his Wisdom was more than the Wisdom of all the Sons of the East, and all that of the Egyptians.

31. Nay he was wiser than any Man, than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, with Chalcol and Darda the Sons of Mahol; info-

Ver. 15. Basemath] See Gen. xxvi. 34. this being the same Word as there.

Ver. 19. had been] His Son being now constituted another, Ver. 13.

Ver. 21. River] Euphrates.

Ver. 24. from] The Vulgate thrusts in quasi, as if it were, before it, as though not really so.

Ib. Tiphshah] Amphipolis at Euphrates, Jun. from Plin. Nat. Hist. L. v. 24.

Ib. Gaza] So it is usually rendered by our Translators, and belonging to the Philistines, Ver. 21. Am. i. 6, 8.

Ver. 26. Stable-horses] It being unlikely that Stalls for single Horses should be numbered rather than the Horses, and to contain more would be incredible.

Ib. for twelve] as the foregoing [for] may belong to this; and 40000 Horses for 1400 Chariots, which was the Number Solomon had, Chap. x. 26. would be more than twenty eight Horses to each Chariot.

Ver. 27. for these] Each Course of which being 24000, 1 Chren. xxvii. makes with the 12000 standing Cavalry 36000, and reckoning but two Horses to each of his 1400 Chariots, Chap. x. 26. 2 Chren. i. 14. there wants no more than 1200 of the 40000, Ver. 26. which is made up by supposing 600 of the Chariots had four Horses; so that here is little Need to think the whole should be 4000.

Ver. 28. Mules] So rendered in the common Translation, Est. viii. 10.

Ver. 29. Sand] for the Numerousness of it: but Patrick, because it incompasses all the Coasts of this World, Epist. to Prov. which is rather the Coast it self, and that not every where.

Ver. 31. Ezrahite] so called as it seems from his native Place, like David's Worthies, 2 Sam. xxiii. and many others, being the Son of Kushaiab, 1 Chren. xv. 17. These may rather be counted the Ethan and Heman mentioned 1 Chren. xv. 17, 19. being noted principal Singers, and as such, Composers of the 88th and 89th Psalms, where is the same Title of Ezrahite, than those in 1 Chren. ii. 6. of whom nothing remarkable appears. As for this being called the Ezrahite from his Father Zerah, as some think; it is not likely, because Chalcol and Darda, whom they supposed to be his Brothers, as well as Heman, from that Text, would have been Ezrahites too, and not the Sons of Mabel another Man: for it is unaccountable that in telling who the four Sons of Zerah were, they should be distinguished in this Manner; nay the Family of Zerah were called Zarhites, Josh. vii. 17. Num. xxvi. 13. And the wise Men here named were rather living in the same Age with Solomon, than long before, as the others were.

Ib. Chalcol and Darda] I am inclined to think they were Israelites, because their Father is named. Hence Solomon being compared with the wise Men only of his own Nation, it is no Wonder that the famous Lokman, surnamed Al-bakim, the Wise, is not mentioned on this Occasion, though it should be true as related, that he lived in the Reign of David and Solomon, and came into the Country of Israel, D'Herbel. Bibl. Orient. Art. Lokm. A Book of his Fables has been published at Leyden in Arabick and Latin by Erpenius, and translated into French by Sir John Chardin in his Voyages. The 31st Chapter of Mahomet's Alcoran is entitled Lokman, where he is introduced speaking thus: Remember that Lokman said to his Son; O my Son, honour thy Father and Mother—My Son, if thou dost evil, the Weight of a Grain of Mustard Seed, or the Weight of a Rock, God will know it, and put it to Account.—Regard not the World, that is in Disorder by Pride: converse not with the Proud, whom God abhors.—Speak gently: there are Persons that bray like Asses when they speak. Dost not thou see that God has created all which is in Heaven and Earth much that his Renown was in all the Nations round about.

much

32. And he spoke three thousand Proverbs; as also his Poems were a thousand and five.

33. Besides he spoke of Trees, from the Cedar that is on Lebanon to the Hyssop that comes out on the Wall; as he did of Beasts, Fowls, creeping Things, and Fishes.

34. And there came of all People to hear the Wisdom of Solomon from all Kings of the Earth who heard of it.

CH A P. V.

AND Hiram King of Tyre sent his Servants to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him to be King in the room of his Father: for Hiram was a Lover of David continually.

2. Solomon also sent word to Hiram;

3. Thou knowest that David my Father could not build a House to the Name of the Lord his God, because of the Wars which compassed him about, till the Lord put them under the Soles of his Feet.

4. But now the Lord my God has given me rest round about: there is no Adversary, nor scarce an ill Accident.

5. So behold I think to build a House to the Name of the Lord my God, according as the Lord thus spoke to my Father David,

Thy Son, whom I will put in thy room upon thy Throne, shall build a House to my Name.

6. Now therefore command, that they should cut me Cedars at Lebanon; and my Servants shall be with thine, and I will give thee thy Servants Wages, entirely as thou shalt order: for thou knowest that there is no Man among us, who knows how to hew Timber like the Zidonians.

7. And when Hiram heard the Words of Solomon, he was very glad, and said, Blessed be the Lord to Day, who has given David a wise Son over this great People.

8. Moreover he sent Word to Solomon; I have hearkened to that for which thou hast sent to me; I will do all that thou desirest, for Cedar-trees and Fir-trees.

9. These my Servants shall bring down from Lebanon to the Sea, and I will put with Barges on it, for the Place of which thou shalt send to me, and will disperse them there, for thee to receive; and thou wilt do what I desire, in giving my Household Food.

10. Accordingly he gave Solomon, of Cedar-trees and Fir-trees, all that he desired.

11. As Solomon did him twenty thousand Cors of Wheat, to be Meat for his Household, and twenty Cors of beaten Oil: thus he gave to Hiram Year by Year.

for Men, and bestows on them his Favours general and particular. There are ignorant Persons that dispute of the Deity without Reason; when it is said to them, Do what God has appointed, they answer, We will do what we saw done by our Fathers: not considering that the Devil calls both them and their Fathers to the Pains of Hell. He that obeys God, and does good Works, ties him with the strongest Knot, who will take care of him at the Hour of his End. The Impiety of the Wicked should not afflict thee; they shall be one Day gathered together in our Presence to be chastised.—If all the Trees of the World were Pens and the Sea Ink, they could not describe the Power of God.

Ver. 32. a thousand and five] Vulg. Lat. five thousand; by the Transcribers dropping and I suppose, because the five stood first in Latin, as it does in Hebrew.

Ver. 33. Hyssop] Sbarisiani in his History of the Religions of the East, attributes the Miracles which it is said Zerubabel or Zoroastres did, to the Knowledge only that he had in Simplex, Hyde Relig. vet. Persarum, Cap. 22. p. 300.

Ver. 1. when] so Jun. and Trem. with Castal. have quum.

Ver. 6. Lebanon] The Cedars there being of so great Fame, an Account of their present State may be agreeable. It is said there are only sixteen old ones, but young ones in great Numbers; that one of the biggest was twelve Yards six Inches round, and the Compa's which its Branches spread thirty seven Yards, being parted into five huge Limbs about five or six Yards from the Ground, Maundrell's Journey from Aleppo to Jerusalem, An. 1696, pag. 140. 1st Edit. Agreeable to this the Girth of the largest Tree was measured six Fathoms, by one mantioned in the Memoirs of the Missionaries, Tome iv. p. 358. So Rauwolf reckons the greatest Cedars several Fathoms about, and says, these Trees are green all the Year long, and as high as our Fir-trees, having large Boughs that make them bend one Way; but then, in 1575, he counted twenty four standing round in a Circle, and two more decayed with Age, but found no young ones thereabout, Travels by Ray, Part ii. Ch. 12. which Difference of Account between him and our Maundrell, the Distance of Time may reconcile. As to the Situation of the Mountain it self, Maundrell reckons it about half an Hour's Travel from Sidon to the Foot of it, p. 117. and three Hours Travel from Tripoly, p. 140. And Corten, who stand on the Mountain seven Weeks in the Year 1738, and rode from Tripoly on a Mule, reckons four or five Hours steep Ascent from the Bottom, then three or four Hours not so steep, to the Convent of the Carmelites, an Hour above which is the Source of a River that runs through Tripoly; and two Hours Walk up a steep Hill the Cedars, which he computed about five hundred large and small, eighteen looking exceeding ancient, and one he measured seven Fathoms and four Spans round the main Stem, two of them being counted 3000 or 2500 Years old; but he could not get to the Top of Lebanon for the Steepness.

Ver. 11. twenty Cors] These being given to Hiram himself for his Household, these Baths in 2 Chron. ii. 10. to his Servants.

lb. beaten] As Exod. xxvii. 20. & xxix. 40. Lev. xxiv. 2. Num. xxviii. 5. in which Places only this Word occurs elsewhere; and is from the Root signifying to beat, but not to be pure, as likewise the Latin Translations, besides the Vulgate, have it.

12. And the Lord gave Solomon Wisdom, as he spoke to him; and there was Peace between Hiram and Solomon, by a Treaty they two made.

13. King Solomon further raised a Levy out of all Israel, which was thirty thousand Men:

14. Whom he sent to Lebanon ten thousand in a Month by turns, they being a Month at Lebanon, two Months at home; and Adoniram was over them.

15. He too had seventy thousand who carried Burdens, and eighty thousand who cut on the Mountain;

16. Besides the chief of the Officers belonging to him, who were over the Work, three thousand and three hundred, that ruled over the People who wrought in it.

17. And the King commanding, they brought great Stones, valuable ones, and to lay the Foundation of the House hewn Stones;

18. Which Solomon's Builders, and those of Hiram, with the Giblites did carve: thus they fitted Timber and Stones, to build the House:

CHAP. VI.

AND in the four hundred and eightieth Year of the coming of the Israelites out of the Country of Egypt, in the fourth Year of Solomon's reigning over Israel, in the Month of Zif, which is the second Month, he began building a House for the Lord.

2. The Length of which was sixty Cubits, its Breadth twenty, and Height thirty Cubits.

3. As likewise the Porch before the Temple of it was twenty Cubits long against the Front of the House's Breadth, ten broad out before the House.

4. He also made for the House Windows of Casements shut.

5. And he built against the Wall of the House Galleries round about, both to the Temple and the Oracle; making Side-chambers there.

6. The Breadth of the lower Gallery, was five Cubits, the Breadth of the middle six, and that of the third seven: for he made Lessenings to the House round about abroad; that they might not have hold in the Walls of it:

7. And when the House was built, it was done with Stone carried compleat; so that there were not heard Hammers, or Ax, any Instruments of Iron in the House, while it was building:

8. The Door of the middle Side-chamber was at the right Side of the House; and they went up in Winding-stairs to the middle, and from thence to the third:

9. Thus he built the House, and finished it; as also wainscotted it with Beams and Boards of Cedar.

10. And building Galleries against all the House five Cubits high, they had hold of it with Timber of Cedar.

11. Now Solomon had the Word of the Lord as follows;

12. Concerning this House that thou buildest, if thou wilt walk in my Ordinances, do my Rules, and keep all my Commandments by going in them, I will confirm my Word with thee, which I spoke to David thy Father;

13. Nay I will dwell among the Israelites, and not forsake my People Israel.

14. So Solomon built the House, and finished it.

15. The Walls of which he wainscotted with Planks of Cedar on the Inside, where he covered them with Wood, from the Floor of the House to the Cieling; and laid the Floor of the House with Planks of Fir.

Ver. 12. spoke] not promised, Chap. iii. 12. being there in the common Translation preterite, and this strictly spoke.

Ver. 15. on the Mountain] of Lebanon, Ver. 6, 9. and according to other Translations, as well as the Original.

Ver. 18. Giblites] as Josh. xiii. 5. the Inhabitants of Gebal, Ezek. xxvii. 9. now called Gibyle, on the north of Tyre, according to Maundrell, who, with Grotius, speaks thus of it; so also rendered by Pagn. Leo Jud. and the old Latin Translator. Maundrell says, 'And in the 72 Interpreters Βίβλος, that is the Men of Byblus, the Greek Name of this Place;' but wrongly, the foregoing Verse, and this Part of the present, being left out by them.

Ver. 2. Cubits] By comparing the Length and Breadth of the Temple with those of the Tabernacle, Exod. xxvi. 18, 23. which was instead of this before, this being twice as long and broad as the other, was consequently four times as large.

Ver. 3. before the Temple] at the east End of it, where the Entrance into the Temple was, Ezek. viii. 16. Josephus, Antiq. Lib. viii. 3.

1b. Temple of it] the Body of it; as distinguished from the Oracle or very holy Place, Ver. 5, 17.

Ver. 6. Lessenings] of a Cubit each at the upper Galleries, whereby they were of the Breadth mentioned.

Ver. 8. Side] In some Editions of the vulg. Lat. pariete, Wall; in others parte, Part; by Corruption of one, as it looks, for the other.

Ver. 10. building Galleries] as Ver. 5, 6:

Ver. 15. wainscotted] built being a very unsuitable Word.

1b. from the Floor] not both the floor, that being covered with Fir; see the Latin Translations: so Ver. 16.

1b. laid] as called, that being the Floor it self; therefore not covered.

16. He even wainscotted twenty Cubits on the Sides of the House as aforesaid; doing thus to it on the Inside of the Oracle, the very holy Place.

17. And the Forepart of the House, namely the Temple, was forty Cubits.

18. Besides the Cedar at the House within was with Carving of Gourds, and open Flowers: all was Cedar, there was no Stone to be seen.

19. And he prepared the Oracle in the inmost Part of the House, to put there the Ark of the Lord's Covenant.

20. Of the Oracle also there twenty Cubits was the Length, twenty the Breadth, and so many the Height of it, which he covered with preserved Gold; as he did the Altar of Cedar.

21. Solomon likewise covered the House within with preserved Gold; and made a Partition with Chains of Gold before the Oracle, and covered that with Gold.

22. Thus he was covering the whole House with Gold, till he had finished all of it; the whole Altar too which was towards the Oracle he covered with Gold.

23. He further made in the Oracle two Cherubs with Olive-wood, the Height of which was ten Cubits.

24. And both the Wings of a Cherub were each five Cubits; it being ten from the End of one of his Wings to that of the other.

25. Accordingly the other Cherub was ten Cubits; the two Cherubs having the same Dimension, and the same Cutting:

26. The Height of one was ten Cubits, and so of the other.

27. And he put the Cherubs in the inmost Part of the House, and they spread forth their Wings, so that the Wing of one touched one Wall, and that of the other Cherub the other Wall: as their Wings did one another at the Middle of the House.

28. Moreover he covered the Cherubs with Gold.

29. And he carved all the Walls of the House round about with Work of Cherubs, Palm-trees and open Flowers, within and without.

30. He covered the Floor of the House too with Gold, within and without.

31. And at the Entrance of the Oracle he made Doors with Olive-wood, the Lintel and Posts being a fifth Part.

32. The two Doors also were Olive-wood, upon which he made Carvings of Cherubs, Palm-trees and open Flowers, which he covered with Gold; as likewise spread Gold upon the Cherubs and Palm-trees.

33. And so he made at the Entrance of the Temple Posts with Olive-wood, on the fourth Part.

34. Next the two Doors were Fir-wood; the two Leaves of one Door were folding, as were those of the other:

35. Where he carved Cherubs, Palm-trees and open Flowers; which he covered with Gold fitted upon the Carving.

36. And he built the inner Court with three Rows of hewn Stone, and a Row of Cedar-beams.

37. In the fourth Year was the Foundation of the Lord's House laid, in the Month of Zif.

38. And in the eleventh Year, in the Month of Bul which is the eighth Month, the House was finished according to all the Things and Manner of it: so he was building it seven Years.

C H A P. VII.

SOLOMON also was building his own House thirteen Years, when he finished all of it.

2. He likewise built the House of the Wood of Lebanon, the Length of which was a hundred Cubits, the Breadth of it fifty, and its Height thirty, upon four Rows

Ver. 16. twenty Cubits] At the Height of which was the Ceiling, by this and Ver. 20. and an inclined Roof as we now build, I suppose, ten Cubits higher, Ver. 2.

Ver. 18. Gourds] See 2 Kings iv. 39.

Ver. 19. the inmost Part] where it was, and the Hebrew not only does, but apparently must mean, not to be in within; and so Ver. 27.

Ver. 20. preserved] I suppose for that Purpose.

Ver. 22. towards] The Altar for Incense standing in the inner Part of the Temple, towards the Oracle or very holy Place, but at some distance from it; see Prideaux's Ichnography of the Temple in Connec^t. Part i. Book iii.

Ver. 23. Cherubs] See Gen. iii. 24.

Ver. 25. Cutting] as the Hebrew Word signifies, and so does not make a Tautology like the present Translation.

Ver. 30. within and without] Both in the Oracle and Temple, Jun.

Ver. 31. Lintel] as well that over the Door, as the Threshold under.

Ib. fifth Part] According to the Universal History, Book i. 7. 7. following the English Margin, the true Interpretation is, that they were five square (if five is square;) but that must needs be a very improper Form for a Threshold and Door-posts, and of far less Consequence to be told than the Dimension. The rest of the Partition being made with Chains of Gold, Ver. 21. not a Wall, and the whole twenty Cubits, Ver. 20. the folding Doors, as it appears, to shut together in the Middle, with the Posts on which they hung, would be four Cubits wide, or a little more than seven Feet and a quarter.

Ver. 33. Entrance] as Ver. 31. it being the same Hebrew Word.

Ver. 38. according to] There being the same to both, and so signifying.

of Cedar Pillars, with Beams of Cedar upon them.

3. And it was planked with Cedar above upon the Beams, which were upon forty five Pillars, fifteen in a Row.

4. There were moreover Windows in three Rows, and one Casement was against another threefold.

5. Besides all the Doors and Posts were square with the Windows, as well as the Casements triple over against others.

6. And he made a Porch of Pillars, its Length was fifty Cubits, and the Breadth of it thirty; and the Porch was before them, with Pillars and a Beam there.

7. A Porch too for a Throne where he might judge, a Porch for Judgment he made, and planked with Cedar from one Side of the Floor to the other.

8. And at the House where he dwelt, there was another Court on the Inside of the Porch according to this Work; Solomon likewise made a House for Pharaoh's Daughter, whom he married, like this Porch.

9. All these were of valuable Stones according to the Dimensions of hewn Stones, sawed with Saws, on the Inside and Outside, even from the Foundation to the Eves, and from the Outside to the great Court.

10. Nay the Foundation was of valuable Stones, great ones, Stones of ten, and those of eight Cubits.

11. And above were valuable Stones, according to the Dimensions of hewn Stone, and Cedar.

12. Moreover the great Court round about was with three Rows of hewn Stone, and a Row of Cedar-beams; as there was to the inner Court of the Lord's House, and the Porch of the House.

13. King Solomon further sent, and fetched Hiram from Tyre.

14. He was the Son of a widow Woman of the Tribe of Naphtali, whose Father was a Tyrian Man, a Braſier; and he was full of Wisdom, Understanding and Knowledge, to do all Work in Braſs; who coming to King Solomon, did all his Work.

15. For he formed two Pillars of Braſs; the Height of a Pillar was eighteen Cubits, and a Line of twelve Cubits would compass each Pillar.

16. And he made two Chapiters of molten Braſs, to put upon the Tops of them: five Cubits being the Height of one Chapter, and so many that of the other.

17. There were Infoldings of infolded Work, Wreaths of chain Work, for those Chapiters; seven for one, and so many for the other.

18. Thus he made the Pillars, and two Rows of Pomegranates round about upon one Infolding, to cover the Chapiters which were upon the Top; and so he made for each Chapter:

19. Those Chapiters being in the Porch of Lilly-work, four Cubits.

20. As for the Chapiters upon the two Pillars also above, over against the Belly which was at the Side of the Infolding, there were besides two hundred Pomegranates in Rows round about each Chapter.

21. In the next Place he set up the Pillars at the Porch of the Temple; and when he set up the right one, he named it Jachin; as when he did the left one, he named that Boaz.

22. Upon the Top of the Pillars likewise was Lilly-work: thus he finished the Work of them.

23. He made too a molten Sea: which

Ver. 2. Beams] Instead of this the Chald. is, their Crowns.

Ver. 8. House for] The noble Temple of Balbeck, now standing almost entire on the West of Mount Antilibanus in Syria, was thought by Prince Radziwille the Palatine of Wilna, who travelled thither, to be this House built by Solomon, Peregrin. Ierusalem. Epist. ii. p. 27. Maundrell, who exhibits a curious Draught of this Structure, found it 192 Feet long and 96 broad on the Outside, 120 Feet long and 60 wide within, the whole being surrounded with a Portico, supported with Pillars of the Corinthian Order above six Feet in Diameter, Journey from Aleppo to Jerusalem, p. 135. and not only he, but a French Author who viewed it two Weeks, expatiates on the curious and magnificent Workmanship of it, De la Roque, Voyage de Syrie, Tome i. p. 137, &c.

Ver. 9. from the Outside] Vulg. on the Inside.

Ver. 10. great ones] In the old Wall that inclosed the Temple, &c. of Balbeck, Maundrell found exceeding large Stones, particularly three which lay together in a Rank, 183 Feet long, one being sixty three, and the others sixty apiece, the Height and Breadth of which were each twelve Feet, lying twenty Feet high from the Ground, Journey, ut supra, p. 138. Ten Cubits in the Text is about eighteen Feet and a quarter, eight Cubits about fourteen Feet and a half: which might be the common Length of the Stones, if they belonged to this Building at Balbeck; but it is not generally thought so, though who the Builder should be besides Solomon seems scarce conceivable.

Ver. 12. as] Thus the Hebrew Particle signifies, 1 Sam. xii. 15. Jeb v. 7. & xvi. 21. & xxxiv. 3. Zech. ix. 1. and as said in the Universal History, B. i. 7. 7. plainly appears to be here used in the way of Comparison.

Ib. the Porch] facing this Court, and making one Side of it; so that the great Court was like this, as in Chap. vi. 36.

Ver. 14. Naphtali] Who was of the Tribe of Dan before she was married, 2 Chron. ii. 14.

Ver. 15. eighteen] See 2 Chron. iii. 15.

Ver. 16. five] Look on 2 Kings xxv. 17.

Ver. 19. being in the Porch] according to Ver. 21. and Porch, as observed in the Assemb. Annot. belonging to the Chapiters, not to the Lilly-work.

Ver. 20. two] one hundred in a Row, 2 Chron. iii. 16. Jer. lii. 23.

was ten Cubits from one Side of its Brim to the other, being of a round Compass, and its Height five Cubits, a Line of thirty compassing it about.

24. And there were Gourds under the Brim of it, inclosing it round about, ten in a Cubit all round the Sea: they were cast in two Rows, when that was cast.

25. It stood upon twelve Oxen, three looking to the North, three to the West, three to the South, and three to the East, the Sea being upon them above; and all their hinder Parts were inward.

26. And the Thickness of it was a Hand's-breadth, having a Brim like the Work of that belonging to a Cup, with Flowers of Lillies; it contained two thousand Baths.

27. Moreover he made ten Bases of Brass: the Length of a Base was four Cubits, its Breadth so many, and three the Height of it.

28. And this was the Work of the Bases; they had Borders, and these were between the Ledges.

29. As also upon those Borders there were Lions, Oxen and Cherubs, and upon the Ledges was a Stay above: and under the Lions and Oxen were Joinings of spreading Work.

30. Besides a Base had four Wheels of Brass, and Plates of Brass; as the four Corners of it had Shoulders, which were molten, under the Washing-vessel, from the Side of each Joining.

31. The Mouth of which on the Inside of the Chapter and above was a Cubit, and its Mouth was round to the Stay-work a Cubit and a half; and also upon the Mouth of it were Carvings, with their Borders square, not round.

32. Now the four Wheels were under the Borders, and the Axle-trees of the Wheels were in the Base; and the Height of a Wheel was a Cubit and a half.

33. And the Work of the Wheels was like that of a Chariot-wheel: their Axle-trees, Stocks, Felloes, and Spokes were all cast.

34. The four Shoulders likewise to the four Corners of a Base, were of the Base.

35. And on the Top of the Base the Height was half a Cubit round about; where the Hands and Borders of it were of the same.

36. Upon the Tables also of its Hands, and upon the Borders of it, he engraved Cherubs, Lions and Palm-trees, according to the naked Place of each, and the Joinings round about.

37. According to this he made the ten Bases: all of them had the same Casting, the same Dimension, the same Cutting.

38. He further made ten Washing-vessels of Brass: one contained forty Baths, it was four Cubits; the ten Bases having one Washing-vessel upon each of them.

39. And he put five Bases on the right Side of the House, and five on that which was the left of it; as he did the Sea at the right Side of the House eastward, over against the South.

40. So when Hiram had made the Washing-vessels, with Shovels and Bowls; he finished doing all the Work which he made King Solomon for the House of the Lord:

41. The two Pillars, and the Balls of the Chapters that were upon the Top of them, and the two Infoldings to cover those Balls,

42. And the four hundred Pomegranates for the two Infoldings, two Rows of them for one Infolding, to cover the two Balls of the Chapters that were atop of the Pillars,

43. And the ten Bases, and the ten Washing-vessels upon them,

44. And one Sea, and the twelve Oxen under the Sea,

45. And the Pots, Shovels and Bowls: all those Things which Hiram made King Solomon for the House of the Lord being clean Brass.

46. On the Plain of Jordan did the King cast them, in the Clay-ground, between Succoth and Zarethan.

47. But Solomon let alone all the Things for the exceeding great Abundance, from searching out the Weight of the Brass.

48. He likewise made all the Things that were at the House of the Lord: the Altar of Gold, and the Table of Gold upon which was the Presence-bread;

Ver. 26. two thousand] as being the Quantity it usually held, but if filled, would hold three thousand, 2 Chron. iv. 5.

Ver. 27. Bases] which the Washing-vessels stood on, Ver. 30, 43. 2 Chron. iv. 6.

Ver. 30. Corners] As Ver. 34. shews, this Word being found only here.

Ver. 32. under] i. e. turned round under.

Ver. 34. The four] being mentioned before in Ver. 30.

Ver. 35. the Height] I apprehend of the Shoulders, Ver. 34, 30.

Ib. half a Cubit] Vulg. a Cubit and a half.

Ib. Hands] What held the Bathing-vessel, going up from the Shoulders on which the Belly of it rested.

Ver. 36. Tables] the upper Side or Top of the said Hands.

Ib. according to the naked Place &c.] after the Hebrews and as there was Room between the Joinings.

Ib. naked Place] nothing of proportion.

Ver. 40. had made] It is in the vulgar Translation as if they were others.

Ver. 46. Zarethan] See Chap. iv. 12.

49. And the Candlesticks, five on the right Side, and five on the left, before the Oracle, of preserved Gold; and the Flowers, Lamps, and Tongs of Gold;

50. With the Basons, musical Instruments, Bowls, Spoons, and Censers of preserved Gold; nay the Hinges for the Doors of the inmost House, the very holy Place, and for the Doors of the House at the Temple, of Gold.

51. Thus all the Work being finished, which King Solomon made for the House of the Lord; he brought in the consecrated Things of his Father David, putting the Silver, Gold and Instruments, among the Treasures of the Lord's House.

C H A P. VIII.

THEN he gathered together the Elders of Israel, and all the chief of the Tribes, the Princes of the Fathers of the Israelites, to himself at Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Lord's Covenant, from the City of David, which is Zion.

2. So all the Men of Israel were gathered together to him, at the Feast in the Month of Ethanim, which is the seventh Month.

3. All the Elders of Israel likewise came, and the Priests carried the Ark.

4. And they with the Levites brought up the Ark of the Lord, the publick Tent, and all the holy Instruments that were in it.

5. And with King Solomon himself the whole Assembly also of Israel, who were assembled to him, were before the Ark, sacrificing Sheep and Oxen, that were not told, nor numbered for Multitude.

6. The Priests too brought in the Ark of the Lord's Covenant to its Place, at the Oracle of the House, into the very holy Place, even under the Wings of the Cherubs.

7. For the Cherubs spread their Wings on the Place of the Ark; insomuch that they covered over both that, and the Poles of it above.

8. And they drew forth the Poles, so that the Tops of them appeared from the holy Ark before the Oracle, but did not without: where they are to this Day.

9. There was Nothing in the Ark but the two Tables of Stone, which Moses placed there at Horeb; where the Lord made a Covenant with the Israelites, when they came out of the Country of Egypt.

10. And when the Priests came out of the holy Place; a Cloud filled the House of the Lord:

11. Insomuch that the Priests could not stand to minister by reason of it; for the Glory of the Lord filled his House.

12. Then said Solomon; The Lord has spoken of dwelling in Darkness.

13. I have thoroughly built thee a Dwelling-house, a Settlement for thy Habitation evermore.

14. And the King turning about his Face, blessed the whole Congregation of Israel, who all stood.

15. And he said: Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who has fulfilled with his Hand, what he spoke with his Mouth to my Father David as follows;

16. From the Day that I brought my People Israel out of Egypt, I have chosen no City out of all the Tribes of Israel to build a House in, that my Name might be there; only I chose David to be over this my People.

17. And it was in the Heart of David my Father, to build a House to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

18. But the Lord said to him; Forasmuch as it is in thy Heart to build a House to my Name, thou doest well that it is so:

19. However thou shalt not build the House, but thy Son who proceeds forth from thy self shall build a House to my Name.

20. Accordingly the Lord has confirmed his Word which he spoke; I being risen up in the room of David my Father, and sitting upon the Throne of Israel; as the Lord promised, and have built a House to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

21. I have also put there a Place for the Ark, where the Covenant of the Lord is, which he made with our Forefathers when he brought them out of the Country of Egypt.

22. Besides Solomon standing before the Altar of the Lord, before all the Congrega-

Ver. 50. musical Instruments] from the Verb its Root to sing or play on an Instrument: so Yun. and Trin. with Castal. have it instrumenta musica; Pagn. and Montan. psalteria; agreeable to the Lexicons.

Ver. 5. And with &c.] or And King Solomon, and the whole Assembly of Israel that were assembled to him with him, were before; but this would be harsh, though better than not to be Sense.

1b. were not] See Ver. 47. of the last Chapter.

Ver. 8. Ark] as expressed 2 Chron. v. 9. nor is the Hebrew out in, to contradict without.

VOL. I.

Ver. 9. where] as in the English Margin, and in the Text, Num. xxii. 26. Deut. viii. 15. Psa. lxxxiv. 3. Eccles. viii. 10. It might strictly be rendered at which (being the Hebrew Relative) and would then rather denote the Place than the Time, especially as the Time when it was follows, which is quite different in the Original.

Ver. 12. has spoken] according to Lev. xvi. 2. the foregoing being a Token of his Presence.

tion of Israel, spread forth his Hands towards Heaven,

23. And prayed: O Lord God of Israel, there is no god like thee, in the Heaven above, or upon the Earth below, keeping Covenant and Kindness with thy Servants, that walk before thee with their whole Heart.

24. Who hast kept with thy Servant David my Father what thou spakest to him: not only speaking with thy Mouth, but fulfilling with thy Hand, as at present.

25. Now therefore, O Lord God of Israel, keep with thy Servant David my Father what thou thus spakest to him, Thou shalt not have a Man fail from before me of sitting upon the Throne of Israel; only if thy Children take heed to their Way, to walk before me, as thou hast done.

26. Even now, O God of Israel, let thy Word be verified, I pray, which thou spakest to thy Servant David my Father.

27. Though will God indeed dwell upon the Earth? Behold Heaven and the Heaven of Heavens cannot contain thee, much less this House which I have built.

28. Yet have regard to the Prayer of thy Servant, and to his Supplication, O Lord my God, by hearkening to the Cry, and to the Prayer, which thy Servant prays before thee to Day:

29. That thy Eyes may be open to this House Night and Day, to the Place of which thou hast said, My Name shall be there; that thou mayest hearken to the Prayer, which thy Servant shall pray towards this Place.

30. Thus hearken to the Supplication of thy Servant and People Israel, which they shall pray towards this Place; do thou even hear at Heaven the Place of thy Habitation, and having heard, forgive.

31. Wherein a Man sins against his Neighbour, and an Oath is put on him to make him swear, which comes before thy Altar in this House;

32. Hear thou at Heaven, and act, so that thou mayest judge thy Servants, by condemning the Wicked to render his Way on his Head, and by justifying the Virtuous to give him according to his Virtue.

33. When thy People Israel are beat before the Enemy, for that they have sinned against thee, and returning to thee, shall confess thy Name, pray, and make supplication to thee in this House,

34. Do thou hear at Heaven, and forgive their Sin; and bring them again to the Country which thou gavest to their Forefathers.

35. When the Heaven is shut up, so that there is no Rain, because they have sinned against thee; and they pray towards this Place, confess thy Name, and return from their Sin, because thou afflictest them:

36. Do thou hear at Heaven, and forgive the Sin of thy Servants and People Israel, when thou hast taught them the good Way that they should go in; and give Rain upon thy Country, which thou hast given thy People for a Possession.

37. When there is Famine in the Country, when there is Pestilence, when there is Blasting, Mildew, Locusts, Caterpillars, when their Enemies besiege them in the Country at their Gates, when there is any Plague, any Sickness;

38. All Prayer, all Supplication which shall be of any Man, or of all thy People Israel, who knowing the several Plagues of their own Hearts, shall spread forth their Hands towards this House:

39. Do thou hear at Heaven thy settled Habitation, and forgive, and act, so that thou mayest render to each one according to all his Ways, whose Heart thou knowest: since thou alone knowest the Hearts of all Mankind:

40. That they may fear thee all the Days which they live upon the Surface of the Country, that thou gavest to our Forefathers.

41. As for a Stranger also, who is not of thy People Israel, but comes from a Country far off for thy Name's sake;

42. When they hearing of thy great Name, thy strong Hand and Arm stretched out, shall come, and pray towards this House:

43. Do thou hear at Heaven thy settled Habitation, and do according to all for which the Stranger calls to thee; that all People of the Earth may know thy Name, to fear thee like thy People Israel, and to know that this

Ver. 27. much less this House] How different and superior this Expression of Solomon, even in the Time of the Law; to that of Maundrell (a wise Man too, and a Priest) travelling to Jerusalem, on sight of the poor Church he mentions at Bellulca, "A very mean Habitation this for the God of Heaven!" Journey from Aleppo to Jerusalem, the fifth Day.

Ver. 30. which] as 1 Chron. vi. 21. where the Hebrew is the same, and the like in the foregoing Verse.

Ver. 37. Mildew] Left out here with the Septuagint, and turned yellow Jaundice, 2 Chron. vi. 28.

Ib. Caterpillars] Septuagint Blast; but in 2 Chron. vi. 28. like this, an Indication sure of no great Accuracy.

Ib. Gates] and not Cities. But not thinking of [at] it seems, which makes very good Sense, as besieging was at the Gates; occasioned us to have formerly in the land and in their own cities, afterwards in the cities of their land; then, to be literal as supposed, in the land of their cities, with the least Sense.

House which I have built is called by thy Name.

44. When thy People shall go out to War against their Enemy, the Way that thou sendest them, and shall pray to the Lord the Way to the City which thou hast chosen, and to the House which I have built to thy Name:

45. Hear at Heaven their Prayer and Supplication, and do that which is their Right.

46. When they sin against thee, since there is no Man who does not sin, so that thou being angry with them, deliverest them up before the Enemy, and they carry away their Prisoners, to their own Country far off or near;

47. And they shall return in their Hearts in the Country whither they are carried away, and thereupon make supplication to thee at the Country of their Captivity, saying, We have sinned, and committed Iniquity, have done wickedly:

48. When they return to thee with their whole Heart and Soul, in the Country of their Enemies who carried them away, and pray to thee the Way to their own Country that thou gavest their Forefathers, to the City that thou hast chosen, and the House that I have built to thy Name:

49. Hear at Heaven thy settled Habitation, their Prayer and Supplication, and do that which is their Right;

50. And forgive thy People who have sinned against thee, even all their Transgressions which they have committed against thee, and give them Compassion before those who have carried them away, so that they may have Compassion on them.

51. For they are thy People and Possession, whom thou brougest out of Egypt, from within the iron Furnace:

52. That thy Eyes may be open to the Supplication both of thy Servant and of thy People Israel, that thou mayest hearken to them in all their calling to thee.

53. For thou didst put them apart for a Possession to thy self, out of all the People of the Earth, as thou spakest by the Ministry of thy Servant Moses, when thou brougest our Forefathers out of Egypt, O Sovereign Lord.

54. And when Solomon had made an end of praying all this Prayer, and Supplication to the Lord, he rose up from before the Lord's Altar, from kneeling on his Knees, with his Hands spread forth towards Heaven.

55. Next he stood, and blessed all the Congregation of Israel aloud as follows:

56. Blessed be the Lord, who has given Rest to his People Israel, according to all that he spoke: there has not failed one Word of all his good Words, which he spoke by the Ministry of his Servant Moses.

57. The Lord our God be with us, as he has been with our Fathers; may he not leave us, nor forsake us:

58. That he may incline our Hearts to him, to go in all his Ways, and to observe his Commandments, Ordinances and Rules, which he commanded our Fathers.

59. And let these my Words with which I have made supplication before the Lord, be near to the Lord our God by Day and Night; that he may do the Right, both of his Servant, and of his People Israel, each Day's Matter the very same Day.

60. In order for all the People of the Earth to know that the Lord himself is God; there is none else.

61. Therefore let your Hearts be perfect with the Lord your God, by going in his Ordinances, and observing his Commandments, as at this Day.

62. Besides the King, and all the Israelites with him, offered Sacrifices before the Lord;

63. Solomon offering in the Sacrifice of Peace-offerings, which he offered to the Lord, twenty two thousand Oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand Sheep: thus the King and all the Israelites dedicated the House of the Lord.

64. On that Day the King consecrated the Middle of the Court, which was before the House of the Lord; because he offered there the Burnt-offerings, Oblations, and Fat of the Peace-offerings: for the brasen Altar that was before the Lord, was too little to contain them.

65. Solomon made a Feast too at that Time, accompanied with all Israel, a great Congregation, from the Entrance of Hamath to the River of Egypt, before the Lord our God, seven and seven Days more, even fourteen.

66. On the eighth Day he let the People go, who blessed the King; and they went to their Tents glad, and of a cheerful Heart, for all the Goodness which the Lord had shewn to David his Servant, and his People Israel.

Ver. 59. each &c.] as in 2 Chron. viii. 14. where see.

Ver. 66. let—go] since by the preceding Verse, many, or most, may appear to have staid longer.

CHAP. IX.

AND when Solomon had made an end of building the House of the Lord, and the King's House, with all his Desire which he was pleased to do;

2. The Lord appeared to him the second time, as he had done at Gibcon.

3. And said to him: I have heard thy Prayer and Supplication, which thou hast made before me; I have consecrated this House that thou hast built, to put my Name there for ever: where my Eyes and Heart shall be continually.

4. As for thee, if thou wilt go before me, as thy Father David went, in Perfectness of Heart and Virtue; to do entirely as I have commanded thee, observing my Ordinances and Rules:

5. I will establish the Throne of thy Kingdom in Israel for ever, as I promised thus to David thy Father, Thou shalt not have a Man fall from the Throne of Israel.

6. If you or your Children at all turn back from following me, so that you will not observe my Commandments, my Ordinances which I have put before you; but go, and serve other gods, and worship them:

7. I will cut off Israel from the Surface of the Country which I have given them, and casting the House that I have consecrated to my Name from my Face; Israel shall become a Proverb and Taunt among all People.

8. And at this House that is most high, shall every one who passes by it be astonished, and hiss; and they shall say, Why has the Lord done thus to this Country and House?

9. To which others shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord their God, who brought their Forefathers out of the Country of Egypt, and taking hold of other gods, bowed down to them, and served them; therefore has the Lord brought upon them all this Harm.

10. And at the End of twenty Years, wherein Solomon built the two Houses, that of the Lord and the King's House:

11. Hiram King of Tyre having furnished him with Cedar-trees, Fir-trees and Gold, according to all his Pleasure; then King Solomon gave Hiram twenty Cities in the Country of Galilee.

12. So Hiram came out of Tyre, to see the Cities which Solomon gave him; but he did not approve of them.

13. Therefore he said, What Cities are these which thou hast given me, my Brother? And they are called the Country of Cabal to this Day.

14. Moreover Hiram sent the King a hundred and twenty Talents of Gold.

15. Now this was the Motive for the Levy, which King Solomon brought up to build the House of the Lord, his own House, the Fortress, the Wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer;

16. Pharaoh King of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, burnt it with Fire, and slain the Canaanites who dwelt in the City, which he gave a Present to his Daughter Solomon's Wife:

17. Whereupon Solomon built Gezer, and lower Beth-horon,

18. And Baalath, and Tadmor in the Wilderness, in the Country;

19. All the Cities likewise of Stores that he had, together with the Cities for Chariots, and those for Horsemen, besides what he desired to build at Jerusalem, Lebanon, and in the whole Country of his Dominion.

20. As for all the People that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, who were not of the Israelites;

21. On such as were their Children that were left after them, in the Country, whom the Israelites could not destroy, Solomon has put a Tribute of Servitude to this Day.

22. Whereas of the Israelites he made no Slave: for they were Warriors, and his Servants, Princes, Captains, and the Governors of his Chariots and Cavalry.

Ver. 6. at all] Neither the Hebrew Grammarians nor Annotators, that I know of, and suppose, have distinctly remarked the Sense of the Duplication of a Hebrew Verb finite and infinite, when interrogative and dubitative; though both occur in the Scripture, and must be translated, if not expounded. The former indeed, as in 2 Sam. xix. 42. Judg. xi. 25. Gen. xliii. 7. Jer. xxv. 29. & xl. 14. Ezek. xiv. 3. & xviii. 23. 1 Sam. ii. 27. 2 Chron. xxiii. 13. Isa. l. 2. Zech. vii. 5. Num. xxii. 30. can scarcely be denied the same as when negative; but the latter (as with if English) is not so clear, Instances of which see in Exod. xv. 26. & xix. 5. & xxii. 4, 12, 23, 26. & xxiii. 22. Lev. vii. 18. & xv. 24. & xix. 7. & xx. 4. & xxvii. 19, 31, 33. Num. xii. 14. & xxi. 2. & xxx. 6, 12, 14, 15. & xxxv. 26. Deut. vii. 19. & xi. 13, 22. & xv. 5. & xxviii. 1. Josh. xxiii. 12. Judg. xi. 30. & xiv. 12. 1 Sam. i. 11. & xx. 6, 9, 21. Jer. xii.

16. & xvii. 24. & xxii. 4. & xxxviii. 17. & xlii. 10, 15. Zech. vi. 15. 2 Sam. xv. 8. & xviii. 3. Est. iv. 14. 2 Kings xx. 39. & xxii. 28. and here, where not only Leo Judea, but those great Interpreters Jun. and Trem. have for the same omnino, wholly, the greatest, instead of our at all, the least. On weighing the Sense, by the Ballance of the Contexts, and considering that if is otherwise constructed as a Question, I render as ours here before. And take the Sense negatively in both to be contrary, as Jer. xxxviii. 15.

Ver. 15. the Fortress] It seems to have been, writes Pool, an eminent, and large, and strong Fort or Castle in Jerusalem; as may be gathered from 1 Kings xi. 27. 2 Chron. xxxii. 5. which Jun. and Trem. here accordingly render munitionem; see on Judg. ix. 6.

Ver. 22. Slave] the same Word in Hebrew as in 2 Chron. viii. 9, only singular here.

23. These

23. These were the chief of the Officers who were over the Work belonging to Solomon, five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the People that wrought in the Work.

24. But Pharaoh's Daughter came up from the City of David, to her House that he had built for her: then did he build the Fortrefs.

25. And three times a Year he offered up Burnt-offerings, and Peace-offerings, upon the Altar that he built to the Lord, and burnt the Incense on it, which was before the Lord; when he had finished the House.

26. And King Solomon made a Fleet at Ezion-geber, which is by Eloth, at the Shoar of the Red Sea, in the Country of Edom.

27. Hiram also sent his Servants in the Fleet, Sailors that knew the Sea, with Solomon's Servants.

28. Who went to Ophir, and fetched from thence four hundred and twenty Talents of Gold, and brought to King Solomon.

C H A P. X.

AND the Queen of Sheba hearing the Fame of Solomon, concerning the Name of the Lord, came to try him with difficult Questions.

2. So she came to Jerusalem with a very great Retinue, with Camels carrying Spices, as also very much Gold, and precious Stones; and when she was come to Solomon, she spoke to him all that was in her Mind.

3. However he told her all her Matters; there was Nothing hid from the King which he did not tell her.

4. At length when the Queen of Sheba had seen all the Wisdom of Solomon, the House that he had built,

5. The Meat of his Table, the sitting of his Servants, the standing of his Waiters with their Cloaths, and of his Butlers, and his Ascent by which he went up to the House of the Lord, there was Spirit in her no longer.

6. And she said to the King, The Saying was true which I heard in my own Country, concerning thy Things, and concerning thy Wisdom.

7. Nevertheless I did not believe the Words, until I came, and my Eyes saw; whereas behold half was not told me: thou exceedest in Wisdom and Prosperity the Report that I heard.

8. Happy are thy Men, happy these thy Servants, who stand before thee continually, hearing thy Wisdom.

9. The Lord thy God be blessed, who delighted in thee, to put thee upon the Throne of Israel; by the Love of the Lord to Israel for ever, he also made thee King, to do what is right and just.

10. Besides she gave the King a hundred and twenty Talents of Gold, very many Spices, and precious Stones: there came such abundance of Spice no more, as that which the Queen of Sheba gave King Solomon.

11. And the Fleet too of Hiram which carried Gold from Ophir, brought from thence very many Almug-trees, and precious Stones.

12. Then the King made of the Almug-trees Pales to the House of the Lord and the King's House, as likewise Harps and Lutes for the Singers: there has not come Almug-trees so, nor been seen to this Day.

13. King Solomon also gave the Queen of Sheba all her Desire which she asked, besides what he gave her according to his State: so she turned, and went to her own Country, with her Servants.

14. And the Weight of the Gold which came to Solomon in one Year, was six hundred sixty six Talents of Gold;

Ver. 23. five hundred and fifty] Mention and Distinction being before made, of the Strangers and Israelites, I suppose with the Generality of Expositors, both Jews and Christians, that the 250 in 2 Chron. viii. 10. were of the latter, and these the whole; other Ways of Resolution being framed on Distinctions about which the Context is silent.

Ver. 28. Ophir] seems to have been on the south Side of Arabia, Prideaux's Connell. Anno 740. And I may add, to be so named from Ophir, Gen. x. 29. who having a Brother called Havilah, next to himself, and the Country of that Name being in the East of Arabia, Gen. ii. 11. probably Ophir might be adjacent to it in the South-east; agreeable to the Settlement mentioned, Gen. x. 30. Besides it seems by the Account of bringing Gold from Ophir being inserted within the Relation of the Queen of Sheba, Chap. x. 11. that it was in the Parts she came from, namely somewhere in Arabia. However in the Universal History, B. i. Ch. 7. 7. after discussing and rejecting various Opinions touching the Place, it is supposed to be somewhere in the East Indies, by reason of the three Years Voyage; which notwithstanding was to Tarshish, that probably did lie there, 1 Kings x. 22. for it is not the Fleet of Hiram which went to Ophir, but that of Tarshish which went with it (some of the Way) that was three Years returning, and brought Gold as well as the other. So Eusebius, as cited by Eusebius, De Præp. Evang. Lib. ix. says Urphe or Ophir was an Island in the Red Sea; that is, as Prideaux shews, the southern Ocean, which extending itself between India and Africa, washeth up to the Coast of Arabia and Persia.

Ver. 12. Pales] to make or inclose the Walks, 2 Chron. ix. 11.

Ver. 13. according to] not of.

Ib. State] as in Est. i. 7. & ii. 18. it being an excellent Way to compare Passages of Scripture together, and render them as they are alike.

15. Besides what was from Men finding it out, and the Traffick of Merchants, with all the Kings of Arabia, and the Princes of the Country.

16. Moreover King Solomon made two hundred Bucklers of Gold hammered out, six hundred Shekels of Gold being put in one Buckler.

17. There were likewise three hundred Shields of Gold beat out, three Manchs of Gold being put in one Shield, and the King placed them in the House of the Wood of Lebanon.

18. And he made a great Throne of Ivory, which he covered with fine Gold.

19. To the Throne were six Stairs, and the Top of it was round behind it, and Stays were on both Sides of the Sitting-place, two Lions standing by the Stays,

20. Twelve Lions also stood there upon the six Stairs on both Sides: there was not such made for any Kingdoms.

21. All King Solomon's Drinking-vessels too were Gold, and all the Vessels of the House of the Wood of Lebanon preserved Gold: none were Silver; that was a Thing not esteemed in the Time of Solomon.

22. For the King had a Fleet of Tarshish at Sea, with the Fleet of Hiram: once in three Years came the Fleet of Tarshish, bringing Gold and Silver, Ivory, and Apes, and Peacocks.

23. And he was the greatest of all the Kings of the Earth, both in Riches and Wisdom.

24. So that those of all the Earth sought the Presence of Solomon, to hear his Wisdom which God had put in his Heart.

25. And they brought their several Presents, Instruments both of Silver and Gold, together with Garments, Armour and Spices, Horses and Mules, each Year's Things the same Year.

26. He too gathered Chariots and Horsemen, having a thousand and four hundred Chariots, and twelve thousand Horsemen; that he brought to be in the Chariot-cities, and with the King in Jerusalem.

27. Nay the King made Silver be in Jerusalem like Stones, as he did Cedars like Sycamores, which are in the Vale abundantly.

28. Solomon had also Horses brought out of Egypt, and Yarn; the King's Merchants taking the Yarn at a Price.

29. A Chariot likewise came up, coming out thence, for six hundred Shekels of Silver, and a Horse for a hundred and fifty; and so for all the Kings of the Hittites, with those of Syria, were they brought out by them.

C H A P. XI.

BUT King Solomon loved many Women who were Strangers, besides the Daughter of Pharaoh, Women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, Hittites;

2. Of the Nations of which the Lord said to the Israelites, Ye shall not come among them, nor they among you; who surely will turn your Hearts aside after their gods: to them Solomon cleaved in Love.

3. He having seven hundred Wives who were Princesses, and three hundred Concubines; and his Wives turned aside his Heart.

4. For in the Time of his old Age, they turned his Heart aside after other gods; so that it was not perfect with the Lord his God, like the Heart of David his Father.

5. And he went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the Abomination of the Ammonites.

6. Thus Solomon did what the Lord was displeased with; and did not follow him fully, like his Father David.

7. Then he built a Chapel to Chemosh the Abomination of Moab, on the Hill that is before Jerusalem, and to Molech the Abomination of the Ammonites.

8. And so he did for all his strange Wives, who burnt incense, and sacrificed to their gods.

9. Whereupon the Lord was angry with him, because his Heart was turned aside from the Lord God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice,

10. And had given him command concerning this Thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he did not observe what the Lord commanded.

Ver. 22. Tarshish] This appears to be somewhere in the East Indies, Chap. ix. 28.

Ver. 25. each Year's &c.] according to 2 Chron. viii. 13, 14.

Ver. 26. that he] This whom in the present Version restricts to the Horsemen, with no more than a Comma also before it; but the greater Hebrew Division shews it also belongs to the Chariots; and where should these be put, but in the Cities for them? The same there is at 2 Chron. ix. 25.

lb. brought] This is the Meaning of the Hebrew, and not bestowed; and to be is inserted, as understood in the Original, as for an Instance in 2 Sam. xxii. 44. that the rest may be alike, because so in the Hebrew.

Ver. 27. Silver] Turn to Job iii. 15.

Ver. 29. by them] That is the Israelites did not only buy for themselves, but for the Kings here mentioned, to mount their Cavalry, &c.

Ver. 5. Zidonians, and] But the vulg. Lat. has thrust between, and Chamos the god of the Moabites; who sees not, borrowed from Ver. 33?

11. He therefore said to Solomon; Because this is with thee, and thou hast not observed my Covenant and Ordinances, which I commanded thee; I will thoroughly tear the Kingdom from thee, and give it to thy Servant.

12. But yet I will not do it in thy Time, for the sake of David thy Father; from the Hand of thy Son will I tear it.

13. However I will not tear away all the Kingdom, I will give one Tribe to thy Son, for David my Servant's sake, and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen.

14. Accordingly the Lord raised up an Adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite, who was of the King's Offspring in Edom.

15. It having been when David was at Edom, when Joab the Captain of the Army went up to bury the Slain, after he had made a general Slaughter of the Males in Edom;

16. (For Joab and all Israel abode there six Months, till he had cut off the Generality of them)

17. That Hadad, accompanied with some Edomite Men of his Father's Servants, fled to go into Egypt, he being a little Boy.

18. So they got ready, and went out of Midian, to Paran, and taking Men with them from thence, went to Egypt, to Pharaoh King of it; who gave him a House, ordered him Food, and gave him Land.

19. And Hadad got in Favour with Pharaoh exceedingly; insomuch that he gave him his own Wife's Sister for a Wife, the Sister of Tahpenes the Queen.

20. She also bore him Genubath his Son, whom Tahpenes bred up in Pharaoh's House; so that he was there among the Sons of Pharaoh.

21. And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David lay down with his Fathers, and that Joab the Captain of the Army was dead, he thus addressed Pharaoh, Let me go, that I may depart to my own Country.

22. To whom Pharaoh said, But what hast thou wanted with me, that behold thou endeavourest to go thither? And he answered, Nothing, but let me by all means go.

23. Besides God raised up an Adversary to him, Rezon the Son of Eliada, who fled from Hadadezer King of Zobah his Master.

24. With that gathering together Men to him, he became Captain of a Troop, when David had slain those there; and they went to Damascus, and dwelt in it, reigning in the same.

25. And he was an Adversary to Israel all the Time of Solomon, besides the Harm which was of Hadad; and he vexed Israel, when he reigned over Syria.

26. Jeroboam likewise the Son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zeredah, a Servant to Solomon, whose Mother's Name was Zeruah a widow Woman, even lifted up the Hand against the King.

27. And this was the Motive whereby he did it: Solomon built the Fortrefs, stopped up the Breaches of the City of David his Father;

28. The Man Jeroboam was then powerful in Strength, and Solomon seeing that the young Man was one who would do Business, he set him over all the Charge of the Family of Joseph.

29. Now at that Time Jeroboam going out of Jerusalem, the Prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met with him in the Way, who had covered himself with a new Garment, and they two were alone in the Field;

30. At this Ahijah taking hold of the new Garment that was upon him, tore it in twelve Pieces;

31. And said to Jeroboam: Take thee ten Pieces, for thus says the Lord God of Israel; Behold I will tear the Kingdom out of the Hand of Solomon, and will give ten Tribes to thee:

32. (But he shall have one Tribe, for the sake of my Servant David, and for Jerusalem's sake, the City which I chose out of all the Tribes of Israel)

33. Because they have forsaken me, and worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zi-

Ver. 16. the Generality of] for that it was not every one the next Verse shews.

Ver. 20. bred up] likelier than weaned, as it signifies either; so Jun. and Trem. &c. not only here, but in 2 Sam. i. 22, &c. whereas that is forbid at the End of Ver. 23.

Ver. 29. Garment] The Hebrew Word being salmah, not shilmah, and there being also simlah, not shimlah, for Garment, the Author of the present State of the printed Hebrew Text presumes, he says, it should be the latter universally, p. 476. as we have that in the Bible twenty seven times, and the other but sixteen; but would any impartial unprejudiced Person presume, that the very same Mistake was made sixteen times, and obtained to become the common Reading; and never, by transposing the other Letters, simlah or simbal? To look no further than Garments and what belongs to them, we have two Names for the same, as Stockings and Hosen, Cap and Quoif, Girdle and Belt, and by one Letter only different Shirt and Shift, yet different Names; moreover with the Spelling varied Ribband and Ribbon, Peruke, Periwig, &c. nay in Cloaths and Clothes as if the s or e was transposed, and changed by the Nearness of Sound; we have also like this; crudled and curdled, so Clasp and Hasp some pronounce Claps and Haps, Haps being indeed the original Saxon Name. Besides how plainly does salmah, which this Author would discard, come from the Root סלם salam, since the Arabic Word primarily signifies to make Leather with the Bark of a Tree, as the Garment of a Man is made with Cloth?

Ver. 33. they] Israel, Ver. 31.

donians,

donians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and have not walked in my Ways, by doing what I approve of, even my Ordinances and Rules, like David his Father.

34. Nevertheless I will not take any of the Kingdom out of his Hand: for I will make him a Prince all the Days of his Life, for the sake of David my Servant whom I chose, who observed my Commandments and Ordinances.

35. Yet I will take the Kingdom out of his Son's Hand, and give ten Tribes of it to thee.

36. And to his Son will I give one Tribe; that there may be a Lamp to David my Servant continually before me in Jerusalem, the City where I chose for me to put my Name.

37. So will I take thee, and thou shalt reign over all that thy Soul desires, being King over Israel.

38. Nay if thou wilt hearken to all that I command thee, and walk in my Ways, and do what I approve of, by observing my Ordinances and Commandments, as David my Servant did; I will be with thee, and build thee a firm House, as I built for David, and will give Israel to thee.

39. And I will afflict the Offspring of David for this, but not continually.

40. Therefore Solomon endeavoured to put Jeroboam to Death; but he got ready, and fled to Egypt, to Shishak King of it, and was there till Solomon's Death.

41. As for the rest of the Affairs of Solomon, and all that he did, with his Wisdom, are they not written in the Book of his Affairs?

42. And the Time which Solomon reigned at Jerusalem, over all Israel, was forty Years.

43. When he lay down with his Fathers, being buried in the City of his Father David; and Rehoboam his Son reigned in his room.

AND Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel came thither to make him King.

2. Which when Jeroboam the Son of Nebat heard (who was yet in Egypt, to which he fled from the Presence of King Solomon, and dwelt there)

3. Upon their sending for him, he and all the Congregation of Israel came, and spoke thus to Rehoboam,

4. Thy Father made our Yoke hard; now therefore do thou make his hard Service lighter, and his heavy Yoke which he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5. To whom he said, Go away yet three Days, and come again to me: accordingly the People went away.

6. And King Rehoboam consulted thus with the old Men, who stood in the Presence of Solomon his Father while he was alive, How do you advise, that I should return this People Word?

7. Who spoke to him as follows, If thou wilt be a Servant to this People to Day, wilt serve them, and in answering them give them good Words, they will be Servants to thee at all Times.

8. But he left the Counsel of the old Men, which they gave him, and consulted with the young Men that were bred up with him, who stood before him.

9. To these he said; What do you advise, that we may return this People Word, who have spoken thus to me, Make the Yoke lighter which thy Father has put upon us?

10. And they said to him as follows; Thus tell this People who have spoken so to thee, Thy Father made our Yoke heavy, and do thou make it lighter to us; My little Finger, answer thou to them, shall be thicker than my Father's Loins.

11. For now whereas my Father loaded you with a heavy Yoke, I will add to your Yoke; my Father chastised you with Whips, but I will do it with Scorpions.

Ver. 34. any of] The Distinction of his Son's Hand in the next Verse shewing this was spoken of Solomon himself, according to Ver. 12. and so requires this Meaning, which the Hebrew Word has; and is likewise translated by Jun. and Trem. quicquam.

Ver. 37. over] The Letter being γ and not π

Ver. 40. to Shishak King] Whereas by my Chronological Tables at the End of Daniel, Shishak began his Reign but the Year before Jeroboam did his, an Objection might arise thence to such Computation; this may be fairly eluded, if it must be longer back, either by supposing Shishak was not King then, or only over Part of Egypt, or else that Psusennus, instead of reigning forty six Years, reigned but forty one, according to Eusebius, which would make the Beginning of Shishak's Reign five Years sooner: I prefer the former, which other Circumstances considerably strengthen, viz. Shishak's beginning a new Dynasty, probably effected by a civil War or Conquest that took up some Time; and as Solomon was allied to the reigning Family, it is rational to suppose Jeroboam would join in the Opposition, which might be a few Years before Shishak became (entire) Monarch; besides if Shishak reigned six Years before Rehoboam, his Excursion into Judah would be in his eleventh Year, that is in the second Year after his Wars were finished abroad, as shewn after the Tables from Diodorus Siculus.

Ver. 10. answer them to them] not in the Bible of Sixtus the Pope.

12. So Jeroboam and all the People came to Rehoboam the third Day; as the King had ordered, that they should come again to him then.

13. And he gave the People a surly Answer, leaving the Counsel of the old Men, which they had given him.

14. For he spoke to them according to the Counsel of the young Men as follows, Whereas my Father made your Yoke heavy, I will add to your Yoke: my Father chastised you with Whips, but I will do it with Scorpions.

15. Thus the King did not hearken to the People: for the Cause was from the Lord, that he might confirm his Words, which he himself spoke by the Ministry of Ahijah the Shilonite, to Jeroboam the Son of Nebat.

16. And when all Israel saw that he hearkened not to them, the People returned this Word to him, What Part have we in David? Nor is there Possession in the Son of Jesse; away to thy Tents, O Israel, now look home, David. Accordingly Israel went to their Tents.

17. But as for the Israelites that dwelt in the Cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18. Then he sent Adoram, who was over the Tribute: but all Israel stoned him with Stones, so that he died: upon which King Rehoboam strengthened himself to get up into the Chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19. And Israel have rebelled against the Family of David to this Day.

20. Moreover when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, they sent for him to the Assembly, and made him King over all Israel: there was none that followed the Family of David, besides the Tribe of Judah alone.

21. However when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered together all the Family of Judah, and the Tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty Thousand chosen Men Warriors; to fight with the Family of Israel, that he might restore the Kingdom to himself the Son of Solomon.

22. But Shemaiah the Man of God had God's Commission as follows:

23. Speak to Rehoboam the Son of Solomon King of Judah, to all the Family of Judah and Benjamin, and the rest of the People, in this manner;

24. Thus says the Lord, You shall not go up, nor fight with your Brethren the Israelites; return to your respective Homes, for this Thing is brought to pass by me. And they hearkened to the Word of the Lord, for they returned, that they might go according to the same.

25. Afterwards Jeroboam built Shechem on Mount Ephraim, and dwelt in it; and going out from thence built Peniel.

26. And Jeroboam said in his Heart; Now will the Kingdom return to the Family of David:

27. If this People go up to offer Sacrifices in the House of the Lord at Jerusalem, their Hearts will return to their Master Rehoboam King of Judah; nay they will slay me, as well as return to him.

28. Therefore the King took counsel, and made two golden Calves; then he said to them, It is a great deal for you to go up to Jerusalem; here are thy gods, O Israel, who brought thee up out of the Country of Egypt.

29. And he set one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan.

30. So that this Thing became a Sin: for the People went before one, even to Dan.

31. Besides he made Chapel-houses; and made Priests of the meanest of the People, who were not of the Posterity of Levi.

32. Jeroboam further made a Feast on the fifteenth Day of the eighth Month, like the Feast which was in Judah, and offered up on the Altar (so he did in Beth-el) to sacrifice to the Calves that he had made; and placed in Beth-el the Priests of the Chapels which he made.

33. So he offered up on the Altar which he had made in Beth-el, on the fifteenth Day of the eighth Month, in the Month which he devised out of his own Heart; he even made a Feast for the Israelites, and offered up on the Altar, by burning incense.

C H A P. XIII.

BUT behold there came a Man of God from Judah, by the Word of the Lord,

Ver. 18. strengthened himself] so the Hebrew.

Ver. 20. alone] as a whole Tribe, but the principal Part of Benjamin with it, Chap. xi. 31, 32. 2 Chron. xi. 12. so 2 Kings xvii. 18. of which latter it may be supposed some would revolt from the Family of David, which had got the Government from that of Saul in their Tribe.

Ver. 28. two Calves] For in Egypt, where Jeroboam had been, were two Oxen worshipped, one called Apis at Memphis, and the other Mnevis at Heliopolis; as we may learn by Diodorus Siculus, Lib. i. 2. Ammianus Marcellinus, Lib. xxii. Strabo, Lib. xvii. and Plutarch, De Iside.

Ver. 31. Chapel-houses] of which see Ver. 32. of the next Chapter.

Ver. 1. come] Usher places this in the Beginning of Jeroboam's Reign; but though it may be granted to be on his first annual Feast, Chap. xii. 32. and also the Ido-to Beth-el; and Jeroboam was standing by the Altar, to burn incense.

2. And he called out against the Altar by this Word of the Lord; O Altar, Altar, thus says the Lord, Behold a Son shall be born to the Family of David, whose Name will be Josiah, and he shall sacrifice upon thee the Priests of the Chapels who burn incense upon thee, and Mens Bones shall be burnt upon thee.

3. Moreover he gave the following Token at the same Time; This is the Token which the Lord has expressed, Behold the Altar shall be rent, and the Ashes that are upon it be poured out.

4. And when the King heard the Words of the Man of God, with which he called out against the Altar in Beth-el, Jeroboam stretched forth his Hand from the Altar against him, and said, Take hold of him; but the same Hand dried up, so that he could not pull it back to him.

5. The Altar too was rent, and the Ashes were poured out from it, according to the Token which the Man of God gave by the Word of the Lord.

6. Whereupon the King gave answer to him, Make supplication now before the Lord thy God, and pray for me, that my Hand may be restored to me. And upon his making supplication before the Lord, the King's Hand was restored to him, and became as at first.

7. Then he said to the Man of God, Come home with me, and recruit; and I will give thee a Present.

8. Who replied to the King; If thou wilt give me half thy House, I will not go with thee; nor will I eat or drink any Thing in this Place.

9. For so it was commanded me by the Word of the Lord expressly, Thou shalt not eat or drink any Thing; nor return the Way that thou goest.

10. So he went another Way, and did not return in that wherein he came to Beth-el.

11. Now there dwelt a certain old Prophet in Beth-el; one of whose Sons came, and told him all the Work which the Man of God had done that Day there; those Words that he spoke to the King, they also told their Father.

12. And he enquired of them, What Way did he go? For his Sons had seen the Way that the Man of God went, who came from Judah.

13. He said further to them, Saddle the As for me; which they did, and he rode on it.

14. And going after the Man of God, he found him sitting under an Oak; whom he asked, Art thou the Man of God who camest from Judah? And he answered, I am.

15. He then said to him, Come home with me, and eat some Victuals.

16. Who replied; I cannot return with thee, nor go with thee; nor will I eat or drink any Thing with thee in this Place.

17. For it was said to me by the Word of the Lord, Thou shalt not eat or drink any Thing there; nor return by going in the Way wherein thou wentest.

18. But he said to him; I am also a Prophet like thee, and an Angel has spoken thus to me by the Word of the Lord, Bring him back with thee to thy House, and let him both eat and drink Something: whereas he lyed to him.

19. Upon which he went back with him, and both eat and drank Something at his House.

20. However as they were sitting at the Table, the Prophet who brought him back had the Word of the Lord.

21. And he called out to the Man of God who came from Judah as follows: Thus says the Lord; Because thou hast rebelled against the Mouth of the Lord, and not kept the Commandment which the Lord thy God enjoined thee,

22. But hast returned, and both eat and drank Something, in the Place of which he said to thee, Do not eat or drink any Thing; thy Corpse shall not come to the Sepulchre of thy Fathers.

23. Accordingly after he had both eat some Victuals, and drunk, and the other had saddled the As for the Prophet whom he brought back;

24. When he departed, a Lion met with him in the Way, and killed him; so that his Corpse was cast in the Way, and the As stood by it, as the Lion also did.

25. And behold Men passing by, saw the Corpse cast in the Way, with the Lion standing by it; so they came, and told it in the City, wherein the old Prophet dwelt.

26. Which when the Prophet who brought him back from the Way heard of, he said, [stry to begin in his first Year, or at least the Preparation for it, according to Ezek. iv. 5. yet the Completion of it by that Feast does not seem sooner than the second Year, Chap. xii. 21, 25, 26, 28.

Ver. 4. King—Jeroboam] So God—the Lord, Ver. 5. not together as in the present Translation.

Ver. 9. goest] camest being quite improper; so Ver. 17. Ver. 11. one of whose Sons] both the Noun and the Verbs being singular.

Ver. 23. saddled the As for the Prophet] Vulg. the Prophet saddled his As.

It is the Man of God who rebelled against the Mouth of the Lord; therefore he has given him up to a Lion, that has torn him, and killed him, according to the Word which the Lord spoke to him.

27. He also said thus to his Sons; Saddle the Ases for me; which they did.

28. And he went, and found his Corpse cast in the Way, with the Ases and Lion standing by it; the Lion having not eat the Corpse, nor torn the Ases.

29. So he took up the Corpse of the Man of God, and putting it on the Ases, had it back; and the old Prophet went into the City, to make lamentation, and to bury him.

30. Besides he put it in his own Grave; and they lamented for him, Alas, my Brother.

31. And after he had buried him, he told his Sons, that when he himself died, they should bury him in the Sepulchre wherein the Man of God was buried; putting his Bones by the other's.

32. For the Matter would thoroughly come to pass, which he proclaimed by the Lord's Commission, both against the Altar that was in Beth-el, and all the Chapel-houses that were in the Cities of Samaria.

33. After this Thing Jeroboam did not return from his evil Way; but made again some of the meanest of the People Priests of the Chapels; filling his Hand that was willing, who became one of them.

34. And according to this Matter it became Sin to the Family of Jeroboam; even to the cutting off, and to the destroying it from the Surface of the Ground.

CHAP. XIV.

AT that Time Abijah the Son of Jeroboam became sick.

2. Upon this Jeroboam said to his Wife; Get ready, I pray, and disguise thy self, for them not to know that thou art the Wife of Jeroboam; and go to Shiloh, behold Ahijah the Prophet is there, who spoke about my being King over this People.

3. Moreover take with thee ten Loaves, and Biscuits, as also a Pot of Honey, and go to him; he will tell thee how it will be with the Child.

4. And his Wife did so, for she got ready, and went to Shiloh, going to Ahijah's House; who could not see, because his Eyes were set by reason of his old Age.

5. But the Lord had said to him, Behold the Wife of Jeroboam is coming to ask a Thing of thee for her Son, because he is sick, to whom thou shalt speak after this and this manner: for when she comes, she will feign her self a Stranger.

6. So when Ahijah heard the Sound of her Feet coming in at the Door, he said: Come in, O Wife of Jeroboam; why dost thou feign thy self a Stranger? For I am sent to thee with a hard Thing.

7. Go, tell Jeroboam: Thus says the Lord God of Israel; Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the People, and made thee Ruler over my People Israel,

8. Tearing the Kingdom from the Family of David, and giving it to thee; and yet thou hast not been like my Servant David, who observed my Commandments, and who went after me with all his Heart, to do only what I approved of;

9. Nay thou hast done worse than any who have been before thee; for thou hast gone, and made thee other gods, and molten Images, to provoke me, and hast cast me behind thy Back:

10. Therefore behold I will bring Evil to the Family of Jeroboam, and will cut off from himself the grown Male, him who is shut up, and him who is left in Israel; and will take away the Posterity of his Family, as one does Dung, till it be finished.

11. Him who dies of Jeroboam in the City shall the Dogs eat, and him who dies in the Field shall the Fowls of the Air eat: for the Lord has spoken it.

12. And do thou get ready, go home: when thy Feet enter into the City, the Child shall die.

13. For whom all Israel shall make lamentation, and bury him, for this alone of Jeroboam shall come to the Grave; because there is found in him some Good towards the Lord God of Israel, in the Family of Jeroboam.

14. The Lord will further raise him up a King over Israel, who shall cut off the Family of Jeroboam at that Time; and what even now?

15. Besides the Lord will smite Israel, as a Reed is shaken in the Water, and will root

Ver. 31. that when] It is proper this Sentence should be oblique, as the Relation of the Writer; not direct, as the very Expression of the old Prophet; because Samaria was not then built, Chap. xvi. 24. But the Historian might use the Name it was called by when he wrote the Book, to avoid Obscurity, or because the former Name was lost.

Ver. 1. At that Time] of the Prophet's Affair, ending Chap. xiii. 32.

Ver. 10. shut up] concealed, that he might not be slain: so I understand it rather than being a Captive, or imprisoned; so in other parallel Places.

Ver. 14. and what even now?] Which I understand as if he had said, And does the Lord now begin to have the Family of Jeroboam cut off, by the Death of this Child? since the Hebrew Pointing does not admit of the Separation as in the English Translation.

up Israel from this good Country which he gave to their Forefathers, and disperse them beyond the River; because they have made their Groves, provoking the Lord.

16. Thus will he give Israel up; because of the Sins of Jeroboam, wherein he sinned, and wherein he made Israel sin.

17. And Jeroboam's Wife got ready, and going away, went to Tirzah: when she came to the Threshold of the House, the Boy died.

18. Whom they buried, and all Israel made lamentation for him, according to the Word of the Lord, which he spoke by the Ministry of his Servant Ahijah the Prophet.

19. As for the rest of the Affairs of Jeroboam, how he fought, and how he reigned, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

20. And the Time that Jeroboam reigned was twenty two Years; then he lay down with his Fathers, and Nadab his Son reigned in his room.

21. And Rehoboam the Son of Solomon reigned in Judah; who was in his forty first Year when he began reigning, and reigned seventeen Years in Jerusalem, the City which the Lord chose out of all the Tribes of Israel to put his Name there, whose Mother was named Naamah an Ammonitess.

22. And Judah did what the Lord was displeased with; and they moved him to Jealousy, more than all that their Fathers did, by their Sins which they committed.

23. For they also built them Chapels, Statues and Groves, upon every high Hill, and under every green Tree.

24. And there were Sodomites too in the Country; doing after all the abominable Things of the Nations that the Lord expelled from the Presence of the Israelites.

25. So in the fifth Year of King Rehoboam, Shishak King of Egypt came up against Jerusalem.

26. And he took the Treasures of the House of the Lord, those of the King's House, taking away all, as he did all the Shields of Gold that Solomon had made.

27. Instead of which King Rehoboam made Shields of Brass, and committed them to the Custody of the chief of the Footmen who kept the Gate of the King's House.

28. So that at the King's coming to the House of the Lord, the Footmen carried them, then brought them back to their own Chamber.

29. As for the rest of his Affairs, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

30. There being War between him and Jeroboam continually.

31. And Rehoboam lay down with his Fathers, being buried with them in the City of David, whose Mother's Name was Naamah, an Ammonitess; and Abijam his Son reigned in his room.

CHAP. XV.

AND in the eighteenth Year of King Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, Abijam began reigning over Judah.

2. Three Years reigned he in Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Maachah, the Daughter of Abishalom.

3. And he went in all the Sins of his Father, which he did before him; and his Heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, like that of David his Father.

4. Yet for David's sake the Lord his God gave him a Lamp in Jerusalem, by setting up his Son after him, and by establishing Jerusalem:

5. Because David did what the Lord approved of, and turned not aside from all that he commanded him all the Days of his Life, excepting in the Matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6. And there was War between Rehoboam and Jeroboam as long as the former lived.

7. As for the rest of Abijam's Affairs, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? There being War between him and Jeroboam.

8. At length he lay down with his Fathers, they burying him in the City of David, and Aza his Son reigned in his room.

9. In the twentieth Year also of Jeroboam King of Israel, Aza began reigning over Judah.

10. Moreover he reigned forty one Years in Jerusalem, whose Grandmother's Name was Maachah, the Daughter of Abishalom.

Ver. 16. wherein] the Hebrew Relative, whose Antecedent seems rather Sins than Jeroboam; especially as it is repeated, and if he either had Sins, or made Israel sin, he must sin himself; which Tautology is thus prevented, and so the judicious Castal. Jun. and Trem. make it; see Chap. xv. 3, 26, 30. & xvi. 13, 26.

Ver. 20. lay down] according to Chap. xvii. 19. It does not appear that the Hebrew Verb signifies he slept, though the old Lat. is dormivit; see Chap. xix. 5.

Ver. 10. Grandmother's] as Ver. 2. & 2 Chron. xi. 20, 21. shew; and some have translated. Thus likewise she appears to have been the Grandaughter, or Daughter in the second Descent, of Abisalom, 2 Chron. xi. 20, 22. (though I would not be too bold to render it so) because Abisalom's own Daughter was named Tamar, 2 Sam. xiv. 27. as David called the Father of Abijam here in Ver. 3. we easily see to be in the second Ascent, and therefore may very well be expressed so. And this

11. And Aſa did what the Lord approved of, like David his Father.

12. For he made all the Sodomites paſs out of the Country, and put away all the filthy Idols that his Fathers had made.

13. Nay as to Maachah his Grandmother, he even put her away from being Queen, becauſe ſhe made a horrible Idol at a Grove; Aſa too cut down, and burnt her Idol, at the Brook Kidron.

14. But the Chapels were not taken away; however the Heart of Aſa was perfect with the Lord all his Days.

15. And he brought the conſecrated Things of his Father, and thoſe of his own, into the Houſe of the Lord, Silver, Gold and Instruments.

16. There was War.likewiſe between him and Baasha King of Iſrael all their Days.

17. And the latter came up againſt Judah, and built Ramah; that he might not let any go out, or come in, to Aſa King of Judah.

18. Who took all the Silver and Gold, that were left in the Treasures of the Houſe of the Lord, and thoſe of the King's Houſe, and delivered them into the Cuſtody of his Servants; which he tranſmitted to Ben-hadad, the Son of Tabrimon, the Son of Hezion, King of Syria, who dwelt at Damascus, with this Meſſage,

19. There being a Treaty between me and thee, between my Father and thine; lo I have ſent thee a Preſent of Silver and Gold: go, break thy Treaty with Baasha King of Iſrael, that he may go up from me.

20. Accordingly Ben-hadad hearkened to King Aſa, ſending the Captains of the Armies that he had, againſt the Cities of Iſrael; and he conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maachah, and all Cinneroth, beſides all the Country of Naphtali.

21. And as ſoon as Baasha heard of it, he left off building Ramah, and dwelt at Tirzah.

22. With that King Aſa publiſhed to all

Judah, none being exempted, and they took away the Stones of Ramah, and the Timber of it, with which Baasha was building; and he himſelf built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

23. As for the reſt of all Aſa's Affairs, and all his Power, with all that he did, and the Cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But at the Time of his old Age he was ill in his Feet.

24. And Aſa lay down with his Fathers, being buried with them in the City of his Father David; and Jehoſhaphat his Son reigned in his room.

25. In the ſecond Year of Aſa King of Judah, Nadab alſo the Son of Jeroboam began reigning over Iſrael; over which he reigned two Years.

26. And he did what the Lord was diſpleaſed with, going in the Way of his Father, and in his Sin wherein he made Iſrael ſin.

27. So Baasha the Son of Ahijah, of the Family of Iſſachar, conſpired againſt him, and ſlew him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philiftines; for Nadab and all Iſrael laid ſiege againſt it.

28. And Baasha killed him in the third Year of Aſa King of Judah, and reigned in his room.

29. When he reigned likewiſe, he ſlew all the Family of Jeroboam, without leaving to him any who breathed, till he had deſtroyed him; according to the Word of the Lord, that he ſpoke by the Miniſtry of his Servant Ahijah the Shilonite:

30. For the Sins of Jeroboam, wherein he both ſinned, and made Iſrael ſin, by his Indignation with which he provoked the Lord God of Iſrael.

31. As for the reſt of Nadab's Affairs, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſrael?

Maachah, called by a little Alteration Michaiah, 2 Chron. xiii. 2. as Alſalem is here Abiſhalem, was the Daughter of Uriel, 2 Chron. xiii. 2. who it ſeems had her by Tamar; in which Manner thoſe Texts are better reconciled than I have found it done.

Ver. 12. filthy Idols] as the Hebrew Word ſignifies, being like Lumps of Dung or Excrements; and called thus in Contempt, as horrible Idol another Word, Ver. 13. in Detestation.

Ver. 16. all their Days] that is after it began, and there might be Skirmiſhing between them before, as remarked on 2 Chron. xiv. 1.

Ver. 25. Nadab] Bedford in his Scripture Chronology, Lib. vi. 1. 6. & Tab. 46. computes that Nadab reigned in his Father's Life-time, about two Years before his Death, and ſo both died in the ſame Year. But there is Nothing of this appears on Record, nor is there any Ne-ceſſity to reckon ſo: for how obviously do ſeventeen Years of Rehoboam, three of Abijam, and the ſecond Year of Aſa anſwer to the twenty ſecond of Jeroboam? And though the two firſt Reigns did not amount to quite twenty Years, becauſe Aſa began reigning in the twentieth of Jeroboam, it is but counting one Day more than they wanted of twenty Years back, from the End of twenty two to Jeroboam's Death and the Beginning of Abijam's Reign. Nor does his Way of Reckoning well agree with the following Verſe; and the Lord's ſtriking Jeroboam, 2 Chron. xiii. 20. has no Signs of a languiſhing Diſeaſe, but ſuch a one only as he died of. And whereas by his Computation the firſt Year of Nadab and the firſt of Aſa are the ſame Year, as it ſtands in his Table, p. 688. it is impoſſible to be right by 1 Kings xv. 25. See the Obſervations on the Table of the Kings.

32. And there was War between Afa, and Baasha King of Israel, all their Days.

33. In the third Year of Afa Kind of Judah, Baasha the Son of Ahijah began reigning over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty four Years.

34. And he did what the Lord was displeased with, going in the Way of Jeroboam, and in his Sin with which he made Israel sin.

C H A P. XVI.

THEN Jehu the Son of Hanani had the Lord's Commission against Baasha as follows :

2. Whereas I exalted thee from the Dust, and made thee Ruler over my People Israel; and yet thou hast gone in the Way of Jeroboam, and made my People Israel sin; to provoke me with their Sins :

3. Behold I will take away the Posterity both of Baasha and his Family; and will make thy Family like that of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat.

4. Him who dies of Baasha in the City shall the Dogs eat, and him who dies of him in the Field shall the Fowls of the Air eat.

5. As for the rest of Baasha's Affairs, and what he did, with his Power, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

6. And Baasha lay down with his Fathers, and was buried at Tirzah; whose Son Elah reigned in his room.

7. Thus also by the Ministry of Jehu the Son of Hanani the Prophet, was the Word of the Lord against Baasha and his Family, even for all the Evil with which he displeased the Lord, in provoking him by the Work of his Hands, in being like the Family of Jeroboam, and because he slew it.

8. In the twenty sixth Year of Afa King of Judah, Elah the Son of Baasha began reigning over Israel in Tirzah two Years.

9. And his Servant Zimri, Captain of half the Chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk at the House of Arza, who was the Steward of the House in Tirzah.

10. For Zimri went in, and smote him, so that he killed him, in the twenty seventh Year of Afa King of Judah; and reigned in his room.

11. And in his reigning, when he sate upon his Throne, he slew all the Family of Baasha, not leaving him one grown Male; either of his Kindred, or Friends.

12. So Zimri destroyed all the Family of Baasha, according to the Word of the Lord that he spoke against him, by the Ministry of Jehu the Prophet :

13. For all the Sins of Baasha, and those of Elah his Son, wherein they sinned, and in which they made Israel sin, by provoking the Lord God of Israel with their Vanities.

14. As for the rest of Elah's Affairs, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

15. In the twenty seventh Year of Afa King of Judah, did Zimri reign seven Days in Tirzah; and the People were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16. And the People who were encamped hearing it said, Zimri has conspired, and also slain the King; all Israel made Omri the Captain of the Army King over Israel, that Day in the Camp.

17. At which he went up, accompanied with all Israel, from Gibbethon; and they laid siege against Tirzah.

18. And when Zimri saw that the City was taken, he went into the Palace of the King's House; which House he burnt upon him with Fire, and died :

19. For his Sins that he committed, by doing what the Lord was displeased with, by going in the Way of Jeroboam, and in his Sin which he did by making Israel sin.

20. As for the rest of Zimri's Affairs, with his Conspiracy that he made, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

21. Then were the People of Israel divided in the midst : half of them were after Tibni the Son of Ginath to make him King, and half after Omri.

22. But the People who were after the latter, were stronger than those who were after the former; so Tibni was put to death, and Omri reigned.

23. In the thirty first Year of Afa King of Judah, Omri was settled in reigning over Israel twelve Years; reigning six Years in Tirzah.

Ver. 7. slew it] the Family of Jeroboam, Chap. xv. 29. which it seems he did in a cruel unjust Manner, as there probably were innocent Children in it; but did not slay Jeroboam himself, 2 Chren. xiii. 20.

Ver. 23. was settled in reigning] after the civil War with Tibni, Ver. 21, 22. for Omri began to reign several Years before, Ver. 15, 17, 29. see Lightfoot's Proleg. to Harmony of the Evangelists.

Ib. six Years] the last of which, as will appear by the Chronological Table, was not the 31st, but the next Year of Afa: for it here seems likely that when Omri was settled in reigning, he bought Samarita, and built the City; which it is not probable he would do before, nor that he should then remove his Court in less than a Year: so that Lightfoot's Account of this is void, Ibid.

24. And he bought the Hill of Samaria of Shemer, for two Talents of Silver; and built on it, calling the Name of the City which he built, after that of Shemer the Master of the Hill; Samaria.

25. Omri also did what the Lord was displeased with, nay did worse than any who was before him.

26. And he went in all the Way of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, and in his Sin wherein he made Israel sin, by provoking the Lord God of Israel with their Vanities.

27. As for the rest of Omri's Affairs which he did, and his Power that he acted with, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

28. At last Omri lay down with his Fathers, and was buried in Samaria; whose Son Ahab reigned in his room.

29. Now Ahab the Son of Omri began reigning over Israel; in the thirty eighth Year of Aza King of Judah; and he reigned over Israel in Samaria, twenty two Years.

30. He likewise did what the Lord was displeased with, more than any who was before him.

31. For was it light for him to go in the Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, so that he married Jezebel the Daughter of Ethbaal King of the Zidonians, nay went and served Baal, and worshipped him?

32. Besides he raised up an Altar to Baal, at the House of Baal, which he built in Samaria.

33. Ahab too made a Grove: thus he did more to provoke the Lord God of Israel, than any of the Kings of Israel who were before him.

34. In his Time Hiel the Beth-elite built Jericho: he laid its Foundation with the Loss of Abiram his eldest Son, and set up the Gates of it with that of Segub his youngest; according to the Word which the Lord spoke by the Ministry of Joshua the Son of Nun.

C H A P. XVII.

AND Elijah the Tishbite, one of the Sojourners of Gilead, declared to Ahab, By the Lord God of Israel's living, before whom I stand, there shall not be Dew or Rain these Years, but according to my Word.

2. Afterwards he had the Word of the Lord as follows;

3. Go from hence, and turn thee eastward; and hide by the Brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

4. Of which Brook thou shalt drink; and I have commanded the Ravens to sustain thee there.

5. So he went; and did according to the Word of the Lord: that is he went, and dwelt by the Brook Cherith; which is before Jordan.

6. And the Ravens brought him Bread and Flesh in the Morning, as likewise the same in the Evening; and he drank of the Brook.

7. But at the End of the Season, the Brook dried up; because there was no Rain in the Country.

8. Next he had the Word of the Lord thus,

9. Get ready, go to Zarephath, that belongs to Zidon, and abide there; behold I have commanded a widow Woman there to sustain thee.

10. Accordingly he got ready, and went thither, and when he came to the Gate of the City, behold a widow Woman was there picking up Wood; to whom he called, and said, Fetch me, I pray, a little Water in a Vessel, that I may drink.

Ver. 25. any] which the original Word signifies; as well as all, and this being repeated Ver. 30 & 33. appears to be what was intended.

Ver. 31. married] This appears to be before he was King, by what the Reader may find on 2 Chron. xxii. 2.

Ver. 34. Jericho] two Hours Journey from Jordan, and at present only a poor nasty Village of the Arabs, Maunder's Journey from Aleppo to Jerusalem, p. 80.

Ver. 1. Sojourners] as the Word is rendered, Gen. xxiii. 4. Lev. xxii. 10. & xxv. 6, 23, 35, 40, 45, 47. Num. xxxv. 15. 1 Chron. xxix. 15. Psa. xxxix. 12. which with foreigner Exod. xii. 45. make up all the Places where it is.

Ver. 7. Season] or Year, as in Gen. iv. 3. Heb. at the End of the Days, as there.

1b. no Rain] Menander, writing of Tyre, as quoted by Josephus, relates, that in the Time of Ithobal who was King of it, there was a great Drought from the Month of Hyperboreans to the same Month in the next Year, Antiq. Lib. viii. 7. Now by the Chronology at the End of Daniel, this King reigned about eleven Years with Ahab, and by the Sacred History the Famine appears to be in the former Part of Ahab's Reign, which concludes it to be the same, and justifies the Scripture. As for the different Length of the Time, especially considering Tyre was by the Sea-side, that might not be destitute of Rain so long as the Country of Israel, which was also to be peculiarly punished; besides that Menander might not reckon the Drought to begin, till the Want of Rain for a considerable while had made it so. The Occasion of Elijah's praying for this Judgment, Jam. v. 17. is to me pretty evidently the Persecution which was in the Kingdom of Israel, Chap. xviii. 4. and that Persecution was probably about the Time of the Reformation in Judah, 2 Chron. xvii. 1, 6, 7, 9. so that the with-holding of the Rain may be computed, with sufficient Probability, to begin the next Year, as I place it in the Table; and with which the other Affairs, both before and after, well concur: though Usher himself has not ventured to meddle with it.

11. Which as she was going to do, he called thus to her, Do bring me a Bit of Bread in thy Hand.

12. Who answered, By the Lord thy God's living, I have not any, but a Handful of Flour in a Tub, and a little Oil in a Pot; and behold I am picking up two Bundles of Wood, that I may go in, and make it ready for me and my Son, that we may eat it, and die.

13. But Elijah replied to her; Fear not, go in, make ready according to thy Words; only make me a little Cake from thence first, and bring out to me, and make for thee and thy Son last.

14. For thus says the Lord God of Israel, The Tub of Flour shall not be consumed, nor shall the Pot of Oil fail; till the Day the Lord gives Rain upon the Surface of the Ground.

15. Whereupon she went, and did according to the Word of Elijah; and she, he, and her Family did eat some Time.

16. The Tub of Flour was not consumed, nor did the Pot of Oil fail; according to the Word of the Lord, that he spoke by the Ministry of Elijah.

17. And after these Things, the Son of the Woman, the Mistress of the House, was sick; and his Sickness became very strong, until there was no Breath left in him.

18. Therefore she said to Elijah, What hast thou to do with me, O Man of God? Thou art come to me, to bring my Iniquity into remembrance, and to cause my Son to die.

19. And he said to her, Give me thy Son. So he took him out of her Bosom, and carried him up into a Chamber, where he abode, and laid him down upon his own Bed.

20. He then called on the Lord in this manner, O Lord my God, hast thou even done hurt to the Widow with whom I sojourn, by causing her Son to die?

21. He further stretched out himself upon the Child three times, and called on the Lord as follows, O Lord my God, let the Soul of this Child, I beseech thee, return into him.

22. And the Lord hearkened to what Elijah said; so that the Soul of the Child did return into him, and he became alive.

23. So Elijah took the Child, and bringing him down out of the Chamber into the House, delivered him to his Mother; when he said, See thy Son is alive.

24. Upon which the Woman acknowledged to him, Now by this I know that thou art a Man of God, and that the Word of the Lord in thy Mouth is Truth.

C H A P. XVIII.

AND in a great while, being in the third Year, Elijah had the Word of the Lord thus, Go, shew thy self to Ahab, and I will give Rain upon the Surface of the Ground.

2. Accordingly Elijah went to shew himself to him; and the Famine was grievous in Samaria.

3. Ahab had therefore called Obadiah who was the Steward of the House; and he feared the Lord greatly.

4. For when Jezebel destroyed the Lord's Prophets, Obadiah took a hundred Prophets, and hid them fifty Men in a Cave, whom he sustained with Victuals and Drink.

5. And Ahab said to him, Go through the Country, to all the Fountains of Water, and to all the Brooks: perhaps we shall find Grass, to keep the Horses and Mules alive, and not make a destruction of the Beasts.

6. So they parted the Country between them, to pass through it: Ahab went one Way alone, as Obadiah did another.

7. And as Obadiah was in the Way, behold Elijah met him; whom he knowing, fell upon his Face, and said, Is it thou, my Lord Elijah?

8. Who answered him, It is I; go, tell thy Master, Here is Elijah.

9. To which he replied: In what have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy Servant into the Power of Ahab, for him to kill me?

10. By the Lord thy God's living, there is not a Nation or Kingdom, to which my Master has not sent to enquire whether thou wast there; and they saying, No; he made those of the Kingdom or Nation swear, that they had not met with thee.

11. Yet now thou sayest; Go, tell thy Master, Here is Elijah.

12. And when I am gone from thee, the Spirit of the Lord will take thee away whither I know not; and on my going to tell Ahab, Ver. 12. Bundles of Wood] the Hebrew being Wood plural.

Ver. 18. Thou art come] there being no Mark of a Question in Hebrew, nor do I see a Necessity to make it so; and both Munst. and Pagn. have it without.

Ver. 1. being in the third Year] of his being there, or in three Years with the Overplus, as in Luke iv. 25. Jam. v. 17. from the Commencement of the Famine.

Ver. 10. No] Our Translators have here added three Words to make out one, by handling the rest unskillfully; and these to be proper should be either, He is not here, or he was not there.

and his not finding thee, he will slay me: whereas thy Servant has been one who feared the Lord from my Youth.

13. Was it not told my Lord what I did, when Jezebel slew the Prophets of the Lord; that I hid a hundred Men of them by fifty in a Cave, and sustained them with Victuals and Drink?

14. And now thou sayest; Go, tell thy Master, Here is Elijah; whereupon he will slay me.

15. But Elijah said, By the living of the Lord of Armies, before whom I stand, I will shew my self to him this Day.

16. With that Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17. Whom when Ahab saw, he said to him, Is it thou that troublest Israel?

18. Whereas he answered, It is not I have troubled Israel, but thou and thy Father's Family, by reason of your forsaking the Commandments of the Lord, and thy going after Baalim.

19. And now send, gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel; and the Prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, with those of the Groves four hundred, who eat at Jezebel's Table.

20. Ahab accordingly sent to all the Israelites, and gathered together the Prophets to Mount Carmel.

21. Where Elijah drew nigh to all the People, and said, How long do ye halt in two Opinions? If the Lord is God, go after him; and if Baal, go after him. To which the People did not answer him a Word.

22. He said further to them; I am left a Prophet of the Lord alone; whereas the Prophets of Baal are four hundred and fifty Men.

23. Therefore let them give us two Bulls, and choose them one, and dividing it in pieces, put upon the Wood, but put no Fire; and I will make ready the other, and lay upon the Wood, but put no Fire.

24. Then call you on the Name of your gods, as I will on the Name of the Lord, and let that God who answers by Fire be God.

And all the People made answer, The Proposal is good.

25. Whereupon Elijah said to the Prophets of Baal, Choose for you one Bullock, and make ready first, since you are many; then call on the Name of your gods, but put no Fire.

26. So they took the Bullock that was given them, and made ready, and called on the Name of Baal from Morning till Noon, saying, O Baal, answer us; but there was no Voice, nor any that answered: they also leaped upon the Altar which was made.

27. Nay at Noon Elijah mocked them, and said, Call aloud, since he is a god, and may be musing, either because there is a Pursuit for him, or because there is a Journey for him: perhaps he is asleep, and must be awaked.

28. And they called out aloud, as also cut themselves after their Manner with Swords and Spears, till the Blood gushed out upon them.

29. However when Noon was past, and they had prophesied till the Oblation was to be offered up, and there was no Voice, nor any either answered, or hearkened;

30. Elijah said to all the People, Draw nigh to me: which they did accordingly; and he repaired the Altar of the Lord that was thrown down.

31. He taking twelve Stones according to the Number of the Tribes of the Sons of Jacob; who had this Word of the Lord, Thy Name shall be Israel.

32. And he erected the Stones into an Altar in the Name of the Lord; and made a Trench round about it, like that of a House, for two Seahs of Seed.

33. The Wood too he put in order, and divided the Bullock in pieces, and put upon it.

34. Moreover he said, Fill four Pails with Water, and pour out on the Burnt-offering and the Wood; again he said, Do it the second time, which they did; he likewise said, Do it the third time, and they did so.

35. Thus the Water ran round about the Altar, and he even filled the Trench with it.

Ver. 26. answer] the same Verb that our Translators here render answered, and concurrent with Voice.

Ver. 27. and may] and as at Josh. xiv. 4.

Ib. musing] or in Meditation, as in divers Places of the present Translation. How could they imagine he was talking, and not hear it?

Ib. a Journey for him] literally, as likewise the rest, and so is clear and intelligible; but surely they would not think he was either in a journey, or pursuing, when standing there, nor the Prophet propose what they could not believe.

Ver. 32. that of a House] the same with a House's, according as elsewhere. We had it before turned so widely, it seems, by taking it to be like a House in Bigness; which is an untoward Comparison, but perhaps will not readily appear here again, as two Seahs were but about five Gallons, the Altar being small like a Grate for Fire.

Ver. 34. The King's Translators have here left the Hebrew Division of the Verses, as well as that of the Latin and other English Translators.

36. And when the Oblation was to be offered up, Elijah the Prophet drew nigh, and said; O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, make known to Day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy Servant; who have done all these Things by thy Word.

37. Answer me, O Lord, answer me, for this People to know that thou art the Lord God, and that thou turnest their Hearts backward.

38. At this the Fire of the Lord fell down, and consumed the Burnt-offering, Wood, Stones and Earth; nay licked up the Water that was in the Trench.

39. Which when all the People saw, they fell upon their Faces; and said, The Lord himself is God, the Lord himself is God.

40. And Elijah said to them, Take the Prophets of Baal, let not a Man of them escape. So they took them; whom he had down to the Brook Kishon, and killed them there.

41. After which he said to Ahab, Go up, eat and drink; for there is a Sound of Abundance of Rain.

42. And while Ahab went up, to eat and drink, Elijah went up to the Top of Carmel, and prostrating himself to the Ground, put his Face between his Knees.

43. Next he ordered his young Man, Go up now, look the Way to the Sea: who went up, and when he had looked, did declare, There is Nothing. However he says, Go again, seven times.

44. And at the seventh he said, Behold there is a little Cloud like a Man's Hand coming up from the Sea; then replied he, Go up, tell Ahab, Harness, and go down, that the Rain may not stop thee.

45. Now in the mean while the Heaven was black with Clouds and Wind, and there was a great Rain; and Ahab rode, going to Jezreel.

46. And the Hand of the Lord being on Elijah, he girded up his Loins, and ran before him to the Entrance of it.

BUT Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and all how he slew all the Prophets with the Sword.

2. Whereupon she sent a Messenger to him, threatening, By the gods doing so and so besides, I will make thy Life like one of theirs, to Morrow about this Time.

3. Which he perceiving, got ready, and going for his Life, came to Beer-sheba that belongs to Judah; where he left his young Man.

4. But he himself went into the Wilderness a Day's Journey, and got, and sat down under a Juniper-tree; when intreating with his Soul that he might die, he said, It is a great deal now, O Lord, take away my Life, for I am no better than my Fathers.

5. Under which Tree he lay down, and slept; where behold an Angel touched him, and said to him, Rise up, eat.

6. He then looking, lo there was at his Pillow a Cake baked on the Coals, and a Pot of Water; so he eat, and drank, and lay down again.

7. And the Angel of the Lord returned the second time, and touching him, said, Rise up, eat; because the Journey may be too much for thee.

8. So he rose up, did eat, and drink; in the Strength of which Food he went forty Days and forty Nights, to Horeb the Mountain of God.

9. Whither he came to a Cave, and lodged there; and behold he had the Word of the Lord, who said to him, What Business hast thou here, Elijah?

10. And he answered, I have been thoroughly zealous for the Lord God of Armies, though the Israelites have left thy Covenant, thrown down thy Altars, and slain thy Prophets with the Sword; and I being left alone, they endeavour to take away my Life.

11. At which it was, Go forth, and stand on the Mountain before the Lord; who behold passed by, when a great and

Ver. 36. when] the time being here added, though not distinguished, in the present Translation, as at Ver. 29.

Ver. 42. between] The Posture, I suppose, was upon his Knees at Prayer, with his Face bending down low.

Ver. 43. Sea] Carmel being a Promontory that runs out a great Way into the Sea, Rakwolt's Travels, Part iii. Ch. 1. on the north Side of which is a Bay, of an Hour's Sailing across, and four Hours round by the Land, as Corten pulled it, Compend. Libr. Vol. ii. p. 26, 32. and at the other Side is the City called Acre or St. Jabu de Acre, heretofore Ptolemais; of which three together Maundrell has a fine Delineation.

Ver. 1. and all] of which withall has some Sound, but no Meaning; and all is the same in Hebrew as just before.

Ver. 2. like one of theirs] What noble Translation does our Language sometimes admit of! And then is not to be debased by needless verbal Rendition.

Ver. 4. the Wilderness] that in which Hagar and Ishmael were, Gen. xxi. 14. he going southward to Horeb, Ver. 8.

Ver. 5. where behold] Heb. and behold at this rather Place than Time; especially since the Hebrew Particle is several times used in the former Sense, as Buxtorf and Noldius shew by Instances, particularly the last in his Concordance under וְהִנֵּה which does not appear of the latter.

strong Wind burst the Mountains, and broke the Rocks in pieces before him; the Lord being not in the Wind; and after that there was an Earthquake, the Lord being not in it;

12. After the Earthquake also was a Fire, which the Lord was not in; and after the Fire there was a small Voice in Silence.

13. This when Elijah heard, he wrapt his Face in his Cloak, and going forth, stood at the Entrance of the Cave; and behold there was a Voice to him, that said, What Business hast thou here, Elijah?

14. Who answered, I have been thoroughly zealous for the Lord God of Armies, though the Israelites have left thy Covenant, thrown down thy Altars, and slain thy Prophets with the Sword; and I being left alone, they endeavour to take away my Life.

15. But the Lord said to him; Go back on thy Journey towards the Wilderness of Damascus; and when thou art come, anoint Hazael to be King over Syria.

16. And Jehu the Grandson of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be King over Israel; as thou shalt Elisha the Son of Shaphat, of Abel-meholah, to be a Prophet in thy room.

17. Whereby him who escapes from the Sword of Hazael, shall Jehu kill; and him who escapes from the Sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill.

18. Yet I have seven thousand left in Israel, all whose Knees have not bowed to Baal, and every Mouth of whom has not kissed him.

19. Accordingly he went from thence, and found Elisha the Son of Shaphat, who was ploughing with twelve Yoke before him, and he at the twelfth; so Elijah passed by him, and cast his Cloak on him.

20. With that he left the Oxen, and running after Elijah, said, Let me, I pray, kiss my Father and Mother, and then I will come after thee. Who answered him, Go back, for what have I done to thee?

21. And he returned from after him, and took a Yoke of Oxen, which he killed, and boiled the Flesh of them with their Instruments, and gave to the People, that they might eat; then he got ready, and went after Elijah, ministering to him.

C H A P. XX.

AND Ben-hadad King of Syria gathered together all his Army; there being thirty two Kings with him, as also Horses and Chariots; and going up, he laid siege against Samaria, and fought against it.

2. Moreover he sent Messengers to Ahab King of Israel, into the City,

3. And said to him; Thus says Ben-hadad, Thy very Silver and Gold is mine; and the best of thy Wives and Children themselves are mine.

4. To which the King of Israel made answer, According to thy Word, my Lord O King, I am thine, and all that I have.

5. Then the Messengers came again; and said: Thus Ben-hadad makes reply; Though I have sent to thee, that thou shouldest give me thy Silver, Gold, Wives and Children;

6. Yet about this Time to Morrow, I will send my Servants to thee, who shall search thy House, and the Houses of thy Servants; and all that is desirable in thy Sight, they shall put with them, and take away.

7. Whereupon the King of Israel called all the Elders of the Country, and said, Know now, and see that he is seeking Hurt: for he has sent to me for my Wives, Children, Silver and Gold; which I have not withheld from him.

8. But all the Elders, and all the People advised him, Do not hearken, nor consent.

9. He therefore said to the Messengers of Ben-hadad; Tell my Lord the King, All for which thou didst send to thy Servant at first I will do, but this Thing I cannot do. So they went, and carried him back Word.

10. Upon this Ben-hadad sent to him, and said, By the gods doing to me so and so besides, the Dust of Samaria shall not be sufficient for Handfuls, for all the People who accompany me.

11. Nevertheless the King of Israel made answer; Say, Let not him boast who is girding on, like him who is pulling off.

12. And when he heard this Saying, as he was drinking with the Kings in the Tents, he said to his Servants, Put in order; which they did against the City.

13. Now behold there came a Prophet to Ahab King of Israel, and declared, Thus says the Lord, Hast thou seen all this great

Ver. 12. in Silence] of other Things, or of Elijah himself. So Jun. and Trem. have it, silentio; as the Word is in Job iv. 16. and in Buxtorf's Lexicon. A wise Man, says Seneca, like God himself, does his Business without Noise or Tumult, L'Estrange's Edit. 8. p. 429.

Ver. 16. Grandson] by 2 Kings ix. 2.

Ver. 3. The Verses were here altered in the Bishops Bible.

Ver. 6. with them] Put it in their hand may seem odd to an intelligent Reader, especially as it was first to be taken in the Hand; and the Hebrew evidently signifies no other than I have rendered it.

Multitude? Behold I will deliver it into thy Power to Day, for thee to know that I am the Lord.

14. And Ahab asking, By whom? He replied; Thus says the Lord, By the young Men of the Princes of the Provinces. Who, enquired he, shall set the Battle in order? And he answered, Thou.

15. So he numbered these Men, who were two hundred thirty two; as he did after them the whole People of all the Israelites, seven thousand.

16. And they went out at Noon; while Ben-hadad was getting himself drunk in the Tents, with those thirty two Kings who assisted him.

17. The young Men before mentioned also went out first; and Ben-hadad sending, they told him, that there were Men come out of Samaria.

18. At which he said, If they are come out for Peace, take them alive; or if for War, do the same.

19. Thus these young Men aforesaid going out of the City, and the Army that followed them;

20. They slew their respective Men, so that the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them; Ben-hadad King of Syria escaping upon a Horse, with the Horsemen.

21. The King of Israel too went out, and smote the Horses and Chariots; as likewise slew the Syrians with a great Slaughter.

22. Again the Prophet came to the King of Israel, and said to him, Go, strengthen thy self, and know, and see what thou doest: for at the Return of the Year the King of Syria will come up against thee.

23. And the King of Syria's Servants said to him: Their God is a God of the Hills, therefore they were stronger than we; but should we indeed fight with them in the Plain, shall not we be stronger than they?

24. However do this Thing; Take away the Kings from their several Places, and put Captains in their room.

25. And do thou muster thee an Army like that which is fallen of thine, with other Horses and Chariots like those, and let us fight with them in the Plain; shall not we be stronger than they? And he hearkened to what they said, and did so.

26. Accordingly at the Return of the Year, Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight with Israel.

27. The Israelites likewise were numbered, being compleat, and went to meet them; before whom they encamped like two little Flocks of Goats, whereas the Syrians filled the Country.

28. But a Man of God came, and spoke as follows to the King of Israel; Thus says the Lord, Because the Syrians have said, The Lord is a God of the Hills, yet is not a God of the Vales; therefore will I deliver all this great Multitude into thy Power, and you shall know that I am the Lord.

29. And these encamping over against those seven Days, on the seventh Day the Battle approached, and the Israelites slew of the Syrians a hundred thousand Footmen in one Day.

30. Nay those who were left fleeing to Aphek into the City, there fell a Wall upon twenty seven thousand Men of them; but Ben-hadad fled, and got into the City, to an inner Chamber.

31. And his Servants said to him, Behold now we have heard concerning the Kings of the Family of Israel, that they are kind ones; let us, we pray, put Sackcloth on our Loins, and Ropes on our Heads, and go out to the King of Israel, perhaps he will save thy Life.

32. So they girded Sackcloth on their Loins, having Ropes on their Heads, and coming to the King of Israel, said; Thy Servant Ben-hadad intreats, Save my Life, I beseech thee. And he said, Is he yet alive? He is my Brother.

33. Now the Men conjecturing, made halte and pronounced expressly whether it was from him, repeating, Thy Brother Ben-hadad; and he replied, Go in, fetch him: at which Ben-hadad came out to him, and he made him get up into the Chariot.

34. Who offering him, The Cities which my Father took from thine I will restore, and thou shalt make thee Streets in Damascus, as my Father made in Samaria. Then, says he, I will let thee go by that Covenant: so he made the Covenant with him, and let him go.

Ver. 23. God] as Ver. 28.

Ib. shall not] ~~is~~ making a Question, and ~~it~~ being not; so in Ver. 25.

Ver. 27. compleat] This Hebrew Verb found only besides in Ezek. xxvii. 4, 11. our Translators have rendered there in the like Sense by perfect.

Ver. 28. and you] There is ~~an~~ for [and] in the Hebrew, therefore it should not be in the Italic Print.

Ver. 33. pronounced expressly] That the Verb, being Chaldean and found only here among the Hebrew, does thus signify, see Buxt. Chald. Lex.

Ib. whether it] He being in the Chariot, they might not at first distinctly hear whether he called Ben-hadad his Brother, and so repeated it to be sure, which agrees well with the Context.

Ib. Go in] Agreeable to the Meaning of the Verb, and to Ben-hadad came out.

35. But a certain Man, of the Sons of the Prophets, said to his Neighbour by the Word of the Lord, Smite me, I pray; which the Man refused to do.

36. Whereupon he declared to him, Because thou dost not obey what the Lord says, behold when thou goest from me, a Lion shall slay thee. Accordingly when he went from him, a Lion met with him, and slew him.

37. Afterwards he met with another Man, and said, Smite me, I pray; so the Man did, till he was wounded.

38. The Prophet in the next place went, and staid for the King in the Way, having disguised himself with a Veil over his Eyes.

39. And as the King passed by, he cried out to him in this manner; Thy Servant went out amidst the Battle, and behold a Man turning aside, brought another to me, and said, Keep this Man, if he be at all missing, thy Life shall be for his, or else thou shalt pay a Talent of Silver.

40. But while thy Servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the King of Israel answered him, So shall be thy Judgment, thou hast determined it.

41. He then made haste, and took off the Veil from his Eyes; and the King of Israel knew that he was one of the Prophets.

42. And he declared to him; Thus says the Lord, Because thou hast let the Man of my Curse go out of Custody, therefore both thy Life and the People shall be for his.

43. At this the King of Israel went home, with Distaste and Indignation; and came to Samaria.

CHAP. XXI.

AND after these Things Naboth the Jezreelite having a Vineyard which was in Jezreel, by the Palace of Ahab King of Samaria;

2. He spoke thus to Naboth, Give me thy Vineyard, that I may have it for a Garden of Herbs, because it is near by my House, and I will give thee another for it better than that: or if thou likest it, I will give thee the Price of it in Money.

3. Who answered him, Far be it from me by the Lord, that I should give the Possession of my Fathers to thee.

4. Therefore Ahab went into his House, with Distaste and Indignation, for those Words which Naboth the Jezreelite spoke to him, that he would not give him the Possession of his Fathers; and he lay down upon his Bed, and turning about his Face, would eat no Victuals.

5. With that Jezebel his Wife coming to him, enquired of him, Why does thy Mind turn away, so that thou wilt eat no Victuals?

6. Because, said he to her, I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, Give me thy Vineyard for Money, or if it please thee, I will give thee another for it; and he answered, I will not give thee my Vineyard.

7. Then she replied to him, Thou dost now manage the Kingdom over Israel; rise up, eat some Victuals, and let thy Heart be chearful, I will give thee the Vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8. So she wrote Letters in Ahab's Name, and sealed with his Seal, which she sent to the Elders and Nobles who were in Naboth's City, dwelling with him.

9. And she wrote in them as follows; Proclaim a Fast, and cause Naboth to sit at the Head of the People.

10. Cause also two Men, ungodly Persons, to sit before him, and let them give this Evidence against him, Thou didst blaspheme God and the King; then have him out, and stone him, that he may die.

11. And the Men of his City, the Elders and Nobles who dwelt in it, did as Jezebel sent to them, as it was written in the Letters which she sent to them.

12. They proclaimed a Fast, and caused Naboth to sit at the Head of the People.

13. And there came two Men, ungodly Persons, and sate before him, who gave this Evidence against him before the People, Naboth did blaspheme God and the King; then they had him abroad out of the City, and stoned him with Stones, so that he died.

14. Next they sent Word to Jezebel, Naboth is stoned, and dead.

15. Which when she heard, she said to Ahab, Rise up, possess the Vineyard of Na-

Ver. 38. The Prophet] who, Josephus says, was Micah, Antiq. Lib. viii. 8. spoken of Chap. xxii. & Chap. xxii. 8. favours it.

Ib. with a Veil over his Eyes] לבוש according to the Hebrews being from לבוש a Tunic or Veil, by Transposition of the Letters, a Thing not strange in that Language. So speaks David Kimbi in the Book of Roots; and thus the great Lexicon of Pagnine expounds it; and Leigh in Critica Sacra, with the literal Version of Montanus: as also the Targum has לבוש which has the like Signification. Nay Albes upon his Face may seem absurd, the Original also being Eyes, and not Face.

Ver. 43. with Distaste] Heb. as if turning away; rendered variously, and heavily widely.

Ver. 1. having] for doubtless he had it, as in the common Translation, as well at the Time of and before these Things, as after, Ver. 3. which is therefore improper.

Ver. 5. turn away] as at Chap. xx. ult. but another Word, and more common.

both the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for Money: for he is not alive, but dead.

16. When Ahab too heard that Naboth the Jezreelite was dead, he rose up to go down to his Vineyard, that he might have the Possession of it.

17. But Elijah the Tishbite had the following Commission of the Lord:

18. Get ready, go down to meet Ahab King of Israel, who is at Samaria; behold he will be in the Vineyard of Naboth, whither he is going down to possess it.

19. To whom thou shalt speak as follows; Thus says the Lord, Hast thou killed, and also possessed? Then shalt thou denounce to him; Thus says the Lord, In the Place where the Dogs licked up the Blood of Naboth, shall Dogs lick up the Blood even of thee thy self.

20. And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O my Enemy? Who answered; I have, because thou hast delivered up thy self to do what the Lord is displeased with.

21. Who behold says, I will bring Harm to thee, and take away thy Posterity; as likewise cut off from Ahab the grown Male, with him who is shut up, and him who is left in Israel.

22. Nay I will make thy Family like those of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, and of Baasha the Son of Ahijah, for the Indignation to which thou hast provoked, and for making Israel sin.

23. And also of Jezebel the Lord thus speaks; Dogs shall eat Jezebel by the Fort of Jezreel.

24. Him who dies of Ahab in the City shall the Dogs eat, and him who dies in the Field shall the Fowls of the Air eat.

25. But Ahab was an unparalleled Instance of one who delivered himself up to do what the Lord was displeased with, being set on by Jezebel his Wife.

26. For he did very abominably in going after filthy Idols; according to all that the Amorites did, whom the Lord expelled from the Presence of the Israelites.

27. Nevertheless when Ahab heard these Words, he tore his Cloaths, put Sackcloth upon his Flesh, fasted, lay in Sackcloth, and walked gently.

28. Upon which Elijah the Tishbite had this Word of the Lord,

29. Dost thou see that Ahab is humbled at my Presence? Because he is humbled by reason of me, I will not bring the Harm in his Time, in his Son's Time will I bring it upon his Family.

C H A P. XXII.

AND they abode three Years without any War between Syria and Israel.

2. But in the third Year, Jehoshaphat King of Judah went down to the King of Israel.

3. Who said to his Servants, Do you know that Ramoth-gilead belongs to us? And are we silent from taking it out of the Power of the King of Syria?

4. And when he asked Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to War at Ramoth-gilead? Jehoshaphat answered the King of Israel, I am the same as thou art, my People are the same as thine, my Horses the same as thy own.

5. But added he to him, Enquire, I pray, the Word of the Lord presently.

6. Upon this the King of Israel gathered together the Prophets, about four hundred Men, and said to them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to war, or shall I forbear? And they declared, Go up, and the Lord will deliver it into the King's Power.

7. However Jehoshaphat asked, Is here no Prophet of the Lord yet, of whom we may enquire?

Ver. 19. Place] Dogs licking his Blood was fulfilled on Ahab himself, Chap. xxii. 38. but this Part of the Denunciation to be in that particular Spot of Ground was transferred to his Son, 2 Kings ix. 25, 26. on his own humbling himself, since such Threatenings are to be understood conditionally, as declared Ver. 29.

Ver. 21. Who—says] Which not only the Matter evidences, but Ver. 23. shews; and the like is to be understood elsewhere, and is added in the present Translation.

Ver. 23. speaks] Which being declared by Elijah, 2 Kings ix. 36. appears to be done now; though the present English makes it look as if added by the Historian, however with the Mark for the Beginning of the Paragraph at Ver. 25.

Ver. 28. Upon which] How merciful is the Lord! And withal, as here, how just!

Ver. 29. Because] In the Book called Sad-der in the modern Persian Language, published at the End of Hyde's Hist. Relig. Vet. Persarum, printed at Oxford, 1700, being a Compendium of and Translation from the Zend- avesta of Zoroastres, mentioned on Gen. i. 31. it is related that Zerdusht, as they call Zoroastres, saw a Man plunged in Gehenna or Hell, with one Foot only sticking out; and upon Enquiry, was told he had been the Prince of thirty three Cities, and reigned many Years, with Oppression, Injustice, Pride and Luxury, without doing any one good Action; but once seeing a Sheep caught in a Thicket, so that it would have perished for Want of Food, he was moved with Compassion, and alighting from his Horse, released the Sheep, and had it to the Pasture; for which his Foot remained out of Gehenna. This Exhortation follows it there; 'Endeavour therefore to do all the Good thou canst; for God is kind and merciful, and will reward the very smallest Good thou doest.' Compare Ver. 25, 26. of this Chap. with the following Verses.

Ver. 2. third] the three, Ver. 1. being not whole ones.

Ver. 3. Ramoth-gilead] I know not why the common Translation has Ramoth in Gilead here, and not afterwards, and when it is not so in the Original.

8. And

8. And the King of Israel answered him, There is yet one Man to enquire of the Lord from him; but I hate him, for he does not prophesy well concerning me, but ill, even Micaiah the Son of Imlah. To which Jehoshaphat replied, Let not the King say so.

9. He therefore called an Officer, and said, Make haste for Micaiah the Son of Imlah.

10. Now the King of Israel, and Jehoshaphat King of Judah, sat upon their respective Thrones, suitably cloathed, in the Floor at the Entrance of the Gate of Samaria; and all the Prophets prophesied before them.

11. And Zedekiah the Son of Chenaanah, having made him Horns of Iron, declared; Thus says the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, till thou hast consumed them.

12. All the Prophets likewise prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper, for the Lord will deliver it into the King's Power.

13. So the Messenger who went to call Micaiah, spoke thus to him, Behold now the Words of the Prophets are good with one Consent to the King; let thy Word, I pray, be like that of one of them, and speak thou Good.

14. But Micaiah said, By the Lord's living, what the Lord says to me, I will speak.

15. And coming to the King, he asked him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to war, or shall we forbear? Who answered him, Go thou up, and prosper, since the Lord will deliver it into the King's Power.

16. Yet when the King said to him, How many times shall I require thee to swear, that thou wilt speak to me Nothing but the Truth in the Name of the Lord?

17. He replied; I saw all Israel scattered on the Mountains, as Sheep that have no Shepherd; and the Lord said, These have no Master, let them return to their several Homes in Peace.

18. At which the King of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did not I tell thee, he would not prophesy well concerning me, but ill?

19. Besides he said: Therefore hear thou the Word of the Lord; I saw him sitting upon his Throne, and all the Army of Heaven was standing by him, at his right Hand and at his left.

20. When the Lord said, Who will persuade Ahab, that he may go up, and fall at Ramoth-gilead? Which one proposing in this Manner, and another in that;

21. There came forth a Spirit, and stood before the Lord, who said, I will persuade him; and upon the Lord's asking him, By what?

22. He answered, I will go forth, and be a false Spirit in the Mouths of all his Prophets. And he replied, Thou shalt persuade, and also prevail; go out, and do so.

23. Therefore now behold the Lord has put a false Spirit into the Mouths of all these thy Prophets; and the Lord has spoken ill concerning thee.

24. With that Zedekiah the Son of Chenaanah going nigh, struck Micaiah on the Cheek, and asked, Where was it the Spirit of the Lord passed from me to speak to thee?

25. And Micaiah said, Behold thou wilt see on that Day, in which thou shalt go into an inner Chamber to hide.

26. The King of Israel notwithstanding ordered; Take Micaiah, and have him back to Amon the Governor of the City, and to Joash the King's Son.

27. And tell: Thus says the King, Put this Man into a House of Restraint; and make him live upon both the Victuals and Drink of Oppression, till I come in Peace.

28. Whereas Micaiah said, If thou at all returnest in Peace, the Lord has not spoken by me; hear, added he, all these People.

29. So the King of Israel, and Jehoshaphat King of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

30. And the former said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise my self, and go into the Battle, but do thou put on thy Garments. Accordingly he disguised himself, and went into the Battle.

31. Now the King of Syria had thus commanded the thirty two Captains of the Cha-

Ver. 15. since] since thou art told the Lord will deliver, Ver. 6. not for the Lord shall deliver.

Ver. 22. This Verse and the 43d have been lengthened by the English Translators, from the foregoing and following Verses, of which the latter takes in the whole: that only agrees with the Division of the Septuagint, whom they sometimes followed; but the Alteration of this was made by the King's Translators, though contrary to 2 Chron. xviii. 21.

Ib. go out, and do so] Verbs in the imperative Form sometimes signifying no more than to permit, according to that of the common Latin Grammar: Hic modus etiam permissivus dicitur, &c. This Mood is also called permissive, because sometimes Permissum is signified by it; this might be translated, and is to be understood, thou mayest go out, and do so; like rejoice, Eccles. xi. 9. run, 2 Sam. xviii. 23. and in this very Chap. go, Ver. 15. and the Hebrew Verb for put in the next Verse has a permissive Meaning in several Places of Scripture, where it might be rendered, has let, suffered, or permitted a false Spirit to be.

Ver. 28. those] it being not you.

riots that he had, Do not fight with small or great, but with the King of Israel alone.

32. And when they saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Verily it is the King of Israel, and turned aside to fight against him; at which he cried out.

33. But as soon as they saw that it was not the King of Israel, they turned back from after him.

34. And a Man drawing a Bow undesignedly, hit the King of Israel between the Breast-plate and the Joints; so that he said to his Charioteer, Turn thy Hand, and have me out of the Army: for I am sick.

35. The Battle also came to such a Height that Day, that the King was made to remain in the Chariot before the Syrians; but he died in the Evening, and the Blood was poured out of the Wound into the Bottom of the Chariot.

36. And it was cried thus throughout the Army about Sun-set, Every Man away to his respective City, or Country.

37. Thus the King died, and was brought to Samaria, where they buried him.

38. And the Chariot being rinsed at the Fish-pond of Samaria, the Dogs licked up his Blood, while they were washing the Armour; according to the Word that the Lord had spoken.

39. As for the rest of Ahab's Affairs, and all that he did, including the ivory House together with all the Cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

40. So Ahab lay down with his Fathers, and Ahaziah his Son reigned in his room.

41. Moreover Jehoshaphat the Son of Aśa began reigning over Judah, in the fourth Year of Ahab King of Israel.

42. He was in his thirty fifth Year when he began reigning, and reigned twenty five Years at Jerusalem: whose Mother's Name was Azubah, the Daughter of Shilhi.

43. And he went in all the Way of Aśa his Father, he turned not aside from it, doing what the Lord approved of.

44. Only the Chapels were not taken away; the People did yet sacrifice, and burn incense in them.

45. And Jehoshaphat had Peace with the King of Israel.

46. As to the rest of Jehoshaphat's Affairs, and his Power that he acted with, and with which he fought, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

47. And the rest of the Sodomites who were left in the Time of Aśa his Father, he took away out of the Country.

48. There was now no King in Edom, a Governor being King.

49. Jehoshaphat made Ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for Gold, but they went not, for the Ships were broke at Ezion-geber.

50. Then Ahaziah the Son of Ahab saying to Jehoshaphat, Let my Servants go with thine in Ships; he would not.

51. And Jehoshaphat lay down with his Fathers, being buried with them in the City of his Father David; and Jehoram his Son reigned in his room.

52. Ahaziah the Son of Ahab began reigning over Israel in Samaria, when Jehoshaphat had been seventeen Years King of Judah; and he reigned over it two Years.

53. And he did what the Lord was displeased with; going in the Way both of his Father and Mother, and in that of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, who made Israel sin.

54. For he served Baal, and worshipped him; and provoked the Lord God of Israel, according to all that his Father had done.

Ver. 34. undesignedly] apt, I imagine, for the Heb. in his Integrity.

Ib. the Joints] which fastened on the Breast-plate; thus the Wound being by the Breast, how strangely has Breast-plate being altered to harness!

Ver. 35. Syrians] where the Hebrew Partition is, and surely should not be removed to Disadvantage in a Translation.

Ver. 38. while they were washing] For why should the Washing of the Armour be mentioned else? I don't find this has been properly translated by any before. The Bishops have the washing of the Armour only, according to the Word of the Lord, there being a Colon before. That the Hebrew Van does sometimes signify while, may be seen sufficiently in Noldius's Particles, as well as my Preface. The Word for Armour as here spelled, coinciding with another for Whores, the Seventy turned it so; whom some Moderns have indiscreetly followed, making it and Whores washed, which is gravely expounded to be themselves in the Pond. The vulgar Latin has it more trifling than our vulgar English, and they washed the *Harnes*s, which last Word the College of Douay have still more ridiculous the raynes of the bridle.

Ver. 50. Then] After that Fleet was spoiled, because Jehoshaphat joined with Ahaziah, 2 Chron. xx. 35, 36, 37. Jehoshaphat refused his future Proposal: which is not only so to make those Places agree, but by it then being a Conjunction of Time. This Place being thus translated and explained, will save me the Trouble of refuting Bedford's improbable Notion, that these were two different Accounts, and that the Ahaziah in Chronicles was Jehoram, Scrip. Chron. Lib. vi. 2. 61. I since find Prideaux explaining it to the same Purpose as I had done, that Jehoshaphat sent out the first Fleet with Ahaziah, and a second alone, Connec. An. 740.

Ver. 52. seventeen] See the Notes on the Table of the Kings, and the like at 2 Kings ix. 29.

T A B L E t h e F O U R T H O F S C R I P T U R E C H R O N O L O G Y.

Year of the Jewish Period.	Age of the World.	After the Flood.	Departure from Egypt.	Age of Aaron.	Moses.	Joshua.	Eli.	David.
3214	2530	865	0	83	80	52			The Israelites went from Egypt, and the Law given, Exod. xix. 1.
3215	2531	866	1	84	81	53			Canaan searched, Num. x. 11, 12; & xiii. 3. Deut. ii. 14.
3253	2569	904	39	122	119	91			Aaron and Moses died, Num. xxxiii. 38. Deut. xxxiv. 7.
3254	2570	905	40			92			Israelites entered Canaan, Josh. iv. 19.
3260	2576	911	46			98			Canaan subdued, Josh. xiv. 10.
3271	2587	922	57			109			Joshua died, Josh. xxiv. 30, Judg. ii. 8.
3311	2627	962	97						The Rest by Othniel ended, Judg. iii. 11.
3329	2645	980	115						Servitude under Moab ended, Ver. 14.
3391	2707	1042	177						The End of the second Rest by Ehud, Ver. 30.
3411	2727	1062	197						End of Jabin's Oppression, Chap. iv. 5.
3431	2747	1082	217						The Rest of Deborah ended, Chap. v. 31.
3438	2754	1089	224						Servitude of the Midianites ended, Chap. vi. 1.
3471	2787	1122	257						Gideon died, Chap. viii. 28.
3474	2790	1125	260						Abimelech slain, Chap. ix. 22.
3497	2813	1148	283						Tola died, Chap. x. 2.
3513	2829	1164	299				0		Eli born, 1 Sam. iv. 15.
3519	2835	1170	305				6		Jair died, Ver. 3.
3525	2841	1176	311				12		Jephthah died, Chap. xii. 7.
3530	2846	1181	316				17		The Destruction of Troy.
3532	2848	1183	318				19		Ibzan died, Ver. 9.
3542	2858	1193	328				29		Elen died, Ver. 11.
3550	2866	1201	336				37		Abdon died, Ver. 14.
3570	2886	1221	356				57		Samson died, Chap. xv. 20. & xvi. 31.
3610	2926	1261	396				97		Eli died, 1 Sam. iv. 18.
3621	2937	1272	407					0	David born, 2 Sam. v. 4.
3630	2946	1281	416					9	Saul began to reign, 1 Sam. vii. 2.
3650	2966	1301	436					29	Saul died, Acts xiii. 20, 21.
3657	2973	1308	443					36	David began to reign over all Israel, 2 Sam. v. 4. 1 Kin. ii. 11.
3690	3006	1341	476					69	David ended his Reign, 1 Chron. xxix. 27, 28.
3693	3009	1344	479						Solomon began building the Temple, 1 Kin. vi. 1.

From the Time of the Israelites going out of Egypt, to that of Solomon's laying the Foundation of the Temple, was 479 Years and between two and three Weeks,

1 Kings vi. 1. Exod. xii. 2 Chron. iii. 2. out of which taking the Numbers to be found in Scripture as by the Table, viz.

For Moses	—	40	Years.
Othniel	—	40
Ehud	—	80
Shamgar and Deborah	—	40
Gideon	—	40
Abimelech	—	3
Tola	—	23
Jair	—	22
Jephthah	—	6
Ibzan	—	7
Elon	—	10
Abdon	—	8
Samson	—	20
Eli	—	40
Samuel and Saul	—	40
David	—	40
Solomon	—	3
The whole will be		462

There will then be left for Joshua seventeen, which requires no farther Proof; and Caleb's Speech of his Age, &c. being put between the Account of the Wars and Division of the Country, shews it was then subdued; but Joshua was yet at Gilgal, where the Camp was during the Wars, Josh. iv. 19. & v. 10. & ix. 6. & x. 6, 43. from whence it appears that they were lately over. The Objection which Bedford mentions, Scrip. Chr. L. v. 1. 4. of a long time, Josh. xxiii. 1. easily vanishes, the Hebrew being many days, as in Jer. xiii. 6. where doubtless the Time was not so long. And Joshua was old enough to be the Israelites General the first Year of their going from Egypt, Exod. xvii. 9. As to his being called אֲדָמָה Admah, xxxiii. 11. it may be better rendered Servant than young Man, as in 2 Sam. ix. 9. & xvi. 1. where it is used of Ziba who had fifteen Sons, and seems an old Servant of Saul. Other Sums of Years to be met with may be thus computed: the forty in Judg. iii. 11. from Joshua's Decease, whose Age was the last Period of Years before-mentioned, excepting the eight Years, Ver. 8. included therein; which might begin twenty Years more or less after Joshua's Decease, and so leave Room for what is related in the 1st and 2d Chapters of Judges. So the eighteen Years, Chap. iii. 14. are in the eighty, Ver. 30. only at their Beginning; and the twenty Years, Chap. iv. 3. are to be reckoned in the forty, Chap. v. 31. with the seven, Chap. vi. 1. in the forty, Chap. viii. 28. the End of one Resting-time being counted from the End of the foregoing. As there is no Mention of Years concerning Shamgar, and the Relation of him is after the Conclusion of the eighty Years, that falls under the next forty Years, which Chap. iv. 1. & v. 6. confirm. Those Judges were raised up occasionally, but the following till Jephthah were in a regular Succession, and after him till Samson. The Reason why another Judge did not immediately succeed Jair when he died, appears to be the Troubles the Israelites had from the Ammonites, who having oppressed the two Tribes and half on the other side Jordan eighteen Years, passed over that Year into Canaan, Chap. x. 8, 9. so that the Interval being but part of a Year, does not interrupt the Chronology, belonging to Jephthah's six Years. The 300 Years spoken of Chap. xi. 26. are not to be strictly regarded, being not the Words of the inspired Historian like the rest, but of Jephthah, who needed not to tell the King of Ammon precisely how long the Israelites had dwelt in those Cities, but to make the Time as long as he could by Hundreds of Years, without adding a Hundred; which real Time amounts to 249 Years. Next the Israelites being given into the Power of the Philistines forty Years, Chap. xiii. 1. is to be understood twenty from Abdon's to Samson's Death, and twenty after: for the Philistines had the Mastery in Samson's Time, Chap. xv. 11. who did not overcome with an Army like Ehud, Barak, Gideon and Jephthah, though he did great Exploits as a single Man. The five last Chapters of the Book of the Judges contain two Stories misplaced, which were transacted earlier, as we may find by Chap. xviii. 1. & Ver. 12. compared with xiii. 25. and xix. 10, 11, 12. compared with i. 8. & xx. 28.

Sir John Marsham, and others after him, have imagined the Judges to belong only to a Part of the Country, and so two of them to have been at the same Time, in different Divisions, which they make four, eastern, &c. But this is to me quite improbable, being without any Hints of such a Thing through the History of so many Persons; in the next place it throws all their Times into Uncertainty, when the Scripture has been so exact concerning the Numbers of their Years successively; and to what Purpose, if not successive? While perhaps this was devised only to avoid some Difficulties which are here removed.

Usher making the Judges to succeed one another, however takes away the twenty Years from Samson, and ascribes twenty one to Samuel, besides forty to Saul: whereas Samson is twice said to judge Israel twenty Years, Judg. xv. 20. & xvi. 31. like the rest of the Judges in Chap. x. & xii. and the forty Years which ended at Saul's Death, Acts xiii. 21. appear to succeed those of the Judges, and begin with Samuel's Administration, especially as the Original Word is מִשְׁמָר, and from thence. I find further that Jonathan the Son of Saul was old enough to command Part of the Army at the Entrance of his Father's Reign, 1 Sam. xiii. 1, 2. when he was probably at least about twenty, and the Father about forty Years of Age; and who can believe that Saul was about fourscore at his Death? Since there is no Mention of his being old, and the Account of his going to the Witch and being in the Battle is unsuitable to such an Age, 1 Sam. xxviii. 8, 20, 25. & xxxi. 3, 4. much more his being swifter than an Eagle, and stronger than a Lion, 2 Sam. i. 23. considering too what is said of that Age, Psa. xc. 10. 2 Sam. xix. 32, 35. Usher again varies in reckoning ten Years between Gideon's Death and Abimelech's Reign; of which there is not the least Sign, but the contrary in choosing a Successor to Gideon from among his Sons, Judg. ix. and continuing the Chain of Chronology through the Time of the Judges. On the other hand he begins the forty Years of Rest ending with Othniel's Death, from the first Rest procured by Joshua, as he himself terms it, six Years after the Entrance into Canaan; but as it is from the Beginning of that first Rest, it utterly confounds them together, and becomes absurd. Note, Bedford has taken some of Usher's Numbers wrong into the 41st Table of his Scripture Chronology; and for the Computation here used, I find the Judgment of no less a Man than Lightfoot, Vol. I. p. 43. and Huet says, 'from the Death of Eli, when the Ark was taken, to the Death of Saul, must be forty Years,' Hist. of the Holy Bible, Book vi.

When we come into the 1st Book of Samuel, after Eli's forty Years, we meet with twenty in Chap. vii. 2. which seems not a little to have puzzled Interpreters; because David brought the Ark from Kirjath-jearim forty seven Years after, when he had been made King over all Israel. Cowley indeed on his Davidis, B. iv. n. 13. where he mentions several improbable Opinions, reckoning thirty Years to Samuel's Government and ten to Saul's, puts the Beginning of these twenty to be three Years before Saul's Reign; but instead of twenty seven Years after Samuel began to govern, it appears not to be quite one, 1 Sam. vi. 1. Others have imagined, it seems, that it was twenty Years after Eli died, before Samuel took the Government on him, doing what is related after the 2d Verse, where the twenty Years are mentioned. But there is no necessary Connection between them, besides the latter being put next after the former; which two first Verses might better have been divided into the foregoing Chapter. Moreover it is plain that Samuel succeeded Eli presently or soon after, Chap. iii. 20. Acts xiii. 20. 1 Sam. iv. 1. compared with Chap. vii. 3. It is not said that Samuel spoke or did what follows at the End of twenty Years, but that the Ark abode so long in Kirjath-jearim; that is, as I compute, the twenty Years of Samuel's governing, who wrote this History after he had laid that Office down; during which Time the Israelites lamented after the Lord, they trusting in his Ark for their Protection, Chap. iv. 3. till they got a King to trust in, Chap. viii. 20. thus they grieved for their own Self-guard; guard; nay as soon as Saul was King, they seem to have fetched it, and carried it back again, Chap. xi. 15: as was done afterwards upon Occasion, Chap. xiv. 18. So Howel says, 'that twenty Years must be referred to the Time of the single Administration of Samuel in the Government,' History of the Holy Bible, B. vi.

Before I go on to the Reign of David, I would take notice of a Passage in the Acts of the Apostles, which Book is very ill translated. That at present stands thus, Chap. xiii. 20. after that he gave unto them Judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years; which must be wrong, since from Joshua until Samuel it was but 339 Years: and if it were to be reckoned from the going out of Egypt, which the Words will not bear, as those Years were after Canaan was divided, and the forty Years in the Wilderness were named before, the whole is but 396, which could have been counted at most but 400; yet Usher himself reckons those Years either from the Birth of Isaac, or Rejection of Ishmael, or both, to the Conquest of Canaan by Joshua, even though they are said to begin after that. The Translation therefore should be in this Manner, as it were four hundred and fifty Years; in very well and properly signifying as it were, or as if it were; which Broughton frequently, and earnestly, pleads for in his Works to be rendered after a sort; and Bedford has it after a manner. Besides if we observe from whence the 450 Years were taken, we may be fully satisfied of this translating; by collecting together the Years of the Israelites suffering in the Time of the Judges, under Mesopotamia,	8	—	Chap. iii. 8.

the Moabites,	18	—	Ver. 14.
Canaanites,	20	—	Chap. iv. 3.
Midianites,	7	—	Chap. vi. 1.
Ammonites,	18	—	Chap. x. 8.
Philistines,	40	—	Chap. xiii. 1.

the Total of which is 111, and adding it to the real Time of the Judges 339, we have this 450 Years. It seems that this false Quantity had been received by the Jews for the true Space of Time that the Judges ruled, or at least by those Jews of Antioch, in whose Synagogue Paul was then preaching: which is no Wonder, since the Numbers of Years in the Book of the Judges would be very difficult to compute of themselves, and rather seem 450 than 339 Years; nay it is asserted in the Assembly's Annotations, the Judges did govern so long: the Jewish Writers were also very ignorant in Chronology, and withal very bold, of which Instances enow might be given; and what adds sufficient Weight to this, is Josephus counting it in the like erroneous Manner, Antiq. L. viii. 2. It would not therefore have been well for Paul to contradict those Jews in such a small Matter, who were so willing to hear the Gospel preached, by which they might have been hindered from receiving it. Thus it was very prudent to say as it were 450 years, because it seemed so to them. He likewise comprehended the Years of Samuel in the forty he attributed to Saul, as he did the 111 in those 450.

Within David's Reign occurs also a Number, which has afforded no little Difficulty, viz. the forty in 2 Sam. xv. 7. which I presume must be referred to the Beginning either of Saul's or David's Reign, for Absalom himself could not be so old, 2 Sam. iii. 3. though Howel writes, it is more likely they commenced from his Birth, Hist. of the Holy Bible, B. vi. If the first, Absalom's Rebellion was when his Father had reigned twenty Years in all, seven in Hebron and thirteen in Jerusalem, at which Time Absalom, being his third Son born in Hebron, 1 Chron. iii. 2. would be less than twenty Years of Age; out of which allowing a competent Time for him to ingratiate himself with the People, which seems at least to be some Years, and subtracting the two whole Years he was at Jerusalem, 2 Sam. xiv. 28. the three at Geshur, Chap. xiii. 38. and the two before, Ver. 23. to compute his Age when Tamar was ravished by Amnon; we shall find him much too young to be a Housekeeper to receive Tamar, and manage so subtilly as he did, Ver. 20. He would be also too young for the Murder of Amnon, and to have four Children, Chap. xiv. 27. and notwithstanding his having three Sons, it appears that he was a considerable, or rather long Time, without any one, by their dying, for which reason he set up a Statue or Pillar to preserve his Name; Chap. xviii. 18. All which concurring Circumstances; with his Daughter being a fair Woman, Chap. xiv. 27. plainly indicate Absalom to be far more than twenty, I may say not much less than forty; Years old at his Death.

But dating the forty Years with the Reign of David, all these Objections are removed, and I trust so may the new ones which will arise, without altering the forty Years to four, as in some Copies of the vulg. Latin, &c. David reigning forty Years and six Months; Chap. v. 5. might be his actual reigning, before which there must be some Time back to the Death of Saul, from whence his Reign otherwise was dated; nay we find that he and his Men dwelt in Hebron before he was made King there, 2 Sam. ii. 3. which Time added to the six Months, and what might be included under the Term, agreeable to the like Expression, 2 Kings xviii. 10. Jer. xxxiv. 14. with Exod. xxi. 2. may be sufficient for Absalom's usurping the Kingdom, before David resigned the Government to Solomon. Jun. and Trem. render this Place with only before forty Years, and expound it also of David's Reign, as likewise Abarbanel, Peter Martyr, &c. see Buxtorf's Anticritica, p. 1104. and for the same Poole's Annot. and Allen's Chain of Scripture Chronology. As to what follows the Story of Absalom in the 2d Book of Samuel, we shall find it to be Relations of Matters done mostly before Absalom's War. The History of David's Troubles from the 12th to the 21st Chap. seems annexed to the 12th, to shew the Punishment of his Sin, and the Fulfilling of the Threatening denounced against him, Chap. xii. 10, 11, 12. after which the Historian went back to gather up some Particulars that were remarkable, and not to be lost, as in the five last Chapters of Judges. The fetching, and burying, Saul's and Jonathan's Bones, was probably but a few Years after their Death, yet following the three Years of Famine, Chap. xxi. 14. which with Chap. xxii. 1. compared with Chap. vii. 1. and Chap. xxi. 8, 9. with xvi. 8. shew what is told in Chap. xxi. to have been in Order of Time long before. And the last Chapter will be put back with it: for the seven Years of Famine offered to David, Ver. 13. are three Years, 1 Chron. xxi. 12. which how is it to be understood, but that this was in the Year after the three Years of Famine aforesaid, so that three Years more (in which we may reckon the Parts of that Year) would make seven? Or that this was in the last of the three Years, and one of the seven would be sabbatical? Moreover Gad being David's Seer, shews it was not in the last Part of his Reign: for of Gad there is early Mention, and his being then a Prophet, 1 Sam. xxii. 5. and that he lived not till the Time of Solomon, is evident, because writing the History of his Time, as the Manner was then, he wrote the Acts of David, i. e. some of them, like Samuel, 1 Chron. xxix. 29. but not of Solomon, as Nathan did, 2 Chron. ix. 29. nor do we find him named in David's latter Days known to be such, particularly in 1 Kings i. 7, 8, &c. where, had he been living, we might expect to find Mention made of him. Nay the Word again, 2 Sam. xxiv. 1. may shew it has Relation to Chap. xxi. 1. which is what was, as the Mathematicians say, to be proved.

David's Want of Heat might be owing to some Disease, which has been supposed to be a dead Palsy, as well as old Age, 1 Kings i. 1. notwithstanding he might be able not long before to flee from Absalom (though by Psa. lxxi. old then) whose setting himself up to be King, might also put his next Brother upon it soon after, 1 Kings i. 6. as it had done Sheba, 2 Sam. xx. 1. as likewise Joab's Affront, 2 Sam. xix. 13. might cause him to promote it, and join with him, 1 Kings ii. 28. both which would more likely be that Year, than some Years after. And David having ten Concubines at once, 2 Sam. xv. 16. and yet Abishag sought for to keep him warm, intimates his aforesaid Illness to be soon after he put them away because of Absalom, Chap. xx. 3. otherwise he would doubtless have had more, and such as were fit to cherish him in old Age, without seeking for Abishag. David's being appointed by Samuel, as Usher, Lightfoot, and Carpzov suppose, or Saul's slaying the Priests, according to Jerome, &c. do neither of them seem likely to be a Date or Epocha to reckon the forty Years from; besides besides would render the Number quite useless, as it would not settle or shew the Time of any Thing, and so be unworthy of the holy Scripture. But this Number is extraneous to the main Chronology; and Bedford has nothing of it in his large Chronology, by reason of the Difficulty, as may be thought; yet of other Opinions, and their Reasons, see Buxtorf's Vindication, p. 1003—1010.

From the Time that Rahab the Harlot was saved, who was the Mother of Boaz, Mat. i. 5. to David's Birth, was 367 Years, and if we allow the sixty seven to Rahab before she bore Boaz, there will be for him, Obed and Jesse, 100 each when their said Sons were born, every one of which was a great Age. Therefore the Time of the Judges could not be about 450 Years, which would make each of the Men about 130 Years old, and Rahab 100, when they had a Son, which is incredible. In Confirmation of the former, Jesse was an old Man in King Saul's Days, 1 Sam. xvii. 12. yet lived many Years after David his youngest Son was born, Chap. xxii. 3. as likewise Boaz appears to have been old, when he married Ruth, Book iii. 10. which History (that I find Usher in his large accurate Chronology say Nothing of) falls thus in the Time of Deborah, and is according to the Mind of Vorslius on Gantz Chron. p. 219. and not as Josephus says, under the Government of Eli, Antiq. Lib. v. 11. above 150 Years after.

I have only to subjoin, that Rehoboam being the Son of forty one Years, i. e. entered his 41st Year, as Gen. v. 32. at the End of his Father's forty Years Reign, 1 Kings xiv. 21. yet Solomon might not be married till after David died (which might be very soon after his Son's Accession to the Throne) if he reigned almost forty one, and Rehoboam was little more than forty Years old. For it is not very probable that Solomon married an Ammonitess, Rehoboam's Mother, 1 Kings xiv. 21, 31. while David lived; which is charged on him for a Crime, and besides the Ammonites were David's great Enemies: accordingly I find him contracted to a Wife the same Day his Mother crowned him, Cant. iii. ult. which may be supposed soon after his Father's Death or Burial, and the Marriage quickly after that. So that we must drop our present Translation, Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, 1 Kings xiv. 21. 2 Chron. xii. 13.

As it appears that the noted Destruction of Troy by the Greeks was 408 Years before the Beginning of the Olympiads, by Diodorus Siculus, Pref. & Lib. xiv. Dionysius Halicarnassensis, Antiq. Lib. ii. Solinus, Polyhist. Cap. 2. &c. so the Reigns of the Trojan Kings before being thus,

	Y.	Am.	Jul. Per.
Dardanus — —	65	65	3234
Erichonius — —	46	111	3299
Tros — — —	49	160	3345
Ilus — — —	40	200	3394
Laomedon — —	44	244	3434
Priamus — —	52	296	3478

they reach to twenty Years after the Israelites went from Egypt; Tenetus, the Father-in-law of Dardanus, the Length of whose Reign is unknown, having founded the Kingdom of Troy, Virgil's Æn. iii. 108, 109.

To the same may be referred the famous Antiquities of Italy and Rome, as Æneas with some of the Trojans who escaped at the Overthrow of the City, sailing to Italy, he and his Successors reigned there as follows, according to Dionysius of Halicarnassus, Rom. Antiq. Lib. i.

	Y.	Am.	Jul. Per.
Æneas began reigning after } the Fall of Troy — —	3	3	3530
Æneas reigned — —	3	6	3533
The Reign of Ascanius — —	38	44	3536
Sylvius — — —	29	73	3574
Æneas — — —	31	104	3603
Latinus — — —	51	155	3634
Alba — — —	39	194	3685
Capetus — — —	26	220	3724
Capys — — —	28	248	3750
Calpetus — — —	13	261	3778

	Y.	Am.	Jul. Per.
Tiberinus — —	8	269	3791
Agrippa — —	41	310	3799
Allades — —	19	329	3840
Aventinus — —	37	366	3859
Procas — — —	23	389	3896
Amulius — —	42	431	3919
Numitor — —	1	432	3961

Dionysius not only gives these Particulars, Lib. i. Cap. 7, 8. but in the Beginning of Chap. 9. says Romulus and Remus built Rome 432 Years after the taking of Troy, in the first Year of the 7th Olympiad, quoting likewise for it Porcius Cato and Erastosthenes; which was indisputably the 3962d of the Julian Period; Eusebius also putting the first Year of Romulus at the same time in his Chronicon. And though Plutarch in the Life of Romulus, relates that he founded Rome two Years before, in the third of the 6th Olympiad; he might be misled by Tarrutius, whom he there speaks of, a conceited Calculator of Romulus's Nativity, who pretended to know by the Actions of his Life, that he was conceived and born at such a Day there mentioned, suitable with a Position of the Heavens to his Fancy. But Romulus being eighteen Years old, when he began reigning and laid the Foundation of the City, according to Fabius, cited by Dionysius, Lib. i. 10. and as he says all who had written of his Affairs agreed, Lib. ii. 6. at the End; then by Computation, if Romulus was born in the second Year of the 2d Olympiad, as Tarrutius calculated, he would be but seventeen Years old in the third Year of the 6th Olympiad. Besides that it is added, there was a total or great Eclipse of the Sun when Romulus was conceived, in the Year before his Birth: whereas Dacier observes, in his Notes on this Place of Plutarch, that Astronomers say there was a great Solar Eclipse on the 11th of the Month Athyra, answering to November, in the second Year of the 2d Olympiad, but none the Year before; and Alstedius has the Eclipse the 7th of May following in 7 gr. 8 about Noon, Chronolog. 4. at which Time if Romulus was conceived, he would be 18 the first of the 7th Olympiad as before. Sir John Marsham also declares, Can. Chron. ad Secul. 16. that the Reckoning of Varro, as he words it, Tarrutium hunc auctorem habent, has this Tarrutius for its Author (as indeed Plutarch relates, that Varro set him to calculate the Nativity of Romulus) Authority doubtless weak enough! The same Dionysius also saying, Lib. ii. 6. sub fin. that Romulus reigned thirty seven Years, and lived fifty five, makes mention of another Eclipse of the Sun at his Death; put by Alsted on May 26, in the 3999th Year of the Julian Period, Chron. 4. agreeing with what goes before.

The same great and diligent Historian proceeds, Lib. i. 9. sub fin.

	Y.	Am.	Jul. Per.
Romulus reigned — —	37	37	3962
An Interregnum — —	1	38	3999
Numa Pompilius — —	43	81	4000
Tullus Hostilius — —	32	113	4043
Ancus Martius — — —	24	137	4075
Tarquinius Priscus — —	38	175	4099
Servius Tullius — — —	44	219	4137
Tarquinius Superbus —	25	244	4181

The Beginning of the Government by Consuls who succeeded, Dionysius accordingly counts to the first Year of the 68th Olympiad; which he proves from the taking of Rome by the Gauls 120 Years after, being by the Consent of almost all Authors at the first Year of the 95th Olympiad: a Census, or Valuation, for a Tax and Register, being made, as he writes, ἀντίσταντος ἑκὸς τῆς ἀπόσεως, in the second Year before the City was taken; which was recorded in the Tables of the Censors, to be in the 119th Year after the Kings were expelled. Livy likewise writes at the End of his first Book, Regnum Romæ ab urbe condita ad liberatam annos 244. Kingly Government at Rome from the Building of the City to the Deliverance was 244 Years. And towards the Conclusion of the fifth Book, in the Speech of Furius Camillus, when the City lay in Ruins by the Gauls, there is trecentessimus sexagesimus sexagesimus quintus Urbis agitur, it is now the 365th Year of the City.

In the Chronicon of Eusebius it is written, that Janus, Saturnus, Picus, Faunus, Latinus reigned in Italy before Æneas about 150 Years: the particular Years of whom from Helicæus, including the Time of Saturn in that of Janus, are thus.

	Y.	Am.	Jul. Per.
Janus ———	33	33	3383
Picus ———	37	70	3416
Faunus ———	44	114	3453
Latinus ———	36	150	3497

which may be applied to the Times of the Judges of Israel, by that Table.

The Succession of the Athenian Kings is also to be settled by this remarkable Time, which is as follows from Eusebius in Chron. and the Marmora Arundeliana, with Pausanias in Atticis.

	Y.	Am.	Jul. Per.
Cecrops Diphys ———	50	50	3157
Cranaus ———	9	59	3207
Amphiſyon ———	10	69	3216
Erichthonius ———	50	119	3226
Pandion I. ———	40	159	3276
Erichtheos ———	50	209	3316
Cecrops II. ———	40	249	3366
Pandion II. ———	25	274	3406
Egeos ———	48	322	3431
Theseos ———	30	352	3479
Menestheos ———	24	376	3509
Demophoon ———	33	409	3533
Oxyntes ———	12	421	3566
Aphydas ———	1	422	3578
Thymætes ———	8	430	3579
Melanthus ———	37	467	3587
Codrus ———	21	488	3624
A Vacancy of Government 1	489		3625

The applying this to the Julian Period partly depends on what is shewn by the Arundelian Marbles at Oxford (composed, as Newton says, sixty Years after the Death of Alexander the Great, Chron. Ch. 1.) that Troy was taken in the 22d Year of Menestheos, as at the End of Exod.

by which Cecrops began that Kingdom, as I compute, fifty seven Years before the Israelites came out of Egypt.

That Cecrops reigned about the Time of Triopas King of the Argives, who began reigning at the Year of the Jul. Per. 3159, as at the End of Exod. may appear by Tatian, Orat. ad Græcos, p. 132. Clem. Alexandrinus, Stromat. Lib. i. and Eusebius, Præp. Evang. Lib. vi. 9. And that Cecrops began reigning in the Time of Marathon King of Sicyon, whose Reign commenced An. Jul. Per. 3155, by the Table following Exod. Cæsar relates, in Euseb. Chron. Lib. i.

Afterwards Athens was governed by Archons, of whom the following is the Catalogue while they held it for Life:

	Y.	Am.	Jul. Per.
Medon ———	20	509	3646
Acastus ———	36	545	3666
Archippus ———	19	564	3702
Therſippus ———	41	605	3721
Porbas ———	31	636	3762
Mecades ———	30	666	3793
Diognetus ———	28	694	3823
Phereclus ———	19	713	3851
Ariphron ———	20	733	3870
Thespicius ———	27	760	3890
Agamæster ———	20	780	3917
Æschylus ———	23	803	3937
Alcmaeon ———	2	805	3960

They had then seven Archons for ten Years each, which extended to the Year of the Jul. Per. 4032, the 16th Year of Manasseh King of Judah by my Reckoning, from which their Government was annual. The first of those seven Archons being named Charops, Dionysius, Lib. i. 9. says Rome was built in the first Year of his Government, that was the first of the 7th Olympiad: with which the foregoing Catalogue also precisely agrees. After those Cress was the first yearly Archon, from whom, Africanus reckoning the 903d Year to the 250th Olympiad, when Gratus Severianus and Claudius Seleucus were Consuls at Rome, An. Dom. 221, and of the Julian Period 4934, at which Time his Chronicon ended, Syncl. p. 212. consequently Cress was Archon, An. Jul. Per. 4032, as before.

NOTES upon the SECOND BOOK of the KINGS.

CHAP. I.

AND Moab rebelled against Israel after the Death of Ahab.

2. Besides Ahaziah fell down through a Lattice in his Chamber that was in Samaria, and was ill; therefore he sent Messengers, bidding them go, enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, whether he should recover from that Illness.

3. Upon which the Angel of the Lord said to Elijah the Tishbite; Get ready, go up to meet the Messengers of the King of Samaria, and say to them; Is it because there is no God at all in Israel, that you go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

4. And therefore thus says the Lord, Thou shalt not come down from the Bed whither thou art gone up, but shalt quite die. Accordingly Elijah went.

5. At this the Messengers returned to him; who asked them, Why are you come back?

6. Whom they answered: There came up a Man to meet us, and said to us; Go back to the King who sent you, and tell him, Thus says the Lord, Is it because there is no God at all in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? Therefore thou shalt not come down from the Bed whither thou art gone up, but shalt quite die.

7. And he enquired of them, What Manner of Man was it who came up to meet you, and spoke to you these Words?

8. And they answered him, He was a hairy Man, wearing a leathern Girdle on his Loins; It is, replied he, Elijah the Tishbite.

9. Then he sent to him a Captain of Fifty with his Fifty; who went up to him, when behold he was sitting upon the Top of the Mountain, and said to him; O Man of God, the King says, Come down.

10. But Elijah made answer to him, If I am then a Man of God, let Fire come down from Heaven, and consume thee and thy Fifty; which it did accordingly.

11. Again also he sent to him another Captain of Fifty with his Fifty; who spoke in this manner to him; O Man of God, thus says the King, Come down quickly.

12. Whereupon Elijah made reply to them, If I am a Man of God, let Fire come down from Heaven, and consume thee and thy Fifty; which the Fire of God did accordingly.

13. He likewise again sent a Captain of the third Fifty with his Fifty; and that Captain going up, went, and kneeled down upon his Knees before Elijah, and besought him in the following manner; O Man of God, let my Life, I beseech thee, and the Lives of these thy fifty Servants be precious in thy Sight.

14. Behold there came Fire down from Heaven, and consumed the two Captains of the former Fifties and their Fifties; now therefore let my Life be precious in thy Sight.

15. And the Angel of the Lord said to Elijah, Go down with him, be not afraid of his Presence: so he arose, and went down with him to the King.

16. To whom he declared; Thus says the Lord, Forasmuch as thou hast sent Messengers to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron (is it because there is no God at all in Israel to enquire his Word?) therefore

Ver. 3. no God at all] This which the doubling of the Negative, like that of the Heb. Verb, as on Gen. iii. 4. may well signify, makes proper Sense; which is spoiled, together with the Idiom of the Original, by putting one Negative to because. Thus according to Lewis de Dieu here, two Negatives are in. Heb. magis negare, to deny the more.

Ver. 6. Go back,] So the Hebrew Accents shew it should be pointed, there being a Minister at Go, and a King at back; notwithstanding Burton's Gram. Lib. ii. Cap. 23. as well as our English, quite inverts their Sense and Power: that it is to be rendered only back or again, need not be shewn to any who know the Hebrew, or will consult every Burton's Lexic. on the Word, and consider the plain Meaning of what was said, and that to the King belongs to Go, and not that the Messengers were bid go any where else; so that the proper Distinction is between the Command and the Circumstance of it.

Ver. 10. Then] For its being thus posited, and not as in the common English, the Hebrew of it is before that for If. 1b. consume thee and thy Fifty] For they were not improbably wicked Miscreants, willingly and frequently employed, as might be now intended, to take and kill the Prophets of the Lord, as 1 King. xviii. 4. and who deserved to die for being Idolaters, Ver. 2. according to the Law, Deut. xiii.

Ver. 14. consumed] as Ver. 10, 12. being the same Verb.

Ver. 16. his Word] what he says, as we say enquire the Way; so 1 King. ult. 5.

thou

thou shalt not come down from the Bed whither thou art gone up, but shalt quite die.

17. So he died according to the Word of the Lord that Elijah spoke; afterwards Jehoram obtained the Kingdom in his room, in the second Year of Jehoram the Son of Jehoshaphat King of Judah; for he had no Son.

18. As for the rest of Ahaziah's Affairs which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

CHAP. II.

NOW when the Lord would take up Elijah by a Whirlwind to Heaven, he and Elisha went from Gilgal.

2. But Elijah said to him, Stay here, I pray, for the Lord sends me to Beth-el; at which Elisha protested, By the Lord's living and thy own, I will not leave thee: so they went down to Beth-el.

3. And the Sons of the Prophets who were there came forth to Elisha, and said to him, Dost thou know that the Lord will take away thy Master from thy Head to Day? Who answered, Yes, I do; hold your peace.

4. Again Elijah said to him, Elisha, stay here, I pray, for the Lord sends me to Jericho; at which he protested, By the Lord's living and thy own, I will not leave thee: so they came to Jericho.

5. The Sons of the Prophets likewise who were there came nigh to Elisha, and said to him, Dost thou know that the Lord will take away thy Master from thy Head to Day? Who answered, Yes, I do; hold your peace.

6. Elijah also said to him, Stay here, I pray, for the Lord sends me to Jordan; at which he protested, By the Lord's living and thy own, I will not leave thee: so they both went.

7. And fifty Men of the Sons of the Prophets went, and stood at a great distance off, while they two stood by Jordan.

8. Then Elijah took his Cloak, and wrapping it together, struck the Water, which parted in the midst hither and thither; and both of them passed over on dry Land.

9. And when they were gone over, Elijah said to Elisha, Ask for what I shall do for thee, before I am taken from thee; and Elisha said, Let me then have, I pray, a double Portion of thy Spirit.

10. To this he replied, Thou hast asked for a hard Thing: if thou see'st me taken from thee, it will be so to thee; but if not, it will not be.

11. And as they went on, talking as they went, behold there was a Chariot and Horses each of Fire, which made a separation between those two; and Elijah went up by a Whirlwind to Heaven.

12. Which Elisha seeing, cried out, My Father, my Father! the Chariot of Israel, and the Horsemen of it; and he saw him no more: so he took hold of his own Garments, and tore them in two Pieces.

13. Afterwards he took up the Cloak of Elijah that fell off from him, and going back, stood at the Bank of Jordan.

14. This he took, and striking the Water, said, Where is the Lord God of Elijah? It is even he; and when he struck the Water, it parted in the midst hither and thither, so that he passed over.

15. Therefore the Sons of the Prophets, who were in Jericho at a distance, seeing him, declared, The Spirit of Elijah does rest

Ver. 17. obtained the Kingdom] For he began reigning several Years before, Chap. iii. 5. and Jehoram the Son of Jehoshaphat King of Judah began to reign in his fifth Year, Chap. viii. 16. as Bedford also places it in his Table, p. 690. but I find from him no Resolution of this Difficulty or Text, either in the History, Table, or Index. The Case seems to be thus, that Jehoshaphat had some Part of the Kingdom of Israel, which after his Death was restored to this their King Jehoram: for Jehoshaphat is not only called King of Israel, 2 Chron. xxi. 2. but it is read of his ordering the People, from Beer-sheba (in the Tribe of Simeon, Josh. xix. 2.) to Mount Ephraim, 2 Chron. xix. 4. and their Return to the Kingdom of Israel might be occasioned by Jehoram King of Judah's slaying their Princes, 2 Chron. xxi. 4.

What Lightfoot has invented is very unsatisfactory; that Jehoram the Son of Jehoshaphat was made King, when his Father was going to War with Ahab at Ramoth-gilead, 2 King. ult. and this was the second Year of his so reigning, Idem. of Old Test. for as he grants Jehoshaphat returned the Government again when he came back, and would have it that he constituted Jehoram King a second Time, several Years after; it is incredible such former reigning should be made a Date of Computation, and especially when there was no second Year in it, that with Ahab being a very short Expedition; and even Jehoram's is not reckoned so, 2 Chron. xxvi. 21. 2 King. xv. 5. yet Usher has the like with Lightfoot.

Ver. 7, 15. at a distance] Heb. from before; and rendered in the com. Trans. afar off, Chap. iv. 25. far off, Num. ii. 2. far, Judg. ix. 17. aloof from, Psal. xxxviii. 11.

Ver. 14. even he] which agrees exactly with the Heb. and there is a Stroke called Legarme for a Pause, between this and the next, the next also being and: though this may be a new Discovery (as it is to me) it may prove so far the right, that no other will answer by much so near to the Expression of the Original, nor indeed at all; and the Meaning now is apparent, and very good, that Elisha being sensible of the Divine Presence there, expressed it thus. The Hebrew for even he being aph bu, and the LXX among the rest not knowing what to make of it, joined the two Words wrong together, and that to the foregoing, which a great Hebrew Point separates, putting in their Translation aph bu, the Vulg. Lat. has even now, but the Heb. Word does not signify now; several of the modern Versions place it to that before, others torture it like our English.

upon

upon Elisha. So they went to meet him, bowing down to the Ground to him.

16. And they said to him, Behold now there are with thy Servants fifty valiant Men, let them go, we pray, and seek after thy Master, lest the Spirit of the Lord should have taken him up, and cast him on one of the Mountains, or in one of the Vallies. But he said, Do not send.

17. However they being urgent on him a good while, he said, Send. So they sent fifty Men, who fought three Days, but could not find him.

18. Upon whose returning to him, for he staid at Jericho, he said to them; Did not I tell you, Do not go.

19. And the Men of the City related to Elisha, Behold now the Situation of the City is good, as our Lord does see; but the Water is bad, and the Land barren.

20. With that he said, Fetch me a new Dish, and put in Salt there; which they fetched to him.

21. Next going forth to the Spring of the Water, he threw in the Salt there, and said; Thus says the Lord, I cure this Water; there shall be no more henceforth Death, or Barrenness.

22. Thus the Water has been cured to this Day, according to the Word that Elisha spoke.

23. Moreover he went up from thence to Beth-el: and as he was going up in the Way, there came little Lads out of the City, and scoffed at him in this manner, Get thee up, Bald-pate, get thee up, Bald-pate.

24. And he turned behind him, and looking at them, cursed them in the Name of the Lord; upon which two Bears came out of the Wood, and tore forty two Children of them.

25. He further went from thence to Mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

C H A P. III.

AND Jehoram the Son of Ahab began reigning over Israel in Samaria, when Jehoshaphat had been eighteen Years King of Judah; and he reigned twelve Years.

2. He also did what the Lord was displeased with, but not like his Father and Mother: for he put away the Statue of Baal that his Father made.

3. However he adhered to the Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, wherein he made Israel sin; he did not depart from them.

4. Now Mesha King of Moab was a Sheep-man; and rendered to the King of Israel a hundred thousand Sheep, and so many Rams, with the Wool.

5. But when Ahab was dead, the King of Moab rebelled against him.

6. King Jehoram therefore went out of Samaria at that Time, and mustered all Israel.

7. Besides he went, and sent Word to Jehoshaphat King of Judah, The King of Moab has rebelled against me, wilt thou go with me against Moab to War? And he answered, I will go up, I am the same as thou art, my People are the same as thine, my Horses the same as thy own.

8. Then he asked, What Way shall we go up? And he answered, That of the Wilderness of Edom.

9. So the Kings of Israel, Judah, and Edom went, going round about seven Days Journey; till there was no Water for the Army, and for the Cattle which accompanied them.

10. With that the King of Israel exclaimed, Alas, for the Lord has called these three Kings, to deliver them into the Power of Moab.

11. Nevertheless Jehoshaphat asked, Is here no Prophet of the Lord; that we may enquire of the Lord from him? And one of the Servants of the King of Israel made answer, Here is Elisha the Son of Shaphat, who poured Water upon Elijah's Hands.

12. To which Jehoshaphat replied, The Word of the Lord is with him. So he, with the Kings of Israel and Edom, went down to him.

13. But Elisha said to the King of Israel, What hast thou to do with me? Get thee to thy Father's Prophets, and to those of thy Mother. Whereas he answered him, No, for the Lord has called these three Kings, to deliver them into the Power of Moab.

Ver. 17. a good while] See the like, Judg. iii. 25.

Ver. 23. little Lads] Who might be great Boys, and scoff at Elisha wickedly because he was a Prophet; besides they might not be killed, which if they had, we might expect it to be said so, and are not to feign Things, and then reflect on them; on the contrary so many being torn, and by that only being said none killed, may seem occasioned by their fighting with the Bears. However it was not the Prophet killed them, nor made the Bears do it.

Ver. 1. had been eighteen Years King] as said of his Brother before, 1 King. ult. 52.

Ver. 3. wherein] as 1 King. xiv. 16. which also the plur. Pronoun at the End of the Verse confirms.

Ver. 12. he, with] Here is Nothing lost in this new Way of translating the Scripture, nor in numerous other Places; and my great Veneration for it would make me sorry the Loss should be much, though a deal overbalanced by the Gain at the same Time.

Ver. 13, 14. for the Lord, &c.] See Chap. vi. 33.

14. Upon

14. Upon this Elisha replied, By the living of the Lord of Armies, before whom I stand, unless I accepted Jehoshaphat King of Judah, I would neither look towards thee, nor see thee;

15. Yet now fetch me a Musician. And as he played, the Power of the Lord was upon him.

16. And he said; Thus says the Lord, Make in this Valley many Ditches:

17. For thus adds he, You shall not see Wind, nor Rain, yet the same Valley shall be full of Water; that ye may drink, with your Cattle and Beasts.

18. Nay this is a light Thing in the Sight of the Lord; he will also deliver Moab into your Power.

19. And ye shall smite every fortified City, and every choice one, cut down every good Tree, stop up all Fountains of Water, and injure every good Piece of Land with Stones.

20. Accordingly in the Morning, as the Oblation was offered up, behold there came Water from the Way of Edom, so that the Country was full of it.

21. Now when all the Moabites heard that the Kings were coming up to fight with them, they called all who began to wear a Girdle and upward, and stood at the Border.

22. And rising early in the Morning, when the Sun rose upon the Water, the Moabites saw it at a distance red like Blood.

23. At which they said, This is Blood, the Kings are wholly become waste, and smite one another; now therefore Moab away to the Spoil.

24. So they went to the Camp of Israel, but the Israelites got ready, and smote them, so that they fled from their Presence; and they kept on smiting them even in Moab.

25. And they demolished the Cities, on every good Piece of Land they respectively threw Stones, and filled it, stopped up every Fountain of Water, and cut down every good Tree, till in the Wall of Harefeth they were made to leave the Stones of it; yet the Slingers went about, and smote it.

26. For when the King of Moab saw that the Battle was too strong for him, he took with him seven hundred Men who drew forth a Sword, to break through to the King of Edom; but they could not.

27. Therefore he took his own first-born Son, who would have reigned in his room, and offered him up for a Burnt-offering upon the Wall; at which there was great Wrath in Israel: so they marched from him, and returned to the Country.

C H A P. IV.

A CERTAIN Woman also, of the Wives of the Sons of the Prophets, cried thus to Elisha, Thy Servant my Husband is dead, who as thou knowest feared the Lord; and the Creditor is come to take my two Children to him for Servants.

2. To whom he said, What shall I do for thee? Tell me what thou hast in the House. And she answered, Thy Handmaid has Nothing at all there, excepting a Pot of Oil.

3. And he replied; Go ask for Vessels abroad for thee of all thy Neighbours, empty ones not a few.

4. Then shalt thou go in, and shut the Door about thee and thy Sons; next pour forth into all those Vessels, removing the full.

5. She accordingly went from him, and shut the Door about her and her Sons: they brought to her, and she poured out.

6. At last when the Vessels were full, she said to her Son, Bring me a Vessel more; and he answered her, There is not any more: then the Oil staid.

7. Whereupon she came, and told the Man of God, who said, Go, sell the Oil, and pay thy Debt, afterwards live thou and thy Sons on what is left.

8. And on a Day Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great Woman, who took hold of him to eat some Victuals; after which at his passing by, he turned aside thither to do so.

9. For she said to her Husband; Behold now I know that he is a holy Man of God, who passes by us continually.

10. Let us make, I pray, a little Chamber at the Wall, and put for him there a Bed, Table, Seat and Candlestick; and when he comes to us, he shall turn aside thither.

11. So on a Day he went thither, and turning aside into the Chamber, lay there.

Ver. 15. a Musician] Ad sedandum animum commotum, to quiet his Mind that was disturbed, writes Grotius.

Ver. 25. till] so the Heb. Particle signifies, not only.

Ib. Wall] mentioned Ver. 27.

Ver. 27. own] his alone leaves it doubtful, whether it was the Son of the King of Edom, or of the King of Moab; whereas own confines it to the latter, as it is shewn to be particularly on Am. ii. 1. For the Heathens sacrificing their Children in Times of great Calamity to their gods, several Authors might be quoted, as Porphyry De Abst. Lib. 2. Elianus, Var. Hist. Lib. xii. 28. Plutarch, in Pelop. &c. see also Psa. cvi. 37. 2 Chron. xxxiii. 6.

12. And he said to Gehazi his young Man, Call this Shunammite, who called her, that she might stand before him.

13. Moreover he said to him, Tell her now, Behold as thou hast had all this Care for us, what shall be done for thee? Wouldest thou be spoken for to the King, or to the Captain of the Army? And she answered, I would dwell among my own People.

14. And he replied, What then shall be done for her? To which Gehazi answered, Verily she has no Son, and her Husband is old.

15. Call her, said he again; accordingly he did, and she stood at the Door.

16. He then declared, At this appointed Time, according to the Time of Life, thou shalt embrace a Son. But she said, No, my Lord, O Man of God, do not tell thy Handmaid an Untruth.

17. And the Woman conceived, and bore a Son, at that appointed Time, according to the Time of Life, which Elisha foretold her.

18. However when the Child was grown up, he went out on a Day to his Father to the Reapers.

19. Where he cried out to his Father, O my Head, O my Head! therefore he said to a young Man, Have him to his Mother.

20. Who had him along to her, upon whose Knees he sat till Noon, and then died.

21. And she went up, and laid him upon the Bed of the Man of God; so shutting him up, went out.

22. In the next place she called her Husband, and said, Send me, I pray, one of the young Men, and one of the Asses, that I may go apace to the Man of God, and come again.

23. But he said, Why wilt thou go to him to Day? It is neither New-moon nor Sabbath; and she answered, It is well.

24. She also saddled the Ass, and said to her young Man, Guide, and go on; do not withhold riding for me, except I tell thee.

25. Thus she went on, and got to the Man of God at Mount Carmel: and when he saw her at a distance, he said to Gehazi his young Man, There is that Shunammite.

26. Now run, I pray, to meet her, and ask her, Art thou well? Is thy Husband well? Is the Child well? and she answered, Well.

27. At length she came to the Man of God at the Mountain, and took hold of his Feet: whereupon Gehazi went nigh, to thrust her away; but he said, Let her alone, for her Soul is grieved in her, and the Lord has hid it from me, and not told me.

28. And she said, Did I ask a Son of my Lord? Did not I say, Do not deceive me?

29. Upon which he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy Loins, and take my Staff in thy Hand, and go; when thou meetest with any one, do not salute him; and when any one salutes thee, do not answer him: and put my Staff upon the Face of the Boy.

30. Nevertheless the Boy's Mother said, By the Lord's living and thy own, I will not leave thee: so he got ready, and went after her.

31. Gehazi too passed on before them, and put the Staff upon the Boy's Face, but there was no Voice, nor any Sensation: therefore he returned to meet him, and told him, that the Boy did not awake.

32. And when Elisha was come into the House, behold the Boy being dead, was laid upon his Bed.

33. So he went in, and shut the Door upon them both, and made supplication to the Lord.

34. He moreover went up, and lay upon the Child, putting his own Mouth, Eyes and Hands, upon his, and prostrated himself upon him: at length the Flesh of the Child became warm.

35. Next having returned, and walked in the House once forward and backward, he went up, and again prostrated himself upon him; and after the Boy had sneezed seven times, he opened his Eyes.

36. At which he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite, who calling her, she came in to him: and he said, Take up thy Son.

37. With that she came, and fell at his Feet, bowing down to the Ground; then she took up her Son, and went forth.

Ver. 12. that she might stand] being not yet come to the Door, Ver. 15.

Ver. 13. would] as wouldest just before.

Ver. 16. At &c.] The Hebrew is the same as may be found in the Speech of God to Abraham, Gen. xvii. 21. and xviii. 10.

Ver. 17. bore a Son] Although there is no Time mentioned when either the Birth or Death of this Child was (which Dick in his Shunammite first put 14, then altered to 7 Years apart) nor does our penetrating Usher attempt at it, yet the seven Years of Famine following it, both to be comprehended in about ten Years of Jeberam's Reign, falls well as in the large Table.

Ver. 29. put my Staff] Which, says Grotius, would have been sufficient, if the Woman had believed it; and therefore the Prophet might do well in trying it.

Ver. 37. came] By the foregoing Verse of the last Translation she was come in, and this begins, Then she went in, which is absurd; whereas the Gen. Transf. was in the Manner of this, as also Cruerdale's.

38. Elisha further returned to Gilgal, there being a Famine in the Country, and the Sons of the Prophets sat before him; and he said to his young Man, Put on the great Pot, and boil Broth for the Sons of the Prophets.

39. And one went forth into the Field to gather Herbs, and found a wild Vine, of which he gathered wild Sprouts, his Lap full; and coming, cut into the Pot of Broth, for they did not know them.

40. Afterwards they poured out for the Men to eat; and as they were eating of the Broth, they thus cried out, There is Death in the Pot, O Man of God; and they could not eat.

41. And he said, Fetch Meal then, and throw into the Pot: next he said, Pour out for the People, that they may eat; and there was not any Hurt in the Pot.

42. Besides there came a Man from Baal-shalishah, and brought the Man of God Loaves of the First-fruits, twenty Loaves of Barley, and new Ears in the Husk; and he said, Give to the People, that they may eat.

43. Whereas he who waited on him said, What, shall I put this before a hundred Men? Yet he replied, Give to the People, that they may eat; for thus says the Lord, They shall eat, and leave.

44. Accordingly he put before them; and they did eat, and leave, according to the Word of the Lord.

CH A P. V.

AND Naaman, the Captain of the King of Syria's Army, was a great Man before his Master, and in Reputation, because by him the Lord gave Help to Syria; the Man too was valiant, but leprous.

2. The Syrians also going forth in Troops, took prisoner a little Girl out of the Country of Israel, who attended on Naaman's Wife.

3. And she said to her Mistress, I wish my Master was before the Prophet who is in Samaria; then he would recover him from his Leprosy.

4. Whereupon one went, and told his Master, that thus and thus spoke the Girl who was of the Country of Israel.

5. Therefore the King of Syria said, Come go, and I will send a Letter to the King of Israel. So he went, taking with him ten Talents of Silver, six thousand Pieces of Gold, and ten Suits of Cloaths.

6. And he brought the Letter to the King of Israel, which expressed, And now when this Letter comes to thee, behold I have sent to thee Naaman my Servant, that thou mayest recover him from his Leprosy.

7. But when the King of Israel read the Letter, he tore his Cloaths, and said, Am I God, to make die and live, that he sends to me to recover a Man from his Leprosy? For only know now, and see, that he takes occasion against me.

8. However when Elisha the Man of God heard that the King of Israel tore his Cloaths, he sent Word to him, Why didst thou tear thy Cloaths? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a Prophet in Israel.

9. So Naaman went with his Horses and Chariots, and stood at the Door of Elisha's House.

10. And Elisha sent a Messenger to tell him, Go, and wash seven times in Jordan, and thy Flesh shall be restored to thee, so that thou shalt be clean.

11. Enraged at this, Naaman went away, and said, Behold I thought he himself would have come out to me, and stood, and calling on the Name of the Lord his God, have stroked his Hand on the Place, that he might recover the leprous.

12. Are not Abanah and Pharpar, Rivers of Damascus, better than any Waters of Israel? May not I wash in them, and be

Ver. 38. a Famine] that which is spoken of Chap. viii. 1. but I suppose this, and that at Ver. 42, 43. not to be in the first Year of it, when Provision would hardly be so scarce. And Naaman's being cured in the next Chap. had need be put as far back as can be, to make Room between that and the Syrians going to take Elisha, Chap. vi. 14. with a longer Space from their being dismissed so kindly from Samaria, Chap. vi. 23. and their coming to besiege it in the next Verse; what the Affairs require for each.

Ver. 39. Sprouts] Gourds being a different Thing, and not the Product of any Vine.

Ver. 42. Loaves of Barley] as Pliny observes, antiquissimum in Cibus Hordeum, Barley was very anciently used for Food, Nat. Hist. Lib. xviii. 7.

Ver. 3. Leprosy] This is said to be in those Parts a loathsome inveterate Disease, defiling the whole Surface of the Body with a foul Scurf, deforming the Joints, particularly at the Wrists and Ancles, which swell out with a scrophulous Substance, and the Legs look like those of old battered Horses; so that it may pass for the utmost Corruption of a living human Body, Append. to Maundrell's Journ. from Alep. to Jerus.

Ver. 5. King of Syria] who Poole, by a great Mistake, writes was, Jeram the Son of Ahab, Chap. iii. 2.

Ver. 12. Abanah and Pharpar] The River now called Barrady, breaking out through a Cleft of the Mountain, about two Miles on the west Side of Damascus, is there divided into three Streams, and the middlemost and biggest running directly on to the City, is distributed to all the Cisterns and Fountains of it; the other two, which Maundrell took to be the Work of Art, water all the Gardens, that are reckoned to extend thirty Miles round, Jour. from Al. to Jer. p. 120, 121. and though that ingenious Traveller supposes the middlemost was one of these here mentioned, and knows not well, as he says, clean?

clean? And he turned about, and went away in a Rage.

13. Upon this his Servants drew nigh, and spoke to him as follows; Our Father, had the Prophet told thee a great Matter, wouldst not thou do it? And much more when he says to thee, Wash, and be clean.

14. He therefore went down, and dipt himself in Jordan seven times, according to the Words of the Man of God; and his Flesh was restored like that of a little Child, and he became clean.

15. Then he went back to the Man of God, with all his Company, whither when he was come, he stood before him; and said, Behold now I know that there is no God on all the Earth, excepting in Israel; now therefore receive, I pray, a Blessing from thy Servant.

16. Nevertheless he said, By the Lord's living, before whom I stand, I will receive none; and though he importuned him to it, yet he refused.

17. But shall there not, said Naaman, be given now to thy Servant, a Couple of Mules Burdens of Earth? For thy Servant will no more offer Burnt-offering or Sacrifice to other gods, but to the Lord.

18. For this Thing the Lord forgive thy Servant; when my Master goes into the House of Rimmon, to bow down there, who leans upon my Hand, and I bow down in the House of Rimmon: which when I do, the Lord, I pray, forgive thy Servant for it.

19. And he answered him, Go in Peace: so he went from him about a Mile.

20. Gehazi the young Man of Elisha the Man of God however said, Behold my Master having with-held this Naaman the Syrian, from his receiving of him what he brought; by the Lord's living, I will run after him, and take Something of him.

21. Accordingly he followed after him; whom when Naaman saw running after him, he got down from the Chariot to meet him, and said, Is it well?

22. And he answered; It is, my Master has sent me to say, Behold there are just now come to me two young Men from Mount Ephraim of the Sons of the Prophets; give them, I pray, a Talent of Silver, and two Suits of Cloaths.

23. To which Naaman replied, Consent to take two Talents; and he was urgent on him, and tied up two Talents of Silver in a Couple of Bags, with two Suits of Cloaths, and delivered to two of his young Men, which they carried before him.

24. These, when he came to the Ascent, he received for them, and laid up in the House; then he let the Men go, and they went away.

25. Afterwards going in, that he might stand by his Master, Elisha asked him, From whence now, Gehazi? Who answered, Thy Servant did not go any whither.

26. But he replied to him; Did not my Heart go, when the Man turned from his Chariot to meet thee? Is it a Time to receive Silver, and to receive Garments, Oliveyards, Vineyards, Flocks, Herds, Servant-men or Maids?

27. The Leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave to thee, and thy Offspring for ever. And he went out from before him leprous like Snow.

C H A P. VI.

Moreover the Sons of the Prophets said to Elisha, Behold now the Place where we dwell before thee is too narrow for us;

2. Let us go, we pray, to Jordan, and take from thence each a Rafter, and make us there a Place where we may dwell. And he answered, Go.

3. And one intreated, Consent, I pray, where to find the other; yet I should not scruple to conclude that the two outer ones were rather these, as being fitter to bathe in, for Privacy, Shallowness, and other Conveniencies in a Garden, besides their Water might be clearer than that in the publick River.

Ib. Damascus] which may be supposed then in its Grandeur, and being one of the pleasantest Cities for Situation in the World, a short modern Description of it from our Countryman aforesaid may not be unsuitable, viz. that it is of a long straight Figure of near two Miles Extent, pointing near the north-east and south-west, very slender in the Middle, but bigger at each End, especially that at the north-east, and is peculiarly pleasant by means of the rich Gardens round about it; this City lying near due East from Sidon, three Days Journey distant, with the Mountains Libanus (of Lebanon), and Anti-Libanus eastward between.

Ver. 17. now] I pray this not suiting a Question.

Ib. to thy Servant] viz. himself, as after; and not to the Prophet's Servant, as has been disputed, which is indeed another Word, Ver. 20. As for there being Heb. Stops at not and thy Servant, they may denote the Pauses of Naaman in his speaking, by the Concern of his Mind, so that he had not a ready Utterance; which might even be shewn, in the modern Way, by Strokes between the Words, or otherwise Commas, that I have put; and thus his Expression will sound well and suitably.

Ib. Earth] to make an Altar, as is supposed, of the Israelitish Earth, for Burnt-offerings.

Ver. 18. to bow down] as it follows.

Ver. 20. bis] viz. my Master's.

Ver. 27. Offspring] It should be so bad, that it would be hereditary from him, if he should have any Children; but the Necessity of the latter does not seem included: so by having no Posterity (as Lepers were separated from other People, and consequently did not marry, and Gehazi being a Servant was unlikely to be married already) or by his Posterity failing, for ever might be literally fulfilled.

and

and go with thy Servants; to which he replied, I will.

4. So he went with them, and they came to Jordan, and cut down Wood.

5. And as one was felling a Rafter, the Iron fell into the Water; upon which he cried out, and said, Alas, my Master, for it was borrowed.

6. Then the Man of God asked, Whereabout did it fall? And when he had shewn him the Place, he cut off a Stick, and cast there, and made the Iron swim.

7. At this he said, Take it up to thee: accordingly he reached out his Hand, and took it.

8. And the King of Syria being at war with Israel, took this Counsel with his Servants, At such a Place shall be my Camp.

9. When the Man of God sent Word to the King of Israel, Take heed of passing that Place; for thither the Syrians are to come down.

10. The King of Israel thereupon sent to the Place which he told him, and warned him of, and took heed of himself there; not once nor twice:

11. Infomuch that the King of Syria stormed at Heart for this Thing; so he called to his Servants, and asked them, Will not you tell me who of ours is for the King of Israel?

12. And one of them answered, None, my Lord O King: for Elisha the Prophet, who is in Israel, tells him the Words that thou speakest in thy Bed-chamber.

13. He then replied, Go, and see where he is, that I may send, and fetch him. And it was told him thus, Behold he is in Dothan.

14. Therefore he sent thither Horses, Chariots, and a great Army; which came by Night, and compassed the City about.

15. And he who waited on the Man of God rising early, and going forth, there was an Army surrounded the City, with Horses and Chariots; upon which the young Man said to him, Alas, my Master, how shall we act?

16. But he answered, Do not fear: these who are with us are more, than those that are with them.

17. And Elisha prayed in this manner, O Lord, open his Eyes, I beseech thee, that he may see. Accordingly the Lord opened the young Man's Eyes, and he saw plainly that the Mountain was full of Horses and Chariots of Fire, round about Elisha.

18. When they also came down to him, Elisha prayed in this manner to the Lord, Strike, I beseech thee, this People blind; which he did, according to the Word of Elisha.

19. And Elisha said to them, This is not the Way, nor is this the City; come after me, and I will bring you to the Man whom you seek for: but he brought them to Samaria.

20. Next when they were come into Samaria, he said, O Lord, open the Eyes of these, that they may see. So the Lord opened their Eyes, and they saw plainly that they were in the midst of Samaria.

21. Now the King of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, Shall I kill? Shall I kill them, my Father?

22. Who answered, Thou shalt not; wouldest thou kill those whom thou takest prisoners with thy Sword and Bow? Put Victuals and Drink before them; thus let them eat, and drink, and go to their Master.

23. So he prepared a great Entertainment for them, and when they had eat and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their Master; whereby the Troops of Syria came again no more into the Country of Israel.

24. Yet after this Benhadad King of Syria gathered together all his Army, and went up, and laid siege against Samaria.

25. By which there was a great Famine in it, till behold an Ass's Head was sold for

Ver. 11. stormed] as the Heb. is, and as we speak; that is raged with Anger at the supposed Discoverer.

Ver. 12. for] Elisha being not one of them belonging to the King of Syria, Ver. 5. as it reads in the com. Transf. with but.

Ver. 14. sent thither] Naaman being so successful a General, Ch. v. 1. and now cured, it is not likely he was out of his Place; then his Power with the King, and Gratitude to the Prophet, do not admit us to suppose the War was presently carried on offensively against Israel, to which adding the several Disappointments, Ver. 10. we can scarce count this sooner than the second Year after Naaman's Cure: nor will what follows allow of postponing it; for there must be longer Time allowed betwixt the Syrians being now saved, and treated so humanely at Samaria, Ver. 23. and their besieging it afterwards, which however was but two Years according to the Note on Chap. iv. 38. and the Table of the Kings.

Ver. 19. This is not the Way, nor is this the City] The Jews, when they write Letters to one another in Heb. seek to use or imitate Scripture Expressions, as may plentifully be seen in the Inst. Epist. Hebr. of Buxtorf; who in his Notes thereon refers back to the Places of Scripture, though he has omitted this, which is the Beginning of the Thirty-eighth Letter there, of one complaining to his Friend that he had not done as he was desired.

Ver. 23. no more] viz. in Companies as before, Ch. v. 2. but all of them together, as in the following Verse. Lightfoot says it should be translated, came no more as yet, Harm. of O. Tes. but then as yet must be understood, the Heb. not having it, any more than in Gen. viii. 12. and xxxviii. 26. Judg. xiii. 21. 1 Sam. vii. 13. and xxvii. 4. &c.

Ver. 25. Famine] As the seven Years Famine, Chap. viii. 1. is not to be thought over while this remained, eighty Shekels of Silver, and the fourth Part of a Ca5 of Doves Dung for five,

26. Nay as the King of Israel was passing by upon the Wall, a Woman cried out to him thus, Save, my Lord O King.

27. To which he said, The Lord does not save thee, from whence shall I? From the Floor, or from the Wine-press?

28. The King said further to her, What is the Matter with thee? And she answered; This Woman said to me, Deliver up thy Son, that we may eat him at present, and we will eat mine hereafter.

29. Accordingly we boiled my Son, and eat him: and I said to her another Day, Deliver up thy Son, that we may eat him; but she had hid hers.

30. And no sooner did the King hear the Woman's Words, but he tore his Cloaths, as he passed on the Wall; and the People saw plainly that there was Sackcloth upon his Flesh on the inside.

31. He said too, By God's doing to me so and so besides, the Head of Elisha the Son of Shaphat shall not stand upon him to Day.

32. For which he sent a Man from before him, Elisha then sitting in his House, as did the Elders with him: but before the Messenger came to him, he said to the Elders, Will you see that this murdering Person has sent to take away my Head? Look when the Messenger comes, shut the Door, and press him at it; is not the Sound of his Master's Feet behind him?

33. While he was speaking to them, behold also the Messenger came down to him; and he said, Behold this Evil is of the Lord, why should I wait for the Lord any longer?

C H A P. VII.

THEN said Elisha; Hear ye the Word of the Lord, who says thus, To Morrow about this Time there shall be a Seah of fine Flour for a Shekel, and two Seahs of Barley for the same, at the Gate of Samaria.

2. But a Duke, upon whose Hand the King leaned, made the Man of God answer, Lo should the Lord make Flood-gates in Heaven, could this Thing be? And he replied, Behold thou shalt see with thy Eyes, but shalt not eat of it.

3. Now there were four leprous Men at the Entrance of the Gate, who said one to another; Why do we sit here till we die?

4. If we say, we will go into the City, the Famine is in it, and we shall die there; and if we sit here, we shall die: now therefore come, and let us desert to the Camp of Syria; if they keep us alive, we shall live; and if they put us to death, we must die.

5. So they rose up in the Twilight, to go to the Camp of Syria; and when they came to the utmost Part of it, behold Nobody was there.

6. For the Lord had made them hear a Sound both of Chariots and Horses, a Sound of a great Army; so that they said one to another, Behold the King of Israel has hired against us the Kings of the Hittites, and those of Egypt, that they may come against us.

7. Therefore they rose up, and fled in the Twilight, leaving their Tents, Horses and Asses, the Camp as it was; and fled for their Lives.

8. And when those Lepers came to the utmost Part of the Camp, they went into one Tent, and did eat, drink, and carry from thence Silver, Gold and Garments, as also went, and hid; then they returned, and went into another Tent, and carrying from thence, went, and hid.

9. At length they said one to another, We do not right, this Day is a Day of News, and we hold our peace; whereas if we should tarry till the Light of the Morning, some perverse Thing may meet with us: now therefore come, and let us go, and tell the King's Household.

10. Accordingly they went, and calling to the Porter of the City, told them as follows, We came to the Camp of Syria, and behold Nobody was there, nor Voice of Mankind; but Horses tied, and Asses tied, with the Tents as they were.

11. Upon this he called the Porters, and they told the King's Household within.

12. With that the King rose up by Night, and said to his Servants; I will tell you now what the Syrians have done to us; they are and the Syrians lived upon the Spoil of the Country; so neither is it probable that continued longer, since Things were so very cheap at the End of this, Chap. vi. 28. then see on Chap. iv. 17.

Ib. Doves Dung] for the Doves might fly abroad and get Food; and coming to their Houses in the City, leave their Dung there: which Consideration might have relieved Commentators from labouring so to make something else, when it is plainly in Heb. the Dung of Doves.

Ver. 29. another Day] So the Heb. and not the next, which justifies my translating at present and hereafter, as the Heb. Words there also do sometimes signify; besides the Incredibility of their eating all the first Son in one Day.

Ver. 4. the Famine] then being neither temporal nor allative, is redundant as a Copulative; the Heb. וְהָיָה containing no more Meaning than if, three of which are in this Verse rendered in three different Senses by our Translators.

sensible

sensible that we are hungry, so they are gone out of the Camp to hide in the Field, having proposed, When they come out of the City, we will take them alive, and get into it.

13. And one of the Servants made answer, Let them take then, I pray, five of those Horses that are left in it, behold they being like the whole Multitude of Israel who are left therein, which so will be like all those who are consumed; and let us send and see.

14. They took then two Chariot-horses; and the King sent after the Camp of Syria, with Orders to go, and see.

15. Thus they went after them to Jordan, and behold all the Way was full of Garments and Things, which the Syrians had thrown away in their making haste; with that the Messengers returned, and told the King.

16. Whereupon the People went out, and plundered the Camp of Syria: so there was a Seah of fine Flour for a Shekel, and two Seahs of Barley for the same, according to the Word of the Lord.

17. Moreover the King appointed the Duke upon whose Hand he leaned to be Steward of the Gate, where the People trod him down, so that he died; according to what the Man of God foretold, which he did when the King came down to him.

18. For when the Man of God spoke thus to the King, Two Seahs of Barley for a Shekel, and a Seah of fine Flour for the same, there shall be about this Time to Morrow, at the Gate of Samaria;

19. The Duke made him answer, But so should the Lord make Flood-gates in Heaven, could such a Thing as this be? And he replied, Behold thou shalt see with thy Eyes, but shalt not eat of it.

20. And so it was to him: for the People trod upon him at the Gate, so that he died.

C H A P. VIII.

BESIDES Elisha spoke to the Woman whose Son he had restored to life, as follows, Get ready, and go with thy Family, and sojourn where thou canst: for the Lord has called for a Famine, and it will also come into the Country seven Years.

2. So the Woman got ready, and did according to the Order of the Man of God; going with her Family, and sojourning in the Country of the Philistines seven Years.

3. At the End of which she returned from thence; and went forth to cry to the King, for her House and Land.

4. Who had been speaking thus to Gehazi the young Man of the Man of God, Rehearse to me, I pray, all the great Things that Elisha has done.

5. And as he was rehearsing to the King, how he had restored the Dead to life, behold the Woman, whose Son he had restored to life, cried to him for her House and Land; then Gehazi said, My Lord O King, this is the Woman, and this her Son whom Elisha restored to life.

6. Upon which the King asked the Woman, and she told him: so he appointed for her an Officer, saying, Restore not only all that she had, but all the Increase of the Land, from the Day she left the Country till now.

7. Elisha also went to Damascus, and Ben-hadad King of Syria was sick; when it was told him, that the Man of God was come thither.

8. Therefore he commanded Hazael, Take a Present with thee, and go to meet the Man of God; by whom enquire of the Lord, whether I shall recover from this Disease?

9. Hazael accordingly went to meet him, having taken a Present with him, even of every good Thing of Damascus forty Camels Burdens; thus he came, and standing before him, said; Thy Son Ben-hadad King of Syria has sent me to thee to enquire, Shall I recover from this Disease?

10. Whom Elisha answered; Go, say, Thou wilt not wholly recover: for the Lord has shewn me, that he will quite die.

11. And he settled his Countenance, putting it so a good while; nay the Man of God wept.

12. At this Hazael asked, Why does my Lord weep? And he answered, Because I am sensible what Harm thou wilt do to the Israelites; their strong Holds wilt thou set Ver. 13. those] Heb. the left Horses that are left.

1b. like—which—will be] These, I imagine, carry some Sense with them, namely that which Expositors give it, the Horses to be in the same Condition as the People, and these to be soon like those who were dead, and so such Horses might well enough be spared; but he who can find that, or any other Sense, merely by or according to the Words of the san. Scg. must be sharper-sighted than I and other common Readers.

Ver. 17. which] more pertinent and important than who; and I find several of the Lat. Translators have quod, but none qui.

Ver. 10. not wholly] for before he recovered he was killed, Ver. 15: the Reading in the Text being not, and the Marginal to him. And we are rather to suppose Hazael told the King a Falshood than that the Prophet bid him do so, which may certainly recover must be. There is the same double Reading in Isa. ix. 3. and xlix. 5. where our Translators keep to the not in the Text, as I do here.

Ver. 11. a good while] as Chap. ii. 17.

on fire, slay their young Men with the Sword, dash their Children in pieces, and cut up their Women with Child.

13. Whereas Hazael said, What then will such a Dog as thy Servant be, that he should do this great Thing? And Elisha said, The Lord has shewn me thou wilt be King over Syria.

14. And going from Elisha, he came to his Master, who asked him, What did Elisha say to thee? And he answered, He told me, thou wouldest wholly recover.

15. But the next Day he took a Cloth, and dipt in Water, and spread upon his Face, so that he died; Hazael also reigned in his room.

16. And in the fifth Year of Joram the Son of Ahab King of Israel, while Jehoshaphat was King of Judah, Jehoram his Son began reigning.

17. He was in his thirty second Year when he did, and reigned eight Years at Jerusalem.

18. And he went in the Way of the Kings of Israel, as the Family of Ahab did; for he had Ahab's Daughter for his Wife: thus he did what the Lord was displeased with.

19. Yet the Lord would not destroy Judah, for the sake of David his Servant: according as he said of him, that he would give him a Lamp for his Sons continually.

20. In his Time Edom revolted from under the Power of Judah, and made a King over them.

21. Whereupon Joram passing to Zair, and all the Chariots with him, got ready at Night, and beat the Edomites who compassed him about; so that the Captains of the Chariots, and the People fled to their Tents.

22. Nevertheless Edom has revolted from under the Power of Judah to this Day: then did Libnah revolt at the same Time.

23. As for the rest of Joram's Affairs, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

24. And Joram lay down with his Fathers, being buried with them in the City of David; and Ahaziah his Son reigned in his room.

25. In the Year that was the twelfth of Joram the Son of Ahab King of Israel, Ahaziah the Son of Jehoram King of Judah began reigning.

26. Ahaziah was in his twenty second Year when he did, and reigned one Year at Jerusalem, whose Mother's Name was Athaliah, the Daughter of Omri King of Israel.

27. He went too in the Way of the Family of Ahab, doing what the Lord was displeased with, like that Family: for he was a Son-in-law of it.

28. Nay he went with Joram the Son of Ahab, to war against Hazael King of Syria at Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians smote King Joram.

29. Therefore he returned to be cured at Jezreel, because of the Wounds with which they smote him at Ramah, when he fought against the King already mentioned; and Ahaziah, the Son of Jehoram King of Judah, went down to see this Son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was ill.

CHAP. IX.

ON this occasion Elisha the Prophet called one of the Sons of the Prophets, and said to him: Gird up thy Loins, and taking this Vial of Oil with thee, go to Ramoth-gilead.

2. Whither being come, look there for Jehu the Son of Jehoshaphat, the Son of Nimshi, and going in, make him rise up from among his Brethren, and have him into an inner Parlour.

3. Next take the Vial of Oil, and pour upon his Head, and declare; Thus says the Lord, I anoint thee to be King over Israel; then open the Door, and flee, without tarrying.

4. Accordingly the same young Man, the Prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5. And when he was come, behold the Captains of the Army were sitting; so he said, I have a Message to thee, O Captain; whereupon Jehu asked, To which of us all? And he answered, To thee, O Captain.

6. Who getting up, and going into the House, he poured the Oil on his Head, and

Ver. 13. Dog] comparatively for his mean Condition, and Inability to do what the Prophet foretold; whose next Words shew that he should be in a State able to perform it; see 2 Sam. iii. 8. and ix. 8. but the com. Transf. indicates another Sense, or rather none.

Ver. 15. Hazael] A Testimony for the Scripture Account is the Relation of Josephus, Antiq. Lib. ix. 2. μὴχρι τὴν αὐτὴν ἡμέραν ὁ Ἀδὰρ καὶ ὁ Ἀζαζὴς ὁ παῖς αὐτοῦ ὡς θεοὶ τιμῶνται, that till then Adar and Hazael his Successor, were honoured as gods among the Syrians; see 2 Sam. viii. 3.

Ver. 16. while Jehoshaphat was King] See 2 Chron.

xxi. 3. This appears to be about a Year before Jehoshaphat's Death: for he began reigning in the fourth Year of Ahab, and reigned twenty five Years current, 1 King. xxii. 41, 42. which ended the next Year.

Ver. 19. said of him] 1 King. xi. 36.

Ver. 20. made a King] which might be done before by the King of Judah, Chap. iii. 9, 26.

Ver. 26. Daughter] for Granddaughter, as appears by Ver. 18, 27. 2 Chr. xxi. 6.

Ver. 29. because of] The Heb. Particle having this Signification, which accords best with that in 2 Chron. xxii. 6.

declared to him: Thus says the Lord God of Israel; I anoint thee to be King over Israel, the People of the Lord.

7. And thou shalt smite the Family of Ahab thy Master; that I may take vengeance for the Blood of my Servants the Prophets, and that of all the Servants of the Lord, shed by Jezebel.

8. Nay all the Family of Ahab shall perish; since I will cut off from Ahab the grown Male, him who is shut up, and him who is left in Israel.

9. For I will make his Family like those of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, and of Baasha the Son of Ahijah.

10. Moreover the Dogs shall eat Jezebel in the Part of Jezreel, whom none shall bury. Then he opened the Door, and ran away.

11. And Jehu going forth to the Servants of his Master, one said to him, Is it well? Why came this mad Man to thee? Whom he answered, You know the Man, and his Discourse.

12. But they replied, It is false; do tell us. So he said; After this and this Manner he told me, that thus says the Lord, I anoint thee to be King over Israel.

13. Upon which they made haste, and took their respective Garments, and put under him at the Top of the Stairs; as also blew a Trumpet, and proclaimed, Jehu reigns.

14. So Jehu the Son of Jehoshaphat, the Son of Nimshi, made a Conspiracy against Joram; when Joram had been keeping Ramoth-gilead, with all Israel, by reason of Hazael King of Syria.

15. But King Jehoram was returned to be cured at Jezreel, of the Wounds with which the Syrians struck him, when he fought against that King; therefore Jehu said, If it be your Mind, let none who would escape get out of the City, to go and tell this at Jezreel.

16. Jehu then rode, that he might get thither, as Joram lay there: whom Ahaziah King of Judah was gone down to see.

17. And there stood a Watchman upon the Tower in Jezreel, who saw the Company of Jehu when he was coming, and said, I see a Company; at which Jehoram said, Fetch a Horseman, and send to meet them, and let him ask, Is it well?

18. There went accordingly a Person on Horseback to meet him, and said; Thus says the King, Is it well? But Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with being well? Turn about behind me. So the Watchman told, that the Messenger went to them, but did not return.

19. Whereupon he sent a second Person on Horseback, who went to them, and said, Thus says the King, Is it well? Again Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with being well? Turn about behind me.

20. When the Watchman told thus, He went quite to them, but does not return; and the leading on is like that of Jehu the Son of Nimshi, for he leads on madly.

21. Therefore Jehoram said, Harness; and his Chariot was harnessed. Then Jehoram King of Israel, and Ahaziah King of Judah, went forth in their respective Chariots; which doing to meet Jehu, they met with him at the Plat of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22. Now when Jehoram saw Jehu, he said, Is it well, Jehu? Who answered, What is well, whilst the Whoredoms of thy Mother Jezebel, and her Witchcrafts are so many?

23. At this Jehoram turned his Hands, and fled, saying to Ahaziah, There is Deceit, Ahaziah.

24. But Jehu took a Bow in his Hand, and smote him between his Arms, so that the Arrow went out from his Heart, and he fell down in his Chariot.

25. With that he said to Bidkar his Captain; Take him up, throw him into the Part of the Field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember when I and thou were riding both together after Ahab his Father, the Lord put this Burden upon him.

26. Did not I see Yesterday the Blood of Naboth, and that of his Sons? said the Lord, and I will recompense thee in this Plat, said he: now therefore take him up, throw him into it, according to the Word of the Lord.

27. This when Ahaziah King of Judah saw, he fled the Way of the Garden-house: but Jehu pursued after him, and said, Smite him also in the Chariot; which they did in Ver. 15. Jehoram] here, and in Ver. 17, 22, 23, as the pref. Transf. has, Ver. 24.

Ver. 16. rode] in a Chariot added by the Translators.

Ver. 17. well] as translated Ver. 11. Ch. iv. 26. and v. 21.

Ver. 20. leading on] foremost.

Ver. 21. to meet] as the Heb. signifies (not against) and the Sense requires, since the Revolt was not yet known, Ver. 22, 23.

VOL. I.

Ver. 24. took a Bow in his Hand] I see no more than this in filled his Hand with a Bow; as filled the Hand is often used in Heb. for put into it, and the Expression seems to indicate but that.

Ver. 26. Did not] ~~is~~ the first Heb. Word making a Question, as Noldius largely exhibits, and the next being the common one for not.

Ver. 27. which they did] It seems, in order to reconcile this with 2 Chron. xxii. 9. that Ahaziah then escaped, the Ascent to Gur, that was at Ibleam; and he fled to Megiddo, where he died.

28. Afterwards his Servants carried him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his Sepulchre, with his Fathers in the City of David.

29. And Joram the Son of Ahab, having reigned eleven Years, Ahaziah began reigning over Judah.

30. Then Jehu went to Jezreel; which Jezebel hearing of, put her Eyes in paint, dressed her Head well, and looked out at a Window.

31. As Jehu too went in at the Gate, she said, Was it well with Zimri, who slew his Master?

32. At which he lifted up his Face towards the Window, and said, Who is for me? Who? When there looked out to him two or three Eunuchs.

33. And he said, Throw her down; which they did: and some of her Blood was sprinkled on the Wall, and on the Horses, nay he trod upon her.

34. At length when he was gone in, and had eat, and drunk, he said, Go look now for this cursed Woman, and bury her, since she is a King's Daughter.

35. However when they went to bury her, they found nothing of her but the Skull, the Feet, and the Palms of the Hands.

36. So they returned, and told him, who said; It is the Matter that the Lord spoke by the Ministry of his Servant Elijah the Tishbite, namely; In the Part of Jezreel shall the Dogs eat the Flesh of Jezebel.

37. The Carcase of her shall likewise be as Dung upon the Surface of the Field there; whereby they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

AHAB having also seventy Sons in Samaria, Jehu wrote Letters, and sent thither, to the Princes of Jezreel the Elders, and to those who bred them up for Ahab, as follows;

2. And now when this Letter comes to you, since your Master's Sons are with you, and there are with you Chariots, and Horses, as also a fortified City, and Armour:

3. Look therefore for the best and fittest of them, and put upon the Throne of his Father; and fight for your Master's Family.

4. But they were exceeding much afraid, and said, Behold two Kings did not stand before him, and how shall we?

5. Therefore the Steward of the House, and the Ruler of the City, with the Elders, and those who bred them up sent Word to Jehu, We are thy Servants, and will do all that thou shalt order us: we will not make any one a King; do what thou approvest of.

6. At this he wrote a Letter to them the second time as follows, If ye are for me, and will hearken to what I say, take the Heads of the Persons your Master's Sons, and come to me about this Time to Morrow at Jezreel; the King's Sons, seventy Persons, being with the great Men of the City, who brought them up.

7. And when the Letter came to them, they took the King's Sons, and killed the seventy Persons, whose Heads they put in Baskets, and sent to him at Jezreel.

8. Upon which a Messenger went, and told him, that they had brought the Heads of the King's Sons; and he said, Put them and hid in Samaria, where being caught, he made a second Escape, but was overtaken, and smitten going to Gur, &c. Bedford supposes his Father Joram had slain all his own Brethren in the same Place, and therefore Jehu sent him thither to be slain, Scrip. Chron. L. vi. 2. 71. whom Stackhouse follows, Hist. Bib. L. vi. 3. But it is strange that the King of Judah should slay his Brother so far in the Country of Israel, Josh. xvii. 11. as it is that Jehu's Servants should carry Ahaziah thither to kill him, and only wounding him mortally, should let him flee to another Place. Those Authors indeed add in Vindication of their Exposition, that Jehu's Order was only to smite him; whereas the Heb. Word also signifies to slay, however if Jehu afterwards ordered him to be carried from Samaria to Ibleam, he must needs then command what should be done to him, which Order only the Executioners were to act by, and it is absurd to imagine such an Order from Jehu after Ahaziah was taken in Samaria, and brought before him.

Ver. 29. eleven] The looking on Chap. viii. 25. may be sufficient to warrant this translating, considering that in the twelfth there cannot be rendered to be the same with in the eleventh here, and that from the fifth Year of Joram to the eleventh could not be eight Years, Chap. viii. 16, 17. but to the twelfth might be so many current ones, as observed on the Table of the Kings. Yet Bedford in resolving this Scruple, brings the twelfth Year to the eleventh, saying, "By this it is very evident, that Joram reigned one Year before his Father Ahab's Death, who made Joram his Viceroy, whilst he was preparing for the Battle of Ramoth-gilead," and so his Reign hath a double Reckoning, Scrip. Chron. pag. 599, 600. But this is disproved by 1 King. xxii. 26. and Bedford himself afterwards ends Joram's eight Years above-mentioned in the twelfth Year of Joram King of Israel, Tab. xvi. pag. 691. And as Bedford places some of Joram's Reign under his Father Ahab's, he must consequently the whole of Ahaziah's, the other Brother who reigned before him, which he does, p. 690. but the contrary plainly appears both by 1 King. xxii. 40. and by 2 King. i. 1. 2. Now as he seems to have taken his Scheme of it from Lightfoot, with some Addition, this Answer may be more than sufficient for the latter.

Ver. 36. Dogs eat] As Means or Inducements to it, Jehu's Horse, or the Horses, might have trod out her Bowels, and no Person dared to go near the Body, to hinder the Dogs from seizing her.

Ver. 3. fight for] Commentators suppose this was spoken ironically; but I to intimidate them, especially as we find Jehu cunning, Ver. 18, &c.

in two Heaps at the Entrance of the Gate, till the Morning.

9. And in the Morning he went out, and standing, said to all the People; You are righteous, behold I conspired against my Master, and killed him; but who slew all these?

10. Know now, that there shall Nothing fall to the Ground, of the Word which the Lord spoke concerning the Family of Ahab: for the Lord does what he spoke by the Ministry of his Servant Elijah.

11. So Jehu slew all that were left of the Family of Ahab at Jezreel, with all his great Men, Acquaintance and Priests; till he had no Remainder left.

12. Next he got ready, and went, that he might go to Samaria: when he was at the Shearing-house of the Shepherds in the Way,

13. Jehu met with the Brethren of Ahaziah King of Judah, and said, Who are you? And they answered, We are the Brethren of Ahaziah, and are going down to salute the Children of the King, and those of the Queen.

14. With that he said, Take them alive; so they did: and killed them at the Pit of the Shearing-house, forty two Men, and he left not a Man of them.

15. Moreover going from thence, he found Jehonadab the Son of Rechab meeting him, who blessed him; to whom he said, Is thy Heart right, as mine is with thine? If it is, on Jehonadab's asserting it, give me thy Hand: which he did, and he took him up to himself into the Chariot.

16. For added he, Come with me, and see my Zeal for the Lord. So they made him ride in his Chariot.

17. And at his coming to Samaria, he slew all who were left of Ahab there, till he had destroyed him; according to the Word of the Lord that he spoke to Elijah.

18. In the next place Jehu gathered together all the People, and said to them; Ahab served Baal a little, Jehu will serve him much.

19. Now therefore call to me all the Prophets of Baal, his Servants and Priests, let not a Man be lacking, for I have a great Sacrifice for him; every one who is lacking shall not live. But Jehu did it in Fraud, that he might destroy those who served Baal.

20. Jehu said further, Sanctify a solemn Day for Baal; and they proclaimed it.

21. Besides he sent through all Israel, and all who served Baal came, inasmuch that there was not a Man left who did not come; and going into the House of Baal, it was quite filled up.

22. And he said to the Steward of the Wardrobe, Bring forth Cloaths for all those who serve Baal; he accordingly brought them forth Cloathing.

23. Then went Jehu, and Jehonadab the Son of Rechab, into the House of Baal; and he said to those who served him, Search, and see that there be here with you none of the Servants of the Lord, but such only as serve Baal.

24. But when they went in to offer the Sacrifices, and Burnt-offerings, Jehu put him fourscore Men without, and said, The Man who lets one of the Men escape whom I have brought to your Hands, his Life shall be for the Life of him.

25. And as soon as he had done offering the Burnt-offering, he said to the Footmen, and Captains, Go in, kill them, let not a Man get out. So they put them to the Sword; and the same throwing them out, went to the Town of the House of Baal:

26. Where they brought out the Statues of the House of Baal, and burnt them.

27. Nay they broke down the Statue of Baal, as they did his House, and made it a Jakes to this Day.

28. Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29. However he did not depart from following the very Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, wherein he made Israel sin; the golden Calves which were both at Beth-el and in Dan.

30. And the Lord said to him, Because thou hast done well, by performing what I approved of, having performed to the Family of Ahab according to all that was in my Heart, the Sons of the fourth Generation to thee shall sit upon the Throne of Israel.

31. Yet he did not take heed to go in the Laws of the Lord God of Israel with all his

Ver. 9. You are righteous] in fulfilling what God appointed, Ver. 10. and Chap. ix. 6, 7. more than Jehu himself, by his next Words.

Ver. 11. Acquaintance] The Verb signifying to know or be acquainted with, of which this is the preter. Participle in Pyhal; and the Words of this Conjugation and Verb are every where else so rendered in the com. Transf. vis. Psa. xxxi. 11. and lv. 13. and lxxxviii. 8, 18 excepting Jeb xix. 14. familiar friends, because another Participles from the same Verb is translated so in the foregoing Verse.

Ver. 20. Sanctify] So the Heb. means, and not proclaim, nor is the same with that which follows.

Ver. 29. wherein] See 1 King. xiv. 16.

Ib. which were both at] It appears that they were but two, 1 King. xii. 28, 29. therefore not Calves at each Place.

Heart; not departing from the Sins of Jeroboam, wherein he made Israel sin.

32. In those Days the Lord began to cut off in Israel; and Hazael smote them in all the Bounds of it;

33. From Jordan at the Rising of the Sun, all the Country of Gilead, the Gadites, Reubenites and Manassites; from Aroer which is at the River of Arnon, both Gilead and Bashan.

34. As for the rest of Jehu's Affairs, and all that he did, with all his Power, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

35. And Jehu lay down with his Fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; whose Son Jehoahaz reigned in his room.

36. The Time also which Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty eight Years.

CHAP. XI.

AND Athaliah the Mother of Ahaziah seeing that her Son was dead, got ready, and destroyed all the royal Issue.

2. But Jehosheba the Daughter of King Joram, Ahaziah's Sister, took Joash the Son of Ahaziah, stealing him away from among the King's Sons who were killed, together with his Nurse, into a Bed-chamber: thus they concealed him from the Presence of Athaliah, so that he was not killed.

3. And he was with her at the House of the Lord hid six Years, while Athaliah reigned over the Country.

4. And in the seventh Year Jehoiada sent, and took the Princes of Hundreds, the Captains and Footmen, whom he brought to him at the House of the Lord; where making a Covenant with them, and causing them to swear, he shewed them the King's Son.

5. Then he commanded them as follows; This is the Thing that you shall do; a third Part of you coming in on the Sabbath, shall keep the Charge of the King's House,

6. Another shall be at the Gate of Sur, and the other at that behind the Footmen: thus shall you keep the Charge of the House, that it may not be broke down.

7. And two Parts of you all going forth on the Sabbath, shall keep the Charge of the Lord's House for the King.

8. You shall also compass the King round about, with your respective Weapons in your Hands; and let him who enters into the Ranks be killed: thus be you with the King, both when he goes out and comes in.

9. And the Captains of Hundreds did entirely as Jehoiada the Priest commanded, taking their several Men who entered in on the Sabbath, with those that went out on it; and came to him.

10. Besides the Priest gave to the Captains of Hundreds, the Spears and Shields which were King David's, that were in the House of the Lord.

11. And the Footmen stood, each having his Weapons in his Hand, from the right Side of the House to the left Side of it, at the Altar, and at the House, by the King round about.

12. He next brought forth the King's Son, and put the Crown upon him, with the Testimony, and they made him King, anointing him; they also clapt Hands, and said, Let the King live.

13. Now when Athaliah heard the Noise of the running of the People, she came to them at the House of the Lord.

14. And looking, behold the King stood by a Pillar, as the Manner was, attended with the Princes and Trumpeters; while all the People of the Country rejoiced, and blew Trumpets: upon which she tore her Cloaths, and cried out. Conspiracy, Conspiracy!

15. But Jehoiada the Priest commanded the Captains of Hundreds, the Officers of the Army, saying to them, Have her out to the Inside of the Ranks, and him who comes after her kill with the Sword: for the Priest said, Let her not be killed at the House of the Lord.

Ver. 1. royal Issue] She having Sons by some other Man before King Jehoram, 2 Chr. xxiv. 7. as she could not have them old enough by another after him, to do what is there related.

Ver. 3. reigned] as being not only the Queen-dowager or Mother, but as Peole supposes made Queen-regent upon Joram's (it should be Athaliah's) going to Ramoth-gilead.

Ver. 4. at the House] into which none but the Priests and Levites might enter; as it is remarked in this very Relation, 2 Chron. xxiii. 6.

Ver. 6. Sur] or getting away, because the unclean were to get away from it, not to go in there, according to Abarbanel and others; and otherwise called upon another Account, 2 Chr. xxiii. 5. In the vulg. Lat. Scir, ridiculously.

Ver. 10, 11. House] thus the Heb. and not Temple, for which there is another Word; and it is something strange to be so altered from the Genev. Transf. when it is also rendered House both before and after in the same pref. Transf. but indeed the Bish. Bible had it so before.

Ver. 12. with the Testimony] the Book of the Law; putting this on his Hands, as the other on his Head.

Ver. 13. running] a Participle of the Verb to run, as 2 Chron. xxiii. 12. spell'd with one different Letter; and it is probable she heard only the Noise of those who were running thither, before she went her self.

1b. House] as 2 Chron. xxiii. 12.

Ver. 15. to the Inside] This Conjunction of Heb. Particles is found in two other Places, Lev. xvi. 15. where the com. Transf. has it within; and in the parallel Passage, 2 Chr. xxiii. 14. where there is Nothing rendered for it, unless of is, so the latter is translated within, Gen. vi. 14.

16. Ac-

16. Accordingly they laid Hands on her, as she went the Way of the Entrance of the Houses at the King's House; and she was killed there.

17. Afterwards Jehoiada made a Covenant between the Lord, and the King and People, that they should be the People of the Lord; as likewise between the King and the People.

18. Whereupon all the People of the Country went into the House of Baal, and broke it down: his Altars and Images did they break effectually, and slew Mattan the Priest of Baal before the Altars. The Priest too put Offices in the House of the Lord.

19. Lastly he took the Princes of Hundreds, the Captains, Footmen, and all the People of the Country, who brought the King down from the House of the Lord, and went the Way of the Gate of the Footmen to the King's House; where he sat upon the Throne of the Kings.

20. And all the People of the Country were glad, and the City was still, when they had killed Athaliah with the Sword at the King's House.

21. Jehoash was in his seventh Year when he began reigning.

C H A P. XII.

IN the seventh Year of Jchu did Jehoash begin reigning, and reigned forty Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2. And he did what the Lord approved of, all his Time, wherein Jehoiada the Priest instructed him.

3. Only the Chapels were not taken away; the People yet sacrificed, and burnt incense in them.

4. And Jehoash said to the Priests; All the Money of the consecrated Things which is to be brought to the House of the Lord, that of him who passes, that of the Persons by their respective Estimations, and all the Money which comes into the Heart of each to bring to the House of the Lord,

5. Let the Priests take to them from their several Acquaintance, and let them make whole the Breaches of the House, wherever any shall be found.

6. Yet in the Year that was the twenty third of King Jehoash, the Priests had not done them.

7. Upon this he called Jehoiada the Priest, and the others, and said to them, Why have not you made whole the Breaches of the House? Now therefore do not receive Money from your Acquaintance; since you should deliver it for those Breaches.

8. So the Priests consented not to receive Money from the People, nor to make whole the Breaches of the House.

9. But Jehoiada the Priest took a Chest, and bored a Hole in the Lid of it; and putting it by the Altar on the right Side, as a Man goes into the House of the Lord, the Priests who kept the Threshold put there all the Money that was brought to the Lord's House.

10. And when they saw that there was much Money in the Chest, the King's Scribe and the Priest ascended, and tied up the Money when counted, that was found at the House of the Lord.

11. Which they gave being weighed into the Hands of those who did the Work, that were set over the House of the Lord; and they delivered it out to the Carpenters and Builders, who wrought there;

12. As likewise to Masons and Stonecutters, and to buy Timber and Stone which was cut, to make whole the Breaches of the Lord's House, and for all that it was laid out upon the House, to make it whole.

13. Only there were not made for the Lord Basons of Silver, musical Instruments, Bowls, Trumpets, any Instruments either of Gold or Silver, with the Money that was brought thither.

14. For they gave it to those who did the Work, and made whole the House of the Lord with it.

15. Nor did they reckon with the Men into whose Hands they delivered the Money, to give to those who did the Work: for they dealt faithfully.

16. The Money for Guilt, and that for Sins, was not brought to the House of the Lord; it belonged to the Priests.

17. Then Hazael King of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it; after which he set his Face to come up against Jerusalem.

18. With that Jehoash King of Judah

Ver. 17. and the King] This Pope Sixtus omitted, as knowing better, he might fancy, than to have a Tautology in the Scripture; tho' there would be none at all, the King being here one with the People, and the Matter as different as ecclesiastical and civil.

Ver. 18. Offices] so 2 Chron. xxiii. 18.

Ver. 20. when] not and, as if now or again; but Faults of this Kind are numerous, if not innumerable, in the pres. Bib.

Ver. 4. passes] See at and on Exod. xxviii. 36.

Ver. 10. when counted] I flatter my self that I shall not be found fault with for thus translating.

13. not made] not till the House was repaired, when the rest of the Money was so employed, 2 Chron. xxiv. 14.

1b. musical Instruments] See 1 King. vii. 50.

took all the consecrated Things, which Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah his Fathers, Kings of Judah, had consecrated, and those of his own, with all the Gold that was found in the Treasures of the House of the Lord, and the King's House; and sent to him, so he went up from Jerusalem.

19. As for the rest of the Affairs of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

20. And his Servants getting ready, made a Conspiracy, and smote Joash at the House of the Fortress, going down to Silla:

21. Even Jozachar the Son of Shimath, and Jehozabad the Son of Shomer, his Servants, smote him, so that he died; whom they buried with his Fathers in the City of David: and Amaziah his Son reigned in his room.

C H A P. XIII.

IN the Year that was the twenty third of Joash King of Judah, Jehoahaz the Son of Jehu began reigning over Israel in Samaria seventeen Years.

2. And he did what the Lord was displeased with: and went after the Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, wherein he made Israel sin, not departing from them.

3. Incensed therefore at Israel, the Lord delivered them into the Power of Hazael King of Syria, and into that of Ben-hadad the Son of Hazael, all his Time.

4. But Jehoahaz made supplication before the Lord; who hearkened to him, for he saw the Oppression of Israel, because the King of Syria oppressed them.

5. And the Lord gave the Israelites one who saved, so that they came out from under the Power of the Syrians; and dwelt in their Tents, as in time past.

6. Yet they did not depart from the Sins of the Family of Jeroboam, in which he made Israel sin, they walked therein; and the Grove also stood at Samaria.

7. Though he had left Jehoahaz no People, excepting fifty Horsemen, ten Chariots, and ten thousand Footmen: for the King of Syria destroyed them, and made them as the Dust is by Threshing.

8. As for the rest of the Affairs of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, with his Power, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

9. And Jehoahaz lay down with his Fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; whose Son Joash reigned in his room.

10. When Joash had been thirty seven Years King of Judah, Jehoash the Son of Jehoahaz began reigning over Israel in Samaria sixteen Years.

11. And he did what the Lord was displeased with: he departed not from any of the Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, in which he made Israel sin; he walked therein.

12. As for the rest of the Affairs of Joash, and all that he did, and his Power with which he fought against Amaziah King of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

13. Joash too lay down with his Fathers, and Jeroboam sate upon his Throne; Joash being buried in Samaria with the Kings of Israel.

14. And when Elisha was sick of his Sickness that he died of, Joash King of Israel went down to him, and weeping before him, said, My Father, my Father, the Chariot of Israel, and the Horsemen of it!

15. To whom Elisha said, Take a Bow and Arrows; which he took to him.

16. Besides he said to the King of Israel, Put thy Hand upon the Bow, who put his

Ver. 3. Ben-hadad] under his Father, who reigned longer than Jehoahaz, Ver. 22. Ch. xii. 17, 18. 2 Chr. xxiv. 23, 25. and so here he is not called King.

Ib. all his Time] that of Jehoahaz, as Ver. 22. not all their days, Ver. 25.

Ver. 5. who saved] to wit Joash, that King's Son, Ver. 22, 25.

Ver. 10. thirty seven Years] which was strictly his thirty eighth Year, and he reigning but till the fortieth, as in the Table, from the Time that Jehoash King of Israel began reigning in the former Year, to the same Time in the latter, would be just two Years; consequently if Joash King of Judah died, and his Son Amaziah began reigning sooner in the Year, it would be in the second Year of that King of Israel, as Chap. xiv. 1. So that there is no Need, as there is no Proof, to begin Amaziah's Reign before the End of his Father's, as Bedford does, and that three Years current, Scrip. Chron. L. vi. 1, 7. He might have put it as well either two Years or one, it being also merely uncertain that Way. However it appears that Jehoahaz King of Israel did not die till the next Year after this in which his Son began reigning, because he reigned seventeen Years from the twenty third of Joash King of Judah, Ver. 1. which to his thirty ninth might be so many current ones. Then Jehoash King of Israel reigning sixteen Years, two of which being in the Time of Joash King of Judah, the whole will fall out to be full Years in the fifteenth of Amaziah, Chap. xiv. 23. and from the Death of Jehoahaz to the same fifteenth Year will be sixteen current Years, as in the Table. On the contrary from the thirty seventh Year of Joash King of Judah, as it is here in the pres. Trans. to the fifteenth of Amaziah, the Beginning and End of the Reign of Jehoash King of Israel, is more than sixteen Years of any Sort. I have to add, that Jehoahaz being oppressed by the Syrians, Ver. 7, 22. might when he was taken ill constitute his Son King, and live till the next Year as above; according to what was observed of Jehoshaphat on Chap. viii. 16.

Ver. 14. when Elisha] being before what is related in the preceding Ver. as at Ver. 20.

Hand;

Hand; Elisha likewise put his Hands upon the King's.

17. Next he said, Open the Window eastward; so he did: then Elisha said, Shoot; and when he shot, he said, The Arrow of the Lord's Safety, and the Arrow of Safety against Syria; for thou shalt smite the Syrians at Aphek, till they are consumed.

18. He saying further, Take the Arrows; these were taken by him; whereupon he ordered the King of Israel to strike on the Ground; who striking three times, stopped.

19. Being in a Wrath therefore at him, the Man of God said, Thou shouldest have struck five or six times, then wouldest thou have beat the Syrians, till they were consumed; whereas now thou wilt beat Syria but three times.

20. So Elisha died, and they buried him; then the Troops of Moab came into the Country at the Entrance of the Year.

21. And as some were burying a Man, behold they saw a Troop, at which they cast him into the Grave of Elisha; in which when the Man was sunk down, so that he touched the Bones of Elisha, he became alive, and arose upon his Feet.

22. And Hazael King of Syria had oppressed Israel all the Time of Jehoahaz.

23. But the Lord was gracious to them, had mercy upon them, and regard to them, because of his Covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; and would not destroy them, nor cast them from before him to this Time.

24. At length Hazael King of Syria died, and Ben-hadad his Son reigned in his room.

25. Then Jehoash the Son of Jehoahaz took again the Cities out of the Possession of Ben-hadad the Son of Hazael, which he had taken out of the Possession of Jehoahaz his Father in War: three times did Joash beat him, and recovered the Cities of Israel.

IN the second Year of Joash the Son of Joahaz King of Israel, Amaziah the Son of Joash King of Judah began reigning.

2. Who when he did was in his twenty fifth Year, and reigned twenty nine Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

3. And he did what the Lord approved of, but not like David his Father; doing entirely as his Father Joash had done.

4. Only the Chapels were not taken away; the People did yet sacrifice, and burn incense in them.

5. And as soon as the Kingdom was confirmed in his Power, he slew his Servants who had slain the King his Father.

6. However he did not put the Children of those who slew him to death; as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, wherein the Lord thus commanded, Fathers shall not be put to death for the Children, nor shall Children for the Fathers, but each shall die for his own Sin.

7. He slew ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt, and took the Rock in the War; the Name of which he called Joktheel to this Day.

8. Then Amaziah sent Messengers with Word to Jehoash, the Son of Jehoahaz, the Son of Jehu, King of Israel, Come, let us look one another in the Face.

9. But he sent Word to Amaziah King of Judah; A Bramble which was in Lebanon sent to treat thus with a Cedar that was there, Give thy Daughter to my Son for a Wife; whereas a wild Beast that was in Lebanon went by, and trod down the Bramble.

Ver 20. died] Joash King of Judah being killed by two (probably chief) Servants of his, one an Ammonite and the other a Moabite by the Mother, 2 Chron. xxiv. 25, 26. for which his Son Amaziah put them to death, when the Kingdom was confirmed to him after that Insurrection, 2 Chr. xxv. 3. which was scarcely before the second Year of his Reign; and in Revenge for this it seems most likely, that some Troops came from Moab, which Nation might have employed those Regicides, and entered Israel, as being in Alliance with Judah, Ch. xii. 17. and xiii. 3. 2 Chr. xxv. 5, 6. and then weak, Ver. 7. besides since this may be well supposed to be in the next or Amaziah's third Year, consequently Elisha died in his second and the fourth of Joash, by the Table at the End of Dan. and so fifty nine Years after Elijah; all which appears very consistent, and may not be disagreeable to understand.

Ver. 21. sunk down] Heb. went, not cast into, and was let down.

Ver. 24. died] This seems to be after Joash King of Israel did, Chap. xii. 17, 18. with 2 Chron. 24, 25. and before Elisha, Ver. 17, 22. which fixes the Year as in the Table, and so he reigned forty seven Years. The Moabites infesting Israel in the fifth Year of their King Joash, according to that on Ver. 20. and the Tab. I allow the next Year for their being stopped by Victory or Peace; then supposing Joash would not delay the War against Syria, from whom Israel had suffered so much, when he was assured by that great Prophet Elisha of Conquest, V. 17. I place these three Defeats in the three ensuing Campaigns, and the Surrender of the Cities by Siege in the following Years. Thus too there would have been Space, as requisite, for him to have beat the Syrians five or six times, Ver. 19. but now it appears they defended themselves at Home against him; so that when he could do no more, he spared a hundred thousand Men to assist Judah, 2 Chr. xxv. 6. All which conspire to fix the Time of these Victories nearly to that wherein I have placed them. In such Disquisitions I may hope for some Indulgence, as I know not that they have been used by others: and even little Matters, that tend to clear up any Difficulties respecting the Holy Scriptures, enhance in some degree their intrinsic Value.

Ver. 1. Joahaz] Heb.

Ver. 7. Joktheel] The Gathering of God, perhaps for their worshipping him there.

Ver. 9. Bramble] Besides the Heb. Word not signifying thistle, that being not Wood, it less accords with Cedar to denote the two Kings.

10. Thou

10. Thou hast thoroughly beat Edom, and thy Heart lifts thee up: glory, and abide at Home; for why wilt thou make war for Hurt, that thou thy self mayest fall, and Judah with thee?

11. Yet Amaziah would not hearken; so Jehoash King of Israel went up, and they looked one another in the Face, he and Amaziah King of Judah at Beth-shemesh, which belonged to Judah.

12. And Judah was smitten before Israel, so that they fled to their several Tents.

13. Amaziah also King of Judah, the Son of Jehoash, the Son of Ahaziah, did Jehoash King of Israel take at Beth-shemesh; and came to Jerusalem, breaking down the Wall of it, at the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner-gate, four hundred Cubits.

14. Besides he took away all the Gold, the Silver, and all the Instruments that were found at the House of the Lord, and in the Treasures of the King's House, as also Sons for Hostages; and returned to Samaria.

15. As for the rest of the Affairs of Jehoash that he did, and his Power, and how he fought with Amaziah King of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

16. And Jehoash lay down with his Fathers, being buried in Samaria with the Kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his Son reigned in his room.

17. And Amaziah the Son of Joash King of Judah, lived after the Death of Jehoash the Son of Jehoahaz King of Israel, fifteen Years.

18. As to the rest of Amaziah's Affairs, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

19. Against whom they made a Conspiracy at Jerusalem, upon which he fled to Lachish; whither they sent after him, and killed him there.

20. They nevertheless carried him upon Horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his Fathers in the City of David.

21. At length all the People of Judah took Azariah, when he was in his sixteenth Year, and made him King in the room of his Father Amaziah.

22. He built Elath, which he recovered to Judah, after the King was laid down with his Fathers.

23. In the Year that was the fifteenth of Amaziah the Son of Joash King of Judah, Jeroboam the Son of Joash King of Israel began reigning in Samaria forty one Years.

24. And he did what the Lord was displeased with: he departed not from any of the Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, wherein he made Israel sin.

25. He recovered the Border of Israel from the Entrance of Hamath to the Sea of the Plain; according to the Word of the Lord God of Israel, that he spoke by the Ministry of his Servant Jonah the Son of Amittai the Prophet, who was of Gath-hepher.

26. For the Lord saw the Affliction of Israel was very bitter; there being none shut up, and none left, nor any Helper for Israel.

27. And the Lord did not say that he would blot out the Name of Israel from under Heaven; so he saved them by the Power of Jeroboam the Son of Joash.

28. As for the rest of Jeroboam's Affairs, and all that he did, and his Power with which he fought, and how he recovered Damascus and Hamath of Judah for Israel, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

29. And Jeroboam lay down with his Fathers, with the Kings of Israel; at length Zechariah his Son reigned in his room.

Ver. 12. smitten] Josephus in Antiq. Lib. ix. 10. relates that this fell out in the fourteenth Year of Amaziah, and so but a little before the Death of Joash; and indeed if it had not been after the Victories of the latter over the Syrians, Ch. xiii. ult. he would scarce have been so sure of mastering Amaziah, as he shews himself to be in the second Verse back from this; nor is he to be deemed of sufficient Strength in the Beginning of his Reign, by comparing Chap. xiii. 7. with 2 Chr. xxv. 5.

Ver. 17. fifteen] Vulg. Lat. twenty five, of no Authority.

Ver. 21. Azariah] This Name having the Heb. Augment \aleph at the End in Ch. xv. 6, 8. as Isaiah, Jeremiah, &c. have, and as Greek, Latin, &c. have their Augments or redundant Additions; this King being also called by his other Name Uzziah, Ch. xv. 13, 30. with the Augment to that in Ver. 32, 34. The Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew Text calls them many Blunderings, and undertakes to assign the Cause of them, that the Transcribers have confounded the true Name of the King Oziah (in the new deistical Dress, or Shadow of a Dream) with the Name of his Priest Onihu, 2 Chron. xxvi. 17, 20. but how can that be when his Name is written without \aleph throughout 2 Chr. xxvi. and xxvii? so that instead of being confounded, they are clearly distinguished; and did the Transcribers of this Book look at 2 Chr. xxvi. 17, 20. and not at their own Copy? How came they then not to transcribe the rest of those Verses? And how did they take it, not as it is there with \aleph at the End?

lb. when he] after an Interregnum, as by the Chron. Table; and it is not וְהָיָה which or who; see 2 Chron. xxvi. 1.

Ver. 22. which he recovered] not built first.

lb. after the King was] for after that may be the contrary, or doubtful which.

Ver. 25. It does not appear that Joash King of Israel made Peace with Syria after his Conquests, but partly dropped the War, as on Chap. xiii. ult. and see 1 King. xxii. 1. which his Son Jeroboam continued or renewed, encouraged to it by the Prophecy of Jonah as here, which was probably done in the Beginning of his Reign, when his domestick Affairs were settled.

Ver. 29. at length] after a Space of twenty three Years between, as in the Table, and the Account of it in the Chronology, at the End of Daniel.

CHAP. XV.

IN the Year that was the twenty seventh of Jeroboam King of Israel, Azariah the Son of Amaziah King of Judah began reigning.

2. Who when he did was in his sixteenth Year, and reigned fifty two Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Jechoiah of Jerusalem.

3. And he did what the Lord approved of, entirely as Amaziah his Father had done.

4. Only the Chapels were not taken away: the People did yet sacrifice, and burn incense in them.

5. And the Lord smote the King, so that he was leprous to the Day of his Death, and dwelt in a separate House, while Jotham his Son was over the House, judging the People of the Country.

6. Now the rest of Azariah's Affairs, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

7. And Azariah lay down with his Fathers, they burying him with them in the City of David; and Jotham his Son reigned in his room.

8. In the Year that was the thirty eighth of Azariah King of Judah, Zechariah the Son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel at Samaria six Months.

9. And he did what the Lord was displeased with as his Fathers had done: he departed not from the Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, wherein he made Israel sin.

10. So Shallum the Son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the People, insomuch that he killed him; and reigned in his room.

11. As for the rest of Zechariah's Affairs, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

12. That was the Word of the Lord which he spoke thus to Jehu, The Sons of the fourth Generation to thee shall sit upon the Throne of Israel; and so it came to pass.

13. Shallum the Son of Jabesh began reigning in the Year that was the thirty ninth of Uzziah King of Judah, and reigned the Space of a Month at Samaria.

14. When Menahem the Son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and going thither, smote him there; and having killed him, reigned in his room.

15. As to the rest of Shallum's Affairs, and his Conspiracy that he made, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

16. Then Menahem smote Tiphshah, and all who were in it, with its Borders from Tirzah; which he did, because they would not open to him; cutting up all the Women of it with Child.

17. In the Year that was the thirty ninth of Azariah King of Judah, Menahem the Son of Gadi began reigning over Israel ten Years at Samaria.

18. And he did what the Lord was displeased with: he departed not from the Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, wherein he made Israel sin, all his Time.

19. Pul King of Assyria coming against the Country, Menahem gave him a thousand Talents of Silver; that his Power might be with himself, to strengthen the Kingdom in his own Possession.

20. And Menahem got the Silver out of Israel, from all who had a great deal of Wealth fifty Shekels of Silver apiece, to give to the King of Assyria; so he returned, and did not stay there in the Country.

21. As for the rest of Menahem's Affairs, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

22. And Menahem lay down with his Fathers, and Pekahiah his Son reigned in his room.

23. In the Year that was the fiftieth of Azariah King of Judah, Pekahiah the Son of Menahem began reigning over Israel at Samaria two Years.

24. He likewise did what the Lord was displeased with: he departed not from the

Ver. 1. twenty seventh] This compared with Chap. xiv. 2, 23. shews an Interregnum of eleven Years between Amaziah and Azariah, as in the Tables at the End of Dan. But Usher endeavours to avoid it, by supposing that Jeroboam was made Partner with his Father Joash in reigning, so long before his Father's Death, that his twenty seventh Year was at the very End of Amaziah's Reign, Annal. p. 75. and Chron. sacr. p. 14, 15. at which Rate all the Reigns of both Kingdoms might be computed without any Space of Time between them, whereas Usher himself allows of the other two that follow, and upon the same Account as this, by the Calculation of the Beginning of Reigns in the determinate Years of the Reigns in the other Kingdom, and by the Time of reigning; besides that all the Years of all the Kings Reigns every where else are counted from the Time, or one of the Times, when they are related to begin reigning, and here is no Intimation of its being otherwise; but what especially restricts the Manner of reckoning is the Number 390 in Ezek. iv. 5. which so nicely agrees with my Chronology, while to the same Period Usher makes but 380 Years, and to the Captivity but 386. Moreover Amaziah's being killed by a Conspiracy, Ch. xiv. 19. suits with a Vacation to the Throne, and especially as his Son was then a Child.

Ver. 19. against the Country] In the com. Lat. into Thersa; corruptly doubtless for terra, land, since the Heb. is aretz.

Ver. 23. fiftieth] Bedford supposes it evident, that it was a Year before Pekahiah could succeed Menahem, be-

Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, wherein he made Israel sin.

25. And Pekah the Son of Remaliah his Captain conspired against him, and slew him in Samaria, in the Palace of the King's House, with Argob and Arich, there being with him fifty Men of the Sons of the Gileadites; and when he had killed him, he reigned in his room.

26. As for the rest of the Affairs of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

27. In the Year that was the fifty second of Azariah King of Judah, Pekah the Son of Remaliah began reigning over Israel at Samaria twenty Years.

28. Moreover he did what the Lord was displeased with: he departed not from the Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, wherein he made Israel sin.

29. In the Time of Pekah King of Israel came Tiglath-pileser King of Assyria, and took Ijon, Abel-beth-maachah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead and Galilee, the whole Country of Naphtali; and carried the People of them prisoners to Assyria.

30. And Hoshea the Son of Elah made a Conspiracy against Pekah the Son of Remaliah, and smiting him, killed him, and reigned in his room, at twenty Years of Jotham the Son of Uzziah.

31. As for the rest of Pekah's Affairs, and all that he did, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

32. In the second Year of Pekah the Son of Remaliah King of Israel, Jotham the Son of Uzziah King of Judah began reigning.

33. Who when he did was in his twenty fifth Year, and reigned sixteen Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Jerusha the Daughter of Zadok.

34. And he did what the Lord approved of, entirely as Uzziah his Father had done.

35. Only the Chapels were not taken away; the People did yet sacrifice and burn incense in them: he built the highest Gate of the Lord's House.

36. As for the rest of Jotham's Affairs, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

37. In those Days the Lord began to send against Judah, Rezin the King of Syria, and Pekah the Son of Remaliah.

38. And Jotham lay down with his Fathers, being buried with them in the City of his Father David; and Ahaz his Son reigned in his room.

C H A P. XVI.

IN the Year that was the seventeenth of Pekah the Son of Remaliah, Ahaz the Son of Jotham King of Judah began reigning.

2. Ahaz when he did was in his twentieth Year, and reigned sixteen Years at Jerusalem; but did not what the Lord his God approved of, like his Father David.

3. For he went in the Way of the Kings of Israel; and even made his Son pass through the Fire; according to the Abominations of the Nations, that the Lord expelled from the Presence of the Israelites.

4. Besides he sacrificed, and burnt incense in the Chapels, upon the Hills, and under every green Tree.

5. Then Rezin King of Syria, and Pekah the Son of Remaliah King of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war; and they laid siege against Ahaz, but could not overcome him.

6. At that Time Rezin King of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and cast the Jews out of it; whither the Syrians came, and have dwelt there to this Time.

7. But Ahaz sent word by Messengers to Tiglath-pileser King of Assyria, I am thy Servant and Son; come up, and save me both cause Menahem began to reign in the thirty ninth Year of Uzziah, and reigning ten Years, Pekahiah succeeded in the fiftieth Year of Uzziah, Scrip. Chron. L. vi. 2. 113. which Stackhouse quoting, says, it is manifest, and there was therefore apparently an Interregnum, Hist. Bib. Lib. vi. 4. whereas Menahem might have reigned from the thirty ninth to the fiftieth Year, if he reigned but ten Years and one Day, and it might be called ten Years if it wanted but a little of eleven; and Usher has no Interregnum here.

Ver. 25. there being with him] Juv. and Trem. render habens secum, having with him, who assisted him, says Pool, in the Execution of his Treason. Which is more likely than for Pekah to find and kill fifty Gileadites in the Palace, according to the pres. Transf. see Chap. xxv. 25.

Ver. 29. Tiglath-pileser] that this was after the taking of Damascus, Ch. xvi. 9. see Isa. ix. 11, 12. and Prideaux Connec. An. 740.

Ver. 30. twenty Years of Jotham] from the Beginning of his Reign, tho' he reigned but sixteen, Ver. 33. but the Time is counted from him rather than his wicked Son Ahaz who then reigned. But here Lightfoot raises a Scruple, as he says, of no small Difficulty, that Pekah beginning to reign in the fifty second or last Year of Uzziah, and reigning twenty Years, Ver. 27. and Jotham beginning to reign in the second Year of Pekah, Ver. 32. then certainly Pekah's twentieth and last Year was but the nineteenth of Jotham: which he answers by interring, that Jotham began reigning in the last Year of his Father, when Pekah also did, Proleg. ad Harm. 4. Evang. But instead of this, the Scripture affirms, that Jotham began to reign the Year after; the Scruple may be therefore much better removed, by supposing that Ahaz began reigning in the last Year of Jotham, as in my Table, which brings it to the same, and does not so displace the Time that Ahaz began to reign.

out

out of the Power of the King of Syria and the King of Israel, who rise up against me.

8. And Ahaz took the Silver and Gold that was found at the House of the Lord, and in the Treasures of the King's House, which he sent for a Present to the King of Assyria.

9. Who hearkened to him, so that he went up against Damascus, taking it, and carried those of it prisoners to Kir; he also killed Rezin.

10. Now King Ahaz went to meet Tiglath-pileser King of Assyria at Damascus, and saw an Altar that was there; whereupon he sent to Uriah the Priest the Likeness of the Altar, and its Building, according to all the Work of it.

11. Thus he built an Altar: entirely as King Ahaz sent from Damascus, so did Uriah the Priest make it, against he came from thence.

12. When the King also came from Damascus, and saw the Altar himself, he went near to the same, and offered upon it.

13. He further burnt his Burnt-offering and Oblation, poured out his Drink-offering, and sprinkled the Blood of the Peace-offerings which he had, upon the Altar.

14. And the brazen Altar too which was before the Lord, he brought from the Front of the House, from between the Altar and the House of the Lord, putting it upon the north Side of the Altar.

15. And King Ahaz commanded Uriah the Priest as follows, Upon the great Altar burn the Burnt-offering of the Morning, and the Oblation of the Evening, as also the King's Burnt-offering, his Oblation, and the Burnt-offering of all the People of the Country, their Oblation and Drink-offerings; all the Blood likewise of the Burnt-offering, with all that of the Sacrifice shalt thou sprinkle upon it: and the brazen Altar shall be for me to make enquiry.

16. So Uriah the Priest did, entirely as he commanded.

17. And King Ahaz cut off the Borders of the Bases, took off the Washing-vessel from them, and took down the Sea from the brazen Oxen that were under it, putting it upon a Pavement of Stones.

18. The Covert likewise for the Sabbath, which they had built at the House, and the King's Entry without, he turned aside from the House of the Lord; by reason of the King of Assyria.

19. As for the rest of the Affairs of Ahaz that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

20. And Ahaz lay down with his Fathers, being buried with them in the City of David; and Hezekiah his Son reigned in his room.

CHAP. XVII.

IN the twelfth Year of Ahaz King of Judah, Hoshea the Son of Elah began reigning at Samaria, over Israel nine Years.

2. And he did what the Lord was displeased with, only not like the Kings of Israel who were before him.

3. Against him came up Shalmaneser King of Assyria; to whom he became a Servant, and rendered Presents.

4. But the King of Assyria found Conspiracy in Hoshea, who sent Messengers to So King of Egypt, and brought up no Present to himself as Year by Year; therefore he shut him up, and bound him in a House of Restraint.

5. For he came up through all the Country, and ascending to Samaria, laid siege against it three Years.

6. In the ninth Year of Hoshea the King of Assyria took Samaria, and carried the Israelites away prisoners to Assyria; and made them dwell in Halah, and Habor, at the River Gozan, and in the Cities of the Medes.

7. Thus it came to pass because the Israelites sinned against the Lord their God, who had brought them up out of the Country of Egypt, from under the Power of Pharaoh King of it; and feared other gods:

8. As likewise went in the Ordinances of the Nations, that the Lord expelled from the Presence of the Israelites, and of the Kings of Israel, which they made.

9. The Israelites also concealed Things that were not right, against the Lord their God; and built them Chapels in all their Cities, from the Tower of the Keepers to the fortified City.

10. They further set them up Statues, and Groves, upon every high Hill, and under every green Tree.

11. Where they burnt incense in all the Chapels, like the Nations that the Lord caused to be carried away from their Presence; and did evil Things to provoke the Lord:

12. Serving filthy Idols, of which he said to them, You shall not do that Thing.

Ver. 9. went up] Look on Chap. xv. 29.

Ib. Damascus] Thus ending the Kingdom of Syria, which began as related 1 King. xi. 23, 24, 25. and making it Part of that of Assyria.

Ver. 18. at the House] for what Need was there of a Covert in it?

Ib. by reason of] as not only the Heb. properly signifies, but the [for] in the con. Transf. is expounded.

Ver. 5. For] not Then after he had imprisoned Hoshea.

13. Besides

13. Besides though the Lord testified both against Israel and Judah, by the Ministry of all the Prophets, every Seer, as follows, Return from your evil Ways, and keep my Commandments, my Ordinances, according to all the Law that I commanded your Fathers, and which I sent to you by the Ministry of my Servants the Prophets;

14. Yet they would not hearken, but hardened their Necks like those of their Fathers, who did not believe in the Lord their God.

15. Moreover they not only rejected his Ordinances, and Covenant which he made with their Forefathers, and his Testimonies which he declared to them; but went after Vanity, becoming vain, and after the Nations that were round about them, of whom the Lord commanded them not to do like those.

16. They even left all the Commandments of the Lord their God, and made them molten Images, two Calves; as they did also Groves, and worshipped all the Army of Heaven, and served Baal.

17. Nay they made their Sons and Daughters pass through the Fire, using Divinations and Soothsaying, and delivered themselves up to do what the Lord was displeased with, to provoke him.

18. Therefore was he very angry with Israel, and put them away from before him: there were none left, only the mere Tribe of Judah.

19. Nor did Judah keep the Commandments of the Lord their God, but went in the Ordinances of Israel which they made.

20. With that the Lord rejected all the Offspring of Israel, afflicted them, and delivered them into the Power of Spoilers; till he had cast them from his Face.

21. For he tore Israel from the Family of David, and they made Jeroboam the Son of Nebat King; who drove them from after the Lord, and made them commit a great Sin.

22. And the Israelites went in all the Sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them:

23. Until the Lord put Israel away from his Face, as he had threatened by the Ministry of his Servants the Prophets. Thus were they carried away from their own Country to Assyria, to this Day.

24. And the King of Assyria brought some from Babylon, Cuthah, Avah, Hamath and Sepharvaim; whom he put to dwell in the Cities of Samaria, in the room of the Israelites: so they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the Cities of it.

25. At the Beginning of whose dwelling there, they did not fear the Lord; therefore he sent Lions among them, that slew some of them.

26. Then they spoke to the King of Assyria as follows, The Nations that thou hast carried away, and caused to dwell in the Cities of Samaria, not knowing the Manner of the God of the Country; he has sent Lions among them, which behold kill them, forasmuch as they are ignorant of that.

27. Whereupon the King of Assyria commanded thus, Have thither one of the Priests whom you brought away from thence, letting them go, and dwell there; and let him teach them the Manner of the God of the Country.

28. Accordingly one of the Priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came, and dwelt at Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the Lord.

29. Yet each Nation made their own gods, and placed them in the Houses of the Chapels which the Samaritans made, each Nation in their Cities where they dwelt.

30. Since the Men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the Men of Cuth made Nergal, as those of Hamath did Ashima,

31. And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, the Sepharvites also burnt their Children in the Fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech the gods of Sepharvaim.

32. So they feared the Lord, and made them of the meanest among themselves Priests of the Chapels, who offered for them in the Houses of the Chapels.

33. They feared the Lord, and served their own gods; according to the Manner of the Nations that they carried away from thence.

34. Who to this Day do after the former Manners; fear not the Lord, nor do according to their own Ordinances and Manner, even according to the Law and Commandment, that the Lord enjoined the Sons of Jacob, whose Name he put to be Israel.

35. With whom the Lord made a Covenant, and thus commanded them; You shall

Ver. 24. brought] This seems to be done divers Years after, as well by Ezr. iv. 2. as because Ezar-baddon was the first of the Assyrian Kings who reigned over Babylon, where before him there was an Interregnum of eight Years by Ptolemy's Canon. His reigning there appears not only by this Verse and that Canon, but 2 Chron. xxxiii. 11. Ezr. iv. 9, 10. see also Ch. xxiii. 29. with xxiv. 7.

Ver. 27. letting them] the Messengers who were come, according to Jun. and Trem. not other Priests as Poole would, since one only is so particularly and repeatedly mentioned.

Ver. 33. Nations] the Tribes of Israel.

Ver. 34. Who] the Israelites as before, that did not fear the Lord, which those other Nations now did, Ver. 32, 33, 41. whereby those opposite Expressions are reconciled.

neither fear other gods, bow down to them, serve them, nor sacrifice to them.

36. But the Lord who brought you up from the Country of Egypt, by great Might, and by an Arm stretched out, him shall you fear, and him shall you worship, and sacrifice to him.

37. And the Ordinances, Rules, Law, and Commandment which he wrote for you, shall ye observe to do continually; and shall not fear other gods.

38. The Covenant likewise that I have made with you ye shall not forget, as well as not fear other gods.

39. But ye shall fear the Lord your God, who will deliver you from the Power of all your Enemies.

40. Nevertheless they would not hearken, but did after their former Manner.

41. And those Nations feared the Lord, and served their carved Images, both their Children and Grandchildren; according as their Fathers did, to this Day.

C H A P. XVIII.

AND when Hoshea the Son of Elah had been three Years King of Israel, Hezekiah the Son of Ahaz King of Judah began reigning.

2. It was in the twenty fifth Year when he did, and he reigned nine and twenty Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Abi, the Daughter of Zechariah.

3. And he did what the Lord approved of, entirely as his Father David had done.

4. He took away the Chapels, broke down the Statues, and cut down the Groves: as also beat in pieces the Serpent of Brass that Moses made; for to those Days the Israelites burnt incense to it; whereas he called it a brazen Thing.

5. In the Lord God of Israel did he trust; so that after him there was none like him among all the Kings of Judah, nor of those who were before him.

6. For he cleaved to the Lord, and did not depart from following him; but kept his Commandments that the Lord enjoined Moses.

7. And the Lord was with him, he prospered whithersoever he went out; insomuch that he rebelled against the King of Assyria, and would not serve him.

8. He smote the Philistines to Gaza and its Borders, from the Tower of the Keepers to the fortified City.

9. Now in the fourth Year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh Year of Hoshea the Son of Elah King of Israel, Sennacherib King of Assyria came up against Samaria, and laid siege to it.

10. And they took it at the Term of three Years: in the sixth Year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth of Hoshea King of Israel, was Samaria taken.

11. Thus the King of Assyria carried the Israelites away prisoners to Assyria, and placed them in Halah and Habor, at the River Gozan, and in the Cities of the Medes:

12. Because they did not hearken to what the Lord their God said, but transgressed his Covenant, all that Moses the Servant of the Lord commanded; and would neither hear, nor do it.

13. And in the fourteenth Year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib King of Assyria came up against all the fortified Cities of Judah, that he might take them.

14. Upon this Hezekiah King of Judah sent Word to him at Lachish, I have offended, return from me; what thou puttest upon me I will bear. So he imposed on him three hundred Talents of Silver, and thirty Talents of Gold.

15. And Hezekiah gave him all the Silver that was found at the House of the Lord, and in the Treasures of the King's House.

16. At that Time he cut off the Things of the Doors of the Lord's Temple, and of the Pillars that he himself had covered; and gave them to the King of Assyria.

17. Nevertheless he sent Tartan, Rab-

Ver. 1. three Years] For Hoshea beginning his Reign in the twelfth Year of Ahaz, Chap. xvii. 1. and Ahaz reigning till his sixteenth when Hezekiah succeeded him, must be three Years and odd in Hoshea's Reign: again the fourth Year of Hezekiah was the seventh of Hoshea, Chap. xviii. 9. consequently the first Year of the former was the fourth of the latter. And the Heb. Word in this Verse properly signifies three. The Reader may judge whether this is not more agreeable and likely, than groundlessly to count two Beginnings to the Reign of Hezekiah, and so compute the Numbers by two different Dates; or what is worse, to make Hezekiah's Restoration of the true Religion in the twenty ninth and thirtieth Chap. of 2 Chr. to be while Ahaz was living; nor is it likely Ahaz, such an Idolater at last, 2 Chr. xxviii. 22, 23, 24, 25. should make his Son who was quite otherwise King in his Life-time.

Ver. 5. none like him] for trusting in the Lord, as Ch. xxiii. 25. requires it to be understood.

Ver. 10. Term] for it could not be at the end of three Years, from the fourth to the sixth, or from the seventh to the ninth, Ver. 9.

Ver. 13. came up] from Egypt, as on Isa. xx. 1. it is explained.

1b. that he might take] according to the Account of it in 2 Chr. xxxii. 1. Besides it is spoken of all those Cities, and he did not take even Lachish; see Isa. xvii. 9. and xxxii. 13.

Ver. 17. Nevertheless] Concerning the Opinion that was three or four Years after, see Isa. xx. 1.

faris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish against King Hezekiah, with a huge Army to Jerusalem; who ascended, that they might come to Jerusalem, and being got up, came, and stood at the Conduit of the uppermost Fish-pond, which was in the Highway of the Fuller's Field.

18. And when they had called to the King, there went out to them Eliakim the Son of Hilkiah, who was Steward of the House, Shebna the Scribe, and Joah the Son of Asaph the Recorder.

19. To whom Rabshakeh said: Tell now Hezekiah; Thus says the great King, the King of Assyria; What Trust is it wherein thou trustest?

20. Thou vauntest, but vauntest in vain, There is Counsel and Power for War: now upon whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21. Now behold thou puttest thy trust upon the Staff of this bruised Reed Egypt; which a Man leaning upon, it will enter into his Hand, and pierce it: so will Pharaoh King of Egypt be to all that trust upon him.

22. And though you say to me, We trust on the Lord our God; is it not he whose Chapels and Altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, You shall worship before this Altar in Jerusalem?

23. Therefore now engage thy self, I pray, to my Master the King of Assyria; and I will give thee two thousand Horses, if thou art able to put thee Riders upon them.

24. How then wilt thou turn back the Face of one Captain, of the least of my Master's Servants: putting thy Trust upon Egypt, for Chariots and Horsemen?

25. Am I now come up without the Lord against this Place, to destroy it? The Lord said to me, Go up against that Country, and destroy it.

26. Then said Eliakim the Son of Hilkiah, Shebna and Joah, to Rabshakeh, Speak, we pray, to thy Servants in Syriack, for we understand it, and do not talk with us in the Jewish Language, in the Hearing of the People who are upon the Wall.

27. But Rabshakeh replied to them, Has my Master sent me to thine and thee, to speak these Words? Was it not to the Men who sit upon the Wall, to eat their Dung and drink their Urine with you?

28. So Rabshakeh stood, and called aloud in the Jewish Language, saying as follows:

Hear the Word of the great King, the King of Assyria.

29. Thus says the King, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he is not able to deliver you from his Power.

30. Nor let Hezekiah make you trust on the Lord by saying, The Lord will deliver us, and this City shall not be given throughly up into the Power of the King of Assyria.

31. Do not hearken to him: for thus says the King of Assyria; Make a Blessing for me, and come out to me; then eat each one of his own Vine and Fig-tree, as also drink each the Water of his Cistern:

32. Till I come, and fetch you away to a Country like your own, a Country of Corn and Wine, a Country of Bread and Vineyards, a Country of Olives for Oil and Honey; that you may live, and not die: and do not hearken to Hezekiah, though he persuades you thus, The Lord will deliver us.

33. Have the gods of the Nations at all delivered their respective Lands, from the Power of the King of Assyria?

34. Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivah? For have they delivered Samaria from my Power?

35. Which are they among all the gods of the Countries, who have delivered their Country from my Power, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem from it?

36. The People however held their Peace, and did not answer him a Word: for this was the King's Commandment, Do not answer him.

37. Next Eliakim the Son of Hilkiah who was Steward of the House, Shebna the Scribe, and Joah the Son of Asaph the Recorder, went to Hezekiah with the Cloaths torn; and told him the Words of Rabshakeh.

C H A P. XIX.

WHICH when King Hezekiah heard, he tore his Cloaths, covered himself with Sackcloth, and went into the House of the Lord.

2. He also sent Eliakim who was the Steward of the House, Shebna the Scribe, and the Elders of the Priests, having covered themselves with Sackcloth, to Isaiah the Prophet the Son of Amoz.

3. To whom they said; Thus says Heze-

Ver. 18. Steward of] as at Gen. xliv. 1.

Ver. 21. bruised] as Egypt had then been, according to the order of the Story on Isa. xx.

Ver. 34. they] the gods of the Nations, Ver. 33. not those of Hamath, &c.

kiah, This Day is a Day of Distress, Rebuke and Contempt: for the Children are come to the Birth, and there is no Might to bring forth.

4. Perhaps the Lord thy God will hear all the Words of Rabshakeh, whom the King of Assyria his Master has sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the Words which the Lord thy God has heard: therefore put up a Prayer for the Residue that is found.

5. Accordingly the Servants of King Hezekiah went to Isaiah.

6. And he said to them; So shall you tell your Master, Thus says the Lord, Be not afraid by reason of the Words that thou hast heard, with which the young Men of the King of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7. Behold I will put such a Spirit into him, and he shall hear such News, that he shall return to his own Country; in which I will cause him to fall by the Sword.

8. And Rabshakeh returned, and found the King of Assyria fighting against Libnah: for he had heard that he was marched from Lachish.

9. Who when he heard say of Tirhakah King of Ethiopia; Behold he is come forth to fight with thee; sent Messengers again to Hezekiah with Orders:

10. Thus shall you make a Speech to Hezekiah King of Judah; Let not thy God deceive thee, in whom thou trustest, by saying, Jerusalem shall not be given up into the Power of the King of Assyria.

11. Behold thou hast heard what the Kings of Assyria have done to all Countries, to destroy them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12. Did the gods of the Nations deliver them whom my Fathers destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the Edenites who were in Thelassar?

13. Where is the King of Hamath, the King of Arpad, and the King of the City of Sepharvaim, of Henah and Ivah?

14. And when Hezekiah had received the Letter from the Hands of the Messengers, and read it; he went up to the House of the Lord, and spread it before him.

15. Before whom he prayed, and said; O Lord God of Israel, who inhabitest the Cherubs, thou thy self art God alone, of all the Kingdoms of the Earth: thou having made the Heaven, and the Earth.

16. Incline thy Ear, O Lord, and hear; open thy Eyes, O Lord, and see; even hear the Words of Sennacherib, who has sent him to reproach the living God.

17. Indeed, O Lord, the Kings of Assyria have laid waste the Nations, and their Land;

18. And put their gods into the Fire: for they were not gods, but the Work of Men's Hands, Wood and Stone; so they destroyed them.

19. Now therefore, O Lord our God, save us, I beseech thee, from his Power; for all the Kingdoms of the Earth to know, that thou art the Lord God alone.

20. Then Isaiah the Son of Amoz sent Word to Hezekiah: Thus says the Lord God of Israel, What thou hast prayed to me concerning Sennacherib King of Assyria, has not been unheard by me.

21. This is the Matter that the Lord speaks against him; The Virgin, the Daughter of Zion, despises thee, mocks thee, the Daughter of Jerusalem shakes the Head after thee.

22. Whom hast thou reproached, and blasphemed? And against whom hast thou raised the Voice, and looked up on high? Against the Holy One of Israel?

23. Thou hast reproached the Lord by the Ministry of thy Messengers, and said; I will go up to the Height of the Mountains, to the Sides of Lebanon, with the Multitude of my Chariots: where I will cut down his tall Cedars, the choicest of his Fir-trees; and come to the Lodging-place of his Border, to the Wood of his Carmel.

24. I have dug, and drunk strange Waters; and dried up all the Streams of the Siege with the Soles of my Feet.

25. Hast not thou heard long ago I made it? From Days of old Time that I formed it? Now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fortified Cities to ruinous Heaps.

26. Therefore were their Inhabitants short-handed, were daunted, and ashamed: they were like the Herb of the Field, and the tender Pot-herb, Grass of the Roofs, and Corn blasted before it is grown up.

27. And I know thy dwelling, going out

Ver. 7. put] Heb. give.

Ib. Spirit] or Mind, as Grotius shews, and according to Munst. but with Jun. and Trem. Will. who yet render it spiritum, as the Heb. Word undeniably signifies.

Ver. 8. returned] to give Sennacherib Account of it, but leaving his Army there as it seems, Ver. 9, 33, 35. notwithstanding what Prideaux says to the contrary, Connec. An. 710; see Isa. xx. 1.

Ver. 9. Ethiopia] As the King appears to be Tarshish, one of the Ethiopian Family, who afterwards reigned in Egypt, I have rendered it here Ethiopia, and not Cush as in other Places; see Prideaux's Connec. Anno 710 & 706.

Ver. 23. Lodging-place] being in the Height, Isa. xxxvii. 24. This and Border are both singular in Heb. here as there.

Ver. 25. made] as formed just after.

Ver. 26. Corn blasted] the Heb. Word being a Substantive signifying so, Buxt. Lex.

and coming in, as also thy being moved against me.

28. Because thy being moved against me, and thy Tumult is come up into my Ears; therefore will I put my Hook in thy Nose, and my Bridle in thy Lips, and will make thee return in the Way wherein thou camest.

29. And this shall be a Sign to thee; the eating this Year that which grows of it self, and in the second Year what grows up again (then in the third Year sow you, and reap, as likewise plant Vineyards, and eat the Fruit of them)

30. That a Remnant escaped of the Family of Judah which is left, shall again take root below, and yield Fruit above.

31. For a Residue shall go forth from Jerusalem, and a Remnant escape from Mount Zion: the Zeal of the Lord will do this.

32. Therefore thus says the Lord concerning the King of Assyria; He shall not come to this City, nor shoot an Arrow there, nor come before it with a Shield, nor make a Rampart against it.

33. In the same Way wherein he came, shall he return, and not come to this City, says the Lord.

34. But I will defend this City to save it, for my own sake, and for the sake of my Servant David.

35. And it came to pass that Night, that the Angel of the Lord went out, and slew a hundred eighty and five thousand in the Camp of Assyria; so that when they rose early in the Morning, behold all of them were dead Corpses.

36. So Sennacherib King of Assyria marched, and going back again, dwelt at Nineveh.

37. And as he was worshipping in the House of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer slew him with the Sword, who escaped to the Country of Ararat: and Esarhaddon his Son reigned in his room.

C H A P. XX.

IN those Days was Hezekiah sick likely to die, to whom Isaiah the Son of Amoz the Prophet came, and said to him; Thus says the Lord, Make thy Will, for thou wilt die, and not live.

2. Upon this he turned about his Face to the Wall, and prayed to the Lord, saying,

3. I beseech thee, O Lord, remember now, how I have walked continually before thee in Truth, and with a perfect Heart, and have done what thou wast pleased with; and Hezekiah wept a great deal.

4. When Isaiah being not got out to the middle of the City, had the Lord's Commission as follows;

5. Go back, and tell Hezekiah the Ruler of my People; Thus says the Lord God of thy Father David, I have heard thy Prayer, seen thy Tears; behold I will heal thee; on the third Day thou shalt go up to the House of the Lord.

6. And I will add to thy Time fifteen Years: as also deliver thee and this City from the Power of the King of Assyria; and will defend this City, for my own sake, and for the sake of David my Servant.

7. Isaiah also said, Take a Bunch of Figs; which they did; and putting upon the Boil, he recovered.

8. However Hezekiah asked him, What

Ver. 29. the eating] That and the next being the Sabatical and Jubile Years, according to the Table of Chronology: the keeping of which Years orderly, when it was so very unlikely, the Assyrians being killed that Night, might well be a Sign of God's future Favour.

Ver. 32. He] the King of Assyria himself. It seems to be the Custom of taking capital Cities in those Times, that the King should be there at the last storming it, 2 Sam. xii. 27, 28. according to which this shews that Jerusalem should not be taken.

Ib. to] which, and not into, agrees with there, &c.

Ver. 33. return] Both Rabshakeb went back to Sennacherib, and Sennacherib coming from the South to Lachish, returned southward out of the Kingdom of Judah to Libnah, Ver. 8, and Chap. viii. 22, Num. xxxiii. 20.

Ver. 35. went out] of Jerusalem, where his peculiar Presence was; to the Assyrian Camp, in the Valley of Tophet, according to Ch. xxx. 33. and Josephus. Sennacherib's going back from Lachish to Libnah, makes it improbable that the Army with him was destroyed marching towards Jerusalem, as Prideaux has it, Connect. An. 710. Much less did Sennacherib get thither, as with Bedford Scrip. Chron. B. vi. 3, 18. contrary to Ver. 32. Isa. xxxvii. 33. see Isa. xxxi. 9.

Ib. slew] According to Berosus in Josephus Antiq. Lib. x. 2. and Jerome on Isa. xxxvii. it was done with the Pestilence, which may be likely; see also on Ch. xx.

7. The Opinion of Prideaux is, that it was a hot Wind in those Parts, for which Ver. 7. is quoted; where the Words of the Original neither signify send nor Blas; see Isa. xxx. 28, as of Hos is, Ver. 31. and that our Translators have put in another Character.

Ver. 37. Adrammelech and Sharezer slew him] his Sons is only in the Margin.

Ver. 1. those Days] Hezekiah not reigning twenty-nine full Years, as by the Chronological Table, and the fifteen which his Life was lengthened, Ver. 6. being no doubt full ones, it follows that this Sickness was in those very Days spoken of before, namely while the King of Assyria was at war against the Country in Hezekiah's fourteenth Year; Chap. xviii. 13. as Ver. 6. of this Chapter likewise shews.

Ver. 2. Gregory says (extravagantly;) “King Hezekiah was heard upon his bed, but his Prayer what was it, but that he might go once more to Church? And even then though in that Extremity, he could not go up into the House of the Lord; yet at least he turned himself in his Chamber that way,” Notes and Observ. upon some Passages of Scrip. Ch. 31.

Ver. 3. a great deal] Heb. with great weeping.

Ver. 4. City] Court being but in the Marg.

Ver. 7. Boil] It seems to be the Pestilence, which Sennacherib's Army might catch from the City, but in an extraordinary manner.

shall shall be the Sign that the Lord will heal me, and that I shall go up to the House of the Lord on the third Day?

9. And Isaiah replied, This shall be a Sign to thee from the Lord, that he will do the Thing which he has spoken; shall the Shadow go on ten Degrees, or go back so many?

10. To which Hezekiah answered, It is a slight Thing for the Shadow to decline ten Degrees; no, but let it return backward ten Degrees.

11. So Isaiah the Prophet called on the Lord; and he caused the Shadow on the Degrees, which was gone down upon those of Ahaz, to return backward ten Degrees.

12. At that Time Berodach-baladan, the Son of Baladan, King of Babylon sent a Letter, and a Present to Hezekiah: for he heard that he had been sick.

13. And Hezekiah hearkened to them, shewing them the whole House of his Odours, the Silver, Gold, Spices, the good Oil, the House of his Vessels, and all that was found in his Treasures: there was Nothing which he did not shew them, in his House, and in all his Dominion.

14. Afterwards Isaiah the Prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, What did these Men say? And from whence did they come to thee? And he answered, They came from a Country far off, from Babylon.

15. And upon his enquiring, What did they see in thy House? Hezekiah acknowledged, They saw all that was in it; there was Nothing, which I did not shew them, in my Treasures.

16. Then said Isaiah to him; Hear the Lord's Commission,

17. Behold the Days are coming, when all that is in thy House, and what thy Fathers have treasured up to this Day, shall be carried away to Babylon; there shall be Nothing left, says the Lord.

18. Nay they shall take of thy Sons who shall proceed out from thee, whom thou shalt beget; and they shall be Officers in the Palace of the King of Babylon.

19. Whereupon Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The Lord's Commission that thou speakest is good: for is it not, said he, if there be Peace and Truth in my Days?

20. As for the rest of Hezekiah's Affairs, and all his Power, with how he made a Fish-pond, and a Conduit, and brought Water to the City, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

21. And Hezekiah lay down with his Fathers, and Manasseh his Son reigned in his room.

C H A P. XXI.

MANASSEH was in his twelfth Year when he began reigning, and reigned fifty five Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Hephzi-bah.

2. And he did what the Lord was displeased with; according to the Abominations of the Nations, that the Lord expelled from the Presence of the Israelites.

3. For he built up again the Chapels which his Father Hezekiah had destroyed, raised up Altars to Baal, made a Grove as Ahab King of Israel did, worshipped all the Army of Heaven, and served them.

4. He also built Altars in the House of the Lord, of which the Lord said, I will put my Name in Jerusalem.

5. And he builded Altars to all the Army of Heaven, in the two Courts of the Lord's House.

6. Besides he made his Son pass through the Fire, used soothsaying, divined, and had to do with familiar Spirits and Sorcerers; doing what the Lord was much displeased with, to provoke him.

7. Nay he put a carved Image belonging to the Grove that he had made, in the House of which the Lord said to David and his Son Solomon; In this House and in Jerusalem, that I have chosen out of all the Tribes of Israel, will I put my Name for ever.

8. And I will not remove the Feet of Israel again, from the Country which I gave

Ver. 11. on the Degrees] as Isa. xxxviii. 8. of the Degrees, and thus the Heb. has here.

Ib. those] the same as before and after, dial being also another Word.

Ib. backward] by the Inflection of the Sun's Rays, that might be called the Sun, Isa. xxxviii. 8. as is supposed, rather than the going back of the Sun or Earth; since it appears to have been only in that Country, 2 Chron. xxxii. 31. and Usher observes by three Eclipses before that Time, that they agreed with the constant Motion of the heavenly Bodies as if not altered; tho' he supposes inconsistently that all of them went backward; Annal. A. M. 3291.

Ib. ten] as long as if the Shadow had stood still while it used to go forward twenty, since those ten were to be passed back again; and if not in the common Pace, it would be a farther Miracle. And lest it should be thought, so much Time must be lost; I say No, because the Shadow must stop at Night, and the next Morning it would naturally begin right again.

Ver. 13. hearkened] His being glad by Isaiah's Account, Ch. xxxix. 2. might be here softened a little in his Favour, by the Change of a Heb. Letter.

Ib. Odours] I suppose mostly for Offerings.

Ib. Vessels] The Eng. Marg. has Heb. Vessels; as likewise Jun. and Trem. the vulg. Lat. Munst. and Pagn. inferum.

to their Forefathers; only if they observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and after all the Law which my Servant Moses commanded them.

9. But they would not hear; and Manasseh made them err, to do worse than the Nations, that the Lord had destroyed from the Presence of the Israelites.

10. And the Lord spoke by the Ministry of his Servants the Prophets as follows:

11. Because Manasseh King of Judah does these Abominations, doing worse than all that the Amorites did who were before him, and makes Judah also sin by his filthy Idols.

12. Therefore thus says the Lord God of Israel; Behold I will bring Harm upon Jerusalem and Judah, at which both the Ears of every one who hears it shall tingle.

13. For I will stretch out over Jerusalem the Line of Samaria, and the Plummeth of the Family of Ahab; and will wipe Jerusalem as one does a Dish, and being wiped, turns it upon its Face.

14. So will I forsake the Residue of my Possession, and deliver them into the Power of their Enemies; whereby they shall become a Prey and Spoil to all of them:

15. Because they have done what I dislike, and have provoked me, from the Day on which their Forefathers came out of Egypt to this Day.

16. And Manasseh also shed innocent Blood very much, till he had quite filled up Jerusalem; besides his Sin wherein he made Judah sin, by doing what the Lord was displeased with.

17. As for the rest of Manasseh's Affairs, and all that he did, with his Sin which he sinned, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

18. And Manasseh lay down with his Fathers, being buried in the Garden of his own House, in that of Uzza; and Amon his Son reigned in his room.

19. Amon was in his twenty second Year when he began reigning, and reigned two Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Meshullemeth, the Daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20. He likewise did what the Lord was displeased with, as Manasseh his Father had done.

21. For he went in all the Way wherein his Father went; and served the filthy Idols that his Father served, and worshipped them.

22. Moreover he forsook the Lord God of his Fathers, and went not in the Way of the Lord.

23. At length the Servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the King in his own House.

24. But the People of the Country slew all that conspired against him; and the same made Josiah his Son King in his room.

25. As for the rest of Amon's Affairs which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah:

26. And he being buried in his Sepulchre in the Garden of Uzza, Josiah his Son reigned in his room.

C H A P. XXII.

JOSIAH was in his eighth Year when he began reigning, and reigned thirty one Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Jedidah, the Daughter of Adaiah of Boskath.

2. And he did what the Lord approved of; going in all the Way of David his Father, without turning aside to the right Hand or left.

3. Now in the eighteenth Year of King Josiah, he sent Shaphan, the Son of Azaliah, the Son of Meshullam, the Scribe, to the House of the Lord, with this Message;

4. Go up to Hilkiah the high Priest, and cause him to finish the Affair of the Money that is brought into the House of the Lord, which the Keepers of the Door gather from the People.

5. And let them deliver it into the Hands of such as manage the Work, that are set over the House of the Lord, who shall give it to the Doers of the Work which is there, to repair the Breaches of the House;

6. To Artificers, Builders, and Masons, even to buy Timber and Stone that is cut, to repair the House.

7. But the Money was not reckoned to them, that was delivered into their Hands; because they managed faithfully.

8. And Hilkiah the high Priest said to Shaphan the Scribe, I have found the Book of the Law in the House of the Lord; Hilkiah also gave the Book to him, and he read it.

9. Then Shaphan the Scribe came to the King, and brought him back Word, and said,

Ver. 15. what I dislike, as opposite to another Idiom remarked on at Gen. xix. 8. which is also otherwise turned by our Translators, as in Num. xxi. 10. and xxii. 34. Jer. xl. 4. Job. xxiv. 15.

Thy Servants have poured out the Money that was found in the House, and delivered it into the Hands of those that manage the Work, who are set over the House of the Lord.

10. Besides he told the King thus, Hilkiash the Priest has given me a Book; and Shaphan read it before him.

11. And as soon as the King heard the Words of the Book of the Law, he tore his Cloaths.

12. He also commanded Hilkiash the Priest, Ahikam the Son of Shaphan, Achbor the Son of Michaiah, Shaphan the Scribe, and Afaiah a Servant of the King, as follows,

13. Go, enquire of the Lord for me, and for the People, even for all Judah, concerning the Words of this Book that is found: for the Wrath of the Lord is great, that which is kindled against us, because our Fathers have not hearkened to the Words of this Book, to do according to all that is written for us.

14. So Hilkiash the Priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan and Afaiah, went to Huldah the Prophetess, the Wife of Shallum, the Son of Tikvah, the Son of Harhas, Keeper of the Garments, she dwelling at Jerusalem in the second Part; and they spoke to her.

15. Who said to them: Thus says the Lord God of Israel, Tell the Man that sent you to me;

16. Thus says the Lord: Behold I will bring Harm to this Place, and upon the Inhabitants of it, even all the Things of the Book which the King of Judah has read;

17. Because they have forsaken me, and burnt incense to other gods, that they might provoke me by all the Work of their Hands; so shall my Wrath be kindled against this Place, and not be quenched.

18. But concerning the King of Judah who sent you to enquire of the Lord, thus shall you tell him; Thus says the Lord God of Israel, As for the Words which thou hast heard, 19. Forasmuch as thy Heart is tender, and thou didst humble thyself before the Lord, when thou heardest what I have spoken against this Place, and the Inhabitants of it, that they should become a Desolation and a Curse, and didst tear thy Cloaths, and weep before me; I also heard, says the Lord.

20. Therefore behold I will gather thee to thy Fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy Grave in Peace, and thy Eyes shall not see all the Harm which I will bring upon this Place. And they brought the King back Word.

C H A P. XXIII.

UPON this the King sent, and they gathered to him all the Elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2. He then went up to the House of the Lord, all the Men of Judah, and all the Inhabitants of Jerusalem being with him, as also the Priests and Prophets, nay all the People from the least to the greatest; where he read in their Hearing all the Words of the Book of the Covenant, that was found in the House of the Lord.

3. And the King standing at a Pillar, made a Covenant before the Lord, to go after him, and to keep his Commandments, Testimonies and Ordinances, with all the Heart, and all the Soul, to confirm the Words of this Covenant that were written in this Book; and all the People stood to the Covenant.

4. After which the King commanded Hilkiash the high Priest, and the Priests of the second Order, with the Keepers of the Door, to bring out of the Temple of the Lord all the Instruments that were made for Baal, for the Grove, and all the Army of the Heavens; and he burnt them without Jerusalem, in the Fields of Kidron, and carried the Ashes of them to Beth-el.

5. And he put away the black ones, whom the Kings of Judah had appointed, and caused to burn incense in the Chapels, in the Cities of Judah, and round about Jerusalem, with those that burnt incense to Baal, to the Sun, and Moon, and Planets, and to all the Army of the Heavens.

6. He likewise brought the Grove out of the House of the Lord, without Jerusalem, to the Brook Kidron, and burnt it there, beating it small to Dust, and throwing the Dust of it upon the Graves of the Sons of the People.

7. And he broke down the Houses of the Sodomites, which were at the House of the Lord, where the Women wove Booths for the Grove.

Ver. 9. poured out] of the Chest, wherein it was collected, Chap. xii. 9, 10.

Ver. 12, 14. Afaiah] In this Name may be observed the great Negligence of the Eng. Translators.

Ver. 13. for us] according to the best Translators, as well as better Sense and more agreeable to the Orig. than concerning.

Ver. 20. in Peace] with regard to that Nation, and what she had been speaking of it in the preceding Verse, and before that should come to pass.

Ver. 3. at] the same as in 2 Chr. xxxiv. 31.

Ver. 5. black ones] See this on Zeph. i. 4.

Ib. and caused to burn incense] a Conjunction, and finite Verb sing. in the Conjug. Pihel.

Ver. 7. Booths] Houses Heb.

8. Besides he brought all the Priests from the Cities of Judah, and polluted the Chapels where those burnt incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba; and broke down the Chapels of the Gates, which were at the Entrance of the Gate of Joshua the Governor of the City, that were on a Man's left Hand at the Gate of the City.

9. Yet the Priests of the Chapels did not go up to the Altar of the Lord in Jerusalem, but eat unleavened Cakes amongst their Brethren.

10. And he polluted Topheth, which was in the Valley of the Sons of Hinnom; that no Man might make his Son or Daughter pass through the Fire to Molech.

11. Moreover he put away the Horses that the Kings of Judah had given to the Sun, by the coming in of the House of the Lord, at the Room of Nethan-melech one of the Officers, which was in the Suburbs; and the Chariots of the Sun he burnt in the Fire.

12. The Altars too which were upon the Roof of the Chamber of Ahaz, that the Kings of Judah had made, and those that Manasseh had made in the two Courts of the Lord's House, did the King break down, and dash in pieces from thence, throwing the Dust of them into the Brook Kidron.

13. And the Chapels which were before Jerusalem, that were on the right hand of the Mountain of Corruption, which Solomon King of Israel built to Ashtoreth the Abomination of the Zidonians, to Chemosh the Abomination of Moab, and Milcom the Detestation of the Ammonites, did the King pollute.

14. He further broke in pieces the Statues, and cut down the Groves; and filled the Places of them with Men's Bones.

15. And also the Altar which was at Beth-el, the Chapel that Jeroboam the Son of Nebat made, with which he caused Israel to sin, both that Altar and the Chapel he broke down; and burnt the Chapel, beating it small to Dust, as likewise burnt the Grove.

16. Then Josiah looking, saw the Graves which were there on the Mountain: with that he sent, and took the Bones out of them, which he burnt upon the Altar, and polluted it; according to the Word of the Lord that the Man of God did proclaim, who proclaimed those Things.

17. And he asked, What is that Monument which I see? When the Men of the City answered him, It is the Grave of the Man of God who came from Judah, and proclaimed those Things that thou hast done against the Altar of Beth-el.

18. Therefore he replied, Let him alone, let not any one remove his Bones: so they let his Bones escape, with those of the Prophet who came from Samaria.

19. And all the Houses of the Chapels likewise that were in the Cities of Samaria, which the Kings of Israel had made to provoke, Josiah took away; and did to them according to all the Deeds that he had done at Beth-el.

20. Nay he killed all the Priests of the Chapels who were there, upon the Altars, and burning Men's Bones upon them, returned to Jerusalem.

21. Afterwards the King thus commanded all the People, Make a Passover to the Lord your God, as it is written in the Book of this Covenant.

22. For there was not made such a one, from the Time of the Judges who judged Israel, even all the Time of the Kings of Israel and those of Judah;

23. As in the eighteenth Year of King Josiah, when this Passover was made to the Lord in Jerusalem.

24. And also those that had familiar Spirits, with the Sorcerers, Teraphs, filthy Idols, and all the Abominations which were seen in the Country of Judah, and in Jerusalem, Josiah took away; that he might confirm the Words of the Law, that were written in the Book which Hilkiah the Priest found in the House of the Lord.

25. So that like him there was no King before him, who returned to the Lord with all his Heart, with all his Soul, and all his Might, according to the whole Law of Moses; and after him there rose up none like him.

26. However the Lord did not return from the Fervency of his great Anger, by which he was angry with Judah, for all the Provocations with which Manasseh had provoked him.

27. And he said; I will also put Judah away from before me, as I did Israel; and will reject this City Jerusalem that I chose, and the House of which I said, My Name shall be there.

28. As for the rest of Josiah's Affairs, and all that he did, are they not written in the

Ver. 11. put away the Horses] that therefore seem to be living ones, and not for Sacrifice because there were also Chariots; so both might be rather to draw or carry about an Image of the Sun, as we read concerning a Star, Amos v. 26.

Ver. 16. proclaimed those Things] as in the next Verse.
Ver. 22. For] The Greatness of the Passover being the Occasion of mentioning, and recording it.
Ver. 25. no King] that so returned to the Lord; see Ch. xviii. 5. and Caryl on Job i.

Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

29. In his Time Pharaoh-nechoh King of Egypt went up against the King of Assyria, to the River Euphrates; whom King Josiah going to meet, the same killed him at Megiddo, when he saw him.

30. And his Servants carried him dead from thence, and bringing him to Jerusalem, buried him in his own Grave; then the People of the Country took Jehoahaz the Son of Josiah, and anointing him, made him King in the room of his Father.

31. Jehoahaz was in his twenty third Year when he began reigning, and reigned three Months at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Hamutal, the Daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32. And he did what the Lord was displeased with, according to all that his Fathers had done.

33. At length Pharaoh-nechoh bound him at Riblah in the Country of Hamath, for reigning at Jerusalem; and put a Fine upon the Country of a hundred Talents of Silver, and a Talent of Gold.

34. The same too made Eliakim the Son of Josiah King in the room of Josiah his Father, and turned his Name to Jehoiakim; taking away Jehoahaz, who went to Egypt, and died there.

35. And Jehoiakim gave the Silver and Gold to Pharaoh, but rated the Country, to give the Money according to his Command: of each of the People of it according to his Worth he exacted the Silver and Gold, to give to Pharaoh-nechoh.

36. Jehoiakim was in his twenty fifth Year when he began reigning, and reigned eleven Years at Jerusalem; and the Name of his Mother was Zebudah, the Daughter of Pedaiiah of Rumah.

37. He likewise did what the Lord was displeased with, according to all that his Fathers had done.

CHAP. XXIV.

IN his Time came up Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon; to whom Jehoiakim became a Servant three Years, then he turned back, and rebelled against him.

2. Whereupon the Lord sent against him the Troops of the Chaldeans, with those of Syria, Moab, and the Ammonites, whom he sent against Judah to destroy it; according to the Word that the Lord spoke by the Ministry of his Servants the Prophets.

3. Verily according to the Mouth of the Lord it was against Judah, to put them away from before him, for the Sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did;

4. And in particular the innocent Blood, which he shed, so that he filled Jerusalem with it, which the Lord would not forgive.

5. As for the rest of Jehoiakim's Affairs, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

6. And Jehoiakim lay down with his Fathers, his Son Jehoiachin reigning in his room.

7. Now the King of Egypt came again no more out of his Country: for the King of Babylon took from the Flood of Egypt to the River Euphrates, all that belonged to him.

8. Jehoiachin was in his eighteenth Year when he began reigning, and reigned three Months at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Nehushta, the Daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

9. And he did what the Lord was displeased with, according to all that his Father had done.

10. At that Time the Servants of Nebu-

Ver. 29. Assyria] see on Chap. xvii. 24. and xxiv. 7.

1b. Euphrates] where those Kings fought two Battles, now and four Years after, with different Success, Josephus Antiq. B. x. 6. and Jer. xlvii. 2. but it might not be at the same Place by the River.

Ver. 31. twenty third] so that Jehoiakim was older, Ver. 36. and this might be preferred upon the Account of his Mother, who might be the principal Wife, and the other's a Concubine-wife; see on Gen. xxii. 24.

Ver. 33. for reigning] The Original having no not.

Ver. 34. and died there] not in the com. Lat. Transf.

Ver. 36. twenty fifth] Josiah reigning over thirty one Years as by the Table, supposing it to be almost another, and that Josiah began to reign in the End of his eighth Year, Chap. xxii. 1. and Jehoiakim in the Beginning of his twenty fifth, counting also almost four Months to Jehoahaz, Ver. 31. Josiah might be 16 $\frac{1}{2}$ Years old, when Jehoiakim was born, which is credible; but scarce so, if with other Chronologers, the Reign of Jehoahaz be included in the thirty first Year of Josiah: so that this helps to support my Chronology, and is it self further assisted by Jer. xxv. 1, 3.

Ver. 2. Moab] Prideaux gives Account that Moab and Ammon were now Provinces of the Babylonish Empire, to whose Yoke they had subjected themselves, Connell. Anno 599. yet relates further that the King of Babylon conquered them after the Destruction of Jerusalem, 1b. Anno 584. But as the last appears certain by Exek. xxv. the Troops of those Countries here, seem rather to have made Excursions into Judah independent of the Chaldeans, as it is said too the Lord sent them; nay we read of a King of the Ammonites after this, Jer. xl. 14.

Ver. 7. the King of Egypt] namely Pharaoh-nechoh, Ch. xxiii. 29, 33, 34. Jer. xlvii. 2. for Pharaoh-hophra's Army came out afterwards, Jer. xxxvii. 5. and xliv. 30.

1b. Babylon] the Metropolis of Assyria, Ch. xxiii. 29.

1b. belonged to] which the King of Egypt had got in his Expedition at the End of Josiah's Reign, the particular Account of which see on Jer. xlvii. 2.

chadnezzar King of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, that the City might be brought into a Siege.

11. Afterwards he came against the City, and his Servants besieged it.

12. To whom Jehoiachin King of Judah went out, with his Mother, Servants, Princes and Officers; and the King of Babylon took him in the eighth Year of his Reign.

13. And he brought out from thence all the Treasures of the House of the Lord, and those of the King's House; particularly he cut off all the Things of Gold that Solomon King of Israel made in the Temple of the Lord, according as the Lord had spoken.

14. Nay he carried away all these of Jerusalem, even all the Princes, and all who were valiant, ten thousand Prisoners, with every Carpenter and Smith: there were none left besides the poor People of the Country.

15. Thus he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon: as likewise the King's Mother, with his Wives, Officers, and the mighty Men of the Country, did he cause to go away prisoners from Jerusalem thither.

16. And all the stout ones seven thousand, with the Carpenters and Smiths a thousand, all the stout Warriors, were those whom the King of Babylon carried away prisoners thither.

17. Moreover he made Mattaniah his Uncle King in his room, and turned his Name to Zedekiah.

18. Zedekiah was in his twenty first Year when he began reigning, and reigned eleven Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Hamutal, the Daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19. And he did what the Lord was displeased with, according to all that Jehoiachin had done.

20. For it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, that Zedekiah rebelled against the King of Babylon, by the Anger of the Lord, till he had cast them from before him.

C H A P. XXV.

AND in the ninth Year of his Reign, on the tenth of the tenth Month, came Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon, with all his Army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it, building Forts against it round about.

2. So the City came to be in a Siege, till the eleventh Year of King Zedekiah.

3. When on the ninth of the fourth Month the Famine became so grievous in the City, that there was no Food for the People of the Country.

4. Thus the City was broke into, and all the Warriors fled by night the Way of the Gate between the two Walls, which was by the King's Garden, the Chaldeans being against the City, round about; and he went the Way of the Plain.

5. But the Army of the Chaldeans pursued after the King, and overtook him on the Plains of Jericho, all his Army being dispersed from him.

6. And taking the King, they carried him up to the King of Babylon at Riblah; and they pronounced Judgment on him.

7. Next they killed the Sons of Zedekiah before his Eyes, put out his own Eyes, and binding him with Chains, carried him to Babylon.

8. Moreover on the seventh of the fifth Month, which was in the nineteenth Year of King Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the Captain of the Guard, a Servant of his, came to Jerusalem;

9. Who burnt the House of the Lord, and that of the King; all the Houses likewise of Jerusalem, especially every great one did he burn with Fire.

10. And the Walls of Jerusalem round about, did the whole Army of the Chaldeans, who were with him, break down.

11. The rest also of the People that were left in the City, and the Deserters who deserted to the King of Babylon, with the rest of the Multitude, Nebuzaradan the Captain of the Guard carried away.

12. Yet he left some of the Poor of the Country, for Vine-dressers and Husbandmen.

13. And the Pillars of Brass which were in the Lord's House, as also the Bases, and the brasen Sea that was there, the Chaldeans broke; and took away the Brass of them to Babylon.

14. The Pots too, the Shovels, musical Instruments, Spoons, and all the brasen Things with which they ministered, they took:

15. As did the Captain of the Guard the Censers, and Bowls, what was Gold in Gold, and what was Silver in Silver;

Ver. 13. cut off all the Things] of which the other Part was not Gold, and of no Value to Nebuchadnezzar: for that he did not cut in pieces all the Vessels is plain by Exr. i. 7. Dan. v. 2, 3.

Ver. 14. ten thousand] The Carpenters and Smiths being a thousand, and the valiant Men seven thousand, there remain two thousand for the Princes or Nobility, including perhaps their Families.

Ver. 15. Censers] See Exod. xxvii. 3

16. With the two Pillars, one Sea, and the Bases which Solomon made for the House of the Lord, the Brass of all these Things being without Weight.

17. The Height of one Pillar was eighteen Cubits, and the Chapter upon it was Brass, the Height of the Chapter being three Cubits, with the Infolding and the Pomegranates upon it round about all Brass; the other Pillar too had like these upon the Infolding.

18. Besides the Captain of the Guard took Seraiah the principal Priest, Zephaniah the second Priest, and the three Door-keepers.

19. And out of the City he took one Officer, him who was General over the Warriors, and five Men of those that were intimate with the King who were found in the Country, as also the chief Scribe of the Army that mustered the People of the Country, and sixty Men of the same People who were found in the City:

20. Even them did Nebuzaradan the Captain of the Guard take, and carried them to the King of Babylon at Riblah;

21. And he smote them, and killed them there in the Country of Hamath. Thus was Judah carried away from their own Country.

22. But as for the People that were left in the Country of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon left, over them he set Gedaliah, the Son of Ahikam, the Son of Shaphan.

23. Which when all the Captains of the Armies, with their Men, heard; they came to Gedaliah, at Mizpah, even Ishmael the Son of Nethaniah, Johanan the Son of Kareah, Seraiah the Son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the Son of a Maachathite, with their Men.

24. And Gedaliah swore to them and their Men in this manner, Be not afraid of being the Servants of the Chaldeans: dwell in the Country, and serve the King of Babylon, so it shall be well with you.

25. Nevertheless in the seventh Month Ishmael the Son of Nethaniah, the Son of Elishama, of the royal Family, came, accompanied with ten Men, and smote Gedaliah, so that he died, as likewise the Jews and Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

26. Then all the People from the least to the greatest, with the Captains of the Armies, got ready, and went to Egypt: for they were afraid by reason of the Chaldeans.

27. And in the seven and thirtieth Year of the Captivity of Jehoiachin King of Judah, on the twenty seventh of the twelfth Month, Evil-merodach King of Babylon, in the Year that he began reigning, lifted up the Head of Jehoiachin King of Judah from the Prison-house.

28. To whom he spoke well, and put his Seat above those of the Kings who were with him at Babylon.

29. And changing his Prison-garments, he did eat Victuals continually before him, all the Days of his Life.

30. For his Provision was a continual one given him from the King, each Day's Allowance the very same Day, all the Days of his Life.

Ver. 17. three] the Chapter alone, that which was upon it making five, 1 King. vii. 16, 17. 2 Chron. iii. 15, 16. Jer. lii. 22. Lightfoot without Probability deems, that the Chapters themselves were five Cubits high, and the lowermost three only could be seen, having no Work wrought about them there, Harm. of O. Test. for besides the Unlikelihood of their being so much bare, and having Nothing ornamental above, we are told the Lilly Work was four Cubits, 1 King. vii. 19.

1b. upon the Infolding] not with, according to the Heb. Particle, and Description in 1 King. vii. 18.

Ver. 18. Seraiah] the Grandson of Hilkiah, 2 King. xxii. 8. 1 Chr. vi. 13, 14. Ezr. vii. 1.

1b. second Priest] such as Eleazar was, Num. iii. 32.

Ver. 19. sixty] by the Lat. Vulgate no more than six.

Ver. 27. twenty seventh] brought him out of Prison the 25th Day, Jer. lii. 31. and advanced him the 27th.

1b. Evil-merodach] Jerome writes on Isa. xiv. 18. Narrant Hebræi hujusmodi Fabulam. Evilmerodach qui Patre suo Nabuchodonosor vivente per septem Annos inter Bestias ante regnaverat; postquam ille restitutus in Regno est, usque ad Mortem Patris cum Joachim Rege Judæ in Vinculis fuit; quo mortuo cum rursus in Regnum succederet, &c. The Jews relate that Evilmerodach having reigned seven Years, while his Father Nebuchadnezzar lived among the Beasts, was after his Father's Restoration kept in Chains with Jechoiachin King of Judah, till his Father died, when he succeeded him again in the Kingdom.

NOTES upon the FIRST BOOK of the CHRONICLES.

CHAP. I.

ADAM, Seth, Enos,
 2. Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jared,
 3. Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech,
 4. Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth.
 5. The Sons of Japheth were, Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech and Tiras;
 6. And Gomer's Sons, Aschenaz, Riphath and Togarmah;
 7. As also the Sons of Javan, Elishah and Tarshishah, Chittim and Dodanim.
 8. The Sons of Ham were, Cush and Mizraim, Put and Canaan.
 9. And the Sons of Cush were, Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raamah and Sabtechah; Raamah's Sons being Sheba and Dedan.
 10. Moreover Cush begot Nimrod; who began to be powerful on the Earth.
 11. And Mizraim begot the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites,
 12. Pathrusites and Casluhites; from whom came forth the Philistines, and the Caphtorites.
 13. Canaan also begot Zidon his First-born, and Heth,
 14. With the Jebusites, Amorites, Girgashites,
 15. Hivites, Arkites, Sinites,
 16. Arvadites, Zemarites and Hamathites.
 17. The Sons of Shem were, Elam, Ashur, Arphaxad, Lud and Aram, with Uz, Hul, Gether and Meshech.
 18. Besides Arphaxad begot Shelah, as Shelah did Eber.
 19. And Eber had two Sons born; the Name of one was Peleg, because the Earth was divided in his Time, and his Brother's Name was Joktan.
 20. Joktan too begot Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,
 21. Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah.
 22. Ebal, Abimael, Sheba,

23. Ophir, Havilah and Jobab; all these were the Sons of Joktan.
 24. Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah,
 25. Eber, Peleg, Reu,
 26. Serug, Nahor, Terah,
 27. Abram, who was Abraham.
 28. The Sons of Abraham were Isaac and Ishmael.
 29. These are their Generations: the First-born of Ishmael, was Nebajoth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,
 30. Mishma and Dumah, Massa, Hadad and Tema,
 31. Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah. The foregoing were the Sons of Ishmael.
 32. As for the Sons of Keturah, Abraham's Concubine, she bore Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah: Jokshan's Sons also were, Sheba and Dedan.
 33. The Sons of Midian too were, Ephah, Ephraim, Enoch, Abida and Eldaah. All these were the Sons of Keturah.
 34. And Abraham begetting Isaac, the Sons of Isaac were, Esau and Israel.
 35. The Sons of Esau were, Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalaam and Korah.
 36. The Sons of Eliphaz, Teman and Omar, Zephi and Gatam, Kenaz, and of Timna also Amalek.
 37. The Sons of Reuel, Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah.
 38. And the Sons of Seir, Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezar and Dishan.
 39. Moreover the Sons of Lotan, Hori and Homam; and Lotan's Sister was Timna.
 40. The Sons of Shobal, Aljan, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi and Onam; the Sons likewise of Zibeon, Aijah and Anah.
 41. Anah's Sons, Dishon; and those of Dishon, Hamran, Eshban, Ithran and Cheran.
 42. The Sons of Ezer, Bilhan and Zaavan; Jaakan; the Sons of Dishan, Uz and Aran.

Ver. 1. Seth] These Names in Heb. being the same with those of Gen. v. I have put them alike in English.

Ver. 7. Tarshishah] This differs from that in Gen. x. 4.

Ver. 14. Jebusites] * So the Names which follow until * Ver. 17. are not the Names of particular Persons, but * of People or Nations, * Psalm's Annot. see Gen. x. 16.

Ver. 36. of Timna] for that was the Concubine of Eliphaz, Gen. xxxvi. 12.

Ver. 41. Hamran] It beginning and ending with the same Letters as in Gen. xxxvi. 26. but with neither as the Father of Moses, Exod. vi. 20. though put the same in our Eng. Bible.

43. And these were the Kings who reigned in the Country of Edom, before the Israelites had one to reign: Bela the Son of Beor, the Name of whose City was Dinhabah.

44. And when he died, Jobab the Son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his room.

45. He also dying, Husham of the Country of the Temanites reigned in his room.

46. This likewise died, and Hadad the Son of Bedad, who beat Midian in the Region of Moab, reigned in his room; and his City was named Avith.

47. Next he died, in whose room Samlah of Masrekah reigned.

48. And he being dead, Saul of Rehoboth of the River succeeded him.

49. Whom, upon his Decease, Baalhanan the Son of Achbor succeeded.

50. When the last too was dead, Hadad reigned in his room; the Name of whose City was Pai, and that of his Wife Mehetabel, the Daughter of Matred, Me-zahab's Daughter.

51. But when Hadad died, there were Dukes of Edom; Duke Timna, Duke Aljah, Duke Jetheth,

52. Duke Aholibamah, Duke Elah, Duke Pinon,

53. Duke Kenaz, Duke Teman, Duke Mibzar,

54. Duke Magdiel, Duke Iram: these were the Dukes of Edom.

CHAP. II.

THESE were the Sons of Israel; Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah, Issachar and Zebulun,

2. Dan, Joseph and Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

3. The Sons of Judah were, Er, Onan and Shelah, the three who were born to him of the Daughter of Shua the Canaanite; but the Lord being displeased with Er the First-born of Judah, he caused him to die.

4. And Tamar his Daughter-in-law bore him Pharez and Zerah: all the Sons of Judah being five.

5. The Sons of Pharez were, Hezron and Hamul.

6. And the Sons of Zerah, Zimri, Ethan,

Heman, Chalcol and Dara; all of them five.

7. And the Sons of Carmi, Achar the Troubler of Israel, who did amiss with the cursed Thing.

8. Moreover the Sons of Ethan, Azariah.

9. The Sons of Hezron also, who were born to him, Jerahmeel, Ram and Chelubai.

10. And Ram begot Amminadab, as Amminadab did Nahshon, the Prince of the People of Judah;

11. Nahshon too begot Salma, and he Boaz,

12. And he Obed, and he Jesse.

13. Jesse likewise begot his First-born Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimha the third,

14. Nethaneel the fourth, Raddai the fifth,

15. Ozem the sixth, David the seventh.

16. And their Sisters were, Zeruiah and Abigail: the Sons of Zeruiah being Abishai, Joab and Asah-el, three.

17. And Abigail bore Amasa, his Father being Jether the Ishmeelite.

18. Besides Caleb the Son of Hezron begot of Azubah a Wife, and of Jerioth even these her Sons, Jether, Shobab and Ardon.

19. And when Azubah was dead, Caleb took him Ephrath, who bore him Hur.

20. And Hur begot Uri, as Uri did Bezaleel.

21. After which Hezron went in to the Daughter of Machir, the Father of Gilead, whom he took when he was in his sixtieth Year; and she bore him Segub.

22. And Segub begot Jair, who had twenty three Cities in the Province of Gilead.

23. Nay he took Geshur and Aram, with the Country-towns of Jair from them, with Kenath and its Towns, sixty Cities: all these belonged to the Sons of Machir, the Father of Gilead.

24. And after Hezron was dead at Calebephrath, Abiah Hezron's Wife bore him Ashur, the Father of Tekoa.

25. And the Sons of Jerahmeel the First-born of Hezron were, Ram the First-born, then Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, Ahijah.

26. Jerahmeel had also another Wife,

Ver. 7. the Troubler] Heb. ocher, whence his Name here; look Josh. vii. 25.

Ver. 10. People] Heb. Sons; and Gr. House, as in some other Places.

Ver. 13. Shimhah] which is certainly wrong in the com. Transf.

Ver. 15. the seventh] when he came to the Kingdom, one of his Brothers being then dead, according to Gen. in Annot. for he was born the eighth, 1 Sam. xvi. 10, 11.

Ver. 18. her] By Azubah being called a Wife, and this Pronoun being singular, Jerioth seems to have been one under her, as Hagar was to Sarah, Bilhab and Zilpah to Rachel and Leah; according to which the whole is properly expressed.

whose Name was Atarah, she was the Mother of Onam.

27. And the Sons of Ram the First-born of Jerahmeel were, Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.

28. The Sons of Onam likewise were, Shammai and Jada; the Sons of Shammai, Nadab and Abishur.

29. And the Name of Abishur's Wife was Abihail, who bore to him Ahban and Molid.

30. And the Sons of Nadab, Seled and Appaim; but Seled died without Sons.

31. The Sons also of Appaim, Ishi; and the Sons of Ishi, Sheshan; and those of Sheshan, Ahlai.

32. And the Sons of Jada the Brother of Shammai, Jether and Jonathan; but Jether died without Sons.

33. And Jonathan's Sons, Peleth and Zaza: these were the Sons of Jerahmeel.

34. Now Sheshan having no Sons, but Daughters, and having an Egyptian Servant, whose Name was Jarha;

35. He gave his Daughter to that Servant for a Wife, and she bore him Attai.

36. And Attai begot Nathan, and he Zabad,

37. And he Ephlal, and he Obed,

38. And he Jehu, and he Azariah,

39. And he Helez, and he Eleasah,

40. And he Sismai, and he Shallum,

41. And he Jekamiah, and he Elishama.

42. The Sons of Caleb too the Brother of Jerahmeel were, Mesha his First-born, who was the Father of Ziph; with the Sons of Maresheh the Father of Hebron.

43. Hebron's Sons being Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema.

44. And Shema begot Raham the Father of Jorkeam, as Rekem did Shammai.

45. Moreover the Son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the Father of Bethzur.

46. And Ephah Caleb's Concubine bore Haran, Moza and Gazez; Haran begetting Gazez.

47. The Sons of Jahdai also were, Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

48. Maachah being the Concubine of Caleb, he begot Sheber and Tirhanah.

49. She likewise bore Shaaph the Father of Madmannah, Sheva the Father of Machbena, and the Father of Gibeah; and the Daughter of Caleb was Achsa.

50. These were the Sons of Caleb the Son of Hur, the First-born of Ephrathah; Shobal the Father of Kirjath-jearim.

51. Salma the Father of Beth-lehem, Haraph the Father of Beth-gader.

52. And Shobal the Father of Kirjath-jearim had Sons, Haroch, half of the Menuhites.

53. And the Families of Kirjath-jearim, the Ithrites, Puthites, Shumathites and Mishraites: from these came forth the Zareathites, and Eshtaulites.

54. The Sons of Salma were, Beth-lehem, and the Netophathites, Ateroth of the Household of Joab, and half of the Manahethites, the Zorites.

55. And the Families of the Scribes who dwelt at Jabez, the Tirathites, Shimeathites, Suchathites: those were the Kenites who came of Hamath, the Father of Beth-rehab.

C H A P. III.

AND these were the Sons of David, who were born to him at Hebron: the First-born Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess;

2. The third Absalom the Son of Maachah, the Daughter of Talmi King of Geshur; the fourth Adonijah, the Son of Hagith;

3. The fifth Shephatiah, of Abital; the sixth Ithream, of Eglah his Wife.

4. There were six born to him at Hebron, where he reigned seven Years and six Months; and at Jerusalem he reigned thirty three Years.

5. And these were born to him at Jerusalem: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan and Solomon, four, of Bath-shua, the Daughter of Ammiel;

6. With Ibhar, Elishama, Eliphelet,

7. Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

Ver. 40. Sismai] according to other Translations; and by the Heb. Vowels it cannot be Sisamai.

Ver. 48. he begot] for the Verb is here masculine, as Buxtorf observes, Thef. Gram. Lib. ii. 10.

Ver. 52. Menuhites] the Word being Hammenuboth, and oth a Heb. Termination, as ham is a Prefix for the.

Ver. 53. Puthites] ending like the next Word.

Ver. 5. Bath-shua] This differs from Bath-sheba, 2 Sam. xi. 3. only in one Letter; for ש which sometimes have nearly or quite the same Sound, and so might be put one for the other before the Use of the Heb. Points.

Ib. Ammiel] This Name אממאל having the same Heb. Letters in it as אליהו Eliam in Sam. aforesaid, a Transposition or Inversion of the Letters may be confessed to the Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew Text, p. 197. but not that it was made by mere Mistake of a Transcriber, whom all the rest followed; since such a Mistake or Oversight is incredible, and therefore no Proof that other Transpositions were so; but it rather appears that others were made designedly, as this apparently must, according to the Use of that Language.

Ver. 6. Elishama, Eliphelet] Grotius wisely supposes, that these two died when they were young, and so are left out, 2 Sam. v. 15. and the same Names were given to others born after, Ver. 8.

8. Elishama,

8. Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet, nine.
 9. All were the Sons of David, besides the Sons of the Concubines, and Tamar their Sister.
 10. And the Son of Solomon was Rehoboam; Abijah his Son, Asa his Son, Jehoshaphat his Son,
 11. Joram his Son, Ahaziah his Son, Joash his Son,
 12. Amaziah his Son, Azariah his Son, Jotham his Son,
 13. Ahaz his Son, Hezekiah his Son, Manasseh his Son,
 14. Amon his Son, Josiah his Son,
 15. The Sons too of Josiah were, the First-born Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum.
 16. And the Sons of Jehoiakim, Jechoniah his Son, Zedekiah his Son.
 17. Moreover the Sons of Jechoniah, Afir, Shealtiel his Son,
 18. And Malchiram, and Pedaiiah, and Shenazar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.
 19. As also the Sons of Pedaiiah, Zerubbabel and Shimei; and those of Zerubbabel, Meshullam and Hananiah, with Shelomith their Sister;
 20. And Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Haddai, Jushab-besed, five.
 21. And Hananiah's Son, Pelatiah and Jeshaiah; the Sons of Rephaiah, the Sons of Arnan, the Sons of Obadiah, the Sons of Shechaniah.
 22. The Sons likewise of Shechaniah, She-maiah; and those of Shemaiah, Hattush, Igeal, Bariah, Neariah and Shaphat, six.
 23. And the Son of Neariah, Elioenai, Hezekiah and Azrikam, three.
 24. And the Sons of Elioenai, Hodaiah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah and Hanani, seven.

CHAP. IV.

THE Sons of Judah, Pharez, Hezron; with Charmi, Hur, and Shobal.

2. And Reaiah the Son of Shobal begot Jahath, as Jahath did Ahumai and Lahad: these were the Families of the Zorathites.
 3. And these were of the Father of Etam, Jezreel, Ishma and Idmash; the Name of their Sister being Hazlelponi:
 4. With Penuel the Father of Gedor, and Ezer the Father of Hushah: these were the Sons of Hur, the First-born of Ephrathah, the Father of Beth-lehem.
 5. Besides Ashur the Father of Tekoa had two Wives, Helah and Naarah.
 6. And Naarah bore him Ahuzam, Hepher, Temeni and Haahashtari: these were the Sons of Naarah.
 7. Helah's Sons also were, Zereth, Jezohar and Ethnan.
 8. And Koz begat Anub, Hazobebah, and the Families of Aharhel the Son of Harum.
 9. Jabez too was more honourable than his Brethren; whose Name his Mother called Jabez, Because, said she, I bore him with Grief.
 10. And Jabez called thus on the God of Israel, Oh that thou wouldest thoroughly bless me, and enlarge my Bounds, that thy Hand would be with me, and thou wouldest let no Harm grieve me. And God brought to pass what he asked.
 11. Next Chelub the Brother of Shuhah begot Mehir, who was the Father of Eshton.
 12. And Eshton begot Beth-rapha, Pa-seah, and Tehinnah the Father of Ir-nahash: these were the Men of Rechah.
 13. Moreover the Sons of Kenaz were, Othniel and Seraiah; and the Sons of Othniel, Hathath.
 14. Meonothai further begot Ophrah; and Seraiah begot Joab the Father of those in the Valley of Artificers, for they were such.
 15. And the Sons of Caleb the Son of Jephunneh were, Iru, Elah and Naam; and the Sons of Elah, even Kenaz.
 16. And Jehallelel's Sons, Ziph and Ziphah, Tiria and Azarel.

Ver. 10. Abijah] The very same Name as in 1 King. xiv. 1. 2 Chron. xiii. 1.
 Ver. 17. Shealtiel] The same Word with that in Ezr. iii. 2. Hag. i. 1.
 Ver. 19. Zerubbabel] It seems not the noted Son of Shealtiel.
 Ver. 21, 23. Son] being singular in the Original, as plural Ver. 22. Ch. ii. 7, 8, 31. see Gen. xvi. 23.
 Ver. 22. six] the Sons of Shechaniah as here called, of both the first and second Descent, and as our Grandsons are Sons; so that there was no Need to add Sesa in the Vulg. Lat. any more than at Ch. vii. 3.
 Ver. 3. Father] It seems to me strictly here to mean Grandfather, and that Hazlelponi was, the Mother of Etam, which will account for the Manner of Expression. The Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew

Text translates, THESE are the FATHER of Etam, then says, This is the true Version of the printed Hebrew; and if Words ever wanted Sense, they do so here, p. 483. But mind, if they do, it is owing to himself; unless, he can prove the Heb. cannot mean of the Father, but אִתּוֹ being both the perfect and constructed Form (even allowing him the Benefit of the Points, which he is utterly undeserving of) denotes as well these of, as simply these.
 Ver. 8. Hazobebah] So in the Version of Jun. and Trem. for the Heb. Article he being not prefixed to proper Names of Men, as Buxtorf shews, Thef. Gram. Lib. ii. 5. it is consequently Part of the Name, as in Haahashtari, Ver. 6.
 Ver. 14. these] who were the they following, and the Offspring of Joab; rather than the Valley either, much less both, as in the com. Transf.

17. The Sons likewise of Ezrah, Jether, Mered, Ephraim, and Jalon and Mered's Wife conceived Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the Father of Eshtemoa;

18. And his Wife Jehudijah bore Jered the Father of Gedor, Heber the Father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the Father of Zanoah: those being the Sons of Bithiah the Daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took.

19. There were also the Sons of his Wife Hodiah, the Sister of Naham, the Father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite.

20. As likewise Shimon's Sons, Amnon and Rinnah, Ben-hanan and Tilon; and the Son Ishi, Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

21. The Sons of Shelah Judah's Son were Er the Father of Lechah, and Ladah the Father of Mareshah, with the Families of the House for the Service of fine Linen, of the House of Ashbea;

22. And Jokim, and the Men of Chozeba, with Joash and Saraph, who bore rule at Moab, and Jashubi-lehem: which are ancient Matters.

23. They were Potters, and dwelt at the Plants and Hedges; where they resided with the King in his Business.

24. The Sons of Simeon were, Nemuel and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Saul;

25. Shallum his Son, Mibsam his Son, Mishma his Son.

26. And the Sons of Mishma, Hamuel his Son, Zaccur his Son, Shimei his Son.

27. Shimei too had sixteen Sons and six Daughters, but his Brethren had not many Sons; all their Family not multiplying so much as the Sons of Judah.

28. And they dwelt at Beer-sheba, Moladah, Hazar-shual,

29. At Bilhah, at Ezem, at Tolad,

30. At Bethuel, at Hormah, at Ziklag,

31. At Beth-marcaboth, at Hazar-sulim, at Beth-birei and Shaaraim: these were their Cities till the Reign of David.

32. And their Villages were, Etam and Ain, Rimmon and Thochen, and Ashan, five Cities;

33. With all their Villages which were round about those Cities to Baal: these were the Habitations and Pedigree that they had.

34. Besides there was Meshobab, Jamlech, and Joshah the Son of Amaziah.

35. As there was Joel, and Jchu the Son of Joshibiah, the Son of Seraiah, the Son of Aziel;

36. Together with Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jethohai, Afaiah, Adiel, Jeshimiel and Benaiah;

37. And Ziza the Son of Shiphi, the Son of Allon, the Son of Jedaiah, the Son of Shimri, the Son of Shemaiah.

38. These who came by Name were Princes in their Families, and the Household of their Fathers increased into a Multitude.

39. And they went to the Entrance of Gedor, as far as to the East of the Valley, to seek out Pasture for their Flocks.

40. And they found fat and good Pasture; the Country also was of wide Space, quiet and peaceable: for those of Ham dwelt there before.

41. But these written by Name came in the Time of Hezekiah King of Judah, and smote their Tents, with the Habitations that were found there, and destroying them to this Day, dwelt in their room; because there was Pasture for their Flocks there.

42. Nay some of these Sons of Simeon, five hundred Men, went to Mount Seir, having Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the Sons of Ishi, for their Captains;

43. And smiting the Residue of Amalek that was escaped, have dwelt there to this Day.

CHAP. V.

AND the Sons of Reuben the First-born of Israel (for he was the First-born, but when he profaned his Father's Bed, his Birth-right was given to the Sons of Joseph, Israel's Son; however the Pedigree is not to be reckoned up after the Birth-right.

1. For Judah was powerful among his Brothers, and from him was the Ruler; though Joseph had the Birth-right)

2. The Sons, I say, of Reuben Israel's First-born were, Enoch and Phallu, Hezron and Carmi.

3. The Sons of Joel, Shemaiah his Son, Gog his Son, Shimei his Son,

4. Micah his Son, Reaiah his Son, Baal his Son,

5. Beerah his Son, whom Tilgath-pilnezer King of Assyria carried captive, he being Prince of the Reubenites.

6. And his Brethren after his Families,

Ver. 17. Mered's Wife] as the next Verse shews, the Text here requiring Somebody to be supplied; so Jun. and Trem. also translate, and Peale comments:

Ver. 1. Joseph], to whom it belonged more than to another, as he was the eldest Son by Rachel, who was first espoused or betrothed to Jacob.

1b. however] Notwithstanding Joseph had the Birth-right, his Pedigree is postponed, Chap. vii. 14, 20, &c. and Judah's put first, as in the three foregoing Chapters.

when the Pedigree was reckoned up after their Generations, were the chief, Jeiel and Zechariah;

8. As also Bela the Son of Azaz, the Son of Shema, the Son of Joel; he dwelt in Aroer, even to Nebo and Baal-mean.

9. At the East likewise he dwelt as far as to the Entrance of the Wilderness, that is from the River Euphrates; because their Cattle multiplied in the Province of Gilead.

10. And in the Time of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their Hands; then they dwelt in their Tents, against the whole Front of the East of Gilead.

11. Before whom dwelt the Posterity of Gad, in the Country of Bashan as far as Salcah;

12. Joel the chief, Shapham the second, Janai and Shaphat, in Bashan.

13. And their Brethren of the Household of their Fathers were, Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia and Eber, seven;

14. (These were the Sons of Abihail, the Son of Huri, the Son of Jaroah, the Son of Gilead, the Son of Michael, the Son of Jeshisai, the Son of Jahdo, the Son of Buz)

15. Ahi the Son of Abdiel, the Son of Guni, the chief of the Household of their Fathers.

16. And they dwelt in Gilead, Bashan, and its Towns, as likewise in all the Suburbs of Sharon, upon their Goings forth.

17. The Pedigree of them all was reckoned up in the Time of Jotham King of Judah, and in that of Jeroboam King of Israel.

18. The Posterity of Reuben, the Gadites, and the half Tribe of Manasseh, of valiant Persons, Men carrying Shield and Sword, bending the Bow, instructed in War, were forty four thousand seven hundred and sixty, who went out to Battle.

19. And they made War with the Hagarites, Jetur, Naphish and Nodab.

20. Against whom they were helped, so that the Hagarites were delivered into their Power, and all who were with them: for they cried to God in the War, and he was intreated by them, because they trusted in him.

21. So they carried away their Cattle, their Camels fifty thousand, the Flocks two hundred and fifty thousand, and Asses two thousand; as also Persons of Mankind a hundred thousand:

22. For many fell down slain, because the War was of God; and they dwelt in their room till the Captivity.

23. And the Posterity of the half Tribe of Manasseh dwelling in the Country, multiplied from Bashan to Baal-hermon, Senir and Mount Hermon.

24. Now these were the chief of the Household of their Fathers, such as were so; namely Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, valiant Men, famous ones.

25. However they did amiss against the God of their Fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the People of the Country, whom God had destroyed from their Presence.

26. Upon which the God of Israel stirred up the Spirit of Pul King of Assyria, and that of Tilgath-pilneser King of Assyria, so that he carried them captive, even the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half Tribe of Manasseh, and had them to Helah, Habor, Hara, and the River Gozan, to this Day.

CHAP. VI.

THE Sons of Levi were, Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

2. And the Sons of Kohath, Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel:

3. As also the Children of Amram, Aaron, Moses and Miriam; and Aaron's Sons, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

4. Eleazar begot Phinehas, he Abishua,

5. He Bukki, he Uzzi,

6. He Zerahiah, he Mersioth,

7. He Amariah, he Ahitub,

8. He Zadok, he Ahimaaz;

9. He Azariah, he Johanan,

10. And he Azariah, him who executed the Priesthood in the House which Solomon built at Jerusalem;

11. Azariah also begot Amariah, he Ahitub,

12. He Zadok, he Shallum,

13. He Hilkiash, he Azariah,

14. He Seraiah, he Jehozadak,

15. And Jehozadak went away, when the

Var. 9. that is from] reaching to the Euphrates; not he dwelt from thence to the Entrance.

Var. 10. against the whole Front of the East of Gilead] So the Heb. and rightly, since the two Tribes and half had Gilead before, on the East of which were the Hagarites: thus Poole writes, which lay Eastward from the Land of Gilead.

Var. 13. Eber] as Gen. xi. 16.

Var. 14. These] These seven last named, says Poole; and so Jun. and Trem. have this Verse in a Parenthesis: for these could not be Abi, as the com. Transf. seems to shew, by having a Semicolon or Colon at the End of the Verse; since he was the Son of Abdiel, not of Abihail.

VOL. I.

Var. 9. Johanan] the same with John, as Lightfoot says, Harm of four Evang. Sect. 3.

Var. 10. executed] as related 2 Chr. xxvi. 17, 18.

Var. 14. Jehozadak] The Succession after him is continued in Neb. xii. 10, 11. Jeshua the first there being the Son of Jehozadak, Ezr. iii. 2. Hag. i. 5, &c.

Lord carried Judah and Jerusalem captive, by the Power of Nebuchad-nezzar.

16. The Sons of Levi were, Gershom, Kohath and Merari.

17. Moreover these were the Names of Gershom's Sons, Libni and Shimei.

18. And the Sons of Kohath were, Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

19. The Sons of Merari, Mahli and Mushi: these being the Families of the Levites after their Fathers.

20. Of Gershom, Libni his Son, Jahath his Son, Zimmah his Son,

21. Joah his Son, Iddo his Son, Zerah his Son, Jeaterai his Son.

22. The Sons of Kohath, Amminadab his Son, Korah his Son, Assir his Son,

23. Elkanah his Son, Ebiafaph his Son, and Assir his Son,

24. Tahath his Son, Uriel his Son, Uziah his Son, Saul his Son.

25. And the Sons of Elkanah, Amasai and Ahimoth.

26. The Sons of this Elkanah were, Zophai his Son, and Nahath his Son,

27. Eliab his Son, Jeroham his Son, Elkanah his Son.

28. And the Sons of Samuel, the First-born Vashni, then Abiah.

29. The Sons of Merari, Mahli; Libni his Son, Shimei his Son, Uzza his Son,

30. Shimea his Son, Haggiah his Son, Afaiah his Son.

31. And these were they whom David set over the Ministry of the Musick at the Lord's House, from the Time the Ark rested.

32. So they ministred before the Habitation of the publick Tent with Musick, till Solomon had built the House of the Lord in Jerusalem; when they stood in their Manner, at their Service.

33. Even these stood, together with their Sons: of the Sons of the Kohathites, Heman a Singer, the Son of Joel, the Son of Samuel,

34. The Son of Elkanah, the Son of Jeroham, the Son of Eliel, the Son of Toah,

35. The Son of Zuph, the Son of Elkanah, the Son of Mahath, the Son of Amasai,

36. The Son of Elkanah, the Son of Joel, the Son of Azariah, the Son of Zephaniah,

37. The Son of Tahath, the Son of Assir, the Son of Ebiafaph, the Son of Korah,

38. The Son of Izhar, the Son of Kohath, the Son of Levi, the Son of Israel;

39. And his Brother Asaph who stood at his right Hand, Asaph the Son of Berachiah, the Son of Shimea,

40. The Son of Michael, the Son of Baaseiah, the Son of Malchiah,

41. The Son of Ethni, the Son of Zerah, the Son of Adaiah,

42. The Son of Ethan, the Son of Zimmah, the Son of Shimei,

43. The Son of Jahath, the Son of Gershom, the Son of Levi;

44. And the Sons of Merari their Brethren at the left Hand, Ethan the Son of Kishi, the Son of Abdi, the Son of Maluch,

45. The Son of Hashabiah, the Son of Amaziah, the Son of Hilchiah,

46. The Son of Amzi, the Son of Bani, the Son of Shamer,

47. The Son of Mahli, the Son of Mushi, the Son of Merari, the Son of Levi.

48. Their Brethren too the Levites were put for all the Service of the Tabernacle of God's House.

49. But Aaron and his Sons burnt incense upon the Altar of Burnt-offering and that of Incense, were for all the Business of the very holy Place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the Servant of God commanded.

50. These being the Sons of Aaron, Eleazar his Son, Phinehas his Son, Abishua his Son,

51. Bukki his Son, Uzzi his Son, Zerahiah his Son,

52. Meraioth his Son, Amariah his Son, Ahitub his Son,

53. Zadok his Son, Ahimaaz his Son.

54. Whose Habitations were these at their Palaces, in their Bounds; belonging to the Posterity of Aaron, of the Family of the Kohathites: for they had the Lot.

55. To whom they gave Hebron in the Country of Judah, with its Suburbs round about it.

56. But the Land of the City, and its Villages, they gave to Caleb the Son of Jephunneh.

57. To the Posterity of Aaron likewise they gave Cities of Judah, Hebron for Re-

Ver. 26. Elkanah] the Son of that Elkanah in the foregoing Ver. as the Sept. Vers. says, and as Samuel Ver. 28. was the Son of Elkanah in the Ver. before, according to the same Sept. and 1 Sam. i.

Ver. 33. Even these] the same as Ver. 31.

Ib. Samuel] The same Name with that in Ver. 28. and the same Person, viz. he called the Prophet.

Ver. 54. Palaces] Look at Gen. xxv. 16.

Ver. 57. Cities of Judah, Hebron for Refuge] Here the Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew Text cavils not a little, 1. at Judah, that it should not be here; 2. that Cities should be City; and 3. that and her suburbs should follow Hebron, pag. 484. As to the first, our printed Copies bear the greatest Authority, and Judah might be left out of a few Copies because not in Josh. xxiv. 13. much likelier than the contrary; next they gave Cities, not a City only, though for Refuge belongs but to Hebron; and an Answer to the third may be found in that to the first.

fuge, and Libnah with its Suburbs, as also Jattir, and Eshtemoa with its Suburbs,

58. And Hilan, Debir,

59. And Ashan, and Beth-shemesh, with their respective Suburbs;

60. And out of the Tribe of Benjamin, Geba, Alemeth and Anathoth, with their several Suburbs; all their Cities were thirteen Cities by their Families:

61. Besides to the Posterity of Kohath, who were left of the Family of the Tribe; out of the half Tribe of Manasseh, by Lot ten Cities:

62. And to the Posterity of Gershon after their Families, out of the Tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and of Manasseh in Bashan; thirteen Cities:

63. To the Posterity of Merari after their Families, out of the Tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun, by Lot twelve Cities.

64. Thus the Posterity of Israel gave to the Levites, Cities with their Suburbs.

65. And they gave by Lot out of the Tribes of the Posterity of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin, these Cities which they called by Name.

66. And of the Families of the Posterity of Kohath, there were also Cities of their Bounds, out of the Tribe of Ephraim.

67. They even gave them Cities for Refuge, Shechem on Mount Ephraim, Gezer,

68. Jokmeam, Beth-horon,

69. Aijalon and Gath-rimmon, with their several Suburbs.

70. And out of the half Tribe of Manasseh, Aner and Bileam, with theirs, for the Family of the Posterity of Kohath who were left;

71. To the Posterity of Gershon, out of the Family of the half Tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its Suburbs, and Ash-taroath with its Suburbs;

72. And out of the Tribe of Issachar, Kedesh, Daberath,

73. Ramoth and Anem with their several Suburbs;

74. As also out of the Tribe of Asher, Mashal, Abdon,

75. Hukok and Rehob, with their several Suburbs;

76. Out of the Tribe likewise of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon and Kir-jathaim, with their several Suburbs;

77. To the Posterity of Merari who were left, out of the Tribe of Zebulun, Rimmono, Tabor, with both their Suburbs;

78. And on the other side of Jordan, at the East of it, against Jericho, out of the Tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the Wilderness, Jahzah,

79. Kedemoth and Mephaath, with their several Suburbs;

80. And out of the Tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead and Mahanaim, with both their Suburbs;

81. Lastly Heshbon and Jazer, with both theirs.

C H A P. VII.

AND the Sons of Issachar were, Tola and Phuah, Jashub and Shimron, four.

2. The Sons also of Tola, Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam and Samuel, the chief of the Household of their Fathers belonging to Tola, valiant Men in their Generations: the Number of them in the Time of David, was twenty two thousand and six hundred.

3. Moreover the Sons of Uzzi, Izrahiah; and those of Izrahiah, Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, Ishiah, five, chief ones all of them.

4. And with them, by their Generations, by the Household of their Fathers, were Troops of an Army for War, thirty six thousand: for they had many Wives and Sons.

5. And their Brethren in all the Families of Issachar, very valiant Men, had their Pedigree reckoned up in all eighty seven thousand.

6. Of Benjamin were, Bela, and Becher, and Jediael, three.

7. And the Sons of Bela, Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth and Iri, five, the chief of the Household of the Fathers, very valiant Men; whose Pedigree was reckoned up, twenty two thousand and thirty four.

8. Becher's Sons likewise, Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jerimoth, Abiah, Anathoth and Alemeth: all these being the Sons of Becher.

9. And their Pedigree was reckoned up by their Generations, the chief of the Household of their Fathers, valiant Men, twenty thousand and two hundred.

10. The Sons too of Jediael, Bilhan; and

Ver. 60. thirteen] Juttah and Gibeon being omitted, Josh. xxi. 16, 17.

Ver. 61. Manasseh] being only named here, as that which made up the Number, Josh. xxi. 20—25.

Ver. 69. Aijalon—Gath-rimmon] These being in the Tribe of Dan, with two more left out here, Josh. xxi. 23, 24.

Ver. 70. Aner—Bileam] Either the Cities, or their Names, being now changed, Josh. xxi. 25.

Ver. 75. Hukok] Vulg. Lat. Asach corruptly.

Ver. 78. against] not by, being on the opposite Side of Jordan, and Jericho it self not very near the River; nor has the Heb. any Thing for it.

Ver. 2. Ibsam] beginning like Izrahiah and Ishiah in the next Verse.

Ib. Samuel] Look back to Chap. vi. 33.

Ver. 3. five] as Ch. iii. 22.

those of Bilhan, Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tharshish, and Ahishahar.

11. Of all these Sons of Jediael, by the Heads of the Fathers, very valiant Men, were seventeen thousand and two hundred, going out an Army for War.

12. With Shuppim and Huppim, the Sons of Ir, Huthim the Sons of Aher.

13. The Sons of Naphtali were, Jahziel,
Guni, Jezer and Shallum, Bilhah's Sons.

14. The Sons of Manasseh, Ashriel (whom his Wife bore, his Concubine a Syrian Woman bearing Machir the Father of Gilead;

15. And Machir took a Wife, whose Name was Maachah, the Sister of Huppim and Shuppim) and the Name of the second was Zelophehad, who had Daughters.

16. So Maachah the Wife of Machir bore a Son, and named him Peresh, whose Brother's Name was Sheresh; and his Sons were,
Ulam and Rakem.

17. And Ulam's Sons, Bedan: these were the Sons of Gilead, the Son of Machir, the Son of Manasseh.

18. His Sister Hammolecheth also bore
Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah.

19. And the Sons of Shemida were,
Ahian, Shechem, Likhi and Aniam.

20. Next Ephraim's Sons, Shuthelah; and Bered his Son, and Thahath his Son, and Eladah his Son, and Thahath his Son,

21. And Zabad his Son, and Shuthelah his Son, with Ezer and Elead; whom the Men of Gath that were born in the Country slew, because they went down to take their Cattle.

22. At which Ephraim their Father mourned many Days, and his Brothers came to comfort him.

23. However he went in to his Wife, and she conceived, and bore a Son; whom he named Beriah, because it was ill with his Family.

24. And his Daughter was Sheerah, who built Beth-horon the lower and the upper, with Uzzensheerah.

25. Rephah further was his Son, and Resheph, and Telah his Son, and Tahan his Son,

26. Laadan his Son, Ammihud his Son,
Elishama his Son,

27. Non his Son, Joshua his Son.

28. Whose Possessions and Habitations were Beth-el with its Towns; and on the East Naaran, as also on the West Gezer and Shechem, with both their Towns, as far as Gaza with its Towns;

29. And by the Side of the Posterity of Manasseh, Beth-shean, Taanach, Megiddo, Dor with their respective Towns: in these dwelt the Posterity of Joseph, the Son of Israel.

30. The Sons of Asher were, Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi and Beriah, with Serah their Sister.

31. And Beriah's Sons, Heber, and Malchiel, who was the Father of Birzavith.

32. Heber too begot Japhlet, Shomer and Hotham, with Shuha their Sister.

33. Japhlet's Sons likewise were, Pasach,
Bimhal and Ashvath; these being his Sons.

34. Besides the Sons of Shamer were,
Ahi and Rohegah, Jehubbah and Aram.

35. And the Son of his Brother Helem,
Zophah, Imma, Shelesh and Amal.

36. The Sons of Zophah, Suah, Harne-pher, Shual, Beri and Imrah,

37. Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah,
Ithran and Beera.

38. And Jether's Sons, Jephunneh, Pi-pah and Ara.

39. As likewise the Sons of Ulla, Arah,
Hanniel and Rizia.

40. All these were the Posterity of Asher, the chief of the Family of the Fathers, choice very valiant Men, the chief of the Princes; whose Pedigree being reckoned up for an Army for War, their Number was twenty six thousand Men.

C H A P. VIII.

BENJAMIN also begot Belah his First-born, Ashbel the second, and Ahrah
the third,

2. Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.

3. And Bela had Sons, Addar, Gera, Abihud,

4. Abishua, Naaman, Ahoa,

5. Gera, Shephuphan and Huram.

6. And these were the Sons of Ehud, these themselves the chief of the Fathers,

Ver. 14. Wife] See upon Jer. xxvii. 1.

Ver. 15. the Sister] See the Oddness of the pres. Eng. Transf. and the old Lat. is, Machir took a Wife for his Sons Huppim and Shuppim; and he had a Sister named Maachab: for it appears the Translator not knowing what to make of it, made what he was minded of it.

Ver. 21. slew] This one may conclude was done while the Israelites were in Egypt, as it was in Ephraim's Life-time: for it is clearly the same Ephraim here as at Ver. 20. (notwithstanding what has been pretended) the Son of Joseph, Ver. 14, 29. as it is that his Sons sought to take away the Cattle of the Men of Gath, and not the Men of Gath theirs.

Ver. 24. who] whose Offspring: as it is not likely a Woman should do it, considering the Manner of the Israelitish Common-wealth, especially at their first possessing the Country of Canaan, when this was probably done; and was too late for a Daughter of Ephraim to live.

belonging belonging to the Inhabitants of Geba, whom they removed away to Manahath.

7. So Naaman, Ahijah and Gera, them he removed away; and begot Uzza, and Ahihud.

8. Shaharaim likewise begot Children in the Country of Moab, after he had sent them away; Hushim and Baara being his Wives.

9. And he begot of Hodesh his Wife, Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcham,

10. Jeuz, Shachiah and Mirmah; these were his Sons, the chief of the Fathers.

11. Moreover of Hushim he begot Abitub, and Elpaal.

12. And the Sons of Elpaal were, Eber, Misham, and Shemed; he built Ono, and Lod with its Towns:

13. Beriah also, and Shema; who were the chief of the Fathers belonging to the Inhabitants of Aijalon; they made the Inhabitants of Gath flee.

14. With Ahio, Shashak and Jeremoth,

15. Zebadiah, Arad, Eder,

16. Michael, Ishpah and Joha, the Sons of Beria.

17. And Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hiski, Heber,

18. Ishmerai, Jezliah and Jobab, the Sons of Elpaal.

19. As likewise Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi,

20. Elienai, Zilthai, Eliel,

21. Adaiiah, Beraiah and Shimrath, the Sons of Shimei.

22. Together with Ishpan, Eber, Eliel,

23. Abdon, Zichri, Hanan,

24. Hananiah, Elam. Antothijah,

25. Iphdeiah and Penuel, the Sons of Shashak.

26. And Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah,

27. Jaarefiah, Eliah and Zichri, the Sons of Jeroham.

28. These were the chief of the Fathers, the chief belonging to their Generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

29. And at Gibeon dwelt Gibeon's Father, the Name of whose Wife was Maachah;

30. His first-born Son too was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab,

31. Gedor, Ahio and Zecher.

32. And Mikloth begot Shimeah; who also dwelt before their Brethren, at Jerusalem with them.

33. And Ner begot Kish, as Kish did Saul, and Saul begot Jehonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab and Eshbaal.

34. Jehonathan's Son moreover was Meribbaal, and Meribbaal begot Micah.

35. And the Sons of Micah were, Pithon, Melech, Taareah and Ahaz.

36. Besides Ahaz begot Jehoaddah, as did Jehoaddah Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza.

37. And Moza begot Bineah; Raphah was his Son, Eleasah his Son, Azel his Son.

38. And Azel had six Sons, whose Names were these, Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan; all these being his Sons.

39. The Sons of whose Brother Eshek were, Ulam his First-born, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

40. And Ulam's Sons were Men that were valiant, bending the Bow, and having many Sons and Grandsons, a hundred and fifty. All these were some of the Descendants of Benjamin.

CHAP. IX.

AND the Pedigree of all Israel being reckoned up, behold they were written in the Book of the Kings of Israel, and of Judah who were carried away to Babylon for their Wickedness.

2. For the former Inhabitants who were in their Possession in their Cities, were Israel, the Priests, Levites and Assistants.

3. And at Jerusalem dwelt of the Posterity of Judah, of those of Benjamin, and those of Ephraim and Manasseh:

4. Uthai the Son of Amihud, the Son of Omri, the Son of Imri, the Son of Bani, of the Posterity of Pharez the Son of Judah;

5. And of the Shilonites, Afsaiah the First-born, with his Sons;

6. Of the Posterity also of Zerah, Jeuel, and their Brethren, six hundred and ninety.

7. And of the Posterity of Benjamin, Sallu the Son of Meshullam, the Son of Hodaviah, the Son of Hassenua;

8. Together with Ibneiah the Son of Jeroham; and Elah the Son of Uzzi, the Son

Ver. 33. Ner] See Chap. ix. 39.

Ver. 38. Bocheru] for which the LXX have his First-born, as the Heb. Word might be without the Vowels or Points; and some Editions have another Name added, either Afa or Saarias, to make up six; so Chap. 9. ult. of such see the Scholium on Neb. viii. 8.

Ver. 40. a hundred and fifty] Vulg. a hundred and fifty usand, odds enough!

VOL. I.

Ver. 1. and of Judah who] The Point or Comma should not be at Judah, but at Israel; both because it is there in the Heb. and because the Kings of Israel were not carried to Babylon.

Ib. to Babylon] From hence especially it may be gathered, that Exra was the Compiler of these Chronicles.

of Michri; as also Meshullam the Son of Shephatiah, the Son of Reuel, the Son of Ibnijah;

9. And their Brethren by their Generations, nine hundred and fifty six: all these Men were chief of the Fathers, by the Household of their Fathers.

10. There were besides of the Priests, Jedaiiah, Jehoiarib and Jachin;

11. Azariah likewise the Son of Hilkiah, the Son of Meshullam, the Son of Zadok, the Son of Meraioth, the Son of Ahitub, the Ruler of the House of God;

12. With Adaiah the Son of Jeroham, the Son of Pahshur, the Son of Malchijah; and Maasai the Son of Adiel, the Son of Jahzerah, the Son of Meshullam, the Son of Meshillemith, the Son of Immer;

13. And their Brethren, the chief of the Household of their Fathers, a thousand seven hundred and sixty, stout Men for the Business of the Service of God's House:

14. As also of the Levites, Shemaiah the Son of Hashub, the Son of Azrikam, the Son of Hashabiah, of the Posterity of Merari;

15. Moreover Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the Son of Micah, the Son of Zichri, the Son of Asaph;

16. And Obadiah the Son of Shemaiah, the Son of Galal, the Son of Jeduthun; with Berechiah the Son of Asa, the Son of Elkanah, who dwelt in the Villages of the Netophathites:

17. And the Porters, Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their Brethren, Shallum being the chief;

18. Who were to that Time at the King's Gate eastward: they were Porters in the Companies of the Posterity of Levi.

19. And Shallum the Son of Kore, the Son of Ebiasaph, the Son of Korah, and his Brethren (of the Household of his Father) the Korahites, were over the Business of the Service, Keepers of the Tent-doors; whose Fathers were over the Lord's Company, Keepers of the Entrance.

20. Phinehas the Son of Eleazar being Ruler over them heretofore, with whom the Lord was.

21. Zechariah the Son of Meshelemiah, was Porter of the Gate belonging to the publick Tent.

22. All of them chosen for Porters at the Doors, were two hundred and twelve: those had their Pedigree reckoned up in their Villages, those David and Samuel the Seer founded in their Trust.

23. So they and their Sons were over the Gates belonging to the Lord's House, the House of the Tent, by Wards.

24. At the four Winds were the Porters, towards the East, West, North and South.

25. And their Brethren in their Villages, were to come at seven Days, from Time to Time with these.

26. For those four strong Porters, who were Levites, were in the Trust, and were over the Rooms and Treasuries of the House of God.

27. And they lodged round about the House of God; because the Charge was for them, and they were for the opening, Morning by Morning.

28. Some of them further were for the Instruments of Service; because they had them in, and brought them out, both by Number.

29. And some of them were appointed for the Instruments, that is for all the holy ones, as also for the fine Flour, Wine, Oil, Frankincense and Spices.

30. Besides some of the Sons of the Priests made the Ointment of the Spices.

31. And Mattithiah one of the Levites, who was the First-born of Shallum the Korahite, was in Trust over the Work of the Pans.

32. And some of their Brethren, of the Sons of the Kohathites, were over the Bread that was set in order, to prepare it each Sabbath.

33. Of these also there were Singers, the chief of the Fathers of the Levites, in the Rooms at liberty: for they were over them Day and Night in the Business.

34. These were the chief of the Fathers of the Levites, the chief by their Generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

35. And at Gibeon dwelt Gibeon's Father, Jeiel, the Name of whose Wife was Maachah.

36. His first-born Son too was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, Ver. 12. Maasai] In early Editions of the pres. Trans. Maasiah and Maasia, with Maasai now, all wrong.

Ver. 18. to that Time] in Ver. 1.

Ver. 33. Of these also there were] So Trem. and Jun. Horum quoque; the Levites different Offices being shewn, and here especially, since they were employed in this day and night, and therefore were not the same Levites who did the other Business.

Ib. over them] the Rooms, Heb.

Ver. 35. And at] A Repetition of Chap. viii. 29. &c. to the End of this.

Ib. Jeiel] called Zeror, 1 Sam. ix. 1. being Saul's great Grandfather, Ver. 36, 39.

Ib. Wife] In Conformity to our and other Versions I have this, as in Ch. viii. 29. but the right Word here (being in the best and most Heb. Copies) appears to be Sister, not inconsistent with that, since she might be both, as Sarah was to Abraham, Gen. xx. 12. and this being a Fragment of History varying from that in Ch. viii. would be a sufficient Reason for inserting and preserving it. How improbable is it that Wife was changed into Sister, which Ch. viii. 29. would forbid, but promote the

37. Gedor,

37. Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth.

38. And Mikloth begot Shimeam; who also dwelt before their Brethren, at Jerusalem with them.

39. And Ner begot Kish, as Kish did Saul, and Saul begot Jehonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab and Eshbaal.

40. Jehonathan's Son moreover was Meribbaal, and Meri-baal begot Micah.

41. And the Sons of Micah were, Pithon, Melech and Tahrea.

42. Afterwards Ahaz begot Jarah, as did Jarah Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza.

43. And Moza begot Binea; whose Son was Rephaiah, Eleasah his Son, Azel his Son.

44. And Azel had six Sons, whose Names were these, Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan; these being his Sons.

CHAP. X.

AND the Philistines fighting against Israel, the Men of Israel fled from their Presence, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa.

2. Nay the Philistines followed so close after Saul and his Sons, that they killed of the latter Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchishua.

3. Whereby the Battle was heavy against Saul; besides those who shot with Bows finding him, he was afraid of the Archers.

4. Therefore he said to him who carried his Arms, Draw forth thy Sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised ones should come, and make sport with me; but he would not, because he feared exceedingly: so Saul took a Sword, and fell upon it.

5. And when the other saw that Saul was dead, he fell also upon a Sword, and died,

6. Thus died Saul, and three of his Sons; as did his whole Family together.

7. And all the Persons of Israel who were in the Vale, seeing that they were fled, and that Saul and his Sons were dead, forsook their Cities, and ran away; upon which the Philistines came, and dwelt in them.

8. Now the next Day the Philistines coming to strip the Slain, found Saul and his three Sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9. With that they stript him, and taking his Head and Armour, sent into the Country of the Philistines round about, to declare it to their Images, and the People.

10. They also put his Armour in the House of their gods, and fixed his Scull in the House of Dagon.

11. But when all Jabesh-gilead heard, all that the Philistines had done to Saul;

12. All the valiant Men got ready, and took up his Body, and those of his Sons, and bringing them to Jabesh, buried their Bones under an Oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven Days.

13. So Saul died for his Wickedness that he had committed against the Lord, against the Word of the Lord which he did not observe, and also for asking one who had a familiar Spirit to make enquiry.

14. And as he did not enquire of the Lord, he caused him to die, and turned about the Kingdom to David the Son of Jesse.

CHAP. XI.

THEN all Israel were gathered to David at Hebron, and said; Behold we are thy Bone and Flesh.

2. Even in time past, namely when Saul was King, thou didst bring Israel out and in; nay the Lord thy God said to thee, Thou shalt feed my People Israel, and thou shalt be Ruler over my People Israel.

contrary! unless it could come (but unlikely) from Ch. vii. 15.

Ver. 39. Ner] called Abiel, 1 Sam. ix. i. and xiv. 51. Patrick in his Commentary upon the first of those Texts, expounding this in Chron. Ner begot Kish, says, 'it is evident Ner was Kish his Brother, 1 Sam. xiv. 51.' as if there could not be two Ners; and by making but one, Jziel must be both his Father and Grandfather, Ver. 35, 36. He also says, 'by begetting must be meant the giving him his Breeding and Education;' which besides such a strange Meaning of the Word, is not very likely for a Brother to do; and as it seems the younger one too, by being put last, 1 Sam. xiv. 51. though he was mentioned just before, and by their Father Ner being younger than his Brother Kish, Ver. 36. nay it is probable that the Occasion of the younger Ner taking his Name from his Father, was his being born after his Father's Death, and so must be the youngest Brother, and upon that Account might have his Father's Name.

Ver. 40. Meri-baal] So it is the second Time, and may be rightly, for being spelled thus differently, the first Writer might give it both Ways; which Carpzov (a noble Vindicator of the Heb. Scriptures) may better believe, than the Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew Text disbelieve, notwithstanding his Taunt at it, with Let Carpzov believe it! p. 486.

Ver. 41. Tahrea] Why should and Ahaz be added here from Ch. viii. 35. any more than and Mikloth, Ch. viii. 31. from Ver. 37. of this?

Ver. 3. afraid] the same as 1 Sam. xxxi. 3.

Ver. 6. whole Family] that were there, as all his Men, 1 Sam. xxxi. 6. for otherwise he had several left.

Ver. 14. not enquire] The Heb. Word is not the same as in 1 Sam. xxviii. 6. and so is clear of a Contradiction: the Truth seems to be, Saul asked slightly, but did not properly enquire.

3. And

3. And when all the Elders of Israel were come to the King at Hebron, David made a Treaty with them there before the Lord; and they anointed him to be King over Israel, according to the Word of the Lord by the Ministry of Samuel.

4. And David with all Israel went to Jerusalem, which was Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the Inhabitants of the Country.

5. But the Inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou canst not come in hither. Nevertheless David took the Fortification of Zion, which is the City of David.

6. For he said, Let any one beat the Jebusites first, he shall be chief and Captain. So Joab the Son of Zeruiah went up first, and was chief.

7. Afterwards David dwelt in the Fortification; therefore they called it The City of David.

8. And he built the City round about, from the Fortress to what was round about; Joab repairing the rest of the City.

9. And he went on still in being great, because the Lord of Armies was with him.

10. Now these were the chief of the mighty Men whom David had, that strengthened themselves with him in his Kingdom, with all Israel, to make him King; according to the Word of the Lord concerning Israel;

11. Even these were the Number of the stout Men whom David had: Jashobeam the Son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the Captains, who brandished his Spear against three hundred, that were slain at one Time.

12. And after him was Eleazar the Son of Dodo an Ahobite; who was one of the three stout Men.

13. He was with David at Pas-dammim, where the Philistines were gathered to Battle, Part of the Field being full of Barley, and the People being fled from the Presence of the Philistines;

14. They stood within the Part, and delivering it, beat the Philistines; so that the Lord saved with a great Preservation.

15. Moreover the three chief above the thirty went down upon the Rock to David, at the Cave of Adullam; the Camp of the Philistines encamping in the Giants Vale.

16. David was also then in the Fortrefs, and the Garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem.

17. And David longing, said, Oh that I could drink Water out of the Cistern of Beth-lehem, which is at the Gate!

18. With that the three broke through the Camp of the Philistines, and drew Water out of the same; which taking up, they brought to David: nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out to the Lord.

19. For he said, Far be it from me of my God to do this; shall I drink the Blood of these Men in Danger of their Lives? For they have brought it so: therefore he would not drink it. These things the three stout ones did.

20. Abishai likewise the Brother of Joab, was the chief of three, who brandished his Spear against three hundred that were slain; so he had a Name among the three.

Ver. 3. according to the Word of the Lord] The Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew Text adds fulfilled, p. 26, 27. but if the Word of the Lord to this Purpose was by Samuel, as we may find it in 1 Sam. xiii. 14. and xv. 28. why should the Scripture be forced by such an Addition into such an Impropriety; by a Man too who does not allow of less Supplements elsewhere, that he may shew the Heb. to be improper?

Ver. 6. Let any one] concurrent with 2 Sam. v. 8.

Ver. 8. to what was round] Perhaps from the Fortrefs at the Wall, to the Outside of the Suburbs.

Ver. 11. Number] The Author of the Present State, &c. having taken such great Pains, to so little Purpose, to shew that this and that in 2 Sam. xxiii. was originally the same, in order to manifest that the Scripture is corrupted; has however favoured himself, not to attempt proving מספר here or שמות, Names in Sam. was made by Likeness one from the other, or not to be both true Original, or stature five cubits high, Ver. 23. and goodly in Sam. Ver. 21. or that in Ver. 26. and Sam. Ver. 24. differently situated; nor that חללי that went, Sam. Ver. 17. was made from חלל אשתח I drink these in Ver. 19. here; consistent with which he might have taken more Ease; for if some Things were different at first, even confessedly, by him, why might not others? And for a farther Confirmation from himself that they were, he does not pretend Zabad the Son of Ahlai, v. 41. was ever the same as thirty and seven in all, Sam. ult. or that Chron. having this Zabad, to make up the 37, as he reckons, instead of Elikah the Harodite, Sam. v. 25. are either of them corrupted or wrong.

Ib. Jashobeam] spoken of Ch. xxvii. 2.

Ib. that were slain] The Author of the Present State, &c. makes use of twenty three Pages in shewing that this should be Soldiers, and that Jashobeam lift up his Spear against 300 Soldiers, which he says was a very extraordinary Display of Courage, p. 124. What a Discovery is here so trifling?

Ver. 14. They] he and Shummah, 2 Sam. xxiii. 11. who make up the three as there.

Ib. saved] corrupted from wrought in Sam. if the Author of the Present State, &c. is to be credited with his several reasons, p. 143. one of which is, because it is wrought in the correct Verse of Samuel, if that can be any reason; another, that there is the same in the 10th as in the 12th Verse of Sam. but that in the 10th Verse must be to less Purpose than the other in the 12th; and a third reason of his, or the Thing it self, he says, is plain from the LXX. all the Copies of which (for whose) Version uniformly so render it (for have it rendered) whereas this must still have less Force. To these several reasons, he says, it (viz. two Things) may be added, that ywy cannot be the Hiphil future from yw and yet it is no less than ten times more in the Heb. Bible; and lastly it makes no Sense with the Words following, namely without with or by; but there is not the Article of the Accusative Case after it, and so it may as well be Ablative, according to the Remark on Gen. iv. 1.

Ver. 16. Garrison] מצב in Sam. is changed here into מצב says the Author of the Present State, &c. and the latter is Præfett or Magistrate, which the Context speaks not of; but he does not say it is Nothing else, for then he would be caught. How disingenuously do such abuse the Scripture!

21. He was the most honourable of the three, over two; so that he became the Captain of them: however he did not get to those three.

22. Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, a Man's Son of Kabzeel, who was valiant with great Exploits; he slew two stout Moabites, he also went down, and slew a Lion within a Pit on a snowy Day.

23. Besides he slew an Egyptian Man, one of five Cubits in Measure, and though there was a Spear in the Egyptian's Hand like a Weaver's Beam, he went down to him with a Stick; and taking the Spear by force out of the Egyptian's Hand, he killed him with his own Spear.

24. These Things Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada did, and had a Name among the three stout Men.

25. Behold he himself was more honourable than the thirty, but did not get to those three; and David put him at his Hearing.

26. And the stout Men of the Armies were: Asahel the Brother of Joab, Elhanan the Son of Dodo from Beth-lehem,

27. The Shammahs Harorites, Helez the Pelonite,

28. Ira the Son of Ikkeish the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anthothite,

29. Sibbechai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

30. Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the Son of Baanah the Netophathite,

31. Ithai the Son of Ribai from Gibeah of the Benjaminites, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

32. Hurai from the Brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite.

33. Aznaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

34. Of the Sons of Hashem the Gizonite Jonathan, the Son of Shage the Hararite,

35. Ahiam the Son of Sachar the Hararite, Eliphal the Son of Ur,

36. Hephher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

37. Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the Son of Ezbai,

38. Joel the Brother of Nathan, Mibhar the Son of Hagri,

39. Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite who carried the Arms of Joab the Son of Zeruiah,

40. Ithra the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

41. Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the Son of Ahlai,

42. Adina the Son of Shiza the Reubenite, a Captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,

43. Hanan the Son of Maachah, and Josphat the Mithnite,

44. Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jehiel the Sons of Hotham the Aroerite,

45. Jedaiel the Son of Shimri, and Joha his Brother the Tizite,

46. Eliel the Mahavite, with Jeribai and Joshaviah, the Sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, 47. Eliel and Obed, and Jaasiel, Mezo-baites.

CHAP. XII.

AND these came to David at Ziklag, while he was shut up by reason of Saul the Son of Kish, and they were among the stout Men, Helpers in the War;

2. Armed with Bows, both right and left-handed with Stones, and Arrows in the Bow, of Saul's Brethren of Benjamin:

3. The chief was Abiezer, then Joash, the Sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, next Jeziel

Ver. 25. at his Hearing] Look 2 Sam. xxiii. 23. where the Septuag. have it so, but here, in his Family.

Ver. 27. Shammahs] For Shammeth in Heb. is plural, and there were two Harorites or Harodites, 2 Sam. xxiii. 25. the Heb. Letters answering to our d and r being so nearly alike, that they are several times used one for the other: nay otherwise the Duplication of these Lists of Heroes is spoiled, which runs so regularly through the whole, as to the Men, although some Names are varied.

Ver. 34. Of the Sons] This appears by 2 Sam. xxiii. 32. and so Jun. and Trem. translate.

Ver. 35, 36. The Author of the Present State, &c. would persuade us that Eliphal the Son of Ur and Hephher the Mecherathite were only one Man, and that not by two Names, but by being a Corruption from Eliphelet the Son of Abashai, the Son of the Maachathite, 1 Sam. xxiii. 34. p. 204, 205, 206. If our modish Sceptics can believe this, one may hope, that, upon a Comparison, they will become better disposed to credit the great Truths of Revelation in the Scripture: for here it is required to give Faith, that חפפר : אור Ur. Hephher is corrupted by Mistake of the Letters from חפפ אבשאי Abashai, the Son of. How possibly? Why the ח and פ are parts of ח and פ, but neither of them are true Parts, which might have discovered that their Parts were not those Letters. The next is חפפר says he, is corrupted from חפפ whereas if the latter was in one Word, חפפ was corrupted too, and must be doubled so, by being parted thus חפפ and then how came they restored as now, and not the other? To mention no more, are י when separated also, like פ.

Ver. 36. Abijah] It is scarce to be denied, that this is the same Person with the corresponding one in 2 Sam. xxiii. 34. as the Series of the two Catalogues agree throughout; Eliam then might be called here אחיה by Contraction from his Father's Name אחיהא much liker than, with the Author of the Present State, &c. p. 207. for Chren. to be so corrupted from Sam. and even while both were extant in the same Bible.

Ver. 42. with] The Author of the Present State, &c. translates, but the thirty were superior to him, or his Superiors, which is evident, he says, because every Worthy is here recorded only for his own personal Valour, p. 224, 225. but how did he know that? If the rest are, this might not. And is his being a Captain of the Reubenites such? Is not with more agreeable to that, than were above him, as this Author might more literally have turned it.

and Pelet, the Sons of Azmaveth, as likewise Berachah, and Jehu the Anthothite;

4. Ishmaiah too the Gibeonite, a stout Man among thirty and over thirty, with Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite;

5. Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite;

6. Elkanah, Ishijah, Azareel, Joezer and Jashobeam, the Korhites;

7. As also Joelah and Zebadiah, the Sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

8. And of the Gadites there were separated to David, to the Fortification at the Wilderness, valiant ones, warlike Men for Battle, that could use Buckler and Shield, whose Faces were as a Lion's, and they were like Deer upon the Mountains to make haste;

9. Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10. Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11. Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12. Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13. Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh:

14. These were of the Posterity of Gad, Captains of the Army; one of the least was over a hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15. These were they who passed over Jordan in the first Month, when it overflowed all its Banks, and made all those of the Vales flee, both at the East and West.

16. Besides there came some of the Posterity of Benjamin and Judah, to the Fortification to David.

17. Before whom David went out, and spoke in this manner to them, If you are come peaceably to me to help me, my Heart shall be together with you; but if it is to betray me to my Adversaries, when there is no Wrong in me, the God of our Fathers see, and rebuke.

18. Then the Spirit cloathed Amasai, the chief of the Captains, to say, We are thine, David, and for thee, O Son of Jesse; Peace, Peace be to thee, and Peace to thy Helpers, for thy God helps thee. So David received them, and put them for the chief of the Troop.

19. And some of Manasseh fell to David, when he came with the Philistines to the Battle against Saul, but they did not help them; because the Lords of the Philistines on

Counsel sent him away, saying, He will desert to his Master Saul, to the Danger of our Heads;

20. When he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai, chief of the thousands who belonged to Manasseh.

21. And they helped with David over the Troop, for all of them were valiant Men, and were Captains in the Army.

22. For at that Time Day by Day came some to David to help him, till it was a great Army like one of God.

23. And these are the Numbers belonging to the chief of such as being armed for Battle, came to David at Hebron, to turn about the Kingdom of Saul to him, according to the Command of the Lord:

24. The Posterity of Judah who carried Shield and Spear, six thousand and eight hundred armed for Battle;

25. Of the Posterity of Simeon valiant Men for War, seven thousand and a hundred;

26. Of the Posterity of Levi, four thousand and six hundred;

27. And Jehoiada the Ruler of the Aaronites, with whom were three thousand and seven hundred;

28. Nay Zadok a valiant young Man, and twenty two Captains of his Father's Family;

29. And of the Posterity of Benjamin the Kinsman of Saul, three thousand, for before that a Multitude of them kept the Charge of Saul's House;

30. And of the Posterity of Ephraim, twenty thousand and eight hundred, valiant ones, famous Men in the Family of their Fathers;

31. Moreover of the half Tribe of Manasseh, eighteen thousand, who were expressed by Name, to come and make David King;

32. And of the Posterity of Issachar, who were acquainted with Politicks for the Times, to know what Israel should do, the chief of them two hundred, and all their Brethren at their Command;

33. Of Zebulun, that went out to Battle, set in order for War, with all Weapons of it, fifty thousand, who kept in order without a double Mind;

34. And of Naphtali, a thousand Captains, accompanied by thirty seven thousand, with Shield and Spear;

Ver. 19. our Heads] by his falling on them in the Battle.

Ver. 21. over the Troop] agreeable to Ver. 18. and thus Noldius puts it in his Concordance, p. 688. Jun. and Trem. have, fuerunt adiumento Davidi adiuncti turma ejus, were for a Help to David joined to his Troop.

Ver 23. chief] bands being quite beside the Original.

Ver. 34. seven thousand] In an Edition of the Bible printed at Oxford, 1709, is put falsely eight thousand and six hundred, from the next Verse as it appears.

35. As likewise of the Danites, who were set in order for War, twenty eight thousand and six hundred;

36. Next of Asher, who went out to Battle, set in order for War, forty thousand;

37. And beyond Jordan, of the Reubenites, Gadites and half Tribe of Manasseh, with all warlike Instruments for Battle, a hundred and twenty thousand.

38. All these Warriors who kept orderly in rank, came with a perfect Mind to Hebron, to make David King over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were also of one Mind to do the same.

39. And they were there with David three Days, eating and drinking: for their Brethren prepared for them.

40. And those too who were near them, as far as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali, brought Bread on Asses, Camels, Mules and Oxen, Meat, Flour, Bunches of Figs, Clusters of Raisins, Wine, Oil, Oxen and Sheep abundantly: for there was Gladness in Israel.

CHAP. XIII.

AND David took counsel with the Captains of Thousands and Hundreds, with every Ruler.

2. He also said to the whole Congregation of Israel; If it is well to you, and is from the Lord our God, let us get out, and send to our Brethren who are left in all the Countries of Israel, and with them the Priests and Levites in the Cities of their Suburbs, that they should come together to us.

3. And let us bring about the Ark of our God to us: for we did not enquire of it in the Time of Saul.

4. Upon which the whole Congregation said they would do so: for all the People approved of the Thing.

5. Thus David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even to the Entrance of Hamath, to bring the Ark of God from Kirjath-jearim.

6. Then he and all Israel went up to Baalah, otherwise Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from thence the Ark of God the Lord, who inhabits the Cherubs, which is called by his Name.

7. And they carried it upon a new Cart, from the House of Abinadab; Uzza and Ahio guiding it.

8. Moreover David and all Israel played before God, with their whole Strength, namely on Musick even of Harps, Lutes, Timbrels, Bells and Trumpets.

9. But when they came to the Floor of Chidon, Uzza reached out his Hand, to take hold of the Ark, because the Oxen shook it.

10. At this the Lord was angry with him, and smote him, because he reached out his Hand to the Ark; so that he died there before God.

11. And David was displeased that the Lord made a Breach on Uzza: thus that Place is called The Breach of Uzza to this Day.

12. Nay David was afraid of God that Day, saying, How shall I bring the Ark of God to me?

13. So that he did not take away the Ark to himself at the City of David, but had it aside into the House of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14. Where it abode with his Family three Months; and the Lord blessed the Family of Obed-edom, with all that he had.

CHAP. XIV.

MOREOVER Hiram King of Tyre sent Messengers to David, with Cedar-trees, Masons and Carpenters, to build him a House.

2. Now he knew that the Lord had established him to be King over Israel, that he had raised up his Kingdom high for the sake of this his People.

3. Besides he took more Wives in Jerusalem, and begot more Sons and Daughters.

4. And these are the Names of those whom he had born there; Shammua and Shobab, Nathan and Solomon,

5. Ibhar, Elishua, Elphelet,

6. Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

7. Elishama, Beeliada and Eliphelet.

8. But when the Philistines heard that David was anointed to be King over all Israel, they all came up to seek for him; which he hearing of, went out before them.

Ver. 6. which is] Here being but the Heb. Relative, in which Language whose is denoted by putting also a Pronoun to a following Noun or Preposition, as for this in 2 Sam. vi. 2. If our Translators meant that the Ark was called The Ark of God, as just before, it is obscurely and poorly expressed; but if they would signify (as it seems) that God's Name was then called upon the Ark, how could that be in the Time of Exra, the supposed Writer of this Book?

Ver. 8. Strength] See some Variation, 1 Chron. xiii. 8.

1b. Bells] So Zech. xiv. 20. and this the only Meaning Buxtorf gives it, as its Root or Verb likewise signifies to ring; but so they are to be thought Hand-bells.

Ver. 9. shook] the same as 2 Sam. vi. 6. in the Heb. and doubtless should in English.

Ver. 2. that he had] which 2 Sam. v. 12. shews.

9. And the Philistines came, and invaded the Giants Vale.

10. David then enquired thus of God, Shall I go up against the Philistines? And wilt thou deliver them into my Power? And the Lord said to him, Go up, and I will deliver them into thy Power.

11. So they came up to Baal-perazim, where he beat them; and David said, God has broke my Enemies by my Power, like the breaking out of Waters: therefore they called the Name of that Place Baal-perazim.

12. They also left their gods there, and David ordered that they should be burnt in the Fire.

13. However the Philistines proceeded again, and invaded the Vale.

14. Whereupon David enquired again of God, and he said to him; Thou shalt not go up after them: turn about from them, and come to them over against the Mulberry-trees.

15. And as soon as thou hearest the Sound of going on the Tops of the Mulberry-trees, then shalt thou go out to the Battle: for God goes out before thee, to smite the Camp of the Philistines.

16. Therefore he did as God commanded him; and they smote the Camp of the Philistines, from Gibeon even to Gezer.

17. Thus David's Renown went into all the Countries, and the Lord put the Dread of him upon all the Nations.

C H A P. XV.

AND he not only made him Houses in the City of David, but prepared a Place for the Ark of God, and pitched a Tabernacle for it.

2. Then David said, None are to carry the Ark of God but the Levites: for the Lord has chosen them to do it, and to minister to him for ever.

3. And he assembled all Israel to Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Lord to its Place, which he had prepared for it.

4. He likewise gathered the Posterity of Aaron, and the Levites:

5. Of the Posterity of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his Brethren a hundred and twenty;

6. Of the Posterity of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his Brethren two hundred and twenty;

7. Of the Posterity of Gershon, Joel the chief, and his Brethren a hundred and thirty;

8. Of the Posterity of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his Brethren two hundred;

9. Of the Posterity of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his Brethren eighty;

10. Of the Posterity of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his Brethren a hundred and twelve.

11. And David called to Zadok and Abiathar the Priests, with the Levites, Uriel, Asaiah and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab.

12. To whom he said; You being the Heads of the Fathers of the Levites, consecrate your selves, with your Brethren, that you may bring up the Ark of the Lord God of Israel, to the Place I have prepared for it.

13. Because you did not at the very first, the Lord our God made a Breach among us, since we did not seek him as was right.

14. Accordingly the Priests and Levites consecrated themselves, to bring up the Ark of the Lord God of Israel.

15. And the Posterity of the Levites carried the Ark of God, as Moses commanded according to the Word of the Lord, on their Shoulders, with the Poles upon them.

16. David also ordered the chief of the Levites to appoint their Brethren Musicians, with Instruments of Musick, Lutes, Harps and Bells, making themselves be heard, by exalting the Voice with Gladness.

17. Upon which the Levites appointed Heman the Son of Joel, and of his Brethren, Asaph the Son of Berechiah; as also of the Posterity of Merari their Brethren, Ethan the Son of Kufhaiah;

18. And with them their Brethren who were next, Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-edom and Jeiel, Porters.

19. And the Musicians, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to make themselves be heard with Bells of Brass;

20. Moreover Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah, with Lutes upon the Virgin-instruments;

21. As also Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel and Azaziah, with Harps upon the eighth to be chief.

22. And Chenaniah the chief of the Le-

Ver. 9. invaded] It is not the same Verb with that in 2 Sam. v. 18, 22. and thus rendered 1 Sam. xxiii. 27. and xxvii. 8. and xxx. 1, 14. 2 Chron. xxviii. 18. else- where fell upon and spoiled, frequently stripped; but nothing like spread themselves as here and Ver. 13.

Ver. 20. Virgin-instruments] See Psa. xlv. 1.

Ver. 21. the eighth] See Psa. vi. 1.

vites was for the Tune: he instructed in that, for he had understanding.

23. Besides Berechiah and Elkanah were Porters for the Ark.

24. And Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethaneel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer, the Priests, blew Trumpets before the Ark of God; Obed-edom and Jehiah being Porters for it.

25. So David and the Elders of Israel, with the Captains of thousands, went to bring up the Ark of the Lord's Covenant, from the House of Obed-edom with Gladness.

26. And by God's assisting the Levites who carried the Ark of the Lord's Covenant, they sacrificed seven Bullocks and so many Rams.

27. And David was dressed in a Robe of fine Linen, as likewise all the Levites who carried the Ark, the Musicians, and Chenaniah the chief for the Tune of the Musicians; David also wore a linen Ephod.

28. Thus all Israel brought up the Ark of the Lord's Covenant, with Shouting, the Sound of the Cornet, Trumpets and Bells, causing themselves to be heard with Lutes and Harps.

29. However as it came to the City of David, Michal Saul's Daughter looked out at a Window, and seeing King David skipping and playing, despised him in her Heart.

CHAP. XVI.

SO they brought the Ark of God, and set it within the Tabernacle which David had pitched for it; and they brought near Burnt-offerings and Peace-offerings before God.

2. And when David had made an end of offering them up, he blessed the People in the Name of the Lord;

3. Distributing to all Persons of Israel, both Men and Women, a Loaf of Bread, a Piece of Flesh, and a Bottle of Wine apiece.

4. And he put some of the ministering Levites before the Ark of the Lord, even to record, give thanks, and praise the Lord God of Israel;

5. Asaph the chief, next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom and Jeiel, with Instruments of Lutes and Harps, and Asaph made himself be heard with Bells;

6. Benaiah also, and Jahaziel the Priests, with Trumpets continually before the Ark of God's Covenant.

7. On that Day then David gave out first, to give thanks to the Lord, into the Hand of Asaph and his Brethren:

8. Give thanks to the Lord, call on his Name, make known his Acts among the People;

9. Sing to him; sing melodiously to him, discourse of all his Wonders;

10. Glory in his holy Name, let the Heart of those who enquire for the Lord be glad;

11. Seek the Lord, and his Strength, enquire for his Presence continually;

12. Remember his Wonders which he has done, his Miracles, and the Judgments of his Mouth:

13. You Posterity of his Servant Israel, you Children of Jacob his chosen ones.

14. He is the Lord our God, his Judgments are on the whole Earth.

15. Remember you his Covenant for ever, the Thing that he commanded to a thousand Generations;

16. Which he confirmed with Abraham, and was his Oath to Isaac;

17. And established it to Jacob for an Ordinance, to Israel an everlasting Covenant,

18. As follows, I will give thee the Country of Canaan, the Line of your Possession:

19. When you were Persons to be numbered, as being few, and Sojourners in it;

20. And they went about from Nation to Nation, and from one Kingdom to another People.

21. He suffered no Person to oppress them, but reproved Kings for their sakes,

22. Do not touch my anointed ones, nor hurt my Prophets.

23. Sing to the Lord, O whole Earth, declare his Salvation from Day to Day.

24. Tell his Glory in the Nations, his Wonders among all the People.

25. For great is the Lord, and to be praised exceedingly; nay he is to be feared the most of all gods.

26. For all the gods of the People are Idols; whereas the Lord made the Heavens.

27. Majesty and Honour are before him, Strength and Joy are in his Place.

28. Ascribe to the Lord, O Families of the People, ascribe to the Lord Glory and Strength.

29. Ascribe to the Lord the Glory of his Name; take up an Offering, and come before

Ver. 26. by God's assisting] Heb. in etc. being like the middle Lat. Gerund; and when reading strangely.

Ver. 8. Give] To Ver. 23. see in Psa. cv. 1—15.

VOL. I.

chance to Ver. 34. in Psa. xcvi. and the three following Verses, Psa. cvii. 1. and cvi. 47, 48.

him : bow down to the Lord in the Place of holy Grandeur ;

30. Tremble by reason of his Presence, all the Earth : the World also is established, it cannot be moved.

31. Let the Heaven be glad, and the Earth rejoice ; and let them say in the Nations, The Lord reigns.

32. Let the Sea roar, and what it is filled with ; the Field be triumphant, and all that is in it.

33. Then let all the Trees of the Wood sing, by reason of the Presence of the Lord : for he comes to judge the Earth.

34. Give thanks to the Lord, because he is good ; since his Kindness is for ever.

35. And say, Save us, O God of our Salvation, gather us together, and deliver us from the Gentiles ; that we may give thanks to thy holy Name, may glory in thy Praise.

36. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting ; and let all the People say, So let it be, and praise the Lord.

37. And he left there before the Ark of the Lord's Covenant, Asaph and his Brethren, to minister before the Ark continually, for each Day's Business the very same Day ;

38. As also Obed-edom and their Brethren, sixty eight ; with Obed-edom the Son of Jeduthun, and Hofah, for Porters :

39. And Zadok the Priest, with his Brethren the Priests, before the Tabernacle of the Lord, in the high Place that was at Gibeon,

40. To offer up Burnt-offerings to the Lord, upon the Altar of Burnt-offering continually Morning and Evening, and for all that is written in the Law of the Lord, which he gave in charge for Israel ;

41. And with them Heman and Jeduthun, as likewise the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by Name, to give thanks to the Lord, because his Kindness is for ever.

42. Moreover with Heman and Jeduthun themselves, Trumpets and Bells, for such as should make themselves be heard, and with God's Instruments of Musick ; the Sons of Jeduthun being Porters.

43. Then all the People went to their respective Homes, and David turned about to bless his Household.

C H A P. XVII.

AND when David was settled in his House, he said to Nathan the Prophet, Behold I dwell in a House of Cedar, while the Ark of the Lord's Covenant is under Curtains.

2. And Nathan answered him, Do all that is in thy Heart ; for God is with thee.

3. However that Night he had God's Commission as follows :

4. Go, and tell David my Servant ; Thus says the Lord, Thou shalt not build me a House to dwell in ;

5. Since I have not dwelt in a House, from the Day on which I brought up Israel, to this Day, but have been from one Tent and Tabernacle to another.

6. Whithersoever I went about with all Israel, did I speak such a Word to one of the Judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my People, as, Why do not ye build me a House of Cedar ?

7. Now therefore thou shalt declare so to my Servant David ; Thus says the Lord of Armies, I took thee from the Fold, from after the Flock, to be Ruler over my People Israel.

8. And I have been with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thy Enemies from thy Presence ; that I might make thee a Name, like that of the great ones who are on the Earth.

9. Moreover I will put a Place for my People Israel, and plant them, so that they shall dwell in a Place of their own, and not be moved again ; nor shall the Sons of Iniquity consume them any more as formerly ;

10. And even from the Times that I appointed Judges over my People Israel, till I subdued all thy Enemies : I also tell thee, that the Lord will build thee a House.

11. And it shall come to pass when thy Days are fulfilled, to go to thy Fathers, that I will set up thy Offspring after thee, who shall be one of thy Sons ; and will confirm his Kingdom.

12. He shall build me a House, and I will confirm his Throne for ever.

13. I will be to him a Father, as he shall to me a Son ; and will not take away my Kindness from him, as I did from him who was before thee.

Ver. 36. let] as may appear by Psa. cvi. 48. where is the same Passage, only something different.

Ver. 42. themselves] Thus there is no Tautology and Absurdity, as in the com. Eng. Bib. for Heman and Jeduthun to be with Heman and Jeduthun ; in Confirmation of which there is Nothing for with in Heb. to Trumpets, as there is before : after which Manner Jun. and Trem. translate, and Lewis de Dieu in his Animad. on it pleads, quoting Dan. vii. 24. and Ezr. v. 3. for parallel Instances ; and if more are required, see now in Naldin's Concord. but to have a Pronoun demonstrative, as well as relative, to belong to the present, as well as past Word or Words, is certainly plain Construction.

Ver. 8. wentest] walked being incongruous, as in divers other Places of the com. Eng. Bib.

Ver. 10. build thee a House] Now see 2 Sam. vii. 11.

CHAP. XVIII.

14. For I will settle him in my House and Kingdom for ever, and his Throne shall be confirmed for evermore.

15. According to all these Words, and this whole Vision, so spoke Nathan to him.

16. Then King David went in, and sitting before the Lord, said: Who am I, O Lord God? And what is my Family, that thou hast brought me on hitherto?

17. And this was so little in thy Sight, O God, that thou hast spoken concerning thy Servant's Family for a long while; nay hast looked on me like a Man of high Rank, O Lord God.

18. What shall David add yet to thee, for the Honour of thy Servant, since thou knowest him?

19. O Lord, for thy Servant's sake, and according to thy Mind, hast thou done all this great Matter, to make known all these great Things.

20. O Lord, there is none like thee, nor any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our Ears.

21. And what one Nation on the Earth is like thy People Israel: whom God went to redeem for his own People, to make thee a Name, with great and terrible Things, by driving out Nations; by reason of thy People whom thou redeemedst from Egypt?

22. Thou hast also put thy People Israel, for a People to thee for ever; and thou Lord art a God to them.

23. Now therefore, O Lord, let the Word be verified which thou hast spoken concerning thy Servant, and his Family, for ever; and do according as thou spokest.

24. Let it even be verified, so shall thy Name be magnified for ever as follows, The Lord of Armies, the God of Israel, is a God to Israel; and the Family of David thy Servant will be confirmed before thee.

25. Since thou, O my God, hast revealed to the Ear of thy Servant, that thou wilt build him a House; therefore he has found this to pray before thee.

26. And now, O Lord, thou art he that is God, who hast spoken this Good concerning thy Servant.

27. Therefore now do thou please to bless the Family of thy Servant, that it may be for ever before thee; for thou hast blessed, O Lord, and let it be blessed for ever.

AND after this David beat the Philistines, so that he humbled them; and took Gath with its Towns out of their Possession.

2. Moreover he beat the Moabites: so they became his Servants, carrying Presents.

3. David too beat Hadarezer King of Zobah at Hamath, when he went to place his Border at the River Euphrates.

4. From whom he took a thousand Chariots, seven thousand Horsemen, and twenty thousand Footmen; and he houghed all the Chariot-horses, only left of them for a hundred Chariots.

5. And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help this Hadarezer, David slew of them twenty two thousand Men.

6. Nay he put Garrisons in Syria of Damascus, and the Syrians became his Servants, carrying Presents: thus the Lord saved David whithersoever he went.

7. Besides he took the Shields of Gold that the Servants of Hadarezer were armed with, which he brought to Jerusalem.

8. From Tibhath likewise, and Cun, Hadarezer's Cities, did David take very much Brass; with which Solomon made the brasen Sea, the Pillars, and brasen Instruments.

9. And Tou King of Hamath hearing, that David had beat all the Army of Hadarezer King of Zobah;

10. He sent Hadoram his Son to King David, to ask of his Welfare, and bless him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and beat him, for he was one who had Wars with Tou; as likewise all manner of Instruments of Gold, Silver and Brass.

11. Them also King David consecrated to the Lord, with the Silver and Gold which he took away from all the Nations, from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, Philistines and Amalek.

12. And Abishai the Son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites, eighteen thousand, in the Valley of Salt.

13. Afterwards he put Garrisons in Edom, so that all the Edomites became David's Servants; and the Lord saved him whithersoever he went.

14. So David reigned over all Israel, and was one who did Judgment and Justice to all his People.

Ver. 19. to make] as in 2 Sam. vii. 21. and according to the Heb. being also much better Sense than in making.

Ver. 24. is a God to] That the [is] should be here, the Heb. Accent, as well as here being no [and,] shews; and thus Buxtorf. Anticrit. p. 393. & Jun. in Transf.

Ver. 3. Border at] the very same as in 2 Sam. viii. 3.

Ver. 6. Garrisons] from 2 Sam. viii. 4.

15. Now Joab the Son of Zeruiah, was over the Army; and Jehoshaphat the Son of Ahilud, the Recorder;

16. Zadok likewise the Son of Abitub, and Abimelech the Son of Abiathar, were the Priests, and Shausa was the Secretary;

17. And Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada, was over the Cherethites and Pelethites; as David's Sons were the chief at the King's Hand.

C H A P. XIX.

AND after this Nahash King of the Ammonites dying, his Son reigned in his room.

2. Upon which David said, I will shew Kindness to Hanun the Son of Nahash, because his Father did to me. So he sent Messengers to comfort him for his Father; and David's Servants went into the Country of the Ammonites to him, for that Purpose.

3. But their Princes said to Hanun, Dost thou think David honours thy Father, that he has sent Comforters to thee? Are not his Servants come to thee, in order to search out, overthrow, and spy the Country?

4. Therefore Hanun took David's Servants, and shaved them, and cut off their Garments in the middle to the Breech; sending them away.

5. And some went and told David concerning the Men, at which he sent to meet them, because they were exceedingly ashamed; and the King said, Stay at Jericho until your Beards are grown, and then come back.

6. However when the Ammonites found that they made themselves odious to David, Hanun and they sent a thousand Talents of Silver, to hire them Chariots and Horsemen, from Mesopotamia, and Syria of Maachah and Zobah.

7. And they hired them thirty two thousand belonging to Chariots, with the King of Maachah and his People, who came, and encamped before Medeba; the Ammonites too were gathered from their Cities, and came to the Battle.

8. This David hearing, sent Joab, with all the Army of the stout Men.

9. So the Ammonites came out, and set the Battle in order at the Entrance of the City; and the Kings who came were by themselves in the Field.

10. Whereupon Joab seeing that the Front of the Battle was towards him, before and behind, he chose some of all the choice Men of Israel, and set in order to meet the Syrians.

11. And the rest of the People he delivered into the Custody of Abishai his Brother, that they might be set in order to meet the Ammonites.

12. He also said; If the Syrians are too strong for me, thou shalt be saving me; and if the Ammonites are too strong for thee, I will save thee.

13. Be thou strong, and let us make ourselves so, for our People, and for the Cities of our God; and the Lord do what he likes.

14. Joab then, and the People that were with him, drew nigh before the Syrians to the Battle, who fled from his Presence.

15. And the Ammonites seeing that the Syrians were fled, did flee also themselves from the Presence of Abishai his Brother, and got into the City: so Joab came to Jerusalem.

16. Nevertheless when the Syrians saw that they were beat before Israel, they sent Messengers, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River; Shophach the Captain of Hadarezer's Army being before them.

17. Which being told David, he gathered all Israel, and passing over Jordan, came to them, and set in order against them; and when he had set the Battle in order to meet the Syrians, they fought with him.

18. But the Syrians fled from the Presence of Israel, and David slew of them seven thousand belonging to Chariots, and forty thousand Footmen; nay he killed Shophach the Captain of the Army.

19. Thus the Servants of Hadarezer seeing that they were beat before Israel, made peace with David, and served him; and the Syrians would not help the Ammonites any more.

Ver. 5. concerning] by which Preposition is all the Original has for the com. Eng. how—were served, and the same for commanded unto, Ch. xxiii. 31.

Ver. 7. belonging to] which the Heb. Genit. Case sometimes signifies. Or it might be said Chariot-men, but that it would rather signify the Drivers of them, as Ch. xviii. 4. Chariot-horses. Accordingly 20000 of Beth-rehob and Zoba, with 12000 of Tob, as in 2 Sam. x. 6. make just this Sum, those of Maachab being excluded in both Places; see Ver. 18. The Authors however of the Universal History have to say, What the Troops were, either in quality or number, is not clearly evident, inasmuch as the Scripture varies concerning them, B. i. 4. 2. and to the Word [varies] is put this Note, This we cannot pretend to account for, nor do we know that it was ever cleared by any one, in a satisfactory manner.

Ver. 18. belonging to Chariots] as Ver. 7. being ten to a Chariot by 2 Sam. x. 18. Some of whom probably attended in on horseback, and on foot, to assist, and supply the Places of such as were wounded or slain; much rather than that all the ten fought in a Chariot.

C H A P. XX.

MOREOVER at the Time of the Return of the Year, at the Time when Kings go out, Joab led the Force of the Army; and spoiled the Country of the Ammonites, nay went and besieged Rabbah, but David abode at Jerusalem; while Joab was beating Rabbah, and destroying it.

2. And David took off their King's Crown from his Head, the Value of which he found to be a Talent of Gold, with the precious Stones in it, and it crowned David's Head; besides he brought out the Spoil of the City very much.

3. He brought out the People too who were therein, and cut with a Saw, as also Threshing-instruments of Iron, and Hand-saws; and so did David to all the Cities of the Ammonites: then he, and all the People, returned to Jerusalem.

4. And after this there rose up a Battle at Gezer with the Philistines: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Sippai, one of the Children of the Giant, and they were humbled.

5. There was also a Battle again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the Son of Jair slew Lahmi the Brother of Goliath the Gittite, the Handle of whose Spear was like a Weaver's Beam.

6. Nay there was a Battle again at Gath; where was a Man of great Measure, whose Fingers and Toes were by sixes, being twenty four, and he was likewise born to the Giant.

7. And he reproached Israel; but Jonathan the Son of Shimea David's Brother slew him.

8. These were born to a Giant at Gath, and fell by the Hand of David, and those of his Servants.

C H A P. XXI.

AND Satan standing up against Israel, stirred up David to number them.

2. Whereupon he said to Joab and the Captains of the People, Go, count up Israel from Beer-sheba to Dan, and bring it to me; that I may know the Number of them.

3. However Joab said, The Lord add to his People, as they are, a hundred-fold; are they not, my Lord the King, all of them my Lord's Servants? Why does he require this? Why should it become Guilt to Israel?

4. Nevertheless the King's Word was earnest against Joab; insomuch that he went out, and going about through all Israel, came to Jerusalem.

5. And Joab gave the Number of the Mustering of the People to David, that there were of all Israel a million and a hundred thousand Men drawing forth a Sword, and of Judah four hundred seventy thousand such Men.

6. But he did not muster Levi and Benjamin among them, for the King's Word was abominable to Joab.

7. Moreover God being displeased for this Thing, smote Israel.

8. Nay David said to God, I have sinned exceedingly in that I have done this Thing; yet now take away, I beseech thee the Iniquity of thy Servant, for I have done very foolishly.

9. And the Lord spoke to Gad, David's Seer, as follows:

10. Go, and speak this to David; Thus says the Lord, I offer to thee three Things, choose thee one of these, that I may do to thee.

11. Accordingly Gad came to David, and said to him; Thus says the Lord, Accept thee,

12. Either three Years of Famine; or three Months to be consumed from the Presence of thy Enemies, while their Sword is overtaking; or the Sword of the Lord three Days, even the Pestilence in the Country, while the Lord's Angel is destroying through all the Bounds of Israel: and now see what Word I shall carry back to him who sent me.

13. And David answered him, I am exceedingly distressed; let me fall now into the Treatment of the Lord, for his Compassions are very great, and let me not fall into that of Man.

14. So the Lord made a Pestilence be in Israel; insomuch that there fell of Israel seventy thousand Men.

15. But God sending an Angel to Jerusalem, to destroy it, as he was destroying, the Lord beheld, and was sorry for the Harm, Ver. 3. cut] or sawed as the Heb. and the People might thus be abjectly punished, not killed.

Ib. a Saw] being singular, and I suppose a great one, such as two Men saw with.

Ib. Hand-saws] the plural of the other, and not that in 2 Sam. xii. 31.

Ver. 6. and Toes] supplied from 2 Sam. xxi. 20. but not distinguished in the Original.

Ver. 5. of Judah] Com. Transf. Judas was, and after were before.

Ver. 11. accept] This Verb is rendered by receive, Chap. xii. 18. 2 Chron. xxix. 22. Esl. iv. 4. Job ii. 10. twice, Dan. ii. 6. and take, 2 Chron. xxix. 16. Ezr. viii. 30. Esl. ix. 27. Dan. vii. 18. in the com. Eng. Bib. but no where else choose; nor do the Lexicons allow it any such Meaning.

and said to the Angel who destroyed, It is a great deal, cease now thy Hand; and the Angel of the Lord stood by the Floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16. And David looking up, saw him stand between the Earth and Heaven, with his Sword drawn forth in his Hand, stretched out over Jerusalem; at which David, and the Elders who were covered with Sackcloth, fell upon their Faces.

17. David also said to God, Was it not I ordered the People to be numbered? So I was he who sinned, and did very ill; but as for these Sheep, what have they done? O Lord my God, let thy Hand, I pray, be on me, and my Father's Family, but on thy People let there be no Plague.

18. Then the Angel of the Lord ordered Gad to say to David, that he should go up, to erect an Altar to the Lord, in the Floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19. And David went up at the Word of Gad, which he spoke in the Name of the Lord.

20. Ornan likewise turning back, saw the Angel, whereupon his four Sons who were with him hid themselves, while he was threshing Wheat.

21. Now when David was going to Ornan, who taking a view saw him, he went out of the Floor, and bowed down to David, with the Face to the Ground.

22. And David said to Ornan, Grant me the Place of the Floor, that I may build on it an Altar to the Lord; which thou shalt grant to me for the full Money, that the Slaughter may be stopped from the People.

23. Upon this he replied to David, Take thee, and let my Lord the King do what he likes; see I give the Oxen for the Burnt-offerings, and the Flails for the Wood, as also the Wheat for the Meat-offering, I give all.

24. But King David declared to Ornan, No, for I will wholly buy for the full Money; because I will not take what is thine for the Lord, even to offer up an Offering for nothing.

25. So David gave him for the Place six hundred Shekels of Gold by Weight.

26. Where he built an Altar to the Lord, offering up Burnt-offerings and Peace-offerings; and called on the Lord, who answered him by Fire from Heaven upon the Altar of Burnt-offering.

27. Besides the Lord ordered the Angel, and he put his Sword again into its Sheath.

28. At that Time when David saw, that the Lord had answered him at the Floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

29. For the Tabernacle of the Lord which Moses made in the Wilderness, and the Altar of Burnt-offering, at that Time were in the Chapel at Gibeon.

30. But David could not go before it to seek God, because he was affrighted by reason of the Sword of the Angel of the Lord.

C H A P. XXII.

AFTERWARDS David said, It is this is for the House of the Lord God, and this for the Altar of the Burnt-offering belonging to Israel.

2. And he ordered to gather together the Strangers in the Country of Israel, and appointed Stone-cutters to cut hewn Stone, to build the House of God.

3. Iron also abundantly, for Nails for the Doors of the Gates, and for the Joinings, did David prepare, as likewise Brass in Abundance without Weight;

4. With Cedar-trees out of Number: for the Zidonians and Tyrians brought Cedar-trees to him abundantly.

5. For David said, My Son Solomon being a young Man and tender, and the House to be built for the Lord to be made vastly great, for Renown and Glory to all Countries, I will prepare for it; which he did abundantly before his Death.

6. He likewise called his Son Solomon, and commanded him to build a House for the Lord God of Israel;

7. David saying to him: My Son, it was in my own Mind to build a House to the Name of the Lord my God.

8. But the Word of the Lord was to me as follows; Thou hast shed Blood abundantly, and made great Wars: thou shalt not build

Ver. 20. who were with him hid themselves, while] I would not scruple to pronounce any one ignorant of the Hebrew, who should either suppose Ornan was one of those that hid themselves, or doubt which way it was; notwithstanding the latter appears in the Eng. Text, &c. and the former in the Marg. &c. and notwithstanding the Original has Nothing for who; nay notwithstanding the common dubious Eng. is literal; for the Heb. is not dubious, according to Prov. viii. 9. and to comprehend him should be verbally in the Heb. Manner, and he and his four Sons, as frequently in Scripture; and Ornan's going out of the Floor, as from threshing, further shows the Sense I give it.

Ver. 23. replied] as appears in 2 Sam. xxiv. 21, 22.

Ib. do] for offer up; 2 Sam. xxiv. 22. by the Alteration of one Heb. Letter.

Ib. he likes] being as in 2 Sam. xxiv. 22.

8. House to my Name, because thou hast shed much Blood on the Earth before me.

9. Behold there shall be a Son born to thee, who will be a Man of Rest, and I will give him rest from all his Enemies round about: for his Name shall be Solomon, and I will make Peace and Quietness in Israel in his Time.

10. He shall build a House to my Name, may he shall be a Son to me, as I will a Father to him; and I will establish the Throne of his Kingdom over Israel for ever.

11. Now, my Son, the Lord be with thee; and do thou prosper, and build the House of the Lord thy God, as he has spoken concerning thee.

12. But the Lord give thee Sense and Understanding, and command thee concerning Israel; that thou mayest keep the Law of the Lord thy God.

13. Then wilt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to do the Ordinances and Rules, which the Lord commanded Moses for Israel: be courageous, and strong; do not fear, nor be daunted.

14. And behold in my Affliction, I have prepared for the House of the Lord a hundred thousand Talents of Gold, a Million of Talents of Silver, Brass and Iron without Weight, because there is Abundance of it; as also Timber and Stone have I prepared, to which thou mayest add.

15. Besides there are with thee Abundance of Workmen, Stone-cutters, and Artificers of Stone and Wood, with all manner of skilful Men in all Business.

16. Of the Gold, Silver, Brass and Iron, there is no Number. Get ready, and act, and the Lord will be with thee.

17. Moreover David thus commanded all the Princes of Israel, to help Solomon his Son;

18. Is not the Lord your God with you? And has not he given you rest round about? For he has delivered the Inhabitants of the Earth into thy Power, and the Earth is subdued before the Lord and his People.

19. Now put your Heart and Soul, to seek the Lord your God; and get ready, and build the Sanctuary of the Lord God, to bring the Ark of the Lord's Covenant, and the holy Instruments of God, to the House that is to be built to the Name of the Lord.

C H A P. XXIII.

AT length when David was old, and full of Days, he made his Son Solomon King over Israel.

2. And he gathered all the Princes of Israel, with the Priests and Levites.

3. The Levites being numbered from their thirtieth Year upward; their Number by their Reckoning was thirty eight thousand Men.

4. Of these twenty four thousand were to be chief over the Business of the Lord's House, and six thousand Magistrates and Judges;

5. As were four thousand Porters, and four thousand praised the Lord with the Instruments that I made, said he, to praise with.

6. And David parted them into Partitions, to the Sons of Levi, Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

7. Of the Gershonites were, Ladan and Shimei.

8. The Sons of Ladan were, the chief Jehiel, then Zetham and Joel, three.

9. The Sons of Shimei, Shelomith, Haziel and Haran, three: these were the chief of the Fathers belonging to Ladan.

10. And the Sons of Shimei were, Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah: these four were Shimei's Sons.

11. Jahath being the chief, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah had not many Sons, so they were in one Muster, according to their Father's Family.

12. The Sons of Kohath were, Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel, four.

13. The Sons of Amram were, Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was separated to consecrate the very holy Things, with his Sons for ever, to burn incense before the Lord,

Ver. 8. because thou hast shed much Blood] Thus Virgil in the 2d Æn.

In me 'tis impious holy things to bear,

Red as I am with Slaughter new from War.

Dryd. Tran.

and Homer by Pope, Il. 6.

Ill fits it me, with human gore distain'd;

To the pure Skies these horrid hands to raise,

Or offer Heav'n's great Sire polluted praise.

Ver. 14. Talents] How David had such Abundance of Gold and Silver, may be accounted for by his Conquests, Ch. xviii. 12. and having taken the Ports of the Red Sea from the Edomites, Ch. xviii. 13. 1 King. xi. 15, 16, 17. & ix. 26. 2 Chron. viii. 17. by which there might be Plenty imported, 1 King. x. 14, 15. there might also be comprehended in these Sums all that had been devoted from the Time of Moses, Ch. xxvi. 26, 27, 28.

Ver. 18. The Earth is subdued] so that none resisted, Chaps. xviii. xix. and xx. and was not any particular Land.

Ver. 4. to be chief] as Chap. xv. 21. and the Participle of it frequently in the Titles of the Psalms: so Jun. and Trem. have present.

Ver. 9. Shimei] another Son of Ladan, who, I suppose, did not live to the Age of a Levite being in Office.

Ver. 10. Shimei] the Brother of Ladan, Ver. 7.

to minister to him, and bless in his Name for ever.

14. As for Moses the Man of God, his Sons were called of the Tribe of Levi.

15. The Sons of Moses were, Gershom and Eliezer.

16. Of the Sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the chief.

17. And Eliezer's Sons were, Rehabiah the chief; Eliezer having no other Sons, but those of Rehabiah were exceeding many.

18. Of the Sons of Izhar, Shelomith was the chief.

19. Of the Sons of Hebron, Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20. Of the Sons of Uzziel, Micah the chief, and Ishiah the second.

21. The Sons of Merari were, Mahli and Mushi; the Sons of Mahli, Eleazar and Kish.

22. And Eleazar died, having no Sons but Daughters; and the Sons of Kish their Kinsmen married them.

23. The Sons of Mushi were, Mahli, Eder and Jeremoth, three.

24. These were the Sons of Levi, after the Household of their Fathers, the chief of the Fathers, at the Mustering of them by the Number of Names, after their Reckoning; who did the Business belonging to the Service of the Lord's House, from their twentieth Year upward.

25. For David said; The Lord God of Israel has given rest to his People, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever;

26. And also to the Levites, who are not to carry the Tabernacle, with all its Instruments for the Service of it.

27. For by the latter Words of David, they were the Number of the Posterity of Levi, who were from their twentieth Year upward:

28. Because their Station was at the Hand of the Aaronites, for the Service of the Lord's House, in the Courts and Rooms, and for the cleansing of every holy Thing, with the Work of the Service of God's House;

29. As also for the Bread set in order, the fine Flour for the Meat-offering, the unleavened Biscuits, both of a Pan and blistered in baking, and of every Measure and Dimension;

30. And withal to stand Morning by Morning, to give thanks and praise the Lord, and so at the Evening;

31. To offer up all the Burnt-offerings likewise to the Lord, at the Sabbaths, New-moons and appointed Times, by Number, according to the Rule concerning them continually before the Lord.

32. Besides they kept the Charge of the publick Tent, and the Charge of the Holy Place, with that of the Aaronites their Brethren, belonging to the Service of the Lord's House.

C H A P. XXIV.

AND for the Sons of Aaron were their Partitions, his Sons being Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar;

2. But Nadab and Abihu died before their Father, and had no Sons; so Eleazar and Ithamar executed the Priesthood:

3. These David parted, both Zadok of the Sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the Sons of Ithamar, to their Office in their Service.

4. However there were found more of Eleazar's Sons for chief Men than of Ithamar's, who were parted; of the Sons of Eleazar sixteen for the Household of the Fathers, and of the Sons of Ithamar eight for their Fathers Household.

5. Thus were they parted by Lots, those with these: for the Governors of the Holy Place, and the Governors for God, were of the Sons of Eleazar and those of Ithamar.

6. And Shemaiah the Son of Nethaneel the Scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them down, before the King, the Governors, Zadok the Priest, Ahimelech the Son of Abiathar, and the chief of the Fathers belonging to the Priests and Levites: one Household of a Father was taken for Eleazar, and that taken which had been taken for Ithamar.

7. Now the first Lot came out for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah,

8. The third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim,

9. The fifth for Malchijah, the sixth for Mijamin,

Ver. 24. twentieth] The Difference between this and the 30th, may be accounted for as on Num. iv. 3.

Ver. 26. not to carry] So now they might be continued in their Office to their Lives End, Ver. 3. and not as before to the fiftieth Year only, Num. iv. 3. & viii. 25. and were likewise to begin at the 20th Year, Ver. 24, 27. which they did before five Years later, Num. viii. 24. since their Work at the Temple would be less laborious, and yet might require more Hands.

Ver. 28. at the Hand] as in Neb. xi. 24. so elsewhere in Chron.

Ver. 5. for God] in his Matters, as Psalm observes, distinct from the King's, 2 Chron. xix. 11. the Sanctuary and House of God being the same.

Ver. 6. that taken which had been taken] which is according to the Heb. and the Jewish Writers relate, that there having been eight of Eleazar and eight of Ithamar before, David now added eight more of the former, Ver. 4. and only those of the latter were taken by turn who had been taken already; so Sol. Jar. and David Kimbi, with the Talmud, Taanith, Cap. iv. f. 27. and Jerus. Talm. fol. 67.

10. The

10. The seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for Abijah,

11. The ninth for Jeshua, the tenth for Shechaniah,

12. The eleventh for Eliahib, the twelfth for Jakim,

13. The thirteenth for Huppah, the fourteenth for Jeshebeab,

14. The fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer,

15. The seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for Happizzez,

16. The nineteenth for Pethahiah, the twentieth for Ezekiel,

17. The twenty first for Jachin, the twenty second for Gamul,

18. The twenty third for Delaiah, the twenty fourth for Maaziah.

19. These were their Offices for their Service, to come to the House of the Lord, according to their Rule by the Direction of Aaron their Father, as the Lord God of Israel commanded him.

20. And of the Posterity of Levi there remained, of the Sons of Amram, Shubael; of the Sons of Shubael, Jehdiah;

21. Of Rehabiah, that is, of his Sons, the chief Ishiah.

22. Of the Izharites, there was Shelomoth; of the Sons of Shelomoth, Jahath;

23. And the Sons of Hebron, Jeriah, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth;

24. Of the Sons of Uzziel, Micah; of those of Micah, Shamir;

25. Micah's Brother Ishiah; of his Sons, Zechariah;

26. The Sons of Merari, Mahli and Musi; of the Sons of Jaaziah, Beno;

27. The Sons of Merari by Jaaziah, Beno, Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri;

28. Of Mahli, Eleazar, who had no Sons;

29. Of Kish, his Sons, Jerahmeel;

30. As likewise the Sons of Musi, Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth: these were the Posterity of the Levites, by the Household of their Fathers.

31. And they also cast Lots over against their Brethren the Aaronites, before King David, Zadok and Ahimelech, with the chief of the Fathers belonging to the Priests and Levites; the chief Fathers over against their younger Brethren.

CHAP. XXV.

AND David, with the Captains of the Army, separated for the Service, of the Sons of Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun, some to prophesy with Harps, Lutes and Bells; the Number of which Artists for their Service was:

2. Of the Sons of Asaph, Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Ashareliah, his Sons, at his own Hand, who himself prophesied at the King's Hands;

3. Of Jeduthun, his Sons Gedaliah, Zeri, Isaiah, Hashabiah, Mattithiah, Shimei, six, at the Hands of their Father Jeduthun with a Harp, who prophesied for giving thanks and praising the Lord;

4. Of Heman, his Sons, Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel and Jerimoth, Haniah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth:

5. All these being the Sons of Heman, the King's Seer in the Words of God, to lift up the Horn; for God gave Heman fourteen Sons, and three Daughters.

6. All these were at the Hands of their Father, for Musick at the House of the Lord, with Bells, Lutes, and Harps, for the Service of God's House: at the King's Hands being Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman.

7. And the Number of them with their Brethren, who were instructed in Musick for the Lord, all that had understanding, was two hundred and eighty eight.

8. They also cast Lots one Ward over against another, as well the small as the great, the Learned with the Learner.

9. And the first Lot came out to Asaph, for Joseph; the second for Gedaliah, who with his Brethren and Sons were twelve;

10. The third for Zaccur, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;

Ver. 15. Happizzez] as the Heb. Word is, whereas Aphses is the old corrupt Lat. Name. The former Eng. Bible, by some Mistake of the last Letter has it Happizzer.

Ver. 16. Ezekiel] the same Name as the Prophet's, whose Book we have.

Ver. 23. of Hebron] from Ch. xxiii. 19.

Ver. 29. Kish] of whom see Ch. xxiii. 21, 22.

Ver. 2. who himself] to shew which of them, or the Number; the Vulg. Lat. having it plural for the Sons.

Ib. at the Hands] as just before at not under the Hand, and so Montan. literally ad manus. The Vulgat. Munster's and the Tigur. Version have juxta Regem, by or near the King. And I do not know that Hand ever signifies Order.

VOL. I.

Ver. 3. Isaiab] the Prophet's Name; as also in Ver. 15. Ib. Shimei] Not only one is here wanting to make six Sons of Jeduthun, but one is also lacking of the 24 that follow, for the Sons of Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman, which by particularly comparing both Lists, is Shimei mentioned Ver. 17.

Ver. 5. Seer] Vulg. Seers, according to that in Ver. 2.

Ib. to lift up the Horn] which I understand for, to make Heman powerful by his many Sons; though I know it is different from other great Interpreters.

Ver. 6. at the King's Hands] as at the Beginning of the Verse, and here being the grand Partition of it.

Ver. 10. who] not twelve besides himself, the total Sum being given, Ver. 7.

6 Q

11. The

11. The fourth for Izri, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
12. The fifth for Nethaniah, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
13. The sixth for Bukkiah, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
14. The seventh for Jesharelah, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
15. The eighth for Iſaiah, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
16. The ninth for Mattaniah, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
17. The tenth for Shimei, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
18. The eleventh for Azareel, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
19. The twelfth for Haſhabiah, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
20. The thirteenth for Shubael, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
21. The fourteenth for Mattithiah, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
22. The fifteenth for Jeremoth, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
23. The sixteenth for Hananiah, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
24. The seventeenth for Joſhbekahſah, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
25. The eighteenth for Hanani, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
26. The nineteenth for Mallothi, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
27. The twentieth for Eliathah, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
28. The twenty firſt for Hoſhir, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
29. The twenty ſecond for Giddalti, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
30. The twenty third for Mahazioth, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve;
31. The twenty fourth for Romamti-ezer, who his Sons and Brethren were twelve.

C H A P. XXVI.

CONCERNING the Partitions of the Porters: of the Korhites there was Meſhelemiah the Son of Kore, of the Sons of Aſaph.

2. And Meſhelemiah's Sons, Zechariah the Firſt-born, Jediael the ſecond, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

3. Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the ſixth, Elihoenai the ſeventh.

4. And Obed-edom's Sons, Shemaiah the Firſt-born, Jehozabad the Second, Joah the third, Sachar the fourth, Nethaneel the fifth,

5. Ammiel the ſixth, Iſſachar the ſeventh, Peullethai the eighth: for God bleſſed him.

6. Shemaiah his Son had alſo Sons born, who were Rulers in their Father's Family; as being valiant Men:

7. His Sons were, Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, his Brethren being ſtout Men, Elihu and Semachiah.

8. All theſe of the Sons of Obed-edom, they with their Sons and Brethren, ſtout Perſons in Ability for Service, were ſixty two, belonging to him.

9. And Meſhelemiah had Sons and Brethren, eighteen ſtout Men.

10. Beſides Hoſah of the Sons of Merari had Sons, Shimri the chief (for though he was not the Firſt-born, yet his Father made him the chief)

11. Hilkiah the ſecond, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the Sons and Brethren of Hoſah were thirteen.

12. Among theſe were the Partitions of the Porters, among the chief Men, with Wards over againſt their Brethren, to miniſter in the Houſe of the Lord.

13. They likewiſe caſt Lots, as well the ſmall as the great, according to the Houſhold of their Fathers, for each Gate.

14. And the Lot eaſtward fell for Shelemiah; then they caſt Lots for Zechariah his Son, a Counſellor of Underſtanding, whoſe Lot came out northward;

15. For Obed-edom ſouthward, and for his Sons the Houſhold of Aſuppim;

16. For Shuppim and Hoſah weſtward, with the Gate Shallecheth in the Road going up, Ward over againſt Ward.

17. Eaſtward were ſix Levites, northwards four for a Day, ſouthwards four for a Day, and towards Aſuppim two and two.

18. Towards Parbar weſtward, were four at the Road, two at Parbar.

19. Theſe were the Partitions of the Porters, among the Sons of the Korhites, and thoſe of the Merarites.

20. And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the Treasures of the Houſe of God, with thoſe of the conſecrated Things.

21. Of the Sons of Ladan, thoſe of the Gerſhonite Ladan, of the chief Fathers belonging to him, there was Jehieli.

22. The Sons of Jehieli, Zetham, and his Brother Joel, were over the Treasures of the Lord's Houſe.

23. There were ſome of the Amramites, Izharites, Hebronites, Uzzielites.

Ver. 11. for] Where [for] is not Italick in theſe Verſes, there is in Heb.

Ver. 17. northwards] Heb. to the northward, doubly denoted.

24. Moreover Shebuel, the Son of Gershon, the Son of Moses, was Ruler over the Treasures.

25. And his Kinsmen by Eliezer were, Rehabiah his Son, Isaiah his Son, Joram his Son, Zichri his Son, and Shelomith his Son.

26. That Shelomith and his Brethren were over all the Treasures of the consecrated Things, which King David, and the chief Fathers, with the Captains of Thousands and Hundreds, and the Captains of the Army consecrated.

27. From the Battles and from the Spoil they consecrated, to make the Lord's House strong.

28. Nay all that Samuel the Seer, Saul the Son of Kish, Abner the Son of Ner, and Joab the Son of Zeruiah consecrated, whoever did consecrate, it was in the Custody of Shelomith and his Brethren.

29. Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his Sons were for the outward Business over Israel, for Magistrates and Judges.

30. Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his Brethren, stout Men, a thousand and seven hundred, were in the Office of Israel on this side Jordan westward, for all Business of the Lord, and the King's Service.

31. Of the Hebronites, Jerijah was the chief, of them after their Generations, according to the Fathers: in the fortieth Year of David's Reign they were fought, and there were found among them valiant Men, at Jazer of Gilead.

32. And his Brethren, stout Men, were two thousand and seven hundred chief Fathers; whom King David set over the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half Tribe of Manasseh, for every Matter of God and that of the King.

C H A P. XXVII.

AND the Israelites after their Number, the chief Fathers and Captains of Thousands and Hundreds, with their Officers that ministered to the King in every Matter of the Partitions, who came in and went out Month by Month, in all the Months of the Year, were of each Partition twenty four thousand.

2. Over the first Partition for the first Month, was Jashobeam the Son of Zabdiel; in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

3. Of the Children of Pharez, was the chief of all the Captains of the Armies for the first Month.

4. And over the Partition of the second Month, was Dodai the Ahohite, of whose Partition also Mikloth was Ruler; and in his Partition were twenty four thousand.

5. The third Captain of the Army for the third Month, was Benaiah the Son of Jehoiada the chief Prince; in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

6. That Benaiah was powerful among the thirty, and over the thirty; of whose Partition was Ammizabad his Son.

7. The fourth for the fourth Month, was Afahel the Brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his Son after him; in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

8. The fifth Captain for the fifth Month, was Shambuth the Izrahite: in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

9. The sixth for the sixth Month, was Ira the Son of Ikkeiah the Tekoite; in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

10. The seventh for the seventh Month, was Helez, the Pelonite of the Ephraimites; in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

11. The eighth for the eighth Month, was Sibbechai the Hushathite of the Zarahites; in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

12. The ninth for the ninth Month, was Abiezer the Anthothite of the Benjaminites; in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

13. The tenth for the tenth Month, was Maharai the Netophathite of the Zarahites; in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

14. The eleventh for the eleventh Month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite of the Ephraimites: in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

15. The twelfth for the twelfth Month, was Heldai the Netophathite of Othniel;

Ver. 26. with] there being a Heb. Particle of such a Signification, which is also confirmed by the following Chap. Ver. 1. By leaving this out in the com. Eng. the chief fathers may be taken for the captains.

Ver. 1. Partitions] So the original Word signifies, and is accordingly translated, Chap. xxvi. 1, 12, 19. & xxiv. 1. Josh. xi. 23. & xii. 7. & xviii. 10. Neh. xi. 36.

Ver. 4. Dodai] It is affirmed by the Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew Text, that [Eleazar the Son of] is dropt in this place, being in Ch. xi. 12. and 2 Sam. xxiii. 9. see his p. 134. but how much better may it be supposed, that Eleazar's Father was this Officer, or that Eleazar himself was called Dodai, from his Father Dodo!

Ver. 5. Prince] He being not the Priest, 1 King. i. 8. & ii. 35, & iv. 4. see Gen. xli. 45.

Ver. 8. Captain] which the Heb. has only to the 3d and 5th.

Ver. 12. Anthothite] as Chap. xi. 28.

in whose Partition were twenty four thousand.

16. And over the Tribes of Israel, the Ruler of the Reubenites, was Eliezer the Son of Zichri; of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the Son of Maachah;

17. Of the Levites, Hashabiah the Son of Kemuel; of the Aaronites, Zadok;

18. Of Judah, Elihu one of David's Brothers; of Issachar, Omri the Son of Michael.

19. Of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the Son of Obadiah; of Naphtali, Jerimoth the Son of Azriel.

20. Of the Ephraimites, Hofea the Son of Azariah; of the half Tribe of Manasseh, Joel the Son of Pedaiah;

21. Of the half of Manasseh at Gilead, Iddo the Son of Zechariah; of Benjamin, Jaasiel the Son of Abner;

22. Of Dan, Azarel the Son of Jeroham: these were the Princes of the Tribes of Israel.

23. But David did not take the Number of them from their twentieth Year downward, because the Lord said he would multiply Israel to be as the Stars of Heaven.

24. Joab the Son of Zeruiah began numbering, but did not finish, there being Wrath for it upon Israel; nor was the Number put into that of the Chronicles of King David.

25. And over the King's Treasures was Azmaveth the Son of Adiel; as was over those in the Field, Cities, Villages and Towers, Jehonathan the Son of Uzziab;

26. Over such also as did the Business of the Field, for the Tillage of the Ground, was Ezri the Son of Chelub;

27. And over the Vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite; but over what was in the Vineyards of the Wine-treasures, Zabdi the Shiphmite;

28. Besides over the Olive-trees, and the Sycamores which were in the Vale, was Baal-hanan the Gederite; and over the Treasures of Oil Joash;

29. And over the Herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite, as over those in the Vallies was Shaphat the Son of Adlai;

30. Over the Camels likewise was Obil the Ishmeelite; and over the Asses Jehdeiah the Meronothite;

31. And over the Flocks was Jaziz the Hagerite: all these were the Princes of the Substance which King David had.

32. As for Jehonathan David's Uncle, he was a Counsellor, wise Man, and a Secretary Jehiel the Son of the Hachmonite was with the King's Sons;

33. Ahithophel was a Counsellor to the King, Hushai the Archite was the King's Friend, 34. After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the Son of Benaiah, and Abiathar, and the Captain of the Army belonging to the King was Joab.

C H A P. XXVIII.

AND David gathered together all the Princes of Israel, those of the Tribes, and those of the Partitions who ministred to the King, as also the Captains both of Thousands and Hundreds, and the Stewards of all the Substance and Possession, belonging both to the King and his Sons, with the Officers, stout ones and every valiant Man, to Jerusalem.

2. Then King David stood up on his Feet, and said: Hear me, my Brethren and People; it was in my own Mind to build a House of Rest for the Ark of the Lord's Covenant, and for the Foot-stool of our God, and I had prepared to build;

3. But God said to me, Thou shalt not build a House for my Name, because thou hast been a Man of War, and hast shed Blood.

4. However the Lord God of Israel chose me above any other of my Father's Family, to be King over Israel for ever: for he has chosen Judah to be Ruler, and of the Family of Judah that of my Father; and of my Father's Sons he liked me, to make King over all Israel.

5. And of all my Sons (for the Lord has given me many) he has likewise chosen my Son Solomon, to sit upon the Throne of the Lord's Kingdom over Israel.

6. And he said to me, Solomon thy Son himself shall build my House and Courts: for him have I chosen for a Son to me, and I will be to him for a Father.

7. Moreover I will establish his Kingdom even for ever, if he will be courageous to do my Commandments and Rules, as at present.

8. Now therefore in the Sight of all Israel, the Lord's Congregation, and in the Ver. 18. Elihu] supposed to be David's eldest Brother, 1 Sam. xvi. 6, 7. and xvii. 13, 28.

Ver. 24. being] not fell as in the com. Transf.

Ib. upon] which would have also better agreed with fell.

Ib. that] Heb. the Number again.

Ver. 28. Treasures] as before, Ver. 25, 27.

Ver. 32. Hachmonite] not only as being the same with that in Ch. xi. 11. but of the Termination for a People or Place; so Jehiel seems to have been Jafsheam's Son.

Ver. 1. Partitions] as Chap. xxvii. 1.

Ver. 7. be courageous] in which Manner this Heb. Verb may be found frequently rendered in the com. Transf. but never else constant.

Hearing of our God, observe, and seek all the Commandments of the Lord your God; that you may inherit the good Country, and cause your Children after you to possess it for ever.

9. As for thee, my Son Solomon, know the God of thy Father, and serve him with a perfect Heart and willing Mind; since the Lord examines all Hearts, and understands every Idea of the Thoughts: if thou seekest him, he will be found by thee; but if thou forsakest him, he will cast thee off for evermore.

10. See now, since the Lord has chosen thee to build a House for the Sanctuary; be courageous, and do it.

11. Besides David gave his Son Solomon the Pattern of the Porch, and of its Houses, Treasuries, Chambers, and inner Rooms, with the Place of the Atonement-covering;

12. The Pattern likewise of all that was with him by the Spirit, of the Courts of the Lord's House, and all the Parlours round about; for the Treasures of the House of God, and those of the consecrated Things;

13. As also for the Apartments of the Priests and Levites, for all the Business of the Service of the Lord's House, and all the Instruments of its Service:

14. Of Gold by Weight for golden Things, for all the Instruments of each Service; for all Instruments of Silver by Weight, for all the Instruments of each Service;

15. Even the Weight for the Candlesticks of Gold, and their Lamps of Gold by Weight, each Candlestick and its Lamps; and for the Candlesticks of Silver by Weight, for a Candlestick and its Lamps, according to the Service of each Candlestick;

16. And Gold in Weight for the Tables of the Bread set in order, for each Table, with Silver for the Tables of Silver;

17. And for the Forks, Bowls and Covers, pure Gold; as likewise for Basins of Gold by Weight for each Basin, and for Basins of Silver the same:

18. For the Altar too of Incense, refined Gold by Weight; and Gold for the Pattern of the Chariot of the Cherubs that spread out, and covered over the Ark of the Lord's Covenant.

19. The whole in Writing by the Hand of the Lord upon me he taught, all the Work of the Pattern,

20. Said David, and to his Son Solomon; Be courageous and strong, and act, do not fear, nor be daunted: for the Lord God, my God will be with thee, he will not neglect thee, nor forsake thee, till thou hast finished all the Work of the Service of the Lord's House.

21. And behold there are the Apartments of the Priests and Levites, for all the Service of the House of God; as there is with thee for all Work, every one who is noble in Wisdom for all Service, and the Princes with all the People will be according to all thy Words:

C H A P. XXIX.

MOREOVER King David said to all the Congregation: My Son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and tender; and the Work is great, since the Palace is not for Man, but for the Lord God.

2. Now I have prepared with all my Might for the House of my God, Gold for golden Things, Silver for silver ones, Brasses for brasen ones, Iron for iron ones, and Wood for wooden ones; Onyx Stones, and rhose to be set, Stones painted and variegated, with all manner of precious Stones, and Marble Stones abundantly.

3. And further in my Good-will to the House of my God, I have a Property of Gold and Silver, which I have given for it, over and above all that I prepared for the holy House;

4. Three thousand Talents of Gold being that of Ophir, and seven thousand Talents of refined Silver, to cover the Walls of the Houses;

5. The Gold for golden Things, and the Silver for silver ones, and for all Work by the Hands of Artificers. Now who will offer himself freely to Day, to fill his Hand for the Lord?

6. Upon this the chief Fathers, and the Princes of the Tribes of Israel, as likewise the Captains of Thousands and Hundreds,

Ver. 9. my Son] Phridun the ancient and renowned King of Persia with the oriental Writers, is said to have advised his Son who was to succeed him thus, 'Believe, my Son, that the Days of thy Reign will be so many Leaves of a Book; in which therefore take care to write Nothing, that thou wouldest not have Posterity see,' D'Herbelot. Biblioth. Orient. Art. Faridoun.

1b. if] On this the great Grotius's Annotation is, Agit Deus cum hominibus decretis conditionatis, God acts with Men by conditional Decrees.

Ver. 18. Chariot] by which I understand the Oracle, VOL. I.

or very holy Place, in which the Cherubs were, that was covered on the Inside with Gold, 1 King. vi. 20, 23. of which I find Expositors saying Nothing, or what is the same, Nothing to the Purpose; since the Mercy-seat, as called, was not a Chariot to the Cherubs.

Ver. 4. Talents] Gold of Ophir and refined Silver here, may both distinguish this from that mentioned, Chap. xxii. 14. and also reconcile these Places.

1b. Houses] The Gold for the Temple, and the Silver for Buildings joining to it, Jun. and Trem.

with the Stewards of the King's Work offered freely;

7. And gave for the Service of the House of God, five thousand Talents and ten thousand Drums of Gold, ten thousand Talents of Silver, eighteen thousand Talents of Brass, and a hundred thousand Talents of Iron.

8. They likewise with whom precious Stones were found, gave them to the Treasure of the Lord's House, by the Hand of Jehiel the Gershunnite.

9. Then were the People glad for their offering freely, for they did with a perfect Heart to the Lord; and King David too was affected with great Gladness.

10. So David blessed the Lord in the Sight of the whole Congregation in the following manner: Blessed be thou, O Lord God of Israel our Father, from everlasting to everlasting.

11. Of thee, O Lord, is Greatness, Power, Glory, Eternity and Majesty; since all Things in Heaven and Earth are: of thee, O Lord is the Kingdom, and thou dost raise up thy self to be the Head of all.

12. Both Riches and Honour are from before thee, and thou rulest over all, and in thy Hand is Might and Power; nay it is in thy Hand to make any great and strong.

13. Therefore now, our God, we give thee thanks, and praise thy glorious Name.

14. But yet who am I, and what is my People, that we should have Ability to offer freely after this manner? For all is from thee, and what is from thy own Hand we give to thee.

15. For we are Strangers before thee, and Sojourners like all our Fathers: our Days upon the Earth are as a Shadow, without any other Hope.

16. O Lord our God, all this Abundance which we have prepared, to build thee a House to thy holy Name, it is from thy Hand, and all is thy own.

17. I being also sensible, O my God, that thou triest the Heart, and likest upright Things; I have in the Uprightness of my Heart freely offered all these, and do now see thy People with Gladness, who are present to offer freely to thee.

18. O Lord of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, our Fathers, keep this for ever in the Idea of the Thoughts of thy People's Heart, and prepare their Heart for thee;

19. And give my Son Solomon a perfect Heart to keep thy Commandments, Testimonies and Ordinances, nay to do all things, particularly to build the Palace for which I have prepared.

20. David said further to all the Congregation, Bless the Lord your God, I beseech you: accordingly the whole Congregation blessed the Lord God of their Fathers, bowing, and doing reverence, to the Lord and the King.

21. And they sacrificed Sacrifices to the Lord, and offered up Burnt-offerings to him the next Day after that, a thousand Bulls, a thousand Rams, a thousand Lambs, and their Drink-offerings, with Sacrifices abundantly for all Israel.

22. They eat and drank too, before the Lord that Day with great Gladness, and made Solomon the Son of David King the second time, anointing him to the Lord, to be the Ruler, and Zadok to be the Priest.

23. Next Solomon sat upon the Lord's Throne, to be King in the room of his Father David, and prospered; whom all Israel obeyed.

24. Nay all the Princes, and the powerful ones, and likewise all King David's Sons, gave the Hand to be under King Solomon.

25. Thus the Lord magnified Solomon highly in the Sight of all Israel, and put upon him that royal Dignity which had not been upon any King before him in Israel.

26. Now David the Son of Jesse having reigned over all Israel;

27. The Time that he did being forty Years (seven Years he reigned at Hebron, as he did thirty three at Jerusalem)

28. He died in good old Age, full of Days, Riches and Honour; and Solomon his Son reigned in his room.

29. As for King David's Affairs, the former and latter, behold they are written in the Affairs of Samuel the Seer, in those of Nathan the Prophet, and those of Gad the Beholder;

30. With all his Reign, and his Power, as also the Times which passed over him, over Israel, and all the Kingdoms of the Countries.

Ver. 11. Eternity] this with eternal, eternally, perpetually, being its frequent Signification; Victory perhaps never: so Jun. and Trem. have aeternitas.

Ver. 14. But what, or who are we (alas)

That we in giving are so free!

Thine own before our Off'ring was,

And all we have, we have from thee.

Wither in Hymnes and Songs of the Church.

Ver. 15. Hope] This Word as the same, and differently pointed, is found besides only in Ezr. x. 2. Jer. xiv. 8. and xvii. 13. and l. 7. in all which it is thus rendered by our Translators; unless where it signifies something flowing or flowed together, from those different Meanings of the Root in Kal and Niphal.

Ver. 20. doing reverence] to worship, as the Word is now used, having none but God for its Object.

Ver. 24. gave the Hand] of which see at 2 Chr. xxx. 8.

NOTES upon the SECOND BOOK of the CHRONICLES.

CHAP. I.

AND Solomon the Son of David became strong in his Kingdom; since the Lord his God being with him, magnified him highly.

2. Then Solomon speaking to all Israel, to the Captains of Thousands and Hundreds, to the Judges, and every Prince of all Israel, the Heads of the Fathers;

3. He, and the whole Congregation with him, went to the Chapel that was at Gibeon: for the publick Tent of God was there, which Moses the Lord's Servant made in the Wilderness.

4. But the Ark of God David had brought up from Kirjath-jearim, into the Place he had prepared for it; because he pitched a Tent for it at Jerusalem.

5. And the brasen Altar that Bezaleel, the Son of Uri, the Son of Hur made, he put before the Tabernacle of the Lord; to which Solomon and the Congregation fought.

6. Thither also Solomon went up to the brasen Altar before the Lord, which was at the publick Tent, and offered up a thousand Burnt-offerings upon it.

7. That Night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, Ask for what I shall give thee.

8. Whom Solomon answered; Thou hast not only shewn great Kindness to my Father David, but also made me reign in his room.

9. Now, O Lord God, let thy Word to him be confirmed; since thou hast made me reign over a People who are many like the Dust of the Earth.

10. Give me now Wisdom and Knowledge, that I may go out before this People, and come in: for who can judge this thy great People?

11. And God replied to him; Because this is in thy Heart, and thou dost not ask Riches, Substance, Honour, or the Life of thy Adversaries, as thou dost not also many Days; but askest Wisdom and Knowledge for thy self, that thou mayest judge my People, over whom I have made thee reign:

12. Wisdom and Knowledge is given thee, I will likewise give thee Riches, Substance and Honour, such as no Kings had who were before thee, and as none shall after thee.

13. So Solomon came from before the publick Tent, at the Chapel which was in Gibeon, to Jerusalem, and reigned over Israel.

14. And he gathered Chariots and Horsemen, having a thousand and four hundred Chariots, and twelve thousand Horsemen; which he placed in the Chariot-cities, and with the King in Jerusalem.

15. Where the King made Silver and Gold be like Stones, as he did Cedars like Sycamores, which are in the Vale abundantly.

16. Solomon had also Horses brought out of Egypt, and Yarn; the King's Merchants taking the Yarn at a Price.

17. They likewise brought up a Chariot out from thence, for six hundred Shekels of Silver, and a Horse for a hundred and fifty; and so for all the Kings of the Hittites, with those of Syria, they were brought out by them.

CHAP. II.

AND Solomon concluded to build a House to the Name of the Lord, as well as one for his Kingdom.

2. So he numbered seventy thousand Men to carry Burdens, and eighty thousand Men to cut on the Mountain, with three thousand and six hundred who were chief over them.

3. And Solomon sent Word to Hiram King of Tyre: Do as thou didst with my Father David, to whom thou sentest Cedars to build him a House, to dwell in it.

4. Behold I am about to build a House to the Name of the Lord my God, to consecrate to him for burning Incense of Odours before him, and for the continual Bread set in order, and the Burnt-offerings at the Morning and Evening, Sabbaths, New-moons, and the appointed Times of the Lord our God; this being for ever in Israel.

5. And the House which I am about to build is great: for our God is the greatest of all gods.

Ver. 1 his God] omitted by the Lat. Vulgate.

Ver. 5. he put] David, Ver. 4.

6. But

6. But who has Power to build him a House, since Heaven and the Heaven of Heavens cannot contain him? Who then am I that I should build him a House, unless for burning incense before him?

7. Now therefore send me a Man skilful in working with Gold, Silver, Brass, Iron, Purple, Crimson, and Blue, and who knows how to make Engravings, with the skilful ones that are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom my Father David prepared.

8. Send me also Trees of Cedar, Fir and Algum, from Lebanon (for I know that thy Servants understand cutting of Trees there) and behold my Servants shall be with thine;

9. Even to prepare me Timber abundantly: for the House which I am about to build will be great and wonderful.

10. And behold I will give to thy Servants the Hewers who cut Timber, twenty thousand Cors of threshed Wheat, and the same of Barley, so many Baths of Wine, and the like of Oil.

11. And Hiram King of Tyre answered in Writing, which he sent to Solomon: Through the Lord's Love to his People, he has put thee King over them.

12. Blessed is the Lord God of Israel, continued Hiram, that made the Heaven and Earth, who has given King David a wise Son, acquainted with Understanding and Ingenuity, that shall build a House for the Lord, as well as one for his Kingdom.

13. And now I send thee a wise Man, acquainted with Ingenuity, of my Father Hiram;

14. A Woman's Son of the Daughters of Dan, whose Father was a Man of Tyre, acquainted in working with Gold, Silver, Brass, Iron, Stone, Wood, Purple, Blue, fine Linen and Crimson; as also to make any Engraving, and to contrive any Contrivance, that may be put to him, with thy wise Men and those of my Lord thy Father David.

15. Now therefore the Wheat, Barley, Oil, and Wine, which my Lord has spoken of, let him send to his Servants.

16. And we will cut Trees out of Lebanon, according to all thy Need, and bring them to thee in Floats by Sea to Joppa, that thou mayest fetch them up to Jerusalem.

17. Upon this Solomon numbered all the strange Men who were in the Country of Israel, after the Numbering which David his Father had made of them, and there were found a hundred fifty three thousand and six hundred.

18. Seventy thousand of whom he caused to carry Burdens, and eighty thousand to cut on the Mountain, with three thousand and six hundred to be the chief, to make the People work.

C H A P. III.

THEN Solomon began to build the House of the Lord, at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, on which he appeared to his Father David, at the Place that David prepared in the Floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

2. And he began building on the second of the second Month, in the fourth Year of his Reign.

3. Now these were for the Foundation, for Solomon to build the House of God: the Length in Cubits by the first Measure was sixty Cubits, and the Breadth twenty.

4. The Length also of the Porch which was in the Front, before the Breadth of the House, was twenty Cubits, and the Height a hundred and twenty; which he overlaid on the inside with pure Gold.

5. And the greater House he covered with Fir-wood, as he did that with good Gold, upon which he wrought Palm-trees and Chains.

6. Besides he overlaid the House with precious Stones for Comeliness, and the Gold was that of Parvaim.

7. He likewise covered the House, the Beams, Posts, its Walls and Doors, with Gold, and engraved Cherubs upon the Walls.

Ver. 10. Cors] In an old Eng. Transf. long before Wickliff's, twenty thousand cherus of Wheat, and so many cherus of Barly.

Ibid. so many Baths of Wine] this too not in the com. Lat.

Ver. 13. of my Father Hiram] but the vulg. Lat. Hiram my Father.

Ver. 16. bring] The same Way as here described, Rhuwolt went from Lebanon to Jerusalem, An. Dom. 1575. of which see his Travels published by Roy.

Ver. 18. six hundred] Three hundred being the chief over the 3300, 1 King. v. 16. so Ver. 2, 17.

Ver. 1. Mount Moriah] towards the north-east Corner of Jerusalem. A fitter Place for an august Building, says Maundrell, could not be found in the whole World, than the Area of the Temple. It lies upon the Top of Mount Moriah, over against Mount Olivet, the Valley of Jehoshaphat being between. It is, as far as I could compute by walking round it without, 570 of my Paces in length, and 370 in breadth (of which see on Psa. cxxii. 3.) and one may still discern Marks of the great Labour that it cost, to cut away the hard Rock, and to level such a spacious Area upon so strong a Mountain. In the middle of the Area stands at present a Mosque of an octagonal Figure, Journ. to Jerus. in 1697.

Ver. 3. Foundation] It is the same Word in Ezr. iii. 11. which Trem. and Jun. so render by fundatio, Castell. by fundamentum, the vulg. Lat. fundamenta, Foundations.

Ver. 4. before] as the same is rendered Ver. 17.

8. And

8. And he made the very holy House, the Length of it being before the Breadth of the House twenty Cubits, and its Breadth so many; which he covered with six hundred Talents of good Gold.

9. The Weight too of the Nails was fifty Shekels of Gold, and he covered the Chambers with Gold.

10. Moreover in the very holy House he made two Cherubs of moveable Work, and overlaid them with Gold.

11. And the Wings of the Cherubs were twenty Cubits long: one Wing was five, reaching to one Wall of the House, and the other the same, reaching to the Wing of the other Cherub.

12. A Wing likewise of the other Cherub was five Cubits, reaching to the opposite Wall of the House, as the other Wing was so many; joining to the Wing of the first Cherub.

13. The Wings of these Cherubs spread twenty Cubits, they standing on their Feet, and their Faces were inward.

14. He further made a Hanging of Blue, Purple, Crimson and fine Linen, upon which he wrought Cherubs.

15. And he made two Pillars before the House thirty five Cubits long, and the Crown that was upon the Top of each five Cubits.

16. So he did Chains as in the Oracle, and put upon the Top of the Pillars; making a hundred Pomegranates, which he put on the Chains.

17. In the next place he set up the Pillars before the Temple, one at the right Hand, and the other at the left; naming the former Jachin, and the latter Boaz.

CHAP. IV.

HE also made a brasen Altar, whose Length and Breadth was each twenty Cubits, and its Height ten Cubits.

2. As he did a molten Sea; which was ten Cubits from one Side of its Brim to the other, being of a round Compass, and its Height five Cubits; a Line of thirty compassing it about.

3. And there was the Likeness of Oxen under it, inclosing it quite round about, ten in a Cubit all round the Sea: they were cast in two Rows when that was cast.

4. It stood upon twelve Oxen, three looking to the North, three to the West, three to the South, and three to the East, the Sea being upon them above; and all their hinder Parts were inward.

5. And the Thickness of it was a Hand's-breadth, having a Brim like the Work of that belonging to a Cup, with Flowers of Lillies; it was capable of containing three thousand Baths.

6. Besides he made ten Washing-vessels; and put five on the right Hand and five on the left, to wash in them, wherein they rinsed the Work of the Burnt-offering; but the Sea was for the Priests to wash in.

7. And he made ten Candlesticks of Gold after the Manner of them, and put in the Temple, five on the right Hand, and five on the left.

8. He likewise made ten Tables, and placed in there in the same Manner; and made a hundred Bowls of Gold.

9. Moreover he made the Court of the Priests, the great Yard, and the Doors of it, overlaying their Doors with Brass.

10. And he put the Sea on the right Side eastward, over against the South.

11. Hiram too made the Pots, and Shovels, as well as the Bowls; so he finished doing the Work which he made King Solomon for the House of God:

12. The two Pillars, and the Balls even of the Chapters upon the Top of them, and the two Infoldings to cover those two Balls,

13. And the four hundred Pomegranates for the two Infoldings, two Rows of them for one Infolding, to cover the two Balls of the Chapters that were atop of the Pillars.

14. He made also the Bases, as he did the Washing-vessels upon them,

15. One Sea, and the twelve Oxen under it,

Ver. 8. twenty Cubits] in the Inside from one Wall to the other, as is certain by Ver. 11. so for the Body of the Temple.

Ver. 10. moveable] as Buxtorf shews in his Lexicon, and Mercer on that of Pagninus; there being a Verb of that Signification, from whence it may be regularly deduced, and must else be quite uncertain.

Ver. 15. thirty five] Being their Height from the Ground, the brasen Pillars of 18 Cubits long, as 1 King. vii. 15. 2 King. xxv. 17. Jer. lii. 21. standing, I suppose, on Pedestals of Stone 17 Cubits high, concurrent with Univer. Hist. B. xvii. 7. not with Lightfoot, who reckons them 17 Cubits and a half long apiece, and half a Cubit within the Chapter, Harm. of old Test. for that is not only far too short for the Height of the Porch, Ver. 4. where they stood, Ver. 17. 1 King. vii. 21. but also disproportionable to their Bigness, 1 King. i. 15. and the counting these Measures by different Cubits, as some do, may appear absurd, especially if it be considered, that none pretend there were Cubits in the Proportion of 18 to 35.

Ver. 16. a hundred] in one Row, there being two such Rows on each Pillar, 1 King. vii. 20. Chap. iv. 13.

Ver. 5. capable] according to the Note on 1 King. vii. 26.

Ver. 12. even of] See 1 King. vii. 4. and Ver. 13.

16. And the Pots, Shovels and Forks: Hiram his Father making King Solomon all their Things for the House of the Lord of polished Brass.

17. On the Plain of Jordan did the King cast them, in the Clay-places of the Ground, between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18. And Solomon made all these Things in great Abundance; for the Weight of the Brass was not searched out.

19. Solomon likewise made all the Things which were at the House of God: namely the Altar of Gold, and the Tables with the Presence-bread upon them;

20. And the Candlesticks with their Lamps, to burn after the Manner before the Oracle, of preserved Gold;

21. And the Flowers, as well as the Lamps, and Tongs of Gold, it being very compleat Gold;

22. With the musical Instruments; Bowls, Spoons, and Censers of preserved Gold; nay the Entrance of the House, the inner Doors of it at the very holy Place, and the Doors of the House at the Temple, of Gold.

C H A P. V.

THUS all the Work being finished, which Solomon made for the House of the Lord; he brought in the consecrated Things of his Father David, and put the Silver, Gold and all the Instruments, among the Treasures of God's House.

2. Then he gathered together the Elders of Israel, and all the chief of the Tribes, the Princes of the Fathers of the Israelites, to Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Lord's Covenant, from the City of David, which is Zion.

3. So all the Men of Israel were gathered together to the King, at the Feast which was in the seventh Month.

4. All the Elders of Israel likewise came, and the Levites carried the Ark.

5. And with the Priests they brought up the Ark, the publick Tent, and all the holy Instruments that were in it.

6. And King Solomon with the whole Assembly of Israel, who were assembled to him before the Ark, sacrificed Sheep and Oxen, that were not told, nor numbered for Multitude.

7. The Priests too brought in the Ark of the Lord's Covenant to its Place, at the Oracle of the House, into the very holy Place, even under the Wings of the Cherubs.

8. For the Cherubs spread forth their Wings over the Place of the Ark; infomuch that they covered over both that, and the Poles of it above.

9. And they drew forth the Poles, so that the Tops of them appeared from the Ark before the Oracle, but did not without: where it is to this Day.

10. There was Nothing in the Ark but the two Tables, which Moses put in at Horeb; where the Lord made a Covenant with the Israelites, when they came out of Egypt.

11. And when the Priests came out of the holy Place (for all those found were consecrated, without any to keep the Apartments.)

12. The Levites that were Singers, all of them belonging to Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, with their Sons and Brethren, cloathed in fine Linen, having Cymbals, Lutes and Harps, stood at the East of the Altar, accompanied with a hundred and twenty Priests who blew Trumpets.

13. Then the Trumpeters and Singers being as one, in making one Sound be heard, in praising and giving thanks to the Lord; as they elevated the Voice with the Trumpets, Cymbals and Instruments of Musick, and with praising the Lord, because he is good, since his Kindness is for ever; the House, which was that of the Lord, was filled with a Cloud:

14. Infomuch that the Priests could not stand to minister by reason of it, for the Glory of the Lord filled God's House.

C H A P. VI.

THEN said Solomon; The Lord has spoken of dwelling in Darknes.

2. And I have built thee a Dwelling-house, even a Settlement for thy Habitation evermore.

3. And the King turning about his Face, blessed the whole Congregation of Israel; who all stood.

4. And he said: Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who has fulfilled with his Hands,

Ver. 16. See 1 King. vii. 45.

Ib. his Father] the Father of the other Hiram, Ver. 11. as likewise Tr. and Jun. put it; not Solomon's Father, as Poole writes. So that there were four Hirams, Ch. ii. 11, 13. but what Wonder! since two of them were the Sons of the other?

Ib. making] along with his Son.

Ver. 10. where] Look 1 King. viii. 9.

Ver. 11. Apartments] Since a long Parenthesis is prejudicial to the Reading, and the Heb. has none, I chose to shorten the com. Eng. one thus, with the most elegant Castalis; which Jun. and Trem. lengthen out to the first Lord inclusive in Ver. 13.

Ver. 13. because] See the com. Transf. Ch. vii. 6.

what he spoke with his Mouth to my Father David as follows :

5. From the Day that I brought my People out of the Country of Egypt, I have chosen no City out of all the Tribes of Israel to build a House in; that my Name might be there, nor did I choose a Man to be Ruler over my People Israel :

6. Only I chose Jerusalem; that my Name might be there, as I did David to be over my People Israel. ~

7. And it was in the Heart of David my Father, to build a House to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

8. But the Lord said to him; Forasmuch as it is in thy Heart to build a House to my Name, thou dost well that it is so :

9. However thou shalt not build the House, but thy Son who proceeds forth from thy self shall build a House to my Name.

10. Accordingly the Lord has confirmed his Word which he spoke, I being risen up in the room of David my Father, and sitting upon the Throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built a House to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

11. I have also put there the Ark, where the Covenant of the Lord is, which he made with the Israelites.

12. And standing before the Altar of the Lord, before all the Congregation of Israel, he spread forth his Hands,

13. (For Solomon had made a brazen Pulpit, and put it within the Yard, its Length and Breadth being five Cubits each, and Height three, upon which he stood, and kneeling upon his Knees before the whole Congregation of Israel, spread forth his Hands towards Heaven)

14. And prayed: O Lord God of Israel, there is no god like thee, in the Heaven, or on the Earth, keeping Covenant and Kindness with thy Servants, that walk before thee with their whole Heart.

15. Who hast kept with thy Servant David my Father what thou spokest to him: not only speaking with thy Mouth, but fulfilling with thy Hand, as at present.

16. Now therefore, O Lord God of Israel, keep with thy Servant David my Father what thou thus spokest to him, Thou shalt not have a Man fail from before me of sitting upon the Throne of Israel; only if thy Children take heed to their Way, to walk in my Law, as thou hast done before me.

17. Even now, O Lord God of Israel, let thy Word be verified, which thou spokest to thy Servant David.

18. Though will God indeed dwell with Men upon the Earth? Behold Heaven and the Heaven of Heavens cannot contain thee, much less this House which I have built.

19. Yet have regard to the Prayer of thy Servant, and to his Supplication, O Lord my God, by hearkening to the Cry, and to the Prayer, which thy Servant prays before thee.

20. That thy Eyes may be open to this House Day and Night, to the Place of which thou hast said; thou wouldest put thy Name there; that thou mayest hearken to the Prayer, which thy Servant shall pray towards this Place.

21. Thus hearken to the Supplication of thy Servant, and thy People Israel, which they shall pray towards this Place; do thou even hear from Heaven the Place of thy Habitation, and having heard, forgive.

22. If a Man sins against his Neighbour, and an Oath is put on him to make him swear, which comes before thy Altar in this House;

23. Hear thou from Heaven, and act, so that thou mayest judge thy Servants, by requiring the Wicked to render his Way on his Head, and by justifying the Virtuous to give him according to his Virtue.

24. And if thy People Israel are beat before the Enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and returning, shall confess thy Name, pray, and make supplication before thee in this House;

25. Do thou hear from Heaven, and forgive their Sin; and bring them again to the Country which thou gavest to them and their Forefathers.

26. When the Heaven is shut up, so that there is no Rain, because they have sinned against thee; and they pray towards this Place, and confess thy Name, returning from their Sin, because thou afflictest them:

27. Do thou hear at Heaven, and forgive the Sin of thy Servants and People Israel, when thou hast taught them concerning the good Way that they should go in; and give Rain upon thy Country, which thou hast given thy People for a Possession.

28. When there is Famine in the Country, when there is Pestilence, when there is Blasting or Mildew, Locusts or Caterpillars, when their Enemies besiege them in the Country at their Gates, when there is any Plague, or any Sickness;

29. All Prayer, all Supplication which shall be of any Man, or of all thy People Israel, who knowing their several Plagues and Grievs, shall spread forth their Hands towards this House :

30. Do thou hear from Heaven thy settled Habitation, and forgive, and render to each one according to all his Ways, whose Heart thou knowest ; since thou alone knowest the Hearts of Mankind :

31. That they may fear thee, to go in thy Ways, all the Days which they live upon the Surface of the Country, that thou gavest to our Forefathers.

32. As for a Stranger also, who is not of thy People Israel, but comes from a Country far off for thy great Name's sake, thy strong Hand and Arm stretched out ; when such shall come, and pray towards this House :

33. Hear thou from Heaven thy settled Habitation, and do according to all for which the Stranger calls to thee ; that all People of the Earth may know thy Name, even to fear thee like thy People Israel, and to know that this House which I have built is called by thy Name.

34. When thy People shall go out to war against their Enemies, the Way that thou sendest them, and shall pray to thee the Way to this City which thou hast chosen, and to the House which I have built to thy Name :

35. Hear from Heaven their Prayers and Supplications, and do that which is their Right.

36. When they sin against thee, since there is no Man who does not sin, so that thou being angry with them, deliverest them up before the Enemy, and they carry them away their Prisoners, to a Country far off or near ;

37. And they shall return in their Hearts in the Country whither they are carried away, and thereupon make supplication to thee in the Country of their Captivity, saying, We have sinned, committed iniquity, and done wickedly :

38. When they return to thee with their whole Heart and Soul, in the Country of their Captivity, of those who carried them away, and pray the Way to their Country that thou gavest their Forefathers, to the City that thou hast chosen, and the House that I have built to thy Name :

39. Hear from Heaven thy settled Habitation, their Prayer and Supplications, and do that which is their Right, and forgive thy People who have sinned against thee.

40. Now, my God, let thy Eyes be open, I beseech thee, and thy Ears attentive to the Prayer of this Place.

41. And now arise, O Lord God, to thy Rest, with the Ark of thy Strength : let thy Priests, O Lord God, be clothed with Salvation, and let thy pious ones be glad with Goodness.

42. O Lord God, turn not back the Face of thy anointed one : remember the Favours to thy Servant David.

C H A P. VII.

NOW when Solomon had done praying, there came down Fire from Heaven, which consumed the Burnt-offering and Sacrifices, and the Glory of the Lord filled the House :

2. Inasmuch that the Priests could not go into the Lord's House, because the Glory of the Lord filled it.

3. No sooner did all the Israelites see the Fire come down, and the Lord's Glory in the House, but they bowed with the Faces to the Ground upon the Pavement, and worshipped, giving thanks to the Lord, because he is good, since his Kindness is for ever.

4. Besides the King and all the People offered Sacrifices before the Lord ;

5. King Solomon offering a Sacrifice of twenty two thousand Oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand Sheep : thus the King and all the People dedicated the House of God.

6. The Priests also stood in their Charges, and the Levites with the Lord's Instruments of Musick, which King David had made to give thanks to the Lord, because his Kindness is for ever, when David praised by their Ministry ; and the Priests blew Trumpets before them, all Israel standing.

7. And Solomon consecrated the middle of the Court, which was before the House of the Lord ; because he offered there the Burnt-offerings, and Fat of the Peace-offerings : for the brasen Altar that he had made, could not contain the Burnt-offerings, Oblations, and the Fat.

8. He made a Feast too at that Time seven Days, and all Israel with him, a very great Congregation, from the Entrance of Hamath to the River of Egypt.

Ver. 29. towards this House] the same as in 1 King. viii. 38. which is strange, if their Negligence were not, that our Translators should so vary ; and see Luke i. 10. so in Ver. 32. where it is still worse, as being for Strangers.

Ver. 38. of those who] as appears not only by the parallel Text, 1 King. viii. 48. but the Want of a Subject otherwise to the Verb, or proper Antecedent to they, if וְהָיָה alone may be allowed to signify whither.

9. And they made of the eighth Day a solemn one: for they made the Dedication of the Altar seven Days, and the Feast so many.

10. And on the twenty third Day of the seventh Month he let the People go to their Tents, glad and of a cheerful Heart; for the Goodness which the Lord had shewn to David, Solomon, and his People Israel.

11. Thus Solomon having finished the House of the Lord, and the King's House, and made all prosperous that came into his Heart to do, at the Lord's House and his own;

12. The Lord appeared to Solomon in the Night, and said to him: I have heard thy Prayer, and chosen me this Place for a House of Sacrifice.

13. If I shut up the Heaven, so that there is no Rain, or if I command the Grasshoppers to consume the Country, or though I send Pestilence among my People;

14. Yet should my People who are called by my Name be humbled, and pray, seeking my Face, and turning from their evil Ways: then will I hear from Heaven, forgive their Sin, and heal their Country.

15. Now shall my Eyes be opened, and my Ears be attentive, to the Prayer of this Place.

16. And I have now chosen and consecrated this House, that my Name may be there for ever; where my Eyes and Heart shall be at all Times.

17. As for thee, if thou wilt go before me, as thy Father David went; even to do entirely as I have commanded thee, observing my Ordinances and Rules:

18. I will establish the Throne of thy Kingdom, as I made a Covenant thus with thy Father David, Thou shalt not have a Man fail of ruling over Israel.

19. But if you turn back, and forsake my Ordinances and Commandments, which I have put before you; as also go, and serve other gods, and bow down to them:

20. I will pluck those up from my Country which I have given them, and casting this House that I have consecrated to my Name from my Face, will make it a Proverb and Taunt among all People.

21. And at this House which is most high, shall every one who passes by it be astonished, and say, Why has the Lord done thus to this Country and House?

22. To which some shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord God of their Fathers, who brought them out of the Country of Egypt, and taking hold of other gods, bowed down to them, and served them; therefore has he brought upon them all this Harm.

C H A P. VIII.

AND at the End of twenty Years, wherein Solomon built the House of the Lord, and his own House;

2. Those Cities which Hiram gave him did Solomon build, and made the Israelites dwell there.

3. Solomon further went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4. And he built Tadmor in the Wilderness, with all the Cities of Stores which he did at Hamath.

5. He likewise built both the upper and lower Beth-horon, fortified Cities, with Walls, Gates and Bars;

6. And Baalath, and all the Cities of Stores which he had, together with all the Cities for Chariots, and those for Horsemen, nay all that which he desired to build at Jerusalem, Lebanon, and in the whole Country of his Dominion.

7. As for all the People that were left of the Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel;

8. On such of their Children as were left after them in the Country, whom the Israelites did not dispatch, Solomon has put a Tribute to this Day.

9. Whereas of those who were Israelites he made no Slaves for his Work: for they were Warriors, the chief of his Cap-

Ver. 9. eighth Day] after the seven of the Feast, as on Ver. 10.

Ib. Dedication—seven Days] before those of the Feast.

Ver. 10. on the twenty third] For the Feast of Booths or Tabernacles in this Month, beginning on the 15th Day, Lev. xxiii. 34. and besides the seven Days for Offerings, the eighth being a solemn Day, Ver. 36. Num. xxix. 12—35. this 23d Day would be that after the Festival; and whereas Solomon is said to have dismissed the People on the eighth Day, 1 King. viii. ult. understand it to be in the Evening, when the eighth Day of the Feast ended, and the 23d of the Month began, and so partly on both.

Ver. 4. Tadmor] otherwise called Palmyra: where besides the Ruins of a magnificent Temple, 99 feet long and about 40 wide, which appears to have been inclosed with a Row of Pillars 50 feet high, extending 177 feet in Length and 84 in Breadth, that might support the Roof of a Cloister, about half of which, viz. 16 only remain; within a Court 220 Yards on each Side, having 58 other Marble Pillars 37 feet high, with fine carved Heads, being the Remains of two Ranks of them nigh the Walls, &c. there are also Marble Pillars scattered about, near a Mile in Length, and had been two Rows of Marble Pillars 26 feet high, above half a Mile in Length, the Rows being 40 feet apart, of which Pillars that might have been about 560 only 129 are standing, with two Porphyry Pillars about 30 feet long and nine round; as also Towers four or five Stories high for Sepulchres, on both Sides of a hollow Way, more than a Mile in Length, &c. &c. Philosophical Transactions, Num. 217.

Ib. in the Wilderness] being in a fertile Place, surrounded with a barren Wilderness.

tains, and the Governors of his Chariots and Cavalry.

10. And these were the chief of the Officers who belonged to King Solomon, two hundred and fifty, that ruled over the People.

11. Besides Solomon brought up Pharaoh's Daughter from the City of David, to the House that he had built for her: for he said, My Wife shall not dwell in the House of David King of Israel, because those Places are holy to which the Ark of the Lord is come.

12. Then he offered up Burnt-offerings to the Lord, upon the Lord's Altar, which he had built before the Porch;

13. Even each Day's Matter the same Day, by offering up according to the Commandment of Moses, at the Sabbaths, New-moons, and the appointed Times three times in a Year, in the Feast of unleavened Bread, in that of Weeks and that of Tabernacles.

14. Nay he appointed according to the Rule of his Father David, the Partitions of the Priests in their Service, and of the Levites in their Charges, to praise and minister before the Priests, for each Day's Matter the very same Day, as also the Porters in their Partitions at each Gate: for so had David the Man of God commanded.

15. Nor did they depart from the King's Commandment to the Priests and Levites, concerning any Matter, particularly the Treasures.

16. And all Solomon's Work was prepared against the Day of the founding of the Lord's House, and till it was finished; the House of the Lord being compleat.

17. Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber, and Eloth, at the Shoar of the Sea, in the Country of Edom.

18. Hiram also by the Hand of his Servants sent him Ships, and Servants that knew the Sea, who went with Solomon's Servants to Ophir, and fetched from thence four hundred and fifty Talents of Gold, and brought to King Solomon.

CHAP. IX.

AND the Queen of Sheba hearing the Fame of Solomon, came to try him with difficult Questions at Jerusalem, with a very great Retinue, and Camels carrying Spices, as also Gold in abundance, and precious Stones; and when she was come to Solomon, she talked with him all that was in her Mind.

2. However he told her all her Matters, and there was Nothing hid from him which he did not tell her.

3. At length when the Queen of Sheba had seen the Wisdom of Solomon, the House that he had built,

4. The Meat of his Table, the sitting of his Servants, the standing of his Waiters with their Cloaths, and of his Butlers with theirs, and his Ascent by which he went up to the House of the Lord, there was Spirit no longer in her.

5. And she said to the King: It was a true Saying which I heard in my own Country, concerning thy Things, and concerning thy Wisdom.

6. Nevertheless I did not believe the Words, until I came, and my Eyes saw; whereas behold half the Greatness of thy Wisdom was not told me: thou exceedest the Report that I heard.

7. Happy are thy Men, and happy these thy Servants, who stand before thee continually, and hear thy Wisdom.

8. The Lord thy God be blessed, who delighted in thee, to put thee upon his Throne, to be King for himself: by the Love of thy God to Israel, to make it remain for ever, he also put thee for a King over them, to do what is right and just.

9. Besides she gave the King a hundred and twenty Talents of Gold, Spices very abundantly, and precious Stones: and there was not such Spice, as that which the Queen of Sheba gave King Solomon.

10. And the Servants too of Hiram, with his Servants, who brought Gold from Ophir, brought Algum-trees, and precious Stones.

11. Then the King made of the Algum-trees Walks to the House of the Lord and the King's House, as likewise Harps and Lutes for the Singers: and there were no such as those seen before in the Country of Judah.

Ver. 9. Governors of] not the same as just before, according to the vulg. Transf. but the same as in 1 King. ix. 22.

Ver. 11. is come] as is apparently the Case, not both come, to be gone again.

Ver. 14. each Day's Matter the very same Day] according as at the Beginning of the Ver. before, and Lev. xxiii. 37. Heb. the Matter of a Day in its Day; and how variously rendered by our Translators besides see in Exod. v. 13, 19. & xvi. 4. Lev. xxiii. 37. 1 King. viii. 59. & x. 25. 2 King. xxv. 30. 1 Chron. xvi. 37. 2 Chron. ix. 24. Ez. iii. 4. Neh. xi. 23. & xii. 47. and perhaps some more Places, being not easy to be found: as I know of no Concordance of the Scripture Idioms (but what is small or in Scraps) which would be exceeding useful, not only for translating, but comparing together, and so understanding it.

Ver. 18. fifty] thirty of which it seems were spent in the Charge of the Voyage, as so many less are named, 1 King. ix. 28. see Raleigh's Hist. B. ii. 18, 3.

Ver. 11. Walks] rather than the little known terrissets and how the Walks were made with them see upon 1 King. x. 12.

12. King Solomon also gave the Queen of Sheba all her Desire which she asked, besides what she brought to the King: so she turned, and went to her own Country, with her Servants.

13. And the Weight of Gold which came to him in one Year, was six hundred sixty six Talents of Gold;

14. Beside what was from Men finding it out, and Traders that brought it, with all the Kings of Arabia, and the Princes of the Country, who brought Gold and Silver to Solomon.

15. Moreover King Solomon made two hundred Bucklers of Gold hammered out, six hundred Shekels of which Gold were put into one Buckler.

16. There were likewise three hundred Shields of Gold hammered out, three hundred Shekels of Gold being put into one Shield; and the King put them into the House of the Wood of Lebanon.

17. And he made a great Throne of Ivory, which he covered with pure Gold.

18. Now to the Throne were six Stairs, with a Step of Gold, fastened to it, and Stays were on both Sides of the Sitting-place, two Lions standing by the Stays.

19. Twelve Lions also stood there upon the six Stairs on both Sides: there was not such made for any Kingdom.

20. All King Solomon's Drinking-vessels too were Gold, and all the Vessels of the House of the Wood of Lebanon preserved Gold: none were Silver, that was a Thing not esteemed in the Time of Solomon.

21. For the King had Ships which went to Tarshish, with the Servants of Hiram: once in three Years came the Ships of Tarshish, bringing Gold and Silver, Ivory, and Apes, and Peacocks.

22. And he was the greatest of all the Kings of the Earth, in Riches and Wisdom.

23. So that they all sought the Presence of Solomon, to hear his Wisdom which God had put in his Heart.

24. And they brought their several Presents, Instruments both of Silver and Gold, with Garments, Armour and Spices, Horses and Mules; each Year's Things the same Year.

25. He too had four thousand Stables for Horses and Chariots, and twelve thousand Horsemen; that he placed in the Chariot-cities, and with the King in Jerusalem.

26. And he ruled over all the Kings, from the River to the Country of the Philistines, and to the Border of Egypt.

27. Nay the King made Silver to be in Jerusalem like Stones, as he did Cedars like Sycomores, which are in the Vale abundantly.

28. They likewise brought Horses out of Egypt for Solomon, and out of all Countries.

29. As for the Residue of his Affairs, the former and latter, are they not written in the Affairs of Nathan the Prophet, in the Prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the Vision of Iddo the Seer against Jeroboam the Son of Nebat?

30. And Solomon reigned at Jerusalem over all Israel forty Years.

31. When he lay down with his Fathers, being buried in the City of his Father David; and Rehoboam his Son reigned in his room.

CHAP. X.

AND Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel came thither to make him King.

2. Which when Jeroboam the Son of Nebat heard (who was in Egypt, to which he fled from the Presence of King Solomon) he returned from Egypt;

3. They having sent for him: so he and all Israel came, and spoke thus to Rehoboam,

4. Thy Father made our Yoke hard; now therefore make his hard Service lighter, and his heavy Yoke which he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5. To whom he said, Let there be yet three Days, and come again to me: accordingly the People went away.

6. And King Rehoboam consulted thus with the old Men, who stood before Solomon his Father while he was alive, How do you advise, that I should return Word to this People?

7. Who spoke to him as follows, If thou wilt be humane to this People, wilt please them, and give them good Words, they will be Servants to thee at all Times.

8. But he left the Counsel which the old Men gave him, and consulted with the young Men that were bred up with him, who stood before him.

9. To these he said, What do you advise, that we may return this People Word, who

Ver. 27. Sycomores] accordingly Rauwolf says, that Abundance of them grow in Cyprus; and being at Tripoli in Syria, he found a great many, they growing in all Fields and Grounds, Travels by Ray, Part I. Chap. iv. Ver. 4, 9, 10. make—lighter] as in 1 King xii. 4, 9, 10. without semcubab.

have spoken thus to me, Make the Yoke lighter which thy Father put upon us.

10. And they said to him as follows; Thus tell the People who have spoken so to thee, Thy Father made our Yoke heavy, and do thou make it lighter to us; My little Finger, say thou to them, shall be thicker than my Father's Loins.

11. For now whereas my Father loaded you with a heavy Yoke, I will add to your Yoke: my Father chastised you with Whips, but I will with Scorpions.

12. So Jeroboam and all the People came to Rehoboam the third Day; as the King had ordered, that they should come again to him then.

13. And he gave them a surly Answer, King Rehoboam leaving the Counsel of the old Men.

14. For he spoke to them according to the Counsel of the young Men, as follows, Whereas my Father made your Yoke heavy, I will add to it: my Father chastised you with Whips, but I will with Scorpions.

15. Thus the King did not hearken to the People: for the Motive was from God, that the Lord might confirm his Word, which he spoke by the Ministry of Ahijah the Shilonite, to Jeroboam the Son of Nebat.

16. And when all Israel saw that the King hearkened not to them, the People returned this Word to him, What Part have we in David? Nor is there Possession in the Son of Jesse; each one away to thy Tents, O Israel, now look home, David. Accordingly all Israel went to their Tents.

17. But as for the Israelites that dwelt in the Cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18. Then he sent Hadoram, who was over the Tribute; but him the Israelites stoned with Stones, so that he died: upon which King Rehoboam strengthened himself to get up into the Chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19. And Israel have rebelled against the Family of David to this Day.

CHAP. XI.

HOWEVER when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered together the Family of Judah and Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen Men Warriors; to fight with Israel, that he might restore the Kingdom to himself.

2. But Shemaiah the Man of God had the Lord's Commission as follows:

3. Speak to Rehoboam the Son of Solomon King of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, in this manner;

4. Thus says the Lord, You shall not go up, nor fight with your Brethren; return to your respective Homes, for this Thing is brought to pass by me. And they hearkened to the Words of the Lord, for they returned from going against Jeroboam.

5. And Rehoboam dwelt at Jerusalem, and built Cities of Fortification in Judah;

6. Namely Beth-lehem, Etam, Tekoa,

7. Beth-zur, Socho, Adullam,

8. Gath, Maresah, Ziph,

9. Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

10. Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron, which are fortified Cities in Judah and Benjamin.

11. And he made the Fortifications strong, in which he put Rulers, with Magazines of Food, Oil and Wine;

12. Nay in every particular City Shields and Spears, and strengthened them very much, as Judah and Benjamin belonged to him.

13. And the Priests and Levites who were in all Israel, presented themselves to him from all their Borders.

14. For the Levites left their Suburbs and Possession, and went to Judah and Jerusalem; because Jeroboam and his Sons cast them off from executing the Priesthood to the Lord:

15. As he appointed him Priests for the Chapels, Devils, and the Calves that he made.

16. And after them out of all the Tribes of Israel, such as gave their Hearts to seek the Lord God of Israel, came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice to the Lord God of their Fathers.

17. So they made the Kingdom of Judah strong, and strengthened Rehoboam the Son of Solomon three Years: for they went in the Way of David and Solomon so long.

18. And Rehoboam married Mahalath the Daughter of Jerimoth, the Son of David: Abihail the Daughter of Eliab, the Son of Jesse;

Ver. 16. Word] in another Character, being not here as in 1 King. xii. 16.

Ver. 18. Daughter of Jerimoth] If it were not for the Heb. Pointing, this would be Sen in the Original Text. But the Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew Text does not let the Occasion slip of turning it to another Use, We read, says he, that Rehoboam took him to Wife Mahalath, 12 THE SON of Jerimoth! And must this Nonsense too, so he proceeds, be ascribed to EZRA!

p. 483. No, but to this Author himself, for the Printed Heb. ban is not Sen: all that we have to ascribe to Ezra is, that finding 12 amiss in his Copy, he put 12 aright in the Margin, and the right Vowel for Daughter in the Text, the best he could have done.

1b. Jerimoth] who might be David's Son by a Concubine, 1 Chr. iii. 9. rather than Abisalem, as Lightfoot strangely fancies.

19. And she bore to him Children, Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham.

20. After her likewise he took Maachah the Daughter of Absalom, who bore to him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith.

21. He also loved Maachah the Daughter of Absalom, the most of all his Wives and Concubines: for he took eighteen Wives and sixty Concubines, and begot twenty eight Sons and sixty Daughters.

22. Besides he appointed Abijah the Son of Maachah to be the chief Ruler among his Brethren, because he would make him King.

23. And being prudent, he dispersed some of all his different Children to all the Countries of Judah and Benjamin, into all the fortified Cities, and gave them Victuals abundantly; he requiring Abundance of Wives.

CHAP. XII.

BUT when he had established the Kingdom, and made himself strong, he forsook the Law of the Lord, and all Israel with him.

2. So in the fifth Year of King Rehoboam, Shishak King of Egypt came up against Jerusalem (because they had done amiss against the Lord)

3. With a thousand and two hundred Chariots, and sixty thousand Horsemen; and the People were without Number who came from Egypt with him, the Lubites, Succites and Ethiopians.

4. And taking the fortified Cities which belonged to Judah, he came to Jerusalem.

5. Upon this the Prophet Shemaiah came to Rehoboam and the Princes of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem by reason of Shishak, and said to them; Thus says the Lord, As you left me, I have also left you in the Power of Shishak.

6. Then the Princes of Israel, and the King became humbled, and said, The Lord is righteous.

7. And when the Lord saw that they were humble, Shemaiah had his Commission as follows; Since they are become humble, I will not destroy them, but give them some little Deliverance, and my Wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the Power of Shishak.

8. But they shall become Servants to him, that they may not only know my Service, but that of the Kingdoms of other Countries.

9. Now Shishak King of Egypt coming up against Jerusalem, took the Treasures of the House of the Lord, and those of the King's House, taking away all, as he did the Shields of Gold that Solomon had made.

10. Instead of which King Rehoboam made Shields of Brass, and committed them to the Custody of the chief of the Footmen who kept the Gate of the King's House.

11. So that at the King's coming to the House of the Lord, the Footmen came, and carried them, then brought them back to their own Chamber.

12. However when he was humble the Lord's Anger turned back from him, so that he would not destroy wholly; nay even in Judah Matters were well.

13. And King Rehoboam strengthening himself in Jerusalem, reigned: for he was in his forty first Year when he began reigning, and reigned seventeen Years in Jerusalem, the City which the Lord chose out of all the Tribes of Israel to put his Name there, whose Mother was named Naamah, an Ammonitess.

14. He nevertheless did what was evil, because he prepared not his Heart to seek the Lord.

15. As for his Affairs, the former and latter, are they not written in the Affairs of Shemaiah the Prophet, and Iddo the Seer concerning Pedigree? There being Wars with him and Jeroboam continually.

16. And Rehoboam lay down with his Fathers, being buried in the City of David, and Abijah his Son reigned in his room.

CHAP. XIII.

IT was in the eighteenth Year of King Jeroboam, when Abijah began reigning over Judah.

2. Three Years reigned he at Jerusalem, whose Mother's Name was Michaiah, the Daughter of Uriel of Gibeah; and there was War between him and Jeroboam.

3. And Abijah set the Battle in order, with an Army of powerful Men for War, four hundred thousand chosen ones; against

Ver. 19. And she bore] Which, and the Pointing in the com. Eng. leave it doubtful whether it was one or both.

Ver. 20. Daughter] for Granddaughter, as shewn on 1 King. xv. 10. and if this had been another Absalom, as Expositors have thought, it might be expected he would have been distinguished from that noted one.

Ver. 23. different Children] by his several Wives For what Sense is of all without Distinction?

Ver. 2. Michaiah, the Daughter of Uriel] See on Chap. xi. 20. and 1 King. xv. 10.

Ver. 3. four hundred thousand—with eight hundred thousand] most of the men going to the War; see 1 Chr. xxi. 5. & Chap. xxv. 5.

whom Jeroboam put the Battle in order, with eight hundred thousand chosen valiant Men.

4. Then Abijah rose up from Mount Zemaraim, which is on Mount Ephraim, and said: Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel,

5. Is it not for you to know, that the Lord God of Israel gave the Kingdom over Israel, to David himself and his Children for ever, by an incorruptible Covenant?

6. Yet Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, a Servant of Solomon the Son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his Lord.

7. And there gathered together to him vain Men, ungodly Persons, who strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the Son of Solomon, when he was a Youth, and of a tender Heart, and was not strong before them.

8. And now ye think to make your selves strong before the Kingdom of the Lord, in the Power of the Sons of David; ye being a large Multitude, and the Calves of Gold with you, that Jeroboam made you for gods.

9. Have not ye driven away the Priests of the Lord, Aaron's Sons, and the Levites, and made you Priests like the People of the Countries? Any one upon coming to fill his Hand with a young Bullock of the Herd, and seven Rams, may be a Priest to such as are not gods.

10. But as for us, the Lord is our God, whom we have not forsaken; and the Priests that minister to the Lord are Aaron's Sons, and the Levites are in the Business.

11. Who burn to the Lord Burnt-offerings each Morning and Evening, and Incense of Odours, as also put the Bread in order upon the pure Table, and the Candlestick of Gold with its Lamps, to burn each Evening; for we keep the Charge of the Lord our God: whereas ye have forsaken him.

12. So behold God is with us for a Captain, and his Priests with sounding Trumpets, to sound forth against you: O Israelites, do not fight with the Lord God of your Fathers, for you will not prosper.

13. However Jeroboam brought about an Ambuscade, to come behind them; so that they themselves were before Judah, and the Ambuscade behind them.

14. And Judah looking, behold they had the Battle before and behind; upon this they cried to the Lord, and the Priests blew the Trumpets.

15. The Men of Judah also shouted; and it came to pass when they did, that God beat Jeroboam and all Israel, before Abijah and Judah:

16. Insomuch that the Israelites fled from the Presence of Judah, and God delivered them into their Power.

17. Whom Abijah and his People slew with a great Slaughter, there falling slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen Men.

18. Thus were the Israelites humbled at that Time; and the People of Judah were strengthened, because they depended upon the Lord God of their Fathers.

19. And Abijah pursuing after Jeroboam, took Cities from him, Beth-el, Jeshanah and Ephraim, with their Towns.

20. Nay Jeroboam retained Strength no more in the Time of Abijah; and the Lord smote him, so that he died.

21. Whereas Abijah became strong, took him fourteen Wives, and begot twenty two Sons and sixteen Daughters.

22. As for the rest of Abijah's Affairs, with his Ways and Sayings, they are written in the History of the Prophet Iddo.

C H A P. XIV.

AND Abijah lay down with his Fathers, they burying him in the City of David, and Asa his Son reigned in his room; in whose Time the Country was quiet ten Years.

2. And Asa did what the Lord his God liked, and approved of.

Ver. 5. gave the Kingdom] So upon an Invasion of the Turks, Manugher King of Persia, as Tabari an ancient Author of that Nation writing his Life relates, spoke piously thus; 'The most holy and high God delivered to me this Kingdom, that I might render him Praise and Glory by my Actions as a Prince, preserving my People in Plenty and Peace, and impartially distributing Justice, that thereby the glorious Gift of God might in my Hand be strengthened and increased. If contrary to this my Duty I had acted ungratefully towards my Creator, then I should justly have deserved to lose my Kingdom here, and to suffer everlasting Punishment for my Wickedness hereafter,' Hyde's Relig. vet. Persarum, Cap. viii. p. 156.

Ib. incorruptible] The Heb. Word used elsewhere for Salt seems metaphorical here, unlike what it is Num. xviii. 19. for what was there of Salt literally in this Covenant, that it should be called a Covenant of Salt?

Ver. 17. five hundred thousand] Such a Number as was never slain in any one Battle before or since, Usher: for Hammond on Rev. xx. 7. speaking of the great Fight between the Romans under the Emperor Marcion, and the Huns under Attilas, An. Chr. 451. in which one hundred sixty two thousand were killed, calls it The greatest Slaughter that hath ever been read of. But the Author of the Vulg. thinking these too many, put but fifty thousand; which is more unlikely, that such an Army, who fought with such Advantage, under such a Commander, should be beat with the Loss of so few.

Ver. 2. ten] Though Usher, &c. have computed these Years to end at the War with Zerah, I have put them in the Tab. at the End of Dan. as commencing with Asa's Reign; supposing it more likely there might be some Disturbance or Hostility with Zerah or Baasha, a few Years before they came to Judah, than in the Beginning of his Reign, before the ten Years Peace and Quietness: for

3. For

3. For he took away the Altars of the strange gods, with the Chapels, as also broke down the Statues, and cut down the Groves.

4. Nay he ordered Judah to seek the Lord God of their Fathers, and to perform the Law and Commandment.

5. He even took away out of all the Cities of Judah, the Chapels and sun-burnt Images; and the Kingdom was quiet before him.

6. Besides he built fortified Cities in Judah; as the Country was quiet, and there was no War with him in these Years, because the Lord gave him rest.

7. So he said to Judah; Let us build these Cities, and inclose each with a Wall and Towers, Gates and Bars, while the Country is before us; since we have sought the Lord our God, upon doing which he has given us rest on every side. Accordingly they built, and prospered.

8. And Afa had an Army that carried Bucklers and Spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand, and out of Benjamin that carried Shields and bended Bows, two hundred and eighty thousand; all these being valiant Men.

9. And when Zerah the Cushite came out against them, with an Army of a thousand thousands, and three hundred Chariots, coming to Mareshah;

10. Afa went out before him, and they put the Battle in order in the Valley of Zephathah, at Mareshah.

11. And Afa called thus to the Lord his God, O Lord, it is no difference with thee to help between many and such as have no Power, help us, O Lord our God; for we depend upon thee, and in thy Name go against this Multitude: O Lord thou art our God, let not Man rule with thee.

12. Then the Lord beat the Cushites before Afa and Judah, so that they fled.

13. Whom Afa and the People that were with him pursued to Gerar, and there fell of them, without their having Recovery; for they were broken before the Lord, and his Camp: and these carried away very much Spoil.

14. Moreover they smote all the Cities round about Gerar, for the Dread of the Lord was upon them; they also plundered all the Cities, for there was much Plunder in them.

15. And they likewise smote the Tents of Cattle, driving away Sheep and Camels abundantly, and returned to Jerusalem.

CHAP. XV.

AND the Spirit of God being upon Azariah the Son of Oded,

2. He went out before Afa, and said to him: Hear me, Afa, with all Judah and Benjamin, the Lord will be with you, while ye are with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found by you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3. Now Israel has been a great while without the true God, without a teaching Priest, and without the Law.

4. However when they returned to the Lord God of Israel in their Distress, and sought him, he was found by them.

5. And in those Times there was no Peace to him who went out, or to him who came in: for great Vexations were upon all the Inhabitants of the Countries.

6. One Nation likewise was beat by another, and one City by another: for God did vex them with all Distress.

7. Be you therefore strong, and let not your Hands be slack: for there will be a Reward for your Work.

8. Encouraged at hearing these Words, and the Prophecy of Oded the Prophet, Afa took away the detestable Things out of the whole Country of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the Cities which he had taken from Mount Ephraim, and renewed the Altar of the Lord that was before the Lord's Porch.

9. Besides he gathered together all Judah and Benjamin, as also the Strangers with them

Jeroboam having been quite defeated by Abijah, and civil Wars following in the Kingdom of Israel, how can it be thought Judah should be disquieted from thence? And from whom else can it be made appear?

Ver. 11. depend] being the same as in Chap. xiii. 18. & xvi. 7, 8. and not rest.

Ver. 12. beat] That this was in the Beginning of the fifteenth Year of Afa's Reign, is apparent from Chap. xv. 2, 10, 11. However in the late Universal History, Book I. Ch. vii. Sect. 7. it is said, 'Archbishop Usher places this famous Action in the first Year of Afa's Reign, Ann. sub A. M. 3063:' whereas his Words there are, 'Anno 15 Afa incunte (in the Beginning of the 15th Year of Afa) Zerach Æthiops cum innumero exercitu Judæam invadit.' But it seems the Mistake was made by consulting only the Eng. Translation of Usher's Annals, which is incorrect, and evidently not done by himself, where the Words are, 'In the Beginning of Afa his Reign;' which notwithstanding is far from justifying the Quotation, and even there [15] stands against it for the Years of Afa's Reign.

Ver. 8. and the Prophecy] Though it may seem too bold to affirm, whether this was the same with the foregoing or not; yet I am inclined to think the former, and that Oded had some Hand in it, notwithstanding his Son Azariah was inspired to deliver it, Ver. 1. If they were distinct, why was not the Father's described as well as the Son's? Nor may the and between indicate two Things, but only two Terms to the same by Apposition, and might be rendered even.

1b. Oded] Vulg. Azariah the Son of Obed.

out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they deserted to him out of Israel abundantly, when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

10. Thus they were gathered together at Jerusalem in the third Month, at the fifteenth Year of the Reign of Aſa.

11. At which Time they sacrificed to the Lord of the Spoil that they had brought, seven hundred of the Herd, and seven thousand of the Flock.

12. They further entered into a Covenant to seek the Lord God of their Fathers, with their whole Heart and Soul;

13. And that whoever would not seek the Lord God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether Man or Woman.

14. Moreover they swore to the Lord aloud, and with Shouting, as likewise with Trumpets and Cornets.

15. And all Judah were glad for the Oath, as they swore with their whole Heart, and sought him with their whole Will, so that he was found by them; and the Lord gave them rest on every side.

16. Nay as to Maachah the Grandmother of King Aſa, he put her away from being Queen, because she made at a Grove a horrible Idol; Aſa too cut down, broke in pieces, and burnt her Idol, at the Brook Kidron.

17. But the Chapels were not taken away out of Israel; however the Heart of Aſa was perfect all his Days.

18. He also brought the consecrated Things of his Father, and those of his own, into the House of God, Silver, Gold and Instruments.

19. Now there had been no War till the thirty fifth Year of the Kingdom of Aſa.

CHAP. XVI.

IN the thirty sixth of Aſa's Kingdom, Baasha King of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not let any go out, or come in, to Aſa King of Judah.

2. Then Aſa took Silver and Gold, out of the Treasures of the House of the Lord and the King's House, and transmitted to Ben-hadad King of Syria, who dwelt at Damascus, with this Message,

3. There being a Treaty between me and thee, as there was between my Father and thine; so I have sent thee Silver and Gold: go, break thy Treaty with Baasha King of Israel, that he may go up from me.

4. Accordingly Ben-hadad hearkened to King Aſa, sending the Captains of the Armies who belonged to him, to the Cities of Israel; and they conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-maim, and all the Store-cities of Naphtali.

5. And as soon as Baasha heard it, he left off building Ramah, and let his Work cease.

6. With that Aſa the King took all Judah, and they carried away the Stones of Ramah, and the Timber of it, with which Baasha was building; and he built with them Geba and Mizpah.

7. At which Time Hanani the Seer came to Aſa King of Judah, and said to him; For thy depending upon the King of Syria, and not depending upon the Lord thy God, therefore is the Army of the King of Syria escaped from thee.

8. Were not the Cushites and Lubites, an Army of a Multitude, of Chariots and Horsemen very many? Yet for thy depending upon the Lord, he delivered them into thy Power.

9. For as to the Lord, his Eyes go about through the whole Earth, to make himself strong with them whose Heart is perfect to him. Thou hast done foolishly in this; for henceforth there will be Wars with thee.

10. Displeased therefore at the Seer, Aſa put him into the House of the Stocks, because he had indignation with him for this; he also

Ver. 16. Grandmother] for which turn back to 1 King. xv. 10.

Ver. 19. Now there had been] For the War in the 35th Year appears to be that before mentioned with Zerah, which was in that Year by the Chronology, and it would be strange to say there was no War from the 35th unto the five and thirtieth Year; as for [more] you may see it is an Addition of the Translators, to the Injury of the Sense and Trouble of Computation; and by the Verse that follows this, the War with Baasha began in the next Year. Though I supposed this Interpretation might be new, on looking I find Jun. and Trem. have translated, For there had been.

Ver. 1. Aſa's Kingdom] the Kingdom of Judah, which was then Aſa's: so this was in the 16th Year of his Reign, according to the Chron. Table, and Baasha died in the 26th, 1 King. xvi. 8. therefore could not do what is here related 10 Years after. Thus the last Verse of the foregoing Chap. is to be understood; the Heb. Word properly signifying Kingdom. And thus Lightfoot expounds it, and says it should be rendered, Prolegom. to The Harm. of the four Evang. Eluſed by a Mistake (of the Pen or Press) in the Annotations of Jun. and Trem. on Chap. xv. 19. and his own Mistake of that Verse for this, computing the 36th Year of the Kingdom to be in the 14th Year of Aſa's Reign, argues that this could not be the 36th Year of the Kingdom, because it was after the 15th of Aſa, Chap. xv. 10. the Mention of which is Reſtitution sufficient; yet Hewel, it seems, thought it good enough to take for his own, and Stackhouse to quote from him. Bedford places the Defeat of Zerah 10 Years in Aſa's Reign, Chap. xiv. 1. when this seems rather the Beginning of that or other Troubles, as it is very unlikely the Oxen and Sheep were kept five Years before they were offered, Chap. xv. 10, 11. But that being in the third Month of Aſa's 15th Year, and the Beginning of Baſha's War at the End of the 16th, leaves Room for the Reſt mentioned, Ver. 15. and seems to adjust the whole in a Manner most agreeable to the several Texts.

troubled.

troubled some of the People at the same Time.

11. Behold as for Aſa's Affairs, the former and latter, ſo they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Iſrael.

12. Now Aſa in the thirty ninth Year of his Reign was ill in his Feet, till his Diſeaſe was at a great Height; and even in his Diſeaſe he did not ſeek the Lord, but to the Phyſicians.

13. And Aſa lay down with his Fathers, dying in the forty firſt Year of his Reigning.

14. Whom they buried in his Sepulchres which he had dug for himſelf in the City of David, and laid in a Bed that was full of Spices of ſeveral Kinds, made into Baſam by the Apothecary's Work; they alſo made an exceeding great Burning for him.

C H A P. XVII.

AND Jehoſhaphat his Son reigned in his room, who made himſelf ſtrong againſt Iſrael.

2. For he put Forces in all the fortified Cities of Judah, as he did Garrifons in the Country of it, and in the Cities of Ephraim which Aſa his Father had taken.

3. And the Lord was with him, becauſe he went in the former Ways of David his Father, and did not ſeek to Baalim;

4. But ſought to the God of his Father, and went in his Commandments, and not according to the Work of Iſrael.

5. So the Lord eſtabliſhed the Kingdom in his Power, and all Judah gave Jehoſhaphat Preſents, and he had Riches and Honour abundantly.

6. Thus his Heart was exalted in the Ways of the Lord, that he might yet take away the Chapels and Groves out of Judah.

7. And in the third Year of his Reign he ſent to his Princes, namely Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethaneel and Michaiah, to teach in the Cities of Judah;

8. With them alſo the following Levites, Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Aſahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah; and with them Eliſhama and Jehoram, Priests.

9. Who taught in Judah, having the Book of the Lord's Law with them; and they went about in all the Cities of Judah, and taught the People.

10. And the Dread of the Lord was upon all the Kingdoms of the Countries, which were round about Judah, ſo that they did not make war with Jehoſhaphat.

11. Some of the Philiftines too brought him Preſents and Tax-ſilver; as the Arabians did Flocks, ſeven thouſand and ſeven hundred Rams, and ſeven thouſand and ſeven hundred He-goats.

12. And Jehoſhaphat went on, and was exceeding great; building in Judah Palaces, and Store-cities.

13. Moreover he had much Buſineſs in the Cities of Judah. And there were Warriors, valiant ones at Jeruſalem.

14. Of whom theſe are the Numbers after the Family of their Fathers: of Judah, the Captains of Thouſands, Adnah the chief, and with him valiant men three hundred thouſand;

15. And at his Hand Jehohanan the chief, and with him two hundred and eighty thouſand;

16. At whoſe Hand was Amaſiah the Son of Zichri, who freely offered to the Lord, and with him two hundred thouſand valiant Men;

17. And of Benjamin, the valiant Eliada, and with him armed Men with Bow and Shield two hundred thouſand;

18. As likewise at his Hand Jehozabad, with whom were a hundred and eighty thouſand made ready for War.

19. Theſe waited on the King, beſides thoſe whom he put in the fortified Cities in all Judah.

C H A P. XVIII.

AND Jehoſhaphat had Riches and Honour abundantly, and allied himſelf by Marriage to Ahab.

2. So at the End of ſome Years he went

Ver. 3. former] which may remove the Objection, that it ſhould be Aſa inſtead of David.

Ver. 4. God] How unneceſſarily the com. Transf. has LORD added!

Ver. 6. that he might] for he did not the former, Ch. xx. 33. 1 King. xxii. 43. hindered, as appears there, by the People; but the latter only, Ch. xix. 3.

1b. Yes] An Adverb, not a Prepoſition.

Ver. 11. Arabians] Of theſe People Leo Africanus counts three Sorts, Lib. i. 19. the Iſhmaelites, ſuch as were in that Country before them, and they who came in after them.

Ver. 14. three hundred thouſand] I account for theſe great Numbers, by the Probability that many People might come out of the Kingdom of Iſrael, and dwell in that of Judah, both for the ſake of Religion and other Advantages; as there were civil Wars in Iſrael before Jehoſhaphat came to the Crown, and the wicked tyrannical Ahab and Jezebel reigned there. So thoſe who dwelt in Judah and Benjamin, might be reckoned as belonging to either.

Ver. 1. allied himſelf by Marriage] The Verb being in Hitp. and it being done by the Marriage of his Son with Ahab's Daughter, Chap. xxi. 6. ſo Uſher.

down to Ahab at Samaria, who killed Sheep and Oxen for him abundantly, and for the People that were with him, and persuaded him to go up against Ramoth-gilead.

3. And when Ahab King of Israel asked Jehoshaphat King of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? He answered him, I am the same as thou art, and like thy People are mine, who shall be with thee in the War.

4. But added he to him, Enquire, I pray, the Word of the Lord presently.

5. Upon this the King of Israel gathered together the Prophets, four hundred Men, and said to them, Shall we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I forbear? And they declared, Go up, and God will deliver it into the King's Power.

6. However Jehoshaphat asked, Is here no Prophet of the Lord yet, of whom we may enquire?

7. And the King of Israel answered him, There is yet one Man, to enquire of the Lord from him; but I hate him, for he does not prophesy well concerning me, but ill all his Days, that is Micaiah the Son of Imla. To which Jehoshaphat replied, Let not the King say so.

8. He therefore called an Officer, and said, Make haste for Micaiah the Son of Imla.

9. Now the King of Israel, and Jehoshaphat King of Judah, sat upon their respective Thrones, suitably clothed, sitting in the Floor at the Entrance of the Gate of Samaria; and all the Prophets prophesied before them.

10. And Zedekiah the Son of Chenaanah, having made him Horns of Iron, declared; Thus says the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, till they are consumed.

11. All the Prophets likewise prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper, for the Lord will deliver it into the King's Power.

12. So the Messenger who went to call Micaiah, spoke thus to him, Behold the Words of the Prophets are good with one Consent to the King; let thy Word, I pray, be like that of one of them, and speak thou Good.

13. But Micaiah said, By the Lord's living, what my God says, I will speak.

14. And coming to the King, he asked him, Micah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to war, or shall I forbear? Who answered, Go you up, and prosper, since it shall be delivered into your Power.

15. Yet when the King said to him, How many times shall I require thee to swear that thou wilt speak to me Nothing but the Truth in the Name of the Lord?

16. He replied, I saw all Israel scattered upon the Mountains, as Sheep which have no Shepherd; and the Lord said, These have no Master, let them return to their several Homes in Peace.

17. At which the King of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did not I tell thee, he would not prophesy well concerning me, but ill?

18. Besides he said: Therefore hear you the Word of the Lord; I saw him sitting upon his Throne, and all the Army of Heaven were standing on his right Hand and his left.

19. When the Lord said, Who will persuade Ahab King of Israel, that he may go up, and fall at Ramoth-gilead? To which one making a Proposal after this Manner, and another after that;

20. There came forth a Spirit, and stood before the Lord, who said, I will persuade him; and upon the Lord's asking him, By what?

21. He answered, I will go forth, and be a false Spirit in the Mouths of all his Prophets. And he replied, Thou shalt persuade, and also prevail; go out, and do so.

22. Therefore now behold the Lord has put a false Spirit into the Mouths of these thy Prophets; and the Lord has spoken ill concerning thee.

23. With that Zedekiah the Son of Chenaanah going nigh, struck Micaiah on the Cheek, and asked, What Way was it the Spirit of the Lord passed from me to speak to thee?

24. And Micaiah said, Behold thou wilt see on that Day, in which thou shalt go into an inner Chamber to hide.

25. The King of Israel notwithstanding ordered; Take Micaiah, and have him back to Amon the Governor of the City, and to Joash the King's Son.

26. And tell; Thus says the King, Put this Man into a House of Restraint, and make him live upon both the Victuals and Drink of Oppression, till I return in Peace.

27. Whereas Micaiah said, If thou at all

Ver. 7. all his Days] So Agamemnon, in Homer's first Iliad, raves at the Prophet Calchas,

Μάντι καὶν, ὃ πάποτε μοι τὸ κρήνην ἰππας

Ἀνέ ται τὰ καὶ ἐν φίλα φρέσι μαρτυρεῖσθαι

Ἐσθλὸν δ' ἔδρετο καὶ ἰππας ἔπος, ἔδ' ἐτέλεισθας.

Augur accurst! denouncing Mischief still,

Prophet of Plagues, for ever boding ill!

Still must that Tongue some wounding Message bring;

And still thy priestly Pride provokes thy King?

Ver. 14. Micah] by the Original, as Ahab might call him in Contempt.

Ib. it] which our Translators add in 1 King. ult. 15. the Heb. indeed is plural, but in Consequence of the Name Ramoth being so.

Ver. 27. at all] just as in the com. Transf. 1 King. xxii.

28. from the same Heb. of which certainly is quite wrong; being put as elsewhere for such Heb. when affirmative, which is contrary to the dubitative; look at 1 King. ix. 6.

returnest

returnest in Peace, the Lord has not spoken by me; hear, added he, all these People.

28. So the King of Israel, and Jehoshaphat King of Judah, went up against Ramoth-gilead.

29. And the former said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the Battle, but do thou put on thy Garments. Accordingly he disguised himself, and they went into the Battle.

30. Now the King of Syria had thus commanded the Captains of the Chariots that he had, Do not fight with small or great, but with the King of Israel alone.

31. And when they saw Jehoshaphat, they said, It is the King of Israel, and turned about to fight against him; at which he cried out, and the Lord helped him, God turning them away from him.

32. But as soon as they saw that it was not the King of Israel, they turned back from after him.

33. And a Man drawing a Bow undesignedly, hit the King of Israel between the Breast-plate and the Joints; so that he said to his Charioteer, Turn thy Hand, and have me out of the Army; for I am sick.

34. The Battle also came to such a Height that Day, that the King of Israel was made to remain in the Chariot before the Syrians till the Evening; but died at the Time of the Sun's going down.

C H A P. XIX.

AND Jehoshaphat King of Judah returned home in Peace to Jerusalem.

2. Into whose Presence Jehu the Son of Hanani the Seer went forth, and said to him; Dost thou help the Wicked, and love those who hate the Lord? So there is Wrath from before the Lord against thee for this.

3. But good Things are found with thee, because thou hast taken away the Groves out of the Country, and prepared thy Heart to seek God.

4. And Jehoshaphat who dwelt in Jerusalem, went out again among the People from Beer-sheba to Mount Ephraim, and brought them back to the Lord God of their Fathers.

5. He also appointed Judges in the Country, in all the fortified Cities of Judah, at each City:

6. And said to the Judges; See what ye do: for ye judge not for Man, but for the Lord, who is with you in a Matter of Judgment.

7. Therefore now let the Dread of the Lord be upon you, observe, and do it: for there is no Injustice with the Lord our God, or respecting of Faces, or taking of Bribes.

8. And likewise in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, Priests, and of the chief of the Fathers of Israel, for the Judgment of the Lord, and for Controversy, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9. To whom he gave command as follows; Thus shall ye do in the Fear of the Lord, in Faithfulness, and with a perfect Heart.

10. And whatever Controversy comes to you, from your Brethren who dwell in their Cities, between Blood and Blood; between Law, Commandment, Ordinances and Rules; ye shall warn them, that they should not trespass against the Lord, and so Wrath be upon you and your Brethren: thus do, and ye will not trespass.

11. Behold Amariah too the high Priest is over you in every Matter of the Lord, and Zebadiah the Son of Ishmael is Ruler of the Family of Judah in every Matter of the King, and the Levites are Officers before you: be courageous, and act, and the Lord will be with the Good.

C H A P. XX.

AND after that the Moabites, Ammonites, and with them some beyond the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to war.

2. So some came, and told him thus, There is a great Multitude coming against thee from beyond the Sea, from Syria; and behold they are at Hazezon-tamar, which is En-gedi.

3. Upon this he was afraid, and put his Face to seek the Lord, and proclaimed a Fast for all Judah.

4. Which also gathered together to enquire from the Lord, even out of all the

Ver. 29. I will disguise myself] This Passage suggests a Conjecture that Ahab had got Intelligence of the Syrians Intent, Ver. 30. and that his wicked Policy and Cowardice prompted him to this Expedient of saving himself, and procuring the Death of a good King, to whom his Son-in-law was Heir apparent, Chap. xxi. 6. as his Daughter would thereby the sooner arrive at imperial Dignity: so Ahab's Death was a just Retribution for so much Falsehood and Treachery.

Ver. 2. Presence] as the Heb. is, and no Verb. So Jun. and Trem. have in conspetum ejus, into his Sight; Pagn. ante eum, before him; and Montan. ad faciem ejus, to his Face.

Ib. for this] Thus the Heb. again: and Jun. with Trem. propter hoc, for these Things; Pagn. propter hoc, for this; Munst. ob id, for it; Leo Jud. ob hanc rem, for this Thing.

Ver. 7. Injustice] I presume, both more adequate to the Matter, and more reverent to the Omnipotent Being, than iniquity.

Ver. 1. beyond] So Jun. and Trem. render it, and explain it the Syrians mentioned in the next Verse. The Moabites were other beside the Ammonites.

Ver. 2. from Syria] the from being here in Heb. the same as just before, and never that I find, signifies on this side. Jun. and Trem. put it likewise ex, and others de.

Cities of Judah did they come to enquire of him.

5. Jehoshaphat then stood among the Congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the House of the Lord, before the new Court,

6. And said: O Lord God of our Fathers, art not thou God himself in Heaven, who rulest over all the Kingdoms of the Nations, in whose Hand is Strength and Power, and none can stand with thee;

7. Art not thou our God, who didst expel the Inhabitants of this Country from before thy People Israel, and gavest it to the Offspring of Abraham who loved thee for ever?

8. And they have dwelt in it, nay built thee a Sanctuary therein for thy Name, and said,

9. If Harm coming upon us, the Sword, Judgment, or Pestilence, or Famine, we stand before this House and thee, as thy Name is in it, and cry to thee by reason of our Distress; thou wilt hear, and save.

10. And now behold the People of Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, against whom thou wouldest not permit Israel to go, when they came from the Country of Egypt, so that they turned aside from them, and did not destroy them;

11. Behold thus they requite us, by coming to drive us out of thy Inheritance, which thou hast made us inherit.

12. Our God, wilt not thou bring Judgment on them? For there is no Strength in us, before this great Multitude that is coming against us; nor know we what we shall do, but our Eyes are upon thee.

13. And all Judah stood before the Lord, with their Babes, Wives and Children.

14. Then Jahaziel, the Son of Zechariah, the Son of Benaiah, the Son of Jeiel, the Son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the Posterity of Asaph, had the Spirit of the Lord upon him within the Congregation,

15. And said: Harken, all Judah, the Inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat, thus says the Lord to you; Do not be afraid nor daunted, by reason of the Abundance of the Multitude; for the Battle is not yours, but God's.

16. To Morrow go down against them, who behold are coming up by the Ascent of Ziz; and you shall find them by the End of the Valley, at the Outside of the Wilderness of Jeruel.

17. Ye need not fight in this Case: place your selves, stand still, and see the Salvation of the Lord with you, O Judah and Jerusalem; be not afraid nor daunted, go out to Morrow before them, and the Lord will be with you.

18. And Jehoshaphat bowed with his Face to the Ground, all Judah likewise and the Inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the Lord, to worship him.

19. The Levites also of the Posterity both of the Kohathites and Korhites, stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel, with a loud Voice above.

20. Afterwards they rose early in the Morning, and went out to the Wilderness of Tekoa, and when they were going out, Jehoshaphat stood, and said, Hear me, O Judah and the Inhabitants of Jerusalem; believe the Lord your God, and you will be confirmed, believe his Prophets, and you will prosper.

21. Besides he took counsel with the People, and appointed Singers to the Lord, even to praise thus in holy Comeliness, while they were going out before the armed Men, Give thanks to the Lord, because his Kindness is for ever.

22. And at the Time they began with Singing and Praise, the Lord put Ambuscades against the People of Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, that were coming against Judah, and they were smitten.

23. For the People of Ammon and Moab stood against the Inhabitants of Mount Seir, to overthrow and destroy; and as soon as they had made an end of the Inhabitants of Seir, they helped to slay one another.

24. So that when Judah was come by the Watch-tower to the Wilderness, they looked at the Multitude, and behold they were dead Bodies fallen to the Ground, and none escaped.

25. Now upon Jehoshaphat's coming with his People to take the Spoil of them, they found among them Abundance as well of Substance as dead Bodies, and desirable Instruments, which they took away for themselves, till they could carry no more; nay they were three Days in taking the Spoil, because it was much.

26. And on the fourth Day they assembled to the Vale of Blessing, for there they blessed the Lord: therefore have they called the Name of that Place The Vale of Blessing to this Day.

Ver. 13. with their Babes] being carried, and so put first as nearest.

Ver. 23. against the Inhabitants of Mount Seir] For which the Edomites seem a little after to have joined with Israel against Moab, 2 King. iii. 9. this being in the Reign of Ahaziah King of Israel, Chap. xviii. ult. Ver. 1,

35. and that of his Successor Jeberam, 2 King. iii. 6. This is left out by Usher in his Annals, he having not allowed Time enough for the Transactions only of the last and present Chapters, when there is more in Kings, from the Death of Ahab to that of Ahaziah, which he reckons to be both in the same Year.

27. Next they returned every Man to Judah and Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat being at the Head of them to return to Jerusalem with Rejoicing: for the Lord made them rejoice over their Enemies.

28. Thus they entered Jerusalem with Lutes, Harps and Trumpets, to the House of the Lord.

29. And the Dread of God was upon all the Kingdoms of the Countries, when they heard that the Lord fought against the Enemies of Israel.

30. The Kingdom of Jehoshaphat was afterwards quiet, his God giving him rest on every side.

31. And he reigned over Judah, being in his thirty fifth Year when he began reigning, and reigned twenty five Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Azubah, the Daughter of Shilhi.

32. And he went in the Way of his Father Aza, without turning aside from it, doing what the Lord approved of.

33. However the Chapels were not taken away; as the People had not prepared their Hearts for the God of their Fathers.

34. As to the rest of Jehoshaphat's Affairs, the former and latter, behold they are written in the Affairs of Jehu the Son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

35. And after that Jehoshaphat King of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah King of Israel, who did wickedly:

36. He even joined himself with him, to make Ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the Ships at Ezion-geber.

37. Whereupon Eliezer the Son of Dodavah of Marchah prophesied against Jehoshaphat thus, For thy joining thy self with Ahaziah, the Lord has broken thy Works; and the Ships were broke in Pieces, so that they could not hold out to go to Tarshish.

CHAP. XXI.

AND Jehoshaphat lay down with his Fathers, being buried with them in the City of David; and Jehoram his Son reigned in his room.

2. Who had Brothers by Jehoshaphat, Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael and Shephatiah; all these being the Sons of Jehoshaphat King of Israel.

3. And their Father gave them great Gifts of Silver, Gold, and precious Things, with fortified Cities in Judah; but gave the Kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the First-born.

4. However Jehoram being risen up in his Father's Kingdom, and having made himself strong, slew all his Brothers with the Sword, and also some of the Princes of Israel.

5. Jehoram was in his thirty second Year when he began reigning, and reigned eight Years at Jerusalem.

6. And he went in the Way of the Kings of Israel, as the Family of Ahab did: for he had the Daughter of Ahab for a Wife, and did what the Lord was displeased with.

7. Yet the Lord would not destroy the Family of David, by reason of the Covenant that he had made with him, even according as he said he would give him and his Sons a Lamp continually.

8. In his Time Edom revolted from under the Power of Judah, and made a King over them.

9. Whereupon Jehoram passing with his Princes, and all the Chariots with him; got ready at Night, and beat the Edomites who compassed him about, and the Captains of the Chariots.

10. Nevertheless Edom has revolted from under the Power of Judah to this Day: then did Libnah revolt at the same Time from under his Power, because he had forsaken the Lord God of his Fathers.

11. He even made Chapels on the Mountains of Judah, and caused the Inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, nay compelled Judah.

12. And there came to him this Writing from Elijah the Prophet: Thus says the Lord God of David thy Father; Forasmuch as thou hast not gone in the Ways of thy Father Jehoshaphat, and in those of Aza King of Judah;

13. But hast gone in the Way of the Kings of Israel, and made Judah and the In-

Ver. 2. Azariahu] not the same as before.

Ver. 6. he had] In the 9th Year of his Father's Reign by the Chronol. Tab. as being likely but the Year before his Son Ahaziah was born, though there were some older, Chap. xxii. 1. but probably by other Mothers; since Jehoram was now but in his 17th Year, and if married much before, it must be incomplete; besides I suppose it not done till after the death of Jezabel's Father in the Year before, who being a foreign King and a Heathen, might be expected to hinder such a Coalition; and Elijah's prevailing over and destroying the false Prophets the Year before that, might incline both Ahab and Jehoshaphat to marry their Children now together.

Ver. 8. over them] as at 2 King. viii. 20.

Ver. 11. go a whoring] with Idols, as in Ver. 13. with several other Places of Scripture, and here in the Chapels. Did our Translators imagine it was fleshly fornication, by turning it so, different from Ver. 13?

Ver. 12. Writing] It appears by 2 King. iii. 11. and ii. 11. that Elijah was not now on the Earth, and consequently left this before; being foretold what is mentioned in this and the next Verse (like Elisba, 2 King.

habitants of Jerusalem go a whoring, as the Family of Ahab does, and hast also slain thy Brothers of thy Father's Family, who were better than thou:

14. Behold the Lord will strike with a great Stroke thy People, Children, Wives, and all thy Substance.

15. Thou too shalt be in great Diseases, by a Distemper of thy Bowels, till they come out by reason of the Disease, Time after Time.

16. Besides the Lord stirred up against Jehoram the Spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians who were at the Side of the Cushites.

17. Who came up against Judah, broke into it, and carried away all the Substance that was found at the King's House, and also his Sons and Wives; so that he had no Son left, but Jehoahaz the youngest of his Sons.

18. Nay after all this the Lord smote him in his Bowels with an incurable Disease.

19. And when the Time was out, Term after Term, at the End of the Term of two Years, his Bowels came out with his Disease, and he died by bad Distempers; insomuch that his People made no Burning for him, like that of his Fathers.

20. He was in his thirty second Year when he began reigning, and reigned eight Years at Jerusalem; thus he went away without being desired, and they buried him in the City of David, but not in the Graves of the Kings.

viii. 12.) as he must be what is in the two following. Lightfoot indeed pretends, that Jehoshaphat going to war against Moab, made his Son Jehoram King to rule at home, who slew his Brothers when his Father was gone; upon which Elijah writ this to him, and was taken up to Heaven, then Elisha went to the Camp in Moab, Harm. of Old Test. But that is attended with too great Difficulties: for 1. by this, and Ver. 1, & 4. of this Chap. Jehoshaphat seems plainly dead, nor is it likely Jehoram would have killed his Brothers while his Father was living, and had the Command of the Army. 2. The War with Moab seems to be soon after the Death of Ahab, 2 King. i. 1. and iii. 5, 6. and Jehoram did not begin reigning till six Years after, 2 King. viii. 16. and so Usher places his receiving this Writing in the 8th Year after Elijah's Death.

Ver. 17. Jehoahaz] The Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew Text finds fault with the Heb. as corrupted, that it has the Name transposed; but since it is a Transposition of six Letters, and there is also the same in Ch. xxv. 23, 25. it is incredible to be made by Mistake in transcribing.

Ver. 19. when the Time was out, Term after Term, at the End of the Term of two Years] to follow the Original something tolerably, which here is very particularly expressed; and perhaps has not been translated before according to the Words with any Sense.

Ver. 1. Ahaziah] called Azariah, Ver. 6. and Jehoahaz, Chap. xxi. 17.

Ib. youngest Son] who was notwithstanding born when his Father was but 17 Years old, 2 King. viii. 17, 26.

Ib. all the former] who might be born not long before Ahaziah, from other Mothers.

AND the Inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest Son King in his room, because the Troop that came with the Arabians to the Camp had slain all the former: thus Ahaziah the Son of Jehoram King of Judah reigned.

2. It was in the forty second Year when Ahaziah began reigning, and he reigned one Year at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Athaliah, the Daughter of Omri.

3. He went too in the Ways of the Family of Ahab: for his Mother was his Counsellor to do wickedly.

4. So he did what the Lord was displeased with, like that Family: for they were Counsellors to him after the Death of his Father, to his Destruction.

5. He even went in their Counsel, going with Jehoram the Son of Ahab King of Israel to war, against Hazael King of Syria, at Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians smote Joram.

6. Therefore he returned to be cured at Jezreel, because there were Wounds with which they smote him at Ramah, when he fought against the King already mentioned; and Azariah the Son of Jehoram King of Judah, went down to see this Son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was ill.

7. And the treading down of Ahaziah was of God, by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram to

Ver. 2. It was in the forty second Year] As it seems of the Omri Family being advanced to the Crown of Israel, which he himself was one of by his Mother, as the Scripture mentions, 2 King. viii. 27. But it is not to be counted from Zimri's Death, from whence the Reign of Omri is first dated, but four Years after, when having prevailed over Tibni, he was settled on the Throne, 1 King. xvi. 15. compared with Ver. 23. as we may reckon from the Restoration of King Charles. It could not be Ahaziah's own Age, because it exceeded that of his Father, though he was the youngest Son, 2 King. viii. 17. 2 Chron. xxi. 20. & xxii. 1. Besides his Age is told very different, 2 King. viii. 26. see Lightf. Prel. to Harm. of Evang. with Harm. of Old Test. as also Jun. Annot. Broughton's Works, p. 563. and Ludev. de Dieu's Animadu. But Usher counts it his Mother's Age then.

Ib. Daughter] but as it seems in the 2d Descent, viz. Granddaughter, Chap. x. 6. She is also called thus 2 King. viii. 26. and I imagine it might be, because Omri was King when she was born: for this Ahaziah the youngest Son, Ver. 1. being born in the 14th Year of Ahab's Reign, it is not to be supposed but that the Mother was born before.

Ver. 6. because] In 2 King. viii. ult. it is a Preposition signifying because of, but here a Conjunction, the same as before the End of the Verse.

Ib. Azariah] The Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew Text does not allow this to be the King's Name, but strangely imagines it given to him by the Transcribers of the Scripture, from that of one of his Captains, Chap. xxiii. 1. for which the Reader's Consideration may be sufficient Answer.

Jehu the Son of Nimshi, whom the Lord anointed to cut off the Family of Ahab.

8. And when Jehu was executing Judgment against Ahab's Family, upon finding the Princes of Judah, and the Sons of Ahaziah's Brothers, who waited on Ahaziah, he slew them.

9. Besides he sought for Ahaziah, and they caught him, as he was hid in Samaria, and brought him to Jehu; and having killed him, they buried him, because, said they, he is the Son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the Lord with his whole Heart; and the Family of Ahaziah had none to retain Power for the Kingdom.

10. And Athaliah the Mother of Ahaziah seeing that her Son was dead, got ready, and destroyed all the royal Issue of the Family of Judah.

11. But Jehoshabeath the King's Daughter took Joash the Son of Ahaziah, and stealing him away from among the King's Sons who were killed, put him and his Nurse into a Bed-chamber: thus Jehoshabeath the Daughter of King Jehoram, the Wife of Jehoiada the Priest (for she was Ahaziah's Sister) concealed him from the Presence of Athaliah, so that she did not kill him.

12. And he was with them in the House of God hid six Years, while Athaliah reigned over the Country.

C H A P. XXIII.

AND in the seventh Year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the Captains of Hundreds, Azariah the Son of Jeroham, Ishmael the Son of Jehohanan, Azariah the Son of Obed, Maaseiah the Son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the Son of Zichri, into Covenant with him.

2. Who went round about in Judah, and gathered together the Levites out of all the Cities of Judah, with the chief of the Fathers of Israel; and they came to Jerusalem.

3. Then all the Congregation made a Covenant with the King at the House of God, and he said to them; Behold the King's Son shall reign, as the Lord spoke concerning the Sons of David.

4. This is the Thing that you shall do; A third Part of you who come in on the Sabbath of the Priests and Levites, shall be Porters at the Doors,

5. Another shall be at the King's House, and the other at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the People in the Courts of the Lord's House.

6. But let none enter into the House of the Lord, excepting the Priests, and those who minister of the Levites, who may go in, because they are holy; however all the People shall keep the Charge of the Lord.

7. The Levites shall also compass the King round, with their respective Weapons in their Hands; and let him who enters into the House be killed: thus be you with the King, both when he comes in and goes out.

8. And the Levites and all Judah did entirely as Jehoiada the Priest commanded, taking their several Men who entered in on the Sabbath, with those that went out on it: for he did not send away the Partitions.

9. Besides he gave to the Captains of Hundreds, the Spears, Bucklers, and Shields which were King David's, that were at the House of God.

10. And he made all the People stand, each having his Dart in his Hand, from the right Side of the House to the left Side of it, at the Altar, and at the House, by the King round about.

11. They next brought forth the King's Son, and put the Crown on him, with the Testimony, and made him King; whom Jehoiada and his Sons anointed, and they said, Let the King live.

12. Now when Athaliah heard the Noise of the People, running, and praising the King, she came to them at the House of the Lord.

13. And looking, behold the King stood by his Pillar, at the Entrance, attended by the Princes and Trumpeters; while all the People of the Country rejoiced, and blew Trumpets, there were also Singers with Instruments of Musick, and such as informed how to praise: upon which she tore her Cloaths, and said, Conspiracy, conspiracy;

14. But Jehoiada the Priest brought forth the Captains of Hundreds, the Officers of the Army, saying to them, Have her out to the Inside of the Ranks, and let him who comes after her be killed with the Sword: for the Priest said, Ye shall not kill her at the House of the Lord.

Ver. 9. in Samaria] See the Note on 2 King. ix. 27.
Ib. buried] that is permitted his own Servants to carry him home, and bury him, 2 King. ix. 28.

Ib. Power for the Kingdom] which being exactly to the Heb. does not admit of being turned as in the com. Transf. and there is Nothing for still.

Ver. 10. House] See 2 King. xi. 10, 11.

Ver. 12. at the House] for doubtless she did not go beyond the King, Ver. 13. besides that only the Priests and Levites went in, Ver. 6, 7. Ch. xxvii. 2. Luke i. 10. See on Mat. xxi. 12.

Ver. 14. brought forth] by a little Variation in the Heb. Word from that in 2 King. xi. 15.

15. Accordingly they laid Hands on her, as she went in the Entrance of the Gate of the Horses at the King's House; and they killed her there.

16. Afterwards Jehoiada made a Covenant between him, and all the People and the King, that they should be the People of the Lord.

17. Whereupon all the People went into the House of Baal, and broke it down: his Altars and Images did they break, and slew Mattan the Priest of Baal before the Altars.

18. Jehoiada too put the Offices of the House of the Lord into the Custody of the Priests, the Levites, whom David distributed in the Lord's House, to offer up the Burnt-offerings of the Lord; as it is written in the Law of Moses, with Rejoicing and Singing, by the Direction of David.

19. And he made the Porters stand at the Gates of the Lord's House, that none might come in who was unclean in any Thing.

20. Lastly he took the Captains of Hundreds, the Nobles, Governors of the People, and all the People of the Country, who brought the King down from the House of the Lord, and went through the upper Gate to the King's House; where they made the King sit upon the Throne of the Kingdom.

21. And all the People of the Country were glad, and the City was still, when they had killed Athaliah with the Sword.

C H A P. XXIV.

JOASH was in his seventh Year when he began reigning, and reigned forty Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Zibia of Beer-sheba.

2. And he did what the Lord approved of, all the Time of Jehoiada the Priest.

3. Jehoiada also took for him two Wives, and he begot Sons and Daughters.

4. After which it was in the Mind of Joash to repair the House of the Lord.

5. So gathering together the Priests and Levites, he said to them, Go out to the Cities of Judah, and gather Money of all Israel, to mend the House of your God Year by Year, and do ye make haste in the Matter; but the Levites did not make haste.

6. Then the King called Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, Why hast not thou required of the Levites, to bring from Judah and Jerusalem, the Collection of Moses the Servant of the Lord, and the Congregation of Israel, for the Tent of Witness?

7. For wicked Athaliah's Sons had broke open the House of God, and also made ready all the consecrated Things of the Lord's House for Baalim.

8. And the King ordering, they made a Chest, and put it at the Gate of the Lord's House without.

9. Besides they made proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, that Men should bring to the Lord the Collection of Moses the Servant of God, for Israel in the Wilderness.

10. Upon which all the Princes and People were glad, and brought, and cast into the Chest, till they had finished.

11. And at the Time the Chest was brought into the King's Office by the Hands of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much Money, the King's Scribe, and the Officer of the high Priest came, and emptied the Chest, then took it, and carried it back to its Place: thus they did Day by Day, and gathered Money abundantly.

12. Which the King and Jehoiada gave to those who did the Work of the Service of the Lord's House, and hired Masons and Carpenters, to repair the House of the Lord, and also to such as contrived with Iron and Brass, to mend it.

13. So the Doers of the Work wrought, and the Work was made up firm by their Hands: for they made the House of God stand in its Form, and strengthened it.

14. And when they had done, they brought the Residue of the Money before the King and Jehoiada, and it was made into Instruments for the House of the Lord, Instruments of ministring and offering up, with Spoons, and Instruments of Gold and Silver: and they were offering up Burnt-offerings in the House of the Lord continually, all the Time of Jehoiada.

15. But Jehoiada was old, and being full of Days died, when he was in his hundred and thirtieth Year.

16. And they buried him in the City of David with the Kings, because he had done well in Israel, both with God and his Family.

17. Now after the Death of Jehoiada, the Princes of Judah came, and bowed down to the King; who then hearkened to them.

18. And they forsook the House of the

Ver. 16. him] the Lord, 2 King. xi. 17. referring to Ver. 14. or after in this.

Ver. 18. Direction] Heb. Hands: this our Translators left out, and added in as it was ordained; when if they had not done the former, they need not have done the latter.

Ver. 5. your] Vulg. Lat. our.

Ver. 15. Year] so that he was born about the Time of dividing the two Kingdoms, 2 King. xii. 6, 7.

Lord God of their Fathers, serving Groves and Images; so that there was Fury against Judah and Jerusalem, for this their Guilt.

19. Yet he sent Prophets among them, to bring them back to the Lord; who testified against them, but they would not give ear.

20. In particular the Spirit of God cloathed Zechariah the Son of Jehoiada the Priest, who stood up above the People, and declared to them; Thus says God, Why do ye transgress the Commandments of the Lord, so that ye do not prosper? Because ye forsook the Lord, he has also forsaken you.

21. But they conspired against him, and stoned him with Stones, at the Commandment of the King, in the Court of the Lord's House.

22. Thus King Joash remembered not the Kindness that his Father Jehoiada did to him, but slew his Son; who when he died said, The Lord see, and require.

23. And at the Revolution of the Year the Syrian Army came up against him, and coming to Judah and Jerusalem, they destroyed all the Princes of the People from them, all the Spoil of whom they sent to the King of Damascus.

24. Though the Syrian Army came with few Men, yet the Lord delivered into their Power an Army of exceeding many, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their Fathers; and those executed Judgments on Joash.

25. When they were also gone from him (for they left him in great Diseases) his Servants conspired against him, for the Blood of the Sons of Jehoiada the Priest, and slaying him upon his Bed, he died; and they buried him in the City of David, but did not bury him in the Graves of the Kings.

26. Even these conspired against him, Zabad the Son of Shimath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the Son of Shimrith a Moabitess.

27. Concerning his Sons, and the Greatness of the Burden upon him, and the Foundation of the House of God, behold the Things are written in the History of the Book of the Kings: and Amaziah his Son reigned in his room.

AMAZIAH began reigning in his twenty fifth Year, and reigned twenty nine Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2. And he did what the Lord approved of, only not with a perfect Heart.

3. And as soon as the Kingdom was confirmed to him, he killed his Servants that had slain the King his Father.

4. However he did not put their Children to death; but as it is written in the Law of the Book of Moses, wherein the Lord thus commanded, Fathers shall not be put to death for the Children, nor shall Children for the Fathers, for they shall die each for his own Sin.

5. Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and appointed according to the Family of the Fathers, Captains of Thousands, and Captains of Hundreds, for all Judah and Benjamin; and mustering them from their twentieth Year upward, he found them three hundred thousand chosen Men to go out to War, who could handle Spear and Shield.

6. He further hired from Israel a hundred thousand stout Men, for a hundred Talents of Silver.

7. But a Man of God came to him with this Message; O King, let not the Army of Israel come with thee: for the Lord is not with Israel, even all the Ephraimites.

8. Yet do thou come, act, be strong for the War: God can make thee fall before the Enemy, for there is Power in God, both to help, and cause to fall.

9. And upon Amaziah's saying to the Man of God, But what is to be done for the hundred Talents which I have given for the Troop of Israel? he answered, The Lord can give thee much more than this.

10. Then Amaziah separated them, namely the Body of Troops that was come to him from Ephraim, to go to their Place: therefore were they exceeding angry with Judah, and returned to their Place in the Heat of Anger.

11. However Amaziah strengthened himself, and leading his People, went to the Valley of Salt, and slew ten thousand Men of Seir.

Ver. 26. Zabad] This appears to be a Contraction of Jozachar, 2 King. xii. 21. as Shemir there is of Shimrith here, being the same Letters in Heb. so far; and the last Letters of the former י and ר seem through their Likeness altered one into the other.

Ver. 27. the Things] For what are [they?] not his sons are written surely.

Ver. 5. three hundred thousand] In the vulg. Lat. but thirty thousand.

Ver. 8. do thou come] go on in the War without the Israelites: the Verb being imperative, and עלך usually signifying only yet or but. So Jun. and Trem. have sed with an imperative Verb; as likewise Castal. followed them with alioquin, otherwise God will.

12. And ten thousand who were living the Men of Judah carried away, and bringing them to the Top of a Rock, threw them from thence, and all of them were burst asunder.

13. But the Men of the Troop whom Amaziah made return from going with him to the Battle, fell on the Cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-horon, and slew of them three thousand, taking much Spoil.

14. And after Amaziah came from slaying the Edomites, having brought the gods of the Men of Seir, he set them up for his own gods, bowed down before them, and burnt incense to them.

15. At which incensed with Amaziah, the Lord sent to him a Prophet, who said to him, Why dost thou seek to the gods of the People, that could not deliver their own People from thy Power?

16. To whom the other said, while he was speaking to him, Art thou made a Counsellor to the King? Forbear, why wouldest thou be slain? So the Prophet forbore, but said, I know that God has purposed to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and not hearkened to my Counsel.

17. Next Amaziah King of Judah took counsel, and sent Word to Joash, the Son of Jehoahaz, the Son of Jehu, King of Israel, Come, let us look one another in the Face.

18. But he sent Word to Amaziah King of Judah; A Bramble which was in Lebanon sent to treat thus with a Cedar that was there, Give thy Daughter to my Son for a Wife; whereas a wild Beast that was in Lebanon went by, and trod down the Bramble.

19. Thou sayest, behold thou hast beat Edom, and thy Heart lifts thee up to glory: abide now at Home; why wilt thou make war for Hurt, that thou thy self mayest fall, and Judah with thee?

20. Yet Amaziah would not hearken; for it was of God, that he might deliver them into the other's Power, because they fought to the gods of Edom.

21. So Joash King of Israel went up, and they looked one another in the Face, he and Amaziah King of Judah, at Beth-shemesh which belonged to Judah.

22. And Judah was beat before Israel, so that they fled to their several Tents.

23. Amaziah also King of Judah, the Son of Joash, the Son of Jehoahaz, did Joash King of Israel take at Beth-shemesh; and brought him to Jerusalem, breaking down the Wall of it, from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner-gate, four hundred Cubits.

24. Besides he took away all the Gold, the Silver, and all the Instruments that were found in the House of God with Obed-edom, and the Treasures of the King's House, as also Sons for Hostages; and returned to Samaria.

25. And Amaziah the Son of Joash King of Judah, lived after the Death of Joash the Son of Jehoahaz King of Israel, fifteen Years.

26. As to the rest of Amaziah's Affairs, the former and latter, behold are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

27. And from the Time that Amaziah turned aside from after the Lord, the People made a Conspiracy against him at Jerusalem, upon which he fled to Lachish; whither they sent after him, and killed him there.

28. They nevertheless carried him upon Horses, and buried him with his Fathers in the Metropolis of Judah.

C H A P. XXVI.

AT length all the People of Judah took Uzziah, when he was in his sixteenth Year, and made him King in the room of his Father Amaziah.

2. He built Eloth, which he recovered to Judah, after the King was laid down with his Fathers.

3. Uzziah was in his sixteenth Year when he began reigning, and reigned fifty two Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

Ver. 13. flew of them] So is the Meaning and Order of the Heb. Words: for, as Poole observes, they did not smite 3000 Cities.

Ver. 19. Heart lifts thee up] Archytas in a Treatise concerning a good and happy Man has these Words at the End, "Ὡς περ τὸ λαμπρὸν φᾶθ' μαρτυρίαν περὶ τῆς ἐφ' ὁρατικῆς ἵτι καὶ ἡ ὑπερβαλλούσα εὐτυχία τῇ τῶν τὰς ψυχῶν. As too much Light hurts the Eyes, so does too much Prosperity the Mind.

Ver. 20. of God] Thus Homer says of Patroclus, in Pope's Trans.

*For he, the God, whose Counsels uncontroll'd
Dismay the mighty, and confound the bold:
The God who gives, resumes, and orders all,
He urg'd thee on, and urg'd thee on to fall.*

Ver. 23. Jehoahaz] As Amaziah's Grandfather was also called, Chap. xxi. 17. & xxii. 1. I suppose before he reigned; and his Grandson being now reduced, he is called so again.

Ver. 1. AT length] not then at his Father's Death, but 12 Years after; it being so long from the 15th Year of Jeroboam the Son of Joash King of Israel, when Amaziah died, Chap. xxv. 25. 2 King. xiv. 17. to Jeroboam's 27th Year, when this Uzziah, otherwise called Azariah, began reigning, 2 King. xv. 1. see the Tab. of Chronol.

1b. when] see 2 King. xiv. 21.

Ver. 2. Eloth] or the Parts of Elath, 2 King. xiv. 22. & xvi. 6. as it may signify.

4. And

4. And he did what the Lord approved of, entirely as Amaziah his Father had done:

5. For he sought God in the Time of Zachariah, who had understanding in the Visions of God; and in the Time of his seeking the Lord, God made him prosper.

6. So that he went forth, and fighting against the Philistines, broke down the Wall of Gath, with those of Jabneh and Ashdod; as also built Cities by Ashdod, and the Philistines.

7. And God not only helped him against the Philistines, but against the Arabians who dwelt at Gur-baal, and the Meunites.

8. Nay the Ammonites gave Presents to Uzziab; and his Renown went to the Entrance of Egypt, for he became exceeding strong.

9. Moreover Uzziab built Towers in Jerusalem, at the Corner-gate, at the Valley-gate, and at the Angle; and made them strong.

10. He likewise built Towers in the Wilderness, and dug many Wells, for he had many Cattle, both in the Vale and the Plain; Husbandmen and Vine-dressers, on the Mountains and in Carmel, for he was a Lover of Husbandry.

11. Uzziab too had an Army making war, that went out to Battle in Troops, by the Number of their Muster, made by Jeiel the Scribe and Maaseiah the Officer, at the Direction of Hanani one of the King's Princes.

12. The whole Number of the chief of the Fathers of the valiant Men, was two thousand and six hundred.

13. In whose Management was an Army for Battle, of three hundred and seven thousand and five hundred, making war with the Power of an Army; to help the King against the Enemy.

14. And Uzziab prepared for those of the whole Host, Shields, Spears, Helmets, Corsets, Bows, and Slings for Stones.

15. Besides he made at Jerusalem Inventions by the Artificers Contrivance, to be upon the Towers and Corners, to shoot Arrows and great Stones with: thus his Renown went out far off, for he was wonderfully helped, until he was strong.

16. But when he was strong, his Heart was haughty to Destruction, and he did amiss against the Lord his God; going into the Temple of the Lord, to burn incense upon the Incense-altar.

17. However Azariah the Priest went in after him, with whom were eighty of the Lord's Priests, Men of Valour.

18. And they withstood King Uzziab, saying to him, It does not belong to thee, Uzziab, to burn incense to the Lord; but to the Priests the Sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to do it: go out of the Sanctuary, for thou hast done amiss, and it is not for thy Honour from the Lord God.

19. Upon this Uzziab was in Indignation; having a Censer in his Hand to burn incense, and while he was in Indignation with the Priests, the Leprosy rose in his Forehead, before them in the House of the Lord; from off the Incense-altar.

20. And Azariah the high Priest, with all the others looking at him, behold he was leprous in his Forehead, so they hurried him from thence; nay he was even driven on to go out, because the Lord had smitten him.

21. Thus was King Uzziab leprous to the Day of his Death, and dwelt leprous at a separate House, because he was cut off from the House of the Lord; and Jotham his Son was over the King's House, judging the People of the Country.

22. Now the rest of Uzziab's Affairs, the former and latter, Isaiah, the Son of Amoz, the Prophet wrote.

23. And Uzziab lay down with his Fathers, they burying him with them in the burying Field which belonged to the Kings, though they said, He is leprous; and Jotham his Son reigned in his room.

C H A P. XXVII.

JOTHAM was in his twenty fifth Year when he began reigning, and reigned sixteen Years in Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Jerusha the Daughter of Zadok.

2. And he did what the Lord approved of, entirely as Uzziab his Father had done, only he went not into the Temple of the Lord; however the People still did corruptly.

3. He built the highest Gate of the Lord's

Ver. 7. Meunites] called Maunites, Judg. x. 12. here being no more an b than there.

Ver. 19. Leprosy] It may seem as if Uzziab was inclined to unite the Priestly Office to the Kingly, as was anciently done, when he was in his 60th Year, the Time of Entrance into old Age, Lev. xxvii. 3, 7. as this is also represented to be several Years before his Death, Ver. 16, 21. 2 King. xv. 5. and on the other hand Jotham would not be fit to judge the People before he was in his 17th Year, which he then was: I cannot see where to set it in the Table with greater Probability.

Ver. 23. though] as Gen. viii. 21. of this Transf. where look, and compare it with this.

Ver. 2. not into] as Uzziab did, Ch. xxvi. 16. The connective Particle properly signifies only, and does not well bear an Adversative, especially with a great Point; howbeit, as Jehoi. in his Dict. has, being also not now in use.

House, and on the Wall of the Ascent he built abundantly.

4. Cities did he likewise build on the Mountains of Judah, as he did in the Woods, Palaces and Towers.

5. Besides he fought with the King of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them; so that the Ammonites gave him the same Year a hundred Talents of Silver, ten thousand Cors of Wheat, and so many of Barley: this the Ammonites rendered to him both the second Year and the third.

6. So Jotham became strong, because he prepared his Ways before the Lord his God.

7. As for the rest of Jotham's Affairs, all his Wars and his Ways, behold they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

8. He was in his twenty fifth Year when he began reigning, and reigned sixteen Years at Jerusalem.

9. And Jotham lay down with his Fathers, they burying him in the City of David; and Ahaz his Son reigned in his room.

C H A P. XXVIII.

AH A Z was in his twentieth Year when he began reigning, and reigned sixteen Years at Jerusalem; but did not what the Lord approved of, like his Father David.

2. For he went in the Ways of the Kings of Israel; and also made molten Images for Baalim.

3. He burnt incense too in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burnt his Sons in the Fire; according to the abominable Things of the Nations, that the Lord expelled from the Presence of the Israelites.

4. Besides he sacrificed, and burnt incense, in the Chapels, upon the Hills, and under every green Tree.

5. Then the Lord his God delivered him into the Power of the King of Syria, so that they beat him, and carried away a great many of them prisoners, and brought to Damascus; and he was also delivered into the Power of the King of Israel, who smote him with a great Slaughter.

6. For Pekah the Son of Remaliah slew in Judah, a hundred and twenty thousand in one Day, all Men of Valour; for their forsaking the Lord God of their Fathers.

7. And Zichri a powerful Man of Ephraim slew Maaseiah the King's Son, Azrikam the Ruler of the House, and Elkanah the next to the King.

8. The Israelites also carried away of their Brethren two hundred thousand Women, Sons and Daughters, and likewise took much Spoil from them, which they brought to Samaria.

9. But a Prophet of the Lord was there, his Name being Oded, and he went out before the Army that came to Samaria, saying to them; Behold for the Wrath of the Lord God of your Fathers against Judah, he has delivered them into your Power, and ye have slain them with Indignation reaching to Heaven.

10. And now ye think to bring the People of Judah and Jerusalem into subjection, for Servant-men and Maids to you: are there not however with you your selves guilty Things against the Lord your God?

11. Now therefore hearken, and restore the Prisoners that ye have carried away of your Brethren: for the fervent Anger of the Lord is upon you.

12. Nay there rose up Men of the chief of the Ephraimites, Azariah the Son of Jeho-

Ver. 5. prevailed against them] Since the Reason of their paying Tribute but three Years, seems to be the Invasion of Judah by Syria and Israel, 2 King. xv. 37. and that about the Year before Jotham's Death, who died in his 16th by the 1st Tab. of the Reigns, consequently this falls about the 12th.

Ver. 3. his Sons] viz. one of them, 2 King. xvi. 3. so Chap. xxxiii. 6. compared with 2 King. xxi. 6.

Ver. 5. and he was also] Usher, with Prideaux his implicit Follower, states this War, that the Syrians and Israelites first combined their Forces, and besieged Jerusalem ineffectually; but the next Year returned, and beat Ahaz with separate Armies, according to Prideaux with threes, and this, says Usher, they could not do being joined before. Which is something strange, and if I may be allowed to reconsider it after such great Authority, I should think the two Kingdoms invaded Judah in different Places, agreeable to this Verse, that Rezin took other Cities, as Sennacherib afterwards went on to do, Ch. xxxii. 1. 2 King. xviii. 13. and Ahaz going with his Army against Pekah, was defeated, Ver. 6. and that then he shut himself up in Jerusalem, which they besieged, 2 King. xvi. 5. Isa. vii. 1. but not took, as Prideaux adds. I would subjoin a Conjecture, as most probable, that Zichri, who might be the Son of Tabeal, Isa. vii. 6. made an Insurrection in the City while Ahaz was gone out, and did what is told in the 7th Ver. the Persons slain being likely such as the King left at Home. As to the Time and Continuance of this War, the Conquest of Israel by the King of Assyria being in the 20th Year of Hoshea's and 4th of Aza's Reign, his Conquest of Syria the Year before, and the Siege of Jerusalem in the Year before that, with the 1st Year of Ahaz and last of Jotham coincident, which for Perspicuity see in the large Table; there is to be considered, whether it more probably began in the Year last mentioned, or the foregoing. Consequent upon Ahaz's reigning wickedly, God delivered him into the Power of the Kings of Syria and Israel, 2 Chr. xxviii. 2, 3, 4, 5. therefore he had first a sufficient Time of Probation, which is not to be supposed very short; and Micah, who prophesied before Jotham died, Mic. i. 1. speaking of Israel rising up lately (not now or just then) against Judah, Ch. ii. 8. both these, and this antecedent to the other, seem to extend the Time further back than that Year in which Jotham died, though it might be less than a Year before; and the Kingdom being strong under him, might repel their Enemies a while.

hanan, Berechiah the Son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the Son of Shallum, and Amasa the Son of Hadlai, against those who came from the War,

13. And said to them, Ye shall not bring the Prisoners hither: for ye intend it for Guilt against the Lord upon us, to add to our Sin and Guilt; when we have much Guilt, and there is fervent Anger upon Israel.

14. So the armed Men left the Prisoners and the Prey, before the Princes and the whole Congregation.

15. And the Men who were mentioned by Name got ready, and taking hold of the Prisoners, cloathed all that were naked of them with the Spoil, nay not only cloathed them, and shod them, as also made them eat and drink, but anointed them, and carried all those who were feeble on Asses, bringing them to Jericho the City of Palm-trees by their Brethren; then they returned to Samaria.

16. At that Time King Ahaz sent to the Kings of Assyria to help him.

17. For the Edomites had come again, beat Judah, and carried away some Prisoners.

18. The Philistines further invaded the Cities of the Vale, and the South of Judah, and had taken Beth-she mesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, and Shochu with its Towns, as likewise Timnah and Gimzo with theirs; and they dwelt there.

19. For the Lord brought down Judah, by reason of Ahaz King of Israel, because he made Judah naked, and did what was amiss against the Lord.

20. And when Tilgath-pilnezer King of Assyria came to him, he distressed him, and did not strengthen him.

21. For though Ahaz took the Share of the Lord's House, and of that of the King and Princes, and gave to the King of Assyria, he was not a Help to him.

22. And in the Time of his being distressed, he even did more amiss against the Lord; that was King Ahaz.

23. For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus that beat him, saying, Because those gods of the Kings of Syria help them, I will sacrifice to them, that they may help me: whereas they caused him to fall, and all Israel.

24. Moreover Ahaz gathered the Instruments of the House of God, and cut them asunder, and shutting up the Doors of the Lord's House, he made him Altars in every Corner at Jerusalem.

25. At every particular City likewise of Judah he made Chapels, to burn incense to other gods, provoking the Lord God of his Fathers.

26. As for the rest of his Affairs; and all his Ways, the former and latter, behold they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

27. And Ahaz lay down with his Fathers, and they buried him at the City of Jerusalem, but did not bring him to the Graves of the Kings of Israel; and Hezekiah his Son reigned in his room.

CHAP. XXIX.

HEZEKIAH began reigning in the twenty fifth Year, and reigned twenty nine Years at Jerusalem; whose Mother's Name was Abijah, the Daughter of Zechariah.

2. And he did what the Lord approved of, entirely as his Father David had done.

3. He, in the first Year of his Reign, in the first Month, opened the Doors of the Lord's House, and mended them.

4. Besides he brought the Priests and Levites, gathering them together at the east Street,

5. And said to them: Hear me, you Levites, now consecrate your selves, and consecrate the House of the Lord God of your Fathers, carrying what is separate out of the holy Place.

6. For our Fathers did amiss, doing what the Lord our God was displeased with, and forsook him; they even turned about their Face from the Habitation of the Lord, putting the Back.

Ver. 19. King of Israel] as Jehoshaphat is also called, Ch. xxi. 2. with respect to Jacob named Israel, which might be surely as well as to Judah his Son; besides there being now no King in the particular Kingdom of Israel, as shewn by the Chronology of the Kings, they might put themselves under the Protection of Ahaz, or he assume Authority over them; so that the Sept. and Vulg. having Juda is not to be regarded.

Ver. 20. distressed] which he might do by receiving the following Present of Ahaz, without helping him.

Ver. 21. not a Help] not assisting Ahaz, as he required and expected; though he fell upon his Enemies the Syrians, and conquered them, 2 King. xvi. 9.

Ver. 1. in the twenty fifth Year] of his Grandfather Jotham's beginning to repair the Temple of the Lord, 2 King. xv. 35. 2 Chron. xxvii. 3. according to Bedford, Scrip. Chron. B. 6. 2, 117. which Hezekiah went on with in the first Year of his Reign, as appears two Verses further. The Reader may find several other such particular Kinds of Reckoning in those Times. If it be taken for Hezekiah's Age, his Father would be 30 Years old when he was born, 2 King. xvi. 2. 2 Chron. xxviii. 1. Some Annotators have supposed it was so, even Usher and Lightfoot reckon him but 21; and Sanctius brings an Instance of a noble Youth in Spain, who had a Child by his Nurse about that Age: but as that was both a Time and Country for false Miracles, and as the Nurse might probably want a rich Husband, or at least a Father to her Child, I think the Story is not entitled to much Credit.

Ver. 4. at the east Street] The Entrance into the Temple being at that Side.

7. They further shut up the Doors of the Porch, put out the Lamps, did not burn incense, nor offer up Burnt-offerings in the holy Place, to the God of Israel.

8. Therefore was the Fury of the Lord upon Judah and Jerusalem; so that he delivered them to Disturbance, Astonishment and Hissing, as you see with your Eyes.

9. For behold our Fathers are fallen by the Sword, and our Sons, Daughters and Wives, have been in Captivity for this.

10. Now it is in my Heart to make a Covenant with the Lord God of Israel, that his fervent Anger may turn away from us.

11. My Sons, now be not erroneous: for the Lord has chosen you to stand before him, to wait on him, that ye may minister to him, and burn incense.

12. Then the Levites got ready, Mahath the Son of Amasai, and Joel the Son of Azariah, of the Sons of the Kohathites; and of the Sons of Merari, Kish the Son of Abdi, and Azariah the Son of Jehalelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the Son of Zimnah, and Eden the Son of Joah;

13. And of the Sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; and of the Sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

14. And of the Sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the Sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15. Who gathered together their Brethren, and consecrating themselves, came according to the Commandment of the King, by the Words of the Lord, to cleanse the Lord's House.

16. So the Priests went in within the House of the Lord, to cleanse it, and brought out all the Uncleaness which they found in the Temple of the Lord, into the Court of the Lord's House; and the Levites took it, to carry out abroad to the Brook Kidron.

17. And they began on the first of the first Month to consecrate, and on the eighth Day of the Month came to the Porch of the Lord, thus they consecrated the House of the Lord in eight Days; on the sixteenth Day also of the first Month they made an end.

18. Next they went in within to King Hezekiah, and said; We have cleansed the whole House of the Lord, the Altar of Burnt-offering with all its Instruments, and the Table set in order with all the Instruments of that.

19. All the Instruments too, which King Ahaz in his Reign threw away in his doing amiss, have we prepared, and consecrated; and behold they are before the Lord's Altar.

20. Upon which King Hezekiah rose early, and gathering together the Princes of the City, went up to the House of the Lord.

21. And they brought seven Steers, with the same Number of Rams, as likewise of Lambs, and of He-goats, for a Sin-offering, for the Kingdom, the Sanctuary and Judah; which he ordered the Sons of Aaron the Priests, to offer up on the Lord's Altar.

22. Accordingly they killed the Bullocks, and the Priests took the Blood, and sprinkled on the Altar; they also killed the Rams, and sprinkled the Blood on the Altar, as they did likewise the Lambs, sprinkling it there.

23. They brought nigh the Goats too of the Sin-offering before the King and Congregation, and they leaned their Hands upon them.

24. Afterwards the Priests killed them, and offered their Blood for Sin on the Altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the King ordered the Burnt-offering and Sin-offering should be for all Israel.

25. And he set the Levites in the House of the Lord with Cymbals, Lutes and Harps, by the Commandment of David, of Gad the King's Seer, and the Prophet Nathan; for by the Hand of the Lord was the Commandment by the Ministry of his Prophets.

26. Thus the Levites stood with the Instruments of David, and the Priests with Trumpets.

27. And Hezekiah ordered to offer up the Burnt-offering upon the Altar; and at the Time the Burnt-offering began, the Lord's Poem was begun, with the Trumpets, and the Instruments of David King of Israel that were in Hand.

28. The whole Congregation also worshipped, the Singers sung, and the Priests blew the Trumpets; all being till the Burnt-offering was finished.

29. And when they had made an end of offering up, the King and all who were present with him fell down, and worshipped.

30. Moreover King Hezekiah and the Princes ordered the Levites, to praise the Lord with the Words of David and Asaph the Seer; and they praised even gladly, as also bowed, and worshipped.

31. Then Hezekiah made answer, Now ye have filled your Hands for the Lord,

Ver. 9. have been] Chap. xxviii. 8, 15. and such as were carried away by the Syrians, Chap. xxviii. 5. probably returned at the Overthrow of the Syrians by the Ally of Judah, 2 King. xvi. 7, 8, 9. So the Lat. Translations have it in the preterperfect Tense.

Ver. 27. in Hand] as the Heb. may literally be, and it is certain the Instruments of David King of Israel stand together so; and thus it affords good Sense.

come nigh, and bring the Sacrifices and Thank-offerings to the House of the Lord. The Congregation accordingly brought Sacrifices and Thank-offerings, and all who were of a free Heart Burnt-offerings.

32. Now the Number of the Burnt-offerings which the Congregation brought, was seventy Bullocks, a hundred Rams, two hundred Lambs: all these were for Burnt-offering to the Lord.

33. And those that were consecrated were, six hundred Oxen, and three thousand Sheep.

34. However as the Priests were so few, that they could not strip all the Burnt-offerings, their Brethren the Levites strengthened them, till the Work was finished, and till other Priests had consecrated themselves; for the Levites were more upright of Heart to consecrate themselves, than the Priests.

35. And there was also Burnt-offering abundantly, among the Fat of the Peace-offerings, and among the Drink-offerings belonging to the Burnt-offering. Thus was the Service of the Lord's House prepared.

36. Inasmuch that Hezekiah was glad, with all the People, at God's preparing the People: for the Matter was on a sudden.

CHAP. XXX.

MOREOVER Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote Letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the House of the Lord at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the Lord God of Israel:

2. The King, his Princes, and all the Congregation at Jerusalem, having consulted to keep the Passover in the second Month.

3. For they could not keep it at that Time, because the Priests had not consecrated themselves sufficiently, nor were the People gathered to Jerusalem.

4. Which Matter the King approved of, as did the whole Congregation.

5. They therefore appointed the Matter, to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it as it is written a great while.

6. So the Posts went with Letters, from the Hand of the King and his Princes, through all Israel and Judah, and according to the King's Commandment, as follow;

O Israelites, return to the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel: so will he return to the Remnant of you who are left out of the Power of the Kings of Assyria.

7. And be not like your Fathers and Brethren, who did amiss against the Lord God of their Fathers; and he delivered them to Desolation, as you see.

8. Now do not make your Necks stiff, like your Fathers: give the Hand for the Lord, and go into his Sanctuary which he has consecrated for ever, and serve the Lord your God, that his fervent Anger may turn away from you.

9. For when ye return to the Lord, your Brethren and Children will have compassion before those who have taken them prisoners, even to return to this Country: for the Lord your God is gracious and compassionate, and will not turn aside the Face from you, if ye return to him.

10. Thus the Posts passed from City to City, through the Country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun; but they laughed at them, and made a scoff of them.

11. Yet some Men of Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun, were humbled, and came to Jerusalem.

12. In Judah also there was the Hand of God, to give them one Heart, to do the Commandment of the King and Princes, by the Word of the Lord.

13. And many People were gathered to Jerusalem, to keep the Feast of unleavened Cakes in the second Month, a Congregation in great Abundance.

14. Who got ready, and took away the Altars that were at Jerusalem; and taking away all the Incense-altars, threw them into the Brook Kidron.

15. Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth of the second Month, and the Priests and Levites being ashamed, consecrated themselves, and brought the Burnt-offerings to the House of the Lord.

16. And standing in their Station after their Manner, according to the Law of Moses the Man of God, the Priests sprinkled the Blood from the Hand of the Levites.

17. Since there were many in the Congregation who did not consecrate themselves, therefore the Levites were for the killing of the Passover for all that were not clean, to consecrate to the Lord.

18. For a Multitude of the People, many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Ze-

Ver. 8. give the Hand] So the Heb. as also in Lam. v. 6. Ezr. x. 9. which Jua. and Trem. expound to pray; but I understand to make an Engagement, and here especially it might be by signing it with the Hand; see also Prov. vi. 1.

Ver. 9. have taken them prisoners] 2 King. xv. 29. this Message being to the Israelites, Ver. 1, 6. as before in Chap. xxix. 9. Hezekiah spoke to the Levites belonging to Judah, Ver. 5, 8.

bulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they eat the Passover not as it is written; but Hezekiah prayed thus for them, The good Lord make atonement for 19. Every one who prepares his Heart to seek God, the Lord God of his Fathers, though there is not like the Cleansing of the holy Place.

20. And the Lord hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the People.

21. So the Israelites who were present at Jerusalem, kept the Feast of unleavened Cakes seven Days with great Gladness; and the Levites and Priests praised the Lord Day by Day, with strong Instruments to the Lord.

22. And Hezekiah spoke kindly to all the Levites, who taught the good Understanding of the Lord; and they did eat at the appointed Time seven Days, sacrificing Sacrifices of Peace-offerings, and making confession to the Lord God of their Fathers.

23. Besides the whole Congregation took counsel to keep other seven Days, and they kept the seven Days with Gladness.

24. For Hezekiah King of Judah offered up for the Congregation, a thousand Bulls and seven thousand Sheep, and the Princes offered up for the Congregation, a thousand Bulls and ten thousand Sheep; the Priests consecrating themselves abundantly.

25. And the whole Congregation of Judah, with the Priests and Levites, and all the Congregation who came from Israel, nay the Sojourners who came from that Country, as well as they who dwelt in Judah, were glad.

26. Thus there was great Gladness at Jerusalem: for from the Time of Solomon the Son of David King of Israel, there was not like this at Jerusalem.

27. At length the Priests the Levites got ready, and blessed the People, so that their Voice was heard, and their Prayer came to his holy Habitation at Heaven.

C H A P. XXXI.

AND when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the Cities of Judah, broke the Statues, cut down the Groves, and broke down the Chapels and Altars, out of all Judah and Benjamin, and in Ephraim and Manassah, till they were consumed: then all the Israelites returned each to his Possession, at their Cities.

2. Hezekiah too appointed the Partitions of the Priests, and the Levites in their Partitions each according to his Service, the Priests and Levites for Burnt-offerings and Peace-offerings, to minister, make confession, and to praise, at the Gates of the Lord's Camps;

3. As also the King's Part out of his Substance for Burnt-offerings, for those of the Morning and Evening, and those for the Sabbaths, New-moons and appointed Times; as it is written in the Law of the Lord.

4. Moreover he ordered the People who dwelt at Jerusalem, to give the Part of the Priests and Levites; that they might be strengthened in the Law of the Lord.

5. And as soon as the Matter was made publick, the Israelites multiplied the First-fruits of Corn, Wine, and Oil, and Honey, with all the Crop of the Field; and the Tenth of all did they bring abundantly.

6. As for the People of Israel and Judah, who dwelt in the Cities of Judah, they also brought the Tenth of the Herds and Flocks, and that of the holy Things consecrated to the Lord their God, and put by Heaps.

7. In the third Month they began to lay the foundation of the Heaps, and finished in the seventh Month.

8. Then Hezekiah and the Princes came, and seeing them, they blessed the Lord and his People Israel.

9. And when he enquired of the Priests and Levites concerning the Heaps;

10. Azariah the chief Priest of the Family of Zadok said to him as follows, Since it was begun to bring the Offerings to the House of the Lord, there has been to eat, be satisfied, and leave even abundantly; for the Lord has blessed his People, and what is left is this Abundance.

11. Next Hezekiah ordered to prepare Rooms at the House of the Lord, which they did;

12. And brought in the Offerings, Tents, and consecrated Things faithfully: over whom Conaniah the Levite was Ruler, and his Brother Shimei the second.

13. And Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath and Benaiah, were Officers at the Hand of Conaniah, and his Brother Shimei; by the Command of Hezekiah the King, and Azariah the Ruler of the House of God.

14. Kore the Son of Imnah the Levite also was Porter at the East, over the Free-offerings of God, to give the Offerings of the Lord, and the very holy Things.

Ver. 1. consumed] utterly, them and all are added by King James's Translators.

Ver. 10. said to him as follows] Heb. said and said. Ib. to eat, &c.] three infinitive Verbs.

15. And at his Hand were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshuz, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shechaniah, in the Cities of the Priests faithfully, to give to their Brethren by Partitions, as well to the great as the small;

16. (Besides their Pedigree of Males from their third Year upward) to every one who went into the House of the Lord, each Day's Business the very same Day, for their Service in their Charges, after their Partitions:

17. Both the Pedigree of the Priests according to the Family of their Fathers, and the Levites from their twentieth Year upward, in their Charges, by their Partitions;

18. As likewise to the Pedigree of all their Children, Wives, Sons and Daughters, in the whole Congregation: for in their Faithfulness they consecrated themselves with Holiness.

19. To the Posterity of Aaron also the Priests, in the Fields of the Suburbs of their Cities, in every several City, the Men who were expressed by Name, were to give the Parts to all the Males among the Priests, and to all the Pedigree among the Levites.

20. And after this Manner Hezekiah did through all Judah, doing what was good, right and true, before the Lord his God.

21. Nay in every Work that he began in the Service of the House of God, and in the Law and Commandment, to seek his God; he did it with all his Heart, and prospered.

C H A P. XXXII.

AFTER these Things, and the Confirmation; Sennacherib King of Assyria came, and entering into Judah, encamped against the fortified Cities, and intended to break them open for himself.

2. But when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and his Face was for War against Jerusalem;

3. He took counsel with his Princes and powerful Men, to stop up the Water of the Fountains that were without the City; and they helped him.

4. And there were gathered together many People, who stopped up all the Fountains, and the Brook that overflowed in the midst of the Country, saying, Why should the Kings of Assyria come, and find much Water?

5. He also strengthened himself, built up all the Wall that was broke down, making it up to the Towers, and another Wall without, as also repaired the Fortrefs of the City of David, and made Darts abundantly, with Shields.

6. Moreover he put Captains of War over the People, and gathering them together to him at the Street of the Gate of the City, spoke kindly to them as follows;

7. Be courageous and stout, be not afraid, nor daunted because of the King of Assyria, nor by reason of all the Multitude that is with him: for there are more with us than with him.

8. With him is an Arm of Flesh, but with us is the Lord our God, to help us, and to fight our Battles. And the People relied upon the Words of Hezekiah King of Judah.

9. After this Sennacherib King of Assyria sent his Servants to Jerusalem (while he was against Lachish, and all those of his Dominion with him) to Hezekiah King of Judah, and to all Judah that were at Jerusalem, with this Message:

10. Thus says Sennacherib King of Assyria; Upon what do ye trust, that ye abide in the Siege at Jerusalem?

11. Does not Hezekiah persuade you to give up your selves to die, with Hunger and Thirst, by saying, The Lord our God will deliver us from the Power of the King of Assyria?

12. Has not the same Hezekiah taken away his Chapels and Altars, and ordered Judah and Jerusalem thus, Ye shall worship before one Altar, and burn incense upon it?

13. Do not ye know what I and my Fathers have done to all the People of the Countries? Were the gods of the Nations of the Countries at all able, to deliver their Country from my Power?

14. Who was there among all the gods of those Nations, which my Fathers utterly destroyed, that was able to deliver his People from my Power, that your God should be able to deliver you from it?

15. Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you after this Manner, neither do ye believe him; since there was no god of any Nation or Kingdom able to deliver his People from my Power, and that of my Fathers: much more will your God not deliver you from my Power.

16. Nay his Servants spoke more against the Lord God, and his Servant Hezekiah.

17. Besides he wrote Letters to reproach the Lord God of Israel, and to speak thus against him, As the gods of the Nations of the Countries that did not deliver their People from my Power, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver his People from it.

18. And they called aloud in the Tongue of Judah, to the People of Jerusalem who were upon the Wall, to make them afraid, and to trouble them; that they might take the City.

19. They also spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the People of the Earth, the Work of Men's Hands.

20. And for this King Hezekiah, and Isaiah the Son of Amoz the Prophet prayed, and cried to Heaven.

21. And the Lord sent an Angel, who cut off all the valiant Men, with the Rulers and Captains, in the Camp of the King of Assyria; so he returned with Shame of Face to his own Country, and going into the House of his god, those who proceeded forth from himself made him fall there by the Sword.

22. Thus the Lord saved Hezekiah, and the Inhabitants of Jerusalem, from the Power of Sennacherib King of Assyria, and from the Power of all, guiding them on every side.

23. Many then brought Presents to the Lord at Jerusalem, and precious Things to Hezekiah King of Judah; and he was advanced in the Sight of all the Nations after that.

24. In those Days was Hezekiah sick likely to die, and prayed to the Lord; who spoke to him, and gave him a Token.

25. But Hezekiah did not render according to the Benefit to him, for his Heart was exalted; whereby there was Wrath against him, as also against Judah and Jerusalem.

26. However he was humbled for the Loftiness of his Heart, together with the Inhabitants of Jerusalem; so that the Wrath of the Lord did not come upon them in his Time.

27. And Hezekiah had Riches and Honour exceeding much, and made him Treasuries for Silver, Gold, precious Stones, Spices, Shields, and all pleasant Things;

28. Store-houses likewise for the Crop of Corn, Wine and Oil; with Stalls for all manner of Beasts, and Herds at the Stalls.

29. He further prepared him Cities, and Possession of Flocks and Herds abundantly; for God gave him very much Substance.

30. And the same Hezekiah stopped up the uppermost Spring of the Water of Gihon, making it straight down to the West of the City of David; and he prospered in all his Work.

31. But so it was among the Interpreters of the Princes of Babylon, who sent to him to enquire of the Miracle which was in the Country, that God left him, to try him, that whatever was in his Heart might be known.

32. As for the rest of Hezekiah's Affairs, and his Generosity, behold they are written in the Vision of the Prophet Isaiah, the Son of Amoz, together with the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

33. And Hezekiah lay down with his Fathers, they burying him in the highest of the Sepulchres of David's Sons, nay all Judah and the Inhabitants of Jerusalem did him Honour at his Death; and Manasseh his Son reigned in his room.

C H A P. XXXIII.

MANASSEH was in his twelfth Year when he began reigning, and reigned fifty five Years at Jerusalem.

2. And he did what the Lord was displeased with; according to the abominable Things of the Nations, that the Lord expelled from the Presence of the Israelites.

3. For he built up again the Chapels which his Father Hezekiah had broke down, raised up Altars to Baalim, made Groves, worshipped all the Army of Heaven, and served them.

4. He also built Altars in the House of the Lord, of which the Lord said, My Name shall be in Jerusalem for ever.

5. And he built Altars to all the Army of Heaven, in the two Courts of the Lord's House.

6. Besides he made his Sons pass through the Fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, used Soothsaying, Divination and Witchcraft, and had to do with familiar Spirits and Sorcerers; doing what the Lord was much displeased with, to provoke him.

7. Nay he put a carved Image of an Idol that he made, in the House of God, of which God said to David and his Son Solomon; In this House and in Jerusalem, that I have chosen out of all the Tribes of Israel, will I put my Name for ever.

8. And I will not turn aside the Feet of

Ver. 25. against] upon does not seem well to consist with the latter Part of the ensuing Verse.

Ver. 28. Herds at the Stalls] or for the Stalls: which is the Order of the Heb. and literal Translation of it; as Montan. has it, greges ad stabula, and Pagnin. ordines gregum ad caulas, several Flocks at the Folds; Jun. and Trem. greges per stabula, Flocks throughout the Stalls.

Ver. 29. Cities] Com. Lat. sex Cities.

Ver. 31. Interpreters] as in Gen. xlii. 23. Job xxxiii. 23. not signifying Ambassadors.

Ib. of the Miracle] The Babylonians being noted for Astronomers.

Ib. might be known] See Deut. viii. 2.

Ver. 7. out of] not before; Jerusalem being not a Tribe, as that Sense would require. Thus the Vulgate, Pagn. and Mont. have de, Cass. ex; see Deut. xii. 14. with 1 King. viii. 16. & xi. 32. & xiv. 21. Deut. xii. 5. & Chap. xii. 13. of this Book, where the Preposition is the same.

Israel again, from the Country which I appointed for your Forefathers; only if they observe to do all that I have commanded them, according to all the Law, Ordinances and Rules, by the Ministry of Moses.

9. Thus Manasseh made Judah and the Inhabitants of Jerusalem err, to do worse than the Nations, that the Lord had destroyed from the Presence of the Israelites.

10. And the Lord spoke to Manasseh and his People, but they would not hearken.

11. Therefore the Lord brought against them the Princes of the Army who belonged to the King of Assyria, and they took Manasseh among the Thorns, and binding him with Chains, carried him away to Babylon.

12. However when he was distressed, he made supplication before the Lord his God, and was humbled exceedingly in the Presence of the God of his Fathers.

13. And upon his praying to him, he was intreated by him, and hearkening to his Petition, brought him back to Jerusalem into his Kingdom: so Manasseh knew that the Lord himself was God.

14. And after that he built a Wall without the City of David, at the West of Gihon in the Valley, even to the Entrance of the Fish-gate, and inclosed the Ascent, making it very high; as also put Captains of the Army at all the fortified Cities in Judah.

15. Moreover he took away the gods of the Strangers, and the Idol out of the House of the Lord, with all the Altars which he had built on the Mount of the Lord's House and in Jerusalem; and threw them without the City.

16. And he built up the Altar of the Lord, offering upon it Sacrifices of Peace-offerings and Thank-offering, and ordered Judah to serve the Lord God of Israel.

17. But the People sacrificed yet in the Chapels, only it was to the Lord their God.

18. As for the rest of Manasseh's Affairs, his Prayer to his God, and the Words of the Seers who spoke to him in the Name of the Lord God of Israel, behold they are in the Matters of the Kings of Israel.

19. So his Prayer, and God's being intreated by him, with all his Sin and Vice, as also the Places at which he built Chapels, and his setting up Groves and carved Images, before he was humbled, behold they are written in the Matters of the Seers.

20. And Manasseh lay down with his Fathers, they burying him at his own House; and Amon his Son reigned in his room.

21. Amon was in his twenty second Year when he began reigning, and reigned two Years at Jerusalem.

22. He likewise did what the Lord was displeased with, as Manasseh his Father had done: for Amon sacrificed to all the carved Images which the other made, and served them.

23. And was not humbled before the Lord, as his Father Manasseh was; but he himself trespassed much.

24. At length his Servants conspired against him, and killed him in his own House.

25. But the People of the Country slew all that conspired against him; and the same made Josiah his Son King in his room.

CHAP. XXXIV.

JOSIAH was in his eighth Year when he began reigning, and reigned thirty one Years at Jerusalem.

2. And he did what the Lord approved of; going in the Ways of David his Father, without turning aside to the right Hand or left.

3. Even in the eighth Year of his Reign, when he was yet a Youth, he began to seek the God of David his Father; and in the twelfth Year he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem, from the Chapels, Groves, carved Images and molten ones.

4. They also broke down the Altars of Baalim before him, and the sun-burnt Images that were above he cut down from them, and the Groves, carved Images and molten ones he broke, beat small, and sprinkled upon the Surface of the Graves of those who sacrificed to them.

5. Moreover he burnt the Bones of the Priests upon their Altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6. In the Cities likewise of Manasseh, Ephraim and Simeon, even to Naphtali, with their Tools round about.

7. When he had thus broke down the

Ver. 11. King] that is Efar-baddon, 2 King. xix. 37. who after an Interregnum of eight Years at Babylon, became King of that as well as Assyria, as appears by the Canon of Ptolemy, inserted in the Chronology; see 2 King. xvii. 24. Ezr. iv. 2. which falling out when Manasseh had reigned 17 Years, this Conquest of Judah was probably soon after, as generally supposed in Manasseh's 22d Year.

Ver. 14. the Ascent] Ophel so signifying, and is in Num. xiv. 44. 2 King. v. 24. Isa. xxxii. 14. Mic. iv. 8.

Ver. 16. Thank-offering] singular in Heb.

Ver. 20. at] not in his house; for he was buried in the Garden, 2 King. xxi. 18.

Ver. 6. Tools] as at Exod. xx. 25. otherwise it is the common Heb. Word for Sword; but I suppose may signify occasionally a Tool in general with a Handle something like it, not any particular one.

Altars and Groves, and beat the carved Images in Pieces small, and cut down all the sun-burnt Images in the whole Country of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8. And in the eighteenth Year of his Reign, at the cleansing of the Country and the House, he sent Shaphan the Son of Azariah, Maaseiah the Prince of the City, and Joah the Son of Joahaz the Recorder, to repair the House of the Lord his God.

9. Who coming to Hilkiah the high Priest, delivered the Money that was brought into the House of God, which the Levites who kept the Door had gathered from the Hands of Manasseh and Ephraim, from all the Residue of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin; then they returned to Jerusalem.

10. And they delivered it into the Hands of such as managed the Work, that were set over the House of the Lord; who gave it to the Doers of the Work, that wrought in the House of the Lord, to search and repair the House:

11. Even to the Artificers and Builders did they give it, to buy Stone that was cut, and Timber for Joinings, and to put the Houses in frame which the Kings of Judah had destroyed.

12. And the Men acted faithfully in the Work, those who were set over them being Jahath and Obadiah, of the Posterity of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the Posterity of the Kohathites, to be chief; and the Levites, all that understood Instruments of Musick.

13. They were also over those who carried burdens, and the chief of all that did the Work in each particular Service; and of the Levites there were Scribes, Officers and Porters.

14. Nay when they brought out the Money that was carried into the House of the Lord, Hilkiah the Priest found the Book of the Lord's Law by the Hand of Moses.

15. And Hilkiah said thus to Shaphan the Scribe, I have found the Book of the Law in the House of the Lord; he also gave the Book to him.

16. Then Shaphan brought the Book to the King, and brought him back Word again, saying, All that was delivered into the Hands of thy Servants they do.

17. For they have poured out the Money that was found in the House of the Lord, and delivered it into the Hands of such as were set over, and into the Hands of those who managed, the Work.

18. Besides he told the King thus, Hilkiah the Priest has given me a Book; and Shaphan read in it before him.

19. And as soon as the King heard the Words of the Law, he tore his Cloaths.

20. He also commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the Son of Shaphan, Abdon the Son of Micah, Shaphan the Scribe, and Afaiah a Servant of the King, as follows,

21. Go, enquire of the Lord for me, and for those who are left in Israel and Judah, concerning the Words of the Book which is found: for the Wrath of the Lord is great which is poured out on us, because our Fathers have not observed the Word of the Lord, to do according to all that is written in this Book.

22. So Hilkiah, and those who belonged to the King, went to Huldah the Prophetess, the Wife of Shallum, the Son of Tokehath, the Son of Hasrah, Keeper of the Garments, she dwelling at Jerusalem in the second Part; and they spoke to her after that manner.

23. Who said to them: Thus says the Lord God of Israel; Tell the Man that sent you to me;

24. Thus says the Lord: Behold I will bring Ill to this Place, and upon the Inhabitants of it, even all the Curses which are written in the Book that they have read before the King of Judah;

25. Because they have forsaken me, and burnt incense to other gods, that they might provoke me by all the Works of their Hands; therefore shall my Wrath be poured out on this Place, and not be quenched.

26. But concerning the King of Judah who sent you to enquire of the Lord, thus shall you tell him; Thus says the Lord God of Israel, As for the Words which thou hast heard,

27. Forasmuch as thy Heart is tender, and thou didst humble thy self before God, when thou heardest his Words against this Place, and the Inhabitants of it, and humbling thy self before me, didst tear thy Cloaths, and weep before me; I also heard, says the Lord.

Ver. 12. to be chief] See 1 Chron. xxiii. 4.

Ver. 14. Book] This is generally agreed to have been the Archetype written by Moses, and by him ordered to be deposited, with the Ark, in the most holy Place, Deut. xxxi. 24, 26. but which some pious High-priest had caused to be thus hid, in the Reign of Ahaz or Manasseh, to prevent its being destroyed, Univer. Hist. B. I. Ch. vii. 7. We think with the far greater Number of Jews and Christians, that it was the whole Pentateuch, ibid.

Ver. 22. second Part] as the Heb. is; rendered by Jun. and Trem. secunda parte ab eo, the second Part from it; by Castal. altera urbis parte, another Part of the City; Munster has intra secundum (murum) within the second (Wall); Leo Jud. secunda parte; the Vulg. and Pagn. only secunda: so that collidge may be allowed the Invention of our Eng. Translators.

Ver. 24. Curses] declared Deut. xxviii. & xxix. especially.

28. Behold I will gather thee to thy Fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy Grave in Peace, and thy Eyes shall not see all the Harm which I will bring upon this Place, and the Inhabitants of it. And they brought back Word to the King.

29. Upon this he sent, and gathered all the Elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30. He then went up to the House of the Lord, with all the Men of Judah, and the Inhabitants of Jerusalem, as also the Priests and Levites, nay all the People from the greatest to the least; where he read in their Hearing all the Words of the Book of the Covenant, that was found at the House of the Lord.

31. And the King standing at his Station, made a Covenant before the Lord, to go after him, and to keep his Commandments, Testimonies and Ordinances, with all his Heart, and all his Soul, to do the Words of the Covenant that were written in this Book.

32. And he made every one who was found in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand to it: thus the Inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to God's Covenant, the God of their Fathers.

33. After which Josiah took away all the Abominations from all the Countries that belonged to the Israelites, and made every one who was found in Israel serve, namely the Lord their God: all his Time they did not turn aside from after the Lord God of their Fathers.

C H A P. XXXV.

MOREOVER Josiah kept a Passover to the Lord in Jerusalem; and they killed it on the fourteenth of the first Month.

2. He also appointed the Priests in their Charges, and strengthened them to the Service of the Lord's House.

3. And said to the Levites, who made all Israel that were holy to the Lord understand; Put the holy Ark into the House, which Solomon the Son of David King of Israel built, not to be a Burden on your Shoulders: serve now the Lord your God, and his People Israel.

4. So prepare your selves after the Family of your Fathers, according to your Partitions, by the Writing of David King of Israel, and that of his Son Solomon.

5. And stand in the holy Place after the Divisions of the Family of the Fathers, belonging to your Brethren, the Males of the People, and the Partition of the Family of the Father of the Levites.

6. Thus kill the Passover, consecrate your selves, and prepare your Brethren, to do according to the Word of the Lord by the Ministry of Moses.

7. And Josiah took up for the Males of the People, Sheep, Lambs and young Goats, all for the Passover-offerings, for every one who was found, to the Number of thirty thousand, with three thousand Bullocks: these were of the King's Substance.

8. His Princes likewise took up freely for the People, Priests and Levites: Hiliah, Zechariah and Jehiel, Rulers of the House of God, gave to the Priests for the Passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred, with three hundred Bullocks.

9. Conaniah too, Shemaiah and Nethaneel his Brethren, Haphabiah, Jehiel and Jozabad, the chief of the Levites, took up for the Levites for the Passover-offerings five thousand, with five hundred Bullocks.

10. The Service being thus prepared, the Priests stood in their Station, and the Levites in their Partitions, according to the King's Commandment.

11. And they killed the Passover, the Priests sprinkling from their Hands, and the Levites stripping.

12. Then they took away the Burnt-offering, to give after the Divisions in the Family of the Fathers, belonging to the Males of the People, that they might bring near to the Lord, as it is written in the Book of Moses; and so for the Bullocks.

13. Besides they boiled the Passover with Fire according to the Manner; and the holy Things did they boil in Pots, Kettles and Caldrons, and run with them to all those of the People.

14. After which they prepared for themselves, and the Priests; because the Priests Aarons Sons were at offering the Burnt-

Ver. 30. Levites] Prophets, 2 King. xxiii. 2.

Ver. 3. into the House] from whence it must consequently have been removed, as it seems either by King Manasseh or Amon, Chap. xxxiii. 4, 7, 23.

Ib. not to be] Salomon placing it there for that Reason, and there being no Conjunction to separate it from the foregoing; nor is it likely the Levites carried it about now, as they had done before the Temple was built; see Poole's Annot.

Ver. 5. the Males] Heb. Sons, so in Ver. 7.

Ib. Father] namely Levi; though so retrenched by our Translators.

Ver. 7. took up] out of the Flocks and Herds, not gave as in the latter Part of the next Verse.

Ver. 12. the Fathers, belonging to the Males of] all left out of the com. Transf.

Ver. 13. boiled] being the same Verb that follows in this Verse, of which see more at Deut. xvi. 7.

offerings, and Fat till Night: therefore the Levites prepared both for themselves, and the Priests the Sons of Aaron.

15. And the Singers the Sons of Afaph were in their Station, according to the Commandment of David, Afaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the King's Seer, as were the Porters at each Gate: none of them were to depart from their Service; since their Brethren the Levites prepared for them,

16. So was all the Service of the Lord prepared the same Day, by keeping the Passover, and by offering up Burnt-offerings upon the Lord's Altar; according to the Commandment of King Josiah.

17. And the Israelites who were present kept the Passover at that Time, as also the Feast of unleavened Cakes seven Days.

18. And there was not kept such a Passover as that in Israel, from the Time of the Prophet Samuel, nor did any of the Kings of Israel keep a Passover like that which Josiah kept, and the Priests, and Levites, with all Judah and Israel who were present, and the Inhabitants of Jerusalem,

19. In the eighteenth Year of Josiah's Reign was this Passover kept.

20. After all this when Josiah had prepared the House, Necho King of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates, and Josiah went out to meet him.

21. But he sent Ambassadors to tell him; What hast thou to do with me, O King of Judah? It is not against thee thy self now, but to the Family that I have war with, and God has ordered me to make great haste: refrain thyself from opposing God, who is with me, that he may not destroy thee.

22. Nevertheless Josiah would not turn about his Face from him, but disguised himself to fight with him, and without hearkening to the Words of Necho from the Mouth of God, went to fight in the Vale of Megiddo.

23. And the Archers shooting at King Josiah, he said to his Servants, Take me away, for I am very ill.

24. Accordingly his Servants took him away out of the Chariot, and carried him in the second Chariot which he had, taking him to Jerusalem, where he died, and was buried in the Graves of his Fathers; and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25. Jeremiah also lamented for him, nay all the Singing-men and Singing-women speak of Josiah in their Lamentations to this Day, and have made them an Ordinance in Israel; which behold are written in the Lamentations.

26. As for the rest of Josiah's Affairs, and his Kindness, according as it is written in the Law of the Lord;

27. Even his Affairs, the former and latter, behold they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

C H A P. XXXVI.

THEN the People of the Country took Jehoahaz the Son of Josiah, and made him King in the room of his Father at Jerusalem.

2. Joahaz was in his twenty third Year when he began reigning, and reigned three Months at Jerusalem.

3. At length the King of Egypt put him away at Jerusalem; and fined the Country a hundred Talents of Silver, and a Talent of Gold.

4. The same too made Eliakim his Brother King over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his Name to Jehoiakim; and Necho took away Joahaz his Brother, bringing him to Egypt.

5. Jehoiakim was in his twenty fifth Year when he began reigning, and reigned eleven Years at Jerusalem; and he did what the Lord his God was displeased with.

6. Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon, and bound him in Chains to carry him thither.

7. Nebuchadnezzar also brought some of the Instruments of the Lord's House to Babylon, and put them in his Temple there.

8. As for the rest of Jehoiakim's Affairs,

Ver. 25. Lamentations] That these were not the Book of Lamentations a Number of Passages there shew, besides that they are too long for a funeral Solemnity, if not to be got ready against the Time, and the Singers instructed to sing them.

Ver. 3. at Jerusalem] which shews that Necho took it: accordingly Herodotus, Lib. ii. p. 67. says Necus King of Egypt fought a Battle against the Syrians in the Plains of Magdolis, and having got the Victory, took the great City Cadytis; the People of those Parts being in general called Syrians by the heathen Writers afterwards, as the Place of the Battle by him mentioned was evidently the Scripture Vale of Megiddo, Ch. xxxv. 22. as for Cadytis, the same Author has taken notice of it further, Lib. iii. pag. 71. as being the City of the People of Palestine, and Part of the Arabian Territories, as likewise that it was about the Bignets of Sardis, the chief City of Lesser Asia; which sufficiently prove it to be Jerusalem; however see Prideaux, Connct. An. 610. and concerning that Conquest, Josephus Ant. Jud. Lib. x. 7.

Ver. 6. to carry him] It is probable he either died in Jerusalem after he was taken, or in the Journey to Babylon, see also Joseph. Ant. B. x. 8. who says he was slain; and so the Prophecies of Jeremiah were fulfilled concerning him, Jer. xxii. 19. & xxxvi. 30. the first of which does not suit well with his dying at Babylon: and that he was not carried thither, appears also by its being to carry him, not and carried him; notwithstanding those Words on Jer. xxii. 19. in Pool's Annotations, "The Scripture saith expressly he was carried to Babylon, and and his Abominations that he did, with what was found in him, behold they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah; and Jehoiachin his Son reigned in his room.

9. It was in the eighth Year when Jehoiachin began reigning, and he reigned three Months and ten Days at Jerusalem; and did what the Lord was displeased with.

10. And at the Return of the Year King Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the valuable Instruments of the Lord's House; and made Zedekiah his Kinsman King over Judah and Jerusalem.

11. Zedekiah was in his twenty first Year when he began reigning, and reigned eleven Years at Jerusalem.

12. He likewise did what the Lord his God was displeased with, nor was humbled before the Prophet Jeremiah at the Command of the Lord.

13. And he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God; but he stiffened his Neck, and strengthened his Heart, from returning to the Lord God of Israel.

14. Moreover all the chief of the Priests and People did what was much amiss, according to all the Abominations of the Gentiles, and defiled the House of the Lord that he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

15. And when the Lord God of their Fathers sent to them by the Ministry of his Messengers, and that early, because he had compassion upon his People and Habitation;

16. They derided God's Messengers, despised his Words, and erred against his Prophets, till the Wrath of the Lord ascended against his People, and there was no Remedy.

17. Therefore he brought up against them the King of the Chaldeans, who slew their young Men with the Sword in the House of their Sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young Man or Virgin, the Elder or very aged Person: he delivered all into his Power.

18. As for all the Instruments of the House of God, great and small, and the Treasures of the Lord's House, with those of the King and his Princes, he carried all to Babylon.

19. Nay they burnt the House of God, broke down the Wall of Jerusalem, burnt all its Palaces with Fire, and destroyed all the valuable Instruments of it.

20. And those who were left from the Sword he carried away to Babylon, and they became Servants to him and his Sons, till the Reign of the Kingdom of Persia;

21. To fulfil the Word of the Lord by the Mouth of Jeremiah, till the Country had finished its Sabbaths: it keeping Sabbath all the Time it was desolate, to fulfil seventy Years.

22. Now in the first Year of Cyrus King of Persia, the Lord, to accomplish his Word by the Mouth of Jeremiah, stirred up the Spirit of that King, so that he sent Word through all his Kingdom, and it was also in Writing as follows;

23. Thus says Cyrus King of Persia, The Lord God of Heaven having given me all the Kingdoms of the Earth, and appointed me to build him a House at Jerusalem, which is in Judah; whoever there is among you of all his People, the Lord his God be with him, and let him go up.

"2 King. xxiv. 15." for that was Jehoiachin his Successor. Prideaux represents it, that in the Siege he was taken Prisoner in some Sally, and slain with the Sword, Connec. An. 599. whereas it is improbable the King should go out, and be taken in that Manner. But this Opinion of Prideaux seems to spring from another wrong one, that Jerusalem was not now taken, the same Siege still continuing under Jehoiachin, till he surrendered it up, Idem An. 598. On the contrary Nebuchadnezzar carried some of the Things of the Lord's House to Babylon in Jehoiachin's Time, 2 Chron. xxxvi. 7. and must therefore take the City; besides that the Siege in the Reign of Jehoiachin was a new one, 2 King. xxiv. 10.

Ver. 9. It was in the eighth Year of the Babylonian Captivity, that being in the 4th Year of his Father's Reign, Jer. xxv. 1, 11. who died in the 11th as by the Table. For Jehoiachin himself was then in his 18th Year, 2 King. xxiv. 8. 1 Esd. i. 43. by which those Places are reconciled; see the like Chap. xxii. 2. To put this for his Age, does not accord with his doing that which was evil in the Sight of the Lord, and having Wives, 2 King. xxiv. 15. And that his Father made him his Associate in the Kingdom so young, when he had reigned but one Year, and that under the King of Egypt, Ver. 4, 5. (as some will have it) is to me unlikely, considering too how well it agrees with the Date above-mentioned; which is also the Mind of Lightfoot.

Ver. 10. Kinsman] being not his Brother, but his Uncle, 2 King. xxiv. 17.

Ver. 22. Newton, in his Observations upon the Prophecies of Daniel, Chap. 1. has these Words: "The Book of Ezra was originally a part of the Book of the Chronicles, and has been divided from it. For it begins with the two last Verses of the Books of Chronicles, and the first Book of Esdra begins with the two last Chapters thereof. Ezra was therefore the Compiler of the Books of Kings and Chronicles, and brought down the History to his own Time." The Author of the Present State of the Printed Hebrew Text suspects these two last Verses have been added improperly, p. 492. but to make a happy Conclusion it is very properly; nay his Complaint of their breaking off in the very midst of a Sentence in Ezra i. 3. makes them not less proper, since it was proper for this to end, as soon as a perfect Sentence could be made out of the other, even supposing it taken from thence; and it may be seen that these two last Verses make compleat Sense.

NOTES upon the BOOK of E Z R A.

C H A P. I.

NOW in the first Year of Cyrus King of Persia, the Lord, to accomplish his Word from the Mouth of Jeremiah, stirred up the Spirit of that King, so that he sent Word through all his Kingdom, and it was also in Writing as follows :

2. Thus says Cyrus King of Persia; The Lord God of Heaven having given me all the Kingdoms of the Earth, and appointed me to build him a House at Jerusalem, which is in Judah;

3. Whoever there is among you of all his People, his God be with him, and let him go up thither, and build the House of the Lord God of Israel, who is God at Jerusalem.

4. And every one that is left at any of the Places, let the Men of the Place where he sojourns, convey him away with Silver, Gold, Goods and Cattle, together with a Free-offering for the House of God in Jerusalem.

5. With that the chief Fathers of Judah and Benjamin got ready, as also the Priests and Levites, with all whose Spirit God stirred up, to go up to build the House of the Lord there.

6. All those likewise who were round about them strengthened their Hands with Instruments of Silver, with Gold, Goods, Cattle and precious Things, besides all that was offered freely.

7. King Cyrus also brought forth all the Instruments of the Lord's House, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of Jerusalem, and put in the House of his gods.

8. This he did by the Hand of Mithredath the Treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the Prince of Judah.

9. Of which these are the Numbers; thirty golden Bowls, a thousand silver ones, nine and twenty Knives,

10. Thirty golden Basons, four hundred and ten silver ones of the second Sort, and a thousand other Vessels.

11. All the Instruments of Gold and Silver were five thousand and four hundred; all which Sheshbazzar brought up with those of the Captivity, who came up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

C H A P. II.

AND these are the People of the Province that came up from Captivity, the Captives whom Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon carried away thither, who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, to their respective Cities;

2. The Number of which Men of the Israelites, that came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum and Baanah, were :

3. The Posterity of Parosh, two thousand a hundred seventy two;

4. The Posterity of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy two;

5. The Posterity of Arah, seven hundred seventy five;

6. The Posterity of Pahath-moab, belonging to those of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve.

7. The Posterity of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty four;

Ver. 1. King of Persia] A List of the Persian Kings for many Ages before, and the History of their Times, is given by the Persian Writers, especially Mirkbond in his Raoudhat al Safa, a History from the Beginning of the World to the Year 900 of the Hegira or Æra of Mahomet; by Hamdallah ben Abibekr in Tarikh Khozideh, The chosen Chronicle, extending up to An. Heg. 730; and Jabia ben Abdallahif in Lok al Tasvarikh (commonly called Leb-tarik) The Marrow of Histories, reaching to A. H. 948: an Extract of which from D'Herbelot. Biblioth. orient. and Les Etats Empires & Principautes du Monde, is published in Univer. Hist. B. I. Ch. xi. 5.

Ver. 9. Knives] for the Sacrifices.

Ver. 11. Instruments] which is the general Signification of the Heb. Word, as Vessels in the foregoing Verse is the particular, whereby those Numbers are reconciled.

Ver. 1. came up] It has been thought this Account was taken in Chaldea before they began their Journey, and that in Neb. vii. when they arrived at Jerusalem: so some altering their Minds, and staying behind, after they had delivered in their Names to go, and others dying on the Way, lessened Part of the Numbers in Neb. as on the contrary, some coming to them afterwards, made others of the latter greater. Prideaux speaking of this in the 1st Year of Cyrus says, he shall not take upon him to determine it; but in the 21st of Artaxerxes he tells us, that Nehemiah altered the former Register according to the Alterations which were in the Families, and Stackhouse cites Lightfoot with Commendation to the same Purpose; which certainly cannot agree with found written therein, Neb. vii. 5.

8. The Posterity of Zattu, nine hundred forty five ;
9. The Posterity of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty ;
10. The Posterity of Bani, six hundred forty two ;
11. The Posterity of Bebai, six hundred twenty three ;
12. The Posterity of Azgad, a thousand two hundred twenty two ;
13. The Posterity of Adonikam, six hundred sixty six ;
14. The Posterity of Bigvai, two thousand fifty six ;
15. The Posterity of Adin, four hundred fifty four ;
16. The Posterity of Ater, belonging to Hezekiah, ninety eight ;
17. The Posterity of Bezai, three hundred twenty three ;
18. The Posterity of Jorah, a hundred and twelve ;
19. The Posterity of Hashum, two hundred twenty three ;
20. The Posterity of Gibbar, ninety five ;
21. The Posterity of Beth-lahem, a hundred twenty three ;
22. The Men of Netophah, fifty six ;
23. The Men of Anathoth, a hundred twenty eight ;
24. The Posterity of Azmaveth, forty two ;
25. The Posterity of Kirjath-arim, Chephirah and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty three ;
26. The Posterity of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty one ;
27. The Men of Michmas, a hundred twenty two ;
28. The Men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred twenty three ;
29. The Posterity of Nebo, fifty two ;
30. The Posterity of Magbish, a hundred fifty six ;
31. The Posterity of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty four ;
32. The Posterity of Harim, three hundred and twenty ;
33. The Posterity of Lod, Hadid and Ono, seven hundred twenty five ;
34. The Posterity of Jericho, three hundred forty five ;
35. The Posterity of Senaah, three thousand six hundred and thirty ;
36. The Priests were: the Posterity of Jedaiah, belonging to the Family of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy three ;

37. The Posterity of Immer, a thousand fifty two ;

38. The Posterity of Pashhur, a thousand two hundred forty seven ;

39. The Posterity of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.

40. The Levites were: the Posterity of Jeshua and Kadmiel, belonging to the Posterity of Hodaviah, seventy four.

41. The Singers were: the Posterity of Asaph, a hundred twenty eight.

42. The Posterity of the Porters, namely of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, Shobai, all were a hundred and thirty nine.

43. The Assistants were the Posterity of Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,

44. Keros, Siaha, Padon,

45. Lebanah, Hagabah, Akkub,

46. Hagab, Shalmi, Hanan,

47. Giddel, Gahar, Reaiah,

48. Rezin, Nekoda, Gazzam,

49. Uzza, Paseah, Besai,

50. Asnah, Meunim, Nephusim,

51. Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,

52. Bazluth, Mehida, Harshah,

53. Barkos, Sisera, Thamah,

54. Neziah, Hatiphah.

55. The Posterity of Solomon's Servants, namely of Sotai, Sophereth, Peruda,

56. Jaalah, Darkon, Giddel,

57. Shephatiah, Hattil, Pochereth-zebaim, Ami ;

58. All the Assistants, and the Posterity of Solomon's Servants, were three hundred ninety two.

59. And these came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan, Immer ; but they could not tell the Family of their Fathers, and their Offspring, whether they were of Israel :

60. The Posterity of Delaiah, Tobijah, Nekoda, six hundred fifty two.

61. Of the Posterity also of the Priests, that of Habaiah, Koz, Barzillai, who taking a Wife of the Daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, was called by their Name ;

62. These sought for their Register among them whose Pedigree was reckoned up, but were not found ; so they were held to be polluted from the Priesthood.

63. For the Tirshatha said of them, that they should not eat of the very holy Things,

Ver. 43. Assistants] as shewn Chap. viii. 20. They are thought to be the Posterity of the Gibeonites spoken of Jesh. ix. for which I find a very good Reason, besides their Employment, though I do not observe any Author who mentions it ; that the Word in the Original comes from the Verb used Jesh. ix. ult. for made, as they were then instituted. Nethinim is plural without s, as observed of Cberubim at Gen. iii. 24. and should be for a Name Nethinites.

till there stood up a Priest with Urim, and with Thummim.

64. The whole Congregation together, were forty two thousand three hundred sixty:

65. Besides their Servant-men and Maids, these being seven thousand three hundred thirty seven; and they had two hundred Men and Women who were Singers.

66. Their Horses were seven hundred thirty six, their Mules two hundred forty five,

67. Their Camels four hundred thirty five, the Asses six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68. And some of the chief Fathers, when they were come to the Lord's House in Jerusalem, offered freely for the House of God, to set it up upon its Base;

69. Giving to the Treasure of the Work, according to their Ability, sixty one thousand Drams of Gold, five thousand Manchs of Silver, and a hundred Priests Coats.

70. So the Priests, Levites, and some of the People, with the Singers, Porters, and Assistants dwelt in their Cities; nay all Israel in theirs.

C H A P. III.

AND when the seventh Month approached, after the Israelites were in the Cities, the People gathered together as one Man to Jerusalem.

2. Then Jeshua the Son of Jozadak got ready, and his Brethren the Priests, as likewise Zerubbabel the Son of Shealtiel, with his Brethren, and built the Altar of the God of Israel, to offer up Burnt-offerings upon it, as it is written in the Law of Moses the Man of God.

3. As soon as they had prepared the Altar upon its Bases, because of the Dread that was upon them by reason of the People of the Countries, they offered up Burnt-offerings upon it to the Lord, and that both Morning and Evening.

4. They also kept the Feast of Tabernacles, as it is written; and the Burnt-offerings were Day by Day in Number, according to the Manner of each Day's Business on the very same Day;

5. And after that the continual Burnt-offering, and the consecrated Things of the new Moons, of all the Lord's appointed Times, and of every one who offered a Free-offering to the Lord.

6. From the first Day of the seventh Month they began to offer up Burnt-offerings to the Lord, when the Foundation of his Temple was not laid.

7. Moreover they gave Money to the Fellers, and Artificers, as also Meat, Drink, and Oil to the Zidonians, and Tyrians, to bring Cedar-trees from Lebanon to the Sea of Joppa, according to the Licence of Cyrus King of Persia to them.

8. And in the second Year of their coming to the House of God at Jerusalem, in the second Month, Zerubbabel the Son of Shealtiel, Jeshua the Son of Jozadak, and the rest of their Brethren the Priests and Levites, with all that were come out of the Captivity to Jerusalem began, and placed the Levites from twenty Years old upward, to be chief over the Work of the Lord's House.

9. So Jeshua, his Sons and Brethren, Kadmiel, and his Sons, the Posterity of Judah, stood as one to be chief over the Doers of the Work in the House of God; with the Sons of Henadad, their Sons and Brethren, the Levites.

10. And when the Builders laid the Foundation of the Lord's Temple, they placed the Priests clothed having Trumpets, and the Levites that were the Posterity of Asaph with Cymbals, to praise the Lord according to the Hands of David King of Israel.

11. Who answered in praising, and giving thanks to the Lord, because he was good, since his Kindness was upon Israel for ever; and all the People shouted with a loud Noise in praising the Lord, for the Foundation of his House being laid.

12. But many of the Priests, Levites, and chief Fathers, that were Elders, who had seen the former House when it was standing, upon their Sight of this, wept aloud; while many were loudly shouting for Joy:

Ver. 64. forty] The particular Numbers probably were only the Families of Levi, Benjamin and Judah, which belonged to that Kingdom; and the total Sum here, which exceeds the Particulars, might be made up with People of the other Tribes who were mixed among them; see Ch. vi. 17.

Ver. 66. seven hundred] The vulg. Lat. has six hundred.

Ver. 69. sixty] for which in the vulg. Lat. is forty.

Ver. 1. approached] as the Word signifies, and Ver 6. shews.

Ver. 7. Fellers] who cut down the Trees, which the Carpenters used, the Verb also signifying to cut.

Ver. 8. chief] See 1 Chron. xxiii. 4.

Ver. 10. Hands] the Tunes he played with them on the musical Instruments: and neither Hands nor Hand, that I know of, ever mean ordinance.

Ver. 12. when] or while.

Ib. when it was standing] which by the Original, both in Preposition and Accent, evidently belongs to the former House, and not to this House; as also the Septuagint, old Lat. Translator, Pagn. Mont. with Jun. and Trem. turn it.

Ib. standing] Heb. founded.

13. Inſomuch that the People did not know the Voice of Shouting in Joy, from that of thoſe who were weeping, though the People ſhouted with ſuch a loud Noiſe, that the Sound was heard far off.

C H A P. IV.

AND when the Enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard, that the Captives were building a Temple for the Lord God of Iſrael;

2. They came to Zerubbabel, and the chief Fathers, and ſaid to them; Let us build with you, for we are as you, ſeeking your God, to whom we have ſacrificed from the Time of Eſar-haddon King of Aſſyria, who brought us up hither.

3. But Zerubbabel, Jeſhua, and the reſt of the chief Fathers of Iſrael answered them, You have Nothing to do with us, to build a Houſe for our God; for we together will build for the Lord God of Iſrael, as King Cyrus King of Perſia has commanded us.

4. Then the People of the Country made the Hands of the People of Judah ſlack, and troubled them in building.

5. They alſo hired Counſellors againſt them, to frustrate their Purpoſe, all the Time of Cyrus, and till the Reign of Darius, Kings of Perſia.

6. And in the Beginning of the Reign of Ahaſuerus, they wrote an Accuſation againſt the Inhabitants of Judah and Jeruſalem.

7. In the Time likewise of Artaxerxes King of Perſia, Biſlam, with Mithredath, Tabeel, and the reſt of his Society, wrote to him; and the Writing of the Epistle was done in Syriack, and interpreted out of it.

8. Rehum the Preſident, and Shimſhai the Scribe, wrote a Letter againſt Jeruſalem, to King Artaxerxes after this Manner:

9. Then with them the reſt of their Society, the Dinites, Apharſathchites, Tarpelites, Apharſites, Archevites, Babylonians, Shuſhanchites, Dehavites, Elamites,

10. And the reſt of the Nations whom the great and honourable Oſnappar brought away, and made them dwell in the City of Samaria, and the Reſidue beyond the River, and at ſuch a Time:

11. This is the Copy of the Letter which they ſent to him. To King Artaxerxes, thy Servants the Men beyond the River, and at ſuch a Time.

12. Let it be known to the King, that the Jews who came up from thee to us, are come to Jeruſalem, building the rebellious and bad City, and make up the Walls, and join the Foundations together.

13. Let it now be known to the King, that if this City be built, and the Walls made up, they will not give Toll, Tax and Tribute, by which thou wilt bring damage to the Revenue of the Kings.

14. Now ſince we have a Salary of the Palace, and it is not fit for us to ſee the King's Reproach, upon this we have ſent, and made it known to the King;

15. That Somebody may ſeek in the Book of the Records of thy Fathers, where thou wilt find, and know, that this City has been a rebellious one, and brought damage to Kings and Provinces, and that the People made Conſpiracy within it of old time, whereupon this City was laid waſte.

16. We make known to the King, that if this City be built, and the Walls made up, by this means thou wilt have no Part beyond the River.

17. The King ſent Account to Rehum the Preſident, Shimſhai the Scribe, the reſt of their Society who dwelt in Samaria, and the Reſidue beyond the River: Peace, and at ſuch a Time.

18. The Epistle which you ſent to us was read plainly before me;

19. And Order being given by me, ſome ſought, and found that this City of old time has been lifting up it ſelf againſt Kings, as alſo Rebellion and Conſpiracy have been made in it;

20. Nay there have been powerful Kings

Ver. 5. till] as Ver. 24.

Ib. Darius] namely Darius Hyſtaſpis, as plainly appears by Ver. 24. Hag. i. 14, 15. Zech. i. 7, 12. compared together.

Ver. 6. Ahaſuerus] Cambyſes the Son of Cyrus being ſo called, according to Uſher, Prideaux, Univer. Hiſt. &c. as ſeems moſt likely, though Newton would have it to be Xerxes, who reigned after Darius Hyſtaſpis, Chron. of ant. King. amend. Ch. 6.

Ver. 7. Artaxerxes] who ſeems to be Smerdis by Ver. 24. the Perſian Kings being, 1. Cyrus, 2. Cambyſes, 3. Smerdis, 4. Darius Hyſtaſpis, in the Order they here ſtand. Nor is Darius mentioned Ver. 5. as reigning before Ahaſuerus and Artaxerxes, though Newton miſtakes it to be ſo.

Ib. Mithredath] the ſame as in Chap. i. 8.

Ib. Society] of Samaritans, mungrel Jews, continued to this Time, Chap. iv. 2. 2 King. xvii. as well as the original Word ſo ſignifying.

Ib. out of] is being inconfiſtent.

Ver. 8. This Verſe and ſo on to Chap. vi. 19. is Chaldee in the Original, which begins again Chap. vii. 12. and continues to Ver. 27.

Ver. 9. Then] Rehum and Shimſhai ſeem firſt to have compoſed and written the Letter, then the others to have agreed to it, or ſigned it.

Ver. 10. beyond] from the Metropolis of the Perſian Empire, the ſame as Ver. 17, 20. ſo Jun. and Trem. have trans here and Ver. 11, 16. Ch. v. 3, 6.

Ib. River] Euphrates.

Ver. 11. To King Artaxerxes] I can ſcarce doubt, but this was at the Head of the Epistle, as the Manner was in former Times.

in Jerusalem, who were Rulers over all beyond the River, and Toll, Tax, and Tribute was given to them.

21. Give Order now to make these Men cease, that this City may not be built till Order is given by me.

22. And be warned of doing amiss about this: why should Hurt increase to bring damage to the Kings?

23. So after the Copy of the Epistle of King Artaxerxes was read before Rehum, Shimshai the Scribe, and their Society; they went away in haste to Jerusalem against the Jews, and made them cease by Force, and Might.

24. At which Time the Work of the House of God in Jerusalem ceased, and continued so till the second Year of the Reign of Darius King of Persia.

C H A P. V.

THEN the Prophets, Haggai for one, and Zechariah the Son of Iddo, prophesied to those Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the Name of the God of Israel.

2. At that Time Zerubbabel the Son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the Son of Jozadak got ready, and began to build the House of God in Jerusalem; with whom were God's Prophets supporting them.

3. At the same Time there came to them Tatnai the Governor beyond the River, Shethar-boznai, and their Society, and said thus to them, Who gave you Order to build this House, and make up this Wall?

4. When we told them after the same Manner, what were the Names of these Men who erected this Building.

5. And upon the Elders of the Jews was the Eye of their God, so that those could not make them cease, till the Cause came to Darius; and then they brought back an Epistle about this.

6. The Copy of the Letter which Tatnai Governor beyond the River, Shethar-boznai, and his Society, the Apharsechites who were there, sent to King Darius.

7. In the Account which they sent to him it was written after this Manner. To King Darius be all Peace.

8. Let it be known to the King, that we went into the Province of Judea, to the House of the great God, and it is building with huge Stones, Timber is laying in the Walls, and this Work is done speedily, and prospers in their Hands.

9. We then asked those Elders, saying to them after this Manner, Who gave you Order to build this House, and make up this Wall?

10. And we also asked them their Names, to make them known to thee, that we might write the Names of the Men who were some of the chief of them.

11. Upon which they returned us an Account after the following Manner: We are the Servants of the God of Heaven and Earth, and are building the House that was built many Years before this, which a great King of Israel builded, and made up.

12. However after our Fathers provoked the God of Heaven, he delivered them into the Power of Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldean, King of Babylon, who destroyed this House, and carried the People away thither.

13. But in the first Year of Cyrus King of Babylon, he gave Order to build this House of God.

14. And moreover those Instruments of God's House, of Gold and Silver, which Nebuchadnezzar took away out of the Temple that was in Jerusalem, and carried them away into the Temple of Babylon; did King Cyrus take from thence, and they were given to one whose Name was Sheshbazzar, whom he made Governor.

15. And he said to him, Take these Instruments, go, carry them down into the Temple in Jerusalem; and let the House of God be built in its Place.

16. Then this Sheshbazzar being come, laid the Foundations of the House of God in Jerusalem: and from that Time till now it has been building, and is not finished.

17. Now therefore if it is well to the King, let Somebody seek in the House of the King's Treasure which is there at Babylon, whether it is so, that Order was given by King Cyrus to build this House of God in Jerusalem; and let the King's Mind be sent to us about it.

C H A P. VI.

AT the same Time King Darius gave Order, and some sought in the Library, where the Treasures were laid up in Babylon.

Ver. 4. what were] Thus not only the vulg. Lat. Bib. but also the Tigur. with that of Jam. and Trem. have quærent nomina, what were the Names, not in a Question; which the Sense of the Relation does not admit of, that the Jews should ask the others, What are the Names? And the contrary too is manifest by Ver. 10. Castal. likewise translates in the same Manner.

2. And there was found in a Chest at the Palace, that was for the Province of the Medes, one Volume, in which was a Record thus written :

3. In the first Year of King Cyrus, he gave Order ; Let the House of God in Jerusalem be built, the Place in which they offer Sacrifices, and the Foundations of it be firmly laid, let its Height be sixty Cubits, the Breadth of it the same ;

4. With three Rows of huge Stones, and a Row of new Timber ; and let the Expence be given out of the King's House.

5. And moreover let the Instruments of God's House, of Gold and Silver, which Nebuchadnezzar took away out of the Temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought away to Babylon, be carried back, and had into the Temple in Jerusalem to their Place, and laid up in the House of God.

6. Now, said he, Tatnai the Governor beyond the River, Shethar-boznai, and your Society, the Apharsechites who are beyond the River, be you far from thence.

7. Let the Work of the House of God alone ; let the Governor of the Jews, and their Elders, build the same in its Place.

8. Besides I give Order concerning what you shall do for these Elders of the Jews, to build this House of God, that out of the King's Riches, the Toll beyond the River, the Expence shall be speedily given to these Men, that they may not be made to cease.

9. And what there is Need of, as Bullocks, Rams and Lambs, for the Burnt-offerings of the God of Heaven, Wheat, Salt, Wine and Oil, according to the Command of the Priests who are in Jerusalem, let it be given them Day by Day without Failing.

10. That they may offer delicious Things to the God of Heaven, and pray for the Life of the King and his Sons.

11. I also give Order, that any Man who shall alter this Matter, Timber shall be pulled down from his House, and being set up, he shall be destroyed upon it, and his House shall be made a Dunghil for the same.

12. God likewise, who causes his Name to remain there, cast down every King and People, who shall put forth their Hand to alter it, to destroy this House of God in Jerusalem. I Darius give Order, let it be done speedily.

13. Then Tatnai the Governor beyond the River, Shethar-boznai, and their Society, by reason of what King Darius sent, did speedily after that Manner:

14. So the Elders of the Jews built, and prospered by the prophesying of Haggai the Prophet, and Zechariah the Son of Iddo ; building and making it up, as well by the Order of the God of Heaven, as by that of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes King of Persia.

15. And this House was finished by the third Day of the Month of Adar, which was in the sixth Year of the Reign of King Darius.

16. Upon which the Israelites, the Priests, Levites, and the rest of the Captives, kept the Dedication of this House of God with Joy.

17. For the Dedication of which they offered a hundred Oxen, two hundred Rams, four hundred Lambs ; and twelve He-goats for a Sin-offering for all Israel, after the Number of their Tribes.

18. And they set the Priests in their Divisions, with the Levites in their Partitions, for the Service of God in Jerusalem ; according to the Writing of the Book of Moses.

19. The Captives too kept the Passover on the fourteenth of the first Month.

20. For the Priests and Levites cleansed themselves together, and were all of them clean ; and the latter killed the Passover for all the Captives, for their Brethren the Priests, and for themselves.

21. Which the Israelites who were returned from Captivity, and all that had separated themselves to them, from the Uncleaness of the Nations of the Country, to seek the Lord God of Israel, did eat.

22. And they kept the Feast of unleavened Cakes seven Days with Gladness ; for the Lord had made them glad, and turned about the Heart of the King of Assyria towards them, to strengthen their Hands in the Work of the House of God, the God of Israel.

Ver. 2. in a Chest] So Munst. and Ar. Montan. translate in Scrinio, as likewise Sol. Farbi and Ab. Ezra interpret it, the Word being also found thus in the Targum of Es. i. 4. with the same Verb, וַאֲשֶׁר־בְּתֵיבָה שֵׁשׁ מֵאוֹת and he found there six hundred Chests. If we next consider the Context that this was in the City of Babylon, Ver. 1. it could not be at Achmetha, or Ecbatan as some have it, another and distant City.

Ib. for] There was a Chest as it seems kept to hold the Records belonging to the Province of the Medes. And besides the Impropriety of saying the Palace was in such a Province, the Expression may shew the Writing was found where it was sought for.

Ver. 14. Artaxerxes] Artaxerxes Longimanus, of whom see the next Chapter ; not the same as in Chap. iv. 7. their Characters being very different.

C H A P. VII.

NOW after these Things, in the Reign of Artaxerxes King of Persia, Ezra, being the Son of Seraiah, the Son of Azariah, the Son of Hilkiab,

2. The Son of Shallum, the Son of Zadok, the Son of Ahitub,

3. The Son of Amariah, the Son of Azariah, the Son of Meraioth,

Ver. 1. Son of Seraiah] As they were not all immediate Sons, there being six left out between Azariah and Meraioth, 1 Chron. vi. 7, 8, 9, 10. and as Seraiah had now been dead 130 Years, 2 King. xxv. 18, 21. Jer. lli. 24, 27. & Chronol. Tab. 5. instead of putting Ezra for the Brother of Jehozadak in 1 Chr. vi. 14, 15. with other Commentators, I much rather suppose he might be as far off at least as Jehozadak's Grandson, by the Space of Time, and his Son being high Priest at the End of the Captivity, Ch. iii. 2. Hag. i. 1, 12, 14. Zech. iii. 1. and his Grandsons being in the Time of Ezra, Ch. x. 18. Neh. xii. 26.

Ver. 6. a ready Scribe] A Notion has prevailed among the Criticks of the Scripture, that Ezra wrote it out into another Character; that the Hebrew Letters before were the same with the Samaritan now, and that the present Hebrew are Chaldean ones. This how merely theoretical soever it may seem, has been attended with a very pernicious Consequence, the preferring the Samaritan Pentateuch, which is the whole of the Scripture in that Character, to the Hebrew in particular Places where they differ. The Samaritan Copy is not another Language, but the same as the Hebrew in other Letters, with some Alterations and Additions; but there is also a literal Version made from that, both in the Samaritan Character and Language. Now it is evident this Copy was composed after Ezra, since it has the marginal Readings, which are generally allowed to be his; and also some of its Alterations from the Hebrew plainly arose through Mistake of such Hebrew Letters as are nearly alike, whereas those Alterations may be observed not to come by making the Hebrew Copy from the Samaritan, because the Letters of the last are so different: for instance, instead of the Heb. Word וירק Gen. xiv. 14. the Samarit. is פִּימִיָּה where the Letter פִּי does not answer to ו but to י by Mistake, as is visible; for is it so likely on the contrary that פִּי should be mistaken for ו that stands for י? which must have been the Case, had the Hebrew Exemplar been taken from the Samaritan. To set this Matter yet in a clearer Light, as well as save Words in the ensuing Examples, I will put down some of the Hebrew similar Letters, with the Samaritan corresponding ones, which are thus:

heb. sam.	heb. sam.	heb. sam.	heb. sam.
ד ד Daleth	ה ה Ho	ו ו Vau	ב ב Beth
ר ר Resh	ח ח Heth	י י Jod	כ כ Caph

An Example of the first kind we have seen already, as there is another of the same in Num. xvi. 15. where for As the Sam. has desirable Thing; and וְהָאֵל in Exod. xxviii. 20. being in the Sam. Copy וְהָאֵל shows obviously that the Difference of the middle Letters came by mistaking the Heb. not the Sam. He for a Heth: the Consequence of which must have been, that the Samaritan was made from and after the Hebrew. And this will be more confirmed by the Samaritan Pentateuch having the same Word signifying an Onyx-stone, like the Heb. elsewhere, as Gen. ii. 12. Exod. xxv. 7. Again in Exod. xxii. 11. the Disagreement of וְשֶׁלֶם and וְשֶׁלֶם demonstrates to the Sight, that it was not the Sam. Vau which was taken to be a Jod, they being so very much unlike; the Difference therefore leaves us only to conclude, that the Heb. Jod was taken for a Vau through their Likeness, by him that made the Samaritan Codex from the Hebrew. But to prove that the Samaritan Text is not

4. The Son of Zerachiah, the Son of Uzzi, the Son of Bukki,

5. The Son of Abishua, the Son of Phinehas, the Son of Eleazar, the Son of Aaron the chief Priest;

6. This Ezra came up from Babylon, and he was a ready Scribe in the Law of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel gave; to whom the King had granted all his Request, according to the Hand of the Lord his God upon him.

authentick, is according to Walton himself in the Polyglot Bible, De Sam. Versionibus, Sect. 17. cum umbra propria contendere, to fight with one's own Shadow. Nevertheless those who are unacquainted with such Proof may, as Experience shews is done, esteem the Samaritan before the Hebrew, while the Learned now generally hold that the Scripture was before the Babylonian Captivity in Samaritan Letters, which they give out to be the ancient Hebrew ones, and the Samaritans pretend their present Copy is a true one from that before the Captivity. I will therefore pursue the Matter further, and venture to give my Sentiments, why I think the Hebrew Letters were the same formerly as now.

It would be contrary to what is found in other Languages, if the Hebrew and Chaldean had not always the same Letters, since they have so great Affinity with each other. How many Languages more different are there round about us, all having the Latin Alphabet? If we look to those with different Letters, as the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Arabick, Chinese, &c. what a vast odds is there in their Words, Declension, and Construction? Another Thing, by which it has been evident to me, that the Hebrew had the same Letters before the Captivity as since, is that several of the Differences between the Keris and Chetibs, or the Heb. Margin and Text, are one having the Letter י and the other ו which especially could not be mistaken from the Samaritan Characters, as may be seen before. Ezra is supposed to put those marginal Readings to the Books that were written before his Time, as Simon called the Just might to the others; and if the Copy Ezra perused had the wrong Letter of these two, by the Error of the Transcriber through their Likeness, he probably placed the right one in the Margin; as in Jer. lli. 1. where the Text has וְהָאֵל and the Margin וְהָאֵל which is incredible should come from the Samaritan Letters. So the first in the Bible, Gen. viii. 17. is in the Text וְהָאֵל in the Marg. וְהָאֵל the former of which is plainly a Mistake, the Root being וְהָאֵל and must needs be made from the present Hebrew Character. There is also such a Difference from Beth and Caph, Josh. iv. 18. with divers others elsewhere; see Baron Spanheim's De Usu & Præst. Num. Ant. Dissert. 2. Conringius de Num. Hebr. Carpzovius Crit. Sac. Vet. Test. P. I. Cap. v. Sect. 6. p. 229—231. Cellarius Hist. Samarit. Nay the like may be found in the same or parallel Words of the Heb. Text only. Jacob called a Place וְהָאֵל that is the Face of God, Gen. xxxii. 30. agreeable to the Reason there rendered for it; but it was afterwards called וְהָאֵל Ver. 31. Judg. viii. 8. by the Change of the middle Letters so nearly alike, especially if the Tail of the former was extended too much, as might easily be done in Writing: this Moses has put right when he tells what Jacob called it, but Custom having prevailed for the other, it was not proper to alter its real Name, though of wrong Etymology. Now how came the latter but by Mistake of the former, and that from the Hebrew, not the Samaritan Letters? So וְהָאֵל King of Tyre, as he is commonly called, is in 2 Chron. xxi. On the other hand וְהָאֵל Gen. xxxvi. 23. is וְהָאֵל 1 Chron. i. 40. where the latter Name being obtained through an ocular Mistake of those Letters, was left unaltered by the Compiler of Chronicles. In the same Verses are also וְהָאֵל and וְהָאֵל and in the same Chapters besides, וְהָאֵל Gen. xxxvi. 11. וְהָאֵל 1 Chron. i. 36. וְהָאֵל Gen. xxxvi. 39. וְהָאֵל 1 Chron. i. 50. וְהָאֵל Gen. xxxvi. 40.

7. There

7. There likewise came up some of the Israelites, of the Priests, Levites, Singers, Porters, and Assistants to Jerusalem, in the seventh Year of King Artaxerxes.

עליון 1 Chron. i. 51. חמס Gen. xxxvi. 22. חמס 1 Chron. i. 39, &c. as also with the Letter Daleth changed into Resh חמס Gen. xxxvi. 26. חמס 1 Chron. i. 41. and with Resh into Daleth חמס Gen. xxxvi. 39. חמס 1 Chron. i. 50, 51. (as Gen. xxv. 15. & 1 Chron. i. 30.) there is also a particular Change of וקן Vaakan rather than and Akan, Gen. xxxvi. 27. into וקן Jaakan, 1 Chron. i. 42. which is evidently of the same Kind. Thus דעואל Num. vii. 42, 47. & x. 20. is called דעואל Chap. ii. 14. חמס Gen. xxv. 15. חמס 1 Chron. i. 30. חמס Glede, Deut. xiv. 13. דאח Lev. xi. 14. and חמס 2 Sam. viii. 3. &c. חמס 1 Chron. xviii. 3. חמס, 2 Sam. xxiii. 25. חמס, 1 Chr. xi. 27. חמס, 2 Sam. xxiii. 30. (the Letter d being doubled only by a Point) חמס, 1 Chr. xi. 32. The Heb. חמס likewise being obscure, and so the small Stroke on the left Side not appearing, is nearly like ח hence doubtless we have חמס Isa. xxxix. 1. and חמס 2 King. xx. 12. חמס Isa. xv. 2. Jer. xlviii. 18, 22. and חמס Isa. xv. 9 twice; which could not happen through any Analogy of the Samaritan Letters ח and ח and hence the Difference of Copies with ח and ח by and according to, Hof. xiii. 2. That of חמס Joachab, 2 King. xii. 21. by Contraction חמס 2 Chr. xxiv. 26. with two of the three Letters altered through their Likeness, is very remarkable for this Purpose, though I have never met with it remarked by any.

As more Instances of this Kind may be superfluous, let it be considered in the next place, how utterly unlikely it is, that the Hebrew and Chaldee Letters, had they been different as is pretended, should have admitted of such a Change of the Words as Ezra is imagined to have made. Who can think those Languages would have had each the same Number of Letters, and every single Letter in the ancient Hebrew have been matched by another in the Chaldee of the same Nature and Sound, if they had been in such different Characters? It is far from being so with the Tongues mentioned above, which have diverse Letters. I grant there is an Exception in the Syriack Tongue, which nearly agrees with the Chaldee, and yet has Letters of other Forms; but Syriack appears to be only a Dialect of Chaldee, and Walton observes that the Syriack Letters were introduced by the Christians of Antioch, that they might not be like those used by the Nazarites and Ebionites: so that this does not invalidate the Observation on the others. In like manner the Retortion of the Argument will be prevented concerning the Samaritan Character: for whereas it might be said, A Change of the Scripture from the Heb. to the Sam. Letters would be as unlikely as a Change the contrary Way, but it is certain one of them was made, because the five Books of Moses are extant in both Sorts of Letters; in Answer to this, the Samaritan might admit of such a Change as well as the Syriack, and yet neither of them be any Exception to the mutual Nature and Order of fundamental Languages: for the Law was not improbably written in the present Samaritan Character, by that People in opposition to the Jews, they having been long at great Enmity with each other, as in John iv. 9. & Josephus Ant. xii. & xx. 5. nay perhaps those Letters were but then invented, and called Samaritan to make their Copy be thought ancient, and so might have been fitted to the Hebrew or any Language. Samaritan seems a Dialect of the Chaldee, both by their being so nearly the same at this Time, and by the Account from whence those People first came, 2 King. xvii. 24. on which Text see the Note. Or if their old Language at their first inhabiting Samaria had such Letters, it being become obsolete when their Pentateuch was composed, the Letters might be either made more or fewer, and suited in Sound to the Heb. ones, as if they were newly invented. Thus there appears no Difficulty how the Samaritans might make their Exemplar from the Hebrew. But the Case turns out very different, by duly considering the Notion of Ezra's transcribing the Scripture out of Samaritan into the Chaldee Letters, which bears a Resemblance to the meeting of Mountains: for Ezra could not make the ancient Language and Character of the Jews otherwise than it was, and as the Number, Forms and Sounds of the Chaldee Letters were confined by common Use, they must also remain the same: I consequently conclude, that Ezra did no such Thing, but that the ancient Heb. Letters were the same with the present and with the Chaldee ones, little Variations perhaps, as we find in other Languages, excepted. And what should Ezra make the pretended Alteration for? What can be answered, but that it was because the Heb. Language or Letters were lost, or forgotten, and therefore changed for the Chaldean. Which appears not to be true, since the Books of Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi, Nehemiah, Esther, Part of Ezra and Daniel, were afterwards written in Hebrew; and if it had been necessary to have the Scripture in a Chaldee Character, would it not have been as necessary that those Parts of it should be in that Language? Besides Josephus says, that after Ezra's Death the Jews converted in Hebrew, Antiq. B. xi. Ch. 5. though it is probable the Chaldee might be mostly used among the Vulgar: but having these two Sorts of Letters, as supposed by the Objectors, in Use, would they prefer that of their Enemies before their own, when they were returned into their own Country? And if the Knowledge of the very Heb. Letters was lost, would not the Language much more? Whereas according to that Opinion it seems that those Jews retained their Language, and forgot their Letters; since the latter only are pretended to be altered. Or if they lost both, what would the Service of the Letters be without knowing the Words? They might have learned the supposed ancient Letters, without changing them, much easier than the Language. Nay how soon might 22 Letters have been learned! I cannot think Ezra would have done such an absurd, and what may be called profane, Piece of Work. Nor is there any ancient authentick Testimony for it, either in the Scripture, Apocrypha, or in Aristas, Philo, Josephus, &c. on the contrary Aristas, who wrote the History of the Septuagint's Translation, about two hundred Years before the Time of Christ, says τὴν αὐτὴν ἑρμηνείαν ἔχοντες καὶ τὴν αὐτὴν γλῶσσαν, the Letters and Language were both Hebrew, and so Josephus calls them, Proem. ad Antiq.

But there remains a grand Objection, which Prideaux says he thinks cannot be answered, Connell. Anno 446. There are some Medals or Coins that have on them in the Samaritan Character Holy Jerusalem, which it is pleaded were not made after the Babylonian Captivity, because the Samaritans would not have put Jerusalem on them, nor called it Holy, and so that it was done by the Kingdom of Judah before the Captivity, consequently that their Letters were the same as the Samaritan. On which there is room to doubt, whether it is unquestionable that these Coins are authentick, as there are I suppose no others extant so ancient. Some of the famous Darics mentioned by Herodot. Lib. 4. and Plutarch in Artax. might be coined about a Century after, but as others went under that Name which were made both by the Persian and Macedonian Race of Kings, Univ. Hist. B. I. xi. 2. the Distance of Time will be considerable. 'There is great Reason to believe, says the Univ. Hist. B. III. Ch. xxxvii. that not one of the Samaritan Coins is genuine, at least not one of them is indisputably so: for which is quoted Reind, Ottius & Spanheim; see Adrian Reland De vet. Hebr. Num. Dissert. and none might be more ready for Impositions of that Kind than the Samaritans, to set their Scripture and Religion above those of the Jews, as the Credit of such Coins made before the Captivity would do: and if they should not be genuine, which it cannot be proved they are, the whole Objection would be void; and is uncertain now, so that Nothing can be determined from it. But that there are such forged Coins or Medals is well known, and

8. And

8. And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth Month, which was in the same Year:

9. For on the first of the first Month he began to come up from Babylon, and on the even Walton owns he had seen some: Besides the Cheat or Mistake; if it be either, might partly at least be chargeable on the Papists, as Morinus, Soucié, &c. from whom we have the Account of these Pieces; who no doubt would be willing to have it so, to depreciate our Scripturæ, and who are known to deal in such Ware: But supposing them not to be made after the Captivity, neither does it seem likely to me, that they were stamped by the Kings of Judah before; because there are no Kings Heads on them, which shews as if the Regal Government at Jerusalem was then over. And if any other Time can be allotted for them without Absurdity, it will be sufficient. What remains is only that of the Captivity, which I take to be the Time when those Pieces were made, if not Counterfeits, by the Samaritans; being before they were at Variance with the Jews, and while they worshipped the true God, 2 King. xvii. 26, 27, 28, 41. Ezr. iv. 2. and consequently had an esteem for Jerusalem the peculiar Place for his Worship. Their being termed Adversaries, Ezr. iv. 1. might be with respect to what they were afterwards, or at the Time of writing it; besides that the original Word signifies such as strengthen others, which another People would the Jews by only endeavouring to join with them. Those People accustomed to Conquests, and not settling at home like the Jews, but being more acquainted both with the World and remarkable Affairs, might be much more likely to make Medals than the Israelites, of whom we find no such Thing. They, when the Inhabitants of Judah were carried away into Captivity at last, might look on the whole Country as their own, and dwell there, Ezr. iv. 4. nay the King of Babylon, who was also King of Affyria, seems to have designed or allowed it should be so, by not transplanting others thither; and they having embraced the Jewish Religion, might then esteem Jerusalem their Metropolis, however in an Ecclesiastical Sense, and so put the Epithet of Holy to it on their Coins or Medals.

Let us now examine those eight Pieces of which Walton has exhibited the Figures, especially since he pretends they are sufficient without any other Arguments, to make it certain that the Samaritan were the ancient Hebrew Letters. The first has on one Side in the Samaritan Character A Shekel of Israel, round a Figure taken for the Pot of Manna, with the Letters Shin and Daleth above it; and on the other Side Holy Jerusalem, round another Figure supposed to represent Aaron's Rod. On which I would observe, that as the latter Inscription shews it was not done by the Kingdom of Israel, so does the former that it was not by the Kingdom of Judah, and consequently was stamped by the Samaritans as above. Besides it being usual to denote the Name of the Place where Pieces were coined, as our Author observes, and mentions Aleph so posited on his 2d Shekel, as the first Letter of some City's Name where it was made; what can be more probable than that this Shin stood for Samaria, being the first Letter of it? That with the Daleth may be counted for ששקל כסף contrived and fashioned at Samaria, as דבמר has such a double Signification. The 2d Coin has the same Figures and Words, only differently spelled, as the foregoing, and Aleph above the Pot: one of which Beza on Mat. vii. 24. gives the Figure of, and says he had. What is more natural to think, than that this Letter was put for אשור Affyria the Name of the Empire, or for אשור אלה Efar-baddon their King who brought those Samaritans thither, Ezr. iv. 2? How conformable is it to their Manner. 2 King. xvii. 24. to the End, thus to mix Things? The 3d is like the first, only there is no Pot nor Rod; as if not much regarded by the Makers, which suits with the Samaritans. The 4th Morinus himself supposes to be a Samaritan Piece, which allows of their coining, and so makes for their doing the rest. The 5th being counted a half Shekel, having some of the Letters worn out, has Aleph over the Pot like the second. The 6th is so defaced, that there are few Letters to be known on it, of which however I have Something to observe further. The two last, says Walton, were post reditum e captivitate Babylonica, after the Captivity of Babylon, and yet they have both Holy Jerusalem on them as the former; which destroys the Argument, if there was Occasion for it; that the Samaritans would not put such an Inscription then: Which now, let me ask, yields the most unanswerable Argument, the Change of the Letters in the Scripture before mentioned, for what I have been pleading, or these Coins against it?

One more Objection, weak as it is, I am not willing to omit: Jerome mentions in his Time that the Letter Tau was formerly like a Cross, from whence, and the Shapes of the Letters, it was inferred this was the Samaritan Tau. Which may be safely allowed, though it is not of that Form now, and though the Patrons of the other Opinion dissent from themselves, as to what Sort of Cross it represented, whether this † or this X: for what does it avail if Jerome intended it of the Samaritan Tau? or what if he thought that was the ancient Heb. Character? Of what Weight is his mere Opinion concerning Matter of Fact 900 Years before? who was so variable in his Judgment touching the Hebrew and Greek Copies, and who is remarked for writing others Sentiments as his own. As for the Kind of Cross that appears on the 6th Coin, who can tell but it is a Piece of a Letter? Or is it certain that those obliterated Letters were Samaritan? Especially since Reland, where quoted before, and Loescher De Causis Ling. Hebr. p. 201, 202. shew that they differ from the Samaritan Letters almost as much as from the Hebrew.

Nay if there was any Occasion for it, one might suppose that if any of those Pieces were made before the Transmigration to Babylon, by the People of Judah; they might use the Samaritan Letters in coining, upon some Account or other, which might not be hard to conceive; and yet the Scripture might be in different ones, which soever were of common Use, though the latter would be more probable. Or those Coins might be Tribute-money paid by the Affyrians and others, to David, or Solomon; which it is easy to suppose were thus stamped, especially as several Conquerors imposed such a Tribute on the People brought into Subjection to them: I say others, because the Difference of Spelling and Character may intimate, they were made by diverse People using the same Language with some Variation; which also speaks for this being the Case. But Carpzovius answers the Objection of the Shekels, by the Distinction of common and sacred Heb. Letters.

It is added in the famous Universal History, B. iii. Ch. 37. 'Tis now universally received amongst the Learned, and the Dates on the Pieces themselves clearly evince it, that the oldest of these Coins, with Legends upon them, do not precede the Settlement of the Priesthood in the Asmonæan Family, which happened not much above an hundred and fifty Years before the Christian Æra; and some of them are much later, Spanhem. & Cœring. ubi supra—The Septuagint Version is (therefore) of higher Antiquity than any of those Coins which are supposed to have the Samaritan Character upon them. Now 'tis certain the Authors of this Version have frequently differed from the Hebrew, by their mistaking one similar Affyrian (as the Heb. is also called) Letter for another. This is an undeniable Argument, the individual Hebrew Copy they translated was written, not in the Samaritan, but the Affyrian Character; and consequently, that the Hebrew Text was written in that Character, before any of those Shekels were in being.

From hence, or even otherwise, may be easily perceived, how weak and ignorant Whiston's Pretence is, in his Essay towards restoring the true Text of the Old Testament, p. 149. that the Heb. Bible was only in Samaritan Characters till the Beginning of the second Century of first of the fifth Month he arrived at Jerusalem, according to the good Hand of his God upon him.

10. For Ezra prepared his Heart to seek the Law of the Lord, and to do it, as also to teach the Ordinances and Rules in Israel.

11. And this is the Copy of the Epistle which King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the Priest and Scribe, a Scribe of the Words of the Lord's Commandments, and of his Ordinances to Israel.

12. Artaxerxes King of Kings, to Ezra the Priest, a Scribe of the Law of the God of Heaven: May all be well, and at such a Time.

13. I give Order, that every one of the People of Israel, particularly the Priests of it, and Levites in my Kingdom, who will go freely to Jerusalem, shall go with thee:

14. Since thou art sent from before the King, and his seven Counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the Law of thy God which is with thee;

15. And to carry away the Silver, and Gold, which the King and his Counsellors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose Habitation is in Jerusalem;

16. Nay all the Silver, and Gold, which thou procurest in the whole Province of Babylon, with the Free-offering of the People and Priests, who freely offer for the House of their God that is in Jerusalem.

17. By this means thou mayest buy speedily with this Money Oxen, Rams, and Lambs, with their Meat-offerings, and Drink-offerings; and offer them upon the Altar of the House of your God that is in Jerusalem.

18. And what shall seem well to thee, and thy Brethren, to do with the rest of the Silver and Gold, ye may do according to the Mind of your God.

19. The Instruments also which are given to thee for the Ministry of the House of thy God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem.

20. And the rest that is needful for that House, which falls to thee to give, thou shalt do it out of the House of the King's Treasures.

21. Besides I King Artaxerxes give Order to all the Treasurers who are beyond the River, that all which Ezra the Priest, a Scribe of the Law of the God of Heaven, requires of you, shall be done speedily;

22. Even to a hundred Talents of Silver, a hundred Cors of Wheat, so many Baths of Wine, the same of Oil, and Salt not prescribed.

23. All that is commanded by the God of Heaven, let it be done carefully for his House: why should there be Wrath against the Kingdom of the Monarch and his Sons?

24. We further make known to you, that as for all the Priests and Levites, the Singers, Porters, Assistants, and Ministers of the House of God, there shall be no Ruler to impose Toll, Tax, or Tribute upon them.

25. And thou Ezra, according to the Wisdom of thy God which is with thee, make Magistrates and Judges, who all know the Laws of thy God, to judge all the People that are beyond the River, and you shall let them know who do not.

26. Lastly every one who does not perform the Law of thy God, and the King's Law, let Judgment be speedily executed upon him, whether it be to Death, Banishment, a Fine of Money, or Bonds.

27. Blessed be the Lord God of our Fathers, who put it thus into the King's Mind, to adorn the House of the Lord that is in Jerusalem;

28. And extended Kindness to me, before the King and his Counsellors, and with all the King's powerful Princes; so that I was strengthened according as the Hand of the Lord my God was upon me, and gathered together the chief of Israel to go up with me.

C H A P. VIII.

AND these are the chief Fathers of them, and their Pedigree, who came up with me in the Reign of Artaxerxes from Babylon:

2. Gershom of the Posterity of Phinehas,

Christianity, and was then changed into the present Hebrew ones by the Jews; since the 70 Translators could not make the forementioned Mistakes from the Samaritan Letters.

Though it has been pretended that the Talmudists hold the Samaritan to be the ancient Hebrew Character, it appears otherwise by their saying the Letters on Aaron's Breastplate were cut quite through it, and so Mem. מ and Samech ש were supported miraculously, as the middle of them was entirely disjoined from the Breastplate, Tractat. Megillath. whereas that would not be the Case with the same Samaritan Letters מ and ש. The like may also appear, by the Reasons given for some of the Letters Names; as that the second was named Beth, which is the Heb. Word for House, from its Shape resembling the Top, Pavement, Wall, and Entrance of it; the third a Gimel from gamal, a Camel, for imitating the Bunch on its Back; another Vau a Hook or Hinge, which it is like; another Caph, that is bending, as the Palm of the Hand, for the same Reason; y Ain, an Eye, D Pe, a Mouth, w Shin, a Tooth or Teeth, &c. in like manner. Even in the Tract Sanhedrim of the Talmud, quoted to support the contrary Opinion, this that I espouse is particularly pleaded for, as observed in Univer. Hist. B. I. vii. 4. and vindicated by Baxter the Son, Postellus and Hottinger against Merinus, &c.

Ver. 13. of it] not Ezra's.

Ver. 25. is with thee] How necessary it is to translate thus, as I do in other Places, need not be expatiated on; so Prov. vii. 20.

Daniel of the Posterity of Ithamar, Hattush of the Posterity of David;

3. Zechariah of the Posterity of Shechaniah, of that of Parosh, and with him a Pedigree of a hundred and fifty Males;

4. Elihoenai the Son of Zerariah, of the Posterity of Pahath-moab, and with him two hundred Males;

5. The Son of Jahaziel, of the Posterity of Shechaniah, and with him three hundred Males;

6. And Ebed the Son of Jonathan, of the Posterity of Adin, and with him fifty Males;

7. Jeshaiiah also the Son of Athaliah, of the Posterity of Elam, and with him seventy Males;

8. And Zebadiah the Son of Michael, of the Posterity of Shephatiah, and with him eighty Males;

9. Obadiah the Son of Jehiel, of the Posterity of Joab, and with him two hundred and eighteen Males;

10. And the Son of Josphiah, of the Posterity of Shelomith, and with him a hundred and sixty Males;

11. As likewise Zechariah the Son of Bebai, of the Posterity of Bebai, and with him twenty eight Males;

12. Johanan too the Son of Hakkatan, of the Posterity of Azgad, and with him a hundred and ten Males;

13. And some of the last Sons of Adonikam, whose Names were, Eliphelet, Jeiel and Shemaiah, and with them sixty Males;

14. Lastly of the Sons of Bigvai, Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy Males.

15. And I gathered them together at the River that comes to Ahava, where we encamped three Days; and understanding about the People and Priests, I found none of the Posterity of Levi there.

16. Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, chief Men; as also for Joiarib, and Elnathan, prudent Men.

17. Whom I ordered to go to Iddo the chief at a Place called Casiphia, and told them what they should say to him and his Brethren the Assistants there, that they should bring us Ministers for the House of our God.

18. And they brought to us, according to the good Hand of our God upon us, a Man of Understanding, of the Posterity of Mahli, the Son of Levi, the Son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, with his Sons and his Brethren eighteen;

19. Hashabiah likewise, and with him Jeshaiiah of the Posterity of Merari, his Brethren and their Sons twenty;

20. And of the Assistants, whom David and the Princes put for the Service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty, all of whom were expressly mentioned by Name.

21. And I proclaimed a Fast there at the River Ahava, to afflict our selves before our God, that we might enquire of him the right Way for us, our Children, and all our Substance.

22. For I was ashamed to ask of the King Forces or Horsemen, to help us against the Enemy in the Way; because we had said to him, that the Hand of our God is upon all who seek him for Good, but his Power and Anger against all who forsake him.

23. So we fasted, and besought our God for this; and he was intreated by us.

24. Moreover I put apart twelve of the chief Priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their Brethren with them.

25. To whom I weighed the Silver, Gold and Instruments; the Offering for the House of our God, which the King, his Counsellors, his Princes, and all Israel that were found had offered;

26. I even weighed into their Hands six hundred and fifty Talents of Silver, and Silver Instruments a hundred Talents, of Gold a hundred,

27. Twenty Basins of Gold of a thousand Drams, and two Vessels of the best yellow Brass, as handsome as Gold.

28. And I said to them; Both you and the Instruments are holy to the Lord, and the Silver and Gold are a Free-offering to the Lord God of your Fathers;

29. Be careful, and keep them, till you weigh them before the chief of the Priests, the Levites, and chief Fathers of Israel in Jerusalem, at the Rooms of the Lord's House.

30. Accordingly the Priests, and Levites received the Silver, Gold, and Instruments by Weight, to carry to the House of our God at Jerusalem.

31. Then we marched from the River Ahava, on the twelfth of the first Month, to go to Jerusalem; and the Hand of our God was upon us, so that he delivered us from the Power of the Enemies, and of those who lay in wait by the Way.

32. Thus we came to Jerusalem, where having abode three Days;

33. On the fourth Day the Silver, Gold,

Ver. 18. namely] or even: for Sherebiah appears to be the Man of Understanding; since no other is named, and he is put as chief, Ver. 24. so Jun. and Trem. have nempe.

Ver. 25. found] who gave for the House of God, Ch. vii. 16. not those present with Exra. only.

and Instruments were weighed in the House of our God, into the Hand of Meremoth the Son of Uriah the Priest, with whom there was Eleazar the Son of Phinchas, and with them Jozabad the Son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the Son of Binnui, Levites;

34. All being by Number and Weight; and the whole Weight was written down at the same Time.

35. The Captives also who were come from the Captivity, brought Burnt-offerings to the God of Israel, twelve Bullocks for all the Israelites, ninety six Rams, seventy seven Lambs, twelve He-goats for a Sin-offering; the whole being a Burnt-offering to the Lord.

36. And they gave the King's Decrees to his Lieutenants, and to the Governors beyond the River; who supported the People, and the House of God.

C H A P. IX.

AND when these Things were done, some Princes came to me, and said; The People of Israel, with the Priests and Levites, are not separated from the People of the Countries, the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians and Amorites, according to their Abominations.

2. For they have taken some of their Daughters for themselves, and for their Sons, so that the holy Offspring has mixed it self with the People of the Countries; and the Hands of the Princes and Rulers have been chief in this Fault.

3. And upon my hearing this Matter, I tore my Garment and Cloak, plucked off the Hair of my Head and Beard, and sat down astonished.

4. Then there gathered to me every one who trembled at the Words of the God of Israel, for the Fault of those of the Captivity; and I sat astonished till the Evening Offering.

5. At which Time I rose up from my Affliction, while my Garment and my Cloak were torn, and fell down upon my Knees, spreading forth my Hands to the Lord my God;

6. And said: O my God, I am ashamed, and in Confusion to lift up my Face to thee, my God; for our Iniquities are multiplied above our Heads, and our Guilt is become great to Heaven.

7. We have been in great Guilt from the Days of our Forefathers to this Day; and for our Iniquities have we, our very Kings, our Priests, been delivered into the Power of the Kings of the Countries, to the Sword, Captivity, Prey, and Shame of Face, as at this Time.

8. But now as it were a small Moment there has been Favour from the Lord our God, to leave us a Remnant escaped, and to give us a Nail in his holy Place; for our God to enlighten our Eyes, and to give us a little Reviving in our Servitude.

9. Servants as we were, yet our God did not forsake us in our Servitude, but extended Kindness to us before the Kings of Persia, to give us a Reviving to set up the House of our God, to make up its Desolations, and to give us a Fence in Judah and Jerusalem.

10. And now, our God, what shall we say after this? Since we have forsaken thy Commandments,

11. Which thou didst enjoin by the Ministry of thy Servants the Prophets as follows; The Country that you are to enter in to possess, is a Country of Separation, by the Separation of the People of the Countries, through their Abominations with which they have filled it from one End to the other, by their Uncleanness:

12. Now therefore neither give your Daughters to their Sons, nor take their Daughters for yours, nay seek not their Prosperity or Welfare for ever; that you may be strong, and eat the Good of the Country, and make it a Possession to your Posterity for evermore.

13. And after all that is come upon us for our evil Deeds, and great Guilt, since thou our God hast restrained it below our Iniquities, and hast given us such Deliverance as this;

14. Should we again break thy Commandments, and be joined by Marriage to the People of these Abominations? Mightest not thou be angry with us till thou hast consumed us, for there to be no Remainder, or Remnant escaped?

15. O Lord God of Israel, thou art righteous, since we are left a Remnant escaped, as at this Time: behold we are before thee in our Guilt, though we cannot stand before thee for this.

Ver. 35. The Captives] as vi. 20. and elsewhere, as the Sons of the Captivity (by another Heb. Word) may be understood.

Ver. 1. some Princes]: The same as Princes without the Article; and see Ver. 2.

Ver. 5. while] For what is the Use of only repeating it was done?

Ver. 12. Welfare] Heb. Good, as just after, not Wealth.

Ver. 15. though] for, as in divers other Places of our pres. Trans. turning it as it were topsy-turvy.

C H A P. X.

AND when Ezra prayed, and made confession, weeping, and casting himself down before the House of God, there were gathered to him a very great Congregation of the Israelites, Men, Women and Children; for the People wept exceeding much.

2. And Shechaniah the Son of Jehiel, one of the Sons of Elam, made answer to Ezra; We have done amiss against our God, as we have dwelt with strange Wives of the People of the Country; yet now there is Hope for Israel concerning this.

3. Now therefore let us make a Covenant with our God, to put out all the Wives, and those that are born of them, by the Advice of my Lord, and those who tremble at the Commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the Law.

4. Rise up, for the Matter belongs to thee, and we will be with thee: take courage, and do it.

5. So Ezra got up, that he might make the chief Priests, Levites, and all Israel swear to do according to that Thing; which they did.

6. And rising up from before the House of God, he went to the Room of Johanan the Son of Eliashib; whither being come, he neither eat nor drank any Thing, because he mourned for the Fault of those of the Captivity.

7. Next they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem, to all the Captives, to gather together at Jerusalem;

8. Nay that every one who did not come in three Days, according to the Advice of the Princes and Elders, all his Substance should be destroyed, and he separated from the Congregation of those of the Captivity.

9. Accordingly all the Men of Judah and Benjamin gathered together to Jerusalem, in three Days, it being on the twentieth of the ninth Month; and all the People sate in the Street by the House of God, trembling for that Matter, and by reason of the Rain.

10. When Ezra the Priest got ready, and said to them; Ye have done amiss, as ye have dealt with strange Wives, to add to the Guilt of Israel.

11. Therefore now make Confession to the Lord God of your Fathers, and do his Will, by separating from the People of the Country, particularly from the strange Wives.

12. To which the whole Congregation made answer aloud; It belongs to us to do according to thy Words.

13. But the People are many, and it being a Time of Rain, there is not Power to stand abroad; and it is not a Business for one Day, nor two, because we have transgressed much in this Matter.

14. Let our Princes remain, we pray, for the whole Congregation, and let all who have dwelt with strange Wives in our Cities come at appointed Times, and with them the Elders of each City, and the Judges of the same; till the fervent Anger of our God for this Matter is turned away from us.

15. Only Jonathan the Son of Asahel, and Jahziah the Son of Tikvah remained for it; whom Meshullam, and Shabbethai the Levite helped.

16. Then the Captives did so, and Ezra the Priest, with Men who were chief Fathers for the Household of their Fathers, all of them by Name, were separated, and sate down on the first Day of the tenth Month, to examine the Matter.

17. Thus they finished about all the Men that had dwelt with strange Wives, by the first Day of the first Month.

18. And there were found of the Sons of the Priests who had dwelt with strange Wives, Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah, of the Sons of Jeshua, the Son of Jozadak, and his Brethren;

19. Who gave their Hands to put out out their Wives, and being guilty, there was a Ram of the Flock for their Guilt:

20. And of the Posterity of Immer, Hanani and Zebadiah;

21. As also of the Posterity of Harim, Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel and Uz-ziah;

22. And of the Posterity of Pashhur, Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad and Elashah;

23. Of the Levites likewise, Jozabad, Shimei, and Kelaiah, otherwise Kelita, Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer;

24. And of the Singers, Eliashib: of the Porters too, Shallum, Telem and Uri;

25. Besides of the Israelites; of the Posterity of Parosh, Ramiah, Izzija, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah and Benaiah;

26. And of the Posterity of Elam, Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth and Elijah;

27. And of the Posterity of Zattu, Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad and Aziza;

Ver. 2. dwelt] Thus the Heb. not taken; and so in Ver. 10, 14, 17, 18.

Ver. 13. much] This Eng. Adverb being properly denoted in Heb. as here, 2 Chr. xxxvi. 14. 1 Sam. ii. 3.

and the People who transgressed being many told just before: so that not only the Vulg. Lat. but also Castal. has it in like Manner multum peccavimus, we have sinned much; and the Tig. Bib. vehementer peccavimus.

28. Of the Posterity also of Bebai, Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai;

29. Moreover of the Posterity of Bani, Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal and Ramoth;

30. And of the Posterity of Pahathmoab, Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, Binnui and Manasseh;

31. Harim's Posterity too, Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Simeon,

32. Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah;

33. Of the Posterity of Hashum, Mattanai, Mattatah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei;

34. Of the Posterity of Bani, Maadai, Amram, Uel,

35. Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chelluh,

36. Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

37. Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasau,

38. Bani, Binnui, Shimei,

39. Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

40. Machnadbai, Shashai, Sharai,

41. Azareel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

42. Shallum, Amariah, Joseph;

43. Of the Posterity of Nebo, Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddau, Joel, Benaiah.

44. All these had taken strange Wives, and there were some of them who had Children by theirs.

NOTES upon the BOOK of NEHEMIAH.

CHAP. I.

THE Words of Nehemiah the Son of Hachaliah. It came to pass in the Month of Chisleu, in the twentieth Year, when I was at the Palace in Shushan,

2. That there came Hanani, one of my Brethren, with some Men of Judah; whom I asked about the Jews that were escaped, who were left of the Captivity, and about Jerusalem.

3. And they told me, The Remnant who are left of the Captivity there in the Province, are in great Adversity, and Reproach; the Wall of Jerusalem is also broke down, and the Gates of it burnt with Fire.

4. So when I heard these Words, I sat down, weeping and mourning some Days; I fasted too, and prayed before the God of Heaven,

5. And said: I beseech thee, O Lord God of Heaven, the great and awful God, who keeps Covenant and Kindness with those that love him, and keep his Commandments;

6. Let thy Ear now be attentive, and thy Eyes open, to hearken to the Prayer of thy Servant, which I pray before thee at this Time, Day and Night, for the Israelites thy Servants; and do confess their Sins which we have committed against thee, and this I and my Father's Family.

7. We are wholly corrupted towards thee, and have not kept the Commandments, Ordinances and Rules, which thou gavest in charge to Moses thy Servant.

8. Remember, I pray, the Words which thou didst command him to say; Should ye do amiss, I will disperse you among the Nations:

9. Yet should ye return to me, and keep my Commandments, and do them; though there are some of you expelled to the uttermost Part under the Sky, I will gather them from thence, and bring them to the Place where I have chosen to make my Name remain.

10. Now these are thy Servants, and People, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great Power, and strong Hand.

11. I beseech thee, O Lord, let thy Ear now be attentive to the Prayer of thy Servant; and to that of thy Servants who are willing to reverence thy Name, and give now thy Servant Success at this Time, and grant him Compassion before this Man. For I was Butler to the King.

CHAP. II.

AND in the Month of Nisan, in the twentieth Year of King Artaxerxes, the Wine being before him; when I took it up, and gave to him, having not been sad in his Presence,

2. The King said to me, Why is thy Countenance sad, since thou art not sick? This is Nothing but Sadness of Heart. Very much afraid at this,

3. I answered him, Let the King live for ever; why should not my Countenance be sad, when the City, the Place of my Fathers Sepulchres, is waste, and the Gates of it consumed with Fire?

4. Upon this he interrogated me, What is it thou askest for? And I praying to the God of Heaven,

5. Said to the King, If it is well to the King, and if thy Servant is well before thee, that thou wouldest send me to Judah, to the City of my Fathers Sepulchres, and let me build it up.

6. And the King replied to me, while the Queen sat by him, For how long shall thy Journey be? And when wilt thou return? So the King being pleased to send me, I put him a Time.

7. Besides I requested him; If it is well

Ver. 1. at the Palace in Shushan] See Est. i. 2. And the Kings of Persia living seven Months of the Year at Babylon, three at Susa (the Scripture Shushan) and two at Ecbatan, Zonaras Annal. Lib. 1. so that Ælian compares them to Cranes, Hist. Nat. Lib. ii. 3. Besides the Agreement of which with the Scripture Account of a Palace being there, I observe a more particular Agreement in the Time; as the three Months of Residence at Susa were in the Spring, Zenophon Cyropæd. Lib. viii. p. 233. and I find the King not observing Nehemiah's Sorrow till the first Month of the Spring, Chap. ii. 1, 2.

though he had heard the mournful News in the fourth Month before from that Time; when the King being at Babylon for the Winter Season, and Nehemiah at Shushan to attend on him, there, Artaxerxes did not know of his Grief till he came thither.

Ver. 7. wholly corrupted] But the Author of the com. Lat. as if he twice mistook n for n has rendered it, seduced with Vanity.

Ver. 3. Let the King live for ever] The Form of Address to the Persian Kings, Ælian Var. Hist. Lib. i. 32.

to the King, let there be Letters given me for the Governors beyond the River, that they should convey me along, till I come into Judah;

8. And a Letter for Asaph the Keeper of the Forest that belongs to the King, that he should give me Timber to make the Gates of the Palace which belongs to the House, and for the Wall of the City, and for the House that I shall go into. Which the King granted me, according to the good Hand of my God upon me.

9. Then I went to the Governors beyond the River, and gave them the King's Letters; he sending Captains of the Army, and Horsemen with me.

10. Which Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the Ammonite Servant hearing of, it greatly displeased them; because there was a Man come to endeavour for the Good of the Israelites.

11. Now when I was come to Jerusalem, and had been there three Days;

12. I rose up by Night, having a few Men with me, but told Nobody what my God had put into my Heart to do at Jerusalem, and there was no Beast with me but that which I rode on.

13. And I went out at the Gate of the Valley by Night, and before the Serpentine-fountain, as also to the Dung-gate; then I got by force through the Walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the Gates of it consumed with Fire.

14. So I passed on to the Fountain-gate, and to the King's Fish-pond; but there was no Place for the Beast that was under me to pass.

15. Therefore I went up in the Night by the Brook, and got by force through the Wall; at length I came back, and entering in at the Gate of the Valley, I returned.

16. And the Rulers neither knew whither I went, nor what I did: for I had not yet told the Jews, whether Priests, Nobles, Rulers, or the rest who did the Work.

17. Afterwards I said to them, You see the Adversity which we are in, how Jerusalem is waste, and the Gates of it are burnt up with Fire; come, and let us build up the Wall of Jerusalem, that we may be a Reproach no more.

18. Moreover I told them of the Hand of my God which was good upon me, and also the King's Words that he expressed to me: upon which they said, Let us get ready, and build: so they made their Hands strong for the good Matter.

19. But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite Servant, and Geshem the Arabian heard of it, they scoffed at us, despised us, and demanded, What Thing is this that you are doing? Will you rebel against the King?

20. To whom I returned this Answer, The God of Heaven himself will give us Success, therefore we his Servants will get ready and build; whereas you have no Part, Right, nor Memorial in Jerusalem.

CHAP. III.

ACCORDINGLY Eliashib the high Priest got ready, with his Brethren the Priests, and built up the Sheep-gate, which they consecrated, and set up its Doors; even to the Tower of Meah did they consecrate it, to that of Hananeel.

2. And at the Side of him the Men of Jericho built; at his Side also did Zaccur the Son of Imri build.

3. But the Fish-gate the Sons of Haffenaah built; they made it, and set up its Doors, Locks and Bars.

4. At the Side also of them Meremoth the Son of Urijah, the Son of Koz, repaired; as did at their Side Meshullam the Son of Berechiah, the Son of Meshezabeel; and at theirs Zadok the Son of Baana.

5. Next at the Side of those the Tekoites repaired; but their Gentry would not bring their Necks into the Service of their Lord.

6. And Joiada the Son of Paseah, and Meshullam the Son of Besodeiah repaired the old Gate; they made it, and set up its Doors, with the Locks, and Bars of it.

Ver. 8. to make] beams for seems improper Paraphrase.
Ib. the Gates of the Palace which belongs to the House] Vulg. the Gates of the Temple, the Towers of the House.

Ver. 13. got by force] or broke, the indisputable Meaning of the Heb. Word כָּרַע as it is in all the Copies I have had the Opportunity of examining; nor is it pretended ever to signify viewed, or as some Lat. Translators render it considered. There is however another Heb. Word of the same Letters, differing from this only by having no Point over the right Side of w but even that signifies to expect or wait for, and no where else besides in this and the 15th Ver. nor by any Proof here to view or consider: yet I find this to be what is pretended for it, notwithstanding it is another Word, and not that which is here used; and notwithstanding this other Word or Verb wants the whole Conjugation Kal, in which the Word here is. Tun. and Trem. also turn it effringebam, I broke; nay the Septuagint likewise εὐρριπών the same.

Ib. through] to get to the other Side; the Original having a Preposition that signifies so properly, which is omitted in the other Way of translating.

Ver. 15. got—through] where there was some Breach in the Wall, and to get back again to the Outside.

Ver. 2. his Side] as here before; and not plur. as in Ver. 4.

Ver. 3. made] or framed, which appears better than laid the Beams, that scarce belongs to a Gate. There is the same Verb Chap. ii. 8.

Ver. 5. Necks]. By Allusion to Oxen under the Yoke.

7. And at their Side Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the Men of Gibeon and Mizpah repaired, to the Throne of the Governor on this side the River.

8. Uzziel the Son of Harhoiah one of the Goldsmiths repaired at the Side of him, and at his Hananiah the Son of one of the Apothecaries; but they left Jerusalem as far as the broad Wall.

9. And at the Side of them repaired Rephaiah the Son of Hur, Prince of the half Part of Jerusalem.

10. Moreover at their Side Jedaiah the Son of Harumaph repaired, even before his House; and at the Side of him did Hattush the Son of Hattabniah repair.

11. Another Measure Malchiah the Son of Harim, and Hashub the Son of Pahathmoab repaired, and the Tower of the Ovens.

12. And at the Side of him repaired Shallum the Son of Halloheh, the Prince of the other half Part of Jerusalem, with his Daughters.

13. Hanun and the Inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Gate of the Valley, they built it, setting up its Doors, Locks and Bars; and a thousand Cubits of the Wall to the Dung-gate.

14. But Malchiah the Son of Rechab, the Prince of Part of Beth-cherem, repaired the Dung-gate; he built it, and set up its Doors, Locks and Bars.

15. And Shallun the Son of Col-hozeh, a Prince of Part of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain-gate, he built it, covered it, and set up its Doors, Locks and Bars; and the Wall of the Fish-pond of Shelah, at the King's Garden, even to the Stairs going down from the City of David.

16. After him Nehemiah the Son of Azbuk, Prince of the half Part of Beth-zur, repaired to the Place before the Sepulchres of David, and to the Fish-pond that was made, and the House of the stout Men.

17. Rehum the Son of Bani, of the Levites, repaired after him: at his Side did Hashabiah Prince of the half Part of Keilah repair, for his Part.

18. After whom repaired, of their Brethren, Bavai the Son of Henadad, Prince of the other half Part of Keilah.

19. And Ezer the Son of Jeshua, Prince of Mizpah, repaired another Measure at his Side, over against the going up to the Arsenal, at the Corner.

20. After him Baruch the Son of Zabbai earnestly repaired another Measure, from the Corner to the Door of the House of Eliashib the high Priest.

21. After whom Meremoth the Son of Urijah, the Son of Koz, repaired another Measure, from the Door of Eliashib's House to the End of it.

22. And after him repaired the Priests, the Men of the Plain.

23. After the same Benjamin, and Hashub, repaired before their House: after whom Azariah the Son of Maaseiah, the Son of Ananiah, repaired by his House.

24. After him Binnui the Son of Henadad repaired another Measure, from the House of Azariah to the very Edge of the Corner;

25. Palal the Son of Uzai over against the Corner, and the Tower going out of the King's uppermost House, which is at the Court of the Prison; after him Pedaiah the Son of Parosh;

26. And the Assistants dwelling on the Ascent, to the Place before the Water-gate eastward, and the Tower going out.

27. After the same the Tekoites repaired another Measure, over against the great Tower going out, and to the Wall of the Ascent.

28. From above the Horse-gate the Priests repaired, against their respective Houses.

29. Zadok the Son of Immer repaired after the same, before his House: and after him Shemaiah the Son of Shechaniah, the Keeper of the East-gate repaired.

30. After whom Hananiah the Son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth Son of Zalaph, repaired another Measure: after the same Meshullam the Son of Berechiah repaired, before his Room.

31. After him repaired Malchiah, a Goldsmith's Son, to the Place of the Assistants and Merchants, before the Mustering-gate, and to the going up to the Corner.

32. And between the going up to the Corner and the Sheep-gate, the Goldsmiths and Merchants repaired.

Ver. 8. left] a common Verb of that Signification; and so Montan. Leo Jud. with Trem. and Jun. have reliquerunt, the Vulg. Lat. demiserunt: nor is there any Proof or Likelihood that it ever signifies fortified.

Ib. as far as] did not meddle with the old Wall that was standing; vid. Jun. Annot.

Ver. 14. Beth-cherem] like Beth-shittab, Jud. vii. 22. &c. without the Article; and see Buxt. Syntax. Cap. 5.

Ver. 15. Shallun] not Sballum.

Ver. 26. dwelling] So Cassal. renders it incolentes; Pagn. with Trem. and Jun. qui habitabant, who dwell: it being what they repaired, which is here related.

Ib. the Ascent] See at 2 Chron. xxxiii. 14.

Ver. 28. From] Vulg. Lat. to.

Ver. 32. the Goldsmiths] Lat. Aurifices, but in the Vulg. Artifices, Tradesmen; made, as one may think, erroneously from the other.

CHAP. IV.

BUT when Sanballat heard that we were building the Wall, it displeased him, so that he had great Indignation, and scoffed at the Jews;

2. Saying thus before his Brethren, and the Army of Samaria, What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they be left to themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a Day? Will they restore the Stones out of the Heaps of Rubbish, when they are burnt?

3. And Tobiah the Ammonite being by him, said, Even what they build, if a Fox should go up, he might break down their Stone-wall.

4. Hear, our God, that we are in Contempt, turn back their Reproach on their own Heads, and deliver them to be a Prey in a Country of Captivity.

5. Nay do not cover over their Iniquity, nor let their Sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee even before the Builders.

6. Thus we built the Wall, all which was joined together, one half of it to the other; the People having a Mind to do it.

7. And when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, Ammonites, and Ashdodites heard that the Walls of Jerusalem were making up firm, that the Breaches began to be stopped, it greatly displeased them.

8. So they conspired all of them together, to come to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

9. Upon this we prayed to our God; and set a Watch against them Day and Night, for fear of them.

10. And Judah said, The Strength of the Labourers is gone, and there is so much Rubbish, that we cannot build the Wall.

11. Besides our Enemies threatened, They shall not know, nor see, till we come in among them, and slaying them, make the Work cease.

12. When the Jews too who dwelt by them came, they told us ten times, They will be at all Places by which you can return to us.

13. Therefore I set at the lower Places behind the Wall, and in the clear Places, the People according to the Families, with their Swords, Spears and Bows.

14. Which having seen done, I addressed my self, and said to the Nobles, Rulers, and the rest of the People; Be not afraid by reason of them; remember the Lord is great and terrible, and fight for your Brethren, your Sons and Daughters, your Wives and Houses.

15. Now when our Enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had made their Counsel void, we returned all of us to the Wall, each one to his Work.

16. But from that Day one half of my Servants wrought in the Work, and the other held the Spears, Shields, Bows and Corsets; the Princes being behind all the Family of Judah.

17. The Builders on the Wall, and they that carried Burdens, with those who loaded, wrought in the Work with one of their Hands, and the other held a Dart.

18. The Builders also were girded each with his Sword upon his Loins, when they were building, and he that sounded the Trumpet was by me.

19. And I charged the Nobles, Rulers, and the rest of the People; The Work being much and wide, and we being separated upon the Wall far off one from another;

20. At the Place in which you hear the Sound of the Trumpet, gather thither to us: our God will fight for us.

21. So we wrought in the Work, and half of them held the Spears from Break of Day, till the Stars appeared out.

22. I likewise ordered the People at the same Time, Let each one with his Servant lodge within Jerusalem; that they may be a Guard to us by Night, as well as be at the Work by Day.

23. And neither I, my Brethren, my Servants, nor the Men of the Guard who followed me, did any of us pull off our Cloaths; each having his Dart and Water.

Ver. 2. be left] to do so: or will they [the Persians] leave them; or permit, as several translate: fortifie being foreign to it.

1b. to themselves] For the Heb. has a Preposition properly signifying to before the Pronoun.

Ver. 9. Upon this] Nevertheless thwarting the Sense.

Ver. 12. They will be] with this supplied, which seems intended, it signifies that when the Enemies fell upon them, they would also beset the Ways, that they might not escape back to their Friends in the Country, from whence they were come to help repair Jerusalem; see Ch. xi. 1.

Ver. 13. clear] as the like Word is rendered, Isa. xviii. 4. and the higher Places wanted the less Defence.

Ver. 14. seen done] For what else did he look at?

Ver. 17. Dart] to throw down from the Wall on the Enemy, in case of an Assault; see 2 Chron. xxxii. 5. from the Verb to throw.

Ver. 22. to us] Vul. to you.

Ver. 23. Dart] as Ver. 17. Jun. and Trem. translate cuique gladius fuit, each had his Sword; Castal. suum quisque telum dextera tenentes, holding every one his Dart in the right Hand; it being a Noun, the same as in 2 Chron. xxiii. 10. & xxxii. 5. Job. xxxiii. 18. & xxxvi. 12. Isa. ii. 8. and these are all the Places where it is found.

1b. Water] to drink at any Time, as People do at Work, without going away for it.

C H A P. V.

BESIDES there was a great Cry of the People, and their Wives, against their Brethren the Jews.

2. For there were some who said, We, our Sons, and Daughters are many; therefore we must receive Corn, that we may eat, and live.

3. And others who complained, We have mortgaged our Fields, Vineyards and Houses; that we might buy Corn in the Famine:

4. As there were more that did; We have borrowed Money for the King's Tax, on our Fields, and Vineyards.

5. Yet now our Flesh is like that of our Brethren, our Children as theirs; and behold we are bringing our Sons and Daughters into subjection for Servants, nay some of our Daughters are brought into subjection; and there is no Power in our Hands, because others have our Fields and Vineyards.

6. Greatly displeased, when I heard their Cry, and these Words,

7. I consulted in my own Mind, then chid the Nobles and Rulers, telling them, You exact Usury each one of his Brethren; whereupon I set a great Congregation against them.

8. I further said to them, We have bought our Brethren the Jews who were sold to the Nations, according to our Ability; and will you even sell your Brethren? Or shall they be sold to us? But they were silent, and found not a Word to say.

9. Moreover I proceeded; The Thing that ye do is not good; should not ye walk in the Fear of our God, by reason of the Nations our Enemies?

10. And likewise I, my Brethren and Servants, might exact Money and Corn of them; I beseech you, let us leave this Usury.

11. Restore to them presently, I pray, their Fields, Vineyards, Olive-yards and Houses, with the hundredth Part of the Money and Corn, the Wine and Oil, which you exact of them.

12. And they answered, We will restore, and require Nothing of them, we will do as thou sayest. Then I called the Priests, and made them swear to do according to these Words.

13. I also shook my Arm, and said, Thus let God shake every Man, who does not confirm these Words, from his House and Business, even thus let him be shaken, till he is void; to which all the Congregation said, So let it be, and praised the Lord. The People likewise did according to these Words.

14. Now from the Time when I was appointed to be their Governor in the Country of Judah, from the twentieth Year to the two and thirtieth of King Artaxerxes, being twelve Years, I and my Brethren did not eat the Victuals belonging to the Governor.

15. Whereas the former ones who were before me were burdensome to the People, taking of them Bread and Wine, besides forty Shekels of Silver, nay their Servants had government over the People; but I did not do so, by reason of the Fear of God.

16. And I also repaired in this Work some of the Wall, and we bought no Land; besides all my Servants gathered thither to the Work.

17. Jews too and Rulers a hundred and fifty Men, with them who came to us from the Nations that were round about us, were at my Table:

18. Inasmuch that what was made ready for one Day was an Ox, six choice Sheep, and for me Fowls, as also within ten Days a great deal of all Sorts of Wine; yet with this I did not require the Victuals belonging to the Governor, because the Service was heavy upon this People.

19. Remember me, O my God, for Good, according to all that I have done for them.

C H A P. VI.

AT length when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our Enemies, heard that I had built up the Wall, and there was no Breach left in it, although I had not at that Time set up the Doors at the Gates;

2. Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, to come, that we might meet together at one of the Villages in the Vale of Ono; they intending to do me some Mischief.

3. But I said by Messengers whom I sent to them, I am doing a great Work, so that I cannot come down; why should the Work cease, when I leave it off, that I may come down to you?

4. Yet they sent to me after that Manner four times, and I returned them answer after this Manner.

5. Then Sanballat sent his Servant to me

Ver. 11. presently] This Heb. Word is found once more, viz. in 1 Sam. ix. 13. where see.

Ver. 13. Arm] So Isa. xlix. 22. where it is only besides, and thus by our best Interpreters.

Ver. 15. Fear of God] Τὸν σὸφόν ἐ κατὰ τοῖς κειμένους νόμοις περὶ τὴν πόλιν, ἀλλὰ κατὰ τὴν τῆς ἀρετῆς, said Antisthenes the Philosopher; Wise Men do not live by the Direction of the Laws, but according to Virtue, Hesychius in The Life of famous Philosophers.

Ver. 1. at the Gates] I do not know why, or from whence our Eng. Translators have upon, since the Latin ones have in portis.

after the same Manner the fifth time, with an open Letter in his Hand;

6. In which was written; There is heard among the Nations, and Gashmu says, thou and the Jews intend to rebel, therefore thou buildest up the Wall, that thou mayest be their King, as it is reported;

7. And that thou hast set up Prophets to proclaim concerning thee in Jerusalem, that there is a King in Judah; and now the King will hear the like Report: now therefore come, and let us take counsel together.

8. But I sent to tell him, There is Nothing according to these Words which thou sayest, for thou forgettest them out of thy own Heart.

9. Though all of them made us afraid, saying, Their Hands will leave off the Work, so that it shall not be done. Now therefore strengthen my Hands.

10. Besides I went into the House of She-maiah, the Son of Delaiah, the Son of Me-hetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us get together at the House of God within the Temple, and shut the Doors of the Temple: for they will come to kill thee, and that in the Night.

11. Nevertheless I answered, Should such a Man as I flee? Or who that is as I am, would go into the Temple, that he might live? I will not go in.

12. And I knew that behold God had not sent him: for he spoke the Prophecy against me, because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13. He being hired to the intent that I should be afraid, and by doing so should sin; that they might have Something for an ill Name to reproach me.

14. Remember, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these their Doings, and also Noadiah the Prophetess, and the rest of the Prophets, who would have made me afraid.

15. So the Wall was finished on the twenty fifth of Elul, in two and fifty Days.

16. Which when all our Enemies heard, and all the Nations that were round about us saw, they were exceedingly cast down in themselves; being sensible that this Work was done by our God.

17. Moreover in those Days the Nobles of Judah sent many Letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's came to them.

18. For there were many in Judah sworn to him: for he was Son-in-law to Shecha-niah, the Son of Arah: and his Son Jeho-hanan married the Daughter of Meshullam, the Son of Berechiah.

19. They would also be talking of his good Deeds before me, and divulging my Words to him; who sent Letters to make me afraid.

CHAP. VII.

AND when the Wall was built up, I set up the Doors; and Porters, Singers, and Levites were appointed.

2. I also ordered Hanani my Brother to be over Jerusalem, with Hananiah the Prince of the Palace: for he was like a Man of Ve-racity, and feared God above many.

3. Then I said to them, Let not the Gates of Jerusalem be opened till the Sun gives heat; and while these stand by, let some shut, and make fast the Doors: they are likewise to place Guards for the Inhabitants of Jeru-salem, in their several Watches, and before their own Houses.

4. Now the City was of a large Space, and great; but the People were few within it, and there were none of the Houses built up.

5. My God in the next place put into my Heart, that I should gather together the Nobles, Rulers and People, to reckon up their Pedigree; and I found a Book of the Pedigree of those who came up at first, in which I found written.

6. These are the People of the Province that came up from Captivity, the Captives whom Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon carried away, who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, to their respective Cities;

7. The Number of which Men of the Is-raelites, that came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Ne-hum and Baanah, were:

8. The Posterity of Parosh, two thousand a hundred and seventy two;

9. The Posterity of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy two;

Ver. 12. sent him] where the Heb. Division of the Ver. is.

Ib. the Prophecy] that they would come to kill Nehemiah, Ver. 10.

Ver. 3. them] the Porters, as well as the two last mentioned; otherwise these would be improper for them who are only spoken to.

Ib. shut] at Night, as Chap. xiii. 19.

Ib. make fast] in general, as the Verb signifies, to lock, bolt, &c. not particularly bar.

Ib. to place] being infinitive.

Ver. 5. From this Verse to Chap. xii. 9. says Sir Is. Newton, Chron. of ant. Kingd. amend. Ch. 6. Nehemiah copied it all out of the Chronicles of the Jews, written before his Days; as may appear by reading the Place, and considering that the Priests and Levites who sealed the Covenant, Neb. 10. were the very same with those who returned from Captivity in the first Year of Cyrus, Neb. xii. and that all those who returned sealed it; as he shews by comparing them together. However see on Ezr. ii. 1.

10. The Posterity of Arah, six hundred fifty two ;
11. The Posterity of Pahath-moab, belonging to those of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred eighteen ;
12. The Posterity of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty four ;
13. The Posterity of Zattu, eight hundred forty five ;
14. The Posterity of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty ;
15. The Posterity of Binnui, six hundred forty eight ;
16. The Posterity of Bebai, six hundred twenty eight ;
17. The Posterity of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty two ;
18. The Posterity of Adonikam, six hundred sixty seven ;
19. The Posterity of Bigvai, two thousand sixty seven ;
20. The Posterity of Adin, six hundred fifty five.
21. The Posterity of Ater, belonging to Hezekiah, ninety eight ;
22. The Posterity of Hashum, three hundred twenty eight ;
23. The Posterity of Bezai, three hundred twenty four ;
24. The Posterity of Hariph, a hundred and twelve ;
25. The Posterity of Gibeon, ninety five ;
26. The Men of Beth-lehem and Netophah, a hundred eighty eight ;
27. The Men of Anathoth, a hundred twenty eight ;
28. The Men of Beth-azmaveth, forty two ;
29. The Men of Kirjath-jearim, Chephai and Beeroth, seven hundred forty three ;
30. The Men of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty one ;
31. The Men of Michmas, a hundred and twenty two ;
32. The Men of Bethel and Ai, a hundred twenty three ;
33. The Men of the other Nebo, fifty two ;
34. The Posterity of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty four ;
35. The Posterity of Harim, three hundred and twenty ;
36. The Posterity of Jericho, three hundred forty five ;
37. The Posterity of Lod, Hadid and Ono, seven hundred and twenty one ;
38. The Posterity of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.
39. The Priests were: the Posterity of Jedaiah, belonging to the Family of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy three ;
40. The Posterity of Immer, a thousand fifty two ;
41. The Posterity of Pashhur, a thousand two hundred forty seven ;
42. The Posterity of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.
43. The Levites were: the Posterity of Jeshua, belonging to Kadmiel, to the Posterity of Hodevah, seventy four.
44. The Singers were: the Posterity of Asaph, a hundred forty eight.
45. The Porters were: the Posterity of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatitah, Shobai, a hundred thirty eight.
46. The Assistants were: the Posterity of Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,
47. Keros, Sia, Padon,
48. Lebana, Hagaba, Shalmal,
49. Hanan, Giddel, Gahar,
50. Reaiah, Rezin, Nekoda,
51. Gazzam, Uzzah, Paseah,
52. Besai, Meunim, Nephishefim,
53. Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,
54. Bazlith, Mehida, Harsha,
55. Barkos, Sisera, Thamah,
56. Neziah, Hatiphah.
57. The Posterity of Solomon's Servants, namely of Sotai, Sophereth, Perida,
58. Jaala, Darkon, Giddel,
59. Shephatiah, Hattil, Pochereth-zebaim, Amon ;
60. All the Assistants, and the Posterity of Solomon's Servants, were three hundred ninety two.
61. And these came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon and Immer ; but they could not tell the Family of their Fathers, and their Offspring, whether they were of Israel :
62. The Posterity of Delaiah, Tobijah, Nekoda, six hundred forty two.
63. Of the Priests also, the Posterity of Habai, Koz, Barzillai, who taking a Wife of the Daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, was called by their Name ;
64. These sought for their Register among them whose Pedigree was reckoned up, but it was not found ; so they were held to be polluted from the Priesthood.
65. For the Tirshatha said of them, that they should not eat of the very holy Things, till there stood up a Priest with Urim and Thummim.
66. The whole Congregation together, were forty two thousand three hundred and sixty ;

Ver. 12. two hundred] In Vulg. eight hundred.
Ver. 21. ninety] Lat. Vulg. nine hundred.

Ver. 66. three hundred] Lat. Vulg. six hundred.

67. Besides their Servant-men and Maids, these being seven thousand three hundred thirty seven; and they had two hundred and forty five Men and Women who were Singers.

68. Their Horses were seven hundred thirty six, their Mules two hundred forty five,

69. The Camels four hundred thirty five, the Asses six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

70. And Part of the chief Fathers gave for the Work; the Tirshatha giving to the Treasure a thousand Drums of Gold, fifty Basons, five hundred and thirty Priests Coats.

71. Some of the chief Fathers also gave to the Treasure of the Work twenty thousand Drums of Gold, and two thousand and two hundred Manchs of Silver.

72. And what the rest of the People gave, was twenty thousand Drums of Gold, two thousand Manchs of Silver, and sixty seven Priests Coats.

73. So the Priests, Levites, Porters, Singers, and some of the People, with the Assistants, and all Israel dwelt in their Cities; where the Israelites were when the seventh Month approached.

C H A P. VIII.

AND all the People gathered together as one Man, into the Street that is before the Water-gate, and spoke to Ezra the Scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the Lord gave in command to Israel.

2. Accordingly Ezra the Priest brought the Law before the Congregation, both of Men and Women, and all who had understanding to hear it, on the first Day of the seventh Month.

3. In which he read before the same Street, from the Morning-light till the middle of the Day, before Men, Women, and those who had understanding; and the Ears of all the People were to the Book of the Law.

4. Now Ezra the Scribe stood upon a wooden Pulpit that was made for the Affair; and by him stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anai-ah, Urijah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah, on his right Hand; and at his left Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchiah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, Meshullam.

5. And Ezra opened the Book in the Sight of all the People, forasmuch as he was above them; at the doing of which they all stood up.

6. Then he blessed the great Lord God: and all of them answered, So let it be, so let it be, with lifting up their Hands; they also bowed, and worshipped the Lord, with their Faces to the Ground.

7. Besides Jeshua, and Bani, with Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites made the People understand the Law, who stood still.

8. Thus they read in the Book, in the Law of God expounded, putting the Sense, and made them understand the Scripture.

Ver. 6. the great Lord God] Vul. Lat. the Lord God with a great or loud Voice.

Ver. 8. read] It has been a Matter of great Enquiry and Debate, when and by whom the Hebrew Points, Part of which are the Vowels of that Language, were introduced. Before the Babylonian Captivity, while Hebrew was the Mother-tongue of the Jewish People, as their Letters are all Consonants, and there was little or no Necessity for Vowels, it may be thought or allowed, they had but few or none of the latter. But being dispersed after the Transmigration, and not living together, as their Ancestors had done before in Egypt; the Chaldee, as it is agreed, was become their common Language at the Return from Captivity: whereby there was then Need of Vowels for the right reading and understanding of the Scripture Words, the adding of which was concluded both by Jews and Christians to be done by Ezra, that ready Scribe or Writer, Ezr. vii. 6. assisted by the Men of the Great Synagogue, Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi, with those in Ezra ii. 2. and others; a particular Account of which may be seen in Buxtorf's Tiberias, Cap. 10, & 11. But lately in the Beginning of the 16th Century, one Elias Levita a Jew of Germany started another Opinion: for the Jews continuing to put a great Value on their Tradition, Mark vii. 13. and having pretended that the true Meaning of the Scripture was delivered down to them from the inspired Writers by Word of Mouth, till their Rabbi Judah, whom they call Hakadosh, the Holy, wrote it in a Book intituled Mishnah, about 150 Years after Christ; so this Elias Levita pretended the right Reading of the Scripture was preserved in the same Manner, till their Masorites at Tiberias composed the Points, about 500 Years after Christ, Eliæ Lev. Masoreth Hammasoreth, & de Accentibus. As the inventing this Opinion made for the Jewish Tradition, so the promoting it did for the Popish ones, by lessening the Truth and Authority of the Holy Scriptures, which have been a great Check to the Traditions of the Papists: it is therefore no Wonder that Morinus (that bitter Reviler of the Protestants at the same Time) in Exercit. Biblicæ, and their great Father Simon in his Critical Enquiries, &c. with others of them, should so cordially espouse the Cause; nor for the same Reason of degrading Sacred Writ, that those who are deistically inclined should do the same, in order for Human Reason to juggle out Divine Revelation; accordingly it may be generally found that the late Authors of those two Sorts, when they make mention of this, hold with Elias, only pretend the Points are erroneous or uncertain; as Hutchinson most confidently does, for Imaginations of his own. The Jews however, though it does not extenuate the Scripture in their View, because they think such oral Tradition of the Points as valid, and as much from Inspiration at first, as if they had been all along written, do altogether reject this new Conjecture of Elias Levita; see Buxt. de Punct. P. II. Cap. iii. iv. and p. 366. while it must be confessed divers learned Protestants, with Capellus at their Head, have likewise fallen in with it, led perhaps too much by Novelty, or the Authority of others, not considering it sufficiently themselves; as not thinking it perhaps material, of which further.

The better to understand the State of the Matter, and be more capable of judging in it, let us suppose the Vowels

9. And Nehemiah who was the Tirshatha, and Ezra the Priest the Scribe, with the Levites who made the People understand, said to them all, This Day is holy to the all taken out of the English Books of the old Testament, as also out of the Latin ones; the first might then be pretty nearly to us when we were used to them, as the Hebrew Bible was to the Jews before the Captivity, while that was their common Language; and what it was to them after the Captivity, we may conceive by considering how such a Latin Copy without Vowels would be to us. There being indeed commonly in Hebrew a Consonant and a Vowel alternately, that Tongue must be the easier in such a Respect, but this may be thought overbalanced by the Hebrew having more than double the Vowels of our European Languages; nay if an English and Latin Copy without Vowels as mentioned before had some Mark for the Places of them, it would exceed the Hebrew in Plainness upon that Account. It is however not to be omitted, that the Matres Litterarum, as some call the Letters א, י, ו, and נ, are somewhat helpful in reading the unvowelled Hebrew, but not much in the Scripture: for when ו is used as a Vowel, it has the Power both of i and e, י of e and u, and א is never a Vowel, but used with all the five; besides these two first Letters themselves, which are properly Consonants, being destitute of Points, do not inform a Reader when they are endued with the Nature of Vowels, nor are they in Place for one half of them; so that this is next to Nothing of Certainty without further Help; and the Jews put more of them in modern Words for that Purpose, which the Bible wanting, even this may shew it had pointed Vowels; see more fully Buxt. de Accent. p. 370, 371. In pleading these, Walton owns they were very seldom in the middle of Words, and yet asserts they were the only Vowels, Consulerator considered, p. 206; and Simon pretending there were more than now, makes bad worse.

The Case being thus fairly stated, methinks an unprejudiced Person should not want Arguments to be persuaded that the Jews neither did, nor could read the Hebrew Bible without Points, till the Time Elias Levita talks of, as Prideaux owns and shews, Connell. P. I. B. 5. and that they were frequent in reading it, is well known. So far and so long, as the Words and Pronunciation of them were retained in the Memory of any from their Forefathers, such Persons might read: for the Consonant-letters alone could not teach them how to do it; neither did, as is manifest by the Septuag. and Targumists reading otherwise. And is it to be imagined that even the Readers in the Synagogues could say the whole Scripture by Heart? Words it is true might often be known by the same Words in other Places, the Sounds of which were remembered, and many more might be known according to the Rules of Grammar, by Number, Conjugation, Tense, &c. but as there are divers Nouns seldom extant, some but once, and several irregular Verbs, with Abundance of particular Words that vary from the usual Construction; the Remembrance of the common Words, and the general Knowledge of Grammar (then but little) would be insufficient without remembering also the Exceptions and Words less frequent: all which to mind distinctly in the several Places, might require a larger Memory, than to be able to say the whole Scripture out of Book, as it lies connected together; see Buxt. Tiber. Ch. 9. at end, and even Capel. Crit. Sac. Sect. 63. Many Verbs, with the Knowledge of the Heb. Grammar, might be known how to be read by the Letters, if regular; but even in such Verbs, their Letters would not inform whether the pointing, or reading, was regular or irregular in such a Place, or what it was if the latter, and so it would be uncertain; which some plead it is, for the like Reasons. And besides the various Anomalies of the Verbs, the Vowels of the Nouns are very different. So that all the same Pronunciation without Points could not be derived from the sacred Penmen, as pretended in Proleg. iii. sect. 51, 53. ad Bib. Polyglot.

An Objection that is raised from the present reading of the Samaritan Pentateuch, and the Writings of the Jewish Rabbies without Points, gives me Occasion for making the Matter still plainer. It is certainly much easier to put Vowels to the Consonants, than to read them without; because the first allows of all Helps, and any Time for performing it, whereas the other is to be done ex tempore by Memory: it must needs be granted too, that the Points were inserted in the Targums by no mean Hands, yet they were far from being correct; and though Buxtorf himself has done it anew, than whom perhaps none in these Ages was more capable, the Learned are not satisfied it is entirely right. How could those Versions then have been read without Vowels? Much less how could the Original? There is a material Difference in the Jewish Rabbinical Books, which may be supposed written plainly grammatical, and so are every where to be read in the same Manner, with the Aid too of א, י, ו, inserted at Pleasure. And notwithstanding the Targums have more Difficulties by following the Scripture, yet less than the Hebrew Text it self; besides Chaldee was the Jews Language after the Captivity. The pointed Bibles may now assist them, instead of Hebrew being their Mother-tongue, to read the unpointed ones, where Memory fails; and as they know what is to be read beforehand, they may get their Lesson ready; as indisputably their Boys do, who, as I have seen at London, read a Portion of Scripture in the Synagogue: for the Schoolmaster there himself confessed to me, that he could not teach the Writings of their Rabbies. Besides they read but Part of the Scripture in their publick Worship. As to the Samaritans, Prideaux seemed to think they have Points, though not transmitted to us: Nay Jerome writes, in one of his Prefaces to Kings, The Samaritans have the Five Books of Moses, written with the same Letters as the Jews, figuris tantum & apicibus discrepantes, only differing in their Shape and Points; for what else can the latter be, since something besides the Form or Character of the Letters? They might also help themselves with the Heb. Points, and they having only the Pentateuch, that may be easier read, where it depends so much on Memory, than the whole Bible; and perhaps they make but little Practice of reading that, which may be incorrectly too: as the learned Postellus in his Alphabet of 12 Languages writes, The Samaritans have now no Points, as they had in the Time of Jerome, and they read, depravati admodum, very badly without them. But the Necessity of the Points still more appears, by their making and distinguishing Consonants, as well as Vowels: for the double Letters are made by [·] in the single ones, the Sound of b is also taken away by it, and ph distinguished from f by the same; so caph and he together make. are known from caph only sem. by · and · Another Objection springs from what has been already mentioned, that the Copies kept in the Synagogues are void of the Points, from whence it would be inferred, that they are a late Invention. If Ezra did introduce the Points, yet the great Labour and Care of annexing them to the Bibles, which might be done after the Letters were all written, was probably the Reason that many went without them, and this accords well with their Origin being from Ezra; so that the Points might not be put to the Synagogue-Law, because they had a later Rise than the Letters, that this might be as the Ten Commandments of God's own Writing were. The Points moreover might look like an unpleasant Mark of their Declension and Captivity, damping the Delight they should have in worshipping God; or they might be left out for Ostentation, to shew they could read without them; or else might be avoided there, that the Priests should be skilful and industrious to read so; or that those Copies might have no Fault, which could scarcely be with the numerous Points. From the Scarcity of the pointed Bibles before Printing was known, especially if they were formerly kept only in the Jewish Schools, as Prideaux affirms, it is no Wonder that divers ancient Writers make no Mention of them, as might otherwise be expected, nor that the Septuagint did not use, as it seems, pointed Copies; see Gen. xlvii. 31. to which may be added, that

Lord

Lord your God, do not mourn nor weep: for all the People wept, when they heard the Words of the Law.

10. He said further to them, Go, eat the fat Things, and drink the sweet, and send Part to those for whom there is Nothing pre-their Translation is supposed to be made, not from the Heb. but the Chaldee, as Buxt. shews, De Punct. Par. i. Cap. 9. so unpointed Originals are to be ascribed to the Use of some Targumists (for Onkelos translates so near to the Heb. as may be incredible without his having the Vowels, which may also be an Argument of their Antiquity) particularly Jonathan, of whom the Jews have such a high Veneration, that they write, he received his Targum or Chaldee Translation, as to the Sense of it, from the three last Prophets, Zech. Hag. and Mal. that while he was making it, the whole Country of Palestine was shaken with an Earthquake, and this was heard from Heaven, Who is he that reveals my Secrets to Mankind? that if a Fly or the like pitched on him or his Paper, it was burnt up from Heaven, without any Hurt to himself or the Paper; that the Angels would fly from Heaven to know it, when he was absent; and that he was the Chief of fourscore Disciples of the famous Hillel: and as he differs considerably from the pointed Hebrew, as for Instance instead of with in Hos. xi. 12. he has People twice, the Difference in Heb. being only a Vowel; here is a strong Plea against the Points being invented by the Jews afterwards: for how can it be imagined but they would have been guided by him, as their greatest Authority in that Case? And the latter Targum-Writers appear to have written after the pretended Invention of the Points, yet they differ from them still more: from all which it is not difficult what to conclude. Moreover the Cabbalists reading otherwise sometimes than the Pointing (in the Luxuriancy, and Wantonness of their mystick Meanings, and Allegories; which some bring for a Reason that the Law was not pointed by Moses, but Ezra, and reckon those Senses to be seventy) may indicate the Necessity of the Points, rather than their Absence. On the other hand the Talmudists, throughout their voluminous Writings, do not quote, as Buxtorf supposes, and who knew better? one Passage of Scripture but according to the present Punctuation; the Jerusalem Talmud being published about the Year of Christ 230, and the Babylonian 500: the like almost he speaks concerning Jerome in his large Works, unless perhaps he has any where been led from it by allegorizing, or by the Septuagint Transf. nor even that does he grant hardly, see Buxt. Fil. Tract. de Punct. p. 77, 154, 164, 166. How possibly could they so often and so much keep to a Reading, that was not yet ascertained, when the bare Letters admitted of its being so various? If it might be objected, that the Tiberian Jews (whom young Buxt. aptly calls Utopians, who never were but in Imagination) made the Pointing according to the Talmuds; yet surely not by Jerome's Books, who was a Christian, and lived in the 4th Century. But if there were such as composed the Pointing from the former Hebr. Writings, as doubtless they would and must have done, how came they not to be guided by the Targums, Septuagint, &c. As this cannot be answered to any Purpose, it concludes full against the Novelty of the Heb. Vowels. As for the little Mention that is made of those Points in the Talmuds, &c. it is no Wonder, when the Subjects there treated on did not require more. What therefore does that make for there being then no Points? But one Instance of them quite overturns it, as before. That Jerome had Recourse to the Text pointed, notwithstanding the great Scarcity of it in those Times, is sufficiently manifest by his asserting so often the Heb. is thus and thus, contrary to the Seventy, or others, who took it otherwise; when without the Vowels it might be either Way, and would signify either; see Examples in Buxt. De Punct. Pt. 1. Cap. xi. p. 146, &c. & 161, &c. as likewise by his writing in some Words an e, where the Heb. had no Sound, but where being pointed would be Sheva, which in other Places stands for e: now he might easily put e for [] signifying it, though there silent; but how should he make a Vowel and Syllable from Nothing? see some Examples in Buxt. De Punct. p. 158.

Prideaux in Con. B. 5. at Fnd, relates that there is a Copy, which they pretend to be the original one written by Ezra, kept at Bononia, that has the Vowel-points; which though incredible to be the same, yet it is natural to suppose that when the Copy was renewed, it was made like the old one, which may amount to the same. The Copy written by Hillel was a famous one, which upon a Persecution in the 10th Century in the Kingdom of Leon, being brought from thence, as Abrah. Zacuth writes in the Book Yubasin, fol. 132. the Jews corrected their other Copies by it; Part of which that was sold in Africa, he says, he saw: David Ganz also the Author of צמח צדק Zemah David (these being two principal Jewish Historians) applauds that Bible, as do several others. This Hillel lived before the Time of Christ, as Pet. Cuncus, de Republica Hebraica, asserts, and our Countryman the learned Prideaux particularly shews, Connect. Part ii. Book 8. at Beg. and that his Book had the Points Kimbi and others testify, De Accent. p. 351, 352. nay Simon himself says in his Critical Enquiries, Chap. 3. that Hillel's Copy has Vowel-points and Accents. But he pretends that Hillel was after the Masorites of Tiberias, and his Proof for it is, because his Bible has Points; thus taking that as granted which he pleads for (not uncommon with him) that those Masorites invented them: nay by the Variations which he mentions, in the pointing of that Codex from the Masoretic Copies, it appears to be more ancient, as they are uniform since the Notes of the Masorab were added. In a noted MS. intitled ספר הבהיר Sephir Habbahir, written by Nehonja before the Time of Christ 50 Years, as the Book Yubasin, fol. 20. and Zemah David, fol. 35. shew, there is express Mention of the Points; a Quotation from which is given by Dehai in his Commentary on Gen. xviii. 3. in these Words: הנקודות מניעות האותיות כמו שהשמה מניעה את הנקודה שדרשו רבותינו בספר הזהיר דאין נקודתא באתותא דאורייתא דמשה כנשתתא דחיי כנופא דאניש The Points move the Letters as the Mind does the Body, according as our Rabbies expound it in the Book Bahir; The Points with the Letters of the Law of Moses, are like the living Mind with the mortal Body of Man. Another famous Treatise called זבאר Zabar, written before the Talmuds, about a hundred Years after Christ, as the Books mentioned for the Time of the other relate, by Shimeon ben Johai, or his Scholars from him, concludes a Sentence with these Words, Col. 2. דחלת גקודין חלם שורק חירק of the three Points or Vowels, Helem, Shurek and Hirek. And in the same Place there is Mention made more than once of אותן ונקודות the Letters and Points; in Colum. 152. is also a particular Account of the Points. It is possible some Addition may have been made to those Books, which may have caused them without that Consideration not to seem so ancient. And the ancient Copies of the Mishnah, or Text of the Talmud, which was published about 150 Years after the Birth of Christ, had the Points and Accents, as Ephodens and others shew, Buxt. de Punct. p. 78, 79. In the Talmuds likewise, after which both Elias Levita and Capel pretended the Pointing was invented, טעמים the Accents are several Times spoken of, as in Talm. Hieros. Megillah, Ch. 4. Talm. Babyl. Megil. Ch. 1. on Neb. viii. 8. Nedarim, fol. 37. Col. 1 & 2. Berachoth, fol. 62. Hagiga de Ollat. Agnor. fol. 6. see Buxtorf in Tiberiade, Cap. ix. Sect. 3. and more with his Son Of the Points, Part i. Ch. 5, 6. The like may be found in the Book Coxri, being the Account of a Conference between a Jew and King Chexroes, as there said 4500 Years from the Creation, by which the latter was converted to Judaism; see Yubasin, p. 42, &c. And so in the Book יצירא Yezirah, for its Antiquity, &c. ascribed by some to Abraham, however is mentioned in the Talmud, Sanbed. Ch. 7. there is a distinct Account of the double Letters, which are made so by the Pointing; as also the same double Letters are spoken of in Zabar, on pared;

pared; for this Day is holy to our Lord: and be not sorrowful, since the Joy of the Lord is your Strength.

11. The Levites likewise made all the People hold their Peace, by saying, Be silent, for this Day is holy, and be not sorrowful.

Genes. Col. 153. and particular ones in several Places of the Talmud, as Buxt. the Son shews, Pt. i. Chap. 14. and even by Words in the Writings of the New Test. he demonstrates the like was then used; of which take these two: Joppa is according to the Point Dagesh, for otherwise the Heb. is spelled with ph; and Sarepta, Luk. iv. 26. was Zarephath, 1 King. xvii. 9. with ph and th, the taking away the Aspiration b being denoted by one of the Heb. Points; and more than he has collected together, p. 230. I suppose may be found, especially Words having p, t and c, without b, from the Heb.

How unaccountable it is that Persons not prejudiced as before mentioned, and who duly weigh the Matter, can believe such a Story as Elias the Levite tells, when no History nor Author of those Times gives any Account of such Invention of the Points! not Seder Olam Zentab, Kabbalah Abr. Lev. Jubasin, Shalsheth Haccabalab, or Zemah David, which five Books comprehend the History of that Time; see also Buxt. de Punct. p. 378. So that the Relation of a Fact about a thousand Years before, rests on his own Authority, and some late uncertain Quotation; while on the other hand there was to be retained in Memory from Age to Age another thousand Years, the distinct Remembrance of 15 Vowels and 25 Accents, as they are commonly reckoned, and how they were to be applied to every Word and Syllable in the whole Scripture. Probably he might think the Story would not pass, unless he affixed to it Time, Place and Persons: which help to discredit it, as the Jews were then dispersed from the Country of Judea where Tiberias was; and though Jerome mentions some, or rather one, there in his Time, yet their Universities and learned Men in general being in the Province of Babylon, about 100 Years before, from about the Year of Christ 230, to the Year 1037, Buxt. Tib. Cap. 6. no doubt but those would have performed such a great Undertaking, if it had been done, as they did the Babylonish Talmud of that Time, nor would it have otherwise been received.

Capellus a principal Follower of Elias Lev. in his Arca-num Punctuationis revelatum, Lib. i. 7. pleads the marginal Readings of the Scripture being only concerning the Letters, and none about the Points: which at most can be a Sign of no more, than that those Readings were not made since the Points; and that they were put in the Margin since the Time of Ezra, needs not be supposed, nor seems likely; and the Jews hold it for certain that those Words were put by Ezra; only the few which are in Ezra, Nehemiah, &c. might be added by Simon called the Just, who is allowed to have added some Passages to the Text it self, which must have been done after Ezra's Time; and so might some of those Readings be put, since the Number of them differs. As Buxtorf the Father answered Elias Levita in his Tiberias, annexed to the Basil Heb. Bible in two Vol. fol. and in the first Edit. of his Heb. Gram. as did also other of the Jews; so his Son made farther Answer to Capellus, for which see his Book De Punctorum &c. Antiquit. and in particular Pt. ii. Ch. 6, 7. where he exposes the new Notion of Capellus, that the Pointing was begun by the Tiberian Jews as before, but continued with Additions by others, and at last finished by Ben Asher about our Year 1040; which the profound Silence of all Writers during that long Time renders very chimerical, besides the other Absurdities attending it, as there shewn.

The Work of the Massorites, who were probably at the Schools or Colleges of the Jews in Mesopotamia or the Province of Babylon, was the composing those Notes on the Scripture, from whence they took their Name, called the greater and lesser Massoroth: which Notes evidently, I might say demonstratively, shew that the Authors of them were not the Inventors of the Points, because divers of them are Remarks on the Pointing, as Godwyn observes,

Mos. and Aaron, Lib. vi. 7. Thus on Gen. xix. 2. they observe that every ראה for behold, which are numerous in Scripture, is pointed ראה with the Vowel zero, excepting here only, where it is ראה with the Vowel sægol; so on Gen. xvi. 15. that יש is six times with sægol, and always besides with zero. If the Massorites had invented the Points, would not they have made them alike, or told the Reason of the Difference? especially unless they had done it through Oversight, which the Note shews they did not. So they remark on Exod. xxxii. 1. that ראה before ר or י is pointed with three different Vowels, 17 times ראה 5 times ראה and twice ראה of which may be said the like as before, and of Abundance more. Such Alterations might chiefly arise from the Custom of Speech, as the Words here mentioned are of the Nature of ours that end with a Vowel, which Vowel we sometimes contract, and perhaps change, in the Sound, by reason of the first Syllable of the following Word. The Points must needs be added at first, from the Sound of speaking those Words to which they were put; so that the Points were of Necessity before the pronouncing of the Words was lost. One may wonder what should induce Prideaux to think that the Points were invented a little after the Time of Ezra, rather than in it, Connell. An. 446. Posit. 2. If it is believed there were Massorites from his Time, and the Pointing was made by some of the first of them; why may not Ezra himself be admitted into their Number (instead of, or with, his changing the Letters, as on Ezr. vii. 6.) and so the Controversy end? Whereas it is pretended that some Massorites found out the Points, and others of them afterwards made the Remarks on their Irregularity; would not those who did the latter have made the Pointing uniform, instead of such Remarks, if it had been done at first by some of their own Body, or Persons of equal Authority with themselves? Nay would not the Massorites, had they been the Authors, have made it alike at first, since they must do it by some certain Rule? And for Capellus and Walton to suppose all the Irregularities to be their Mistakes, is too absurd; and why then did they not mend them? Now there is not only great Difference of Pointing in the poetical Books from the rest, and in the Decalogue from both, but so much interspersed about, according to the Plainness or Elegancy of the Writer's Style, that I have been ready to conclude it was the Work of the first Penmen: but the learned and industrious Ezra, and his Contemporaries, with the Advantage of the Hebrew being their native Language, might have Ability to suit the Points to the whole, and fewer would have served when it was a living Language, according as we know when to pronounce our Vowels long or short by Use; but were others to learn true Reading by them, they would need to be distinguished; as a Speck joined under the Heb. short e makes it long, and one put over the long e makes it short. Hence also vanishes the bold Objection of Lewis Capellus, that so many Heb. Vowels and Points are absurd and superstitious, and so neither the Work of the inspired Penmen nor of Ezra: not considering, as it seems, that whoever put the Points, only accommodated them to the Reading that was before, and for which they were necessary; and doubtless the Reading ever was, as in all other Languages, with the Sound of long and short Vowels, nay and with different Degrees of Shortness to some, as the Heb. Vowels denote. I should think it must or would easily be granted, that the Heb. Reading of the Scripture never altered much, especially as the Jews have been in such constant Practice of it, both publicly and privately, and as it has been contained within the Compass of one Book: so that if there was not such Pronunciation before as the pointed Vowels indicate, they must be ancient indeed; and if there was, they are consequently right and proper; and therefore suitable to the divine Writers or Ezra, according as Capellus argues largely for the contrary. Besides it is utterly improbable that the Tiberian Jews or any other would would attempt to change their Reading, by introducing the Sounds of new Vowels, and so lewdly violating their sacred Tradition, as it would have been; nay it is utterly improbable they could have done it: for would all the Jews in the World have been so imposed on? Those who can believe Capellus in this, may in the rest. But what if he did not believe it himself? For that may appear not altogether unlikely, without supposing he wrangled thus to support his new Notion, by his not foreseeing this unavoidable Consequence of it; that if some Jews at Tiberias first invented, and brought into use, ridiculous and erroneous Vowels and Characters of Sound, they must also the Sounds themselves, or else those Marks of the Sounds used before must be right. But if the present Punctuation be thought too much for Ezra and his Collegues, we may safely allow, and suppose, there might be five Vowels or the like before, for the distinct Sounds beside long and short; and that to retain the Variation of those Sounds, Ezra added more Vowels, &c. and for more exact Pronunciation the Accents likewise: for though the certain Tone, or Modulation, of these be now lost; yet they are of much Use to discover the Sense, by parting or joining the Words.

The Sect of the Karaites among the Jews, who reject their Traditions, and are counted those of the best Learning and Judgment, do strenuously adhere to the Pointing, as well as other Parts of Scripture, Simon's Critical Hist. B. i. Ch. 27, 29. and Crit. Eng. Ch. 4. And why may not I produce for it (what many learned Men have done) the Words of Christ himself, Mat. v. 18? Since as Jos is allowed to signify any little Letter, especially the Hebr. Jod; the other may properly mean a Point, of which the Vowels are composed, and which the small ones simply are; and not the Ends of the Consonants, as Capellus weakly contended, because the Loss of such would not be at all material. Why not also Deut. xxvii. 8? for how could all the Law be written very plainly, or be well expressed, without any Vowels, and that even to Passengers by Jordan? I may add and conclude this with the Verse on which I am writing, viz. Neh. viii. 8. for who sees not that the Partition into Verses was then necessary? which according to the Babylonian Talmud was meant by putting the Sense, Tiber. Ch. 8. this being agreed to be Part of the Pointing, and ascribed also by those in the Opposition to the Tiberian Majorites, after the finishing of the last Talmud, to which they confine it; whereas the elder Buxtorf not only brings express Quotations of the Verses from the Mishnah, which must be before the Talmuds that were written on it, but he says the Talmudists make mention of the Verses a thousand times, Tiberias, Ch. 8. as Buxt. jun. likewise proves that the very ancient Mishnahs had the Points to them, De Punct. p. 78, 79. and even Walton relates, that the Levites read a Verse first in Hebrew, and then in the Chaldee, as he had seen it in an old MS. brought from Ormus, Considerator consid. p. 288. and it is fully proved by the Athenian Society in The Young Students Library, fol. pr. 1692, Pt. i. Ch. 14. that the Maforah was before the Takunds, by the Mention and Account of it divers times there; then as the Maforah contained Remarks on the Pointing, both Vowels and Accents, they must needs be before it, and consequently longer before the Talmuds, and the last especially; which therefore refers them to the Time and Care of Ezra.

What may seem to have made some Protestants so remiss about the divine Authority or Certainty of the Heb. Points, and others to give it up, is a Notion that the Meaning of the Scripture is secured by the Letters only, without the others. This Prideaux, whom I mention as a popular, and withal deserving Author, sets himself industriously to prove, Connell. Pt. i. B. 5. at End. But as it is of the Nature of an universal Negative, we have but his ipse dixit for it, that must be invalid by one Instance to the contrary; and he himself mentions ancient Versions, where in several Places the Authors of them did read the Text otherwise than according to the Punctuation: which as it must needs be owing to their using unpointed Bibles, the others being then scarce, is an evident Token that the Sense was there sometimes uncertain on that Account. To make the Matter clear and indubitable (referring the Reader also to Buxt. De Punct. Antiq. p. 419, 420, 421.) let it be considered; that, besides divers Nouns especially of very different Significations by the Pointing, with the same Letters, as דבר has 8, shewn in Ferdinando Parkhurst's Divine Canon. p. 113. the dual and masc. plural Numbers end alike, the Points excepted; that to denote my with a Noun masc. the Letters are the same whether the Noun be singular or plural, nay the plural Nouns masc. when contracted, which are so numerous, are the same as both these; that several times when singular Feminines have a like Pronoun of the third Person affixed, they receive it by Contraction without any Alteration of the Letters, it being noted only by a Point in the ן that the usual Abbreviations of the masc. and fem. Pron. sing. of the 2d pers. ך and ך are both the same unpointed, while the Prophets often speak in that Person, and make Transitions from one Thing to another; that double Letters are only single ones pointed; that ו and ו are as two different Letters, not only in the Reading but as to the Meaning of the Words where they are, whose Variation is only in the placing the Speck over them; and that in the Verbs there are the same Letters, with different Signification, in various Conjugations, especially Piel act. and Pual pas. Moods, Tenses, Genders and Numbers, almost innumerable, which I will not tire the Reader and my self with repeating; only observe that the different Meaning unknown by the Letters alone, will mostly fall among the irregular or imperfect Verbs. It is true, the Sense of the Context would often determine it without the Points, but not always in such a Multitude of various Cases as occur in Scripture. Thus in the Septuagint Version נשח in Gen. xlvii. 31. is rendered a Staff, by others a Bed, the Consonants signifying either; and as it is not related whether Jacob was up, and so leaning on the Top of a Staff, or in Bed, the Vowels only shew it was the latter. The same Translation Hes. ix. 12. instead of when I depart, has עצמי my Flesh: the Heb. Word translated is בשרי and the common way of expressing when I depart would be בשרי the Root being סר and the Change into ש extraordinary, nay could not have been if it was an usual ש but my Flesh would have been in the vulgar Manner בשרי and the Vowel Holem is either י or the Point only above without the י so that he who translated this Part, as is to be supposed from an unpointed Copy, took as it seems the most obvious Way. But the Word being pointed בשרי discovers the infinite Verb, and so the Commutation of the Letter; for though in basar, Flesh the Letter is also ש it is the Point shews that. Again in Jer. i. 38. דבר the first Word is either Sword or Dryness according as it is pointed, and for the Context, there the Discourse had been carried on with Sword five times mentioned, as it is here continued by the Septuagint from the foregoing Verse; but by the Punctuation we know it is the other. In the 9th Verse of the same Chapter the Meaning of נשחל depends entirely on the Place of the Point over the ש for נשחל signifying to deprive or bereave of Children, and נשחל to be prosperous or skilful, this textual Word is to be understood by the Root which that Letter agrees with, and the Sense of the Passage would accord to either; and here our Translators appear mistaken by not minding that Point, or following an incorrect Copy; for the Lexicons both of Pagninus and Buxtorf, with the Grammar and Concordance of the latter, have it the other Way. However this Instance is in full Force for what it is produced; since if the placing that single Point or Speck is here uncertain, so is the Sense of the Passage, and accordingly Translators render some one Way, and some the other. So נשא Usury or a Burden, Neh. v. 7. and the like, Ch. x. 31. What a Case would the Scripture be in then if it had no Points, or if those it has were but the Work of some latter Jews? The like of that Point see at Gen. xxvi. 12. Thus it is the placing of the Point settles the Meaning Gen. xlix. 6. שור being a Wall, שור an Ox, and collectively Oxen, with either of which the Verb to extirpate or root out will agree: the pointing decides it for the latter, notwithstanding the Inattention of our Translators, and the Authority of Ab. Ezra, an Author fond of new Things; look also Isa. xlii.

22. So in Ezek. xxxiv. 3. the Septuagint have γάλα Milk, instead of Fat; חֵלֶב without the Points being the same as חֵלֶב and either will suit with the Passage. In Micah v. 4. likewise, where we read in the pointed Bibles יָשְׁבוּ they shall abide, it might be taken for יָשְׁבוּ they shall return, were it not for the middle Vowel, which Meaning would be strengthened by the foregoing Verse; nay the Chaldee and vulg. Lat. Translators have turned it the latter Way, one by יְרֻבוּן the other by conuertentur, but the Septuagint have ἰνδεδυοί they shall abide. And in the 14th Verse of the same Chap. יָרִיב thy Adversaries, as the Pointing shews, and the best Translators render, might be unpointed thy Cities, as we see it in the Eng. Bible: which has also poals instead of Blessings, Psa. lxxxiv. 6. in the same wrong Manner. By the pointing too of יִרְאָה Mic. vi. 9. it is that we only know it comes from יִרְאָה to see, which might else be from יִרְאָה to fear, by the Addition, as is frequent in Heb. of ה according to which it would be יִרְאָה with but one Vowel different; and so the Targum has it rendered יִרְאָה the Greek Version φοβούμενος and the old Lat. timantibus, all which Verbs signify to fear, not see. Those who use the pointed Bibles know that יָנֵץ is a Noun, and signifies a young one, Zech. xi. 16. but the ancient Interpreters without the Points took it for a Participle in a very different Sense, as the Septuagint that which is scattered, &c. In like manner יִנְחָה she was or might be reproved, Gen. xx. 16. the Words of Moses; might be taken, as they are by the vulg. Lat. Author and Ainsworth, for Abimelech's Words, יִנְחָה thou art or mayest be reproved; nay the Septuagint, Onkelos, Pagnine, Leo Judea, Castalis, Jun. and Trem. understood it in the 2d Person, though the Pointing does not allow it, being too different from the usual Form. And מִצָּד a Fortification has by several, and our own Translators, been mistaken for מִצָּד a Net, Prov. xii. 12. as also again in the Plural, Eccles. vii. 26. the only Odds being a Speck differently placed. Not only the vulg. Lat. Bib. has high instead of wherein, Isa. ii. 22. referring it to the Man Christ Jesus, by taking בְּמִצָּד to be מִצָּד without the Points; but even Jerome displays his Eloquence in pleading for it. And so both the same vulg. Latin and Greek apply אֲרִמָּה I make comparisons, Hos. xii. 10. to Christ, as if it was passive אֲרִמָּה I have been resembled, as there rendered; either of which the Context would admit of, if it was not pointed. Again both these Translations for מִצָּד puts, Psa. xl. 4. have name from מִצָּד thus, The Man is blessed whose Trust is the Name of the Lord. And instead of lungs, Psa. lxxiii. 1. in the pointed Heb. בְּמִצָּד the Word being no where else, was taken in those Versions for בְּמִצָּד or מִצָּד rendered from thence in the Eng. Dewey Transf. every man's wayes. For want of Points, and the Distinction of the Verses that is made by Points (which it seems their Copy had not) the Septuagint for God אל Psa. xc. 2. render not from אל putting it to the next Verse: the Word likewise for number in Ver. 12. they join to the foregoing Verse. The same Gr. Translators, with all my Lat. ones, excepting Jun. and Trem. render the Heb. Isa. xliii. 17. for יְבִנּוּ thy Builders, as Ezek. xxvii. 4. when it is יְבִנּוּ thy Children. Munst. Cast. and L. Jud. as also Gret. following the com. Lat. reckon יְבִנּוּ are become sick, Jer. xii. 13. to be possess or inherit, as if it was יְבִנּוּ the Points being the only Difference. Nay from the Distinction of a single Speck over the right or left Corner of ו the vulg. Lat. Transf. L. Jud. Cast. and Gret. interpret the Meaning to be take away, instead of forget, Jer. xxiii. 39. nor is Munster there clear of the Mistake; so Obad. iii. the LXX. vulg. Lat. and Pagn. have lifted up for deceivd, with Cast. the like; and with the same small supposed Variation only, both the former translate there is the Way, not that appoints the Way, Psa. l. 23. with all in proper Sense, though not that of the pointed Original. In Mal. ii. 3. instead of Seed, the same Gr. and vulg. Lat. have Arm, from the Absence of the Points, which Sense Grotius says is best; but the Vowels determine otherwise. So Psa. xlvii. 9. instead of וְיִשְׁמְעוּ the People of, the LXX have μετὰ and the vulg. Lat. Translator cum, with, taking it for וְיִשְׁמְעוּ which Capellus says is better, Critic. Sacr. Lib. iv. Cap. 17. as likewise Breasts than Loaves or Love, Cant. i. 2. &c. is by the same; thus he also supposes the Seventy's, He has watched over my Treas. from our Heb. Letters. Reading bahem too for behem, Gen. xiv. 5. the Sept. and vulg. Lat. Interp. have with them in the room of in Ham. Instead of dwelt at in 1 King. xv. 21. the LXX have translated it returned to, which Capellus also prefers, while the Letters and Sense allow both. The same Critick produces divers Instances, where other Vowels would make a good, or better Reading, than the present is, as it should not be cut off for its Iniquity, Zeph. iii. 7. the desolate, for from the Sword, Job. v. 15. a Midianite Man, for a Man of Dimension, 2 Sam. xxi. 20. to the Nations, for to Truth, Isa. xlii. 3. &c. Critic. Sacr. Lib. vi. Cap. 4. See more about in the Notes, especially on Psalms, and of וְיִשְׁמְעוּ in particular on Chap. ii. 13. of this Book. Thus by the Difference of the Accents only if not, where, Job ix. 24. is known from if not now, Chap. xxiv. 25. the Words and even the Points being the same, and now would make Sense in the former as well as latter; see Neld. Concordan. Annot. 492, 493. And the Accent or Pause only shews that together round about, Job x. 8. belongs to the last Verb; which our Translators have misapplied, by pointing otherwise than the Hebrew. The very skillful Sat. in his Commentaries on Ezek. i. 11. that unless we have seen the Accent great Zakeph at Moses, he should have known how to expound it, for it was this that led him to part that Word from the following. And not regarding little Zakeph, Am. ii. 4. Montan. and Castal. with the Tigur. and Genov. Translators have joined וְיִשְׁמְעוּ to me with the following Word in rendering it, which that Point parts it from. To which add that Walter Cross says, he might reckon up twelve different Translations of Esa. cx. 3. by neglecting the Accent either at Power or Mountain, Taghmical Art, p. 45. of which also see Bux. De Accent. p. 424. And how should we defend that noble Prophecy of Gen. xlix. 10. in shewing Christ is come, but by the Accent, against the Jews? For they would have it to be for ever, either of which the Heb. Word signifies; and to be joined to Feet, which it might if the great Stop Athnah did not separate them: so that the very Sense of this express and glorious Text for Christianity, depends on a single Accent, one of which it was therefore necessary should not fail, according to Mat. v. 18. and this may be a strong Proof that the latter Jews did not invent even the Accents, nor yet alter them; for then it might be as they want it, The Scepter will not depart from Judah, nor a Law-giver from between his Feet for ever; for Simeon will come; see their Bereish. Rab. Sect. 99. likel in Loc. Menas. Ben Isr. in Conciliat. These Instances set down as they occurred to Mind, may be sufficient to satisfy the Reader of the Truth of what they are brought for. Such as understand the Original, and will be at the Trouble to examine from whence the Differences in the Greek and old Latin Versions arise, which seem to be made from unpointed Copies, might probably be furnished with a large Stock; and even all those would be perhaps but the least Part of them, as we may rationally suppose that when their Authors found it doubtful by the Heb. Letters, they oftener took the right Way than the wrong. But even though the Sense were secured without the Points, their Antiquity should not be given up: for if the Adversaries of the Scripture could have the Pointing be uncertain, they would no doubt represent the Scripture it self to be so. To conclude, it was in particular necessary for me to clear up this Matter, by reason of the Use I make of the Pointing, to justify the Manner of translating several Passages. Of this our great Lightfoot says, The Words written without Vowels in an unpricked Bible might be bended divers Ways, and into divers Senses, and different from the Meaning of the Original, Haim. of 4 Evang. And Cross thus, Read the Criticks, and thou wilt find five, sometimes ten different Senses, by not observing the Points, Taghm. Art. p. 46. To conclude the Chaldee Names

12. So all the People went to eat, drink, to send Part, and to make great Mirth, because they understood the Words that were explained to them.

13. And on the second Day the chief Fathers of all the People, the Priests and Levites, were gathered together to Ezra the Scribe, that they might consider the Words of the Law.

14. Who found written in the Law which the Lord commanded by Moses, that the Israelites should dwell in Booths at the Feast in the seventh Month;

15. And that they should publish, and make Proclamation throughout all the Cities, especially Jerusalem, as follows, Go forth to the Mountain; and bring Olive-branches, and Branches of other oily Trees, Myrtle-branches, Palm-branches, and Branches of thick Trees, to make Booths, at it is written.

16. So the People went forth, and bringing them, made themselves Booths, each upon his Roof, and in their own Courts, as well as in those of the House of God, as also in the Street of the Water-gate, and that of the Gate of Ephraim.

17. Thus the whole Congregation who returned from Captivity made Booths, and dwelt in them; though the Israelites had not done so from the Days of Jeshua the Son of Nun, to that Day: and there was very great Gladness.

18. Moreover he read in the Book of the Law of God daily, from the first Day to the last; keeping the Feast seven Days, and on the eighth it was a solemn Day, according to Custom.

CHAP. IX.

AFTERWARDS on the four and twentieth Day of the same Month, the Israelites were gathered together with Fasting, Sackcloth, and with Earth upon them.

2. The Posterity of Israel also separated from all Strangers, and stood confessing their own Sins, and the Iniquities of their Fathers.

3. Then standing up where they had stood, they read in the Book of the Law of the Lord their God a fourth Part of the Day, and a fourth Part they confessed, and worshipped him.

4. And Jeshua, with Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani got up on the Stairs of the Levites, and cried aloud to the Lord their God.

5. The Levites too, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah said: Rise up, bless the Lord your God from Age to Age; and let them bless thy glorious Name, though it is exalted above all Blessing and Praise.

6. Thou art he who is Lord alone, thou madest Heaven, the Heaven of Heavens, and all their Army, the Earth, and all which is upon it, the Seas, and all that are in them, and thou preservest them all: therefore the Army of Heaven worship thee.

7. Thou art he who is the Lord God, that chosest Abram, broughtest him out of Ur of the Chaldeans, and didst put his Name Abraham;

8. As likewise finding his Heart faithful before thee, thou madest a Covenant with him, to give the Country of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, and Perizzites, and Jebusites, and Girgathites, that is to his Offspring; and hast confirmed thy Words, for thou art righteous.

9. Moreover thou sawest the Affliction of our Forefathers in Egypt, and heardest their Cry at the Red Sea.

10. And didst give forth Signs and Miracles on Pharaoh, on all his Servants, and all the People of the Country, because thou knewest that they behaved proudly against them: so didst thou make thee a Name, as at this Day.

11. Next thou didst cleave the Sea asunder before them, inasmuch that they passed

Names of the Points, like those of the Months in Scripture, shew them to be very ancient, when the Jews used that Language, as in Ezra's Time, and not 500 Years after Christ.

Ib. expounded] by the Points as now shewn, the Heb. Word being a Participle passive of this Meaning.

Ib. putting the Sense] for which Purpose it might likely have been then divided into Verses: which was evidently done with the Pointing, by reason of particular Points at the Middle and End of the Verses; however could not be after, nor was likely to be at first.

Ib. made them understand the Scripture] by interpreting it to them in the Babylonian Mother Tongue, i. e. Chald. Hence, says Buxtorf, there are found very ancient Copies of the Bible, in which throughout all the Books, a Chald. Paraphrase is put to each Verse, which seems to have had its Rise and Original from that Custom at the Captivity: for we read in the Talmud this was practised in the Time of Ezra, Vind. Ver. Heb. p. 713.

Ver. 12. explained] Heb. made known.

Ver. 15. oily Trees] very plain in the Original; but that they were Pines remains to be proved.

Ver. 17. though] But how is there such a Reason as for requires?

Ver. 5. let them bless] The Verb being plural.

Ver. 6. thou preservest them all] Of this Seneca writes excellently; Manent cuncta quia defenduntur cu: a regentis, hæc conservat artifex, fragilitatem materie vi sua vincens, Epist. 58. All things remain because they are defended by the care of him that governeth them, the work-man that made them maintaineth them, surmounting by his virtue the frailties of the matter, Lodge's Transf.

Ver. 8. Hittites] Added here in the vulg. Lat. Hivites.

through through the midst of it on dry Ground; and didst throw down those who pursued them in the Depths, as a Stone into the strong Waters.

12. Thou also leddest them with a Pillar of a Cloud by Day, and with a Pillar of Fire by Night, to make the Way light for them in which they went.

13. And thou camest down upon Mount Sinai, and spakest to them from Heaven, giving them right Rules, and Laws of Truth, good Ordinances and Commandments.

14. Besides thou madest known thy holy Sabbath to them; and didst order Commandments, Ordinances, and Laws for them, by the Ministry of thy Servant Moses.

15. Nay thou gavest them Bread from Heaven for their Hunger, and broughtest them Water out of the Rock for their Thirst; and toldest them they should go in to possess the Country, which thou hadst lifted up thy Hand to give them.

16. For all that they and our Fathers behaved proudly, hardened their Necks, and did not hearken to thy Commandments;

17. And not only refused to hearken, but did not remember thy Wonders which thou hadst done with them, hardening their Necks, so that they made a Captain in their Rebellion to return to their Slavery: yet thou wast a God of much Forgiveness, gracious and merciful, delaying of Anger, and of great Kindness, and didst not forsake them.

18. Even when they made them a molten Calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up from Egypt; and shewed great Contempts:

19. Yet thou through thy many Mercies, forsookest them not in the Wilderness: the Pillar of the Cloud did neither depart from them by Day, that was to lead them in the Way, nor the Pillar of Fire by Night, that was to make it light for them, and the Way in which they went.

20. And thou gavest thy good Spirit to instruct them, and not with-holding thy Manna from their Mouths, gavest them Water for their Thirst.

21. Thus didst thou sustain them forty Years in the Wilderness, they wanted Nothing: their Garments did not wear out, nor their Feet swell.

22. Thou moreover gavest them Kingdoms and People, and didst part them into Corners: for they possessed the Country of Sihon, with those of the King of Heshbon, and of Og King of Bashan.

23. And thou didst multiply their Posterity to be like the Stars of Heaven; and broughtest them into the Country, which thou toldest their Forefathers they should go in to possess.

24. So the Posterity went in, and possessed the Country, before whom thou didst subdue the Inhabitants of it, the Canaanites, and deliver them into their Power, with their Kings, and the People of the Country, to do to them according to their Will.

25. And they took fortified Cities, with fat Land, and possessed Houses full of all good Things, Cisterns cut out, Vineyards and Oliveyards; and Trees for Food in abundance; so that they eat, and were satisfied, nay became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great Goodness.

26. They notwithstanding provoked, and rebelled against thee, cast thy Law behind their Backs, as also killed thy Prophets who testified against them, to make them return to thee, and they shewed great Contempts.

27. Therefore thou didst deliver them into the Power of their Enemies, who distressed them: yet in the Time of their Distress when they cried to thee, thou heardest from Heaven, and according to thy many Mercies, gavest them Saviours, who saved them from the Power of their Enemies.

28. But when they had Rest, they committed Wickedness again before thee: therefore thou ledest them in the Power of their Enemies, who ruled over them; nevertheless when they cried again to thee, thou heardest from Heaven, and didst deliver them according to thy Mercies many times.

29. And testifiedst against them, to make them return to thy Law; for all that they behaved proudly, and did not hearken to thy Commandments, and as for thy Rules they sinned against them, by which the Man who does them shall live, nay they yielded an obstinate Shoulder, hardened their Necks, and would not hear.

30. However thou didst delay concerning them many Years, testifying against them by thy Spirit through the Ministry of thy Prophets; and yet they would not give ear: therefore didst thou deliver them into the Power of the People of the Countries.

31. Nevertheless in thy many Mercies thou didst not cause them to be consumed,

Ver. 11. in the Depths] as Exod. xv. 1.

Ver. 29. does them] for do in the com. Transf. might mean sin.

ib. yielded an obstinate Shoulder] agreeable to the following, and the Meaning of the three Heb. Words: so the Tig. Vers. præbuerunt humerum rebellem, yielded the Shoulder rebellious; see Buxt. Lexic. in 770 nor forsake them: for thou art a gracious, and merciful God.

32. Now therefore our God, the great, the powerful, and the awful God, who keepest Covenant and Kindness, let not all the Trouble be little before thee, which has met with us, our Kings, Princes, Priests, Prophets, and Fathers, with all thy People, from the Days of the Kings of Assyria to this Day.

33. But thou art righteous in all that is come upon us: for thou hast acted right, since we have done wickedly.

34. And our Kings, Princes, Priests, and Fathers have not performed thy Law, nor hearkened to thy Commandments, and thy Testimonies by which thou didst testify against them.

35. Neither did they serve thee in their Kingdom, and in thy great Goodness which thou gavest them, and in the large and fat Country that thou didst put before them, nor return from their evil Deeds.

36. Behold we are Servants this Day, and that in the Country which thou gavest to our Forefathers, to eat its Fruit, and the good Things of it.

37. And the Increase of it is much for the Kings, whom thou hast put over us for our Sins; and they have dominion over our Bodies, as well as our Cattle, according to their Will, so that we are in great Distress.

38. By reason of all this we therefore make a firm Covenant, and write it down, to be sealed by our Princes, Levites and Priests.

CHAP. X.

NOW those who sealed were: Nehemiah the Tirshatha, the Son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah,

2. Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,
3. Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,
4. Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,
5. Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,
6. Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,
7. Meshullam, Abijah, Mijammin,
8. Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah; these being Priests;

9. And the Levites, first Jeshua the Son of Azaniah, Binnui of the Sons of Henadad, Kadmiel;

10. With their Brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,
11. Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,
12. Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,
13. Hodijah, Bani, Beninu;
14. The chief of the People, Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,
15. Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
16. Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
17. Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
18. Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai,
19. Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
20. Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
21. Meshezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua,
22. Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
23. Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub,
24. Halloheh, Pileha, Shobek,
25. Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
26. And Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,
27. Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

28. And the rest of the People, the Priests, Levites, Porters, Singers, Assistants, and all who were separated from the People of the Countries to the Law of God, their Wives, Sons and Daughters, all that had knowledge and understanding,

29. Were stedfast to their Brethren, their Gentry, and entered into a Curse, and an Oath, to go in God's Law which was given by the Hand of Moses the Servant of God, and to observe, and do all the Commandments of our Sovereign Lord, his Rules, and Ordinances;

30. And that we would not give our Daughters to the People of the Country, nor take theirs for our Sons;

31. And should they bring Wares, or any Provision on the Sabbath-day to sell, that we would not receive of them then, nor on a holy Day; and that we would leave the seventh Year, and the Debt of every Hand.

32. Besides we established Commandments for us, to appoint to our selves the third Part of a Shekel in a Year, for the Service of the House of our God:

33. For the Bread set in order, and the continual Meat-offering and Burnt-offering, of the Sabbaths and New-moons, for the set Times, the holy Things, and Sin-offerings to

Ver. 32. God, the great, &c.] This repeating the Substantive, heightens and imbellishes the Emphasis.

Ver. 31. Debt] which the Heb. Word manifestly signifies by Prov. xxii. 26. Deut. xxiv. 10. and this may be understood by the foregoing, that they were with the 7th Year of Servants Release from Servitude, to release also Debtors from their Debts. But what Work have Translators made of this!

Ib. Hand] which might be used, as now in Sea Affairs, for Person, otherwise as for a Note of Hand. Monstrously rendered debt. But I see since that both the Gen. and Bish. have, and the debts of every person.

Ver. 32. third] See on Exod. xxx. 12. This says Prideaux was 10 d. the Shekel being half a Crown of our Money, in Maim. Jur. Paup. & Per. Cap. 7.

make atonement for Israel, and all the Business of the House of our God ;

34. (And we cast Lots concerning the offering of Wood, for the Priests, Levites and People, to bring it to the House of our God, according to the Families of our Fathers, at the Times appointed yearly, to burn upon the Altar of the Lord our God, as it is written in the Law ;)

35. And to bring the First-fruits of our Ground, and of all Fruit of all Trees yearly, to the House of the Lord ;

36. To bring likewise the First-born of our Sons and Cattle, as it is written in the Law, the Firstlings of our Herds and Flocks, to the House of our God, to the Priests who minister in it ;

37. And that we should bring the first of our Dough, and Lifted-offerings, with the Fruit of all Trees, Wine and Oil, to the Priests at the Rooms of the House of our God, as also the Tithe of our Ground to the Levites ; who should take the Tithes in all the Cities of our Tillage ;

38. And that the Priest the Son of Aaron should be with them, when they take the Tithe ; and that the Levites should bring up the Tithe of the Tithe to the House of our God, to the Rooms at the Treasure-house ;

39. That the Israelites and Levites should bring the Lifted-offering of the Corn, Wine and Oil, to the Rooms where the Instruments of the Sanctuary, the Priests who minister, the Porters, and Singers are ; and that we should not forsake the House of our God.

C H A P. XI.

AND the Princes of the People dwelt in Jerusalem ; the rest of the People casting Lots to bring one out of ten to dwell there in the holy City, and nine Parts in the other Cities.

2. Moreover the People blessed all the Men that freely offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem.

3. Now these are the chief of the Province who dwelt in Jerusalem (as there did in the Cities of Judah, in their respective Possessions at the same, Israelites, Priests, Levites, Assistants, and the Posterity of Solomon's Servants)

4. That is to say, of the Posterity of Judah, and of that of Benjamin : of the former, Athaiah the Son of Uziah, the Son of Zechariah, the Son of Amariah, the Son of Shephatiah, the Son of Mahalaleel, of the Posterity of Pharez ;

5. And Maaseiah the Son of Baruch, the Son of Col-hozeh, the Son of Hazaiah, the Son of Adaiah, the Son of Joiarib, the Son of Zechariah, the Son of Shiloni.

6. All the Posterity of Pharez who dwelt in Jerusalem, being four hundred and sixty eight valiant Men.

7. These too of the Posterity of Benjamin ; Sallu the Son of Meshullam, the Son of Joed, the Son of Pedaiah, the Son of Kolaiah, the Son of Maaseiah, the Son of Ithiel, the Son of Jesaiah ;

8. And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred and twenty eight :

9. Over whom Joel the Son of Zichri was Officer, and Judah the Son of Senuah was the second over the City.

10. Of the Priests ; there were Jedaiah the Son of Joiarib, Jachin ;

11. Seraiah the Son of Hilkiyah, the Son of Meshullam, the Son of Zadok, the Son of Meraioth, the Son of Ahitub, the Ruler of the House of God ;

12. And their Brethren who did the Business of the House, eight hundred and twenty two ; and Adaiah the Son of Jeroham, the Son of Pelaliah, the Son of Amzi, the Son of Zechariah, the Son of Pashhur, the Son of Malchiah ;

13. With his Brethren, chief Fathers, two hundred and forty two ; and Amashsai the Son of Azareel, the Son of Ahzai, the Son of Meshillemoth, the Son of Immer ;

14. Their Brethren also, mighty Men of Valour, a hundred and twenty eight ; over whom Zabdiel a Son of one of the great Men was Officer.

15. And of the Levites ; Shemaiah the Son of Hashub, the Son of Azrikam, the Son of Hashabiah, the Son of Bunni ;

16. Of the chief Levites likewise Shabbethai, and Jozabad, who were over the outward Business of the House of God ;

17. And Mattaniah the Son of Micha, the Son of Zabdi, the Son of Asaph, the Principal who began making confession in Prayer, with Bakbukiah the second of his Brethren, and Abda the Son of Shammua, the Son of Galal, the Son of Jeduthun.

18. All the Levites in the holy City were two hundred and eighty four.

19. The Porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their Brethren who kept the Gates, a hundred and seventy two.

20. And the rest of the Israelites, Priests,

Ver. 34. for] there being Nothing in Heb. for among in the com. Transf.

Ver. 4. Pharez] the Son of Judah, and written as it is in Genesis.

Ver. 7. These of] to wit dwelt in Jerusalem, Ver. 1. 6.

and Levites, were in all the Cities of Judah, in their several Possessions.

21. But the Assistants dwelt on the Ascent; over whom were Ziha, and Gispa.

22. And the Officer of the Levites in Jerusalem, was Uzzi the Son of Bani, the Son of Hashabiah, the Son of Mattaniah, the Son of Micha: of the Posterity of Asaph there were Singers, over against the Business of the House of God.

23. For it was the King's Commandment concerning them, that there should be a Settlement for the Singers to have each Day's Allowance the very same Day.

24. And Pethahiah the Son of Meshezabeel, of the Posterity of Zerah the Son of Judah, was at the King's Hand for all Matters on behalf of the People.

25. Besides at the Villages in their Fields, there dwelt of the Posterity of Judah in the City of Arba and its Towns, in Dibon and its Towns, in Jekabzeel and its Villages,

26. As also in Jeshua, Moladah, Bethpelet,

27. Hazar-shual, Beer-sheba and its Towns,

28. Ziklag, Mechonah and its Towns.

29. En-rimmon, Zareah, Jarmuth,

30. Zanoah, Adullam, and their Villages, Lachish and its Fields, Azekah and its Towns; and they encamped from Beer-sheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

31. And the Posterity of Benjamin from Geba, at Michmash, and Aiya, and Beth-el with its Towns,

32. Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

33. Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

34. Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

35. Lod, and Ono, the Valley of Artificers.

36. And of the Levites there were Partitions in Judah and Benjamin.

C H A P. XII.

AND these are the Priests, and Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the Son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

2. Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

3. Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

4. Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,

5. Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

6. Shemaiah and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

7. Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, Jedaiah: these were the chief of the Priests, and their Brethren, in the Days of Jeshua.

8. And the Levites were, Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, Mattaniah, who with his Brethren was over the Thanksgivings.

9. Moreover Bakbukiah, and Unni, their Brethren, were over against them at the Charges.

10. And Jeshua begot Joiakim, and he Eliashib, and he Joiada,

11. And he Jonathan, and he Jaddua.

12. In the Days also of Joiakim, these chief Fathers were Priests: of Seraiah, Meraiyah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

13. Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

14. Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

15. Of Harim, Adnah; of Meraioth, Helkai;

16. Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

17. Of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;

18. Of Bilgah, Shammuah; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

19. And of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

20. Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

21. Of Hilkijah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.

22. The chief Fathers of the Levites were written down in the Days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua; and the Priests to the Reign of Darius the Persian.

23. The chief Fathers of the Posterity of Levi were written in the Book of the Chro-

Ver. 22. over against] as Ch. xii. 9. not over, as in the com. Eng. see Jun. Com.

Ver. 24. at the King's Hand] to transact Affairs with him, for the People, as follows; not for the King, as some would.

Ver. 25. Towns] different from the Villages.

Ver. 30. Jeshua] This and the next Verse contain the high Priests till two Years after the Death of Alexander called the Great, by the Chronicon Alexandrinum, which see in the Chronology.

Ver. 22. Jaddua] Prideaux asserts, whom only it may be sufficient to mention as the chief, that this Chapter from the Beginning to the 27th Verse was not written by Nehemiah, but put in long after his Death, as he supposes by Simon the Just, Connet. An. 458. But it is enough to allow it of this Verse only at most; it being not at all improbable that Jaddua was born in the Time of Nehemiah.

Ver. 11. since his Father Jonathan, who was probably the eldest Brother, had a Brother married then, Chap. xiii. 28. and no other Part of it comes near that Time. From the twentieth Year of Artaxerxes Longimanus, when we first hear of Nehemiah, Ch. i. 1. & ii. 1. to the first Year of Jaddua's being high Priest were 104 Years, by Ptolemy's Canon and Chron. Alexand. so that Nehemiah need not be supposed to live longer than Jehoiada did a few Ages before, to the 130th Year, 2 Chron. xxiv. 15. if he did write this. And though in the Days is here spoken as Time past of some, it might be present or just past of Jaddua. And if the Darius mentioned in this Verse was the last called Codomanus, as it appears to be (though Newton counts it was Darius Nothus, Chron. Ch. 6.) his Reign began but six Years after Jaddua's Priesthood; to which Nehemiah might live in the Age above.

nicles, nicles, to the Days of Johanan the Son of Eliashib.

24. And the chief of the Levites were, Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the Son of Kadmiel, with their Brethren over against them, to praise, and make confession, by the Commandment of David the Man of God, Ward over against Ward.

25. Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were the Porters keeping the Ward, over the Things gathered together at the Gates.

26. These were in the Days of Joiakim the Son of Jeshua, the Son of Jozadak, and in the Days of Nehemiah the Governor, and of Ezra the Priest, the Scribe.

27. Now at the Dedication of the Wall of Jerusalem, they sought for the Levites from all their Places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to make the Dedication with Rejoicing, both by Thanksgivings and Singing, with Cymbals, Lutes, and with Harps.

28. And the Sons of the Singers gathered together, namely from the Plain round about Jerusalem, from the Villages of Netophathi,

29. From the House of Gilgal, and from the Fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the Singers had built them Villages round about Jerusalem.

30. The Priests and Levites also purified themselves, as they did the People, the Gates and Wall.

31. Then I brought up the Princes of Judah from against the Wall, and placed two great Companies for Thanksgivings; one going on the right Hand, from against the Wall to the Dung-gate.

32. After whom went Hoshaiah, and half the Princes of Judah,

33. With Azariah, Ezra and Meshullam,

34. Judah, and Benjamin, as also She-maiah, and Jeremiah;

35. Besides of the Priests Sons with Trumpets, Zechariah the Son of Jonathan, the Son of Shemaiah, the Son of Mattaniah, the Son of Michaiah, the Son of Zaccur, the Son of Asaph;

36. His Brethren likewise, Shemaiah, and Azareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the Instruments of Musick of David the Man of God, and Ezra the Scribe before them.

37. And at the Fountain-gate which was before them, they went up at the Stairs of the City of David, in the Ascent to the Wall; and from against the House of David, to the Water-gate eastward.

38. Over against whom went the other Company for Thanksgiving, and I after it; and half of the People from against the Wall, from against the Tower of the Ovens, to the broad Wall;

39. And from against the Gate of Ephraim, at the old Gate, and at the Fish-gate, and the Tower of Hananeel, with that of Meah, to the Sheep-gate: and they stood still by the Prison-gate.

40. At length the two Companies for Thanksgiving stood at the House of God, and I accompanied with half of the Rulers;

41. And the Priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah with Trumpets;

42. Maaseiah too, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam and Ezer: and the Singers made themselves be heard, Izrahiah being the Officer.

43. And they offered great Sacrifices that Day, and were joyful, for God made them so with great Joy, even the Women and Children also rejoiced; and the Rejoicing of Jerusalem was heard far off.

44. The same Day were Men appointed over the Rooms for the Treasures, for the Offerings, First-fruits and Tithes, to gather into them at the Fields of the Cities, the Parts belonging to the Law for the Priests and Levites; because Judah was glad of the Priests and Levites standing there.

45. And the Singers, together with the Porters, took care of the Business of their God, and that of the Cleansing, according to the Commandment of David and his Son Solomon.

46. For in the Days of David and Asaph of old time, there were chief Singers, with Singing of Praise and Thanksgivings to God.

47. And all Israel in the Days both of Zerubbabel, and of Nehemiah, gave the Parts of the Singers and Porters, each Day's Matter the very same Day; they also consecrated for the Levites, as those did for the Posterity of Aaron.

Ver. 25. Things gathered together] from the Root to gather together: which Things might be those that were brought thither by the People for Offerings and Tithes, and put there till they were used or carried in by the Levites, 2 Chr. xxxi. 6. And this Meaning is necessary, as the Word has not that of thresholds.

Ver. 31. from against] a nearer and more commodious Way, from the Place by the Wall where they began, as it may seem, than round by or upon the Wall; and thus the Heb. may properly signify, but I suppose never upon; and is the same as in Ver. 37, 38, 39. so differently rendered in the com. Transl.

Ver. 35. Besides of] certain—namely being unnecessarily added.

Ver. 37. and from against] for when they were going up to the City of David, how could they be above the House of David in his City?

C H A P. XIII.

ON that Day they read in the Book of Moses, in the Hearing of the People; and there was found written in it, that an Ammonite and Moabite should not come in to the Congregation of God for ever;

2. Because they did not meet the Israelites with Victuals and Drink, but hired Baalam against them to curse them, though our God turned the Curse into a Blessing.

3. And when they had heard the Law, they separated all the mixed People from Israel.

4. Now before this Eliashib the Priest, who was put over the Rooms of the House of our God, being kin to Tobiah;

5. Had made ready a great Room for him, where before they put the Meat-offering, Frankincense, and Instruments, with the Tithe of the Corn, Wine and Oil, that was ordered for the Levites, Singers and Porters, and the Lifted-offering of the Priests.

6. But in all that Time I was not at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth Year of Artaxerxes King of Babylon I went to the King, and some Time after having leave from him,

7. I came to Jerusalem, and understood the Evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, by making ready for him a Room in the Courts of the House of God.

8. Which being very evil to me, I threw all Tobiah's Household-goods abroad out of the Room.

9. I also bade him cleanse the Rooms, then I brought again thither the Instruments of the House of God, with the Meat-offering and Frankincense.

10. Nay when I knew the Parts of the Levites were not given, and that they and the Singers, who did the Business, were gone away to their respective Fields;

11. I chid the Rulers, and asked why the House of God was forsaken? And having gathered them together, I placed them in their Station.

12. And all Judah brought the Tithe of Corn, Wine, and Oil to the Treasures.

13. Besides I made Treasurers over the Treasures, Shelemiah the Priest, Zadok the Scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites, and at their Hand was Hanan the Son of Zaccur, the Son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and it belonged to them to distribute to their Brethren.

14. Remember me, my God, for this, and do not blot out my Kindnesses, which I have done for the House of my God, and for the Charges of it.

15. In those Days I saw in Judah some treading Wine-presses on the Sabbath, bringing in Sheaves, loading Asses, and also Wine, Grapes, and Figs, and all Burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath-day; but I testified against it at the Time they were selling the Provision.

16. There were Tyrians too dwelt in it, who brought Fish, and any Thing that was saleable; which they sold on the Sabbath to the People of Judah, even in Jerusalem.

17. Upon this I chid the Nobles of Judah, and said to them; What evil Thing is this which ye do, that ye profane the Sabbath-day?

18. Did not our Forefathers do thus, and our God bring all this Harm upon us, and this City? Yet ye add fervent Wrath upon Israel, by profaning the Sabbath.

19. And when the Gates of Jerusalem were darkish before the Sabbath, I ordered that they should shut the Doors, as I did also that they should not be opened till after the Sabbath; besides I placed some of my Servants at the Gates, that there might be no Burden brought in on the Sabbath-day.

20. Then the Merchants, and Sellers of all that was to be sold, lodged without Jerusalem, once or twice.

21. But I testified against them, and said to them, Why do ye lodge before the Wall? If ye do again, I will lay Hands on you: from that Time they did not come on the Sabbath.

22. And I ordered the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and come keep the Gates, to sanctify the Sabbath-day. For this also remember me, my God, and have compassion upon me according to the Abundance of thy Kindness.

23. Moreover in those Days I saw Jews that dwelt with Wives of Ashdod, Ammon and Moab.

24. And their Childaen prattled half in the Language of Ashdod, and did not know how to talk in the Jewish Language, but according to the Tongue of one People or the other.

25. Therefore I contended with them, cursed them, beat some Men of them, and plucked off their Hair; then I made them swear by God; Ye shall not give your

Ver. 2. the Curse] which was intended.

Ver. 9. Rooms] Com. Lat. Treasury.

Ver. 19. Doors] different from Gates here; and if the Gates were shut, what Need was there for them to be guarded, to keep out those who brought Burdens?

VOL. I.

Ver. 22. For this] as Ver. 14. and agreeable to the legal Dispensation.

Ver. 23. saw Jews that dwelt] not merely saw those Jews.

1b. dwelt] so Ver. 27. not married.

Daughters to their Sons, nor take any of their Daughters for your Sons, or for your selves.

26. Did not Solomon King of Israel sin in these Things, though there was not a King like him in many Nations, and was loved by his God, who made him King over all Israel? yet strange Women made him sin.

27. Should we then hearken to you, to commit all this great Wickedness, to do amiss against our God, by dwelling with strange Wives?

28. And one of the Sons of Joiada, the Son of Eliashib, the high Priest, being the Son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite, I made him flee from me.

29. Remember them, my God, for the Pollutions of the Priesthood, as also of the Covenant of that and the Levites.

30. Whereas I cleansed them from all Strangers, and placed the Charges for the Priests and Levites, that each one might be in his Business;

31. And for the Offering of Wood in its appointed Time, and for the First-fruits. Remember me, my God, for Good,

Ver. 28. one] His Name according to Josephus, accompanied as it seems with some Mistakes, was Manasseh, who fled to Samaria where Sanballat was Governor, and became high Priest to the Samaritans under the Profession of the Jewish Religion, Antiquitatum Lib. xi. 7. which Sect continues to this Time, and shortly after this they built a Temple on Mount Gerizim by Samaria, Josephus Antiq. Lib. xiii. 8.

Ib. Joiada] who was the high Priest here, not Eliashib, as Prideaux shews, Connec. Anno 409. a Person having often his Father's Name annexed to his own as a Part of it in Scripture.

NOTES upon the BOOK of ESTHER.

AND in the Time of Ahasuerus, the same who reigned from India to Ethiopia, over a hundred and twenty seven Provinces;

2. As that King was sitting on the Throne of his Kingdom, which was at the Palace in Shushan;

3. In the third Year of his Reign, he ordered a Feast to be made for all his Princes and Servants: the Power of Persia and Media, the Governors and Princes of the Provinces being before him:

4. That he might shew the vast Wealth of his Kingdom, and the exquisite Honour of his Greatness, the long Time of a hundred and fourscore Days.

5. Which being expired, the King made a Feast seven Days for all the People who were present at the Palace in Shushan, both great and small, in the Court of his Palace-garden.

6. There were white, green, and blue Curtains, fastened with Lines of fine Linen and Purple, to Rings of Silver, and marble Pillars; the Couches being of Gold and Silver, upon a Pavement of red, blue, white, and black Marble.

7. And they gave them to drink in Cups of Gold, which were different one from another, Plenty of royal Wine, after the State of the King.

8. But according to a Decree, none pressed them to drink: for the King gave orders so to all the Officers of his House, that they should do as every Man liked.

9. Vashti the Queen likewise made a Feast for the Women, at the royal House which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

10. On the seventh Day as the King's Heart was merry with Wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha and Abagtha, Zethar and Charcas, the seven Eunuchs who served in his Presence;

11. To bring Queen Vashti before him,

Ver. 1. Ahasuerus] There have been various Opinions who this King was, and that it may be the better understood, see Ptolemy's Canon towards the End of the Chronology at the End of Dan. Some, as Finch in his Treatise of the Calling of the Jews, Allen in his Chain of Scripture Chronology, &c. would have the Transactions of this Book to be in the Time of the Captivity; but it is plain it was no King of Babylon, Ver. 3, 14, 19. and there the Jews were in Captivity; not in Persia and Media then, in all the Provinces too of the Kingdom, Chap. iii. 8, &c. besides that the Largeness of the Persian and Median Dominions here mentioned, shews it to be after the Babylonian Empire was added to them. Next Allen mentions some affirming Ahasuerus to be Cambyses, who reigning but eight Years it could not be, because the 12th is spoken of, Chap. iii. 7. I therefore conclude it was Darius Hystaspis, for Mordecai being carried away with Jechoniah, Chap. ii. 5, 6. though then an Infant, must in that King's 12th Year be 88 Years old; so that it is quite unlikely to be Xerxes the next King, as Scaliger pleads, De Emendat. Temp. L. 6. and Vorslius on Gantz Chron. p. 244. in whose same Year he would be 124 Years of Age, which Prideaux also confutes on another Account, Connelt. Anno 465; yet himself says it was Artaxerxes Longimanus, whom Stackhouse follows, Hist. Bib. Book vii. Ch. 2. and the Univer. Hist. B. I. xi. 4. which makes Mordecai's Age at least when he was made prime Minister 145 Years, and Esther his first Cousin, Chap. ii. 7. utterly incredible! We may therefore conclude with Jun. and Trem. in Annot. Broughton in his Works, Tome iii. pag. 581. and Usher in Annalibus vet. Test. sub anno Jul. Per. 4193, that this Ahasuerus was Darius Hystaspis. But the latter holding that this King's Wife Alissa mentioned by Herodotus was Vashti, and Artystona Esther, Prideaux takes occasion to shew that what Herodotus says of those Women cannot be applied to Vashti and Esther. The Answer is ready from Prideaux himself, who when Josephus disagrees with the Scripture as he understood it concerning Sanballat, does not scruple to say, Josephus was mistaken, Con. An. 458: the like may be said of Herodotus, as Prideaux also does in other Cases, Anno 710, 530, &c. However Darius having other Wives Vashti and Esther might be of those. Herodotus Lib. 3. gives Account of a Tribute made by Darius Hystaspis, agreeable to Est. x. 1. but says Prideaux, Strabo attributeth this to Darius Longimanus, which first Name he supposes is a Mistake in Strabo for Artaxerxes; whereas the latter is rather put wrong instead of Hystaspis, and to be corrected by Herodotus. Besides Darius Hystaspis conquered India, and joined it to the Empire about the 16th Year of his Reign, Herodot. Lib. 3. Prideaux Tab. which now extended but to India.

1b. hundred, &c.] seven having been added as it seems by the Conquest of Egypt, or a new Partition of the Empire since Darius the Mede, Dan. vi. 1.

Ver. 2. at the Palace] the same Words as in Dan. viii. 2. Shushan being the City, Chap. iii. 15. & viii. 15.

1b Shushan] In Susa or Shushan was not only great Part of the King's Treasures repositied, Diader. Lib. xvii. 66. but the Walls of it are compared to those of Babylon, Strab. Lib. 15. Paus. Messen. Cap. 31. It is now a ruinous Place, as Tavernier relates, called Sousier or Suster; see Neb. i. 1.

Ver. 4. exquisite Honour] Heb. Honour of Comeliness or Exquisiteness, which is to be thus rendered: so for vast or heavy Wealth, which first sometimes denoting Glory, our Translators have put glorious to the following Word; whereas the Glory of his Kingdom (if allowed with his) would be his kingly or royal Glory, as in Ver. 7. and as a Fire of Flame is a flaming Fire; of which see Buxt. Syntax. Cap. 3.

Ver. 6. Couches] according to the Manner of feasting in the eastern Countries, with with the royal Crown, that he might shew the People and Princes her Beauty, because she had a good Countenance :

12. But she refused to come at the King's bidding, which was by the Service of the Eunuchs. Exceedingly enraged at this, so that his Wrath burned in him ;

13. The King said to the wise Men who knew the Times (for his Affairs were so before all that understood the Law and Judgment ;

14. The next to himself being Carshena, Shether, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, the seven Princes of Persia and Media, who were intimate with the King, sitting the first in the Kingdom)

15. What is to be done to Queen Vashti according to the Law, because she would not perform the Command of King Ahasuerus by the Eunuchs ?

16. And Memucan answered before him and the Princes : Vashti the Queen has not done perversely to King Ahasuerus only, but to all both of the Princes and People, who are in all his Provinces :

17. For the Affair of the Queen will go abroad to all the Women, for their Husbands to be despised in their Sight, when it is told, that King Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the Queen to come before him, and she would not.

18. Thus the Ladies of Persia and Media, who hear her Affair, will say the same Day to all the King's Princes ; so there will be Contempt and Wrath enough.

19. If it be well to the King, let a royal Order be sent forth from his Presence, as likewise written among the Laws of Persia and Media, for it not to be repealed ; that Vashti shall not come before King Ahasuerus, and that he will give her royal State to another, who is better than she.

20. And when the Decree which the King makes, is heard throughout all his Kingdom, though it be large, all the Women will shew Respect to their Husbands, whether great or small.

21. The Matter also pleased the King and Princes, so that he did according to Memucan's Advice ;

22. Sending Letters into all his Provinces, after the Manner of writing in each Province, and the Language of each People, that every Man should be chief in his own Family, and that it should be published according to their respective Tongues.

AFTER these Things when the King's Wrath was pacified, he was mindful of Vashti, and what she had done, with that which was decreed against her.

2. Hereupon his Servants who waited on him said ; Let some young Virgins that look well be sought for the King..

3. Let him therefore appoint Officers in all the Provinces of his Kingdom, to bring together all such to the Palace at Shushan, to the House for the Women, into the Custody of Hegai the King's Eunuch their Keeper, and let Things be given for their Cleansing.

4. Then let the young Woman whom the King likes best, be made Queen in the room of Vashti. And the King being pleased with the Matter, would do so.

5. Now there was a certain Jew at the Palace in Shushan, named Mordecai, the Son of Jair, the Son of Shimei, the Son of Kish, a Benjaminite ;

6. Who had been carried away from Jerusalem, among those Captives that Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon carried away with Jeconiah King of Judah :

7. And he bred up Hadassah, otherwise Ester, his Uncle's Daughter, because she had no Father nor Mother ; and the Girl had a handsome Shape, and a good Countenance : whom when her Parents were dead, Mordecai took to be his Daughter.

8. So when the King's Matter, and his Decree was heard, and many young Women were brought together to the Palace at Shushan, into the Custody of Hegai, the Women's Keeper, Ester was likewise taken into the King's House in the same Manner.

9. And the young Woman pleased him, and obtained Kindness in his Presence, so that he quickly gave her the Things for her Cleansing, and what belonged to her, with seven Maids that seemed fit to be given her out of his own House ; nay he removed her and her Maids into the best Place of the Women's House.

10. Yet Ester did not tell her People, nor her Kindred : for Mordecai had commanded her that she should not.

11. And he himself walked about every Day constantly before the Court of the Women's House, to know how she did, and what would be done with her.

12. At length when the Turn of each

Ver. 18. Contempt and Wrath] The former first in the Wives, and then the latter in the Husbands.

Ver. 2. Servants] to whom his relenting might have been dangerous, if she had been again received into Favour.

young Woman came to go in to King Ahasuerus, after she had been cleansing twelve Months, according to the Decree for the Women (for so the Time of their Purification was fulfilled) one six Months with Oil of Myrrh, and the other with Spices, and what there was for it;

13. She went in from the Women's House to the King at his House, with whatever she spoke for, to be given her to go in with:

14. In the Evening she went in, and returned in the Morning to the other House of the Women, into the Custody of Shaash-gaz the King's Eunuch, the Keeper of the Concubines; she went in no more to the King, unless he delighted in her, and she was called by Name.

15. But when the Turn of Ester, the Daughter of Abihail, the Uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his Daughter, came to go in to the King, she required Nothing but what Hegai the King's Eunuch, the Keeper of the Women ordered; and she obtained Favour in the Sight of all who saw her.

16. Thus was Ester taken for King Ahasuerus, into his royal House, in the tenth Month, which is that of Tebeth, in the seventh Year of his Reign:

17. For the King loved her the most of all the Women, and she obtained Favour and Kindness before him more than any other Virgins; so that he put the royal Crown on her Head, and made her Queen in the room of Vashti.

18. Hereupon the King made a great Feast for all his Princes and Servants, to be Ester's Feast; as also made a Release for the Provinces, and gave Presents according to his State.

19. And when the Virgins were gathered together the second time, Mordecai sate at the King's Gate.

20. Nor did Ester at all tell her Kindred, or her People, according as Mordecai had charged her; doing his Command, the same as when she was bred up with him.

21. In those Days while Mordecai sate at the King's Gate, Bigthan and Theresh, two of the Door-keepers, the King's Eunuchs, were in a Rage, and sought to lay Hands on King Ahasuerus.

22. But the Matter being not unknown to Mordecai, he told Queen Ester, who declared it to the King in Mordecai's Name.

23. And upon enquiring into the Affair, it was found out, and both of them were hanged on a Tree, which was written in the Book of the Chronicles before the King.

C H A P. III.

AFTER these Things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman the Son of Hammedatha the Agagite, advanced him, and put his Seat above all the Princes who were with him:

2. Inasmuch that all the King's Servants who were at his Gate bowed, and did reverence to Haman, for so the King commanded concerning him; but Mordecai would not.

3. Then the King's Servants that were there asked him, why he transgressed the Commandment of the King.

4. At last when they had spoken to him Day by Day, and he would not hearken to them; they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's Matters would stand, for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5. And Haman seeing that Mordecai did not bow at all, nor reverence him, he was full of Wrath.

6. But it seemed contemptible to him to lay Hands on Mordecai only, when they had told him his People: therefore Haman endeavoured to destroy all the Jews his People, who were in all the Kingdom of Ahasuerus.

7. In the first Month, which is that of Nisan, in the twelfth Year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is a Lot, before Haman from Day to Day, and from that to the twelfth Month, which is named Adar.

8. And Haman said to the King; There is a certain People dispersed, and scattered among others in all the Provinces of thy Kingdom, whose Laws differ from every People's, and they do not perform the Laws of the King; so that it is not fit for him to let them alone.

9. If it is well to the King, let it be written that they shall be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand Talents of Silver to them who do the Business, to bring into the King's Treasures.

10. Upon this the King took his Ring off his Finger, and gave it to this Haman, the Jews Enemy.

11. And said to him, The Silver is given to thee, and the People to do to them as thou pleasest.

12. So the King's Scribes were called on the thirteenth Day of the first Month, and it was written entirely as Haman commanded, to the King's Lieutenants, to the Governors

Ver. 17. the Women] who were his Concubines before.

Ver. 5. at all] N. B.

VOL. I.

Ver. 7. Day] To try, as it seems, what Day in all the Year would be most lucky, by the Lot, for his Purpose.

who were over each Province, and to the Princes of each People of the same, after the Manner of writing there, and the Language of each People, in the Name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed with his Ring;

13. And the Letters were sent by Posts into all the King's Provinces, to destroy, kill, and to make all the Jews perish, young Men and old, Children and Women, the same Day, on the thirteenth of the twelfth Month, which is that of Adar; and to plunder their Effects.

14. A Copy of the Writing for a Decree to be given in every Province, was published to all People, to be prepared against that Day.

15. When the Posts were gone out, hastened on by the King's Word, and the Decree was given forth at the Palace in Shushan, the King and Haman sat down to drinking, while the City of Shushan was perplexed.

C H A P. IV.

AND when Mordecai knew all that was done, he tore his Cloaths, put on Sackcloth and Ashes, and went out into the City, making a loud and bitter Cry.

2. Next he went just before the King's Gate, for Nobody was to go in at it who was clothed with Sackcloth.

3. (In every Province likewise, at the Places to which the King's Matter and Decree came, there was great Mourning among the Jews, and Fasting, with Weeping, and Lamentation; many lying on Sackcloth and Ashes)

4. So Ester's Maids and her Eunuchs went in, and told her, at which she was exceedingly grieved; and sent Cloaths to put on Mordecai, and to take away his Sackcloth from him, but he would not receive them.

5. With that she called Hathach one of the King's Eunuchs, whom he had appointed to attend in her Presence, and bade him know of Mordecai, what and why this was?

6. And Hathach went forth to him, into the Street of the City which was before the King's Gate.

7. To whom Mordecai told all that was befallen him, and the Account of the Silver which Haman had promised to pay into the King's Treasures, to destroy the Jews.

8. Besides he gave him a Copy of the written Decree, which was given forth in Shushan to destroy them, to shew Ester, and tell her, as also to charge her that she should go in to the King, to make supplication to him, and a Request before him, for her People.

9. Accordingly Hathach went in, and told Ester his Words.

10. Who gave him the following Charge to Mordecai;

11. All the King's Servants, and People of his Provinces know, that any Man or Woman who goes in to the King, into the inner Court, without being called, his Decree is the same to put them to death, besides such to whom he holds forth the golden Scepter, that they may live; and I have not been called to go in to him these thirty Days.

12. But upon her Words being told Mordecai,

13. He ordered to make reply to her; Do not think in thy Mind that thou wilt escape at the King's House, any more than all the Jews.

14. Nay if thou at all holdest thy peace at this Time, Respite and Deliverance will rise up to the Jews from another Place, whereas thou and thy Father's Family will perish. And who knows but thou art come to the Kingdom for such a Time as this?

15. Then Ester bade to return him Word;

16. Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me, without eating or drinking three Days, Night or Day: I also and my Maids, will fast so: and thus will I go in to the King, which is contrary to the Law; and when I perish, I perish.

17. So Mordecai went away, and did entirely as she commanded him.

C H A P. V.

NOW on the third Day Ester put on the royal Apparel, and stood in the inner Court of the King's House, over against it, as he was sitting upon his regal Throne in the royal House, opposite to the Door of it.

2. And when the King saw Ester the Queen standing there, she was in Favour with him: so that he held out to her the golden Scepter which was in his Hand;

Ver. 4. put on Mordecai] Vulg. Lat. put on her, as strange as it is.

Ver. 14. at all] See on 1 King. ix. 6.

Ib. Respite] Heb. breathing, i. e. a Space of breathing.

Ver. 16. As Things concur in my View, Ester seems not to have been very young, when these Affairs were transacted; by which her Piety, Prudence, and Courage, may be better accounted for.

Ib. so] but it does not appear to be so long by Chap. v. 1. which might have weakened Ester too much; and it seems proper the others should continue their Fasting, till they knew her Success.

Ib. when I perish] This seems to be spoken in Reference to his Words, Ver. 14.

whereupon whereupon she went near, and touched the Top of it.

3. The King then said to her, What is the Matter with thee, Queen Ester? For whatever thy Request is to half the Kingdom, it shall be given thee.

4. Who answered, If it is well to the King, let him come with Haman to Day, to the Entertainment that I have made for him.

5. Upon this the King bade them hasten Haman, to do what Ester said; and both of them went to the Entertainment of Wine which she had made.

6. Where the King said again to Ester, What is thy Petition, that it may be granted thee? For whatever thy Request is, it shall be performed to half the Kingdom.

7. My Petition and Request, she made answer,

8. If I am in Favour with the King, and if it is well to him to grant and perform the same; let him come with Haman to the Entertainment that I will make for them, and I will declare to Morrow, according to the King's Word.

9. At which Haman went out that Day glad, and with a chearful Heart; yet when he saw that Mordecai at the King's Gate, did not rise up, nor stir for him, he was full of Wrath against him.

10. Nevertheless he restrained himself, and going home, sent to fetch his Friends, and Zeresh his Wife.

11. To whom he rehearsed the Glory of his Riches, the Multitude of his Children, with all that the King had promoted him in, and how he had advanced him above his Princes and Servants.

12. Nay Ester the Queen, said he, did let none come with the King to the Feast which she made, but me; and to Morrow I am also invited by her with him.

13. However all this avails me Nothing, when all the while I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the King's Gate.

14. Whereupon his Wife Zeresh, and all his Friends, said to him, Let there be a Gallows made fifty Cubits high, and in the Morning speak to the King, that Mordecai may be hanged upon it; then go in glad with the King to the Feast. And the Thing pleased Haman, so that he had the Gallows made.

CHAP. VI.

THAT Night the King's Sleep being unsettled, he commanded to bring the Book of Records of the Chronicles, and they were read before him.

2. Where it was found written, that Mordecai told of Bigthana and Theresh, two of the Door-keepers, the King's Eunuchs, who sought to lay Hands on King Ahafuerus.

3. With that the King asked, What Honour or Promotion has been done to Mordecai for this? And his Servants who waited on him answered, There has been Nothing done for him.

4. Next he enquired who was in the Court? And Haman being come into the outer Court of the King's House, to speak to the King to hang Mordecai upon the Gallows which he had prepared for him;

5. They told him, that there was Haman standing in the Court: upon which the King replied, Let him come in.

6. Accordingly he did; and the King said to him, What shall be done to the Man whose Honour the King would delight in? And Haman said in his Heart, To whom will the King delight to do Honour more than to my self?

7. Therefore he answered him; For the Man whose Honour the King would delight in,

8. Let there be brought the royal Cloaths which the King wears, the Horse that he rides upon, and the royal Crown that is put on his Head;

9. And let the Cloaths and Horse be delivered to Somebody of the King's Princes, of the Nobility, and let them cloath that Man, and cause him to ride upon the Horse through the Street of the City, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the Man whose Honour the King delights in.

10. At this the King ordered him, Take the Cloaths and Horse quickly, according as thou hast said, and do so to Mordecai the Jew who sits at the King's Gate; let Nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11. Then Haman taking the Cloaths and Horse, cloathed Mordecai, and caused him to ride through the Street of the City, proclaiming before him, Thus shall it be done to the Man whose Honour the King delights in.

12. Afterwards Mordecai returned to the King's Gate; but Haman hastened home, mourning, with his Head covered.

13. Where he told his Wife Zeresh, and all his Friends, every Thing that had befallen him; upon which his wife Men and she said to him, If Mordecai, before whom thou hast

Ver. 14. Morning] as the Heb. is, not Morrow; and thus the extraordinary Providence here apparent, is still more extraordinary.

Ver. 2. being unsettled] Heb. wandered.

begun to fall, is one of the Posterity of the Jews, thou wilt not prevail over him, but utterly fall before him,

14. Now while they were talking with him, the King's Eunuchs came, and were in a hurry to bring Haman to the Feast which Ester had made.

C H A P. VII.

SO the King and he went to the Feast with Queen Ester.

2. And the King said to her again the second Day at the Entertainment of Wine, What is thy Petition, Queen Ester, that it may be granted thee? For whatever thy Request is, it shall be performed, to half the Kingdom.

3. When she made answer: If I am in Favour with thee, O King, and if it is well to the King, let my Life be granted me at my Petition, and my People at my Request.

4. For I and my People are sold to be destroyed, to be killed, and to perish; whereas if we had been sold for Servant-men and Maids, I would have held my Peace, though the Adversary could not make up the King's Damage.

5. Whereupon the King gave reply to her, Who is it? And where is he whose Heart serves him to do so?

6. The Man that is the Adversary and Enemy, said Ester, is this wicked Haman. Upon which Haman was in Terror at the Presence of the King and Queen.

7. And the King getting up in his Wrath from the Entertainment of Wine into the Palace-Garden, Haman stood up to request Queen Ester for his Life, because he saw that there was Something bad concluded against him by the King.

8. Who returning out of the Palace-Garden into the House where this Entertainment was, and Haman being fallen down on the Couch that Ester was upon, the King said? Will he also force the Queen in the House with me? No sooner were the Words out of the King's Mouth, but they covered Haman's Face.

9. And Harbonah one of the Eunuchs said before the King, Behold a Gallows too which Haman has made for Mordecai, who spoke well for the King, stands at Haman's House, fifty Cubits high. Then said the King, Hang him upon it.

10. They accordingly hanged Haman upon the Gallows which he had prepared for Mordecai: so the King's Wrath was pacified.

C H A P. VIII.

THE same Day King Ahasuerus gave the House of Haman, the Jews Enemy, to Ester the Queen; and Mordecai was introduced before him, for she told what he was to her.

2. And the King took off his Ring which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai; Ester also put him over Haman's House.

3. Besides Ester spoke before the King again, and fell down before his Feet, weeping and beseeching him to put away the Mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his Device that he had contrived against the Jews.

4. To whom the King holding forth the golden Scepter, she rose up, and standing before him,

5. Said; If it is well to the King, and if I am in his Favour, the Matter being right before him, and I well in his Sight: let it be written to reverse the Letters contrived by Haman the Son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he has writ to make the Jews perish, who are in all the King's Provinces:

6. For how shall I bear to see the Mischief that will come on my People? And how shall I bear to see the Destruction of my Kindred?

7. Upon this King Ahasuerus said to her, and Mordecai the Jew; Behold I have given Ester the House of Haman, and they have hung him upon the Gallows, because he would lay his Hands on the Jews:

8. Write ye also for the Jews as you please in the King's Name, and seal it with his own Ring: since the Writing which is thus written and sealed, none must reverse.

9. So the King's Scribes were called at the same Time, on the three and twentieth of the third Month, which is that of Sivan, and it was written entirely as Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, and to the Lieutenants, Governors, and Princes of the hundred and twenty seven Provinces, which were from India to Ethiopia, after the Manner of writing in each Province, and the Language of each People, as well as to the Jews according to their Writing and Language.

10. And it was done in the Name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed with his Ring; then were the Letters sent by Posts, on Horses, Riders of Mules, Camels, and young Dromedaries.

11. By which the King granted to the Jews who were in every City, to gather together, and to stand up for their Lives, to destroy, kill, and cause to perish all the Power of the People and Province, that would assault them, with the Children and Women; and to plunder their Effects:

12. The same Day in all the Provinces of King Ahafuerus, on the thirteenth of the twelfth Month, which is that of Adar.

13. A Copy of the Writing to be given for a Decree in every Province, was published to all People; and for the Jews to be prepared against that Day, to be revenged on their Enemies.

14. The Posts went out, riding on Mules and Camels, being hurried, and hastened on by the King's Word; and the Decree was given forth at the Palace in Shushan.

15. Afterwards Mordecai went out from the King's Presence in royal Cloaths, blue and white, a great Crown of Gold, and a Robe of fine Linen and Purple; and the City of Shushan rejoiced, and was glad:

16. The Jews having Light, Gladness, Joy and Honour.

17. In every Province likewise, and City, at the Places to which the King's Matter and Decree came, the Jews had Gladness and Joy, a Feast, and a good Day; and many of the People of the Country feigned themselves to be Jews, because they were in Dread of them.

C H A P. IX.

SO on the thirteenth Day of the twelfth Month already mentioned, when the King's Matter and Decree came to be done, on the Day that the Jews Enemies expected to have Power over them (though it was turned just contrary)

2. The Jews were gathered together in their Cities, throughout all the Provinces of King Ahafuerus, to lay Hands on those who sought their Harm: and no Man resisted them, because the Dread of them fell upon all People.

3. Besides all the Princes of the Provinces, the Lieutenants, Governors, and they that did the King's Business, helped the Jews; because the Dread of Mordecai fell on them.

4. For he was great in the King's House, and his Fame went throughout all the Provinces, because this Man advanced in being great.

5. Thus the Jews slew all their Enemies with the Stroke of the Sword, with Slaughter and Destruction; and did to those who hated them according to their own Will.

6. In Shushan too at Court, the Jews killed, and destroyed five hundred Men.

7. Parshandatha also, Dalphon, Aspatha,

8. Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

9. Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vajezatha,

10. The ten Sons of Haman the Son of Hammedatha, the Jews Enemy, did they kill; but laid not their Hands on the Plunder.

11. The same Day the Number of them that were killed there being brought before the King,

12. He said to Queen Ester, The Jews have killed, and destroyed five hundred Men, at the Palace in Shushan, and Haman's ten Sons; what have they done in the rest of the King's Provinces? Now what is thy Petition, that it may be granted thee? And what is thy Request more, that it may be done?

13. If it is not amiss to the King, said she, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan, to do also to Morrow according to this Day's Decree, and let Haman's ten Sons be hanged upon the Gallows.

14. Which the King ordered should be so done, and the Decree was given forth in Shushan: accordingly Haman's ten Sons were hanged up;

15. And the Jews who were in Shushan gathered together likewise on the fourteenth Day of the Month Adar, and killed three hundred Men there; but laid not their Hands on the Plunder.

16. Now the rest of the Jews who were in the King's Provinces had gathered together, and stood up for their Lives, and were quiet from their Enemies, having killed seventy five thousand of those who hated them, but on the Plunder laid not their Hands,

17. The thirteenth Day of that Month; and on the fourteenth of it they were quiet, and made it a Day of Feasting and Gladness.

18. But the Jews who were in Shushan, being gathered together on the thirteenth and fourteenth of it, were quiet on the fifteenth of the same, and made that a Day of Feasting and Gladness.

19. For the like Reason the Country Jews

Ver. 16. Honour] Vulg. Dancing, by taking to be γ and γ for γ as it seems; but the Septuag. leave out both this and Joy.

Ver. 17. Gladness and Joy] not transposed, but as in the Ver. before.

1b. feigned themselves] which Signification is one of the Properties of this Conjug. here used; as 2 Sam. xiv. 2. & xiii. 5, 6.

Ver. 16. Hands,] with a Comma, the Day that follows belonging to it apparently.

who dwelt in the Country Towns, made the fourteenth Day of the Month Adar, a good Day of Gladness, Feasting, and of sending Presents one to another.

20. Nay Mordecai wrote these Things down; and sent Letters to all the Jews who were in all the Provinces of King Ahasuerus, near and far off;

21. To confirm it to them, that they should keep the fourteenth and fifteenth Days of the Month Adar, every Year:

22. As the Days on which the Jews were quiet from their Enemies, and the Month that was turned to them from Sorrow to Gladness, and from Mourning to a good Day; to make them Days of Feasting, Gladness, of sending Presents one to another, and Gifts to the Poor.

23. Accordingly the Jews accepted what they had begun to do, and what Mordecai wrote to them:

24. Because Haman the Son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Enemy of all the Jews, contrived against the Jews to destroy them, and cast Pur, that is a Lot, to rout them, and cause them to perish;

25. But at Ester's going before the King, he ordered with Letters, that his wicked Device which he had contrived against the Jews should return on his own Head, and that he and his Sons should be hanged upon the Gallows:

26. Therefore they called these Days Purim, after the Name Pur, by reason of all the Matters of that Letter, with what they had seen about the like, and what had come to them.

27. The Jews confirmed, and accepted it, for themselves and their Offspring, and for all who should be joined to them, that their keeping these two Days should not pass away, according as it was written to them, and according to the Time, every Year;

28. That these Days should also be remembered, and kept in every Generation, by each Family, Province and City; and that these Days of Purim should not pass away from among the Jews, nor their Memorial be consumed from their Posterity.

29. Queen Ester likewise, the Daughter of Abihail, wrote along with Mordecai the Jew, with all Authority, to confirm this second Letter of Purim.

30. And he sent the Letters to all the Jews, to the hundred and twenty seven Provinces of the Kingdom of Ahasuerus, with Words of Peace and Truth;

31. To confirm these Days of Purim, at their Times, as they were confirmed to them by Mordecai the Jew, and Queen Ester, and as they confirmed them to their own selves, and to their Offspring, by the Words of the Fastings, and of their Crying.

32. Since Ester's Command confirmed these Matters of Purim, and it was written in a Book.

C H A P. X.

MOREOVER King Ahasuerus put a Tribute upon the Country, and the Isles of the Sea.

2. And all the Deeds of his Authority, his Power, and the Account of the Greatness of Mordecai, to which the King promoted him, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia?

3. For Mordecai the Jew was next to King Ahasuerus, great among the Jews, and liked by the Multitude of his Brethren, seeking the Good of his People, and speaking Peace to all its Offspring.

Ver. 26. the like] being not this Matter.

Ver. 31. and as they] namely the Jews, Ver. 30.

Ib. by the Words of the Fastings] according to their Promises made then.

Ver. 32. Instead of ours the Vulgate has it turned, and the Days of Lots, and all the Things that are contained in the History of this Book, which is called Esther; but that the Original ever was so, as Capellus pretends in Crit. Sacr. Lib. v. Cap. 10. I must be excused from believing.

Ver. 3. Good] So the Heb. is; which Wealth must fall short of, if not beside.

Ib. its Offspring] which may speak for it self; though not observed by Interpreters, and that in Ch. ix. 31. wrested for it, by the Assembly, to be the Seed of Mordecai and Ester, yet not their own Children.

NOTES upon the Book of J O B.

CHAP. I.

THERE was a Man in the Country of Uz, whose Name was Job; and that Man was perfect and upright, both fearing God, and departing from Evil.

2. And there were born to him seven Sons and three Daughters.

3. His Possession also was seven thousand Sheep, three thousand Camels, five hundred Yoke of Oxen, five hundred She-asses, and a very great Company of Servants; nay that Man was the greatest of all the People of the East.

4. Moreover his Sons went, and made an Entertainment at Home, each on his Day; when they sent for their three Sisters, to eat and drink with them.

5. And when the Days of the Entertainment were gone about, Job sent and sanctified them, and rising early in the Morning, offered up as many Burnt-offerings as they all were; for he said, Perhaps my Sons have sinned, and blasphemed God in their Heart: thus Job did every Time.

6. Now there was a Day when the Sons of God came, to present themselves before the Lord; and Satan also came among them.

7. And the Lord asked him, From whence dost thou come? Who made him this Answer, From ranging on the Earth, and from going about on it.

8. Then the Lord said to Satan, Hast thou taken notice of my Servant Job? For there is none like him on the Earth, a Man perfect and upright, fearing God, and departing from Evil.

9. Whereupon he made reply to the Lord; Does Job fear God for nothing?

10. Hast not thou made a Hedge about him, about his House, and all that he has on every Side? Thou hast blessed the Work of his Hands, and his Possession is increased on the Earth.

11. But surely reach out now thy Hand, and smite all that he has, he will blaspheme thee to thy Face.

12. With that the Lord said to him, Behold all that he has is in thy Power, only stretch not forth thy Hand to himself. So he went out from the Face of the Lord.

13. And there being a Day when his Sons and Daughters were eating, and drinking Wine in their eldest Brother's House;

14. A Messenger came to Job, and said; The Oxen were ploughing, and the She-asses feeding by their Sides;

15. And the Sabeans fell upon and took them, putting the Youths to the Sword; so that I only am escaped by my self, to tell thee.

16. While he was speaking, another came, and said, A Fire of God fell from Heaven, and burnt up the Sheep and Youths, consuming them; so that I only am escaped by my self, to tell thee.

17. While he was speaking, another came, and said, The Chaldeans made three Companies, and rushing upon the Camels, took them, and put the Youths to the Sword; so that I only am escaped by my self, to tell thee.

18. Whilst he was speaking, another came, and said; Thy Sons and Daughters were eating, and drinking Wine in their eldest Brother's House;

Ver. 1. There was] Job's Afflictions are thought to be about the Time of the Israelites being in Egypt. It is scarce to be doubted that Elibu was a Buzite, Chap. xxxii. 2. from Buz Abraham's Nephew, Gen. xxi. 21. where see the Note; so that he being Cotemporary with Isaac, and as Barachel the Father of Elibu does not seem to be the immediate Son of Buz (since he might rather be called so, than the Buzite, if he had) it will probably carry the Time of Elibu thus far. And to omit weak Conjectures, Job's great Age, and there being Nothing said throughout the Book of the Israelites Deliverance from Egypt, or the extraordinary Things God then wrought, may be sufficient to make one think, that the Discourses between him, and his Friends were not afterwards. The Scope of this Book, according to Maimonides, is to establish the great Article of Providence, whereby Nothing will seem hard that befalls one.

Ib. Uz] for which see Lam. iv. 21. Jer. xxv. 20.

Ver. 2. were born] Caryl among his tedious Trifles has, His Children were not born against him, but born unto him.

Ver. 3. His Possession] As Servius writes on the first Eclogue of Virgil, Omne Patrimonium apud Majores Peculium dicebatur, a Pecoribus, in quibus universa eorum Substantia constabat; an Estate among the Ancients had its Name in Latin from Cattle, of which their whole Substance consisted; see also Gen. xiii. 5.

Ver. 5. every Time] of the Entertainment; the Saxon adds, for his sunum & hi swa yebalyde, for his Sons, and so sanctified them.

Ver. 6. the Sons of God] Sax. the Godes englas.

Ver. 7. going about] As he is but a finite Being himself (yet there are many evil Spirits) and what he goes about for Peter tells us, 1 Ep. v. 8. but his walking seems too restrictive, and unsuitable.

Ver. 11. smite] the same Verb is thus rendered in Ver. 19. and devour or destroy, Ch. ii. 3. shews it to be more than touch.

19. When

19. When behold a great Wind came from the Passage of the Wilderness, and smote the four Corners of the House; so that it fell upon the Youths, and they died; and I only am escaped by my self, to tell thee.

20. At which Job rose up, and having torn his Cloak, and shaved his Head, he fell on the Ground, bowing down;

21. And said, I came naked out of my Mother's Womb, and shall return naked thither; the Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away: the Name of the Lord be blessed.

22. In all this Job did not sin, nor ascribe Indiscretion to God.

CHAP. II.

NEXT there being a Day when the Sons of God came, to present themselves before the Lord; Satan also came among them, to present himself before the Lord.

2. And the Lord asked him, Where dost thou come from? Who made him this Answer, From ranging on the Earth, and from going about on it.

3. Then the Lord said to Satan, Hast thou taken notice of my Servant Job? For there is none like him on the Earth, a Man perfect and upright, fearing God, and departing from Evil: and he yet holds fast his Perfectness, when thou wouldest persuade me against him, to devour him for nothing.

4. Whereupon he made reply to the Lord; Skin for Skin, nay all that a Man has will he give for his Life.

5. Surely reach out now thy Hand, and smite his Bone and his Flesh, he will blaspheme thee to thy Face.

6. With that the Lord said to him, Behold he is in thy Power, only preserve his Life.

7. So Satan went out from the Face of the Lord, and smote Job with a grievous Boil from the Sole of his Foot even to his Crown:

8. Inasmuch that he took him a Potsherd, to scrape himself with it, and sat among Ashes.

9. And his Wife said to him, Thou yet holdest fast thy Perfectness: blaspheme God, and die.

10. But he answered her, Thou speakest as one of the vile Women does: shall we then receive the Good from God, and shall we not the Ill? In all this Job did not sin with his Lips.

11. Now the three Friends of Job hearing of all this Ill that was come upon him, came from their several Places, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; who met together by appointment, to come to bemoan him, and comfort him.

12. However looking up far off, they did not know him, then they raised up their Voice, and wept; as also tore each his Cloak, and sprinkled Dust upon their Heads towards Heaven.

13. And they sat with him on the Ground seven Days and so many Nights; none speaking a Word to him, because they saw that the Grief was very great.

CHAP. III.

AFTER this Job opened his Mouth, and cursed his Day.

2. And he spoke as follows:

3. Let the Day perish on which I was born, and the Night that it was said, There is a Man conceived.

4. May that Day be Darkness, may not God seek it from above; nor the Brightness shine upon it.

5. Let Darkness and the Shadow of Death pollute it, a Cloud dwell upon it; let the Blackness of the Day terrify it.

Ver. 19. Ælfric in his Saxon (Paraphrase or Abstract of) Job says, Eall this dyde se calda Deafol to gremenne þone goðan man.

Ib. the four Corners] By which it may seem a Whirlwind that rocked the House to and fro, and so loosened it to fall; which also agrees with its having a Passage.

Ver. 21. thither] The Grave being the Womb of his Mother Earth: thus stiling the Earth his Mother, as David his Mother the Earth, Psa. cxxxix. 15.

Ib. away] The Septuag. here add, whom the Vulgate follows, as it pleased the Lord, so it is done: for those Translators could take such Liberties.

Ver. 22. ascribe Indiscretion to God] Herein following the Heb. while foolishly rather belongs to Job than to God, in our vulg. Transf.

Ver. 4. Skin for Skin] not others for his own, as generally supposed by the Words in this Verse, though they are allowed to be very difficult; for whose Skin was the others? Rather he would be stripped of all, to save his Person.

Ver. 7. smote] Caryl says, He was all over full of Boiles in an instant—on a sudden, in a moment; but that is utterly improbable.

Ver. 9. Thou] As we vulgarly say, What, or What then, thou; for since the Original has Nothing to make it a Question, I see no Necessity that a Translation should.

Ib. blaspheme] the same Verb that is so translated, 1 King. xxi. 10, 13. where it cannot signify blest, as some would have it here, nor at Ver. 5. of this Chap. which may shew it has this Meaning.

Ib. and die] which may perhaps be best understood, that he may kill thee out of thy Misery.

Ver. 1. Day] viz. Birth-day.

Ver. 4. seek it] for Job's Birth.

Ver. 5. let the Blackness of the Day terrify it] Which the Vulg. has, let it be wrapt in Bitterness: among the rest the Translator might mistake במרירי for במרירי from the Root מרר to be bitter.

6. That very Night let Dimness take, let it not be joyful among the Days of the Year, into the Number of the Months not come.

7. Lo let that Night be solitary, no Singing come in it.

8. Let such as curse the Day expressly name it, them who are prepared to rouse up the Whale.

9. Let the Stars of its Twilight be darkened, let it wait for Light, and there be none; nor let it see the Eye-lids of the Morning:

10. Because it did not shut up the Doors of the Belly where I was, nor hide Trouble from my Eyes.

11. Why did not I die from the Womb? Expire coming out of the Belly?

12. Why did the Knees prevent me? And what for the Breasts, when I sucked?

13. For now should I have lain down, and been still: I should have slept, then there would have been Rest for me:

14. With Kings and Counsellors of the Earth, who have built them Seats of Retirement;

15. Or with Princes, who having Gold, furnished their Houses with Silver:

16. Or as a hidden untimely Birth I should not have been, like Infants who see not the Light.

17. There the Wicked leave off Disturbance, and there they whose Strength is tired out do rest:

18. The Prisoners are quiet together; they hear not the Voice of the Exacter:

19. The Small and the Great are each there; and the Servant is free from his Master.

20. Why is Light given to him that is troubled, and Life to one of a bitter Mind?

21. (Who wait for Death, and there is none, and dig for it more than for Treasures;

22. Who are exceeding glad, rejoice when they find the Grave?)

23. To the Man whose Way is hid, and God covers it about?

24. For my Groaning comes before my Bread; and my Roarings are poured out like the Water.

25. For I was seized with Dread, and it has approached me; and what I was afraid of is come to me.

26. I being neither quiet, nor still, nor at rest, Disturbance came.

CHAP. IV.

AND Eliphaz the Temanite made answer:

2. Shall we attempt a Discourse with thee, that wilt be fatigued? But who can hold in the Words?

3. Behold thou hast instructed many, and strengthened the weak Hands;

4. Thy Words have raised up him who was falling, and thou hast made the bending Knees strong:

5. When now it being come to thee, thou

Ver. 6. joyful] as Exod. xviii. 9. where the Word has also the same Letters and Points: so Jun. and Trem. have fuisse gaudia, and Broughton joy, agreeable to the next Verse, as well as to Buxtorf's Lexicon and Concordance; according to which Mercerus says in his learned Commentary, Sensum ei poeticè tribuit, Job ascribit Sense to it poetically; and concerning joined adds, Hec ratio punctorum non patitur, The Manner of the Pointing does not allow it.

Ver. 8. curse the Day] because the Approach of it hinders their Fishing, according to what follows; see Luke v. 5.

1b. expressly name] in which Manner this Verb is rendered, Num. i. 17. 1 Chron. xii. 31. & xvi. 41. 2 Chr. xxviii. 15. & xxxi. 19. Exr. viii. 20. and is not the same with the other Verb.

1b. them who] the Sailors or Fishermen, who are remarkable for Curfing.

1b. rouse up the Whale] to catch him, as Chap. xli. 10. being done with Noise and bad Words. The Tigur. Bib. has the last Word balenat, Whales; Jun. and Trem. sing as the Heb. Word is, balanam; Casfal. puts it leviathanem, the vulg. Lat. Translator undec. leviathan; it being the same with that in Chap. xli. 1. Psa. lxxiv. 14. & civ. 26. Isa. xxvii. 1. There appears no Signification of mourning, or any Thing like it, from the Heb. Root; and their is confuted because it would be fem. and so of a wrong Gender.

Ver. 9. nor let it see] Paraphrase by Sandys, whom as I remember Dryden recommends as the best Versifier of his Time,

*Let it not see the Dawning fleet the Skies,
Nor the gray Morning from the Ocean rise.*

Vol. I.

1b. Eye-lids of the Morning] the same as in Ch. xli. 18.

Ver. 14. With] instead of like.

Ver. 15. with Silver] Living meanly, out of the Danger of being robbed, or envied. Silver it seems being very plentiful, and of little Value, in some Parts of Arabia; where Job dwelt, and whence Solomon probably had it, 2 Chron. ix. 20, 27. Job thus intimating, he should have been if dead, as the better Sort of the Great, Wise and Rich, choose to be when living. I cannot think with Caryl, the Houses were their Graves which they filled with Silver, and as if that was more precious than Gold.

Ver. 24. Roarings] Bp. Patrick has paraphrased this and some other Books in the Manner of Levi ben Gershom, by altering the Expressions; which Way I should not approve of, because it is, or looks like an Attempt, to make the Scripture better than it was inspired: but who can think this Word is such by Sighs and Sobs, as loud as the Roarings of the Lion, or that it is true.

1b. the Water] which he drank.

Ver. 25. For] Caryl says this Verse is not a Reason of that before; but what can be plainer? And he might have said it better of the foregoing Verse. His Parallels of Job. iv. 17. Mat. vii. 23. are nothing to the Matter.

Ver. 26. quiet] as the Word constantly signifies, and is no where else rendered to be in safety.

Ver. 2. Shall we] The Heb. Interrogation begins the Verse, and so makes good Sense; which is spoiled by adding if, and throwing the Question to the next Part; wilt thou be grieved? being tantamount to thou wilt not be grieved, which certainly is not the Meaning.

art fatigued; it reaches to thee, and thou art troubled.

6. Is not this thy Awe, thy Hope, thy Expectation, and the Perfectness of thy Ways?

7. Call to mind now, who that is innocent perishes? And where are the Upright cut off?

8. According as I have seen those who plough Vanity, and sow Trouble, reap the same:

9. They perish by the Blast of God, and are consumed by his breathing upon them.

10. The Roaring of the Lion, the Voice of the fierce Lion, and the Teeth of the young Lions are broke to pieces;

11. The old Lion perishes by being without Prey, and the Whelps of the stout Lion are dispersed about.

12. There was also a Matter brought by Stealth to me, of which my Ear received a Little;

13. In Thoughts from Visions of the Night, when sound Sleep falls upon Men;

14. I was seized with such Dread and Trembling, that it made all my Bones shake.

15. Then a Spirit passing before my Face, made the Hair of my Flesh stand on end.

16. It stood still but I did not know the Appearance of it, the Apparition being before my Eyes: there was Silence, next I heard a Voice;

17. Is a mortal Person more righteous than God? Is a Man purer than his Maker?

18. Lo he cannot give credit to his Servants, and himself puts Light in his Angels.

19. Further those that dwell in Houses of Clay, whose Foundation is in the Dust, are bruised before a Moth.

20. From Morning to Evening are they beat in pieces; they perish for ever, without any regarding it.

21. Is not the Excellency that they have in them removed away? They die, and without Wisdom.

CH A P. V.

CALL now, is there any who will answer thee? And to which of the holy ones wilt thou look?

2. For Indignation slays the Foolish, and Zeal kills the Simple.

3. I have seen the Foolish taking root, but I cursed his Habitation presently.

4. His Children are far off from Safety; and are bruised at the Gate, none delivering:

5. Whose Harvest the Hungry eats, and takes it even out of the Thorns; and the horrid one swallows up their Wealth.

6. For Vanity does not come out of the Dust, nor Trouble spring forth from the Ground:

7. Though Man is born to Trouble, as the Sparks of a Coal fly up.

8. Surely I would seek to God, and to God commit my Cause:

Ver. 6. Awe] Jun. and Trem. Religion. In the com. Transf. fear and confidence don't seem very consistent.

Ib. Ways] Peole writing his Annotations upon the com. Bib. which he has altered with and thy hope last, goes on observing that is not the right Order and Place of it. Sure enough!

Ver. 8. Trouble] or Labour, but not Wickedness, nor with so good Sense; the Words of Ch. v. 6.

Ver. 9. breathing] See on Exod. xv. 8.

Ver. 10. pieces] the stoutest of the wicked are destroyed by divine Justice; see Beza on the Place.

Ver. 18. to his Servants] viz. in general, so many serving him insincerely.

Ib. putt—in] So the Heb. is literally.

Ib. Light] Thus Pagn. lumen, Trem. and Jun. lucem. Bro. clear light, the Root being in Hiphil to shine always in Job; see Buxt. Lex. and Beza expounds it, the Light of Understanding and Wisdom.

Ib. Angels] who have not Light of themselves, Psa. civ. 4. Rev. xxi. 23. but that God charges them with Folly is incredible.

Ver. 19. Further] or also, as the Heb. Particle properly signifies; and another is wanting to make it How much less, or rather Much more; see Dien's Anim.

Ib. Houses of Clay] their Bodies.

Ib. Foundation] Original.

Ib. before] sooner than a feeble Moth that may be seen in the same House, as by the Words of the next Verse it seems to be referred to Time.

Ver. 21. Is not the Excellency that they have—removed away?] Schultens thought it a fine Thing to be translated, Indeed their Sinew (for Excellency) is a convulsed

Nothing; though so unintelligible, or as he owns inexpressible, and when the Heb. has more for a Question than we.

Ib. and without Wisdom] Nor are they made any wiser by so many Examples of their Mortality, Bez. agreeable to the foregoing Verse; or by their own.

Ver. 1. holy ones] Angels in Heaven, and Saints on Earth.

Ver. 2. Zeal] such as Job had, rather than Envy. So Jun. and Trem. have it zelus, Gast. vehementia, and the Fig. Bib. indignatio.

Ver. 5. takes it even out of the Thorns] when put together in Ricks, and fenced, as I suppose with Thorns.

Ib. horrid one] being hairy, as the Heb. Word shews, savage, as those might be that plundered Job, Ch. i.

Ver. 7. Man is born to Trouble] Diogenes Laertius relates in the Life of Crantor, how he would repeat that Verse from Bellerophon, “Οἱ καὶ τί δ' οἱ καὶ; θνήσκει τοὶ μενόντες.

O wretched me! But why, O wretched me? We suffer but what belongs to Mortals. So in Homer's Iliad, B. 10. in Eng.

To labour is the Lot of Man below;

And when God gave us Life, he gave us Wee.

In looking over the Dissertations of Maxim. Tyrias, I also find him in the 16th enumerating the Troubles of Man's Life, and among the rest this Expression, “Ἡ τὰ μὲν ἀγαθὰ, ἐκίπτεται ἐν τῇ ἰσχύϊ τὰ δὲ κακὰ, ἐξ αὐτοῦ καὶ μὴ ἐκ ἄλλου. The Things that are good to us, come from another (to wit, God;) but those that are ill, spring spontaneously from Wickedness.

Ver. 8. Surely] which is strangely left out of the com. Transf.

9. Who does great Things, and not to be searched out, wonderful Things out of Number :

10. Who gives Rain upon the Surface of the Earth, and sends Water upon that of the Streets ;

11. To put the Humble on high, and that the Pensive may be exalted with Safety :

12. Who frustrates the Thoughts of the Crafty, so that their Hands do no substantial Matter :

13. Who takes the Wise in their Craftiness, and the Counsel of the Froward is precipitated.

14. They meet with Darkness by Day, and grope about at Noon as at Night.

15. Whereas he saves the Needy from the Sword, from their Mouth, and from the Hand of the Powerful.

16. So that there is Expectation for the Poor, and Iniquity shuts up its Mouth.

17. Lo blessed is the Man whom God reproveth ; so do not thou despise the Correction of the Almighty :

18. For he causes to be in pain, and binds up ; he smites, and his Hands heal.

19. In six Distresses he will deliver thee, and in seven the Harm shall not reach thee.

20. In Hunger he will redeem thee from Death, and in War from the Power of the Sword.

21. When the Tongue runs on defaming, thou shalt be hid, and not be afraid of Wasting when it comes.

22. At Wasting and at Famine thou shalt smile, and of the Beast of the Earth not be afraid.

23. For with the Stones of the Field shalt thou have a Covenant, and the Beast of the Field shall be at peace with thee.

24. Thus wilt thou experience that thy Tent is peaceable ; and mayest visit thy Habitation, offending none.

25. Nay thou shalt know that thy Posterity are many, and thy Offspring like the Grass of the Earth.

26. Thou shalt come to the Grave in old Age, as a Cock of Corn is made up in its Season.

27. Behold this, that we have searched out, is so : hear it, and know thou for thy self.

CHAP. VI.

BUT Job made reply :

2. Oh that my Indignation was thoroughly weighed, and my Calamity that they were put up into the Scales together !

3. For it would now be heavier than the Sand of the Seas ; therefore my Words are swallowed up.

4. For the Arrows of the Almighty are with me, whose Venom drinks up my Spirit ; the Terrors of God are set in order against me.

5. Does the wild Ass bray over the Grass ? Does the Ox bellow over his Provender ?

6. Is an unrelishable Thing eat without Salt ? Is there Taste in the White of an Egg ?

7. Those Things that my Soul refused to touch, are as my languishing Meat.

8. Oh that my Petition might come to pass, and God would grant my Expectation !

9. Even that God would be pleased to crush me ; let loose his Hand, and cut me off !

10. Which should yet be my Comfort, and I would pray in the Anguish he might not spare : for I have not concealed the Words of the Holy One.

11. What is my Strength, that I should wait ? and what will my End be, that I should prolong my Life ?

Ver. 10. Streets] to run into Ponds and Vessels, for the Cattle and Household Uses ; or since it is Water here, and not Rain as before, might be Brooks running there. Thus the Heb. Word signifies, and is translated in the com. Bib. Psa. xviii. 42. Isa. v. 25. & x. 6. & li. 20. Jer. xi. 13. Lam. ii. 19, 21. & iv. 1. Mic. vii. 10. Nab. iii. 10. Zech. ix. 3. & x. 5. and elsewhere, but not as I know of Fields.

Ver. 12. substantial Matter] the Heb. Word denoting what is essential, substantial, or material, from the Root denoting to be ; see in my Preface how variously rendered in the com. Transf.

Ver. 13. precipitated] whereas it should be taken deliberately. The Meaning of the Verb is to hasten, or hurry.

Ver. 19. six] many.

1b. seven] all, as being a compleat Number.

Ver. 20. Hunger] not the same Word as in Ver. 22.

Ver. 21. runs on] scourge being by Mistake of the Verb for a Noun, though the Heb. is not from.

Ver. 24. Habitation] any Part of his Possession, and not offend (which the Heb. signifies, as well as more strictly to sin) any other Claimant. Oh what a hand have the Commentators made with many Passages, by the Translators misleading them !

Ver. 26. made up] Pagn. ascendit, Mont. ascendens ; the Verb denoting up, not in. And it appears to be the Manner in those ancient Times, even to thresh, and much more lay up their Corn abroad, Gen. i. 10. Judg. vi. 37. Hes. xiii. 3. though this might refer to the first making it up in little Cocks, as Husbandmen do.

Ver. 2. Indignation] being in Answer to Eliphaz, Chap. v. 2. who there used the same Word, and it is rendered so in the pref. Transf. Ch. x. 17.

1b. they were] to be weighed in a Pair of Scales one against the other, this Verb being plural.

Ver. 5. Does] q. d. Do I complain in Prosperity, or without Cause ?

Ver. 6. Is] Can such unpleasant Affliction be agreeable ?

Ver. 10. pray] This Verb is found no where else in Scripture, but in Chald. to which Language it appears to belong, it signifies to burn or pray ; which latter Bustarf shews in his great Chald. Lex. from an Epistle, and the

12. Is

12. Is my Strength the Strength of Stones?
Is my Flesh of Steel?
13. Is there none of my Help in me? and is substantial Matter driven away from me?
14. To one that is dissolved there should be Kindness from his Friend; whereas he forsakes the Fear of the Almighty.
15. My Brethren are treacherous like the Flood; as the Channel of the Floods they pass away:
16. That are blackish because of the Ice, at which the Snow is hid.
17. At the Time they flow out, they are cut off; in the Heat of it they are extinct from their Place.
18. The Paths of their Way are bended;
they ascend in Emptiness, and perish.
19. The Paths of Tema looking, the Walks of Sheba waiting for them;
20. They are ashamed that they trusted:
they come to it, and are confounded.
21. For now you are as Nobody: you see the Calamity, and are afraid.
22. Is it because I said, Give me; or, Provide a Gift for me of your Ability?
23. Or, Deliver me from the Power of the Enemy? or, From the Power of the violent redeem me?
24. Instruct me, that I may be silent; and make me understand, how I have erred.

25. How powerful are Sayings that are right! But how does Reproof from you reprove?

26. Do ye think to reprove the Words, and the Sayings of one despairing, to be but Wind?

27. Nay ye cast down upon the Fatherless, and dig upon your Friend.

28. But now consent, look on me; and it is before your Face, if I lye.

29. Return, I pray, let not that be Iniquity; even return yet, my Justice being in it.

30. Is there Iniquity in my Tongue?
Does not my Palate understand Calamities?

C H A P. VII.

HAS not mortal Man a War upon Earth? And his Days are like those of one hired.

2. As a Servant pants for the Shadow, and as a hired one waits at his Work:

3. So am I made to possess for my self Months of Vanity: and Nights of Labour are prepared for me.

4. If I lie down, I say, When shall I rise up, by the Evening being measured out?
And I am full of Wanderings till the Twilight.

Jews Book of Prayers; and which Ansel follows in his Hebrew and German Lexicon. Schultens, as published by Grey in 1742, turns it, like others of his unsupported Oddnesses, dash the Ground with the Foot; which, as the rest, he admires himself.

Ib. not concealed] as Chap. xxvii. 11. Psa. xl. 10.
having done his Duty, he was prepared or fit to die.

Ver. 13. my Help] Ability to vindicate himself; but the con. seems incoherent.

Ver. 14. he] Eliphaz Job's Friend, Chap. ii. 11.

Ver. 16. at which] not wherein, because the Water would melt the Snow.

Ver. 17. flow out] The Word being only here, and having this Meaning both in Chald. and Arabick, as by Buxt. Chald. and Rab. Lex. and Castellus's Lexic. Heptaglot; and the same by Dav. Kimbi and Levi, with Buxt.
Concordan. and Heb. Lex. so Pagn. renders it effluxerint.

Ib. cut off] so the Heb. nor is vanish proper to Brooks.

Ib. Heat of it] of that Time, viz. in warm Weather, as they were also useless before in cold, Ver. 16.

Ver. 18. The Paths of their Way] Where the Floods pushing on, are parted by Obstacles.

Ib. ascend] as the Heb. is, being exhaled by the Sun.

Ver. 19. The Paths] the very same Heb. Word with that in the foregoing Verse.

Ib. Walks] rendered walk, Nab. ii. 5. ways, Hab. iii.
6. Prov. ult. 27. and goings twice, Psa. lxxviii. 24. which are all the other Places where it is found.

Ver. 20. they] the Paths and Walks; as the like is ascribed to such Things, Ch. vii. 10. & viii. 18. & ix. 25, 31. Lam. i. 4. Isa. iii. 26. & xxiv. 23. & xxxiii. 9. & xliv. 23. & xlix. 13. & lv. 12. Psa. xcvi. 8. And those who go in the Paths and Walks might better be understood, than to be altered into Troops and Companies.

Ib. come to it] as we say, That Path goes to such a Place.

Ver. 22. because] which the Heb. has.

Ver. 26. to be but Wind] as if spoken lightly or vainly, as Chap. xv. 2. & xvi. 3. whereas a despairing Person speaks earnestly and to the purpose; and surely Job would not say the former of himself. The Heb. is literally for or to be (so with Beza) not as; nor has it which. Broughton has bold the terms of the forlorn a wind.

Ver. 27. nay ye cast down] by Schult. Ye make the Nose (which he interprets Pride and disdainful Contempt) fall.

Ib. upon] both times the same, and I do not see any other Way to render it, that has the two Parts, as well as this Word, more suitable. Job may be supposed for the latter, and not unaptly to his Condition, as if in a Pit, according as in the former Fatherless.

Ib. the Fatherless] Job himself being as such.

Ver. 29. let] do not think it will be amiss to alter your Mind and Behaviour.

Ib. Justice] it is Justice that belongs to me.

Ver. 30. Palate] like Tongue.

Ib. Calamities] which he suffered.

Ver. 1. a War] Montan. with the Vulg. Lat. and Tig.
Bibles, as likewise Schul. have militia. This is the known and allowed Meaning of the Word, being from its Root to make war; and so rendered Chap. x. 17. Thus too the Parts of the Verse are distinct, and not a Tautology; the next Verse also answering to the latter Part, and the third to this, like fight of afflictions, Heb. x. 32.

Ver. 2. at his Work] to have it ended, agreeable to the former Part of the Verse: looking for the Reward of it would yield Joy and Comfort, unsuitable to Job's Condition, and who does not seem to have expected any Reward for his Affliction; so that Reward appears not well added by our Translators, and the vulg. Lat. to be better, præstolatur finem operis sui, waits for the End of his Work, or as Broughton has it, works and; but Jun. and Trem.
turn it expectat dum fecerit, waits while he is at work.
Sch. expounds it objectively, Is forced to labour all his Life long, and when one Work is finished, yet quickly expects another, by which he may get himself a Maintenance.

Ver. 3. Nights of Labour] which is the Time for Rest.

5. My

5. My Flesh is clothed with Worms, and crumbling Mould; my Skin breaks apart, and is dissolved.

6. My Days are swifter than a Shuttle, and are consumed without Expectation.

7. Remember that my Life is Wind: my Eye will again see no Good.

8. The Eye that sees me will not discern me: thy Eyes being on me, I shall be gone.

9. The Cloud is consumed, and goes away; so he who goes down to the Grave, will not come up:

10. He will no more return to his House; nor will his Place know him any more.

11. Therefore do I not restrain my Mouth, I speak in the Distress of my Spirit, I muse in the Bitterness of my Soul.

12. Am I a Sea, or a Whale; that thou puttest a Watch over me?

13. Though I say, My Couch shall comfort me, my Bed shall bear my Musing;

14. Yet thou terrifiest me with Dreams, and frightenest me by Visions:

15. Insomuch that my Soul chooseth Strangling, Death from my Bones.

16. I despise them, I would not live for ever: let me alone, since my Days are Vanity.

17. What is Man, that thou shouldest magnify him, or that thou shouldest regard him;

18. And visit him at the Mornings, try him at the Moments?

19. How long wilt thou not turn away from me, nor leave me off, while I swallow down my Spittle?

20. I have sinned; what shall I do to thee, the Keeper of Mankind? Why dost thou put me for thy Butt, so that I am a Burden to my self?

21. And why dost not thou forgive my Transgression, and take away my Iniquity, that now I might lie down in the Dust?

And though thou shouldest seek me early, I should be gone.

C H A P. VIII.

THEN Bildad the Shuhite made answer:

2. How long wilt thou utter these Things, and the Words of thy Mouth be a great Wind?

3. Does God overthrow Judgment? Or does the Almighty overthrow Righteousness?

4. If thy Children sinned against him, and he sent them away by means of their Transgression;

5. If thou seekest early to God, and to the Almighty makest supplication;

6. If thou art pure and upright, he will now stir up for thee, and make the Habitation of thy Righteousness prosperous.

7. And though thy Beginning be small, yet thy End will exceedingly increase.

8. For ask now, of the former Generation, and prepare for searching out their Fathers:

9. (Because we are of Yesterday, and ignorant; since our Days upon the Earth are as a Shadow)

10. Will not they instruct thee, tell thee, and produce Sayings out of their Mind?

11. Does the Rush become high, when not in the Mire? The Sedge grow without Water?

12. When it is yet in its Verdure, not plucked off, it withers before any Grass.

13. So are the Paths of all that forget God, and the Expectation of the Hypocrite will perish:

14. Whose Hope will be loathed, and his Trust be as a Spider's Web.

15. He may lean against his House, but will not stand: may take hold of it, yet will not stand up.

16. Should he be full of Juice before the

Ver. 5. is dissolved] so the Verb signifies, and never becomes loathsome that I find; see ספס in the Lexicons. So Jun. and Tre. liquefit. Pagn. dissolvit se.

Ver. 11. muse] Buxt. not giving it the Meaning of complain at all.

Ver. 13. my Bed shall bear—] for I shall bear it there, being not safe.

lb. musing] Look at Psa. lv. 2. and Complaint was less suitable on the Bed at Night.

Ver. 15. from my Bones] to which he was in a manner reduced, Ch. xix. 20. and xxxiii. 21. and which were in pain, Ch. xxx. 17, 30, and xxxiii. 19. Jun. and Trem. have the same in their corrected Transf. i. e. ex ossibus meis, which is literal. How bones are made to be, or signify life, as in the vulg. Transf. is not easily to be accounted for.

Ver. 19. while] For what Sense does till make? The Heb. signifying either, and thus Jun. and Cast. render it.

Ver. 20. the Keeper] Hervey says, 'Not Preserver, as it stands in our Version, but Observer of Men,' Meditat. Vol. ii. p. 138. His Mistake seems to be from שמר another Heb. Word signifying either of those, but שמר here used does not.

Ver. 4. by means] Heb. by the Hand.

Ver. 7. be small] now, as in the preceding Verse.

Ver. 9. a Shadow] by their Life being so short, in comparison of their Forefathers Lives.

Ver. 11. Does] Do the Wicked prosper long without Providence, and a Hypocrite without Virtue? Ver. 13.

Ver. 14. loathed] by the Righteous and Sincere; according as the Verb signifies, and is rendered, Ezek. vi. 9. & xx. 43. & xxxvi. 31. never any Thing like cut off.

Ver. 15. will] he himself, not it the House; it being he that is spoken of both before and after: and leaning upon his house, if he had been tall enough, would not be the Way to support it.

lb. take hold of it] not to uphold it, but to uphold himself by it, Psalm; but rather to help himself up when down, by rise up, not endure.

Ver. 16. Should] which makes the following intelligible.

Sun, and his tender Branch come forth in his Garden;

17. His Roots be wrapt upon the Heap, should he behold the House of Stones;

18. When he is devoured from his Place, it will deny him, I have not seen thee.

19. Lo that will be the Joy of his Way; and others will spring out of the Mould.

20. Behold God will not reject the Perfect, nor take hold of the Hand of Evil-doers:

21. Till he fills thy Mouth with Laughter, and thy Lips with Melody;

22. Those who hate thee will be cloathed with Shame; and the Tent of the Wicked will be gone.

C H A P. IX.

WHEREUPON Job made reply:

2. Truly I am not ignorant that it is so; but how shall Man be righteous with God?

3. If the former would contend with him, he cannot answer him one Thing out of a Thousand.

4. Against him, of a wise Heart, and of powerful Strength, who is there hardens himself, and prospers?

5. That removes away Mountains, they knowing not how; who overthrows them in his Anger:

6. Who moves the Earth from its Place, and the Pillars of it totter:

7. Who commanding the Sun, it does not rise, and seals up the Stars:

8. Who stretches out the Heavens alone, and treads upon the high Places of the Sea;

9. Who makes Arcturus, Orion, and the seven Stars, with the Chambers of the South:

10. Who does great Things even not to be searched out, and wonderful Things out of Number.

11. Behold he passes before me, and I do not see; as likewise goes by, and I do not perceive him.

12. Behold when he catches away, who shall make him bring back? Who shall say to him, What art thou doing?

13. Should not God turn back his Anger, the strong Helpers would bow down under him:

14. Much less shall I answer him, choose my Words to him;

15. Whom, if I were righteous, I would not answer, I would make supplication to him that judges me.

16. If I had called, and he answered me, I should not believe that he gave ear to what I said:

17. Who bruises me with a Tempest, and multiplies my Wounds without cause.

18. He does not suffer me to fetch my Breath; for he fills me with bitter Things.

19. If it is by Might, behold he is strong; and if by Judgment, who will appoint it for me?

20. If I was righteous, my own Mouth would condemn me: were I perfect, it would also make me perverse.

21. I being perfect, would not know my Soul, I would despise my Life.

22. It is all one, therefore I say, He consumes the Perfect, as well as the Wicked.

23. Though the Whip cause to die presently, he mocks at the Trial of the Innocent.

24. The Earth is given into the Possession of the Wicked, that blindfolds the Judges of it: if not, where, who is he?

25. Whereas my Days are swifter than

Ver. 17. be behold] I find in early Editions of our last Eng. and some now, [and seech] without [he,] as if said (though amiss) of his roots, as in the Gen. (beside the Meaning of the Word) are folded about.

Ib. House of Stones] where they lie deep in the Ground, their settled Habitation; and not as Patrick says, because the Heb. is House, whose Head lifts up it self above the highest Edifices.

Ver. 19. Joy] Ironical.

Ib. others will spring] in his Place.

Ver. 20. take hold of] the same Verb as Ver. 15.

Ver. 21. Till] How much the best may this be referred to the following Verse! as the same in Ch. xxvii. 5. Cant. li. 17. and to such a Purpose see Psa. cxii. 8. Grey thought these two last Verses belonged so ill to the foregoing, that he proposed to join them to the 7th.

Ver. 4. who] Know thou, whose'er with Heav'nly Pow'r contends,

Short is his Date, and soon his Glory ends.

Pope's Homer, B. 5.

Ver. 5. removes &c.] by Earthquakes.

Ib. how] which often belongs to know in Eng. as other Adverbs to their Verbs; and omitted sometimes will leave our Language bald.

Ver. 7. not rise] declaring what God could do, and did not unlike this, though afterwards in Joshua's Time.

Ver. 8. stretches] either at the Creation, or the Clouds, and may be both.

Ib. treads] for which Patrick substitutes, makes the Sea swell and lift up its Waves; a strange Property of treading! and how different from that which the great Yun. and Trem. expound it by, that is, presses down as with a Foot the Tide and Waves of the raging Sea.

Ver. 10. like Ch. v. 9. as here.

Ver. 19. appoint it] there being not a time in the Heb.

Ver. 20. was righteous] the Verb being in the Conjugation Kal; not in Pihel, Hipbil, nor Hithpabel, to mean justify my self.

Ver. 21. would despise] which Patrick explains not amiss, only short of the Energy of the Text, I do not value my Life so much as to contend about it.

Ver. 22. all one] I cannot defend my self, whether I am righteous or wicked.

Ver. 24. that] to distinguish it from he in the two preceding Verses.

Ib. where] See Noldius in Concordan. Annot. 492.

Ib. he] referring to the same Word in the Original, Ver. 22. not as Patrick does it to the Wicked; which I one one that runs: they flee away, seeing no Good.

26. They pass away with the willing Ships, as the Eagle flies upon the Food.

27. If my Saying is, I will forget my Musing, will leave my sorrowful Countenance, and take Refreshment;

28. I am afraid of all my Grievs, knowing that thou wilt not hold me innocent:

29. I shall be wicked; why do I labour thus in vain?

30. If I wash my self with Snow-water, and cleanse my Hands purely;

31. Then thou plungest me in the Pit, so that my own Garments abhor me.

32. For he is not a Man like me, that I may answer him, that we may come together in Judgment.

33. There is none to determine between us, who may put his Hand upon us both.

34. Would he take off his Rod from me, and his Terror not frighten me;

35. I would speak, and not be afraid of him; but it is not so with my self.

CHAP. X.

MY Soul loaths my Life, I will leave my Musing in my self, will speak in the Bitterness of my Soul.

2. I will say to God: Do not condemn me; let me know for what thou contendest with me.

3. Is it well to thee, that thou shouldest oppress, that thou shouldest despise the Work of thy Hands, and shine upon the Counsel of the Wicked?

4. Hast thou Eyes of Flesh? Dost thou see as Man sees?

5. Are thy Days like those of Man? Are thy Years as his Days?

6. That thou enquirest for my Iniquity, and seekest for my Sin;

7. Upon thy knowing that I am not wicked, and that none can deliver from thy Power?

8. Thy Hands grieve me, yet they made me: together round about thou also devourest me.

9. Vouchsafe to remember, that thou madest me like Clay, and wilt cause me to return to Mould.

10. Didst not thou pour me out like Milk, and curdle me like Cheese?

11. Thou cloathedst me with Skin and Flesh, and didst fence me with Bones and Sinews.

12. Thou madest Life and Kindness be with me; and thy Visitation preserved my Spirit.

13. And thou hast laid up these Things in thy Heart: I know that this is with thee.

14. If I sin, thou observeest me, and wilt not hold me innocent from my Iniquity.

15. If I am wicked, alas for me; and should I be righteous, I would not lift up my Head, being filled with Vileness: so do thou look on my Affliction.

16. Which is high, as thou huntest me like a fierce Lion; and returning, becomest wonderful against me.

17. Thou renewest thy Witnesses before me, and multipliest thy Indignation with me; where are Changes, and War.

18. Why then didst thou bring me out of the Womb? Who might have expired, and the Eye not seen me:

19. Might have been as if I had not been; suppose he did from the mispointing of the Verse in our com. Transf.

Ver. 26. with] the same as in Ch. iii. 14, 15.

Ib. willing] like seeing in the Ver. before.

Ver. 29. shall be wicked] be dealt with as such, according to the foregoing Words; Brough. shall be holden as wicked; see Poole's Annot.

Ver. 31. Then] Yet seems by Carelessness.

Ver. 35. it is not so with my self] which though it so clearly belongs to that just before, yet Patrick refers it back to other Chapters, countenanced indeed by some Lat. Interpreters, especially Pagn. thus, I am not so bad as you imagine.

Ver. 1. loaths] the same Verb with that in Chap. viii. 14.

Ib. leave my Musing in my self] which has some Claim to Sense; but what the com. Eng. has, I shall leave to its Expositors; acquainting the Reader withal, that the Heb. Word signifies Musing, but never that I know of complaint.

Ver. 5. Patrick, Must thou take time as we do to find out the truth?

Ver. 8. grieve] This the Heb. Word constantly signifies, and never mads, which is also a Tautology.

Ib. together round about] These follow the Heb. Par- tition of the Verse, which the best Translators likewise observe: thus also Job lost what he had, Chap. i. 14—19. and was punished in his Body, Chap. ii. 7.

Ver. 9. with cause] The Heb. having Nothing for a Question; and it being an Assertion, is undoubtedly true, as well as agreeable to the preceding Part of the Verse: to intimate the contrary, as a Question sometimes does, would be false; and to be asked for Information, would be silly.

Ver. 15. do thou look on] not satisfied with Schult. having altered the Imperative Verb into a Participle, or Noun, to make, and am a Spectator of my Affliction; Grey would change it further to drunk with, by the Mutation of it into v.

Ver. 16. is high] so the Original, and not increaseth; besides that Job's Affliction was probably abating to him before he began to speak, Ch. ii. ult. & iii. 1.

Ver. 17. before] The Words rendered against and upon, in the com. Transf. signify as here put, and that properly, the two last being alike.

Ver. 18. not seen me] that is alive, as being otherwise but his Body: for he speaks of being still-born, as the next Verse shews; and also not to have had his Mother died with him, by being not delivered of him; as Patrick makes this, and then begins the next with Or.

have have been carried away from the Belly to the Grave.

20. Are not my Days a little while? So cease thou, and put this from me, that I may take Refreshment a little:

21. Before I go, without returning, to the Country of Darkness and the Shadow of Death;

22. The Country of Obscurity, like the dark Shade of Death, without Order; and that shines as if it were dark.

C H A P. XI.

NEXT Zophar the Naamathite made answer:

2. Shall not a Multitude of Words be answered? And shall a talking Man be justified?

3. Shall thy Falsehoods make Persons silent? And shalt thou scoff, and none make ashamed?

4. Since thou hast said, My Doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thy Sight.

5. But oh that God indeed would speak, and open his Lips with thee!

6. Who would tell thee the hidden Things of Wisdom, for they are double to what is material; and know thou, that God exacts of thee for thy Iniquity.

7. Canst thou find God by searching? Canst thou find out the Almighty perfectly?

8. It is at the Heights of Heaven, what canst thou do? Deeper than Hell, what canst thou know?

9. The Measure of it is longer than the Earth, and wider than the Sea.

10. If he pass through, and shut up, or gather together, who shall turn him back?

11. For he knows vain Persons, and sees Vanity: so will not he consider;

12. That a Man is empty-hearted, and Man is born as the Colt of a wild Ass?

13. If thou wouldest prepare thy Heart, and spread forth thy Hands to him;

14. If there be Vanity with thee, remove it far off, and let not Iniquity dwell in thy Tents.

15. For then wilt thou lift up thy Face without Blemish; and wilt be firm, and not fear.

16. Nay thou wilt forget Trouble, remembering it as Water that passes away.

17. And Age will rise up above Noon: thou wilt fly, wilt be like the Morning.

18. Moreover thou wilt trust, because there is Expectation; nay wilt dig, going to Bed with Confidence.

19. Thou wilt even lie down, and none make afraid; but many will make supplication before thee.

20. Whereas the Eyes of the Wicked will fail; and Flight will perish from them, so that their Expectation will be the expiring of the Soul.

C H A P. XII.

TO which Job made reply:

2. What forsooth because you are the People, and Wisdom shall die with you?

3. I also have Sense like you, I fall not beneath you; nay with whom are not such Things as these?

4. I am one that is for Sport to his Neighbour, who calls to God, that he may answer him; a righteous, a perfect one, is for Sport.

5. He who is ready to slip with the Foot, is a Lamp contemned in the Thought of him that is at ease.

Ver. 20. a little while] being singular, and not an Adjective to Days.

Ib. and] not Ita.

Ver. 5. indeed] omitted in the com. Eng.

Ver. 6. material] A secret, as in the com. Transf. must be that which is; but being spiritual, will not be material, or consist of Matter.

Ib. for thy Iniquity] or because of, without any unwarrantable Addition: so Pagn. and Munst. render propter iniquitatem tuam, Brought. for thine Iniquity; some of the lat. Translators de, from; the vulg. lat. Vers. from which the Eng. was taken, has very widely, et intelligeres quod multo minora exigaris ab eo, quam meretur iniquitas tua, and thou may'st understand that thou hast exacted much less from him than thy Iniquity deserves.

Ver. 10. pass through] which the Verb frequently means, and not any where cut off by Buxtorf's Concordance: so Trem. and Jun. turn it transueabit; and in Broughton's Translation it is pass by.

Ib. gather together] This is explained by Trem. and Jun. and likewise by Poole, as an Act of the divine Favour, in Opposition to the foregoing.

Ver. 12. That] Thus Jun. and Trem. begin the Verse with Ut.

Ib. is empty-hearted] just so Castal. fit inaniter cordatus, agreeable to the foregoing Verse; and the Verb is made from Heart.

Ver. 13. wouldest &c.] i. e. if thou wouldest pray aright, do what follows in the next Verse; which is very obscure in the com. Eng.

Ib. spread] in Prayer (to which stretch is unapt) and according to the Heb.

Ver. 17. rise up] This is the Meaning of the Heb. Word, Nothing of being clear.

Ib. Noon] the middle Time of Life, suitable to the Word Age; long Life being here spoken of.

Ib. fly] as this Verb commonly signifies, perhaps never shine forth. Jun. and Trem. say evolabis, shalt fly away, and expound it from those Calamities.

Ib. like the Morning] restored from his Gloom.

Ver. 18. dig] an Intrenchment, to accord with the following; but by Patrick, Wells.

Ver. 20. Expectation] much better than hope: for if they hoped to die, why should they endeavour to escape?

Ver. 4. who] the one before.

Ib. that he may] For as Poole observes, Job constantly complains that God did not regard his Prayers, and would not therefore say here God did answer him; nor is it fit to think Job should say, he that makes sport, at the Righteous too, calls to God, and he answers him: thus the judicious Castal. ut se exaudiat.

6. The Tents of such as waste are quiet, and they that move God have Confidence, into whose Hand he brings.

7. Nay indeed ask now the Beasts, and they will teach thee; as likewise the Fowls of the Air, and they will declare to thee:

8. Or discourse with the Earth, and that will teach thee; and the Fishes of the Sea will tell thee,

9. Who is insensible among all these, that the Hand of the Lord does this?

10. In whose Hand is the Life of every living Thing, and the Spirit of all the Flesh of Man.

11. Does not the Ear try Speeches, as the Palate tastes Food for it self?

12. In the very Aged should be Wisdom, and in Length of Time Understanding.

13. With him there is Wisdom, and Power: of him is Counsel, and Understanding.

14. Behold he throws down, and it cannot be rebuilt: he shuts upon a Man, and it cannot be opened.

15. Behold he stops the Waters, and they dry up; as also sends them forth, and they turn the Ground upside down.

16. With him is Strength, and substantial Matter: of him is he that errs, and he who causes to err.

17. He makes Counsellors go away spoiled, and deprives Judges of Sense.

18. He releases the Correction of Kings, and binds their Loins with a Girdle.

19. He makes Priests go away spoiled, and overthrows the stout ones.

20. He puts aside the Speech of the Stedfast, and takes away the Sense of the Elders.

21. He pours out Contempt upon Nobles, and slackens the Belt of the strong ones.

22. He reveals deep Things from Darkness, and brings forth the Shadow of Death to the Light.

23. He increases the Nations, and causes them to perish: he spreads abroad the Nations, and leads them away.

24. He takes away the Courage of the Heads of the People of the Earth, and makes them wander in a void Place with no Way.

25. They grope about in Darkness, where there is no Light; and he makes them stagger, not unlike one drunk.

C H A P. XIII.

LO my Eye has seen it all, my Ear has heard and understood it.

2. As ye know, I do also; I fall not beneath you.

3. I would indeed speak to the Almighty, and am willing to reason with God.

4. But indeed ye are Forgers of Falsehood, Physicians of Nought all of you.

5. Oh that ye would be quite silent! since it would be Wisdom in you.

6. Hear now my Reproof, and hearken to the Contendings of my Lips.

7. Will you plead unjustly for God, and argue deceitfully for him?

8. Will you respect his Face? Will you contend for God?

Ver. 6. quiet] so Jun. and Trem. with Montan. tranquilla; as the Meaning is, not prosper.

Ver. 7. Nay] or For, much better than But; Job referring for Confirmation of what he said in the Verse before, to the Brutes, some of whom successfully oppress and destroy others, as Blackmore particularly expatiates in his Poem; yet since this excludes the Earth, Ver. 8. it cannot be the proper Meaning; nor that of Patrick, those Creatures affording their Service to the Wicked, because that was not asserted: but God's bringing to all, both animate and inanimate, as also Ver. 9. consequently to all Mankind.

Ib. indeed] left out as in Chap. xi. 5.

Ver. 9. does this] namely God provides for the Wicked, Ver. 6. since his Care and Providence extends to all the Irrational Creatures, and the very Vegetables of the Earth, Ver. 7, 8.

Ver. 11. as] so Chap. xxxiv. 3.

Ver. 12. very Aged] Job's Friends, Chap. xv. 10. & xxxii. 7. who he grants may know Things; but not like God, who has also sufficient Ability and right Judgment, Ver. 13.

Ver. 14. shuts] Patrick, casts into difficulties and streights; which I like much better than the contrary protests of Trem. and Jun. being according to the Drift of this Heb. Word in Ch. xi. 10. & xvi. 11.

Ver. 16. Strength and substantial Matter] Words both different from those in Ver. 13.

Ib. errs, and] both the Simple and Cunning, as if for all.

Ver. 17. Counsellors] who advise how to take the Spoil.

Ver. 18. Correction of Kings] the Tyranny or Punishment which they exercise. Thus the first Word signifies elsewhere, but not bond.

Ib. binds] to lead them away Prisoners.

Ver. 19. Priests] thus the Heb.

Ver. 23. leads them away] the Verb נָסַח always signifying to lead, bring, or lead away, as may be seen by the Lexicons. Jun. and Trem. have the same, viz. abducit, Pagn. ducit, leads; and Munst. ducit eos (in captivitatem) leads them (into Captivity.) It has not any Meaning of strengtheneth.

Ver. 2. by Hogey in Lat. Verse, the same as in Chap. xii. 3.

Ergone concedam laudes ego jure priores

Doctrina, ingenio, cognitione, fide?

Shall I then allow you the Right of superior Praise in Learning, Sense, Knowledge or Religion?

Ver. 3. would] as Zophar, whom Job is answering, desired, Chap. xi. 5.

Ver. 4. indeed] the Word that is in the foregoing Verse.

Ver. 6. Reproof] This and Contendings the Heb. Words properly signify, concurrent with what follows, and coming from the Verbs contend and reprove, Ver. 8, 10.

Ver. 8. respect] according to 2 Chr. xix. 7. 1st Sam. ii. 9. accept being in a different Sense to receive kindly, as in Gen. xxxii. 20.

9. Would it be well that he should search you out? As Man deludes, would ye delude him?

10. He will thoroughly reprove you, if ye respect the Face secretly.

11. Will not his Excellency terrify you, and his Dread fall upon you?

12. The Remembrance of you will be like Ashes, your Brows to Brows of Clay.

13. Be silent to me, and I will speak; nay whatever comes upon me.

14. Why do I take my Flesh in my Teeth, and venture my Life?

15. Lo should he kill me, shall I not hope? But I will reason my Ways to his Face.

16. He also will be Salvation to me: though a Hypocrite shall not come before him.

17. Hear attentively my Speech, and my Declaration with your Ears.

18. Behold now I have set in order the Judgment; I know that I shall be justified.

19. Who is it that will contend with me? For now should I be silent, I shall also expire.

20. Only do not two Things to me, then will I not hide from thy Face:

21. Remove thy Hand far off from me, and let not thy Terror frighten me;

22. Then call, and I will answer: or I will speak, and reply thou to me.

23. How many Iniquities and Sins have I? Let me know my Transgression and Sin.

24. Why dost thou hide thy Face, and reckon me for an Enemy to thee?

25. Wilt thou violently shake a driven Leaf, and drive away the dry Stubble?

26. For thou writest bitter Things against me, and makest me inherit the Iniquities of my Youth.

27. Besides thou puttest my Feet in Fetters, and observest all my Paths: thou settest a Mark upon the Tracks of my Feet;

28. Even of him that consumes as Rotteness, like a Garment which the Moth eats.

C H A P. XIV.

MAN who is born of a Woman, is of short Time, and full of Disquiet.

2. He comes forth, and is cut off, as a Flower; nay flies away without remaining, like a Shadow.

3. Yet thou openest thy Eyes upon such a one, and bringest me into Judgment with thee.

4. Who can give a pure Thing out of an unclean? Not one.

5. If his Days are determined, the Number of his Months is with thee, thou makest his Decree that he shall not pass;

6. Turn away from him, and cease, till he has finished his Day like one that is hired.

7. For there is Expectation of a Tree, if it is cut down, that it will yet be renewed, and its tender Branch not cease;

8. If its Root become old in the Earth, and the Stem of it die in the Mould:

9. By the Scent of Water it will spring forth, and yield a Branch like a Plant.

10. Whereas a stout Man dies, and becomes weak; even Man expires, and where is he?

11. The Waters evaporate from the Sea; nay a River wastes away, and dries up:

12. Thus a Man lies down, and will not rise up till the Heavens are gone; they will not awake, nor be stirred up from their Sleep.

Ver. 12. will be] so Castal. translates erit.

Ib. Ashes] like which they would look pale by the divine Dread.

Ib. Brows] which this Word denotes, as Lev. xiv. 9. put for the Countenance; but does not signify bodies: Patrick expounds them by Arguments.

Ib. Clay] They would be so frightened as to look like dead Men. Thus I have ventured at a rational and proper Meaning to this Verse, which I had not found before.

Ver. 13. Be silent] Here is only one Verb, and thus Broughton renders it.

Ver. 14. Why] I do not venture to speak, that I may save my Life, it is only that I may justify my self, Ver.

15. in my Teeth] as it were biting it in Distraction.

Ver. 15. Lo] thus the Heb. is, Nothing like though, nor is there any Thing for yet after.

Ib. not] See 2 Sam. xvi. 18. 2 King. xviii. 10. 1 Sam. ii. 3.

Ver. 16. though] quavis likewise have Jun. and Trem. for being an improper Connexion to the foregoing.

Ver. 21. thy Hand] in punishing.

Ver. 27. Fetters] if in the stocks, his Feet could not have gone in Paths.

Ver. 28. Even of him] which makes it intelligible; but who is he in our Transf. before?

Ver. 3. Yet] The Heb. is without the Adverb of Interrogation; and the Affirmation is proper, as also Pagn. Montan. and Mercer have it, like Chap. xiii. 26, 27. and the rest of Job's Complaints to God.

Ib. bringest] which is affirmative, and should have been bring in a Question.

Ver. 4. pure] as we say very clean; there being not the Antithesis, nor Similitude of Sound, in the Heb. as in the com. Eng.

Ib. unclean] q. d. Vessel, suitable to give, as the Heb. is.

Ver. 5. If] Thus it is in Heb. as Ver. 14. so that Job speaks doubtfully of it, as he well might. Accordingly it is fi in the Tig. Bib. with those of Pagn. Mont. and Castal. as also in Mercer's Com.

13. Oh that thou wouldest hide me in the Grave, conceal me till thy Anger turn away; wouldest set me a Decree, and remember me!

14. If a Man dies, shall he be made alive? All the Days of my Warfare will I wait, till my Change comes.

15. Thou mayest call, and I will answer thee: thou mayest long for the Work of thy Hands.

16. For now when thou countest up my Steps, dost not thou watch for my Sin?

17. My Transgression is sealed in a Bag, and thou hast sewed up my Iniquity.

18. And surely the Mountain that falls does fade, and the Rock is removed from its Place;

19. The Waters beat the Stones smaller, thou overflowest the Things of it that grow of themselves from the Mould of the Earth: so thou caulest the Expectation of Man to perish.

20. Thou prevailest over him perpetually, and he goes away; changest his Countenance, and sendest him away.

21. His Children may be honoured, and he know it not; or diminished, and he not understand concerning them:

22. But his Body is in grief for it self, and his Soul for it self does mourn.

CHAP. XV.

HOWEVER Eliphaz the Temanite made answer:

2. Will a wise Man answer with windy Knowledge, and fill his Belly with the East-wind?

3. Will he dispute with a Speech that is of no advantage, and Words with which he does not profit?

4. Nay thou breakest off Fear, and abatest Meditation before God.

5. For thy Mouth tells of thy Iniquity, and thou choolest the Tongue of the Crafty.

6. Thy Mouth condemns thee, and not I; and thy own Lips testify against thee.

7. Wast thou born the first Man, or formed before the Hills?

8. Dost thou hear the Secret of God, and lessen Wisdom to thy self?

9. What dost thou know, and we do not; thou understand, and it is not with us?

10. Both the Grey and the very Aged are among us, of more numerous Days than thy Father.

11. Are the Comforts of God too little for thee, and is the Matter wrapt up with thee?

12. How does thy Heart take thee away, and how do thy Eyes aim;

13. That thou turnest back thy Temper at God, and bringest such Words out of thy Mouth?

14. What is Man that he should be pure, and that he should be righteous who is born of a Woman?

15. Lo he cannot give credit to his holy ones, and the Heavens are not clean in his Sight.

16. Much more abominable and filthy is a Man, who drinks down Iniquity as Water.

17. I will shew thee, hear me; since this I have seen, and will tell;

18. Which the Wise have declared from their Forefathers, and not concealed:

19. To whom alone the Earth was given, without a Stranger passing among them.

20. All the Days of the Wicked he is in anguish, and the Number of Years are hid to the Violent.

Ver. 13. Decree] I don't find it signify set time, which seems made from appointed time in the next Verse.

Ver. 14. Warfare] the same as in Chap. vii. 1.

Ver. 15. call] for him by Death.

Ib. mayest long] viz. with Job's Consent and Liking.

Ib. for] that is to take Job home to himself.

Ver. 17. sealed], to keep it safe against him.

Ver. 18. the Mountain] How much more Man! which is to me apparently the Meaning: yet here I find the Commentators at a loss, and Patrick in his Method being forced to say Something, connects this with the latter Part of the next Ver. thus, Why therefore (since such strange and unexpected things come to pass) may there not be some hope for miserable Man? whereas it is not the having Hope, but the destroying it, which is there mentioned; and his beginning the Sentence with, Yet notwithstanding the highest Mountains may fall, spoils that too.

Ib. that falls] by an Earthquake, here described.

Ib. fade] in its Verdure and Vegetables; the Heb. being thus.

Ib. the Rock] belonging to that Mountain.

Ver. 19. overflowest] I suppose with Water, but Patrick says with Dust or Sand.

Ver. 20. changest his Countenance] by the Approach of Death.

Ver. 22. for it self] the same both times.

Ver. 4. Meditation] This Word is so rendered, Psa. cxix. 97, 99. which are the only Places of Scripture where it is belides, and comes from the Verb meditate.

Ver. 5. tells of] by speaking so perversely. Thus by teach the same Verb is turned, Chap. xxxiii. 33. & xxxv. 11. these being all the Places where it occurs in this Conjug.

Ver. 7. Hills] As Poets use the Privilege of coining Epithets, to fill up the Measure of their Verse; Dupont in the Greek has μακρὰ, to be long Hills, but Hagey with a better Choice arduæ, steep or lofty.

Ver. 11. too little] according to the Heb.

Ver. 12. how] the same repeated.

Ib. aim] so Buxtorf both in the Heb. and Chald. Lexicons, as likewise Jun. and Trem. have collimant, and Broughton aim; which seems to agree better with the Context than wink.

Ver. 15. holy ones] Angels as well as Saints.

Ver. 20. are hid] his Life being very uncertain, through the great Danger he is in. How foreign some expound it may be seen.

21. The Noise of Dread is in his Ears, that the Waster will come to him in Peace.

22. He does not believe he shall turn back from Darkness, but that he is watched for the Sword.

23. He wanders about for Bread, saying, Where is it? He knows that the Day of Darkness is ready at his Hand.

24. Distress and Streightness terrify him; it prevails over him like a King prepared at a Battalion.

25. Because he has stretched out his Hand against God, and strengthened himself against the Almighty.

26. Who runs to him on the Neck, on the thick Knobs of his Bucklers.

27. Though he covered his Face with his Fat, and made a Fold upon the Flank.

28. And he dwells in Cities concealed, in Houses that are uninhabited, which are ready to be Heaps.

29. He is not rich, nor does his Wealth rise up; neither stretches he out the Compleatness of those on the Earth.

30. He does not depart from Darkness, the Flame dries up his Branch; and he goes away by the Breath of his Mouth.

31. Let him not believe in Vanity who is led astray: for Vanity will be his Exchange.

32. It will be fulfilled when it is not his Day, and his Bough will not be green.

33. He will violently shake off his unripe Grape as the Vine, and cut off his Flower like the Olive.

34. For the Assembly of Hypocrites will be solitary, and Fire will consume the Tents of Bribery:

35. Who conceiving Trouble, and bringing forth Vanity, their Belly also prepares Deceit.

C H A P. XVI.

YET Job made reply:

2. I have heard many such Things as these: ye are troublesome Comforters all of you.

3. Is there any End to windy Expressions? Or what makes thee so vehement that thou answerest?

4. I could also talk like you, if your Soul was in the room of mine, could join together Words against you, and shake my Head at you.

5. Whereas I would strengthen you with my Mouth, and the Moving of my Lips should pacify.

6. If I speak, my Grief is not asswaged; or cease, what goes away from me?

7. But now he has made me weary: thou hast caused all my Company to be desolate.

8. Nay hast made me shrivelled, which is a Witness; and it is risen up, for my Failing testifies in my Face.

9. He tears in his Anger, and hates me, he gnashes at me with his Teeth: my Adversary sharpens his Eyes towards me.

Ver. 21. Dread] So Homer in one Verse, Odys. xiv. 88.

Kai mēn tois omidos karterōn dios ēn pētoi mēnēi,
And indeed a strong Dread of Vengeance falls on the Minds.
by Pope,

*Ev'n these, when of their ill-got Spoils posses'd,
Find sure Tormentors in the guilty Breast;
Some Voice of God close whispering from within,
"Wretch! this is Villainy, and this is Sin."*

Ver. 22. turn back from Darkness] which he finds he is going into, Ver. 23. It being return out of in com. Transf. Patrick puts it to be killed in the Night.

Ver. 23. at his Hand] Grey by several Alterations, though he boasts of but one Letter, turns it into this Shape, He knows that his Destruction is ready; the Day of Darkness will terrify him: Distress and Streightness will prevail over him; but the last Verb being singular wanted also to be altered, and who can really think all this was done? But that Writer pretends he could not make the Hebrew to be Metro as now; when he might perhaps as well as some of the rest, since he breaks over Verses and Periods for it, Ch. xiv. 4. & xxxiii. 27. & xxxiv. 7. and admits of half Feet or odd Syllables, with Variety and Mixture, Annot. on Ch. iii. 3.

Ver. 24. it] or this, viz. the whole.

Ver. 25. Because] the same Particle that begins Ver. 27. which Jun. and Broughton so render.

Ver. 26. Who] as the Tig. Vers. and Patrick connect it: for that the wicked Man should do thus to God, as the com. Transf. seems to read, and Pool interprets it, is shocking.

lb. Neck] see the next Chap. v. 12.

Ver. 27. covered] by living luxuriously.

Ver. 28. concealed] The same Ver. 18. Ch. xxvii. 11. & vi. 10. & xx. 12. and never signifying desolate, though sometimes cut off; but I think the former suits best with the Context, and the like Description of such, Ch. xxx. 3, 6. and as Arabian Robbers. Patrick imagines he that is here spoken of laid the Cities desolate, and drove out the Owners, letting the Houses run to ruin; but do Conquerors do so, and dwell in such Places?

Ver. 29. rise up] He is not rich, nor does he get rich; but Patrick from continue makes him rich already, contrary to Ver. 23, 28.

lb. these] the Cities and Houses, Ver. 28.

Ver. 30. his Mouth] God's, Ver. 25.

Ver. 31. Exchange] He shall exchange one Vanity for another, Pool's Annot. the same Word as in Chap. xxviii. 17. Lev. xxvii. 30, 33. Ruth iv. 7. from its Root to change or exchange, never recompence.

Ver. 34. Fire will consume the Tents of Bribery] In Pierce Plowman's Vision, P. 2.

*That fyre shal fal and burne all to bloothes
The honies and homes, of hem that despyeth
Gyftes or peres gyftes, because of her offices.*

Ver. 6. goes away from me] thus the Original is. Broughton will go from me.

Ver. 7. he] Grey supposes Something wanting for this; but why any more than with then?

Ver. 8. it is risen up, for my Failing testifies in my Face] so the Heb. literally; while for being left out, the com. Transf. has it perverted.

Ver. 9. he] my Adversary, as follows, one of those spoken of in the next Verse.

10. They

10. They gape at me with their Mouth, they strike me on the Cheek with Reproach, they fill themselves together against me.

11. God has delivered me up to the Unjust, and turned me aside into the Power of the Wicked.

12. I was quiet, but he breaks me asunder, and taking hold of me by the Neck, scatters me; as also sets me up for his Mark.

13. His Archers come round about against me, he cuts my Reins asunder, and does not spare; he pours out my Gall on the Ground.

14. He breaks me down with one Breach atop of another; he runs upon me as a powerful one.

15. I sew Sackcloth upon my Skin, and exercise my Horn in the Dust;

16. My Face is disordered by weeping, and upon my Eye-lids is the Shadow of Death:

17. For no Violence that is in my Hands; and my Prayer is pure.

18. O Earth, do not cover my Blood, and let there be no Place for my Cry!

19. Even now behold my Witness is in Heaven, and my Evidence in the Heights.

20. My Friends being my Deriders, my Eye drops Tears to God;

21. And reasons for the Man with God, as a Person for his Friend.

22. For a few Years are come, and I must go in the Path where I shall not return.

C H A P. XVII.

MY Breath is corrupted, my Days are extinguished, the Graves are for me.

2. Are there not Mockers with me; in whose Provokings my Eye abides?

3. Put now, engage me with thee: who is it will give me his Hand?

4. For thou hast hid their Heart from Understanding, therefore dost thou not lift up.

5. The Eyes of his Children will fail, who speaks Flattery to Friends.

6. Thus he sets me up for a Proverb of the People; whereas before I was like a Timbrel.

7. My Eye also is dim because of Indignation, and my Members are all of them as a Shadow.

8. The upright ones will be astonished at this, and the Innocent will exert himself against the Hypocrite.

9. The Righteous too will keep in his Way, and he that is of clean Hands will increase in Strength.

10. And indeed return, all those, and come now; and I shall not find a wise Man among you.

11. My Days are passed away, my Intentions are plucked off, the Possessions of my Heart.

12. They put Night for Day, Light being near by reason of Darkness.

13. If I should wait, the Grave will be my House, I shall make my Bed in Darkness.

14. To the Pit I may cry out, Thou art my Father; to the Worm, my Mother and Sister.

15. And where is now my Expectation? As for that, who will take notice of it?

Ver. 10. fill themselves] with what is evil, as the Heb. is so.

Ver. 13. cuts my Reins asunder] by their Shooting, the 2d Part of the same Allegory, as Schult. remarks, yet translates it plough, referring to Psa. 129.

Ver. 15. exercise] as the Heb. is; and in the Dust or Ground, instead of holding it up (a Metaphor from horned Cattle) and exercising it there.

Ver. 18. Blood] Let me not die concealed, without an open and fair Trial, when I have so good Evidence of my Side as God himself, to whom I cry; according to the following Verses, and Ch. xix. 23, 24. I cannot reconcile myself to the Exposition of others, that Job meant, If I have murdered any one, let the Earth disclose it; it being very strange to call such his Blood, and to break out into such a vehement Exclamation about what he was not charged with; against which see Mercer. Com. Patrick paraphrases it, If this be not true, Let my blood be left to the Dogs to lick when I am dead; but it is much more natural to take it spoken as that was true, like Ch. xxi. 4. the contrary being also mentioned when it is so, as Ch. ix. 24. and how did Job expect to die by shedding his Blood?

Ib. be no Place for my Cry] to conceal it, as in the Earth.

Ver. 21. And] being the very common Heb. Conjunction, no Interjection.

Ib. the Man] Job made his Address to God, and reasoned for himself, by weeping.

Ver. 22. are come, and] agreeable to the next Verse: Brought, he arrived, and. Surely Job did not think he should live some Years.

Ver. 2. Eye abides] by seeing them.

Ver. 3. thee] Somebody that would be engaged on his behalf, such a one as had Understanding, which God had hid from those his Friends, Ver. 4, 10.

Ver. 5. fail] in looking for Friendship, because their Father has only a deceitful Pretence to it.

Ib. Flattery] intimating that those Friends held together against him, by flattering one another, as Ver. 2. he terms them Mockers.

Ver. 6. he sets] viz. the same that flatters, that is each of his three Friends.

Ib. like a Timbrel] pleasant and agreeable to the People, as in Ch. xxix. not according to Patrick, the vulgar pastime.

Ver. 10. these] mentioned Ver. 2, 4. and singularly Ver. 5, 8. as the Pronoun is not you; so 1 King. xxii. 28.

Ver. 12. put Night for Day] by depriving him of Rest, and by Light as follows.

Ib. Light being near] a Candle, Lamp, or Fire, in his Illness. The Heb. signifies near, not short; and what proper Sense does the latter make, especially concurrent with that before which is spoken of Night, without [and] after, for Something else?

Ver. 14. Pit] as Fruum mostly by the Lat. Translators, the Heb. signifying either this or Corruption.

16. They will go down to the Bars of the Grave, when there is descending together into the Mould.

C H A P. XVIII.

NOW Bildad the Shuhite made answer:

2. How long will ye be putting an End to the Words? Ye should consider, that we are to speak after.

3. Why are we thought like Beasts, are defiled in your Sight?

4. Shall the Earth be forsaken for thee, one that tears himself in his Anger, and the Rock be removed away from its Place?

5. Even the Light of the Wicked is quenched, and the Spark of his Fire does not shine.

6. The Light is dark in his Tent, and his Lamp is extinguished in it.

7. The Steps of his Strength are streightened, and his own Counsel casts him down:

8. For he is sent into a Net by his Feet, and walks about upon a Brake.

9. The Gin takes hold of the Heel, the horrid one prevails over him.

10. A Line for him is hid in the Earth, and a Trap for him in the Path.

11. Terrors frighten him round about, and drive him away on his Feet.

12. In his Strength he is hungry, and Calamity is prepared at his Side.

13. It consumes the Limbs of his Skin, the First-born of Death consumes his Limbs.

14. His Confidence is plucked away from his Tent, and makes him march to the King of Terrors.

15. It dwells in his Tent, though not his own; Brimstone is scattered upon his Habitation.

16. His Roots are dried up from below, and his Branch is lopped off from above.

17. His Remembrance perishes from the Earth, and he has no Name upon the Surface of the Street.

18. They thrust him away from Light to Darkneſs, and remove him from the World.

19. He has neither Son nor Grandſon among his People, nor any Remainder in his Lodgings.

20. The latter ones are aſtoniſhed at his Day, and the former take hold of Horror.

21. Verily theſe are the Dwellings of the Unjuſt, and this is the Place of him who knows not God.

C H A P. XIX.

UPON this Job made reply:

2. How long will you make my Soul ſorrowful, and bruise me with Words?

3. Theſe ten Times have you put me to confuſion: you are not aſhamed that you are hardened towards me.

4. And moreover had I indeed erred, my Error would abide with my ſelf.

5. If you will indeed magnify your ſelves againſt me, and plead againſt me my Re- proach;

6. Know now that God overthrows me, and comes about againſt me with his Hunt- ing-net.

7. Behold I cry, Violence; but am un- answered: I cry out, but there is no Judg- ment.

8. He hedges up my Way, ſo that I can- not paſs, and puts Darkneſs in my Paths.

Ver. 16. They] others who might take notice of it, as I think, rather than hopes.

Ver. 2. you] others of the Company preſent (which Beza ſays it is manifeſt there were, by very many Places of this Diſputation, and divers probable Circumſtances, and ſo Patrick ſays) who might ſhew themſelves to be of Job's Side; by the Superiority of his Speeches by the Sight and Conſideration of his miſerable Condition (at which they would ſcarce be ſo hard-hearted as thoſe Friends) and by the Knowledge of his former good Life (which Eliphaz, &c. as diſtant Dwellers, might be more unacquainted with, and ſo more ſuſpicious of) and ſome might have ſpoken for Job, though the chief Speeches only are re- corded.

Ver. 5. quenched] This and the following in the preſent Tenſe have likewiſe Jun. and Trem. with Caſtal. as the more proper Reading, and according to Ver. 21. The Heb. having no preſent Tenſe, denotes it either by the paſt or future; and that this was intended here, rather than either of them, may appear by the uſing both thoſe Tenſes promiſcuouſly, is dark, being preterite in Heb. and the great Argument of Job's Friends is, that God now puniſhes the Wicked, as Chap. ix. 8, 9. and v. 4, 5, 12, 13, 14. and xv. 20, 21, 22, 23. as his is the contrary, Ch. ix. 24. & xii. 6.

Ver. 8. Brake] into which he is liable to fall, and be pricked with the Thorns. The Nouns of this Kind are commonly turned thicket in the pref. Transf. and never ſignify snare; it is very different too from that rendered ſo Ver. 10.

Ver. 13. Limbs] thus the Heb. and plural; otherwiſe Branches or Members, not Strength, nor the ſame as in Ver. 7. 12.

Ver. 15. It] Calamity, Ver. 12. Patrick makes as if it was he that dwells there after him; to mention which is enough.

lb. own] So Caſtalis elegantly, Habitat in ejus Tabernaculo non ſuus.

Ver. 20. are] not future.

Ver. 3. are hardened] ſo Montan. indurati eritis, Jun. and Trem. obfirmatis vos, as Brought. in Eng. harden your ſelves. The Eng. Transf. is made from a wrong Verb נכר instead of the right נכר.

Ver. 5. Reproach] poor miſerable and reproachful Con- dition, as Broughton turns it wretched caſe.

Ver. 6. Know] Conſider it is God does theſe Things to me.

9. He strips off my Glory from me, and takes away the Crown of my Head.

10. He breaks me down round about, so that I am going away; and removes my Expectation as a Tree.

11. Nay he is angry with me, and reckons me to him like his Enemies.

12. His Troops come together, and cast up their Way against me, encamping round about at my Tent.

13. He removes far from me my Brethren, and verily those who know me are alienated from me.

14. My Neighbours leave me off, and my Acquaintance forget me.

15. The Sojourners of my House and my Servant-maids reckon me for a Stranger: I am a Foreigner in their Sight.

16. I call to my Servant, and he does not answer; I must beseech him with my Mouth.

17. My Breath is become strange to my Wife, though I am pitying the Children of my Body.

18. Even Children despise me: when I rise up, they speak against me.

19. All the Men that consulted with me abhor me, and those whom I loved are turned against me.

20. My Bone cleaves to my Skin and Flesh; and I escape with the Skin of my Teeth.

21. Pity me, pity me, you my Friends: for the Hand of God reaches to me.

22. Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my Flesh?

23. Oh that my Words were now written! oh that they were penned down in a Book!

24. That with a Pen of Iron and Lead, they were engraved in the Rock for ever!

25. However I know my Redeemer lives, and will stand up at last upon the Earth.

26. And when after my Skin they have destroyed this, out of my Flesh shall I behold God:

27. Whom I shall behold for my self, nay my own Eyes have seen, and not a Stranger's; my Reins being consumed in my Body.

28. Though you say, How do we persecute him? Yet the Root of the Matter is found in me.

29. Be afraid your selves by reason of the Sword, for there is Wrath of Iniquities for the Sword; that you may know what is Judgment.

CHAP. XX.

A GAIN Zophar the Naamathite made answer:

2. Therefore my Sentiments make me reply, because they hasten me in my self.

3. I hear the Correction of my Shame, and the Spirit causes me to answer from my Understanding.

4. Dost thou know this was for ever, since Man was placed upon the Earth;

Ver. 15. Sojourners] The Heb. is properly so; and doubtless his Maids dwelt in his House, whom these are distinguished from. I account for their Behaviour thus to Job, by their misliking the good Order kept in his House, and so much Entertainment of poor People and Strangers, Ch. xxxi. 16—20, 31, 32.

Ver. 17. though] even when I am pitying the Children that we have lost, which might bring her into a Nearness with me, if any Thing would.

Ib. pitying] That this Verb signifies in the Conjug. Kal to be gracious or to pity, and in Hithpael to beseech, is certain and determined; the former of which is in Ver. 21. and the latter in Ver. 16. of this very Chap. with the same Word here between them in Kal, as those in Ver. 21. Who then could have at all doubted which Meaning this must have, only it seems the other made a readier though wrong Sense, as Truth will sometimes lie deeper than Error. But since this Signification admits of such good Sense, it may be pronounced true to Demonstration; it being unaccountable, and absurd to be the contrary.

Ver. 19. that consulted with me] Heb. of my Counsel.

Ver. 20. Skin of my Teeth] Patr. a Mouth to complain withal; too much refined! and that might be some Ease to him: better his Gums reduced to Skin.

Ver. 22. as God] as if you had Authority over me like him.

Ver. 23. penned down] Printing being long after invented.

Ver. 24. of Iron and Lead] to be hard and heavy, to make deep Strokes.

Ver. 26. Skin] already consumed by the Boils, Chap. ii. 7.

Ib. they have destroyed this] or this is destroyed.

Ib. this] Flesh as follows, which he might then point to; the Skin being Part of the Body.

Ib. out of] which the Heb. is, and not in; and where was this but in Heaven, when his Soul was gone out of his Body? According to the next Verse likewise. Thus the Tigur. Vers. has carne mea, out of my Flesh; Castal. ex meo corpore, out of my Body; Pagn. Montan. and Munst. de carne mea, from my Flesh. Moreover God seems here distinguished from the Redeemer Christ Jesus.

Ver. 27. have seen] So the Heb. and being different from the foregoing, require to be so taken.

Ver. 28. Though] This is not the common Conjunction for and or but.

Ib. Root] the right Principle of Religion and Virtue; so that their hard Treatment of him was Persecution, though they pretended otherwise.

Ver. 29. Wrath] which those Friends of his had against him.

Ib. Iniquities] that which the Original Word signifies.

Ver. 2. Therefore] For this thy severe Sentence and Denunciation of God's judgments against us, Chap. xix. 29. Psalm.

Ver. 3. hear] from Job.

Ib. Shame] in the foregoing Speech, Ver. 2, 3, 5, 19, 22, 29.

Ib. from] or out of.

Ver. 4. Dost thou know] as the Original is, and Lew. de Dico would have it turned, to signify thou dost not know; or perhaps rather thou seemest not to know.

Ib. was] For he cannot speak of Job's knowing it then.

5. That

5. That the Mirth of the Wicked is soon over, and the Joy of the Hypocrite for a Moment?

6. If his Excellency ascend to the Heavens, and his Head reach to the Clouds:

7. He perishes eternally like his own Dung; those who have seen him say, Where is he?

8. He flies away as a Dream, so that they do not find him, and is fled like a Vision of the Night.

9. The Eye that has looked on him does so no more, nor observes him any more in his Place.

10. His Children please the Poor, and his Hands restore his Substance.

11. His Bones being full of his youthful Things, they lie down with him in the Mould.

12. Though Wickedness be sweet in his Mouth, though he conceal it under his Tongue;

13. Should he spare it, so that he will not forsake it, but withhold it within his Palate:

14. His Bread in his Bowels is turned, it is the Gall of Asps within him.

15. He having swallowed down Wealth, vomits it up; God expels it out of his Belly.

16. He sucks the Poison of Asps; the Tongue of the Viper slays.

17. He does not see the Streams, the Rivers, the Floods of Honey and Butter.

18. He restores what he laboured for, and swallows not down; according to the Wealth his Retribution is, and he does not rejoice:

19. Because he has oppressed, forsaken the Poor, has taken away a House, which he did not build.

20. For he knows no Quiet in his Inside, does not escape by what is pleasing in him.

21. There is Nothing left of his Food; therefore his Welfare cannot remain.

22. When his Sufficiency is fullest, he is strengthened; every Hand of the Troublesome comes on him.

23. Being about to fill his Belly, God sends on him his fervent Anger; and rains it upon him at his Meat.

24. He fleeing from the Armour of Iron, the Bow of Steel strikes him through.

25. It is drawn forth, and comes out of the Body, as the glittering Thing does out of his Gall; Terrors are upon him.

26. All Darkness is hid at his secret Places, a Fire not blown consumes him: it is ill with him who is remaining in his Tent.

27. The Heaven reveals his Iniquity, and the Earth raises up itself at him.

28. He discovers the Increase of his House, the Things that flow away in the Day of his Anger.

29. This is the Portion of a wicked Man from God, and what his Sayings possess from him.

C H A P. XXI.

NEVERTHELESS Job made reply:

2. Hear attentively my Speech, and let this be your Comforts.

3. Bear with me, that I may speak; and after my Words thou mayest mock.

4. As for me, is my Musing to Man? And if it were, why should not my Spirit shrink?

5. Look at me, and be astonished; and put the Hand upon the Mouth.

6. Even if I do but remember, I am troubled, Quaking seizes my Flesh.

7. Why do the Wicked live, become old, are also powerful in Ability?

8. Their Posterity is established in their Presence with them, and their Offspring in their Sight.

9. Their Houses are in Peace from Dread, and the Rod of God is not upon them.

Ver. 10. His Children please the Poor] not with another Verb for seek.

Ver. 20. For] a Causal Conjunction answering to not rejoice, Ver. 18.

Ib. escape] not save.

Ver. 21. Welfare] or Good, not Goods, and has Nothing to make it the Accus. Case or Object of the Verb.

Ib. remain] as both in Buxtorf's Lexic. and Concord. and likewise Jun. and Trem. render it manet; Castal. durat, endures; in the Vulg. Lat. it is permanebit, shall remain, in the Tig. Bib. with the Adverb instabile est, is unstable; Brought. translates it continue.

Ver. 25. does] Schultens and Grey construe this, though singular, with Terrors.

Ver. 28. discovers] that which he has concealed, being wrongfully gotten: it is the same Verb as in the foregoing Verse, which it is strange should be thus used in a quite different Sense; and that Increase is not the Nominative Case or Subject may appear, because Things that flow away cannot, being plural, when the Verb is singular.

Ib. Things that flow away] For this is a Participle, and not a Verb shall flow away, which would also want a Subject and Conjunction, as may be seen by our Translators adding and his goods; at which Rate one might make many strange Meanings to the Scripture.

Ib. his Anger] God's.

Ver. 29. what his Sayings possess] Heb. the Possession of his Saying, thus reflecting on Job for his.

Ver. 2. your Comforts] viz. the Comfort which Job required of them, since they would give him no other, Ver. 34.

Ver. 4. Musing to Man] to find Relief thence; see also Ch. x. 1.

Ib. shrink] Heb. be shortened.

Ver. 6. Quaking] Schult. minded to be contrary, makes this the Object, though standing unaptly in the Original, and my Flesh the Subject.

10. His

10. His Bull engenders, and does not loath: his Cow calves, and does not cast its Calf.

11. They send forth their Children as a Flock, and those who are born of them dance.

12. They join with the Timbrel and Harp, and rejoice at the Sound of the Organ.

13. They spend their Days in Prosperity, and in a Moment go down to the Grave.

14. Who say to God; Depart from us, for we desire not the Knowledge of thy Ways.

15. What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? And what shall we profit, for us to intercede with him?

16. Their Prosperity indeed is not in their own Power; the Counsel of the Wicked is far from me.

17. How often is the Lamp of the Wicked put out? And their Calamity comes upon them: he distributes Torments in his Anger.

18. They are as Straw before the Wind, and like Chaff that the Whirlwind steals away.

19. God lays up his Iniquity for his Children; he will recompense him, which he shall know.

20. His Eyes shall see his Destruction, and he shall drink of the Wrath of the Almighty.

21. For what will be his Delight in his House after him, when the Number of his Months are cut off?

22. Shall any teach God Knowledge? since he judges those who are high.

23. One dies in his perfect Strength, being altogether still and quiet.

24. His Vessels are full of Milk, and he is moistened with the Marrow of his Bones.

25. And another dies with a bitter Mind, and does not eat with Comfort.

26. They lie down together in the Mould, and the Worms cover them over.

27. Behold I am not ignorant of your Thoughts, and the Devices that ye use violently against me.

28. For ye say, Where is the House of the Nobleman? And where is the Tent at the Dwelling-places of the Wicked?

29. Have ye not asked those who pass along the Way? And do not ye know their Signs?

30. That the wicked one is kept back to the Day of Calamity, they shall be brought to the Day of Indignation?

31. Who declares his Way to his Face? And who recompenses him for what he does?

32. Yet he is brought to the Graves, and is careful for the Tomb.

33. The Clods of the Valley are sweet to him, and all Mankind draw after him; as there were those out of Number before him.

34. And how do ye comfort me with Vanity, when there is false Dealing left in your Replies?

C H A P. XXII.

WITH that Eliphaz the Temanite made answer:

2. Is a Man advantageous to God, because one of Understanding is so to others?

Ver. 10. loath] the Cow, the Verb never signifying loath.

Ver. 12. join] Heb. lift up, i. e. pedes vel vocem, their Feet or Voice, says the Margin of the Tig. Bib. which has in the Text, ducunt choros, they lead the Dances; and Pagn. translates Elevabunt vocem, they will lift up the Voice; Jun. & Trem. vaciferantur, bawl out; Castal. perjonant, sound up; there being in Heb.

Ver. 13. go down] The Root נחל but pointed as if from נחל are broke at, the Reason of which Pointing Buxtorf assigns, Gram. L. C. 17. but it is mistakenly placed to the latter in the Concord.

Ver. 14. Who] so Jun. as aptly, as Therefore is unapt.

Ver. 15. that] the same both times in Heb. as here in Eng.

Ver. 16. indeed] This and the following Job grants, as it seems, by way of Exception to his main Argument of the Prosperity of the Wicked, as Ch. xxvii. 13, &c. For those who take it another Way, and that How often signifies very seldom, which Jun. and Trem. accordingly add to Ver. 18, 19, 20. allow the same.

Ver. 18. as Straw] which does not remain long in the same Place.

Ver. 21. Delight] if his Children should do well afterwards: for Ver. 19. seems to mean their Suffering for him while he lives, that it may be a Recompence to him.

Ver. 23. altogether still and quiet] The being still, &c. must be supposed before the Approach or Coming of Death.

Ver. 28. ye say] according to Chap. xx. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, & xviii. 14, 15, 16, 17, 21. & xv. 34. & viii. 18. & v. 3.

Ver. 29. Have ye] Job asking these Questions by way of Answer to theirs.

Ib. pass] such as go about, and are acquainted in the World.

Ib. their Signs] they can tell what fine Houses and brave Estates wicked Persons have; see Blackmore's Poetical Paraphrase.

Ver. 30. kept back] not punished now.

Ib. they] Grey would have this be he, and the next Verse begin with And, by taking Advantage of this Verse ending with the i so that he would have his metrical Lines stand good, one shortened, and the other lengthened, a Syllable each. But what Violation is this!

Ver. 31. his Way] that of the Wicked; q. d. who reproves him for his Way of living?

Ver. 32. Graves] as Chap. xvii. 1. meaning the Wicked dies a natural Death, and is not recompensed as he deserves by a violent one, Ver. 31. which Sense is perverted by Yet in the com. Transf.

Ib. is careful] thus Jun. and Trem. have turned it afsiduus est; nor does it signify remain in any other Place, or by Buxtorf's Lexic. nay such a Meaning seems useless, and besides the Drift of Job's Discourse, here.

Ib. for the Tomb] to have it made fine and grand.

Ver. 33. are sweet] he lies quiet in his Sepulchre without any Injury. It is the preterperf. Tense, of which see Chap. xviii. 5.

Ver. 2. others] Heb. them, as Ver. 17, 19. so the Chald. [?]?

3. Is it a Delight to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? Or is it Gain, that thou makest thy Ways perfect?

4. Will he for fear of thee reason with thee, enter with thee into Judgment?

5. Is not thy Wickedness much, and there no End to thy Iniquities?

6. For thou hast received in pawn of thy Brother without cause, and pulled off the Garments of the Naked.

7. Thou hast not made the Faint drink Liquor, but hast with-held Victuals from the Hungry.

8. Whereas the Man of Power had the Country, and he who was of a respected Face dwelt in it.

9. Thou hast sent the Widows away empty, and the Arms of the Fatherless have been bruised.

10. Therefore Snares are round about thee, and Dread troubles thee suddenly.

11. Or Darkeness, so that thou canst not see, and Abundance of Water covers thee.

12. Is not God at the Height of the Heaven, and sees the Top of the Stars, though they are high?

13. So thou sayest, How does God know? Can he judge because of Obscurity?

14. The thick Clouds are a Hiding-place to him, insomuch that he does not see; and he walks about the Compass of the Heaven.

15. Hast thou observed the ancient Path, in which the Persons of Iniquity went?

16. Who were shrivelled when it was not the Time, the Flood was poured forth on their Foundation.

17. That said to God, Depart from us: and what should the Almighty do for them?

18. However he filled their Houses with Good; but the Counsel of the Wicked is far from me.

19. The Righteous seeing, are glad; and the Innocent derides them.

20. Though our Substance was cut off; yet the rest of them the Fire consumed.

21. Be used now to him, and have Peace; by those Things will Good come to thee.

22. Receive now the Law from his Mouth, and put his Sayings in thy Heart.

23. If thou returnest to the Almighty, thou wilt be built up, thou wilt remove Iniquity far from thy Tents.

24. Thus lay up the choicest Gold which is among the Dust, and that of Ophir in the Rock of the Floods.

25. Nay the Almighty will be thy choicest Gold, and very strengthening Silver to thee.

26. For then wilt thou delight thy self in the Almighty, and lift up thy Face to God.

27. Thou wilt make supplication to him, and he will hear thee; and wilt perform thy Vows.

28. When thou also dost decree a Matter, it will be confirmed to thee; and the Light will shine upon thy Ways.

29. Though People may put down, yet thou wilt say, There is Exaltation; and he will save him who has a dejected Look.

30. He will deliver the Isle of the Innocent; and it shall be delivered by the Pureness of thy Hands.

CHAP. XXIII.

JOB notwithstanding made reply:

2. Even now my Discourse is Rebellion, my Hand is heavy for my Sighing.

Ver. 4. reason] as Job had desired, Chap. xiii. 3. where the same Verb. is used; reprove being also inconsistent with for fear of.

Ver. 6. without cause] How could it possibly be for ought, unless the Gain or Interest only be meant? And then the Action would be generous, instead of faulty. In short that seems compleat Nonsense.

Ver. 8. the Man of Power] meaning probably Job himself.

Ver. 11. Or] By adding two Letters at the End, or a Word after, Grey would have it thy Light, to which he would also put a Letter before for And.

Ver. 14. about the Compass] too far from hence.

Ver. 15. Hast] Eliphaz answers to the supposed Saying of Job.

Ver. 16. shrivelled] by being drowned and lying in the Water, which they would not have been otherwise but by Age, so that it was before the Time: this Word is found besides only in Chap. xvi. 8.

Ib. on their Foundation] so translate Jun. and Trem. with Pagn. the Heb. Word signifying poured forth, not overflowed.

Ver. 17. Depart from us] Young with Excess of Wit says, To the Scandal of the Antediluvians be it spoken, there were British Iniquities before the Flood, The Cent. not. Fab. l. 2.

Ver. 20. our Substance] Mankind at the Deluge.

Ib. Fire] at Sodom, &c.

Ver. 21. used] thus in Num. xxii. 30. where it only is in this Conjugation.

Ib. him] God from Ver. 17. Patrick puts it to be the Righteous, Ver. 19. but that is plural.

Ver. 22. now] as in the Verse before.

Ver. 24. lay up] board up Treasures, imperative.

Ib. among] which, with in, Translators not considering well, have rendered, Jun. both of them for, Castalis, Broughten, and Bibliander in the Tig. Verf. strangely, &c.

Ib. in] which cannot be as, either here or before.

Ver. 25. very strengthening Silver] Silver of Strengths.

Ver. 29. put down] active, being the Conjug. Hiphil; so Patrick's Paraphrase drops, of Job praying to God to lift up others in a low Condition.

Ver. 30. the Isle of] Grey by the Addition of a Letter is, with some others, for it to be him that is not; but Isle, signifying little Place, appears to make better Sense.

Ver. 2. Even now] when he was in such Affliction, that Allowance in speaking might well be granted him.

Ib. Rebellion] esteemed so; and Brought. renders it bolden a Rebellion: the same Word with this Meaning is in Prov. xvii. 11. Isa. xxx. 9. and several Places in Ezek. but no where signifying bitter, as may be seen by the Heb. Concordance.

Ib. Hand] as the Heb. is, for Resistance; but that it should signify a Stroke received is unaccountable.

3. Oh

3. Oh that I knew how I might find him! I would come to his prepared Place.

4. I would set in order the Judgment before him, and fill my Mouth with Reasonings.

5. I would know the Words he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me.

6. Would he contend with me in a great deal of Power? No, but he would put that in me.

7. There the Upright might reason with him: and I should be delivered for ever from my Judge.

8. (Behold I may go forward, and he is not there; or backward, and not perceive him;

9. To the left Hand when he works, yet I cannot behold; he is covered over at the right Hand, so that I cannot see.)

10. For he knows the Way that is with me: when I am tried, I shall come forth like Gold.

11. My Foot has held his Step; I have kept his Way, and not turned aside.

12. I have not departed from the Commandment of his Lips; I have laid up the Sayings of his Mouth more than my appointed Food.

13. But he is the same, and who can turn him back? And when his Soul desires, he acts.

14. For he renders my appointed Food; and many such Things as these are with him.

15. Therefore am I troubled by reason of him: I consider, and am in dread by him.

16. For God makes my Heart tender, and the Almighty troubles me.

17. For I am neither cut off from the Face of the Darkness, nor has he covered what is dark from my Face.

C H A P. XXIV.

WH Y, if Times are not hid by the Almighty, and Men know him, do they not see his Days?

2. Some remove the Bounds, take away the Flock by force, and feed.

3. They lead away the Ass of the Fatherless, take the Ox of the Widow in pawn.

4. They turn aside the Needy from the Way; the Poor of the Earth are hid together.

5. So like wild Asses in the Wilderness they go forth in their Work, seeking early for the Prey; the Desert, being Food for each of them, is for the Children.

6. They reap their respective Provender in the Field, and pick in the Vintage of the Wicked.

7. They make the Naked lodge without Cloathing, and with no Covering in the Cold:

8. Who are wet by the overflowing Storms of the Mountains, and embrace the Rock by being without Shelter.

9. They take away the Fatherless from the Breast by force, and receive what the Poor has on in pawn.

10. They cause to go naked without Cloathing, and take away the Sheaf of the hungry ones:

11. Who make Oil within their Walls; tread the Wine-presses, and are thirsty.

12. Men groan from the City, and the

Ib. heavy] esteemed so, as before.

Ib. for] as this Particle largely signifies by Noldius's Concord. 24. and the prefixed Letter h is used for more or —er than. Munst. translates, manus mea gravata est propter, my Hand is become heavy for.

Ver. 9. when] not where.

Ver. 12. laid up] this Word having never the Signification of esteemed.

Ib. my appointed Food] as Ver. 14.

Ver. 14. my] Grey says, Perhaps there should be read to this, at his Pleasure; because forsooth this Line of Metre is short in the Heb. yet not shorter than one in Chap. xvi. 20. and another xxxiv. 33.

Ib. these] for which the Heb. has הנה Here Hogry in his Poetical Paraphrase, hec illi latitat sub alta Mente repositum:

this is laid up concealed deep in his Mind; from Virgil, Æn. 1.

Ver. 15. by reason of him] not at his presence, which he craved for, Ver. 3.

Ver. 17. cut off] neither killed from the Calamity, nor that (under another Name) kept away from him.

Ib. from the Face] as just after from my Face.

Ver. 1. if] the Heb. having Nought for seeing, and this being rather supposed; and might be expressed by should, but too obscurely.

Ib. not hid] as Job's Friends pleaded, that God manifestly punished the Wicked at present.

Ib. by] which this Heb. Prefix signifies, as Noldius shews by divers Instances, Concordan. 23. Broughton likewise translates here by the Almighty. And what Sense does from make? Or Coherence with the following Words, which must belong to it, and make but one Sentence? Whereas now there is a clear concurrent Meaning, If God does not hide Times from Men, and if they know him also, how is it that they do not see when he distributes Justice? Which is left for the future Time, and the Wicked at present prosper, Ver. 23, 24.

Ver. 2. feed] putting them into their Pastures, Patr. Whereas that cannot be the Meaning of the com. Version, which he paraphrases, but that they eat of the Flocks.

Ver. 5. like wild Asses] for their wandering about, I suppose.

Ib. seeking] not rising.

Ib. The Desert, being Food for each of them, is] Beautiful!

Ver. 6. the Wicked] themselves, wickedly seizing another's Vineyard for their own.

Ver. 8. Who] as in Ver. 11. and it is plainer here than there.

Ver. 9. has on] viz. the Cloaths, contrary to Deut. xxiv. 17. so our Language nicely answers to the Heb. see also Yun.

Ver. 11. their] the wicked Oppressors, who would not let such drink the Wine as made it for them.

Soul

Soul of the pierced ones cries out; yet God does not lay it to being indiscreet.

13. They are among those who rebel against the Light, they know not the Ways of it, nor abide in its Paths.

14. The Murderer rising up with the Light, kills the Poor and Needy; and in the Night is like a Thief.

15. And the Adulterer watches with his Eye for the Twilight, saying, No Eye observes me; putting withal a Mask on his Face.

16. Each digs through the Houses, in Darkness, they have marked for themselves by Day; they being unacquainted with the Light.

17. For the Morning is to them the Shadow of Death together; for each knows the Terrors of the Shadow of Death.

18. Each being light atop of the Water, their Portion will be cursed on the Earth; will not behold the Way of the Vineyards.

19. Dryness, as well as Heat, will take away the Snow-water by force; the Grave those who sin.

20. The Womb will forget each of them, the Worm be sweet on him, he will be remembered no more; and Iniquity will be broke like a Tree.

21. He associates with the Barren who bears not, and does not well for the Widow.

22. And he draws the Strong by his Might: when he rises up, there is no Belief of Life.

23. Confidence is permitted to him, so that he depends on it: however the Eyes of One are upon their Ways.

Ver. 14. with the Light] betimes, to wait for an Opportunity to kill.

Ver. 16. Each digs] This being singular, and very suitably for both the Murderer and Adulterer.

Ver. 17. for each knows the Terrors of the Shadow of Death] so the Original literally. What Shifting were our Translators put to, that they might keep the Verb singular!

Ib. Terrors] the grossest Darkness of the Night, Poole.

Ver. 18. light atop of the Water] that is like a Bubble there, which breaks before it passes through the Vineyards; as the Heb. runs thus: so not spoken of Pirates.

Ib. will] The Verbs being here of the future Tense, as well as Job's Argument was to shew that the Wicked would perish hereafter.

Ver. 19. the Grave those who sin] which Schult. renders, they sin Hell, as he expounds it very deeply, &c. Is this the fine Writer! because he was against the Heb. Points.

Ver. 21. associates with] according to the Meaning of the same Verb and individual Word in Prov. xiii. 20. & xxviii. 7. & xxix. 3. and of this Verb in xxii. 24. Judg. xiv. 20. וַיִּשְׁכַּח being from a Root of the same Letters; which our Translators have interpreted as if from וָרַח whence the Word would be וָרַח and I know not what good Sense can be made of it. But this means well, that the Murderer, or Adulterer aforesaid, has a barren Wife, and leaves her an unhappy Widow. And thus Jun. and Treni. translate, and Buxt. expounds the Word here.

24. They are lifted up a little while, then are gone, and are impoverished, shut up as all are; and are cut off as the Top of an Ear of Corn.

25. And if not now, who will make me a Liar, and put my Speech for Nought?

C H A P. XXV.

MOREOVER Bildad the Shuhite made answer:

2. Dominion and Dread are with him, he makes Peace in his high Places.

3. Is there any Number to his Troops? And upon whom does not his Light arise?

4. How then shall Man be justified with God? And how shall he be pure who is born of a Woman?

5. Lo as far as the Moon, even that does not shine, and the Stars are not clean in his Sight;

6. Much less Man a Worm, and the Son of Man an Earth-worm.

C H A P. XXVI.

LASTLY Job made reply:

2. How dost thou help him who has no Might, save the Arm that has not Strength?

3. How dost thou counsel him who has no Wisdom, and make known substantial Matter abundantly?

4. To whom dost thou declare the Words? And whose Spirit utters forth from thee?

5. Inanimate Things formed from under the Waters, and such as dwell with them,

Ver. 22. Shews the Harm and Danger, concurrent with the foregoing, that People suffer from such Persons.

Ver. 23. the Eyes of One] God, according to Chap. xxv. 2, 3. but Patr. the Man's.

Ib. their] of them in the following Words; and not as Patr. of others to whom he would do Mischief.

Ver. 2. makes Peace in his high Places] by his Awe over the superior Beings.

Ver. 3. Quarles,

His pow'r is infinite, man's light is dim,

And knowledge darkness, not deriv'd from him.

Ver. 4. Man] for which Patr. uses he, without any Antecedent to tell what he.

Ver. 5. Lo] because behold would be taken for a Verb. Ib. does not shine] to God.

Ver. 2. How dost thou] that is, Then dost no how: such Questions intimate the contrary to what they ask.

Ib. him] whom Patrick rashly and presumptuously expounds to be the Almighty, in this and the next Verse, as if the Almighty had no Might.

Ver. 4. To whom] since thy Speeches are unsuitable to me.

Ib. utters forth] which makes it intelligible; and the Heb. Word does not signify came without forth or out.

Ver. 5. Job having signified that what Bildad said was of no Benefit to him, and withal short of the Matter he spoke on, Ver. 3. now proceeds to speak more fully of God's Power and Majesty himself. Job sheweth that he

6. Hell

6. Hell it self is naked before him, and Perdition has no Covering.

7. He stretches out the North upon an empty Place, hangs the Earth upon Nothing.

8. He binds up the Waters in his thick Clouds, so that the Cloud is not cleaved under them.

9. He holds the Front of the Throne, spreading forth his Cloud over it.

10. He compasses the Surface of the Waters by a Decree, till the End of the Light being with the Darkness.

11. The Pillars of Heaven shake, and are astonished at his Rebuke.

12. He breaks apart the Sea by his Might, and strikes down its Haughtiness by his Understanding.

13. He made the Heaven comely by his Spirit, his Hand formed the stretching Serpent.

14. Behold these are the Borders of his Ways, but how little a Matter is heard of him? And his powerful Thunder who understands?

C H A P. XXVII.

AND Job proceeded to take up his Speech as follows:

2. By God's living, who puts away my Judgment, and the Almighty's who makes my Soul bitter;

3. All the while my Spirit is in me, and the Breath of God in my Nostrils;

4. My Lips shall not speak unjustly, nor my Tongue discourse deceitfully.

5. Far be it from me that I should justify you till I expire; I will not put away my Perfectness from me.

6. I hold fast my Righteousness, and will not leave off; my Heart shall not reproach me in my Days.

7. My Enemy will be as the Wicked, and he that raises up himself against me as the Unjust.

8. For what is the Expectation of the Hypocrite, though he gain; since God will cast out his Soul?

9. Will God hear his Cry, when Distress comes upon him?

10. Will he delight himself in the Almighty, call upon God at all Times?

11. I will teach you by the Hand of God; that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12. Behold ye have all of you seen; and why are ye vain in this Manner?

13. This will be the Portion of a wicked Man with God, and the Possession of the Violent, that they will receive from the Almighty.

14. If his Children multiply, it is for the Sword; and his Offspring will not be satisfied with Bread.

15. Those that remain of him will be buried in Death, and his Widows not weep.

16. Though he heap up Money as Earth, and prepare Cloathing like Clay;

17. He may prepare, but the Righteous will put on, and the Innocent divide the Money.

18. He builds his House as a Moth, and as a Booth the Keeper makes.

can speak more of God's works than Bildad, Brought. Marg.

Ib. Inanimate Things] are naked before him, as follows.

Ib. formed] the Heb. being a passive Participle, not a Verb: thus the Sense is pertinent.

Ib. such as dwell] Fishes and Reptiles, which dwell out of our Sight, and being alive are contradistinguished from the inanimate Things.

Ver. 9. holds] from appearing.

Ver. 11. Pillars] Mountains, which seem so.

Ib. shake] by Vulcanoes; unnoticed as far as I perceive with the Commentators, though as necessary as that in the next Verse.

Ib. and are astonished] As if it is not sufficient to alter the Scripture, some are also for making and leaving it uncertain; as here Grey says the and should be taken away, or else the Verb read contracted.

Ver. 12. breaks apart] into Waves; although others have thought it the Partition of the Seas, &c. from one another.

Ib. its Haughtiness] as Interpreters agree, and the rest of the Matter shews; see Chap. xxxviii. 11.

Ver. 13. stretching] like a Bar, as appears by the Heb. rendered stretching, Isa. xxvii. 1. and in Contradistinction to crooked there.

Ib. Serpent] the Whale, Yun. he speaking of God's mighty Works any where.

Ver. 14. the Borders] more suitable than parts, as Her- vey lately shews, *Contemplat. on the Starry Heavens Vol. 2. and much nearer to the original Word.

Ver. 1. proceeded] probably after some Pause; to hear whether they would reply, which might be the Occasion of inserting these Words.

Ver. 3. Spirit] So this Word is rendered; Chap. xxvi. 4. Prov. xx. 27. and plural Souls, Isa. lvii. 16.

Ib. Breath] as it is translated in the parallel Places; Chap. iv. 9. 2 Sam. xxii. 16. Psa. xviii. 15. Lam. iv. 20. How unapt and irreverent is Spirit here!

Ver. 5. justify you] by owning my self wicked.

Ib. till I expire] This is before the Heb. Partition of the Verse, and so belongs to the former Part.

Ver. 7. My Enemy will be] not my self; as you charge me. How he will be so, the two next Verses shew.

Ver. 8. Hypocrite] whom he counts as his Enemy, being himself sincerely righteous; and seems thus to retort on these his Antagonists.

Ib. cast out] as this Verb is turned, Deut. vii. 1. put out, Deut. vii. 22. cast, Deut. xxviii. 40. see Matth. viii. 12. & xxii. 13. & xxv. 30. 2 Pet. ii. 4. and Buxt. Gram. Lib. i. Cap. 17. ad Fut. where this very Word is grammatically investigated.

Ver. 15. his Widows] as being the Widows of those belonging to him.

Ib. not weep] at their Burial, being not sorry for their Death.

Ver. 18. as] so weakly.

Ib. Keeper] probably of Cattle.

19. The Rich will lie down, and not be gathered; he opens his Eyes, and is gone.

20. Terrors will overtake him like Waters, a Whirlwind steal him away at Night.

21. The East-wind will take him up, and he be gone; and will drive him tempestuously from his Place.

22. Nay God will cast upon him, and not spare, who would quite flee from his Hand.

23. Each one will clap their Hands at them, and hiss at him from his Place.

C H A P. XXVIII.

SINCE there is a Mine for the Silver, and a Place for the Gold they refine,

2. Since Iron is taken out of the Dust, and Brass melted out of the Stone;

3. He puts an end to Darkness, and searches out to all Perfection, the Stones of the Dark and the Shadow of Death.

4. A Flood breaks out from the Sojourner, of those that are forgotten by the Foot, are drawn away, removed from Man.

5. Under the very Earth, from whence Bread comes out, is also turned up like Fire:

6. The Stones of it are the Place of the Sapphire, and it has Earth of Gold.

7. There is a Path which the ravenous Bird knows not, nor does the Eye of the Vulture look on it:

8. The young Lions do not tread it, the fierce Lion passes not therein.

9. He stretches forth his Hand on the flinty Rock, overthrows the Mountains from the Root.

10. He cleaves Streams among the Rocks, and his Eye sees every precious Thing.

11. He confines the Rivers from overflowing, and brings out the hidden Thing to Light.

12. But from whence is Wisdom procured? And where is the Place of Understanding?

13. Man does not know the Value of it, nor is it found in the Country of the Living.

14. The Deep says, It is not in me; as does the Sea, There is none with me.

15. Preserved Gold is not to be given for it, nor Silver weighed for the Price of it.

16. It is not to be rated with the famous Gold of Ophir, with the precious Onyx, or the Sapphire.

17. The Gold and Crystal does not equal it, nor is the Exchange of it to be a Vessel of pure Gold.

18. The Corals and the Pearl is not to be mentioned, and the getting of Wisdom is more than of Carbuncles.

19. The Emerald of Cush does not equal it, with the famous Gold that is pure it is not to be rated.

20. From whence then does Wisdom come? And where is the Place of Understanding?

21. As it is hid from the Eyes of every living Thing, even concealed from the Fowls of the Air.

22. Perdition and Death may say, We have heard the Fame of it with our Ears.

23. God understands its Way, and he knows the Place of it.

24. For he beholds to the Ends of the Earth, he sees under all the Heaven:

Ver. 19. gathered] to the Righteous or Happy, as Gen. xxv. 8. & alibi.

Ver. 20. overtake] which the Verb signifies, and not take hold on; nor is that a proper Action for Waters.

Ver. 23. them] the Violent, Ver. 13. being plur. and the same as their here in the Heb.

Ib. hiss at] here being the Heb. Preposition for at, as just before.

Ib. from his Place] when he is gone, and consistently with the latter [at], which I conceive the com. Transf. is not.

Ver. 1. Since] or forasmuch as, being a rational connective Particle in Heb. and so joins this and the next to the 3d Verse; for what otherwise would these two signify?

Ib. Mine] Heb. coming forth, so not a Vein.

Ib. Gold] which they refine; the Heb. Relative being often understood, but not where; and our Translators also add it.

Ver. 3. He] the Rich, Ch. xxvii. 19.

Ib. puts an End to Darkness] by digging in the Earth, and letting in, or carrying in Light; therefore setteth improper.

Ib. searches out] these Things.

Ib. to all Perfection] so the Hebrew; see Chap. xi. 7.

Ver. 4. from the Sojourner] where the Miner is digging, who may not unfitly be called a Sojourner there, as the Heb. Word signifies.

Ib. of those that] So not wanting even the Waters to be added; nay is better than that would be, if inserted.

Ib. forgotten by the Foot] having not been there before a great while; thus denoting the sudden unexpected breaking out of the Water, which comes to pass in digging Mines.

Ver. 5. like Fire] Earth of a fiery Colour, or as if it were burnt.

Ver. 9. He] as Ver. 3.

Ver. 11. confines] by Symmachus the Gr. and Jerome the Lat. Translator, searches, through Mistake of א in חָסַם for ס.

Ver. 12. from whence] as Ver. 20. and elsewhere; never where.

Ib. Wisdom]

But Wisdom, awful Wisdom! which inspects, Discerns, compares, weighs, separates, infers,

Seizes the Right, and holds it to the last;

How rare!

Young's Night Thoughts, viii.

Ver. 14. Deep] the Mine, of which he had been speaking, as different from the Sea.

Ver. 18. getting] as if by drawing out, like the precious Stones, from the Root to draw: so Jun. and Timm. render it acquisitio. It differs from both the Words rendered price, Ver. 13, 15.

Ver. 22. Perdition and Death] the dangerous Mine and the Grave, according to the foregoing; as being Places where it might be supposed hid, Ver. 21.

25. To

25. To make the Weight for the Wind, and that he may dispose the Waters by Measure.

26. When he made a Decree for the Rain, and a Way for the bright Cloud of the Thunder;

27. Then did he see it, and count it up; prepare it, as well as search it out.

28. And he said to Man, Behold the Fear of the Lord that is Wisdom, and to depart from Evil is Understanding.

C H A P. XXIX.

JO B further proceeded to take up his Speech thus:

2. Oh that I was as in Months formerly, as in the Days when God preserved me!

3. When he made his Lamp shine upon my Head, by his Light I went in Darkness;

4. According as I was in the Days of my Youth, when the Secret of God was in my Tent;

5. While yet the Almighty was with me, my Children round about me;

6. When my Walks were washed with Butter, and the Rock poured forth with me Streams of Oil;

7. When I went out to the Gate at the City, prepared my Seat in the Street.

8. The young Men saw me, and hid; and the very aged rising, stood up.

9. The Princes held in the Words, and put the Hand to their Mouth.

10. The Voices of the Rulers were hid, and their Tongue cleaved to the Roof of their Mouth.

11. For the Ear on hearing, blessed me; and the Eye when it saw, testified for me.

12. Because I delivered the Afflicted from crying out, with the Fatherless, and him who had no Helper.

13. The Blessing of him that was perishing came upon me; and I caused the Heart of the Widow to sing.

14. I put on Righteousness, and it cloathed me; my Judgment was as a Cloak and Diadem.

15. I was Eyes to the Blind, and Feet was I to the Lame.

16. I was a Father to the Needy; and the Cause I knew not, that I searched out.

17. On the other hand I broke the Eye-teeth of the Unjust, and cast out the Prey from his Teeth.

18. And I said, I shall expire at my Nest, and multiply Days as the Sand.

19. My Root was opened to the Water; and the Dew abode all Night on my Branch.

20. My Glory became fresh with me, and my Bow was renewed in my Hand.

21. Those hearkened to me, and waited; being silent at my Counsel.

22. They did not speak again after my Word; and my Speech dropped upon them.

23. Nay they waited for me as for the Rain, and opened their Mouth wide as for the latter Rain.

24. Laugh at them, they did not believe it; nor did they cast down the Light of my Face.

25. I chose their Way, and fate chief, nay dwelt as a King in a Troop; according as one who comforts Mourners.

C H A P. XXX.

WHEREAS now those that are of less Age than I laugh at me, whose Fathers I should have disdained to put with the Dogs of my Flock.

2. Even the Ability of their Hands why should I have, in whom old Age was perishing?

3. Who were solitary in Want and Famine, being fled to a dry Place, before that in Wasting and Devastation.

Ver. 25. dispose] See Pools's Annot.

Ver. 26. bright Cloud] such as there is with Thunder: the Word is found besides only in Chap. xxxviii. 25. Zech. x. 1. in which latter Place being plural, it is turned bright clouds in the com. Transf.

Ver. 27. count it up] the several Parts of it, as he orders the Wind and Waters by Weight and Measure, Ver. 25. and this before he declared it to Man, Ver. 28.

Ver. 3. See several Verses of this Chapter explained in the Pref.

Ib. by] or more strictly according to.

Ver. 18. at my Nest] quietly at Home.

Ver. 21. Those] in Ver. 9, 10. from speaking of whom he had been drawn by Digression.

Ver. 22. dropped] like Rain, Ver. 23. Deut. xxxii. 2. rather than with Dupert.

Kai men eno glosas melit@ glosion rin audi.
and Speech sweeter than Honey flowed from my Tongue.

Ver. 23. Mouth] as it were to drink in his Discourse, as the Earth does the Rain.

Ver. 24. Laugh] See Hag. ii. 16.

Ib. not believe it] when they saw him laugh, did not believe it was at themselves, as they thought his Regard to them was greater than to do so.

Ib. Light] the Cheerfulness of his Countenance, which they did not alter to Louring, by being angry or offering him any Affront for his laughing at them.

Ver. 25. chose their Way] appointed how they should do Things: Patrick very slenderly, went to visit them, as he could more readily borrow it from Jen. than seek better.

Ver. 1. to put with] to have made them my meanest Shepherds.

Ver. 2. their] the Fathers, Ver. 1.

Ib. perishing] they being too old and infirm; see Blackm. Poem.

Ver. 3. in Want] For to flee to such a Place as here mentioned for want, and be solitary there, would probably make their Want greater; whereas Ver. 5. shews another Cause of their fleeing thither.

4. Who

4. Who plucked off Mallows at the Shrub, and Juniper-roots for their Food.

5. They were driven out from the Body, People cried out against them as a Thief;

6. To dwell in the Cavity of the Vallies, the Holes of the Ground and of the Rocks.

7. They brayed among the Shrubs, were gathered together under the Nettles.

8. They are the Sons of the Vile, even the Sons of those without Renown, who were smitten from the Earth.

9. Yet now I am their Musick, and am for a By-word to them.

10. They abhor me, they remove far from me, and do not refrain from spitting in my Face.

11. For he has let loose my String, and afflicted me; so they thrust away the Bridle from my Presence.

12. The Youthful rise up at the right Hand, they thrust away my Feet, and cast up the Ways of their Destruction against me.

13. They destroy my Path, conduce to my Calamity; without having any Helper.

14. They come as a large Breach; rush along for Wasting.

15. Each one is turned against me, Terrors severally pursue my noble Part as the Wind; and my Safety passes away like a thick Cloud.

16. So that now my Soul is poured out in me, the Days of Affliction take hold of me.

17. He is digging out my Bones from within me at Night; and my Sinews do not lie still.

18. My Cloathing is altered by a Multitude of stiff Scabs; it girds me as the Collar of my Coat.

19. He has cast me to the Clay, and I am made like Dust and Ashes.

20. I cry out to thee, but thou dost not answer me; or when I stand up, consider me.

21. Thou art turned to be fierce at me, shewest Hatred to me with the Strength of thy Hand.

22. Thou liftest me up to the Wind, causing me to ride, and dissolvest my very Substance.

23. For I am sensible thou wilt cause me to return to Death, and the House appointed for every living one.

24. However he will not stretch forth the Hand to the Grave, though there is Crying out for these Things in the Calamity by him.

25. Did not I weep for him who had a hard Time? My Soul was sorry for the Needy.

26. When I expect Good, Evil comes; and waiting for Light, there comes Darkness.

27. My Bowels boil, and are not quiet; the Days of Affliction prevent me.

28. I walk being pensive, without the Sun; rising up, I cry out in the Congregation.

29. I am a Brother to Dragons, and a Companion to young Ostriches.

Ib. before that] which being parted by a great Heb. Stop from the foregoing Word, may shew this belongs to the Persons, and more to the Purpose; nay how was the Place so altered? And why should he tell that?

Ver. 4. Mallows] Of which see Horace, Od. L. i. 31. with the Delph. Note.

Ver. 5. Body] of Society, Buxtorf says of the City; thus the Word is, Isa. 51. 23.

Ver. 8. smitten] put to Death for their Crimes; see it in Buxt. Lex. under מָצַח which signifies to smite, and not to be vile. Brought. has banished from the Earth.

Ver. 9. Yet now] because Job I suppose was for keeping good Order, and promoting Industry in the Country; which they did not like, and might now hope to live at more Liberty.

Ver. 11. String] of my Bow, Ch. xxix. 20. as this Word is rendered, Psa. xi. 2. and no where else Cord.

Ib. thrust away] or send as the Verb properly signifies, and not let loose like that before; it is the same with that in the next Verse.

Ib. Bridle] Job's Authority over them.

Ib. from my Presence] as Ver. 10. Ch. xxiii. 17. this being also used for Person in Heb. and thus Pagn. renders frenum a facie mea dimiserunt, as likewise Jun. and Trem. habenae a praesentia mea dimiserunt; Munst. abjecerunt a facie mea frenum, have cast away the Bridle from my Face; Brought. they cast away the Bridle from me.

Ver. 13. conduce] which Word I use for want of a plainer, that so well suits to the Heb.

Ib. without having any Helper] that is they do it of themselves.

Ver. 14. Breach] in the Wall of a besieged City, Patr. then not of Waters.

Ib. rush along] according as in Gen. xliii. 18.

Ib. for] which this Particle largely denotes, scarce in; so the literal Verf. of Pagn. and Mont. has pro.

Ver. 15. Each one is] The Verb being singular, and not of the same Gender as Terrors. Jun. and Trem. turn it, My Nest is turned upon me, from Ch. xxix. 18. a wild Conjecture!

Ver. 16. in me] as Psa. xlii. 4.

Ver. 17. digging out] comparatively, by the excruciating Tortures; and thus the Heb. being also active and singular.

Ib. from] which the Heb. has.

Ver. 18. a Multitude] as is the Heb. and they being on the Boils.

Ib. stiff Scabs] The original Word signifying Strength, and other Things comprehensive, may here denote this; from whence the corrupt Matter issuing out, made his Cloathing stiff, and the Scabs tight, like a Collar.

Ver. 20. stand up] to speak.

Ver. 21. shewest Hatred] opposest being beside or short of the Heb.

Ver. 22. to ride] where he would be in great Dread and Danger of falling.

Ver. 24. to the Grave] to punish there.

Ib. Crying out] not a Verb, but Noun.

Ib. for these Things] Very literal: for being as in the next Verse, and not masc. to make they, which is also so improper, but the Heb. neuter; and I find since that Jun. and Trem. have it propter ista, the same.

Ib. by him] not well expressed by his.

Ver. 25. had a hard Time] aptly to the Original.

Ver. 27. boil] The present Tense being most proper, as Ver. 29, 30.

Ver. 29. Ostriches] The same Lam. iv. 3.

30. My Skin is black upon me, and my Bone parched because of Heat.

31. My Harp also is become Mourning, and my Organ the Voice of such as weep.

C H A P. XXXI.

I MADE a Covenant with my Eyes; and how should I mind about a Virgin?

2. For what would be the Portion of God from above, and the Possession of the Almighty from the Heights?

3. Is there not Destruction for the Unjust, and a strange Thing for the Workers of Iniquity?

4. Does not he see my Ways, and count up all my Steps?

5. If I have gone with Vanity, or my Foot has made haste to Deceit;

6. Let him weigh me in the Scales of Righteousness, and let God know my Perfection.

7. If my Going has turned aside from the Way, or my Heart gone after my Eyes, or a Blemish cleaved to my Hands;

8. Let me sow, and another eat, nay let my Offspring be rooted out.

9. If my Heart has been enticed to a Woman, or I have lain in wait at my Neighbour's Door;

10. Let my Wife grind for another, and let others stoop down upon her:

11. For it is Heinousness, and it is an Iniquity for the Judges;

12. Because it is a Fire that consumes to Perdition, and would root out all my Increase.

13. If I have despised the Judgment of my Servant or Handmaid, when they pleaded with me;

14. What then shall I do, when God rises up? And when he visits, what shall I answer him?

15. Did not he who made me in the Belly make him, and one prepare us in the Womb?

16. If I have with-held the Poor from the Desire, or made the Eyes of the Widow fail;

17. Or have eat my Bit alone, and the Fatherless not eat of it;

18. (For from my Youth he has been bred up with me as with a Father, and I have led her from my Mother's Belly)

19. If I have seen any perishing without Cloaths, or the Needy with no Covering;

20. If his Loins have not blessed me, and he warmed himself by the Fleece of my Sheep;

21. If I have shook my Hand at the Fatherless, when I saw my Help in the Gate:

22. Let my Shoulder-blade fall from the Shoulder, and my Arm be broke from the Bone.

23. For the Destruction of God was Dread to me, and by reason of his Excellency I could not.

24. If I have made Gold my Hope, or said to the famous Gold, Thou art my Trust;

25. If I have been glad when my Wealth was great, and when my Hand had got much;

26. If I have looked at the Light when it shined, or the precious Moon going along;

27. And my Heart has been enticed in secret, or my Mouth kissed my Hand;

28. That also would be an Iniquity for the Judges; because I should have denied the God above.

29. If I have been glad at the Calamity of him who hated me, or stirred up my self when Harm met with him;

30. (Nor have I suffered my Mouth to sin, by asking for a Curse to his Life)

31. If the Men of my Tent did not say, Oh that we had some of his Flesh! we are not satisfied;

32. The Stranger not lodging abroad, I opening my Doors to the Passenger;

Ver. 2. what would] much clearer, I presume, than the common.

Ver. 7. my Heart gone after my Eyes] Vulg. Lat. my Eye followed my Heart.

Ver. 8. Offspring] of the Things sown.

Ver. 9. enticed to a Woman] Trem. and Jun. the same, pellectus fuit ad mulierem: the Heb. Words signifying thus properly and frequently, scarce or seldom deceived and by; besides that Job is speaking of his own Behaviour, and that in Relation to his Neighbour's Wife, not a common Woman. So this Verb too is rendered Ver. 27. and so the Preposition, Ver. 5.

Ver. 10. grind] as Women-slaves did, Exod. xi. 5. Mat. xxiv. 41.

Ver. 23. could not] do as mentioned before; endure being added by our Translators, but improperly; so Hogey here,

*Ante oculos Domini presentia numina semper
A vitis animam continuere meum;*

the Divinity of the Lord always present before my Eyes, with-held my Mind from the Offences.

Ver. 26. precious] an Adjective so signifying to Moon.
1b. Moon] The Worship of the heavenly Bodies being the oldest Idolatry of all, according both to Diod. Siculus the Heathen, and Maimonides the Jrw.

Ver. 26, 27. paraphrased by Sandys,
*If when I saw the early Sun ascend,
Or the new Moon her silver Horns extend;
I bowing kiss'd my Hand, those Lights ador'd
As Deities, and their Relief implor'd.*

Ver. 30. asking for] So the Heb. is with a Preposition, and not signifying to wish, nor that suiting so well to Mouth.

Ver. 31. Flesh] Job sometimes taking in, and feeding, so many Strangers and Passengers, Ver. 32. that some Retainers of his House complained they did not leave enough for them; see Jun. Annot.

33. If I have covered my Transgressions like Adam, by hiding my Iniquity when I loved it;

34. Because I was in dread of a great Multitude, or the Contempt of Families terrified me, so that I was silent, did not go out of the Door:

35. Oh that he would hear me! Behold it is my Aim that the Almighty would answer me; and let the Man who contends with me write a Book.

36. Would not I take it up on my Shoulder, tie it for Crowns to me?

37. I would declare to him the Number of my Steps; would approach him like a Ruler.

38. If my Ground cry against me, and the Ridges of it weep together;

39. If I have eat the Strength of it without Money, or caused the Soul of its Owners to pant:

40. Let the Thorn come forth in the room of Wheat, and the stinking Weed in the room of Barley. The Words of Job are finished.

CHAP. XXXII.

AND these three Men ceased from answering Job, because he thought himself righteous,

2. Upon this Elihu was angry, the Son of Barachel the Buzite, of the Family of Ram; which he was with Job, for his justifying his own self more than God;

3. As he was with his three Friends, because they found no Answer, yet condemned him.

4. However Elihu tarried for Job in the Discourse: for they were of older Age than he.

5. But when Elihu saw that there was no Answer in the Mouth of the three Men, he was angry.

Ver. 33. when I loved it] This being a Heb. Preposition and infinitive Mood, which are to be thus rendered, as Buxtorf shews, Thef. Lib. 2. Cap. 20. the Verb signifying loved, Buxt. Lex. in בבב and is so translated, Deut. xxxiii. 3. which is the only Place where it occurs besides.

Ver. 34. Because] The Neglect of this Heb. Particle, with which the Verse begins, has thrown the Sense, now plain and easy, into Confusion and Uncertainty; as may be seen by Psale's Annotation.

Ver. 35. Aim] or Mark as Ezek. ix. 6. the Word being elsewhere but there, only has a Root that signifies to mark, Ezek. ix. 4. & Sam. xxi. 13. &c.

Ver. 36. Would] ON making a Question often, but perhaps never signifies surely.

Ver. 37. like a Ruler] boldly.

Ver. 39. pant] See Buxt. in the Root נפח fun. and Trem. defatigaverim, have fatigued; Castal. vexavi, vexed; Munst. contristavi, made sorry; Vulg. Lat. affixi, af-

6. So Elihu the Son of Barachel the Buzite made answer: I am of little Time, and you are very aged; therefore I feared, and was afraid to shew you my Knowledge.

7. I thought Days should speak, and a Multitude of Years make known Wisdom.

8. Whereas it is the Spirit in Man, and the Inspiration of the Almighty causes them to understand.

9. Not the Great are wise, or the Elders understand Judgment.

10. Therefore I say, Hear me; I will also tell my Experience.

11. Lo I waited for your Speeches, gave ear to what you understand, till you should search out Words.

12. Besides I had Consideration to you, when behold there was no Reprover to Job, an Answerer of his Sayings from you;

13. Lest ye should say, We have found Wisdom, God shall drive him away, not Man.

14. Now he has not ordered the Words for me, nor will I reply to him with your Sayings.

15. They were daunted, answered no more; Words were removed away from them.

16. And I waited, because they would not speak: because they have stood still, answered no more;

17. I will also answer my Part, will likewise declare what I understand.

18. For I am full of Words, the Spirit of my Inside streightens me.

19. Behold my Inside is like Wine that is not opened, it would burst asunder as new Bottles.

20. I will speak, that I may have Breath; will open my Lips, and answer.

21. Let me not now respect the Face of a Person, nor give Titles to Man.

22. For I know not how to give Titles; otherwise my Maker would soon take me away.

flitted; Pagnin. affect dolore, caused to grieve; Brought. grieved.

Ver. 6. Knowledge] The Heb. Word denoting no less, and so rendered in Ch. xxxvi. 3. & xxxvii. 16. which also appears by Ver. 8. & Ch. xxxiii. 3.

Ver. 10. say] for it is evident he had not said it before.

Ver. 12. Besides] He not only waiting to hear what they had further to say, but considering what Plea they might have for not speaking.

Ver. 13. shall] We will leave him to God to be confuted; which makes some Sense, and the Heb. Verb is future.

Ver. 15. They] Elihu now addressing himself to others present, according to Patrick both in his Argument and Paraphrase.

Ver. 17. I] connected to the foregoing.

Ver. 21. now] more suitable to the Tenour of his Expression than I pray you, and rather better denoted by the Heb. na.

C H A P. XXXIII.

AND surely vouchsafe, Job, to hear my Words, and give ear to all my Matters.
 2. Behold now I opening my Mouth, my Tongue speaking in my Palate;
 3. My Sayings are in the Uprightness of my Heart, and my Lips speak out Knowledge that is pure.
 4. The Spirit of God made me, and the Breath of the Almighty caused me to live.
 5. If thou canst reply to me, set in order before me, place thy self.
 6. Lo I am for God according to what thou hast said, I am also formed out of the Clay.
 7. Behold my Terror shall not frighten thee, nor my Hand be heavy upon thee.
 8. Verily thou didst say in my Ears, and I heard the Voice of the Words;
 9. I am clean without Transgression, I am innocent, and have no Iniquity.
 10. Lo he finds Ruptures against me, reckons me for an Enemy to him.
 11. He puts my Feet in Fetters, observes all my Paths.
 12. Behold in this thou art not righteous, I will answer thee: for God is superior to Man.
 13. Why dost thou contend with him? Since he does not answer for any of his Matters.
 14. Though God speaks once, and twice, without its being observed.
 15. In a Dream, a Vision of the Night, when sound Sleep falls upon Men, in Slumbers upon the Bed;
 16. Then he reveals in the Hearing of Men, and seals their Instruction;
 17. To make Mankind put away some

Work, and that he may cover Exaltation from a Man.

18. He keeps back his Person from the Pit, and his Life from perishing by the Dart.
 19. When he is rebuked with Pain upon his Bed, and all his Bones strongly;
 20. So that his Life loaths Victuals, and his Appetite delightful Food;
 21. His Flesh is consumed from the Sight, and his Bones which were not seen stand out;
 22. So that his Person draws near to the Pit, and his Life to the Things which cause to die:
 23. If there is a Messenger with him, an Interpreter, one of a thousand, to declare to Man his Uprightness;
 24. He is then gracious to him, and says, Redeem him from going down to the Pit, I have found a Ransom.
 25. His Flesh is made fresher than a Child's, he returns to the Days of his Youth.
 26. He makes supplication to God, who is favourable to him, and whose Face he sees with Shouting: for he renders to Man his Righteousness.
 27. He observes Men, and of him who confesses, I have sinned, and done perversely in what was upright, which was not fit for me;
 28. He redeems the Person from passing into the Pit, and his Life sees the Light.
 29. Lo God works all these Things, two or three times with a Man;
 30. To cause his Person to return from the Pit, to be enlightened with the Light of the Living.
 31. Harken, Job, hear me; be silent, and I will speak.
 32. If there is any Thing to say, reply to me: speak, for I am willing to justify thee.

Ver. 2. opening] in the Uprightness as follows, which should not therefore be parted.

Ver. 9. I am] for which see Chap. x. 7. & xiii. 15, 16, 23. & xvi. 17. & xxiii. 10, 11, 12.

Ver. 10. finds] look Chap. vii. 12. & ix. 17, 18. & x. 2, 3, 6, 16, 17. & xiii. 27. & xiv. 16. & xix. 11. & xxx. 21.

Ib. Ruptures] The Word occurs once more, viz. in Num. xiv. 34. and is from a Root denoting to break.

Ib. reckons me for an Enemy to him] Job used these Words in the second Person interrogatively, Chap. xiii. 24. see also Chap. xix. 11.

Ver. 11. Fetters] see Chap. xiii. 27. where the Word is the same.

Ib. observes] the same Verb with that in Chap. xiii. 27. from whence Elihu takes all the Words of this Ver.

Ver. 14. Though] which is a fit Connection to the foregoing.

Ver. 16. seals] confirms, makes impression.

Ver. 17. To make] the infinitive Mood in the Conjug. Hiphil, which directly signifies so. Jun. and Trem. render Ut amoveat homo opus, That Man may remove the Work; Broughton, That earthly-man may leave off to work: taking man for the Subject, and Work (as the Heb. Word is, not Purpose) for the Object of the Verb.

Ib. cover] for keep away.

Ver. 18. Dart] the Stroke of Death.

Ver. 19. When] God first admonishes Man who is doing amiss, Ver. 17. then graciously punishes without destroying. The Reader may observe how ill this Verse is connected with the preceding by also.

Ib. all] as Chap. iv. 14.

Ver. 21. stand out] stick out seeming improper.

Ver. 23. his Uprightness] viz. how he should be upright.

Ver. 24. He] which upon a closer Consideration I take, as I used to do, for God, as Ver. 2. 6. but find most others for the Messenger, yet as I think by violent forcing the Words: thus Patrick,

Ib. I have found a Ransom] I have found him a Penitent; but is that the same?

Ver. 25. is made] being the preterperfect in Pyhal; yet Pool from the Eng. future Tense, interprets these to be the Tidings delivered to him by the Messenger.

Ver. 29. two or three times] as may be observed in particular Persons, whom Providence thus deals with, but not oftentimes; so that we should take care of changing the original literal Expression.

33. If not, do thou hear me: be silent, and I will teach thee Wisdom.

C H A P. XXXIV.

BESIDES Elihu made answer:

2. Hear my Words, O wise ones; and ye who know, give ear to me.

3. For the Ear tries Words, as the Palate tastes Food.

4. Let us choose us Judgment, let us know among ourselves what is good.

5. For Job said; I am righteous, and God puts away my Judgment.

6. Shall I lye against my Right? My Arrow is mortal without Transgression.

7. What Man is like Job, who drinks Scoffing like Water?

8. He further takes a Journey for company with the Workers of Iniquity, and to go with wicked Men.

9. For he said, A Man has no Advantage, in his being pleased with God.

10. Therefore hear me, O Men of Sense; far be Wickedness from God, and Iniquity from the Almighty.

11. For the Work of Man will he recompense to him; and according to a Person's Path will he cause him to find.

12. Truly also God will not do wickedly, nor the Almighty pervert Judgment.

13. Who committed the Earth to him? or who put in order the universal World?

14. If he should put his Heart on it, gather up to himself its Spirit and Breath;

15. All Flesh would expire together, and Mankind return to the Mould.

16. And if there is Understanding, hear thou this, give ear to what my Words express.

17. Will even one who hates Judgment restrain? Wilt thou then condemn the powerful righteous One?

18. Is it to be said to a King, Thou art ungodly, to Noblemen, You are wicked?

19. Nay to him who does not respect the Face of Princes, nor is the Rich taken notice of before the Poor? For all of them are the Work of his Hands.

20. They die in a Moment, the People being shook at Midnight, and pass away; even a stout one is taken away without Hand.

21. For his Eyes are upon the Ways of a Person, so that he sees all his Steps.

22. There is no Darkeness, nor any Shadow of Death, for the Workers of Iniquity to hide there.

23. Though he does not put upon a Person too much, for him to go against God in Judgment.

24. He breaks in pieces the Powerful ones not to be searched out, and makes others stand in their room.

25. Therefore he knows their Doings; and overthrows at Night, so that they are crushed.

26. He strikes them for wicked ones, in a Place where others see:

27. By reason they are such as depart from following him, and do not consider any of his Ways:

28. Causing the Cry of the Poor to come to him; who hears the Cry of the afflicted ones.

29. Thus when he gives Rest, who shall condemn; and when he hides the Face, who shall observe him; both concerning a Nation, and Man alike?

30. That a Man who is a Hypocrite may not reign, because of Snares to the People.

31. For one should say to God; I having endured, without being destroyed;

32. Beside what I behold, do thou teach me: if I have wrought Iniquity, I will no more.

33. Is it from thee he recompenses it, because thou rejectest, because thou chooseth, and not I? Now speak what thou knowest.

34. Let Men of Sense tell me, and the wise Man hear me.

35. Job has not spoken with Knowledge, nor have his Words been with Understanding.

Ver. 5. righteous] Chap. xxvii. 6. & xxix. 14.

1b. puts away] from him, as Job said Chap. xxvii. 2. see also Chap. ix. 32. & xix. 7.

Ver. 6. Shall I] to this Purpose Job, Chap. xxvii. 4. 5.

1b. My Arrow is mortal] so the Original, meaning the Arrow wounds me mortally.

1b. mortal without Transgression] thus he had spoken, Chap. xvi. 12, 13, 17. & vi. 4.

Ver. 9. no Advantage] which may refer to Chap. ix. 22, 23, 30, 31. & xii. 6. & xxx. 20.

Ver. 17. restrain] or bind, as the Word signifies, not govern; and may denote the Restraint and Punishment a just Ruler puts on Wickedness, shewing that since God does prohibit and punish it, he cannot hate Judgment.

Ver. 20. shook] when seized by Death, and as the Heb. is.

Ver. 24. powerful] abbir in Ver. 20. cabbir here, from different Heb. Roots.

Ver. 28. Causing] by the Oppression they then use.

Ver. 29. alike] not only.

Ver. 31. destroyed] This Heb. Verb has two Meanings, to pawn or take in pawn, and to destroy or spoil, besides another in the Conj. Pibel to bring forth young, which this does not belong to; so that this Signification may stand for certain here. Thus Fun. and Trem. turn it sum destructurus; and others generally take the Word in this Sense, as indeed how can they in the other, much less in that which it has Nothing of, as offend?

Ver. 33. and not I] rather than I? Hast thou that Privilege beyond me? But what Sense is it when out of the Question, and put affirmatively, as in the con. Translation?

36. Oh

36. Oh that Job might be tried perpetually, for the Replies of bad Men!

37. For he adds Rebellion to his Sin, he claps among us, and multiplies his Sayings at God.

C H A P. XXXV.

ELIHU continued to answer:

2. Dost thou reckon this to be right that thou hast pretended, My Righteousness is more than God's?

3. For thou hast signified, What does it advantage thee, what do I profit, to be without my Sin?

4. I will return Word to thee, and to thy Companions with thee.

5. Look on the Heavens, and see; and observe the Skies that are high above thee.

6. If thou sinnest, what dost thou work against him? and should thy Rebellions be multiplied, what dost thou to him?

7. If thou art righteous, what dost thou give him? or what does he receive from thy Hand?

8. Thy Wickedness may be Something to a Man like thyself, and thy Virtue to the Son of Man.

9. By reason of a Multitude they make the Oppressed cry, these cry out because of the Arm of the Great.

10. But none enquires, Where is God my Maker? Who gives Psalms in the Night:

11. Who teaches us more than the Beasts of the Earth, and makes us wiser than the Fowl of the Air.

12. There they cry (and he does not answer) by reason of the Pride of the Wicked.

13. Verily God will not hear Vanity, nor the Almighty observe it.

14. Even though thou sayest, thou canst not observe him; there is Judgment before him, so thou shouldest wait for him.

15. And now because thou dost not, he visits in his Anger; yet it is not known in the great Abundance.

16. So that Job opens his Mouth with Vanity, multiplies Words without Knowledge.

C H A P. XXXVI.

AND Elihu proceeded, saying:

2. Wait for me a little, and I will shew thee; since there are yet some Words for God.

3. I will bear my Knowledge even from far, and ascribe Righteousness to my Maker.

4. For truly my Words shall not be Falseness; one perfect in knowing is with thee.

5. Lo God is powerful, yet does not despise; powerful in Might, in Wisdom.

6. He does not keep alive the Wicked, but gives forth the Judgment of the afflicted ones.

7. He takes not away his Eyes from the Righteous, who is with Kings on the Throne; but causes them to dwell perpetually, and they are exalted.

8. And if they are bound with Chains, are caught with the Cords of Affliction;

9. He declares to them their Work, and their Transgressions, because they become strong.

10. Nay he uncovers their Ear for Instruction, and speaks; that they may return from Iniquity.

11. If they hear, and serve; they spend their Days in Welfare, and their Years in pleasant Things.

12. But if they will not hear; they perish by the Dart, and expire without Knowledge.

13. Yet the Hypocrites in Heart make Anger, they do not cry out, though he bind them.

14. Their Person dies in Youth, and their Life with the Prostitutes.

15. He delivers the Afflicted in his Affliction, and uncovers their Ear in Oppression.

16. And he also would have turned thee away from a narrow Passage to Wideness, in

Ver. 2. more] as he supposed was the Consequence of Job's Speeches; though he neither strictly, nor properly said it.

Ver. 3. What] See Chap. xxxiv. 9.

Ver. 5. Look on the Heavens] to reflect how little he could do there.

Ver. 6. Rebellions] more than common Sins, from which it is distinguished here, as Chap. xxxiv. ult.

Ver. 9. they make] the Multitude, or such as have a Multitude on their Side, and so have Power to oppress.

1b. oppressed] it being the passive Participle Patul, the same as in Psa. ciii. 6. Jer. l. 33. by altering which to oppressions, our Translators were forced to add in the oppressed.

Ver. 10. none] particularly of the Oppressed.

1b. Psalms in the Night] and accordingly Joy in Affliction.

Ver. 11. teaches us more] and consequently we should learn more.

Vo. I. I.

Ver. 12. he] God, Ver. 13.

Ver. 13. Reflecting on Job, and intimating why God did not help him.

Ver. 14. canst not] as Job said, Chap. xxiii. 8, 9. but this put in the future Tense contradicts Chap. xix. 26, 27.

1b. shouldest] being the future Tense, and not signifying to trust.

Ver. 15. not known] by Job.

1b. Abundance] from the Verb to abound.

Ver. 4. one perfect] the Spirit of God, by which Elihu intimated he spoke, Ver. 3. Chap. xxxii. 8, 18. so Sandys,

He who is perfect, and abhors Untruth,

With heavenly Influence inspires my Youth.

Ver. 6. does not keep alive] condemns to die.

Ver. 7. who is with Kings] so much regarded by God, so honourable and powerful.

1b. they] Lat. illi, which by Corruption it seems in the Vulg. is become illie, there.

the Place of which there is no Streightness; and that which was set down on thy Table would have been full of Fat.

17. But thou having filled up the Judgment of the Wicked, Judgment and Right have hold.

18. Because there is Wrath, beware lest he should turn thee away with Clapping, when a great Ransom would not put thee aside.

19. Will he value thy Riches? Not the choicest Gold, nor all the Forces of Strength.

20. Do not pant for the Night, when People are taken up in their Place.

21. Take heed, look not to Iniquity; though thou hast made choice of that, rather than Affliction.

22. Behold God exalts by his Might: who teaches like him?

23. Who appoints him his Way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought Iniquity?

24. Remember, that thou mayest increase his Work, which Men observe.

25. All Mankind look on it, Man beholds far off.

26. Lo God is so spacious, that we do not know him; nor is the Number of his Years to be searched out.

27. For he abates the Drops of Water, that pour out Rain according to the Vapour of it;

28. With which the Skies do flow down, distil upon Mankind abundantly.

29. Even if one considers the Spreadings of the thick Cloud, the Noises of his Tabernacle;

30. Behold he spreads his Light upon it, and covers the Roots of the Sea.

31. For by them he judges People, gives Food numerously.

32. With Hands as it were he covers the Light, and commands it by that which comes between.

33. The Noise of it declares concerning it, the Cattle too about the going up.

C H A P. XXXVII.

AT this also my Heart trembles, and leaps out of its Place.

2. Hear attentively the Commotion of his Voice, and the Utterance that goes out of his Mouth.

3. He lets it loose under all the Heaven, and his Light to the Bounds of the Earth.

4. A Voice roars after it, he thunders with the Voice of his Excellency; and does not delay them, when his Voice is heard.

5. God thunders wonderfully with his Voice: he does great Things, that we know not.

6. For he says to the Snow, Be thou on the Earth; with the Shower of Rain, and that of his strong Rains.

7. He seals up the Hand of all Mankind, for all Men to know his Work.

8. Then the Beast enters into the Place of lying in wait, and dwells in its Habitations.

9. The Whirlwind comes from the Chamber, and the Cold from the Scatterings.

10. Ice is given by the Breath of God, so that the Breadth of the Waters is in Streightness.

Ver. 18. Clapping] with some remarkable Judgment, so that People would clap Hands at him, as in Ch. xxvii. 33. the Verb of this Noun.

Ver. 20. taken up] from this World, but the Original not cut off.

Ver. 29. Even if] so the Heb. directly.

Ib. considers] it being in the Conjug. Hiphil: and Munst. renders si modo (homo) advertit, if a Man only observes; Jun. and Trem. si etiam consideret homo, if a Man also should consider; Brought. so if one mark; in the Tig. Vers. it is si quis etiam animadvertat, if any one also should mind.

Ver. 30. Light upon it] Lightning upon the thick Cloud: Patr. upon the Sea, no Antecedent to it.

Ib. Roots] the Channels of Rivers, being like Roots (Heb. plural) from the Body of the Sea; and which are covered by the Floods made by Thunder-showers. How improperly then was it altered to bottom! And with how little Sense!

Ver. 31. by them] by Thunder-showers, from Ver. 27, 28, 29.

Ib. judges] when the Thunder and Lightning do harm, or at least terrify.

Ib. gives] by the Rain which then falls, and commonly in a dry Season.

Ver. 32. Hands] as the Heb. is.

Ib. covers the Light] The Lightning seeming to lie behind the Clouds, out of our Sight; to which God gives the Command of it, either to retain it, or send it forth. Nor are we incongruously to suppose with Poole, this Light the Sun, and that in Ver. 30. the Lightning; both the same as in Chap. xxxvii, 3, 11, 15.

Ver. 33. going up] the rising up of the Shower. Of which Virgil,

Bucula Caelum
Suspiciens, patulis captavit Naribus Auras,
Geor. Lib. 1.
The Cow looks up, and from afar can find
The Change of Heav'n, and snuffs it in the Wind, Dryd.

Ver. 3. lets it loose] it being regularly from שרץ not יצר and had it been from the latter, should have been in Pihel or Hiphil to be directed.

Ver. 4. them] the Showers.

Ver. 6. with the Shower of] But Grey proposes this to be blotted out, and the Points changed in another Word, to make, the or O Shower and Shower of Rains, be you vehement; as if God says this to the Snow. How deservedly are such Criticks confounded!

Ver. 7. seals up] stops People from their Work, by the Thunder, Lightning and Rain, that they may consider God's Work; being also out of Danger from the wild Beasts, Ver. 8.

Ver. 9. Chamber] of the South, Chap. ix. 9. being that Part of the World which lay concealed to those dwelling in the northern Hemisphere. But the Word it self does not signify South.

Ib. Scatterings] of the northern Snows or Winds.

Ver. 10. in Streightness] being confined by the Ice.

11. He tires the thick Cloud also with Watering, disperses the Cloud of his Light.

12. And it is turned round about by his Counsels, to work all those Things that he commands, upon the Face of the World at the Earth :

13. Whether it is for Correction, or for his Earth, or for Kindness, that he causes it to come forth.

14. Give ear to this, Job : stand still, and consider the Wonders of God.

15. Dost thou know when God puts upon them, that he may make the Light of his Cloud shine ?

16. Dost thou know the Ballancings of the thick Cloud, the wonderful Things of him who is perfect in Knowledge ?

17. How thy Garments are warm, when he gives the Earth rest, from the South ?

18. Didst thou spread forth the Skies with him, that are firm like a melted Looking-glass ?

19. Let us know what we shall say to him ; we cannot set in order by reason of Darkeness.

20. Should it be told him, that I would speak ? Would a Man speak, that he may be devoured ?

21. And now they see not the bright Light which is in the Skies ; but the Wind passes, and cleanses them.

22. Gold as it were comes from the North ; with God then there is terrible Majesty.

23. The Almighty himself we cannot find out, he is spacious of Might ; but in Judgment, and a Multitude of Righteousness, he would not afflict.

24. Therefore Men should fear him : he does not regard any of a wise Heart.

THEN the Lord made answer to Job from a Tempest :

2. Who is this that darkens Counsel, by Words without Knowledge ?

3. Gird now thy Loins like a Man ; and I will ask thee, and do thou inform me.

4. Where wast thou when I founded the Earth ? Declare, if thou art acquainted with Understanding.

5. Who put the Measures of it, because thou knowest ? or who stretched out the Line upon it ?

6. Upon what were the Bases of it fixed ? Or who cast down the corner Stone of it ?

7. When the Morning Stars sung together, and all the Sons of God shouted.

8. And who covered the Sea with Doors, when it gushed forth, coming as out of the Womb ?

9. When I made the Cloud its Cloathing, and Darkeness the Swathe of it ;

10. As also broke up for it by my Decree, putting the Bar and Doors ;

11. And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, and no further ; and here shall be stopped the Exaltation of thy Waves.

12. Hast thou commanded the Morning since thy Days ? Made Break of Day know its Place ;

13. To take hold of the Borders of the Earth, that the Wicked may be shook out of it ?

14. It is turned like the Clay of a Seal, and the Things are placed as a Garment.

15. But from the Wicked their Light is with-held ; and the Arm that was lifted up is broke.

16. Hast thou gone to the Springs of the Ver. 11. watering] the Ground.

Ib. of his Light] that which contains his Lightning ; the same Word as before.

Ver. 13. Kindness] particular or extraordinary, besides that general one of watering the Earth.

Ver. 15. puts upon] as it is in Heb. by a Verb, and Preposition.

Ib. them] the different Clouds mentioned Ver. 11.

Ib. that] So Jun. and Trem. with the Vulg. Lat. have ut : since Job might know when this was by seeing it ; and to ask when God did or had then done it, seems impertinent.

Ib. Light] Lightning, as Ver. 11. but Patr. both the Rainbow.

Ver. 16. Ballancings] by what is put upon them, Ver. 15.

Ver. 20. would speak] as Job wanted to do to God, Ch. xiii. 3, 14, 15, 22. & xxiii. 3, 4.

Ib. that] the same Particle repeated in the Heb.

Ver. 21. bright Light] the Sun.

Ver. 22. Gold] yellow reddish Clouds by the Sun, before it rises, or after it sets in the Summer, and so northward ; whereas fair weather, which the Word has no Meaning of, is a blue Sky.

Ver. 23. but] This is parted from the preceding by the great Heb. Pause, and thus translated by others, as the Sense also requires.

Ib. would] as Lam. iii. 33. so Broughton has would.

Ver. 24. should fear] so Castal. metuant, Munst. timeant ; which both the foregoing and following Words confirm.

Ver. 2. Counsel] the Providence of God, which Job had represented more obscure than it is.

Ver. 5. because] as in Ver. 21. Chap. xxxix. 11.

Ver. 10. broke up] the Earth into a large deep Cavity, to hold the Sea.

Ib. Bars] the Sea-shoar, sing.

Ib. Doors] the Entrance of Rivers into the Sea.

Ver. 13. Wicked] whom the Day-light discovers and hinders, such as the noted Arabian Robbers of those Parts.

Ver. 14. It is turned] the Earth when the Morning-light shews it.

Ib. the Clay] on which the Shapes of Things appear ; so now on the Earth. Patr. the Wicked change Colour as Clay doth, &c. wildly.

Ib. the Things] which cover and adorn the Earth, this Verb being plural.

Sea, and walked about in the Search of the Gulf?

17. Have the Gates of Death been discovered to thee? and hast thou seen those of the Shadow of Death?

18. Hast thou perceived to the Wideness of the Earth? Declare, if thou knowest it all.

19. Where is the Avenue to the Habitation of Light? And as for Darkness, where is the Place of it?

20. That thou mayest take it to the Bounds of the same, and that thou mayest understand the Paths to its House.

21. Dost thou know, because thou wast then born, and thy Days are many in Number?

22. Hast thou come to the Treasures of the Snow, and seen the Treasures of the Hail?

23. Which I reserve to the Time of Distress, to the Day of Battle and War.

24. Where is the Way that the Light is parted, which disperses the East-wind upon the Earth?

25. Who divided the Conduit for the Flood, and a Way for the bright Cloud of the Thunder?

26. To make it rain upon the Earth where no Person is, the Wilderness in which there is not Mankind;

27. To satisfy what is in Wasting and Devastation, and to cause the Sprout of the Herb to spring forth?

28. Is there a Father to the Rain? or who begat the Drops of the Dew?

29. From whose Belly came forth the Ice? and as for the hoary Frost of the Heavens, who has begotten it?

30. The Water is hid as with a Stone, and the Surface of the Gulf takes hold of it self.

31. Dost thou bind the Delights of the seven Stars, or let loose the Drawings of Orion?

32. Dost thou bring forth the Planets in their respective Times, and guide Arcturus with his Sons?

33. Dost thou know the Ordinances of the Heavens? Dost thou put the Government of each on the Earth?

34. Dost thou raise up thy Voice to the thick Cloud, so that Abundance of Waters cover thee?

35. Dost thou send the Lightnings, so that they go; and say to thee, Here are we?

36. Who puts Wisdom in the inward Parts? or who gives Understanding to the Mind?

37. Who counts up the Clouds by Wisdom? and the Bottles of the Heavens who casts down;

38. When the Mould is become very firm, and the Clods are cleaved together?

39. Dost thou hunt the Prey for the stout Lion, and fill the Company of the young Lions;

40. When they crouch down in the Habitations, abide in the Den for lying in wait?

41. Who prepares for the Raven his Provision, when his young ones cry out to God, wandering without Food?

CHAP. XXXIX.

DOST thou know the Time for the wild Goats of the Rock to bear, observe each of the Hinds bringing forth?

2. Dost thou count up the Months they fulfil, that thou mayest know the Time for them to bear?

3. They bow themselves, bring forth their young ones, send out their Pangs.

4. Their Brood thrive, become big with Corn: they go out, and do not return to them.

Ver. 24. which disperses] the Particles of Light and Heat from the Morning-sun, dispersing the grosser cold Particles of the Air from the East. Patr. changes which into what, and the Sense with it?

Ver. 25. bright Cloud] See Chap. xxviii. 26.

Ver. 26. Wilderness] Of this Young in his Paraphrase, a Poem,

*Who in rough Deserts, far from Human Toil,
Make Rocks bring forth, and Desolation smile?
There blooms the Rose, where Human Face ne'er shone,
And spreads its Beauties to the Sun alone.*

Ver. 30. takes hold of it self] The Verb being to take hold, and in the Conjug. Hithpabel.

Ver. 31. seven Stars] with which the Sun is in the Spring, and whose Delights the Frost just mentioned does some times bind; as the other following Questions speaking of Things that are done by God, begin more properly with Dost than Canst.

Ib. Drawings] the Influences of his Season, as the Delights of the other; a Participle from the Verb draw.

Ver. 37. casts down] as the Verb signifies in this Conjug.

and is rendered 2 Sam. viii. 2. never signifying stay. So Jun. and Trem. præsternat, Broughton distill, Pagn. descendere faciet, will make descend.

Ver. 38. Mould is] God then pouring down Showers of Rain, as out of Bottles; being here shewing his Acts of Kindness, and of supplying the Want of Things, Ver. 39, 41. And dust does not grow into hardness in dry Weather, but on the contrary the hard Earth becomes Dust.

Ver. 39. and] This Grey would move to be his to Prey; of what Use but to shew his Skill in Criticism?

Ib. Company] Pagn. congregationem, Broughton herds, Jun. and Trem. catervam, the Gang, Munst. cætus, the Crew. It is rendered Company in the pres. Transf. Psa. lxxviii. 30. and troup, 2 Sam. xxiii. 11. nor does appear ever to denote appetite.

Ver. 41. without] which the other Places of this Word shew, n. Chap. xli. 33. Isa. v. 14.

Ver. 2. count up the Months] not merely the Number of them, for that Job might know, but from the Time of their respective Conception: which it is strange so

5. Who sends forth the wild As free? and the Bonds of the untamed As who lets loose?

6. Whose House I have made the Desert, and the salt Place his Dwellings.

7. He laughs at the Multitude of the City; does not hear the Clamours of the Exacter.

8. The Excellency of the Mountains is his Pasture, and he seeks after every green Thing.

9. Will the Unicorn be willing to serve thee? Will he lodge by thy Racks?

10. Wilt thou bind the Unicorn with his Cord on the Ridge? Will he harrow the Vales after thee?

11. Wilt thou trust him, because his Strength is great, and leave thy Labour to him?

12. Wilt thou believe that he will bring back thy Seed, and gather to thy Floor?

13. Are of thee the rejoicing Wings to the Peacock? Are the Pinions and Feathers to the Stork?

14. When she leaves her Eggs on the Earth, and makes them warm in the Dust;

15. And forgets that the Foot may crush each of them, or the wild Beast tread it to Pieces.

16. She is hardened to her Brood not to have them; her Labour is in vain without Dread:

17. Because God has made her unmindful of Wisdom, and has not distributed Understanding to her.

18. According to the Time she mounts up on high, she laughs at the Horse and his Rider.

19. Dost thou give Power to the Horse? Dost thou cloath his Neck with Thunder?

20. Wilt thou make him shake like a Locust? The Glory of his snorting is Terror.

21. They paw in the Vale, and he is joyful in Strength: he goes out to meet the Armed.

22. He laughs at Dread, and is not daunted: nor does he turn back for fear of the Sword;

23. The Quiver rattling against him, the flaming Spear, and the Lance.

24. He swallows down the Ground with Trembling and Commotion, and does not believe that it is the Sound of the Trumpet.

25. At the Trumpet he says, Ha; and smells the Battle far off, the Thunder of the Princes, and the Noise.

26. Does the Hawk fly by thy Understanding, spread forth his Wings to the South?

27. Does the Eagle soar aloft at thy Command, and that he may make his Nest on high?

28. At the Rock he dwells, and lodges himself; upon the Edge of the Rock, and the Fortification.

29. From thence he searches out Food; his Eyes behold far off.

30. Nay his young ones swallow up Blood; and where the Pierced are, there is he.

C H A P. XL.

THE Lord too answered Job thus,

2. Is it Instruction to contend with the Almighty? Let him who reproves God answer it.

3. And Job replying to the Lord, said;

4. Lo I am base; what Return shall I make to thee? I put my Hand on my Mouth.

5. I have spoken once, but will not answer; and twice, but will not proceed.

6. Again the Lord answered Job from the Tempest as follows:

7. Gird now thy Loins like a Man; I will ask thee, and do thou inform me.

8. Wilt thou even make void my Judgment; condemn me, that thou mayest be justified?

9. Besides hast thou an Arm like God, and canst thou thunder with a Sound like him?

10. Deck thy self now with Excellency and Loftiness, as also put on Majesty and Comeliness.

11. Disperse the Indignations of thy Anger; nay look at every proud one, and humble him.

12. Look at every proud one, bring him down; and crush the Wicked where they are.

many Commentators did not think of, and the Assembly of Divines borrow the General Note, viz. That it, how long they go with you.

Ver. 8. Excellency] This Noun not coming from תור as there are none of its Kind from that Sort of Verbs, but from תור like תור, תור, תור, תור and consequently signifies thus, like others from the same Root.

Ver. 12. bring back] from where it was sown.

Ver. 13. Stork] It seems agreed this is the Bird here mentioned, and our Translators have rendered the same Word so, Lev. xi. 19. Deut. xiv. 18. Psa. civ. 17. Jer. viii. 17. Zech. v. 9. that is every where else. Besides that faithful Relator, Sir John Narborough, in his Voyage to the Straights of Magellan tells us, Ostriches can't fly, Ver. 18. but their Wings are to help them run.

Ver. 14. When] as this Particle is turned, Chap. Vol. I.

xxxviii. 40. and so in the Vulg. Lat. quando, in the Tig. Vers. quum: being not the Heb. Relative, but a Conjunction.

Ver. 16. Her Labour] to have Young.

Ver. 21. They paw] his Feet, or the Horses, being plural.

Ver. 23. Lance] translated Spear, Ch. xli. 29. Jer. viii. 18, 26. Jer. vi. 23. and Lance, Jer. l. 42. the Sense of this Context too requiring it should be an offensive Weapon.

Ver. 24. swallows] by snorting with his Head at the Ground; not by galloping, as others.

Ib. Trembling] not fierceness, if rage.

Ver. 25. Ha] but one Word in the Heb.

Ver. 4. I put] being not the future Tense.

Ver. 5. twice] for a few times; not, as Patr. these two Words.

13. Hide them in the Mould together, bind their Faces in the hidden Place.

14. Then will I also confess to thee, that thy right Hand can save thee.

15. Behold now the Elephant which I made with thee, that eats Grass like an Ox.

16. Behold now his Might is in his Loins, and his Strength in the Navel of his Belly.

17. His Tail delights like a Cedar, the Sinews of his Stones are plaited together.

18. His Bones are the Strength of Brass, his Limbs like a Bar of Iron.

19. He is the chief of the Ways of God; who having made him, can bring his Sword nigh.

20. For the Mountains bear Increase for him, where all the wild Beasts play.

21. He lies down under the shady Trees, in the Covert of the Reed, and in the Mire.

22. The shady Trees cover him with their several Shadows, the Willows of the Flood compass him.

23. Lo he suppresses a River without hastening: he trusts that he can bring forth Jordan into his Mouth.

24. He takes it with his Eyes, the Nose pierces through Snares.

CHAP. XLI.

CANST thou draw out the Whale with a Hook, and his Tongue with a Line thou makest sink down?

Ver. 15. the Elephant] In Heb. it is as it were Beasts, denoting doubtless in the Manner of the Heb. Plurals, a very great Beast, and consequently the Elephant, as likewise Ver. 19. shews, and Fuller in Misc. Sacr. L. iv. 10. and thus Calmet, with the Generality of Interpreters. So koloth the plural of Sound is Thunder.

Ib. with thee] inter terrestria, ut tu es, among the living Creatures of the Earth, as thou art, Jun. and Trem. Annot.

Ver. 17. His Tail] to which there is not the accusative Article in Heb.

Ib. delights] what the Word signifies, not moveth.

Ver. 18. Limbs] not the same Word as before.

Ver. 19. his Sword] God can slay him; but Patrick expounds it of the Creature's crooked Teeth, to mow the Grass.

Ver. 20. Mountains] From hence it also appears a weak Interpretation, that this was the Hippopotamus, a Creature living mostly in the River Nile in Egypt, where too there are scarce any Mountains, and where Jordan is not, Ver. 23.

Ver. 23. suppresses] either by drinking so much of it, that it becomes rather a Brook than a River; or by lying down in it with his vast Bulk, which stops it for a while, as an Elephant might actually do in a narrow Place of many Rivers: this latter Sense Jun. and Trem. explain it in, which may seem the more full, proper and probable Meaning of the Word, as it has none of drinking up, and so here is neither Tautology nor Hyperbole. See Bp. Patrick's incoherent Interpretation of all this and the next Verse.

Ib. without hastening] does not do it for an Instant only, but some Time, though more Water keeps running down.

Ver. 24. Nose] the Elephant's Trunk, which notably

2. Wilt thou put a Rush into his Nose, and pierce through his Jaw with a Thorn?

3. Will he multiply Supplications to thee? Will he sooth thee with soft Things?

4. Will he make an Agreement with thee? Wilt thou take him for a Servant continually?

5. Wilt thou play with him as a Bird, and tie him for thy Girls?

6. Shall the Companions make a Feast upon him? Shall they part him in the midst between the Dealers?

7. Wilt thou fill his Skin with Grappling-hooks, and his Head with Fish-spears?

8. Put thy Hand upon him; remember the Combat, do not proceed.

9. Lo the Hope of him is false: will he also be cast down at the Sight of any one?

10. There is not a fierce one that will rouse him up: who is it then will stand before me?

11. Who would prevent me? and I will recompense; what is under the whole Heaven being mine.

12. I will not be silent with his Limbs, the Matter of Powers, and Grace of his Disposition.

13. Who shall discover the Outside of his Cloathing? With his double Bridle who shall come?

14. The Doors of his Face who shall open? His Teeth round about being terrible.

shews it to be that Creature: yet Poole supposing his Trunk would not be omitted, strangely expounds it to be signified by his Tail, Ver. 17. or Sword, Ver. 19.

Ver. 1. the Whale] as being the biggest of all Fishes, of which it may be plainly observed he speaks, Ver. 12, 13, 14, 18, 25, 31, 33, 34. as likewise in Psa. civ. 26. where this Word is used, and it shews he is in the Sea. The Supposition then of its being the Crocodile is weak, which Beza owns before Chap. xxxviii. has no Tongue, and is in a River, even though there were no Whales near Job's Country; since it was sufficient for him to have heard of them, which may well be thought such a great and knowing Man as he had done; but it is to be considered that the Lord, and not Job speaks it.

Ver. 2. Rush] to carry him on when taken, like a little Fish: the same that is so rendered, Isa. ix. 14. & xix. 15. and bulrush, Isa. lviii. 5. without any Meaning of hook.

Ver. 7. Grappling-hooks] to draw him to Land, Jun.

Ver. 8. Put] elegantly for Shouldst thou put.

Ver. 9. Hope of him] of taking him.

Ib. will be] the Heb. being destitute of not; and therefore Jun. and Trem. render, an etiam ad aspectum ipsius hominis deicietur? Will he also be cast down at the Sight of a Man himself?

Ver. 10. one] viz. singly by himself.

Ver. 11. would prevent me] by making any Opposition, as in the foregoing Verse; not by Offices or Kindnesses done for God, as Poole expounds, neither suitable to the Word nor preceding Words: and would is necessary, because none can prevent God, as it might also be a Re-proof to Job.

Ib. mine] denoting his great Power.

Ver. 13. discover] by bringing him out of the Water.

15. Excellent

15. Excellent is the Strength of the scaly Shields, each shut with a close Seal.

16. One to another they come so nigh, that the Wind does not enter between them.

17. They cleave to each other; take hold of, and do not separate, themselves.

18. With his Sneezings the Light shines; and his Eys are as the Eye-lids of the Morning.

19. Lamps go from his Mouth, Sparks of Fire escape.

20. Smoak goes out of his Nostrils, like a Pot that is blowed under, or a Caldron.

21. His Breath kindles Coals, and a Flame goes out of his Mouth.

22. Strength lodges in his Neck, and Sorrow triumphs before him.

23. The Muscles of his Flesh cleave together; are firm upon him, cannot be moved.

24. His Heart is firm like a Stone, nay firm as a Piece of the lower one of a Mill.

25. The Strong are afraid by reason of his Excellency, they purify themselves by reason of the Breakings.

26. The Sword that comes nigh him shall not rise up, the Spear, the Dart, or the Breast-plate.

27. He reckons Iron for Straw, Steel for rotten Wood.

28. The Offspring of the Bow does not make him flee: the Stones of the Sling are turned into Stubble to him.

29. Those of the Cross-bow are counted as Stubble; and he laughs at the Shaking of the Lance.

30. Sharp Shells are under him; he makes a Bed with broken Things upon the Dirt.

31. He causes the Deep to boil as a Pot, makes the Sea like Ointment.

32. He makes a Path light after him; the Gulf is reckoned to be grey.

33. There is none upon the Land comparable to him: he is made without Dread.

34. He can look on every one, he is a King above all the Lion's Breed.

C H A P. XLII.

AND Job replied thus to the Lord:

2. I know that thou art capable of every Thing, and no Device is kept back from thee.

3. Who is this that hides Counsel, without Knowledge? Therefore I declared, and did not understand, Things too wonderful for me, when I knew not.

4. Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak; I will ask of thee, and do thou inform me.

5. I have heard of thee with the Hearing of the Ear, but now my Eye sees thee.

6. For this Cause I disdain my self, and repent, in Dust and Ashes.

7. Now after the Lord had spoken these Words to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite; I am angry with thee, and with thy two Friends; because you did not speak what was right of me, like my Servant Job:

8. So take ye now seven Bullocks and seven Rams, and go to him, and offer up a Burnt-offering for your selves; and he shall pray for you: since I will accept him, without making it vile with you, because you did not speak what was right of me, like him.

9. And Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did as the Lord ordered them; upon which he accepted Job.

10. Besides the Lord turned back his Captivity when he prayed for his Friends; and the Lord added double to all that had been his.

Ver. 15. Strength] quite left out of the com. Pers. though this Heb. Word in the same Construction is there rendered strong pieces, Chap. xl. 18.

lb. Shields] which the Scales for Strength and Largeness were like.

Ver. 18. as the Eye-lids] Young in a Note to his Paraphrase on Job, supposes that this gives as great an Image of what it expresses, as can enter the Thought of Man; and Quarles expresses it,

*his moving Eye
Shines like the glory of the morning sky.*

Ver. 25. by reason of] which is in both Places of this Verse the same in Heb.

lb. Excellency] as the Word is translated, Chap. xlii. 11. Psa. lxii. 4. and Dignity, Gen. xlix. 3. Hab. i. 7. so Jun. and Trem. here excellencia, Broughton statuynesse.

lb. purify themselves] by Repentance, &c.

lb. the Breakings] of the Waves.

Ver. 26. not rise up] to strike him; Nothing about bold.

Ver. 29. Those of] Whence may appear the Reason that was unknown of the Verb being plural, mentioned by Clarke.

Ver. 30. Sharp Shells] In the vulg. Lat. how strange soever, The Beams of the Sun, and several of the Jews take it in like Manner, interpreting חרס heres by חרס heres; but the Word is in divers other Places for earthen Vessels or Potsherds, which Shells resemble.

lb. under him] without hurting him.

Ver. 31. Ointment] no Pot of it in L.D.

* Ver. 32. He makes a Path, &c.] like the Way of a Ship in the Night, which appears luminous merely from the Agitation of the Sea Water.

lb. grey] the Colour of the Froth.

Ver. 33. Land] Heb. Dust or Mould, not Earth otherwise.

Ver. 34. Lion] He being counted King of the Brutes. It is thus rendered Chap. xxviii. 8. in which two Places only the Word occurs. Castal. translates, omne genus ferarum, every kind of wild Beasts; Trem. and Jun. omnes feras, all the wild Beasts, Broughton all the wild kind. It would have been tiresome to remark how often, as here, the com. Eng. Transf. was made from the wretched old corrupt Lat. instead of the Heb. in this Book.

Ver. 3. Who is this] What am I, that I should do so? Chap. xxxviii. 2.

lb. when] the common Heb. Conjunction, not the Relative.

Ver. 10. double] For as to his Children, according to Basil. Hom. 23. the better Part of those deceased still survived, and so he had the double of them also.

11. For

11. For all his Brothers and Sisters, with all who knew his Face, came to him, and eat Victuals with him at his House: when bemoaning him, and comforting him, for all the Ill that the Lord had brought upon him; they gave him each a Lamb, and each an Ear-ring of Gold.

12. Thus the Lord blessed the End of Job more than his Beginning: so that he had fourteen thousand Sheep, six thousand Camels, a thousand Yoke of Oxen, and a thousand She-asses.

13. He had also seven Sons, and three Daughters.

14. And he named one Jemimah, as he did another Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch.

15. Nor were there found such fair Women in all the Country as the Daughters of Job; to whom their Father gave a Possession among their Brothers.

16. Moreover Job lived after this a hundred and forty Years, and saw his Sons, and Grandsons, four Generations.

17. At last Job died an old Man, and full of Days.

Ver. 11. for all] as for you, Ver. 8. and how much more proper than ever the Reader may observe.

Ib. Lamb] See Gen. xxxiii. 19. and as there is Nothing of Job's losing his Money, nor helping himself with it, it appears to be then, and there at least, not in use. It may be added that Beza has it (in the Eng. Trans.) some one of his cattell, which he expounds, either a Sheep, or an Ox, or a Camel.

Ver. 17. died] Sandys,

Then full of Days, and deathless Honour, gave His Soul to God, his Body to the Grave.

In the Saxon or very ancient English Book of Job, written not a thousand Years after Christ, it is said, On (in) callum his life he leofode (lived) twa hund yeara & eahta & feowertig (248) yeara, he was se fifta (the fifth, see Hickes's Sax. Gram. p. 42.) man after Abrahame tham beahfaderu (his forefather.)

NOTES upon the P S A L M S.

P S A L M I.

BLESSED is the Man, who neither goes in the Counsel of the Wicked, nor stands in the Way of Sinners, nor sits in the Seat of Scorners;

2. But his Delight is in the Law of the Lord, and in his Law he meditates Day and Night.

3. He is even like a Tree planted by the Brooks of Water, which yields its Fruit in its Season, and its Leaf does not wither; nay all that he does will prosper.

4. The Wicked are not so, but like Chaff which the Wind blows away.

5. Who therefore will not stand in Judgment, nor Sinners in the Assembly of the Righteous.

6. For the Lord is acquainted with the Way of the Righteous, whereas that of the Wicked will perish.

P S A L M II.

WH Y do the Gentiles croud together, the Nations study a vain Thing?

2. The Kings of the Earth set themselves up, and the Princes consult together, against both the Lord and his anointed One,

Tit. Psalms] The Psalms, says the late famous Isaac Newton, seem to have been collected by Ezra into one Volume; because I meet with Psalms as late as the Babylonian Captivity, but with none later, Observat. on Prophec. of Dan. Chap. 1. In the Pref. of the Psalter with Prayers to each Psalms, ascribed to the Ld. Hatton, the Author says, I began to believe there could come no Affliction great enough, to spend so great a Stock of Comfort as was laid up in the Treasure of the Psalter. This Psalms might probably be composed by Ezra himself, as a Sort of Preface or Introduction to the rest. The Beauties of it by Johnston in Lat. Hexameter and Pentameter Verse, see in the Prefatory Discourse to it, p. 44, 47, 49, 51, 52, 54. making some Allowance, as written to promote the Sale.

Ver. 1. In an Eng. Transf. of the Psalter from the Lat. (the first that seems known of any of the Scripture after the Saxon) by Richard Rolle, a Hermit of Hampole by Doncaster in Yorshire, who died in 1349, it is thus, Blessid is that man. the whiche ghede not in the counsel of wiked, and the wey of synful stood not, and in the chayer of pestilence satte not; and by John Wiclif, who translated the whole Bible out of Lat. and died 1384, Blessid is the man that ghede not in the counsel of wikkide men, and stood not in the weye of synners, and satte not in the chair of pestilence, Lewis Hist. of Eng. Translations.

lb. Counsel] Old Metre, rede, so signifying formerly, as also Psa. cxix. 45.

Ver. 2. meditates] occupieth himselfe, in a Translation of the Psalms and Calvin's Commentaries on them (which I have perused) published by Arthur Golding, Gent. of Essex, 1571, a Classic Translator in that Time.

Ver. 3. its Fruit] The Gen. have ber, to distinguish perhaps from the Man's.

lb. all that] The Transf. in the Com. Prayer has lask added in before, being an old vulgar Expletive. The Author of Holy David and his old English Translators clear'd, pr. 1706, which appears to be done by no mean Hand, pleads for the Use of it now, because used by the Martyrs in Q. Mary's Days, and which, adds he, we shall not willingly part with for the sake of a Hebrew Criticism, Pref. This is such an Instance of setting any Translation above the Original, as I never met with from a Protestant before. Why were the Geneva, the Bishops and the King's Translations made after, if that was so sacred? Why was not the Preference given to the Words of David, Christ, &c. in the Heb. and Gr. if People are to use Words they do not understand? And if that Version should be retained for that Reason, why not the rest of it beside the Psalms? And he allows it seems to follow the Gr. (instead of the Heb.) in above sixty Places, Defence, p. 4. and after says, I do not much question, but our last Translation agrees with the Greek in as many Texts, excepting the Supplements, p. 33.

lb. he does] viz. the Man; not the Tree, as our last Translators by removing the chief Division of the Verse from wither to season, and using his for the Tree, make it look.

Ver. 4. away] The Psalter, following the Gr. or vulg. Lat. subjoins from the Face of the Earth; but to what Advantage?

Tit. Psa. 2.] made by David from divine Inspiration, Acts iv. 25. and was anciently the 2d, Acts xiii. 33. For the Time and Occasion of it as to David himself (though he was confessedly inspired, yet perhaps in the Manner the Apostle mentions, 1 Pet. i. 11. to write it with a spiritual Relation to Christ, which signifies Anointed, as in Ver. 2.) I refer the Reader to 1 Chron. xiv. 2, 8, 17. to see it was not prophetically made upon Jeroboam's Revolt, as Lightfoot says it was.

Ver. 1. This Verse is rendered by Rich. Rolle aforesaid, Wbi gnastide the folke? and the puple thoughte ydil thoughtis? But in another Copy, Why gnastes the gens, and the puple thoughte ydil thingis? And by Wiclif, Wbi gnastiden with teoth beþene men, and peplis thoughten veyn thingis?

lb. croud together] Since this Word is no where beside in Heb. it looks as if it was made from Chaldee, and so much the more because the Word of that Language is used for Sen, Ver. 12. besides that it was suitable to mock them with a Term of their own; the Verb then occurs in Chaldee, where it bears this Meaning, Dan. vi. 6, 11, 15. as well as in the Targum here, and also with Sol. Jar. Ab. Ezra and Jerome: if it be thought however Heb. because there are two Nouns belonging to it found once each, viz. in Psa. lv. 14. & lxiv. 2. yet the Signification concurrent with them will be the same. In Coverdale's Bible 1535. the first in Eng. it is grudge, and in Matthew's 1537. frowne, supposed to be altered by John Rogers, that noble Protomartyr in Q. Mary's Reign.

Ver. 2. anointed One] for which the vulg. Lat. Transf. has Christ; and so the old Saxon being put into our modern Letters, reads, to geanes drihten (perhaps for th'right one, th being formerly in several Words pronounced like d, as in murder, &c.) and to geanes Criste

3. Let us pull off their Bonds, and throw their Cords from us.

4. He who dwells in Heaven smiles, the Lord derides them.

5. Then he says to them in his Anger, troubling them in his Fury,

6. But I have anointed my King upon Zion, my holy Mountain.

7. I will tell of the Decree: the Lord said to me; Thou art my Son, to Day have I begotten thee.

8. Ask of me, and I will give the Gentiles for thy Possession, and the Limits of the Earth for thy Inheritance.

9. Thou shalt break them in pieces with an iron Rod, shalt scatter them about as a Potter's Vessel.

10. Now therefore, O Kings, understand; be instructed, you Judges of the Earth.

11. Serve the Lord with Fear, and rejoice with Trembling.

12. Kiss the Son, lest he should be angry, and you lose the Way, though his Anger be kindled but a little; in whom all that trust are blessed.

PSALM III.

A PSALM of David, when he fled from the Presence of his Son Absalom.

O Lord, how my Adversaries are multiplied! many rise up against me.

2. Many say of my Life, There is no Safety at all for it through God. A Pause.

3. But thou, O Lord, art a Shield for me, my Glory, and he who lifts up my Head.

his. The Point, not a Period, sufficiently indicates saying, which our Translators have not added before Ver. 6. Psa. xxx. 8. & l. 4. & l. iii. 6. nor put a proper Point. Hammond's Opinion is strange, that David and his People said the next Verse.

Ver. 3. Cords] the same with the Bonds, as the Progression of the Verbs implies, and more elegant than to have said them; yet the LXX have put Yoke in their room, as the Word denotes thick.

Ver. 4. smiles] which to my View is more reverent than laughing, nay the latter irreverent.

Ver. 6. have anointed my King] or poured out on, not set. Septuagint, am made King by him: this being the 2d of near 260 Verses which the Author of Holy David and his old Eng. Translators clear'd has collected together, that differ in the Com. Prayer from the Gr. by following the Heb. but some ill translated; and if to the Number were added the many more, wherein the Com. Prayer Transf. varies with the Gr. from the Heb. as also the supernumerary Instances elsewhere, and those of above one in a Verse here; how lax and libertine a Version must that of the LXX appear? And who in his Wits can ever think the Heb. was just as they have translated?

Ver. 7. I will, &c.] The Author of A New Version of the Psalms, printed in 1744, says in his Notes, These cannot be the Words of David, for he is spoken of throughout this Psalm as a third Person (which is only said, not proved) but probably of Nathan who composed this Psalm, and directed to David, which makes him the second Person here. Now by the Text Thou art my Son was said to the Son himself, viz. David, and according to the Notion of this Interpreter should be Thou art his Son, &c. or He is my Son, &c.

Ib. of] or concerning; in the Chald. God's, and Gr. the Lord's, the Difference of the former being but short and long, only it stands in the wrong Place, and therefore cannot be so: this I see is rendered in the Liturgy whereof, but wrong, and to another Thing.

Ver. 9. break—in pieces] Sept. manage, from מנע instead of פך with other Vowels.

Ver. 11. rejoice] The Verf. of the Septuag. (which the Vulg. Lat. follows closely as a literal Translation of it, in this Book, which it does not in others) has to him, that might be made, though carelessly, from the last Letters of rejoice.

Ver. 12. Kiss the Son] for which the LXX have, Take hold of Discipline: the latter Word being only thrice more in the Heb. for Son, viz. in Prov. xxxi. 2. and usually denoting Corn, which the Jews understood metaphorically of Discipline, as Buxt. shews from their Talmud, in his Vindication of the Truth of the Hebrew against Capellus, p. 673. and as kissing would not suit with it in either Sense; those Translators might probably take in the Termination of the Verb as if it had been gu, which small Difference will account for their so rendering.

Ib. lose the Way] For perish from it has an obscure Meaning, or none; and perish in it, as divers take it, by adding in, an uncertain one, whether in the Son's Way or their own: but this is proper as it stands in the Original; and whether the Son be considered as David or Christ, denoting both, it may signify the Way to please him or have his Favour, which they might miss of, unless they did him homage by kissing. The Com. Prayer Transf. has right added to way, from the Gr. and Lat. righteous.

Ib. but a little] Gen. suddenly, as if in a little while, but that is overstretched.

Ver. 1. A Psalm] This Title, as several more, makes a Verse in Heb. and some Titles are Part of the first Verse; to reconcile which in the best Manner I could to our Eng. Bible, that the Verses may agree together, I make the 1st Verse begin with the Title, like the Heb. and end as the English.

Ver. 2. Life] of which it is plain he speaks, and this Word also signifies; see 2 Sam. xvii. 2, 16.

Ib. Safety at all] the augmenting of the Word, by a double Sign of the Gender, denoting an Increase of its Signification: therefore Jun. and Trem. render, non est ulla salus, there is not any Safety.

Ib. through] to make it intelligible, and to convey some Idea to the Understanding, which I apprehend in does not, and this was the properest I could think of; see the like often in this Book. It is the same that I render so Psa. vi. 7. where it cannot signify in, as in many other Places.

Ib. God] with his by the LXX, for which some Scribe might write אשר for him twice, and then the last of them be thought wrong for אשר his, to which it was accordingly altered.

Ib. A Pause] Selah has been thought to come either from salal, to cast up, or exalt, and so to denote the raising up of the Voice there; or from salab, to tread down, and so to signify a Pause: the latter Meaning seems likely, the former not, by Meditation being joined with it. Psa. ix. 16, and the more so, as it may come from shalab, to be still, or quiet; D and W being divers times put one for the other, and sometimes D and W see Bux. Lex. Heb. &c. in DWS and Lex. Chald. &c. after Epist. Ded. As to Selah being at the End of the Psalm, it might be for a Pause before another began, and that either for Reflection, or the Advantage of the Sound; but I think Musick does not end with a high Note.

Ver. 3. Glory] In the Psalms of the Liturgy it is worship, as there is in the pres. Transf. Luk. xiv. 10. which Psalms were taken from The Great Bible, pr. 1539, but

4. I call to the Lord with my Voice, and he answers me from his holy Mountain. A Pause.

5. I lie down, and sleep, I awake : for the Lord upholds me.

6. I will not be afraid of ten thousand People, who beset me round about.

7. Arise, O Lord, save me, my God : for thou striketh all my Enemies on the Cheek, thou breakest the Teeth of the Wicked.

8. Salvation is of the Lord : thy Blessing is upon thy People. A Pause.

P S A L M IV.

FOR the chief Musician on the Instruments that are stricken. A Psalm of David.

unknown by whom translated, though probably not by Tyndal, see Lewis Hist. p. 224, 225, 227, 107.

Ver. 4. answers] So this Verb properly signifies; remotely or scarcely to hear, as it is frequently turned by our Translators in this Book; and is here as elsewhere improper, since God must hear David, but might not answer him: Ainſw. has answered, and so Jan. respondit, Lee Jud. respondebit, will answer.

Ver. 7. the Cheek] but the Septuag. have it without cause; taking, I fancy, for a prefixed Pronoun, which it often is, and construing thus, all that hate me (as their Version goes) for living, what the mere Letters might bear, and then concluding that was vainly or without cause; unless as Hesychius supposes μάχης is to be read for μαχίας, Bythner's being wider.

Ver. 1. For the chief Musician] to be set to Musick by him, and played on the following Instruments. The Septuag. and Vulgate have it, To the End, whether further from Truth or Sense I shall not determine; but the Doway College, not pretending the first, attempt at the latter, that the matter perteineth to future times or persons, Annot. So whether or not drawn from נצח for want of knowing נצח or נצח may pass for Nothing, or no Sense but what is forced upon it, as might upon almost any Thing.

lb. the Instruments that are stricken] rendered stringed Instruments, Iſa. xxxviii. 20. Hab. iii. 19. and comes from the Verb to strike or play on a musical Instrument, contradiſtinguiſhed from such as are blown, Pſa. v. 1. Jan. and Trem. render it fidum, of the stringed instruments; Caſtal. ſidibus, to the stringed instruments; in the Tig. Verſ. it is in general ad instrumenta muſica; Ainſw. expounds it Instruments of Muſicke played on with the Hand; Gratius pulſu ſonant, those that sound by striking: so that our Translators need not have left it untranslated, for want of a Meaning to it. Beza at the End of the Table to his Paraphraſe ſays, Musical Instruments were agreeable to that ceremonial Time. but now all Ceremonies being ceaſed, we muſt worſhip in Spirit and Truth; and Calvin in Com. Paul ſuffereth not Men to praise God but with a known Tongue. Certainly the Voice of Man, although it be not understood, far excelleth dead Instruments, which only feed the Ears with a vain Sound.

lb. A Psalm of David] as appears, eſpecially by Ver. 2, 7. while he was persecuted by his Enemies in Saul's Reign.

lb. Answer] the ſame Verb as in Pſa. iii. 4. but different from that in Ver. 3. which properly ſignifies bear. Sept. God heard, as otherwiſe pointed.

lb. O God of my Rightcouſneſs] for which Buchanan begins with from Virgil,

O Pater, o hominum divumque æterna potestas:
O Father, and everlaſting Power of Men and Gods; of which his DetraCTOR in the Preſat. Diſc. to Jonſon's

Answer me when I call, O God of my Rightcouſneſs, who enlargeſt me being in Diſtreſs: be gracious to me, and hear my Prayer.

2. O Sons of Men, how long ſhall my Glory become Shame; you loving Vanity; ſeeking for Lyes? A Pause.

3 But know that the Lord has ſeparated the pious one for himſelf: the Lord will hear when I call to him.

4. Tremble, and do not ſin: ſpeak in your own Heart upon your Bed, and be ſtill. A Pause.

5. Offer the Sacrifices of Rightcouſneſs, and truſt on the Lord.

6. Many ſaying, Who will ſhew us that which is good? Lift up the Light of thy Countenance, O Lord, upon us.

Verſ. exclaims, Is not this ſhocking in this Place? For what Relation has it to what follows?

Sincera mihi conſciæ mentis:
who knoweſt my ſincere Mind. Sufficient Relation! and both together concurrent with that of the Original, eſpecially as God in Heb. ſignifies Powerful Being. But our Critick not content with the foregoing, placed the former Line between two other of Buchanan's, the worſt he falſely pretends that ever were written, as if they ſtood together, when they are ſome Pſalms apart. How heinous ſuch Abufe! ſee his p. 20. But at the Concluſion, after labouring hard to debase him as a moſt wretched Poet, he confeſſes, that many of Buchanan's Poems are adorned with all the Graces of Language, Numbers, and Harmony; with more to the ſame Purpoſe, Supplm. p. 42. and who but from thence will conclude that his Pſalms are the ſame, who ſuffered for his Religion a Year and half in the Inquiſition?

lb. be gracious] So I chooſe to render it in its moſt proper Meaning, rather than have mercy, when I do not find it denote forgiving ſin.

Ver. 2. ſhall my Glory become Shame] for which the LXX will you be dull-hearted? Why, as if לכלות had been לחם and לחם also לחם the Adjec. or לחם the Part. not לחם as with Byth.

lb. Lyes] See 1 Sam. xxiv. 9. ſo the Gen. poorly reſined by leaſing.

Ver. 3. Where Calvin's Commentary, Let this be taken for a Maxim, that thoſe ſhall never be deſtitute of God's Help, who proceed ſincerely in their Race.

lb. ſeparated] Sept. made wonderful, reckoning π as π.

Ver. 4. Tremble] or be moved, whence the LXX's be angry; not ſignifying ſtand in awe.

lb. Heart] It is ſaid Pythagoras uſed to exhort his Scholars to aſk themſelves when they came home, as Diog. Laertius writes in his Life, or before they went to ſleep, as it is in Pythagoras's Golden Verſes, Πῶς ἠγασάμην; τί ἔποιον; τί ποῦ δύνωμι ἐν τρεῖς ἡμέρας; Where have I been? What have I done? What ſhould I have done which I did not?

lb. and be ſtill] With the LXX is, what you ſp. a: in your Hearts upon your Beds have remorse for: but not even Bythner attempts at more than the eaſy Part, to tell how they ſtumbled ſo, which he has done wrogi, as לחם is they ſpeak, not you, ſo that they changed the Mood arbitrarily, and not by reading otherwiſe. As to the laſt Word it appears to me that לחם was taken as לחם and the latter for the Imper. in Niphal; being its Characteriſtick (though it ſhould be לחם) in which is ſignified cut off.

Ver. 5. the Sacrifices of Rightcouſneſs] a broken Heart, as in Pſa. li. according to the Jewiſh Rabbi Obadiab Gaon; but according to Sol. Jar. the Fruits of good Works.

Ver. 6. Lift up] Sept. is ſigned; as it is ſpelled with π inſtead of π or π has the Signification of π neither of which they being aware of, appear to have deduced it from π taking Light also for feminine.

7. Thou

7. Thou puttest Gladness into my Heart, more than at the Time their Corn and Wine are much.

8. I lie down, and sleep together in Peace: for thou, O Lord alone, makest me dwell securely.

PSALM V.

FOR the chief Musician of the Instruments that are blown. A Psalm of David.

Give ear to my Words, O Lord, consider my Meditation.

2. Harken to the Expression of my Cry, my King and God; for to thee will I pray.

3. O Lord, in the Morning shalt thou hear my Voice: in the Morning I will put myself in order for thee, and watch.

4. For thou art not a God who is pleased with Wickedness, Evil shall not lodge with thee.

5. The mad ones shall not set themselves up before thy Eyes: thou hatest all that work Iniquity.

6. Thou wilt make those perish who tell Lies: the Lord abhors the bloody and deceitful Man.

7. As for me, I will come to thy House in the Abundance of thy Kindness: I will bow down in thy Fear at thy holy Temple.

8. Lead me, O Lord, in thy Righteousness, by reason of those that observe me: make thy Way straight before me.

9. For there is Nothing right in the Mouth of such a one, their inward Part is Frowardness, their Throat an open Grave: they flatter with their Tongue.

10. Condemn them, O God, let them fall by their own Counsels; drive them away in the Multitude of their Crimes: for they rebel against thee.

11. But let all who trust in thee be glad, let them sing continually; since thou protectest them: and let such as love thy Name triumph through thee.

12. For thou dost bless the Righteous, O Lord: thou compassed him about with Favour, as a Shield.

Ver. 7. This Verse out of Beza's Psalms in Paraphrasis is agreeably thus, For far greater is this inward Joy which thou givest unto me, than is theirs, when their Vintage and Harvest are most plentiful. Eng. Edit. 1581.

Ib. more than at the Time] In the Liturgy, since the time, by taking an unsuitable Sense of the Preposition. Sept. from or by the Fruit of, but naqnu may have been naqnu.

Ib. Wine] Litur. also and oyle from the Gr. and Lat.

Ver. 8. Like Psa. iii. 5.

Ver. 1. of the Instruments that are blown] Jun. and Trem. ad pneumatica, instrumenta, to the wind instruments; and Ains. writes, "These (by the Name) seem to be wind instruments, as flutes, trumpets, cornets. For 'Chalil is a Pipe, Isa. v. 12.' he might have added, and xxx. 29. and plur. 1 King. i. 40. Jer. xlviii. 36. both from a Verb signifying to play on an instrument, Psa. lxxxvii. 7. 1 King. i. 40. if this Word does not take its Meaning from nabal, a Flood, the Sound of which that of those hollow Instruments resembled; or according to Grot. the Humming of Bees.

Ver. 2. Harken to the Expression of my Cry] by Buchanan,

*Adspice attentus, mihi quanta tendat
Vox latus:*

Behold attentive, how great a Cry extends my Side, by straining in crying; which the Commander of Jonston instead of him, says he should never have comprehended, had not a learned Commentator explained it, meaning that chief of all Latin Grammarians Ruddiman.

Ver. 3. put my self in order for thee] so Leo Jud. adcommodo me tibi, and Cocceius (who made a close literal Version of the Psalms) dispono me tibi; and the Heb. does not at all signify to direct unto any Thing.

Ib. watch] which is the Meaning of the Heb. Word, as Mudge renders it, the Gen. wait: not look up.

Ver. 5. mad ones] which the Heb. Word signifies, not foolish; and so rendered by several in Lat. insani; and explained in the ancient Heb. Midrash Tillin, to be those whose Heart is full of Madness, Eccles. ix. 3.

Ib. thou hatest all that work Iniquity] Saxon, thou hatest alle that the wircath unrightwisnesse; Liturg. vannitie.

Ver. 6. deceitful Man] Saul, 1 Sam. xxiii. 9. whither this Psalm may be referred.

Ver. 7. come to] the common People being not admitted in.

Ib. at] House and Temple being the same, viz. the Tabernacle; but how could he worship toward that which he was in, as our Translators turned it?

Ver. 9. right] being rendered by Jun. and Trem. Pagn. Munst. rectum, in the Tig. Bib. nihil recti, nothing right.

Ib. Frowardness] In the Gr. vair; by some Conceit from its Root to be, or imagining וירא should be as וירא would from וירא it and וירא often changing for one another.

Ib. flatter] Diogenes, to one that asked him what Beast would bite worst? Said, Of wild Beasts a Slanderer, and of tame ones a Flatterer, Diog. Laert.

Ver. 10. Condemn] So the Chald. כח Jun. and Trem. reos fac istos, the Tig. Transf. perage eos reos, both make them guilty; Ains. Condemne thou them as guilty; Dupont, condemna; the LXX, judge.

Ver. 11. protectest them] Sept. shall dwell among them, either by a forced Meaning, or rather from shachan instead of sachach, ש and ש being commutable. By Bythn from soch, a Tabernacle; but that is not called so for dwelling, but for its Covering.

Ib. through] as necessary, in order to be understood, and give a clear Idea; and so translated Psa. ix. 12. & xcii. 4. & cviii. 13. & xxi. 7. & xliv. 5. which Noldius expounds by the Help of: so often with by, and so Luk. x. 17. Eph. ii. 7, 22. Rom. vi. 23.

P S A L M VI.

P S A L M VII.

FOR the chief Musician on the Instruments that are stricken upon the Eighth. A Psalm of David.

O Lord, do not rebuke me in thy Anger, nor correct me in thy Wrath.

2. Be gracious to me, O Lord; for I am languishing: heal me, O Lord; for my Bones are disturbed.

3. Nay my Soul is disturbed exceedingly; but thou, O Lord, how long?

4. Return, O Lord, deliver my Soul: save me for the sake of thy Kindness.

5. For there is no Remembrance of thee in Death: who can praise thee in the Grave?

6. I am wearied with my fighting; I make my Bed wet every Night, I soak my Couch with my Tears.

7. My Eye is wasted by Displeasure, it is decayed through all my Adversaries.

8. Depart from me, all ye Workers of Iniquity: for the Lord hears the Voice of my weeping;

9. The Lord hears my Supplication; the Lord will receive my Prayer.

10. Let all my Enemies be ashamed, and troubled exceedingly: let them turn back, be ashamed in an Instant.

A Variable Poem of David; which he sung to the Lord upon the Words of Cush the Benjaminite.

O Lord my God, in whom I trust, save me from all my Pursuers, and deliver me:

2. Lest he should tear my Soul as a Lion, rending asunder, and none deliver.

3. O Lord my God, if I did this; if there was Iniquity in my Hands;

4. If I recompensed Harm to him that was at Peace with me (whereas I delivered him who was my Adversary without cause;)

5. Let the Enemy not only pursue my Soul, but overtake, nay tread down my Life to the Earth, and make my Honour remain in the Dust. A Pause.

6. Arise, O Lord, in thy Anger, get up against the Fury of my Adversaries; and awake for me, with the Judgment thou hast commanded.

7. Thus will the Assembly of the People come round about thee; and for that return thou on high.

8. Let the Lord give Sentence to the Folk; judge me, O Lord, according to my Righteousness, and my Integrity in me.

9. Let the Harm of the Wicked cease, I

Ver. 1. Beza upon the penitentiall Psalmes, has at this Verse, with extravagant Wit, as a Prayer for his Readers, Behold him that is less than nothing, unless the greatest ill be something.

Ib. Eighth] String, which probably was not used in common Musick.

Ib. A Psalm of David] at the Time of some Sickness, among his other Troubles, when his Enemies were seeking to catch him for Saul.

Ver. 3. how long] In the Litur. there is annexed wilt thou punish me, and in the Geneva Transf. wilt thou delay, without any Thing for it so much as in the Gr. or vulg. Lat.

Ver. 5. By Buchanan, who turned the Psalm into fine Latin Verse, Ubi Java duram mors manum inject semel.

Quis amplius meminit tui?

Quis mortis alta subrotus caligine that is literally, Where cruel Death once lays on his Hand, who remembers thee any more? Who that is overwhelmed in the deep Darkness of Death will celebrate thy Name?

Nomen celebrabit tuum?

Ver. 6. wet] so Munst. humido: for swim was impossible, and all the night too; and for water it might as well be said melt, if Words were to be taken only in their primary Signification.

Ver. 7. Eye] Wondering at beautie, which the Lit. has, I found Eys was taken for Look or Appearance (in Mat. Bib. countenance) and that for beautie.

Ver. 10. turn back] from pursuing me.

Ver. 1. A variable Poem] in the Tune of it; since the Matter continues, and seems uniform in the Psalm; it being from a Root that signifies to wander: so Jun. and Trem. render it Ode varia.

Ib. Cush] who might be one of those David complained of, 1 Sam. xxiv. 9. and was of Saul's Tribe.

Ver. 2. he] Saul.

Ib. rending asunder] The late Writer of Critical Notes on some Passages would have this be redeem, like the same

Verb in Psa. cxxxvi. 24. Lam. v. 8. but there only, and that from the Chald. Signification, both with from after; which Psalm, if not written after the Captivity, as Lamentations, is a Psalm of Praise, and so might be indited more learnedly than this mournful Supplication. However would this make better Sense? No, none at all; and it is further required for the Heb. Copy to have וְנָתַתְּ and none, more than it has: such Demands, if granted, we might soon find to increase upon us, and the Bible to become a most uncertain Book. This Author is peculiar in finding fault with our following the Chaldee; when it is the Chald. Transf. and ours follow the Heb. Original together.

Ver. 3. this] which Cush accused him of.

Ver. 4. delivered him] Saul, as 1 Sam. xxiv. 4, 6, 7. but the Author of Holy David clear'd expounds it in a contrary as well as wrong Sense by betrayed, as though it belonged to if, when there is I before have. The LXX render, let me indeed fall from my Enemies empty; how, but by the Top of וְ being off, and so the Verb thought to be וְנָתַתְּ omitted by Byth. as too difficult.

Ib. him] Jonston in his famed Latin Verse, into which he turned the Psalm, instead of the first him has socios, Companions, and for the latter gens, nation; when Nim both times evidently means but one, and that the same Person, viz. Saul, against whom David was falsely accused of doing this mentioned Ver. 3.

Ver. 6. against] So the Geneva Bib. and Ant. Hulse in Annot. translates in exandescencias, as being more proper to the Heb. than because of, which would rather be so The LXX put it in the Borders, imagined from the Verb passi.

Ver. 7. for that] Matter or Assembly, the Pronoun being sing. Castal. says eam ob causam, for that cause; Leo Jud. hujus rei gratia, for the sake of this thing.

Ib. return thou on high] ascend the Throne to judge, Jun. and Trem.

Ver. 8. according] desiring his Enemies might be judged by that, as well as himself; according to the Heb. Pointing, and Ver. 6, 19. &c.

beseech thee, but do thou establish the Righteous; since the righteous God searches the Hearts and Reins.

10. My Shield is of God, who saves those of an upright Heart.

11. God judging the Righteous, is himself highly displeased every Day.

12. Who, if he does not return, will sharpen his Sword, bend his Bow, and take aim on it;

13. Even at him, with Weapons of Death; will make his Arrows for the Persecutors.

14. Behold he breeds Vanity, conceives Trouble, and brings forth Falsehood.

15. He digs a Pit, and when he has done it, will fall into the Ditch he makes.

16. His Labour will return on his own Head, and his Violence come down upon his Crown.

17. I will praise the Lord according to his Righteousness, and sing melodiously to the Name of the Supreme Being.

P S A L M VIII.

FOR the chief Musician upon the Instrument Gittith. A Psalm of David.

Ver. 11.] In the Liturgy strong and patient is from the Vulg. or Gr. but they have the former in the room of God or himself, so that there is farther Addition in the Litur.

Ib. himself] For this the Sept. have אני not, supposing אני to be אני

Ib. every Day] There is an Eng. Translation of this Book (and in my Possession) ascribed to the Earl of Dartford (whose I may hereafter call it) then with K. James II. in France after his Abdication, that was printed there in 1700; though Lewis after his great Searches, confesses in his Complete Hist. of Eng. Translations, p. 357. he could never hear of it but in Le Long's Biblioth. Sacra: which Transf. is a great Amendment, as to the English and better understanding, of the Deuoy or Vulg. Version; and here it has, will his Anger always continue? for the other's, is he angry every day? notwithstanding the Note there gave it another Turn, viz. God doth not punish all sinners presently, but often differeth.

Ver. 12. Who] which it is necessarily rendered, both to shew this was God, and to distinguish it from he.

Ib. he] Cush, of whom the Psalm is made. The LXX have it in the 2d pers. plur. you, not because they read so, as the Cant is, viz. תשוב for שוב but because they wrote so, i. e. so loosely.

Ver. 13. make] never ordaineth.

Ver. 14. by Doct. Arthur Jonston,

Parturit hæc noxam; sterili sed credidit arvo

Semina, nec præter somnia vana metet:

that is, This (turba, Multitude) is delivered (as a Woman) of Mischiefs; but trusts the Seed or Grain to a barren Field, nor reaps other than vain Dreams; where he not only changes the Scripture Allegory, but absurdly his own.

Ib. breeds] to travail (old English) being the same as to bring forth, and the Heb. Verbs are different. Besides if he had brought forth, how did he now travail, as in the com. Bible?

Ib. Vanity] the same that is so translated Jeb. xv. 35.

Ver. 15. will fall] agreeable to the following.

O Lord our Sovereign, how noble is thy Name on the whole Earth! who puttest thy Majesty above the Heaven.

2. Thou layest the Foundation of Strength by the Mouth of Infants and sucking Babies, by reason of thy Adversaries; to make the Enemy and Revenger quiet.

3. When I see thy Heaven, the Work of thy Fingers, the Moon and Stars which thou hast set in order;

4. What is Man, that thou shouldest remember him? and the Son of Man, that thou shouldest visit him?

5. Yet thou hast made him wanting but a little of the Angels, and crownest him with Glory and Honour.

6. Thou makest him rule over the Works of thy Hands, putting all under his Feet;

7. Flocks and Herds of all Sorts, as likewise the wild Beasts,

8. The Fowls of the Air, and the Fish of the Sea, that pass along its Paths.

9. O Lord our Sovereign, how noble is thy Name on the whole Earth!

P S A L M IX.

FOR the chief Musician, upon the Death of Goliath. A Psalm of David.

Ver. 1. the Instrument Gittith] The rest being also musical Instruments, and Fun. and Trem. render this Gittith instrumenta; such as might have been used with Obed-edom the Gittite, where the Ark was, 2 Sam. vi. 11. (see also 1 Chr. xv. 21, 25, 28. & xvi. 38. but the Targum has it, the Harp which he brought from Gath. So that this Psalm was probably made afterwards in David's Prosperity, as the Matter of it likewise shews.

Ib. noble] or magnificent; Sept. wonderful, beyond the Meaning of the Word.

Ver. 2. layest the Foundation] as might well be, and the Verb signifies, not to ordain: and is very different from that turned so in the next Verse, as both are from that in Psa. vii. 13. nay those in Psa. lxxxix. 5. & cxxxii. 17. which are thus rendered in the com. Transf. differ from all these, and from one another; so fond were our Translators of this Word.

Ib. Strength] Sept. a Vindication, which and how shewn see on Mat. xxi. 15.

Ver. 3. I see thy Heaven] When Anaxagoras, who was a great Contemplator of the Heavens, was blamed by one for not minding his Country, he pointing towards Heaven, said, Ἐνὶ γὰρ καὶ σφόδρα μέγα τῆς πατρίδος, but I do mind it very much, Diog. Laert. in Vita.

Ver. 1. upon the Death of Goliath] Lightfoot turns it, upon the Death of the Champion, Vol. I. p. 55. suitable to the com. Transf. 1 Sam. xvii. 4. the Targum has it, על מיתותא דגברא די נפק מביני משריתא upon the Death of the Man who came out between the Armies, as rendered in 1 Sam. xvii. muth being Death, and labben, of him between, according to the Term he is mentioned by there. Fun. and Trem. also have it of his Death; with which the Matter of the Psalm seems to agree: and though Psalm objects, from Ver. 14. that Zion was then, and long after, in the Hands of the Jebusites; the Answer is ready, that this might be composed long after Goliath's Death, and yet concerning it. Have not Poems been made on Things which were longer before?

I will praise the Lord with my whole Heart; will tell all thy wonderful Things.

2. I will be glad, and triumph through thee; will sing melodiously to thy Name, O Supreme One:

3. For the returning back of my Enemies; who fall, and perish by thy Presence.

4. For thou hast performed my Judgment, and Cause; didst sit on the Throne judging righteously:

5. Thou hast rebuked the Gentiles, hast made the wicked one perish, blotted out their Name for ever and evermore.

6. The Wastings are finished perpetually, O Enemy, that hast quite destroyed Cities, whose Remembrance is perished with them.

7. But the Lord abides for ever, who prepares his Throne for Judgment.

8. And he will judge the World with Righteousness, will give Sentence to the People with Uprightness.

9. The Lord is also a high Place for the oppressed, a high Place at Times of Distress.

10. So they who know thy Name, will trust in thee: for thou dost not forsake those, O Lord, that seek thee.

11. Sing melodiously to the Lord who dwells in Zion, declare his Deeds among the People.

12. For he who requires Blood remembers them, does not forget the Cry of the Afflicted.

13. Be gracious to me, O Lord, see the Affliction I have from such as hate me, who art my Lifter up from the Gates of Death.

14. That I may tell all thy Praise at the Gates of the Daughter of Zion, may rejoice in thy Salvation.

15. The Gentiles are sunk down in the Pit that they made: their Foot is taken in that Net which they hid.

16. The Lord is known by the Judgment he performs, insnaring the Wicked in the Work of his own Hands. A Pause for Meditation.

17. The Wicked shall return to the very Grave, all the Nations that forget God.

18. For the Needy will not be forgotten perpetually, the Expectation of the Afflicted perish for evermore.

19. Arise, O Lord, let not Man become strong; let the Gentiles be judged before thy Face.

20. Put them in Fear, O Lord, let these be sensible they are Mortals. A Pause.

PSALM X.

WHY, O Lord, dost thou stand far off, hide thy self at Times of Distress?

2. The Wicked in Pride persecutes the Afflicted: let them be taken in the Devices that they contrive.

3. For the Wicked praises the Desire of his own Mind, and pronounces him happy that gets Money, contemning the Lord.

Ver. 3. For] which shews the Cause of his praising God.

Ver. 5. the wicked one] Goliath, according to Jun. and Trem. in Annot. the Heb. being sing. and so Kimbi says of it at this and the 16th Verse.

Ver. 6. Wastings] Gr. Javelins or Swords, as with a different Point.

Ib. Wastings are finished] thou canst waste no more.

Ib. thou hast] or though thou hast, which connects the Verse together, and makes Sense of it, tho' not like Patrick's. The Author of the New Version would force this to be the Lord, but the Beginning of the next Verse refutes it.

Ib. with them] Gr. with a Noise, those Translators taking המון to be a Noun from המון which the Points might have prevented.

Ver. 9. a high Place] Jonston for the former puts arcus, a Wall, and for the latter arcus, a Bow; but his Commentator does not tell us why two such very different Things, and the last offensive instead of defensive.

Ver. 12. For] the same as begins Ver. 4.

Ib. he who requires Blood] who takes Vengeance for it, the Heb. being a Participle.

Ver. 13. bate me] As a Critick on the Scriptura, who does not lacerate it, in this Age, would appear singular, and make a poor Figure; so I find the Author of the New Version remarking, that he supposes the initial Letter of the next Word to belong to this; notwithstanding they are parted with the great Heb. Point, and notwithstanding there would be no me then, when he has it in his own Transf. but this is not all, since there is no such Heb. Word as he would make the next, nor can be by the Structure of the Verb; and if there was such a Par-ticipale in Kal, which he seems to have mistaken it for, it would be neuter, not active.

Ver. 16. insnaring] it being an active Participle, and so shewing what the Judgment is.

Ver. 17. Grave] shall return to the Earth, whence they originally came, dying for their Wickedness.

Ver. 18. Expectation] Sept. Patience, with too much Liberty, and in the Litur. worse, patient abiding.

Ver. 20. them in Fear] Heb. Fear to them; but the Noun being spelled with ת instead of ת the LXX from another Root render, a Lawgiver over them.

Ver. 1. hide thy self] With the LXX disregard, only by pushing the Translation of the Word beyond its Meaning.

Ver. 2. in Pride] Pfalt. for his own lust, on the slender Authority of Munster, in the Childhood of reviving the Hebrew, and he not confining himself strictly to it.

Ver. 3. pronounces him happy that gets Money] Sept. the Unrighteous is well spoken of, with the Verb before passive, both which alter the Sense, and are easily distinguished in Heb. had they kept to that; and by using Unrighteous they run into the Gulph of Universality, as the Lord Verulam, with great Wisdom and Penetration, supposes the Ancients meant by being swallowed up in Charybdis, and that shipwreck'd on the Rock of Scylla was Distinction, in his Icarus.

Ib. happy] according to Juvenal's, animi felices credit avaros,

And thinks the money'd Man alone is blest, Sat. 14.

Ib. contemning] Sept. the Sinner (out of the next Ver.) has provoked the Lord.

Ib. the Lord] which Pagn. Les Jud. Ainsw. Jun. and

4. Whom, in the Height of his Look he will not seek, none of his Thoughts are of God.

5. His Ways are grievous at all Times, thy Judgments being on high, distant from him: as for all his Adversaries, he puffs at them.

6. He says in his Heart, I shall not be moved, for one Age after another I am one who shall not be in Adversity.

7. His Mouth is full of Cursing, Deceit and Fraud: under his Tongue are Trouble and Vanity.

8. He sits in Ambush at the Villages, slays the Innocent in lurking Places; his Eyes are hid for the Poor.

9. He lies in wait at a lurking Place, like a Lion in his Den, which is to catch the Afflicted; whom he catches by drawing him into his Net.

10. He wears himself away, crouches down, and fails in Strength, for the Poor.

11. Says he in his Heart, God forgets, hides his Face, never sees.

12. Arise, O Lord; O God, lift up thy Hand: do not forget the Afflicted.

13. Why should the Wicked contemn God, saying in his Heart, Thou wilt not seek it out?

14. Who seest it, for thou beholdest what is troublesome and displeasing, to reward with thy Hand: the Poor is left to thee, thou art the Helper of the fatherless.

15. Break the Arm of the Wicked; and of him that is evil seek out his Wickedness, till thou canst find no more.

16. The Lord is King for ever and evermore: the Gentiles are perished out of his Country.

17. Thou hearest the Desire of the Meek, O Lord: thou who preparest their Heart, let thy Ear hearken.

18. To judge the Fatherless and Oppressed, let him proceed no more: to drive a Man violently out of the Country.

PSALM XI.

FOR the chief Musician. By David.

I trust in the Lord; how can ye say to my Soul? Wander as a Bird on your Mountain:

2. For lo the Wicked bend the Bow, taking aim with their Arrow upon the String, to shoot in the Dark at those of an upright Heart;

3. And the Foundations being destroyed, what can the Righteous do?

Trem. with the vulg. Lat. Transf. put also accusatively, and Castal. in like manner genitively.

Ver. 4. none of his Thoughts are of God] The wretched Condition so lively described in The Complaint, or Night-Thoughts, Night 2.

All Feeling of Futurity benumb'd;
All God-like Passion for Eternals quench'd;
All Relish of Realities expir'd;
Renounc'd all Correspondence with the Skies;
The Freedom chain'd; quite wingless the Desire;
In Sense dark-prison'd all that ought to soar,
Prone to the Center, crawling in the Dust;
Dismounted every great and glorious Aim;
Embruted every Faculty divine;
Heart-buried in the Rubbish of the World.

Ver. 5. grievous] By the Sept. polluted, from חלל for חלל

Ver. 6. Age] as he thinks of living a great while.

Ib. who] being the Heb. Relative, and standing as here; therefore not for. The Author of the New Version supposes it used with hardly any Meaning, but better Interpreters, Jun. &c. have found this in it.

Ver. 7. Deceit] By the LXX Bitterness, from מרר which is from רמח overlooking or disregarding the 2d מ

Ib. under his Tongue] as if concealed there to be spoken.

Ver. 8. at the Villages] According to the LXX with Riches: Byth. says perhaps they read (better interpreted) חצר by עפר but that is wide, and חצר nearer, especially as it is often changed to ח for which they might take ח

Ver. 10. swears himself away] It has no Signification of crouches; and is rendered fore broken, Psa. xxxviii. 8. & xlv. 19. broken, Psa. li. 8. and contrite, Ver. 17. these being all the Places where this Verb is. Jun. and Trem. atterit se as here; Montan. atterit se, Leo Jud. conteritur.

Ib. fails] For this is sing. and the Word for Poor plur. and thus it agrees with the first Verb. Jun. and Trem. have procidit membris robustis suis, falls down with his strong Limbs.

Ver. 11. hides] Gr. turns away, as the Manner of hiding.

Ver. 13. seek] agreeable to Ver. 11. so in Saxon it is secath, and Ainsw. turns it enquire, Jun. and Trem. inquisitum.

Ver. 14. reward] Heb. primarily give; so that the LXX, not attentive enough to the Context, have rendered deliver them into.

Ver. 17. preparest] LXX Preparation, mistaking the Verb for a Noun, which the Heb. has not.

Ver. 18. judge] or condemn, as indicated Exek. xxii. 2. & xxiii. 36. 45.

Ib. let him proceed no more:] So we must read if we have any Regard to the Heb. Pointing.

Ib. him] so often spoken of before.

Ib. to drive] infin. like judge, and so may be thought to have the same Subject; and that it is active the Use of it shews, Isa. ii. 19. 21. because some suppose it passive, as the Author of the New Version translates, but controuls it in his Note thereon. Litur. be exalted, from the Gr. to magnify himself, at Random.

Ver. 1. ye] David's Friends, who advised him to keep away from his Enemies, probably the Ziphites, 1 Sam. xxvi. 1. 20. as Psa. liv. seems made on another Occasion mentioned, 1 Sam. xxiii. 19.

Ib. your] But the Author of the New Version speaks for reading it them, by taking a Letter out of one Word and putting it to another, which would make Nonsense; but the LXX have neither your nor their, and so in the Critical Notes of 1747, we are told of: corrupted into כ

2. upon the String] The LXX in the Quiver, as if that was better.

Ver. 3. the Foundations] Gr. the Things that thou madest up, mistaking it for the Verb, as though הושת were הושת, not as with Bythner in neither Form.

Ib. do] The Author of the New Version thinks it more suited to the Genius of the Language to be a Noun, by altering the Points, thus, What is the Work or Reward of the Righteous? This he explains

4. Why

4. Why the Lord in his holy Temple, the Lord whose Throne is in Heaven; his Eyes behold, his Eye-lids search Mankind.

5. The Lord searches the Righteous; but the Wicked, and him that loves Violence his Soul hates.

6. He will rain upon the Wicked Snares, Fire and Brimstone; and a very tempestuous Wind will be the Share of their Cup.

7. For the righteous Lord loves Righteousness, his Face beholds the Upright.

P S A L M XII.

FOR the chief Musician upon the Eighth.
A Psalm of David.

Save, O Lord: for the pious one is ceased, for the Faithful are failed from Mankind.

2. They talk vainly one to another; nay with a flattering Lip, and a double Heart, do they prate.

3. The Lord will cut off all flattering Lips, the Tongue that speaks great Things:

4. Those who say, we will prevail with our Tongue, our Lips are our own; who is Master over us?

5. For the Wasting of the Afflicted, for the Crying of the needy ones, now will I rise up, says the Lord; I will set him in Safety, who is puffed at.

6. The Lord's Sayings are pure ones; like Silver tried in an earthen Vessel, refined seven times.

7. Thou, O Lord, wilt preserve them; wilt keep him from this Generation for ever.

8. The Wicked walk round about, when Vileness is exalted with Mankind.

P S A L M XIII.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

How long, O Lord, wilt thou forget me? Perpetually? How long wilt thou hide thy Face from me?

2. How long shall I make Consultations in my Mind, with Sorrow in my Heart daily? How long shall my Enemy be exalted against me?

by What has he to do or expect? Which is making it a Verb again, and the same to, or else uncertain. But a small Acquaintance with the Genius of the Heb. might have informed him, that Genit. Cases stand next after the other; whereas Righteous is here before it, and parted from it.

Ver. 4. Why the Lord] David answers; which the Expletive Why makes more expressive.

Ib. behold] In the Com. Pray. consider the poor, worse than the Gr. look to the poor.

Ver. 5. his Soul hates] Inattentive to the Gender made by it as well as the Sense, the Sept. translate hates his own Soul.

Ver. 1. ceased] As says Juvenal, Sat. 13.

Rari quippe boni

Good Men are scarce, their Number very small,

Stapylton's Trans.

Ver. 3. flattering] Mudge, smooth Lips, but why should they be cut off?

Ver. 4. Those] being an Object or Accus. Case to cut off, like Lips and Tongue.

Ib. prevail] Mudge, are Masters of our Tongue; which diminishes the Sense, and makes the next a Tautology.

Ver. 5. Safety] I have related at Psa. vii. 11. that a Translation by the Earl of Dartford has the vulg. Lat. in better English, than that by the College of Doway: so here the last mentioned, published 90 Years before, is, I will put in a Salvation: I will do confidently in him; which the Earl alters to, I will provide for their Safety, and I will do it effectually.

Ib. who is puffed at] or at whom there is Puffing. Mudge, that he would ensnare, as if he was the Afflicted or Needy; in Critical Notes, with lustre to himself, by changing it to no.

Ver. 7. them] the afflicted and needy, Ver. 5. which are both there plural; but by Patrick, the Words.

Ib. him] David himself, as being one of the afflicted and needy; for this Pronoun is singular, and so a Tautology of keeping and preserving the same prevented.

Ib. from this Generation] of People in Saul's Reign.

Ver. 8. walk round about] being frequent and busy.

Ib. Vileness] or vile Things, as Copies differ in placing the Point, but is either Way feminine. So Ainsw. as Jun. and Trem. have res vilis, a vile Thing; Pagn. vilis, Vilens; Castal. nequitia, Leviness; Alunst. ignominia,

VOL. I.

Shamefulness. The Psalter in the Common-prayer has it monstrously, are put to rebuke. And Mudge of late, as Thou art high up, Thou art become contemptible to the Sons of Man; but for this Purpose he honestly confesses two Letters are to be added for Thou, and this Noun to be altered into a Verb, as he says he reads, that is when he has written it so himself: however he would screen himself under the Septuag. who translate, according to thy Height thou hast (not multiplied as with their Latin Translators, but) took much care of the Sons of Men, bad enough too; changing the Verb into a Noun, and the Noun into a Verb, and as if it was flowed to the Sons of Men, deriving mult from h I think, as more likely than Bythmer's לחם And notwithstanding Bp. Hars owns he does not know what this Verse means; if I may speak the Truth, I see no Difficulty in it: nay though Wheatland and Silvester, 1754, translate it under the Authority, as they say, of Bp. Patrick,

Amaz'd the wicked wander to and fro,

When thou dost raise from Earth th' obscure and low;

I must dissent, that on the contrary the Wicked were then prosperous, as Ver. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7. almost the whole Psalm, plainly shew; and how was it otherwise, if, as Patr. says, the Court of Saul and the corrupt Manners of that Age are here complained of? On the other hand the Vilens being bad, is correspondent to Psa. xv. 4. 1 Sam. iii. 13. Isa. xxxii. 6. and Patrick's Exposition reads quite unnatural to the Words.

Ver. 1. Jonston,

Quò, Deus! usque mei capient te oblivia? Vultum,

Durus et aversus, quò, Pater! usque teges?

of which the Author of the Prefatory Discourse to Jonston's Edition says he does not remember ever to have seen such a Pathos, or Expression of the Passion by the Sound.

Ib. Perpetually] This without being a fresh Question is very improper; so Psa. lxxxviii. 46. but otherwise lxxxix. 5.

Ver. 2. make Consultations] as the Heb. is; sc. quomodo à manibus inimicorum meorum evadere possim, that is, how I may escape out of the Hands of my Enemies, Hulse; well: but Mudge translates form Designs against my Life, to put an End to it himself, as he repeats in a Note; whereas this Heb. Preposition commonly signifies in, and another against, this Noun Soul or Mind, and another Life; so that David may be cleared of this Accusation.

8 C

3. Look

3. Look up, answer me, O Lord my God : enlighten my Eyes, lest I should sleep in Death ;

4. Lest my Enemy should say, I have prevailed over him ; my Adversaries should rejoice, that I am moved.

5. Whereas I trust in thy Kindness, my Heart shall rejoice in thy Salvation.

6. I will sing to the Lord ; for he is bountiful to me.

P S A L M XIV.

FOR the chief Musician. By David.
The vile one says in his Heart, There is no God : they corrupt, they make themselves abominable by Deeds, none doing Good.

2. The Lord looking from Heaven upon Mankind, to see whether there is any who understands, who seeks God ;

3. Every one is departed, they are become filthy together, none doing good, not even one.

4. Will none of the Workers of Iniquity know, who eat my People as they do Bread, not calling upon the Lord ?

5. There they are seized with Fear, because God is in the Generation of the Righteous ;

6. You that make the Purpose of the Afflicted Shame, that the Lord shall be his Refuge.

7. Oh that there was the Salvation of Israel from Zion ! when the Lord turns back the Captivity of his People, Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad.

P S A L M XV.

A Psalm of David.
Lord, who shall lodge in thy Tabernacle ? Who shall dwell on thy holy Mountain ?

2. He that walks in Integrity, works Righteousness, speaks Truth with his Heart,

3. Slanders not with his Tongue, does no Hurt to his Companion, nor carries Reproach against his Neighbour ;

4. In whose Sight a contemptible Person is despised, but he honours them who fear the Lord ; he that swears to his own Hurt, without changing,

5. Lends not his Money on Usury, nor takes a Bribe against the Innocent ; doing these Things : he shall never be moved.

P S A L M XVI.

A Golden Poem of David.
Preserve me, O God : for I trust in thee.

Ib. my Enemy] Saul.

Ib. be exalted] Beza in the Eng. something oddly, gape over my head, and gape over me more remote in Psa. xvii. 9.

Ver. 6.] The Addition at the End in the Psalt. is from the Gr. and that taken as appears from the End of the 7th Psa.

Ver. 1. no God] The Proof of his Existence by Reason, having lately read in Stillingsfleet's Origines Sacrae, and Houie's Living Temple, I refer the Eng. Reader to, as there may be Occasion for it.

Ib. Deeds] Sept. Studies, in another Meaning as imagined of the Heb. Word.

Ib. no not one of the Psalt. in the Gr. there is not even one, might be fetched from the 3d Ver. and is not in Psa. liii. 1.

Ver. 2. looking] We read that Diogenes lighted a Candle in the Day-time, and said he was looking for a Man, meaning a right one, Diog. Laert. in ejus Vit.

Ver. 3.] The Psalter adds in three Verses after this, from the Old Lat. as in Rom. iii. where see ; and R. B. only that I know of, turns them into Verse.

Ver. 4. my People] David's, he speaking in his own Name, as Peale observes, throughout this Psalm. By which, and Ver. 5, 7. this seems to be penned while David reigned at Hebron over Part of Israel : according to Patr. in Abshalom's Rebellion, whither quite too many Psalms appear referred by the Commentators.

Ver. 5. There] in the Place where they oppress, Kimhi.

Ib. they] who opposed David's reigning, 2 Sam. iii. 1.

Ib. seized] In the Contents of the Bible, to this Ver. is, He convinceth the wicked by the light of their conscience, to which is added own at Psa. liii.

Ib. Fear] The Gr. adds where no Fear was, from its own Vers. Psa. liii. 5.

Ver. 7. from Zion] which David was not yet possessed of, but might understand that was to be the Place of the Sanctuary, and so wished for it as here.

Ib. Captivity] by the Philistines, 2 Sam. ult. 1, 7. as Psa. lxxviii. 61. & cvi. 46.

Ver. 1. holy Mountain] Zion, Part of the City Jerusalem, which it seems David had now in Possession, and as I suppose had lately got, in the Esteem for which he composed this Psalm.

Ver. 4. In whose Sight a contemptible Person is despised] widely translated in the Psalter, He that setteth not by himself (for our makes not much of himself, I suppose) but is lowly in his own Eyes.

Ib. contemptible] as all the Wicked are, notwithstanding any outward Greatness. Melancthus in his Book of Painting, as cited by Diog. Laert. in the Life of Palæmus, says there should be a certain ἀνδράδυνα καὶ σκληρότης, Height and Stiffness of Mind, in People's Actions and Manners, to guide them rightly.

Ib. Hurt] but the Gr. Neighbour, the Distinction being וְיָ and וְיָ only in the Points : the Liturgy takes in both Meanings, and separate the one from the other.

Ib. changing] LXX deceiving, from חַמַּר by imaginary Transposition, and the Liturg. disappointeth him.

Ver. 5. Lends not] Beza strangely, at least in the Eng. Transf. Which doth not lend his Money to the hindrance of an other.

Ib. doing these Things] being the Conclusion of the proper Answer to Ver. 1. so that the great Heb. Stop for a Colon is here proper and necessary, and not a full Point at Innocent ; where is but a small ministring Accent, to join it to does or Doer.

Ver. 1. A golden Poem] from its Root famous Gold. Ainsw. expounds it David's jewel, or notable song ; and Lee Jud. translates Insigne aureolum, a notable golden Matter ; Jun. and Trem. Insignis ode, A notable Poem ; which Interpretation also Lew. de Dieu prefers. But Jerome and Aquila bumble and honest, as if the Word was parted into two.

2. One.

2. One may say to the Lord; Thou art my Master, my Goodness is not to thee;

3. It is for those Saints who are on the Earth, and the noble ones in whom is all my Delight.

4. Their Sorrows will be multiplied who give a dowry to another: I will not pour out their Offerings of Blood, nor take up their Names into my Lips.

5. Thou Lord, the Portion of my Share and Cup, supportest my Lot:

6. The Lines being fallen to me in pleasant Places, a handsome Possession also for me.

7. I will bless the Lord, who gives me Counsel; nay my Reins instruct me in the Nights.

8. I set the Lord before me continually; because he is at my right Hand, I shall not be moved.

9. Therefore my Heart is glad, and my Instrument of Glory rejoices; my Flesh also shall dwell securely.

10. For thou wilt not leave my Person in the Grave; nor let thy holy one see Corruption.

11. Thou wilt make known to me the Path of Life, the Fulness of Joys in thy Presence, the pleasant Things at thy right Hand eternally.

P S A L M XVII.

A PRAYER of David.

Hear what is righteous, O Lord, hearken to my Cry, give ear to my Prayer; that are not with deceitful Lips.

2. Let my Judgment come out from before thee, let thy Eyes see Uprightness.

Ver. 2. One] as denoted in Latin by the second Pers. sing.

Ib. Goodness] Pfalt. goods meanly.

Ib. not to thee] Gr. thou hast no need of, mere Para-phrase.

Ver. 3. the noble ones—my Delight] Instead of this the LXX translate, he has made his Will or Pleasure admirable; exchanging the Noun for the Verb, strained beyond its Signification too, and the Pronoun for 1 but the Vulgate rectifies the latter, the Dowry Transf. being, he hath made at my willes marvellous in them, which the Earl of Dartford turns to intelligible or retranslates into Sense thus, he has wonderfully made appear all my good intentions towards them.

Ver. 4. give a dowry to] or endow, as it signifies, and is rendered Exod. xxii. 16. where it is only found besides in this Conjug. Kal. Vulgarly sung,

They shall heape sorrows on their heads, which run as they were mad:

To offer to their idoll gods, alas it is too bad.

Ib. another] Sept. afterwards, as a different Vowel might make it.

Ib. pour out their Offerings] the LXX have gather together their Assemblies, both Verb and Noun from the Root גן which are from גן the same Letters transposed, and such Words sometimes take Meanings one from another; but there had need be some Necessity for it in the Expression, or the same Signification of the same Word elsewhere, which are here wanting: but to pretend those Translators read it with the Letters inverted, as Bytner speaks, is utterly incredible; for who could mistake ג for נ by the Likeness, and also the End for the Beginning of the Word at the same Time?

Ib. nor take up their Names into my Lips] Jonston,

Abfit ut hac memorant et se contaminet; aures

Abfit ut offendant nomina laeva meas:

far be it from my Mouth to pollute it self by mentioning them; far be it from their nonsensical Names to offend my Ears.

Ver. 5. Let] the Kingdom; see 2 Sam. v. 12. so not in Saul's Time.

Ver. 7. Archdeacon Daniel in his Paraphrase on this Psalm has,

Let others to the distant pow'rs complain,

And on their idle godships call in vain;

Be it my pride to act a juster part,

And own the God exulting in my heart.

Here, here he triumphs an unrival'd guest,

And with his sacred fire inflames my breast.

This is in the Miscellaneous Poems printed several times for Lintot, Vol. II. but afterwards unworthily suppress'd in his Paraphrase on some select Psalms. So K. James, in his Version authorized by K. Charles, and printed at Oxford. 1631.

My thoughts all night (by him inspir'd) doe teach what course to take.

Jonston likewise has,

Hujus & afflatu sacras precordia flammæ

Concupiunt, pulsa non ubi luce redit:

and by the Inspiration of him my inward Part conceives holy Flames, when the Light being driven away Night returns. And Hulse in his Heb. Elegancies out of the Psalms, No. 44. says, To be instructed by the Reins, is ab internis animi & conscientia motibus ad pietatis officia trahi, to be drawn to the Duties of Religion by the inward Motions of the Mind and Conscience.

Ib. my Reins] which he says the Lord possessed, Psa. cxxxix. 13. Beza in Paraphrasis, O Lord, thou dost teach me inwardly every Night. The Dowry Bible by Mistake has veins.

Ib. instruct] In the Com. Prayer Psa. chasten, which the Heb. also signifies, and may be contained in this; and that the Author of Holy Dav. clear'd explains, for the Reproofs and Checks I have every Night from my own Heart, whenever I do amiss.

Ver. 8. set] By the Sept. looked to paraphrastically; because, as I judge, the literal Meaning is somewhat diffusive and unfixed.

Ib. the Lord] Pfalt. God, by some Oversight, neither in the Gr. Vulg. nor Munst.

Ver. 9. Instrument of Glory] viz. the Tongue, as quoted Acts ii. 26. and as the Gr. Translators with some of the Lat. and our former Eng. render it; according also to Psa. xxx. 121.

Ib. dwell securely] shall rest in hope, Acts ii. 26. is quoted from the Greek Transf. not from the Heb. Original.

10. not leave] Hatten in his Prayer on this Psalm has, that when our flesh shall see corruption, our souls may not be left in hell; as if Souls might return out of Hell: but his Performance seems mean, taking a Verse or two of a Psalm almost verbatim, and most of the rest common and dull, besides secretly striking at the Sectaries (while he pretends those Prayers are to suit all) though printed the 15th time 1724.

Ib. Person] as, says Pasle, this Word is every where used; doubtless it is frequently; see of this Amama in Anti-barb Bibl. and Byth. Lyr. Pr.

Ib. Grave] So Nathan Mordecai in his famous Heb. Concordance says, קבר פירוש קבר the Meaning of sheel is the Grave; as it is rendered by sepulcrum, Sepulchre or Grave, by Jun. and Trem. Pagnin. Leo. Jud. and it is interpreted of the Resurrection of Christ, Acts ii. 31. and by Cruden in his late famous Concordance expounded, Thou wilt not suffer my body to putrefy in the grave.

Ib. holy one] The Word having redundant, which were it not for the pointed Vowels might be plural, the Author of the State of the Pr. Heb. Text, p. 218, 496, 498, exclaims against the printed Heb. Copies, though the Marginal Reading, universally owned, is regularly singular, and though the Vowel-Points confine the Text also to that, which are not as when plural in Psa. lii. 9. &c.

Ver. 1. that are not] not Prayer only, where is the principal Scop in the Heb. shewing this belongs to the other also: so Cress in Tagb. Art. p. 204.

Ver. 2. Uprightnes] as Psa. ix. 8.

3. Thou

3. Thou searchest my Heart, thou visitest in the Night, triest me, finding Nothing : I intend my Mouth shall not transgress.

4. Among the Works of Men, by the Word of thy Lips, I take heed of the Robber's Paths.

5. Uphold my Steps in thy Roads, that my Feet may not be removed.

6. I call upon thee, for thou wilt answer me, O God : incline thy Ear to me, hear what I say.

7. Distribute thy Kindness, who savest by thy right Hand the trusting ones, from those who rise up against them.

8. Keep me as the Apple of the Eye, hide me in the Shadow of thy Wings ;

9. From the Face of the wicked ones who waste me, the Enemies to my Life, that come about against me ;

10. Who are inclosed with their Fat, speaking proudly with their Mouth.

11. They now surround us by our Steps, set their Eyes inclining to the Ground.

12. His Likeness is as a Lion that longs for the Prey, and as a young Lion that sits in lurking Places.

13. Arise, O Lord, prevent his Looks, overthrow him : deliver my Life from the Wicked with thy Sword ;

14. From Men with thy Hand, O Lord, from Men of the World, whose Share is in their Life, and whose Belly thou fillest with thy reserved Things, that are satisfied with Sons, and leave their Excellency to their own Children.

15. As for me, let me see thy Face in Righteousness ; be satisfied when I awake with thy Likeness.

P S A L M XVIII.

FOR the chief Musician. By the Lord's Servant David ; who spoke to the Lord the Words of this Poem, at the Time when he had rescued him from the Power of all his Enemies, with that of Saul, as follow :

I will love thee affectionately, O Lord, my Strength.

2. The Lord is my firm Place, and my Fortification, as also my Deliverer, my God, my Rock, in whom I will trust ; my Shield, and the Horn of my Salvation, my high Place.

3. I will call upon the Lord, who is to be praised ; so shall I be saved from my Enemies.

Ver. 3. I intend] With the LXX is, and hast not found Iniquity in me, thrusting in the first, and making the two last Words for my, which they also mistook for the first Person of the Verb.

Ib. transgress] As the Heb. Verb also signifies pass, the LXX have turned it speak, joining it to the next Ver.

Ver. 4. Robber's Paths] the By-ways where he robs, such as his Enemies waited for him in. So the Word is properly rendered, Jer. vii. 11. Ezek. vii. 22. and Roads are aptly distinguished in the Original from such Paths. The Vulgate contrarily has I have kept the hard Ways ; and the com. Transf. having added in it me from ; Patr. violently expounds it, preserved me from murderous Practices.

Ver. 7. Distribute] and not show in Heb. being the same that is turned set apart, Psa. iv. 3. Sept. make wonderful, as elsewhere.

Ib. thy Kindness] which is one Heb. Word signifying no more.

Ver. 10. Fat] which by transposing the Letters might be Cord, and so Mudge renders it Cords.

Ver. 11. by our Steps] Saul's Agents observing by the Footsteps of David and his Men whither they were gone, and looking down to the Ground for that Purpose. Very pertinent ! Yet Mudge alters the Vowels, and translates, We have succeeded ; but which his new-made Verb never signifies. The LXX have it casting me out, for making go, as a Participle, and with for ;

Ver. 12. His Likeness] So the Heb. is, but the Gr. They received me, or rather took me up, γ being taken for η perhaps, as η must for η and ascribed to the root כח Byth. solves it by the LXX express'd the Sense ; which may be denied, for David's Enemies could not take him, even by what he says here, Ver. 4, 9, 11, 13.

Ver. 13. him] The Seventy them, yet I dare say they did not read הם for הו as also just before.

Ib. with thy Sword] So Cast. Jun. and Trem. with Ainsw. and the Genev. Transf. render ; with being often understood in Heb. as in Lat. and seems much more agreeable to the Context, than to add which is : thus Smyth, who composed a pretty good Version, has,

Save, by thy Sword, from wicked ones ;

Save, by thy Hand, from Men :

as also Wither. And the com. Metre,

And with thy Sword him smite.

In which Manner Dupont turns it in Gr. Verse. If we will let Mudge move it into the next Ver. he will have (indeed has) it, save thy Sword. A strange Expression ! after a good deal of Thinking too, and which the studying out could not require, while he doubtless saw it so in the Septuag.

Ver. 14. From Men] Instead of which in a Psalter that Augustine used was ; Perdens eos, Destroying them ; for the Difference in Heb. would be only memitham (the Part. in Hiph. from muth) for minithim, by which the Author might make the Mistake.

Ib. Men] By the LXX in the first Place Enemies, in the latter few, tho' signifying neither, and is the same both times.

Ib. with thy Hand] In the Gr. is of thy Hand, but the Heb. is not Genitive.

Ib. whose Share is] But by the LXX and Vulg. divide them, as a Verb. Hence the Collegians of Doway obscurely, from a few out of the Land divide them, in their life ; but by the Earl of Dartford more expressive, separate them in their life time from the small Number of those, who are thine upon the earth.

Ib. their Excellency] the very same as in Job iv. 21. so Jun. and Trem. have here excellenciam suam : for rest does not seem very proper.

Ver. 15. when I awake with thy Likeness] With the LXX when thy Glory shall appear, as their Imagination dictated.

Ver. 1. See this Psalm 2 Sam. xxii. In the Argument of it to his Paraphrase, Beza writes, We must needs grant that we have no Writing extant of any Poet, who flouished the most in Wit and Eloquence, to be compared with this Psalm, if we only look at the Phrase. And as for the Matter, he describes those his so dangerous Perils in such a Manner, that he who reads them will almost think he beholds the Things with his Eyes ; and he so paints forth the Glory of God in executing Judgment, and his Divine Majesty with such a high Style, that the Reader may think the Heavens and Earth yet still to shake ; and for the like see Delane's Life and Reign of David, p. 71. or as quoted by Wheatland.

Ver. 2. firm Place] or solid Place, as the Sept.

Ib. Rock] the same as in 2 Sam. xxii. 3. and here in Ver. 46. which it signifies properly, not Strength.

4. The Pangs of Death surrounded me, and the Floods of Ungodliness terrified me :

5. The Pangs of the Grave compassed me about, the Snares of Death prevented me.

6. I called upon the Lord in my Distress, and cried out to my God ; who heard my Voice from his Temple, and my crying out before him came into his Ears.

7. Then the Earth shook, and moved ; the Bottoms of the Mountains trembled, and were shaken ; because he was incensed.

8. Smoak went up through his Nose, and Fire out of his Mouth consumed ; by which Coals were kindled.

9. He also bended the Heavens, and came down ; there being a Mist under his Feet.

10. Besides he rode upon a Cherub, and did fly ; nay flew swiftly upon the Wings of the Wind.

11. He made Darkness his Hiding-place, his Tabernacle round about him, dark Waters, thick Clouds of the Skies.

12. By the Brightness that was before him his thick Clouds passed on, with Hail, and Coals of Fire.

13. The Lord thundered too in the Heavens, and the Highest gave forth his Voice, with Hail, and Coals of Fire.

14. He also sent his Arrows, and dispersed them : and shot Lightnings, and routed them.

15. The Channels of the Water were not only seen, but the Foundations of the World discovered ; at thy Rebuke, O Lord, by the Blast of the Breath of thy Nose.

16. Sending from on high, he took me, drew me out of much Water.

17. He rescued me from my stout Enemy, and from those who hated me ; because they were too strong for me.

18. Who prevented me at the Time of my Calamity ; but the Lord was for a Staff to me.

19. And brought me forth to a large Place, delivering me ; for he delighted in me.

20. The Lord recompensed me according to my Virtue : he rendered to me after the Purity of my Hands.

21. For I observed the Ways of the Lord, and was not wicked contrary to my God.

22. All his Judgments were likewise before me, nor did I put away his Ordinances from me.

23. Nay I was perfect with him, and kept my self from having Iniquity.

24. So the Lord rendered to me according to my Virtue, after the Purity of my Hands before his Eyes.

25. To the kind one thou shewest thy self kind, to the perfect Person perfect,

26. To the pure one shewest thy self pure, and to him who is perverse froward.

27. For thou dost save the afflicted People, and humble the haughty Eyes.

28. Thou also lightest my Candle : the Lord my God makes my Darkness bright.

29. By thee too I run through a Troop ; and by my God I leap over a Wall.

30. As for God, his Way is perfect, the Word of the Lord is tried : he is a Shield to all that trust in him.

31. For who is God besides the Lord ? And who the Rock excepting our God ?

32. It is God girds me with Ability, and makes my Way perfect ;

33. Making my Feet as the Hinds, and setting me upon my eminent Places.

Ver. 4. Ungodliness] There being יָסוּר wanting to make ungodly Men.

Ver. 5. prevented me] as if from living.

Ver. 8. Smoak] which in the Saxon Manuscripts of the Psalms at Cambridge is rec, after which it is yet called in some Places of England, when coming not from Fire ; from which Tongue 'tis allowed on all Hands, the Body of ours is really derived, says Brightland in the Pref. to his Gram. of the Eng. Tongue.

Ver. 10. flew swiftly] by the Change only of the Letter ו into י in 2 Sam. xxii. 11. which might be a Refinement of David himself, tho' Capel says the other is better, Critica Sacra, Lib. I. Chap. 7. but I give it to this, as being not so common, both in respect to the Matter and the Heb. Word, and I think more sublime.

1b. flew swiftly upon the Wings of the Wind] Apollinarius, who lived in the fourth Century, and whose Paraphrase on the Psalms in Gr. heroic Verse, is still extant (that on other Books being lost) has it, ἵππῳ Βουτῶν ἀνέμων πτερυγισσὶν ἀρπάζει, he flew mounted with the Wings of swift crowding Winds.

Ver. 11. of the Skies] Psal. to cover him, as the Translator thought fit.

Ver. 15. Water] יָם being prefixed to the Word for Sea in 2 Sam. xxii. 16. added perhaps by the royal Author, on revising and collecting his Psalms together : Abarbanel reckons up 74 Varieties in the whole Psalms, including different Spelling. Hare thinks this the Copy revised.

Ver. 18. for] which is in the Heb. more here than at Vol. I.

2 Sam. xxii. 19. and more agreeable to the Structure of that Language.

Ver. 19. delighted in me] Doway Bib. would me ; which may pass for as good Latin, viz. the Original voluit me, as English.

Ver. 23. perfect] 'Our Translators, writes Gell, 'usually render what is in the holy Text perfection or perfect, by sincerity and sincere and upright, as Psa. xviii. 23. or else mislead the credulous Reader by putting one 'or other in the Margent,' Essay, p. 697.

Ver. 26. perverse] being not the same Word with the following, any more than in 2 Sam. xxii. 17.

This is paraphrased well in the old com. Metre,

And thou wilt use the wicked Men,

As wicked Men deserve ;

but by Mud. translated, with the Crooked Thou behavest crossly.

Ver. 29. run through a Troop] which Mudge flattens to course in Parties ; and the Sept. transform into shall be delivered from Temptation : for יָצָא might be passive from צָרָה thus יָצָא by dropping נ as is sometimes done, would the Points permit it, tho' that Verb must be racked to signify so.

Ver. 32. By Payne, forsooth amending the old Metre,

He is the Lord that girdeth me with strength for war, and why ?

He maketh my way perfect, and on him I will rely ;

such whys being much used by him, tho' not always so improperly.

34. He teaches my Hands War; and a Steel Bow has been broken by my Arms.

35. And thou hast given me the Shield of thy Salvation, thy right Hand has supported me, and thy Gentleness made me great.

36. Thou enlargest my Steps under me; inasmuch that my Ancles do no slip.

37. I pursue my Enemies, and overtake them; nay do not return till they are consumed.

38. Thus I strike them, so that they are not able to get up: they fall down under my Feet.

39. For thou girdedst me with Ability for War; overthrowest them under me that rise up against me.

40. And thou hast given me the Necks of my Enemies, that I may cut off those who hate me.

41. They cry out, but none saves; on the Lord, but he does not answer them:

42. While I beat them small, as the Dust before the Wind; empty them out, as the Dirt of the Streets.

43. Thou deliverest me from the Contentions of the People; makest me the Head of the Gentiles: a People that I knew not serve me.

44. They hearken to me by the Report of the Ear: Strangers submit to me;

45. Who decay, and shake for fear out of their close Places.

Ver. 34. broken] Mudge follows the Seventy, Thou makest my Arms a Bow of Brass, by altering the Heb. they mistook; but mistaking himself too in doing it. Bythn. must also be mistaken in supposing they read נִתְּנָה from נָתַן which has not the Conj. Kal, and there it would be נִתְּנָה more likely they took the Word נִתְּנָה for נָתַן from נָתַן as the Gr. Word likewise shews.

Ver. 35. Gentleness made me great] But Mudge, not without Alteration of the Original, answering me invigorateth me; and the Sept. by Reiteration, thy Discipline has corrected me to the End, and thy Discipline it self will teach me; in which they might put Discipline or Correction, for Gentleness or Meekness, by a Metonymy of the Cause for the Effect, and teach to suit with it, both in the glossing way, to make Something that is plain, tho' wrong, as Translators frequently do: as to the rest, I count that thy Discipline was written by Oversight twice, and afterwards the Want of a Verb to the first was supplied by one of its own Signification; and, as the repeating it might seem to denote Continuance, to the End was also added.

Ver. 42. empty them out] being one Word in Heb. as if contracted from the two in 2 Sam. xxii. 43.

Ver. 43. makest] by taking out a Heb. Letter after ד and putting in another before it, 2 Sam. xxiv. 44.

Ver. 45. decay, and shake] Sept. are become old and lame, by reason of their Ways; deriving the first Verb from בָּלַח instead of נָבַל and the second not from דָּרַג as being only here, and the Meaning of it known by the Chald. but as Bythn. skilfully remarks from דָּרַג that sometimes signifies so in Chald. and is thus written 2 Sam. xxii. 46. yet there they translate, shall be cast away, and overthrown; and they might take Places shut up to be Ways.

Ver. 48. withal] The LXX Interpreters taking אַךְ to be Anger, and so reading my Enemies of Anger, translate my angry Enemies, neglecting the Heb. Stop, the same as at Wicked in the first Ver. of this Book, which is an Instance of what Consequence the very Accents are.

Ver. 50. anointed] The Vulgate has Christ David.

46. The Lord lives, and blessed is my Rock: so let the God of my Salvation be exalted.

47. It is God renders Vengeance for me, and brings the People under me;

48. Delivering me from my Enemies: thou dost withal exalt me above them that rise up against me; rescuest me from the violent Man.

49. Therefore will I praise thee among the Gentiles, O Lord, and sing melodiously to thy Name.

50. He makes the Salvation of his King great; and will shew Kindness to David his anointed one, and his Offspring for ever.

P S A L M XIX.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The Heavens declare the Glory of God, and the Firmament tells the Work of his Hands.

2. One Day after another utters Speech, and one Night after another shews Knowledge.

3. There is no Speech, nor yet Words, without their Voice being heard.

4. The Draught of them goes forth to all the Earth, and their Declarations to the End of the World: he has made a Tent with them for the Sun.

5. Which is like a Bridegroom coming out

Ver. 1, &c. Addison,

The spacious Firmament on high,
With all the blue ethereal Sky,
And spangled Heav'ns, a shining Frame,
Their great Original proclaim:
Th' unwearied Sun, from Day to Day,
Does his Creator's Pow'r display, &c.

Ver. 2. after] as Noldius shews this Heb. Preposition signifies, Concord. Heb. Partic. 24. and of which Pool likewise gives Instances, adding the Day doth not utter this to the Day: accordingly Brady and Tate have it,

The Dawn of each returning Day fresh Beams of Knowledge brings;
And from the dark Returns of Night, divine Instruction springs.

1b. Knowledge] which Erillus the Philosopher, as Diog. Laertius writes of him, held to be the End of Living.

Ver. 4. Draught] Sept. Sound, imagining כִּק as a Contraction of כִּקִּק and not reading the latter from the foregoing Ver. as Bythn. conceits.

1b. with them] the Heavens and Firmament looking like a Tent for the Sun; but what other Tabernacle for him is there in them? The Gr. is, in the Sun he has put his Tent: for which the Heb. would not only require the Change of ל into ב but also of בָּהֵל into ו joined to another Word, utterly improbable to have ever been.

Ver. 5. By Jonson,

Sponsi more novi thalamo se tollit Eos;
Carpit et, exultans more gigantis, iter.

There is not in all Virgil, says the Pres. Disc. a greater Sublimity of Verse than in these Lines, viz. in sounding to the Sense: in Eng. Like a new married Man from the Wedding-Chamber he raises himself up from the East, and takes his Journey triumphant like a Giant; as I understand it, and not as in the printed Interpretation, out of his Morning Bed, which debases the Image the inspired Writer gives.

1b. flour Man] Sept. Giant, not signified, and less agreeable.

1b. a Race] Mudge, his Path; how flat!

of his Marriage-chamber, is joyful like a stout Man to run a Race.

6. His coming forth is from the End of the Heavens, and at their Extremities is his Circuit; from whose Heat there is Nothing hid.

7. The Law of the Lord is perfect, converting the Soul; the Testimony of the Lord is certain, making wise the Simple;

8. The Precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the Heart; the Commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the Eyes;

9. The Fear of the Lord is clean, remaining for ever; the Judgments of the Lord are true: they are all righteous together.

10. More to be desired than Gold, or much pure Gold; and sweeter than Honey, or the Dropping of Honey-combs.

11. Thy Servant is also admonished by them; by observing them there is great Reward.

12. Who understands his Errors? Cleanse me from those that are hid.

13. Keep back thy Servant likewise from presumptuous Things, let them not have dominion over me; then shall I be perfect, as well as innocent from great Transgression.

14. Let the Speeches of my Mouth, and the Meditation of my Heart, be acceptable before thee, O Lord, my Rock and Redeemer.

P S A L M XX.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The Lord will answer thee at the Time of Distress, the Name of the God of Jacob will exalt thee;

2. He will send Help for thee from the holy Place, and support thee from Zion;

3. Will remember all thy Offerings; and make thy Burnt-sacrifice right. A Pause.

4. He will grant thee what is in thy Heart, and fulfil all thy Purpose.

5. In whose Salvation let us sing, and set up a Standard in the Name of our God; since the Lord will fully grant all thy Petitions.

6. I know already that the Lord saves his anointed one; whom he answers from his holy Heaven, in the saving Power of his right Hand.

7. Some of Chariots, and others of Horses, but we are mindful of the Name of the Lord our God.

8. Those have stooped, and are fallen down: whereas we rose, and shall be kept up.

9. O Lord, save: let the King answer us on the Day we call.

P S A L M XXI.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The King, O Lord, is glad through thy Strength; nay how exceedingly he rejoices through thy Salvation!

2. Who hast given him the Desire of his Heart, and not withheld the Proposal of his Lips; a Pause.

3. When thou hadst prevented him with good Blessings, setting a Crown of pure Gold on his Head;

Ver. 3. make—right] The Verb usually signifies to make fat, but several take it to mean here turn into Ashes; so this being general agrees with either, better than accept.

Ver. 5. set up a Standard] Sept. be magnified, as if η and λ were transposed, but more likely the Signification only was transferred.

1b. of our God] In the Com. Pray. of the Lord our God, from a corrupt Copy only of the Sept. which the vulg. Lat. did not follow.

Ver. 7. are mindful of] Sept. will call upon, by there being λ before Name, and as the Verb also signifies to make mention; yet that translating is wrong, and the Vatican Editions have shall be magnified, as in Ver. 5.

Ver. 8. stooped] Sept. had the feet tied, poorly from the Noun of this Verb signifying Legs.

Ver. 9. save: let the King] Gr. Transf. save the King; which the Heb. Pause should have prevented, and hereby the Usefulness of it appears.

1b. answer] This the Gr. has in the 2d Person quite inconsistent with the Heb.

Ver. 2. the Desire] which seems to be David's obtaining the whole Kingdom of Israel, and that this was made on that Occasion.

1b. Proposal] Sept. Will (improper to Lips) going for the Meaning of אמר as it is only here, to אמר since א and ו are servile Letters, and ו of a Sound like א .

Ver. 3. a Crown] See 2 Sam. v. 3.

1b. pure Gold] Sept. precious Stone.

Ver. 6. their Extremities] Sept. the End of Heaven.

Ver. 8. Precepts] Sept. Righteousnesses: being at a Loss, as it appears to me, they went for the Meaning of קצק here to קצק through some Likeness; not because the latter may be corrected by the former, as with Byth.

1b. enlightening] Apollinarius,

$\text{ἡνελ ἡ εἰς ὅρα καὶ ὁμασι φῆγγος αἰένου}$.

Light increases to the Eyes by the bright Commandment.

Ver. 11. admonished] The LXX translate, thy Servant keeps them; not because they referred it to Practice, as Byth writes, but deriving nizhar from nazar in the room of zabar; where the Interpreter's Deficiency in Grammar is apparent.

Ver. 13. Keep back] Sept. Spare, interpreting basac by bus.

1b. presumptuous Things] Gr. Strangers, by the Error of supposing η to be η .

1b. great] which David having probably before this committed, particularly his Murder and Adultery, prays to be preserved from such for the future. But [the] must be improper here, though referring to that, as doubtless it was designed in the com. Transf. because God's Forgiveness had, and must be what cleared him from that Transgression, or any other already committed; and not God's keeping him back from it, which could relate only to what was not yet done.

Ver. 1. Psalm] which he composed, as I think, when he was going against the Syrians, 2 Sam. x. 18. it being on Occasion of a War, Ver. 5. where the Enemies set their Minds on their Chariots and Horses, Ver. 7. as 2 Sam. x. 17. and who seem to have been beat before, Ver. 8. as 2 Sam. x. 13, 15.

4. The Life that he asked thee for, hast thou granted him, a very long Space of Time.

5. His Renown is great through thy Salvation, Dignity and Honour dost thou put upon him :

6. As being one that thou wilt make very happy for ever, and joyful with the Gladness of thy Presence.

7. For the King trusts in the Lord, and by the Kindness of the Highest cannot be removed.

8. Thy Hand meets with all thy Enemies, thy right Hand finds those out who hate thee.

9. Thou makest them as an Oven with Fire at the Time of thy Presence : the Lord devours them in his Anger, the Fire consuming them.

10. Their Fruit thou causest to perish from the Earth, their Offspring from Mankind.

11. Because they are wickedly inclined against thee ; contriving Devices, they cannot prevail in.

12. For thou settest them for a Butt, taking aim on thy Strings at their Face.

13. Be exalted, O Lord, in thy Strength ; let us sing, and that melodiously, thy Power.

P S A L M XXII.

FOR the chief Musician ; upon the Morning Hind. A Psalm of David.

My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me, being far off from saving me, and the Words of my Roaring ?

Ver. 5. Honour] In the Liturgick Psalms, great worship ; see Psa. iii. 3.

Ver. 7. cannot be removed] as Saul and Ish-bosheth had been.

Ver. 12. settest] the Verb not signifying to make turn.

Ib. them for a Butt, taking aim] so Patrick.

These shall be made the Mark, at which

Thy killing Arrows aim ;

as also the Bp. of that Name, make them the Mark ; and Dupont cites the same Manner in Gr. Verse, using enavos, a Butt or Mark, and tilwobuv@, taking aim.

Ib. Strings] Sept. Remnants thus, will prepare their Face in thy Remnants, a strange Expression, by which also they leave out by against, and for this have only the Meaning of another Noun from the same Root.

Ver. 1. the Morning Hind] in the Eng. Marg. the Hind of the Morning : this appears to denote David himself, then in such a Condition as a Hind is, that is hunted in a Morning ; and consequently was (as the Matter also shews) in the Time of his Troubles under Saul.

Ib. Hind] Sept. and Vulg. Receiving, which the Dewey Translators render Enterprize, but Byth. expounds it Help (viz. received) no Matter which is right or wrong : I know not how the LXX turned it so, but by taking in lib in the two Words for in lib and should be obliged to him that can discover it better.

Ib. By Jonston,

Ab, Deus! ah! me cur liquisti? ululatibus aures

Cur, procul abscedens, subtrahis usque meis?

which excels in its Kind (for Imitation by Sound) all that can be found in the Latin Language, says the Writer of the Prefatory Discourse.

Ib. My God, &c.] which our Blessed Saviour used on

2. O my God, I call by Day, but thou dost not answer ; and by Night, there being no Silence to me.

3. Yet thou art holy, dwelling where the Praises of Israel are.

4. In whom our Fathers trusted ; and as they did, thou deliveredst them.

5. They cried to thee, and were set free : they trusted in thee, and did not become ashamed.

6. But I am as a Worm, and not a Man, the Reproach of Men, and the despised one of the People.

7. All who see me scoff at me thus, thrusting out the Lip, shaking the Head ;

8. He commits himself to the Lord, let the same deliver him : he may rescue him, since he delights in him.

9. For thou broughtest me out of the Belly ; madest me dependent at my Mother's Breasts.

10. I was cast upon thee from the Womb : thou hast been my God from my Mother's Belly.

11. Be not far off from me, for there is Distress near, and no Helper.

12. Many Bullocks compass me, the Bulls of Bashan inclose me about.

13. They open their Mouth at me, as a Lion tearing and roaring.

14. I am poured out like Water, and all my Bones come apart, my Heart is like Wax, being melted in my Inside.

15. My Strength is dried up like a Pottersherd, and my Tongue cleaves to my Jaws ; so that thou makest me ready for the Dust of Death.

the Cross, in Syriack, Mat. xxvii. 46. supposed to be then the common Language in Judca ; but rejects the Gr. look upon me : to make which I suppose the last מן was taken for מן and look supplied as understood, then that God at first (to which the Gr. has not my) was added afterwards ; something different from Byth. who does not quite suit his to the Gr. and adds a Letter more.

Ib. saving me] Hars and Mudge change the Heb. into my Crying, and so make a Tautology.

Ib. Roaring] The Gr. and vulg. Lat. after it, as usual in this Book, have it Sins in a strange Sense ; and how I believe I have hit upon, viz. by interpreting מאן like מאן Psa. xix. 12. whose i might be left out, and this be plural without the Points.

Ver. 2. Silence] Sept. for Folly, as though Silence was such.

Ver. 3. dwelling] Psalt. continuous, and in a wrong Division.

Ver. 8. delights in him] The Dewey Translators have it will him, being hard put to it for English to vult.

Ver. 9. dependent] As he could not then hope, nor is that the Meaning of the Heb. Word, being the same as at Ver. 5.

Ver. 12. Bulls] So translated Psa. l. 13. & lxxviii. 30. the LXX have fat Bulls, giving the Word a double Meaning with the Adjective from בשר for בשר

Ver. 14. in my Inside] and not as in the com. Reading.

Ver. 15. like a Pottersherd] that lies about the House, or in the Ashes, to which no Moisture comes.

Ib. Dust] or Mould, but that it might be taken in another Sense here.

16. For Dogs compass me, the Assembly of Evil-doers come about me; piercing my Hands and Feet.

17. I can count all my Bones: they stare, looking at me.

18. They divide my Garments to themselves, and cast lots for my Cloaths.

19. Therefore be thou not, O Lord, far off: my Strength, make haste to my Help.

20. Rescue my Life from the Sword, the only Thing I have from the Dog's Paw.

21. Save me from the Lion's Mouth; as thou hearest from the Horns of the Unicorns.

22. So will I declare thy Name to my Brethren, among the Congregation I will praise thee.

23. You who fear the Lord, praise him; all that are Jacob's Offspring, honour him; and be in fear of him, you whole Offspring of Israel.

24. For he does not despise, nor abhor, the Calamity of the Afflicted, neither hide his Face from him; but hears, when he cries out to him.

25. By thee shall my Praise be in the, great Congregation: I will perform my Vows before those who fear him.

26. The Meek will eat, and be satisfied; they will praise the Lord who seek him: your Heart will live for evermore.

27. All the Limits of the Earth will remember, and return to the Lord; and all the Families of the Nations bow down before thee.

28. For the Kingdom is the Lord's, who has dominion in the Nations.

29. All the fat ones of the Earth, that have been eating, will bow down; all who are descending to the Mould will fall down before him; and none will preserve his Life.

30. The Offspring will serve him, that will be counted up to the Lord for a Generation.

31. They will come, and declare his Righteousness, to the People who shall be born, that he has done it.

P S A L M XXIII.

A PSALM of David.

The Lord is my Shepherd; I do not want.

Ver. 16. Dogs] Dogs and worse Men have compass'd me, has Dan. Burgess in his Metre, as though they were very Dogs; but the Psalmist has no and for that.

Ib. piercing] There being no other Place or Word in the Heb. Bible, but what may fairly I trust be vindicated, from having been corrupted or altered, of those which I have omitted as unnecessary, referring the Reader to Simon's Critical History, B. I. Ch. xviii. xix. who may well be hearkened to in this; I would mention here, that they pierced is not as the Heb. is, but as some suppose it should be: whereas the Heb. Word as it is, may be taken for a Participle of the same Meaning, from כָּאֵר as in the Lexicon of Capellus, as here rendered, without any supposed Corruption of Jews, or Loss of Sense; according to Petock, and as Carpzovius, shews in his Defence of the Heb. Bib. against Whiston, Chap. i. Ob. 28. The Author of the State of the Pr. Heb. Text objects that the Omission of the ׁ is very irregular, being never proper but before a suffix'd Pronoun, or in construal; which latter we are to take for the constructed Form, and such, if he had understood Hebrew sufficiently, he might have known this to be as a Participle, according to קָרָא calling upon, Psa. xcix. 6. רָמַי shooting with, Psa. lxxviii. 6. באִי entering, Gen. xxiii. 10. רָאִי seeing, Est. i. 14. as in Buxt. Gram. L. II. C. xviii.

Ver. 19. make haste] Sept. apply, fondly to have Something better.

Ver. 20. only Thing] according to the Heb. (not darling) viz. his Life.

Ib. Dog's Paw] the Saxon is, banda bunda, the Paw of the Hound.

Ver. 21. from the Horns] David being now, I suppose, in the Wilderness among the wild Beasts, praying to be delivered from Saul.

Ver. 24. from him] The LXX have from me, how, may be easily seen in the Heb. and in other Notes of the like.

Ver. 25. those who] Payne,—them God's fearers be; and the like in the very next Verse.

Ver. 26. seek] Sternhold, and those that do their deaver.

Ib. your Heart] Sept. their Hearts, not by ׁ for ׃ but their Sense of it.

Ver. 27. before thee] Gr. before him, possibly by looking at that in the 29th Verse.

VOL. I.

Ver. 29. have been eating] Jun. and Trem. have commented, that are eating, but the Heb. Verb is in the preterperfect Tense; and how contrary shall eat is to the Context may be easily seen.

Ib. will bow down] This the Papish Doway Annot. interprets, shall religiously adore Christ's Blessed Bodie in the Sacrament.

Ib. none will preserve his Life] Septuag. my Soul is alive to him, mistaking one lo for another, and for yet the former Mudge knowingly espouses, tho' he might have learned from Byth. the Disagreement of Gender; but not the latter, it shewing more of the Critick to be singular in this Work.

Ver. 30. Offspring] Litur. my seed, from the Vulg. Lat. & Gr.

Ver. 30, 31. for a Generation. They will come] But by turning ׁ into ׃ in one Word, and striking off ׁ from another, then joining them together, by tearing away the double Partition of the Heb. Pointing, Silluk and Sophpasuk, our Translator above can make, the Generation that is to come shall be numbered to the Lord: yet too awkwardly, since in the Heb. Manner it would be, a Generation will come, and be &c. nor will Psa. lxxi. 18. justify or even countenance it, being a different Thing, much less Capellus's Cant of the LXX reading so.

Ver. 31. declare] Gr. and Gom. Prayer, the Heavens shall declare.

Ib. done it] i. e. made them come and declare, with each of the Things before. Litur. from the LXX whom the Lord hath made; which Transf. the strenuous Writer of Holy David, &c. justifying throughout at any Rate, as if it was without Fault, discovers also his little Knowledge of the Heb. since ׁ that is neither to be suppressed here, nor signifies indeed.

Ver. 1. Psalm] which seems made after David had fetched the Ark to him, by Ver. ult. see 2 Sam. vi. 17.

Ib. Buchanan is blamed for introducing this Psalm with,

Quid frustra ravidissime petitis canes!

Livor propositum cur premis improbum?

Why do ye seek me, O mad Dogs, in vain? O Spite, why dost thou press on the wicked Purpose! But I am ready to conclude it was in Relation to himself with the Popish Inqui-

2. He makes me lie down in Pastures of fresh Grass: leads me by still Waters,

3. He restores my Soul, guides me in the Roads of Righteousness, for his Name's sake.

4. Nay though I go through the Valley of the Shadow of Death, I fear no Ill, since thou art with me; whose Rod and Staff comfort me.

5. Thou furnishest a Table for my Presence before my Adversaries, makest my Head wet with Oil, my Cup is quite full.

6. Certainly Goodness and Kindness will follow me all the Days of my Life, and I shall rest in the House of the Lord a long Time.

Lord, and Righteousness from the God of his Salvation.

6. This Generation that seek for him, who seek thy Presence, is Jacob. A Pause.

7. Take away your Heads, O Gates, and be taken away, you everlasting Doors; that the glorious King may come in.

8. Who is this glorious King? The strong and powerful Lord, the Lord that is powerful in War.

9. Take away your Heads, O Gates, and get away, you everlasting Doors: that the glorious King may come in.

10. Who is it this glorious King is? The Lord of Armies, he is the glorious King. A Pause.

P S A L M XXIV.

A PSALM of David.

The Earth is the Lord's, and what it is full of; the World, and those that dwell in it.

2. For it was he laid its Foundation on the Seas, and established it upon the Floods.

3. Who shall go up on the Lord's Mountain? And who stand up in his holy Place?

4. He that is innocent with his Hands and of a pure Heart; who does not carry himself vainly, nor swear deceitfully.

5. He shall carry a Blessing from the

P S A L M XXV.

BY David.

"To thee, O Lord, I lift up my Soul.

2. "My God, I trust in thee; let me not be ashamed, let not my Enemies triumph against me.

3. "Nor let those who wait for thee be ashamed; let them be so that are treacherous without cause.

4. "Make known thy Ways to me, O Lord, teach me thy Paths.

5. "Cause me to go in thy Truth, as sitors, who persecuted him in Portugal; where he translated Part at least of the Psalms; and then the Beginning of this Psalm joins agreeably with it.

Ib. do not] agreeable to the com. Eng. Transf. of the next Verse.

Ver. 4. Valley] Sept. Middle, by the Chald. מִן from מִן the Heb. being מִן.

Ver. 5. wet] Heb. fat. To this the Doway Annotators tack on, Christian souls are also strengthened by the Sacraments of Confirmation, Penance, holy Orders, Matrimony, and extreme Unction; not minded to lose a Passage for Proof of those five Sacraments of theirs.

Ib. my Cup is quite full] Where the Vers. of the Seventy, thy Cup makes drunk, as being very strong; and the vulg. Lat. my Cup that makes drunk how brave it is! have the latter made out of the next Verse, which such as would correct the Original by those Translations may take their Choice of; whilst the Targum is like the Heb. excepting that for abounds it has is large.

Ver. 6. rest] translated dwell by mistaking the Heb. Root.

Ib. a long Time] Heb. to Length of Days, Sax. on langenessi daya.

Ver. 1. Psalm] It is not unlikely to be made on Occasion of bringing the Ark to Mount Zion; so Grotius refers it to 2 Sam. vi. 12.

Ver. 4. himself] The Marg. Reading is my for him or his, and self or soul the Jews expound to signify the Name of God (of which see Vicars here in his Decapla in Psalmos) as if spoken by him, which the rest of the Psalm shews it was not.

Ver. 6. thy] of God with the Sept. by dull Paraphrase spoiling one of the finest Elegances of Language, but Patr. worse by referring thy to Children of Jacob.

Ib. is Jacob] Jun. and Trem. say, the Generation of Jacob; Castal. videlicet Jacobeorum, that is of those belonging to Jacob; Leo Jud. of Jacob are they; Ainsw. of Jacob, and Hulse, is Jacob. How absurd is it for the Posterity of Jacob, to speak to and seek themselves, as it amounts to in the com. Transf.

Ver. 7. Take away] the same Verb that I have rendered carry in the 4th and 5th Verses.

Ib. Heads] By this the Gates seem composed of an upper and under Part, that might open separately, as is not unusual now; and though the upper Part might be turned up, yet surely not the other, which would then come in the room of that: so that take away better suits both, and the whole Doors, and the proper Meaning of the Verb is take. Let it be observed too that this was spoken in respect to the Ark, being not barely the Emblem, but peculiar Residence of the Divine Presence, which required the Tops of the Gates to be opened, as expressed Psa. cxviii. 10. when it was brought in aloft, as at Ver. 9. The Gr. and Vulg. thus, Lift up your Gates, O Princes, but so awkwardly posited, as to manifest the Heb. was the same it is now, which will by no means admit of such Construction; see Byth. Lyræ Proph.

Ver. 9. get away] or take away your selves; for it does not appear that the Doors had separate Heads like the Gates, as being also less grand, and Things of a greater Height might be brought into the Courts, to require Heads to the Gates; particularly it may be supposed the Ark was carried in there on the Levites Shoulders, 1 Chron. xv. 15. and taken down to be carried into the Tabernacle or Temple, 1 Chron. xvi. 2. which makes it all clear to be understood.

well as teach me: for thou art the God of my Salvation; for thee I wait every Day.

6. Remember thy Mercies, O Lord, and Favours: for they are from everlasting.

7. Do not remember the Sins of my Youth, and my Trespases: according to thy Kindness be thou mindful of me, for the sake of thy Goodness, O Lord.

8. The Lord is good, and upright; therefore he instructs Sinners in the Way.

9. He makes the Meek go in that which is right, whom he teaches his Way.

10. All the Lord's Paths are Kindness and Truth, to those who keep his Covenant and Testimonies.

11. For thy Name's sake, O Lord, do thou also pardon my Iniquity, for it is great.

12. Whoever the Man is that fears the Lord, he will instruct him in the Way he should choose:

13. He himself shall abide in that which is good, and his Offspring inherit the Earth.

14. The Lord's Secret is for those who fear him, and his Covenant to be made known to them.

15. My Eyes are to the Lord continually, that he may bring my Feet out of the Net.

16. Look towards me, and be gracious to me; as I am one alone, and afflicted.

17. They have made the Distresses of my Heart large: bring me out of my Streights.

18. See my Affliction, and Trouble; and forgive all my Sins.

19. See that my Enemies are many, and hate me with violent Spite.

20. Preserve my Soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed, for I trust in thee.

21. Let Sincerity and Virtue keep me; because I wait for thee.

22. Redeem Israel, O God, from all their Distresses.

P S A L M XXVI.

BY David.

Judge me, O Lord, for I walk in my Integrity; and trusting in the Lord, do not slip.

2. Prove me, O Lord, and try me: examine my Reins and Heart.

3. For thy Kindness is before my Eyes, and I walk continually in thy Truth.

4. I do not sit with vain Persons, nor go in with lurking Fellows.

5. I hate the Company of Evil-doers, and sit not with the Wicked.

6. I wash my Hands in Innocency, and come round thy Altar, O Lord;

7. To be heard with the Voice of Thanksgiving, and to declare all thy Wonders.

8. O Lord, I love the Habitation of thy House, and the Place of the Tabernacle for thy Glory.

Ver. 5. for thee] Elegant without a Conjunction, notwithstanding Mudge's Manglings, who has more than merited Bentley's Aristarchus, in another Rich. Johnson, that Chief of all Grammarians; but alas he wrote against the com. Gram. to whose Memory the Author pays the Tear that is due.

Ver. 8. Johnson,
*Est justus, comisque Deus; gens discit ab illo
Devia, quod fugiat, quodque sequatur iter:*
God is both just and gentle; the wandering People learn of him, what Road they should shun, and what follow.

Ver. 10. Kindness] as in Ver. 6. Sax. Mildheortmyssa.

Ver. 11. also] which answers very well to the foregoing Ver. though left out of our Transl. and notwithstanding Ep. Hare and Mudge would have hear my Voice thrust in before it, to make it and, which would spoil that more certain Connection.

Ib. great] consequently it was that about Uriah and his Wife, especially by what is said, 1 King. xv. 5. and so must be written after that; nay seems by Ver. 19, 20. at Abshalom's Rebellion. The Verses of this Psalms, being as many as the Heb. Letters, begin alphabetically; but not exactly so, for the second Verse as well as the first begins with the first Letter, unless the two first Words are transposed, and the sixth and nineteenth Letters are omitted, instead of which the twentieth is doubled together, and the seventeenth repeated at the End, as they are here prefixed to the Verses; whose Antiquity may from hence, and other Places of this Kind appear.

Ver. 13. He himself] Mudge, His own self, justly.

Ver. 14. Secret] which Wb. and Sil. express,
His secret Wisdom will instruct their Mind;
and further explain to be, His good suggestions to their souls.

Ver. 17. made] being active and transitive. But Mudge has, Enlarge the Straits of my Heart; and bring: that is by a considerable Change of the Original to make it so. May no such Gains be mine!

Ver. 21. keep] Gr. cleave to, two other Heb. Verbs that resemble this signifying to bind or besiege, and one of them would have the same Letters, tho' not Points.

Ver. 1. This Psalms seems to be made when David was getting out of Saul's Favour, and found himself in Danger, but could yet resort to the Altar and Tabernacle. Beza applies it much to the King's Court, but with forced Interpretation; as Hutton does more forcibly to the Sacrament.

Ver. 2. examine] Vulg. burn; but by the Earl I suppose you will think better, try—by fire.

Ver. 3. walk continually] by Geo. Sandys, our excellent English Traveller and Poet,

Nor from thy Truth

Have I in Youth,

Or will in Age depart.

Sept. metaphorically have been pleased, as they translate Enoch pleased, Gen. v. 24.

Ver. 4. go] Sax. fare, as wayfaring for waygoing, and farrivell for gowell.

Ib. in] into their Lurking-places; see Psa. x. 8, 9.

Ib. lurking Fellows] Heb. them who are hid, and how could David be sure to avoid Dissemblers? Which Word is made by Baxter four Syllables, and thus exaggerated,
With hairs and Dissemblers

I never will go in;

which certainly no Man could safely say, not even Baxter in his Society. Sept. them who do unlawfully, from by for by

9. Do not let my Soul be gathered with Sinners, nor my Life with bloody Men;

10. In whose Hands there is Villainy, and their right Hand is full of Bribes.

11. But I walk in my Integrity: redeem me, and be gracious to me.

12. My Foot stands in Uprightness: I bless the Lord in the Congregations.

PSALM XXVII.

BY David.

The Lord is my Light and Salvation, of whom should I be in fear? The Lord is the Strength of my Life, of whom should I be afraid?

2. When Evil-doers come near against me, to eat my Flesh, being my own Adversaries and Enemies; they stumble, and fall.

3. If an Army encamp against me, my Heart shall not fear: if War rise up against me, in that shall I be secure.

4. I have requested one Thing of the Lord, which I seek; that I may dwell in the Lord's House all the Days of my Life, to look on the Pleasantness of the Lord, and to enquire in his Temple.

5. For he will keep me secret in his Tabernacle, at the Time of Adversity, will hide me in a private Place of his Tent, lift me up high on a Rock.

6. Even now he lifts up my Head above my Enemies round about me, therefore will I offer in his Tent Sacrifices with Shouting; I will sing, and that melodiously, to the Lord.

7. Hear, O Lord, I call with my Voice; be also gracious to me, and answer me.

8. My Heart saying for thee, Seek my Face; I do seek it, O Lord.

9. Hide not thy Presence from me, nor turn thy Servant away in Anger, who art my Help: do not leave me, nor forsake me, O God of my Salvation.

10. Though my Father and Mother forsake me, yet the Lord will receive me.

11. Teach me thy Way, O Lord, and lead me in the Path of Uprightness, by reason of those that observe me.

12. Give me not up to the Mind of my Adversaries: for false Witnesses would rise up against me, and he who breathes out Violence;

13. But that I have caused a Belief, that I shall see the Lord's Goodness in the Country of the Living.

14. Wait for the Lord, be steadfast, and he will strengthen thy Heart; therefore wait for him.

Ver. 9. let] See Psa. xxviii. 3.

Ib. gathered] The Sept. destroy, by deriving it from נשח when it is from נחם.

Ver. 3. in that] viz. War, being both fem. so that in him is wrong in the Lit. which to defend in Holy David clear'd is made worse, by supposing this was left quite out, and in him supplied.

Ver. 6. offer] In the Popish English, but a Year before our pres. Trans. have immolated an host of jubilation.

Ver. 8. My Heart saying for thee] dictating to him on God's behalf, according to Dav. Kimbi, Sol. Jarbi and Mudge: this is before, Seek my Face in Heb. and parted with it by the great Point from that which follows.

Buchanan turns it,

Te mens anhelat, vultus ad vultum tuum

Intentus usque respicit:

My Mind breathes out thee, my attentive Countenance looks to thine; and Cocceius literally, as his Manner is, Pro te dixit cor meum, Quarite, &c. My Heart said for thee, Seek, &c. Heaven's Voice, if we listen, says Young, ever speaking in the human Heart, Centaur, Lct. iv. In the Psalter it is, My Heart hath talked of thee.

Ib. Seek my Face] Sadly mangled in the Greek and Latin Copies.

Ver. 12. be who] viz. Saul, the Heb. Word being singular.

Ib. breathes out Violence] With the LXX, Iniquity has lyed to it self, in no Affinity to the Heb. says Bythn. but I fancy they turned Violence from particular to general, and breathes the contrary, to make Something that was plainer.

Ver. 13. But that] This, it is as improbably as audaciously said in Critical Notes on some Passages, p. 31. the Chaldee has inserted into the original text: for how should that be done, if it is of no signification or use, but to spoil the Sense, as there pretended? Yet more monstrous is the Imagination, that Part of the Heb. Word had belonged to the foregoing Verse, and the other Part was added to it without Sense; which translating before by would, that cannot be denied to the Heb. Verbs, happily ruins.

Ib. caused a Belief] by his being appointed King by Samuel, slaying Goliath, &c. which probably might restrain his Enemies for a while, and when this Psalms was written, for fear of Punishment in his future Prosperity; tho' others refer it to his old Age or latter Time, for which I want sufficient Reason. It is in the Conjug. Hiphil, which denotes causing another to do what the Verb signifies, and tho' in this Verb it is commonly used like Kal, yet is not therefore to lose its natural Meaning.

Ver. 14. wait for] To wait on is to attend on, minister to or serve; whereas this Heb. Verb has no such Meaning, but signifies to wait or look for, or expect, as the Particle does rather for than on: so Pagn. Munst. Leo Jud. and the Vulg. Lat. Trans. render it expecta, Jun. and Trem. only spelling it differently expecta, Ainsw. earnestly wait thou for, the Saxon being yeambida, abide for. The same Verb being used in this Sense seventeen Times in the Psalms, and fourteen in Isaiab, besides other Books, the present Account of it may serve for all. Jonston having, Fide Deo, firmamque fidem, sunt præmia præsto; it is extolled for the Harmony of i and e repeated, Pres. Dis. ascribed to Benson, p. 52. while it lies in the f and pr, which with other Vowels would sound better, than those Vowels with other Consonants.

P S A L M XXVIII.

BY David.

To thee, O Lord, I call; my Rock, be not deaf to me: lest thou being so, I should become like them who go down into the Pit.

2. Hear the Voice of my Supplications, when I cry out to thee, when I lift up my Hands to thy holy Oracle.

3. Let me not be drawn away with the Wicked, and those who work Iniquity; that talk peaceably with their Neighbours, while there is Mischief in their Hearts.

4. Give them according to their Work, and the Evil of their Doings; after the Deed of their Hands give them: render their Recompence to them.

5. Because they consider not of the Lord's Works, and of the Deed of his Hands; he will throw them down, and not build them up.

6. Blessed be the Lord; for he has heard the Voice of my Supplications.

7. The Lord is my Strength, and Shield; in whom my Heart having trusted, I have been helped: therefore shall my Heart triumph, and I will praise him with my Poem.

8. The Lord is Strength to such, and he is the very safe Fortreis of his anointed one.

Ver. 1. This seems to be written after his Deliverance from Absalom's Rebellion, but while he was in Danger by Sheba's, 2 Sam. xviii. & xx. by which the Reader may know how to apply the Particulars: so I find Nichols since, but others apply it to other Times.

Ib. my Rock, be not] from whence Woodford,

My God, be not a Rock to hear, though thou art one to save.

Ib. deaf] as the Verb signifies: the Litur. has strangely think no scorn of me, and K. James obscurely, to follow the new Translation he had ordered, leave silence helps to send, for be not silent in sending Help.

Ver. 3. let] For surely God would not draw him away with the wicked. The Vulg. for trabas, draw, has tradat, deliver, corruptly.

Ib. away] Com. Pray. neither destroy me, only from the old Translations. The Vindication of it in the Defence of this Translation, p. 19. is a miserable one, This signifies the same thing with the foregoing words, or explains the meaning of them; either being quite needless, and unjustifiable.

Ver. 5. and of] The old Metre old indeed, his low, no yet his love.

Ver. 7. shall my Heart triumph] Gr. my Flesh is recovered again; but will our new Criticks assert, bold as they are, in their wonted Fashion, that the LXX read בשר or שר where the Heb. has now לב on the contrary I think they turned Heart into Flesh, not to repeat it; and suited the Verb to it, which they do not render so elsewhere, but variously.

Ver. 8. to such] such as were like David himself in the foregoing Verse, there being also the Heb. Prefix for to. This having been rendered of his People, in a libertine Way, from the next Verse, the Author of Critical Notes

9. Save thy People, and bless thy Possession; nay feed them, and lift them up for ever.

P S A L M XXIX.

A Psalm of David.

Ascribe to the Lord, you Posterity of the mighty ones, ascribe to the Lord Glory and Strength.

2. Ascribe to the Lord the Glory of his Name, bow down to the Lord with holy Comeliness.

3. The Voice of the Lord is upon the Waters, the glorious God thunders, the Lord is upon the great Waters.

4. The Lord's Voice is with Power, the Lord's Voice is with Majesty.

5. The Voice of the Lord breaks the Cedars, even the Lord breaks the Cedars of Lebanon.

6. Nay he makes those skip like a Calf, Lebanon and Shirion like a young Unicorn.

7. The Voice of the Lord cuts out Flames of Fire.

8. The Lord's Voice shakes the Wilderness, the Lord shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.

9. The Voice of the Lord causes the Hinds to bring forth, makes the Woods bare, and is in his Temple: all of it tells his Glory.

on some Passages fancies, that לבו had been לעמו p. 33. and all the old Versions, but the Chaldee, which he brags of, with the Gr. the Lat. from that, and no Matter what from them.

Ib. anointed one] Sternhold, not as David's at all, but his own, of his elect by Christ.

Ver. 1. The two first Verses being taken from 1 Chron. xvi. 28, 29. the rest seems added for Illustration to make up another Psalm: Hammond, &c. apply it to the Victories, 2 Sam. viii. for which I see no Reason The LXX and our Psalt. in the midst of the former Ver. have bring to the Lord young Rams, only a different Rendering of the first Words.

Ver. 2. Comeliness] The LXX Court, as if they took דבר the radical Part of the Word to be דבר and the Meaning from דבר

Ver. 5. Thus rendered by Johnston,

Frondens hac Libani vertex nudatur: et ingens diffilit horrijoni verbera fracta cedrus.

Here the Crashing of the Tree that is torn all to Pieces, strikes the Ear in a very wonderful Manner, Prefat. Disj.

Ver. 6. those] Mountains, as Interpreters remark; to which, I suppose, the Author might point or nod, to make it quite proper.

Ib. Shirion] as Mount Hermen was called by the Zidonians, Deut. iii. 9.

Ver. 7. cuts out Flames] for Lightning; nor does the Verb signify divideth.

Ver. 9. makes—bare] by stripping off the Leaves with the Tempest he describes, which the Heb. signifies in good Sense, and is translated by, Ija. lii. 10. & xlvii. 2. Joel i. 7. Jer. xlix. 10. and by uncover, Ezek. iv. 7.

10. The Lord remained at the Deluge, and the Lord will remain King for ever.
 11. The Lord gives Strength to his People, the Lord blesses his People with Prosperity.

P S A L M XXX.

A PSALM, being a Poem for the Dedication of David's House.

I extol thee, O Lord; because thou hast advanced me, and not let my Enemies be glad concerning me.

2. O Lord my God, I cried out to thee, and thou hast healed me.

3. O Lord, thou hast brought up my Person from the Grave, hast kept me alive from going down into the Pit.

4. Sing melodiously to the Lord, you his pious ones, and give thanks at the Remembrance of his Holiness.

5. Though he is a Moment in his Anger, there is a Life in his Favour: in the Evening may be Weeping to abide for a Night, but at the Morning is Singing.

6. I thought when I was in my Quietness, I should never be removed;

7. Thou having in thy Favour, O Lord, made my Mountain remain strong: who hiding thy Face, I was troubled.

8. To thee, O Lord, I called, and to the Lord made supplication.

9. What Gain will there be in my Blood, when I go down to Corruption? Will the Mould praise thee? Will that declare thy Truth?

10. Hear, O Lord, and be gracious to me: O Lord, be my Helper.

while discovereth may be said to make none, notwithstanding the disingenuous Attempt in Holy David clear'd, to have it mean, to make any thing cease to be a covering, which is doing violence to common Sense.

Ib. all of it] So the Heb. is exactly, not every one, and Temple is parted from it by a great Stop; how good Sense it makes thus, is plain enough. Cross mentions it, Tugh. Art. p. 204. but does not rectify the Translation.

Ver. 10. remained] when the Inhabitants of the Earth were destroyed; to which both Jewish and Christian Interpreters refer it.

Ib. Deluge] the Word that is several Times used in Genesis for that of Noah, and no where else but here; the Heb. having another common Word for Flood.

Ver. 1. David's House] which he built, 2 Sam. v. 11. and was to be dedicated, Deut. xx. 5. so Ab. Ezr. refers it to 1 Chr. xiv. 1. or as Beza and Lightfoot, &c. think, after his House was polluted by Absalom's Incest, which some Expressions favour.

Ver. 5. a Life] in Length of Time, thus answering to a Moment. Both D. Kim. and Ab. Ezr. understand by it long Life; see further L. de Dieu, Animad.

Ib. Evening] Apollinarius, ἡ ὀψιμὴ νύκτις ἀντὶ τῆς ὑπομενέουσης ἡμέρας.

the Morning Rejoicing will change the Evening Weeping.

Ver. 7. Mountain] Septuag. Comelinefs, mistaking 7 for 7 which Mudge however vindicates, with a fresh Mistake

11. Thou didst turn my Lamentation into Dancing for me, didst undo my Sackcloth, and gird me with Gladness:

12. That my Instrument of Glory might sing to thee melodiously, and not be silent: O Lord my God, for ever will I praise thee.

P S A L M XXXI.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

In thee, O Lord, I trust, let me never be ashamed, through thy Righteousness deliver me.

2. Incline thy Ear to me, rescue me quickly: be a strong Rock to me, a House well fortified, to save me.

3. For thou art my firm Place, and Fortification: so guide me, and lead me, for thy Name's sake.

4. Bring me out of the Net that they have hid for me; because thou art my Strength.

5. I commit my Spirit into thy Hand; who hast redeemed me, O Lord, the true God.

6. I hate those that observe false Vanities; and I my self trust on the Lord.

7. Let me rejoice, as well as be glad, for thy Kindness; that thou hast seen my Affliction, hast known my Soul in Distresses,

8. And hast not shut me up in the Power of the Enemy, but made my Feet stand in a large Place.

9. Be merciful to me, O Lord, for I am distressed: my Eye is wasted away with Displeasure, my Soul, and my Belly.

of them both in his Note, telling of the Change just contrary.

Ver. 12. Instrument of Glory] the Tongue, as Patrick sings,

*My Tongue, no longer silent be,
To God due Praises give;
That in thy thankful Verse his Fame
Eternally may live;*

And Watts,

*My Tongue, the Glory of my Frame,
Shall ne'er be silent of thy Name;
Thy Praise shall sound thro' Earth and Heav'n,
For Sickness heal'd, and Sins forgiv'n.*

Ib. not be silent] Sept. I may not at all be vexed; it being no great Matter with them to change the Person, as well as Meaning.

Ver. 5. commit] unskily and obscurely in Goodridge's Manner,

*Receive, into thine Arms now thrown,
My Spirit I and protect thine own.*

Ver. 7. as well as] These Verbs being transposed in Psa. xxxii. 11.

Ver. 9. Belly] as being particularly affected in Trouble. Sax. innoth, and another Copy wamb; so the allowed Metre,

My wamb for we doth ache.

10. Because my Life is consumed in Sorrow, and my Years in Sighing; my Strength fails through my Iniquity, and my Bones are wasted away.

11. I am reproached by all my Adversaries, and among my Neighbours especially; so that my Acquaintance who see me in the Street being afraid of me, get away from me.

12. I am forgot, like a dead Man that is out of Mind: I am as a Thing which is lost.

13. For I hear the ill Report of many, there is Dread on every Side, by their consulting together against me who contrive how to take away my Life.

14. But I trust upon thee, O Lord; who, I say, art my God.

15. My Opportunities being in thy Power, deliver me from the Power of my Enemies, and from my Persecutors.

16. Make thy Face light to thy Servant, save me through thy Kindness.

17. O Lord, let me not be ashamed; for I call upon thee: let the Wicked be ashamed, be silent in the Grave.

18. Let the lying Lips be made dumb; that speak hard Things against a virtuous one, in Pride and Contempt.

19. How great thy Goodness is, which thou layest up for them that fear thee, dost work for those who trust in thee, before Mankind!

20. Thou hidest them in a private Place of thy Presence, from the Molestations of Man: thou keepest them secret in the Tabernacle, from the Strife of Tongues.

21. Blessed be the Lord: for he has made his Kindness wonderful to me, in a fortified City.

22. Though I said in my Haste, I am cut off distant from thy Sight; certainly thou didst hear the Voice of my Supplications, when I cried out to thee.

23. O love the Lord, all his pious ones: it is he who keeps the Faithful, and brings a Recompence upon the Excellency of him that does proudly.

24. Be steadfast, and he will strengthen your Heart, all you who wait for the Lord.

P S A L M XXXII.

AN instructing Poem of David.

It is blessed to have Transgression forgiven, Sin covered.

2. The Man is blessed to whom the Lord does not reckon Iniquity, and in whose Mind is no Deceit.

3. When I did not speak, my Bones decayed, by my Roaring every Day:

4. Because thy Hand was heavy upon me Day and Night; my natural Moisture being turned into the Drought of Summer. A Pause.

Ver. 10. Because my Life is consumed in Sorrow] in Saxon, forþam the aetwode on sare lif min.

Ib. Iniquity] Mudge produces the Seventy to make it Affliction; but I want better Authority than their translating only, and that is not Affliction, but Poverty, they deriving it from נחש instead of חש.

Ver. 12. a Thing which is lost] and thereby forgot, as the Word too does not signify broken.

Ver. 13. Dread] Sept. of many dwelling, by חננו for חננו only.

Ver. 15. Opportunities] for Deliverance, Gr. καιροί, Lots; but possibly that, subject to so many Changes as it was, might have been καυχή, tho' I rather think it thrown at a Venture as Lots are.

Ver. 20. See Psa. xxvii. 5.

Ib. Molestations] This Word, uncommon like the Heb. one, seems to answer best to the various Interpretations of the Jewish Writers, as well as Translators; who may be said mostly to differ as to the Kind of Molestation. The same Term will in like Manner agree with the Heb. and Chald. Roots; nay the turashes of the LXX sounds like the Root rachas.

Ver. 21. in a fortified City] Keilah, 1 Sam. xxiii. 7. which may shew the Occasion of this Psalms; see Tate's Version, Ver. 8, 21. Mudge fancying Jeremiah made the Psalms, turns it to besieged.

Ver. 23. distant] There is the like Expression, 1 Sam. xxvi. 20. which may signify his Distance from the Ark of God, whose peculiar Presence was there. This agrees well with the latter Part of the Verse, and appears evidently to be made at or soon after David's being in Keilah, for which also see Patr.

Ver. 23. upon the Excellency] so the Heb. literally; but the old Lat. indeed is abundanter, plentifully.

Ver. 24. See Psa. xxvii. 14.

Ver. 1. An instructing Poem] it springing from the Verb used Ver. 8. I suppose this was written by David in his Prosperity, but partly from and concerning his former Experience, for the Benefit of others.

Ib. forgiven] or taken away, as the Verb signifies, and is rendered in like Manner, Hesl. xiv. 2. and according to this the Dotwry Annotators argue well (for Justice is due to all) tho' as they say against Calvin and his Complices.

Ib. forgiven—covered] Singular Participles, which ending with ι the Gr. Translator (not to say the LXX) appears so poor a Grammarian, as to have taken for Substantives plur. in the constructed Form, as if Forgivenesses of Transgression, &c. tho' the Penult. ι might have corrected it.

Ver. 4. my natural Moisture] In the Gr. I am turned to Misery by the Thorn being thrust in: of which some Account may be given, viz. that קץ Summer was taken to mean the same as קץ a Thorn; that the ל of קץ was not radical, but a Preposition, and the other to come from קץ to lay waste; and that thrust in was fetched from קץ a Sword, of the same Root; not as Byth. would have it by Transposition from קץ associate, which is different from thrust in, and taking ני for me, which he puts to the Gr. to make them agree so: which Translation is known now to be here erroneous.

Ib. Drought of Summer] which is very great in that Country; inasmuch that Certen says, he travelling thro' good Part of Phenicia and Syria, from the Month of May to September, observed the Land was quite burnt up, so that in many Places he could not see one single Grass; yet by the Rain in other Seasons, there being none, he says, all the Summer long, and by the quick growing of the Corn, as quoted from him on Lev. xxiii. 10. he found Plenty of all Manner of Necessaries of Life: but from hence how strong and lively appears David's Comparison!

5. Then I acknowledged my Sin to thee, and did not cover my Iniquity; saying, I would make confession of my Transgressions to the Lord: upon which thou forgavest the Guilt of my Sin. A Pause.

6. For this shall every pious one pray to thee, at the Time that thou mayest be found; to whom they cannot however get nigh at the Flood of much Water.

7. Thou art a Hiding-place to me, keeping me from Distress, with Poems of Deliverance: thou incloest me about. A Pause.

8. I will instruct thee, and teach thee in what Way thou shouldest go: I will direct thee with my Eye.

9. Be not like a Horse, or a Mule, without Understanding, whose Mouth is to be curbed with a Bridle and Bit, that he may not come near thee.

10. A wicked Man will have many Sorrows; but Kindness will inclose him about who trusts in the Lord.

11. Be glad through the Lord, and rejoice, virtuous Men; nay sing aloud, all you that are of an upright Heart.

P S A L M XXXIII.

SING aloud, virtuous Men, through the Lord: Praise becomes the Upright.

2. Give thanks to the Lord with the Harp, sing to him melodiously with the Lute, the ten-stringed Instrument:

3. Sing a new Poem to him, play with a good Sound.

4. For the Word of the Lord is right, and every Work of his is true.

5. He loves Virtue and Justice: the Earth is full of the Lord's Kindness.

6. By the Word of the Lord were the Heavens made, and all that belonged to them by the Breath of his Mouth.

7. He gathers the Water of the Sea as a Heap, he puts the Depths in Treasuries.

8. Let the whole Earth stand in awe of the Lord, let all the Inhabitants of the World be in fear of him.

9. For what he says, must be: when he commands, it is established.

10. The Lord frustrates the Gentiles Design, makes the Thoughts of the People void.

11. The Lord's own Design will be established for ever, the Thoughts of his Heart to all Ages.

12. The Nation is blessed whose God is the Lord, the People that he chooseth for a Possession to himself.

13. The Lord looks from Heaven, seeing the whole human Race:

14. From his settled Rest he takes a view of all the Inhabitants of the Earth:

15. Whose Hearts he forms together, considers of all their Works.

16. No King is saved by the Greatness of Force, a stout Man is not delivered by a great deal of Strength.

Ver. 5. Guilt] rather than iniquity; to avoid which the Sept. have Sin changed into Heart.

Ver. 6. cannot get nigh at the Flood] as experienced Souls know, which the Remembrance of may be useful, and the following Lines, from Vida's Art of Poetry, B. I. translated by Pitt, conduce to it,

*Thus o'er the fields the swain pursues his road,
Till stopp'd at length by some impervious flood,
That from a mountain's brow, o'ercharg'd with rains,
Bursts in a thund'ring tide, and foams along the plains;
With bellowing chill'd, he traverses the shores,
Sees the waves rise, and hears the torrent roar;
Then griev'd returns; or waits with vain delay,
Till the tumultuous deluge rolls away.*

Ver. 7. Poems] Sept. my Rejoicing, the Difference being but [.] instead of [. .]

lb. thou incloest &c.] which makes the latter Part of the Verse, separated from the former as here by a great Point.

Ver. 8. I will] by which it is thought David meant himself; and it seems justified by the Title, as well as accords with Psa. xxxiv. 11.

lb. direct] But the Sept. confirm, having the Sense of yp from yp whose last Letters sound like a hard and soft z.

Ver. 9. that he may not come near] by turning his Head to bite: Heb. not to come near, which is the same, but mentioned because Mudge says it is not left (right) and seems to think not cannot have such a Meaning (but that he may see to be wrong) and therefore turns it contrary, he will not come near thee; which either disjoins it from the rest, and so makes no Sense, or otherwise else is wanting before it.

Ver. 11. I agree, says Mudge, with Dr. Hare that the last Verse will very commodiously begin the next Psalm; but I disagree with them, since it is usual to end a Psalm with Triumph, and this would make Tautology there, to say Nothing of such Schism.

Ver. 3. play &c.] See how enlarged and altered in the Liturgy!

Ver. 6. by the Breath] as if in speaking, according to Gen. i. 14. so Tate and Brady,

*By his Almighty Word, at first,
the Heavenly Arch was rear'd;
And all the beauteous Hosts of Light at his Command appear'd:*

Kennett has it,

*Heaven's radiant Host, the golden Orbs above,
Rose at his Voice, as by his Breath they move.*

Ver. 7. as a Heap] Capellus that Scandal of the Protestants in the last Century, for writing against the Hebr. Text, tho' the Patron of many in this, for the same Reason; not contented to have the Scripture altered, as he says the LXX, Targ. Hieron. and Arab. read (that is mistook) ned, a Heap, for ned, a Bottle; would also change as into in, without any Authority, so much as of a Translator, Crit. Sacr. Lib. iv. Cap. 17. & Lib. vi. Cap. 9. But see like this Psa. lxxviii. 13. Exod. xv. 8. Jos. iii. 13. and where is there like either of the other? Which also both make very poor Sense.

Ver. 10. the Gentiles Design] See 2 Sam. v. 17. whither I refer this.

lb. void] The Gr. and old Lat. Versions have an Addition, which in the Dwight Bible is, and he reproveth the counsels of princes, our Litur. casteth out; the Plea for which is in Defence, p. 9. this is no more than was said at the beginning of the verse; but what then is it here for?

Ver. 13. By Beza in Paraphrase, For God is not an idle Spectator of the Things he has created, nor lets them be carried on by chance; but beholds them all with a watchful Eye, and especially all Mankind.

17. A Horse is a false Thing for Safety, and cannot make escape by his great Force.

18. Behold the Lord's Eye is towards them who fear him, to those that wait for his Kindness;

19. To deliver their Person from Death, and to keep them alive in Famine.

20. Our Soul tarries for the Lord; who is our Help and Shield.

21. For through him our Heart is glad; since we trust in his holy Name.

22. Let thy Kindness, O Lord, be upon us, according as we wait for thee.

P S A L M XXXIV.

BY David; when he had altered his Behaviour before Abimelech; who driving him out, he got away.

* I will bless the Lord at all Times: his Praise shall be continually in my Mouth.

2. * My Soul shall glory through the Lord: when the Meek hear, they will be glad.

3. * Magnify the Lord with me, and let us extol his Name together.

4. * Upon my seeking the Lord, he answered me, and delivered me from all my Fears.

5. * They that look to him, and assemble together, will not have their Faces ashamed.

6. * But say, When such an afflicted one called, the Lord heard, and saved him from all his Distresses.

7. * The Angel of the Lord encamps round about those who fear him, and delivers them.

8. * Taste, and see, that the Lord is good: the Man is blessed who trusts in him.

9. * Fear the Lord, you Saints of his: for those that fear him, have no Want,

10. * Young Lions may be poor, and hungry; but such as seek the Lord will not want any good Thing.

11. * Come, young ones, hearken to me: I will teach you the Fear of the Lord.

12. * Whoever the Man is that desires Life, that loves Age, to enjoy what is good:

13. * Keep thy Tongue from Evil, and thy Lips from speaking Deceit;

14. * Depart from Evil, and do good; seek Peace, and pursue it.

15. * The Eyes of the Lord are towards the Righteous, and his Ears towards their Cry.

16. * The Lord's Face is against them that do Evil, to cut off their Remembrance from the Earth.

17. * When those cry, the Lord hears, and delivers them from all their Distresses.

18. * The Lord is near to such as are of a broken Heart, and saves them who are of a bruised Spirit.

19. * A virtuous Man has many Adversities, from all of which the Lord delivers him.

20. * He preserves all his Bones, there is not one of them broke.

21. * Adversity will kill the Wicked; and they that hate the Virtuous will be desolate.

22. * The Lord redeems the Soul of his Servants; and none shall be desolate who trust in him.

P S A L M XXXV.

BY David.

Contend, O Lord, with those that contend with me, fight with those that fight with me.

2. Taking hold of the Shield and Buckler, rise up for my Help.

3. Draw out the Spear too, and stop the

Ver. 19. them] This Barton makes to be their souls, with another Impropriety thus,

To save their souls from sharpest sword of Famine that can be,

Hymn 351.

Ver. 21. glad] Hopkins's Metre,

Our soul in God hath joy and game:

Goodridge in his Preface likewise produces good-will, Ver. 5. as some great Fault, being used of God, though there is the Like, Luk. ii. 14.

Ver. 22. wait for] the same Verb and Preposition as in Psa. lxi. 3. 2 King. vi. 33. Mic. vii. 7. thus Montan. translates it here expectavimus, Jun. and Trem. expectamus, Ainsw. hopefully wait for. The Reader may observe several other such Places, where the com. Transf. has hope in.

Ver. 1. This Psalm is Alphabetical like the 25th, only here the 6th Letter is left out, and the 17th repeated at the End.

1b. had] for it is plain by Ver. 3, 4, 6. this was composed after his Deliverance.

1b. Abimelech] being a common Name to the Kings of the Philistines, Gen. xx. 2. & xxvi. 1. and this is called by his proper Name Achish in 1 Sam. 21.

VOL. I.

Ver. 5. They that look] But by overlooking the Letter ו as it might be, for א the Seventy have translated Come, Imp. for no more the Heb. Letters would differ, tho' from the Roots, בוא and בוא.

1b. assemble together] rendered every where else in the com. Transf. flow together or flow, as here by Jun. and Trem. Leo. Jud. and Ainsw. which however is not so proper, being always said of People.

1b. their] Mudge, and Crit. Notes, your; for it is but changing a Heb. Letter, and Look Imp. by a Point.

Ver. 10. Young Lions] Seventy, The Rich, through the Nearness of כבדים to כפירים.

Ver. 13. Keep thy Tongue from Evil] In the Sax. or old Eng. bewere tungan thine fram yfele.

Ver. 17. those] the Righteous, Ver. 15. so that here is no Necessity of adding as the Sept. &c. do.

Ver. 21. Adversity] According as in Ver. 19. being the same Word, and coherent, with the foregoing, the Transf. of Jun. &c.

Ver. 1. It is evident this was made while David was in his Troubles under Saul.

1b. Contend] the same Verb that follows.

Passage of my Pursuers: say to my Soul, I am thy Safety.

4. Let those be ashamed and put to confusion, who seek my Life: let them be turned back and blush, that contrive my Hurt.

5. Let them be as Chaff before the Wind, the Angel of the Lord driving away,

6. Let their Way be in Darkness and slippery Places, the Angel of the Lord pursuing them.

7. Because they hid their Net for me undeservedly in a Pit, which they dug in the same Manner for my Soul.

8. Let Wasting come on him that he does not know of, and his Net that he hid catch himself; by which very Wasting let him fall.

9. So will my Soul rejoice through the Lord, will be joyful through his Safety.

10. All my Bones will say, O Lord, who is like thee, that deliverest the Afflicted from him that is too strong for him, even the Afflicted and Needy from him that spoils him?

11. Violent Witnesses stand up, who examine me about what I know Nothing of.

12. They reward me Evil for Good, making my Soul destitute.

13. But as for me, when they were sick, I having a Garment of Sackcloth, afflicted my Soul with Fasting; and my Prayer will return into my own Bosom.

14. I went about as if it was my Friend, or Brother; bowed down, being sad, like one who mourns for a Mother.

15. Yet when I halt, they are glad, and are got together, even those that are Cripples, against me, without my knowing it; who tear, and will not be still:

16. With Hypocrites, Scoffers for Bread, gnashing their Teeth at me.

17. Lord, how long wilt thou see it? Bring back my Life from their Wastings, the only Thing I have from the young Lions.

18. I will thank thee in the great Congregation, will praise thee among the numerous People.

19. Let not those who are my Enemies wrongfully be glad concerning me, them that hate me undeservedly wink the Eye.

20. For they do not speak peaceably, but contrive very deceitful Things against the quiet ones of the Country.

21. Gaping at me with their Mouth, they say, Ha, ha, we saw with our own Eyes.

22. Thou sawest, O Lord, do not keep silence: Lord be not far off from me.

23. Awake, and rouse up, for my Judgment; my God and Lord, for my Cause.

24. Judge for me according to thy Righteousness, O Lord my God; and let them not be glad concerning me.

Ver. 5. Angel of the Lord] That is, says Mudge, a very violent Wind; according to which them would be Chaff, whereas the Text says only like Chaff, and so the Angel but like Wind. He brings for it his own Transf. of Psa. civ. 4. but are Angels made elementary Matter, and that which is inanimate too? And are Winds Angels?

Ver. 7. in a Pit] As the same Heb. Word signifies Corruption, or as it might be Destruction, the Litur. has to destroy me, but not so congruous to the Passage.

Ib. dug] LXX reproached, as two Letters changing Place would make it, or it may be without, they having taken the other Meaning instead of Pit.

Ver. 8. Wasting] Mudge, the Pit; but he may alter Meanings, who sticks not to alter Words themselves. So he has rested for returned, Ver. 13. and says, It would be odd to talk of a Prayer's returning, without having mentioned any Prayer at all; when it is mentioned at the same Time, and as much for returning as for resting.

Ver. 12. Concerning which look, cix. 5.

Ver. 13. will return] being sincere, and the Verb fut. so that he trusted his Prayer would be effectual, though now only for himself, as Luk. x. 6. but Patrick's Paraphrase falls short, I wish my self no better, than I desired God to do for them.

Ver. 14. Mother] This the LXX have not, thinking ~~as~~ as I apprehend to be ~~as~~ if.

Ver. 15. halt] the same Word as in Psa. xxxviii. 17. The LXX have against me, taking the Heb. to mean at my Side.

Ib. Cripples] as the Meaning of the Word is, and so answers to halt: thus the Adjective is rendered lame, 2 Sam. iv. 4. & ix. 3. see also de Dieu's Animad. With the LXX Scourges from one Root.

Ib. tear] Sept. were dissipated] for so the Dewey College translate the Lat. Transf. from the Gr. as if tore in pieces. Litur. making mowts (for mouths) at me; the last added in, and the other, which the Heb. does not signify, taken from Munster, as likewise the first Member of the next Verse.

Ib. be still] from Dewey again compunct, those Clergy being not fond of the Laity's understanding the Scripture, but the Earl of Dartford puts it penitent: probably it was made from the Passive of the Verb to be cut.

Ver. 16. With Hypocrites] This with the Sept. is they tempted me, taking the three first Letters of בדנס as if they stood separate, and the p for Nothing.

Ib. Scoffers] The LXX they scoffed at me, for which however i is wanting.

Ib. for Bread] It is properly a Cake, as rendered 1 King. xvii. 12. and two Nouns together may include for between them; see Prov. xxviii. 21. but the LXX with Scoffing, because the Word has y and a in it like the foregoing. What a Cluster of false Translation is here!

Ver. 20. not] Sept. to me, taking one Heb. le for another, and the wrong one for li:

Ib. contrive &c.] turned strangely in the Eng. from Calvin, they dab deceitful Words upon the Cliffs of the Earth; and in that from the Vulgate, in the anger of the earth speaking they meant guile; the latter like the Septuag. only they have not, of the earth speaking, for they might render deceitful things or words only deceits, and אמר in the Country, which was dropped next to the other אמר. What a Blessing it is we have better, and more faithful Translations! which we should not have had, if there must have been no more Alteration.

Ib. quiet] Byth. observes that Anger with the LXX is from נחם for נחם

Ver. 21. Ha] Ala being vulgarly, and ignorantly, for Ha ha.

25. Nor let them say in their Heart, Ha, it is to our Mind; not say, We have devoured him.

26. Let those be ashamed and blush together, who are glad of my Hurt: let them be cloathed with Shame and Confusion, that magnify themselves against me.

27. But let such sing, and be glad, as delight in my Righteousness; and say continually, The Lord be magnified, who delights in the Prosperity of his Servant.

28. Thus shall my Tongue discourse of thy Righteousness, of thy Praise every Day.

P S A L M XXXVI.

FOR the chief Musician. By the Lord's Servant David.

The Transgression of the Wicked says within my Heart, there is no Fear of God before his Eyes.

2. For he sooths himself up in his own Conceit, till he finds his Iniquity to be odious.

3. The Words of his Mouth are profane or deceitful: he has left off understanding how to do well.

4. He contrives what is profane upon his Bed, stands in a Way that is not good, not despising that which is evil.

5. O Lord, thy Kindness is in the Heavens, thy Faithfulness to the Skies.

6. Thy Righteousness may be compared to the mighty Mountains, thy Judgments to the vast Deep: thou Lord, preservest Man and Beast.

7. How precious thy Kindness is, O God! in the Shadow of whole Wings Mankind do trust.

8. They are filled abundantly with the fat Things of thy House; and thou makest them drink of thy pleasant Brook.

9. For the Fountain of Life is with thee; by whose Light we see Light.

10. Extend thy Kindness to them that know thee, and thy Righteousness to those who are of an upright Heart.

11. Let not the Foot of the Proud come to me, nor the Hand of the Wicked remove me:

12. Where the Workers of Iniquity fall, are driven away, and cannot get up.

P S A L M XXXVII.

BY David.

* Be not thou exasperated against Evil-doers, be not envious against those that commit Iniquity,

2. For they will quickly be cut down like Grass, and fade like a green Herb.

3. Trust in the Lord, and do Good: dwell in the Country, and feed faithfully.

4. Delight thy self also in the Lord, and he will grant thee the Petitions of thy Heart.

5. Commit thy Way to the Lord; and trust on him, who will accomplish it;

6. Nay will bring forth thy Virtue as the Light, and thy Judgment as the Noon.

7. Be silent to the Lord, and wait with concern for him: be not exasperated against

Ver. 25. Ha] Goodridge exclaims against the old Metre for being rude, and the Language of the Street,

There! there! this gear goeth trim; which might have been well, if properly so, since the Expression was such; and himself has the like in Ver. 21.

Out on the Wretch—
and Payne here, while mending the old Metre, worse,
—It's him devour'd,
and have our ends on thee.

Ib. have devoured] Vulg. Lat. will devour.

Ver. 27. let] Beza at the Conclusion of his Argument on this Psalm says, Lest we should abuse Prayer, we must take heed, that we utter not any Word by the Motion of the Flesh, but by the guiding of God's Holy Spirit.

Ver. 1. This Psalm may seem made when David was a little chearful in his Afflictions under Saul.

Ib. my] which might have prevented the LXX from rendering The Transgressor to sin in himself says; and it makes poor Sense for him to say what follows.

Ib. there is no Fear of God] in Sax. nis (for not is) eye i. e. Awed gades.

Ver. 8. Brook] Sax. barnan, afterwards called Bourn.

Ver. 10. know] New-Eng. Metre, to such as acknowledge thee.

Ver. 11. Proud] Plate, as Diog. Laertius writes in his Life, being on Horseback, dismounted of a sudden, saying he was afraid lest he should be seized with the Pride of the Horse.

Ver. 1. The Heb. Alphabet as in Psa. xxv & xxxiv is carried on here by two Verses, excepting that the 16th Letter is omitted, the 4th, 11th, and 19th have but one Verse apiece, and the 15th has three, which brings the Verses to 40 instead of 44; and these Things are the more observed, because given wrong by others. The Time of penning this Ver. 25 shews.

Ib. against] both alike, as be not too in Heb. so Munst. puts it contra, as likewise Neld. in Heb. Concord. which it frequently signifies.

Ver. 3. feed] these Verbs being all Imperative.

Ib. feed faithfully] being as Hulse well explains it, honeste & bona conscientia coram Deo & hominibus vivere, versari: to live and be conversant before God and Men honestly, and with a good Conscience, Elegan. 124. Gell turns it feed on the truth, Essay, p. 213.

Ib. faithfully] Sept. in the Riches of it, supposing n to be a Pronoun, and מן to mean מן their first Letters being often changed one for the other; not as Byth. strains it, because Men trust in Riches.

Ver. 5. Commit] The LXX Discover, but they should have known that is geleb, not gol.

Ver. 7. Be silent] in which Manner this Verb is rendered, Psa. 30. 12. 1 Sam. ii. 9. Jer. viii. 14. Lam. ii. 10. & iii. 28. Am. v. 13. with others. Pagn. Montan. and Munst. have Tace Domine, Leo Jud. or the Tig. Pers. and Coceius, Sile Domine, both Be silent to the Lord, as here translated, Ainsworth, be silent for Jehovah; and Castal. Exspecta Jovam tacitus, wait for the Lord silently.

Ib. wait &c.] Sept. intreat him, from הלה for חל him that makes his Way prosper, against the Man who brings about Contrivances.

8. n Cease from Anger, and leave Wrath : be not exasperated, especially to do Evil.

9. For Evil-doers will be cut off, but those that wait for the Lord will inherit the Earth.

10. ; So that in a little while the Wicked will not be ; and thou mayest consider of his Place, when he is not.

11. Whereas the Meek will inherit the Earth; and delight themselves in Abundance of Prosperity.

12. ! The Wicked is contriving against the Righteous, and gnashes his Teeth upon him.

13. At whom the Lord smiles ; because he sees that his Time will come.

14. n Wicked Men draw out the Sword, and bend their Bow ; to make the Afflicted and Needy fall, to kill those that are in the right Way :

15. Whose Sword will enter into their own Heart, and their Bows will be broke.

16. n A little is better to a righteous Man, than the Abundance of many wicked ones.

17. For the Arms of wicked Men will be broke ; but the Lord upholds the Righteous.

18. , The Lord is acquainted with the Days of the Perfect ; and their Possession will be for ever.

19. They will not be ashamed in the Time of Adversity, but be satisfied in the Days of Famine :

20. n When the Wicked will perish, and the Lord's Enemies be as the precious Part of Lambs ; consuming away, even into Smoak.

21. ; The Wicked borrows, and will not pay ; but the Righteous shews favour, and gives.

22. For they who are blessed by him will inherit the Earth ; as those that are cursed by him will be cut off.

23. n A Man's Steps being ordered by the Lord, he will delight in his Way.

24. Fall as he may, it will not be quite down ; because the Lord holds up with his Hand.

25. ; I have been young, as I am old ; yet never saw a virtuous Man forsaken, nor his Offspring begging Bread.

26. He shews favour at any Time, and lends ; so his Offspring is blessed,

27. n Depart from Evil, and do Good ; then remain for ever.

28. For as the Lord loves that which is right, he will not forsake his pious ones, who are preserved for ever ; while the Offspring of the Wicked is cut off.

29. Virtuous ones will inherit the Earth, and remain upon it perpetually.

30. n The Mouth of the Virtuous talks what is wise, and his Tongue speaks what is right.

31. The Law of his God is in his Heart, none of his Steps will slip.

32. n The Wicked watches for the Righteous, and endeavours to make him die.

33. Whom the Lord will neither leave in his Power, nor shall he condemn him when he is judged.

34. p Wait for the Lord, and observe his Way ; and he will exalt thee to inherit the Earth : when the Wicked are cut off, thou wilt see it.

35. ; I have seen the Wicked terrible, and spreading himself as a green Tree in its native Soil.

36. But he passed away, and behold was not ; so that when I sought him, he could not be found.

Ver. 10. he is not] rather than his Place ; and thus Ainsw. he shall not be. Sept. shall not find, by putting in and out.

Ver. 16. many] The Litur. applies it to another Word by great riches, which neither the Gender nor Station of it will allow.

Ver. 19. but be satisfied] by Wither, who carries on the Psalms with the Eng. Alphabet, Nor empty be, when others Fast.

Ver. 20. as the precious Part of Lambs] Sept. in being glorified and exalted, not distinguishing כִּיקָר from בְּקָרָר and כְּרִים from בְּרִים the Adverb and Nouns from Gerunds.

Ver. 22. For] from Ver. 17—20.

Ib. by him] the Lord, Ver. 20.

Ver. 25. Bread] Sax. blaf, whence leaf.

Ver. 28. for ever] After this in the Liturgy is added from the Gr. and Vulg. Lat. the unrighteous shall be punished ; which Words are not so much as pretended to be taken from any other Place of Scripture, Defence, p. 7. and in the quarto Edit. 1636 is righteous for unrighteous.

Ver. 33. nor shall he condemn him] wherein Mudge may be allowed to be right.

Ver. 34. see] Beveridge justly objects to what Tate and Brady add,

With longing Eyes, and as a glad Spectator ; Defence of the Old Singing Psalms, p. 57. but that is since altered ; yet what he objects more strongly to, p. 62—70. the sitting as a Spectator at a Tragedy, is made worse, by leaving out as.

Ver. 35. green Tree in its native Soil] Sept. the Cedars of Lebanon : they making the former from the Transposition of ר which drew their Place with them.

Ib. native] Luxuriant, as the forest's native tree, Wh. and Sil.

Ver. 36. he passed away] In the Com. Pray. I went by, as the LXX were minded to alter it ; for they could not easily take ; to be n

Ib. passed away] How suitable to this of King David, is the following Sentence in Poetry of the famous Persian King Phridun, who is so highly celebrated by the eastern Writers,

' Look back, remember those thou hast seen high,

' And mark if thou hast never seen them sink,'

D'Herbelot. Biblioth. Orient. in Art. Feridoun.

37. Observe the Perfect, and mind the Upright: for that Man will be happy at last.

38. On the contrary Transgressors are destroyed together, the Wicked at last are cut off.

39. For the Salvation of the Righteous is from the Lord, who is their Strength in the Time of Distress.

40. And those the Lord will help, and deliver: he will deliver them from the Wicked, and save them; because they trust in him.

P S A L M. XXXVIII.

A PSALM of David, to bring to remembrance.

O Lord, do not rebuke me in thy Fury, and correct me in thy Wrath.

1. For thy Arrows are come down into me, as is also thy Hand upon me.

2. There is no Soundness in my Flesh, by reason of thy Displeasure: no Peace in my Bones, by reason of my Sin.

3. Because my Iniquities pass over my Head; are like a heavy Burden, too weighty for me.

4. My Sores stink, being corrupted, by reason of my Folly.

5. I am turned awry, bowed down very much, go all Day sad.

6. For my Loins are full of Vilencs; and there is no Soundness in my Flesh.

7. I am weakened, and bruised very much: I roar by the Raging of my Heart.

8. Lord, all my Desire is before thee, and my Sighing is not hid from thee.

9. My Heart pants, my Strength has left me; and the Light even of my Eyes themselves is not with me.

10. My very Lovers and Friends stand at a distance from my Plague; as for my Neighbours, they stand far off.

11. And those that enquire for my Person would insnare; such as seek my Hurt speak froward Things; and deceitful ones they study every Day:

12. Yet I like the Deaf do not hear; and am as a dumb one that opens not his Mouth.

13. Thus I am as a Man who neither hears, nor has Reproofs in his Mouth.

14. Because I wait for thee, O Lord; do thou answer, O Lord my God:

15. Lest, as I think, they should be glad concerning me, when my Foot is moved should magnify themselves against me.

16. Since I am ready to halt, and my Grief is before me continually.

17. For I declare my Iniquity, am troubled for my Sin.

18. My Enemies too who are living are strong, and those that hate me wrongfully are many.

19. Who reward Evil for Good: for my following what is good they are against me.

20. Do not forsake me, O Lord: my God, be not far off from me.

21. Make haste to my Help, Lord my Salvation.

P S A L M XXXIX.

FOR the chief Musician Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

I thought I would keep my Ways, not to Mudge chuses I pass by, with the Seventy, as if of as much or more Authority than the Heb.

Ib. he could not Com. Pray. Psa. from the LXX, his place could no where be found; which I cannot think true.

Ver. 37. Perfect Though perfect in Scripture is commonly expounded by upright, and sometimes translated instead of it, here is a Distinction.

Ver. 38. at last How improper the present English Reading is may be considered.

Ver. 39. For This Mudge says should be struck off, to place the first; why did not he make the rest as exact? And how does he know they should be so?

Ver. 1. to bring to remembrance As the following Psalm shews David in the Depth of his Afflictions, and in Saul's Time, Ver. 11, 12. of which he could not speak as past, by reason of the imperative Verbs, Ver. 1, 21, 22, and as the Condition he was in represents him almost despairing of Life, and therefore unlikely he should then put such a Title to it for his future Remembrance; upon mature Consideration of the Matter, I suppose he added this Title afterwards in his Advancement.

Ver. 2. come down as the Verb here repeated signifies neither stick fast nor presseth.

Ver. 5. Folly Sax. unwisdomes.

Ver. 6. turned awry with Pain, not troubled, Mudge wried. The LXX's am become miserable, may be from נח; for נח

Ver. 7. Vilencs This the LXX I suppose taking for Contempt from others rendered Mockings.

Ver. 10. themselves plur. not it.

Ver. 11. at a distance Gen. Trans. aside, which K. James's Translators changed into the old scarce vulgar aloof, and Mudge keeps it still.

Ib. my Plague The LXX, came near, and stood, which נגעי יעמדו in the Place of נגעי יעמדו might have made, only by lengthening the נ.

Ver. 19. wrongfully unrighteously in Sax.

Ver. 20. my following what is good Besa adds, howsoever otherwise I be a Sinner, Medit. on penit. Ps. as if to controul the Text, or at least expound it away.

Ver. 1. Jeduthun of whom see, 1 Chron. xvi. 41, 42. & xxv. 1, 3. Jun. and Trem. as well as Theodoret, suppose it was made when David was in the greatest Distress by the Conspiracy of Absalom.

Ib. thought which this Heb. Verb being sometimes used for, seems to mean here: the noted Hales of Eaton in a Sermon on it, published among his Golden Remains, supposes it to signify resolved.

fin with my Tongue; I would keep a Band to my Mouth, while the Wicked was yet before me.

2. I was dumb with Silence, held my peace even from what was good: at last my Grief being troublesome,

3. My Heart hot within me, the Fire kindling in my Meditation, I spoke with my Tongue;

4. Make known to me my End, Lord, and the Measure of my Days, what it is; that I may be sensible how I am ceasing.

5. Behold thou hast made my Time a Hand's-breadth, and my Age is Nothing before thee. Certainly every Man set up is all Vanity. A Pause.

6. Certainly a Man goes about for an Image, they doubtless make a Noise in vain: he heaps Things up; without knowing who will receive them.

7. And now, what do I wait for, Lord? My Hope it is in thee.

8. Deliver me from all my Transgressions, make me not the Reproach of the Vile.

9. I was dumb, opened not my Mouth, because thou didst it.

10. Take away thy Stroke from me; who am consumed by the Blow of thy Hand.

11. With Rebukes thou correctest a Man for Vice, and dissolvest what is desirable of him as a Moth. Certainly all Mankind are Vanity. A Pause.

12. Hear my Prayer, O Lord, and give ear to my Cry; be not silent at my Tears:

for I am a Stranger with thee, a Sojourner like all my Fathers.

13. Turn away the Things from me, so that I may get refreshment; before I go away, and am not.

PSALM XL.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

I waited constantly for the Lord; who inclined to me, and hearing my Cry,

2. Brought me up from the Pit of Tumult, from the miry Clay, and set up my Feet on a Rock, establishing my Steps.

3. Nay he put a new Song into my Mouth, of Praise to our God: many saw, and fearing, trusted in the Lord.

4. The Man is blessed who puts his trust in the Lord; and has no regard to the Haughty, and those that turn aside to Lying.

5. Thou hast, O Lord my God, done many of thy Wonders and Intentions for us; not to be set in order to thee, were I to declare, and speak: they being too numerous to be counted up.

6. Sacrifice and Offering thou didst not desire, thou piercedst my Ears; not requiring Burnt-sacrifice, and Sin-offering.

7. Then I said, Behold I am coming; it being written of me in the Volume of the Book.

8. To do thy Will I desire, O my God, and thy Law is within my inward Parts.

Ver. 2. being troublesome] The Gr. Translator, as I surmise, being put to it to understand how Grief was troubled, made it renewed, and perhaps with respect to the Word נָעַר נָעַר Youth.

Ver. 4. Make known] Mudge, The Lord hath shown, which the Original, he says, will bear both alike: admit it, but as this is Part of what the Psalmist spoke, Ver. 3. and as the rest to the End is all spoken to the Lord, this seems the same.

Ver. 5. set up] aptly to the Heb. but in the Gr. with Relation to the Sense living.

Ver. 7. Hope it is in thee] Sept. Substance is from thee; which looks as if נִסְתָּר it, omitted in our Transf. was taken for the Noun Being from הָיָה and perhaps construed thus, my Hope is in thee for a Being, i. e. Maintenance or Substance: Bybner's making it out by Heb. xi. 1. must be left to such as may like that better.

Ver. 11. a Moth] Targ. a Snail, Sept. a Spider, as Byb. notes; but in the former is rather a Moth, as in Buxt. Chald. Lexic. Col. 661.

Ver. 13. Turn away the Things] The Verb being in the simple Conjugation Kal, Isa. xxii. 4. Job vii. 19. & xiv. 6. of this Signification, is here in the Conjugation Hiphil, which might be express'd exactly Grammatical, Cause (the Things) to turn away. The Object required by the Verb, is properly the Things complained of before.

Ver. 1. One of David's Psalms, we may suppose, amidst his Exercises, when he had been delivered from many, Ver. 2, 5. and was involved in many more, Ver.

12, 17. and the [us] in Ver. 5. his Companions mentioned 1 Sam. xxii. 2.

Ver. 4. puts] Sept. name, with another Vowel-point.

Ib. those that turn aside to Lying] For which the Sept. have false Madneses, from the Chald. מַדְנָה which the Heb. has Nothing of, neither in מַדְנָה whence this Word regularly comes, in מַדְנָה nor מַדְנָה and has no מַדְנָה

Ver. 5. set in order] Gr. in thy Thoughts there is not who may be likened to thee; but the Heb. Pause at Thoughts dis-unites it.

Ib. speaks] Where is the grand Division of the Verse.

Ib. they being] Payne with a singular Verb to the greatest plural Subject, all things that ever was; as Psa. xlii. 9. while feet oppresseth me.

Ver. 6. piercedst my Ears] to be God's Servant for ever, as in Exod. xxi. 6. Dent. xv. 6. according to Jun. and Trem. with Grot.

Ver. 7. Book] The first of Samuel, which gives Account of David's being anointed King, Ch. xvi. that he might do God's Will, which Saul would not; that Book being doubtless written by Samuel so far, as there are some secret Things between God and himself in the same Chap. and it is likely David had seen it, 1 Sam. xix. 18.

Ver. 8. Calvin in his Commentary here, It is in vain to frame the Feet, Hands and Eyes, to the keeping of the Law, unless Obedience begin at the Heart. It is the proper Office of the Holy Ghost to engrave the Law of God in our Hearts. Truly God worketh not in us as in Stones, that he should draw us without the Feeling or inward Moving of our Heart. Eng. Transf.

9. I have preached Righteousness in the great Congregation; behold I have not shut up my Lips, O Lord, thou knowest.

10. Nor have I covered up thy Righteousness within my Heart, I have spoken thy Faithfulness and Salvation: not concealing thy Kindness and Truth at the great Congregation.

11. Do not thou, O Lord, shut up thy Mercies from me: let thy Kindness and Truth continually keep me.

12. For Evils are come round against me, till they are out of Number; my Iniquities have overtaken me, and I am not able to see: they are more numerous than the Hairs of my Head; inasmuch that my Heart fails me.

13. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to deliver me: O Lord, to my Help make haste.

14. Let those be ashamed and blush together, who seek my Life to destroy it: let them be turned back and put to confusion, that desire my Hurt.

15. Let such be desolate for a Reward of their Shame, as say to me, Ha, ha.

16. But let all that seek thee, be joyful and glad through thee: let them say continually, The Lord be magnified, who love thy Salvation.

17. As for my self, who am afflicted and needy, the Lord will think of me; thou art my Help, and Deliverer: O my God, do not stay.

P S A L M XLI.

FOR the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

He who minds the Poor is blessed; him the Lord will deliver at the Time of Adversity.

2. The Lord will preserve and keep him alive, he shall be blessed on the Earth; and thou wilt not give him up to the Desire of his Enemies.

3. The Lord will support him upon the languishing Couch: thou wilt make all his Bed in his Sickness.

4. As to my self I say, O Lord, be merciful to me: heal my Soul, for I have sinned against thee.

5. My Enemies say ill of me, When will he die, and his Name perish?

6. And if one comes to see me, he talks what is vain; his Heart having gathered him Something that is bad, out he goes into the Street, relating it.

7. All that hate me, who contrive against me what may be hurtful to me, whisper together concerning me;

8. An ungodly Matter sticks close to him; and as he is lain down, he will not get up again.

9. Even the Man that was peaceable to me, in whom I trusted, who eat of my Bread, has lifted up the Heel against me.

10. Yet do thou, O Lord, be gracious to me, and raise me up; that I may recompense them.

11. By this I know that thou delightest in me, because my Enemy does not openly exclaim against me.

12. And as for me, thou upholdest me in my Integrity, and wilt set me up before thee for ever.

13. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting: so, even so let it be.

Ver. 9. great Congregation] Sax. cercean micdre, afterwards changed to mickle Kirk.

Ver. 15. desolate] With the Sept. Let them bear their Shame immediately: Bythn. asserts roundly, without his usual perhaps, that instead of וְיִשְׁמְרוּ they read וְיִשְׁמְרוּ tho' H and K are heterogeneous Letters, not alike in Shape nor Sound; rather they might derive it from וְיִשְׁמְרוּ for וְיִשְׁמְרוּ such Roots being commonly blended together, and וְיִשְׁמְרוּ indeterminate or diffusive in Meaning; yet there is no Need to say, they read וְיִשְׁמְרוּ however that Author is more happy in conjecturing they took for a Reward to be at the Heel, and so immediately.

Ver. 1. Another Psalm made, as it seems, while David suffered from those who acted for Saul against him, and at the Time of some Sickness.

Ib. Poor] and needie say the LXX, as in the Litur. and if the same with poor, for so the Writer of the Defence vindicates it, what is the Use of it?

Ib. will deliver] The Sax. has alystb (loose) in another Copy gesfreath.

Ver. 2. not give] No foes their triumph on his ruin raise, Wb. and Sil.

Ver. 7. together] This being the first Word of the Ver. in the Original, the LXX join it to that before, whence the Dewey Transf. has, He went forth and spake together; but in the Gr. it is ἐν τῷ αὐτῷ, and in the Lat. in idipsum, on it self, all scarce intelligible, nor did they well know which to put it to in the Vulg.

Ver. 8. An ungodly Matter] or Thing, not Disease; the same Word as in Psa. lxiv. 5. for they might reckon him in Rebellion against his Sovereign, the Words being properly thus, and rendered wicked thing, Psa. ci. 3.

Ib. sticks close to him] Sept. they have made against me; not that וְיִשְׁמְרוּ was ever וְיִשְׁמְרוּ tho' some Criticks feign what is more unlikely, and Bythn. וְיִשְׁמְרוּ here; but was done at Random so.

Ver. 9. the Man] whom some take to be Achitophel; but by the History David was not sick at the Time of his Rebellion, 2 Sam. xv. 14, 30, 31. & xvii. 22. & xviii. 2, 4, 24. & xx. 3.

Ib. lifted up the Heel] Mudge, cursed Thing: brutally as a Beast does to kick, which he seems to allude to. Litur. laid great wait (not denoted surely by Heel) for me.

Ver. 11. openly exclaim] durst venture their Tongues no further than Backbiting and Whispering, Ver. 6, 7. which as he did not hear, was much easier to him.

Ver. 13. so, even so let it be] as the Heb. amen, amen signifies; in the Sax. Verf. beohit sybifswa.

P S A L M XLII.

FOR the chief Musician. An instructing Poem for the Korahites.

As a Hart cries out for the Brooks of Water, so does my Soul for thee, O God;

2. For whom it thirsts, even for the Living God: Oh when shall I come, and appear in God's Presence?

3. My Tears are Food for me Day and Night, by the saying to me every Day, Where is thy God?

4. Being not unmindful of these Things, I pour out my Soul in me; that I may pass in the Croud, may accompany them to the House of God, with the Voice of Singing, and Praise of a Multitude that keep a Feast.

5. Why art thou cast down, my Soul, and disturbed in me? Wait for God; for I shall yet praise him, the Safety of his Presence.

6. O my God, my Soul is cast down in me: therefore I remember thee from the Country of Jordan and of the Hermonites, from Mount Mizar.

7. One Deep calls to another at the Noise of thy Spouts: all thy Waves and Billows pass over me.

8. By Day the Lord will appoint his Kindness; and in the Night his Poem shall be with me, a Prayer to the God of my Life.

9. I say to God my Rock, Why dost thou forget me? Why do I go sad, by the Oppression of the Enemy?

10. For the Slaughter in my Bones my Adversaries reproach me, by their saying to me every Day, Where is thy God?

Ver. 1. Korahites] Look 1 Chr. ix. 19. 2 Chr. xx. 19.

Ib. cries out] rendered cry in the other Place where it occurs, viz. Isa i. 20. and does not signify panteth. The Imagination also of his being hunted, is what the Psalms give no Hint of.

Ver. 2. the Living God] Vulg. the living fountain, by fontem for fontem.

Ib. when] The Sax. or old Eng. put the b before the u, hwanne, as in the next Ver. hwæn.

Ver. 4. not unmindful of these Things] Sax. thysa gemyndi. This singular Elegance in our Language, of two Negatives to be affirmative, comes in not unaptly here: so with dis—Lev. x. 20. Num. xxiii. 27. im—Psa. lxxxvi. 2. ig—Jeb xxi. 27. as Rom. i. 13. & xi. 25. &c. and a—Est. ix. 13. see Prov. xi. 21. & xvii. 5. & xix. 5. Eph. v. 17. in com. Transf. where the Original has not.

Ib. that I may] The Heb. Particle here frequently signifies that, and the Verb is future; by which it answers well to the foregoing.

Ib. Croud] Sac from suc, to mingle, yet Mudge translates, under a scarlet Canopy; but what Wonder, by altering the Heb. to the LXX in the Place of the Tabernacle.

Ib. accompany them] Lat. bring them forth, as the Heb. has not with.

Ver. 5. him, the] according to the Heb. and Ver. 11.

Ver. 6. from the Country] In the Psal. of the Litur. concerning; which shews it was made from the Vulg. Lat. and that in a wrong Sense, de signifying either from or

11. Why art thou cast down, my Soul? And why art thou disturbed in me? Wait for God; for I shall yet praise him, the Safety of my Presence, and my God.

P S A L M XLIII.

JUDGE me, O God, and plead my Cause against an unkind Nation: deliver me from the deceitful and unjust Man.

2. For thou art the God of my Strength: Why dost thou cast me off? Why do I go about sad, by the Oppression of the Enemy?

3. Send forth thy Light and Truth: let them lead me, bringing me to thy holy Mountain, and thy Tabernacles.

4. That I may go to God's Altar, to him himself, who makes me exceedingly rejoice; and praise thee with the Harp, O God, my God.

5. Why art thou cast down, my Soul? And why art thou disturbed in me? Wait for God; for I shall yet praise him, the Safety of my Presence, and my God.

P S A L M XLIV.

FOR the chief Musician. An instructing Poem for the Korahites.

O God, we have heard with our Ears, our Fathers have told us, the Work that thou wroughtest in their Days, in those of old Time.

concerning, but both the Heb. and Gr. not admitting the latter.

Ib. Country of Jordan] whither it seems David was fled from Abisalom, 2 Sam. xvii. 22. as it does not appear the Korahites were appointed Singers in Saul's Reign; see 1 Chr. v. 31. & xv. 16. 2 Chr. xxix. 25. In the Contents of the last Transf. is, David's zeal to serve God in the temple, and to the next Psal., David praying to be restored to the temple, tho' the Temple was not built in David's Time.

Ver. 7. Lightsfast supposes David made this, observing the Waters of Jordan, Harm. of Old Test.

Ib. Waves] Sept. high Things, not from שׁוּב but שׁוּב as Bythn. conjectures.

Ver. 11. Safety] for health as it means now is not signified by the Heb.

Ver. 1. This Psal. seems made on the same Occasion as the foregoing, if not a Sort of second Part or Postscript to it.

Ib. Judge] the Sax. is dem for doom.

Ib. Man] I suppose Abisalom.

Ver. 3. Tabernacles] the Tent and Ark, Grot.

Ver. 4. rejoice] With the LXX is, making my Youth glad: Bythn. says they took Youth from the Arabick Signification; which I do not find it has, so suppose they might take the Meaning of לָבַי from לָבַי.

Ver. 1. It seems likeliest to me this was made in the Time of Jehoiakim's Captivity, perhaps by Jeremiah; tho' others think differently and very variously, but inconsistently with Ver. 9, 11.

2. Whom

2. Whom, with thy Hand, having dispossessed the Gentiles, thou didst plant; punishing the Nations, and expelling them.

3. For they possessed not the Country by their Sword, nor did their own Arm save them; but thy right Hand, thy Arm, and the Light of thy Countenance, because thou delightedst in them.

4. It is thou art my King, O God; appoint Safety for Jacob.

5. By thee must we push our Adversaries, by thy Name tread them down who rise up against us.

6. For I will not trust in my Bow, nor can my Sword save me.

7. Because thou didst save us from our Adversaries, and madest them that hated us ashamed;

8. We praised God every Day, and gave thanks to thy Name constantly. A Pause.

9. Whereas now thou dost cast off, and put us to confusion; not going out with our Armies:

10. Thou makest us return back from the Adversary; and those who hate us spoil for themselves:

11. Thou deliverest us up as Sheep for Meat; and scatterest us among the Gentiles:

12. Thy People thou sellest for no Profit, without making Increase by their Prices:

13. Thou exposest us to the Reproach of our Neighbours, the Scoff and Mocking of them that are round about us;

14. As thou dost for a Proverb among the Gentiles, to the Shaking of the Head in the Nations.

15. Every Day my Confusion is before me, and the Shame of my Face covers me;

16. By the Voice of him who reproaches and blasphemeth, by the Face of the Enemy and Revenger.

17. Notwithstanding all this is come on us, we do not forget thee, nor act falsely against thy Covenant;

18. Our Heart is not turned back, nor is our Step turned aside from thy Path:

19. Though thou bruise us in the Place of Serpents, and coverest us over in the Shadow of Death.

20. If we forget the Name of our God, or spread forth our Hands to a strange god;

21. Will not God search this out? As being he who knows the hidden Things of the Heart.

22. Since for thy sake we are slain all the Day, are reckoned as Sheep for Slaughter:

23. Awake; why dost thou sleep, Lord? Stir up, cast not off for ever.

24. Why dost thou hide thy Face, forget our Affliction and Oppression?

25. For our Soul bows down to the Mould, our Belly cleaves to the Earth.

26. Rise up, a Help to us; and redeem us by reason of thy Kindness.

P S A L M XLV.

FOR the chief Musician upon the six-stringed Instruments of the Korahites. An instructing Poem of the beloved Daughters.

My Heart bubbles up a good Matter, I speak my Performances concerning the King; my Tongue being as the Pen of a ready Scribe.

2. Thou art much fairer than Mankind, Grace is poured into thy Lips: therefore God blesses thee for ever.

3. Gird thy Sword upon the Thigh, thou powerful one, in thy Dignity and Honour.

4. And in thy Honour ride successfully, upon the Account of Truth and Meekness, of Righteousness; whose right Hand will teach thee terrible Things.

Ver. 2. them] the seven Nations of Canaan, Deut. vii. 1. while it scarce appears what this them belongs to in the com. Transf. and which Peole makes some ado about, till he has quite spoiled it.

Ver. 8. every Day] by Smyth who compared different Translations, Ec. whilst day the day succeeds.

Ver. 9. going out] Sax. utgaest.

Ver. 10. for themselves] The Litur. has our goods, which there is no Pretence for the Heb. to denote.

Ver. 11. Sheep for Meat] Sax. scenp metta.

Ver. 12. for no Profit] buton weorthe.

Ver. 19. Serpents] Sept. Affliction paraphrastically, unless they thought נחש was from נחש leaving out y.

Ver. 1. The Date of this we may fix in the Reign of Solomon, soon after his Marriage with Pharaoh's Daughter, 1 King. iii. 1. but by whom made is uncertain.

Ib. six-stringed Instruments] according to Sol. Yar. and as we read of a ten-stringed Instrument, Psa. xxxiii. 2. and elsewhere: thus Jun. and Trem. render it hexachorda, and Ainsw. expounds, that is, six-stringed Instruments.

Ib. bubbles up] as the Heb. Word signifies; Sax. beal-cetteth for belceth.

Ib. speak] in Sax. cwethe for quoth.

Ib. of the beloved Daughters] for them to sing; the Word being fem. and properly signifies beloved: Jun. and Trem. amicarum, of the Friends; Ainsw. of the well-beloved Virgins: They seem to be those mentioned, Ver. 9.

Ver. 2. much fairer] by the doubling of the Heb. letters, as also Ainsw. has it; with Jun. and Trem.

Ib. therefore] Litur. because, which the Author of Holy David &c. vindicates by saying, 'So Dr. Hammond corrects our last Translators in his Margent;' but such Correction must want to be corrected again, the Heb. being clearly as here: the same is in Ver. 7: which the Litur. has wherefore.

Ver. 4. thy Honour] Sept. design, a Verb. imper. only with other Points as Byth. remarks.

Ib. successfully] Psalt. in Com. Pray. Good luck have thou; too low, unfit, and wrong parted.

Ib. teach thee terrible Things] as if to do such, after having Experience of its Strength; otherwise if this had respect to them when performed, let us make thee know might be fitter.

5. With thy sharp Arrows in the Heart of the King's Enemies, the People will fall under thee.

6. Thy Throne, O God, is for ever and ever, the Scepter of thy Kingdom is a right one.

7. Thou lovest Righteousness, and hatest Wickedness: therefore God, thy God, has anointed thee, with the Oil of Joy more than thy Companions.

8. All thy Garments are with Myrrh and Aloes, with Cassia, out of the Palaces of Ivory, whence they make thee glad.

9. Kings Daughters are among thy precious ones; the royal Confort being set at thy right Hand in the famous Gold of Ophir.

10. Hear, O Daughter; do thou both look, and incline thy Ear; forgetting thy own People, and Father's Family.

11. Then will the King earnestly desire thy Beauty: to whom, as he is thy Lord, bow thy self down.

12. The Daughter of Tyre also with a Present, the rich ones of the People will make supplication before thee.

13. The King's Daughter is all glorious within, her Cloathing is of Chequer-works of Gold.

14. She is brought to the King with embroidered Garments, the Virgins her Companions that follow her are admitted to come to thee.

15. They are introduced with Gladness and Rejoicing, they come into the King's Palace.

16. In the room of thy Fathers will be thy Sons; whom thou shalt make Princes on all the Earth.

17. I will cause thy Name to be remembered in all future Ages: therefore the People will praise thee for ever and evermore.

P S A L M XLVI.

FOR the chief Musician of the Korahites.
A Poem upon the Virgin-instruments.

God is our Refuge and Strength, a Help in Distresses he is found exceedingly.

2. Therefore we will not fear, though the Earth should be changed, and the Mountains moved into the Heart of the Seas;

3. The Waters of which should be boisterous, being disturbed, the Mountains shake by the Height of it. A Pause,

4. There is a River whose Streams make glad the City of God, the holy Place of the Tabernacles of the Supreme One.

5. Within which there is God, it cannot be moved: God will help it at the Appearance of the Morning.

6. The Gentiles are in a tumult, the Kingdoms are moved: he giving forth his Voice, the Earth is dissolved.

7. The Lord of Armies is with us, the God of Jacob is our high Place. A Pause.

8. Come, see the Works of the Lord; who having made Desolations on the Earth;

9. Causes Wars to cease to the End of it, breaks the Bow, and cuts asunder the Spear, burning the Wagons in the Fire.

Ver. 5. The Reader may try what he can make of it, just as it is, in the New-England Meete,

*Thine arrows sharp: the people they shall fall down under thee;
Yea, in the heart (they shall fall down) foes to the King that be.*

But the Dowry Translators tell us what they mean by, the peoples underneath thee shall fall into the hartes of the kings enemies, viz. The example of people converted, shall move the hartes of the adversaries to come also unto the truth; yet the Earl of Daris. ashamed of it perhaps, as well he might, turns the same, Nations shall fall under thee, into the hartes of the Kings enemies thy arrows shall light.

Ver. 9. wrought about with divers colours, in the Lit. is from the Gr.

Ver. 10. People] for which Hopkins has Children unadvisedly.

Ver. 12. Tyre] See 1 King. v.

Ver. 13. within] Denham,

*Thou' with pure Gold her Garments shin'd,
And all her Arts the Needle join'd,
Her highest Beauty is her Mind;*

and King prettily,

*Who far above thy beauties seen,
All glorious art within;*

but Hatton, quite omitting the latter, prays, Let thy holy Church be decked with exterior Ornaments and secular Advantages (however qualified by adding) such as may truly promote the interests of holy Religion.

Ver. 15, 16] Where Tate and Brady are worth reading.

Ver. 1. a Poem] It may be supposed written by David, on his Success in War, and finishing it with other Nations, as 2 Sam. viii. Hatton entitles it A Prayer—for the Peace of Christendom; which should have been put to his own Prayer after the Psalm, as the rest should, this being strictly no Prayer, but a Poem of Triumph.

1b. the Virgin-instruments] the Heb. Word otherwise signifying Virgins, as Cant. i. 3. & vi. 8. and Munst. writes, Plerique afferunt Alamoth esse instrumentum musicum, that most say it was some Instrument of Musick.

1b. is found exceedingly] as the Heb. is: but the Gr. which find us; for indeed the same signifies we (shall) find, yet would rather be referred to God.

Ver. 3. Mountains] Sax. duna, i. e. dunns.

Ver. 4. whose Streams] where the Sept. the Forces of the River, as it were explanatory.

1b. the holy Place] The LXX turn it for a Verb, the Supreme One has sanctified his Tabernacle, with also as 1 to Tabernacle.

Ver. 5. at the Appearance of the Morning] at his beholding in the Version of Augustine's Exposition of the Psalms, omitting רָאָה.

Ver. 6. in a tumult] as the Heb. Word signifies, or disturbed, as I render it, Psa. xlii. 6. & xliii. 5.

1b. are moved] by reason of Perplexity and Overthrow from the Lord, coherent with dissolved, and according to the Meaning of this same Verb in the foregoing Verse, which also by the Observation of de Dieu does not signify but such Kind of being moved, and this Way of Interpretation he pleads for.

Ver. 8. who] the Heb. Relative.

Ver. 9. Wagons] Sept. Shields, with no visible Cause, unless as being round.

10. Saying,

10. Saying, Leave off, and know that I am God; who will be exalted among the Gentiles, exalted on the Earth.

11. The Lord of Armies is with us, the God of Jacob is our high Place. A Pause.

P S A L M XLVII.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm for the Korahites.

Clap Hands, all People, sound forth to God with the Voice of Singing.

2. For the Supreme One is awful, a great King over the whole Earth.

3. Who brings the People under us, and the Nations under our Feet.

4. He chooses our Possession for us, the Excellency of Jacob whom he loves. A Pause.

5. God goes up with Shouting, the Lord with the Sound of the Trumpet.

6. Sing melodiously to God, even melodiously: sing melodiously to our King, even melodiously.

7. Since God is King of the whole Earth, sing melodiously with Understanding.

8. God reigns over the Gentiles, God sits upon his holy Throne.

Ver. 9. Nobles of the People] of other Countries, as the Word being here plural, and then singular shews, as also what follows: those Nobles might be Ambassadors, &c. to David, and this Psalm made in Thankfulness for some Victory: accordingly Dennham,

*And now the Peoples Leaders yield,
With those of Abr'ham's God to join;*

other Translators also have with, some to; and who knows but with might be left out, as its Place was next to My People? The LXX mistook this for that, having only with.

1b. the Defenders] Litur. God doth defend, quite unwarrantably; but the Doway Transf. worse, the strong goddess of the earth, are exceedingly advanced, from the vulg. Lat. and Gr. which the Translators apply to the Trinitie, tho' in that there is but one God.

1b. who is] Gr. they are, loosely as there; not that they was ever they though one Side of the n might be obscure.

Ver. 2. north Sides] of Jerusalem, but as a Part of it: Mount Zion called the holy Mountain, Ver. 1. probably containing Mount Moriah, as with Jun. and Trem. and agreeable to Psa. lxxxvii. 1. & cxxi. 1. & cxxxiii. 3. or having both these Names, like Sinai and Horeb, Exod. iii. 2. where the Temple was built, 2 Chron. iii. 1. being the north Part of the City, as in Lightfoot's Geographical Description of Jerusalem, Chap. xxii. and that of Villalpandus; which may also appear confirmed by Isa. xiv. 13. notwithstanding this is strongly opposed in the Univer. Hist. Book I. Ch. vii. 7. and Mount Zion placed in the Map, as it is likewise in that of Fuller's Pisgab-sight of Palestine, on the south Side. In answer to that of the Prophet (without taking notice of this) it is in the said History supposed to mean, the Conqueror would establish his Dominion where was the King's Palace, situate on the northern Side of Mount Zion; which either makes it not properly upon the Mount, or represents the Mount as north of it self; and the Heb. Word rendered Congregation signifying solemn Assembly, doubtless meant the Assembly at the Temple. The Pretence that the other Opinion might be proved

9. The Nobles of the People are gathered together, with the People of the God of Abraham: for the Defenders of the Earth are of God, who is highly exalted.

P S A L M XLVIII.

A POEM, being a Psalm for the Korahites. The Lord is great, and highly praised; in the City of our God, on his holy Mountain.

2. Mount Zion is handsomely situated, the Joy of the whole Earth, at the north Sides; being the Town of the grand King.

3. In whose Palaces God is known for a high Place.

4. For behold, the Kings met, passing by together:

5. They seeing, wondered accordingly; were troubled, hastened away;

6. Trembling seized them there, Anguish as of a Woman in labour.

7. Thou breakest the Ships of Tarshish with the east Wind.

8. As we have heard; so we see in the City of the Lord of Armies, in that of our God; who will himself establish it for ever. A Pause.

from several Writers, may be left till it is done, while there are for this also Kimhi, Drusius, Cellarius, Cabnet, Jun. and Trem. in Ezek. xl. 2. the Author of Holy David clear'd on Psa. cxxxv. 21. Patrick, &c. And I don't see how these Texts of Scripture, which must be right, can have a contrary Sense. Jerusalem stood on two Hills, that were situate North and South, and a Valley between; the northern One being highest, on which the Temple was, Joseph. Jewish War, B. vi. Ch. 6. where Mount Moriah must be; and Josephus says, this Hill oppidion pari in da cidu hiansiro, was called the Fortification by David, plainly alluding to 2 Sam. v. 7. 1 Chr. xi. 5, 7. according to which Zion seems apparently then; and the other Hill he adds was called Acra; which some as above now take to be Zion, and that it was not Mount Zion which the Temple was on: but it appears otherwise by 1 Mac. iv. 37, 38. & v. 54. & vii. 33. and by its being also called holy, Psa. ii. 6. Joel ii. 1. & iii. 17. and by Psa. ix. 11. & xiv. 7. & xx. 2. & l. 2, 8. & lxxv. 1. & lxxvi. 2. & lxxxiv. 7. & lxxxvii. 1, 2. & cii. 16. & cx. 2. & cxxxviii. 5. & cxxxii. 13. & cxxxiv. 3. & lxxiv. 2. & lxxviii. 68, 69. Isa. ii. 2, 3. & xii. 6. & xxviii. 16. & xlv. 13. & viii. 18. & xviii. 7. & xxix. 1, 7, 8. & xxxi. 6. & l. 28. Lam. ii. 6. Mic. iv. 7. Heb. xii. 22. Rev. xiv. 1. I do not however deny, that the south Part of Jerusalem is at present called Zion, by the Christians who reside there, as the Accounts of Travellers shew; but such a Mistake might arise from the Ignorance concerning it in former Ages, which might be specified if needful. Yet if a sufficient Answer shall be given to this, I am ready to relinquish it to the prevailing Opinion.

1b. King] as Mat. v. 35. Psa. cxlix. 2. Jer. viii. 19.

Ver. 4. the Kings] of those People, I suppose, mentioned 2 Chron. xx. 1. and so Patr. I find since. Litur. of the earth, from the Gr.

Ver. 7. the Ships] some of Jehoshaphat's Enemies coming from beyond the Sea, 2 Chr. xx. 2. whereas the Syrians brought neither Kings nor Ships against Hezekiah; to which some apply this.

9. We think of thy Kindness, O God, within thy Temple.

10. According to thy Name, O God, so is thy Praise to the Ends of the Earth; whose right Hand is full of Righteousness.

11. Mount Zion will be glad, the Daughters of Judah rejoice, by reason of thy Judgments.

12. Compass Zion, and going about it, count up its Towers.

13. Take notice of its Forts, look up at its Palaces; that you may count for the following Generation.

14. For this God shall be ours for ever and evermore: he will guide us over Death.

P S A L M XLIX.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm for the Korahites.

Hear this, all People, give ear, all Inhabitants of the World;

2. Both Mankind in general, and particular Persons, the Rich and Poor together.

3. My Mouth shall speak Wisdom, and the Meditation of my Heart shall be Understanding.

4. I will incline my Ear to an Oration, open my hidden Speech with the Harp.

Ver. 9. think] Sept. have received, from קָבַץ one may imagine for קָבַץ.

Ib. Temple] But the Sept. now, tho' not the Vulg. Lat. People, by naā mistranscribed for wā, however unnoticed by Byth. &c.

Ver. 12. count up its Towers] Gr. and vulg. Lat. tell in her Towers, tho' the Heb. has no in, and therefore is not allowable, notwithstanding it admits of the ingenious Imbellishment given to it by the Earl of Dartford, relate those things from the top of its towers.

Ver. 13. look up] Something of up appears to be the Signification by its Noun Hill, the Verb being only here, and this which Ab. Ezra gives it, looks by far the most suitable; not that in the Litur. set up her houses, nor by the LXX distribute from the Chald. in a poor and forced Sense.

Ver. 14. ever] So L. de Dieu would have it turned supra, as he says in its proper Meaning. Hare supposes the two last Words should be Part of the Title of the next Psalm, into which Mudge intirely comes, with the farther Liberty only of making them into one Word, and adding another before; Astonishing!

Ver. 1. It seems clear to me that this Psalm is not in David's Style (tho' I confess that is a curious Point to know) but rather bears Resemblance to some of Asaph's, or to Psa. xlv. No more particular Time of being indited appears in it, than that it was probably on the Removal of some rich ungodly Person or Persons by Death.

Ver. 2. Both Mankind in general, and particular Persons] Heb. Both the Sons of Adam, and the Sons of a Man; which seems therefore to be rather rendered so, than low and high.

Ver. 3. Meditation] Sax. yemind.

Ver. 4. Oration] Answ. writes, 'In old English or Saxon, it was called a big-spel,' without shewing any Reason or Conformity of it to our Language; whereas it is biyspelle, as we say a by-word or by-way, by or beside what is common, and spell is still retained in pretended Conju-

5. Why should I fear at the Time of Adversity, that the Iniquity of my Heels will inclose me about?

6. Of those who trust on their Wealth, and boast in the Abundance of their Riches,

7. None can redeem a Brother at all, nor give God the Ransom of him;

8. (The Redemption of their Life being precious, and ceases for ever)

9. That he may yet live eternally, without seeing Corruption.

10. For one may see the Wise die, the Fool and Brutish perish together, and leave their Wealth to others.

11. Whose Mind was as if their Hosues would be for ever, their Dwelling-places to all Ages; that called the Lands by their own Names.

12. Whereas Man does not abide in Honour, he becomes like the very Beasts that perish.

13. This Way of theirs is their Folly; yet those that are after them are pleased with their Sayings. A Pause.

14. Who are put into the Grave as Sheep, Death feeding on them, and the Upright will rule over them in the Morning; whose Form the Grave is to consume even from the Habitation at it.

ration, and in disposing the Letters into Words or Syllables; thus is the Sax. godspel (where god is used instead of good) for Gespel.

Ver. 5. that the Iniquity] fearing that he should be quite surrounded with the Punishment of his Iniquity, Psa. cxxx. 3. which he hoped to escape from, and represents as pursuing him; which accounts for this Expression, thought so obscure, the Iniquity of my Heels: so Jun. and Trem. supply ut, that. But קָבַץ my Enemies for קָבַץ my Heels, as in Crit. Notes from the Syr. and Arab. is utterly improbable.

Ver. 7. redeem—at all] By the doubling of the Verb as frequently; yet the Dewey Transf. from the old Lat. is, A brother doth not redeme, man shal redeme, but with the latter expounded to be negative.

Ver. 8. Redemption of their Life] as Exod. xxi. 30. where both Nouns are the same.

Ib. ceases for ever] can never be done.

Ver. 11. Whose Mind] But by the LXX their Graves, viz. shall be their Houses: for they interpreted קָבַץ by קָבַץ.

Ver. 12. abide] Mudge, regardeth; who says he corrects the last Verse by this, when it is this by that.

Ib. that perish] In Crit. Notes on some Pass. p. 40. it is supposed the present נָדָמוּ was נָדָמוּ לוֹ which is rendered there And is like it; but what Resemblance have לוֹ and לוֹ and לוֹ that those should be mistaken for this? nay [and] is then wanting; and are [Beasts] the new-discovered [it?]. Is such the fashionable Criticism that we are to be overborn with?

Ver. 14. Sheep] which are put one after another into the Slaughter-house, as Mankind into the Grave.

Ib. Form] Being what the Heb. signifies, as in Ezek. xliii. 11. The LXX have turned it Help, confounding נָדָמוּ with נָדָמוּ through the Resemblance perhaps, or according to Byth. took that Sense from Rock.

Ib. the Habitation at it] The Body does not only die, but is consumed in the Grave: for the Pronoun is singular,

15. But

15. But God will redeem my Person from the Power of the Grave; for he will receive me. A Pause.

16. Do not fear, because a Man is rich, because the Glory of his House increases:

17. For he will take Nothing away at his Death, his Glory will not go down after him:

18. Though he may bless his own Soul in his Life, and they may praise thee, because thou doest well for thy self;

19. It will come to the Generation of his Fathers, they will never see the Light.

20. Man being in Honour, does not understand, he becomes like the very Beasts that perish.

P S A L M L.

A PSALM of Asaph.

The Mighty God, the Lord speaks, calling the Earth; from the Rising of the Sun to his Setting.

2. From Zion the Perfection of Beauty does God shine forth.

3. Our God comes, and is not silent: a Fire consumes before him, and it is very tempestuous round about him.

4. He calls to the Heaven from above, and to the Earth, that he may judge his People:

5. Gather my pious ones to me, who make a Covenant with me by Sacrifice.

6. In the mean time the Heaven declares his Righteousness, because God is Judge himself. A Pause.

7. Hear, my People, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify to thee; who am God, thy God.

8. I will not reprove thee concerning thy Sacrifices, or thy Burnt-offerings being before me continually.

9. I will take no Bullock out of thy House, nor He-goats out of thy Folds.

10. For every Beast of the Wood is mine, the Cattle on a thousand Mountains.

11. I know every Fowl of the Hills, and have the wild Beast of the Field with me.

12. If I should be hungry, I would not tell thee; for the World is mine, and what it is full of.

13. Should I eat the Flesh of strong Beasts? Or drink the Blood of He-goats?

14. Offer Thanksgiving to God, and perform thy Vows to the Supreme One;

15. As also call upon me at the Time of Distress: who will deliver thee, and thou shalt honour me.

16. On the contrary God says to the Wicked: What Business hast thou to declare my Ordinances, or take up my Covenant into thy Mouth?

17. Since thou dost hate Instruction, and cast my Words behind thee.

18. If thou seeest a Thief, thou art pleased with him; and thy Part is with Adulterers.

19. Thou appliest thy Mouth to what is evil, and thy Tongue joins Deceit together.

20. Thou fittest speaking against thy Brother, givest forth an ill Report against thy Mother's Son.

21. Because thou hast done these Things, and I being silent, thou thoughtest I was wholly like thy self; I reprove thee, and set them in order before thy Eyes.

22. Consider this now, you that forget God; lest I should tear in pieces, and none deliver.

23. He who offers Thanksgiving, shall honour me; and to him that appoints the Way, I will shew the Salvation of God.

and has a Preposition to it: so Jun. and Trem. interpret the Habitation to be the Grave, and the Zurich or Tig. Bible, with Cast. have it. But ours making the Prep. plural, take it as in the Geneva Vers. when they shall go from their House to the Grave; so that the Author of Holy David clear'd, is wrong in the following Note hereon, It is a very dark and imperfect Passage in the Heb. and none of our Translators have thought fit to supply the Sense. The LXX have Glory, but how I know not, unless they took zebul for tzebi.

Ver. 18. thy self] Sept. him, though it is not credible they read; instead of ו and which the plural Verb denies.

Ver. 20. Honour] wurthschey in Sax.

Ver. 1. Asaph] David's chief Singer, 1 Chr. vi. 39. & xvi. 5. 2 Chr. v. 12. who also composed the Words himself, 1 Chr. xxv. 2. 2 Chr. xxix. 30. IV. IV. making it into Stanzas of 12 Lines, the 10 and 12 to be seven Syllables, has done it miserably, with very bad Sound and Rhime, though he is counted one of the Geneva Tr. but a good Translator might be a bad Poet, as well as Cicero.

lb. from the Rising of the Sun, to his Setting] in the Sax. of junon upspringe etb setellung.

Ver. 8. I will not] In the Contents of the Psalm, The pleasure of God is not in ceremonies.

Ver. 10. a thousand] Sept. and Oxen, from the same Word made up with and.

Ver. 11. wild Beast] Sept. again Beauty, by ו from ו as Isa. lxvi. 11. but not in Psa. lxxx. 13. where it is only.

Ver. 16. What Business hast thou] A wicked Person asking Bias one of the wise Heathens concerning Religion, he made him no Answer, till being asked again why he did not, then replied, ὅτι ἀπὸ τοῦ ἰδὲν τοῦ ἀπορίσκειν ἀνδρῶν, Because thou enquirest about what does not at all belong to thee, Diog. Laert. in Vit.

Ver. 18. art pleased] Both the Sept. and Targ. didst run, from רוץ instead of רצה.

Ver. 21. thoughtest] Litur. wickedly, because the Gr. has so; but who could mistake it for thinking well?

Ver. 23. He who offers] Gr. The Sacrifice of, the Difference being but in the Points זבח and קרבן.

lb. appoints the Way] viz. for it, being thus literal.

P S A L M LI.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, when the Prophet Nathan came to him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

Be gracious to me, O God, according to thy Kindness: according to the Multitude of thy Mercies, blot out my Transgressions.

2. Wash me thoroughly from my Iniquity, and cleanse me from my Sin.

3. For I acknowledge my Transgressions, and my Sin is before me continually.

4. Against thee, thee in particular, have I sinned, and done what thou art displeased with: by reason of which thou art righteous in thy Words, and pure in thy Judging.

5. Behold I was begot in Iniquity, and my Mother conceived me in Sin.

6. Lo thou didst desire Truth in the inward Parts, and in that which is shut up madest me know Wisdom.

7. Oh purify me with Hyssop, that I may be clean: wash me, so that I may be whiter than Snow.

8. Cause me to hear Joy and Gladness: let the Bones thou hast bruised rejoice.

9. Hide thy Face from my Sins, and blot out all my Iniquities.

10. Create a clean Heart for me, O God, and renew a steady Mind within me.

11. Do not cast me from thy Presence, nor take thy Holy Spirit from me.

12. Restore to me the Joy of thy Salvation; and let the free Spirit uphold me;

13. So will I teach Transgressors thy Ways, that the Sinners may return to thee.

14. From Blood, O God, the God of my Salvation, deliver me; whose Tongue shall sing of thy Righteousness.

Ver. 4. by reason of which] for that must be improper here: but thus it is plain and consistent, that God's speaking to David, and judging him, as by Nathan, 2 Sam. xii. 7—14. was very right and just, because he had sinned against God.

Ib. Words] which he had then heard by Nathan.

Ib. pure] The LXX mayest overcome or prevail, from the Syriack Signification, as I agree with Byth.

Ver. 5. I was &c.] Grotius writes, "Sensus est, Non nunc tantum, sed & a pueritia mea, sapius peccavi;" i. e. The Meaning is, Not now only, but even from my Youth, I have sinned often: for it is an hyperbolical Kind of speaking, adds he, as the comparing it with Psa. lviii. 3. Isa. xlviii. 5. (and more Places which he mentions) shews.

Ver. 6. didst desire] being the past Tense in Heb.

Ib. and] or so, or therefore, as consequent to the foregoing.

Ib. in that which is shut up] Psa. secretly; that is, says the Author of Holy David clear'd, by the private checks of my own Conscience.

Ib. madest me know Wisdom] Quominus excusatio mihi de peccato suppetat, that I might be without excuse in sinning, Grot. the Verb being future only to didst desire. Goodridge terms it the shining of God's Wisdom and Light Divine in the Soul.

Ver. 7. purify] Sept. sprinkle, the other being done by it, Lev. xiv. 7.

15. Lord, open my Lips, and my Mouth shall declare thy Praise.

16. For thou desirest not Sacrifice, which I would give: thou dost not delight in Burnt-offering.

17. The Sacrifices of God are a broken Mind: a broken and bruised Heart, O God, thou dost not despise.

18. Deal well in thy Favour with Zion, build up the Walls of Jerusalem.

19. Then wilt thou desire the Sacrifices of Righteousness, Burnt-offering and whole Burnt-offering: then will they offer up Bulls on thy Altar.

P S A L M LII.

FOR the chief Musician. An instructing Poem of David, when Doeg the Edomite went, and told Saul the News, that David came to Ahimelech's House.

Why dost thou boast in Harm, stout Fellow? God is kind every Day.

2. Thy Tongue contrives froward Things, it is as it were a sharp Razor in acting deceitfully.

3. Thou lovest Evil more than Good, Falsehood more than speaking what is just. A Pause.

4. Thou lovest all devouring Words, O deceitful Tongue!

5. God will also destroy thee perpetually: whom he will take, and pluck away from the Tent, rooting thee out from the Country of the Living. A Pause.

6. Then virtuous Persons, who will see, and shew reverence, will laugh at him,

7. There is the Man, who would not

Ver. 17. Here Jonston,

*Mens scelerum sub mole gemens, fraudesque perosa,
Una placet, numen placat et una tuum:*

A Mind groaning under the Weight of wicked Things, and hating Deceits, only pleases and only pacifies thy Divine Presence; on which the Preface-writer breaks out, How wonderfully fine is this Passage! He had the Thing it self in his very Soul. Where is the Pen that can do Justice to these Lines? What a Strength of Language? What a Harmony of Numbers is there in the former? What a Pathos in the latter? Doubtless it is excellently done, as the Version is in general well.

Ver. 1. An instructing Poem of David] Psa. xxxii. The Dewey Vers. has here understanding to David, at the next understanding to David, and the following understanding for David; so varying the Sense with the Words, while the Lat. is the same.

Ib. came] not is come, Lightfoot.

Ib. Ahimelech] LXX Abimelech corruptly.

Ib. God is kind] contrary to thee.

Ver. 2. is as it were] unless a Razor works deceitfully.

Ver. 5. and pluck] Patr. vulgarly, and more than that, he will pay thee in the same Coin thou hast dealt to them, which he doubles in relating.

Ib. rooting thee out] Sept. and thy Root, having the Verb for a Noun.

make God his Strength; but trust in the Abundance of his Riches, and strengthen himself in his Forwardness.

8. Whereas I shall be like a verdant Olive-tree at the House of God; in whose Kindness I trust for ever and evermore.

9. I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it; and will wait for thy Name, because it is good, before thy pious ones.

P S A L M LIII.

FOR the chief Musician upon the Instrument Mahalath. An instructing Poem of David.

The vile one says in his Heart, There is no God: they corrupt and make themselves abominable by Iniquity, none doing Good.

2. God looking from Heaven upon Mankind, to see whether there is any who understands, who seeks God;

3. Every one of them is turned back, they are become filthy together, none doing Good, not even one.

4. Will not the Workers of Iniquity know, who eat my People as they do Bread, not calling upon God?

5. There they are terrified with Fear, where no Fear is, because God scatters the Bones of him that encamps against thee; who makest them ashamed, because God despises them.

6. Oh that there were the Salvations of Israel from Zion! when God turns back the Captivity of his People, Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad.

P S A L M LIV.

FOR the chief Musician on the Instruments that are stricken. An instructing Poem of David, when the Ziphites came, and said to Saul, Does not David hide himself with us?

O God, save me by thy Name, and judge for me by thy Power.

2. O God, hear my Prayer, give ear to the Words of my Mouth.

3. For Strangers are risen up against me, and the Violent seek my Life; not setting God before them. A Pause.

4. Behold God is my Helper, the Lord is among those who uphold my Life.

5. He will render what is ill to my Observers: cut them off in thy Truth.

6. I will sacrifice to thee with a Free-offering: I will praise thy Name, O Lord, because it is good.

7. For he delivers me from all Distress, and my Eye can look on my Enemies.

Ver. 8. shall be] agreeable to the foregoing.

Ib. Olive-tree] Two Sax. Copies have elestrow, but Spelman's for Olive has eleberye, i. e. Oilberry.

Ib. at] It being unlikely that Trees grew in it: therefore Tate and Brady have,

But I am like those Olive-Plants that shade God's Temple round;
and Buchanan,

Domini in agello confita;
which may be understood, or rendered, set in the Lord's Court.

Ib. for ever and evermore] being different Heb. Words; new-Eng. Vers. for ay and ay.

Ver. 9. wait for thy Name—before] which the better Sense may shew is to belong one to the other; and so the Pointing is made in the Version of Jun. and Trem. and Poole pleads for it in the same Sense.

Ver. 1. This is nearly the same as the 14th Psalm, which might be altered by David himself, and so made another. Buchanan is blamed for paraphrasing so largely here with,

Opinimum fieda mentem toxico, &c.
Filthy in Mind with the Poison of Opinions, &c. but it may be allowed in Poetry, and to diversify it from the 14th.

Ib. the Instrument] See the Title of Psa. viii.

Ib. none doing Good] Baxter, tho' he shews his peculiar Skill in altering some of this from the 14th Psalm, keeps this Line verbatim,

[Of them] that do good there is none, to be tuned either with, or without the two inclosed Words: as if by the former, there are, and are not those who do good; and by the latter, that the same is both singular and plural.

Ver. 5. him that encamps against thee] which Mudge says is too uncouth, and so changes the Original to make it—no Matter what! the Vile Wretch, and pleads the Authority of the Seventy, who have Menpleasers.

Ver. 6. Jonston finely,

Ille dicit, lux illa! veni, de rupe Sionis

Isacidis cæli quæ feret autor opem:

Tum domus Abrahamidum celebrabit gaudia, duro

Cum sacro gens cornet colla soluta iugo.

O that Day, that Light! come, on which the Maker of Heaven will bring Help from the Rock of Sion to those of Isaac: then will the House of them who belong to Abraham celebrate their Joys, when the holy Nation beholds their Necks let loose from the Yoke.

Vm. 1. with us] which being not in 1 Sam. xxvi. 1. but in Ch. xxiii. 19. this Psalm is to be referred thither; see Psa. xi. 1.

Ver. 3. Strangers] Our new Capellian Critick Mudge, by the Change of a Consonant and a Vowel, can make it the Proud, nay dares to translate so, which exceeds the Effrontery of Capellus himself. He would defend it by Psa. lxxxvi. 14. but why did not he also alter the rest to that, if they must be alike? If not, why here in this Word?

Ib. Violent] as the same is translated Psa. lxxxvi.

Ver. 6. will praise] Buchanan,

—te canam

Patrem, bonis placabilem,

Malisque formidabilem.

I will sing thee the Father, gentle to the Good, and terrible to the Evil. Goodridge, but not for the Value of it, thought some of his smoothest, being wrapt up in his usual Obscurity;

I will thy holy Name for ever bless,

So Great, so Good, so all my happiness:

for Great and Good may belong either to God, or Name, or bless, or happiness.

Ib. good] old Psalter, so comfortable.

Ver. 7. can look on] being not afraid of them, or fleeing from them.

P S A L M LV.

FOR the chief Musician on the Instruments that are stricken. An instructing Poem of David.

Give ear, O God, to my Prayer; and do not hide thy self from my Supplication.

2. Harken to me, and answer me: who lament in my Meditation, and cry out;

3. By the Voice of the Enemy, by reason of the Pressing of the Wicked: for they remove Iniquity upon me, and hate me in Anger.

4. My Heart is in Anguish within me, and the Terrors of Death are fallen upon me:

5. Fear and Trembling is come into me, and Quaking covers me.

6. Inasmuch that I say, Oh that I had Wings like a Dove! I would fly away, and there remain.

7. Lo I would wander far off, lodging in the Wilderness. A Pause.

8. I would hasten my Escape, from the Whirlwind, from the Tempest.

9. Devour, Lord, divide their Tongue asunder: for I see Violence and Contention in the City.

10. Which they beset Day and Night, upon its Walls: Vanity and Trouble being within it.

11. Froward Things are within it; nor does Fraud and Deceit depart from its Streets.

12. For it is not an Enemy reproaches me, which I could bear; not one that hated me who magnifies himself against me, from whom I could hide:

13. But thou, a Man, as it were of my own Rank; my Guide, and Acquaintance:

14. Who took Counsel together sweetly, went to the House of God among the Croud.

15. Let Death arrest them, let them go down into the Grave alive: because wicked Things are in their Lodging amongst them.

16. As for me, I will call on God, and the Lord will save me.

17. In the Evening, Morning, and at Noon will I meditate, and cry out; and he will hear my Voice.

18. He redeemed my Life into Peace, from the War that I had: for they were by me with many.

19. God, even he who abides eternally, will hear, and afflict them; a Pause: that having no Changes, do not fear God.

20. He stretches out his Hands against his peaceable ones, profanes his Covenant.

21. As smooth as Butter in his Mouth, but with War in his Heart, softer than Oil are his Words; yet they are like drawn Swords.

22. Cast thy Burden upon the Lord, who will sustain thee: he will never let the Righteous be moved.

23. So thou, O God, wilt bring them down to the Pit of Corruption; bloody and deceitful Men shall not live half their Days: but I trust in thee.

Ver. 1. This Annotators apply to the Conspiracy of Absalom and Achitophel; see 2 Sam. xv. 31.

Ib. hide thy self from] Sept. overlook.

Ib. Supplication] Sax. bene for Been.

Ver. 2. Meditation] according to the Signification of the Verb, and as translated Psa. civ. 34. with the like Noun Psa. cxix. 97, 99.

Ver. 3. with very familiar Phrase in the Psalter, too long, and needless to recite thence.

Ver. 4. are fallen upon me] Sax. feall after me.

Ver. 5. Fear] Sax. eysa, as if Awes.

Ver. 8. Where Hopkins, That I were quite—perhaps for That I might be quit of.

Ib. Whirlwind] Heb. Wind of marching, so that it was a Sort of Wind, not Storm. The LXX Interpreters turn it Faintheartedness, or according to the Gr. Little-mindedness, the former Word signifying Spirit as well as Wind, and for the other I cannot see they did less than mistake רעם for רעב but it does not match very well with Tempest.

Ver. 10. Day and Night] which Buchanan makes poetical indeed,

Sive lux fundat radios micantes,

Sive nox fundat tenebras opacas:

Whether the Light settles glittering Rays, or the Night settles shady Darkness; and the like Ver. 17. alias 18.

Ver. 11. Fraud] The Heb. being tec, the LXX put it the same in Gr. with the Termination of that Language, viz. tocos, which signifies Usury; but the Heb. has no such Meaning: so the Gr. is Psa. lxxii. 14. but Psa. x. 7. Deceit; this Noun being but in these three Places.

Ver. 14. Counsel] One Counsel steered us, our Souls were knit as one; in which Line of Goodridge's Psalms, to be sung in the best Manner, a Choir would be liable to sing different Syllables to one Note, there being too many, and all unfit to be doubled. The LXX have it Victuals, Bythn. supposes from סעך (for סוד) N. 1107. that signifies Support, which is wide Work; but perhaps idismata was at first idismata Supports.

Ver. 18. they were by me with many] fighting against me, says Kasfenaki; and the com. Vers. has,

Altho the number be full great, that would against me stand.

Our Answ. renders it, with many were they with me; and Kimbi understands it, with many they were against me; there being 3 for with before many, and David's Enemies being spoken of in the plur. both before and after, Ver. 15, 19.

Ver. 19. even] Mudge alters the Original to take this off, yet has and for it himself.

Ib. soho] the Heb. Relative.

Ver. 20. against is peaceable ones] Gr. in recompensing, applied to God, being another Sense of the Verb, and his neglected, which determines for this.

Ver. 21. Butter] Sept. Anger, in a very different Meaning of the Phrase, by deriving it from חמם instead of חמם.

Ib. Mouth] Hare and Mudge would have it Countenance, by the Addition of a Letter, and is one of their most plausible Amendments of the Text; but had they discovered a Version would run so smooth and exact with the Heb. it would have been rash to fancy the other.

P S A L M LVI.

FOR the chief Musician; upon the Dove among a Crew far off. A golden Poem of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.

Be gracious to me, O God, for Man would swallow me up: every Day fighting, he oppresses me.

2. My Observers would swallow up every Day: for many fight against me, O High One.

3. The Day I am afraid, I trust on thee.

4. Through God I will praise his Word; in God I trust, so will not be afraid: what can Flesh do to me?

5. Every Day they make my Words sorrowful; all their Thoughts being against me for Harm.

6. Coming together, they hide themselves, observing my Footsteps; when they wait for my Life.

7. Shall they escape in the Iniquity? Cast down the People in Anger, O God.

8. Thou countest up my Wandering; put my Tears into thy Bottle: are they not in thy Accompt?

9. Then my Enemies will return back, on the Day that I call: this I know, because God is for me.

10. Through God I will praise the Word: through the Lord will I do it.

P S A L M LVII.

FOR the chief Musician; do not destroy. A golden Poem of David, when he fled from the Presence of Saul into the Cave.

Be gracious to me, O God, be gracious to me, for my Soul trusts in thee; and in the Shadow of thy Wings will I trust, till the Calamities pass away.

2. I will call on the Supreme God, on God who performs for me.

3. He will send from Heaven, and save me, putting him to Reproach who would swallow me up; A Pause: God will send his Kindness and Truth.

4. My Soul is as it were among stout Lions; I lie with those that are set on fire, Men whose Teeth are as a Spear and Arrows, and their Tongue as a sharp Sword.

5. Be exalted above the Heavens, O God: let thy Glory be above all the Earth.

6. They prepared a Net for my Feet, my Soul bowing down, they dug a Pit before

Ver. 1. the Dove among a Crew far off] So fitly does this Title suit the Occasion, and shews it self translated with more Beauty and Use than divers others. Among is the Sign of the Genit. Case as of a Crew; and the Word for Crew is rendered Congregation, Psa. lviii. 2. where it only occurs besides, as the Masoreth notes; and so, as Ainsiv. observes, the Chaldee expounds it.

Ib. took] as we find 1 Sam. xxi. 14.

Ib. would swallow me up] In the Version of the LXX, has trod me down; where I notwithstanding acquit them of the Error, unless it is to be thought they made mistake in the Gr. as well as Heb. since this can be only I presume in the former, καταπαύω being for καταπίω which some Transcriber might alter it to, as the more agreeable (indeed) without would; and the like in the next Verse.

Ver. 2. O High One] The LXX join it to the first Word of the next Ver. rendering from the Height of the Day, and they also have it put back to Day before, but the Vulgate not the latter.

Ver. 4. his Word] With the Gr. my Words, strangely you may say, but the Letters differ only in y and r.

Ib. what] in Heb. chiefly interrogative, and the Partition of the Verse at the Word before.

Ver. 5. make my Words] made him use sorrowful Words, like these; the Heb. Verb never signifying wrest.

Ver. 7. Shall they escape in the Iniquity?] For Nothing wilt thou save them, Gr. Sept. as if יין for יון and by assuming the 2d Person.

Ib. Cast down] Sept. break, whence I know not.

Ver. 8. Wandering] In the Com. Pray. flittings, unknown doubtless now to many who read it in the publick Service, this being the People's Verse; and Payne keeps it in his Metre: nay Johns. himself in his late large Dict.

interprets it offence, fault; which is indisputably wrong, and it is to be applied to his Sense of the Verb, flit, remove.

Ib. into thy Bottle] Sept. before thee, as if from ביתך for ביתך.

Ver. 10. See how wrong and differently rendered, with that at Ver. 4. in the old Psalt.

Ver. 13. shall] since he says God, and not thee, with this; making a Change to the 3d Person, as the Grammarians speak.

Ib. in the Light] belonging also to shall not &c. as the great Heb. Point at God shews.

Ver. 1. do not destroy] the English of אל תשחית, and as David said, 1 Sam. xxvi. 9. suitable to the Matter of this Psalm, and the following ones.

Ib. into the Cave] at En-gedi, as we find he did, 1 Sam. xxiii. 26, 29. & xxiv. 3. but not from Saul in the Cave; for David staid there till Saul was gone out, and did not then flee from him, but went after him, Ch. xxiv. 7, 8. Jun. and Trem. have metu Schaulis in Speluncam, for Fear of Saul into the Cave, according to Ch. xxiii. 26. and the lost Translators generally into.

Ib. the Shadow of thy Wings] Sax. scadu fyttera thinra.

Ver. 2. performs] In the Targ. for an Instance of the Liberty there taken וְאֵלֶּיךָ לְעֹבְדֵיךָ bas commanded a Spider to make a Web in the Cave for me, viz. to conceal him, by making it appear that there was no Man there. By the LXX and well, as if נמר had been נמר.

Ver. 3. putting—to reproach] the Heb. being a Verb, in the Conjug. Pikel, not a Noun, so that there is no Need of producing Interpreters for it.

Ver. 4. with those that are set on fire] By the Sept. troubled, i. e. himself was, they taking ע plur. to be a radical Letter of some of the Verbs to that Purpose.

me; into the middle of which themselves are fallen. A Pause.

7. My Heart is prepared, O God, my Heart is prepared; I will sing, and that melodiously.

8. Awake, my Instrument of Glory, awake, Lute and Harp: I will awake early.

9. I will praise thee among the People, Lord, will sing to thee melodiously in the Nations.

10. For thy Kindness is great to the Heavens, and thy Truth to the Skies.

11. Be exalted above the Heavens, O God: let thy Glory be above all the Earth.

P S A L M LVIII.

FOR the chief Musician; do not destroy. A golden Poem of David.

Do ye indeed, O Crew, speak what is righteous? Do ye judge upright Things, O human Race?

2. Whereas you work Iniquities with the Heart on the Earth, you weigh out the Injury of your Hands.

3. The Wicked alienate themselves from the Womb: they go astray from the Belly, telling Lyes.

4. Their Venom is even like that of a Serpent: being as the deaf Asp, that stops its Ear;

5. Which will not hearken to the Voice of the Charmers, that uses Incantments skilfully.

6. O God, destroy their Teeth in their Mouth: break out the Cheek-teeth of the young Lions, O Lord.

7. They will be dissolved as Water that goes away of it self: when he bends with his Arrows, they will be as if they were cut off.

8. As a Snail that dissolves will each go away, as the untimely Birth of a Woman, those who have not seen the Sun.

9. Before your Pots can feel the Briers, he will drive him away tempestuously, as he is alive, and in Fury.

10. The Righteous will be glad, because he sees the Vengeance: he will wash his Feet in the Blood of the Wicked.

11. And Men will declare there is certainly Fruit for the Righteous: there is certainly a God who judges on the Earth.

P S A L M LIX.

FOR the chief Musician; do not destroy. A golden Poem of David, when Saul sent, and they watched the House to kill him.

Deliver me from my Enemies, O my God; exalt me above those who are risen up against me.

2. Deliver me from the Workers of Iniquity, and save me from the bloody Men.

3. For behold, they lie in wait for my Life, the Strong come together against me; not for my Transgression, nor my Sin, O Lord.

4. Though there is no Guilt, they run and prepare themselves: awake to meet me, and see.

5. And do thou, O Lord God of Armies, the God of Israel, stir up to visit all the Gentiles: be not merciful to any that are treacherous with Iniquity. A Pause.

6. Let them return in the Evening, make

Ver. 10. Here Goodridge,

Extend it 'bove the Clouds, 'bove th' Heav'ns extend;
for such as may like it better than in a plain Manner as,
The same above both Clouds and Heav'ns extend.

Ver. 1. The Wickedness of Saul's Agents, by which David suffered, appears to be the Occasion of this Psalm.

Ib. Crew] For Mudge says he reads tho' there is scarce such a Word, or but improperly, and then renders this Phantom ye Divine Powers, but means human ones, and those bad too.

Ver. 2. on the Earth] This standing here in Heb. is joined to the former Part in the Litur. by Dr. Hammond, Munst. Jun. and Trem. Cast. Ainsw. Pagn. &c. which its Accent King Psalms shews it should.

Ib. weigh out] pretending to speak and act, according to Law and Justice, as Ver. 1. and Beza says, There is no greater Injury than that under the Cloak of Law, Arg.

Ver. 3. from the Belly] as before from the Womb in Heb. where Barton extravagantly, no sooner born than speaking lies;

how much better R. B. no sooner speaks, but lie;
and Patrick,

But 'tis no wonder, since you were Deprav'd, almost as soon as born:
A wicked Brood train'd up to lye,
To flatter, and all Truth to scorn;
or Tate and Brady,

To Virtue Strangers from the Womb, their Infant-steps went wrong;

They prattled Slander, and in Lies employ'd their lipping Tongue:

which last Wb. and Sil. follow.

Ver. 7. They will] For it appears by he and his in this Ver. that David now turned his Speech from speaking to God, agreeable also to Ver. 9, 10, 11. and to when understood here.

Ib. dissolved] Sept. despised, from DM but by the Point double Dagesh is from DM.

Ver. 8. the untimely Birth of a Woman] for which the LXX have the Fire fell; yet as strange as it may seem, the Heb. might be so without the last Letter and the Points; and they have Wax for Snail.

Ver. 9. Pots] The same Word signifying Thorns, the LXX render, Before your Thorns were sensible of the Brier, but by the Col. of Dewey—did understand the old bryar.

Ib. feel the Briers] burning under them, which they will quickly do; see Eccles. vii. 6.

Ib. drive him away] alluding to Briers so driven away from under the Pots, especially by the Hearths being in the middle of the Rooms, or abroad in Camps, &c.

Ver. 10. Feet] The Sept. Hands, as if they knew better what belonged to Washing, when it is going in the Blood.

Ver. 1. Hatton intitles this, A Prayer against Hereticks; as if seeking to kill David, made the Men such, or whom he had rather in View, K. Charles.

Ver. 4. meet] so the Heb.

a Noise as a Dog, and go round about the City.

7. Behold they utter forth with their Mouth, Swords being in their Lips: for, they say, Who hears?

8. But thou, O Lord, wilt smile at them; wilt deride all the Gentiles.

9. His Strength is of thee I observe: for God is my high Place.

10. The God of my Kindness will prevent me; God will let me look on my Observers.

11. Do not slay them, lest my People should forget: remove them with thy Power, and bring them down, Lord our Shield.

12. By the Sin of their Mouth, the Words of their own Lips, let them be also taken in their Pride; and for the Cursing, and the Lying they express.

13. Consume in Wrath, consume, that they may not be: and let them know that God has dominion in Jacob, to the Limits of the Earth. A Pause.

14. So let them return in the Evening, make a Noise as a Dog, and go round about the City.

15. Let them wander for Food: if they are not satisfied, let them murmur.

16. But I will sing of thy Strength, nay will sing aloud of thy Kindness in the Morning: for thou art my high Place, and a Refuge at the Time of my Distress.

17. My Strength, I will sing melodiously to thee: for God is my high Place, the God of my Kindness.

P S A L M LX.

FOR the chief Musician upon the six-stringed Instrument of the Testimony. A golden Poem of David, to teach; when he contended with the Syrians of Mesopotamia and those of Zobah, and Joab returning, slew twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

O God, who has cast us off, broke us asunder, being angry; restore to us.

2. Thou who hast shaken the Country, broke it in pieces; heal the Breaches of it, for it is moved.

3. Thou who didst shew thy People a hard Thing, madest us drink the Wine of Horror;

4. Hast given a Standard to those that fear thee, to be set up by reason of the Truth. A Pause.

5. That thy beloved ones may be delivered, save with thy right Hand, and answer me.

6. God has said in his Holiness, that I shall triumph: I will divide Shechem, and measure out the Vale of Succoth.

7. Gilead is mine, and so is Manasseh, Ephraim is also the Strength of my Head, Judah my Law-giver.

8. Moab is my Washing-pot, I will throw my Shoe against Edom: O Philistia, shout against me.

9. Who will bring me to the fortified City? Who will lead me to Edom?

10. Wilt not thou, O God, that didst

Ver. 9. His] Saul's, from the Title of the Psalm.

Ib. His Strength is of thee I observe] as the Heb. is literally; denoting that Saul could do no more than he had Power from God to do, which was not to destroy David, as the next Words shew. The Verb does not signify wait. Thus the Tig. Verf. has it, Robur illius ad te observabo.

Ver. 11. With thy Power] Litur. among the people; but what a Wonder it is that thy was left out for the sake of it.

Ver. 12. and for] in the old Eng. Psalms, and why? their preaching is of cursing and lies; which I doubt not but was adapted to the predicating Priests, whose Sermons were such against the Reformers.

Ver. 1. contended with] Sept. set on fire, as if מִצְרֵי infin. from מָצַר was מִצְרֵי prez. from מָצַר.

Ib. twelve thousand] six thousand being slain as it seems before Joab's Return by Abishai in the main Battle, and so the whole 18000 ascribed to him, 1 Chron. xviii. 12. Joab killing these afterwards in Sieges and Skirmishes; and not the 6000 slain in lesser Skirmishes, as Grotius would have it.

Ib. broke us asunder] by the civil Wars while David reigned at Hebron, 2 Sam. iii. 1. nor does the Word signify scattered.

Ib. restore] as Psa. xciii. 3. without thy self.

Ver. 2. Country] Correspondent with us and thy People, Ver. 1, 3.

Ver. 3. madest—drink] in the Sax. Verf. drencest, drenchedst.

Ver. 4. to be set up by reason of the Truth] With the the Sept. to flee from the Face of the Bow, deriving the Verb from בָּרַח instead of בָּרַח as it would be here the same, and turning עָרַב by עָרַב the last Letters of which are alike in Sound; and both these through the Infrequency of those Heb. Words.

Ver. 8. my Washing-pot] Gr. the Pot of my Hope, from the Chald. Root, not used in Heb.

Ib. shout against me] said ironically, as Ab. Ezr. Jun. and Trem. with Ainsw. note. But because of (which the Heb. scarce signifies) makes it contrary to what is said of the other heathen Countries, nay contrary to Psa. cviii. 9. And here the Singing Psalms so commended by Manton, &c. for being nearest the Original, and in the Title-page for being the most agreeable to the Text (meaning by both the com. Eng. Transf.) have.

And over Palestine's land

I will in triumph go;

but in Ver. 10. there are used for Nearness to the pres. Eng. badest and didest, each two Syllables: and the com. Psalms have here,

And thou Palestine ought'st to seek for favour me unto,

The Gr. and com. Lat. have, Foreigners are subject to me, which the Heb. here has Nothing like that I find, unless the Verb was made from the double Signification of פָּרַח to break and be in fellowship, and the Noun from שָׁלַח to roll; nor is the Gr. the same as in Psa. xviii. 44. to be taken thence; neither do the Chald. Syriack, nor Arabick make it out, though the Ethiopic Language a little; nor yet any Corruption perceivable or probable in the Gr. and it is the same Psa. cviii. 9.

cast us off; and that didst not go forth, O God, in our Armies?

11. Give us Help, by reason of the Adversary; since human Safety is vain.

12. Through God we shall act with Ability, and he will tread down our Adversaries.

PSALM LXI.

FOR the chief Musician upon the Instrument that is stricken. By David.

Hear my Cry, O God, hearken to my Prayer.

2. From the End of the Country will I call to thee, when my Heart is overwhelmed: lead me on the Rock that is higher than my self.

3. For thou hast been a Refuge to me, a strong Tower from the Face of the Enemy.

4. I will evermore lodge in thy Tent, will trust in the Covert of thy Wings. A Pause.

5. Since thou, O God, hast heard my Vows, giving the Inheritance of such as fear thy Name.

6. Days upon Days add to the King, let his Years be as succeeding Ages.

7. Let him ever dwell in God's Presence: prepare Kindness and Truth, that they may keep him.

8. So will I sing melodiously to thy Name for ever, to perform my Vows Day by Day.

Ver. 2. End of the Country] whither he seems fled from Abisalom, as 2 Sam. xvii. 22. rather than Saul, since he calls himself King, Ver. 6.

Ver. 5. Vows] Lit. desires unaccountably, as the same too is turned vows at the End of the Psalms.

Ib. of] That of the Lit. and some other Transl. unto; for which a Heb. Preposition is wanting, but Nothing for this; besides the other turning it out of Course, as he speaks of himself.

Ver. 6. add] to Jun. and Trem. superaddito, Cast. adice, both imperative, as proper, to accord with prepare, Ver. 7. and with se, Ver. 8.

Ver. 7. prepare — they may keep] For which the LXX have who shall seek out? rather than the Vulg. require; the Word for prepare being who in Chald. & צו might mistakenly be referred to צו hunt.

Ver. 1. of David] probably while he reigned, by Ver. 4. and the Musician's Name, of whom see Psa. xxxix. Beza in Arg. most extravagantly, It seems that whoever has this Psalm in Memory, can be overcome with no Kind of Temptation.

Ib. only] the same Particle as in Ver. 2, 4, 5, 6.

Ib. Silence] the same Word with that in Psa. xxii. 2. and a Noun: which the Tig. Verf. and Mont. have silens, silent; Ainsw. keepeth silence; Pagn. Coccei. & Munst. silens, is silent; the last of whom expounds it, praestolatur in silentio, waits in silence; and Jonston. Mente Deum tacita venerat — I worship God with a silent Mind.

Ver. 3. be slain] Gr. kill, act. which would bear an PSALM LXII.

FOR the chief Musician Jeduthan. A Psalm of David.

To God only my Soul is in Silence; from whom my Salvation is.

2. He only is my Rock and Salvation, my high Place: I cannot be much moved.

3. How long will ye frowardly devise against a Man? All of you will be slain; ye will be like a Wall that is bended, a Fence thrust aside.

4. They only consult how to expel him from his Excellency, taking delight in a Lye: they bless each with his Mouth, but curse with their inward Parts. A Pause.

5. To God only be silent my Soul; for my Expectation is from him.

6. He only is my Rock and Salvation, my high Place: I cannot be moved.

7. With God is my Salvation and Glory: my strong Rock, my Refuge is in God.

8. Trust in him at all Times, O People, pour out your Heart before him: God is a Refuge to us. A Pause.

9. Mankind in general are only Vanity, particular Persons a Lye: they would be lighter than Vanity, being in the Scales together.

10. Do not trust in Oppression, nor in Spoil become vain: set not the Heart on Wealth, because it is fruitful.

11. Once has God spoken, twice have I heard this; that Strength is of God.

Argument, as it is pointed irregularly, but for the following Words.

Ver. 4. from his Excellency] as if David repeated their Expression concerning him: Sandys in Anacreontic Verse,
All conspire to cast me down,

From my Brows to tear my Crown.

But the LXX have it my Price, imaginary from the same Root, but by for

Ib. taking delight in a Lye] Sept. I ran in Thirst; with the Verb from רץ instead of רצו tho' 'tis strange they should mistake רצו for רצת as they did כ to be כ for in, but Thirst is less apparent.

Ib. his Mouth] so the Heb. for Elegancy.

Ver. 5. be silent] agreeable to Ver. 1. so Munster renders it file; Leo Jud. silens; Pagn. tace, hold thy peace; Ainsw. keepe thou silence.

Ver. 9. in general] See Psa. xlix. 2. the Sax. is, gdt bearn manna leafe bearn manna, that is vain are the Souls of Men, lying the Sons of Men.

Ib. be lighter than] Heb. go up more than.

Ver. 10. in Spoil] Allowed by the Situation of it, some join this to trust, as the Translators of the Lithurgick and Geneva Versions, Ham. &c. but the Accent-points do not allow it, the kingly Accent Zarka making a Distinction at Oppression, as also the Minister Terah ben yomo carrying on this to the following.

Ver. 11. twice] according as in Job. xxxiii. 14. which with the Word [this] destroy the old Gr. and Lat. Interpretation of hearing two Matters, and Grotius's farther Refinement thereon, which might have been best applied to the two next Expressions here.

12. And of thee, Lord, is Kindness : though thou wilt reward a Man according to his Work.

P S A L M LXIII.

A PSALM of David, when he was in the Wilderness of Judah.

O God, who art my God, I will seek thee early : my Soul does thirst for thee, my Flesh longs for thee in a dry Country, and is faint without Water :

2. To see such Power and Glory of thine, as I beheld thee with in the holy Place.

3. For thy Kindness being better than Life, my Lips shall praise thee.

4. So will I bless thee while I live, lifting up my Hands in thy Name.

5. When my Soul is satisfied as with Marrow and Fatness, my Mouth shall utter praise with singing Lips.

6. If I do but remember thee upon my Bed, I think on thee in the Watches.

7. For thou hast been my Help : in the Shadow of whose Wings I will sing.

8. My Soul follows close after thee ; thy right Hand upholding me.

9. Therefore those who seek my Soul for Wasting, will go into the lower Places of the Earth.

10. Each will be made to flow out by means of the Sword, they will be the Portion of Foxes.

11. Whereas the King will be glad through God, by whom every one who swears shall glory : when the Mouth of those that tell Lyes will be shut up.

P S A L M LXIV.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Hear my Voice, O God, in my Meditation : keep my Life from the Dread of the Enemy.

2. Hide me from the Counsel of the Evil-doers, from the Tumult of the Workers of Iniquity :

3. Who sharpen their Tongue like a Sword ; bend with their Arrow, even a bitter Word,

4. To shoot the Perfect in lurking Places, shooting him suddenly, without being afraid.

5. They strengthen an evil Matter for themselves, tell how to hide Snares ; asking, Who can see them ?

6. They search for Iniquities, finishing the Search that is made : for the Mind of the Man, and the Disposition, is deep.

7. But God will shoot them with an Arrow suddenly : there shall be Wounds of their own.

Ver. 12. though] which the Sense requires, and that it should not be for.

Ver. 1. Wilderness] that mentioned, as it seems, in his Flight from Abisalom, 2 Sam. xv. 23. & xvi. 2. & xvii. 16, 29. as he was King, Ver. 11.

1b. longs] Sept. hsv manifest, as with other Points.

1b. in] Mudge translates as, not that the Heb. is so, but that he would have the Author be at Jerusalem, and not in the Wilderness of Judah, though the Title in his own Version expressly says the latter. And if the Title was less authentick, it would be less Presumption to alter that. But this discerning Writer appears to have made his Criticism from an Error of Bylner in Lyr. Proph. who translates the Targ. and Septuag. by sicut, when both should be in.

1b. is faint] This Heb. Adjective being masc. agreeing with Flesh in the same, whereas the Word for Country is seldom but fem. and therefore is unlikely to be used otherwise when another Substantive has a better Claim to it, and makes a better Expression ; see for this L. de Dieu's Animadv. The Word is also different from that rendered thirst before.

Ver. 9. for Wasting] Instead of this the LXX say in vain, which the Heb. without the last Letter and the Points would allow of, and their little Skill in it appears not to have distinguished.

1b. lower Places] Sax. needran ; whence nether.

Ver. 10. Each &c.] Heb. They will make him flow out, i. e. his Life with his Blood.

Ver. 11. by whom] not by him [the King] which would have been unlawful, Isa. lxxv. 16.

Ver. 1. A Psalm of David] during his Troubles, as is supposed, from Saul.

1b. Meditation] not Prayer, which his Voice rather was ; it is the same Word as at lv. 2.

VOL. I.

Ver. 2. Counsel] there is no other Word for secret here in the Original.

Ver. 4. suddenly] Sax. sema.

Ver. 5. them] the Snares.

Ver. 6. search for Iniquities] to find them in David, according to Ab. Exr. but not searched out Iniquities, which is finding them.

1b. finishing] Gr. fail in, which is contrary, and not signified by the Heb. Verb, but forced from its Meaning consume, as practise in the Litur. is from this.

1b. made] in Heb. searched, being a passive Participle from the Verb before. Grotius supposes this Place may best be interpreted (but he unhappily, tho' fitly uses the Word sarciri, that is botch'd or patch'd up, or what is worse mended) thus, consumiti effimus. Sed investigatio perfectissima (supple, Dei est, ex sequentibus). Et ad intimam hominis & profundum cor ; " (supple pervenit.)" viz. we might have been consumed. But a most perfect Search (supple, there is of God, from the following) both to the inward Part of the Man and the deep Heart (supple comes.) Whereas supposing the first might be the 2d Person, yet the main Partition of the Verse is not there, but further as in the Eng. Transl. nor is there any Thing in Heb. for his Sed But. This may serve for an Instance what Violence Learned Men sometimes use to the Scripture.

1b. for the Mind of the Man] Gr. The Man will come, the Conj. 1 being taken for the Index of the fut. Tense, whence such a Meaning would arise.

Ver. 7. shoot them] Gr. be exalted, the Pronoun taken as Part of another Verb ; but besides the Points there is 1 wanting to it.

1b. suddenly] which belongs to the former Part of the Verse, by the Heb. Pointing. The New-England Versifier, with his common Art of transposing has, their wounds be sudden shall.

8 M

8. As

8. As for their Tongue, they will make it fall upon themselves: every one that sees them will get away.

9. Thus all Men will fear, and declare the Work of God; as well as consider his Doing.

10. The Virtuous will be glad through the Lord, and trust in him: as all who are of an upright Heart will glory.

PSALM LXV.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, or a Poem.

To thee there is Silence and Praise, O God, in Zion: and to thee shall the Vow be performed.

2. O thou who hearest Prayer, to thee all Flesh will come.

3. The Words of unjust Things are too powerful for me: as for our Transgressions, thou purgest them away.

4. He is blessed whom thou choosest, and bringest near, that he may dwell in thy Courts; we being satisfied with the Goodness of thy House, of thy holy Temple.

5. With awful Things in Righteousness didst thou answer us, O God of our Salvation; the Trust of all the Ends of the Earth, and of the Sea far off:

6. Who establishes the Mountains by his Might, being girded with Power:

7. Who restrains the Noise of the Seas, the Noise of their Waves; as likewise the Tumult of the Nations.

8. And those that inhabit the Borders fear by reason of thy Signs: thou causest the Morning and Evening to come out melodiously.

9. Thou visitest the Earth, making it overflow, thou enrichest it much with the Stream of God that is full of Water; preparing their Corn, for so thou preparest it.

10. Watering its Ridges, bringing down its Furrows; thou dissolvest it by Showers, bledest the Sprout of it.

11. Thou crownest the Year with thy Goodness; and thy Ways distil Fatness:

12. They distil on the Habitations of the Wilderness; and the Hills are surrounded with Rejoicing.

13. The Pastures are cloathed with Flocks, and the Vales covered with Corn: there is Shouting, nay Singing, for Joy.

PSALM LXVI.

FOR the chief Musician. A Poem, or Psalm.

Sound forth to God, O whole Earth.

2. Sing the Glory of his Name melodiously, shew the Glory of his Praise.

3. Say to God; How terrible art thou in thy Doings! By the Greatness of thy Strength let thy Enemies submit to thee.

4. Let all the Earth worship thee; and

The Sept. have it of little Children, expounding מְרִיבִים I imagine as מְרִיבִים a Plural of מְרִיב which has none, through the Likeness there may be in Sound of מְרִיב with מְרִיב and מְרִיב with מְרִיב, from מְרִיב simple.

Ver. 8. get away] or get him gone, but the Lit. laugh them to scorn, fancied to be the Sense of moved, and by the LXX more plausibly to be troubled, as they translate.

Ver. 9. fear] Com. Pray. see, through the Likeness of those Heb. Verbs, but there is a [י] too many for that.

Ib. Work] Hopk. wistly Worker.

Ver. 1. A Psalm of David] as it seems in his Prosperity, after the Ark and Tabernacle were settled at Zion, where he dwelt Ver. 4.

Ib. Silence] being the same Word as in Psa. xxii. 2. without any Meaning of waiteth: so Montan. and Leo Jud. render it silentium; and Ainsw. has in his Annotations, Unto thee there is silence and praise.

Ib. in Zion] Bena, besides adding only to it twice, says in Argum. The Benefits of God are never any where rightly acknowledged and praised, but only in his holy Congregations; then not at all privately, but how contrary to Mat. vi. 6. and warranted by no Text.

Ib. performed] Litur. in Jerusalem, not in Heb. nor but in some Copies of Gr.

Ver. 3. The Words of] Which the Heb. has, and the Gr. from thence The Words of the Wicked.

Ib. me] Mudge ut; for says he, I turn the י into י not knowing that there would be a י wanting then.

Ver. 4. we] The Liturgy has it be, for which the Writer of the Old Eng. Translators clear'd produces the like from Munst. and Leo Jud. as if one false Transf. would justify another against the clear Original.

Ver. 6. girded] begyrd in Sax.

Ver. 7. Noise] The LXX turning this Cavity, tho' the same just after thus; and to make the Verb accord with it, being seldom used in the Sense of restrain, they deviously transfer it to disturb.

Ver. 8. melodiously] Psalt. paraphrastically to praise thee; but the superior Pleasantness of Sounds at Morn and Even, and particularly the Birds, appear delineated in this fine Copy of Nature.

Ver. 9. the Stream of God] the Clouds, as being high, or towards Heaven.

Ver. 11. thy Ways] the Clouds where God is supposed to pass, and as rendered in the Litur. see Psa. civ. 3. Nab. i. 3. Job. xxxvi. 28.

Ver. 13. covered] Sept. abound, either merely expository, or interpreting grataph by gnadaph.

Ib. there is] To form some Idea for the Understanding, and what might be heard; yet in Pope's Transf. of Homer's Iliad, B. 23. is,

The Fields their vegetable Life renew,

And laugh and glitter with the morning Dew;

but smile would be better than laugh.

Ver. 1. This appears to be made about the Time of the 18th Psalm by David.

Ver. 2. Glory of] Thus the Heb. Mudge has, give him the Glory of his Praise; but the Heb. neither signifies give, sing melodiously to thee: let them sing to thy Name melodiously. - A Pause.

5. Come, and see the Works of God; terrible in what he does with respect to Mankind.

6. He turned the Sea into dry Ground; they passed through the Flood on Foot: there were we glad through him.

7. He has dominion by his Power for ever; his Eyes will watch the Gentiles: those that are rebellious shall not exalt themselves. A Pause.

8. Bless our God, O People, and cause the Voice of his Praise to be heard:

9. Who has made our Souls live, and not suffered our Feet to be moved.

10. For though thou didst prove us, O God, trying us, as Silver is tried,

11. Broughtest us into a Net, didst put a pressing Thing on our Loins,

12. Madest Man ride on our Heads, we going both into Fire and Water; nevertheless thou hast brought us forth to a plentiful Place.

13. I will come therefore to thy House with Burnt-sacrifices, performing to thee my Vows;

14. Which my Lips opened with, and my Mouth spoke in my Distress.

15. I will offer up to thee Burnt-sacrifices of Rams full of Marrow, with Incense: I will prepare the Ox, along with the He-goats. A Pause.

16. Come, hear, all you that fear God; and I will tell what he has done for my Soul.

17. I called to him with my Mouth, and he was extolled by my Tongue.

18. If I had minded Iniquity in my Heart, the Lord would not have heard.

19. Surely God did hear, he hearkened to the Voice of my Prayer.

20. Blessed be God, who has not put away my Prayer, nor his Kindness from me.

P S A L M LXVII.

FOR the chief Musician on the Instruments that are stricken: A Psalm of Poem.

God will be gracious to us, and bless us; he will make his Face light to us; a Pause:

2. That thy Way may be known on the Earth, thy Salvation among all the Gentiles.

3. Let the People praise thee, O God; the People all of them praise thee:

4. Let the Nations be glad, and sing; because thou judgest the People with Uprightness, and guidest the Nations themselves on Earth. A Pause.

5. Let the People praise thee, O God, the People all of them praise thee.

6. The Earth yields its Increase; God, our God blessing us.

7. Which as he does, let all the Limits of the Earth fear him.

P S A L M LXVIII.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm, or Poem of David.

God rises up, his Enemies disperse, and those that hate him flee by his Presence.

2. As the Smoak thou drivest is driven away, as the Wax is melted by the Presence of the Fire; the Wicked perish by the Presence of God.

3. Whereas the Righteous are glad, they triumph at God's Presence, and are transported with Joy.

4. Sing to God, sing melodiously to his Name: cast up a Way for him who rides on the Plains by his Name The Lord, and rejoice at his Presence.

nor has him, and there is a great Fault in his Version of another Member made by Mistake from the two, and placed between them.

Ver. 5. terrible] Sax. eysslic, as if awelike.

Ver. 7. rebellious] Litur. such as will not believe, from Munfl. as often.

Ver. 9. made] Heb. put, not holdest: which Goodridge following, has something ingenious, as his Thoughts often are, but spoiled by the Expression (he being no Poet, scarce a Grammarian, notwithstanding his great Pretences, and his Book printed the 2d time at Oxford) thus,

Who keeps our Soul; holds back the Fugitive;

And gently winds it i'th' soft Bonds of Life.

Ver. 12. a plentiful Place] Sept. Refreshment, from מר for מר such Blunders being with them.

Ver. 18. minded] Beza thus, I wish a Mind free from all evil Imagination, for else he would not have heard me.

Ver. 1. Psalm] Hutton intitles it, A Prayer that all Men may bless God, and God may bless all Men.

Ib. he &c.] repeated at the End by a mere Tautology, in the Litur. from the old Lat.

Ver. 4. guidest] never signifying to govern: and is the very same Word as in Job xxxviii. 32. as the Verb is also rendered in this Book, Psa. lxxiii. 24: Psa. lxxviii. 72. elsewhere commonly by our Verb lead.

Ver. 6. Increase] This Psalm may therefore be thought composed, soon after the Famine mentioned a Sam. xxi. 1.

Ver. 1. This was probably made, according to Usher sung, at the Removal of the Ark to Mount Zion, a Sam. vi. see Num. x. 3.

Ver. 2. the Wicked perish] both as the Smoak, and as the Wax, which the great Heb. Point just before (and not as in com. Transl.) shows, and that so and them added to the Original, pervert the Sense.

Ver. 4. cast up] See Isa. xl. 3. and there is the same Verb with this used Chap. lvii. 14. & lxii. 10: and it might be done here for the Passage of the Ark. The LXX have edificaverunt, make a Way.

Ib. Plains] as the Word signifies; and might be where the Ark rode, accompanied with the Divine Presence, 1 Chr. xv. 26. Sept. Sun-setting.

Ib. The Lord] as Praise the Lord for Hallelujah; Jah being a Contraction of Jehovah. In the Com. Pray. is yes for Jah, by a great Mistake.

Ib. and rejoice at his Presence] After this there is added in the Gr. and Lat. from that, thy shall be troubled at his

5. A Parent to the Orphans, and a Judge to the Widows, is God in his holy Habitation.

6. God causes those who were lonely to dwell in a Family, brings forth the Prisoners that were in Fetters; but such as are rebellious inhabit a dry Place.

7. O God, when thou wentest out before thy People, when thou didst march through the Desert; a Pause:

8. The Earth shook, the Heavens also distilled, by the Presence of God; that Sinai by the Presence of God, the God of Israel.

9. Thou madest very liberal Rain drop down, O God; and thy Possession being out of heart, thou didst prepare for it;

10. In which thy Congregation dwelt: thou preparedst by thy Goodness for the Afflicted, O God.

11. The Lord gave the Word, a great Company of Women declaring it.

12. The Kings of the Armies did flee, did flee away; and she who remained at home divided the Spoil.

13. Though you had lain as between the two Stones of the Hearth, you were like the Wings of a Dove covered with Silver, and its Feathers with yellow Gold.

14. When the Almighty scattered the Kings in it, thou madest it as snow on Zalmon.

15. The Mountain of God is like that of Bashan, a Mountain with Brows like that of Bashan.

16. Why do you start up, O Mountains with Brows? The Mountains that God desires to dwell on, the Lord will also inhabit perpetually.

17. The Chariot of God was with twenty Millions repeated; among whom the Lord was at Sinai, in the holy Place.

18. Thou wentest up on high, taking the Prisoners captive; didst receive Gifts, to dwell among Men, and even such as were rebellious, O Lord God.

Presence; which having considered, it appears the likeliest to me that the LXX so translated at first, instead of the other, mistaking וְיָלַד for וְיָרַד by reason of a bad written Copy (which other Places shew they used); and y being alike in Sound, and the Strokes of y and r too; but that proving false, the true Translation was put in after, without taking the wrong out, on Supposition that the right was missed or overlooked.

Ver. 6. were lonely] Sept. are of one Manner.

Ib. in a Family] as was David's Case, 2 Sam. v. 13.

Ib. Fetters] kosharoth as kasharoth, Sept. Strength, Something because it must be Something, unless a like Chald. Word (for all that I see) signifying a Beast may be any Thing for it.

Ib. but such as are rebellious] With the Sept. in like Manner such as are in Bitterness, blundering (what shall I call a Thing so frequent?) at ו which they took to be ו yet who knows what Disadvantages they laboured under, joined with the Inaccuracy of that Time, and the LXX being generally in the same Place but one Person?

Ver. 7, 8. See Judg. v. 4, 5.

Ver. 9. out of heart] as Husbandmen say of Land, and what is evidently the Meaning here.

Ver. 11. Women declaring] the Heb. Word being fem. and thus Sternhold,

God will give women causes just to magnify his name.

Ver. 12. did flee] Sept. of the beloved one; but I think almost unpardonably, not to know וְיָרַד from וְיָדָד they also have to the Beauty here, in Place of she who remained, by a more easy Mistake.

Ver. 13. two] being the dual Number; see Ezek. xl. 43. and the Note of Hulse here.

Ib. covered with Silver] The Sax. is oferfylfrede.

Ver. 14. scattered] Vulg. Lat. discerns, a wrong Meaning of the Gr. Word.

Ib. in it] the Possession, Ver. 9. both being feminine; that is in the Country of Israel, when they took it, destroying 31 Kings; as the Servitude of Egypt is described in the foregoing Verse: yet in the Liturgy is read for their sake.

Ib. thou madest] being the 2d Person in Heb.

Ver. 15. Bashan] which has Hills so high, that they are covered with Snow all the Summer long; from whence the River Jordan has its Increase, as its Source from the Mountains of Lebanon, Corten's Trav. The LXX translate a fat Mountain, from בָּשָׁן for בָּשָׁן.

Ver. 16. start up &c.] to the Sight of those that went towards them. Sept. suspect the Mountains are cradled so- ether from the Arabick, this Verb being no where else; but the Targumist as here, the most likely I suppose to know, besides that רָצָר might take its Sense from רָצָר with the next Letter in the middle, nay the Arab. is rather look or look up, which latter conveys the same Idea, and agrees far the best with the Context.

Ib. with Brows] Vulg. cradled (as cheese) whence the Dewey Translators, after having proved from [The Mountain of God] that theirs is the true Church, proceed to prove that other Congregations are not, because they are not cradled, that is, say they, not united in the four points of faith.

Ver. 17. Chariot] Sing. in Heb. The Temple being not yet built, and the Description of a Chariot and such a Multitude, agreeing better with a Mountain than a House, shew Sinai to be meant, especially as there is Nothing of Comparison in the Original.

Ver. 18. to dwell] A Discourse being published to extol Jonston's Lat. Transf. there are Observations added to shew him a thorough Master of the Hebrew, by striking off the Massoretic fetters of punctuation (which is such Skill as Alexander had in untying the Gordian Knot) as said by The Authors of the Universal History, who all the while might be but the same Person who wrote the Discourse aforesaid. But whoever the Writer, let us attend to what is written, which is that this should be into the dwelling-place, whence Jonst. turns it,

ex hoste receptas

Exuvias adytis intulit ille sacris:

he brought the Spoils received from the Enemy to the holy innermost Places of the Tabernacle: yet as thorough a Master as he was, he could not find any such Noun in the Heb. as to the Letters without Points, much less any from here to ground his Spoils received upon, nor brought, all which the Text has Nothing of; while it is said to have been murdered by others, who supply among them from what was said before. I crave the Patience of my Reader to subjoin, that there are but a dozen more Instances produced (for which it appears by their Progression the Psalm. were searched throughout) to shew that Jonston followed a different Pointing of the Hebrew: when notwithstanding there is not one of those Instances pretended to consist of such a Matter, nor this neither; so that Jonst. may pass with the Philobibraici as innocent, as the other ignorant.

Ib. rebellious] Israelites in the Wilderness, who had been as Prisoners in Egypt, and were taken away by the Lord; but this Verse eminently refers to the Work of Christ.

19. Blessed be the Lord, who daily loads to us, the God of our Salvation. A Pause.

20. Our God is the God of all Salvation; of the Sovereign Lord are also the Issues of Death.

21. But God will smite the Head of his Enemies, the hairy Crown of him who goes on in his Offences.

22. The Lord said; From Bashan will I bring back, I will bring back from the Depths of the Sea;

23. That thy Foot, with the Tongue of thy Dogs, may be dipt in the Blood of each of the Enemies.

24. They see thy Goings, O God; the Goings of my God, my King in the holy Place.

25. The Singers go before, the Players on Instruments behind, in the middle the Virgins striking the Timbrels.

26. Bless God in the Assemblies, the Lord, you of the Fountain of Israel.

27. Little Benjamin is there, and their Ruler, the Princes of Judah, and their Assembly, the Princes of Zebulun, with those of Naphtali.

28. Thy God has appointed thy Strength: strengthen, O God, this which thou hast wrought for us.

29. By reason of thy Temple at Jerusalem, to thee will the Kings bring Presents.

30. Rebuke thou the Company at the Reeds, the Rabble of People like Bulls with Calves, that each may subject himself with Pieces of Silver; being he who scatters the People that delight in Wars.

31. The Grandees will come from Egypt, Cush will run with his Hands to God.

32. O Kingdoms of the Earth, sing to God, sing melodiously to the Lord; a Pause:

Ver. 20. all Salvation] or Salvation of all Kinds.

Ib. the Issues of Death] which the Lord can therefore restrain: it is not from, but of as before Salvation and Sovereign.

Ver. 21. the hairy Crown] Sax. buel locces.

Ver. 22. from] Patr. expounds it well, I think, by as from.

Ver. 25. Singers] The LXX Princes, by taking ו for ו.

Ver. 26. you of] Patr. ye that are the Offspring; so Sandys,

His Praise in your Assemblies sing,

You who from Israel's Fountain spring.

and New-Engl. Vers. the like. But Bp. Hare is for taking away what is before the Fountain, and referring that to the Lord; because, as he says (which he well might) he does not understand what it is to praise God from the Fountain of Israel: whereas that is shooting beside the Mark; for why must he alter the Original, because he does not understand a wrong or ill-express'd Translation? Has what he would cut off no Signification but from? Yes certainly, several others. Then why should the Heb. suffer? But such a manner of Expression does no where occur. If not of the com. Transl. yet of this, and that of the same in the Original, Isa. lviii. 12. Exod. vi. 24. Lev. xi. 32, 35, 37. & xxv. 25. Est. iv. 5. 2 Sam. xi. 17. 2 King. xxv. 12. Am. ii. 11. Psa. lxxii. 16. & cxxxvii. 3. Dan. i. 3. Ezr. ii. 68. & vii. 7. Neb. xi. 4, 25. & xiii. 19, 28. 1 Chron. ix. 28, 29, 30, 31, 32. 2 Chron. xxi. 4. With many more, only in the 3d Perf. and who can give any Reason why not as well in the 2d, tho' Examples may be wanting, as Scripture Expressions are to require it? And for Fountain in such a Sense, see Deut. xxxiii. 28. The Pfalt. has it what Munst. dictated, the ground of the heart.

Ver. 27. their Ruler] LXX in a Transl. supposing ו radical; but if they took it for the pret. Participle, ו is wanting.

Ib. Assembly] Kimhi gives the Meaning of it both in his Book of Roots and Commentary, the Word being no where else, from Stones put together, the Root signifying to stone; and thus the Assembly too being agreeably one of those in the Verse before; but I find no Jewish nor ancient Expositor, nor Analogy of the Root, that counsel is taken from.

Ver. 28. Thy God] In the Sep. Vers. O God; the Difference in the Heb. would be ו, and ו. Query whether the Error might not arise, by ו making with ו an Approximation to ו? For that as supplying the Letter ו might be retained, where the other pointed Vowels were omitted; which they must be in the Copy the LXX translated from, or else they did not understand them. Otherwise must not they wilfully neglect ו for how could they mistake it for ו?

Ver. 30. Reeds] where base People and Robbers remained, as the Beasts they resembled, see Job xxx. 7, 8. for the Word signifies a Reed, not Spear.

Ib. People like Bulls with Calves] Both mischievous and wanton, or Men and Boys: thus in the Earl of Dartford's Transl. A People resembling a herd of bulls and heifers; and so Goodr. and well, Confound those Men, who do themselves deface!

The Bulls and Calves, the Brutes of humane Race.

Ib. subject himself] being in the Mood Hithp. as it is once more, Prov. vi. 3. yet, amazing to find! Mudge renders it not soul, if I may say renders, for there is Nothing of [not] in the Heb. though he has it in the same Character; and would he turn it in Prov. so? The LXX have it be shut out, I confess I know not how, unless they interpreted raphas by kaphatz for the Sound, or what is less likely took ו for ו thro' some Resemblance.

Ib. with Pieces] Not aware that ו is a Prepos. and Noun, the LXX taking it for a Verb, appear to have gone as far off as ו to fetch the Meaning who are tried.

Ib. with Pieces of] Instead of this Mudge, by taking out ו and putting ו translates the fine Streams, which his own Word does not signify, but Goldsmiths, as in several Places: this, he says, is only a Transposition of Letters, and a ו changed into a ו as though there is any Probability that two such Things should happen together, and become the established nay only Reading, and the Transposition too a distant one. Some of the Cabbalist Jews have done little Things of this Kind in Jest, not worth Notice; but when done in Earnest, it requires an earnest Opposition and Exposing. Is it my Business? it may be said; however it ought to be Somebody's, for Psa. xi. 3. and if some Twells had done by this New Version, as by that of the New Testament, he might have saved me the Labour: but is it not my Business? Is it no Matter whether I translate a right or a wrong Copy? May my Readers as well think my Translation false, when I can justify it to be true? He adds, the Seventy read it so; which is as if another should say, Mudge read ו not, just before; and the Seventy turn it by a Verb, who are tried with Silver.

Ver. 31. run] to carry Presents and Offerings, Ver. 29. for the Heb. Word is not seen stretch out.

33. To him that rides on the chief Heaven which was of old Time: who behold utters his Voice, a strong one.

34. Ascribe Strength to God; whose Excellency is in Israel, and his Strength in the Skies.

35. Thou art terrible, O God, out of thy holy Places! The God of Israel is he who gives Strength and Forces to the People: blessed be God.

P S A L M LXIX.

FOR the chief Musician upon the fix-stringed Instruments. By David.

Save me, O God, for the Waters are come to the Soul.

2. I am sunk down in deep Mire, and there is no standing: I am come into deep Places of Water, and the Flood overflows me.

3. I am weary with my Calling, my Throat is dried up, my Eyes fail; while I wait for my God.

4. Those who hate me undeservedly have been more numerous than the Hairs of my Head; they that would cut me off, being my Enemies wrongfully, have been strong: then I restored what I took not away.

5. O God, thou knowest of my Foolishness; and my Offences are not concealed from thee.

6. Let not those be ashamed by me, who wait for thee, O Sovereign Lord of Armies: let them not be put to confusion by me, that seek thee, O God of Israel.

7. For I bear Reproach for thy sake, Confusion covers my Face.

8. I am alienated from my Brothers, and strange to my Mother's Sons.

9. Because the Zeal of thy House eats me up, and the Reproaches of those who reproach thee fall upon me.

10. Though I weep with the Fasting of my Soul, it is likewise Reproaches to me.

11. And making Sackcloth my Cloathing, I become a Proverb to them.

12. They discourse of me that sit at the Gate, and with Musick such as drink strong Liquor.

13. As for me, let my Prayer be to thee, O Lord, at the Time of Favour, O God, in the Abundance of thy Kindness: answer me, in the Truth of thy Salvation.

14. Deliver me out of the Mire, that I may not sink down: let me be delivered from those who hate me, and from the deep Places of Water.

15. Let not the Flood of Waters overflow me, the Depth swallow me up, nor the Pit shut its Mouth upon me.

16. Answer me, O Lord, for thy Kindness is good: according to the Abundance of thy Compassions look on me.

17. And do not hide thy Face from thy Servant: because I am distressed, answer me speedily.

18. Come near to my Soul, ransom it: redeem me, by reason of my Enemies.

19. Thou knowest my Reproach, my Shame, and Confusion: all my Adversaries are before thee.

20. Reproach breaks my Heart, and I am very sick: while I wait, and there is none to bemoan; and for some to comfort, without finding.

21. They put Gall for my Meat, and make me drink Vinegar in my Thirst.

22. Let their Table before them become a Gin, and what is for Peace a Snare.

23. Let their Eyes be darkened from seeing, and cause their Loins to stagger continually.

24. Pour out thy Indignation upon them, and let the Rage of thy Anger overtake them.

25. Let their Palace be desolate, let there be no Inhabitant in their Tents.

26. For they persecute him that thou hast stricken, and rehearse Things to the Grief of thy wounded ones.

Ver. 35. out of thy holy Places] But the LXX in thy Saints, by an inexcusable Error, if according to the Canting of the Antiscripturists they read for is.

Ver. 1. By the Mention of saving Zion, Ver. 35. this may seem made in David's deep Distresses from Ab-salom.

Ver. 3. while I wait] Heb. waiting, but which might be taken for the Eyes. Mudge, with writing, after the Seventy: but that was their Ignorance, as it is no better; for supposing they had no Points, yet where will he find such a Noun?

Ver. 12. Gate—drink] both at the Courts of Judicature and Entertainments.

Ver. 13. O God] Buchan, with poetical Liberty has, O genitor, sine fine bonus, sine fraude fidelis,
In rebus arētis da salutarem manum:

O thou Creator, good without End, and faithful without Fraud, give me thy saving Hand in these frightening Concerns.

Ver. 20. breaks my Heart] The LXX, My Soul has expelled, by is for is.

Ver. 26. rehearse] with Hare and Mudge, according to the LXX, add, by taking out a Letter; and which accordingly lessens the Sense into a General, that was too general before by talk. Thus by taking out [t] another might make sacks of corn, Exod. xxii. 6. and please his own Fancy with it; and so hunt for haunt, 1 Sam. xxx. 31. bought, Mat. xvi. 8. places, Psa. lxxviii. 69. did, 1 Chron. x. 6. kind, Psa. xviii. 33. ague for plague, xci. 10. The Reader may see their applauded Criticism in Bythner's Lyra Prophetica, N° 86. who was a good Author for School-boys; yet the is seems rather taken for is from is as the left Side might be defective, or the is thought to be that.

1b. thy] But with the LXX my, which might be by neglecting is and the Pointing.

27. Permit

27. Permit Iniquity upon their Iniquity, and let them not come into thy Righteousness.

28. Let them be blotted out of the Book of the Living, and not be written with the Righteous.

29. As for me, who am afflicted, and grieved; let thy Salvation, O God, exalt me.

30. I will praise the Name of God with a Poem, and magnify him with Thanksgiving:

31. Which will be better to the Lord, than an Ox, or Bullock, that has Horns and Hoofs.

32. The Meek will see, and be glad; your Heart also will live who seek God:

33. As the Lord hearkens to the Needy, and does not despise his Prisoners.

34. Let the Heaven and Earth praise him, the Seas and all that creep in them:

35. Because God will save Zion, and build up the Cities of Judah; so that they shall inhabit there, and inherit it.

36. The Offspring too of his Servants, shall possess it, and those who love his Name dwell therein.

P S A L M LXX.

FOR the chief Musician. By David, to bring to remembrance.

O God, to deliver me, O Lord, to my Help make haste.

2. Let those be ashamed and blush, who seek my Life: let them be turned back and put to confusion, that desire my Hurt.

3. Let such return for a Reward of their Shame, as say, Ha, ha:

4. But let all that seek thee, be joyful and glad through thee, and let them say continually, God be magnified, who love thy Salvation.

5. As for my self, that am afflicted and needy, O God, make haste to me; thou art my Help, and Deliverer: O Lord, do not stay.

P S A L M LXXI.

IN thee, O Lord, I trust, let me never be ashamed.

2. Through thy Righteousness rescue me, and deliver me: incline thy Ear to me, and save me.

3. Be to me a Rock for Habitation, that I may come to continually, who hast commanded to save me: for thou art my firm Place, and Fortification.

4. O God, deliver me from the Power of the Wicked, from that of the unjust and rigorous one.

5. For thou hast been my Expectation, O Sovereign Lord, my Trust from my Youth.

6. I have leaned upon thee from the Belly; thou tookest me out of my Mother's Womb: my Praise is of thee continually.

7. I am as a strange Sight to many; but thou art my strong Refuge.

8. Let my Mouth be filled with thy Praise, with thy Glory every Day.

9. Do not cast me off at the Time of old Age, forsake me not when my Strength is consumed.

10. Though my Enemies say of me, and those who observe my Soul consult together,

11. As follows, God has forsaken him; pursue, and take him: for there is no Deliverer.

12. O God, be not far off from me: my God, to my Help make haste.

13. Let those be ashamed, consumed, who are against my Life: let them be cloathed with Reproach and Confusion, that seek my Hurt.

14. I will however wait continually, and add to all thy Praise.

15. My Mouth shall count up thy Righteousness, thy Salvation every Day; though I know not the Accompts.

Ver. 27. Permit] Grant or Let there be, as this Heb. Verb signifies, as well as give its principal Meaning, but never add that I find; nor is it here imperative, but infinitive, the very same as in Psa. viii. 1. though quite left out in the Concordances; consult also Ham.

Ver. 28. blotted] Hulse, in Elegan. 183. concerned for the Opinion of decreed Election, which this is so opposite to; pleads that to blot out is not to make void what was written, because Election is unchangeable, but is to shew it never was written, as hinted in the following Words: but besides the two great Absurdities manifest in his Exposition, with what Sense could David pray for what had been unalterably done long before? And be written may either signify remain written where they were, or be written afterwards in another Book or Place.

Ver. 31. Ox, or Bullock] The LXX confound them together by young Calf, though such has not Horns, by reason the Conjunction is wanting; but so it is after.

Ib. Hoofs] Sax. claws.

Ver. 1. This is the latter Part of the 40th Psalm, with a little Alteration.

Ver. 1. For the Time of this Psalm see Ver. ix. 18. supposing it written by David, as is likely, especially since the Prayers, Psa. lxxii. 20. properly include it being so near, and it is thought to be in Absalom's Rebellion. The three first Verses are like those of Psa. 31. transposed and altered; it being agreeable to an old Man to fall into similar Expressions.

Ver. 3. who] which Mudge spoils by adding in that before thou hast, so making God command, or as he has it, commission himself.

Ver. 6. tookest] According to the LXX art my Protector, as they would have it.

Ver. 9. the Time of old Age] Sax. tide ylder.

Ver. 15. though] Which with Jun. Sc. I esteem to bear a better Connection than for.

16. I will come in the Power of the Sovereign Lord, making mention of thy own Righteousness only.

17. O God, thou hast taught me from my Youth, and hitherto have I declared thy Wonders.

18. And even during old Age and grey Hair, O God, do not forsake me; till I have declared thy Arm to this Generation, thy Power to every one that is to come.

19. Thy Righteousness, O God, is also very high, that doest great Things: O God, who is like thee?

20. Thou that didst make me see many and grievous Distresses, hast again revived me; and from the Depths of the Earth hast brought me up again;

21. Thou hast increased my Greatness, and comforted me round about.

22. I will also praise thee with an Instrument, thy Truth on the Lute, my God: will sing melodiously to thee with the Harp, O Holy One of Israel.

23. My Lips too shall sing, for I will sing melodiously to thee; as likewise my Soul, which thou hast redeemed.

24. My Tongue also shall discourse of thy Righteousness every Day: for they will be ashamed, and blush, that seek my Hurt.

P S A L M LXXII.

FOR Solomon.

O God, give thy Judgments to the King, and thy Righteousness to the King's Son.

2. He will judge thy People with Righteousness, and thy afflicted ones with Judgment.

3. The Mountains will bear Peace for the People, and the Hills by Righteousness.

4. He will judge the Afflicted of the People, will save the Children of the Needy, and punish the Oppressor.

5. With the Sun, and before the Moon, will succeeding Generations fear him.

6. Who will be like the Rain coming down upon the mowed Grass, like Showers watering the Earth.

7. The Righteous will flourish in his Time, and there will be Abundance of Peace till the Moon is not.

8. And he will rule from Sea to Sea, as also from the River to the Limits of the Earth.

9. Those of the desert Places will bow before him, and his Enemies lick the Dust.

10. The Kings of Tarshish, and of the Isles will render Presents, the Kings of Sheba and Seba bring Gifts.

11. Nay all Kings will bow down to him, all Nations serve him.

12. For he will deliver the Needy who cries out, with the Afflicted, and him that has no Helper

13. He will spare the Poor and Needy, and save the Souls of the needy ones.

14. He will redeem their Soul from Fraud and Violence, and their Blood will be precious in his Sight.

15. And he that is living, will also give him of the Gold of Sheba; and pray for him continually, blessing him every Day.

16. There will be a Handful of Wheat in the Country, on the Top of the Mountains, the Fruit of which will shake like Lebanon; and those of the City will flourish like the Grass of the Earth.

Ver. 16. I] strangely transposed by K. Jam. I of the Lord will in the Strength advance —

Ver. 17. Youth] Sax. inyothe; the Sax. y having the Sound of y as well as g, which the modern Grammarians seem scarce to know, but without which the Derivation of divers of our Words from that Language would be spoiled.

Ver. 18. old] One telling Diogenes he should lie still now he was an old Man, he returned for Answer, What if I was running a Race, should I slacken my Pace towards the End, and not rather mend it? Diog. Laert.

1b. thy Power] Notwithstanding Mudge asserts but at Ver. 3. that it is a constant Rule with him, not to think himself justified in making an Alteration [in the Original] where good Sense may be drawn from it (which if not by him, it is possible may by some other) yet he removes this to the next Verse, joins it with another Verb, and turns it from an Object into a Subject; when surely God's Power may be declared (for so he translates) as well as his Strength or Arm, and by there being no Conjunction between, it appears to be a Repetition of the same.

Ver. 21. my] Whereas the Gr. has thy, as elsewhere.

Ver. 22. an Instrument] which the Heb. has, answerable thus to the two Objects, thee and thy Truth.

Ver. 23. shall sing] as commonly rendered, and more proper for Lips than rejoice: in Matthew's Bible would saye syng; Com. Pray, will be said when I sing, joining this to the next.

Ver. 1. For Solomon] By David as the last Verse shews, and consequently in his latter Days, even after Solomon was made King, and was likely his last Psalm.

1b. King—King's Son] Solomon and David's Son, the same elegantly.

Ver. 5. With—and before] This being the Heb. seems elegantly to denote by Day and Night, agreeable to Acts xxvi. 7.

Ver. 6. upon the mowed Grass] Psalm. into a fleece of wool; from which erroneous Transf. Hatton strangely prays, O Blessed Jesu, who didst descend from Heaven (as if his Body came thence) into the Womb of the blessed Virgin like rain into a fleece of Wool.

Ver. 7. Peace] The placing this Word in Lat. by Yonston, gives such a Weight and Fulness to it, by staying the Mind on it, that it may be thought difficult to be matched, as follows,

Candida tum Probitas florebit, et optima rerum

Pax; vario donec lumine luna nitet.

Ver. 10. Isles] Sax. ing. iyland, whence our Pronunciation, better than Spelling from Lat. with s.

Ver. 12. who cries out] Sept. from the powerful, with other Pronunciation or Pointing, and in a strained Meaning.

Ver. 15. pray for him] The Vulg. Lat. from orabunt is become aderabunt, and the Dow. Transf. is notoriously false from that, shall adore it, viz. the Gold.

Ver. 16. a Handful] The Universal History, B. 2. Ch. 2. Sect. 1. takes notice, that Bishop Hare, in his Edition of the Psalms, finds fault, unless this Word psalms be allowed

17. His

17. His Name will continue for ever, be propagated before the Sun, and those will be blessed through him; all Nations will call him blessed.

18. Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who alone does Wonders.

19. And blessed be his glorious Name for ever; whose Glory will fill the whole Earth. So, even so let it be.

20. The Prayers of David the Son of Jesse are finished.

P S A L M LXXIII.

A PSALM of Asaph.

God is certainly good to Israel, to those who are of a pure Heart.

2. But as for me, my Feet almost turned aside, my Steps were in a manner quite gone;

3. Because I envied the mad ones, seeing the Prosperity of the Wicked:

4. As there are no Bonds till their Death, but they are fat with Strength.

5. They are not in the Labour of Man, nor punished with Mankind.

6. Pride therefore incloses them like a Chain, Violence covers them for an Ornament.

7. Their Eyes stand out by reason of Fat, they pass the Imaginations of the Heart.

8. They are so corrupt that they pronounce Oppression mischievously, and that in a lofty Manner.

9. They set their Mouth against Heaven, and their Tongue goes through the Earth.

10. Therefore his People return hither, when full Water is wrung out to them.

11. And they say How does God know? Or, Is there Knowledge in the Highest?

12. Behold these are the Wicked, who are always quiet, increasing Wealth.

13. Certainly in vain have I purified my Heart, and washed my Hands in Innocency;

14. Since I am punished every Day, and have Correction each Morning:

15. Such Things if I had said I would declare, so I should have been treacherous to the Generation of thy Children.

16. Thinking to know this, it was laborious in my Sight; here to have a contrary Sense, that is, to signify a great Abundance, he shall suspect it to have crept in instead of some Word of the like Import: which, remarks the Author justly on it, would be in fact losing all the Beauty of the Expression, as much as if his Lordship had said, that the fertile Vallies ought to be injected instead of the barren mountain Tops; for where would be the Wonder, that a great Heap of Corn, or a fertile Ground, should bring forth a plentiful Crop! Such clearing of the Scripture is commendable Work, as the other is very contrary.

Ib. a Handful of Wheat] In Heb. כסת בר which the LXX render together a Support, some how, one may imagine, from the Root כס such Things I observe fall out at Words seldom used, and therefore conclude were unknown to them.

Ib. these of] But the Cam. Pray. has, his fruit—shall be Greene in the cities, though the Verb is plur. and the Prep. of a different Kind from in.

Ib. Grass] biy, hey and bicy, in different Sax. Copies as Spelman shews in the Lat. and Sax. Psalter, ps. 1640.

Ver. 19. so let it be] Sax. beo hit swa.

Ver. 20. Prayers] viz. the first Collection of them, perhaps all that Exra had then got to copy out, but met with more afterwards; and the Psalms being divided into five Books, this is the End of the second.

Ver. 1. Asaph] See Psa. l. Some intitle these Psalms for, the Genev. Vers. committed to Asaph; but since Asaph was an Inditer as well as David, 2 Chron. xxix. 30. and David's are just said to be finished, we need not hesitate to ascribe these as far as Psa. lxxxiv. to Asaph as the second Psalmist; after which follow several by divers Authors. Some report that Asaph, mentioned 2 Chron. xxix. 30. lived in the Time of Hezekiah; but why rather than than in David's Time?

Ib. God is good] In the ancient Eng. or Saxon, god god; God being no other than Good, as we call him now Almighty.

Ver. 2. my Steps] Sternh. barbarously, And ere I wist, even at a pinch, my steps away gan glide.

Ver. 4. Bonds] The Heb. Word having what is unusual, four radical Letters רבצ the Vulg. Lat. has it Respect or Regard, for which there was respect doubtless had to רבצ and I suppose it was thought it should be ר but I do not see from whence the Denial of the Sept. came, however it is certain they render it in Isa. lviii. 6. as we here.

Ib. till] more properly denoted both by the Heb. and Sense than in: so Trem. and Jun. usque ad, as Noldius also applies it here, among other Places, for which see his Concord. And Blackmore has,

No Plagues till Death do them molest,
But in full Strength they dwell.

Ib. Strength] Gr. Scourging, how again does not appear. Ver. 6. Pride] Sax. ofermediynis, as if overmeasurable-ness, modus being Lat. for measure.

Ib. Ornament] Sept. Iniquity, but the same Prov. vii. 10. Appearance.

Ver. 7. Eyes] Sept. Iniquity, by עין from עין for עין

Ver. 10. hither] to the Sanctuary (by reason of Affliction, or the Oppression of the Wicked, Ver. 6. 8. signified by the Water, as the like Psa. lxxv. 8. Isa. li. 17. with Wring) where it is not unlikely the Psalmist then was, and upon the same Account, Ver. 17. This Verse is strangely translated in the Psalter: as likewise by Mudge thus, Therefore let his People come before them; and Waters in full Measure would be wrung out from them; but beside turning to, which the Heb. directly signifies, into its opposite from, he does not tell us how he makes before them, which an Hebrician less than himself will be at an utter Loss to know; however he has this explanatory Note, should God's People come before them, they would squeeze them to the full, they would wring out all the Juices in their Bodies. Which crude and wild Notion, no better supported, I did not think worth Notice, till I found Wheatland and Silvester saying they clos'd in with it, and translating after it; yet I cannot see it wants any farther Refutation. The Sept. have the latter Part, full Days shall be found in them; so that our Critick in his Fashion might have been expected to say, they read ימים and ימים as indeed Bythn. does, which would be but adding a Letter to each Word; but the Case here was, that he had a sonder Fancy of his own to be preferred.

Ib. when] Jun. and Trem. have cum, since.

Ver. 12. always] to render this in the World is something strange, when it has no such Meaning.

Ib. increasing] Sept. retained, tho' rendered in the Vulg. by Bythn. &c. obtained, from נשנ when it is from נשנ

Ver. 13. purified] Sept. justified, as by zikkadti for ziccadti.

Ver. 15. had said] So that I said is needlessly, and unskillfully added by the LXX, &c. in the 13th Ver.

Ib. treacherous] should not have been faithful, as I ought, among God's People.

17. Till coming to God's Sanctuaries, I understood their End.

18. Thou dost certainly set them in slippery Places, making them fall to utter Wasting.

19. How they are desolate as it were in an Instant, have an end, are consumed by Terrors!

20. As a Dream is by awaking; when thou stirrest up, Lord, thou wilt despise their Image.

21. Though my Heart was heaved up, and I had sharp Pain in my Reins.

22. For I was senseless, and did not know, being like a Beast with thee.

23. With whom I am continually, thou holdest me by the right Hand.

24. Thou wilt guide me by thy Counsel, and afterwards receive me into Glory.

25. Whom have I in Heaven besides? And I desire none on the Earth with thee.

26. My Flesh and Heart failing, God is the Rock of my Heart, and my Portion for ever.

27. When behold, those who are far off from thee perish: thou cuttest off every one that goes a whoring from thee.

28. But as to my self, coming near to God is good for me: I have put my Refuge in the Sovereign Lord, that I may declare all thy Works.

P S A L M LXXIV.

AN instructing Poem of Asaph.

Why, O God; dost thou cast off perpetually, thy Anger smoking against the Flock of thy Pasture?

2. Remember thou didst purchase thy Assembly in old Time, didst redeem the Tribe of thy Possession, this Mount Zion, on which thou hast dwelt.

3. Lift up thy Feet to the perpetual Wastings, all that the Enemy has wickedly done in the holy Place.

4. Thy Adversaries roar within thy Synagogues, for Signs they have put their own.

5. A Man would be known as he brought up Axes against the infolded Wood:

6. Whereas now they have beat down the Carvings of it together, with Pick-ax and Hammers.

7. They have set thy Sanctuary on fire; profaned the Dwelling-place of thy Name to the Ground.

8. They say in their Heart, We will oppress them together: they have burnt all the Synagogues of God in the Country.

9. We do not see our Signs, there is no more a Prophet, nor one with us who knows how long.

10. O God, how long shall the Adversary reproach? Shall the Enemy contemn thy Name perpetually?

11. Why dost thou draw back thy Hand, even thy right one? With-hold it from within thy Bosom.

12. For God is my King of old Time, who works Salvation in the midst of the Earth.

Ver. 18. to utter Wasting] Sept. when they were lifted up, by נשף

Ver. 19. Terrors] But Mudge, Precipitation, by other Vowels, when there is no such Word. Sept. Unlawfulness, like בל דת for בל דת

Ver. 20. when thou stirrest up] not the same Verb with the foregoing. Some turn it in the city, the Heb. being alike, but less correspondent to the foregoing.

Ver. 21. had sharp Pain] Sept. my Reins were changed, wretchedly from שנה

Ver. 28. to God is good] in the Sax. gode god is, where god signifies good.

lb. Works] The Gr. &c. concludes with in the Gates of the Daughter of Sion.

Ver. 1. This may be thought penned upon the Babylonian Conquest of Judah, and that by one of the Posterity of Asaph so named; of whom there is Mention as Singers, 2 Chr. xxxv. 15. Ezr. ii. 41. & iii. 10. and one of them prophesied, 2 Chr. xx. 14.

lb. cast off] Litur. absent, but from Munfl. and not Asaph.

lb. Pasture] Sax. lafue, as the Husbandmen yet call it Leaze.

Ver. 2. Tribe] which the Heb. Word signifies as well as rod, and the former must needs be intended here, as others also translate; so that Cruden in Conc. giving the Meaning of the Eng. Words in our last Transf. is put to the Shift to say 'Rod signifies sometimes a tribe or people,' quoting this Text for it.

Ver. 3. Lift up] Sax. abese.

lb. Feet] Sept. Hands, not from any Meaning of the Heb. Word, but their own Fancy, as at lviii. 10. that Hunds suited better.

lb. Wastings] Sept. Pride, as if from nasa, to lift up, and not from shaah.

Ver. 5. would be] or came to be, it being fut. and so at last the fine Flower of Bp. Hare is withered, which is the transposing of this and the following Verse; whereby a Man would be known, as the Bp. himself, for cutting down the Building of the Sanctuary. With the LXX is, and they did not know; but it is not plur. in the Heb. nor is there any Appearance of and or not.

lb. known] there being many Thousands appointed to go to Lebanon by Turn, 1 King. v. 14.

lb. brought up Axes] Forasmuch as the Verb does not signify lift, but bring or have up in that Sense, and as it is Axes, the principal Men of the Courses seem intended, who brought the Workmen with Axes to Lebanon.

Ver. 6. Carvings] With the Sept. Gates, through the Proximity of the Heb.

Ver. 7. set—on fire] See 2 King. xxv. 9. and the Heb. is the same as in Judg. i. 8. & xx. 48. 2 King. viii. 12.

Ver. 8. We will oppress them together] For how could they say to one another, Let us, in their Hearts? Mudge writes that ונש is a little uncouth for a Verb, and so he understanding it with the Seventy translates instead of this, the whole Brood of them at once. But what then do they say? Is it Nothing at all? Perhaps such Infatuation is just, especially here, when this Author so far outdoes himself, that though he can invent Nothing to put in the room of that Word, yet will not allow it to stand; whereas Buxtorf gives a good Account of its Structure from Ab. Exr. &c. at נש oppress, while the Seventy run strangely wide.

Ver. 10. how long] Sax. bulange.

Ver. 11. With-hold it from within] pluck it out of being

P S A L M LXXV.

13. Thou didst force afunder the Sea by thy Strength, brokest the Heads of the Whales in the Water.

14. Thou didst dash together the Heads of Leviathan, madest him Meat for the People at the desert Places.

15. Thou didst cleave the Fountain and the Flood, thou driedst up the Rivers of Force.

16. Of thee is the Day, of thee also is the Night: thou didst prepare the Light and the Sun.

17. Thou didst set all the Bounds of the Earth; the Summer and Winter thou formedst.

18. Remember this, that the Enemy has reproached, O Lord, and the vile People have contemned thy Name.

19. Do not deliver the Life of thy Turtle-dove to that Company: forget not the Company of thy Afflicted perpetually.

20. Look on the Covenant; since the dark Places of the Earth are filled with the Habitations of Violence.

21. Let not the Bruised return ashamed: let the Afflicted and Needy praise thy Name.

22. Arise, O God, plead thy own Cause: remember thy Reproach from the Vile every Day;

23. Not forgetting the Voice of thy Adversaries, the Tumult of such as rise up against thee, which goes up continually.

FOR the chief Musician; do not destroy.
A Psalm of Asaph, or a Poem.

We give thanks to thee, O God; we give thanks, thy Name being near: thy Wonders declare it.

2. When I receive the solemn Assembly, I will judge with Uprightness.

3. The Country and all its Inhabitants being dissolved, I will rectify the Pillars of it. A Pause.

4. Saying to the mad-ones, Be not mad; and to the Wicked, Do not exalt the Horn:

5. Do not exalt your Horn on high, speaking with a stiff Neck.

6. Since Exaltation is not from the Rising or Setting of the Sun, nor from the Wilder-ness.

7. For God is the Judge: he humbles one, and exalts another.

8. And there is a Cup in the Lord's Hand, with Wine stirred, it is full of Mixture; and he will pour out of this: but the Lees of it all the Wicked of the Earth wringing out, shall drink.

9. Whereas I will preach for ever, will sing melodiously to the God of Jacob.

10. And cutting off all the Horns of the Wicked, those of the Righteous shall be exalted.

contrary to the foregoing; but Hare's Criticism to remove this Verb to the 3d Verse instead of perpetual desolations, must needs be wild and monstrous. The com. Metre was thus irreverent and unfit, till the Printers or Somebody altered it,

Why dost withdraw thy hand aback, and hide it in thy lap?

O pluck it forth, and be not slack to give thy foes a rap:

against which Ward the Papist in his Errata to the Protest. Bib. p. 110. has this profane Scoff, They might have done as well to have said rather (wherein he himself writes Nonsense) If any WOULD be Merry, let him sing Psalms, instead of that from Jam. v. in their Title Page; see also what Liberties are taken in the Psalm.

Ver. 13. force afunder] Sept. strengthen, which I do not find any of the eastern Tongues make out; could they do כח by כח

Ver. 16. the Light] that was before the Sun, Gen. i. 3. and of which the Sun was probably made, rather than the Moon, &c.

Ver. 18. Remember this] Sax. gemindij bee thysse.

Ver. 19. of thy Turtle-dove] Sept. that confesses thee, mistaking ט for ד and then fetching it from the Root דה which is from דור as Hebricians know such an Approach may be.

Ver. 21. return ashamed] by K. James, Returne with thee from shame; where from with not before more properly denotes abiding in Shame, than by reason of Shame, besides the irreverent or worse Addition of God being with him in it.

Ver. 2. receive] come into my Office, as 1 Chr. vi. 31, 32, 39. & xvi. 5, 37. and which solemn Assembly shews to be in the Church, not the State; as Ver. 1, 7, &c. shew that it was not God spoke this, as Grotius, Hammond, and some Jewish Writers imagined.

Ver. 3. dissolved] Sax. gemolten or gemyltyd.

Ib. rectify] by wise and good Counsel to the Magistrates, as in the two next Verses, and so was suitable to Asaph, 1 Chr. xxv. 2. The King's Translators by turning it bear up, which the Verb does not signify, undoubtedly took it, as some do, for David's governing the Kingdom, and yet have made this a Psalm of Asaph.

Ver. 5. with a stiff Neck] Sept. Unrighteousness against God, according to Bythn. by taking צוּר Neck for צור Rock, and that for God.

Ver. 6. Exaltation] Sept. Mountains, as the bare Word also signifies.

Ver. 8. Cup] Sax. calic from the Lat. calix, whence the old Eng. Chalice.

Ib. of this] Gr. from one to another, by wrong Paraphrase.

Ib. wringing out] them is twice added improperly in the last Eng. Transf. Gr. are not emptied, from the imaginary Sense.

Ver. 9. preach] Mudge, with the Seventy and Dr. Hare, as he says, exult, by exchanging ט for ל as the Conciseness of the Heb. will suffer such Tricks; though they might have known, that this Person and Tense of that Verb ל has always ט more, as Psa. ix. 14. & xxxi. 7. Hab. iii. 18.

P S A L M LXXVI.

FOR the chief Musician on the Instruments that are stricken. A Psalm of Asaph, or a Poem.

God is known in Judah, his Name is great in Israel.

2. His Tabernacle is also in Shalem, and his Habitation in Zion.

3. There has he broke the Sparks of the Bow, the Shield, and Sword, and War. A Pause.

4. Thou art more illustrious and magnificent, than Mountains with Prey.

5. Those who were of a stout Heart are become a Spoil, they slumber their Sleep; and none of the valiant Men find their Hands.

6. By thy Rebuke, O God of Jacob, both Chariot and Horse are fast asleep.

7. Thou thy self art terrible; and who shall stand before thee at the Time of thy Anger?

8. Thou didst cause the Sentence to be heard from Heaven; the Earth feared, and was still:

9. When God rose up to Judgment, to save all the Meek of the Earth. A Pause.

10. For the Wrath of Man praises thee; the Residue of it thou dost restrain.

11. Vow, and perform to the Lord your God, all that are round about him: let them bring a Present with Fear.

12. He gathers in the Spirit of the Rulers, he is terrible to the Kings of the Earth.

P S A L M LXXVII.

FOR the chief Musician Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

My Voice was to God, and I cried out: my Voice was to God, who gave ear to me.

2. In the Time of my Distress I sought the Lord; when my Strength flowed away at Night, without ceasing, and my Soul refused to be comforted.

3. I remembered God, when I was disturbed: I meditated when my Mind was overwhelmed. A Pause.

4. Thou heldest the Watchings of my Eyes: I was so disturbed, that I could not speak.

5. I thought of the Days of old Time, of ancient Years.

Ver. 3. There] Hence we may with Sol. Jar. Theodore, Apollinarius, and others, ascribe the Composure of this Psalm, to the Fall of Sennacherib's Army, 2 King. xix. 35. by some Asaph, or one of Asaph's Family; such Destruction of Israel's Enemies not being made at Jerusalem beside, and this seeming to be, as that was, in the Night, Ver. 5.

Ib. Bow, the Shield, and Sword, and War] in Sax. boyan scyld & swerdum & yefesht.

Ver. 4. magnificent] which the Sept. have magnified to wonderfully.

Ib. Prey] Sept. the everlasting Mountains; by a very peculiar Error, if I guess right, first taking טרף right for Prey, afterwards considering that Prey in Heb. is טרף and thinking too slightly this was the Word here, which also from another Root may signify everlasting, and so the latter Meaning was preferred; unless we can believe it supposed, that because gnad signified both, tereph did too.

Ver. 5. stout] By the LXX simple, as if deriving אכיר from כיר or כור a Well or Cavern, hollow.

Ib. become a Spoil] Sept. troubled, loosely.

Ib. find their Hands] to fight, finely expressed; but the Vulg. found Nothing in their Hands wrong.

Ver. 6. are fast asleep] which may well enough be said of Chariots standing quite still in the Assyrian Camp in the Night, without the Horses being put to them again; better than cast into a dead sleep.

Ver. 7. at the Time] It is pretended by the Authors of the Univ. Hist. in Pres. Disc. that this is altogether lame and ungrammatical (but how so?) and that the original Word is of Chaldee extract, and signifies strength, &c. (but where else is any such Word so signifying? Or if there was, why rather Chald. than Heb.) as also that Jonston has translated accordingly; though it is easy to see he has only omitted it for the Convenience of his Verse.

Ver. 8. the Sentence] which accords well with the Context, and is not the same as Judgment that follows.

Ver. 10. For] Man's Rage causes the Power, Wisdom, and Justice of God to be praised, when he judges.

Ib. Wrath] With the LXX Thought, by זמח for זמח as I have not seen it shewn how.

Ib. Residue] God permitting the Wrath of Man as far as it tends, or will turn to his Praise, and no further.

Ib. restrain] Mudge, indebted for it to the Sept. shall attend thy Festivals, reading he says רחוק (instead of רחוק) with the ו lengthen'd only. How plausible a Look this! but see Gen. iii. 6. Prov. xxx. 6. and should the Tail be allowed him, it would make no Letter at all, as one of those is round at the Corner, and the other square; his [-] too should be [] or [·] for [-] and now for the Meaning of his Verb, it is to keep or make, not attend, a feast, and only has a suffixed Pronoun accordingly, as in Exod. xii. 14. keep it a feast, but can we say here, keep thee a feast? nay how wild is, what remaineth of Furies shall attend thy Festivals? So that I see no Need to retreat to that Bulwark of the Points, which the Enemies never can force, while fallying out to them is more than sufficient. In the Liturgy refrains seems a Corruption of restrain.

Ver. 11. Lord] our being added in the Dow. Transf. as elsewhere, reads strangely with your.

Ib. about him] Here is the Heb. Partition of the Verse.

Ib. Fear] as the Word in other Places shews, and it being a Noun-substantive.

Ver. 12. gathers in] as Grapes.

Ver. 1. A Psalm] made, as Nichols supposes in the Time of the Captivity, and so by Sol. Jar. on Ver. 6.

Ver. 2. Strength] Heb. Hand usually, metaphorically sometimes Power or Strength, but I trust never fore; see Psa. lxiii. 10. Jer. xviii. 21. Patr. expounds it by spread out my Hands unto him.

Ib. flowed away] In the Transf. of the Sept. is, with my Hands towards him: for in נגרה it is evident נ was reckoned נ as ה, the fem. Translation of the Verb, might be supposed ה the masc. Pronoun sometimes used.

Ver. 3. God, when] as at the Beginning of the foregoing Verse, and what the Sense loudly calls for; whence this and the next Conjunction are rendered when in the Litur. by Jun. &c.

Ib. disturbed] The Sept. on the contrary delighted; the Manner of which I may have happened to hit on, that זמח which is from זמח was imagined to come from זמח

6. I remembered my Musick in the Night, meditated with my Heart, and my Mind searched :

7. Whether the Lord would cast off for ever? And be favourable again no more?

8. Whether his Kindness would fail perpetually? The Word cease to all Ages?

9. Whether God had forgot to be gracious? Or had shut up his Compassions in Anger? A Pause.

10. At length I concluded, it was to weaken me, that the right Hand of the Highest was altered.

11. Being mindful of the Lord's Doings: for I remember thy Wonders of old Time;

12. As likewise meditate on all thy Work, and muse on thy Deeds.

13. O God, thy Way is in Holiness: what god is so great a one?

14. Thou art a God doing Wonders: who madest thy Strength known among the People;

15. Redeeming thy own with thy Arm, the Posterity of Jacob and Joseph. A Pause.

16. The Waters saw thee, O God, which as they did, they were afraid; the Depths also trembled.

17. The Clouds overflowed with Water, the Skies uttered a Sound; thy Arrows too went about.

18. The Sound of thy Thunder was in the Globe, the Lightnings enlightened the World; the Earth trembled and shook.

19. Thy Way was in the Sea, and thy Path in the great Waters; so that thy Footsteps were not known.

20. Thou leddest thy People as a Flock, by the Ministry of Moses and Aaron.

P S A L M LXXVIII.

AN instructing Poem of Asaph.
Give ear, my People, to my Law:

Ver. 6. My Mind searched] Litur. I——search out my spirits; as strange you may say as wrong, but the old Lat. is, I swept my Spirit.

Ver. 8. perpetually] The com. Vers. in Metre by Hopkins was, till altered,

What is his goodness cleane decayd, for ever and a day?

Ver. 10. to weaken me] literal to the Heb. as in Buxt. Lex. חלל and Hulse expounds the Verse as I translate it, preferring this as the simple Meaning, to other Glosses. Gr. I have begun from חלל for which ח is wanting in Heb.

It was altered] which this Heb. Word denotes as well as Years, and the Sense rather claims here: so Jun. and Trem. translate mutata, Castal. vicissitudinem; as the Tig. Vers. has mutat, the Vulg. Lat. from the Gr. mutatio, Ainsw. the change, and Coccius variare.

Ver. 13. Holiness] Commonly so translated I think, and more to the Heb. (not to say Matter) which uses another Word for Sanctuary.

Ver. 15. Joseph] as being preserved by him, with Patr. well.

Ver. 18. Globe] By the Sept. Wheel, as being also incline your Ears to the Words of my Mouth.

2. I will open it with a Declamation, utter hidden Speeches of old Time;

3. Which we have heard and known, our Fathers having told us.

4. We will not conceal from their Sons, to the following Generation; from those who shall tell the Praises of the Lord, with his Strength, and his Wonders that he has done.

5. For he raised up a Testimony in Jacob, and put a Law in Israel; which he commanded our Fathers to make known to their Sons:

6. In order that the following Generation might know, the Sons that should be born; who should rise up, and tell theirs.

7. That they might put their Hope in God, and not forget God's Acts, but keep his Commandments.

8. And might not be like their Fathers, a Generation obstinate and rebellious; a Generation that did not establish their Heart, and whose Mind was not stedfast with God:

9. The Sons of Ephraim who being armed, shooting with the Bow, turned on the Day of Battle.

10. Not observing the Covenant of God, and refusing to go in his Law;

11. They even forgot his Acts, with his Wonders which he shewed them.

12. Who did a wonderful Thing before their Fathers, in the Country of Egypt, the Region of Zoan:

13. He cleaved the Sea, and made them pass through, setting up the Waters as a Heap.

14. And led them with a Cloud by Day, as likewise with a Light of Fire all the Night.

15. He cleaved the Rocks in the Wilderness, and caused them to drink in great Deeps:

round; hence the Earl of Dartford by a Stretch of Imagination, utterly disallowable in a Translator, has, the wheels of the Egyptians felt thy thunder.

It is the Earth] by Metonymy, for the Inhabitants of it; so not by an Earthquake, as some fancy, this being the Description of a Thunder-shower.

Ver. 4. We will not conceal] Gr. They have not been concealed, as otherwise vowelled.

Ver. 8. obstinate] New-Eng. Vers. vulgarly, a cross stiff race.

It is whose] Dad, whose spirit cleaves not God: why not, nor Spirit cleaves to God?

Ver. 9. Sons of Ephraim] as related 1 Chron. vii. 21. being here put before what was done at Egypt, &c. rehearsed Ver. 12, 13, &c. yet Patr. refers it to Deut. i. 44. Jun. to Ver. 61, &c. Ainsw. later still to 2 King. xvii.

Ver. 10. Law] old Met. irreverently trade, and again Ver. 36. in which are also for double Rhimes after and wonder, Ver. 4. Caterpillar and Grasshopper, Ver. 46.

Ver. 13. cleaved] Sax. teflat or flat, that is did slit.

It is Heap] Gr. Bottle, as if ח had been חוד.

Ver. 15. Rocks] It being done both at Horeb and Kadish, Exod. xvii. 6. Numb. xx. 1, 11.

16. Bringing Brooks out of the firm Place, and making the Waters run down like Rivers.

17. But they still proceeded to sin against him, by provoking the Highest in the dry Place.

18. And tempted God with their Heart, by asking for Food to their Appetite.

19. Nay they spoke thus against him; Can God provide a Table in the Wilderness?

20. Behold he striking the Rock, the Waters gushed out, and the Floods overflowed: Can he also give Bread? Will he prepare Flesh for his People?

21. Therefore the Lord hearing, was in a Wrath, and a Fire was kindled against Jacob, Anger also going up against Israel.

22. For they did not believe in God, nor trust in his Salvation.

23. However he commanded the Skies from above, and opening the celestial Doors;

24. He rained down Manna upon them to eat, and gave them the Corn of Heaven.

25. Man did eat the Bread of the Powerful: he sent them Provision to Fulness.

26. He made the East-wind march in the Heaven, and guided the South-wind by his Strength;

27. Raining down Flesh upon them as Dust, and winged Fowl as the Sand of the Seas:

28. Which he caused to fall within his Camp, round about his Tabernacles.

29. So that they did eat, and were thoroughly filled, and he brought them their Desire.

30. From which being not alienated, while their Food was yet in their Mouth,

31. The Anger of God went up against them, whom he slew in their Fatness, and bowed down the young Men of Israel.

32. For all this they sinned more, and did not believe his Wonders.

33. He therefore consumed their Days in Vanity, and their Years in Trouble.

34. When he slew them, the rest sought him; and returning, enquired early for God.

35. Then they remembered that God was their Rock, and the Supreme God their Redeemer.

36. Nevertheless they soothed him with their Mouth, and did lye to him with their Tongue:

37. As their Heart was not established with him, nor were they stedfast in his Covenant.

38. Yet he being merciful, purged away Iniquity, and did not destroy; but turned back his Anger much, not stirring up all his Wrath.

39. For he remembered that they were Flesh, Breath that would go away, and not return.

40. How often did they provoke him in the Wilderness, grieve him in the Desert?

41. And turning back, they tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel.

42. They did not remember his Hand, the Day when he redeemed them from the Adversary;

43. When he put his Signs in Egypt, and his Miracles in the Region of Zoan:

44. Turning their Streams into Blood, and their Brooks, so that they could not drink.

45. He sent among them a Mixture of noisome Creatures, which devoured them; and Frogs, that destroyed them.

46. Besides he gave their Increase to the Caterpillar, and their Labour to the Locust.

47. He killed their Vines with Hail, and their Sycomores with great Hailstones.

48. And delivered up their Beasts to the Hail, and their Cattle to burning Sparks.

49. He sent among them his fervent Anger, Wrath, and Indignation, with Distress, sending Messengers of bad Things.

50. He made an even Path for his Anger, did not keep back themselves from Death, and delivered up their Beasts to the Murrain;

51. Slaying all the First-born in Egypt, the Beginning of Power in the Tents of Ham.

Ver. 25. Bread] of the Corn before; not the Fowls after.

Ver. 28. his] thus the Heb.

Ver. 31. Fatness] Septuag. but not Vulg. Numbers, unskillfully from חֵמָה

Ib. bowed down] as the Word denotes; Sept. fettered down.

Ver. 33. Vanity] Capellus was so fond of shewing various Readings in the Heb. Bib. that he says the LXX read חֵמָה instead of חֵמָה the Sword, Crit. Sacr. p. 286, when the latter was never there; see Buxt. Kind. p. 662.

Ver. 36. soothed] Sept. awkwardly loved.

Ver. 46. Caterpillar] The LXX have it Blast, the Verb being consume; but they render it thus 2 Chr. vi. 28. Isa. xxxiii. 4.

Ver. 49. Messengers of bad Things] Whom Ab. Exr.

with Jun. and Trem. &c. expound to be Moses and Aaron; and the Heb. is as here with a Genit. Case in this Order; see Ex. xxxiii. 4.

Ver. 49, 50. sending Messengers of bad Things. He made an even Path] which Mudge thus, measured out a Mission of Evil Angels to be a Path; this he says is a very noble Sentence.

Ver. 50. Beasts] as the Word signifies, and by Exod. ix. 3, 6. we may find was done: accordingly it is rendered bestias by Jun. and Trem. bestiam by Mont. as likewise in the Vulg. Lat. jumenta, and by Ainsl. the wild Beasts.

Ib. Murrain] the same as Exod. ix. 3. so the Eng. Marg. is their beasts to the Murrain.

Ver. 51. Power] Sept. Labour, mistaking it for חֵמָה with the same Consonants, and forcing the Sense of that.

52. Whereas he made his People march like Sheep, and guided them in the Wilderness as a Flock.

53. As likewise led them so securely, that they did not fear, but the Sea covered their Enemies.

54. He also brought them to the Bounds of his holy Place, this Mountain that his right Hand purchased.

55. And drove out the Gentiles from their Presence, caused the Possession to fall to them by Line, and made the Tribes of Israel dwell in their Tents.

56. They notwithstanding tempted, and provoked the Supreme God, and did not observe his Testimonies.

57. But turned back, and were treacherous like their Fathers: they were turned like a deceitful Bow.

58. And caused him to have Indignation by their Chapels, as likewise moved him to Jealousy by their carved Images.

59. God hearing, was in a Wrath, and exceedingly rejected Israel:

60. Inasmuch that he forsook the Tabernacle of Shilo, the Tent he had placed among Mankind.

61. And gave up his Strength to Captivity, and his Glory into the Adversary's Hand.

62. Moreover he delivered up his People to the Sword, and was in a Wrath with his Possession.

63. The Fire consumed his young Men, and his Virgins were not praised.

64. His Priests fell by the Sword, and his Widows did not weep.

65. The Lord however awaked like one who had been asleep, like a stout Man singing by reason of Wine;

66. And struck his Adversaries on the Backside, giving them an everlasting Reproach.

67. Afterwards he rejected the Tent of Joseph, and did not choose the Tribe of Ephraim:

68. But chose the Tribe of Judah, Mount Zion which he loved.

69. And built his Sanctuary like the high Places, as the Earth that he founded for ever.

70. He likewise chose his Servant David, taking him from the Folds of the Sheep:

71. From behind those that were with Young, he brought him to feed Jacob his People, and Israel his Possession.

72. Whom he fed according to the Integrity of his Heart, and guided them by the Discretion of his Hands.

P S A L M LXXIX.

A PSALM of Asaph.

O God, the Gentiles are come into thy Possession, they have defiled thy holy Temple, have made Jerusalem Heaps.

2. They have given the dead Bodies of thy Servants for Meat to the Fowls of the Air, the Flesh of thy pious ones to the Beasts of the Earth.

3. They have shed their Blood as Water round about Jerusalem, none burying.

4. We are a Reproach to our Neighbours, a Scoff and a Mocking to those that are round about us.

5. How long, O Lord, wilt thou be angry? Perpetually? Shall thy Zeal burn like Fire?

6. Pour out thy Wrath on the Gentiles who do not know thee, and upon the Kingdoms that call not on thy Name;

7. Because each has been consuming Jacob, and they have made his Habitation desolate.

8. Do not remember to us the Iniquities of former Things; let thy Mercies speedily prevent us: for we are exceedingly impoverished.

9. Help us, O God of our Salvation, upon the Account of the Glory belonging to thy Name; as also deliver us, and purge away our Sins for thy Name's sake.

Ver. 58. carved Images] Doway Transf. gravens.

Ver. 63. praised] for Marriage, Cant. viii. 8. Gr. lamented, from חלל for חלל

Ver. 64. Widows] Sax. Wudwan.

Ib. did not weep] to wit at their Husbands Burial as usual, because they were slain abroad in the War, and their Bodies in their Enemies Power, 1 Sam. iv. 4, 11. as I think it may better be understood, than according to other Expositors, that their Grief was too great to weep; for even such Excess of Sorrow would soon have abated to Weeping or Lamentation: but the comparing it with Job xxvii. 15. may settle the Interpretation, where is the like Expression, and may best signify the Mourning at the Funeral, according to the learned Mercer, who shews the various Opinions concerning it.

Ver. 65. singing] LXX sursum, strangely.

Ver. 66. Backside] See 1 Sam. v. 6.

Ver. 69. built his Sanctuary] Solomon's Temple: so far the Narration is carried, and was likely composed soon after; tho' Patrick speaks of it in the Arg. (to his own Contradiction here) but till David's Promotion.

Ib. high Places] Vulg. Lat. from the Gr. Unicorni, by supposing ramim was for reemim.

Ib. as] Vulg. in, by mistaking א for ב

Ver. 1. The Occasion of this Psalm appears the same as of the 74th, for which also see Usher, Annal. A. M. 3417.

Ib. Heaps] Sept. a Place to keep Fruit; as though they fetched the Meaning of קרי from קרי to which they might imagine a plural קרים

Ver. 7. each has been consuming] being singular here, tho' not in Jer. x. ult.

Ver. 8. former Things] This being masc. and Iniquities fem. see Buxt. Thef. Gram. Lib. ii. Cap. 2.

10. Why should the Gentiles say, Where is their God? Let him be known among them in our Sight, by the Revenge of thy Servants Blood that is shed.

11. Let the Groaning of the Prisoner come before thee, according to the Greatness of thy Power: cause such to be left as are to die.

12. And render to our Neighbours sevenfold into their Bosom, their Reproach with which they have reproached thee, O Lord.

13. So will we thy People, and the Flock of thy Pasture, give thanks to thee for ever; will tell thy Praise to all Ages.

P S A L M LXXX.

FOR the chief Musician on the six-stringed Instruments. A Testimony of Asaph, or a Psalm.

O Shepherd of Israel, give ear, who guidest Joseph like a Flock: thou who dwellest at the Cherubs, shine forth.

2. Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up thy Power; and come for Salvation it self to us.

3. O God, cause us to return; and make thy Face light, that we may be saved.

4. Lord God of Armies, how long dost thou smother against the Prayer of thy People?

5. Thou causdest them to eat Victuals with a Tear, and makest them drink the Cup in Tears.

6. Thou makest us a Contention to our Neighbours; and our Enemies scoff to themselves.

7. O God of Armies, cause us to return; and make thy Face light, that we may be saved.

8. Thou broughtest away a Vine from Egypt: didst drive out the Gentiles, and plant it.

Ver. 10. Let him] Notwithstanding Ainsw. and Ham. since our last Transl. and most before, Jun. and Trem. excepted, put this the vengeance, the Disparity of Genders controuls it.

Ver. 13. for ever] Sax. on werulde, throughout the World.

Ver. 1. Shepherd] in the old Met. is Heard, without any Necessity.

Ib. Joseph] By which, and dwelling at the Cherubs, this appears done before the Separation into two Kingdoms, and so I suppose it might be in Solomon's Reign, according to Ver. 11, 17. 2 Chr. ix. 26. 1 King. xi. 25. though others reckon it long after, and variously.

Ib. dwellest at] or inhabitest without a Preposition; the Psalm. has upon, tho' well known to be wrong.

Ver. 2. Before] alluding to the Marching in the Wilderness, when the Ark in the Tabernacle went before these three Tribes, Nam. ii. 17, 18, 20, 22.

Ib. Salvation it self] It being a Noun augmented by the Addition of a Syllable, so that Jun. and Trem. turn it plenam salutem, full Salvation.

Ver. 9. madest ready] Sept. madest the way, or making

9. Thou madest ready before it, causing its Roots to grow, so that it filled the Country.

10. The Mountains were covered with its Shadow, and the Boughs of it were as the Cedars of God.

11. It shot forth its Branches as far as the Sea, and its Twigs to the River.

12. Why hast thou broke down its Fences, so that all who pass along the Way pluck it?

13. The Hog from the Wood digs under it, and the wild Beast of the Field feeds on it.

14. O God of Armies, return, we beseech thee: see from Heaven, look at, and take consideration on this Vine;

15. As also the Vineyard which thy right Hand has planted, and upon the Bough thou hast strengthened for thy self.

16. It is burnt with Fire, is cut down: by the Rebuke of thy Face they perish.

17. Let thy Hand be upon the Person of thy right Hand, upon the Son of Man thou hast strengthened for thy self.

18. So will we not turn back from thee: keep us alive, and we will call on thy Name.

19. O Lord God of Armies, cause us to return: make thy Face light, that we may be saved.

P S A L M LXXXI.

FOR the chief Musician upon the Instrument Gittith. By Asaph.

Sing to God our Strength, sound forth to the God of Jacob.

2. Take the Psalm, and give the Timbrel, the pleasant Harp with the Lute.

3. Sound the Trumpet at the New-moon, in the appointed Time, on the Day of our Feast.

way, using a Part. of the 1 Aor. from the right Word; but the Vulg. having it hast been guide of the Way, Bythn. supposes the LXX had it from another Word for Prince.

Ver. 15. the Vineyard] Sept. fit it up, from בן not בן as such may be.

Ib. upon] which the Heb. has, and aptly to this Transl. just before.

Ib. Bough] as Gen. xlix. 22. by whom may be understood the chief of the People; as the Vineyard denoted the Country where they dwelt, and both these are also signified by they in the next Verse.

Ver. 2. Take—and give] Barnes one of our noted Reformers and Martyrs informs us, that Dr. Allen expounded it in this Manner, I have done my Visitation, now give me my Money, Treatise that it is lawful for all to read H. Scrip.

Ver. 3. our] The Sept. your, for which הוּמָן might likelier be altered to הוּמָן, than נָא to נָא.

Ib. Feast] So this appears to be a Psalm made for the first Day of the seventh Month, Lev. xxiii. 24. Num. xxix. 1. by the Jews Almanack which I have in Heb. for the Year 1749, Sept. 13. and others since.

4. For it is an Ordinance to Israel, a Custom to the God of Jacob.

5. He made it a Testimony in Joseph, when he went forth against the Country of Egypt; where I heard a Language I did not know.

6. I took away his Shoulder from the Burden: his Hands passed from the Pots.

7. Thou didst call in Distress, and I delivered thee, I answered thee in the secret Place of Thunder, proved thee at the Water of Meribah. A Pause.

8. Hear, my People, to whom I will testify; O Israel, if thou wilt hearken to me.

9. Let there be no strange god in thee, nor do thou bow down to a foreign one.

10. I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee up from the Country of Egypt: open thy Mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11. But as my People would not hearken to what I said, nor Israel consent to me;

12. I sent them away in the Imagination of their own Heart, they went on in their own Counsels.

13. Oh that my People had hearkened to me! that Israel had walked in my Ways!

14. I would soon have brought down their Enemies, and made my Hand turn back against their Adversaries.

15. Those who hated the Lord should have submitted to him; whereas their Time should have been for ever.

16. He would also have made them eat of the best of the Wheat; and with Honey from the Rock would I have satisfied thee.

PSALM LXXXII.

PSALM of Asaph.

God stands in the Assizes, he judges among the Magistrates.

Ver. 5. against] to destroy the First-born, and so the Heb. Particle properly signifies.

Ib. where] or when; but not with the Liberty Translators too often take without Distinction, as in particular Cocceius here, though his Version of the Psalms is one of the closest and most literal, has it thus, quum labium ejus, quem non noram, audiivi, when I heard his Lip whom I had not known; there being Nothing in the Heb. for when, his, or whom.

Ib. I] God, as it seems to me, like that which follows, and not Israel: for such a Change in Meaning of the same first Person, would be so great a Violence to Language, that is I suppose no where else to be met with, consequently not here; besides the Israelites, who had all been born and brought up in Egypt, did doubtless understand the Language of that Country, this being at the Time of their Deliverance; nor did they, but only Moses and Aaron, hear the Voice of God there. But God did not know (as the Heb. is) i. e. was not acquainted with, or never knew before, such Language as wicked proud Pharaoh returned to his Message, Exod. v. 2.

Ver. 6. passed] Sept. did service, thinking the Letter א ו

Ver. 7. delivered] Sax. alysde, loosed or released.

Ver. 10. open thy Mouth wide] Sax. tobrad muth thin. Jonston ingeniously indeed, — plus pete, plura dabo:

VOL. I.

2. How long therefore will you judge unjustly, and respect the Person of the Wicked? A Pause.

3. Judge for the Decayed, and Fatherless; do justice to the Afflicted, and Poor;

4. Deliver the Decayed, and Needy; rescue from the Power of the Wicked.

5. They neither know, nor understand, going about in Darkness: all the Foundations of the Earth are moved.

6. I said, You were gods, and all of you the Sons of the Highest:

7. Surely you will die like Men, and fall like one of the Princes.

8. Arise, O God, judge the Earth: for thou hast possession in all Nations.

PSALM LXXXIII.

A POEM or Psalm of Asaph.

O God, have no Silence: hold not thy peace, nor be still, O God.

2. For behold thy Enemies are tumultuous, and those who hate thee lift up the Head.

3. They are crafty in Counsel against thy People; and consult against thy hidden ones.

4. They say, Come, and let us cut them off from being a Nation, that the Name of Israel may be remembered no more.

5. For they consult with the Heart together, they make a Covenant against thee:

6. The Tents of Edom, and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagarites,

7. Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek, Philistia, with the Inhabitants of Tyre;

8. Assyria is also joined with them, they are an Arm to the Posterity of Lot. A Pause.

9. Do to them as to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the Brook Kishon:

which may be englished, Ask more, and I will give thee much more; Milt.

Ask large enough, and I besought, will grant thy full demand;

and Bart. Hymn 439.

Thy mouth now open wide in pray'r to be supply'd;

with others so: yet waiting for either Blessings or Instruction, seems rather intended, than praying for them.

Ver. 15. their] viz. Israel's.

Ver. 1. This Psalm is made concerning bad Judges.

Ib. judges among] as at 2 Chron. xix. 6. which may be read for a good Comment on this.

Ib. the Assizes] as the Heb. evidently denotes.

Ver. 1. We may suppose this made in the first Part of David's Reign over Israel; accordingly Grotius refers it to 2 Sam. viii. others to After-times.

Ib. have no Silence] Heb. let there not be Silence to thee, our have answering to the Dative Case in the learned Languages; but hence the Sept. took Occasion to translate it, who shall be likened to thee? as the Verb whence שׁוֹמֵט Silence comes has also that Signification, but is not a Verb it self, and if it had should have been שׁוֹמֵט. Yet this is little to their rendering לֹא like אֵין who, by which they may be said to outdo their own Outdoings.

Ver. 6, 7, 8. Smyth has prettily turned these 3 Verses,

8 Q

10. That

10. That were destroyed at En-dor, being Dung for the Ground.

11. Make their Nobles themselves like Oreb and Zeeb, and all their Princes like Zebah and Zalmunna;

12. Who said, Let us possess our selves the Habitations of God.

13. O my God, make them like the whirling Stuff, like the Stubble before the Wind.

14. As the Fire burns a Wood, and as the Flame sets the Mountains on fire:

15. So pursue them with thy Tempest, and trouble them with thy Whirlwind.

16. Fill their Faces with Vileness; that they may seek thy Name, O Lord.

17. Let them be ashamed, and troubled for ever; nay brought to Confusion, and perish:

18. That they may know, that thou whose Name alone is the Lord, art the Highest over the whole Earth.

P S A L M LXXXIV.

FOR the chief Musician upon the Instrument Gittith. A Psalm for the Korahites.

How lovely thy Tabernacles are, O Lord of Armies!

2. My Soul longs, and even fails for the Courts of the Lord: my Heart and Flesh cry out for the Living God.

3. Even the Sparrow finds a House, and the Swallow a Nest for her self, in which she puts her young ones; namely thy Altars,

O Lord of Armies, my King, and God.

4. Those are blessed who dwell in thy House; they still praise thee. A Pause.

5. The Man is blessed whose Strength is in thee, the Highways being in their Heart.

6. Passing through the Vale of Mulberry-trees, they make it a Fountain: the Rain also covers with Blessings.

7. They go on from Strength to Strength;
each appearing before God in Zion.

8. Lord God of Armies, hear my Prayer:
give ear, O God of Jacob. A Pause.

9. See, O God our Shield, and behold the Face of thy anointed one.

10. For a Day in thy Courts is better than a thousand others: I choose to be at the Threshold in the House of my God, rather than to dwell in the Tents of Wickedness.

11. Because the Lord God is a Sun and Shield; the Lord gives Grace and Glory:
he with-holds no good Thing from such as walk in Integrity.

12. O Lord of Armies, the Man is blessed who trusts in thee.

P S A L M LXXXV.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm for the Korahites.

Thou hast been favourable, O Lord, to thy Country, hast turned again the Captivity of Jacob;

2. Hast forgiven the Iniquity of thy People, hast covered all their Sin. A Pause.

with such Difficulty of Names, to which I refer the Reader; and much better than Sir John Denham, though the latter seems to have taken from the former, and might therefore be expected to have made Improvement.

Ver. 10. at En-dor] that being by Taanach, Josh. xvii.
11. where the Battle was fought with the Canaanites, Jud.
v. 19.

Ver. 13. whirling Stuff] rendered a rolling thing Isa.
xvii. 13. where the Expression is also parallel.

Ver. 15. trouble] the same Verb as in Ver. 17.

Ib. Whirlwind] See Isa. xxix. 6. Sept. wrath, by Imagination from its Verb consume.

Ver. 1. Korahites] So that this, the next and lxxxviii Psalms, were probably made by David, like Psal. xlii. &c. and this may be referred to the Time of Absalom's Rebellion, according to Gratius; as also Jam. and Trem. on the Word Zion; Ver. 7. say the Worship of God was insti- tuted there when David made this Psalm (which must be after he was King, 2 Sam. v. 3, 7.) though here they say it is likely to be a Psalm of David in Exile by reason of Saul's Tyranny: the like Inconsistency has Patr. They seem to have most Reason on their Side who think it composed when Absalom—But it may as well or better, in my Judgment, be thought composed when Sennacherib &c.

Ver. 3. Sparrow] Sax. sparrow.

Ver. 5. the Highways] to Zion, Ver. 7.

Ver. 6. Passing] which Mudge joins to the Ver. before, and alters besides, to little Difference.

Ib. Mulberry-trees] as in 2 Sam. v. 23. To vindicate its being turned misery in the Com. Pray. it is said in Holy

Dev. char' d. מַצָּח signifies to weep, consequently misery; but what is that to מַצָּח a different Word? And is a Verb a Noun? Or even weep and misery alike.

Ib. Rain] The LXX. turn it Lawgiver, as a Participle in Hiph. from מִשֵּׁל but Rain which it signifies from מִיָּד as also Jos. ii. 23. better suits the Context.

Ib. covers] not fillets.

Ib. Blessings] which our Translators might mistake for Pools, that is differently pointed.

Ver. 7. before God] Septuag. the God of Gods will appear, which the small Change of מִלְּפָנֶיךָ into מִלְּפָנֵינוּ will admit of, as in Jos. xxii. 22. but the Litur. has it unwarrantly in both Senses, unto the God of Gods appeareth every one.

Ver. 10. a Day] which Hutton uses in a very different Sense,—may dwell one day in thy Courts, even all the long day of eternity.

Ver. 1. Captivity] by the Philistines, the same as mentioned Psa. xiv. 7. so that this seems penned after their Defeat, 2 Sam. v. 17.—ult. though Patr. puts it to 3 other Times. In the Contents, not with the properest Expressions, He promiseth to wait thereon (viz. on former mercies) out of (for in, as also before) confidence of God's goodness: and in the contents of the Old Singing Psalms not very reverently, They put him (God) in minde, that he should not leave the Work of his grace unperfected. On the other hand Wither in his Prayer to this Psalm has, When thy Blessings made us wanton, thou didst alwaies humble us by thy fatherly corrections; and when thou hadst worthilie afflicted us according as thy Wisdom saw convenient, thou didst ever mercifully comfort, and restore us again to thy favour.

3. Thou

3. Thou hast withdrawn all thy Wrath, hast turned back from thy fervent Anger.

4. Turn us again, O God of our Salvation, and break asunder thy Indignation with us.

5. Wilt thou be angry with us for ever, drawing out thy Anger to all Ages?

6. Wilt not thou revive us again that thy People may be glad through thee?

7. Shew us thy Kindness, O Lord, and give us thy Salvation.

8. I will hear what God the Lord will speak: for he will speak Peace to his People and pious ones; but let them not return to Folly.

9. Certainly his Salvation is near to those who fear him; that Glory may dwell in our Country.

10. Kindness and Truth are met together, Righteousness and Peace do kiss each other:

11. Truth blossoms up out of the Earth, and Righteousness beams down from Heaven.

12. The Lord also will give what is good, and our Country will yield its Increase.

13. Righteousness will go before him, and he will put his Feet in the Way.

P S A L M LXXXVI.

A PRAYER of David.

Incline thy Ear, O Lord, answer me: for I am afflicted, and needy.

2. Preserve my Soul, as I am not impious: save thy Servant, thou my God, who trusts on thee.

3. Be gracious to me, O Lord: for I call to thee every Day.

4. Make glad the Soul of thy Servant: for to thee, Lord, I lift up my Soul.

5. For thou, Lord, art good, and forgiving, as also of large Kindness to all who call upon thee.

6. Give ear to my Prayer, O Lord, and hearken to the Voice of my Supplications.

7. I will call upon thee at the Time of my Distress: for thou wilt answer me.

8. There is none like thee among the gods, O Lord, no Works are like thine.

9. All Nations that thou hast made, will come and bow down before thee, O Lord, and give Honour to thy Name.

10. For thou art great, and doest Wonders: thou art God alone.

11. Teach me thy Way, O Lord, I will walk in thy Truth: unite my Heart to fear thy Name.

12. I will praise thee, Lord my God, with my whole Heart, and will honour thy Name for ever:

13. Since thy Kindness is great to me; and thou hast delivered my Soul from the lower Hell.

14. O God, the Proud are risen up against me, and the Assembly of the Violent seek my Life; who do not set thee before them.

15. But thou, Lord, art a merciful and gracious God, forbearing of Anger, as also of large Kindness and Truth.

16. Look on me, and be gracious to me: give thy Strength to thy Servant, and save the Son of thy Handmaid.

17. Cause to be with me a Sign of Good, that those who hate me may see, and be ashamed; because thou, O Lord, dost help and comfort me.

P S A L M LXXXVII.

A PSALM or Poem for the Korahites.

His Foundation being on the holy Mountains;

Ver. 8. speaks] The LXX add in me, by Dartford within me.

Ib. to Folly] left out of the Psalter, but the old Lat. has for it to the Heart; the Gr. being and to them that turn the Heart to him: which it is evident to me was done thus; the seventy Translators (if they were so many, and all so ignorant) took the Heb. לִפְתֹּחַ for לִפְתֹּחַ the latter being twice before (and this by the Way may shew the Necessity or Benefit of the Points) as they did also לִפְתֹּחַ to Folly for לִפְתֹּחַ the Heart. Selah; parting the Word into two, and mistaking a Letter, with what is worse, thinking there was a Preposition belonging to the Verb before it. Could one of our new Criticks notwithstanding have discovered this, how triumphantly would he have asserted the LXX read so!

Ver. 11. blossoms—beams] fructified, and fructifying.

Ver. 13. he will put] It makes an absurd Idea, that Righteousness as going before the Lord, should set us in his Steps behind him; as likewise that we should come from Heaven: where Righteousness is represented to be Ver. 11. and so now coming from thence, and the Lord in the way of it, to bless as before those who fear him, all consistently: thus Jun. and Trem. also take it, Cass. Hare, &c.

Ver. 1. Prayer of David] made, as one may apprehend, before he was King: in the Dow. Transf. it is, A prayer to David himselfe.

Ver. 10. dost Wonders] Sax. donde wundra. King James,

For working wonders wondrous at.

Ver. 11. unite my Heart] By the LXX, let my Heart rejoice, from דָּרַח as it appears, when דָּרַח the Word here is from דָּרַח

Ver. 14. Assembly] not Assemblies.

Ver. 17. with me] So the Heb. is, and the Sign was to be to his Adversaries.

Ver. 1. Psalms] after the Tabernacle and Ark were fixed at Zion, 2 Sam. vi. 17. Patr. says, It is uncertain which of the Sons of Korah was the Author of it, while he has it in the Title for them.

Ib. His] the Lord's, as being his Temple's. In the Liturg. Har. upon which I would ask our new Criticks, whether the Authors of that Transf. read ה instead of י by

2. The Lord loves the Gates of Zion, more than any Habitations of Jacob.

3. Glorious Things are particularly spoken of thee, O City of God! A Pause.

4. I make mention of Rahab and Babylon, to my Acquaintance, indeed of Philistia and Tyre, with Cush; that such a one was born there.

5. So of Zion it shall be said, that this and that Man was born in it: and the Highest himself will establish it.

6. The Lord will count up when he writes down the People, that such a one was born there; a Pause:

7. Even the Singers as well as the Players on Instruments: all my Springs being in thee.

P S A L M LXXXVIII.

A POEM or Psalm for the Korahites, for the chief Musician to play upon the Instrument Mahalath. An instructing Poem of Heman the Ezrahite.

O Lord God of my Salvation, by Day I cry, by Night before thee.

2. Let my Prayer come into thy Presence, incline thy Ear to my Cry.

3. For my Soul is full of ill Things, and my Life approaches to the Grave.

4. I am reckoned with those who go down to the Pit, and like a Man of no Strength;

5. Made free among the Dead, like the Slain that lie in the Sepulchre, whom thou remembrest no more, they being cut off by thy Hand.

6. Thou hast put me into a Pit of the lower and dark Places, into the Depths.

7. Thy Wrath presses hard upon me, and thou afflictest with all thy Waves. A Pause.

8. Thou hast caused my Acquaintance to be far off from me, hast made me an Abomination to them: I am shut up, and cannot get out.

9. My Eye is sorrowful by reason of Affliction: I call upon thee, O Lord, every Day, spreading my Hands to thee.

10. Wilt thou do Wonders to the Dead? Will the Deceased rise up, praising thee? A Pause.

11. Will thy Kindness be told in the Sepulchre, thy Faithfulness in Destruction?

12. Shall thy Wonders be known in Darkness, and thy Righteousness in the Country of Forgetfulness;

13. Whereas I cry out to thee, O Lord,

Transcribers taking one Letter for the other? If not, why must the LXX be said so much to read different from the present Hebrew?

Ib. Foundation] for Dwelling. Sax. plur. (after the Lat. by Mistake of the Heb. Word without Points) grundwallas or stathelas, which some Country-People may know.

Ib. being] as much included as is, and I need not say much more useful.

Ib. Mountains] Zion and Moriah, the latter as Part of the former, see on Psa. xlviii. 2.

Ver. 5. So of] for which the LXX have Mother thus, Mother Zion shall say; but as they cannot be thought to refer לַמִּתְּנָה to the Heb. Word for Mother, by any Likeness of the Letters, I suppose it was to לָבִי bring forth.

Ib. Instead of it at the End Mudge puts him, by turning הָאֵל into הֵאֱלֹהִים which I do not remember stands for him, or that it is any Pronoun, but הֵאֱלֹהִים

Ver. 6, 7. such a one was born there—Even the Singers] In the Place of all this the Gr. and Vulg. Lat. produce, and these Princes that have been in it: wherein Princes arose as at Psa. lxxviii. 25. next in it appears taken by Oversight from Ver. 5. instead of there from Ver. 4. and the Gr. may as well mean have been born, as have been, notwithstanding the Lat. has espoused the latter; yet besides these Allowances it is grievously distorted from the Heb.

Ver. 7. as well as &c. to the End] Sept. and Vulg. The Dwelling in thee is as of all them that rejoice: here מְדִינַתִּי my Springs was indubitably expounded by מְדִינַתִּי Dwellings, though the Word in that constructed Form would be improper, or else by מְדִינָה Dwelling, which has far less Likeness; and rejoice might be fetched from no different Root.

Ib. all my Springs] Mudge has, they shall be all Singers, but by tearing down the Heb. Distinction, and making Addition to it besides; nay his new Word is wrong, chulam for cullum.

Ver. 1. Heman] mentioned 1 Chron. vi. 33. & xv. 17, 19. & xvi. 42. 2 Chron. v. 12. & xxxv. 15. 1 King. iv. 31. and according to Ab. Ezz. and Grotius. Though Psalm says he was probably that Heman, yet he refers him to another in the Marg. 1 Chron. ii. 6. and on 1 King. iv. 31. supposes they were the same Etban and Heman that are mentioned 1 Chron. ii. 6. & xv. 19. but who can believe Judah's Grandsons were David's Singers? Whereas the other Heman was the Descendant of Levi, in the 21st Generation, 1 Chron. vi. 33—38. and Grandson of the Prophet Samuel. He seems to write of his own private Experience. Ainsworth says, This Psalm is the most doleful of all the Bible, full of complaints even to the end; and Beza the like. Hatton begins his Prayer on it in these Words, O Lord God of our salvation, who for our sakes wert wounded, and didst die and lie in the grave, even without any mention of Jesus or Christ, excepting at the End, through Jesus Christ our Lord, according to which this at the Beginning must not be He; but besides that, he did not die &c. as being God.

Ib. by Day I cry, by Night before thee] just as the Heb. stands, not without Elegance, and as Psa. xxii. 2. yet Hare and Mudge would make of my Salvation, be I cry; and the latter says for it, the same three Words are joined Psa. xxii. 1, 2. which is not true, unless אֶחָד אֶחָד two of them are the same as אֶחָד אֶחָד or as they alter the former אֶחָד

Ver. 5. more] Sax. me, afterwards changed to me.

Ib. cut off] That the LXX made a Mistake of נָחַץ for נָחַץ which latter the Text has, looks most likely, by their rendering it driven away, though that Verb does not signify it directly.

Ver. 6. Thou hast put] But by the LXX, They have put; taking שָׁתַּנּוּ probably to be שָׁתַּנּוּ though it would be ill spelled for שָׁתַּנּוּ

Ver. 9. is sorrowful] In the Lit. faileth, it being in the old Lat. my Eyes have languished.

Ib. spreading my Hands] in Prayer, as proper for that Devotion; and not so carnally as Woodford represents it.

With stretcht out armes I feel if Thou art nigh.

Ver. 10. Deceased] Sept. Physicians, by רִפְיָאִים for רִפְיָאִים where we have no Authority but that of the Points, to guard from such Absurdity.

and my Prayer prevents thee in the Morning.

14. Why, O Lord, dost thou cast off my Soul, hide thy Face from me?

15. I have been afflicted, and as it were expiring from Childhood: have born thy Terrors, being in doubt.

16. Thy Fury passes over me, thy Disturbances are cutting me off.

17. They compass me like Water every Day, thy come about against me together.

18. Thou hast caused Lover and Friend to be far off from me, my Acquaintance at a dark Place.

P S A L M LXXXIX.

AN instructing Poem of Ethan the Ezrahite.

I will ever sing the Lord's Favours, will make known thy Faithfulness with my Mouth to all Ages.

2. For I say; Kindness is ever built up, thou dost establish thy Faithfulness in Heaven it self thus;

3. I have made a Covenant with my chosen one, have sworn to David my Servant,

4. I will establish thy Offspring for ever, and build up thy Throne to all Ages. A Pause.

5. Thus will Heaven praise thy Wonders, O Lord, thy Faithfulness also in the Congregation of the Holy.

6. For who in the Sky is equal to the Lord? Or like him among the Sons of the Mighty?

7. God is feared much in the Counsel of the Holy, and revered by all that are round about him.

8. O Lord God of Armies, who is a strong Lord like thee? Whose Faithfulness is round about thee.

9. Thou rulest over the Loftiness of the Sea: when its Waves are lifted up, thou restrainest them.

10. Thou hast bruised Rahab like one that is pierced through, hast dispersed thy Enemies by thy strong Arm.

11. The Heaven is thine, the Earth is thine also: thou didst found the very World; and what it is filled with.

12. The North and South are what thou hast created: Tabor and Hermon sing through thy Name.

13. Thou hast an Arm with Power: thy Hand is strong, thy right Hand is exalted.

14. Righteousness and Judgment are the Settlement of thy Throne: Kindness and Truth go before thy Face.

15. The People are blessed that know the joyful Sound; who go on, O Lord, in the Light of thy Countenance.

16. They rejoice through thy Name every Day; and are exalted by thy Righteousness.

17. For thou art the Ornament of their Strength: and our Horn is exalted through thy Favour.

18. For our Shield is of the Lord, and our King of the Holy One of Israel.

19. Then didst thou speak in Vision to the pious one, and say: I have put Help on the Powerful, have exalted him who is chosen from the People.

20. I have found my Servant David, have anointed him with the holy Oil.

21. With whom my Hand shall be established, my Arm also shall strengthen him.

22. The Enemy shall not exact on him, nor an unjust Person afflict him.

23. On the contrary I will crush his Adversaries from his Presence, and smite such as hate him.

Ver. 15. expiring] By the Sept. in Labours, from πα as may be seen in Bythner's Lyr. Propb. it being the Verb πα lb. have born thy Terrors] Which the LXX have turned, and being exalted was made low: for the Verb has also the Meaning of lift up, and תִּעָלָה as I conjecture, they fancied was the fut. Tense in Elph. of תָּעַל viz. תִּעָלָה

lb. in doubt] So distracted, as the Latin distractus, pulled apart (by Doubt or Perplexity) if it keeps to the Heb. but who would take it only in that Sense?

Ver. 18. may] See on Heb. iii. 11.

Ver. 1. Ethan] of whom see 1 Chron. vi. 44. & xv. 17, 19. 1 King. iv. 31. and besides it being far more likely for David's chief Singers of Psalms to compose this and the foregoing, like Asaph and Jeduthun, than for the Ethan and Heman mentioned 1 Chron. ii. 6. the Name of David being several times in this Psalms, and not as prophetic, may put it out of all Dispute. It might be written in the latter Part of Solomon's Reign, 1 King. xi.

14, 23, 25. with Patr. in Jeboiachin's or Zedekiah's; but I am not inclined to think the Author complained so in vain.

lb. sing] Jonston beautifully,

Te Dominum, Pater alme! canam, fidumque bonumque: Thee, sacred Father, the Lord, both faithful and good, I will sing.

Ver. 2. built up] Sax. yetimbred, and Ver. 4. timbre'd; whence our Timber, i. e. Wood for Building:

Ver. 5. Holy] not Saints, but Angels, manifestly.

Ver. 10. like one that is pierced through] In the Litur. and destroyed it; but did the Translators of Munster whom he so implicitly follows, read so in the Heb. or indeed is this the Heb. translated?

lb. Arm] Sax. bearme, but in Ver. 13. earn, after the old negligent Way of Spelling:

Ver. 19. pious one] Samuel, 1 Sam. xvi. 1, 12. but the Litur. has saints.

Ver. 23. from] not before.

24. Both my Faithfulness and Kindness shall be with him, and his Horn shall be exalted through my Name.

25. I will also put his Hand on the Sea, and his right Hand on the Rivers.

26. He shall call upon me, Thou art my Father, my God, and the Rock of my Salvation.

27. Besides I will make him the First-born, the highest of the Kings of the Earth.

28. I will keep my Kindness to him for ever, and my Covenant shall be firm to him.

29. Nay I will put his Offspring to be for evermore, and his Throne as the Days of Heaven.

30. If his Children forsake my Law, and go not in my Rules ;

31. If they profane my Ordinances, and do not keep my Commandments :

32. I will visit their Transgression with a Rod, and their Iniquity with Stripes.

33. But I will not break off my Kindness from him, nor deal falsely in my Faithfulness.

34. I will not profane my Covenant, nor change what came out of my Lips :

35. Who swore once in my Holiness, that without my failing to David ;

36. His Offspring should be for ever, and his Throne like the Sun before me ;

37. That it should be ever established as the Moon, and a faithful Witness in the Sky. A Pause.

38. Whereas thou hast cast off, and despised, hast been in a Wrath with thy anointed one.

39. Thou hast detested the Covenant of thy Servant, hast profaned his Crown to the Ground.

40. Thou hast broke down all his Fences, hast made his strong Holds a Ruin.

41. All who pass that Way have plundered him : he has been a Reproach to his Neighbours.

42. Thou hast exalted the right Hand of his Adversaries, hast made all his Enemies glad.

43. Moreover thou hast turned back the Edge of his Sword, and not made him stand up in the Battle.

44. Thou hast made his Purity cease, and thrust down his Throne to the Ground.

45. Thou hast shortened the Days of his Youth, hast covered him over with Shame. A Pause.

46. How long, O Lord, wilt thou hide thyself ? Perpetually ? Shall thy Wrath burn like Fire ?

47. Remember of what Time I am : why didst thou create all Mankind in vain ?

48. What Man lives, and will not see Death, who will deliver his Person from the Power of the Grave ? A Pause.

49. Where are thy former Favours, Lord, that thou hast sworn to David in thy Faithfulness ?

50. Remember, Lord, the Reproach of thy Servants, which I have born in my Bosom, of all the great People :

51. With which thy Enemies have reproached, O Lord, with which they have reproached the Footsteps of thy anointed one.

52. Blessed be the Lord for ever. So, even so let it be.

Ver. 32. I will] See 2. Sam. vii. 14.

Ver. 35. that] the Heb. is If as at Psa. xcv. 11. but this runs better in Eng. obliquely than direct.

Ver. 36. Throne] Sax. beabseth, high Settle or Seat.

Ver. 38. despised] Cruden in his late fam'd Concordance, thinking abhorred too harsh, says it signifies here To reject or cast off; which certainly it never does, and would here too make an utter Tautology, being the same with the foregoing Verb. This is the first Word that Author thus begins with, and so goes on to justify wrong translating by putting Meanings to Words which they never have, when they could not be vindicated in their real Meaning ; in which Manner any Thing might be justified. This I mention for an Instance, not as the worst, but as his first ; while he omits shewing the different Signification where it really is, as in about, bray, &c.

Ib. been in a Wrath with thy anointed one] Here the LXX delayed thy Christ, the Verb signifying to pass or pass over.

Ver. 43. Edge] Sept. Help, deriving zer from azar.

Ver. 45. Youth] Vulg. Time, as another Word from the same Root.

Ver. 47. I] יְהוָה but Mudge doubts whether it should not be נָתַן I pray, or יְהוָה Lord. His is the Highway to Uncertainties : consonant to which he adds, Dr. Haré's badel (instead of baled) how perishing I am, makes also good Sense ; just as if any such might be Scripture, or the Scripture any such.

Ver. 48. What Man] It is reported of Xenophon, writes Laertius in the Life of him, that on the News of his Son's Death he said, Ἀλλὰ γὰρ ἦναι θνητὸν ἄνθρωπον, I know indeed I begot him mortal.

Ib. Person] which the Heb. Word signifies as well as Soul, and deliver his soul from the hand of the grave is a strange Expression. And as extravagant Words supposed to be right, produce extravagant Thoughts to make them out, so I find R. B. thus attempting it,

*What strong Man lives, and sees not Death, or who his soul shall save ;
And stop the hand that stops his breath,
the hand of Hell, the Grave ?*

Ib. Power] as rendered, Psa. xlix. 15. Hof. xiii. 14. and certainly ought to be here.

Ib. Grave] The Litur. bell ; had indeed that none shall deliver his Soul thence ! And if the old Translator did mean the State of Death, the Unlearned who mind it when they hear it, may be nothing relieved by that.

Ver. 51. Footsteps] LXX Change, I know not how, but from Heel like the Arabick.

P S A L M XC.

A PRAYER of Moses, the Man of God.
Lord, thou hast been a Habitation for us in all Ages.

2. Before the Mountains were brought forth, or thou hadst formed the Earth and the World, nay from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.

3. Thou turnest Man back, till he is worn away; saying, Return, O Mankind.

4. For a thousand Years are in thy Sight as Yesterday, when it is past over, and a Watch in the Night.

5. Thou overflowest them, they are as a Sleep: like the Grass that grows in the Morning;

6. Which then flourishing, as well as growing, at the Evening is cut down, and withers.

7. For we are consumed by thy Anger, and troubled by thy Wrath.

8. Thou hast set our Iniquities before thee, our Youth in the Light of thy Face.

9. For all our Days are turned away by thy Indignation: we consume our Years like a Discourse.

10. In the Days of our Time are seventy Years, and if by Stoutness eighty, yet their Might is Labour and Vanity: for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11. Who knows the Strength of thy Anger? Thy Indignation being like the Fear of thee.

12. Make known so to number our Days, that we may bring the Mind to Wisdom.

13. Return, O Lord; how long shall it be? and be sorry for thy Servants.

14. Satisfy us with thy Kindness in the Morning; that we may sing, and be glad all our Days.

15. Make us glad according to the Days thou hast afflicted us, the Years we have seen Adversity.

16. Let thy Work appear on thy Servants, and thy Beauty upon their Children:

17. Nay let the Pleasantness of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish the Per-

Ver. 1. of Moses] written by him after the Lives of the Israelites were shortened for their Disobedience, Num. xiv. as Ver. 7, 8, 9, 10. shew. Beza in his Table of the principal Points of every Psalm, says only, An excellent Prayer of Moses.

Ver. 2. Before the Mountains were] Sax. aribambs waron duna.

Ib. from everlasting to everlasting] Id. fram werulde & etb en werulde: by Hopkins quite overdone,

From age to age and alwayes still, for ever thou art God.

and worse in the next Ver. by doubling then and again.

Ver. 3. Thou turnest] The Septuag. have Do not turn, by taking לֹא God from the End of the last Ver. to this, and deeming it to be לֹא not; so that it is apparent their Copy was without both the Points and Verses, as it is that the latter were coeval with the former, by reason of the Points Dependence on them.

Ib. Return] which Hare says refers to Gen. iii. 19.

Ver. 5. overflowest] So Psa. lxxvii. 17. Litur. scatterest, from תִּרְחַץ instead of תִּרְחַץ and the rest see how arbitrarily: but the LXX worse, who translate their Years will be Things that are of Nought, therein also taking שָׁנָה a Sleep to be שָׁנָה a Year, which the good Guardians the Points preserve from.

Ib. Sleep] Hare by altering the Heb. Pointing, would make it, Thou moistenest them with Sleep; too trivial, forced and unfruitful.

Ver. 8. Youth] As translated Ver. 45. of the last Psa. with Job xx. 11. & xxxiii. 25. Isa. liv. 4. id est every where else.

Ver. 9. we consume] The LXX annex this to the preceding, with and before it thus, and in thy Indignation we have failed.

Ib. like a Discourse] Sept. our Years were meditated or considered like a Spider; but it was hard straining to make the Syllabic Expletive וְ which puzzled them, a Spider like שַׂרְפָּה for it could not be attempted on עֲבֵיטָה the other Heb. Word for that Insect; next the Word for Discourse being changed into a Verb, to patch up some Sense, viz. from הִנָּה to הִנָּה would signify either to meditate or discourse. Byth. only says, they turned aside much from the Text.

Ver. 10. seventy Years] which remains much the same, unless shortened by Intemperance; as Greaves observes there is no Decay in Nature as to Stature; for some thousand Years, by the embalmed Bodies in Egypt, and his Measure of the hollow Part of the Monument in the great Pyramid there.

Ib. Might] Sept. Overplus, אִם if רָחַם had been רָחַם transposed.

Ib. it is soon cut off] Sept. Meekness or Gentleness is come upon us; wherein I imagine the first was framed from לֵב being Wool, which לֵב might be taken for; and that לֵב soon was supposed to be for לֵב the ל not radical, and so the other there is.

Ib. fly away] Sept. shall be chastised, deducing it from לֵב to be tired it seems instead of לֵב as ל is not inserted. Bythner's Account is, they have done it strangely.

Ver. 11. knows] where one Sax. Copy (as in Spelman's Psalm) has can, another conn, for kens; a third wat, for wots; and a fourth cneawe.

Ib. the Fear of thee] better than thy fear: which Tate and Brady explain, —thy Wrath does fall or rise,

As more or less we fear;

and Blackmore probably from them,

Then, as Men fear thee less or more;

Wrath more or less dost show:

but the Exposition of Jun. and Trem. is more coherent; that God's Wrath is according to the Fear of himself, which he puts in People, by his Threatenings, Signs and Works, as in Num. xiv.

Ver. 12. to number our Days] The first of this Mudge joins to the 11th Verse, turning it to estimate, of which the Proof is wanting; and by changing יָמֵינוּ into יָמֵינוּ, he translates thy Right Arm. He pleads indeed the Seventy for both, but is their Version to be preferred to the Original? And was not this Writer translating the latter?

Ib. number] Diog. Laertius in the Life of Bias writes, Εἰς τὴν βίον ὅτε μετρίῳ ἢ καὶ πολλῷ καὶ ἐλαττῷ χρόνῳ διασπομένης. He said we should so measure Life, as if we were to live either a long or a little while.

Ib. that we may bring] With the LXX, and those instructed at Heart in Wisdom; as though בָּיָא from בָּא was a Participle in Niphal from בָּא notwithstanding that Verb being neuter has not that Mood.

Ver. 16. Let thy Work appear on thy Servants] Sept. And look on thy Servants, and on thy Work; by which it appears at the Beginning was mistaken for י with and en added in to fill up the Sense.

formance

formance of our Hands upon us, even the very Performance of our Hands establish.

P S A L M XCI.

HE who abides in the secret Place of the Highest, lodges in the Shelter of the Almighty.

2. I would say, Of the Lord is my Refuge and Fortification, in my God himself I trust.

3. For he will deliver thee from the Snare of the Fowler, from the very woful Pestilence.

4. He will cover thee with his Feathers, and under his Wings shalt thou trust: his Truth will be a Shield and Buckler.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid of the Dread at Night, of the Arrow that flies by Day,

6. Of the Pestilence which goes in Darkness, of the Destruction that wastes at Noon.

7. Should a thousand fall at thy Side, and ten thousand at thy right Hand, it shall not come nigh thee;

8. Only thou shalt behold with thy Eyes, and see the Recompence of the Wicked:

9. Since the Lord my Refuge, the Highest, thou hast made thy Habitation.

Ver. 1. I imagine this to be a Psalm of Encouragement, written to David by Gad or some other, at the Time of the Pestilence, 2 Sam. xxiv. though the Jewish Writers would have these ten Psalms following the 90th, as well as that, to be composed by Moses, according as he declared 11 Blessings, Deut. xxxiii. which is trifling in their Manner. Beza in Argum. relates what Benefit he received from this Psalm, at his Convincement 31 Years before, as also when he had the Pestilence, and his Family four times: remarkable indeed! enough to be mentioned here, as well as there. Yet in the Psalms made into French Verse by him and Marot, this is done by the latter, and not Beza himself, as might have been expected.

Ver. 2. would] that it may belong to the Person spoken to, concurrent with the rest.

Ver. 3. Pestilence] Sept. Matter, as the Consonants permit.

Ver. 4. Truth] In the Liturgy is also faithfulness, and there only I suppose.

Ib. and Buckler] Taking this to be a Verb the LXX render, his Truth will compass thee with a Weapon; but so badly, that it is neglected.

Ver. 6. Destruction that wastes at Noon] Sept. Misance and the noon Devil, interpreting יָסוּר קֶסֶם so widely as by יָסוּר קֶרֶן the latter being easy and apparent to be seen, notwithstanding Byth. says, he does not know why they turned it Devil; but it was by taking the wrong Word, for just after he tells how it was done.

Ver. 7. Should] For he is describing the Safety of a good Man, which shall breaks the Course of, by telling how the bad must suffer: so Noldius puts it for אִם If to be understood, and Cast. translates with Etiam, Though.

Ver. 9. thou] which the Trans. in the Litar. applies to the Lord.

Ver. 10. No] Old Met.

Thou shalt not needs none ill to fear,

Wish thee it shall not melt;

which last Word I knew not the Meaning of, and there-

10. No Harm shall fall out to thee nor Plague come near thy Tent.

11. For he will command his Angels concerning thee, to keep thee in all thy Ways.

12. Who will hold thee up in their Hands, lest thou shouldest strike thy Foot against a Stone.

13. Thou shalt tread upon the fierce Lion, and the Asp: thou shalt trample the young Lion, and the Serpent.

14. As he has had a Love for me, says God, I will deliver him: I will exalt him, since he has known my Name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in Distress; will bring him out, and honour him.

16. With long Life will I satisfy him, and shew him my Salvation.

P S A L M XCII.

A PSALM or Poem for the Sabbath Day.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord, and sing melodiously to thy Name, O Supreme One;

2. To declare thy Kindness in the Morning, and thy Faithfulness in the Nights;

3. Upon the ten-stringed Instrument and Lute, with Meditation on the Harp.

fore suppose many others did not, while it remained so for a whole Century; till I read in Beveridge's Defence it was meddle, and he says rightly spelt and pronounced, therefore pleads for it; as if the old Saxon was now the right English: but I knew, and still do, notwithstanding his Emphatical, that two Negatives are counted or make an Affirmative, and therefore that none should be any, or not omitted, &c.

Ver. 12. Strike] Sax. atepurno. Whence Hutton prays thus oddly, Keep me from precipices, from fracture of bones, from dislocations, noisome or sharp diseases, stupidities and deformities.

Ib. thy Foot] Payne, or foot be hurt by stone,

the Verse having not Room for thy and a; but at Ver. 14. he had too much Room, and so made Nonsense by filling it up with so thus,

'Cause he hath known my Name, to be his God I ever will:

O David! what unskilful Hands have been fingering thy Harp!

Ver. 16. Patrick plainly and well,

And when a good old Age is past,

Bring him to Heav'n at last.

and paraphrased by Beza, I will likewise prolong his Life to the full, much less shall he die with others; and in the end will make him Partaker of my true and everlasting Felicity.

Ver. 1. A Psalm] by David I suppose when he was King, Ver. 10. as with Patr. seen since. But some of the Jews, without Probability, Ver. 3, 6, 7, 9, 11, 12, 13. suppose it to be made by Adam, and said on the first Sabbath, and Morning after he was created.

Ib. Supreme One] Psalter, most Highest, as elsewhere, with a double Superlative improperly; and worse, tho' still followed, in Ver. 8.

Ver. 3. Meditation] the same Word as in Psa. xix. ult. and so Ainsw. renders it, Jun. and Tram. meditatione; not signifying any sound.

4. For

4. For thou makest me glad, O Lord, by thy Work : I will sing by the Deeds of thy Hands.

5. How great thy Deeds are, O Lord ! thy Thoughts are very deep.

6. The senseless Man does not know, nor the Fool understand this :

7. When the Wicked spring forth like Grass, and all who work Iniquity flourish, that they will be destroyed for evermore.

8. But thou art high for ever, O Lord.

9. For behold thy Enemies, O Lord, for behold thy Enemies will perish : all that work Iniquity will be scattered.

10. Whereas thou wilt exalt my Horn as an Unicorn's ; I am anointed with fresh Oil.

11. And my Eye shall look on my Observers : my Ears shall hear of the Evil-doers that rise up against me.

12. The Virtuous will spring forth like a Palm-tree : he will grow like a Cedar on Lebanon.

13. Those who are planted in the House of the Lord, will spring forth in the Courts of our God.

14. They will be fruitful still in old Age, fat and fresh will they be ;

15. To declare that the Lord is upright : who is my Rock, and there is no Injustice at all in him.

P S A L M XCIII.

THE Lord reigns, he has put on Excellency ; the Lord has put on Strength, he has girded himself : the World also is established, it cannot be moved.

2. Thy Throne has been established from the same everlasting Time that thou art.

3. The Floods sending up, O Lord, as they do, their Sound, the Floods sending up their Dashing ;

4. More than the Sounds of many Waters, the magnificent Waves of the Sea, is the Lord magnificent on high.

5. Thy Testimonies are very firm : Holiness becomes thy House, O Lord, to the longest Time.

P S A L M XCIV.

O God who hast Vengeance, the Lord ; O God who hast Vengeance, shine forth.

2. Get up, O Judge of the Earth, render a Recompence upon the Proud.

3. How long shall the Wicked, O Lord, how long shall the Wicked triumph ?

4. Who utter forth, speaking hard Things : all that work Iniquity boast themselves.

Ver. 5. How great] Buchanan, with the Grandeur of Poetry,

*O opera, facta O magna vere, O sub cava
Consilia nube condita !
Consilia cæcis mentibus mortalium
Ignota :*

O Works, O Deeds truly great, O the Purposes design'd under the hollow Sky ! Purposes unknown to the blind Minds of Mortals.

Ver. 10. am anointed] preterite in the Heb. in the New-Eng. Vers.

anointed be shall I ;

all which should have been read backward. Mudge has, my old Age is fresh invigorated with Oyl ; but to his Confutation this is a Verb, and the other not.

Ver. 11. look on—hear of] What did our Translators mean by adding in my desire ? That the Psalmist desired the Destruction or Harm of his Enemies ? As in the Gen. Vers. there is my desire against, and my Wish against. I had thought, says Bp. Beveridge, all the righteous desire the Repentance of the Wicked, Defence of Sing. Psalm. p. 57. see the like Psa. liv. 7. & lix. 10. & cxii. 8. & cxviii. 7.

Ver. 12. spring forth] the same Verb as in Ver. 7. Sax. bloweth.

Ver. 14. fruitful still in old Age] Thus speaks Cicero excellently in his Book Concerning old Age, Cap. 3. Ap-tissima omnino sunt arma senectutis, artes, exercitationesque virtutem, &c. rendered by Tho. Newton in his ancient Version, pt. 1577, The fittest weapons for Oldage are Artes and exercises of Vertues : which being all the time of mannes age embraced, bring unto hym, when hee hath lyued a long while, meruailous fruites and commodities. Not only, because they never forsake or start from him, no, not in the verye last push of his Age (which surely is a moste excellent thing) but also because the Conscience of oure former lyfe, well and vertuously led, and the remembrance of our many good deedes, is most pleasaunt.

And by Sir John Denham,

*Age's chief Arts, and Arms, are to grow wise,
Virtue to know, and known to exercise ;
All just returns to Age then Vertue makes,
Nor her in her extremity forsakes :
The sweetest Cordial we receive at last,
Is conscience of our vertuous Actions past.*

Ver. 15. at all] as Psa. iii. 2.

Ver. 1. I should choose to ascribe this also to David, while he reigned. The devout G. Wither (let me call him) who elsewhere wrote so zealously against Vice, prays here, Then art our King, our Lord, and our God. Thou hast Wisdome enough to know what is best for us, Powre enough to effect it, Love enough to grant it, and Perpetuities enough to continue it : Oh ! give us but grace and faith enough to believe and apply it ; and (though the Waters rage never so horribly) we shall undoubtedly be safe for ever and ever, Amen.

The 1st Verse is with Tate and Brady thus,

*With Glory clad, with Strength array'd,
The Lord that o'er all Nature reigns,
The World's Foundation strongly laid,
And the vast Fabrick still sustains.*

Ib. he has put on] Old Met. in glory goodly dight, for well dressed.

Ib. girded himself] Sax. begyrde bine.

Ib. be moved] Ib. bith onstyrede.

Ver. 3. Dashing] according to the Heb. and thence the Sounds of the Sept.

Ver. 1. It appears to be made by David in his Afflictions under Saul, Ver. 20, 21. & alibi ; nor would he have permitted what is mentioned, Ver. 5, 6. while himself was King.

Ib. shine forth] as in lxxx. 1. Sept. God—has done freely ; so monstrously taking the Meaning of דָּוָרָא as it seems from דָּוָרָא Freedom.

5. They bruise thy People, O Lord, and afflict thy Possession.

6. They slay the Widow and Stranger, and murder the Fatherless.

7. Yet they insinuate, The Lord does not see, nor does the God of Jacob consider.

8. Consider, you senseless ones among the People: and O Fools, when will you understand?

9. Will not he who plants the Ear hear? Will not he who forms the Eye behold?

10. Will not he who chastens the Gentiles rebuke? He who teaches Man Knowledge?

11. The Lord knows the Imaginations of Man, that they are Vanity.

12. The Man is blessed whom thou dost chasten, O Lord, and teach him out of thy Law;

13. To give him rest from the Days of Adversity, till there is a Pit dug for the Wicked.

14. For the Lord will not leave his People, nor forsake his Possession.

15. For Judgment will return to Righteousness, and all those that are of an upright Heart will be following it.

16. Who will rise up for me, against the Evil-doers? Who will stand for me, against them that work Iniquity?

17. Unless the Lord had been my Help, my Soul would have almost dwelt in Silence.

18. If I think my Foot slips; thy Kindness, O Lord, supports me.

19. Among the Multitude of my Thoughts within me, thy Comforts delight my Soul.

20. Shall the Throne of Calamities be joined to thee, of one that forms Trouble contrary to the Ordinance?

21. They come in Troops against the Person of the Righteous, and condemn the Blood of the Innocent.

22. But the Lord will be a high Place to me, and my God the Rock of my Refuge.

23. And he will cause their Iniquity to return upon themselves, cutting them off in their Wickedness: the Lord our God will cut them off.

P S A L M XCV.

COME, let us sing to the Lord, sound forth to the Rock of our Salvation:

2. Let us go before him with Thanksgiving, sound forth to him with Psalms.

3. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods:

4. In whose Hand are the private Places of the Earth, and the strong ones of the Mountains are of him:

5. Of whom is the Sea, and he made it, his Hands also formed the dry Ground.

6. O come, let us worship, and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

7. For he is our God, and we are the People of his Pasture, and the Flock of his Hand: to Day if you will hearken to what he says;

8. Do not harden your Heart, as at Meribah, as at the Day of Massah in the Wilderness:

Ver. 13. till] which rather belongs to correct and teach, than give rest; and so the foregoing Member of this Verse might be put in a Parenthesis, but that it has a Connection with the next Verse.

Ver. 15. For Judgment will return] Psalm. backward and otherwise, nor less contrary to the Heb. if not to good Sense, Untill righteousness turn again, &c. from the Vulg.

Ver. 18. think] as most suitable to the rest, and particularly the following Ver. King, as one hard put to it for Words has,

When I, my slipping foot, complain'd;
for which might be,

When of my Slipping I complain'd.

Ver. 19. Thoughts] Sept. Pains or Sorrows, perhaps they knew not why themselves, as Psa. xiii. 23. they render it Paths; it being no where else.

Ver. 20. the Throne] that of Saul. In the Psalter, stool, mean and unsuitably.

Ib. Calamities] as the same is rendered, Psa. lvii. 1.

Ib. thee] Goodr. For I consider'd, Just God does not own; without the Article, swelling the Number of those that have been spoiling this Verse.

Ib. contrary to] or against, as Saul acted, 1 Sam. xviii. 11. & xix. 2, 5, 10, 11, 15. & xxii. 17, 18, 19. Jun. and Tram. render it præter, besides, but expound it, contra, against.

Ver. 21. come in Troops] The LXX hunt, seeming to take 2 for 3 or so to interpret.

Ver. 2. sound] and is manifestly made from the old Lat. or Gr. the Heb. having it not.

Ver. 4. private Places] Heb. those searched out, hence with the LXX Borders.

Ver. 5. made] Sax. dyde or worhte.

Ver. 6. kneel] sweep by the Sept. from בכה as ברכה had n redundant.

Ver. 7. Wither in the Prayer, So far, we ought to be, from arrogating the power either of our Being, or Well-being; that (we must confesse) to undoe our selves, is all which we are able of our selves to do.

Ib. People] Here is said, in the Critical Notes, to be a Transposition of this and sheep, and that it should be as in Psa. lxxix. 13. & c. 3. I answer, How did the Author know, but that People as well as Sheep belongs to Pasture there? However the Passages are not parallel; and why may not this be so as well as that in Psa. xxiii. 2. Job. x. 9. Should not People also be first? And does not Sheep suit best with Hand?

Ib. to Day] which Heb. iv. 7. shews to be David's Words. But Mudge changing the Heb. Letters as he owns, has my Voice; thus spoiling what Longinus in Homer, and Addison in Milton admire as a Beauty, Spic. N^o. 321. Before what God says in the next Verse may be understood It is, or, says he in it.

Ver. 8. Meribah—Massah] the same as Exod. xvii. 7. and thus Mont. the Fig. Vers. and Ainslie have it; as also the late anonymous Eng. Translator in Heb. iii. 8.

9. At which your Fathers tempted me, proved me, as also saw my Work.

10. Forty Years I loathed that Generation, and said, The People err with their Heart, and they do not know my Ways:

11. Of whom I swear in my Anger, They shall not enter into my Rest.

P S A L M XCVI.

SING to the Lord a new Song, sing to the Lord, O whole Earth.

2. Sing to the Lord, bless his Name, declare his Salvation from Day to Day.

3. Tell his Glory in the Nations, his Wonders among all the People.

4. For great is the Lord, and to be praised exceedingly: he is to be feared the most of all gods.

5. For all the gods of the People are Idols; whereas the Lord made the Heavens.

6. Majesty and Honour are before him, Strength and Comeliness are in his Sanctuary.

7. Ascribe to the Lord, O Families of the People, ascribe to the Lord Glory and Strength.

8. Ascribe to the Lord the Glory of his Name; take up an Offering, and come to his Courts.

9. Bow down to the Lord in the Place of holy Grandeur; tremble at his Presence, all the Earth.

10. Say in the Nations, The Lord reigns; the World also is established, it cannot be moved: he judges the People in Uprightness.

11. Let the Heaven be glad, and the Earth rejoice; the Sea roar, and what it is filled with.

12. Let the Field triumph, and all that is in it: then let all the Trees of the Wood sing,

13. Before the Lord: for he comes, for he comes to judge the Earth; he will judge the World in Righteousness, and the People in his Faithfulness.

P S A L M XCVII.

THE Lord reigns, let the Earth rejoice, let the many Isles be glad.

2. A Cloud and Dimness are round about him, Righteousness and Judgment are the Settlement of his Throne.

3. A Fire goes before him, and burns up his Adversaries round about.

4. His Lightnings enlighten the World: the Earth seeing, is afraid.

5. The Mountains are melted like Wax at the Presence of the Lord, at the Presence of the Master of the whole Earth.

6. The Heaven declares his Righteousness, and all the People see his Glory.

7. All that serve a carved Image shall be ashamed, who boast in Idols: worship him, all you Angels.

8. Zion hearing, is glad, and the Daughters of Judah rejoice; by reason of thy Judgments, O Lord.

9. For thou, O Lord, art the Highest above all the Earth, art exceedingly exalted above all the gods.

10. You who love the Lord, hate what is evil: he preserves the Souls of his pious ones, delivers them from the Power of the Wicked.

11. Light is sown for the Righteous, and Gladness for those who are of an upright Heart.

12. Be glad, you righteous ones, through the Lord, and give thanks at the Remembrance of his Holiness.

P S A L M XCVIII.

A PSALM.
Sing to the Lord a new Song, for he has done Wonders: his right Hand and holy Arm has wrought Salvation for him.

2. The Lord has made known his Salvation, he has revealed his Righteousness in the Sight of the Nations.

3. He has remembered his Kindness and Faithfulness to the Family of Israel: all the Limits of the Earth have seen the Salvation of our God.

Ver. 9. proved me] me not in vulg. Lat.

Ver. 10. loathed] as the Heb. is, but in the Gr. displeased.

Ver. 1. This Psalm see mostly in 1 Chron. xvi. 23—33. by David on the Occasion of the Ark being brought to Zion, Ver. 1, 7.

Ver. 5. Idols] Sept. Devils.

Ver. 10. reigns] In a Note here of the Papish Dowry Bible it is related, there has been read after it from the Wood, signifying the Cross of Christ, which it was supposed the Jews blotted out; and Morinus arguing vehemently against the Authenticity of the present Heb. Bible, and for that of the Latin one, produces this for an Instance, more than once, in his Exercit. Bibl. while the Lat. Bible it self has it not: nor is it likely such an odd Expression was genuine, and especially to be made for the Removal of the Ark, 1 Chron. xvi. 1, 7, 31.

Ver. 12. Trees of the Wood] Sax. treowa wuda.

Ver. 7. Angels] as quoted Heb. i. 6.

Ver. 8. Zion] which may determine this Psalm to the Time of David's Reign over Israel, supposing it written by him, as I do, with the LXX.

Ib. Daughters] Sax. dobtra.

Ver. 11. sown] Sept. risen, to their Sense of it from Light.

Ver. 3. Limits] Sax. yemiera; whence Mear-stones, to bound the Lands in common Fields.

4. Sound forth to the Lord, O whole Earth : make a Noise, nay sing, and that melodiously.

5. Sing melodiously to the Lord with the Harp, with the Harp, and the Voice of a Psalm.

6. With Trumpets, and the Sound of a Cornet, blow a Tune before the King, the Lord.

7. Let the Sea roar, and what it is filled with, the World, and those that dwell therein.

8. Let the Rivers clap Hands, the Mountains sing together,

9. Before the Lord : for he comes to judge the Earth ; he will judge the World in Righteousness, and the People in Uprightness.

PSALM XCIX.

THE Lord reigns, let the People tremble : he sits at the Cherubs, let the Earth totter.

2. The Lord is great in Zion, and he is exalted above all People.

3. Let them praise thy great and awful Name, it being holy.

4. And the King to his Strength loving Judgment, thou hast established Uprightness : Judgment and Righteousness hast thou performed in Jacob.

5. Exalt the Lord our God, and bow down at his Footstool ; he being holy.

6. Moses and Aaron among his Priests, and Samuel among them who called upon his Name, called to the Lord, and he answered them.

Ver. 9. comes] with the Ark to Zion, 1 Chr. xvi. 33. as Part of Ver. 7. is also taken out of 1 Chron. xvi. 32. from which or Psa. xcvi. this is partly made.

Ver. 1. tremble] in the Psalter after a lax Manner, be the People never so impatient, &c.

Ver. 2. great] Sax. micel for mickle, and in the next Verse miclum.

Ver. 4. King] David, as likely, to whom the Seventy intitle it; see also Ver. 2.

Ver. 5. at] for which the Heb. has but in the vulg. Lat. is adorate scabellum pedum ejus, worship his Footstool; and the Earth being this Footstool, Isa. lxvi. 1. the Body of Christ Earth, and the Sacramental Bread Christ's Body, according to no less a Father than Augustine, &c. or more directly the Cross on which Christ was crucified being taken for this Footstool; the Consequence would be such Idolatry as is practised in the Church of Rome; see Anama, Anti-herb Bibl. p. 532, &c. Our old Metre has,

His feet-stool worship him before; which though designed no doubt to mean worship him, would more properly mean worship his Footstool.

Ver. 8. yet] Goodridge,

Thier sin did punish, but th' offenders save;
much better if for th' Offenders there was the Sinners.

Ver. 1. This seems another of David's Compositions in his Prosperity, Ver. 4.

7. He spoke to those in the Pillar of a Cloud : they kept his Testimonies, and the Ordinance he gave them.

8. O Lord our God, thou didst answer them : thou wast a God forgiving them, yet taking vengeance upon their Deeds.

9. Exalt the Lord our God, and bow down at his holy Mountain : for the Lord our God is holy.

PSALM C.

A PSALM of Thanksgiving.
Sound forth to the Lord, O whole Earth.

2. Serve the Lord with Gladness, come before him with Singing.

3. Know that the Lord himself is God ; he made us, and not we our selves, his People, and the Flock of his Pasture.

4. Enter his Gates with Thanksgiving, his Courts with Praise : give thanks to him, bless his Name.

5. For the Lord is good, his Kindness is for ever, and his Faithfulness to all Ages.

PSALM CI.

A PSALM of David.
Kindness and Judgment I will sing ; to thee, O Lord, will I sing melodiously.

2. I will have understanding in the perfect Way ; when wilt thou come to me ? I will walk continually in the Integrity of my Heart, within my House.

3. I will not put an ungodly Thing before my Eyes, I hate the Work of such as turn away, it shall not cleave to me.

Ib. Earth] singular; which the Chald. Targ. explains by, all the Inhabitants of the Earth.

Ver. 5. the Lord is good] Mudge thinks, he says, the following Translation is the truer, bless his Name, for it is good. The Lord, for ever is his Favour; so condemning his own, and there is no it &c.

Ver. 1. Psalm of David] which may be accounted a Vow of his, before he received the Kingdom, Ver. 2. Tate and Brady begin this with,

*Of Mercy's never-failing Spring,
And steadfast Judgment I will sing;
And since they both to thee belong,
To thee, O Lord, address my Song.*

Ver. 2. have] In the Psalter the whole Verse is, O let me have understanding: in the way of godliness; all the Verses being there parted with a Colon, in Imitation of the Heb. Athnah, that often has not that Power, as in Gen. i. 1. nor has it here.

Ib. perfect] Diog. Laertius writes in the Life of Aristotle, that he proposed the Use of Virtue in a perfect Life to be the End of living.

Ver. 3. put before—my Eyes] With the old Psalt. take in hand, which was thought an Improvement it seems.

Ib. it] By the LXX, striding the Verses, A perverse Heart; and so they join the next, with an Impropriety that denotes it wrong, besides the Heb. Distinction, translating, a wicked declining from me I did not know.

4. A perverse Heart shall depart from me, I will not be acquainted with Evil.

5. I will cut him off who prates against his Neighbour in Secret: I will not bear with him that is of a lofty Look, and a Mind puffed up.

6. My Eyes shall be on the Faithful of the Country, to dwell with me: he that goes in a perfect Way shall minister to me.

7. He shall not dwell within my House who acts deceitfully: he who speaks Lyes shall not be established before my Eyes.

8. Betimes will I cut off all the Wicked of the Country; to cut all that work Iniquity from the City of the Lord.

P S A L M CII.

A PRAYER of the Afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and pours out his Meditation before the Lord.

O Lord, hear my Prayer, and let my Cry come to thee.

2. Hide not thy Face from me on the Day of my Distress, incline thy Ear to me: on the Day that I call, answer me speedily.

3. For my Days are consumed like Smoak, and my Bones parched like a Hearth.

4. My Heart is struck like an Herb, and withered: for I forget to eat my Victuals.

5. Through the Voice of my Groaning, my Bone cleaves to my Flesh.

6. I am like to a Pelican of the Wilderness: am as an Owl of the waste Places.

7. I am careful, and am as a Sparrow that is alone upon the Roof.

8. Every Day my Enemies reproach me;

those who are mad at me being sworn against me:

9. When I eat Ashes as Victuals, and mix my Drink with Weeping;

10. By reason of thy Indignation, and Fury: for thou hast lifted me up, and thrown me down.

11. My Days are like a Shadow stretched out, and I am withered like an Herb.

12. But thou, O Lord, abidest for ever, and thy Remembrance to all Ages.

13. Do thou arise, have compassion upon Zion: for the Time to pity it, for the appointed Time is come.

14. Since thy Servants take delight in its Stones, and pity the Dust of it.

15. So shall the Gentiles fear the Name of the Lord, and all the Kings of the Earth thy Glory:

16. Because the Lord has built up Zion, has appeared in his Glory;

17. Has had regard to the Prayer of the Bare, and not despised their Prayer.

18. This shall be written for the following Age; that the People who shall be created may praise the Lord:

19. Because he has beheld from the Height of his holy Place, the Lord has looked from Heaven to the Earth;

20. To hear the Groaning of the Prisoner, to let loose such as are to die:

21. That they may rehearse the Name of the Lord in Zion, and his Praise in Jerusalem;

22. When the People are gathered together, and the Kingdoms to serve the Lord.

23. He weakens my Strength in the Way, he shortens my Days.

Ver. 4. With Goodridge, not quite unmeaning perhaps to himself,

All crooked, vex't, convenient Truths, I hate.

Ib. Evil] contemporaneous with that in the preceding Verse.

Ver. 5. prates against] The Verb being made from the Noun for Tongue, and so having a general Meaning; only that it must be against: so of Lips Prov. x. 8, 10.

Ib. bear] Sept. eat, by אכל when it is אכל

Ib. a Mind puffed up] high Stomach, Pfalt. Mudge ridiculously, wide of Heart.

Ver. 7. Lyes shall not] In which Respect like King David, was Almanzor King of the Saracen Empire (that extended farther than the Roman) whose Sharpness against Lying, and avoiding it himself, with the Benefit of the same in his Administration of Justice, is related by Sir Walter Raleigh in his little choice Hist. of Mahomet, &c. p. 146, 147, 148, 151, 152, 179, 180.

Ver. 1. Prayer] made as is likely in the Babylonian Captivity, Ver. 14, 16, 20, 21. and towards the End of it, Ver. 13. perhaps by Ezra or Daniel.

Ver. 4. for] as the Particle properly signifies, scarce at all so that; and thus it makes suitable Sense.

Ver. 5. cleaves] for want of Moisture, Psa. xxxii. 4. to make the Flesh supple; so that scarce need not have been added in the Psalter, and certainly should not, to make a contrary Sense. And the other his Groaning, especially with what produced it, might cause; though Mudge pretends to join it better with forgetting to eat.

Ib. Flesh] so the Heb. and not skin, for then there must have been no Flesh, which would not have been true.

Ver. 8. are mad at me] LXX praise me, by another Meaning of the Verb.

Ver. 9. I eat &c.] The Sax. is, ahsan swa swa blas ic æt & drynge min mid wepe ic yemengde.

Ver. 11. Shadow] Sax. scadu, sc being to be sounded like sh, as I often find.

Ver. 12. Remembrance] In Ab. Ezra's Commentaries, Throne, from some confounding, as it seems, of this with Lam. v. 19.

Ib. the Time] Here Daniel in his Paraphrase on the seven Penitential Psalms, where he appears to me less happy in his Poetry, than in those published some Years before,

Yet we shall see our lovely Sion rise,

And lift its glittering Turrets to the Skies.

Ver. 23. weakens &c.] Sept. answered (in a different Sense of the Word) him (added in) in the way of his (as if for Strength).

24. I say; O my God, do not take me away in the middle of my Days: thy Years being throughout all Ages.

25. Formerly thou didst found the Earth, and the Heaven was the Work of thy Hands.

26. They will perish, but thou wilt remain; and will all of them decay like a Garment: as Cloaths wilt thou change them, and they will be changed.

27. Whereas thou art the same, and thy Years will not come to an end.

28. The Children of thy Servants will continue, and their Offspring be established before thee.

P S A L M CIII.

BY David.

Bless the Lord, O my Soul, and all my inward Parts, his holy Name.

2. Bless the Lord, O my Soul, and forget not any of his Benefits:

3. Who forgives all thy Iniquities, cures all thy Diseases,

4. Redeems thy Life from the Pit, compasses thee about with Kindness and Mercies,

5. Satisfies thy Mouth with that which is good: thou art renewed as an Eagle with thy Youth.

6. The Lord does just and right Things, for all the Oppressed.

7. He made known his Ways to Moses, his Acts to the Israelites.

8. The Lord is merciful and gracious, delaying of Anger, and of large Kindness.

9. He will not contend perpetually, nor retain Anger for ever.

10. He does not to us according to our Sins, nor recompenses us according to our Iniquities.

11. For as the Height of the Heaven is above the Earth, his Kindness is powerful to those who fear him.

12. As far distant as the East is from the West, has he removed our Transgressions from us.

13. As a Parent has compassion upon Children, the Lord has compassion upon such as fear him:

14. For he knows our Frame, remembers that we are Earth.

15. As for Man, his Days are like Grass: like a Flower of the Field, so he flourishes;

16. Over which when the Wind passes, it is not, and its Place knows it no more.

17. But the Kindness of the Lord is from Everlasting to Everlasting, upon them that fear him; and his Righteousness to Children's Children:

18. To those who observe his Covenant; and to those who remember his Precepts, to do them.

19. The Lord has established his Throne in Heaven, and his Kingdom has dominion over all.

20. Bless the Lord, his Angels, who are powerful in Might, that do his Word; by hearkening to the Voice of it:

21. Bless the Lord, all his Armies, his Ministers who do his Will:

22. Bless the Lord, all his Works in all Places of his Dominion: bless the Lord, O my Soul.

P S A L M CIV.

BLESS the Lord, O my Soul: O Lord my God, thou art very great, art clothed with Majesty and Honour:

2. Who cloathest thy self with Light as Apparel, stretchest out the Heaven as a Curtain:

Ver. 23, 24. shortens my Days. I say; O my God] For this the LXX have, the Fewness of my Days declare thou to me, as might be without the Points, which therefore must be necessary.

Ver. 1. By David] I believe in his latter Time.

Ver. 4. Kennett,

He from thy precious Life each Plague removes

Cheers with his Joys, and crowns thee with his Loves;

but with an Apostrophe before each of the Verbs, bright Compositions being too commonly attended with such Blemishes; divers of which (in Favour both to the Authors and Reader) I have amended in the Poetical Citations on this Book.

Ver. 5. Mouth] Sept. Desire, by yray for yray

Ib. Youth] Sak. Yeyuth, not geoyuth as the Grammarians direct the Letter g to be sounded.

Ver. 6. just and right Things] both plur. in Heb.

Ver. 20. 16] Boston Vers. to make the very Prose into Verse

Unto the voice of's word;

and the like Psa. civ. 3.

Ver. 22. Soul] Apollinaris concludes,

Ὁὕς τὸν βασιλῆα διαμνησὶς ἀετὰ μίλντ.

O Soul, sing thy King who is to be praised always.

Ver. 1. This is ascribed by Consent to David; probably then made in his prosperous Days. Bene remarks the Difference between this and the foregoing Psalm, that there the particular, and here the general Benefits of God are rehearsed.

One of our modern Poets begins paraphrasing it,

Thee, thee my rising Soul aspires to sing,

Almighty Father, everlasting King;

Walter Harte thus,

Awake my Soul! in hallow'd raptures praise

Th' Almighty God, who in th' empyreal height

Majestic shines, too glorious to behold.

And Daniel in his Paraphrase of it has,

For thee their golden Lyres they (the Angels) string

Of thee in sweetest Numbers sing;

Confess thee God, and hail thee King.

3. He that frames his Chambers in the Waters, puts the thick Clouds his Chariot, goes upon the Wings of the Wind :

4. Who makes his Angels Spirits, his Ministers a flaming Fire.

5. He founded the Earth upon its Base, that it might not be removed for ever and evermore.

6. Thou coveredst it with the Deep as a Garment, the Waters stood above the Mountains.

7. By thy Rebuke they fled, by the Sound of thy Thunder they hastened away.

8. They went up the Mountains, down the Vales, to the Place which thou hadst founded for them.

9. Thou hast set Bounds, that they may not pass over, may not return to cover the Earth :

10. Sending the Springs in the Vallies, which run between the Mountains.

11. They give Drink to every Beast of the Field, the wild Asses quench their Thirst.

12. The Fowls of the Air inhabit at them, that utter the Voice from between the Branches.

13. He waters the Mountains from his Chambers ; the Earth is satisfied by the Fruit of thy Doings :

14. He causes the Grass to sprout forth for the Cattle, and Herbs for the Service of Mankind, bringing Bread out of the Earth ;

15. With Wine that makes the Heart of Man glad, causing the Face to rejoice with Oil, as well as Bread that supports Man's Heart.

16. The Trees of the Lord are replenished, the Cedars of Lebanon which he has planted :

17. Where the Birds make Nests, the Fir-trees being the House of the Stork.

18. The high Mountains for the wild Goats, the Rocks are a Refuge for the Rabbits.

19. He made the Moon for appointed Times, the Sun knows his Setting.

20. Thou puttest Darkness, and it is Night ; in which every Beast of the Wood creeps out.

21. The young Lions roar for the Prey, and in seeking their Food from God.

22. The Sun rising, they withdraw, and lie down at their Habitations.

23. Man goes forth to his Work, and to his Business till the Evening.

24. How many thy Deeds are, O Lord ! all of which thou doest in Wisdom : the Earth is filled with thy Possessions.

25. As for that Sea which is great and of a large Space, creeping Things are there, even out of Number, small with great living Creatures.

26. The Ships go there ; that Whale hast thou formed to play in it.

27. All of them wait for thee, to give their Food in its Time.

28. Thou giving to them, they gather : thou opening thy Hand, they are satisfied with what is good.

29. Thou hiding thy Face, they are troubled : withdrawing their Breath, they expire, and return to their Earth.

Ver. 3. Jonston,

Eurisque jugalibus—

cast Winds yoked together ; of which the Pref. Can we find any Thing equal to it in Homer, Virgil, or Milton ? Perhaps in the latter the Angels sliding down on a Sun-beam, which Addison condemns as too fanciful ; and this spoils the Wings.

Ver. 4. Spirits] Mudge has it Winds, and says, He turns his Angels and Ministers into Winds and Fires : but see on Psa. xxxv. 5. Calvin contrarily, making the Winds his Messengers ; and the College of Dewey falsely from the Lat. maketh spirites thine angels.

Ver. 5. not be removed] out of its Orb.

Ib. and evermore] omitted in the com. Transf.

Ver. 8. They went up &c.] Sept. The Mountains ascend, and the Plains descend ; the Heb. not having by, like our Eng.

Ib. went up] at the Creation ; so that Mudge rightly observes, a noble Image is lost in our Translation ; and the Author of H. David and his Transf. clear'd has found a preternatural one in its room interpreting it, These Waters by secret tracks and means creep up to the tops of the highest Mountains.

Ver. 12. Voice] Wheatland and Silvester ; but with flow heavy Numbers unlike the Warbling of Birds,

And from their boughs thy Praise their voices tell.

Ib. Branches] The LXX have it Rocks, the Word in the Original being Chald. which therefore, and being no where besides, I will venture to suppose they did not understand.

Ib. bringing Bread out of the Earth] by watering it, Ver. 13. but our Language does not well bear to put it as an Infinitive with the rest between, or the Heb. Infm. may be used for a Participle, as in Buxt. Thef. Lib. ii. C. 16. sub. fin. for in the pres. Transf. He causeth the grass and herb to grow, that he may bring forth wine, oil, and bread, is wrong, since grass and herbs do not produce these. Yet there is no Need of altering the Heb. for He causeth into an Infinitive, as Mudge does.

Ver. 15. rejoice] There is Nothing of shine in the Meaning of the Word, but it might come first from the Targum (not that I think our Translators consulted it) mistaking, or taking lebatzihil for lebatzibir.

Ver. 17. make Nests] Sax. nistath.

Ib. Fir-trees] Here the LXX, the House of the Stork or rather Heron is their Leader ; these venerable Sages, but venerable for little more than their Antiquity, though they might do the best they could, nay with a good Intent and Service too, mistook beroshem for berosham, the Sound being nearer together than the Letters.

Ver. 19. knows] which Patrick well specifies by, The Sun knows when to set, and where.

Ver. 23. goes forth] Sax. utferth.

Ver. 24. Possessions] not riches but by Deduction, as the Creation of the Sept.

Ver. 25. large] Sax. rum, roomy.

30. Thou sending thy Spirit, they are created; and thou renewest the Surface of the Ground.

31. The Glory of the Lord is for ever, the Lord is glad through his own Deeds.

32. He looking at the Earth, it trembles; touching the Mountains, they smook.

33. I will sing to the Lord while I live, will sing melodiously to my God as long as I have a Being.

34. My Meditation of him shall be sweet, I will be glad through the Lord.

35. Sinners will be consumed from the Earth, and the Wicked be no more: bless the Lord, O my Soul. Praise the Lord.

PSALM CV.

GIVE thanks to the Lord, call on his Name, make known his Acts among the People;

2. Sing to him, sing melodiously to him, discourse of all his Wonders;

3. Glory in his holy Name, let the Heart of those who enquire for the Lord be glad;

4. Seek the Lord, and his Strength, enquire for his Presence continually;

5. Remember his Wonders which he has done, his Miracles, and the Judgments of his Mouth;

6. You Posterity of his Servant Abraham, you Children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

7. He is the Lord our God, his Judgments are on the whole Earth.

8. He remembers his Covenant for ever, the Thing that he commanded to a thousand Generations;

9. Which he confirmed with Abraham, and was his Oath to Isaac;

10. And established it to Jacob for an Ordinance, to Israel an everlasting Covenant,

11. As follows, I will give thee the Country of Canaan, the Line of your Possession:

12. When they were Persons to be numbered; as being few, and Sojourners in it;

13. And went about from Nation to Nation, from one Kingdom to another People.

14. He suffered no Man to oppress them, but reprov'd Kings for their sakes,

15. Do not touch my Anointed, nor hurt my Prophets.

16. And he called for a Famine upon the Earth, he broke the whole Staff of Bread.

17. He sent a Man before them, Joseph who was sold for a Servant.

18. They afflicted his Feet with Fetters, he himself entered the Iron;

19. Till the Time that his Word came: the Saying of the Lord tried him.

20. The King sent, and let him loose; the Governor of the People, and released him.

21. He made him Master of his House, and Governor over all his Possession;

22. To bind his Princes at his Will, and make his Elders wise.

23. Israel afterwards came to Egypt, and Jacob sojourned in the Country of Ham.

24. And he caused his People to be very fruitful, nay made them stronger than their Adversaries:

25. Whose Heart turned to hate his People, to contrive against his Servants.

26. He sent his Servant Moses, Aaron whom he had chosen.

27. They performed among them the Things of his Signs, and Miracles in the Country of Ham:

28. He sent Darkness, and made it dark; which Things did not rebel against his Word.

Ver. 30. renewest] At the Spring of the Year, when a new Generation of Birds and Beasts also are mostly created, as he not unaptly terms it.

Ver. 33. as long as I have a Being] so the Sax. swa lange swa ic beo.

Ver. 34. My] In the Liturgy, by an easy Mistake, and indulging a little Freedom,

And so shall my Words please him.

Ver. 1. The 15 first Verses of this Psalm see in 1 Chron. xvi. 8—22.

Ver. 4. his Strength] Septuag. be strengthened, which it would be if וְיָ were וְיָ with other Points only.

Ver. 8. He remembers] by taking away a Letter in Heb. from Remember you, 1 Chron. xvi. 15. which David himself might do on a Revival.

Ver. 12. as being few] literal, and few not before. Mudge removing the [and] not in Eng. only but Heb. from Sojourners, translates thus, and but for a short Time Sojourners; as if such Changes of the Original might be made at Pleasure, and more than 200 Years were but a short Time.

Ver. 18. himself] as וְיָ may signify.

lb. entered] Or the Iron came to his Person, better than in the Psalm. entered into his Soul; but the ancient as well as late Interpreters take it this Way, as surely the most expressive of his Suffering, particularly the Targumist; so Psa. cvii. 10.

Ver. 19. his Word] God's, Jun. and as follows; because the Litur. has his cause, i. e. Joseph's.

Ver. 22. bind] the Litur. inform, which Ainsw. to pay a Compliment to, pretends is the Meaning of bind, but adds better and governs as subjects; he might have said it was the Meaning of the Gr. Word, made from בָּרַךְ instead of בָּרַךְ.

lb. at his Will] Gr. as himself, from בָּ for בָּ.

Ver. 25. Heart turned] The Verb being the very same as in Lev. xiii. 3. 4, 13, 20. Judg. xx. 41. 2 King. v. 26. so the Psalm. which the Author of Holy David cleared calls therefore A pious Translation; but Grot. expounds he turned their Heart, multiplicando populum suum, by multiplying his People, whose Annot. see further, as likewise that of Jun. and Trem.

Ver. 28. Things] Jun. and Trem. translate, neque rebellantium signa, nor did the Signs rebel; and so Ab. Ezra expounds it. In the Psalm they were not obedient unto his word.

29. He turned their Waters into Blood, and killed their Fish.

30. Their Country produced Frogs abundantly, in the Chambers of their Kings.

31. Upon his speaking, there came the Mixture of noisome Creatures, Lice in all their Bounds.

32. He gave Hail for their Showers of Rain, Fire with Flames in their Country.

33. Besides he smote their Vines and Fig-trees, breaking the Trees of their Borders.

34. At his ordering, there came the Locust and Canker-worm, even out of Number :

35. Which eat up every Herb in their Country, as they did the Fruit of their Ground.

36. And he slew all the First-born in their Country, the Beginning of all their Power.

37. Then he brought those forth with Silver and Gold ; and none failed among his Tribes.

38. The Egyptians were glad when they went forth ; because their Dread fell upon them.

39. He spread a Cloud for a Covering, and Fire to make light the Night.

40. Being asked, he brought Quails ; and satisfied them with the Bread of Heaven.

41. He opened the Rock, and the Water gushed out ; it ran a River in the dry Places.

42. For he remembered his holy Word, Abraham his Servant.

43. And brought forth his People with Joy, his chosen ones with a Poem.

44. To whom he gave the Countries of the Gentiles ; and they inherited the Labour of the Nations :

45. That they might observe his Ordinances, and keep his Laws. Praise the Lord.

P S A L M CVI.

PRAISE the Lord, give thanks to the Lord, because he is good ; since his Kindness is for ever.

2. Who can express the powerful Things of the Lord ? Can publish all his Praise ?

3. Such are blessed as observe that which is right, he who does what is just at all Times.

4. Remember me, O Lord, with the Favour of thy People, visit me with thy Salvation ;

5. That I may see the good of thy Chosen, be glad in the Gladness of thy Nation, may glory with thy Possession.

6. We have sinned with our Forefathers, we have committed Iniquity, have done wickedly.

7. Those did not consider thy Wonders in Egypt, remembered not the Multitude of thy Favours ; but provoked at the Sea, by the Red Sea.

8. However he saved them for his Name's sake ; to make known his Power.

9. And he rebuked the Red Sea, so that it dried up ; and caused them to go through the Depths as the Wilderness.

10. Whereby he saved them from the Power of the Hater, and redeemed them from that of the Enemy.

11. And the Waters covered their Adversaries, not one of them was left.

12. So they believed his Words, singing his Praise.

13. Yet they soon forgot his Works, they did not wait for his Counsel ;

14. But had a longing Desire in the Wilderness, and tempted God in the Desert.

15. And he gave them their Petition, but sent Leanness into their Person.

16. Besides they envied Moses in the Camp, Aaron the Saint of the Lord.

17. The Earth opened, and swallowed up Dathan, and covered over the Assembly of Abiram.

18. A Fire too was kindled in their Assembly : the Flame burnt up the Wicked.

19. They made a Calf at Horeb, and bowed down to a molten Image :

20. Changing their Glory into the Form of an Ox that eats Grass.

Ver. 31. the Mixture of noisome Creatures, Lice] What English is the Pepish Transf. the canemyia came : and the cinifet !

Ver. 37. those] his People and Servants, Ver. 25.

Ver. 42. Abraham] Mudge puts before it [to ;] though the Heb. has the accusative Article, with no Necessity of being otherwise, and the same as before his holy Word.

Ver. 43. with Joy] As he brought them out of Canaan to Egypt from Famine to Plenty, so now back again from Slavery and Poverty, to Dominion and Wealth.

Ver. 5. be glad in the Gladness] Sax. bliffianne on bliffe.

Ver. 7. at the Sea] But the Sept. have for it going up, they supposing ~~it~~ ly should be joined ; which claims a Criticism.

Ver. 14. desire] for Flesh, Num. xi. 4.

Ver. 15. Leanness] But by the LXX on the contrary Fulness, referring razon perhaps to dason imaginary from wt by the Likeness of the first Letters, and a different Point on w.

Ib. Person] indisputably.

Ib. Image] The Dewey Translators took care to inform their People, " They adored the image that represented a calf, not God."

21. They forgot God their Saviour, who did great Things in Egypt,

22. Wonders in the Country of Ham, terrible Things at the Red-Sea.

23. Therefore he spoke of destroying them, but that Moses his chosen one stood in the Breach before him, to turn back his Wrath from slaying.

24. They also despised the desirable Country, did not believe his Word;

25. But murmured in their Tents, hearkened not to what the Lord said.

26. Upon which he lifted up his Hand towards them, to cast them down in the Wilderness;

27. As likewise to cast down their Offspring in the Nations, and to scatter them in the Countries.

28. Moreover they joined themselves to Baal-peor, and eat the Sacrifices of the Dead.

29. Thus they incensed with their Doings; inasmuch that the Plague broke in among them.

30. Whereas Phinehas stood up, and executed Judgment; so the Plague was stopped.

31. And it is reckoned to him for Righteousness, to all Ages for ever.

32. They enraged further at the Water of Meribah; and it was ill with Moses for their sakes.

33. For they provoked his Spirit, so that he spoke rashly with his Lips.

34. They did not destroy the People, of whom the Lord spoke to them.

35. But they mixed themselves among the Gentiles, and learned their Works.

36. Whose Images they served, which became a Snare to them.

37. Nay they sacrificed their Sons and Daughters to Devils:

38. Shedding innocent Blood, that of their Sons and Daughters, whom they sacrificed to the Images of Canaan; and the Country was polluted with Blood.

39. So they defiled themselves with their Works, and committed Whoredom with their own Doings.

40. Incensed at this with his People, the Lord abhorred his Possession.

41. Then he delivered them into the Power of the Gentiles; and those that hated them had dominion over them.

42. Their Enemies also oppressed them; and they were brought down under their Power.

43. Many times he rescued them, though they provoked by their Counsel, and were impoverished through their Iniquity.

44. And looking on their Distress, when he heard their Cry;

45. He remembered his Covenant to them, and was sorry according to the Multitude of his Favours;

46. Giving them Compassions before all who took them captive.

47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us together from the Gentiles; that we may give thanks to thy holy Name, may glory in thy Praise.

48. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from Everlasting to Everlasting; and let all the People say, So let it be. Praise the Lord.

P S A L M CVII.

GIVE thanks to the Lord, because he is good; since his Kindness is for ever:

2. Let the Redeemed of the Lord say, whom he has redeemed from the Power of the Adversary;

3. And gathered them from the Countries, from the East and West, from the North and the Sea.

Ver. 27. cast down—scatter] as in Dent. i. 41. Num. xxi. 1. see Ezek. xxi. 23.

Ver. 28. eat] The same as the pres. Tense, like cast and read, but more especially beat and beat.

Ver. 30. executed Judgment] In the Liturgy prayed; but that Meaning is in another Conjug. of the Verb, and neither accords so well with the History, nor with stood up; though Buxt. puts it to that in his Concordance, and some other Versions have it so.

Ver. 31.
His righteousness therefore shall be commended

Through Ages all, till Ages all are ended, Wither.

Ver. 47. See 1 Chron. xvi. 35, 36. where this Passage is, and so was not unquestionably composed in the Time of the Captivity of Babylon, or some other of a latter Date, as Boole writes; whom Nichols follows: but taking captive may refer to the Philistines, 1 Sam. ult. as Captivity, Psa. 14. ult. and elsewhere. Hence also this Psalm may appear to be made by David; as Jam. and Trem. say this Vers shews, and in the former Part of his Reign over Israel; see also Ham. Patr. and David clear'd.

Ver. 48. So let it be] Lewis in his Hist. of the Eng. Transf. p. 332. writes, 'We see many of the Words in the Original retained, as Hosanna, Hallelujah, Amen, Raka, Mammen, &c. for which no Reason can be given but that they are left untranslated in the vulgar Latin;' which is surely a very weak Reason, if any at all. Thus the Anglo-Saxon has been hit.

Ver. 1. his Kindness is for ever] Sandys too widely, though wittily, Whose Sea of Mercy hath no Shore; and being drawn from Ovid, the following in Witber's Prayer may be preferred, In every thing we have continually experience of thy Mercies; inasmuch that we may confess thou delightest in nothing but in shewing Mercy; unless our sins compel thy Justice to afflict us, that thy Mercies may not be despised: and there is great Mercy even in that also.

Ver. 3. Sea] the Red Sea from whence Israel was particularly gathered; this the Original is, and not seab, nor need be.

4. Who

4. Who wandered in the Wilderness, in a desert Way, finding no City of Habitation.

5. Hungry as well as thirsty, their Soul fainted in them.

6. When they cried to the Lord in their Distress, he delivered them from their Streights ;

7. And caused them to go in the right Way, to walk to a City of Habitation.

8. Let them give thanks to the Lord for his Kindness, and his Wonders to Mankind.

9. For he satisfies the longing Appetite, and fills the hungry Stomach with that which is good.

10. Those who sit in Darkness and the Shadow of Death, being Prisoners in Affliction and Iron ;

11. Because they rebel against the Sayings of God, and contemn the Counsel of the Highest :

12. Though he brings down their Heart with Labour, they fall, and none helps ;

13. When they cry to the Lord in their Distress, he saves them from their Streights ;

14. And brings them out of Darkness and the Shadow of Death, pulling off their Bonds.

15. Let them give thanks to the Lord for his Kindness, and his Wonders to Mankind.

16. For he breaks the brazen Doors, and cuts off the iron Bars.

17. Fools, by the Manner of their Transgression and Iniquities, afflict themselves.

18. Their Soul abhorring all Food, and they approaching to the Gates of Death ;

19. When they cry to the Lord in their Distress, he saves them from their Streights.

20. He sends his Word, and not only cures, but delivers them out of their Pits.

21. Let them give thanks to the Lord for his Kindness, and his Wonders to Mankind.

22. And let them offer Sacrifices of Thanksgiving, and tell his Deeds with a Poem.

23. Such as go down to the Sea in Ships, doing Business on the great Waters ;

24. Those see the Works of the Lord, and his Wonders in the Deep.

25. Who speaking, raises up the tempestuous Wind, which makes the Waves of it high.

26. They go up into the Air, down into the Depths : their Soul is dissolved with what is ill.

27. They reel and stagger like one drunk ; and all their Wisdom is swallowed up.

28. Yet when they cry to the Lord in their Distress, he brings them out of their Streights.

29. He restores the Tempest to Silence ; and their Waves are hushed.

30. Then are they glad, because they are still ; and he leads them to their desired Port.

31. Let them give thanks to the Lord for his Kindness, and his Wonders to Mankind.

32. And let them extol him in the Congregation of the People, as likewise praise him in the Habitation of the Elders.

33. He makes the Rivers a Wilderness, and Springs of Water a thirsty Place ;

Ver. 11. Sayings of God] Beza adds, which are engraven in the Minds of all Men ; Patrick calls them, the express Commands of God, and the plain Dictates and frequent Checks of their own Consciences ; which were the Voice of the most High.

Ver. 16, 17. by Wheatl. and Silv. as if reviving afresh in this Psalm, which may be likened to a Star in a blank Place, but that a Place of the Heavens, and the inviting Matter might tune their Souls anew, thus,

The iron bars burst at his pow'rful stroke,

His mighty arm the brazen portals broke.

The men, whom folly's outside charms allure,

Anguish for vice, and grief for sin endure :

but by Dod otherwise, for a Taste to my Reader,

For he hath broke the gates of Brass, and barres of iron cut

In sunder. For transgression theirs, the fooler are sore afflict.

Ver. 17. The LXX have it thus, He helped them out of the Way of their Iniquity, for they were humbled for their Iniquities ; deriving אָוִל (for how else could it be ?) from the Active of אָוִל and taking לְ for a Preposition, though then it should be אָוִלִּים but it served such Grammarians.

1b. by the Manner] or Way, not because.

Ver. 18. approaching to] The Liturgick Translator, with a familiar Idiom, which might arise from this Text, were even hard at death's door ; as commonly our trite Sayings have two Words beginning with the same Letter.

Ver. 25. raises] Being surprized to find in Cruden's late Concord, that this Eng. Word here signifies To make to stand, on examining the Original I found the Heb. Word had both the Meanings ; but that one of them should therefore signify or be the same with the other, is strange indeed.

1b. makes—high] The LXX have as Byth. says, are silent, Lyr. Proph. No 874. but not in the best Copies, nor in that the vulg. Lat. was made from, and occasioned by taking γ for γ

Ver. 26. down] Here Goodridge has two Lines together with a Syllable too much, as he had two in the last Psalm at Ver. 19, 43. and has Psa. cix. 22. &c.

Ver. 27. all] Our last Translators went back again to the Great Bib. for are at their wits end, it being in the Gen. Vers. all their cunning is gone ; but what was well in a free Translation, is not in a pretended strict or literal one.

Ver. 29. restores] Hare in his Metrical Edition of the Psalm, supposes this Verb and that in Ver. 25. which I render raises up, to be put wrong, and that they ought to change Places ; against all Sense, as observed in the Univer. Hist. B. II. Ch. ii. 1. yet that Author says, as it is here written, it must be owned to be Nonsense, and proposes several Ways for altering it ; notwithstanding which I have rendered the Expression literally, and will venture the Sense of it ; this Verb in Hiphil as here signifying thus, as in Bux. Lexic. restituit.

1b. their Waves] those with which they are tossed ; rather than the Sea's singular at Ver. 23. as L. de Dieu would have it.

Ver. 30. Port] by which a City or Town may be denoted, or supposed to be there ; see Hyde's Note 1. on Itinera Mundi, Cap. 6.

34. A fruitful Country Saltnefs, by reason of the Wickednefs of those who dwell in it.

35. He makes the Wilderness a Pond of Water, and a dry Country Springs of Water.

36. Where he causes the Hungry to dwell, and they prepare a City of Habitation :

37. As also sow the Fields, and plant Vineyards ; which yield the Fruit of a Crop.

38. And he blesses them, so that they multiply exceedingly, and causes their Cattle not to be few.

39. On the contrary they are made few, and bowed down, by shutting up, Affliction and Sorrow.

40. He pours out Contempt upon Nobles, and makes them wander in a void Place with no Way.

41. But he exalts the needy one from Affliction, and makes Families as a Flock.

42. The Upright see, and are glad ; and all Iniquity shuts up its Mouth.

43. Whoever is wise, and observes these Things, may also understand the Favours of the Lord.

P S A L M CVIII.

A POEM or Psalm of David.

My Heart is prepared, O God : I will sing, and that melodiously, even with my Instrument of Glory.

2. Awake Lute and Harp : I will awake early.

3. I will praise thee among the People, O Lord ; and will sing to thee melodiously in the Nations.

4. For thy Kindness is great above the Heavens, and thy Truth to the Skies.

5. Be exalted above the Heavens, O God ; and let thy Glory be above all the Earth.

6. That thy beloved ones may be delivered, save with thy right Hand, and answer me.

Ver. 34. Saltnefs] as the Heb. is the Sax. sealtum merse, a salt marsh.

Ver. 40. a void Place] as Job xii. 24. see Iso. xxxiv. 11.

Ver. 41. the needy one] Who does this suit better than David, who calls himself so, Psa. xxxvii. 10. & xl. ult. & lxx. ult. & lxxxvi. 1. & cix. 16, 22, 31 ? Besides that this and the three foregoing *Psalm*s seem of the same Style and Author ; and Families here may mean those David had by his several Wives.

Ib. Families] Sax. hyredas, *Herd*s.

Ver. 1. Psalm] made up of Psa. lvii. & lx. but Hopkins verifies the three, or N. this (for Editions differ in the Author) as if he knew Nothing of it.

Ib. My Heart, &c.] Which is repeated in the Litur. from the Gr. or rather from the old Lat. to which the Translator (whoever he was) seems chiefly to have had respect.

Ib. my Instrument] See Psa. xvi. 9. Litur. here, the best Member that I have.

7. God has said in his Holiness, that I shall triumph : I will divide Shechem, and measure out the Vale of Succoth.

8. Gilead is mine, so is Manasseh, Ephraim is also the Strength of my Head, Judah my Law-giver.

9. Moab is my Washing-pot, I will throw my Shoe against Edom, will shout against Philistia.

10. Who will bring me to the fortified City ? Who will lead me to Edom ?

11. Wilt not thou, O God, that didst cast us off ; and that didst not go forth, O God, in our Armies ?

12. Give us Help, by reason of the Adversary ; since human Safety is vain.

13. Through God we shall act with Ability ; and he will tread down our Adversaries.

P S A L M CIX.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

O God of my Praise, be not silent.

2. For the Mouth of the Wicked, and that of the Deceitful are opened against me : they speak to me with a lying Tongue ;

3. And compass me with Words of Hatred, fighting against me undeservedly.

4. For my Love they are against me ; and I am at Prayer.

5. And they render to me Evil for Good, as also Hatred for my Love.

6. Set the Wicked over him, and let the Adversary stand at his right Hand.

7. When he is judged, let him go forth guilty, and his Prayer become Sin.

8. Let his Days be few, let another take his Office ;

9. His Children being Orphans, and his Wife a Widow.

10. Nay let his Children altogether wander, and beg, seeking from their waste Places.

Ver. 2. Awake] Mudge joins this to the last Word in the other Ver. as he pretends in the 57th ; but it is another awake which is here omitted, and he differs from that in joining Psalm and Harp to the last Verb. What Amendment is such ?

Ver. 4. above] rather locally, than comparatively as our former Interpreter in the Com. Pray. took it, by translating greater than.

Ib. Truth to] that is. is great to, as others also render it, without any Addition.

Ver. 5. David having related the Case of his Enemies, through the rising Degrees of Lying, Hating and Persecuting, to the Height of Ingratitude, a Vice, says that great Master of Wisdom Sr. Francis Bacon, which in a Manner contains all other Vices, in Prometh. refrains no longer from pouring deserved Imprecations on them.

Ver. 6. him] viz. the Wicked or Deceitful, Ver. 2. being there singular, and seems to be meant of Doeg, 1 Sam. xxii. Psa. lii.

11. Let the Usurer insnare all that he has, and Strangers prey upon his Labour.

12. Let him have none that extends Kindness, nor shews Pity to his Orphans.

13. Let his Posterity be cut off: in the following Age let their Name be blotted out.

14. Let the Iniquity of his Fathers be remembered with the Lord, and the Sin of his Mother not be blotted out.

15. Let them be before the Lord continually, that he may cut off their Remembrance from the Earth:

16. Because he does not remember to shew Kindness; but persecutes the afflicted and needy Man, even to put him to death that is of a bruised Heart.

17. And since he loves Cursing, let it come to him; and since he delights not in Blessing, let it be far from him.

18. Since he even wears Cursing as his Apparel, let it come into his inward Part like Water, and like Oil into his Bones.

19. Let it be to him as the Garment which he puts on, and for the Girdle that girds it continually.

20. Be this the Reward of such as hate me from the Lord, and of those who speak Evil against my Soul.

21. But do thou, O Sovereign Lord, act with me for thy Name's sake: since thy Kindness is good, deliver me.

22. For I am afflicted and needy, and my Heart is wounded within me.

23. I go away like a Shadow when it is stretched out, I am shaken off like a Locust.

24. My Knees stagger by Fasting, and my Flesh fails of Fatness.

25. And I am reproached by them: seeing me, they shake their Head.

26. Help me, O Lord my God, save me according to thy Kindness.

27. And let them know that this is thy Hand, that thou, O Lord, doest it.

28. Though they curse, do thou bless: though they are risen up, let them be ashamed; but let thy Servant be glad.

29. Let them be cloathed with Confusion who are against me; and put on their Shame as a Cloak.

30. I will give thanks to the Lord exceedingly with my Mouth, and praise him amongst many.

31. For he stands at the right Hand of the Needy, to save from those who judge his Soul.

P S A L M CX.

PSALM of David.

The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right Hand, till I make thy Enemies thy Footstool.

2. The Lord will send thy strong Staff from Zion: rule thou amongst thy Enemies.

3. Thy People will be willing at the Time of thy Power, with holy Comeliness from the Womb of the Morning; thou having the Dew of thy Youth.

Ver. 11. insnare] which the Heb. is; but the Gr. search, by σκαρ as it appears, for σπ

Ver. 12. him have] in the Heb. Manner, and signifying thus by the Position of it.

Ver. 13. the following] Sept. one, by ו for ו

Ver. 19. the Garment] Sax. ræyl, from the Verb array, as we have it; see Ver. 29.

Ver. 23. shaken off] as from a Bough.

Ver. 24. fails of Fatness] Septuag. is changed by Oil, the Verb primitively signifying to lye; but how poor the Sense; which the Earl of Dartf. would make for want of oil.

Ver. 2. Zion] which shews what Part of David's Time he made it in.

Ver. 3. Thy People will be willing] Septuag. With thee will be the Principality, through the Mistake לְעַמְּךָ thy People for לְעִמְּךָ with thee, where there is but a single Point of Variation; and נִדְבָרָם seems referred by them to רַבְרָב Verbals having such Letters in the first and last, and they being deceived in the Likeness of the 2d. though Byth. thinks they only took the Word in that Sense, N. 1866.

Ib. with holy Comeliness] In a Transf. ascribed to Jerome, on the holy Mountains, taking ו for ו

Ib. from] had or derived from.

Ib. thou having] The Authors of the Universal History criticising on this Place, as a notable Performance against the Heb. Pointing, render From the Womb of the Morning is the Dew of thy Birth, Book I. Ch. vii. Sect. 4. toward the End; by which not only the Original Punctuation is broke through, but לְךָ for this left out untranslated. Their other Objection amounts to no more than that shall or will be is not in the Hebrew, whereas the Verb-substantive is frequently omitted in that Language. And Hervet lately writes, 'The most exact Translation of this difficult Passage is, I apprehend, as follows; Prætere auri aurora, tibi est res juventutis vel proles tua (which he gives in English) The Dew of thy Birth is larger, more copious, than the Dew which proceeds from the Womb of the Morning,' Medit. Vol. I. p. 131. But would he have it stand so in the Text? If it is the most exact, it ought. Should there be those double Translations, juventutis vel proles, and larger, more copious? Should there be Birth, which the Heb. Word has no Meaning of? Should tibi be made insignificant with tua, or be omitted in Eng. as before? There doubtless may be a more exact, nay ought to be a better and truer Translation. But that of the LXX is much worse, I begot thee before the Morning-star; construing לִידֶיךָ Youth, as לִידֶיךָ I begot, and the Words לְךָ thou having the Dew, as לְךָ (morning) Star. Pach says, 'This Place is judged the most difficult and obscure of any in this whole Book.' He seems to follow Anfworth, both handling it uncertainly and darkly. Being continued in the 2d Person sing. it is evidently spoken of Christ by Ver. 1, 4. the Morning appears to be that of the Gospel-day, the Womb the Production of Converts, who are I suppose termed Dew, because they were numerous like the Drops of it, and of large Extent, not without Allusion to the Dew of the Morning.

4. The Lord has sworn, and will not repent, Thou shalt be a Priest for ever after the Manner of Melchi-zedek.

5. The Lord will be on thy right Hand, smiting Kings at the Time of his Anger.

6. He will judge among the Gentiles, filling with Bodies, smiting the Head in the great Country.

7. He will drink of the Brook in the Way; therefore will he lift up the Head.

P S A L M CXI.

PRAISE the Lord. * I will give thanks to the Lord with the whole Heart, & in the Council of the Upright, and the Assembly.

2. & Great are the Lord's Doings, & sought out by all who delight in them.

3. & His Work is glorious and honourable, & his Righteousness remains for evermore.

4. & He causes his Wonders to be remembered: & the Lord is gracious and merciful.

5. & He gives Food to those who fear him, & he remembers his Covenant for ever.

6. & He declares to his People the Power of his Doings, & that he will give them the Possession of the Gentiles.

7. & The Doings of his Hands are true and right, & all his Commandments are faithful.

8. & They are upheld perpetually for ever, & done truly and uprightly.

9. & He sends Redemption to his People; & commands his Covenant for ever: & holy and awful is his Name.

10. & The Fear of the Lord is the Beginning of Wisdom, & all who practise them have good Understanding: & his Praise remains for evermore.

P S A L M CXII.

PRAISE the Lord. * The Man is blessed who fears the Lord, & who delights exceedingly in his Commandments.

2. & His Offspring will be powerful on the Earth, & the Generation of the Upright will be blest.

3. & There will be Substance and Riches in his House, & his Righteousness will remain for evermore.

4. & Light rises in Darkness to the Upright; & who is gracious, merciful and righteous.

5. & Well is it for the Man that is gracious, and lends; & who orders his Matters with Judgment.

6. & For he will never be moved; & the Righteous will be in everlasting Remembrance.

Ver. 4. Melchi-zedek] For this being Shem, besides what is said on Gen. xiv. 18. see Cumberland's Latin Tract, De Legibus Patriarcharum, Cap. 3. in Orig. Gent. Ant. pag. 424—434. and Hyde in Itinera Mundi, Cap. ii. Not. 2.

Ver. 6. filling] being the Effect or Consequence of the judging; but Hatton changes the filling to emptying thus, When thou shalt come to judge the world, and the Places filled with dead bodies shall give up their dead, Collects according to the matter of each Psalm; how wrong often!

Ib. with Bodies] Septuag. and vulg. Lat. Interp. have the Ruins, but as the Gr. Word signifies also dead Bodies, the present Reading πλάσματα I imagine may be wrong instead of πλάσας with dead Bodies, and the Lat. might follow the Error. The Heb. גוים signifies but Bodies in general, and here is to be understood wounded, as well as dead. Jerome taking it for the same as גוים turned it the Vallies.

Ib. great Country] the Gentile World.

Ver. 7. drink] will go on vigorously like one who is so refreshed in that hot Country; and Hervey seems justly to blame the Commentators, for expounding it so harshly and unnaturally, of undergoing Sufferings; but his Heb. Criticisms are a little unskilful. Grotius, Jun. and Trem. &c. however comment, that it denotes being like an active Warrior, who will not stay and indulge himself, to take any better Repast than the Water in a Brook; but לִי therefore relying so strongly on it, shews a very good Refreshment to be intended, otherwise it should have been but the common Conjunction & at most. Several other Commentators interpret the Brook to be the Blood of the Enemies, which shocks more than convinces; so that Hervey indeed did not consult them all. And Mudge has, He shall give Drink, but by different Punctuation.

Ib. Brook] Sax. Burnan.

Ver. 1. This Psalms is exactly alphabetical, as marked with the Heb. Letters; and was written I suppose by David, when God had advanced him. But Hatton gives it this Title, An Eucharistical Hymn for the benefit of the Holy Gospel, particularly of the Blessed Sacrament.

Ib. Council] as the Heb. is, and may mean private Assembly, and so be distinct from the other.

Ver. 10. them] the Fear of the Lord, and Wisdom; it being in the Heb. פחד ודעת so that the King's Translators by adding as marked in Ital. must also leave out.

Ib. Understanding] according to the Words of Christ, Joh. vii. 17.

Ib. remains] Heb. stands. Payne in his Poetry, here stretches endure to three Syllables, as again exii. 3. but not always, and endureth to four, Psa. cxviii. 3, 4.

Ver. 1. Of this Psalms the same may be said as of the last.

Ver. 3. Substance] which the Heb. Word most properly signifies, and here to shun Tautology; as there is in the New-England Metre;

Wealth in his house, much riches too, but from the last Prose.

Ver. 5. Well is it for the Man] or The Man is well, as Ver. 1. The Man is blessed; which both the Heb. Construction and Subject of the Psalm shew; as particularly set forth by Lewis de Dieu in his Animadversions.

Ib. orders] Aristippus being asked, as Diog. Laert. relates, wherein the Philosophers excelled others? said, if all the Laws were repealed, they would live the same.

Ver. 6. For] So the Heb. is, and thus agrees well with the preceding Verse, when rightly rendered as before, and is a farther Argument for that Way of rendering.

Ib. will never] Jun. and Trem. taking it as in the com. Transf. put this Sense to it, that he is moved, but not

7. & He

7. He is not afraid of bad News : his Heart is established, trusting in the Lord.

8. His Heart is upheld, he will not be afraid ; ⁊ till he can look on his Adversaries.

9. He who disperses, gives to the Needy, ⁊ his Righteousness will remain for evermore ; ⁊ his Horn will be lifted up with Glory.

10. The Wicked will see, and have indignation ; ⁊ he will gnash his Teeth, and be dissolved : ⁊ the Desire of the Wicked will perish.

P S A L M CXIII.

PRAISE the Lord. Praise, O Servants of the Lord, praise the Name of the Lord.

2. Let the Lord's Name be blessed, henceforth even for ever.

3. From the Rising of the Sun to his Setting, the Name of the Lord is to be praised.

4. The Lord is high above all Nations, his Glory is above the Heaven.

5. Who is like the Lord our God ? That exalts himself to dwell,

6. That humbles himself to look, in Heaven, and on the Earth :

7. That raises up the Poor from the Dust, lifts up the Needy from the Dunghil ;

8. To make them dwell with Nobles, with the Nobles of his People :

9. That causes her who is barren of a Family, to dwell a joyful Mother of Children. Praise the Lord.

P S A L M CXIV.

WHEN Israel came out of Egypt, the Family of Jacob from a People of strange Language ;

2. Judah being his Sanctuary, Israel his Dominion ;

3. The Sea seeing, fled, Jordan was turned back :

4. The Mountains skipt like Rams, the Hills like Lambs of the Flock.

5. What was the Matter with thee, O Sea, that thou fleddest ? Jordan, that thou wast turned back ?

6. With you Mountains, that ye skipt like Rams ; ye Hills, like Lambs of the Flock ?

7. Tremble, O Earth, at the Presence of the Lord, at the Presence of the God of Jacob ;

8. Who turned the Rock to a watery Pond, the Flint into a Fountain of Water.

P S A L M CXV.

NOT to us, O Lord, not to us, but to thy own Name give the Glory, for thy Kindness, for thy Truth.

2. Why do the Gentiles say, Where is now their God ?

for ever ; which seems contrary to the Scope of the Psalm, particularly Ver. 3, 8, 9. as well as Psa. xv. 5. & xvi. 8. & xxi. 7. & xxx. 6. & lv. 22. & lxvi. 9. & cxxi. 2. the Heb. Expression being the same in Psa. xv. 5. & xxx. 6. & lv. 22. where our Translators have never, and Jun. and Trem. non unquam in the last, without the Liberty of a different and opposite Meaning.

Ver. 1. In the Annotation of Jun. and Trem. it is said, that David seems to have indited this Psalm, when he had received the Kingdom, in Imitation of that which is in 1 Sam. ii.

Ver. 2. henceforth] Sax. henceforth or of thisum nu.

Ver. 3. Rising] Sax. uprinc, and in another Copy up-lyme.

Ver. 5. to dwell] that is to say in Heaven of the following Ver. Jun. and so Mudge ; the Sublimity of which may be pronounced convincing.

Ver. 7, 8, 9. Witber in the Contents. It magnifieth God—for raising us from the dunghills of corrupted Nature, to the thrones of Grace ; and for taking away our spiritual sterility.

Ver. 9. Praise the Lord] Mudge speaks for the Seventy in placing this at the Beginning of the next Psalm, for that, says he, otherwise His in the 2d Ver. will have Nothing to refer to. That indeed might be their Reason for doing it, or because it stands at the Beginning thrice before ; but either and both, though Mudge does not produce the latter, are insufficient, there being the like his, Psa. lxxxvii. 1. and twice in Psa. cxiv. 2. where it is also extolled for a peculiar Beauty, by the Spectator, N^o 461. and this with the two foregoing are such Psalms of Praise as the Expression is properly prefixed to, but the following is different. Nor has Mudge himself ventured to remove it, nay both he and the Seventy retain the Heb. Word, where the Reference of his would be lost to the Readers of that alone.

Ver. 1. This Psalm Jun. and Trem. also ascribe to David.

Ver. 2. [Judah] where the divine Pillar was, Num. xiv. 14. & ii. 2.

1b. being] as at Psa. lxxxvii. 1. and this may be connected with Ver. 7. by putting or supposing Ver. 5, 6. in a Parenthesis.

1b. Dominion] K. James adds paraphrastically, whereas he did command ;

whereas being then used for where by him and others, like while as and when as ; now for since, and lately for but.

Ver. 4. [skips] as more imaging the Action, than the unweildy skipped.

Ver. 5. [fleddest] Sax. fluye.

Ver. 7. Tremble] which as if too exalted for the Sept. they have lowered to, the Earth trembled, reading תַּרְסָה for תַּרְסָה according to Mudge, who it is to be feared was watching for Opportunities to cast a Slur on the Heb.

Ver. 1. David too seems to have written this, say Jun. and Trem. after he had obtained the Kingdom ; and as is likely on the Philistines coming against him, 2 Sam. v. 17, 19, 21. Patr. ascribes it to the Time of Jehoshaphat, 2 Chron. xx. but the Mention of Israel Ver. 9, 12. is more for the other.

1b. give the Glory] by delivering us.

3. Whereas our God is in Heaven, who does whatever he will.

4. Their Images are Silver and Gold, the Work of Man's Hands.

5. They have a Mouth, but do not speak; have Eyes, but do not see;

6. Have Ears, but do not hear; have a Nose, but do not smell;

7. Their Hands, but do not feel; their Feet, but do not go: they pronounce not with their Throat.

8. Those that make them are like them, with every one who trusts in them.

9. O Israel, trust in the Lord: he is their Help and Shield.

10. O Family of Aaron, trust in the Lord: he is their Help and Shield.

11. You that fear the Lord, trust in the Lord: he is their Help and Shield.

12. The Lord remembers us, blessing: he blesses the Family of Israel, blesses the Family of Aaron.

13. He blesses those who fear the Lord, the small with the great.

14. The Lord will add both to you yourselves, and your Children.

15. You are the Blessed of the Lord, the Maker of Heaven and Earth.

16. The Heaven it self is the Lord's; but he has given the Earth to Mankind.

17. The Dead do not praise the Lord, nor any who go down to Silence.

18. But we will bless the Lord, henceforth even for ever. Praise the Lord.

P S A L M CXVI.

I LOVE, because the Lord hears, even my Voice, my Supplications.

2. Because he has inclined his Ear to me, therefore will I call in my Days.

3. The Anguish of Death surrounded me, and the Streights of the Grave found me: I met with Distress, and Sorrow.

4. Then I called on the Name of the Lord, I beseech thee, O Lord, deliver my Soul.

5. The Lord is gracious, and righteous, and our God is merciful.

6. The Lord preserves the Simple: I was impoverished, and he saved me.

7. Return, my Soul, to thy Rest; for the Lord has been bountiful to thee.

8. For thou hast delivered my Soul from Death, my Eyes from Tears, my Feet from falling.

9. I will walk continually before the Lord in the Country of the Living.

10. I believed, therefore spoke, being exceedingly afflicted,

11. I said in my Haste, All Men are Liars.

12. What shall I render to the Lord for all his Benefits to me?

Ver. 5. have] Sax. habboth.

Ver. 7. feel] Sax. grapiath.

Ver. 9. trust] Mudge trusteth, saying he translates these three Verses thus as the Seventy; but they have, has hoped: and he says, with a Change of Vowel only; how well it is for the Scripture then, that it has this Bulwark for Defence!

Ver. 14. add to] so the Heb. exactly, by which may easily be understood Wealth, or Blessings from the foregoing; whereas increase would properly respect the Persons spoken of, which does not appear to be the Meaning: and what is increased must be more, more and more being devised by the Translators, which the nameless Author of the Version so much praised, keeps to thus ridiculously,

The Lord will you, you and your seed, no more and more increase.

Ver. 1. David, being advanced to the Kingdom, likewise made this Psalms, according to Jun. and Trem. which seems likelier than when in great danger of Saul in the desert of Maan, as peremptorily concluded in the old Contents.

Ib. I love] Mudge adds Him in the same Letter, and then says, It would begin more easily (namely his own) if we placed the Hallelujah which is in the End of the preceding Psalm, at the Beginning of this: so he might have said of heareth the Voice of my Supplications, as it follows in his Version, that it is easier for the Genitive, to leave out my with Voice. The Seventy indeed have their Alleluia at the Head of this and the two next Psalms, by Way of Title to them, taken from the End of the foregoing ones; as it is scarce credible the Heb. Copies should be so changed.

Ib. hears] fut. in Heb. which is used for the pres. Tense. According to the Heb. Pointing there must also be a Stop made here, and as De Diru reasons ought, that the three Benefits may be distinctly pronounced, first God's hearing, second my Voice, third my Supplications; and the Reader may observe a Beauty in it.

Ver. 3. Streights] as Lam. i. 3. Psa. cxviii. 5. not signifying pains: Mudge has Toils (technical enough) saying, I read מַצְרִים (but by the Way there is no such Heb. Word) to create (mind!) a Meaning of Nets or Toils, which will agree with the Snare; to wit that he himself puts for Anguish, which in the other Meaning of the Word is but Cords. This appears said by David in his Troubles under Saul, when his Friends deserted or neglected him, who had given him Promises or Expectations of their Friendship; but since that he had found it from them again. It is now said for Thanksgiving after Childbirth.

Ver. 3, 4. With in the Prayer, When the guilt of Sin, the fears of Death, the torments of Hell, and the suggestions of the Devil (conspiring with our frailties) have once enclosed us: We have then no power of resistance in our selves; and it is thy great Mercy, if the little spark of our faith be not wholly quenched. Help us therefore in our extremities.

Ver. 9. walk continually] being in the Conjug. Attip. where it so signifies. The Vulg. has please without beseech, to mend the Sense of the LXX, who have it with that, but is so more erroneous. They did not mistake the Verb it appears, but put this for the Meaning.

Ver. 11. Liars] Mudge, a Lie; for, says he, there is only a Substitution of two Vowels (which are all) much more easy: what pretty Play this! but the Expression is to me much harder.

Ver. 12. by Buchanan,
Tot liber toties malis,
Tot auctus toties bonis,
Quo tandem officio tibi
Coner solvere grates?

Being freed so often from so many evils, having increase so often in

13. I will take the Cup of Salvation, and call on the Name of the Lord.

14. I will perform my Vows to the Lord, now before all his People.

15. Precious in the Sight of the Lord is the Death of his pious ones.

16. I beseech thee, O Lord, since I am thy Servant, even thy own, the Son of thy Handmaid, that thou wilt undo my Bonds.

17. I will offer to thee the Sacrifice of Thanksgiving, and call on the Name of the Lord.

18. I will perform my Vows to the Lord, now before all his People;

19. In the Courts of the Lord's House, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise the Lord.

P S A L M. CXVII.

PRAISE the Lord, all you Gentiles, give him thanks, all Nations.

2. For his Kindness is powerful to us, and the Truth of the Lord is for ever. Praise the Lord.

P S A L M CXVIII.

GIVE thanks to the Lord, because he is good; since his Kindness is for ever.

2. Let Israel now say, that his Kindness is for ever.

3. Let the Family of Aaron now say, that his Kindness is for ever.

4. Let those who fear the Lord now say, that his Kindness is for ever.

5. I called upon the Lord by reason of Streightness: he himself answered me with a large Place.

6. The Lord is for me, I will not fear: what can Man do to me?

7. The Lord is for me with such as help me; and I can look on those who hate me.

8. It is better to trust in the Lord, than it is in Man.

9. It is better to trust in the Lord, than it is in Princes.

10. All the Nations compassed me about, but in the Name of the Lord I cut them off.

11. They compassed me, even compassed me about, but in the Name of the Lord I cut them off.

12. They compassing me like Bees, are quenched as a Fire of Thorns: for in the Name of the Lord I cut them off.

13. Thou didst thrust me hard; that I might fall; yet the Lord helped me.

14. The Lord is my Strength, and a Psalm, and is become Salvation to me.

15. The Voice of Singing and Salvation is in the Tents of the Righteous: the right Hand of the Lord does valiantly.

16. The right Hand of the Lord is exalted, the right Hand of the Lord does valiantly.

17. I shall not die; but shall live, and rehearse the Works of the Lord.

18. Though the Lord corrected me sorely, he did not deliver me to Death.

19. Open to me the Gates of Righteousness; I will enter in at them, giving thanks to the Lord;

20. This Gate of the Lord, at which the Righteous shall enter in.

21. I will give thanks to thee: for thou answerest me, and art become Salvation to me.

22. The Stone that the Builders rejected, is become the Head of the Corner.

23. This is of the Lord, and it is wonderful in our Sight.

24. This is the Day which the Lord has made; let us rejoice, and be glad on it.

so many good Things, with what Duty at last shall I endeavour to repay thee thy Dues? Which the English Reader may know the better for being rendered literally.

Ver. 1. This may be a Sort of an Appendix to the foregoing Psalm.

1b. Gentiles] This little Psalm may be esteemed the more excellent, as being Evangelical.

Ver. 2. is powerful] But Mudge has invented it seems a new Meaning to the Heb. reacheth high, as great was before.

Ver. 1. Fun. and Trem. suppose David wrote this, when having overcome other Nations, he returned from his last Expedition against the Ammonites, 2 Sam. xii.

Ver. 10. cut] Either future only to compassed (and not absurdly as in the com. Transf.) or in the pres. Tense; both which the Heb. may mean, and cut in Eng. precisely the same.

Ver. 12. Bees] Sax. been.

1b. cut] for continue to cut; but will unsuitable.

Ver. 22. The Stone &c.] The Chald. Paraphrast applies it thus to David instead of Christ, by which may be observed what Liberties the ancient Translators took, שֵׁנִי אֲרִיכְלִיא הָיָה בִּנְיָ דִישִׁי וְהָאָהָ לְאֶחָדָא לְמִלְיָא וְשׁוֹלֵטִין The Boy the Builders left, was among the Sons of Jesse, and deserved to be reckoned for a King and Sultan.

1b. Builders] Woodford making this Psalm into a Dialogue, put the Priests to say this; whereas they were those Builders, Luk. xx. 17, 19. Act. iv. 11.

Ver. 24. the Day] Of which Wither prays, O Lord Christ our Saviour! give us part in all that which thy Incarnation, Passion, Death, Buriall, Resurrection, and Ascension, hath merited and conquered for us; and (if it

25. I beseech thee, O Lord, save now :
I beseech thee, O Lord, now prosper.

26. He is blessed who comes in the Name of the Lord : we bless you from the Lord's House.

27. The Lord is God, and he enlightens us : bind the Sacrifice with Cords to the Horns of the Altar.

28. Thou art my God, and I will give thanks to thee ; my God, I will extol thee.

29. Give thanks to the Lord, because he is good ; since his Kindness is for ever.

P. S A L M CXIX.

THOSE are blessed that are perfect in the Way, going in the Law of the Lord.

2. * Those are blessed that keep his Testimonies, seek him with the whole Heart ;

3. * Who also work no Iniquity, but go in his Ways.

4. * Thou hast commanded to observe thy Precepts exceedingly.

5. * Oh that my Ways were prepared to observe thy Ordinances !

6. * Then should I not be ashamed, when I had respect to all thy Commandments.

7. * I will give thanks to thee with Uprightness of Heart, while I learn thy righteous Judgments.

8. * I will observe thy Ordinances : do not leave me very much.

9. * With what shall a young Man purify his Path ? By taking heed according to thy Word.

10. * I seek thee with my whole Heart :
let me not err from thy Commandments.

11. * I lay up thy Sayings in my Heart, that I may not sin against thee.

12. * Blessed art thou, O Lord, teach me thy Ordinances.

13. * With my Lips I declare all the Judgments of thy Mouth.

14. * I am as joyful in the Way of thy Testimonies, as for all Substance.

15. * I will meditate on thy Precepts, and behold thy Paths.

16. * I will delight my self in thy Ordinances, will not forget thy Word.

17. * Be bountiful to thy Servant, that I may live, and observe thy Word.

18. * Open my Eyes, that I may behold
the Wonders from thy Law.

19. * I am a Stranger on the Earth : do not hide thy Commandments from me.

20. * My Soul is broke for Desire to thy Judgments at all Times.

21. * Thou rebukest the Proud that are cursed, who err from thy Commandments.

22. * Roll from me Reproach, and Contempt : for I keep thy Testimonies.

23. * Even Princes sit speaking against me ;
but thy Servant meditates on thy Ordinances.

24. * Thy Testimonies also are my Delight, my Counsellors.

please thee) let this be the Day, which thou hast made to fill us with such a gladness, as shall make us joyfull for ever more.

Ver. 25. save] The Heb. Word being beshingab, from thence was Hosanna, Mat. xxi. 9. as Grotius notes. By which may also be perceived the hard strong guttural Sound of the Letter y for which some put b, and our Translators commonly in the proper Names (where the Occasion offers) Nothing ; but Ainsu, would have Hosanna made from this and the following Word together, which he writes Hosbiab-na, putting a soft a for y which the double nn only may refute, nor are those Heb. Words connected with a Hyphen, though it is frequent in that Language.

Ver. 26. bless] In the Psalter, have wished you good luck ; vulgar and unfit.

Ver. 27. bind the Sacrifice with Cords] Sept. make a Feast in the thick i. e. Boughs, according to Lev. xxiii.
39, 40. but not what is ordered here, they taking the wrong Sense of the latter Words, as the Verb demonstrates ; which being isru they might expound by הושיע esch, the former Part from the Nearness of Sound, and in the last taking ר for ה Yet Histon in his Essay towards restoring the true Text of the Old Test. would have the Heb.
Psalm in particular corrected by the Gr.

Ver. 1. This Psalm, which is mostly agreed to be David's, Jun. and Trem. in the Contents, speak of his comforting himself with in his Exile ; for which also see Ver.
9, 19. each Heb. Letter beginning 8 Verses.

Beza begins it in French Verse,

*Bien heureuse est la personne qui vit
Avec entiere & saine conscience :*

Right blessed is the Man who lives with a perfect and sound Conscience.

Ver. 3. no] The Gr. Translators transfer the Negative to the latter Part, in this Manner, not that thou work Iniquity go in his Ways, which is forcing the Heb.
Construction.

Ver. 6. For beautiful Lines in the New Version, viz. of Tate and Brady (as being common) see Ver. 6. 11. (made better by Watts) 42, 50, 70, 74, 90, 91, 97, 99, 109, 112, 120, 127, 139, 140, 146, 151, 162, 165, 168.

Ver. 8. Ordinances] In the Com. Prayer Psalm it is ceremonies, which Patrick expounds to be, Those Statutes of thine, for which I see no other reason but thy Will ; therefore they were to be God's positive known Will.

Ver. 9. a young Man] Sax. seyenga, se being for the Article ; and for the former s I put y, for the latter g, as the Sound requires.

1b. taking heed] Psalm. ruling himself : for which its great Defender produces no Proof, nor Authority but that of Cast. exsequendis verbis tuis, performing thy Words.

Ver. 18. Open] By the Dow. College Revue, better by the Earl of Dartf. Unveille, though clumsily spelled, which his Version too much is, and printed as English at a foreign Press, yet fair.

Ver. 20. is broke] has longed by the Sept. &c. is at mere Random as far as I see, unless put as the Meaning of broke.

Ver. 21. are cursed] If we regard some old Translations more than the Heb. this is to belong to what follows.

Ver. 23. Princes] Sax. ealdorman.

25. ¶ My Person cleaves to the Mould : keep me alive according to thy Word.

26. ¶ I declared my Ways, and thou didst answer me : teach me thy Ordinances.

27. ¶ Make me understand the Way of thy Precepts, that I may meditate on thy Wonders.

28. ¶ My Soul drops away for Sorrow : raise me up according to thy Word.

29. ¶ Put away from me the Way of Falsehood, and be gracious to me with thy Law.

30. ¶ I have chosen the Way of Faithfulness, putting thy Judgments.

31. ¶ I have cleaved to thy Testimonies ; O Lord, let me not be ashamed.

32. ¶ I will run the Way of thy Commandments, when thou enlargest my Heart.

33. ¶ Teach me, O Lord, the Way of thy Ordinances, and I will keep it to the End.

34. ¶ Make me understand, and I will keep thy Law, nay observe it with the whole Heart.

35. ¶ Cause me to go in the Path of thy Commandments, for I delight in it.

36. ¶ Incline my Heart to thy Testimonies, and not to Gain.

37. ¶ Avert my Eyes from seeing Vanity, keep me alive in thy Ways.

38. ¶ Confirm thy Sayings to thy Servant, who is in thy Fear.

39. ¶ Turn away my Reproach, of which I have been afraid : for thy Judgments are good.

40. ¶ Behold I have desired thy Precepts : keep me alive in thy Righteousness.

41. ¶ And let thy Favours come to me, O Lord, thy Salvation according to thy Sayings ;

42. ¶ That I may answer the Matter to him who reproaches me : for I trust in thy Word.

43. ¶ And take not away the Word of Truth very much from my Mouth ; since I wait for thy Judgments.

44. ¶ So will I observe thy Law perpetually, for ever and evermore.

45. ¶ Then shall I walk continually in Wideness ; because I seek for thy Precepts.

46. ¶ And I will speak of thy Testimonies before Kings, and not be ashamed.

47. ¶ Nay I will delight my self in thy Commandments, which I love.

48. ¶ And will lift up my Hands to thy Commandments which I love, as also meditate on thy Ordinances.

49. ¶ Remember the Word to thy Servant, for which thou hast made me wait.

50. ¶ This is my Comfort in my Affliction ; that thy Sayings keep me alive.

51. ¶ The Proud deriding me very much ; I turned not aside from thy Law.

52. ¶ I remembred thy Judgments long ago, O Lord, and comforted my self.

53. ¶ A Tempest took hold of me from the Wicked, who forsake thy Law.

54. ¶ Thy Ordinances have been my Psalms, in the House of my Sojourning.

55. ¶ I have remembred thy Name in the Night, O Lord, and observed thy Law.

56. ¶ This have I had, because I kept thy Precepts.

57. ¶ O Lord my Portion, I said, that I would observe thy Words.

58. ¶ I made supplication before thee with the whole Heart : be gracious to me according to thy Sayings.

59. ¶ I thought of my Ways, and turned back my Feet to thy Testimonies.

60. ¶ I made haste, and did not delay, to observe thy Commandments.

Ver. 26. and thou didst answer] Mudge, when Thou afflictest ; but his reading the Heb. otherwise is absurd, since the Difference does not consist in that, but in the various Meaning of the Verb : nay it is exactly here as Psa. cxxxviii. 3. (where he renders Thou answeredst me) and elsewhere the like, in the same Mood and Tense of the same Verb : for our Author should have known that y being guttural makes a peculiar Pointing, before he had turned Critick against it, since his Criticism is wrong as well as absurd.

Ib. teach] Sax. tec, Ver. 66. lar, and variously so elsewhere.

Ver. 27. meditate] the same as Ver. 48, 78.

Ver. 28. drops away] Sept. has slumbered. Byth. supposes by the Gr. being corrupted from krats to kratsiv, but is kratsiv.

Ver. 29. Falsehood] Mudge, the Way of Lie ; but could he think that proper, or better than lying as before.

Ib. be gracious to me] which the Heb. Word means, and not as in the Psal.

Ver. 32. run] Sax. arn or yrn, by Transposition of the Letters.

Ib. Gain] the Desire or Love of which, according to Diogenes the Philosopher, is the Metropolis of all Evils, in his Life by Diog. Laert.

Ver. 45. Wideness] so the Heb. not liberty.

Ver. 48. will lift up my Hands to thy Commandments] I know not what it signifies better than his Readiness to perform them ; any other Sense I have met with I like less.

Ver. 53. from] which the Heb. Preposition more signifies than because of, and the Heb. Stop is at Wicked, not at me, fun, and Trem. with Mont. likewise rendering it ab ; all which with the apparent Advantage of the Sense, I suppose will be my sufficient Justification.

Ver. 57. Portion] Sax. dal.

Ver. 60. made haste] The Sept. am prepared, as for the Sense of the other.

Ib. delay] Where is a Stop, shewing he also made haste to observe.

61. ⁿ The Companies of the Wicked preying on me, I forgot not thy Law.

62. ⁿ I will rise up at Midnight, to give thanks to thee, for thy righteous Judgments.

63. ⁿ I am a Companion to all who fear thee, and to those that observe thy Precepts.

64. ⁿ The Earth, O Lord, is full of thy Kindness : teach me thy Ordinances.

65. ^o Thou hast dealt well with thy Servant, O Lord, according to thy Word.

66. ^o Teach me the best of Sense and Knowledge : for I believe in thy Commandments.

67. ^o Before I was afflicted I erred ; but now I observe thy Sayings.

68. ^o Thou art good, and doest good : teach me thy Ordinances.

69. ^o The Proud forge Falsehood against me : I keep thy Precepts with the whole Heart.

70. ^o Their Heart is as fat as Grease : I delight in thy Law.

71. ^o It is good for me, that I have been afflicted ; in order that I might learn thy Ordinances.

72. ^o The Law of thy Mouth is better to me, than thousands of Gold and Silver.

73. ^o Thy Hands made me, and established me : cause me to understand, that I may learn thy Commandments.

74. ^o When those who fear thee see me, they are glad, because I wait for thy Word.

75. ^o I am sensible, O Lord, that thy Judgments are with Righteousness, and that thou hast afflicted me with Faithfulness.

76. ^o Let there be thy Kindness, I beseech thee, to comfort me, according to thy Sayings to thy Servant.

77. ^o Let thy Mercies come to me, that I may live : for thy Law is my Delight.

78. ^o Let the Proud be ashamed, for they in Falsehood deal with me perversely ; I meditating on thy Precepts.

79. ^o Let those return to me who fear thee, and who know thy Testimonies.

80. ^o Let my Heart be perfect in thy Ordinances, in order that I may not be ashamed.

81. ^o My Soul fails for thy Salvation, I wait for thy Word.

82. ^o My Eyes fail for thy Sayings, so that I say, When wilt thou comfort me ?

83. ^o Though I am like a Bladder in the Smoak, I do not forget thy Ordinances.

84. ^o How many are the Days of thy Servant ? When wilt thou execute Judgment on my Persecutors ?

85. ^o The Proud dig Pits for me, which is not according to thy Law.

86. ^o All thy Commandments are with Faithfulness : they persecuting me wrongfully, do thou help me.

87. ^o They have almost made me fail on the Earth ; yet I have not forsaken thy Precepts.

88. ^o Keep me alive according to thy Kindness ; and I will observe the Testimonies of thy Mouth.

89. ^o O Lord, thy Word is placed for ever in Heaven.

90. ^o Thy Faithfulness is to all Ages : thou hast established the Earth, so that it stands fast.

91. ^o The Things stand fast this Day according to thy Judgments : for all are thy Servants.

92. ^o Unless thy Law had been my Delight, I had then perished in my Affliction.

93. ^o I will never forget thy Precepts ; for by them hast thou kept me alive.

94. ^o I am thine, save me : for I seek thy Precepts.

95. ^o The Wicked waiting for me, to destroy me ; I am prudent with thy Testimonies.

Ver. 61. Companies] Gr. the Cords of Sinners have been folded about me; in a diverse Meaning of the Heb. Subject, and another of the Verb founded on that, which is to be met with sometimes among the Translators (unless it can be imagined they deduced קור from עטר) and especially here, as this Verb is not elsewhere, however in such a singular Sense ; but its Noun Prey discovers what it is.

Ver. 67. Before] in the Sax. arthanthe. The Earl of Dartf. has very erroneously Because for it.

Ver. 70. as fat as Grease] Gr. curdled like Milk ; by supposing the Noun בלל without the Points was בלל and then framing a Sense to the Verb from it, as at Ver. 61. upon Occasion of this Word being here only : though it is not quite incredible, that the said Signification of שם was fetched from שם

Ib. fat] denoting I suppose their Stupidity.

Ver. 77. live] Sax. libbe and in Ver. 116. liffe ; the Consonant [v] being a late Invention, as related in the Philos. Transact. Vol. 5. abridged.

Ver. 79. return] to be for him as they had been. The Author of H. Dav. clear'd has for the Sept. and Vulg. convert me, but wrong.

Ver. 80. not be ashamed] quod eveniret, si a statutis tuis recederem, at what may come to pass, if I should depart from thy Statutes, say Jun. and Trem. but perhaps have not so bad or absurd an Annotation elsewhere : for his Mind being perfect, animus meus integer, as they translate, was that he might not be ashamed ; and consequently if imperfect, he might be ashamed, Ver. 31. which they produce for the like, is directly against them, and Psa. xliv. 21. Nothing at all to the Matter. How much better do Kimhi and Ab. Ezra expound it, that he might not be ashamed, as the Proud aforesaid, Ver. 78.

Ver. 85. dig Pits for me] Sept. have told me Tales : it looks as if they took כרו for כרו from כרו or כרו as it is manifest they did שיהיה for שיהיה mind with but a Speck differently placed ! though שיהיה has no plural, and being masc. should be שיהיה

Ver. 91. The Things stand fast this Day] But by the Sept. the Day remains, as though I was wanting.

96. I have seen the End of all Perfection: thy Commandment is very large.

97. How do I love thy Law! it is my Meditation every Day.

98. Thou makest me wiser than my Enemies, with thy Commandments: for I have them perpetually.

99. I understand more than all my Teachers: for thy Testimonies are my Meditation.

100. I am more prudent than the Elders: for I keep thy Precepts.

101. I restrain my Feet from every evil Way, that I may observe thy Word.

102. I do not depart from thy Judgments: for thou instructest me.

103. How sweet thy Sayings are to my Palate, more than Honey to my Mouth!

104. I am prudent by thy Precepts: therefore I hate every false Way.

105. Thy Word is a Lamp to my Foot, and a Light to my Path.

106. I have sworn, and will confirm it, to observe thy righteous Judgments.

107. I am afflicted very much: O Lord, keep me alive according to thy Word.

108. Deign to accept the Free-offerings of my Mouth, O Lord, and teach me thy Judgments.

109. My Life is in Danger continually, yet I do not forget thy Law.

110. The Wicked put a Gin for me; but I go not astray from thy Precepts.

111. I possess thy Testimonies for ever: for they are the Joy of my Heart.

112. I incline my Heart to do thy Ordinances for ever, to the End.

113. I hate Imaginations, but love thy Law.

114. Thou art my Hiding-place, and Shield: I wait for thy Word.

115. Depart from me, you Evil-doers; since I will keep the Commandments of my God.

116. Uphold me according to thy Sayings, that I may live; and let me not be ashamed of my Expectation.

117. Support me, that I may be saved; and I will delight in thy Ordinances continually.

118. Thou treadest down all who err from thy Ordinances: for their Deceit is Falsehood.

119. Thou makest all the Wicked of the Earth become Dross; therefore I love thy Testimonies.

120. My Flesh shivers for Dread of thee, and I am afraid of thy Judgments.

121. I do that which is right and just; mayest thou not leave me to my Oppressors.

122. Be engaged for thy Servant for Good: let not the Proud oppress me.

123. My Eyes fail for thy Salvation, and for thy righteous Sayings.

124. Deal with thy Servant according to thy Kindness, and teach me thy Ordinances.

125. I am thy Servant, cause me to understand, that I may know thy Testimonies.

126. It is Time for the Lord to act, they breaking thy Law:

Ver. 96. Perfection] so counted and termed by the World.

Ver. 98. them] the Commandments; not Enemies, as it may seem in the com. Transl. by changing the Order of the Original.

Ver. 100. keep] By the LXX fought out, with Respect to the foregoing Member more than the Heb. Word; as supposing Practice was not so proper to make wise, contrary to Job xxviii. ult. as well as the Original here; Practice also producing experimental, which is the best Knowledge.

Ver. 107. according to] Sax. after.

Ver. 109. Life] as Judg. xii. 3. 1 Sam. xix. 5. & xxviii. 21. Job, xlii. 14. signifying the great Danger he was in of losing it. Duport in his Gr. Verse turns it, Νολημις ψυχή μου ἐπὶ ἐκφύ τριαντα ἀμύτης.

My Soul stands continually on the Edge of a Razor.

Ib. Danger] Sept. thy Hands, as thinking it better Sense doubtless than this.

Ver. 112. End] by K. Jam. too quibbling, And to the end, without an end.

Ver. 113. Imaginations] So I since find Mudge has it, and shews it should be. Sept. the unrighteous, only perhaps as suiting hate.

Ver. 119. makest—become Dross] Heb. makest cease Dross, which I suppose will not bear to be translated nearer, and reducest—to Dross would be the same. Mudge, whom I cannot but consider as one of the Party that are for mending the Scripture, says, I chuse to point it אֲנִי עוֹשֶׂה דֹשָׁן (but there is a Letter wrong, and again in the Errata) Thou causest to sink (adding like) as it is a Notion that suits with Dross. But my Notion is, that the Metal being heavier than its Dross, is what sinks in melting (and otherwise neither of them can sink) and the Dross swims on the Top, nor does אֲנִי signify sink. He adds, making it still more uncertain, except with the Seventy we would rather alter the first Letter into a נ which if the Seventy did alter, surely they did amiss; and will he justify their wide translating, I have reputed all the Sinners of the Earth Transgressors? deriving the last from אֲנִי and adding נ to the Verb.

Ver. 120. My Flesh shivers] Sept. Nail my Flesh, conceiving this Signification from the Noun, which has contrarily the Signification of Nails from the Verb as Buxt. notes, as also fancying אֲנִי to be אֲנִי.

Ver. 121. mayest thou not] Neither the Verb nor Adverb being imperative, and the former potential or optative, as well as indicative, give this agreeable Connexion with the foregoing its due Weight: while Mudge asserts, it must be translated Thou wilt not, except you read לֹא i. e. instead of אֲנִי to make it imperative.

Ver. 122. It is remarked that every Verse besides throughout this long Psalms, has some Word signifying the Law of God; unless the 90 be also excepted.

Ib. Be engaged for] Liur. Make thou—to delight, in another Meaning (if the Verb has that) but which would require another Mood.

Ver. 126. for the Lord to act] It has been a Matter of no small Doubt, whether the Meaning is not to act for the Lord, especially as the Heb. stands in that Order, and most anciently took it that Way, both Jews and Christians, inasmuch that the great Rabbi Judah of the former called the Holy, thought himself justified by it to write

127. ♀ Therefore I love thy Commandments more than Gold, nay than pure Gold;

128. ♀ Therefore I esteem all the Precepts right in every Thing, I hate every false Way.

129. ♂ Thy Testimonies are wonderful; therefore my Soul keeps them.

130. ♂ The Entrance of thy Words enlightens, causing the Simple to understand.

131. ♂ I open my Mouth wide, and pant; because I long for thy Commandments.

132. ♂ Look on me, and be gracious to me, according as is usual to those who love thy Name.

133. ♂ Establish my going on in thy Sayings, and let not any Iniquity have dominion over me.

134. ♂ Redeem me from the Oppression of Man; and I will observe thy Precepts.

135. ♂ Make thy Face light on thy Servant, and teach me thy Ordinances.

136. ♂ Streams of Water run down my Eyes, for such as do not observe thy Law.

137. * Thou art righteous, O Lord, and thy Judgments are right.

138. * Thou hast commanded thy Testimonies very righteously, and faithfully.

139. * My Zeal has cut me off; because my Adversaries have forgot thy Words.

140. * What thou sayest is very pure; and thy Servant loves it.

141. * I being small and despised, do not forget thy Precepts.

142. * Thy Righteousness is everlasting Righteousness, and thy Law is Truth.

143. * Distress and Streightness having found me out, thy Commandments are my Delight.

144. * The Righteousness of thy Testimonies is for ever: cause me to understand, that I may live.

145. ♀ I call with the whole Heart: answer me, O Lord; I will keep thy Ordinances.

146. ♀ I call upon thee, save me; and I will observe thy Testimonies.

147. ♀ I prevent the Twilight, and cry out: I wait for thy Word.

148. ♀ My Eyes prevent the Watches, to meditate on thy Sayings.

149. ♀ Hear my Voice according to thy Kindness: O Lord, keep me alive according to thy Judgment.

150. ♀ Those that follow Lewdness come near; who are far from thy Law.

151. ♀ Thou art near, O Lord, and all thy Commandments are Truth.

152. ♀ I know of old Time from thy Testimonies, that thou hast founded them for ever.

153. ♀ Look on my Affliction, and deliver me: for I do not forget thy Law.

154. ♀ Plead my Cause, and vindicate me: keep me alive according to thy Sayings.

155. ♀ Salvation is far from the Wicked: for they seek not thy Ordinances.

156. ♀ Thy Mercies are many, O Lord: keep me alive according to thy Judgments.

157. ♀ My Persecutors and Adversaries being many, I turn not aside from thy Testimonies.

158. ♀ I see the Treacherous, and loath; because they do not observe thy Sayings.

159. ♀ See that I love thy Precepts: O Lord, keep me alive according to thy Kindness.

160. ♀ The Sum of thy Word is Truth, and every one of thy righteous Judgments is for ever.

161. ♂ Princes persecute me undeservedly; but my Heart is in Fear of thy Word.

162. ♂ I am joyful for thy Sayings, as one who finds much Spoil.

163. ♂ I hate, and abhor Falsehood; loving thy Law.

down their Traditions, which they had forbid to be written, &c. see Patr. Pref. but the two foregoing Verses, and thy in this, incline me the other Way.

Ver. 127, 128. Therefore] Because his proud Oppressors, Ver. 121, 122. broke God's Law, David might prize it the more, as Ver. 139. though Mudge affirms, 'Therefore' has no Connexion with what is past.

Ver. 128. every Thing] Mudge notwithstanding the good Sense it makes, confidently asserts, The present Reading is evidently false, and translates, I keep strait on according to all thy Charges, by dividing (and destroying) this לְכָל־דְּבָרֶיךָ putting לְכָל to the preceding Word, and דְּבָרֶיךָ from the End here to the Beginning of the second Word before it. What might not be done at this Rate? Who could have believed any Person would publish a Thing so very absurd, and improbable? Could any Copier of the Heb. by Oversight take two Letters, one from the Beginning of the first of two Words, and the other from the End of the second, and then turning those two Letters backward, make a third new Word? Besides לְכָל would have another Shape לְכָל before, or indeed be לְכָל . As to the Seventy, he that translated this might much easier miss or neglect one לְכָל of the three, nor is it any strange Matter for them not to render literally.

Ver. 130. Entrance] Sept. Declaration, for Opening from the Verb.

Ver. 133. any] the Sax. being any.

Ver. 136. such as] The Sept. turn it to himself, the Odds might be but 1 and 1 with an Infinitive.

Ver. 138. righteously] or in Righteousness. In the Dow. Bib. thus darkly, Thou hast commanded the justice of thy testimonies: and thy verities exceedingly; and our com. Eng. is averse to the Heb. where the Verb is first.

Ver. 141. being] see Gell's Essay, p. 391.

Ib. small] The LXX a Junior or young, apparently misinterpreting נָעִר by נָעַר .

Ver. 147. prevent] left out of the Psalter.

Ver. 150. that follow Lewdness] Mudge has, that pursue me with malicious Subtily; for he reads, he says, לְכָל־דְּבָרֶיךָ as if he did not know how to point Half of it, and the Pointing secures it from such Invasion, even of the Seventy; from whom and Dr. Hare our Author fetches his Assistance, too feeble for such a Work.

Ver. 160. Sum] Heb. Head.

164. ♂ Seven

164. W Seven times in a Day do I praise thee, for thy righteous Judgments.

165. W Those who love thy Law have much Peace, and have no Stumbling-block.

166. W I hope for thy Salvation, O Lord, and do thy Commandments.

167. W My Soul observes thy Testimonies, and I love them exceedingly.

168. W I observe thy Precepts, and Testimonies: for all my Ways are before thee.

169. N Let my Cry come near before thee, O Lord: cause me to understand according to thy Word.

170. N Let my Supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy Saying.

171. N My Lips shall utter forth Praise: for thou teachest me thy Ordinances.

172. N My Tongue shall sing thy Sayings: for all thy Commandments are with Righteousness.

173. N Let thy Hand be to help me: for I have chosen thy Precepts.

174. N I have desired thy Salvation, O Lord, and thy Law is my Delight.

175. N Keep my Soul alive, that it may praise thee; and let thy Judgments help me.

176. N I have gone astray like a Sheep that is lost; seek thy Servant: for I do not forget thy Commandments.

P S A L M CXX.

A POEM of the Stairs.

I called to the Lord in my Distress, and was not unanswered by him.

2. O Lord, deliver my Soul from the false Lip, from the deceitful Tongue.

3. What shall be given to thee? Or what shall be added to thee, O deceitful Tongue?

4. The Arrows of the Powerful sharpened, with Coals of Juniper.

5. Wo is to me, that I sojourn in Meshech, dwell with the Tents of Kedar.

6. My Soul it self has dwelt much with him who hates Peace.

7. I am for Peace; but when I speak, they are for War.

P S A L M CXXI.

A POEM of the Stairs.

I look up to the Mountains, from whence my Help comes.

2. My Help is from the Lord, who made the Heaven and the Earth.

3. May he not suffer thy Foot to be moved: may he not slumber who keeps thee.

4. Behold he who keeps Israel, does neither slumber, nor sleep.

5. The Lord keeps thee: the Lord is a Shelter to thee on thy right Hand.

6. The Sun shall not smite thee by Day, nor the Moon in the Night.

7. The Lord will keep thee from all Evil: he will keep thy Soul.

8. The Lord will keep thy going out: and coming in, henceforth even for ever.

Ver. 164. by Buchanan, Septies tuam equitatem me canentem lux videt:

A Day sees me singing thy just Dealing seven times; which his Country-man Jonston follows with,

Hanc me canentem sedulo Lux una cernet septies.

Ver. 165. have much Peace] Thus Juvenal at the End of his 10th Satyr,

—Semita certe

Tranquilla per virtutem patet unica vita:

Rendered in a late prose Translation, Be assured, that the only Path to a Life of Peace is through a Course of Virtue.

Ib. no Stumbling-block] Nothing that they stumble at; but have something to offend them, Mat. xviii. 6, 7.

Ver. 1. the Stairs] thus rendered Neb. iii. 15. & xii. 37. Ezek. xl. 6. & xliii. 17. and Steps, Exod. xx. 26. 1 King. x. 19, 20. 2 Chron. ix. 18, 19. Ezek. xl. 22, 26, 31, 34, 37, 49. Sol. Jarhi in his Commentary writes of this and the 14 next Psalms, שיאמרו הוי אותו כל חמש עשר מעלות הירדות מעורת ישראל עד ודת גש

They were those which the Levites said upon the 15 Stairs going down from the Court of the Israelites to that of the Women.

So Godwin in his Moses and Aaron, Lib. ii. 1. and Grotius in Annot. The Description of which Stairs may be seen in Prideaux's Ichnography of the Temple, Connell. Part I. B. 3. Both Numbers agreeing, gives this Exposition much the Preference; especially compared with the like Word, Neb. ix. 4. whereas those who suppose it otherwise, less probable, feign the other 15 to answer this of the Psalm. They may be supposed all made by David, excepting the cxxvth and cxxxiid, as the Titles shew of some; and this against Deeg.

Ver. 3. added] So the Heb. signifies, not done; and which by the com. Transl. makes, Sharp arrows shall be done unto thee.

Ver. 4. Coals of Juniper] which Jerome on Mansion 15 of the Israelites says, it is reported, si cinere fuerint operata, usque, ad annum perveniant, if they were covered up in the Ashes, would keep a Year. This Curiosity of Nature is given away in the Psalm. for the justling Epithets hot burning; and the LXX being at a Loss through the Infrequency of it, put it desolate.

Ver. 5. Meshech—Kedar] Israelites barbarous and wicked like the People there; as it does not appear David ever was in those Places, being Part of Arabia.

Ver. 7. I speak] Unto them the Litur. as the Gr. but to whom else should he speak?

Ver. 1. Mountains] Zion and Moriab, 2 Chron. iii. 1. and Grotius supposes it was written in the Time of the War with Abisalon.

Ver. 3. slumber] Sax. hnæppie.

Ver. 6. smite] Litur. burn; which the Heb. does not signify, and puts the learned Vindicator hard to it to make out of the Moon: among other Things he brings that Saying of the Vulgar, when they tread in cold Water, that they have scalded their Feet, yet supposes the Moon has Heat to the same Degree she has Light; though it is evinced by the Burning-glasses, she transmits none at all of the former.

Ib. Nor the Moon] Dupont too far out of his usual Dulness;

Οὐδὲ εἰ μὴ νυκτὶς ζῶει κατὰ νύκτα σελήνη nor the horned Moon push thee by Night; but he might make it from Apollinarius, who has the like Sense and Words.

Ver. 8. going out—coming in] Sax. ingang—utgang, being transposed.

P S A L M CXXII.

A Poem of the Stairs, by David.

I was glad when they said to me, Let us go to the House of the Lord.

2. Our Feet have stood in thy Gates, O Jerusalem.

3. Jerusalem is built like a City, which is joined together of it self.

4. Whither the Tribes go up, the Tribes of the Lord to the Testimony of Israel; to give thanks to the Name of the Lord.

5. For the Thrones of Judgment abide there, the Thrones of the House of David.

6. Ask concerning the Peace of Jerusalem: let them be quiet who love thee.

7. Let there be Peace in thy Fort, Quietness in thy Palaces.

8. For the sake of my Brethren and Friends, I now speak, Let Peace be in thee.

9. For the sake of the House of the Lord our God, I will seek thy Good.

P S A L M CXXIII.

A Poem of the Stairs.

I look up to thee, who dwellest in Heaven.

2. Behold as the Eyes of Servants are to the Hand of their Masters, as a Handmaid's to that of her Mistress; so are our Eyes to the Lord our God, till he is gracious to us.

3. Be gracious to us, O Lord, be gracious to us: for we are filled much with Contempt.

4. Our Soul it self is filled much with the Scoffing of those that are at ease, with the Contempt of the Proud.

P S A L M CXXIV.

A Poem of the Stairs, by David.

Unless it had been the Lord who was for us, let Israel now say;

2. Unless it had been the Lord who was for us, when Mankind rose up against us:

3. Then would they have devoured us alive, when they were incensed at us;

4. Then would the Waters have overflowed us, the Flood passed over our Soul;

5. Then that of lofty Waters would have passed over our Soul.

6. Blessed be the Lord, who has not delivered us a Prey to their Teeth.

7. Our Soul is escaped as a Bird from the Snare of the Fowlers: the Snare is broken, and we are escaped.

8. Our Help is in the Name of the Lord, who made the Heaven and the Earth.

P S A L M CXXV.

A Poem of the Stairs.

Those who trust in the Lord are as Mount Zion, that is not moved, but abides for ever.

2. As the Mountains are round about Jerusalem it self, the Lord will be about his People, henceforth even for ever.

Ver. 1. Poem] the Time of which appears by Ver. 2, 5. see 2 Sam. v. 6.

Ver. 2. have stood] Heb. have been standing.

Ver. 3. Jerusalem] where Maundrell being in the Year 1697, paced it round without the Wall, and it was by his Account, on the North 1435, South 1290, East 1005, and West 900 of his Paces or Steps, 10 of which he computes at 9 Yards; the whole making just two Miles and a half, as he says; but certainly there wants 233 Yards, or a Furlong and 13 Yards, of it, being exactly 2 Eng. Miles (as doubtless he reckoned by) a Quarter, and 207 Yards. The Gates he reckons 7, one at the West, and two at each of the other Sides, Journ. from Alep. to Jerus. see more on Psa. xlviii. 2.

Ver. 4. to the Testimony] Psalt. to testify unto Israel; but it is a Noun, not a Verb.

Ver. 6. Ask] as the Word means commonly, scarce pray.

Ver. 7. Fort] according to the Heb. and not Walls.

Ver. 1. This seems rather made by David in his Troubles, before his Advancement; though some conjecture it to be long after him. Which Sandys begins in this lofty Manner,

Thou Mower of the rolling Sphæars,

I through the Glasses of my Tears,

To thee my Eyes erect.

As Servants mark their Masters Hands,

As Maids their Mistresses Commands,

And Liberty expect;

And Smyth, as also Tate and Brady have almost verbatim the two Lines, As Servants &c.

Ver. 3. us] who might be those with David.

Ver. 1. Israel] over whom David seems to have now reigned; applied by Nichols to Absalom's Rebellion, but better seemingly by Patr. to the foreign Enemies.

Ver. 3. alive] quick being not only obsolete, but may be mistaken by such as use it for quickly.

Ver. 5. that] the Verb being sing. and so Jun. and Trem. add Flood, but the LXX attribute it to Soul.

Ver. 1. Patrick's relating this and Psa. cxxiii. to be made on Occasion of Sennacherib's besieging Jerusalem, is so conjectural, that David may better have the Preference of their passing for his, since he wrote so many, if we do seek who is likeliest.

Ver. 2. round about] As Dr. Perry who was lately there, describes the Situation of it, which he says "is very high, compared with the Plains to the Seaward, yet is in a small Descent, surrounded with Hills somewhat higher than it self, except only to the South-east, where it looks down into a deep Abyss, on the Back of which runs a Range of Mountains of Arabia Petraea, which seem pretty equal in Height with Jerusalem," View of the Levant, p. 123. And Dr. Rauwolf a German, who was there in 1575, relates "that the Dead Sea, where Sodom and Gomorrah stood, might be plainly seen from thence over a barren Hill, though it was a Day's Journey off, as likewise Mount Scir beyond it, and the high Hills Abarim and Nebo," Travels, Part. iii. 3.

3. For the Rod of the Wicked shall not rest upon the Lot of the Righteous; that the Righteous may not put forth their Hands to Iniquity.

4. Do good, O Lord, to the Good, and to such as are upright in their Hearts.

5. As for those that turn aside to their crooked Ways, the Lord will make them go with the Workers of Iniquity; Prosperity being in Israel.

P S A L M CXXVI.

A Poem of the Stairs.

When the Lord turned back the Captivity of Zion, we were like those who dream:

2. Then was our Mouth full of Laughter, and our Tongue of Singing; then they said among the Gentiles, The Lord has magnified himself in dealing with these.

3. The Lord has magnified himself in dealing with us, who are glad.

4. O Lord, turn back our Captivity, as the Streams in the South.

5. Those who sow with Tears, shall reap with Singing.

6. He that weeps as he goes along, carrying the gotten Seed; shall come along with Singing, carrying his Sheaves.

Ver. 3. rest] The Author of Holy David &c. to vindicate the old Psalt. labours to shew that rest (a verb) does not necessarily import a long abode (which is a Noun) or that emeth (not from the Heb.) imports it as well.

Ib. Let] Sax. hlyt.

Ver. 5. erected It says] Vulg. Obligaciones, Obligations, by Corruption probably of obligationes.

Ib. make—go] lead, which the Heb. has Nothing of, being quite unfit.

Ver. 1. Ezra is supposed to have made this after some of the People were returned from the Captivity of Babylon, Ver. 1, 4. Brady and Tate begin it,

*When Sion's God her Sons recall'd from long Captivity,
It seem'd at first a pleasing Dream of what we wish'd to see:*

as Basil Kennett does with,

*When favour'd by Jehovah's Guardian Hand,
The Captive Tribes regain'd their Native Land;
We seem'd in Dream, or Vision, to possess
A Pleasure so profuse of Happiness.*

Ib. dream] Sept. are comforted; from this Verb's Meaning to recover or get well, Isa. xxxviii. 16. not as Byss. lays from another to spare.

Ver. 2. Mouth] By the Art of Spelling mouthes is made two Syllables in the old Metre.

Ver. 4. South] where we find Mention made of Streams not perennial, Job vi. 15, 19. whose Return he finely compares theirs to: an exquisite Simile!

Ver. 5. shall reap] Sax. ripath.

Ver. 6. gotten] as getting, Job xxviii. 18.

Ib. Sheaves] Sax. gripan; but in some Parts of England, the Handfuls before they are put together in Sheaves are called Grips for Gripes.

Ver. 1. for Solomon] as Psa. lxxii. from whence the

VOL. I.

P S A L M CXXVII.

A Poem of the Stairs for Solomon.

If the Lord does not build the House, they labour in vain who build it: if the Lord does not keep the City, the Keeper watches in vain.

2. It is in vain for you to rise up early, to sit down late, eating the Bread of Grief: so he gives his Beloved Sleep.

3. Behold Children are the Lord's Possession, the Fruit of the Womb is a Reward.

4. As Arrows in the Hand of the Powerful; so are the Children of Youth.

5. The Man is happy whose Quiver is full of them: they will not be ashamed, but will speak with the Enemies at the Gate.

P S A L M CXXVIII.

A Poem of the Stairs.

Every Man is blessed who fears the Lord, who goes in his Ways.

2. For thou wilt eat of the Labour of thy Hands: thou art blessed, and it is well with thee.

3. Thy Wife will be like a fruitful Vine at the Sides of thy House, thy Children like Olive Plants round about thy Table.

4. Behold that so will the Man be blest who fears the Lord.

Time of writing it appears, he being but young when David died.

Ib. If the Lord] Euruphamus the Pythagorean in his Treatise upon Life writes, Ἀδελφοὶ φύσις, τὰ μὲν ἐν τὰς λέαιας ἀποσπένοντες, τὰ δὲ καὶ τὰς ἐν τῷ Θέῳ γινόμενας ἐπιμύσει & πορεύεται ἐν τῷ. The Nature of Man is such, that he can consult himself, yet he also wants divine Help.

Ib. vain] Sax. ydel.

Ib. Keeper] the Participle of the foregoing Verb.

Ib. watches] as this Verb is rendered Psa. cii. 7. Prov. viii. 34. Ezra. viii. 29. Isa. xxix. 20. Jer. v. 6. & xxxi. 28. & xl. 27. Dan. ix. 14. and never signifies wakes.

Ver. 2. to rise up early, to sit down late] Here the LXX have, to get up early: rise you after sitting down, with little Sense, and a wrong Pause, nay as if עָרַב was עָרַב.

Ib. fit down] from Labour or Watching, Ver. 1. for it is not sitting Work that is spoken of.

Ib. eating] a Participle, which our Transf. seems to have mistaken for a Verb infinitive.

Ib. so he] the Lord by keeping the City at Night, Ver. 1.

Ib. Blessed] referring to Solomon's Name, 2 Sam. xii. 25. and so meaning him particularly.

Ver. 4. the Children of Youth] who being born when their Parents are young, may grow up to be serviceable to them; and Grot. notes that such are stronger. Our Translators by children of the youth, seem to have meant only young Children, as in the Liturg. or young Men, and either ill expressed. For Youth the LXX have shaken ones, as a Participle.

Ver. 5. Quiver] wherein Arrows were carried.

Ib. at the Gate] shall go to the very Gate of their Enemies City, to demand Entrance; see Gen. xxii. 17. which seems more denoted than Trial at Law.

5. The Lord will bless thee from Zion, and thou wilt see the Welfare of Jerusalem all the Days of thy Life.

6. Thou wilt also see thy Children's Children, Prosperity in Israel.

P S A L M CXXIX.

A POEM of the Stairs.

They have distressed me much from my Youth, let Israel now say ;

2. They have distressed me much from my Youth : yet have not prevailed against me.

3. The Ploughers ploughed on my Brow, making their Furrows long.

4. The Lord was just, he cut the Cord of the Wicked asunder.

5. Let all who hate Zion be ashamed, and turned back.

6. Let them be as the Grass of the Roofs, that withers before it is pulled up :

Ver. 5. Zion] which may shew what Part of David's Life he composed this and the following Psalms in, as has been before observed of others.

Ver. 1. Poem] For the Author see at Psa. cxx & cxxv. though some guess him to have lived after the Babylonian Captivity.

Ver. 3. Ploughers ploughed] According to the 70 Interpreters Sinners hammered; accepting the Verb otherwise, and so paraphrasing the Noun. Johnson in his late large Dictionary of the English Language in 2 vols. fol. has to these Words no Instance of spelling them with w, and there is plough, Luk. ix. 62.

Ib. Brow] Being Something that stands out or high, and so rendered Lev. xiv. 9. Kennett indeed has an ingenious, but unwarrantable Thought, according to the com. Reading thus,

Th' inhumane Scourgers on my Back have plough'd With livid Tracks, and Furrows mark'd in Blood :

for that is not similar to drawing a Plough, nor was David whipt, we may suppose, by his Enemies; yet Mudge too expounds it, scourged severely. And the Writer of Holy David clear'd more unaccountably labours to shew the Back was Zion.

Ib. Furrows] the Wrinkles on the Brow or Forehead, caused by Trouble and Illness of Body, which appear in Weeping, downcast Looks, and Leanness. Sept. Iniquity, from עוון for עוון

Ver. 4. Cord] Sing. though with a plur. Termination; that which the Plough was drawn with. Sept. Nacks, from the Thickness denoted; Litur. Snares, from too fond, and here a wrong Freedom.

Ver. 6. is pulled up] according to the Signification of the Verb, which never is groweth up; so Munst. and plucked up in the Litur. and Ham. pulleth off by Answe. &c. besides Maundrell in his Journey from Aleppo to Jerusalem, 1697, at the End informs us, that in the Land of Palestine they pull up their Corn for the sake of the Straw, and he accordingly there explains this Verse; see also L. de Dieu's Animad. The last Eng. Transf. before the pres. has asore it cometh forth, the com. Met. ere it grow; on which Ward says, How Grass can wither before it grow, is a Paradox.

Ver. 7. With which] there being Grass among Corn; and though Mudge says it cannot refer to this Grass, surely it may.

7. With which no Reaper fills his Hand, nor he that makes Sheaves his Arm.

8. Neither do those who pass by say, The Blessing of the Lord be on you, we bless you in the Name of the Lord.

P S A L M CXXX.

A POEM of the Stairs.

I call upon thee, O Lord, from the Depths.

2. Lord, hear my Voice : let thy Ears be attentive to that of my Supplications.

3. If thou, O Lord, shouldest observe Iniquities ; Lord, who shall stand ?

4. But there is Forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.

5. I wait for the Lord, my Soul waits ; and I hope for his Word.

6. My Soul does for the Lord, more than they themselves who watch for the Morning it self.

Ib. no—fills] some Copies of the vulg. Lat. will not fill, others has not filled.

Ib. Reaper] for the Mower does not take the Corn in his Hand : and this Participle is translated the Reaper, Am. ix. 13. and plur. the Reapers, Ruth ii. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 14. 2 King. iv. 18. no where else mower or mowers.

Ib. Arm] rendered Arms, Isa. xlix. 22. thus Pagn. turns it Brachium, Jun. and Trem. Lacertum, as also Buxtorf's Lexic. has it.

Ver. 6, 7, and 8. seem wholly to refer to that useless, unprofitable, ungathered Grass, that grows spontaneously on the Roofs of Houses. A Grass (says he) that withers before it is ripe; a Grass, that as its Situation admits not of mowing, so it is not even reaped, cut down with a Sickle. A Grass, that however luxuriant it may seem, is never worth the Labour of gathering, and therefore never enjoys those encouraging Benedictions of the Passengers upon the Labourers employed in gathering in the useful and mature Productions of the Earth. For of such kind of Benedictions are those undoubtedly which are contained in the 8th Verse.

Ver. 1. Poem] written as may seem after David had sinned concerning Uriah.

Ver. 4. that thou mayest be feared] Vulg. Lat. and for the sake of thy Law, joined to the following; תורה thou mayest be feared, being taken for תורה Law; but for this the Septuag. now have Name, which I suppose was designed to be rendered by νόμος, or rather was by Mistake νόμα, and the gen. Case put νόματος, which being no Word, was altered into δόματος. This Remark, however novel (as all were at first) has a Right not to yield to any Thing less apparent; and the Matter is Matter of Fact.

Ver. 5. and] The LXX. missing this, join that before and that after together.

Ver. 6. does] rather watch, or else hope, than wait; the Litur. at Adventure steeth, Hammond hasteneth, Jun. studiosior est, is more careful; but the Sept. and vulg. Lat. hoped.

Ib. more than &c.] Sept. from the morning watch till Night, paraphrastically at Random, to shun a seeming Tautology that might be Elegance.

Ib. Morning] Sax. dayredlicre; q. d. red like day, and in another Copy meryintyde.

7. Let Israel hope for the Lord : for with the Lord there is Kindness, and with him much Redemption.

8. And he will redeem Israel from all its Iniquities.

PSALM CXXXI.

A POEM of the Stairs, by David.
O Lord, my Heart is not exalted, nor are my Eyes lofty ; neither do I go in great Things, nor in such as are too wonderful for me.

2. Do not I order and make my Soul quiet, like one that is weaned of his Mother ? My Soul is as it were weaned in me.

3. Let Israel hope for the Lord, henceforth even for ever.

PSALM CXXXII.

A POEM of the Stairs.
O Lord, remember of David, all his being afflicted :

2. Who swore to the Lord, vowed to the Strong One of Jacob ;

3. I will not go into the Tent of my House, will not get up on the Couch of my Beds,

4. Will not give my Eyes Sleep, my Eye-lids Slumber ;

5. Till I find a Place for the Lord, Tabernacles for the Strong One of Jacob.

6. Behold we heard of it in Ephrathah, found it in the Fields of Jaar.

7. We will come to his Tabernacles, will bow down at his Footstool.

8. Arise, O Lord, to thy Rest, thou and the Ark of thy Strength.

9. Let thy Priests be clothed with Righteousness, and let thy pious ones sing.

10. For the sake of thy Servant David, turn not back the Face of thy anointed one.

11. The Lord has sworn to David truly, from which he will not return ; Of the Fruit of thy Body will I set on thy Throne :

12. If thy Children observe my Covenant, and my Testimonies that I teach them, their Children also shall sit on thy Throne for evermore.

13. For the Lord has chosen Zion, having desired it for his own Dwelling.

14. This shall be my Rest, said he, for evermore : here will I dwell, because I desire it.

15. I will thoroughly bless its Provision, will satisfy its Needy with Victuals.

16. I will cloath the Priests of it too with Salvation ; and its pious ones shall sing joyfully.

17. There will I make the Horn of David sprout forth ; having provided a Lamp for my anointed one.

Ver. 2. Do not] One Particle denoting a Question, and another not. The LXX translate, If I have not been humble, as if it was עָנִי from עָנָה when it is עָנִי Did they take י to be נ

Ib. and make—quiet] Sept. but exalted, from עָלָה instead of עָנָה Litur. refrain from Munster. but with the Verbs transposed, and the Meaning of the other from the LXX ; what jumbling Work this !

Ib. as it were weaned] The LXX have, so wilt thou recompense ; in another Signification indeed of the Verb, but ע is not to be strained into [so] ; and if they wrote we not for us, but for as, at, it would be without the little Sense it has now.

Ib. in me] So Pagn. and the Tig. Vers. have in me, the Lat. and Eng. being here the same ; Munst. and Ment. super me, upon me ; Jun. and Trem. apud me, with me ; which last Ainsw. renders this Heb. by, that is quite omitted in the com. Bible.

Ver. 3. Israel] which may be a Hint that it was written while David reigned, as Psa. cxxiv.

Ver. 7. I suppose with Grotius, Poole, and others, that this Psalm was made by Solomon, Ver. 8, 9, 10. being nearly the same with the Conclusion of his Prayer, 2 Chr. vi. and Ver. 10, 11. seem plainly to shew it.

Ib. being afflicted] a Verb, but turned by the LXX Meekness, and how it is easy to be seen by one that knows a Little of the Hebr.

Ver. 4. Eye-lids] Sax. bræwum.

Ib. Slumber] The Supplement of the LXX to no Purpose, see in the Com. Pray.

Ver. 6. we] viz. David, when he was young, and dwelt in Beth-lehem-Ephrathah, Mic. v. 2. Ruth iv. 11. Solomon speaking this in the Name of their or the Royal Family ; in which Manner nearly both Grotius and Hulse take it ; and this I think is much likelier than taking Ephrathah for Shiloh, only because that was in the Tribe of Ephraim.

Ib. the Fields] left out in the Litur. but the Writer of the General Defence in H. D. clear'd keeps to his Title even here, not allowing a Fault. O happy Translation !

Ib. Jaar] at Kirjath-jearim, 1 Chron. xiii. 6. which is The Town of the Years or Woods ; and seems here put for a proper Name like Ephrathah, as Jun. and Trem. with Mudge also have it, and Hulse expounds it.

Ve. 9. cloathed] Sax. scrydde, whence Shroud.

Ver. 11. will not return] but that Solomon's Children should sit, &c. Ver. 12.

Ver. 12. Testimonies] plur. see De Dieu Anim.

Ver. 13. the Lord] viz. himself, as he speaks in several Places ; though Mudge says, These are the Words of the Author.

Ver. 15. Provision] Which the Septuagint, rendering δίψαν, the vulg. Lat. Translator plainly mistook for χρίσαν, or made from a wrong Gr. Copy that had it so, instead of the Heb. and thus turned it viduam, Widow ; and yet to justify it, the Doway Translators cunningly expound the Widow to be the Church wanting Christ's visible presence ; whereas this was Zion's, Ver. 13. and so must be the Church's Widow, not Christ's ; see Amama, Anti-bark. Bibl. L. I. C. 3.

Ver. 16. Salvation] Litur. health ; which if it denoted the same as Salvation formerly, not now.

18. I will

18. I will cloath his Enemies with Shame, but his Crown shall flourish upon himself.

P S A L M CXXXIII.

A POEM of the Stairs, by David.
Behold how good and how pleasant it is, for Brethren to dwell even together!

2. Like the good Oil upon the Head, running down on the Beard, namely Aaron's; which ran down to the Edge of his Apparel:

3. Like the Dew of Hermon, like that which comes down upon the Mountains of Zion; for there the Lord commanded should be the Blessing, Life for evermore.

P S A L M CXXXIV.

A POEM of the Stairs.
Behold bless the Lord, all you Servants of the Lord, that stand in the Lord's House in the Nights.

2. Lift up your Hands in the holy Place, and bless the Lord.

3. The Lord bless thee from Zion, who made the Heaven and the Earth.

P S A L M CXXXV.

PRAISE the Lord, praise the Name of the Lord, praise, O Servants of the Lord;

2. Who stand in the Lord's House, in the Courts of the House of our God.

3. Praise the Lord, for he is good: sing melodiously to his Name, for it is pleasant.

4. Since the Lord has chosen Jacob for himself, Israel for his own Property.

5. For I know that the Lord is great, and our Lord the most of all gods.

6. All that the Lord pleases, he does in Heaven and on the Earth, in the Seas and all Depths:

7. Causing the Vapours to go up from the End of the Earth, making the Lightnings for the Rain, bringing the Wind out of his Treasuries:

8. Who smote the First-born of Egypt, both of Man and Beast.

9. He sent Signs and Miracles within thee, O Egypt, against Pharaoh, and all his Servants:

10. Who smote large Nations, and slew strong Kings;

11. Sihon King of the Amorites, and Og King of Bashan, with all the Kingdoms of Canaan:

12. And gave their Country a Possession, a Possession to his People Israel.

13. O Lord, thy Name is for ever: O Lord, thy Remembrance is to all Ages.

14. For the Lord will judge his People, and be sorry for his Servants.

15. The Images of the Gentiles are Silver and Gold, the Work of Man's Hands.

Ver. 18. his Crown] my Sanctification by the Sept. the same Noun denoting a Nazarite, and passing with them for

Ver. 1. by Buchanan,

Nil caritate mutua fratrum, nihil

Jucundius concordiam:

there is Nothing more pleasant than the mutual Love, not any Thing more than the Agreement of Brethren.

Ib. Brethren] Antisthenes, as Diog. Laertius writes in his Life, said the living of Brethren in Amity was stronger than any Wall.

Ib. even] as Ainsworth renders it, and Pagn. the Tig. Verf. with Jun. and Trem. etiam, the same; and as the Heb. Particle signifies, not in unity. And thus they might be compared to Oil, that is cohesive, which particularly appears in its running down gently as here described, according to the Prospect their Habitations make when joined together, which is both beautiful and useful in a Society, especially religious. And being figuratively, though not expressively, spoken of their divine Fellowship, will exceed bare Unity; which in bad Things would make them worse.

Ver. 2. Edge] the upper one, I suppose; and not running all down to the skirts of his garments, to daub them that were so very precious, and to be kept so nice, Exod. xxviii. Lev. vi. 11. Ezek. xlii. 14. accordingly Ainsw. renders it collar, as likewise Kimbi expounds it, with Ford, &c. but Watts brings the Oil down to his Feet.

Ver. 3. Dew of Hermon] We were sufficiently instructed by Experience, says Maundrell in his Journey from Aleppo to Jerusalem, pag. 57. what the holy Psalmist means by the Dew of Hermon, our Tents being as wet with it, as if it had rained all Night.

Ib. like] in an easy Manner from before. Mudge falls back into the Absurdity of our old Transl. the Dew of Hermon falling upon the Mountains of Zion, notwithstanding he quotes Maundrell.

Ib. Zion] by which we may understand the Time of penning this and the next Psalm, as before of the cxxviii and cxxix.

Ib. there] at Zion, as it seems to me with Poole, being last mentioned, and because the Verb commanded is preterite, which would rather be future if it referred, as some would have it, to Brethren's dwelling.

Ver. 1. Gr. and Litur. more, in the courts of the house of our God.

Ver. 1. This may also be ascribed to David, and the Time of it seen by the last Verse.

Ib. Praise] instead of which thrice, the com. Met. has it six times in the two Verses.

Ver. 3 sing] Mudge, strike up to the Name of the Lord; taking the latter from the foregoing Part, where the Heb. Pointing confines it, nor does it stand for a Genit. to Name, and withal blotting out his.

Ver. 7. from the End of the Earth] at the Horizon, where the Earth ends to the Sight; but according to Kimbi, from the Sea where the Land ends.

Ib. Treasuries] Sax. goldhordum.

16. They

16. They have a Mouth, but do not speak ; have Eyes, but do not see ;

17. Have Ears, but do not hearken ; nay there is no Breath in their Mouth.

18. Those that make them are like them, with every one who trusts in them.

19. O Family of Israel, bless the Lord : O Family of Aaron bless the Lord.

20. O Family of Levi, bless the Lord : you that fear the Lord, bless him.

21. The Lord be blessed from Zion, who dwells at Jerusalem. Praise the Lord.

P S A L M CXXXVI.

GIVE thanks to the Lord, because he is good ; since his Kindness is for ever.

2. Give thanks to the God of gods ; for his Kindness is for ever.

3. Give thanks to the Lord of lords ; for his Kindness is for ever :

4. To him who does great Wonders alone ; for his Kindness is for ever :

5. To him who made the Heaven with Understanding ; for his Kindness is for ever :

6. To him who spread forth the Earth upon the Waters ; for his Kindness is for ever :

7. To him who made great Lights ; for his Kindness is for ever :

8. The Sun for the Government of the Day ; for his Kindness is for ever :

9. The Moon and Stars for the Government of the Night ; for his Kindness is for ever :

10. To him who slew of Egypt their First-born ; for his Kindness is for ever ;

11. And brought out Israel from among them ; for his Kindness is for ever ;

12. With a strong Hand, and an Arm stretched out ; for his Kindness is for ever :

13. To him who cut the Red Sea into Parts ; for his Kindness is for ever ;

14. And made Israel pass through the midst of it ; for his Kindness is for ever ;

15. But shook off Pharaoh and his Army into the Red Sea ; for his Kindness is for ever :

16. To him who made his People go through the Wilderness ; for his Kindness is for ever :

17. To him who smote great Kings ; for his Kindness is for ever ;

18. And slew stately Kings ; for his Kindness is for ever :

19. Sihon King of the Amorites ; for his Kindness is for ever ;

20. And Og King of Bashan ; for his Kindness is for ever ;

21. And gave their Country for a Possession ; for his Kindness is for ever ;

22. A Possession to Israel his Servant ; for his Kindness is for ever.

23. Who remembered us in our Lowliness ; for his Kindness is for ever ;

24. And rescued us from our Adversaries ; for his Kindness is for ever.

25. He gives Food to all Flesh ; for his Kindness is for ever.

26. Give thanks to the God of Heaven ; for his Kindness is for ever.

P S A L M CXXXVII.

BY the Rivers of Babylon there we sat, as also wept, when we remembered Zion.

2. We hung our Harps on the Willows within it.

3. For there those who took us captive, asked us for the Words of a Song ; and those who laid on Heaps, for Mirth, saying, Sing us some of a Song of Zion.

4. How shall we sing a Song of the Lord in a foreign Country !

5. If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right Hand forget its Skill.

6. Let my Tongue cleave to the Roof of my Mouth, if I do not remember thee, if I do not advance Jerusalem above my chief Gladness.

7. Remember, O Lord, the Edomites saying at the Time of Jerusalem, Make bare, make bare to the Foundation of it.

8. O Daughter of Babylon, that art to be wasted ; he shall be blessed who renders to thee thy Recompence, for what thou hast done to us.

Ver. 18. make] Sax. doth.

Ver. 1. This Verse see 1 Chron. xvi. 34. on which David himself might probably make the rest.

Ib. his Kindness] " Benignitas ejus, in Hebræo," his Kindness, in Hebrew, says Grotius. Payne not mends, but mends, in the Couplet of the com. Met. For certainly, with Give Praises, why ?

Ver. 2. of gods] Psalt. all and Ver. 3. but not in Heb. Gr. nor Lat.

Ver. 13. into] Litur. by a Lapse in two.

Ver. 15. shook off] from the Chariots and Horses, the Verb signifying thus, as both our Ainsw. and Mudge render it.

Ver. 26. The Psalt. adds another Verse neither in the Heb. nor Gr. but the same as the third in the vulg. Lat.

Ver. 1. of Babylon] where doubtless it was composed ; and by the Prayer against the Edomites, Ver. 7. whose Overthrow was about five Years after that of Jerusalem ; as shewn on Ezek. xxv. 13. was made in that Time : which seems too soon for Ezra to be the Author of it, and Jeremiah did not go thither, to which last the Septuagint ascribe it.

Ver. 3. those who laid on Heaps, for Mirth] In the Psalt. melodie in our heaviness, worth no more than mentioning.

9. He shall be blessed who takes, and disperses thy Children at the Rock.

P S A L M CXXXVIII.

BY David.

BI will give thanks to thee with my whole Heart, before the Magistrates will I sing melodiously to thee.

2. I will bow down at thy holy Temple, and give thanks to thy Name, for thy Kindness and Truth: for thou magnifiest thy Word above all thy Name.

3. On the Day that I call, thou also answerest me, thou strengthenest me with Strength in my Soul.

4. All the Kings of the Earth will give thanks to thee, O Lord, when they hear the Words of thy Mouth.

5. And will sing in the Ways of the Lord; because the Lord's Glory is great.

6. High as the Lord is, yet he sees the Lowly; and knows the Lofty far off.

7. Though I go in the midst of Distress, thou keepest me alive: thou dost stretch forth thy Hand against the Anger of my Enemies, and thy right Hand saves me.

8. The Lord performs for me; O Lord, thy Kindness is for ever: leave not off the Works of thy Hands.

P S A L M CXXXIX.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

O Lord, thou searchest out, and knowest me.

2. Thou knowest my sitting down, and rising up, understandest my Thought far off.

3. Thou compassest my Path, and where I lie down, and art used to all my Ways.

4. When there is no Word with my Tongue, behold, O Lord, thou knowest all the Matter.

5. Thou besettest me behind and before, and puttest thy Hand upon me.

6. The Knowledge is too wonderful for me: it is so high, that I am not capable of it.

7. Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? Or whither shall I flee from thy Presence?

8. If I climb up to Heaven, there thou art; or make a Bed in Hell, art there.

9. Should I, taking the Wings of the Morning, dwell at the End of the Sea;

10. There also thy Hand would lead me, and thy right Hand hold me.

11. Or should I say, Certainly the Darkness will hide me; the Night too would be light about me.

Ver. 9. disperses] The Heb. Verb, which is a common one, and so its Meaning certain and well known, signifies thus, and not dasheth; but it is supposed the dispersing or scattering here was to be by dashing, which is not proved: and as here, is it not better to keep to the simple Sense? which may be dispersing the Children among the Rocks, or turning them out into the Wilderness; whereas the other requires their Brains also to be understood, that should be dispersed or scattered, but by the Text it was the Children themselves; and if dashing had been intended, why was it not expressed? since the Heb. has another Verb, viz. שָׁחַץ for it, used on such Occasion, 2 King. viii. 12. Isa. xiii. 16, 18. Hos. x. 14. & xiii. 16. As it stands in the com. Transl. &c. it seems very shocking; but Barton expresses it more horribly,

He shall be blessed for his Pains,

That dasheth out their Infant-brains;

and thus Ford, with Patr.

Ib. thy] Vulg. Lat. their.

Ver. 1. David seems to have made this before he was King; and though according to Patrick, as I now see, after, I shall let mine stand: the Psalm being short, the Reader may soon take it into Consideration.

Ib. Magistrates] for gods sounds strangely; and Angels of the Gr. and old Lat. as if it was to be in Heaven: the former has also at the End of the Verse, because thou hast heard all the Words of my Mouth, but the latter in the Middle without all.

Ver. 2. above all thy Name] above all that is reported concerning thee; but see the Psalm, with the Addition of [and] to Munster.

Ver. 5. in the Ways of the Lord] being in his Ways.

Ver. 8. performs] The Psalter not penurious, has his loving kindness.

Ver. 1. This and the two following Psalms are supposed to be written during David's Troubles under Saul.

Ver. 3. where I lie down] from the Chald. and the Heb. otherwise signifying a Square, to the imaginary Bounds of that I ascribe the LXX's turning it my Line.

Ver. 4. When] before he spoke; for when he did speak, Man might know it.

Ib. Word] The LXX. put to it unrighteous, to favour their annexing this to the latter Member of the preceding Verse.

Ver. 5. besettest] The Meaning of fashioned in the Psalm, &c. is taken from another Verb, and less suitable.

Ib. behind and before] These standing first in the Heb. Ver. are by the LXX coupled with the last Part of the foregoing (so they split the three Verses) and rendered the latter and the former.

Ver. 7. Whither shall I go from thy Spirit?] hwyder ic gange fram gaste thinum in the Sax.

Ver. 9. taking the Wings of the Morning] to fly all Day with the Sun: so Smyth has this Verse,

If mounted on the airy Wings

Of the gray-feather'd Morn,

I should unto the farther Shores

Of western Seas be born.

Ib. at the End of the Sea] in the West, beyond the Mediterranean, as the Sun does from that Country in the Evening.

Ver. 11. Or] not If as at Ver. 8.

12. Even the Darkness does not darken from thee, but the Night gives light like the Day: the Darkness is the same as the Light.

13. For thou didst possess my Reins, didst cover me in my Mother's Womb.

14. I will give thanks to thee, because by the awful Doings I am wonderful, thy Works being so; which my Soul is very sensible of.

15. My Strength was not concealed from thee, when I was made in Secret, embroïdered in the lower Parts of the Earth.

16. Thy Eyes saw my Lump, and in thy Book all Parts of it were written (which in Time were formed) when there was not one of them.

17. How precious therefore are the Thoughts of thee to me, O God! how many is the Sum of them!

18. Should I count them up, they are more than the Sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19. Since thou wilt kill the Wicked, O God; depart from me, you bloody Men:

20. Those who speak of thee heinously, thy Adversaries that utter themselves vainly;

21. Do not I hate them that hate thee, O Lord, and loath such as raise themselves up against thee?

22. I hate them with perfect Hatred, they are to me for Enemies.

23. Search me out, O God, and know my Heart: try me, and know my Thoughts.

24. And see whether I am in a grievous Way; so lead me in the everlasting one.

P S A L M CXL.

FOR the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Deliver me, O Lord, from bad Men, keep me from the very violent Person;

2. Who contrive bad Things with the Heart, come together every Day for Wars.

3. They sharpen their Tongue like a Serpent: the Venom of an Asp is under their Lips. A Pause.

4. Preserve me, O Lord, from the Hands of the Wicked, keep me from the very violent Person; who contrive to thrust away my Feet.

5. The Proud hide a Gin for me, and Cords, spread a Net at the Side of the Road; they set Snares for me. A Pause.

6. I say to the Lord, Thou art my God; give ear, O Lord, to the Voice of my Supplications.

7. O Sovereign Lord, the Strength of my Salvation, thou protectest my Head on the Day for Armour.

8. Do not grant the Desires of the Wicked, O Lord, let not his Heinousness be brought forth, that they may exalt themselves. A Pause.

9. As for the Head of those who surround me, let the Trouble of their own Lips cover them.

10. Let burning Coals be removed upon them: let him cast them into the Fire, into Pits, so that they may not rise up.

Ib. hide] The Sept. tread on, from the Word's other Meaning, as it seems, bruise.

Ib. about me] עָרַבְתִּי being here spell'd with א passed with the Gr. Translators I perceive for עָרַבְתִּי in my Delight, and so it might with us but for the Points.

Ver. 13. possess] Bp. Hare, create: for if you alter kaniṭha into kannoṭha in a Conjug. which that Verb has not, it will signify make a nest. Ten thousand such new Criticisms might be made in the Bib.

Ib. didst cover me in] Sept. receivedst me from, if the Vulg. Lat. was made right from the Gr. (as made from that it evidently was in this Book) but they might put ἀνταῖα in another Sense, viz. to help; which I am the more inclined to think, as they might deduce that from כָּסַח which Letters the Word has in it, but not any to mean receive.

Ver. 14. I am wonderful] shewing by the exceeding wise Formation a Reverence to the Creator; of which see particularly the great Physician Galen throughout his Treatise De Usu Partium.

Ver. 15. embroïdered] Sept. and my Substance, instead of Stature from עָשָׂה it with a worse Fault of taking א to be and.

Ib. Earth] which his Mother might be termed, to be literal; see Job i. 21.

Ver. 16. Lump] which singly well expresses the single Heb. Word.

Ib. Parts] so in the Ver. before.

Ver. 17. How] Gr. exceedingly, as the Sense of the other, or from חָדָשׁ for חָדָשׁ and the Vulg. Lat. a Stretch further too much.

Ib. Thoughts] In the Margin of the Popish Dewey Bible it is said, "New Translators pervert this Place, translating "[thoughts] for [friends];" when in that Version cogitationis is put for the same Heb. Word, Ver. 2. of our Bib. and so Pagn. and Montan. besides the Protestant Translators have it here; see also Hulse.

Ver. 18. Should] Here is no more Need of adding If than in the Heb.

Ver. 19. Since] Heb. If, including א that follows, as in other Places.

Ver. 20. Adversaries] Sept. Cities, in a very different Sense, and neglecting thy; the Consonants serving for either.

Ver. 8. Do not grant the Desires of the Wicked] whereas the LXX have, Do not deliver (the Heb. being give) me to the Sinner from my Desire; reckoning ו a Prep. and the last א a Pron.

Ib. his Heinousness] rendered by the LXX, they contrived, and pieced out with against me, on the Supposition, that ו stood for א and not overskilled in Grammar.

Ib. be brought forth] The LXX have, do not leave me, by not being aware of this Meaning of the Verb from the Chald. and mistaking the 2d Perf. through the Noun being fem. for the 3d.

Ver. 9. those who surround me] The LXX having it their Compassions, shews they left the Heb. for their own Notion, as I presume they did not read ע for א.

Ver. 10. be removed] So the Heb. but if Mudge may change the Letters ע or מ into א besides the Pointing, as he says, It is probable it should be read, it would become be rained.

Ib. let him] namely the Lord, Ver. 8.

11. Let not the prating Person be established on the Earth : let Harm hunt the violent one, to the driving him about.

12. I know that the Lord will manage the Cause of the Afflicted, the Judgment of the needy ones.

13. Certainly the Righteous will give thanks to thy Name, the Upright will dwell in thy Presence.

P S A L M CXLI.

A PSALM of David.

O Lord, I call upon thee, make haste to me : give ear to my Voice, when I call to thee.

2. My Prayer shall be prepared as Incense before thee, the lifting up of my Hands as the Evening-offering.

3. Set a Watch, O Lord, for my Mouth, keep close the Door of my Lips.

4. Do not let my Heart incline to an evil Thing, to do Deeds in Wickedness, with Men that are Workers of Iniquity ; nor let me eat of their pleasant Things.

5. Let the Righteous beat me in Kindness, and reprove me, let Oil for the Head, not break my Head : for yet even my Prayer is in their Adversities.

6. Their Judges being thrown down at the Sides of the Rock, will hear my Words, for they are pleasant.

7. As with one who cuts, and cleaves

Ib. Pitt] for the Proof of this, as it is a solitary Word in the Heb. consult Pagnine's great Lexicon.

Ver. 11. prating Person] Heb. Man of Tongue, as of Violence after, being general.

Ver. 4. to do Deeds in Wickedness] Sept. to make Excuses for Sins ; not by mistaking the Heb. Words, but their Meaning.

Ib. eat of their pleasant Things] Sept. communicate with their chosen ones, as before, but more widely. Barten in Hymn 566,

Nor let me of their Dainties eat,
That swallow Sin as Men do Meat.

Ver. 5. beat] in Crit. Notes teach, by D'N for D'N which our Unbelievers may believe.

Ib. in Kindness] not be severe like the Wicked. As the following not requires let with it by the Heb. so that Sense seems to require this to agree with it, as likewise for that comes after. Thus also the Tig. Verf. and ours in the Com. Pray. friendly.

Ib. let Oil] Mudge in his Notes after the LXX has, let not the Unguent of the Wicked perfume my Head, which he says would carry an easy Sense. But is that sufficient to make the Scripture so, when it is not ? And how is it to be done ! By turning שָׁמֵן into שֶׁמֶן and יָיִן into יַיִן which is changing, transposing, and adding even the Letters : as if by the former one should make fall to be fail, Isa. xl. 30. 2 Pet. i. 10. slayed slayed, 2 Chron. xxxv. 11. set set, 2 King xi. 4. hand land, Mic. v. 12. found found, Hos. xiv. 8. seller seller, Isa. xiv. 8. fight fight, Heb. x. 32. and on the contrary found found, Tit. i. 13. & ii. 2. sa-vour favour, 2 Cor. ii. 15, 16. with light fight, Prov. xv. 30. bands bands, Psa. ii. 3. Act. xvi. 26. bear bear, Job. xvi. 12. and contrarily bear bear, Ch. vi. 60. skirt shirt, Deut. xxvii. 20, bunt hurt, Ezek. xiii. 18, 20. branches, breeches, Judg. v. 17. both deth, 2 Cor. ix. 10. lives river, Ezek. xxi. 21. fine find, Job. xxviii. 1, season, reason, 1 Pet. i. 6. naughtiness haughtiness, 1 Sam. xvii. 28. corner cornet, Zech. x. 4. require requite, 2 Chron. xxiv. 22. Psa. x. 13. pretending only that a Letter was altered a little, as it would then make some Sense : so by other small Variation band head, Zeph. ii. 15. set sent, Zech. viii. 10. sent set, 1 Pet. ii. 14. bought brought, 2 Pet. ii. 1. straits stairs, Lam. i. 3. led beld, Jer. ii. 17. de-voured : coals to be devouring coals, Psa. xviii. 8. and Mystery Mistress, Rev. xvii. 2. it shall be take, be taken away, Lev. iii. 15. death dearth, 2 King. ii. 21. not fear what man can, Psa. cxviii. 6. taught tare, Judg. xvi. 8. palaces places, Ezek. xix. 7. spirit of falsehood, Mic. ii. 11. Now our New Translator coming off with no better Success, notwithstanding his Diligence in mustering up those few Places (tho' ready done for him by Bythner and Hare) to shew that the Seventy had the Scripture in Heb. different from us (for how else could they read it so, as he says ?) What is to be candidly thought of it upon the Whole, as there are numerous more Places wherein the Version of the Seventy is so wide from the Heb. that it is not, indeed cannot, be owing to the Variation of similar or single Letters ? Did the Seventy always translate literally and exactly ? How can it be with so many Additions, &c ? If they differed much in some Places from the Heb. why might they not a little in others, without imagining the Original was changed in the latter ? And this is the Point to be insisted on ; answer it, him that can. Why all such Pains and Pother about Letters and Points, to make Pretence that the Heb. is altered, when there are so many Words and Expressions, wherein the old Translators vary from it, and from one another ? And how, but by their wide translating ? So that the Original, notwithstanding any Thing in those Versions, might be the same then as now ; and is much safer to be depended upon, as an Original should. Nay I have here pretty largely shewn, in various Instances, sufficient to judge of the rest, how the LXX made their Mistakes from the present Reading ; as was most suitable for this Book, where they are followed by the Vulg. &c. which was done by considering and searching the Heb. without Bythner, yet compared with him since, and some added. But I found it otherwise with the Targum, where the Variations from the Heb. are generally mere Paraphrase or Additions, not Grammatical Faults ; and therefore lay out of my Way, as not belonging to close Translation. The farther Service of these Lucubrations will appear by the 24th Critical Canon in Wetsten's New Test. which has, Cognita origine variantis Lætionis, perit plerumque varians Lætio: the Rise of a various Reading being known, it mostly becomes none.

Ib. the Head] the same Noun that follows with my.

Ib. Adversities] With the LXX pleasant Things : it appears they stumbled at the Letter y which they took as y tho' to Byth. otherwise, from the Matter.

Ver. 6. Their Judges] The LXX here in a glossing Humour have, Their strong ones are devoured close by the Rocks, inferior to the Original.

Ver. 7. cuts, and cleaves] which L. de Dieu says the Chald. and Syr. understand better of ploughing, than cleaving Wood, and on might as well be rendered in ; yet on Consideration that the scattering of Bones rather resembles the Pieces of Wood, I prefer the latter Meaning, but would not add it to the Text : the com. Met. has both,

As he that heweth wood, or he that diggeth up the ground.

The LXX have, As the Thickness of the Ground is brake asunder ; by which it is clear, tho' I suppose unnoticed before, that and passed with them for in the fut. Tense, as poleub the Participle did for the Noun signifying a Piece, whence they strained Thickness or Crust.

asunder on the Ground, our Bones are scattered at the Grave's Mouth.

8. For my Eyes are to thee, O Sovereign Lord: I trust in thee; do not let my Soul be made bare.

9. Preserve me from the Power of the Gin which they have laid for me, and the Snares of the Workers of Iniquity.

10. Let the Wicked fall each into his own Nets, whilst I withal pass over.

P S A L M CXLII.

AN instructing Poem of David, being a Prayer when he was in the Cave.

I cry to the Lord with my Voice, make supplication with my Voice to the Lord.

2. I pour out my Meditation before him, declare before him my Distress.

3. When my Spirit is overwhelmed in me, thou knowest my Path: they hiding a Gin for me, in that Way which I walk.

4. To look at the right Hand, and see, there is even none acknowledges me, Refuge is perished from me: none enquires for my Soul.

5. I cry to thee, O Lord: I say, Thou art my Shelter, my Portion in the Country of the Living.

6. Harken to my Cry, for I am impoverished exceedingly: deliver me from my Persecutors, for they are too strong for me.

7. Bring my Soul out of Prison, to give thanks to thy Name: let the Righteous compass me, because thou art bountiful to me.

P S A L M CXLIII.

A Psalm of David.

O Lord, hear my Prayer, give ear to my Supplications: in thy Faithfulness answer me, in thy Righteousness.

2. And do not enter into Judgment with thy Servant; since no one living will be justified before thee.

3. For the Enemy persecutes my Soul, bruises my Life to the Earth, causes me to dwell in dark Places, like those that have been dead long ago.

4. And my Spirit is overwhelmed in me, my Heart is within me desolate.

5. I remember the Days of old Time, meditate on all thy Work, muse on the Doing of thy Hands.

6. I spread forth my Hands to thee: my Soul is to thee as a faint Country. A Pause.

7. Answer me speedily, O Lord; my Spirit fails: hide not thy Face from me, lest I should become like those who go down to the Pit.

8. Cause me to hear thy Kindness in the Morning, for I trust in thee: let me know that Way which I should go, for to thee I lift up my Soul.

9. Deliver me from my Enemies, O Lord: I hide with thee.

10. Teach me to do thy Will, for thou art my God, whose Spirit is good: lead me into a Country of Uprightness.

11. For thy Name's sake, O Lord, keep me alive: in thy Righteousness bring my Soul out of Distress.

12. In thy Kindness too cut off my Enemies, and make all the Adversaries of my Soul perish: for I am thy Servant.

Ver. 10. his own Nets] Which Beza in Paraph. the Pronoun being sing. calls the Nets of God, as if because he had ordained them.

Ver. 1. Cave] of Adullam, 1 Sam. xxii. 1. as seems most suitable, and to distinguish the Place, Time, and Occasion of this Psalms, from those of the 57th. Wither has a notable Prayer on it, applied to Jesus.

Ib. cry] This and the following Verbs are of the future Tense in the Heb. and by Jun. and Trem. with Castal. rendered in the present, as that Heb. Tense denotes for Want of the present; besides that it appears David was praying now, not telling he had prayed.

Ver. 5. Shelter] Shrunk to hope in the Psalter.

Ver. 7. compass] Sept. will wait for, from the Chald.

Ib. because] How unsuitable for thou shalt! And how loosely is this Particle turned by which thing if in the Psal.

Ver. 1. The Matter of this Psalms shews it was composed before David's Deliverance out of his Troubles: the Gr. says when Absalom pursued him; but as that is of no Authority, the last Verse also seems inconsistent with David's Care and Concern for that rebellious Son, 2 Sam. xviii. 5, 33.

Ib. A Psalm of David] which Mudge puts as throughout, A Psalm; One of David: less oddly, if it be considered that a Part is to accord with the Whole.

Ver. 6. a faint Country] So the great Linguist, as well as Historian, Livy writes, Lib. xl. 35. Otiōsam Provinciam Cōf. habuerunt, the Consuls had an idle Province, where they had Little or Nothing to do. Payne instead of mending (which he had made his Business) follows a corrupt Copy of the old Metre with, as doth the thirsty lands.

The LXX give it an ingenious Turn, but such are to have no Place in the Sacred Text, as Earth (so those of Doway, &c. render, tho' better, Land or Ground) without Water.

Ver. 9. I hide] the Heb. Verb being of the 1st Person, as in Buxt. Conc. and not the infin. Mood and a Prepos. besides which there is Nothing in the Original for I flee.

Ver. 10. good] where the Heb. grand Partition of the Verse is.

Ib. a Country of Uprightness] Where the People loved Honesty and Justice, and he might live at Peace from his Enemies, Patr. and Auth. of Holy David clear'd.

Ver. 11. in] not for—fake as before.

P S A L M CXLIV.

BY David.

Blessed is the Lord my Rock, who teaches my Hands Battle, my Fingers War;

2. Being my Kindness, and Fortification, my high Place, and a Deliverer to me, my Shield, in whom I trust: he makes my People subject under me.

3. O Lord, what is Man that thou acknowledgest him; the Son of Man, that thou thinkest of him?

4. Man is as it were Vanity, his Days are like a Shadow which passes away.

5. O Lord, bend thy Heaven, and come down: touch the Mountains, so that they may smok.

6. Lighten with Lightning, and scatter them: send thy Arrows, and rout them.

7. Stretch forth thy Hand from on high, deliver me, and rescue me from much Water, from the Power of strange People;

8. Whose Mouth speaks Vanity, and their right Hand is a false one.

9. O God, I will sing a new Song to thee: with the Lute, the ten stringed Instrument, will I sing to thee melodiously:

10. Who gives Salvation to Kings, delivers his Servant David from the bad Sword.

11. Deliver me, and rescue me from the Power of strange People; whose Mouth speaks Vanity, and their right Hand is a false one:

12. That our Sons may be as Plants grown up in their Youth, our Daughters as the carved Corners of the Building of a Palace;

13. Our Store-houses full producing of each Kind, our Sheep becoming Thousands, ten Thousands in our Grounds;

14. Our Oxen bearing the Yoke, with no Breach, no going forth, nor yet crying out in our Streets.

15. The People are blessed to, whom it is thus; the People being blessed whose God is the Lord.

P S A L M CXLV.

PRAISE of David.

A * I will extol thee, my God O King, and bless thy Name for ever and evermore.

2. ♫ I will bless thee every Day, and praise thy Name for ever and evermore.

3. ♪ The Lord is great, and highly to be praised; nay there is no searching out of his Greatness.

4. ♩ One Generation praises thy Works to another, and declares thy powerful Things.

5. ♪ I discourse of the glorious Honour of thy Majesty, and thy wonderful Matters.

6. ♩ As some speak of the Strength of thy terrible Things, I also tell of thy Greatness it self.

7. ♪ They utter forth the Remembrance of thy large Goodness, and sing of thy Righteousness.

8. ♪ The Lord is gracious and merciful, forbearing of Anger, and of great Kindness.

Ver. 1. It is supposed this was made a little after David came to the Crown; and probably before Psa. xviii. in which two there is a Resemblance: the Gr. indeed adds πρὸς τὸν γολιάθ, against Goliath; but the Plurals, Ver. 7, 11. and my People, Ver. 2. indicate otherwise.

Ver. 2. Kindness] Litur. hope, as it was thought I suppose the other was improper: but the Penman of H. Dav. clear'd would make it up by saying, Hope signifies the thing hoped for; while the Heb. Word means no more of hoped than hope, nor does it signify his covenanted Mercy that I know of.

Ib. my People] who otherwise might be disaffected and rebellious. By adding ♫ my would be taken away, which Mudge supposes rather to be right; if we are disposed to new make the Scripture.

Ver. 8. right Hand] given in Treaty, which it seems they broke.

Ver. 12. That our Sons] Sept. Whose Sons, and so their Daughters, with the rest throughout the 2 next Verses; the Variation besides the Points is ♫ and ♫ however the last Verse spoils it all, so that there is added in the Vulg. they have said.

Ib. Building] Much more consonant to the Root, that signifies to build, than similitude; the latter also requiring ♫ according to.

Ver. 13. Store-houses] Sax. borderna.

Ib. of each Kind] Sept. out of this into that, supposing it for it

Ver. 14. bearing] as the Heb. is; the Gr. thick, and others also widely, at Patr. expounds it Cows great with young.

Ib. going forth] Pfalt. leading into captivity, which may be the Meaning of it.

Ver. 1. The Verses of this Psalms, made I suppose in David's Prosperity, are Alphabetical, only the 14th Heb. Letter z is omitted; for which is added in the Greek, The Lord is faithful in his Words, and holy in all his Works, which in Heb. might begin on that Letter: whereon Grotius seems to triumph, as if this was lost there, saying, How will they answer to this, who bid us stand in all Things by the Decrees of the Masorites? But could this learned Man be ignorant, that there is such Defect too in other Places, and not supplied in the Gr. as in Psa. xxv. and xxxiv, and xxxvii for which see my Notes; and what Answer would he have made to those? He might have said God's Spirit is not confined to Man's Alphabet; as the Stars do not stand in Ranks, nor in the Shape of our Constellations, &c. which Answer would serve for this; nay is it not manifest, that this is added with a little Alteration from the 17th Verse? See likewise Buxtorf's Answer to Capellus, Vindic. p. 437, 438.

Ib. for ever and evermore] aptly and exactly to the Heb. but the Dew. Vers. has here, with Ver. next and last, for ever, and for ever and ever.

Ver. 6. ♪] Sept. they, which the Heb. does not countenance at all.

Ver. 8. forbearing] by Witber, How prone to pity, and to Wrath how slow; who has subjoined to this Psalms a zealous Prayer against decreed Reprobation.

9. ^o The Lord is good to all, and his Mercies are upon all his Works.

10. ^o All thy Works give thanks to thee, O Lord; and thy pious ones bless thee.

11. ^o They speak of the Glory of thy Kingdom and talk of thy Power:

12. ^b To make known his powerful Things to Mankind, and the honourable Glory of his Kingdom.

13. ^o Thine is a Kingdom of all Ages, and thy Dominion is in every particular Generation.

14. ^o The Lord upholds all who are falling, and raises up all who are bowed down.

15. ^v The Eyes of all wait for thee, and thou givest them their Food in its Season.

16. ^o Thou openest thy Hand, and satisfiest the Will of every living one.

17. ^v The Lord is righteous in all his Ways, and kind in all his Works.

18. ^p The Lord is near to all that call upon him, to all who do it truly.

19. ^v He accomplishes the Will of such as fear him; both hears their Cry, and saves them.

20. ^o The Lord preserves all who love him; but will destroy all the Wicked.

21. ^o My Mouth shall talk of the Lord's Praise; and all Flesh will bless his holy Name for ever and evermore.

P S A L M CXLVI.

PRAISE the Lord, praise him, O my Soul.

2. I will praise the Lord while I live, will sing melodiously to my God as long as I have a Being.

3. Do not trust in Princes, in the Son of Man of whom there is no Safety.

4. His Breath goes forth, he returns to his Ground, on which Day his Thoughts perish.

5. He is blessed that has the God of Jacob for his Help, whose Expectation is upon the Lord his God;

6. Who made the Heaven and the Earth, the Sea and all that is in them: who keeps Truth for ever;

7. Who executes Judgment for the Oppressed, gives Food to the Hungry: the Lord lets loose the Prisoners.

8. The Lord opens the Blind, the Lord raises up such as are bowed down, the Lord loves the Righteous.

9. The Lord preserves the Strangers, supports the Fatherless and Widow; but overthrows the Way of the Wicked.

10. The Lord will reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, to all Ages. Praise the Lord.

P S A L M CXLVII.

PRAISE the Lord; for it is good to sing melodiously to our God; nay pleasant, Praise being comely.

2. The Lord builds up Jerusalem, gathers together those who are driven away of Israel.

3. He heals such as are of a broken Heart, and binds up their Sores.

4. He reckons up the Number of the Stars, calling them all by Names.

5. Our Lord is great, and of much Might: his Understanding is infinite.

6. The Lord supports the Meek, humbles the Wicked to the Earth.

7. Sing to the Lord with Thanksgiving, sing melodiously to our God with the Harp:

8. Who covers the Heaven with thick Clouds, prepares Rain for the Earth, makes the Grass sprout forth on the Mountains.

Ver. 9. upon] as more proper than over.

Ver. 12. honourable] not a contemptible, vain, or false Glory: by Transposition of the two Words, Ver. 5. being there the Honour of Glory, here the Glory of Honour; but the latter of two Substantives in Heb. often answers to an Adjective of ours.

Ver. 13. Dominion] Sax. blasfardscipe for Lordship.

Ver. 14. upholds] so that they do not fall: for if they fall, how does he uphold them?

Ver. 17. is] K. James,

*The Lord, in every Way of his,
he righteous doth remain;*

where he is redundant, and not allowable even in Poetry, but such Instances are too frequent to mention in him and others, as here also Ver. 3, 14.

Ver. 1. All these Psalms to the End of the Book, may I suppose be ascribed to David, after he was King over all Israel; notwithstanding the com. Gr. and Lat. ascribe this to Haggai and Zechariah.

Ver. 8. loves] Psal. carere for, with too much Liberty.

Ver. 1. comely] This the LXX Translators skip over, or more favourably mistook it for the Verb-substantive נחם in Niph. as there is to נחם with נח for its Kindred-letter נ they rendering, Praise is sweet to our God.

Ver. 2. Of this Grotius says, It suits best to the Times of Nehemiah: but with due Deference to the Opinion of so great a Man and his Followers, this building up of Jerusalem might have been in the Time of David, as it seems by 2 Sam. v. 9. and likewise the gathering together, &c. from 1 Sam. xxxi. 7. whereas the other was of Judah as a Nation, and not Israel; and as the Nation is called by this Name again, with Jacob, Ver. 19. and that signified to be one Nation, Ver. 20. I must remain in the same Mind as at the Entrance of the foregoing Psalm.

Ver. 8. makes the Grass, &c.] by Sandys, that fine Decipherer of Nature,

*With Grass he cloaths the pregnant Hills,
And hungry Beasts with Herbage fills.
He feeds the Ravens croaking Brood, (Left by the Old) that cry for Food:*

and by Janst.

Gramine qui montes operit; pecorique ministrat Pabula, quasitas et tibi; corvus! dapes;

which in the Prof. Disc. is remarked to be worthy of great Attention, for the fine Mixture of Singulars and Plurals;

9. He gives to the Beast its Food, to the young Ravens that call.

10. He takes no Pleasure in the Power of a Horse, does not delight in the Legs of a Man.

11. The Lord delights in those who fear him, in those who wait for his Kindness.

12. Give thanks to the Lord, O Jerusalem: praise thy God, O Zion.

13. For he strengthens the Bars of thy Gates, blesses thy Children within thee,

